

1940 Will See Best Business In 10 Years,' Says Babson

BY ROGER W. BABSON
BOSTON, Dec. 29 (AP)—War or peace, business in the first half of 1940 will be the best for any six months' period since 1929. Jobs, wages, farm prices, business profits, and dividends should all turn in big gains over a year ago. They should even average higher than in the three months' period just closing. As the same time no sharp gains are in the cards for either taxes or living costs. Considering all factors, therefore, I predict that we will come closer to "good times" in early 1940 in any half year since 1929.

This forecast in view of the troubled and uncertain times. War, elections, neutrality, labor, Congress, taxes—these are just a few of the clouds lowering over the 1940 horizon. Business men, investors, and workers are more confused and worried today than on any year-end since the World War. Despite all these uncertainties, however, my forecast is not as rash as it first sounds. As the curtain rises on 1940, the Babsonchart Index of Business will be hovering 115. To be the best first half since 1929, business must average 10 to 15 per cent above the first six months of 1939. In terms of the Babsonchart Index, that means an average of 112. That is a pretty high level, but remember that business MUST operate at a high level well into the first quarter merely to fill orders now on hand. Business could fall back to as low as 106 on the Babsonchart by June and still ring up the best first half since 1929 before adjustments for population gains.

I think there are only two possibilities for the second half: (1) A rip-roaring boom or (2) a sickening crash. After the nominations are in, we should be able to tell which of these two developments will take place. Hence, I shall not give readers my definite forecasts for jobs, wages, and business in the second half of 1940 until June. In the meanwhile, no one will make any money by worrying about late 1940. The successful people next year will be those who take advantage of the great opportunities of the early months. For ten years we have waited for "good times" to come back. They are here now but nobody seems to want to do anything about them. Fears and uncertainties should be forgotten for a few months. Certainly, anyone who is primarily worried about Congress is fretting unnecessarily.

Don't Worry About Congress. Despite the war, it looks as though the 1940 session of Congress would be a typical election-year affair. Most Washington observers are forecasting a brief, routine session enlivened only by pre-election warnings and patriotic tub-thumping. No new reform or anti-business laws will be passed. Only major legislation which has a chance is pro-business, including amendment of the (1) Wagner Labor Act, (2) Modification of the Wage and Hour Act, and (3) the passage of the Mead Credit Bill.

I am reasonably sure that no new federal taxes will be imposed. Pay-as-you-go talk in December is one thing—action by Congress next Spring is another. Secretary Wallace would like to see the processing taxes revived under some type of sugar-coating—but this wouldn't be good politics in an election year. You can bet your bottom dollar, however, that the total share of your income taken by Uncle Sam—counting both income and hidden taxes—will not be a penny less than in 1939.

Hence, the Roosevelt Administration will come down the straightaway of its last year with the eighth consecutive deficit and a National Debt of nearly $45,000,000,000—up $20,000,000,000 since 1933. It will be a sorry record indeed for a President.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HAERT NHA Service Staff Writer

The old rule about the importance of deciding what type you are and then choosing clothes, accessories and makeup to dramatize that type, is being varied by many a smart woman.

One day she's likely to be tailored within an inch of her life—suit of town tweed, slit skirt blouse, simple hair-do, minimum of makeup. In other words, very much the easiest Christmas shopper.

The next day—and at the same daytime hour—there she is in a softly draped black silk dress with a fur-collared coat, a dramatic hat, one splashy piece of jewelry. It splays words, simply dressed, but still in the essence of femininity.

Sometimes in the evening, she's very much the streamlined, modern woman, in a trimly-cut dinner suit or a long shirt-waister of elegant fabric. On other occasions, she gives the impression of having stepped straight from a page in Godey's Lady Bazaar.

MATCH PERFUMS TO TYPE OF COSTUME

No matter what costume she wears, her coiffure and makeup always are in keeping with its type. And so is her perfume.

