Hatch Bill Language Labeled 'Vague' By FDR

President To Study Law On Fishing Trip

Favors Its Objectives But Uncertain On Interpretation

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared himself today to be absolutely in favor of the objectives of the Hatch bill to prohibit "pernicious" political activities, and then added at a press conference, however, that there was a real problem involved in the measure, which is at the White House awaiting presidential action. That problem, the President said, is: What can people legitimately do under very, very broad language?

He said that for instance, it might be interpreted to forbid a person to attend a political rally or voluntarily contribute to the campaign expenses of a friend.

Leaves On Fishing Trip. Mr. Roosevelt said he would take with him on a week-end fishing cruise a lot of documentary evidence on the bill.

Asked what phases of the legislation he had talked over yesterday with Senator Hatch, democrat, R. M., author of the bill, the President

No Let-Up Seen In Record Heat

SEATTLE, July 28 (AP)—There was no prospect of an immediate let-up in the record-breaking heat wave that has swept the Pacific northwest in the past week. The United States weather bureau here forecast continued warm weather.

At least two deaths have been attributed to the hot spell. Ishan N. Smith, Yakima, Wash., attorney, died of a heat attack, believed brought on by the heat. Vere Harvey, prominent Walla Walla county, Wash., farmer, died of burns suffered fighting a grain fire on his property.

The heat wave added to the fire hazard. More than 4,000 acres of wheat have been destroyed in Walla Walla and Columbia counties, Wash., by fires in the past two days.

Scattered forest fires were reported in Oregon.

Hottest spot in the Pacific northwest yesterday was Lewiston, Idaho, which reported an official reading of 117 degrees, hottest day there in weather bureau history.

Lewis Attack On Garner Condemned By Gov. Chandler

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28 (AP)—Gov. A. B. Chandler today condemned John L. Lewis' denunciation of Vice President Garner as "unwarranted, uncalled for and unjust."

Chandler sent the following telegram to the vice president.

"I want to join the host of citizens all over America who are expressing their confidence in you and their appreciation for your many years of valuable service to the people of this country. I consider you one of the great Americans of all time."

Lewis, C. I. O. chief, has criticized Chandler for sending troops into Harlan county, Ky., coal fields.

New Trial Denied Burgunder, Slayer Of Car Salesman

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 28 (AP)—Robert Burgunder, 22-year-old college sophomore, was sentenced today to die October 6 for the murder of Jack Peterson, Phoenix automobile salesman, on the desert near here April 29.

Before passing sentence, Superior Judge Arthur T. La Prade denied a motion for a new trial.

Burgunder, convicted July 18, will be delivered to the death house at the state prison in Florence, Ariz., immediately.

I Heard---

Fire Chief Ben White telling some of the "boys" that they were losing one of their members. It later developed that it was his 16-month-old grandson who is moving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton White, to Amarillo. The little tot is the department mascot.

END OF 'FLING' FOR VELMA

With prison tin cup as mirror, Velma West, notorious hammer-murderess of husband, unconcernedly 'makes up' in jail at Dallas, Texas. Mrs. West's 'one last fling' ended with capture as she entered Dallas morning house. She escaped June 19 from Ohio reformatory for women at Marysville, where she was serving life sentence.

Velma Pens Farewell Notes To Boy Friends

DALLAS, July 28 (AP)—Thin, nervous Velma West and her buxom friend Mary Ellen Richards, having bid a wordy farewell to the boys they left behind, were resigned today to going back to the Marysville, O., women's reformatory from which they escaped last month.

Ohio penitentiary agents arriving today were equipped with papers allowing them to get their prisoners quickly out of Texas and back in Ohio, possibly on the theory the 32-year-old hammer-murderess, Velma West, and her friend might change their minds about extradition.

While languishing in the Dallas county jail, the girls disclosed the charges for romance which fell their way on the way to Texas.

To prove it Velma and Mary Ellen displayed sheaves of love letters. Two men, one here and one in a small Texas town, proposed to Mrs. West, she said. Mary Ellen revealed she was just about to wed a Grand Saline, Tex., boy when the law intervened.

Packed and ready to go "home" the women said they wrote letters to the three marriage-proposers and bid them goodbye.

They were certain of one thing, since they found Texas to their liking; if they ever escape again, they said, they're heading right back to Dallas.

19 Persons Hurt In Train Wreck

WILLIAMS, Ariz., July 28 (AP)—The number injured when a Santa Fe special train carrying 190 passengers left the tracks six miles south of the Grand Canyon last night may run as high as 19, a railway telegraph said here today.

Physicians at Grand Canyon, where most of the injured were taken, had been too busy treating to give out names of their patients.

First reports of the accident said only nine were hurt, seven passengers and two trainmen, none seriously.

Among the injured were B. H. Sparks, an engineer, and N. E. Parks, conductor. A combination of baggage and chair car behind the locomotive, occupied by 30 passengers, turned over. It was from this car that most of the injured were removed.

O'Daniel Offers $500 For Child Assaults

AUSTIN, July 28 (AP)—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel today offered a $500 reward for the arrest and conviction or information leading to detection and capture of the persons or persons who attempted to rape two children, ages 6 and 8, on July 21 at Landa Park, New Braunfels.

Peace officers throughout Central Texas have been searching for the offenders since the crime became known.

McWright is now at Mack and Paul's Barber Shop. Air conditioned.

Garner Attack May Aid Wage Hour Revision

Angered Friends Of Texan Rally To His Support

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—John L. Lewis' denunciation of Vice President Garner stirred up such a congressional tempest today some legislators said it had improved chances for revision of the wage-hour law at this session.

Lewis was demanding that Congress make no change in the law when he told the House labor committee yesterday the 70-year-old vice president is a "labor-baiting, poker-playing, whiskey-drinking, evil old man."

Ignoring the CIO leader's opposition to any wage-hour alterations—a stand in which the AFL joined—the labor committee agreed after a tempestuous closed meeting to try to bring so-called "non-

Betty Says Now That She's Going To Seek Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28 (AP)—The marriage of Betty Grable and Jackie "The Kid" Coogan, marked by two separations and a dramatic reconciliation, headed for the divorce courts today.

The shapely blond actress revealed here last night she would sue for divorce on mental cruelty grounds for or early next week in Los Angeles.

She completed a personal appearance engagement at the Golden Gate Exposition last night and was Hollywood bound today to consult her attorney.

Coogan admitted early this week in Hollywood that the pair had separated for the second time this year, but Betty said it wasn't so and denied divorce plans.

Last night she declared the "confusion" of being here and having her lawyer in Southern California led her to deny the earlier report, and expressed unhappiness over the contemplated divorce.

Louisiana Jurors Resume Inquiry

BATON ROUGE, La., July 28 (AP)—Two grand juries were called back to work today as a horde of federal and state agents investigated affairs of Louisiana's government.

New indictments were anticipated from the East Baton Rouge Parish grand jury which has already brought charges against some top state political figures in connection with the L. S. U. financial scandal.

What the federal jury in New Orleans would be problematical, Richard W. Leche, governor until he resigned when the present scandal broke, was called before it yesterday for five minutes.

The state conservation department, target of widespread criticism in recent weeks, issued its August order setting oil production for each well in the state. The 24,602 barrels daily allowable was 22,363 barrels under the July provision.

Beer Denied, Drunk Phones To Bert Ford

AUSTIN, July 28 (AP)—State Liquor Administrator Bert Ford had a long distance call from Cameron late last night.

"A thick voice informed Ford a tavern operator had refused to sell me beer because I'm drunk."

"Well, you are drunk, aren't you?" Ford asked.

"Yes, I guess I am, but he won't sell me any beer. What should I do about it?"

"Why don't you go home?" Ford suggested.

The caller was silent a moment. Then he said "all right, I think I will," and hung up.

The man paled for the call.

Dr. W. J. Mayo, 78, Last Of Famous Mayo Trio, Dies

ROCHESTER, Minn., July 28 (AP)—White-haired Dr. William J. Mayo, son of a country doctor who trained him to become one of medical history's greatest surgeons, died at 4 a. m. today from an ailment upon the treatment of which he gained much of his fame.

