U. S. SPLIT IN TWO CAMPS OVER THANKSGIVING

The country is evenly divided in two "warring" factions over the observance of Thanksgiving Day this year. Half the states reused to follow President Roosevelt's call for observance of the Thanksgiving holiday instead of Nov. 30, which would be the traditional date. Two states split the difference and observe both days. Here's how they divide.

Ball To Follow Sydna Yokley Banquet Tonight

A Panhandle girl will receive the accolade of her home town and the entire Plains region when she is honored with a banquet and ball at Canadian tonight.

The girl is Sydna Yokley, Hamilton county ranch girl, nationally famous for her ability to do a real job of ranching, and her skill in the rodeo ring.

A Thanksgiving theme will be used in the decorations of the W. C. T. U. building in Canadian, where the banquet will be held, starting at 7:00 o'clock.

In further honor of Miss Yokley, Canadian today observed the Roosevelt version of Thanksgiving day.

Arrangements are being made to care for 150 persons at the banquet.

Mother Falls Five Floors To Death

LUBBOCK, Nov. 23 (AP)—Funeral services will be held in Fort Worth for Mrs. W. J. McAfee, 30, who plunged five floors to her death from an office building here yesterday.

The woman's body, the skull crushed, was found in a paved alley. Identification was established by her husband, a telephone company employe.

The tragedy occurred shortly after Mrs. McAfee had taken her small son, Donald, 6, and a neighbor's daughter to town. She had left them in her automobile.

Besides her husband and son, Mrs. McAfee is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. St. et, Fort Worth.

I Heard . . .

That a Pampa housewife went into a butcher shop yesterday and asked the clerk if he was saving her turkey for November 23 or 30. She just remembered that a week ago she called and told the butcher to save her a turkey for Thanksgiving but forgot to tell him which one.

Pampans Will Board Phillips Train Monday

Many Pampa business and professional men will say "Happy Birthday" to Frank Phillips, of the company bearing his name, in Bartlesville, Okla., on Tuesday when thousands of employes and friends gather for a huge birthday party.

At a meeting of a group of merchants this morning, several signed to ride a special train to Bartlesville and others said they would send employes.

The special train will arrive in Pampa about 9 o'clock Monday night after leaving Amarillo and stopping at Phillips for a large delegation of employes and friends. The trippers will arrive in Bartlesville at about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning with departure for Pampa at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Any business firm in the city who can send a representative on the train is urged to notify the Chamber of Commerce. Return tickets on the train will be $8.25.

Governor Leon C. Phillips of Oklahoma will make the address at the birthday ceremony in the Municipal stadium where a giant birthday cake will be cut. The ceremony will follow a parade that will require more than two hours to pass the reviewing stand.

Mr. Phillips will be 66 on Tuesday.

There are 250 Phillips employes living in the Pampa area and more than half of them will attend the birthday party. All offices will be closed and skeleton crews will operate plants that cannot be closed down.

Public schools were in session today, but they will close next Wednesday afternoon for the annual Thanksgiving week-end holiday period. Classes at Holy Souls school were suspended today and the school also will be closed next Thursday. Class will be held on both Fridays of the two Thanksgiving weeks, however.

Turkey Grower Robbed

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23 (AP)—Jeff Jacobs, a butcher, sold a lot of turkeys to the Thanksgiving trade, but he didn't feel much like eating one himself today.

This was because two young robbers kidnaped him last night, forced him to drive to a lonely mountain road on Twin Peaks, and took $1,000, the receipts for his shop for two days before Thanksgiving.

39 Drifting Mines Seen In North Sea

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—A navy announcement that 39 drifting mines have been sighted in the North Sea in the last two days deepened the convictions of some military experts today that they had been set adrift to make British waters a no-man's area for all shipping.

Stirry weather often has wrestled mines from their moorings, but seldom in such clusters as indicated by the incomplete reports broadcast by the navy's hydrographic office. Most of the reports came from the U. S. S. Trenton.

Treaties prescribe automatic devices to assure that mines accidentally set adrift will be rendered harmless within an hour, but those afloat in the North Sea have accounted for most of the 16 ships sunk or damaged in the last five days.

The latest development in the European sea warfare suggested these tentative conclusions to qualified experts.

The expert heavy shipping losses are due to the numbers of the mines and their free drift rather than to the perfection of revolutionary new undersea weapons.

Virtually all the mines have been laid by submarines built for the purpose.

Setting them adrift has raised difficulties calculated to tax British and French means of keeping open vital commerce lanes.

The allied blockade and the German fight to create a counter blockade has not differed basically from the 1914-1918 pattern.

Browder To Speak At Yale University

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 23 (AP)—Yale's historic campus gates were opened today to Earl Browder, Communist leader.

Conrad Sepp of Chicago, secretary of the Yale Peace Council, announced President Charles A. Seymour had granted the student group permission to have Browder speak in a university building.

The council said Sepp, a sophomore, decided to bring Browder to New Haven because the latter's "civil liberties have been attacked at Princeton, Dartmouth, and Harvard."

The Communist leader will speak here next Tuesday.

Only yesterday, Princeton joined Harvard in refusing to have Browder, now under a federal indictment, speak on its campus. At Dartmouth, officials are trying to make up their minds as to whether he should be allowed to speak there.

Recreation Project Will Be Discussed

Plans for reviving the Pampa Recreation program, under Works Progress Administration supervision, will be discussed at a meeting of the advisory board members—Mayor E. S. Carr, Mrs. Glen Pool, J. B. Massa, Tex DeWesse, C. E. McGrew, L. L. Sone and Herman Lambrecht—at 7:30 o'clock Friday night in the city hall.

Simon Scores 'Savagery' Of Sea Attack

Six More Vessels Added To Heavy Losses Of Week

LONDON, Nov. 23 (AP)—Six more British, French and neutral vessels today were added to heavy maritime losses of the past week from mine and submarine warfare.

British naval writers have suggested that the sudden increase in ship losses is due to "magnetic mines," planted by the Germans at depths too great for mine-sweepers to detect but so devised that they rise when a sizeable vessel passes overhead.

Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, said in a radio broadcast last night:

"You have been reading in your newspaper of this latest abomination of German savagery—the magnetic mine—secretly deposited in channels of the sea in order to blow up without warning neutral and British shipping alike. x x x all that skill and science can devise is devoted to meeting the new danger. We are confident our efforts will be successful."

Losses disclosed today were: The British steamer Darino, 1,351 tons, sunk by a submarine Nov. 19. Sixteen members of the crew were believed missing. Eleven survivors landed on the east coast after spending three days in a submarine before being transferred to an Italian ship.

The 4,576-ton Greek freighter Elena R., sunk by a mine; 24 persons saved.

The British steamer Geraldus, 2,494 tons, formerly named the Candeston Castle; 26 saved.

British trawler Sulby, 287 tons, sunk by a submarine off the Scottish coast; seven saved and five missing.

French fishing trawler Saint-Clair-B-922 sunk by mine; 11 of 12 crew members feared lost.

French fishing trawler Bayles II sunk by submarine; 16 saved.

Goedfrey Shakespear, parliamentary under-secretary to the admiralty, told the house of commons that 15 mines, all German, had come ashore on the eastern English coast within the last fortnight.

In addition, the exchange telegraph agency reported that German planes flying low over the Thames estuary last night had sowed miniature, high-explosive mines by parachute.

The admiralty related that the destroyer Gipsy was beached on the east coast Tuesday after striking a mine. Forty of her crew were missing and 21 injured. Built in 1936, she carries a normal complement of 145.

As partial consolation, Britain had the spectacular destruction of a German air raider off the east coast which witnesses aerial combat for the third successive night and the third time in one day.

Witnesses over the area heard the bark of anti-aircraft batteries and saw searchlights grope the skies while fighting planes went up to give chase.

It was officially announced that a German plane was shot down at sea and another driven off.

The British and French forces on the western front also reported success in the air, with destruction of eight German planes yesterday.

Mines Dropped In Thames By 'Chute'

LONDON, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Exchange Telegraph company, British news agency, asserted today it had learned that German planes flying low over the Thames estuary last night dropped mines by parachute.

It said authorities described the mines as being exceptionally light and containing a very high explosive.

A large number of these miniature mines could be sowed by one aircraft, it was added.

Cancer Sufferer Dies In Freezing Chamber

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23 (AP)—Death in a "refrigeration chamber" at a hospital ended the efforts of Mrs. Rufus Nugent, 30, of Ventura, Calif., to escape suffering from cancer.

One of the first patients on the Pacific coast to undergo the ice pack technique through which the body temperature of the sufferer is reduced more than eight degrees below normal, Mrs. Nugent died yesterday after 17 1/2 hours in the chamber.

Earth Shakes Under Missouri, Illinois Cities

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23 (AP)—An earth shock which lasted an average of 30 seconds, and apparently did no major damage, was felt in many Missouri towns and Illinois cities between 9:16 and 9:20 a. m. (Central Standard time) today.

The French high command reported today that six German fighting planes were shot down yesterday, five on French soil and the sixth on Belgian territory.

One of the needles on the university seismograph was knocked off its hinges, so sharp was the shock.

Shocks were reported at Kansas City, Jefferson City, Ste. Genevieve, Columbia, Festus and Hannibal, Mo., and at Belleville, Alton, Springfield and Chester, Ill.

Mrs. Nora Colligan at Clayton, Mo., near St. Louis, said she was knocked out of her bed by the tremor.

J. J. Auer, Washburn railroad passenger agent shaving at his Kansas City home, said the shocks lasted a minute and a half and described them as "rattling."