You'll find that your personality will blend far more convincingly with your appearance if you're enveloped in an appropriate fragrance, says a famous perfumer.

With naive, little girl clothes she recommends a refreshing bouquet scent. With frothy blouses and other ultra-feminine touches, a sweet perfume is advocated.

A perfume with a Russian saddle leather case is ideal to use with sports and spectator sports clothes. Then, too, there are single flower colors, including light, spicy types for the very young and the heavy, heady geranium for glamor girls on glamorous occasions.

If you have a penchant for a particular perfume which happens to be pretty expensive for your budget, save it for special occasions and use toilet water in matching scent for everyday use. And it's possible to buy hair oil and bath powder to harmonize.

In addition to the popular drop of perfume behind each ear, smart women like a touch of scent at base of throat and on wrists. To keep a handbag sweetly scented, put a drop or two of perfume on a bit of cotton and tuck the cotton into a corner of the bag. Perfume always should be put directly on the skin, of course—never on clothes.

Mind Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- 1. Is it good manners for a hostess to apologize to one guest for another guest?
2. If a hostess can do it tactfully, should she take the conversation away from a long-winded bore who is ruining her party?
3. Should a hostess see that each guest has a chance to do some of the talking?
4. If you are having a small party, should you invite all persons who are big talkers?
5. Is it a sign of snobbery for a hostess to give a great deal of thought to just which of her friends she will invite to a certain party?
What would you do if—
(a) You are an attractive young woman, a newcomer to town, and you want to make friends? When invited to a party, would you—
(1) Play up to all the husbands present?
(2) Try harder to make the women like you than the men?
Answers
1. No. Not except under very embarrassing circumstances.
2. Yes. And a good hostess knows how.
3. Yes.
4. No. You'll need some good listeners.
5. No. Good sense.
Best "What Would oYu Do" solution—(b). The women make out the guest lists.

O'Daniel And Garner To Hold Spotlight In 1940

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, Dec. 29 (AP)—The nation's political eyes in 1940 will be on Texas for two reasons. One reason is John W. Garner; the other is W. Lee O'Daniel.

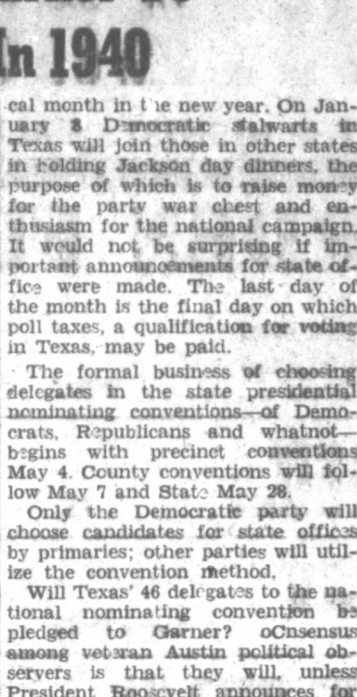

The country will be interested in whether Vice-President Garner, native Texan, wins the Democratic nomination for president, and then, if he is nominated, the presidency. There likewise will be nationwide interest in whether Governor O'Daniel decides to seek another two-year term, and, if he does, whether he will be re-elected.

Garner's campaign will be of extraordinary interest to Texans because he is the first resident of this state to have been elected to a national office for president.

In addition to the Garner-O'Daniel political interests, 1940 will bring many others as an estimated 20,000 persons run for other national and state offices from United States senator to constable.

High state officers other than the governorship will be filled including those of attorney general, lieutenant governor, one place on the railroad commission, comptroller, treasurer, land commissioner, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture, 150 state representatives, 16 state senators, one associate justice of the supreme court, one judge of the court of criminal appeals and various members of the 11 courts of civil appeals.

Navy Favors 65,000-Ton Battleships

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (AP)—General George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, declared today that the navy machine is probably less than 25 per cent ready for immediate action.

Addressing a joint session of the American Historical Association and the American Military Institute, Marshall said that "our problem, therefore, involves the development of a war force after the emergency has arrived."