"Dr. Will" underwent an operation for a serious stomach condition last May 22 at famed Mayo Clinic here, founded by his father, his late brother, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, and himself more than half a century ago.

He rallied, even resuming his visits to his office and went on short automobile trips but by July he had begun to "decline" in the words of attending physicians.

His death removed within a short space of a few months the last of as famous a trio as the medical world has known. Last March 31, Sister Mary Joseph, who stood across an operating table from "Dr. Will" for a quarter of a century and was called by him "easily the first" of all his "splendid assistants," died here.

May 27 "Dr. Charlie" died in Chicago from pneumonia even while "Dr. Will" apparently was recuperating from his operation.

Hello, Mars! Are You There? Radio Signal Fails To Penetrate

NEW YORK, July 28 (AP)—Mars turned a cold shoulder to earth's swing music last night and just as frigidly ignored a radio message that sped out into space at a 186,000-mile-a-second clip in an effort to bridge a little matter of 36,000,000 miles.

Engineers and scientists tried the code message to Mars first—a Morse signal, dash, dot, dash, d.t. dash, dot—meaning NNN— and which no "answer" came, they tried to warm things up with a broadcast to the big, red planet of American swing. That didn't penetrate, either.

So the engineers turned off their 100,000 watt beam shooting from the plant of Press Wireless, Inc., at Baldwin, N. Y., and

London Police Begin Roundup Of Terrorists

LONDON, July 28 (AP)—Sixteen thousand police were mobilized today for a swift, country-wide roundup of suspected Irish republican army terrorists.

Those arrested were to be deported under Britain's new anti-aliens act or questioned in connection with recent bombings.

Twenty-one persons were wounded and one died as the result of two bomb explosions in London Wednesday. There were three blasts the same day in Liverpool.

Special powers for expulsion of suspected terrorists were voted Home Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare Wednesday and royal assent to the emergency bill was expected this afternoon.

Admits Killing of School Girl

Thomas Boyce, above, 26-year-old father of three children, confessed killing 11-year-old Elizabeth De Bruicker, whose body was found buried near Harrison Hills Country Club, Dallas, Ind., where Boyce is employed as golf course worker.

Agency bill was expected this afternoon.

Authorities indicated King George's assent would put into action a relentless campaign against I. P. A. members and sympathizers whose hope it is to "drive England out of Ireland"—that is, bring about union between the 26 southern counties which form independent Ireland and the six northern counties forming Ulster, part of the United Kingdom.

A preliminary list of more than 40 men and women who may be expelled from the country at once was studied by officials. Government sources said about 5,000 suspects have been under surveillance pending completion of the I. R. A. act.

Texans In Congress Shy At Coming Out Publicity For Garner

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Most of the 28 Texans in Congress are a bit on the shy side in publicly expressing their Garner-for-President sentiments but four representatives and two senators are on record as staunchly backing the bushy-browed vice president.

This came to light yesterday in a summary of responses to blunt inquiries from Texas newspapers on whether the delegation would back Garner for President if he enters the 1940 race.

The 28 members of Congress received personal telegrams from the editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, reminding them a nationally-known columnist had expressed doubt a majority of the Texans would support the vice president. The wire asked their views.

Other Texas newspapers indirectly had put that question to them.

Rep. Mansfield replied: "I am for John Nance Garner for president of the United States. I believe no other citizen of the United States is better qualified for that position."

Rep. Milton West said: "I am unreservedly for Vice President Garner for President, not only because he is a Texan, but for the reason he is the outstanding great American not only of today but of all times."

Senators Morris Sheppard and Tom Connally and Reps. Kilday and Patton previously made known their hopes Garner would move into the White House.

Privately but no publicly most of the other members of the delegation have expressed loyalty to the vice president.

Londoner Predicts Collapse Of Totalitarian Governments

ATLANTA, July 28 (AP)—The Rev. M. E. Aubrey of London told the Baptist World Alliance today "totalitarianism is delivering the goods" but he predicted the collapse of the system: "The simple fact of history is that tyrannies do not last."

Democracy must prove ability to solve its problems in order to triumph in a clash with ideas with totalitarianism," he asserted. "We must make democracy worth saving."

Amplifying his forecast of defeat for "authoritarianism," the British minister declared: "In spite of the terrible efficiency of modern systems which trample on liberty, we have no doubt that the inalienable right of the human soul will sooner or later assert itself and man's will to be free must win."

The "Christian reply to totalitarianism," he held, was for the church to "teach democracy how to achieve the freedom and fellowship for which the hearts of men are crying out—we must set our faces against isolation among Christians, among churches, among nations."

Aubrey, former moderator of the Federal Council of Free Church of England, addressed messengers from 60 nations at a session of the closing day of the general Congress of the Baptist World Alliance.

An "answer for Christianity to Communism" was presented by Dr. L. L. Gwaltney of Birmingham, Ala. "First, we would say to him (the Communist) that his doctrine of political Communism finds no basis in the New Testament scriptures," he observed.

The Rev. Paul Schmidt of Berlin, secretary of the German Baptist Union and former member of the Reichstag, said Baptist churches "will participate in the life of their nation, no matter whether this life is determined by liberal or collective tendencies, and declare and bear the gospel."

Unless the church kept in mind the "extraordinary position" it held, he contended, it "will wear out, it will become a party, and then necessarily share the destiny of everything earthly."

Messengers were told by the Rev. L. S. Scobey that Baptists in Rumania "face a brilliant future."

Principal of Baptist Seminary in Bucharest, he added that "in spite of all kinds of struggles, difficulties and hardships, the Baptists of Rumania feel very much alive today."

LOS ANGELES, July 28 (AP)—The burglar alarm rang. Two detectives stalked into the darkened drug store, their guns drawn. A quivering spot of white, a bunny, used to develop serums, had tripped the alarm.

WPA Cuts Left Up To Administrators

SAN ANTONIO, July 28 (AP)—Details of personnel reductions that must be effected to comply with the 30 per cent slash in Works Progress Administration funds will be left in the hands of the various district administrators, it was announced here today by H. P. Drought, state administrator.

Drought had announced that 170 administrative officials would have to be cut from the rolls to keep within the reduced appropriations. Project control will be maintained at the same level, Drought said, as area engineers will continue to supervise operations in approximately the same territories.

Notice of the amounts they must cut from their administrative pay-rolls were being sent today to district officials at Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, Austin, Waco, Marshall, Laredo, Amarillo, Lubbock, San Angelo and El Paso. Administrators in these cities will determine the individuals who will be let out.

The plan calls for the consolidation of administrative offices. Drought said, and will result in a savings of $24,000 a month.

Ten Years Of The Higher Hypocrisy

It is just 10 years ago that President Hoover proclaimed effective the Kellogg Pact, designed to outlaw forever war as an instrument of national policy among the 59 nations which signed it.

With Aristide Briand, France's great postwar peacemaker, Kellogg hoped and believed that he had helped put the nations of the world on a new track toward peace and amity.

The world hoped so, too, weary with postwar wrangling and the failure to make good on the war promises that means would be taken to make it the last war.

But what was ushered in with the Kellogg-Briand pact was not the higher statesmanship, but the higher hypocrisy. What was outlawed was not war itself, but the word war.

In 1931 when Japan seized Manchuria and turned it into Manchukuo, the United States, Britain, China, and other powers called Japan's attention to the fact that they had all signed the Kellogg-Briand pact. Japan returned a diplomatic shrug and grinned that this was not war; this was merely the suppression of unreasonable opposition to Japanese influence in Manchuria.

When Italy invaded Ethiopia in 1935, the attention of Rome was called to the fact that both nations had signed the Kellogg-Briand treaty. But this wasn't war, the Italians insisted. This was a mere colonial expedition aimed at pacifying Ethiopian tribesmen who could not understand the benefits of Italian influence in their country.

By the time Germany and Italy were sending their troops to Spain, and China and Japan became locked in a three-year death struggle everybody was too tired to call attention to the fact that they had all formally renounced war as an instrument of national policy. The million dead in Spain, and millions dead in China had died in something, but not in a war.