Dishes rattled, furniture was shaken and some buildings shook.

But it's just another Thursday in Plymouth, Mass., where the first Thanksgiving was held. Residents of Plymouth will celebrate next week along with the whole of New England.

Three state—Colorado, Texas and Mississippi—got around the argument over dates by assigning two Thanksgiving days. Mayors of several cities did the same thing.

Mayor C. D. White of Atlantic City, N. J., in proclaiming two holidays, said last night:

"Tomorrow shall be celebrated by the city as Thanksgiving, in honor of our president, and next Thursday shall be celebrated as Thanksgiving."

Mayor B. A. Toliver of Pecos, Texas, merely left the date in his proclamation blank, so that residents could make their own choice in Washington, with the President and several members of his cabinet.

Kuhn Finds Out 'Golden Angel' Not Fine Lady

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—The proceedings in Fritz Kuhn's larceny trial were pointed sharply today toward the witness stand appearance of Mrs. Florence Camp, one time "golden angel" of the bund-fuehrer's transcontinental correspondence but now considerably fallen from his grace.

"I thought Mrs. Camp was a very fine lady, but I found out she isn't," Kuhn remorsefully admitted yesterday, after the prosecution had read into the records three of Kuhn's letters to her studied with protestations of undying love.

That renunciation of the blonde divorcee capped a double recantation by the redfaced bundfuehrer. An admission that he had lied to Mrs. Camp in 1938 by telling her he had divorced his wife in 1934 (he's still married), and an admission that he lied when he testified, yesterday morning, that he never had told Mrs. Camp he was divorced.

The state has announced Mrs. Camp will be called, as a rebuttal witness against Kuhn, who is accused to stealing money from his German-American fund.

The appearance of the letters obviously was the cause of Kuhn's turn against the woman he said he loved "with my whole soul and body."

When Assistant District Attorney Herman McCarthy asked when Kuhn found out Mrs. Camp isn't a "very fine lady," the bund leader replied:

"I found out right now."

He had lied he said, to shield Mrs. Camp, as well as himself.

The state claimed that among Kuhn's alleged embezzlements from the fund was some $700 paid to move Mrs. Camp's furniture across the country.

The trial, in recess today, will be resumed tomorrow.

500 Attend Ada's Rally For Garner

ADA, Okla., Nov. 23 (AP)—Garner for President boosters told 500 Oklahomans at an old fashioned beef barbecue last night that it was unlikely President Roosevelt would seek a third term.

Roy Miller, Corpus Christi newspaper editor and an original Garner supporter, declared, "there is no greater patriot than John Nance Garner. In the campaign next year, party lines and party issues will have less to do with the election than heretofore. The issue is Americanism."

"It is only a question of a third term on one hand or John Nance Garner on the other. Every poll indicates that I have a profound conviction that Mr. Roosevelt's democracy is such that he wouldn't want to overthrow tradition."

E. B. Germany, Dallas, Texas Democratic state chairman and co-chairman of the Garner-for-President movement, said the campaign was proceeding upon the conviction that President Roosevelt would follow tradition and take himself out of the race.

He called upon those present to instruct the state delegation for Garner or at least elect delegates friendly to the Vice President.

900 Convicts Break Folsom Food Strike

FOLSOM, Calif., Nov. 23 (AP)—A food strike involving 900 Folsom prisoners appeared broken today in the face of a Thanksgiving day menu of roast and fried pork.

All but 50 of the convicts who refused their regular meals Tuesday as a protest against sour mush — a "cook's mistake" — ate their evening meal last night, and A. R. Brien, chairman of the state board of prison directors, expected the last resistance would be broken today.

Basque Children Returned

LONDON, Nov. 23 (AP)—The government informed the House of Lords today that 3,000 Basque refugee children brought to England during the Spanish civil war had been returned. Half of the 1,000 remaining are awaiting transportation. The others will stay in England because they have no homes.

A Three Days' Cough is Your Danger Signal

Creomulsion relieved promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, let your druggist sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it quickly silences the cough or you are to have your money back.

Capital Divided On Thanksgiving

AUSTIN, Nov. 23 (AP)—It was turkey day for some state workers while for others it was just Thursday.

The first of two Thanksgivings—proclaimed by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel because of the state's bounteous blessings—found the capital about evenly divided on observance of the initial holiday.

The governor compromised. He spent the day working—at home. His office remained open with about half the staff on duty.

"I'm thankful for Texas' many blessings and I'm thankful for my job," the governor said.

His family planned an observance but "nothing special" was scheduled. Asked if turkey would grace the mansion table, the governor quipped:

"I don't know what they're going to have to eat around here."

He explained that half of his employees would not have to work until next Monday. The other half will be excused from next Thursday until the following Monday.

The plan brought criticism from Railroad Commissioner Jerry Sadler who opined it did not seem economical in view of the governor's advocacy of businesslike government. Incidentally, the Railroad Commissioner was one department running full blast.

Boy Scout Day To Be Held At Canyon Saturday

CANYON, Nov. 23 (AP)—Next Saturday will be Boy Scout day at West Texas State college, and more than 300 lads will be special guests of the institution.

Milton Morris, teacher of a Scouting course at the college, has arranged a program which will begin with registration at 9 a. m. The Scouting class will be in charge of registration, which will take place at Buffalo Courts.

As rapidly as the Scouts are registered, they will be taken to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum, where Dr. L. F. Sheffy and his guides will conduct the boys through this interesting place. At 11 o'clock the Scouts will be guests at assembly. Prof. Stuart H. Condon will preside.

Ambassador Kennedy Addresses 'Exiles'

LONDON, Nov. 23 (AP)—United States Ambassador Joseph E. Kennedy, addressing "fellow exiles" at the annual Thanksgiving meeting of the American society, said today:

"The war we all dreaded has come. All we can do is face the future with fortitude, with faith and with thankfulness for the blessings we still enjoy."

Rose Bowl Enlarged

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 23 (AP)—Several hundred additional seats have been built into Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl, giving the big saucer a seating capacity of approximately 95,000 for its annual post season football classic Jan. 1.

Fisherman Has $45,000 To Be Thankful For

HOUSTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—Joe De-George, a fisherman, had at least $45,000 worth of reasons to be thankful today.

Joe won that amount in cash, his attorneys said, plus title to a one-half interest in an oil field tract.

Joe sued his cousin, Gasper De-George, who bought in the tract for taxes, on the allegation the pair had an agreement to split 50-50 on profits from such land as Gasper bought on Joe's recommendation.

Joe formerly worked in the tax assessor-collector's office and under the agreement, he said, he was to furnish Gasper with information about lands to be sold in tax sales.

Often such tracts sold for taxes are worth more than the accumulated delinquent taxes, and Joe said he was equipped to point out these bargains to his cousin.

A jury awarded Joe the verdict late yesterday.

The 20-acre tract figuring in the suit cost Gasper $139.71 and 14 years later, in 1937, mineral rights on it were sold to the Humble company for $100,000 plus one-seventh royalty.

cap and pointed to the few white hairs left on his near-bald pate.

"I'm thankful that I've missed only a few meals in my time. . . . That I never had to work much. . . . That I've seen more country than a lot of rich guys. . . . That I know a lot of guys from coast to coast."

"I'm not beefin' because I don't have a lot of dough. I don't need much for me. I'm some country boys who have so much money it runs out of their ears. They're always gettin' into trouble—with their wives, with their businesses, or with something or other because they got so much to worry about. But me? I ain't got any more than I wear on my back, so I don't have anything to worry about."

His coffee cup was empty, and he didn't resume talking until it was ordered filled again.

"America should be the thank-fullest country in the world," he said. "She should be thankful that she isn't in some other country intend gettin' in; that there aren't more on relief than there is; that there's plenty for those who want it had enough to hump for it."

"There's plenty more to be thankful for, but I'm some busy today with up anymore. You got more time to think than me, and I got to get going."

He headed out the hash-house door. There was a spring in his step.

SANTA DAY

Santa Claus will ride on a float that will be the last unit of the procession.

740 Obtained In Drive

Pampa civic clubs are being asked to enter the parade. Walter E. Rogers was to follow an announcement for the Lions club today with a similar invitation at the Kiwanis meeting at noon tomorrow. On Wednesday, the Rotarians were asked to participate.

A total of 740 has already been secured by a canvass of Pampa business men, it was reported at a committee meeting held at 8 o'clock last night in the BCD committee room at the city hall.

More than this sum will be needed, however. General Chairman Jimmy Dodg's requested that every consideration be shown by Jaycees who call on other merchants.

The money is used in purchasing the street decoration for the parade.

THANKSGIVING

Inet absent, the holiday was observed with church services and family dinners just as it was in half the country. Government offices were closed.

Thanksgiving usually is a big day for football fans, but today's grid-iron fare was slim, for schedules are made months and even years in advance and can't be easily revised.

With the close of the first holiday, Christmas shopping will begin tomorrow. That was the reason President Roosevelt moved up the date—to boom Yuletide buying through a longer season.

4 Food Dispensers Plead Guilty, Fined

Four Pampans who operate establishments where food is dispensed to the public pleaded guilty before Judge C. E. McGrew in city court yesterday afternoon of violating state sanitary employes regulations.

Upon their pleas of guilty each defendant was fined $7.50 by the city judge. Those who entered the guilty pleas on charges filed by H. D. Price of Austin, inspector of the state Bureau of Foods and Drugs, were managers of Perkins Pharmacy, Pure Food store, Harvester Cafe and Johnson Cafe.

