Stalin Moves Swiftly To Get Rumania On His Side

By ELMER W. PETERSON
BUDAPEST, Sept. 30 (AP)—Dispatches from Balkan capitals tonight indicated that Soviet Russia, under the cloak of her newly gained military advantages, continued to move swiftly in an apparent plan to neutralize the Black Sea area and extend her diplomatic influence throughout southeastern Europe.

German communications via the Black Sea and the Danube. Moreover, it would firmly establish the Soviet state as the dominant influence in an area where German influence has hitherto pressed for advantage, it was added. Rumania meanwhile reported what was interpreted as a new indication that Russia did not intend any further military action for the time being, relying instead on "pressure" possible through her newly gained frontiers.

Concurrent with the announcement that Grigore Gafencu, Rumanian foreign minister, and a staff of experts would go to Moscow Monday, it was reported without confirmation in Bucharest that Rumania received assurances through a "third party" her Bessarabian frontier would not be violated. (Rumania gained Bessarabia from Russia at the end of the World War.)

Salvation Army Will Begin $5,000 Drive

Plans for the annual fall financial drive of the Pampa Salvation Army were drawn at a meeting of advisory board members in the city commissioners' room at City Hall. The board set a goal of $5,000 after studying a budget of needs for relief work among the needy of Pampa and surrounding communities.

Arthur M. Teed, Pampa attorney and chairman of the board, was elected drive chairman and J. L. Southern was named chairman of the advance gifts committee. This committee will begin its work tomorrow, contacting individuals and firms who will be counted on to give the larger sums.

British Confident Soviet Will Not Fight With Hitler

ANANKA, Turkey, Sept. 30 (AP)—Turkey, her role in the near east greatly altered in the past few days, was reported reliable tonight to be ready to cancel her mutual assistance obligations to France and Britain if they go to war with Soviet Russia.

Pampa News Presents 3-Day Cooking School

Tomorrow is the day! 9 o'clock A. M. is the time! The LaNora theater is the place! And the occasion, eagerly anticipated by the women of Pampa and vicinity since The Pampa News made its announcement some days ago that it was arranging to bring Mrs. A. D. French, outstanding home economist lecturer, to Pampa as a series of three-day cooking, homemaker, budgeting, etc.

The American Red Cross will start its local campaign on November 12 and the need is greater this year than at any time during the past 25 years, according to O. K. Gaylor, drive chairman.

With European nations already calling on the American Red Cross for aid, this year's drive will not be on a membership basis but will be open to any donations from the dollar membership up.

The Pampa committee has not met since naming its drive chairman but plans will be completed soon for the central committee in Washington has appropriated $250,000 to finance immediate needs. Already $50,000 has been allocated for Polish relief. To that amount Polish societies have added $20,000.

Already the British Red Cross has cabled for hospital stores, equipment and surgical dressing. The French Red Cross has asked for hospital supplies, drugs, clothing and linens.

An American delegation will leave soon for Europe to investigate and report on the relief needs and best methods of meeting them.

A portion of funds raised locally is sent to the national committee with the balance remaining for local needs.

First fall meeting of the Pampa Officers Troop school will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the office of Ralph Thomas in the courthouse.

The school will be open to all reserve officers in this area regardless of whether they are members of any organization or not. A course of great interest will be studied during the winter months and an appeal is being made to all reserve officers to attend.

Hitler Plans To Speak In 'Coming Week'

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
BERLIN, Sept. 30 (AP)—Adolf Hitler, moving swiftly upon his conquest of Poland and expanded partnership with Soviet Russia, tonight arranged for consultations with an envoy of his Italian ally and a declaration before his Reichstag.

Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano of Italy was due early tomorrow night in Berlin, response to a German government invitation which Germans said was evidence of the loyalty with which the Fuehrer kept his axis partner, Premier Mussolini, informed.

The Reichstag, called only to hear Hitler give an exposition of his policies, will meet "in the coming week" and informed sources said the Fuehrer would outline the future relations of Germany and Russia.

The treaty concluded Thursday in Moscow by Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop will form the centerpiece of the Reichstag speech, these sources said they believed.

It was regarded as a matter of course that Hitler would also give an account of his stewardship as supreme commander of Germany's armed forces since Sept. 1.

Authoritative circles were unanimous today in pointing out that in the past the western powers, except for Napoleon in 1807, never bothered about Poland's fate.

It was indicated that from this it might be assumed that Hitler, too, will let the western powers vote more to keep their hands off Eastern European affairs.

The supreme army command's morning communique, describing war developments in the last 24 hours, noted on the western front only "a little livelier artillery activity."

In the east, it said 268 Polish officers and about 5,000 men surrendered after the capitulation of Modliborz and a quantity of war material had been captured. It also announced that in the past two days 45 steamers had been searched for contraband by German warships in waters between Denmark and Sweden and Denmark and Norway "and a number of them were captured."

County Chairman Of Democrats To Be Named Oct. 12

Contending that a majority of 17 members instead of a majority of the 11 committee members composing the present Gray County Democratic Executive committee would have to be present before a chairman could be named, eight members of the committee adjourned after a two-hour meeting last night with the election of a chairman deferred until the next meeting called for 2:30 p. m., Thursday, October 12, at the courthouse.

There were only 11 members elected at the last general election, leaving six precincts in the county unrepresented on the committee. The eight members attending the meeting held at 8:15 Saturday night behind locked doors in the county courtroom were in doubt as to whether a true majority was present and consequently eligible to name a chairman.

County Attorney Joe Gordon, queried by the committee, gave his opinion that a majority was not present, and that in this case, committee members previously elected would still be members of the county executive committee. Who these members are, he did not say.

The annual meeting of the Adobe Walls council will be held in December this year and a planning committee composed of Zane Smith, A. W. Nelson and Ray Veale was named by President M. A. Graham when the executive board met Thursday night in the city hall here.

The meeting was opened with the Scout oath, led by Commissioner Zane Smith of Pathville. Committee reports were made and discussions brought about recommendations and changes in council rules. The Rev. A. A. Boeding, leadership training chairman, said that there was a need for better training of leaders. Following a lengthy discussion it was moved and passed that all prospective troop leaders must take the Introduction to Scouting before commissions will be issued and that all sponsoring institutions should take an organization course of three meetings.

Need of more man power was stressed in the report of R. E. Vaughn on organization and extension. Judge E. C. Fisher of Canadian extended the council an invitation to make its permanent camp at Lake Marvin. He said a permanent building would be erected if the council agreed. A committee composed of the council president, field

New Treaties 'Change Nothing' For England

By FRED VANDERSCHMIDT
LONDON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Beneath the deceptive tranquility of an autumn weekend, Britain's soldiers, sailors and statesmen worked at night from the North Sea to the Dardanelles.

Militants, bored by sandbags and blackouts, knocked off work early just as always, and headed for the country. They were cheered by newspaper headlines which told them "Anglo-Turkish pact is ready," and by repeated authorized assurances that the Russian-German agreement on Poland and a dictated peace "changes nothing in England."

War held nothing of the thrill of the fleeing "peace in our time" which Prime Minister Chamberlain brought home from Munich just one year ago today.

But a steady procession of grey-clad, troop-laden transports stepped to France. The might of the fleet held Germany in a tightening blockade. Royal airforce bombers roared low over the Siegfried line with photographers and mapmakers. Whitehall threw all the power of its secret diplomacy into the tug-of-war for the upper hand in the Near East and the Balkans.

Turks En Route
News that mutual assistance and economic agreements with Turkey are ready for signature and that a 5-man Turkish military mission headed by ruddy, handsome Gen. Klazim Orday is en route to London was printed widely. Receiving less prominence were reports that the pact contains a clause cancelling the 1925 Anglo-Turkish trade agreement.

Warsaw In Ruins, First Witness Says

(Following is a first hand account of conditions in surrendered Warsaw by a veteran Associated Press staff man who was the first American correspondent to view the Polish capital since its siege by German armies began Sept. 8.)

By MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER
WARSAW, Sept. 30 (AP)—Warsaw is in ruins.

There is scarcely an undamaged building in the center of the Polish capital. The former Saxon palace on spacious Pilsudski square in the heart of the city, which housed the Polish foreign office has been shelled and burned.

Other buildings in the vicinity of the square suffered equally from shells and bombs. The city's two largest hotels are located there.

I circled twice tonight in a Junkers plane over the city whose roof was ripped open to the sky during the 20-day siege by German armies.

It was a sad sight, first in the late afternoon and then at dusk as a red moon peered over the horizon, casting a glow on the Vistula river.

Hundred Fires Burning.
At least a hundred fires were burning.

The largest was along the coal yard on the railway line to Berlin. From the air it looked like a highly illuminated boulevard. Smaller fires could be seen burning in all quarters of the city. Most of the buildings had already been gutted and only tiny wisps of smoke arose from them.

The east railway station in Praga, Warsaw's eastern section, was burning. But two iron bridges over the Vistula, connecting Praga with Warsaw proper, were intact.

Bitter fighting took place in Praga before the capital was shelled heavily and tonight it was a trench town. Trenches zig zagged along the streets and back yards. They even were dug in front of apartment house doors so it was possible to step from the front door into a trench.

Poles March Out.
Praga's buildings had their sides blown out and their roofs raved in but this destruction was a bagatelle compared with what I saw when I got across the Vistula and looked down on an entire city lying under piles of bricks, plaster and charred debris.

A long line of bedraggled Polish soldiers, unarmed, marched in good order westward out of the city. They had stacked their guns. The first group of thousands of Polish soldiers, who held the city until it was battered to pieces and forced to surrender Sept. 27, left last night.

The last are due to depart tomorrow night.

Outside the city they are met by Germans and taken prisoner. German troops are scheduled to occupy the city Oct. 2. So far no important body of Germans has entered the central part of Warsaw.

The streets are practically deserted. A few hundred persons milled about Pilsudski square and half a dozen automobiles were seen in various parts of the city.

The French Are at It Again

During the World War, many American soldiers received decorations from France—and smacks on the cheeks from the French pinners-on. Here's a revival. Gen. Adolphe De Chambrun gives National Commander Stephen Chadwick the business after presenting him with French Medal of Honor at American Legion convention in Chicago.

ing Turkish commitments if Britain and Soviet Russia go to war.

Although official comment was withheld, persons usually well-informed said that London regarded such an attitude on the part of Turkey as natural because the friendship between Turkey and Russia was indispensable economically and strategically to both countries.

The same sources predicted that the government would make a statement on the progress of British-Turkish alliance negotiations within three days but that this would not deal with recent Russian-Turkish talks in Moscow.

Turkish Stand Outlined

The position taken was that there have nothing to do with each other; that Turkey will conclude alliances with Britain and France; that Russia having easily obtained what it wanted in Poland will not attempt to alter Turkey's diplomacy toward western European powers for fear of rupturing its friendship with the nation that holds Bosphorus, Russia's southern economic gateway.

On Monday or Tuesday Chamberlain will sell companions what he thinks of the Soviet-German agreement which partitioned Poland anew between her conquerors and proclaimed a basis for "durable" peace. Authoritative sources have reiterated that Britain considers the Nazi-Soviet demand for immediate peace as a "bogey" which will not frighten Britain and France and will not alter their plans for obliterating Hitlerism even if it takes a long war.

The same sources insisted that the British view of Soviet policy is unchanged, that Russia never will agree to pull chestnuts out of the fire for any other government, and that the prospect of hostilities between Britain and France on one side and Russia on the other is "extremely remote."

her impressions of Mrs. French add to the interesting prospect of the lecturer's visit to Pampa.

Mrs. French has the utmost knowledge of all phases of cookery and the art of homemaking, a knowledge that has been developed by much study and by a contact with the latest methods in this country.

Cooking is her business. She has studied it with the same scientific efficiency that any successful business man applies to his business. Her training and experience in pursuit of knowledge about this intriguing subject have been colorful and unique. In her eminently successful Cooking Schools throughout the country, she has talked to more than half a million women about all phases of cookery and homemaking. In short, Mrs. French knows all about "Kitchen Magic."

Knowledge of cookery and the little secrets of homemaking, so turn the drudgery of the kitchen that woman never becomes that most unfortunate of all creatures, a "kitchen slave." In her lectures she goes into these matters fully.

In Mrs. French's talks, every phase of homemaking is discussed with a view of elevating it to a higher standard.

The Cooking School is sponsored by the Pampa News solely as a courtesy to the women of Pampa and community. No charges of any kind will be made. Nothing will be sold. Save the hours of 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings and be among those at the LaNora theater who will be entertained and helped by these unusual lectures.

Mrs. Meek Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Meek, 31, wife of Clinton Meek, who died at 12:45 this morning in a local hospital, will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Methodist church. The body will be taken overland to Hamlin, where burial will occur. Arrangements are by Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

PIANO CARE

A piano is a sensitive instrument, also an expensive investment. The right care will prolong its good service and its beauty. Place the piano in a room in such a position that it is kept as much as possible at normal temperature, away from dampness, cold winds and sudden changes, all of which are harmful to the tone of the piano as well as its beautiful finish. Excessive dryness is just as harmful. During the months when artificial heat is used, keep a container of water in the room where the piano is located. Never, of course, place the instrument near a register, radiator or steampipe. Expose the keys to light every day to keep them from yellowing. Dust with a soft clean cloth and occasionally wipe off the keys with a slightly dampened cloth, then dry thoroughly.