Thus the high spot of all time in international hypocrisy has been quickly and neatly achieved. The 59 nations solemnly agreed not to wage war, and not one of them has dared to denounce the pact or withdraw its signature. They just go on waging war, and calling it something else. It is the higher hypocrisy in action.

Yet there is something significant in the fact that none of these warring powers has formally denounced its signature or formally withdrawn from its agreements. It is because they all know that deep in the hearts of their people lies the wish for peace. And while they do not give the peoples peace, they dare not formally and officially say that they care nothing for this desire.

The Nation's Press

THE SPENDING PROGRAM (New York Times)

The Administration's newest lending-spending program is now before Congress in the form of a bill calling for credits of $2,660,000,000 for various kinds of public works. Only one major change has been made in the plan since it was first advanced by the President. The proposal for an extension of $500,000,000 in foreign credits has been dropped like a hot cake. It has been dropped because opposition in Congress to foreign loans has no votes.

As it stands, the plan calls for loans to be made by various credit agencies of the Government for waterworks, sewage-disposal plants, bridges, hospitals, toll roads, railway equipment, rural electrification and farm-tenant programs—all of which are lightly lumped together by the President as "self-liquidating projects" which will add nothing to the national debt. But if these projects are actually self-liquidating, if there is every reasonable prospect that they can pay their way commercially, there is no shortage of idle private capital ready to go into them, and if they are not self-liquidating in this sense they are bound to add to the Government's "contingent debt," which is just as real a debt from the taxpayer's point of view as the formal "public debt" which the Treasury carries on its books.

Despite the temptation to spend more money in an election year, the plan ought to be voted down in Congress for three solid and convincing reasons: (1) This type of public spending—spending "outside the budget"—is in fact the most dangerous of all kinds of public spending, since it conceals the real extent of the Government deficit by means of a bookkeeping device. (2) Five years of experience with "pump-priming" on a gigantic scale has shown that Government spending cannot by itself achieve a sound and lasting recovery of business. (3) To the extent that Government spending succeeds at all, it succeeds merely in producing a series of minor speculative booms that tend to obscure the necessity of changes in governmental policy.

With the greatest debt in the country's history and a budget completely out of hand, it is time to call a halt on spending and to face the realities of the situation.

FOR MRS. ROOSEVELT'S EAR (New York Herald-Tribune)

In her speech to the American Youth Congress Mrs. Roosevelt found occasion for sarcastic comment on recent editorial argument in opposition to the Federal Theater Project. If correctly quoted in the news reports she said: "We sit in comfortable offices and write editorials in great metropolitan newspapers and say we should not provide relief that tries to provide for people the kind of work that they can do. Suppose they can't do any other kind of work. Must they starve?"

This newspaper was among the many which found fault with a relief policy typified by the Federal Theater Project; so, whether Mrs. Roosevelt had us in mind or not, we feel privileged to protest that she missed the whole point of the controversy. It was our contention, and it was representative of the opposition, that society was under no obligation to provide work-relief of a kind which its beneficiaries fancied for themselves. The distinction, it seems to us, is fundamental.

"GRADUAL COLLECTIVISM"

At the close of a chapter in Walter Lippmann's book, "The Good Society," he very vividly points out the impossibility of having government planning without losing all our liberty. He uses the expression "gradual collectivism." It is as good an expression as I have recently seen. Under the sub-head of "The Theory of Democratic Collectivism," Lippmann has the following to say:

"In countries like Great Britain or the United States there is no manifest disposition to establish a totalitarian order with a regimented population under a militarized autocracy, but for some sixty years these democracies have tended increasingly to seek relief from poverty and disorder by the use of collectivist measures. In fact it may be said that contemporary progressives are gradual collectivists and that they hope by the gradualness of their methods to avoid the violence of dictatorship."

"Those who hold this view are at present the overwhelming majority of public-spirited and well-disposed persons in the democratic countries. They are not fanatics who, in order to achieve a planned society, would be willing to sweep away the guarantees of liberty and the responsibility of the people. Their goal is the public administration of the economy, but they believe that no step must be taken to that goal without popular consent obtained by persuasion in open debate. They hold that in this way the advance into collectivism can be made without class struggle, dictatorship, or the militarization of society."

"For approximately three generations a gradual democratic advance into collectivism has been under way. This movement also has its ideology. But here again, as with the fascists and the communists, the theory is very different from the practice and the results are very different from the promises."

"The theory of gradual collectivism rests upon the assumption that majorities express the will and represent the interests of society, and that they have inherited from the King the prerogatives of his sovereignty. The gradual collectivist believes in the absolutism of the majority, having by a fiction identified the mandates of transient majorities with the enduring and diverse purposes of the members of a community. He thinks it absurd that a few oligarchs in the Kremlin or demagogic dictators in Berlin or Rome should pretend that their personal decisions are the comprehensive purposes of great nations. Yet the gradual collectivist, under the banner of popular sovereignty, believes in the dictatorship of random aggregations of voters. In this theory the individual has no rights as against the majority, for constitutional checks and bills of rights exist only by consent of the majority. Even the right of the majority to rule is at the mercy of any passing majority. For there is nothing in the doctrine of the sovereignty of the majority to preclude the abolition of majority rule by vote of a majority. In fact, it was under the aegis of this doctrine that Napoleon III and Hitler came to power. It is easy to see that the majority can be as tyrannical and as despotic and coercive as any dictator. They invariably start in by taking property, then taking away personal liberty and eventually, as they do in Russia, Germany and Italy taking lives when there is disagreement."

REVIVING JESUS' TEACHINGS

Henry E. Jackson, president of College for Social Engineers, Washington, D. C., in his edition of the Thomas Jefferson Bible makes some very timely statements. He contends that the church sold out to Emperor Constantine. He says, "After Diocletian discovered that the church could not be destroyed, Constantine conceived the clever idea that it could be made useful. It was a masterly stroke of selfish politics. He offered to the church money, respectability and imperial favor. The church accepted the offer and by this bargain sold its soul, forfeited its freedom and became a dishonored captive. From that time to this, with one partial alleviation, its captivity has continued and still remains. It is one of the saddest tragedies of history. For centuries Christianity has worked its way over a Jericho road that was infested with philosophical and theological thieves who seemed bent on filching from it social power and human appeal."

Moral Bankruptcy Makes Its Return Imperative

"However difficult and dangerous it may be to attempt its liberation, it is an enterprise which the world's moral bankruptcy makes imperative. It is conceivably a matter of capital importance that the captive be liberated, because he may have a contribution of constructive value to the science of society, if we could once discover what it is." Thomas Jefferson's Bible attempted to set forth the true teachings of Jesus, without the contamination that has resulted since the church was taken over by Constantine.

Behind The News Of The Day

By BRUCE CATTON

WASHINGTON—In the course of a life time this country can get mad at more people than you can name in a circuit of the clock in spite of the fact that most of them are oceans away from us.

Perhaps it is just as well that so many people don't live on our borders else we would be at war with them most of the time.

Just now we are peevish about the Japanese, Germans and Italians. Always there is a reason, as there is now. In the case of the Germans our ire is up because, among other things, the Germans have been mistreating the Central European peoples. Yet it was only a few years ago that we amended our immigration laws in such a way as to shut out the flow of Southern and Central European people.

The damage claims filed against this country indicate we never did have a very deep-seated love for Italians. Just why probably will go down as one of the mysteries of national prejudice. In the State Department is a publication which lists damage claims we have had to meet because our citizens became enraged at citizens of other nations and blotted them out in a riot or other ultra-legal manner. Damages Inconsistent

If we kill a Mexican or Italian because he is a Mexican or Italian it takes the case into international affairs right away and indemnity is demanded. By some legerdemain we never have quite solved it. Has always been fairly inexpensive to kill Italians, Mexicans or Chinese in this country, while for one of our nationals to be killed in one of those countries is likely to cost big money. During the eighties and on up to the turn of the

RESORTING TO AN OLD EUROPEAN CUSTOM

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

NEA Service Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD, July 28—Short takes: For several days a patient casting executive has been looking at hundreds of babies to select one to play Richard Greene as a child. He finally has signed 14-month-old Sylvia McClure because none of the boy babies had enough dimples.