A fifth defendant, J. C. Carroll, owner of the Courthouse Cafe entered a plea of not guilty to three complaints which in each instance were filed by Dr. T. J. Worrell, City Sanitary Inspector.

Specific charges included the hiring of employes who have not obtained proper health certificates and of failing to live up to sanitation methods as set down by state law, regarding the proper sterilization of dishes.

The four firms paying fines were charged with employing persons without proper health certificates.

Dallas Victorious In Firemen Fight

DALLAS, Nov. 23 (AP)—The city of Dallas, victorious in its efforts to force dissolution of a firemen's union, had something else to be thankful for today: about 70 firefighters withdrew their support from a $145,000 suit against the municipality for back pay.

Fire Chief L. M. Funk predicted that most of the remaining 70-odd firemen would similarly withdraw their claims.

Yesterday the bitter dispute over the firemen's union ended, temporarily at least, when the International Association of Fire Fighters withdrew its charter to the local union. It did so, it announced, rather than jeopardize the jobs of firemen who planned to fight a city ultimatum to quit the union or face dismissal.

The city, meanwhile, will restore its contribution to the pension fund which it cut 66 per cent to create a fund to meet back pay claims.

WACO, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Southern Methodist University Colts spotted the Baylor Cubs 12 points here yesterday, then came back to win their annual grid game by a 28 to 19 score.

Colts Beat Cubs

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23 (AP)—On his first test, Clyde Slavens' new 'coon dog' showed its versatility.

The dog, stopping beside a creek, began to bark. Slavens looked.

There in shallow water floundered a 14-inch bass.

"This dog," Slavens told friends, "is one of the mos' promising I ever had."

Spies Fooled And Trapped Says Gestapo

BERLIN, Nov. 23 (AP)—Hearty greetings from your affectionate German opposition, German Gestapo.

With these words, according to a DNB (official news agency) account published today, were ended 21 days of wireless contacts between the German secret police and British intelligence—21 days in which the German operatives wormed espionage secrets from their foe by posing as anti-Hitler revolutionists.

The whimsical disclosure of the real identity of the "revolutionists" was said by DNB to have been given only yesterday.

That was one day after the Gestapo had announced obtaining a confession from Georg Elser of Munich that he planned the Burgerbrau time bomb intended for Adolf Hitler. The announcement said Elser had British financial backing.

In the same connection, the Gestapo also had announced the arrest of two British secret service men, identified as Captain Richard Henry Stevens, 42, chief of the European intelligence division, and Sigismund Payne Best, 54, an aide.

Yesterday the two men were accused of direct connection with the Munich bomb plot from which Hitler escaped by only 11 minutes on Nov. 8. Last night DNB distributed for publication an account of 21 days of coded wireless contacts between the Gestapo and the British intelligence.

Quoting "competent quarters," the news agency said that the contacts were ended at 10:10 a. m. yesterday with the following message:

"In the long run, conversation

Accused Kidnaper Kills Self After Gas Attack On Hotel Room

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 23 (AP)—Trapped in a tear gas-filled hotel room, an accused kidnaper shot himself in the head and died early today after a gun and word battle with a detective.

Floyd C. Wadden, 30, Davonport, Ia., auto salesman, told Police Chief Charles D. McKnaught the man, still unidentified, abducted him in Davonport Tuesday morning.

Papers in the dead man's pockets indicated he was registered with the Iowa employment service at Marshalltown, Ia., as A. L. Morford, a butcher.

Wadden said he slipped away after the kidnaper took a sixth floor room at the (Kansas) hotel late yesterday and called police. Detective F. L. Thompson and other officers rushed to the corridor outside the room.

Thompson called the man to the door. The man fired striking the detective's pistol. Thompson fired back, hitting him in the hand. All the time he kept talking to the kidnaper, trying to get him to surrender.

"I've got too much hanging over me," the man said. "I'll never drop this gun."

Thompson kept up his arguments, but after 40 minutes the man slammed the door and dared the officers to come after him.

Thompson ordered tear gas spurted into the room. A minute later the officers heard a shot. They found the man lying on the floor critically wounded. He died in a hospital soon after midnight. His fingerprints were sent to the federal bureau of investigation.

McKnaught ordered Wadden held on a vagrancy charge "to check some discrepancies in his story."

Wadden said he was kidnapped while delivering a car.

"He just stuck a gun in my side and told me to keep driving."

The man forced him to drive 540 miles through Iowa, Missouri and Kansas, he said, holding up filling stations at Monroe and Des Moines, Ia., Tuesday.

Cavalcade Will Depict Events In Phillips' Life

BUCHAREST, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Rumanian government resigned today after a breakdown of trade negotiations in which Germany brought pressure to obtain more oil and foodstuffs from Rumania at a lower cost.

Premier Constantine Argetoniu handed the cabinet's resignation to King Carol, who asked him to attempt to form a new government.

Argetoniu formed the cabinet Sept. 21.

Carol was expected to call a meeting of the crown council to consider the crisis. Informed persons said that German pressure caused a cabinet split, some members wanting to yield to demands of the Reich while others held out.

The resignation followed Rumania's refusal to grant an increase of nearly 50 per cent in the exchange rate of the German mark.

A German economic mission, having failed to get the rate raised, left for Berlin by air last night.

Okin terms of American money, such a change would have raised the mark's purchasing power in Rumania from 30.3 cents to 43.8 cents.

Rumanian Cabinet Turns In Portfolios

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 23 (AP)—Edward Stubbs was annoyed when the phone rang while he and his family were seated at dinner.

He was more than annoyed when he heard the message: "Your house is on fire."

The house burned down—and dinner with it.

Still Annoyed—Betcho

FRANK PHILLIPS' 66th birthday celebration plans are practically complete. It was announced today by Phillips Employees committee. According to the announcement, the big event of the November 23 celebration will be a gigantic parade that according to present indications, will require two and one-half hours to pass the reviewing stand.

Included in the parade will be a cavalcade depicting the events in Mr. Phillips' life, bands and floats or exhibits portraying the activities of Phillips 66. Bands from points as far away as one hundred miles are planning to participate in the parade; already more than 15 bands have advised that they expect to be on hand.

Before the parade begins, there will be open houses for all visitors at four places, there will be conducted tours through Frank Phillips' ranch and the Woolaroc museum and there will be various aviation events such as skywriting and flight formations led by a 1912 vintage pusher type airplane.

After the parade, there will be a birthday cake presentation in the municipal stadium and additional open houses for visitors. After dinner, plans call for three or four dances that are open to all and a basketball game between Phillips 66 basketball team of Bartlesville and the Phillips 66 team of Kansas City, Kansas.

Phillips employees and residents of Bartlesville are planning this party to be the biggest single birthday celebration ever held and they are inviting everyone to come share in the fun and festivities.

Riot Gun Opens Bid For Turkey Dinner

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23 (AP)—A Thanksgiving dinner with all the trimmings awaits Policemen Eugene Poague and William Garrett—if they don't mind a little buckshot.

Joe Panica's 20-pound gobbler escaped from its cage and roosted in a tree.

Police were called. Neither Poague nor Garrett is a tree climber. Garrett took his riot gun and fired once.

Down came the turkey.

"Come over for dinner tomorrow," Mrs. Panica said gratefully.

ALASKAN GRID GAME

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 23 (AP)—Most of Juneau's populace had tickets for today's football game between the Alaska Bourbons and the Baranof Bears, billed as the biggest sports event in this section since the marathon run to the gold fields in '98.

Former college and high school players from the United States make up the two amateur teams. It's first football game here since 1914, when two miners' teams played on a frozen cinder surface.

Employees of the U. S. government went on a 10-hour day in 1840. It was done by executive order.

Farrington Pupils Visit Pampa News

A pre-Thanksgiving tour of Pampa's points of interest was made yesterday by 13 pupils of the Farrington schools, accompanied by their teacher, Marjorie Merchant, and by Dave Turcotte, bus driver, who transported the party in the school bus.

The Pampa News radio station KPDM, the postoffice, and The Pampa News were among the places visited by the group. Students in the party were Archie Compson, Richard and Gladys Kysar, Mildred, Inez, Jeanette, Jean, and Arthur Smith, Carmen and Jane Goad, Buddy and Lee Cockerill, and Eugenia Bond.

Give Governor 'The Devil' Labor Urged

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23 (AP)—A report of destitution in Toledo was made public today simultaneously with a suggestion from Cleveland's mayor that labor leaders "give the devil" to Gov. John W. Bricker for his disinclination to call a special legislative session to appropriate new funds for relief.

The Toledo council of social agencies reported 5,193 employable persons and their dependents were suffering there from lack of food, fuel and clothing.

Mayer Harold H. Burton of Cleveland, like Bricker a Republican, told a labor delegation it should demand a special session adding:

"You can probably give him the devil better than I can."

Bricker has expressed belief cities could find revenues without a special session, and indicated he doubted rural legislators would be willing to appropriate new relief funds for cities this year.

Mexico's Oil Export Trade Has Declined

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 23 (AP)—Mexico's oil export trade has sharply declined in the current month.

Press dispatches from Tampico reported that during November only three ships bearing crude oil departed from this oil exporting port toward European destinations.

Mexico has been trading oil with some foreign countries, notably with Germany and Italy, but owing to the allied sea blockade against the reich, and Mexico's lack of oil-tanks, practically no shipments has been made to Germany since the outbreak of the war.

A dragging brake on one automobile wheel may be the result of a weak brake shoe return spring.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—Traders walked out on the stock market today and leading issues slipped fractions to around 100.