The time necessary for the development of such a force, General Marshall said, is one of the factors kept in mind by the war department in preparing for national defense. The other, he said, is obtaining maximum preparation at a minimum of expense.

"If we are to have a sound preparation for war," he added, "we must have better school text books and better methods of teaching history."

In a democracy such as that in this country, he explained, military policy is dependent on public opinion, and the military organization will be good or bad depending upon how well the public is informed.

Climate of the holiday social season for the local young set, members of Kit Kat Klub will be hostesses at a formal dance in the Hotel Schneider this evening at 9 o'clock.

The hall is to be decorated in the club colors of blue and silver. Chaperons for the evening will be Miss Raymond Harrah, sponsor, Mrs. Kirshman, Mrs. Forrest Gurry, and Mrs. Roy Bourland.

Cleburne Minister Will Be Evangelist At Baptist Revival

The Rev. Claude Hankins, pastor of the Fields Street Baptist church, of Cleburne, will do the preaching in a revival meeting at the First Baptist church, January 7 to 14.

Rev. Hankins is known as a gifted preacher and especially qualified to lead young people.

The committee selected to be in charge of the preparation and following through of the revival are listed as follows:

Hemline Goes Down When You 'Dress Up' For Daytime

New York—The longer-than-mid-calf day dress is the big news in dress-up clothes. As the winter season gets under way, a large percentage of the really chic women are seen in smart tea and cocktail lounges, at informal dinners and in the theater.

There's no dressing down for late afternoon. Fashionable dress up for anything that even faintly resembles an occasion. And it seems that only invitation worth accepting at all these days much more than faintly resembles an occasion.

In other words, the floor-length evening dress with sleeves that cover shoulders as in more formal, less important in the average wardrobe than a low-necked, backless gown with narrow shoulder straps.

It's a possibility that the average woman will need a formal, decollete gown, but it's certainly less than a covered up dinner dress or two.

The fact that the majority of dinner dresses really do cover you up from top to toe doesn't mean that they aren't exciting, glamorous and as flattering as more formal, less modestly cut evening gowns.

Beaded, embroidered and other glittering touches have a staid, front-to-back about them. Fashionable pieces of costume as well as precious jewelry are featured with the dresses themselves.

Germaine Montell's robe de style, shown at a recent fashion show in the Tennesse Room at the Plaza, is of black silk tulle with wide waist, voluminous skirt and long, fitted sleeves which barely cover shoulder tops.

The bodice is front-laced with a fairly low decollete, finished with tiny lapels.

In the same show the same American designer featured also a black dinner dress of heavy black silk marquisette, the bodice of which is plain with black bugle beads.