Some of the major studios are begging the Department of Commerce to establish zones over which traffic would be prohibited. Joy-riding pilots, drone and circling over Movieland, can and often do cost the companies thousands of dollars in spoiled shots and wasted time because the sensitive mikes pick up the motors' noise.

An actor is complaining that came to a standstill the other day—and executives tore their hair and howled curses at the sky—while a new four-motored transport carrying aviation notables and radio broadcasters rumbled over the city for half an hour. Its noise penetrated even the most heavily insulated sound stages.

And on the Goldwyn lot, where a story of the Philippine insurrection is being filmed, the camera panned over a battle scene and then up, past a tree, toward the sky. It would have been an impressive shot except that right at the last, plainly visible over the tropical foliage, a skywriter was tracing an ad for cigarettes.

SO HEDY

Preview audiences in suburban towns where "Lady of the Tropics" has been tried out, have pleaded with Metro not to let Hedy Lamarr die at the fadeout. But the character has sinned, and she has killed a man. Censorship is inexorable in such matters. Hedy will die. But Alice Faye, who's with him all the time, won't look a day older. Nothing's too much trouble for the meticulous movies. Spencer Charters traveled 1,100 miles to and from the "Drums-Along the Mohawk" location just to speak one line. The rest of his scenes will be shot here. ... And for part of a montage shot in "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," Columbia roped off an entire city block, hired 300 ex-century it was not uncommon in the United States for an Italian or two to be lynched or murdered in some similarly disorderly fashion. And the price paid to surviving relatives in Italy ranged around $2,000.

The same rate or less applied to Chinese killed here. Yet if an American happened to be knocked off by an excited Japanese sentry or Chinese bandit the price likely as not would be $15,000 and up. Twenty-eight Chinese were slaughtered in a riot in a Wyoming mining camp in 1885, and damage awards covered only the property loss.

California and the Rocky Mountain west have been the seat of much of this foreign prejudice, contrary to the live-and-let-live tradition of the wide open spaces. During the gold rush days floods of Chinese came into the Pacific Coast country, moved eastward with railroad building and soon were busy in the Colorado, Idaho and Wyoming mines. In no time at all westerners were "agin" Chinese just as a few years earlier they had been "agin" Indians.

At present there is a rather widespread sympathy for Chinese, partly because they are underdogs in the present fighting, and no doubt in part because they are fighting the Japanese. But times once were different. In an early day mining camp in Idaho, where gold was dug and liquor drunk in about equal quantities, a miner came swinging out of a saloon door, six-gun barking. Off to one side his bleary eyes spotted a figure huddled near the wheel of a wagon. He blazed away at it and soon was condemned for killing an Indian. It was to be Idaho's first legal hanging.

His only defense, which he repeated from the hour of the trial until he stood on the gallows, was: "But hell, Sheriff, I thought it was a Chinaman."

The Family Doctor

Dr. Morris Fishbein

This is the season when many a person who has been accustomed to avoiding the sun as much as possible suddenly decides that sunbath is synonymously with health and exposes his entire body on the beach or in the fields with little or no protection. Years of experience have caused doctors to recognize that too much sunlight and too much burning of the skin may not be especially beneficial.

Indeed, the specialists in diseases of the skin recognize a condition, which they call sun's skin or tinea, which occurs in people who seem to be especially sensitive to sunlight and who are exposed to it more or less constantly for a good many years. In these people the skin becomes wrinkled and dry and develops a number of permanent freckles. These freckles are not very dangerous.

Occasionally, however, they become hardened like the brown spots that appear in the skins of very old people. Occasionally one of these spots may develop the characteristics of cancer. That fact has caused some alarm to people who have heard that exposure to sun may cause cancer.

There has been more sunbathing during the past 25 years than ever before. In addition to the ordinary sunbathing there has been a great deal of exposure to ultraviolet rays from artificial sources. Notwithstanding this increased exposure the figures for death from cancer of the skin at all ages below 45 for the past 25 years indicate about one death for every 100,000 people in the group. The death rate among older people is slightly greater.

Moreover, the death rates from cancer of the skin has been steadily falling over a period of 25 years. The specialists in diseases of the skin account for the fall in the death rate by the fact that people have become educated to the danger of lesions of the skin that will not heal and that modern medicine has developed ways of taking care of these lesions, including surgical removal, the use of radium, the use of carbon dioxide snow or similar methods.

The best device is that people who have a low tolerance in their skin for light and heat should not only avoid direct sunlight and artificial produced ultraviolet rays, but should avoid even diffuse sunlight and the reflected light from snow, water, sand. Most people know very promptly whether or not their skins are sensitive to the sun. Such people can protect the skin by wearing veils, by using creams that will not permit the passage of the sun's rays, or by keeping themselves in the shade.

People with certain forms of skin disease must also avoid the sunlight because these skin diseases make

YOU'VE seen pictures of those machines that test shoes. The shoes, mounted on rods sticking out of a wheel, come down on the "payment" successively as the wheel revolves, thus giving a rough equivalent of the a shoe gets when a wearer walks in it.

New an ingenious Hollywood beauty expert has devised a similar machine to test lipstick. It will bring into contact two pairs of "lips" made of a plastic material, at a pressure adjusted by mechanical means, endlessly oscillating, hour after hour, until the motor burns out.

FIRST off, we were tempted to cry, "The mechanical age has gone far enough!" After all, the displacement of the human element must stop somewhere. ... But on second thought we're a little less indignant. Somehow we don't think it will ever be really popular—we are confident that in matters osculatory, people will never be satisfied by anything less personal than the genuine article.

Men of the sea always affectionately refer to a ship as "she." To those who live on the water, she is alive; they are made of dead lumber and steel, but once articulated into a whole, they take on personality and life.

AT ANTIOCH, Calif., lay the Hesperides, a three-master which had outlived her usefulness and was condemned to be burned as a menace. The other night she broke her moorings, drifted up the San Joaquin river channel without a pilot, poked her tall masts into high-tension wires, caught fire, and burned to the water line.

Suicide, the old men along the waterfront called it, no less. Nonsense, rejoined we land-lubbers from our fire-side chairs. ... And yet—there is something about a ship—more than planks and plates. ... Shucks! These are the things we lump together and call coincidence.

Sulphur Stops Ticks (If You Can Stand It)

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—For the out-of-doors man who wants to evade disease carrying woodticks H. A. Lennartz of Boulder recommends plain sulphur. "Ticks, like human beings, cannot bear the smell of sulphur," says Lennartz, Boulder county treasurer. "If a person places pulverized sulphur around the neck, wrists and ankles, it cuts off the five common avenues through which the ticks reach bare flesh. The ticks, that carry tick fever, typhus and tick paralysis, will not cross this sulphur barrier." Lennartz said it takes a strong-willed man, however, to put up with the sulphur.

Ten years ago the country was riding high, wide and handsome on a speculative wave that was destined to hit the cruel breakers of depression in a few months more. The speculative medium was common stocks, and each one of the millions who were in the stock market fully intended to sell out and retire with a fortune just as soon as the market should carry him a little farther toward the goal of affluence.

Today there is another kind of speculation which is about as deadly in its implications, and which is based on a similar erroneous assumption. It differs from that of a decade ago in that the public is not directly engaged, although the people are likely to suffer in unexpecting victims. Today's speculation is in the federal government's bonds, and the speculators are the banks, insurance companies and other investors who hold these bonds.

There is a difference, too, in that these buyers of government paper are not doing so under the urge of dreams, but under the pressure of a need. They are buying the bonds largely because they must, since they are carrying large amounts of idle, unproductive funds and they can find no other suitable forms of investment. They are likely to buy still more, for there is no present intention of limiting the output of bonds by the government's budget and terminating the deficit financing. The banks are in a tougher spot than the insurance companies, since the latter are reported to be easing off on their holdings of governments.

The situation is highly speculative because of the high price and low yield of the federal debt. The yield of Treasury bills is virtually at zero, and a few bill issues have sold at a premium, which means that the banks have paid the government for taking their money instead of receiving in-

STORIES IN STAMPS

By FRED STADT DANKS

Forgotten Key Unlocked Secret of the X-Ray

ONE of the most popular stories of the discovery of the X-ray by Wilhelm Konrad Roentgen, in 1895, is that a forgotten key, used as a bookmark, was accidentally exposed to the rays, reproduced upon a sensitive photographic plate.