Poland Not Going To Die, Says Pope

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Sept. 30 (AP)—Pope Pius XII expressed the hope today that religious freedom would survive in dismembered Poland "despite many reasons for fear given by the too well-known designs of enemies of God."

Speaking at an audience for Polish residents of Rome in his first public utterance since the invasion of Poland, the Pope admonished his hearers that "as you shed bitter tears for your dead, remember that Poland is not going to die."

"May Christ, who wept at the death of Lazarus and over the ruin of his fatherland, gather and some day compensate you for the tears you spill over your dead and over that Poland which does not want to die."

Consoling the Polish people in this frightful, tragic hour, he told the Poles that their sorrow "was tempered with hope will not be mixed with rancor or even less with hate."

He offered his consolation, too, at the sight of "hundreds of thousands of poor human beings, some non-combatants," suffering from wounds in bodies and souls from this war, from which all of our efforts so persistently and ardently, but nevertheless futilely, sought to preserve from Europe.

Meador Trial To Probably Begin Oct. 17

Trial of P. M. Meador, Gray county farmer indicted on a charge of murder and on another charge of failure to stop and render aid, by a 21st district court grand jury Thursday, will probably start on October 17, District Judge W. R. Ewing said Saturday.

Arraignment of Meador in the district court will be held either Monday or Tuesday, after which a special venire of from 100 to 125 jurors will be empaneled.

Meador posted two bonds totaling $7,500 Friday, following the indictment based on his alleged connection with the automobile-motorcycle crash east of Pampa on U. S. Highway 90 7:45 p. m. September 2. W. D. (Bill) Kelley, 17, died in a local hospital one hour after the crash from injuries received in the accident.

Clifford Jones, on whose motorcycle Kelley was riding with Jones, was dismissed recently from the hospital.

Tomorrow the only criminal jury week of the September term will open at 10 o'clock, Judge Ewing said he did not know which one of the criminal cases listed on the court settings would be first tried.

One judgment Saturday.

Only one judgment was filed in 31st district court here up to late Saturday afternoon, a divorce decree in the case of Relda Warren vs. J. C. Warren.

Bonds of $1,000 each have been posted by C. R. (Collie) George and Jerry Orr, each charged in grand jury indictments Thursday with drunk driving. Date of George's alleged offense was given as September 10, that of Orr's as September 17. Orr posted bond Saturday, George on Friday.

The $20,000 damage suit of Mrs. Elizabeth Ashley vs. R. P. Delaney, filed on September 11, has been ordered dismissed on motion of the plaintiff. Action in the case was based on an automobile accident of May 17, wherein husband of the defendant was alleged to have been struck by a car operated by Delaney, according to the petition.

Petit Jurors

Petit jurors who are to report at 10 o'clock for the opening of the term's first jury week are: H. M. Stokes, A. J. Beagle, Henry Reynolds, W. O. Davis, all of Pampa; Boots O'Neal, LeFors; Z. H. Mundy, Pampa; J. F. Hill of Jericho; E. S. Byers of Crofton; Dick Walker, Oil Crossman, Paul Kaskishke, W. H. Davis, all of Pampa; A. C. Thurmond, W. F. Walls, S. E. Shirkey, all of LeFors; C. D. Simpson, R. K. Douglas, Emmett Cox, all of Pampa; S. J. Dyer, McLean, Paul Mertel, McLean, J. J. Jagers, LeFors; T. B. Parley and A. W. Knorpp, both of Overton; E. S. Spence, LeFors; R. O. ### BUYS STATION

DOC WARNER
New owner of the filling station located at 900-306 West Kingsmill is Greeley (Doc) Warner, who announced today the purchase of the Addison-Baker Tire Company. The name of the new business is the Warner Tire Company, and the place will sell gasoline, oil, and automobile accessories. The Warner Tire Company has the agency for General Tires.

Warner, son of Dr. W. A. and Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner of Claude, Plains pioneers, came to Addison-Baker Tire Company here in June, 1938 as credit manager. In February of this year he was made manager. The new owner owns his home in Pampa. He is married and has one child, a son, John Williams, 3.

THE TROOP COMMITTEE
The "Sponsoring Institution" appoints a Troop Committee, or Boys' Work Committee, composed of not less than five adult male citizens, 21 years of age or over.

The Troop Committee is the vital spot in organizing Scout work in the institution. It is the guarantee to the institution that Scout work will be conducted in accordance with the policies and standards of the institution. It is the direct representative of the institution and makes itself responsible for the administration of the Scoutmaster and the Troop. It is the guarantee to the institution that the welfare of the boys will be fully safeguarded. It is the vital local unit, the vital working unit. The service to the boys and the parent institution is done by and through these men. The Troop Committee is not a group of men acting as character references for the Scoutmaster, but an integral part of the Boy Scout movement, charged with definite responsibility. These men shall be responsible for:

The selection of a Scoutmaster and one or more assistant Scoutmasters.

Providing proper facilities for meetings.

Advising with the Scoutmaster from time to time on questions of policy affecting the proper interpretation of Scouting and the requirements of the institution with which the troop is connected.

The observance of the rules and regulations of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Encouraging the Scoutmaster and his assistants and the members of the troop in carrying out the Boy Scout program.

The operation of the troop in such a way as to insure its permanency.

The finances, including the securing of adequate support and the proper disbursements of funds.

The troop property.

Securing suitable opportunity for the members of the troop to spend one or more weeks in camp, with adequate facilities and supervision.

Assuming active direction of the troop in case of the inability of the Scoutmaster to serve, until his successor has been appointed and commissioned.

Bar Association Resolution Honors Late Siler Faulkner

A resolution commemorating the work of Siler Faulkner, Sr., Gray county pioneer who died September 22 of injuries received in an automobile accident near Spearman, was passed by a committee of the Gray County Bar Association at a meeting held Saturday morning in the office of the chairman, District Judge W. R. Ewing.

Chairman Ewing said the resolution would be read as court opens at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Pending the final draft Judge Ewing withheld release of the document for publication.

Members of the committee signing the resolution were W. R. Ewing, chairman, John F. Sturgeon, Thomas C. Braly, Henry L. Jordan, and W. J. Smith.

The Gray County Bar Association, whose committee made the resolution, was organized here Tuesday morning by a group of 18 Pampa lawyers, S. D. Stennis was elected president.

Fines collected by corporation court during the first three months of Mayor Maury Maverick's administration at San Antonio totaled $16,215 as against $1,857 for the last three months of the previous administration. Court Clerk Leo Ruth reported to the mayor. Much of the increase was due to a larger number of traffic fines.

Law enforcement problems have changed considerably in the last ten years, but Robert F. Uhr, veteran Bexar county commissioner, thinks the sheriff's force at San Antonio still can get along very well without tear gas. He said as much when the commissioners' court refused to give Sheriff Will Wood some tear gas grenades.

New Stahl Production On Screen At LaNora

Dunne, Boyer Co-Starred In Social Drama

LaNORA
A beautiful, poignant romance, unpredictable as to plot, filled with suspense and surprises and developed with intelligence and appeal, is University's social drama, "When Tomorrow Comes," showing today through Wednesday.

The dialogue is good, the action smooth and the situations intriguing—and best of all there is no compromise happy ending, the situation being soundly and logically handled. Charles Boyer and Irene Dunne are charming and their acting expert as usual, while Barbara O'Neil handles the role of a psychopain brilliantly.

John M. Stahl, the producer-director of this photoplay, is this year celebrating his 25th year as a motion picture director. Among his salient works have been such films as "Back Street," "Magnificent Obsession," "Only Yesterday," "Fanny," "Seed," "Imitation of Life" and "Letter of Introduction." Originality of theme is shown in Paramount's adventure story, "The Magnificent Fraud," wherein a gifted impersonator, wanted in France for murder, plays a dangerous game of intrigue to champion the right in San Cristobal. Primarily a character study, it is notable for Akim Tamiroff's diversity of characterization. Lloyd Nolan, Mary Boland, Patricia Morison and Tamiroff are principals in the cast. Thursday through Saturday.

A new Boris Karloff thriller, "Mr. Wong in Chinatown," is the third in a series of "James Lee Wong" stories based on the magazine yarns by Hugh Wiley. "Mr. Wong in Chinatown," showing today, tomorrow and Tuesday, again concerns the adventures of the Chinese super-sleuth. This time the murderer comes uninvited to his own house, where Princess Lin Hwa meets a horrible death in his private study.

Wong rousts his old friend Captain Street of the San Francisco police department, and the heat is on. The dwarf who lives downstairs from the princess tries to tell Wong something, but he is murdered. Her maid, also, has information to impart, but she, too, is struck down. Things get pretty close to home when Wong himself is kidnapped, just as he learns who the murderer is. And it is up to Captain Street to rescue Wong. How he does, and how Wong identifies the killer, makes thrilling screen fare.

James Lee Wong, a character he has twice before portrayed on the screen in "Mr. Wong, Detective," and "The Mystery of Mr. Wong," Grant Withers is again seen as Captain Street, and a newcomer, Marjorie Reynolds, is pleasing as Bobby Logan, cub reporter, who "helps" Wong and Street solve the case.

The villainous suspects are Peter George Lynn, William Royel, and Huntly Gordon. The dwarf is played by Little Angelo, and his performance is a masterpiece of pantomime.

Others outstanding in the cast include Bessie Loo, Lotus Long, Lee Tong Foo, who again plays Wong's harassed servant, Guy Usher, and James Favin.

FIND ECSTASY

Never to be forgotten is the Charles Boyer, Irene Dunne romance, "When Tomorrow Comes," showing at the LaNora today through Wednesday.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (AP)—The stock market wound up the week today with a broad rally in the "War Infant" shares which spread to other sections of the list, more than wiping out the attrition of five preceding days of irregular or declining prices.

The upsurge began with the opening and continued throughout the short session, 314 leaders at their best, up fractions to around 5 points, at the finish.

Business was active for a Saturday and transactions totaled $4,840 shares compared with $62,460 a week ago. The associated Press average of 60 representative stocks closed at a point of 83.2. On the week the average gained 4 of a point. Weekly transactions totaled 6,852,300 shares against 9,663,300 in the preceding period.

Training Revival To Begin At First Baptist Church

A training union revival will begin this evening at First Baptist church with Dr. T. C. Gardner, state director, bringing the opening message.

Mrs. George Chamblee of Longview, who will direct the campaign, will teach a class of adults and young people. Mrs. W. A. Pite of Canadian is to teach an intermediate book.

Classes will be held each night this week for all unions and departments beginning at 7 o'clock.

Visitation and enrollment is to be stressed during the day. An associational rally will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in Central Baptist church with Dr. Clay I. Hudson as speaker.

HIGHER EDUCATION AT A LOWER COST
AUSTIN (AP)—The cost of education at the University of Texas has declined from $275 a year per student to $200 in the past ten years.

University officials predicted that with added efficiency the cost may decline to as little as $140 in the near future.

Kerxes, Darius, and other Persian kings are buried in giant, cross-shaped tombs cut in a rocky cliff.

NEW WONG THRILLER AT CROWN

Gathered around Marjorie Reynolds in the Crown theater's thrilling mystery drama, "Mr. Wong in Chinatown," are Boris Karloff, Grant Withers and an unidentified Chinese. The story of a slain princess, "Mr. Wong in Chinatown," is well likely to baffle even the most expert mystery fan.

Export business remained quiet. The principal interior markets received 6,330,000 bushels of wheat this week compared with 7,683,000 the previous week and 7,197,000 a year ago.

Reduced country offerings, with only 111,000 bushels booked to arrive, including 10,000 bushels of new corn, lightened hedging pressure in the corn pit.

In the heyday of Corinth, Greece, the city's 20,444 freemen were estimated to possess 460,444 slaves.

The British broadcasting companies pay composers $1,310,000 annually for the use of their music.

Before the advent of paved roads, horses and mules were kings of oil field transportation, as the above picture, made during the famous Breckenridge boom, indicates. Particularly was this true of Breckenridge as it was the largest city in the United States without a railroad at that time. These days will be recalled on Sept. 22 and 23 when a homecoming will be held, commemorative of the twentieth anniversary of the boom. Many interesting events are planned and thousands of "old timers" are expected to return.

Native Texan Heads State's Biggest School

By WILLIAM E. KEYS Associated Press Staff

The biggest cog in Texas' vast educational industry spins into action soon under a new administration, and with it a new era in Texas education.

Dr. Homer P. Rainey, a native Texan returned to his home state as president of the University of Texas after climbing the top rungs of the educational ladder elsewhere, will be at the head of the $60,000,000 institution when approximately 11,000 students begin classroom work Sept. 21.

Dr. Rainey took over direction of the southwest's largest university in June, but the forthcoming long term will be his first as chief administrator. His program goes a step beyond past principles in that in addition to bringing people to the university he is trying to take the university to the people.

This objective involves a four point program: a fact-finding research and advisory service designed to help in the industrial and commercial development of the state; scientific and medical research; installation of a Latin-American Institute; expansion of fine arts activities.