The desire to avoid commitments over the holiday kept buying orders from the market and the session was quiet throughout. Transfers approximated 500,000 shares.

What cheer there was for the broker-out brotherhood was in the failure of prices to break early in the absence of support. This was taken to mean there was a reluctance on the part of large holders to liquidate.

Presence of a few bargain hunters was signalled by selective purchases which kept a few shares above water most of the day.

At commission houses with foreign connections it was said offerings were scanty from abroad where the British and French controls undoubtedly figured there would be few buyers on hand on the day before Thanksgiving day.

Backward most of the session were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, American Can, Westinghouse Electric, Union Carbide, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, General Electric, Phelps Dodge, Western Union, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Santa Fe, Pennsylvania Railroad and Great Northern.

Tax Remission Law To Be Given Test

DALLAS, Nov. 23 (AP)—Constitutionality of the tax remission law passed at the last session of the legislature was upheld here yesterday by District Judge John A. Rawlins, and the decision was appealed immediately to the Fifth Court of Civil Appeals.

Attorney General Gerald Mann had declared the law unconstitutional. Judge Rawlins' refusal of an application for a temporary injunction against Dallas county in effect, held the statute valid. The injunction would have prevented the county from anticipating funds under the new law.

Plaintiffs in the suit were William

900,000 To Get $114,000 In Old Age Insurance In 1940

By BRUCE CATTON
Pampa News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—A major change in the federal social security program goes into effect on Jan. 1, 1940.

During the coming year more than 900,000 men, women and children will receive approximately $114,000,000 in old age insurance benefits. They will be paid on a far more liberal scale than was planned when the act was passed in 1935. Last session, Congress broadened the act both as to the people who may get benefits and the amount of benefits.

Money that will flow out during the year is only a starter. By the end of 1944, the Social Security Board estimates, benefits of $2,083,000,000 will have been paid—1 1/2 billion more than would have been paid if the act had not been amended.

Important Changes Summarized
Briefly summarized, here are the important changes that are about to go into effect:

1. Benefits a wage earner may receive are to be based on his average wage rather than on his total contribution via the payroll tax. This means higher benefits for older workers, and for lower-paid workers.

2. Families of insured workers may now draw benefits. Not only does the insured workers begin to draw benefits when he reaches 65; benefits will also go to his wife when she reaches 65, and there are supplementary benefits for his dependent children.

3. If a worker dies, his survivors may draw monthly benefits instead of a flat lump sum.

4. Many workers who became 65 after the act went into effect, and who thereupon received a small lump sum payment and then went out of social security coverage altogether, may now get back in and qualify for regular, life-time monthly benefit payments.

5. Payment of benefits has been advanced two years, from 1942 to 1940.

Other sections of the act have been liberalized.

Changes Necessitate Staff Expansion
These changes mean new work for the Social Security board, and involve staff expansion.

Before this year ends, 132 new field offices will have been opened, to supplement the 332 previously in existence. By next June 30 some 2,300 new employees will have been added.

Congress voted an extra $1,750,000 for administrative expenses. Total administrative expenses for the board this year will probably run close to $25,000,000.

Actuaries who designed the set-up estimated that 8 1/2 per cent of er and 1 per cent on the employer. These were to have risen to 1 1/2 per cent each in 1940, but that increase has been canceled—at an estimate saving to the two groups of taxpayers of some $275,000,000 in the coming year.

At the same time, the reserve account set up under the original plan—which was to have grown to a gigantic revolving fund—has been done away with, and a simple insurance trust fund has been set up in its place.

Squeezed To Death
LEWISTOWN, Mont., Nov. 23 (AP)—Twenty-year-old Verle Kenneth McWilliams literally was squeezed to death when he was caught between two pieces of farm machinery on his father's ranch near here.

Coroner Curtis W. Wilder said the machinery pinned McWilliams in such a way that he was unable to breathe and suffocated within a few minutes.

R. H. Heckhardt of Keerville, while carrying his rural mail route, observed two bucks with antlers locked. It required the services of the game warden and two helpers to unangle the animals, one of which was dead.

Says 'Colonies' Not Democratic

Charging that a democracy "has no business having colonies," Dr. Ernest H. Gruening, newly appointed governor of Alaska, urges that American territories be prepared for political equality with states.

Health Officials Face Indictments In Typhoid Deaths

KANKAKEE, Ill., Nov. 23 (AP)—Director A. L. Bowen of the State Department of Public Welfare and three officials of the Manteno State Mental hospital were under indictment today, the aftermath of a special grand jury investigation of a typhoid epidemic that caused 52 deaths at the institution.

The jury returned indictments yesterday charging the four with malfeasance in office, punishable on conviction by a fine of $10,000 and removal from office.

In addition to Bowen, the accused were Ralph P. Hinton, suspended managing officer of the hospital, Dr. D. Louis Steinberg, assistant managing officer since July 1, and Mrs. Lillian Williams, dietitian.

The epidemic attacked inmates of the hospital last July and August and was attributed by health department engineers to pollution of the institution's artesian wells. Bowen and Dr. Hinton were charged with failing to assure a safe water supply.

The jury accused Dr. Steinberg of failure to report conditions to Dr. Linton and Mrs. Williams of improper food preparation and allowing unsanitary conditions to prevail.

Bossy Pulls Hopkins County Out Of Depression By Boot Straps

(By The Associated Press)

Sulphur Springs is a Northeast Texas city that profited by the depression — and Bossy paid the freight.

About 1935 the Sulphur Springs business leaders recognized the old order was gone. The city had suffered along with the rest of the country, but they decided things couldn't stay that way if initiative and enterprise were shown.

So farmers and business men got together on an industrial and agricultural program based on dairy and beef cattle. Development of the dairy cow was the principal objective.

What was the result? After four years of work, Hopkins county is recognized as one of the Southwest's premier dairy sections, with 18,000 high grade producing dairy cows and 12,000 registered and grade beef cattle contributing to a balanced agricultural plan.

Sulphur Springs induced milk products companies of national scope to look over its claim for attention. One concern selected Sulphur Springs as headquarters for the largest milk condensory plant south of the Mason-Dixon line, and a cheese corporation built a good-sized plant there.

Hopkins county farmers estimated these two plants alone meant their revenue has been increased $750,000 annually.

The beef cattle industry is growing in importance as a factor in the section's development, and im-

Improvement of Cotton Stable Also Sought

The success with the dairy effort is the spur.

Results already have been shown in the cotton work. The staple length of the county's "White Gold" has been increased from 13-16" in 1935 to 31-32" in 1938.

Persimmons are ripe in East Texas, and that means it's fox hunting time, says Aunt Priscilla Marsh, 81-year-old, ex-slave, who has spent a large part of her life cooking for fox hunters and their dogs.

Aunt Priscilla's home, 10 miles north of Tyler on a 250-acre farm she has owned many years, has been a meeting place for fox hunters from Tyler, Mineola, Big Sandy, Marshall, Lindale, Dallas, and many other cities in a radius of more than 100 miles. One room in her house always was kept for white folks to spend the night, and annually they spent about a week at her place.

"They paid me well to cook for them and their dogs."

Although most of the great fox hunters in this section have passed on, she says, such as Cone Johnson and Judge John M. Duncan, there still remain "Uncle" Pate Reeves, charter member of the Texas Fox and Wolf Hunters Association, and Elbert Lasseter, both of Tyler. Now, there is another generation hunting about Aunt Priscilla's place.

A taste of Aunt Priscilla's six-years-old pear preserves, and her home-made wine testify that it was not hard for the fox hunters to eat at her table.

So popular was the farm that at one time hunters put out 500 foxes. They have so multiplied that now she has to set traps to keep them from eating her chickens.

Aunt Priscilla herself is no lukewarm hunt enthusiast. She takes part in all the hunts from her rocking chair.

"When there's 25 to 30 hounds in the pack, there ain't nothing I love to hear better. I sits on my front gallery and I'd freeze to death before I'd quit."

Now, fox hunting is somewhat different. Most of the men, who go to Aunt Priscilla's to hunt must be at work by 8 a. m., so when they leave about 2, instead of attempting to call off the hounds, they set a lantern in her yard and the dogs come in during the morning. Their owners know that Aunt Priscilla will feed and take care of them until they send for them.

Aunt Priscilla was born on an adjoining farm, a slave of the Jarmon family. Her husband, also a slave, with whom she lived for 39 years, was born in the Marsh family. They grew up with some of the men who today are bankers, merchants and leading citizens of Tyler, including Gus F. Taylor.

English coins first were dated during the reign of Edward VI.

nearby farm.

She and her husband were enabled to buy their farm because her husband's childhood playmate, Ed Shamburger, the owner, did not want any one else to be in possession of the property which held fond associations with him.

Helping Teachers

For some years past, professional teachers have used their daily newspapers in connection with classroom instruction. But never have newspapers been such important textbook supplements as they are today.

Gratitude to papers for furnishing them up-to-date maps and information of this changing world was expressed by schoolmarms attending the recent Missouri state teachers' convention in St. Louis. It is difficult enough for the average adult reader to keep himself informed on changes in the earth's geography; but teachers, who must explain these boundary shifts to inquiring pupils, would be hard pressed without the constant supply of information furnished by their papers.

Nowadays a teacher must know what's going on in his own day as well as what happened back in 1100 B. C. and 1492. Even the youngest pupils want to know what the headlines mean. And it's up to teacher to know all the answers in the daily paper.