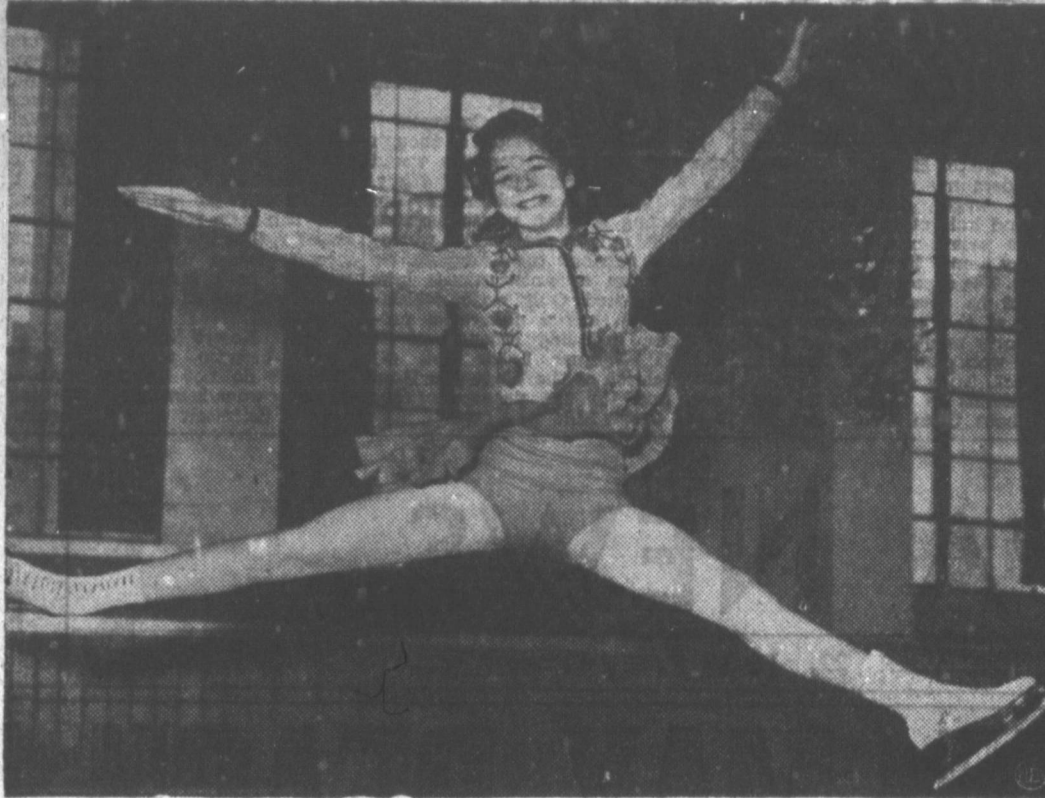

The back of the bodice is slit to the waist.

The black foundation evening gown and several little ja cotés or dinner blouses to wear with it remain a top-ranking idea for the budget-minded. However, if one dress or one floor-length skirt and a few jackets are to see you through dinner after dinner, party after party, all winter long, obviously, the dress or skirt must be simply cut and made of excellent material.

The jackets or blouses can be an iron-free as you please because they won't be seen so often. But the basic part of a dinner costume which is to be worn again and again ought to be so simple that nobody will remember much about it.

Catholic Youth Association Has Holiday Dinner-Dance Thursday

Entertaining members of the Catholic Youth Association and their guests, a dinner was given in the Hotel Schneider last night with a dance following at the parochial school hall.

A color motif of green and red was used in decorating the table and Christmas trees and candle cards marked the places.

The Rev. Joseph Wunderly presided as toastmaster over the program which was presented during the dinner. Numbers presented included tap dance specialties by Gloria Robinson, piano selections by Bill Haley, and violin numbers by Miss Helen Poulos.

Attending were Herb Putnam, Marguerite Jones, Bill Haley, Helen Poulos, Charles Egan, Severin Kotara, Vernell Block, Paul Keim, Mary Margaret Gribbon, Ray Callow, Johnny Garman, Betty Cree, Jacob Garman, Jr., Ann Chisclim, Etty Rainis, Jim Brown, Pat Fitzmaurice, Soren Jensen, Jim McKernan, Ellen Mary Haley, Irene Poulos, Johnny Schmidt, Maxine French, and Paul Willingbran.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith and children, Lena Jean and Johnny Lee; of Andrews; Mrs. Claude Whitefield and daughter, Claudia; of Monahan; Mrs. D. L. Shuping and daughters of Keller-ville; Miss Quinelle Claxton of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Heckliff of Pampa.

Couple Entertains With Turkey Dinner For Group Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Estes entertained with a 6 o'clock turkey dinner Thursday evening at home honoring their children and grandchildren who are visiting here.

Dinner was served at an attractively decorated table.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith and children, Lena Jean and Johnny Lee; of Andrews; Mrs. Claude Whitefield and daughter, Claudia; of Monahan; Mrs. D. L. Shuping and daughters of Keller-ville; Miss Quinelle Claxton of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Heckliff of Pampa.

MODERN MENUS

Begin the week with a few new recipes to test. It will put adventure into the routine of cooking for the family.