Roentgen never confirmed this anecdote, but it is certainly true that his discovery unlocked an entirely new field of medical science, gave physicians a most potent weapon in the battle against disease—the ability to see within the living human body. When he made his remarkable find, his early life as a student was undistinguished by any show of brilliance, but later association with August Kundt, teacher of experimental physics, led him into research, won him honors as professor of physics at several great German universities.

In 1901 he was awarded the Nobel Prize in physics, which he immediately assigned to be spent on scientific research. But the World War wiped out that revenue as well as his personal fortune.

It was a queer twist of fate that Roentgen's death, in 1923, should be caused by cancer, a disease which his rays have combated with a large measure of success. The use of Roentgen rays in the treatment of this disease is cited in the inscription on the Danzig commemorative, a Latin olive green, above. Translated, it reads, "Battle for Cancer—Cancer is Curable." The stamp is one of a set of three honoring medical research.

Texas Feels First Effect Of Cotton Subsidy Program

HOUSTON, July 18 (AP)—Houston and Dallas exporters, operating in the nation's greatest cotton state, dug out from a pile of buying orders today as first effects of the government's new cotton subsidy program were felt in Texas.

The world's greatest cotton port here was flooded with foreign orders and steaming operators told of increased demands for space aboard their ships sailing in the near future.

The Dallas Cotton Exchange, which also conducts a sizeable trade, reported the heaviest buying flurry in months. ### Little Hope Of New Agreement With Nipponese

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—Possibility of a new commercial treaty between the United States and Japan to replace the 1911 pact terminated by Secretary Hull dimmed today as administration officials moved to strengthen their firm stand against the Tokyo government.

There were these developments:

1. Chairman Pittman (R., Tex.) of the Senate foreign relations committee interpreted Hull's action as a warning to the Japanese that the United States did not intend to retreat from its policy of maintaining American rights in the Orient.
2. Pittman served notice the Senate would be asked to act on his resolution banning shipment of war supplies to Japan as soon as Congress meets in January.
3. The treasury studied possible application of countervailing duties against Japanese imports into this country on grounds they were being subsidized. It also looked into United States purchase of Japanese gold and silver, from which Japan gets funds to buy materials here.
4. Hull's note giving the required six months notice to end the treaty Jan. 28 will not prevent shipment of supplies to Japan unless Congress enacts such legislation. Officials explained that in cases where countries do not have commercial treaties in effect, ordinary business dealings are carried on under international law.
5. Hull and his Far Eastern advisers began what may prove a long scrutiny to determine whether termination of the treaty is to bring such a change in Japan's attitude toward China and foreign interests there that an embargo might not be necessary.

Sooners Argue Cut In Crude Allowable

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 28. (AP)—Oklahoma oil operators found themselves at odds today on whether the state's daily crude production allowable should be cut from the 428,000-barrel level where it had stood since May, 1938.

Henry Waters, representing Standard, biggest purchaser in the state, suggested fixing the allowable for the next three months at 400,000 barrels daily.

S. G. Anderson, of Gulf, suggested cutting to 400,000 for August. This stand was backed by Carter Oil company.

But another group of companies, including Phillips, Cities Service, Tydol, Magnolia, Texas, Sinclair, Champlain, Shell and Mid-Continent, expressed willingness to go along on 428,000 barrels next month.

Harold B. Fell, Arumore, president of the Independent Petroleum Producers Association, also recommended leaving the allowable unchanged, but suggested percentages be trimmed to be sure not more than 428,000 barrels was produced daily.

Unregulated production of Illinois oil was the chief worry of operators. Fell estimated that production east of California should be trimmed by 200,000 to 300,000 barrels daily to get crude and gasoline stocks down to an economic level by September 30.

Four Typewriter Firms Indicted For Conspiracy

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—The department of justice announced today a federal grand jury in New York City has indicted four major typewriter manufacturing companies and their presidents on charges of conspiracy to fix prices and operate a monopoly.

The concerns and their presidents named in the indictment, the department said, were:

Underwood, Elliot Fisher company, and Philip D. Wagoner; Remington-Rand, Inc. and James H. Rand Jr.; Royal Typewriter company, Inc. and Edmund C. Faustmann; and L. C. Smith and Corona company, Inc. and Hurlbut W. Smith.

The indictment, the department said, charged the defendants with conspiring to control the production, distribution and sale of typewriters and to eliminate competition among themselves by agreeing upon and maintaining a uniform scale of discounts.

SENATE

mate disposition of the lending bill and other remaining legislation was growing.

A complicated situation developed in the House over proposals to revise the wage-hour law. The labor committee agreed to call up non-contractual amendments Monday, while the rules committee decided to submit three sets of changes to the chamber.

Behind the tangle was a controversy between the administration and its opponents over exempting workers who process agricultural products. Whatever the outcome in the House, the Senate probably will not act this session.

The administration gained a preliminary victory for part of the lending program when the House rules committee finally sent to the floor for immediate debate the bill to disburse the $800,000,000 borrowing power of the United States Housing Authority.

Some Democrats on the House banking committee said they were prepared to shelve the main lending measure if the Senate attached a proposal to reestablish the old prevailing wage system for WPA workers. In the new relief bill, Congress provided all WPA employees should work 30 hours a month.

Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) said many senators who favored the prevailing wage provision would oppose it now because a vote for it might be regarded as a congressional surrender to the WPA workers who recently struck in protest against the new system.

Women Dispute Right As Reynolds' Widow

MAGON, Ga., July 28. (AP)—Two women disputed today over the right to be identified as the legal widow of Ronald S. Reynolds of Augusta, Ga., while investigators continued a search for evidence to support a charge of murder against one of the claimants.

Mrs. Odessa Reynolds and her 18-year-old son, Arthur Pierce Bell, were held incommunicado here on warrants charging murder of the 43-year-old salesman-engineer.

Assistant Solicitor General Norman E. English said Mrs. Reynolds insisted she was the legal wife and maintaining a uniform scale of discounts.

English declined to discuss the findings of a chemical analysis made after Reynolds' body was exhumed.

The salesman died at hotel here shortly after he had registered with a woman identifying herself as his wife. A heart attack at first was blamed for the death, but a letter from Mrs. Reynolds at Fort Worth started the inquiry.

JUAREZ, Chih., Mex., July 28. (AP)—A committee of Juarez business and labor representatives headed for Mexico City today to petition President Cardenas to lift permanently a ban against sale of hard liquor in Juarez.

Leave Tientsin Or Die, Britons Told

TIENTSIN, July 28. (AP)—British residents outside the British and French concessions received letters today warning them to leave Tientsin or die.

Signed by the "Anti-British National Salvation League," the letters read:

"British friends, you may be surprised at this letter but it constitutes loyal advice which our boiling blood prompts us to send to you. You must know it is time to see the complete collapse of the history of aggression of the great British empire in the Far East.

"You white people will have no foothold in this Oriental paradise. The yellow race is awakening steadily with the growth of the anti-British movement. Do you know we are organized and determined to pursue anti-British resistance with iron and blood?

"If you are wise you should choose the earliest opportunity to evacuate Tientsin, in which event your lives can be saved. Should you waver, hereafter for your career will end your life. Your soul will be at our disposal.

"Nothing will be better for you than to avoid this terrible, catastrophic fate."

LEWIS

controversial amendments to the House floor Monday.

A short time later, the rules committee decided to send to the floor three separate proposals for changing the law and let the chamber take its pick. A tangled parliamentary situation was certain to develop.

Lewis Hurlis Charges

Lewis bluntly accused Garner of responsibility for what he called the "campaign against labor" in the House and said:

"I am against him in 1939 and I will be against him in 1940 when he seeks the presidency of the United States."

Angered and astounded friends of the Texan rallied to his support in both Senate and House. Several of them quickly predicted Lewis' outburst would help Garner politically.