Into research this year goes $207,867, less than one-tenth of the amount spent by some leading universities, but $67,785 more than allotted for the last biennium. Principal factor in the research program will be the Texas Industrial and Commercial Research Council composed of four existing bureaus dealing in business research, economic geology, engineering research and industrial chemistry.

Dr. Rainey emphasizes the importance of research in Texas, pointing to statistics which show 83 per cent of industrial research laboratories are east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio river. Only 10 per cent of the remainder are in the South.

Supplementing the council's activities will be a newly-launched research institute embracing a blanket program lying outside of rigidly specified fields of study. Budgeted at $25,000 per year, the institute has already counted more than 50 applications for grants to faculty members whose projects range from a study of Texas traffic management to experimenting with proposals to kill the boll weevil.

It is believed university regents will seek even more funds for research activity, the budget for which Dr. Rainey says is "still inadequate to finance what our scientists are capable of doing." A possible springboard for enlarged activities in this field may come with the formal inauguration of Dr. Rainey Dec. 7, 8, and 9. The program is being built around the features the school will emphasize in the next few years.

To focus attention on the university's proposed Latin-American Institute to be launched next year on a "culture and friendship barrier" basis, university officials will invite Department of State officials and representatives of South American nations to attend the inauguration.

Already underway is Dr. Rainey's third objective, research in the field of medicine. Acquisition this year of the $2,500,000 Hogge estate is to launch probably late in the coming year a statewide mental hygiene program under university direction.

Establishment of mental hygiene clinics over the state, provision of facilities for mental health research at the Galveston School of Medicine, and establishment of mental hygiene instruction both in state-wide lectures and in Texas teacher-training courses comprise the program.

A fourth objective—to provide an outstanding fine arts college—moves nearer realization this fall with the addition of seven members to the staff of the year-old college. The department of music receives three additional instructors and drama and art departments two each.

Before the advent of paved roads, horses and mules were kings of oil field transportation, as the above picture, made during the famous Breckenridge boom, indicates. Particularly was this true of Breckenridge as it was the largest city in the United States without a railroad at that time. These days will be recalled on Sept. 22 and 23 when a homecoming will be held, commemorative of the twentieth anniversary of the boom. ## CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 (AP)—A rally of more than two cents a bushel in wheat prices today halted the week's slump based partly on Europe's peace talk which had wiped out a good share of the September war boom advance.

Wheat shot up more than a cent at the opening and later extended the gains to as much as 2 1/2 cents, closing near the highs or 1 1/2-2 1/2 higher than yesterday, December 84 1/2-85, May 85-84 1/2.

Other grains followed the advance, wheat leading 1 1/2-1 1/2 up, December 50 1/2-51, May 53 1/2-54; Oats 3 1/2-3 1/2 higher; Rye 1 1/2-1 1/2 up and Lent 30 to 27 higher.

Export business remained quiet. The principal interior markets received 6,330,000 bushels of wheat this week compared with 7,683,000 the previous week and 7,197,000 a year ago.

Wilcox To Drill Well No. 39 On Combs Land

8 Locations And 12 New Wells Filed

The Wilcox Oil & Gas company broke into the drilling picture in the Panhandle field last week for the first time since the fall of 1932. The company staked a location for its No. 39 Combs in section 38, block 3, I&GN survey, Gray county, six miles east of Pampa. The No. 39 well drilled in 1933 gauged nearly 900 barrels.

Staking of new locations dropped to eight last week but 10 new oil wells and two gas wells were gauged by officials of the Pampa office of the Texas Railroad commission. New oil added to the field potential totaled 3,781 barrels.

The Texas company led new production with its No. 22 Williams in section 7, block 1, AHC&B survey, central Gray county, which gauged 928 barrels from granite wash formation. Gray county had five of the new wells with total potential 2,196 barrels. Hutchinson county's four wells tested 1,367 barrels.

Gray and Hutchinson counties reported three new locations each with one in Wheeler county. Seven of the locations were in proven oil territory.

Beginning Monday morning at 7 o'clock, all wells in the field will be placed on a seven-day producing basis by order of the Railroad commission. The field has been on five and six day production for more than a year.

There are 89 active locations in the Panhandle field at the present time.

Completions by counties follow:

IN GRAY COUNTY
Shell Petroleum corp., No. 14 Haggard, section 112, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 403 barrels with lime formation between 3,200 and 3,264 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Co., No. 5 McKinney, section 137, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 201 barrels with pay from 2,162 to 2,245 feet in lime.

Phillips Petroleum Co., No. 3 Benton, section 63, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 164 barrels. Pay was in lime between 3,145 and 3,317 feet.

The Texas Co., No. 22 Williams, section 7, block 1, AHC&B survey, was given a potential of 928 barrels with granite wash formation from 2,746 to 2,857 feet.

Nabob Oil Co., No. B-3 Morse, section 47, block 25, H&GN survey, gauged 499 barrels. Granite wash pay between 2,700 and 2,785 feet.

IN HUTCHINSON COUNTY
Phillips Petroleum Co., No. 3 Perkins, section 16, block 3, HOB survey, gauged 134 barrels with pay from 2,855 to 2,990 feet in lime.

J. E. Phillips Employees No. 2 Erie Thompson, section 15, block M-23, TORR survey, tested 234 barrels. Lime pay was between 3,000 and 3,058 feet.

Pennotex Oil Co., No. 2 Thompson, section 15, block M-23, TORR survey, was given a potential of 475 barrels with pay from 2,985 to 3,075 feet.

Midstates Oil Co., No. A-28 Whittenburg, section 11, block M-21, T-CRR survey, gauged 524 barrels. Pay was from 2,895 to 2,980 feet in lime.

IN CARSON COUNTY
Magnolia Petroleum Co., No. 59 Fee Land 244, section 29, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 219 barrels with lime pay between 2,969 and 3,102 feet.

Gas wells gauged:

Methodists To Conduct Training Course This Week

Beginning the new church year, a non-credit training program, Know-My-Work-Week, will be conducted this week at First Methodist church.

Opening this institute for all organizations of the church with local church workers leading the discussions will be the regular services today, including church school at 9:45 o'clock, installation by all officers and teachers and communion at 11 o'clock and a joint meeting of young people's groups at 6:45 o'clock.

Meetings Monday will be composed of six circles of the Woman's Missionary society at 2:30; regular stewards' session with the study of the selection and duties of stewards at 7:30 o'clock and study and discussion by junior department officers and teachers at 7:30 o'clock.

Tuesday's program is to include a meeting of nursery, beginner and primary officers and teachers at 2 o'clock and a meeting of all officers and teachers at 7:30 o'clock with Farris Oden presiding.

A program magnifying the teacher will be presented Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock when the fellowship supper is given with F. L. Stallings presiding. All Methodist teachers in the public schools and church school will be recognized.

On Thursday a meeting of nursery, beginner, and primary officers and teachers is set for 2 o'clock while junior department officers and teachers are to meet at 6 o'clock. A meeting of adults and young people is to be held separately at 7:30 o'clock and committees will meet under the direction of their respective leaders.

Activities of the week and departmental meetings at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening will conclude the week's program.

Oilman Urges Elimination Of Proration

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Officials of the Eastern States Petroleum company, Houston, told the monopoly committee today "there is a definite monopolistic control of the oil industry, partly by design, mostly as a result of ill-considered emergency federal legislation."

The assertion was made by Richard B. Kahle, president, and Louis J. Walsh, vice-president of the company in a statement submitted by Walsh.

They proposed these alternatives: "1. Elimination of so-called proration which is simply price-fixing and artificial limitation of supply or

"2. Extension of federal control and price fixing to include control of refineries and marketing, or

"3. Elimination of price fixing by disconnection of oil production, transportation, refining and marketing, and particularly the elimination of interstate transportation by oil producing and refining companies."

Walsh testified his company was forced to turn to Mexico for a source of crude oil in August of 1933 because "artificially high" prices he said were caused by proration made it impossible to refine domestic oil at a profit.

He said the head of the Shell petroleum interests in this country warned the Eastern States company that "if we purchased any Mexican crude, whether it was derived from wells owned and operated by the Mexican government prior to expropriation or not, we would be put out of business in two month's time."

The statement said the company was able to prove it was not buying expropriated oil but nevertheless the company met with "interference" and "illegal restraint from the Shell company to the serious damage of our business."

10 Pampans Attend Ford Sales School

A group of 10 Pampans attended a sales school and two other Pampans a dealers meeting in Oklahoma City during the past week, when the 1940 model Ford automobiles were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rose attended a dealers meeting held in Oklahoma City Friday, then went to Norman to visit their son, Tim Rose, Jr., University of Oklahoma student. They saw the S. M. U. O. U. football game at Norman yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are to return to Pampa tomorrow.

Attending the sales school held from 4 p. m. Tuesday were the following: Dade Balthrope, H. F. Graham, Neal Donovan, Burt Hobson, J. H. Ralston, B. I. Snyder, Jim Hatfield, Lewis Smith, Roy Sewell and A. C. Richards.

The new Fords are expected to be on display in Pampa soon.

The highway department reports a survey shows 60 per cent of all highways used by Texas is for business purposes and 40 per cent for social and recreational reasons.

Mrs. Hunkapillar Presides at P-TA Board Meeting

Forty-five members of the largest P-T-A District Board of Managers in Texas met Saturday in the Amarillo hotel at Amarillo with Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar of Pampa presiding.

The board is composed of the president, officers and chairmen of District Eight, seven vice-presidents and the county and city council presidents. Also in attendance Saturday were two state officers, Mrs. J. E. Gages, Amarillo, and Mrs. W. B. LaMaster, Perryton, and an honorary member, Mrs. J. M. Crain of Amarillo.

The personnel committee, Mrs. M.

V. McCloy of Morse, chairman, submitted new names to the district nominating committee, a step toward spring nominations.

The district conference in Memphis, late in April, is headed by Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, general chairman, and Mrs. W. B. Bragg, co-chairman. W. C. Davis, superintendent of schools, Memphis, assured the group all possible would be done to make this conference worthwhile.

Announcements and plans for attendance at the state meet in November in Galveston were discussed. Mrs. Was Izard was named chairman of transportation with tentative plans for a bus to take members from this district.

Radio programs beginning in October and sponsored by Mrs. A. O. Schuster of Bocker and the seven vice-presidents will be a monthly feature of Parent Teacher work from eighth district.

W. A. McIntosh, B-rger, urged that local units promote activities for the observance of American Education Week, November 5-11.

Charles E. Dameron, Children's, urged that safety of school buses be fostered, soliciting the aid of the state highway patrol for inspection and enforcement of safety laws.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar of Pampa, president, closed the business session with an inspirational message stating that the home and school must have the same standards of child to enjoy physical, mental and social well-being.

Recalling incidents in the highly-organized east, at the national convention in Cincinnati last spring, Mrs. Hunkapillar observed, "Freedom of the West is Good." Closing, she said, "An organization becomes permanent and great only as it continues to meet the fundamental needs."

An example of loyalty, Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, Dumas, in Kansas city for the winter, was in attendance at the Board of Managers in Amarillo, Saturday, September 23, with her ten-month-old son. She returns to fill Parent Teacher and other club engagements.

Carson County Council met in Skellytown, September 19, for a school of instruction conducted by Mrs. J. W. Howe, Parhanville. Representation was as follows: White Deer, nine; Parhanville, 19; Conway, 3; Petrolia Ward, 15; Skellytown, 26. Invitations were extended to attend the Institute at Wellington, Saturday, September 30.

The Carson County Council will have its second meeting of the year at Petrolia, November 21.

Mrs. J. B. Howe, second vice-president of District Eight, reported a good attendance at the Institute at Wellington, September 30. This meet served four counties, Carson, Gray, Roberts and Collinsworth.

Other hosts for the institute were J. S. Beard, superintendent of Wellington schools; Mrs. Charlie Jones, city council president; and Mrs. Howard Beger, city council president. Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar gave a report on her trip to the national convention in Cincinnati, last May.

Gruber P-T-A gave a reception for the teachers on Friday, September 15, at the high school auditorium. Heading the receiving line were Mrs. W. J. Love, who presented the teachers to the patrons of the Gruber schools.

Preceding the program Mrs. R. A. McCollum, superintendent of schools, held installation of officers for the 1939-40 year.

The following officers will serve this unit: President, Mrs. W. J. Love; first vice-president, Mrs. Tobie Giles; second vice-president, Mrs. R. A. McCollum; secretary, Mrs. Lynn Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Ruby Low; publicity chairman, Mrs. B. A. Boring; hospital chairman, Mrs. E. H. Taber; finance chairman, Mrs. P. H. Westerville; safety chairman, Mrs. Tom Dostier; membership chairman, Mrs. Phil Berger; historian, Mrs. Elmo McCollum; parliamentarian, Miss Kathleen Hodge.

WILL CHOOSE AMERICAN ROYAL QUEEN

An official invitation has been received to choose a candidate for Queen of the 1939 American Royal, when a handsome parchment was delivered this week to the Mayor. Local civic and other organizations are asked to conduct a beauty contest for unmarried girls aged 18 to 25, the winner and her chaperon to receive a free trip to Kansas City for the opening of the American Royal October 18. A Queen, two princesses, and eight ladies-in-waiting will be selected from a number of cities throughout the middle west. The Queen will be acclaimed at a great Coronation Ball in the $6,000,000 Municipal Auditorium, which will occupy a "royal suite" at a leading Kansas City hotel during Royal week, Oct. 14-21, and occupy the "royal box" at the brilliant nightly horse shows. In the photo, Miss Jean Logan of the American Royal staff is holding the official invitation to participate in the Queen of the American Royal Contest.