Veal Roll with Sausage (Serves 4 to 6)
Two veal steaks (cut in 2 by 4 inch pieces), 3 teaspoons minced onion, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 pound pork sausage, 1/4 cup bread crumbs with enough milk to soften, 3 tablespoons flour, salt and pepper to taste, 2 tablespoons bacon drippings, 1/4 cups clear vegetable stock.

Wipe each steak with damp cloth. Heat butter and brown onion. Mix the brown onion with sausage and moistened bread crumbs. Spread over steaks, roll, and fasten with toothpicks or skewer. Mix salt, pepper and flour and dredge the rolled veal with it. Brown rolls in bacon fat, on all sides and pour in the vegetable stock. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 25 minutes, or until meat is tender.

Southern Sweet Potato Souffle (Serves 6 to 8)
Six sweet potatoes, 2 egg yolks 1/2 cup milk, 1-1/2 cup sugar, 1-3/4 cup raisins, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 2/3 teaspoon mented butter, 2 egg whites, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Boil potatoes and mash thoroughly. Beat yolks and milk, then add sugar, raisins, nutmeg and melted butter. Stir into mashed potatoes. Place in buttered casserole and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until brown on top. Beat egg whites until stiff, then beat in sugar and stir in lemon juice. Place on top of sweet potatoes and run under broiler to brown.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

The old rule about the importance of deciding what type you are and then choosing clothes, accessories and makeup to dramatize that type, is being varied by many a smart woman. Oftener than not, you will find her changing her appearance to suit her mood.

One day she's likely to be tailored within an inch of her life—out of town tweed, silk shirt blouse, simple hair-do, minimum of makeup. In other words, very much the earnest Christianship sheppie.

The next day—and at the same daytime hour—there she is in a softly draped black silk dress with a fur-collared coat, a dramatic hat, one splashy piece of jewelry. In other words, simply dressed, but still in the essence of femininity.

Sometimes in the evening, she's very much the straitlaced, modern woman, in a trimly-cut, dinner suit or a long skirt-waist of elegant fabric. On other occasions, she gives the impression of having stepped straight from a page in Godey's Lady B-Book.

MATCH PERFUMES TO TYPE OF COSTUME
No matter what costume she wears, her coiffure and makeup always are in keeping with its type. And so is her perfume.

"You'll find that your personality will blend far more convincingly with your appearance if you're enveloped in an appropriate fragrance," says a famous perfumer.

With naive, little girl clothes she recommends a refreshing bouquet scent. With frou-frou blouses and other ultra-feminine touches, a sweet perfume is advised.

A perfume with a Russian saddle leather case is ideal to use with sports and spectator sports clothes. Then, too, there are single flower odors, including light, spicy types for the very young and the heavy, heavy bergamot for glamor girls on glamorous occasions.

If you have a penchant for a particular perfume which happens to be pretty expensive for your budget, save it for special occasions and use toilet water in matching scent for everyday use. And it's possible to buy bath oil and bath powder to harmonize.

In addition to the popular drop of perfume behind each ear, smart women like a touch of scent at base of throat and on wrists. To keep a handbag sweetly scented, put a drop or two of perfume on a bit of cotton and tuck the cotton into a corner of the bag. Perfume always should be put directly on the skin, of course—never on clothes.

Rebekah Lodge Has Weekly Session On Thursday Evening

A weekly meeting of Rebekah lodge was held Thursday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall with Etta Criser, noble grand, presiding.

Baptist WMS To Have Meeting On Thursday Afternoon

Baptist Women's Missionary society will meet in regular session Monday afternoon at the church.

An executive board meeting of the society is to be conducted at 1:30 o'clock in the church on Thursday afternoon. Following the business session, circle three will have charge of the mission program at 2 o'clock.

A covered dish luncheon will not be served at this meeting.

Mind Your Manners

Your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Is it good manners for a hostess to apologize to one guest for another guest?