"It will be worth millions of votes to the vice president if he is a candidate for office in 1940," asserted Senator Burke (D., Neb.). "It should assure his election."

Garner declined to comment on Lewis' attack. When friends wanted to reply on the Senate floor, he was reported to have requested them not to do so. Senator Shepard (D., Texas) told reporters:

"I have no knowledge as to what Mr. Garner has done or will do as to labor legislation, but I do know Mr. Lewis is entirely uneducated in his personal habits."

The House gave Garner a tumultuous ovation late yesterday when the Texas delegation formally expressed its "deep resentment and indignation at this unwarranted and unjustified attack."

Nearly all those present applauded,

My social success is not so secret... I realized early the importance of electric refrigeration. The many advantages afforded have acted as stepping stones to my position in social circles. Never is it a problem of serving at my parties and entertainments (and I might add this is the most important phase of your entertainment).

Then there is the economic advantage. When you buy groceries you are able to affect a savings by buying larger quantities, knowing they will be kept in their original state for many days.

It's not only socially smart to have electric refrigeration but sensible. Add your electric dealer's name to your grocery list, stop in and see the new models, never before offered so reasonable!

Pampa-Clovis To Open Series Saturday Night

Oilers Take Fifth From Barons 15-13

The Pampa Oilers, with five straight victories over the Big Spring Barons behind them and a record of nine wins in their last 10 games, will come home to Road Runner park Saturday night to meet the Clovis Oilers, the only team in the circuit that holds an edge on them in play this season. It will be a Ladies' Night crowd that will welcome the Oilers at 9:15 o'clock.

Park officials today anticipated an overflow crowd for the game tomorrow night. With women admitted free and the late starting time favorable to clerks and oil field workers, a new attendance record was expected today of rapid fans as well as team officials.

Clovis will be here for a single game Saturday night and two games on Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Barons' strengthened Gaszars will be on hand for games next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights.

BIG SPRING, July 28.—The Pampa Oilers and Big Spring Barons played baseball for two hours and 53 minutes here last night before the Oilers took their fifth consecutive game from the Barons, 15 to 13 in 10 innings.

Big Gordon Nell put the Oilers ahead in the first inning when he blasted a home run with the bases loaded, for his only hit of the game, but the Barons kept hitting the ball and finally tied up the ball game in the ninth with a four-run spurge. Manager Grover Selts then pulled Rex Dilbeck, the pitcher who had humbled the Barons the previous night and sent his ace, Vannoy, to the mound and that worthy came through with his seventh straight win since the second half of the season opened.

Beavers, Jordan, Guynes Hit.

Hutton started the game but was relieved in the fourth when the Barons scored six runs. Art Verrengia relieved and worked until the ninth when Dilbeck relieved. He in turn was taken out for a pinch-hitter but the Selts strategy failed to produce a run and Vannoy finished, holding Big Spring rudderless in the last two innings.

Eddy Beavers, who usually hits them in the clutches, came through with four bingles on his six trips to the plate. Jerry Jordan, slugging third baseman, kept up his string of base hits by smacking out three. Eddy "Little Dynamic" Guynes also packed a wallop with three hits and four runs in five times at bat.

Bahr worked nine innings for the Barons, allowing 13 runs. Then Jodie Marple went to the hill and he was off the former Texas Tech footballer that the Oilers scored their winning runs.

Last night's close win kept the Oilers in first place, still a game ahead of Lubbock who defeated fourth-place Lamesa 10 to 7. Borger upset Clovis 5 to 3 to climb into fourth place while Midland took the Amarillo Gold Sox again, 10 to 6.

9 Pampanos Entered In Amarillo Golf Tourney

Nine golfers from the Pampa Country club are playing in the Amarillo Country club Invitation Golf tournament today and four of them are in the championship flight. Only Amarillo has more players in the top flight than Pampa and Lubbock, with a quartet each.

Surprise package in the qualifying round was Johnny Austin, youngest of the Austin family of Pampa, who shot a scintzing 71 to tie Reynolds Smith of Dallas for third low score. Young Austin shot a 24 on the back nine holes, second lowest score of the qualifying round.

Two strokes behind young John came his brother, Grover Austin Jr., in a tie with Jimmy Moore of Amarillo in fifth place.

Next Pampan in the championship flight was Floyd Ward, who fired a 74 at the hotshots. Then came Jimmy Richeson of LeFors with a 77 which got him under the wire by one stroke.

Art Swanson was the first player listed in the lower bracket of the third flight with an 88.

E. W. Voss was top man in the fourth flight with a 94.

Silver Faulkner Jr. shot 105 and made the fifth flight.

Dale Story, who won the Top O' Texas tournament here last year, couldn't conquer Old Man Grass Greens and registered an 83 to make the second flight.

John Austin paired up in the first round of play with Carl Hare of Amarillo. Grover Austin drew John Kane of Tucuman. Jim Richeson's opponent was Jim Moore of Amarillo. Floyd Ward drew Glen Smith of Amarillo.

White plays Mickey Pool of Plainview. Cox meets Melvin Best of Lubbock. Swanson plays Warren Babb of Amarillo and Voss meets Ed Harris of Amarillo.

Parker Develops Forehand Stroke

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 28.—(AP)—Merced Beasley, famous tennis coach who four years ago promised Frankie Parker he would give him $50 when he developed a satisfactory forehand shot, said today it looked like he might have to pay off before the week is over.

The 23-year-old Parker was in the semi-final round of the Seabright singles tournament today—the first time in his many appearances at the Pasadena, Calif., sharpshooter ever has gone beyond the quarter-final bracket. Matched against him was Gilbert A. Hunt Jr., experienced competitor from Washington, D. C., who is ranked tenth nationally.

The other semi-final test brought together Bryan Grant, the Atlanta atom, and Donald McNeil, bounding blond from Oklahoma City, but the experts' attention was focused on Parker—particularly on his improved forehand.

Parker's 6-4, 7-5 victory yesterday over Wayne Saxon of Portland, Ore., elicited praise from Beasley, whose coaching is credited with bringing Parker into prominence.

Layden Leads Voting For All Star Coach

CHICAGO, July 28.—Elmer Layden of Notre Dame rode far ahead of the field today in the nation-wide poll to determine a head football coach for the college all-stars who will face the professional champion New York Giants Aug. 30.

Layden's vote total was 178,446. Mal Edward of Purdue was second at 79,981. In third place came Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern, an early leader, with 37,574.

At the ballot deadline at midnight Aug. 5, the coach holding the largest total vote and four others highest in their respective sections of the county will form the coaching staff.

Endure Softball Game Ends After 338 Innings

MT. VERNON, O., July 28.—(AP)—Two softball teams claimed a record today.

The All-Stars and the Swamp Angels played 338 innings. It took 15 hours and the All-Stars won, 139 to 135.

Blisters forced two starting players to retire in the 338th inning.

Minimum number of entries has been set at 25 and unless that number enters the tournament will have to be called off.

Pampa, Borger, Canadian, Shamrock, and Panhandle boxers have already filled out entry blanks. A form is being carried on the sports page today and amateur boxers of this section are urged to fill one out and send it immediately.

The winning boxer in each of the nine divisions will be eligible for an all expense paid trip to the state tournament in Wichita Falls later in the month. Weights range from 108 pounds to the heavyweights.

Missions To Hold Baseball School

SAN ANTONIO, July 28.—The first trial camp of the year conducted by the San Antonio club of the Texas league, St. Louis Browns' farm, will be held at Tech field during the week of August 7 to 12, inclusive, according to Guy Airey, general manager of the Missions.

Several Brownie scouts will be on hand, together with Manager Zach Taylor of the Missions, to look over the candidates. The camp will be open to New York between the ages of 17 and 23 years, weighing 150 pounds and more.

Airey stated that the camp was being held to discover prospective major league timber for the Brownie organization. If a player demonstrates that he has definite possibilities but is still not ready for the San Antonio club, he will be signed for one of the other clubs in the St. Louis organization, which include Springfield, Ill., of the Three I league and Youngstown, Ohio, of the Middle Atlantic league.

Players must bring their own uniforms and equipment to camp, and the San Antonio club will furnish bats and balls. Every boy attending the camp will be expected to pay his own expenses, but in the event he is signed to a contract his expenses in connection with the try-out will be refunded.