Marriage Of Former Pampan Revealed Here This Week

Rosemary Roach, superintendent of Pampa's WPA recreation project which was discontinued in September 13 and Eugene L. Miller of Santa Rosa, Calif., were married yesterday in Hobbs, N. M., according to a letter received here yesterday.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. E. Clark, pastor of Methodist Episcopal church.

The bride wore a durbeneat alpaca crepe dress with white pointed collar and black accessories.

After the wedding the couple were dinner guests of the groom's sister, Mrs. Rosamie Kincheloe. They returned to Lubbock, where the bride has been living since she left Pampa, and where she has been employed as assistant field supervisor of the WPA recreation project in WPA district 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in California, where Mr. Miller is employed by the Pacific Telegraph & Telephone company.

Mrs. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lewis of Lovington, N. M., was educated at West Texas State College, Canyon. Later she taught school and became principal of the recreation here on November 2, 1938, a position she held until after her transfer to Lubbock. She resigned this position following the wedding.

The groom, who was educated in Pennsylvania, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller of Berger.

Mrs. Waters Named Honoree At Shower Given This Week

Honoring Mrs. E. L. Waters, a pink and blue shower was given in the home of Mrs. U. S. Sapp Friday afternoon.

Attending were Mmes. J. C. Mote, Kathleen Bowman, Joe Kuyava, L. Davis, H. B. Carson, F. Holland, E. F. Ward, J. J. Tinnin, U. S. Sapp, and the honoree.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. Jewel Holland, J. D. Ovey, C. B. Lemons, and Ruth Tunnell.

Farewell Dinner Compliments Miss Jeannie Stennis

As a farewell courtesy to Miss Jeannie Stennis, who is leaving the offices of the Cabot Carbon company where she has been employed for the past four years, a buffet dinner was given in the home of Miss Jeanie Hodge this week.

Marigolds and autumn leaves formed an attractive centerpiece for the table. Individual corsages of marigolds were presented to each guest.

Attending were Mrs. Roy Caston, Mrs. Churlie Byrd, Miss Johnnie Hodge, Miss Anne Johnson, Miss Dorothy Jo Taylor, Miss Jean Barnes, Miss Orvalia Wilbanks, Miss Addie Mae Bryan, Miss Martha Jones and the honoree.

Mrs. Reed Hostess At Recent Shower

Special To The NEWS
HOPKINS, Sept. 30—Mrs. Howard Reed entertained friends of Mrs. O. T. Ward with a pink and blue shower Thursday afternoon.

Appropriate games were played during the afternoon with Mrs. R. W. Orr winning two prizes which she presented to the honoree, Mrs. Ward.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served while the presents were unwrapped.

Those attending were Mesdames L. A. Moyer, Milton Henderson, Joe Moore, Jimmy Thurman, Wesley Barnett, Ray Franklin, George Reeve, Elmer Sloan, R. W. Orr, Cleo Coffey, Ben Romine, Paul Simpson, G. H. Courson, Howard Reed, Walter Parker and O. T. Ward.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Adaline and Mrs. Moore Jones.

VFW Auxiliary To Furnish Cafeteria Ticket For Student

A regular meeting of Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary was conducted this week in the American Legion hall.

During the business session the group voted to furnish a cafeteria meal ticket for a junior high school student one month. Also the group decided to sell buddy poppies on Armistice Day.

Deane Bradley and Alice Franks served refreshments of lemon custard with angel food cake to Dora Lawson, Bennie Ruth Spears, Elsie Karlin, Stella Gaylor, Louise Huval, Thelma Beall, Violet Kenney, Mary Carlson, Bertha Chisum, Agnes Reese, Catherine Hulings, Johnson, Mildred Jones, Annelie Orr, Juetta Parker, and Nan Fender.

The auxiliary will meet on October 10 in the Legion hall.

B-PW

tion turned its thought to helping unemployed women and the slogan adopted was "We Give." In 1934, the week was built around a definite reemployment program and the emphasis laid on the securing of jobs for 5,000 unemployed women. The effort almost went "over the top" and resulted in a deepening of the social consciousness and social interest of the Federation members.

"Opportunity" Chosen

In 1935, the federation again led the way, this time in preaching the doctrine that the United States still is the land of hope and promise, and the theme was "Opportunity." By 1936, with bombs bursting in air in Asia and Europe, and Democracy the subject of adverse propaganda by the communistic and fascist nations of the world, the slogan was "Effective Democracy." In 1937, the emphasis was laid on the employability of women over all.

An earlier slogan was dusted off and streamlined for the 1938 celebration, "Better Business Women for a Better Business World." Then the federation abandoned the amateur art contest among high school students for a poster design for National Business Women's week in order to secure better posters. Photography was used and a young woman with the world as her background was shown, starting off to do and dare.

And now comes 1939 and the topic is "One Hundred Years of Women's Progress in the United States," which was the theme of the Biennial Convention in Kansas City, Mo., July 9 to 14.

International Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs appraise the progress made by women in the last century, and study the occupations from which women are still barred in the United States, with the idea of bringing public pressure to bear to open these closed doors. (If there are any closed) to women.

The 1936 census lists 535 classifications of gainful occupations and shows that women are employed in 501 of them. The only occupations in which women are not employed are the so-called "heavy" industries—mining, mechanical, engineers, firemen, victrola. These are occupations which require strength far beyond that of the average woman. Women are not lacking in any of the trades, businesses, professional, domestic, personal and clerical occupations.

North Ward P-TA Has First Meeting

Special To The NEWS
SHAMROCK, Sept. 30—North Ward P-T-A held the first meeting of the year at the school building recently.

Business of the day consisted of planning the year's work program. Mrs. Roy Berion, president, presided and the group decided to purchase new instruments for the Rhythm band, to establish and equip a range work room for the children library for the building, and to arrange three major projects for the year.

Mrs. Berion appointed Mrs. Guy Crawford, Miss Alma Showmaker, and Mrs. Robert Roach as a committee to work out the details and estimate the cost of the projects and report at the next meeting.

Other committee chairmen were Mrs. Ernest Shell, membership; Mrs. Guy Crawford, program; Miss Maud Lunnie, publicity; and Mrs. W. O. Morrow, hospitality.

There were 44 mothers present and the attendance prize was awarded to Miss Linnus' room.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART

She may not have the figure for a corset day dress. She may think that lavender hair rinses take too much living up to. She may know that bright scarlet shades of lipstick and nail varnish are not right for her skin tones.

However, the gray-haired mature woman doesn't think for a moment, simply because the most widely touted fall styles are not right for her, that she may as well crawl away somewhere and hide until styles change or something happens.

Nobody says that you must wear a corset and over it a corset dress if, by so doing, you'll look like a stuffed pillow with a string around the middle of it. The best of what any expert says is that you should be perfectly groomed from head to foot in clothes which suit you. A dress can be as obviously new as the first snowflake and yet be comfortable and pleasing around the middle of it. The best of what any expert says is that you should be perfectly groomed from head to foot in clothes which suit you. A dress can be as obviously new as the first snowflake and yet be comfortable and pleasing around the middle of it. The best of what any expert says is that you should be perfectly groomed from head to foot in clothes which suit you.

Hair no longer is brushed severely upward to reveal every line, every wrinkle, every atom of fullness which many an adult has just below the jaw. It's up in front but down in back with softness placed low, behind the ears. There are dozens of variations. It's simply a matter of finding a hairdresser who is willing to spend plenty of time experimenting.

Of course true red makeup and the rosy copper tones are important. But no large manufacturer of cosmetics has stopped making all the soft and flattering light pink, faintly orchid, pink, rose, and fairly light red shades. Easily available are softer colors to dramatize mature coloring instead of hardening it.

Lavender Locks Not for Budgeteers

Chic, silver-haired Parisiennes are going in for lavender and deep blue rinses. And beautiful they are. But they very definitely are for those whose clothes are expensive or at least look it, and for those who make a habit of going to a beauty shop at least once a week.

Fortunately, for the silver-haired woman who has to keep a close eye on the budget, plain silver and iron-gray locks are not by any means considered old hat. She can just forget about rinses and concentrate on having handsome gray or white or silver hair, beautifully dressed and kept shining by brushing and frequent shampooing.

Literary Club Has Program on Art

Special To The NEWS

SHAMROCK, Sept. 30—Mrs. A. M. Hillburn, announced Thursday Literary club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Haskell Dunaway, this week.

A short business session was held after which Mrs. T. C. Davis conducted the program on "Art." Mrs. Edwin Griffin discussed "Art in Everyday Life" and Mrs. Earl Kromer gave a talk on "Art, an Expression of Good Manners." Mrs. W. Y. Burden talked on "Friendship, the Greatest of All Arts."

The club had a guest in the person of Miss Alice Lent Covert of McAlester, Okla., author of "Return to Dust," a current best seller.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dunaway served a salad course to Mesdames Cobert, W. C. Perkins, J. B. Clark and Cecil Reavis, guests and to Mesdames J. B. Zeigler, R. C. Lewis, Percy Bones, W. Y. Burden, Ben A. Skowron, Charles Perry, Charles Green, L. B. Hiner, Earl Kromer, J. R. Benson, H. T. Fields, T. C. Davis, L. E. Davis, and Bedford Harrison, members.

McLean P-TA Unit Will Have Night Session This Year

Special To The NEWS

McLEAN, Sept. 30—McLean P-TA had their first meeting this week in the music room of the ward school with Mrs. Don Alexander, president, presiding.

The meeting opened with group singing led by Miss Myrtle Marion Shaw. The Lord's prayer followed by Miss Ruby Swin and Mrs. C. A. Cryer read the minutes of the executive meeting.

It was voted to have some night meetings in order that the men might come. The first one will be the third Thursday in October.

Prizes are to be given the room that has the most percentage in attendance at the P-TA meetings. At the last meeting, Miss Ruth Anley's room was first; Miss Ruby Swin's second; and Miss Myrtle Marion Shaw's third.

Mrs. Sammie Cubine presented a set of books, "Junior Classics," to the school as a gift from the Wednesday Bridge club. Mrs. Harold Rippy reported that a benefit opera, "The Peppery Pa," would be given Thursday night at the high school auditorium. The proceeds are to be used for underprivileged children's work.

Superintendent G. A. Cryer asked the co-operation of the parents in seeing that their children have the tuberculosis test which will be given soon in the schools.

Mr. Newman, band director, announced that he is giving a music talent test in the upper grades in hopes of enlarging the band.

Mrs. Bob Black gave a reading and Miss Eloise Land played a piano solo.

Refreshments were served by the executive committee from a lace-covered table centered with a mirror and bouquet of blue carnations and pink verbena to about 95 people.

Fairs Discussed At Times Club

Special To The NEWS

SHAMROCK, Sept. 30—The recently organized times club held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. P. T. Boston.

Mrs. A. C. Hallmark was leader for the program and introduced Mrs. Walter Darlington, Jr., who outlined points of interest in both the New York and San Francisco world fairs. Mrs. G. T. Palmer outlined the exhibits of the New York fair and Mrs. Fred Holmes reviewed the San Francisco fair.

Officers elected at the business meeting were Mrs. P. T. Boston, president; Mrs. Harris Tilley, vice-president; Mrs. James Weedy, recording secretary; Mrs. Flaks George, corresponding secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Tilley, parliamentarian.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Ole Cain, Tom Clay, Walter Darlington, Jr., Homer Ewton, Flaks George, A. C. Hallmark, Fred Holmes, Carl Linky, C. T. Palmer, T. H. Sonnenberg, Harris Tilley, and James Weedy, members; and to Mrs. B. F. Risinger, Mrs. Derr of Fort Worth and Mrs. Tom Brown, guests.

MODERN MENUS

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

Singing nourishes the spirit, but good solid food can be wonderful, too. When a noted concert and radio soprano harmonizes her vegetables, that's music to the busy homemaker. Noted Soprano Margaret Speaks composes these unusual recipes in her own kitchen.

Eggplant Hongroise
(Serves 6)

One medium-sized eggplant, 1 1/2 cups chopped mushrooms, 1 green pepper, chopped, 2 cups creamed noodles, salt, pepper, paprika to taste.

Cut top from eggplant. Scoop out center, leaving eggplant shell. Chop eggplant with other ingredients, stuff the shell and moisten with mushroom liquor. Bake slowly for 1 hour.

Baked Carrots Evangeline
(Serves 6)

One cup grated raw potato, 1 cup grated carrots, 1 cup shredded string beans, butter, salt, pepper.

Place a cup of grated raw potato in a well-buttered baking dish. Add salt and pepper and dot with butter. Place a layer of grated carrots on top of that and season and dot with butter. Then add a layer of string beans. Salt, pepper and butter the top generously. Place in slow oven and bake for an hour.

Pig-in-the-City Apples
(Serves 6)

Three medium-sized tart apples, 1 cup water, 2 cups sugar, 1-2 cup cinnamon, candies, 2 cups small, boiled white onions, 2 pounds little pig sausages.