2. If a hostess can do it tactfully, should she interrupt the conversation away from a long-winded bore who is ruining her party?

3. Should a hostess see that each guest has a chance to do some of the talking?

4. If you are having a small party, should you invite all persons who are big talkers?

5. Is it a sign of snobbishness for a hostess to give a great deal of thought to just which of her friends she will invite to a certain party?

6. You are an attractive young woman, a newcomer to town, and you want to make friends. When invited to a party, would you—
(a) Play up to all the husbands present?
(b) Try harder to make the women like you than the men?

Answers:
1. No. Not except under very embarrassing circumstances.
2. Yes. And a good hostess knows how.
3. Yes.
4. No. You'll need some good listeners.
5. No. Good sense.
6. Best "What Would You Do" solution—(b). The women make out the guest lists.

Finnish War May Draw In Scandinavia

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

The Russo-Finnish war is experiencing pronounced growing pains.

There is a tendency toward expansion westward to draw in Sweden and Norway as allies of their small neighbors. Such an alliance may eventually enable Russia to cope with the Finnish fighting death or skis and secure a decisive Red victory in the immediate future.

Ever since the Communists invaded Finland a month ago Sweden and Norway have been living in dread that the Soviet might try to reach still further and impose its will on them, as well as on eastern Poland, the three Baltic states and Estonia.

Each day that the conflict is protracted now increases the danger of Swedish-Norwegian intervention. And the chances of a Russo-Scandinavian war merging with the European upheaval are obvious. Sweden and Norway have been treating the Finnish and narrow paths of neutrality, being in a precarious position as regards both Russia and Germany. However, the amount of unofficial aid which has been going to Finland from both these countries, in the way of money, supplies, and volunteer troops, leaves no doubt as to the sympathies of the general public.

The main fear of Sweden and Norway is that any supply, even unofficial, given to Finland, may draw fire from Germany. A German foreign office spokesman has charged England and France with inciting Finland to resist Russia, so to cut off the Baltic supplies from northern Europe. Germany gets many essentials, especially the all-important iron ore, from Sweden.

However, should Germany resist by attacking the Scandinavian countries, they automatically would become allies of the Anglo-French brotherhood. As such they would receive the full support of England and France.

While there has been no official intimation, it is entitled to suspect that a matter of such vital importance must have been discussed between the Anglo-French team and the Scandinavian countries.

It is at least an interesting coincidence that Britain and Sweden have just signed a war trade agreement designed to adapt Anglo-Swedish trade to wartime conditions, to maintain trade at a normal level.

The Little Man Who Wasn't There—For Stalin

President Kyosti Kallio of Finland, the man who defied Stalin and has gotten away with it to date, bristles out defiance at the Reds from Finnish first-line trenches. The president visited the Mannerheim line, on which the Russian offensive has foundered, and posed with a machine gun crew.

Mrs. Barrett, 80, Dies Last Night

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Barrett, 80, a native Texan, died last night at the family home 440 North State Street. She had been in failing health for several years.

Mr. Barrett was born in Leon County in 1859. On December 8, 1887, she and L. W. Barrett were married. They came to Pampa in the early part of this century and later moved to Dalhart from where they came to Pampa 12 years ago. Mr. Barrett is a retired farmer.

Survivors are the husband and three sons, E. O. Barrett, Pampa; L. W. Barrett, Seagraves; and J. H. Barrett, Claude.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Central Baptist church by the Rev. J. O. Scott, pastor. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery under direction of the Central Baptist funeral home. Mrs. Barrett had been a member of the Baptist church for 67 years.

Funeralbearers will be A. N. Thorne, Ed Anderson, Ray Riley, C. L. Hunter, J. B. Hibban and G. C. Stark.

Flowers will be in charge of Misses A. N. Thorne, Thomas Cox, Ed Anderson and Miss Kate Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Liles and daughter, Nancy Lee, left Thursday for their home in Gainsville after spending the holidays in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Scott. Mrs. Liles and Mrs. Scott are sisters.