CHRYSLER LAUDED ON REFUSAL TO TOLERATE 'SLOW-DOWN'; LABOR'S ATTITUDE ASSAILED

Workers Bite Hand That Feeds Them, Declares Trenchard

(New York World Telegram) By G. Ogden Trenchard, Vice President of Economics Statistics, Inc.

The Chrysler Corp. should receive nationwide acclaim for its clean-cut refusal to tolerate "slow-down" tactics adopted by its C. I. O. union employees. The decision to stop production until this matter is settled is of vital importance, because this issue threatens the very basis of American business progress.

Wages in the automobile industry are high because the industry has followed the economically sound policy of producing better cars at lower prices. Lower prices have led to greater sales and more production. Thousands of new jobs were created both in the automobile industry and in industries which are either allied or supply raw materials.

Two Ways to Lower Costs Low prices for cars were possible only because the increasing use of better capital enabled producers to lower costs. There are two ways costs can be lowered. One is lower wage payments and pay less for raw materials. Obviously, this procedure is not socially desirable and has not been followed by this industry.

Everybody is benefited by scientific use of more efficient capital in industry. Consumers get lower prices and are able to buy more cars. Raw material producers are able to sell more goods to car producers and employ more men.

Money Wages Higher In addition the money wages of workers have been increased, while the prices of consumer goods have declined. As a result, the real income and standard of living of American workers have risen progressively.

It is for these reasons that the "slow-down" tactics of the Chrysler employees are shortsighted, purely selfish and economically unsound. Their action, if allowed, would raise costs and lower the productive efficiency of the Chrysler Corp.

If labor is successful in such tactics our economic system would be gradually undermined. Our people are already tired of some of labor's maneuvers. But, in this case, the workers are biting the hand that feeds them. It is fortunate that the Chrysler executives are aware of the danger and had the nerve to take immediate steps to root out such tactics. What labor needs is not more, but better, leadership.

WAR OF SCARCITY

(Baltimore Evening Sun) Observers of the war who feel that the whole thing is "phony" because only 102 ships or so have been sunk and because the slaughter on the western front falls short of the records "hung up" in the offensives of 1914 to 1918, might take a look at the bulletin issued by the Guaranty Trust company of New York. The writer of this bulletin believes that all the belligerents are dependent upon materials from outside their borders to such an extent that a long war must be financed by the inflationary device of credit expansion.

Even if the military and political strategies of the belligerents did not call for a waiting war, their financial position clearly demand a cheap one. The Allies obviously have one eye on the budget and Hitler, knowing this, may count to some extent on his enemies wearying of the high wartime taxes. In view of the cash and carry clause likely to be inserted in the neutrality law and the Johnson law forbidding credits to nations in default to the United States, it would not be remarkable if the authorities in France and England were as sparing of material as they would like to be of men. If they retain control of the sea, such a policy would be sound in a military sense as well, for Nazi economy is not based on anything describable as a sound business basis.

In what might be called a war of scarcity, a policy of withholding material for the collapse of the enemy, while keeping the pressure on him, makes sense.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

SLOW-DOWN STRIKES NATURAL RESULT OF BELIEF IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

For a month, Chrysler plant has been on strike because of a slow-down strike. When people come to believe in collective bargaining, a slow-down strike or a sit-down strike, sooner or later is a natural result in this belief.

Why? The reason is that collective bargaining is nothing but an attempt to make things scarce. The purpose of collective bargaining is to reduce the hours and the work that labor dare perform. If they cannot do it in one way, they will do it in another. So slowing down to make more jobs so there will be more dues for the labor-racketeers to collect is the inevitable result of the belief that collective bargaining can benefit the workers as a whole.

Worship Scarcity If we follow collective bargaining to its logical conclusion, workers would be better off if air were not free and we had to work for it. Believers in collective bargaining seem to think that it hurts society for a man to produce more than he demands. They seem to think it is a great benefit to society to get a high wage for a little bit of service to society; that if a man could get $10 for picking an orange the consumers of oranges would be benefited. This would be the logical conclusion if collective bargaining, which aims to make things scarce, is sound.

Society has come to realize that the big industrialist who is able to give more for the money than others, benefits society. They realize that the firm who can give more automobile, for example, for the money benefits the customers; but they do not seem to get the connection that the worker who gives more for the money benefits society by the same logic as the big industrialist who gives more for the money benefits society.

For this reason, the obsession of trying to make things scarce is expressed in collective bargaining. A slow-down strike is, therefore, the logical result of the belief in collective bargaining founded on scarcity.

"AGAINST THE POOR PEOPLE" REV. BIGELOW

The Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati, leader in the Ohio pension movement, says, "All the money, newspapers and radios of Ohio were against the poor people." Rev. Bigelow has a strange idea of what being "against" means. Because the people of Ohio did not see fit to take from the workers' wealth which they produced and give $50 to $80 pensions to people over 65 for doing nothing, he concludes that that is being "against" the poor.

Rev. Bigelow uses language very carelessly. He does not seem to realize that every tax falls on the poor; that there is no possible way of taking from one group and giving to another without greatly discouraging the accumulation of capital, tools and equipment which make it possible for workers to get bigger wages and live better.

No, Rev. Bigelow, the newspapers, the capitalists and the radio were not "against" the poor. They were for the poor. They took a longer time view than you did. You seem to think you can eat a cake and have it, too; that you can tax and destroy the tools and wealth of the world and still improve the standard of living.

Such an idea is not only popular with Reverend Bigelow, but it is popular with the New Deal administration. It is a theory we have been trying for 10 years and it only makes us poorer, more disheartened and more discouraged.

UNDERSTANDING MONEY One often hears the remark that money is a complicated subject and that there is less than a hundred people in the United States who understand money.

I think what the people are trying to say is that, under the present circumstances, there is less than a hundred people in the United States who understand what value money will have in the future, when it will change in exchange value. When money becomes a football of the voting majority and they make illegal the use of the most natural commodity as a measure of value, then the exchange value of money becomes a question of what man can see what the public will do, what laws they will make, how they will interfere with free exchanges and the use of money.

Real money, money that is a storage of wealth, and the measure of value is not hard to understand. It is using credit as synonymous with money that is confusing.

The banking laws have greatly confused people as to what money is and the proper uses of money. To my mind, the proper banking system that does not interfere with the true use of money and credit, is the thing that is difficult to understand. As the late Ogden Mills said, "we must continue to strive for something we have never yet had—a sound banking system."

People You Know

By Archer Fullingim

Today is the birthday of a woman, an employee of the News, who probably knows more people by name in Gray, Hutchins, Carson and Wheeler counties than any resident of the Panhandle, except perhaps the vote-getting class who are supposed to know everybody.

The woman I refer to is Mrs. Jessye Stroup (the "ou" being pronounced as in "loud") and the present she cherishes most today is a tufted blue and red satin pillow given her by Grandma Rogers of the Heald community in Wheeler county. Mrs. Stroup spent their honeymoon in the Maracabo field in Columbia, South America, on the very lake where 800 people burned to death last week. They came back to the U. S. just in time for the birth of James, their eldest son, now an employee of Phillips at Phillips where he attends school. Besides drilling wells in every U. S. oil field, Jim Stroup drilled wells in India, Canada and other foreign countries. And naturally Mrs. Stroup knows many oil field workers, especially drillers and roughnecks. Mrs. Stroup has 3 other children, Jack, Jerry and Joan. She began working for the News soon after her husband died and is now in her fourth year in this newspaper. Happy birthday, Mrs. Stroup, and best wishes.

Two factors are fundamentally important in the origin of cancer: first, the constitutional tendency within the bodies of certain people to rapid overgrowth of some of the cells; second, chronic irritation.

We know also that the chronic irritation here mentioned may be an irritation from within or outside the body. Therefore it is advisable to be careful of food substances that are especially irritating, fluids that are excessively hot, and the inhalation of gasoline fumes, vaporized oil and tar from the roads.

Pigmented moles on the surface of the body and repeated irritations of the skin, such as may occur in certain occupations, have also been associated with the development of cancer.

The Family Doctor

Dr. Morris Fishbein

(This is the seventh in a series of 14 articles on the nine principal causes of death in the United States.)

Third among the great killers of man is cancer. The death rates for cancer and for diseases of the heart are gradually increasing because human beings are living longer.

Cancer and other malignant tumors caused 147,744 deaths in the United States in 1937—about 10 per cent of all deaths. Among persons from 20 to 59 years of age cancer outranks influenza and pneumonia as a cause of death.

We know today that the danger of death from cancer can be reduced by intelligent watchfulness. Everything possible should be done to detect cancer in its earliest stages and to secure the kind of preventive service that will prolong life.

Since cancer attacks many organs about which in the past there has been too much "unnecessary" modesty, it is well to remember that false modesty may prevent prompt detection of symptoms.

Since cancer is usually a disease attacking people after middle age, make up your mind to have an examination at least once every year after you have passed 40 and tell the doctor about every symptom that might indicate the cancer condition.

LOCAL DEER season doesn't mean too much to deer hunters. Deer in this area of the state are more like pets than wild game, and there isn't much sport in shooting a buck that indicates he would like to come up and eat out of your hand.

In fact, ranchers around these parts are protecting the deer by posting signs everywhere with warnings not to hunt nor trespass.

So far as we can learn there has been but one deer shot in the Panhandle since the season came in. That one was killed in Roberts county.