Boil the water, sugar and candies together for five minutes. Peel, core, slice the apples 1-4 inch thick. Simmer slices in the syrup until tender but not mushy. Remove to hot platter. Boil down the juice until it is a thick syrup and pour this over the apples.

In center of each apple slice, place a small boiled onion. Arrange cooked sausages in the center of the platter. Serve piping hot.

Mind Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- Is the wedding announcement of a young widow the same as for a first marriage?
- If the widow is middle-aged, how is the announcement worded?
- Is it a good idea for a divorced woman to send out announcements of her second marriage?
- If the groom has been divorced, is it incorrect for the bride's parents to send out announcements?
- Are announcements ever sent to those who have been invited to the wedding?

What would you do if—

You receive a wedding announcement and really do not want to send a gift. Would you—

- (a) Feel that you must, since you received an announcement?
- (b) Not feel obligated, since you did not receive an invitation?

Answers

- Yes. With one exception—her married name is used, like this: "Mr. and Mrs. John Raines Smith have the honor to announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Smith Jones."
- The bride and groom announce their own marriage.
- No.
- No.
- Best "What Would You Do" solution—(b).

Yesterday Dan and Marian... Dan tells Marian he is leaving for Oregon...

CHAPTER XXIII

MARIAN arose at the usual time on the following morning, dressed with her usual care...

She did not say to herself, "My husband has left me. I'm going to have a baby..."

She did not cry or wring her hands. A stumped apathy lay upon her sensibilities...

"Hello, Dolly." Dolly burst from the kitchen. She was not discerning that morning. She was radiant...

"Marian—I've been waiting for you. Oh, Marian—Randy asked me to marry him last night..."

"Marian kissed her. 'I'm so glad, dear—so glad.'"

"He said love was a terrible thing—said it wasn't to be fooled with—was thinking of poor Carmie..."

"Marian nodded. 'She's gone home to her mother. She's sorry.'"

"Poor, poor Carmie." Dolly's voice was rich with sympathy. Her eyes widened; they were sweet, childish eyes...

"Don't love him too much, Dolly." Dolly said, "When we love we have no armor..."

A SPECIAL delivery boy climbed the stairs and stopped at Dolly's door...

postmarked 1 a. m. He wrote it after last night. I've never seen his handwriting...

Marian remembered her comparison of love to a broker's chart. The curving line of Dolly's love was touching the clouds...

"Dan gone down?" Dolly called after her. Marian swung back. She laughed. It was a choked little sound...

"What news?" Dolly asked with eager interest. Dolly was sliding the letter between her fingers...

"Dan has gone to the west coast." "What?" "His firm sent him to take over the Oregon territory..."

"She must give up the apartment, cut down expenses. Deny it or not, she would need money in May..."

"That night she made scrambled, rebellious plans. She would work as long as possible..."

"In the midst of her planning, the apathy parted like a dark curtain. She was flooded with a need for Dan, a pain-filled longing for him..."

"The baby—the idea was still so fantastic as to be a distasteful something which lay in the dim future. Something to be gotten over as easily and speedily as possible..."

"SHE offered no advice and Marian went down the stairs, holding the banner. She called a cab and went to the office..."

"Marian would never forget that October. Shining days, chill winds, windswept rainy days when the lake was gray like herself..."

"Dolly said loyally. 'I think it's a good move, I really do.'"

"I'll just hide here and if that werewolf, man or beast, attacks that rancher tonight—I'll..."

"DESPITE BRONSON'S PLEA FOR OOP TO MIND HIS OWN BUSINESS, OUR HERO'S VICEROUS OPPOSITION TO THE ENTRY OF THE WOODEN HORSE INTO TROY HAS ATTRACTED CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION..."

"MEANWHILE, WITH THE GREEKS HIDDEN IN THE HORSE—THEY'LL SOON HAVE US INSIDE THE CITY—AND THEN... COME DARKNESS... COME DARKNESS... COME DARKNESS... POUF!"

Site For Seaman's Training School To Be Selected

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Until a site on the gulf coast has been selected for a seaman's training school, the maritime commission will place 250 boys aboard its training ship 'American Seaman'...

Admiral Emory S. Land, commission chairman, wrote Representative Mansfield (D-Tex.) the boys would be selected from civilian conservation corps camps in all states...

Admiral Land said the boys would be turned over to the maritime commission in about a month through the CCC camp at Fort Dix, N. J., and placed immediately on the commission's vessel...

Admiral Land added another class probably would 'not be enrolled until about April 1, 1940, by which time we hope to have a training station in operation'...

Responding to a plea by Mansfield that the training school be located in Galveston, Admiral Land observed that a careful study of advantages offered had been made by Naval Commander W. N. Richardson, Jr., at gulf ports from Florida to Texas, including Galveston, Port Arthur, Orange, Houston and Corpus Christi...

'We realize that as you say the tonnage handled through the Texas ports is greater than that handled through other gulf ports, but tonnage is not involved in the particular kind of training that we have in mind,' the commission head concluded...

Soviet Union Not Cooperating With Nazis, Says Foster

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—William Z. Foster, chairman of the American Communist party, told the Dies committee with vehemence today that the 'Soviet Union is not cooperating with the Nazis'...

'The Soviet Union has stopped Hitler in the east and has smashed the fascist axis,' Foster declared after committee members had referred several times to the new 'Communist-Nazi alliance'...

'The Communist leader said "the masses" in Poland had benefited by the Russian entrance into Poland and that the occupation was "100 per cent justified," because it established "free government" and because "France and England had surrendered to Hitler control over formerly Russian people'...

'The witness insisted there was a difference between the German invasion and the Russian occupation of its share of Poland. "When the Russian Red army entered the country, the government of Poland already had been destroyed," he said...

Tommy Atkins Goes to France Again

Common in England now are scenes like the above, showing British troops, with gas-masks and steel helmets, marching off to an "unnamed destination". The unidentified ship below, pictured putting out from Southampton harbor, was reported to be headed for France with 1200 British soldiers aboard.

Propaganda To Drag U. S. Into War By 1941, Says Professor

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 30 (AP)—Dr. H. C. Peterson, author of the widely circulated new book, "Propaganda For War," asserted today propaganda and politics won the world war and would be the determining factor in the present European conflict.

He predicted that by the spring of 1941 the allies, whom he described as "master propagandists," would have succeeded in drawing America into the war "by convincing us that our economic interests are at stake and that this fight is our fight."

Dr. Peterson, 37-year-old University of Oklahoma history professor, has been a student of propaganda since the world war.

In recent years, he has traveled extensively in Europe and delved into the political records of many nations.

Great Britain and France are looking to America for assistance just as they did in 1914, Dr. Peterson said in an interview, and by brilliant use of propaganda they already have paved the way to our entrance in the war.

First Aim Achieved

"The first result of the current propaganda campaign," he explained, "has been the creation of a desire among Americans to give our economic and financial aid to the democracies.

"This desire probably will lead to repeal of the neutrality act and the building of a tremendous trade with the allies.

"Modern wars are as much economic as they are military. If we take part in the economic warfare, we can expect the nation we are fighting to take retaliatory steps against us.

"Immediately, this will result in damage to our prestige and eventually it will influence us to declare war on Germany."

Dr. Peterson predicted the war would be fought on its present lines for about a year. Then, he said, other nations will take sides and the economic propaganda of the allies will become increasingly effective.

1941 Prediction Made

"By the spring of 1941," he related, "we will have been convinced that our economic interests are in danger and will be ready to enter the war."

Nazi propaganda, he said, will be very effective in Germany but will have practically no effect in the United States.

"On both sides the attempt will be made to interpret this war as one between the forces of good and evil. In the United States, the allies will have a clear field.

"The Germans have no friends and their bad manners and politically stupid acts will provide splendid material for the British and French."

Propaganda of the allies, he forecast, will be spread principally by sympathetic and emotional American ministers, politicians, professors and ministers.

"The primary objective of a propaganda campaign," he said, "is to establish an attitude of mind. When such a campaign is successful, the point of view it has created acts as a censor or interpreter of news and turns those propagandized into propagandists.

Objective Reached

"This objective already has been reached by the allies. A tremendous majority of Americans is convinced that the scales of justice are weighted in the allies' favor."

Dr. Peterson said he believed the propaganda of democracy, featured in 1914-18 by such slogans as "Save The World For Democracy," again would be very successful.

"The allies," he asserted, "will attempt to instill in the minds of Americans a belief that it is necessary to make war against Herr Hitler for the preservation of democracy. This is an utterly false idea.

"I am definitely of the opinion that the stability and future of the American nation do not depend upon the victory or defeat of any other nation anywhere in the world.

"What could very well happen as a result of American participation in another war would be the destruction of democracy within our own country."

Hitler A 'Villain'

Another effective of world war propaganda, the professor said, was the "propaganda of hate."

"This," he related, "must culminate in the creation of one or more villains. Here the advantage again rests with the allies. The German Fuehrer already is the most fashionable villain of our day."

The young historian expressed doubt the "propaganda of pity," which is based on atrocity stories, would work in this war, although Americans "were very receptive to them in the last war."

Effective propaganda, he said, is seldom based on falsehood.

"Instead," he explained, "it is a partisan interpretation of the truth—a half truth. The element in it which is correct appeals to the person being propagandized and makes him accept the whole interpretation as the truth.

"The greatest of the propaganda technique is that of omission. Wherever there is a censor, there is a propagandist. Every bulletin, report or interview which has come through the hands of a censor is propaganda.

National Socialism Doomed

"The only defense against it is to obtain the complete propaganda version of both sides."

Regardless of who wins the war, Dr. Peterson is convinced that "national socialism is doomed."

"It is not a stable form of government," he declared. "Nazism and fascism will fall in the next ten years. Then Russia will come forward and by 1950 Stalin will hold the balance of power in Europe.

"Then things will be just as nasty as they are now."

The professor said America could hope to gain nothing by entering the war.

"Peace will never exist in Europe," he asserted. "There are going to be many more wars in the future and if America is smart she'll sit this one out."

Four-Year-Old Girl Captivates Recital Crowd

Perhaps one should not now go as far as to say four-year-old Helen Kay Wilson is a prodigy pianist, but one can say, after having heard her play a 30-minute concert Friday night that she has unusual talent, rare concentration, a unique musical bent, a charming personality, and a lot of other nice things.

Helen Kay played 11 compositions from memory on the huge grand piano, and two on the organ in the First Christian church, and the best piece she played was an original composition called "China Lights." More than anything else the original composition indicated that she has more than unusual talent, because it seemed to some listeners that Helen Kay's own piece was superior to other numbers on the program, and two of her recital numbers were a Bach Minuet and Elmenreich's The Spinning Song.

"China Lights" may be a misnomer, for it sounded as if it might be the first tinkling of a musical inheritance left by Chaminade and meant expressly for Helen Kay—as if it might be the first musical thought of a successor to Chaminade, who is ranked by some as the greatest woman composer.

Perhaps one should recklessly label a child a "genius" or a "prodigy," but without making up one's mind whether she is or not one can assuredly say that it is remarkable that Helen Kay at the age of four can play as good as the average child several years older. Especially when one considers that Helen Kay has not reached the age of mental development where she can even read this article about her. Such a thought arouses awe, and justly awed were the 200 persons who watched her feet dangle a foot above the pedals and heard her play firmly, confidently with sure technique and feeling, and a tone that smote the breast with its beauty. Whether it was due to her playing or her precocity or both—Helen Kay captivated her audience—Archer Fullingim.

Capitol Dome Most Popular Attraction

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Sept. 30 (AP)—The majestic dome, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and the symbolical star in the floor of the rotunda were the chief points of interest for the estimated 150,000 visitors to Texas' capitol in the tourist season just ended.

This is the report of watchmen about the rotunda and custodians in the halls of the Senate and House of Representatives.

The flow of visitors through the vast statehouse this year has exceeded in only one other year, they say. That was 1936 when Texas celebrated its centennial anniversary and enthusiasm in the state's history soared to an all-time mark.

From June 24 to September, 9,240 visitors registered in the guest book in the Senate chamber and approximately that number in the hall of the House. Mrs. Hamm Ward, Senate custodian, estimated, however, less than one-third of those who visited the legislative halls registered and more than 27,000 actually viewed those places.

Moreover, many people who came to the capitol did not visit the legislative chambers. Therefore, the total number of visitors to the statehouse was much larger.

CAPITOL DOME

PRIME ATTRACTION

"As it always has been, the dome is the prime attraction for the majority of the visitors," said Ernest Boyett, sergeant-at-arms for the House of Representatives and custodian of the House hall when the legislature is not in session.

"People all over the state have seen pictures of the dome since childhood and read statistics on it. When they come to Austin, they want to see it. The children want to go to the very top and thousands do. Their elders usually go as far as they can by elevator but must stop there."

Elevators operate to the fourth floor and beyond that visitors must climb steep stairs. One of the principal duties of the watchman is to keep small boys and girls from leaning too far over the rotunda balustrades and breaking their necks.

"Thousands of visitors also have a hankering to see Governor O'Daniel and, in lieu of the governor in person, his suite of offices," Boyett said.