ICC Says Southern Pacific Tracks 'Tampered With'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission reported today that "malicious tampering" with the tracks caused the derailment of the Southern Pacific's streamliners "City of San Francisco" near Harney, Nev., August 12. Nine passengers and 15 dining car employees were killed in the crash.

In addition, 99 passengers and 14 employees were injured.

Some football fans said the evidence showed the train was not moving in excess of 60 miles an hour when it was derailed.

"The train was riding smoothly and there was no indication of defective equipment," the commission said.

"Upon entering the curve on which the accident occurred, the engineer saw an object about 300 feet distant, which later was found to be a tumbled, lying on the south or high-rail of the curve. When the train reached the point the front truck became derailed and the engineer thought that a rock had been struck.

"Subsequent examination of the track disclosed that on the south rail the angle bars had been removed from a joint, and nuts and light-lock washers were lying adjacent to the disconnected rail.

BABSON

dent who chided his predecessor's Administration as "being the most peace-time government anywhere, at any time." Despite this record, Mr. Roosevelt is still popular with the majority of voters. They particularly like his foreign policy and his mammoth defense program.

Heavy industries 1949's Signa Flag This record-breaking defense program is just one of the four props under 1949 business. (1) Trade gains with neutral countries, (2) rising buying power in cities and on farms, and (3) a heavy industries boom are the other supports which will hold business at a high level. Most important of all these is the renaissance in the heavy goods industries. In the boom of 1934-37, the consumers' goods industries furnished the drive. Today the burden has been shifted to the bread shoulders of such industries as steel mills, railway equipment shops, and machinery-makers.

For five years we have tried to get the heavy industries going. That's where most of our unemployment has been. So the upswing of jobs in the past few months, employment in the heavy industries should increase, but there may be some layoffs in certain consumer industries. As a result, total number of jobs in early 1940 will be only slightly higher than at present. No real increase in unemployment are in prospect. After schools and colleges dump their crop of graduates on the market next June, unemployment may well be higher than it is today.

Higher Payrolls, More Strikes Payrolls are another story. They should be 20 to 25 per cent higher than in the same months of 1939 and even moderately higher than at present. Wages will be pushed up where union pressure is strongest, while the Wage and Hour Act will force up weekly income where overtime is common. With business riding the crest of the wave, it is only logical to expect some strikes. I doubt, however, if there will be any serious tie-ups such as we had in 1937. Right now it looks like the aviation industry is the odds-on favorite to provide the labor trouble headlines.

These plants and nearly all others will be running under forced draught. Machine shops, locomotive and car shops, construction outfits, and shipyards will be working at top speed in the next few months. Soft coal miners will be much busier than a year ago. Metal mines are slated for a big six-month steel mills should average above 80 per cent of capacity. More activity than in any similar period in three years will truncate off the assembly lines well over 2,000,000. Railroads are in for their best first half year since 1939.

Let Down For Consumer Lines Activity in chemical, electrical equipment, farm tool, furniture, paper, tire and rubber, and metal plants should top the early months of 1940. Some of the new and petroleum products is destined to set new all-time records. A let-down from current boom levels in such consumer lines as textiles and shoes would not be surprising. Women and rayon plants, however, will continue full blast. With industrial activity wide open, service businesses will be in the clover and professional men will see the best collections in many months.

Steady-to-higher payrolls in industrial centers, therefore, should hold the purchasing-power spotlight. In addition, farmers will have more money to spend. I do not foresee any runaway gains in farm product prices such as we had in the World War. Yet, heavier demand and higher consumer buying power should hold up prices to the tune of 10 per cent over the first half of 1939. Wheat, corn, and other grains will lead the parade. Fresh vegetable and potato farmers can look ahead to a good year.