THIS ONE has to do with Superintendent L. L. Sone, of the Pampa public schools who apparently doesn't get along with his principal. And who was busy yesterday morning Miss Josephine Lane engaged Mr. Sone in a friendly argument about the merits and demerits of the Southern Methodist team. Finally it got to the point where Mr. Sone said he would bet the coles for everybody in the office at the time that S. M. U. would win over Arkansas in the week-end game. It must be remembered that the bet was made on last Saturday morning. It is important, too, to this paragraph that the game was played on the day before—Friday, and was a close one. Mr. Sone had already won. And, Mr. Sone had already lost.

The department of commerce estimates that America exports 41,000,000 false teeth every year. This industry has proved to be practically depression-proof.

Many persons who are troubled by some particular defect, or apparent defect, in the American economic or political system are inclined to say, "After all, I think I know the answer. After all, perhaps socialism or communism is the only way out." Clergymen, teachers, and others in whom the urge to help is strong, are particularly inclined to such a conclusion. But few of those who openly or tacitly approve communism or socialism fully realize the significance of either of these substitutes for democracy.

Failure to grasp the fundamentals of these doctrines was more natural when they were theories and nothing more. This is no longer excusable, today, for both systems can be observed in operation. National socialism is operative in Germany, and communism is at work in Russia. Those who look no farther into either of these systems than to find that, apparently, every one has a job and enough food to keep him alive, will not discover the most important features of these substitutes for democracy.

The alleged economic advantages of socialism or communism are not the real substance of these "isms." The advantages are, in fact, fanciful, for under neither system has it been possible to provide as large a volume of production or as high a standard of living as has been achieved under democracy and private enterprise in the United States. But even if it were true that as great productivity could be achieved as has been accomplished under private enterprise, it would still be true that the American way is infinitely the better way.

The reason for this conclusion is that democracy means freedom, whereas all personal freedom is abolished under both communism and socialism as these systems are applied in practice. No one is free in Germany or Russia. No one in either of these countries is free to keep silent when the assembly crowd would be endangered by the hazard of accident, illness, or loss of a job. In the communism and socialism states it is the stark, unflinching fear of the heavy hand of the oppressor who, strangely enough, is also the leader. His agents and spies are on every hand; his prisons and concentration camps are a hell on earth; his bring squads are always ready.

And for what? For any hint of suspicion of criticism or opposition Dictators have their own brand of fear, and it is that criticism will puncture the system which they have erected, or that opposition will overthrow it. Consequently they abolish freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of peaceful assembly, and the right of petition for redress of grievances. They do all the speaking, all the writing, and they make short work of any who kept silent when the assembly crowd were ordered to acclaim the leader.

Socialism and communism are alike, at bottom, because they aim at dictatorship and at that repression of the individual which dictators must enforce to survive. The Marxian slogan, "Dictatorship of the proletariat" is a fraudulent appeal, even to the workers, for only a small proportion of the workers will be allowed in the "party." Life for the rank and file of even the party members is poisoned by the same fear of betrayal as that which destroys family life, business confidence and social relations. It is equally fraudulent to pretend that either socialism or communism could be developed within a democracy, for that repression of the individual which dictators must enforce to survive. # Borger Primed To Win First Game Saturday

K. Mullings Eligible To Play In Tilt

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan and their Harvesters are worried. They figure they're going to have one of their busiest afternoons of the season Saturday when they meet the Borger Bulldogs in the last game of the year. The starting whistle will sound at 2:30 o'clock at Harvesters field.

Although Borger hasn't won a conference game this season and has won only three games in all, they have a good team and it's likely to rise to new heights against the Harvesters.

"Don't let records fool you" Coach Mitchell told a bunch of rail birds yesterday afternoon at Harvesters field where the squad went through a long dummy scrimmage and worked on blocking. "I believe Saturday's game will be one of the most interesting and hard-fought of the season. In Sikes Borger has the fastest ball carrier in the district and Koehler isn't far behind him. The Bulldogs also have Sullivan, Belz and Trotter, three of the best linemen in the district.

"I'll admit Amerillo and Lubbock swamped the Bulldogs but on Saturday they'll have everything to gain and nothing to lose while we'll be playing after two weeks of rest."

Kenneth Mullings returned to the Harvesters lineup yesterday afternoon and may start the game at an end position. Mullings was believed ineligible but when his grades were checked he had passed in the necessary three subjects. When it was announced that Mullings would be ineligible, it was believed he was carrying an extra subject.

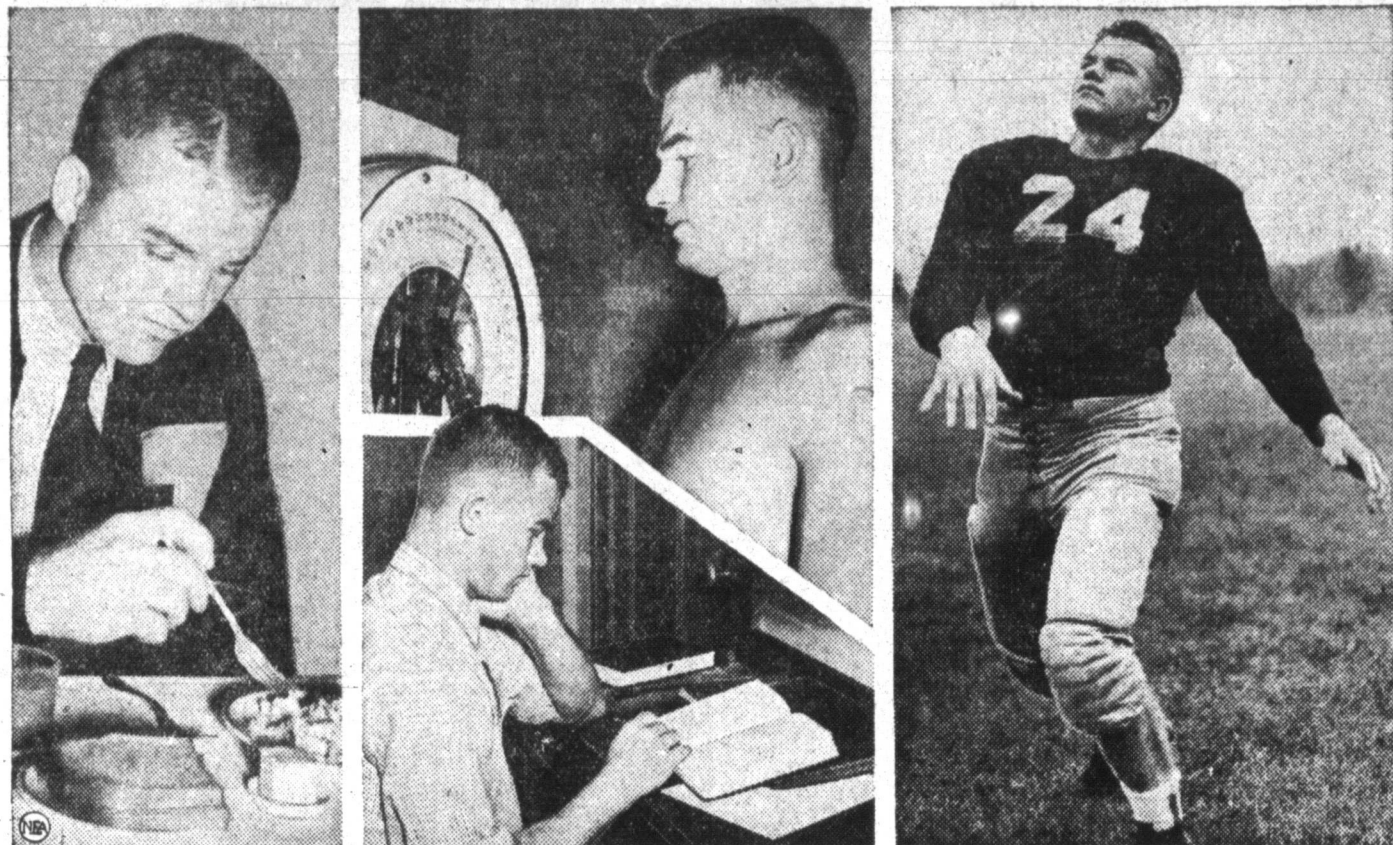

Saturday's game will be the last for at least 25, and maybe 25, Harvesters and a large crowd is expected to be present to say so-long to the boys who have given Pampa an interesting football season.

There's going to be no starting of the second string, or reserves, against the Bulldogs Saturday. The eleven boys who started and played most of the game against Amerillo two weeks ago will be on the field when the whistle blows unless Mullings and Phillips get the nod for line berths.

Football fans can secure general admission tickets at downtown drug stores for 50 cents. A few reserve seat tickets in the west stand are available at 20 cents at the office of the school business manager in the city hall.

Fifty per cent of American home exteriors are painted white, less than one per cent red or blue.

Olie Cordill Great Player Despite Team

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
DALLAS, Nov. 23. (AP)—Towering in the ruins of Rice Institute's wrecked team is a football player, Olie Cordill—tall, solid son of West Texas.

Only two more college games are left for Olie. Both are just football games that mean little—except that Olie will be carrying that large heart on the field a couple of more Saturday afternoons.

Olie won't make all-America. He's with a loser, and, somehow, losers are forgotten. But for three years Olie has given Rice Institute a lot of football.

The faithful who braved rain to see Rice duel Arkansas to a 12-12 tie a couple of weeks back saw Olie at his football best. He was everywhere, running, kicking, hurrying back punt returns and even passing while his once great partner, Ernie Lain, sat on the sidelines. Olie was great that day.

But what they didn't know was that Olie pulled out of a sick bed, still feverish, to come out in the mud and play football. He knows no lost cause; hasn't heard yet that Rice isn't a winner. He's still playing at top speed.