On most weekdays the reception room of the executive suite, located on the second floor, is open for several hours and visitors may stroll about, sit down in the antique chairs or put in bids to see the governor.

Only a small percentage of those who visit the capitol see Governor O'Daniel, however. It is not because the governor would not like to receive every visitor. He has often said he wished he could do this, but official duties limit his time.

A secretary greets visitors to the beautiful red, blue and gold reception room, inquires their business and bids them make themselves comfortable. If they ask to see the governor, the secretary takes their names on a card, and ultimately it reaches O'Daniel.

The consensus among observers is it is more difficult to see Governor O'Daniel than it was former Governor James V. Alfred, but no more than some other governors, for example, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson.

FOREIGNERS VISIT CAPITOL

Of the registrants in the Senate chamber, 746 came from 39 other states, the District of Columbia, and eight foreign countries, Oklahoma and Louisiana led in numbers with California and Illinois close seconds. The foreign countries were Australia, Cuba, England, Canada, Mexico, China, Scotland and Syria.

The big rush of visitors seemed to end about Labor Day, presumably because at that time children are returning to school. Noticeable now is an increase in visitors from the north and east.

Quite a few family groups still are coming to the capitol on Sundays, arriving in Austin late Saturday or early Sunday. Soon there will start a flow of school parties which travel to Austin by bus, train or automobile for fleeting courses in state government by observation.

This does not take into account the thousands of visitors—boys and girls and the parents and other relatives who stream into the city for football games at the University of Texas and St. Edward's university and who before game time "do" the capitol.

In the opinion of Boyett, the increased number of visitors is due to the greater interest in government in recent years.

More Imagination Than Money Needed In Making Homes Attractive

By MARIAN YOUNG

NEW YORK, Sept. 30—Whether she has plenty of money to spend or only a small amount, this is the season for the homemaker to order new slipcovers for the chairs, higher lamps to make reading pleasant and easier on the eyes, a coffee table to replace the small one, a panel of mirrored plate glass to be put over the fireplace from mantel to ceiling.

If you shop wise, much can be done on little money to give every room in the house new life, individuality and glamor.

Proof of this is the story of the Reading, Pa., woman who, for less than one hundred dollars, recently did an amazingly lovely job of changing over her living and dining rooms and her child's bedroom.

MADE STUDY OF INTERIOR DECORATING

First, she studied carefully magazine and newspaper articles and several authoritative books on interior decorating. She decided what was wrong with each room and its furniture. She made a list of things to buy, then she budgeted $100 carefully. She set aside a certain amount for mirrors, feeling that these would add new zest, bring new vistas into the room.

As the living room is the most generally used and important spot in her home, our heroine made up her mind to spend the largest amount there. Although a large, nicely-proportioned room (20 by 26) it just wasn't very attractive.

First, the high and narrow mantel was lowered and a 10-inch board at the back of it removed. Then a huge panel of mirrored plate glass was installed the full width of the mantel and upward to the ceiling. The final effect is even more charming than she had dreamed.

An antiquated and little-used upright piano was disposed of, and a gateleg table, previously near the entrance door, moved into its place. One of the two large chairs was placed beside the table, and an oval plate glass mirror above it. For the chair and the divan, in a window grouping, our amateur decorator made slipcovers of flowered cretonne. It costs 39 cents a yard and 18 yards were required.

Other expenditures included: 2 vases for the mantel, 50 cents; floor vase for the fireplace, $1.25; rug for fireplace, $1; hanging Ivy bowl, 39 cents; four prints at 25 cents

Successful Year Enjoyed By Duncan Coffee Company

A most successful year in every respect for the Duncan Coffee company was reported at the recent annual sales meeting which marked the celebration of that company's twenty-first anniversary, according to H. M. Duncan, founder and president.

This meeting, held in Houston, brought together salesmen from the wide-spread territory covered by the

H. M. DUNCAN

Duncan Coffee company, in which its two well known brands, Admirable and Bright & Early, are the leading sellers.

In commenting on the success which the company has enjoyed during its 21 years, Mr. Duncan laid stress upon the important part played by employees of the company in that success.

"The whole-hearted cooperation which every Duncan employee has shown throughout the history of each; four pottery pots at 10 cents each; one end table, $1.98; one lampshade, 69 cents; one lamp base and shade, $1; one other floor lamp shade, 69 cents; radiator cover, $1.89; mantel ornament at auction, $2.85; chair (also at auction), $2.85.

HUSBAND DEVELOPS ENTHUSIASM, TOO

By the time the living room was finished, our heroine's husband was more than willing to lend an enthusiastic hand toward rejuvenating the nursery and dining room. He helped to polish furniture, wax floors, hang pictures, made a low bookcase for the nursery, removed the green paint from a small chest in the dining room, rubbed the wood down to a natural finish and put on new shades ($1.25). Over the chest, another mirror seemed to be indicated. It cost $5.85.

In the nursery, expenses included: $1.75 for five yards of gay red and white chintz for a slipcover; $2.32 for a white pique bedspread with red fringe trimming; $3 for an un-painted chest.

All in all, $99.83 was spent in the three rooms, but the results achieved in the uplift of the family's spirits and pride in the home are all out of proportion to the expenditure.

our Company is most gratifying," said Mr. Duncan.

"Since the Duncan Coffee company was organized in August, 1918," Mr. Duncan continued, "it has been an unchangeable part of our operating policy to take the company employees into consideration in formulating any change of plans. After all, the interests of the company are equally the interests of the employees; and if a business is to be successful, that success must have its foundation in harmonious internal relations.

"During the depression years, when loss of employment was causing misery and a lowering of living standards, we tried to prevent this in our own organization. When we signed the NRA agreement in 1933, we discarded all of the machinery possible in our plants and added men and women to our payroll to do the work that had been done by these machines. Duncan employees have never had their wages cut or their working hours increased.

"Time has proved to us that this procedure was to the best interests of all concerned. Our business has constantly improved and our employees are satisfied. That, we think, is success."

Very nearly 400 people are in the Duncan employ at the present time.

Mass Power Of Housewives Can Control Prices

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30—Housewives who buy the daily food supplies for their families have sweeping power over the cost of these commodities. They proved it recently.

When a mass of consumers decide suddenly to move in the same direction at the same time, they can exert a gigantic force.

Right after the declaration of the war in Europe, hysteria based on fear rather than on any knowledge of market conditions swept over American housewives.

"They rushed out to stock up on sugar, flour, and other foods which they feared would suddenly become scarce. As a result, prices soared even though the supply of food in the United States is at an all-time high and the spectre of scarcity is purely imaginary.

MASS POWER MISDIRECTED

The incident proved the power of mass action, but these women, being without facts, exerted that force against themselves. These same women can exert a restraining influence if they will act together on market conditions. Truly, the magic that do the cooking rule the price of food.

Donald E. Montgomery, Consumers' Counsel of the Department of Agriculture, believes that the steadily growing interest in consumers' problems received significant impetus by the war panic.

"Most consumers had a feeling of helplessness about prices and price changes right after the beginning of war in Europe. The only thing they were sure was that they didn't know what was going to happen. That ignorance made them easy prey to mass hysteria. I think there is a real job ahead for all of us in getting facts to American housewives about the foods and other commodities they use in their homes."

As a result of the recent near-panic, the Consumers' Counsel in Washington received more inquiries about various market conditions than ever before. But the department feels that both consumer groups and the department should work together from now on to keep a knowledge of local and national conditions constantly before the housewife.

Women's clubs, church groups and similar organizations working in their local territories, should send on information about local conditions to the Consumers' Counsel Division of the Department of Agriculture, so that this local information can be used in appraising the national set-up.

NEW IMPETUS TO COOPERATION

The idea of local groups over the nation working together with the government in an effort to keep the women of the country intelligently informed on what is happening in the food markets is something new in our national life.

"Perhaps this is the first real opportunity for the consumer movement, as we call it, to play a real nationwide and significant role in public affairs," Mr. Montgomery says. "The job for all of us right now is to avoid panic and keep ourselves realistic. To make the average woman feel secure and responsible as a part of her community, she needs to feel sure that she has ready access to information relating directly to her own domestic situation and conditions. That she has to do—to let people know what's happening in their consumer market and to help them understand it."

WELL, ALL OF US WERE BORN TO TROUBLE

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—Before he even is born, one Port Arthur child is being sued in district court.

The unborn child's father was killed on a construction job and the compensation commission decreed that not only should the mother receive compensation but payment also should be made for the infant's benefit.

The insurance company has appealed the decision to the district court and named the unborn babe as one defendant.

Farm House To Have Comforts Of City Home

By MARIAN YOUNG
 NEW YORK, Sept. 30—Tomorrow's children will go back to the old homestead not only to see the folks and get a whiff of fresh air, but to sit and admire again the houses in which they were born—houses of charm and beauty as well as comfort. Because, inside and out, the farm houses of tomorrow will be smart and ultra-utilitarian from every point of view.

One of them—called the electrified farm—is on exhibit at the New York World's Fair. And it's enough to make anyone who remembers how the family wash was done in a tub that rested upon the backs of two kitchen chairs, what a long time it took to make butter in a barrel churn or how hard it was to read by the lamp on the kitchen table, how all sentiment for the old ways and wish that he'd been born tomorrow instead of yesterday.

trified farm were determined by the many farm materials which were donated for the exhibit. Also by the use of the most economical roof (single slope with slight pitch), and by the placement of the windows where they were most needed—the south side in the case of the greenhouse, brooder, poultry house, milk parlor, dairy and house proper.

All of the living rooms of the house face south, overlooking the gardens and fruit trees. (Remember how the gardens always were at the back of the house which had no windows, while at the front, with windows, faced on the road?)

The dead-end kitchen is designed not as a throughfare, but as a place where the farmer's wife may cook without interruption and where the rest of the family won't be running in and out, muddy boots and all, and tracking up the clean floor. Plenty of natural light by day and plenty of artificial light by night falls on all the working surfaces.

Adjoining the kitchen is a mechanical laundry which provides expansion space for the kitchen during the canning season and for extra hands to eat during harvesting. One entire side of this laundry is a sliding partition which disappears into a recess and joins the laundry to the large back porch. A mother with small children would appreciate this feature. It enables her to keep an eye on the little darlings and at the same time finish the

TEXAN WINS MOVIE LEAD

OFFICE AND WASHROOM
FARM HAS EVEN

The living room with huge windows and a six feet wide hearth in front of the fireplace, a reading corner, air-conditioning and concealed lighting, a built-in sofa with radio and concealed cabinet space is functional but at the same time as beautiful as any urban living room.

An office and wash room, separated from the rest of the house by an open passageway (glazed in during the winter), may be used also as an extra bedroom. The same wash room is easily accessible from the wide back porch which adjoins the laundry.

Six years ago a 17-year-old girl walked into the offices of the dramatics department of Texas State College for Women and announced her intentions of becoming a movie actress. Her name was Ardis Ankerson; her home town San Antonio. In a few weeks now Warner Brothers will release "Espionage Agent." The feminine lead will be played by Brenda Marshall, the Ardis Ankerson who has insisted that she would be a movie actress since she was eight years old. Joel McCrea will play opposite her. In college Miss Ankerson was permitted to take advanced dramatics courses while she was yet an underclassman, and she was the only underclassman ever admitted to the College Little Theater.

Cake, Fruit, Eggs Are Ingredients For Week-End Hospitality

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
 Plenty of fresh eggs, jars of canned fruit and a large cake in the house over the week-end is the rule for hospitable homes. If several drop in for Sunday night supper, there will be plenty of good food to welcome them. You probably need a new recipe for a larger chocolate cake. This one will serve from 16 to 18, a regular hospitality guarantee.

- Chocolate Cake
 (16 to 18 servings)
 Three squares unsweetened chocolate, 5 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract, 2 cups cake flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2-3 cup shortening, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 3 eggs, 2-3 cup milk.
- Cook chocolate, cut in pieces, 5 tablespoons sugar and water until thick, stirring constantly. Set aside to cool thoroughly; add vanilla. Sift flour, measure; add baking powder and salt; sift together. Cream shortening; add 1 1/2 cups sugar gradually and continue beating until light and fluffy. Add well beaten eggs and chocolate mixture; blend well. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk, beating after each addition. Pour batter into well greased baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 40 minutes. Cool and top with seven-minute icing.
- Seven-Minute Icing
 (Frosts Cake 12 by 8 by 2 inches)
 Two egg whites, unbeaten, dash of salt, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 5 tablespoons water, 1 1/2 teaspoons white corn syrup, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract.
- Put egg white, salt, sugar, water and syrup in upper part of double boiler. Beat with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water; beat constantly with rotary egg beater, and cook about 7 minutes, or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and beat until thick enough to spread. Frost the cake.
- American production of cotton increased 50-fold between 1800 and the Civil war.