Airey emphasized that the camp is intended to "find" prospective major league players, and not to offer detailed instruction. Further information can be obtained through the San Antonio Baseball club, 528 Moore building.

Nelson, Metz Pair In Best-Ball Play

CHICAGO, July 28.—(AP)—Byron Nelson of Reading, Pa., national and Western Open winner and national P. G. A. runner-up, will team with Chicago's Dick Metz August 24-27 in the Midlothian Country club's round robin best-ball golf tournament.

The event, sponsored by club members and friends of the veteran Walter Hagen, will honor "The Hag" on the anniversary of his first national open victory 25 years ago at Midlothian.

Hagen will have another veteran, Gene Sarazen, as his running mate, the tournament committee announced today.

Who's Going To Meet Who Monday Night

In olden days Roman gladiators used to get in an enclosure and have a big old battle with knives or axes. Well, that sports is going to be revived Monday night at the Pampa athletic arena at 8:30 o'clock sharp when Promoter Cliff Chambers sends six wrestlers at each other.

Only difference between the old and the new procedure will be that knives and axes will be barred. It will be just a case of the good old sock 'em and rock 'em and throw 'em out of the ring because any mauler thrown from the ring, having his back slapped to the mat or giving up will be eliminated for the time being.

The first pair out of the running will wrestle a preliminary with the second pair being semi-finalists. The toughest twosome will come back in a main event.

Entered in the contest are Pete Belcastro, Jack Adams, Frank Wolff, Charlie Carr, Dale Haddock, and Billy McEwin.

Henderson Keeps Rolling Along In East Texas Loop

Henderson's cock-o-the-walk Oilers kept right on rolling along last night, downing Marshall 2 to 0 to keep their East Texas league lead safe by nine games.

Steve Rachunok, the circuit's leading hurler, racked up his twelfth triumph for the season, allowing one hit.

The pretenders to the throne, the Kilgore Boomers, took care of Jacksonville 6 to 1.

Texasarkana teased Tyler with a three-run lead in the first inning, then started pulling hard on the oars for a 7-3 victory.

Longview took Palestine 3 to 7. Tonight's games: Texasarkana at Palestine, Henderson at Tyler, Kilgore at Marshall, Jacksonville at Longview.

Ethiopians Favorites In Denver Tourney

DENVER, July 28.—(AP)—The Bona Allen team of Buford, Ga., which won the National Semi-Pro baseball championship last year, will make its first Post tournament appearance tonight, clashing with the Denver American Beauties.

In the afternoon doubleheader, the Ogallala, Neb., Indians are matched against the Denver Barnetts, with Enid, Okla., Champlains meeting the Englewood, Colo., Canaries in the second game.

Results of yesterday's opening day games were: Golden, Colo., Coors 5, Colorado Springs Orioles 4; Denver K. & B. Packers 8; Leoli, Kas. 7.

Ethiopian Clowns, Miami, Fla., 17; Louisville, Colo., 4.

Another defeat for any of the three losers will drop it from further competition.

Reds Hike Lead With Double Win Over Bees

By BILL WHITE
Associated Press Sports Writer

When all these scientists get thru looking at Mars they might be able to pick up a little extra cash by renting their telescopes to the National League.

There is a well-founded suspicion the rest of the league is about as close as it will get to the Cincinnati Reds. It may take a powerful lens to locate them from now on.

That is the consensus after yesterday's double triumph in which the Reds had the benefit of some of Paul Derringer's best pitching in the first game and some smart hitting in the second to down the always tough Boston Bees.

The league leaders won 6-1 and 9-8.

Although Lee Grissom was something less than a ball of fire in the second game, the fact remains the Reds won when three of their closest pursuers—the Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs—all are shuffling, justly. "We ain't concedin' 'em nothin'."

And those three are not giving up for very good reasons. The renaissance of Dixie Dean has given the Cubs pennant visions again, the work of Tom Sunkel has had a vitalizing effect on the Cards, and the Pirates are in the midst of a winning streak of which any club could be proud.

The Cards won their New York 9-4, but the victory around what must be every pinch hitter's dream—a homer with the bases loaded. Don Padgett did it in the seventh.

The Cubs made their 48th victory of the year look easy as big Bill Lee pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-1, with a five-hitter. That left only the Pirates of the three pretenders to the Reds' foes in yesterday's losers' group. The Bees took one on the chin from the Phillies, 9-3.

However, the Pirates made off with three of the four games in the series.

In the American League the Chicago White Sox, who have ploughed a rough row the last few days—meeting Boston in Chicago, then moving east for a series with the Yanks and the Red Sox again—tramped on the Bostonians, 12-7, as the veteran Clint Brown made his 39th relief appearance of the year and won his eighth victory.

The Tigers called on Paul Trout and he called on his high hard one to make the Washington Senators call for help. The Detroiters won, 8-1, as Trout was turning in a five-hit job.

The Yankee-St. Louis Browns and the Indians-Athletics games were rained out.

Musketeers Play Borger Tonight

Edmondson's Musketeers, fast girls' softball team, will meet the Borger team under the lights at the Skelly-Schuler Gasoline plant northwest of Pampa tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

On Monday night girls' teams of the Panhandle will open a tournament at White Deer to determine a Panhandle champion to represent this section in the state tourney at Dallas August 10 and 11.

Houston And Dallas Crowd San Antonio

(By The Associated Press.)
The Texas League chase is getting near the scrambled stage again, with Houston and Dallas huffing and puffing threateningly at the heels of San Antonio's suddenly jittery Missions.

In a hard-to-believe finale to the Dallas-San Antonio tussle last night the league leaders went to pieces after two were out in the ninth and let Dallas score twice to take the game, 2-1.

Houston pulled within a game of the lead by taking Tulsa over the jumps in another thriller, 1 to 0. Mike Christoff's last inning home run did the trick.

The other first-division club, Fort Worth, came through with a much-needed victory over Beaumont, 4 to 2.

Oklahoma City downed slipping Shreveport, which not many weeks ago was consistently making the opposition look like suckers. The score was 4 to 2.

Tonight's games: San Antonio at Dallas, Beaumont at Fort Worth, Houston at Tulsa, Shreveport at Oklahoma City.

Spanish Refugees Took Gold As They Fled From Franco

MEXICO CITY, July 28 (AP)—Spanish republican refugees starting a fresh life in Mexico may have a hidden $50,000,000 gold treasure to dip into in getting on their economic feet.

The hoard was brought to Mexico as the secret cargo of a pleasure yacht, informed persons say, and will be used to start a bank. The bank will make loans to Spaniards who fled into France from Generalissimo Franco's armies and finally reached a Mexican haven but need money to get started in business, professions, farming or industry.

The gold was taken out of Spain by the former Spanish republican government. Accounts from Paris yesterday of the quarrel between former Premier Negrin and an opposing republican junta gave the first clue to the cargo of the yacht, Vira, which arrived at Vera Cruz on March 30.

Huge boxes were unloaded mysteriously under close watch of government agents and brought to an unknown destination in Mexico City. It was said today the boxes contained gold.

The government, which has not recognized Franco's regime, is silent concerning the funds which Paris reports say were placed in the temporary custody of President Cardenas.

SERIAL STORY

WAR AND A WOMAN

BY BETTY WALLACE

Yesterday, Linda meets a Navy... she was like a girl of stone as Marcia came forward...

Linda felt her heart sink with sick surprise. Then dismay rose and choked her. She could not speak...

Jimmy's lips opened, but no sound came. Linda was turning away, the blood pounding in her ears...

"I guess I looked so forlorn standing here by myself he thought you all had shoved me out," she said.

"Shoved you out!" Marcia cried. "Every unattained male in there has already asked me who you are..."

"You don't want to see the station!" Marcia echoed, blankly. "All those planes..."

They went in together, Jimmy and Marcia, while Linda hung back. "I only imagined it," she told herself...

At midnight, she tried to slip upstairs. But Marcia caught sight of her. "Tired, Linda?"

Marcia looked her arm in Linda's. "You're not going without saying good night to Jimmy?"