Olie isn't a headliner, but because Rice isn't a headliner, but official statistics tell you the story of Olie Cordill.

On his runs—42 of them—Cordill has averaged 3.43 yards against the roughest kind of opposition. His magnificent kicking foot, one of the best in the land, gives him a 39.9 yard average on 47 punts. He ranks sixth in the conference on pass receiving, bagging 14 for 118 yards.

Cordill, a big man, is fact and shifty and dangerous from his safety position. He has carried back 23 punts for an average of 14.4 yards. He ranks second on kickoff returns, averaging 30 yards with his runbacks. He ranks fifth in intercepted passes, averaging 19 yards with his stolen football act. And he has scored three touchdowns in Rice's scoring famine.

Against powerful Texas A. and M. last week Cordill gave the same old try. Rice was hobbled but Cordill was kicking.

BITS ABOUT BOWLING

By JERRY BRONDFIELD
NEA Service Sports Writer

Nile Clarke Kinnick, Jr. once was battery mate of famed Bob Feller in Adel, Ia., where he was born.

... Now Iowa's amazing quintuple-threat pitches instead of catches, and is generally acknowledged as best passer in Big Ten.

Kinnick is 21 years old, stands 5 feet 8 inches and weighs 170 pounds.

... Father, who is in real estate department of Federal Land Bank of Omaha, played football and baseball at Iowa State.

A brilliant student and almost certain Phi Beta Kappa nominee, Kinnick was likely Rhodes scholar until European war temporarily cancelled future appointments. ... Senior, majoring in economics and plans to enter college of law next fall. ... Does about two hours of janitor and clerical work daily for partial self-support.

Of Scotch-Irish ancestry. ... Member of Phi Kappa Psi, Order of Artus, honorary commerce group and senior men's honorary society. ... Generally considered finest combination of athlete-student in modern Iowa history.

Got football start as mere lad when father kicked pigskin to him in back yard. ... Family moved from Adel to Omaha, where Nile starred in football and basketball at Benson High school. ... Played one season of basketball as sophomore at Iowa and was team's second highest scorer. ... Gave up college sport to concentrate on studies.

Fairly quiet but when he speaks he has habit of making every word count. ... Serious-minded, he is much too busy to participate in campus social affairs.

Kinnick's keen mind serves him well on gridiron as well as in classroom. ... Like Frank Carideo, backfield tutor and former Notre Dame star, Kinnick is referred to as Hawkeyes' playing coach.

Football talent is terrific. ... Besides his passing he averages better than 40 yards as punter. ... with plenty of 'em out in the coffin corner. ... Corking ball-carrier, averaging 4 1/2 yards per try. ... and possibly outstanding dropkicker in college ranks. ... He has 10 conversions this year via that method. ... also calls signals when Quarterback Al Compe is out of lineup.

All this adds up to quintuple-threat" label tacked onto him at start of this sketched.

COACHES GLOOMY OVER McLEAN'S 1940 PROSPECTS

Special To The News
McLEAN, Nov. 25.—Coaches Cricket Christian and Dick Dunlap were somewhat gloomy today over the prospects of next year's Tiger football team.

Nine of the first string men of this year, who either be ineligible or will graduate next spring. Loss of Bond and Mantooth will probably mean that next year's team will turn to passing and other dippy-doodle tactics to score, for at this time no backfield prospect will weigh over 150 pounds, and power doesn't come from such small men.

Regulars of this year who won't return are Mantooth, Bond, Doolen, Windom, Jones, Glenn, Bonner, Braxton, and Steadman.

Glory, isn't doing so badly either. The big fellow has lumbered for an average of 3.15 yards on 60 running efforts and still ranks as a good passer with his 50 completions of 112 efforts for 580 yards.

Few know it, but Lain took up kicking this year and actually leads the league with an average of 40.6 yards on 15 boots. Lain has tried, but Rice was doomed not to click.

The headliners? Cowboy Jack Crain still leads the runners with 677 yards on 86 tries for an average of 6.94 yards. Sophomore Kyle Gillespie, in just two games, blasted up to a 5.55 yard average on 34 carries, while three Aggies, Bill Conatser, Jim Thomason and Derace Moser are bunched right along behind him with averages of better than 4 1/2 yards.

Rather deep in the running averages is Jarrin John Kimbrough, the Aggies' all-America fullback nominee. But John does his traveling the hard way. His 125 carries far outdo anything in the league, and his average of 3.58 yards is respectable, indeed, when one stops to consider he has lost only 14 yards on all those 125 efforts!

Next hardest working back is Arkansas' Kay Eakin, a swell player who has tried 105 times, picked up 381 yards for a 3.12 average. Of course, he also kicks for a 38.4 yard average and has passed for 877 yards, in addition to other handwork.

5 More District Champs To Be Decided This Week

(By The Associated Press)

The stretch drive of Texas' school football leagues is due to produce five more district champions this week, one of them being Breckenridge, the first-round opponent of Waco's favored Tigers.

Breckenridge, ranked No. 2 in the state, meets Mineral Wells tomorrow and can sew up the district 9 flag with a victory or wait until next week and beat Clark to accomplish the objective. The Buckaroos are prohibitive favorites to win both games.

Masonic Home plays Poly tonight with the Fort Worth district championship hanging on the result. It's the Masons' final district game and victory would clinch the title regardless of how North Side fared the remainder of the way.

Nacogdoches meets Henderson needing only a tie to win the district 12 crown. South Park (Beaumont) engages Livingston and win the title with a victory or tie.

Robstown, champion of the upper bracket of district 16, eyes the Harlingen-Brownville game tomorrow. Brownville can clinch the lower bracket laurels with a victory, thus going into the finals against Robstown.

Four of the state's undefeated teams face strong opposition. El Paso high's game with Las Cruces, N. M., being ranked as the toughest. Las Cruces also is unbeaten and united and is claiming the New Mexico title.

South Park's tilt with Livingston, Masonic Home's struggle with Poly and Brownville's battle with Harlingen are other hard games faced by outfits with unbeaten records. Masonic Home and Brownville, however, have been tied.

Woodrow Wilson, the Dallas power, clinched at least a tie for the district 8 championship last night by smashing Sunset 34-6. The Wildcats now have only Dallas Tech in the way and are highly favored to roll over the Wolves next week.

There are 32 games on the week-end schedule, 25 of them counting in the conference standings.

The schedule by districts:

1. Saturday: Borger at Pampa (conference).
2. Friday: Quanah at Vernon (conference), Graham at Electra (conference), Olney at Wichita Falls (conference).
3. Friday: San Angelo at Lamesa (conference).
4. Thursday: Bowie (El Paso) at Ysleta (conference), El Paso High at Las Cruces, N. M.
5. No games scheduled.
6. Friday: Bonham at Sulphur Springs, Arlington at Denton.
7. Thursday: Poly (Fort Worth) vs. Masonic Home (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Paschal (Fort Worth) vs. Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) (conference); Riverdale (Fort Worth) vs. Fort Worth Tech (conference).
8. Thursday: Adamson (Dallas) vs. North Dallas (conference); Friday: Forest Dallas vs. Dallas Tech (conference).
9. Friday: Breckenridge at Mineral Wells (conference), E. strand at Ranger.
1. Friday: Corsicana at Cleburne

ACC Must Beat McMurry To Tie With St. Ed's

(By The Associated Press)

Abilene Christian's battle to finish in a tie for the Texas Conference championship and five intersectional games top this week's schedule in Texas college football.

The Wildcats must defeat McMurry Saturday to clinch a tie with St. Edwards, which already has finished its conference schedule.

The intersectional games, four of them being played in Texas, have Texas Tech going against Montana, West Texas State engaging South Dakota Aggies, St. Mary's tangling with Louisiana college, Austin college meeting Durant, Okla., Teachers and East Texas State playing Henderson State Teachers of Arkadelphia, Ark.

North Texas State already has clinched the Lone Star Conference championship and West Texas State and Texas A. and I. meet for the Alamo conference title next week.

El Paso Mines, eliminated from the Border Conference race, plays New Mexico Aggies at Las Cruces, N. M.

The week's schedule:

Thursday: Texas Wesleyan vs. Daniel Baker at Brownwood (night), Texas A. and I. vs. St. Edward's at Austin (night).

Friday: East Texas State vs. Henderson State Teachers at Commerce (day), Howard Payne vs. Southwestern at Georgetown (day), Durant Teachers vs. Austin College at Sherman (night).

Saturday: Sam Houston vs. Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches (day), McMurry vs. Abilene Christian college at Abilene (day), Trinity vs. Sul Ross at Alpine (day), St. Mary's vs. Louisiana college at Pineville, La. (day), South Dakota Aggies vs. West Texas State at Canyon (day), El Paso Mines vs. New Mexico Aggies at Las Cruces, N. M. (day), Montana vs. Texas Tech at Lubbock (day).

1939 Grid Season To End Saturday

Excepting for the Harvester-Borger Bulldog football clash here Saturday afternoon, the gridiron sport in Pampa is dead. All other teams have hung up their uniforms and have taken to the basketball floor.

The Guerrillas tucked away their football togs Tuesday afternoon following a most successful season and yesterday afternoon Coach Oscar Hinger welcomed 25 boys to the basketball floor for opening practice. Three Harvester prospects were also on hand.

Coach C. P. McWright and his Junior High Reapers have been practicing for nearly a week and soon his squad will be cut.