- Boiled Fish With Egg Sauce Is Plain Dish You'll Fancy
- By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
 Just a few good plain recipes to eat when the leaves turn red brighten any homemaker's life. You'll like these.
- Boiled Fresh Fish with Egg Sauce
 Two to three pounds haddock or cod, 1 1/2 cups milk, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 hard-cooked egg, salt, pepper, parsley.
- Wash the fish, and wrap in a piece of cheesecloth or parchment paper. Place on a rack in a kettle, cover with boiling water, add salt to season, and simmer for 20 to 30 minutes. Lift out carefully, place on a hot platter, remove the skin, and serve with a sauce made with the milk, butter and flour, with salt and pepper to season, and with the sliced hard-cooked eggs stirred in at the last.
- Scalloped Tomatoes with Lima Beans.
 Three to four tomatoes, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 3/4 cup bread crumbs, 1 cup cooked lima beans, 2 tablespoons butter.
- Scald, peel and quarter tomatoes, add sugar, salt and pepper. Arrange alternate layers of tomatoes, crumbs
- and lima beans, reserving crumbs for top layer. Dot with butter, bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes.
- Currant Apple Tart
 Plain pastry, 1 cup applesauce, 1 8-ounce glass currant jelly, 1/2 cup chopped dates, 1/4 cup chopped nuts, 1/4 cup toasted bread crumbs.
- Line pie pan with pastry. Mix applesauce, jelly, dates and nuts. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Sprinkle with crumbs. Crapenuts or rolled corn flakes or zwieback crumbs may be used in place of bread crumbs. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Serve with cream if desired.

School Instructor Uses Morton's Salt

Mrs. Arreva D. French, who will conduct The Pampa News cooking school, is featuring Morton salt, which has that popular slogan that is known the country over, "When It Rains It Pours."

Mrs. French states that Morton salt can be used in either the iodized or plain as desired and in all her schools she calls attention to one particular feature of Morton salt and that is that it has a spout that won't tear out.

The lecturer says she is always glad to recommend such a high class product as Morton salt and says it costs the average housewife only about two cents a week.

See the demonstrations of Mrs. French at the cooking school in which many of the recipes specify Morton salt.

New Gadgets Are Pretty Good Reasons Why Kitchen Can Be Place Of Beauty

By NEA Service
NEW YORK, Sept. 30—With kitchen and cooking equipment becoming more attractive as well as more efficient by the minute, there's no reason why the kitchen can't be one of the pleasantest rooms in the house. In many a modern home, it is.

Even an old-fashioned kitchen, after expert face-lifting, emerges with a "World of Tomorrow" look. Sleek, modern ranges, refrigerators and sink units, together with separate enameled steel cabinets to provide adequate storage and working space, take care of that.

New base cabinets have non-tippable sliding shelves, lots and lots of roomy drawer space, and sound-softening, chromium-bound linoleum work tops. Wall cabinets of assorted sizes can be grouped to suit the needs of the individual kitchen.

Newest kitchen tabs are of chrome-plated tube steel with linoleum or porcelain enamel tops. Matching chairs have colorful washable composition seats and backs. Nice thing about these, there's practically no wear-out on refuse container of a new metal alloy that is durable, that doesn't chip, corrode or tarnish—one of enamel with alloy inner can. Both of these have rubber around the tops which takes out the jangle when the lids drop down.

For the vacuum cleaner there is a new dustbag with slide fastener across the bottom, so that the bag itself never has to be removed from the cleaner for emptying. Also shown at a recent housewares exhibit were carpet sweepers with improved features for easier and better operation—automatic brush adjustments, built-in brush cleaners, fat rubber bumpers, finger-tip emptying devices.

AN INCENTIVE FOR GUESTS
A standard floor waxer contains a new small heating device for easier spreading of wax on cold floors. The same machine polishes, sands and scrubs.

Newest models of electric mixers and juicers are ultra-streamlined and look quite handsome in the kitchen besides being fascinatingly efficient. One new mixer actually liquifies fruit and vegetables by reducing them to a puree with rapidly rotating knives. A quite professional looking slicer, cuts anything sliceable (but not the thumb—it has a fool-proof safety device) from paper-thin to an inch thick.

Really beautiful appliances are designed for table or buffet service. Gleaming chrome finishes a new combination sandwich toaster, grill and waffle iron, with heat indicator that tells correct temperatures for its different functions. A three-well electric server keeps snacks hot for simply hours and hours, if guests or family are tardy. And there are smart new table boilers with removable, washable heating units.

Mrs. Modern Housewife can be sure of always serving perfect coffee. One of the new automatic electric coffee makers takes away any guesswork. When the beverage is done, the current automatically switches off, or a very low heat is maintained to keep the beverage hot without brewing it stronger. An automatic teapot works on the same principle. One very beautiful new coffee maker is of hand-cut, clear crystal, with sugar and creamer to match—all set on a chrome and ebony tray.

Top-Of-The-Stove Used For Dumplings Glass Saucepans

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
Dumplings now live in glass houses. There's a new glass saucepan on the market which is flame proof. Excellent for dumplings and many other recipes. Comes in one and one and a half and two quart sizes, has glass lock on cover, wide flat bottom and sides, is for use on both gas and electric stoves, and has a quick detachable stainless steel band and cool glass handle. If you like to cook in glass, this new saucepan will bring joy to your heart.

Gypsy Dumplings
(6 servings)
One pound ground lean beef, ½ pound ground pork, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 2 tablespoons fat, 1 tablespoon flour, 1½ cups water, 1 cup tomatoes, 2 tablespoons catsup, few sprigs parsley.

Dumplings
(8 servings)
One and one-half cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1½ tablespoons shortening, ½ cup milk.

Mix meat, salt, pepper and onions together; shape into 6 meat balls and brown in fat melted in hot frying pan. Place meat balls in a two quart heat resistant glass top of stove dish. Blend flour in fat in frying pan. Add water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add tomatoes and catsup and pour over meat balls. Simmer for 10 minutes.

For dumplings, mix and sift dry ingredients, cut in fat, add milk, stirring lightly to make soft dough. Drop a tablespoon of dumpling mixture on top of each meat ball. Cover dish closely and cook gently for 15 minutes. Garnish with parsley and serve from its own cooking dish.

War May Unite Americas In Permanent Bonds

If ever in the history of the United States there was an opportunity for long-range statesmanship, it is in the deliberations among the 21 American Republics now going on in Panama.

Everybody knows that the European War throws our way certain opportunities for trade. South American buyers accustomed to being supplied from Europe have had to turn to the United States.

But it is imperative that the United States look on this situation as more than a mere opportunity to turn a quick profit. It is much bigger than that.

Closer trade links between the Americas are inevitable. But the important thing is to place them on so solid a foundation that after the war is over they cannot be shaken.

What Roosevelt really means is that he wants all opposition to be withdrawn so that he can have a free hand to make as much of a mess of the rest of the world as he has made in getting us out of the depression.

sees any man making money can go in and demand so much that there is nothing left. And the United States Government says they cannot afford to let these men fall in their attempt to take everything that is produced.

This assertion that we cannot allow workers to lose a strike, was made by Madden to the Association of Members of a Committee of the Remington Rand Employers Independent Association.

This is the kind of man who represents President Roosevelt. Inasmuch as Roosevelt has the power to remove him, he is responsible.

REMOVING POLITICS FROM PUSHING US INTO WAR

If Roosevelt is anxious to have politics suspended in our war problems, this wish can be very easily accomplished if he really means it.

It might have been all right for Roosevelt to refuse to say whether he would be a candidate for the third term, when we were in danger of getting into war.

The fact that Roosevelt does not now, under the stress we are in, publicly announce that he will not be a candidate, indicates that he does not want to keep politics out of international affairs.

The Nation's Press

THE COURAGEOUS (N. Y. Times)

Complacent assumptions that the submarine is no longer an effective weapon against modern navies, sink beneath the waters which cover the British aircraft-carrier Courageous.

Many will remember that in the early months of the last war, too, Germany launched an effective attack on British men-of-war.

In the present case the British believe that the submarine which sank the Courageous was itself destroyed. Perhaps the fact that announcement came from London and not Berlin bears them out.

Behind The News Of The Day

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—At its regular session in January, Congress probably will be called on to help the United States take advantage of its new export trade opportunity in South America.

The opportunity is simple enough. Last year Germany sold $289,000,000 worth of goods in South America.

Financing it is apt to be tough. The administration has been studying the problem and has examined several suggestions.

The handiest bit of existing machinery is the Export-Import Bank. It has loanable resources of $100,000,000, but most of this is already committed.

U. S. CORPORATION MAY ENTER MARKET

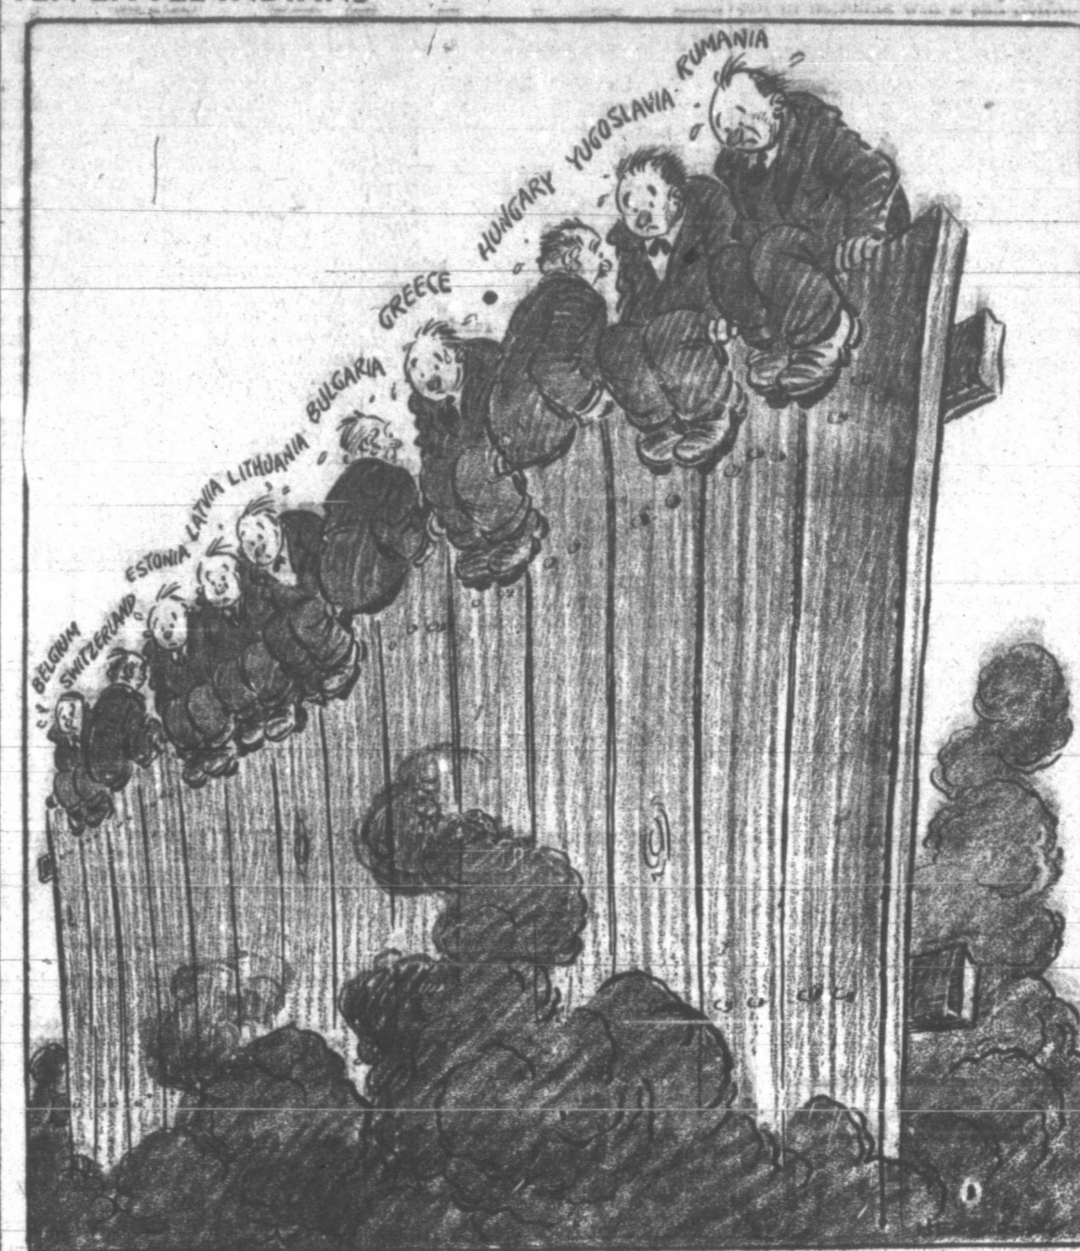

If new machinery is to be created, an entirely new method of handling the trade may be indicated. One plan which has been considered is to set up a government corporation to buy surplus South American commodities—coffee, wheat and so on—in much the manner that surplus United States commodities are now handled.

This scheme admittedly would be expensive, and has aroused strong opposition from the business advisers in the Department of Commerce.

A variant of this plan which has been suggested is to make direct loans to the leading South American countries, taking stocks of their raw materials as security.

It should be explained that there is a good deal of feeling in some groups here that none of these proposals would be wise; that the only sound way to handle the problem would be to let the South American nations make the approaches and to let all trade be handled in the normal way.

TEN LITTLE INDIANS

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—It's a white brick house that is uncolossal and charming, set in tree shrubs and flowers.