ALONE in the guest room, she tried to shake the mood from her. It refused to go. Queer how she could still see his face...

They would be married. Resolutely she put the whole fantastic incident away from her.

In the morning, she awoke with a feeling of heaviness, of dread and guilt. Then memory crowded down. Last night, last night, and Jimmy Cooper's eyes...

MARCIA came rushing into her room. "Good morning. Hey, where are you?"

"Guess who's waiting downstairs? Jimmy! He's going to help me take you around on a real tour of the station, Linda. You'll be thrilled. You've never seen We'll inspect all the planes and watch the cadets and you can even sit in the cockpit of a bomber. Too anything like this. That quick glimpse yesterday was nothing, but you can't go up, but regulations don't allow ladies in service planes, although I have heard it's been done on the sly."

Linda got through her dressing somehow. When she sat before the mirror, applying her rouge, she was facing Marcia's clear eyes, it was terribly difficult to say. "No, I-I don't want to see the station again."

Cotton And Silk Chief Items In U. S.-Japan Trade

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Cotton, scrap iron, petroleum, iron alloys, machinery, automobiles and airplanes are major items which Japan has been buying lately from the United States under the 1911 commercial treaty which this government intends to abandon next January. Commerce department figures showed today that last year 21 per cent of the United States' $299,620,000 sales of merchandise to Japan were cotton, while Japan's $198,820,000 sales to this country were 63.5 per cent raw silk.

Japan's sales to the United States reached a peak of $431,973,000 in 1929, declining almost steadily every year except 1937, when the total was $204,261,000. Peak United States sales to Japan were in that same year, when Japan took unusually large amounts of scrap iron as well as cotton and other products.

Although individually one of the major nations in United States foreign trade, Japan last year bought only 7.7 per cent of all United States exports, while this country bought only 6.8 per cent of its total foreign merchandise from Nippon.

Last year, the United States sold 1,028,000 bales of cotton worth $52,850,000 to Japan. Reflecting Japan's restrictions against foreign trade since the Chinese invasion began, this was a decrease from the 1,356,000 bales worth $68,338,000 sold in 1936.

Despite occasional boycotts of silk stockings by anti-Japanese women, the United States has continued to buy huge quantities of raw silk from Japan. Last year, the total was $83,651,000, a decline from the 1937 total of $99,573,000 more because of lower prices than quantity.

Legislator Hits Tax Hike Plans

AUSTIN, July 28 (AP)—Representative W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi, dean of the legislature, voiced opinion here today there would be no special legislative session for old age pensions taxes.

"If anyone feels he is not paying enough taxes," the Corpus Christi veteran remarked smilingly, "I'm sure any contributions he may make for bigger pensions will be cheerfully accepted."

Then becoming serious, Pope said the people generally did not want more taxes.

"We ought to quit talking taxes, taxes, taxes," he asserted, and start a loud chorus of "no more taxes." If taxes were lower there wouldn't be nearly so many people needing pensions when they become 65. Any tax, no matter what its nature, ultimately falls on the man who eats, wears and buys—in other words, the average citizen."

JEHOSEPHAT: A LIFE OF OBEDIENCE.
Text: II Chronicles 17:1-6; 9-12.
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of Advance.

In Asa we have studied the life and service of a king whose benevolent reign was founded in trust—in trust of God and of his people. Asa was the son of an unworthy father who had made so serious a mess of his own life and kingship that the kingdom had been disrupted early in his reign.

But Asa was more fortunate in the son who succeeded him, for he followed in his footsteps in every respect. Like his father Asa, Jehosephat had to face a major problem in the worship and ideals of the people. The vigor of the measures that he took to suppress idolatry indicates the hold that false worship had taken upon the people. False worship means false ideals and practices; and this was particularly true where the worship of Baal, into which the unfaithful were lapsing, was mixed up with licentious and debasing rites, and the moral practices that were contrary to the purity of family and social life upon which the supreme teaching of the teachers and prophets of Israel laid such emphasis.

There are times when the true king or statesman must show his strength of character and his capacity for service as much in opposing the popular trend as in expressing the will of the people. In our modern democracy where so much stress is laid upon majority rule, we are apt to forget that there are great moral and social issues that are never settled by mere majorities.

In the long run it seems fairly well established in history that majority rule is better than minority rule, and that the voice of the people may be more nearly the voice of God than the voice of some corrupt or self-seeking ruler or of some self-seeking ruling class.

But there are times when waves of popular debasement seem to sweep over a people. We have in fact stressed something of this in our recent American life. The immense increase of drinking and drunkenness, the widespread and deeply rooted development of all forms of gambling, the great increase of marital infidelity and divorce, with a general lowering of standards in relations between the sexes—these and many other things have been very acute problems in recent years.

The fitness of leaders is to be judged not by the extent to which they yield to popular clamor and demand, but by the firmness with which even at considerable sacrifice they stand out for integrity and decency. In the long run it is this type of leader who most truly represents the people and who becomes

Nation's Lamb Crop Lower Than In 1938

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—The agriculture department estimated the nation's 1939 lamb crop today at 31,867,000 head, compared with last year's record crop of 32,157,000 head.

The crop was said to be about 8 per cent larger than the average annual production for the 1938-37 period. The decrease from last year was attributed to a smaller crop in western sheep states, particularly Texas.

Production in the west was estimated at 20,780,000 head compared with 21,161,000 in 1938. Production in the so-called "native" or eastern states was estimated 11,087,000 head compared with 10,996,000 last year.

Although the estimated number of breeding ewes in Texas was about 430,000 larger Jan. 1 than a year earlier, the lamb crop in Texas was nearly 600,000 smaller than last year.

The estimated production in major sheep states, last year and this, respectively, included: Texas, 4,615,000 and 4,030,000.

'Love' To Be Subject Of Lesson-Sermon

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 30.

The Golden Text is: "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life" (Jude 1:21).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Revelation 21:4).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Truth and Love come nearer in the hour of wee, when strong faith or spiritual strength wrestles and prevails thru the understanding of God" (page 567).

Normal temperature for some birds is 110 degrees.

Spanish Refugees Arrive In Mexico

ARRIBA CRUZ, Mexico, July 28 (AP)—Twenty-one hundred Spanish refugees arrived yesterday aboard the French liner Mexique in search of new homes in Mexico. They were sympathizers with the lost Republican cause.

Approximately 1,200 of them are expected to go to farm lands in Chihuahua state, near the United States border, and the rest to other Mexican states. Arrangements were made to house them in the military college and other buildings until they leave for the interior, possibly Saturday.

French, Swiss Agree To Take Surplus Cotton

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Senator Byrnes D-SC) announced today negotiations had been completed for cash sale, at a discount under the prevailing world price, of approximately 175,000 bales of government-held cotton to France and Switzerland.

Byrnes said negotiations now were under way with one unnamed country for an additional sale on the same basis. Chairman Jones (D-Tex.) of the House agriculture committee introduced enabling legislation yesterday.

Under terms of ten tentative agreement, Byrnes said, this government would sell the cotton for a minimum price equal to the world quotation minus the government's carrying charges for 18 months.

Carrying charges, including storage and insurance on government loan cotton, now average $4 a year, making the minimum price to be quoted to the foreign countries $2 a bale less than the world market.

In return, the purchasers would agree to store the cotton for five years as a reserve military supply, thus keeping it off the market.

Byrnes said the deal was similar to that completed with Great Britain, when the United States agreed to trade 600,000 bales of cotton for 157,000,000 pounds of rubber, except that the forthcoming deal would be a cash transaction.

THREE-FINGERED WARNING

Nature does produce some things that are unkind to man... but she usually advertises their poisonous presence. For instance, the shiny three-fingered leaves of poison ivy shout "Danger: Keep Out" to any one familiar with the Great Outdoors.

The advertising which men do to their fellow men is of a different sort. We advertise the GOOD things, and do not mention those we've found not good.

There's a reason for that. Merchants know that if they call attention to inferior merchandise, their reputation and consequently their business will suffer.

That is why you can safely rely on ADVERTISED products. Make a habit of reading the advertisements... and see how much time, money and shopping grief you save yourself!