Coach Odus Mitchell announced yesterday that basketball for the Harvesters would start Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. Scott has taught Sunday school class 32 years at the Polk Street Methodist church at Amarillo.

10 Per Cent Xmas Train Gain Seen

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—An "old-fashioned Christmas, with gifts exchanged in greater quantity and variety than any year in the last decade," was forecast today by the National Dry Goods association on basis of a rising business trend.

Anticipating a 10 per cent trade gain, the association calculated sales in the traditional Thanksgiving-Christmas shopping spurge by department, dry goods, general merchandise and apparel stores would approximate $1,320,000,000—an increase of $120,000,000 over the comparable 1938 figure.

Eakin, Harmon Lead Nation's Ground Gainers

By GAIL FOWLER SEATTLE, Nov. 23 (AP)—For the second straight week Kay Eakin, the Arkansas workhorse, and Tom Harmon, Michigan's one-man offense, rank one-two as the nation's leading ground-gainers.

The American football statistical bureau offered figures today showing that Eakin, through his passing prowess, ranks first in total yards gained, while Harmon's ground sorties brought him a scant 15 yards behind the Arkansas Traveler.

Eakin, in nine games, carried the ball 105 times for 318 yards and threw it 167 times for 832 yards for a total offensive gain of 1,150 yards.

Harmon, playing only seven games, carried the ball 107 times for 798 yards and threw it 77 times for 337 yards for a 1,135 total.

Eakin is the leading passer with 63 completions for 823 yards while Harmon is the leading gainer by rushing, his 798 yards giving him a 746-yard average per game and a 746-yard average per play.

Forging ahead among the top rushers is Iowa's Iron Man, Nile Kinnick. He ranks fifth in total offense, 13th in individual passing, third in the number of yards gained by passing, hurling 29 for 618 yards, and fifth among the punters.

Others in the first ten in order in total offense—gains from both passes and rushing—are Johnny Knolia, Creighton, 1,012 yards; Paul Christiano, Missouri, 987; Kinnick, Iowa, 666; Kenny Washington, UCLA, 640; Banks McFadden, Clemson, 630; Jim Lalanne, North Carolina, 587; Gran Lansell, USC, 578; and Harold Van Eury, Minnesota, who moved up from 13th, 564.

Those ranking behind Harmon in individual rushing only, in order, are: John Polanski and Red Mayberry, Wake Forest; Knolia, Creighton; Washington, UCLA; Jack Crain, Texas; Van Eury, Minnesota; Tony Galovich, Wake Forest; Norm Standfield, Stanford, whose 143 rushes lead in that respect, and Lansell, USC.

After Eakin as individual passers come Christian of Missouri, with 60 completions; Ernie Lain, Rice, 50; Rusty Cowart, Texas Christian, 49; and Hal Hursh, Indiana, 47.

SCHOOLBOY SIDELINES

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Staff Paul Tyson of Waco's "High" rounding out 27 years as coach, is enthusiastic over the chances of his Tigers coming through with the State championship.

If the Bengals make the grade—and they are favored to do so—it will be the fifth title for the lanky, straight-backed mentor with the drawing-voice.

The Tigers took the flag in 1922, 1925, 1926 and 1927. Six times Waco has been in the finals and in 1929 it went to the semi-finals.

In 1921 Waco not only was undefeated, untied and unscored on, but no opposing team even got within scoring distance.

Tyson said he had seen Breckenridge play and that "it's going to be quite a battle." Breckenridge is the team the Tigers meet in the bi-district round.

"A typical West Texas team," said Tyson; "big, husky boys who know how to play football. Will we beat them? Frankly, I'd rather not think about it. I don't know. It's going to be one grand battle. The teams will have to flip for the site of the game."

Breckenridge and Waco met in 1929 when Breckenridge went to the finals and played Fort Arthur a scoreless tie on a snowswept field in Waco.

Under interscholastic league rules teams that meet within six years in championship play have the site of their game arbitrarily set. But it's been more than six years for Waco and Breckenridge so they'll have to flip.

Who will be the next head coach at Lubbock High, replacing the late Weldon Chapman? The information is that Bert Huffman, now mentor of the Texas Tech Freshmen, is due to get the call.

I saw two members of last season's state football championship team play with a junior college the other night. They were Emery Nix and Bill Dolan of Corpus Christi High and they're now coveting with the Paris college outfit.

Not as flashy as they were in high school but still mighty good backs. Junior college football, if you didn't know, is as tough as they make it.

Duke And Clemson Seek Southern Title

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 23 (AP)—Two foxy Tennesseans who teamed a decade ago to produce good football teams at Alabama will send out their current eleven Saturday on separate fields in quest of the 1939 Southern conference championship.

Wallace Wade, coach of Duke University, will match his Blue Devils against N. C. State at Raleigh, N. C. Jess Neely, coach at Clemson College, will pit his Tigers against Furman University at Greenville, S. C.

Both are unbeaten and untied in the conference. Duke holding four triumphs and Clemson three.

Wade, born in 1892 at Trenton, Tenn., and Neely, born in Smyrna, Tenn., in 1898, each has lost one game this year—each by one point. Pitt beat Duke 14-13 and Tulane beat Clemson 7-6.

Their paths converged first at Vanderbilt University in 1921-22 where Wade was assistant to Coach E. H. McCullough and Neely was a halfback. Wade moved to Alabama as head coach in 1923, but Neely lingered to become one of the Commodore's all-time football greats.

After a coaching hitch at Southwestern from 1924-27, Neely joined Wade at Tusculoosa in 1928 as backfield coach when "24 votes for Underwood" and lots of touchdowns were making Alabama famous.

Tennessee Best Bet For Rose Bowl Invitation

By ROBERT MYERS LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23 (AP)—Unbeaten Tennessee stands out as the best bet for the Rose Bowl invitation, but don't make any bets on it just yet.

Boiled down to more words than it's probably worth—predictions of this kind having a way of coming back to haunt you—here is what three authoritative sources say in behalf of the three leading teams eligible for the lucrative bid—Tennessee, Texas A. and M., and Cornell.

Tennessee will accept an invitation if it is tendered; Texas A. and M. would like one, but will not be broken-hearted if it misses out; they'll be bidding again in 1941.

Cornell honestly and sincerely will not accept a post season engagement because of its Ivy league brethren.

The Rose bowl picture will not be completed until Dec. 9. By that time the host Pacific Coast conference will have played out its schedule. The University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles now are tied in the chase with one tie apiece marked against them.

Kentucky, incidentally, could eliminate Tennessee from the running, and the Texas A. and M.-Texas Longhorn battle is seldom decided until the final gun.

In other words, many things can happen between now and Dec. 9.

John C. Fremont was the first actually to describe the Great Salt Lake.

Writer Watches Action Of Own Heart In Machine Demonstration

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH
Associated Press Science Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 23 (AP)— Few persons except highly trained surgeons and nurses have ever watched a human heart at work. But today I watched the action of my own heart more accurately than if it had been laid out on an operating table.

Dr. Graham Asher of the University of Kansas Medical school,
Kansas City, Kas., was demonstrating to members of the Southern Medical Association his "lag screen electrocardiograph," a machine for diagnosing heart trouble, which brought him first award in the association's scientific exhibit. I became one of his subjects for demonstration.

The hookup looked as though I had been prepared for the electric chair, but instead of electricity being poured into me, my heart was pumping out electrical impulses to a dancing needle-point of light which was recorded on a moving strip of fluorescent film.

A small metal electrode was strapped to each wrist and to the left ankle. The current flowing from the heart is so small as to be almost undetectable, but the electrocardiograph multiplies it from 800 to 1,000 times through a series of vacuum tubes to actuate the beam of light.

The machine itself is not new but the "lag screen" device which keeps the record of the light visible for 15 seconds or more, is the newest improvement in making diagnosis of early heart disease a simple procedure.

With the electrodes on and the machine in action the light began to do a regular, even dance, leaving a tracing which looked like a chart of the rises and slumps of the stock market.

"You have a slight dip in the 'P' curve just before the expansion beat of the heart," indicating that you are a little overweight," Dr.

Asher pointed out as the moving strip of film passed along. "Now smoke a cigarette." The record speeded up slightly.

"Now do a jig for about half a minute." The heart rate increased and the beam did a continuously wilder dance until I sat down. The record returned quickly to normal.

The machine is small enough to be transported to a bedside for diagnosis of heart ailments and has an automatic camera which, with the press of a button, will make a permanent record of the tracing.

Sadie Hawkins Week To Be Held At WTSC

Special To The NEWS
CANYON, Nov. 23—All of the absurdities and fun of a typical Sadie Hawkins week are being seen at West Texas State College this week, but the featured event will not arrive until Friday evening, when the sponsoring Pi Omegas will offer the costume dance.

Canyon merchants are offering awards for the best costumes. Dog-patch characters will be there in large numbers. Raymond Rallard's Majors in swing orchestra will furnish the music.

A Sadie Hawkins skit written by Jim Bugental of Amarillo was given in the college's regular broadcast over KQNC Monday evening. Lannie Lane of Canyon had the part of Lil' Abner and Mogie Routh of Amarillo was Daisy Mae.

Co-eds have lost no time in asserting themselves under the rules of the week, which requires the girls to make the dates, pay the bills, and extend the courtesies. And the men are retaliating in kind by taking much time to primp before reporting to their "dates."

It is being recalled that some inspired co-ed tried to "date"

President J. A. Hill last year, and "prexy" accepted gracefully, but the young lady failed to appear at the appointed time. She did send Dr. Hill a box of chocolates and a corsage.