The hall opens at the right end on a terrace, locks to the right beyond into a large cool-looking living room. At the terrace door stands a young woman in a pale blue wool suit, dark glasses hiding her eyes.

"I've locked myself out," says Irene Dunne. I let her in, but we go to the terrace again and the man in the white jacket—whose name is Bernard—brings a glass of sherry and a glass of fruit juice.

"I'm on the wagon," says Irene Dunne. "I've been on for two months. For no reason—not diet, not health, not anything."

The terrace is not a patio. There is nothing California-Spanish about it. It is a restful place, looking out on a large green formal garden.

Missy is Irene Dunne's adopted daughter. The turtle came from the San Francisco fair. Irene Dunne is more worried about Missy than she is about turtle.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture recently completed a study of frankfurters from 175 federally inspected meat packing establishments in 20 different cities.

This inspection applies also to hamburgers which often contain pork as well as beef.

In the long run, it is argued, South America can take only such United States goods as it is able to pay for; if the United States buys more from South America it can sell more to South America, but if it refuses to buy more it won't sell so very much more unless it puts up its own money.

Right now, Commerce Department people point out, the United States has 36 per cent of South America's trade, which is just about its fair percentage.

Hot dog munchers in the United States consume an average of 35 a person each year, making the frankfurter one of the most common staple articles eaten.

Under federal meat inspection regulations, frankfurters are processed in a manner that destroys the life of any trichinae that may be present.

Persons who like their hamburgers rare should remember this danger. A well-done hamburger may not taste quite the same but safeguards the eater against dangerous trichinae.

THOSE CORN Shuckers you hear daily at 5:30 p. m. on KPDN are so good that a lot of folk at first thought the program was transcribed.

The Corn Shuckers came into being locally last Wednesday evening when they made their KPDN debut. Their popularity became immediate.

Without a doubt, the variety on the Corn Shuckers' program makes it one of the finest features ever aired locally from KPDN studios.

Harry Hoare, sports editor of The News, who broadcast his first football game Friday night, went right from the press box to the radio station where he listened to himself on a recording that had been made while he was in action over the air.

AND, SPEAKING OF that football game here Friday night, we'd like to say a word of praise for Band Director A. C. Cox and that very snappy Pampa High band.

THIS LAST BEST HOPE OF EARTH

In his second annual message to Congress Abraham Lincoln said, "We shall meanly lose or nobly save this last best hope of earth."

It is becoming plain to our generation that the issues confronting us are far more important "to ourselves and posterity" than those which confronted either Abraham Lincoln or George Washington.

Today the world faces disaster. The lights of Liberty are being blacked out all over Europe.

Why has all this come about? I submit that it is largely due to the fact that the world, and we in America, have been moving away from the principles upon which this great republic was founded.

Our representative government, as designed by our forefathers, was a pyramid. You see this symbolized in the great seal of the United States, reproduced on the back of the dollar bill in your pocket.

This has all been done under the slogans of a spurious "liberalism" and false "security." But what is secure today? A pyramid resting upon its apex is not secure.

It is becoming clear that all these new economic and political patent medicine men have not served their generation well. They have talked miserably about the horse and buggy days. They have asked for power and yet more power.

In this statement we have the greatest challenge to the totalitarian philosophy the world has ever known.

Deserts are caused chiefly by regular passage of hot, dry trade winds.

CONFUSING, MISLEADING STATEMENTS OF UNDER-SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY HANES

We have, as Under-Secretary of the Treasury, John W. Hanes. He realizes the importance of having men willing to be venturesome. He realizes that if men are not willing to be venturesome and lose their savings, we cannot have a high standard of living and full employment.

For instance, he says, "we are confronted today with a great surplus of Capital, which does not desire to take chances and a distinct shortage of that which does."

In the first place, it is not capital that takes chances. It is the owner of capital who is willing to trade either his capital or credit for labor to create new wealth. It seems to me that Hanes is confused as to what capital is, when he says there is a surplus of capital.

So the Secretary is careless and confusing to the great mass of people, when he says there is a surplus of capital. There is no surplus of capital and never has been and cannot be, by the very nature of things, as our wants increase infinitely faster than our ability to supply them.

CANNOT ALLOW WORKERS TO LOSE A STRIKE

How can any realist expect an increase in private employment when the head of the National Labor Relations Board, who has the final say as to whether men can be discharged or not, says we cannot allow workers to lose a strike.

History Of Tabasco Sauce Dates Back To Discovery By Soldier In War Of 1847

In 1847 the United States and Mexico were at war. Towards the close of that year General Scott led his victorious troops into the City of Mexico; thereby ending that unpleasantness. After peace was declared, and the soldiers from the north country had been ordered home, quite a few of the Sutters and army followers remained in Mexico to seek their fortunes.

One of these men by the name of Gleason worked his way south from Mexico City and took up his residence in the State of Tabasco, where he found conditions to his liking. Later, he decided to come back to the States, and in 1852, took ship at one of the Gulf ports, landing in New Orleans. While there, he was brought in contact with Mr. McIlhenny, a banker, and gave to him some pepper seeds which he stated would produce a pepper pod of especially fine flavor and color. These pepper seeds were planted by Mr. McIlhenny and, eventually, some of the plants were taken to Avery Island, La., near New Iberia, and there grown in the kitchen garden of Mr. McIlhenny's father-in-law, Judge Avery.

We now come to the War of the States, when the North and South were engaged in a death struggle which, fortunately, for the perpetuation of our great country, ended disastrously for the South. It was primarily due to the defeat of the Southern cause that Tabasco came into being. Due to the fact that both Judge Avery and Mr. McIlhenny took prominent parts in financing the administration of the Southern cause, they were, when General Banks captured southern Louisiana, banished from the state, and with their families went across country by wagon train from south central Louisiana to South Central Texas, where they remained until peace was declared.

After the war, these banished people returned to the old home plantation and with their families and such of their old slaves who had remained faithfully on the plantation, the work of building a new home and fortune was begun.

Mr. McIlhenny began experimenting with the making of condiments and seasonings for the family's use. Finding in the shrubbery growing about the place some bushes of pepper similar to those he had previously raised from seeds brought to him by Gleason, from Mexico, Mr. McIlhenny experimented in making a hot, pungent sauce from these peppers, which at once, due to its high flavor, met with the approval of his family and friends. When a name to designate the sauce became necessary, Mr. McIlhenny called it Tabasco; that being the name of the state in Mexico from which the seed of the pepper originally came.

From the small start in 1868, the distribution of Tabasco soon became world-wide, and it was not long before it could be procured in every civilized country in the world, and some that were uncivilized.

A large part of the popularity of Tabasco lies in its pungent, highly aromatic flavor. A large part of the success and reputation of the seasonings used in Creole cookery is due to Tabasco. It is especially valuable in giving the breakfast egg a fine flavor. As the English say, "It makes a good egg better and a bad egg good."

As an aid to digestion this sauce has no equal—for its penetrating pungency stimulates the peptic glands, causing an increased flow of the digestive juices.

But it is in the kitchen where Tabasco is of the greatest value to the housewife. There is hardly a dish which cannot be improved by adding a few drops of this pungent sauce while cooking. Mrs. French even brings its use in Ice Cream to advise out the flavor.

Everybody Wears Them in London

and flour are mixed before you add moisture, the better your results are likely to be. Sift three or four times.

For biscuits, make a smooth dough that can be handled without sticking, and bake in moderate oven. For cakes, have your oven slow to moderate at first, until the cake is fully risen; then increase heat so as to just brown lightly.

Mrs. French says that K C, the brand she is using in cooking schools, is manufactured by baking powder specialists who make nothing but baking powder—controlled by expert chemists of national reputation. It is always uniform in quality and can be relied upon to produce for you the kind of bakings women are proud to serve.

Wedding Breakfast Tip Given For The October Bride-Elect

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

October brides anxious to have a wedding breakfast that their guests will remember with pleasure can take some tips from the chef of the Pennsylvania Hotel in New York. He suggests this menu, which he planned exclusively for readers of this column. It serves 25.

October Wedding Breakfast
Clear green turtle soup, celery hearts, salted nuts, ripe olives, sweetbreads, chicken, Virginia ham and fresh mushrooms on toast (served from chafing dish), hot finger rolls, assorted sandwiches, tomato aspic salad with celery, water-cress (tarragon dressing), biscuit glace, wedding cake, coffee.

Green turtle soup can be ordered from a caterer or a high-class food specialty shop. Order 5 quarts for 25 people.

Sweetbreads, Chicken, Mushrooms, and Virginia Ham a la Newburg
(Serves 25)
Thirty-five medium-sized sweetbreads, 4 pounds white meat of chicken, 2 pounds of Virginia ham minced, 1/2 pint of good quality cooking sherry wine, 8 quarts 30 per cent heavy cream, 2 pounds cut mushrooms, 3 dozen egg yolks, seasoning, to taste.

Mince sweetbreads, fry in pan five minutes; add white meat of chicken and Virginia ham with seasoning. Mix well, add sherry wine and let cook for five minutes. Add cream and mushrooms and let boil for eight minutes. Finish by adding egg yolks mixed with a little cream. Stir, without boiling, until thick. Serve with Meiba toast in chafing dish.

Biscuit Glace (Pineapple and Orange Ice)
(Serves 25)
Three and one-half pounds granulated sugar, 1 quart luke-warm water, 1 whole grated fresh pineapple, 1 quart cold water, 3 oranges grated, pulp mashed, juice of 3 lemons, 1/2 white of an egg, pinch of salt.

Dissolve granulated sugar in one quart of luke-warm water; grate fresh pineapple into syrup. Strain. Add one quart water, orange and lemon juice and grated orange rind to the strained pineapple syrup. Pour into freezer and add the unbeaten egg white to the fruit juice. Place in Biscuit Potoni case and decorate with half maraschino cherry and two pieces of angelique.

Hints Given On Use Of Baking Powder

Mrs. Arreva French, who is conducting the Pampa News cooking school, says that for best results in baking it is a good plan to follow these simple rules:

Use the amount of baking powder recommended on the can. Because of its high strength of K C baking powder, which she is using in the school, only one LEVEL teaspoon should be used to a cup of well-sifted flour for most recipes. This is equivalent to one heaping teaspoon to a quart of flour. Careful measurement is very necessary as using more or less than a recipe calls for will not produce best results.

Another secret of good baking is to be sure that the baking powder

COWBOYS VS. TURKEYS
ADVERSE—Out in these parts of the west where flocks of turkeys herd on huge flocks of turkeys instead of cattle, the problem arises of what to do about birds that don't come home to roost at night.
 Leon Alexander, Mason county farmer, has solved it. His turkeys frequently range out in the brush and try to roost there. They are easy prey for coyotes.

 So Alexander placed a goat with the flock and the goat has become so attached to the turkeys he never leaves them. Whenever Alexander calls the goat, the animal bleats and Alexander knows the location of his turkeys.

Cooking School To Include Cake Baking Contest

"Calling all cake bakers!" This is an invitation to enter Mrs. Tucker's cake baking contest in connection with the Pampa News Cooking School which opens at the LaNora theater at 9 a. m. tomorrow and which will feature Mrs. Tucker's shortening and other well-known products. Mrs. Tucker is offering a $4.00 cash prize for the best cake and $2.00 in cash for the second best cake entered in the contest.
 Any kind of cake may be entered and the only requirement is that Mrs. Tucker's shortening be used in making the cake. But this requirement is a joy, according to the many cooking experts who are using Mrs. Tucker's shortening exclusively in their schools. These experts who tested Mrs. Tucker's shortening in over 200 cooking schools last year recommend this shortening especially for cake making because it is so creamy smooth and easy to use.

First to feature "triple-creamed" shortening, Mrs. Tucker has improved her product by "multi-creaming" the product over and over again. Every pound of Mrs. Tucker's is whipped, aerated, and creamed many times so that it reaches kitchen velvety-smooth for easy creaming and mixing with other ingredients. Housewives everywhere say that Mrs. Tucker's shortening is so creamy at all temperatures that other ingredients may be quickly stirred in without tiresome creaming. Mrs. Tucker is so proud of such compliments she is staging this cake baking contest to prove to all housewives in this section the pleasure of making cakes with her creamy shortening. Complete details of the contest and the day for judging will be announced from the stage at the first school session beginning at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

The SERVEL ELECTROLUX Gas Refrigerator

IT'S PERMANENTLY SILENT because it has no moving parts in its freezing system

Since the Servel Electrolux refrigerator operates on gas, a single burner takes the place of moving, wearing parts . . . a tiny flame circulates the refrigerant, without wear or noise.

These are important advantages in themselves, but equally important are the other results that you get in refrigeration freezing without moving parts . . . the fact that the low operating cost is never increased, that Servel gives you more years of service, and actually can save enough in food alone to pay for itself.

Ask your friends and neighbors who own Servels what they think of gas refrigeration . . . then, before you decide on any make, get all the facts about Servel Electrolux "the gas refrigerator you hear about but never hear!"

YOU GET these advantages:

- ▶ NO MOVING PARTS in its freezing system
- ▶ PERMANENT SILENCE
- ▶ CONTINUED LOW OPERATING COST
- ▶ MORE YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE
- ▶ SAVINGS THAT PAY FOR IT