Farm Income Up Beef, lamb, and pork will not sell much higher than in the early months of 1939. I do not foresee any big gains in butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, or hogs. Cotton exports are rising sharply and demand is tremendous. This indicates that King Cotton is getting a new lease on life. Consequently, farm income will be 10 per cent higher than in the same months last year. The drought in the West is a very serious factor. The moisture situation is the worst on record at this season. If it gets no drier, however, it could easily lift, rather than lower, total farm income. Barring a continuation of the drought, total production on all farms in 1940 may be close to the 1939 figure. The increase in prices will not be all gravy for the farmers, however. Their costs will go up, though perhaps not so much as their prices. With farm profits a bit better, farm hand values should continue to edge up a little.

"Oomph" In Prices In addition to higher farm prices, industrial raw materials should also push upward in early 1940. War, high industrial activity, and rising buying power will put the "oomph" in the price picture. Hides, cocoa, gasoline, and paint materials can have the sharpest boosts. Increases in wool, iron, sugar, steel, lumber, and non-ferrous metals are a good bet assuming business activity holds up. Coffee, head coal, cement, and glass will do well to hold their own. One of the interesting points about this current boom is the remarkable stability of prices of all kinds.

This desire to keep the lid on prices is good news for consumers. Their living expenses are not going to change much in early 1940. Food is the only hot spot. It will be surprised, however, if your weekly market bill next June is more than five per cent higher than it is now. Clothing will not advance more than five per cent. There is no reason to forecast serious advances in fuel oil, coal, or rents for the first half of 1940. Rising lumber and labor costs will make furniture a little more expensive. The sum total of all this means that living expenses should stiffen by only two or three per cent during the first six months of 1940.

Brisk Gains In Trade With only a modest step-up in living expenses and an increase in consumer "tastes," retail trade will be better. A gain of eight per cent sounds about right to me. If the increase is measured in dollars, only about four per cent more goods would be sold, however—the other four per cent being accounted for by mark-ups on price tags. Luxury and semi-luxury lines should register the biggest step-up in sales in this past three months in any business.

Store profits ought to be satisfactory with inventories in fairly good shape. The successful merchants will be those who take advantage of the big opportunities of early 1940 by inflating their advertising budgets. Promotion outlays should be upped at least 15 per cent. Those salesmen who have been faithfully doing their missionary work the last two years will cash in with the biggest commission checks since 1929!

Busy Period For Builders Another key industry which should see big things in the next six months is construction. Building commissioners will be busy okaying 10 to 15 per cent more contracts than in the same period of 1939. Public building will be shaken down about 10 per cent, but this drop will be more than offset by big jumps in industrial and residential contracts. With factories straining every nerve to meet delivery dates, industrial building plants, shelved since 1937, are being trotted out. This type of construction should chalk up a 40 per cent gain over early 1939.

The "installment" loans are ready to give home building another shot in the arm. Costs may inch up, but they are not scheduled for any sharp advances. So it looks like a busy period ahead for building workers, contractors, architects, and the 28 allied industries which supply the building trades. Real estate men specializing in new, modern properties should witness better values and stiffening rents as the months work along. However, I see no hope for old, large houses, or other out-of-date buildings.

High Earnings, Big Dividends Hence, the first half of 1940 promises to be a good period for most of us. I am particularly optimistic on investor's income. Business profits in early 1940 ought to be the best in three years in most lines—the best in ten years in other lines. Earnings will run 30 to 50 per cent over 1939. The heavy industries should report the biggest jump in profits—up 50 to 100 per cent—while consumer industry profits up 10 to 25 per cent. As a result investors are slated for some very pleasant dividend surprises—checks 25 to 50 per cent bigger than a year ago.

With a combination of high business volume and a bright outlook for profits and dividends, you would normally expect higher security prices. However, this is not only a strange war; it's a strange boom, as well. Despite all the optimistic news, sentiment is bad. Investors refuse to buy under-valued stocks selling at 8 to 12 times earnings and yielding 5 to 10 per cent. Yet they stampede to buy the bonds of a government which has failed to earn its "charges" for ten years, and which yield only one to two per cent!

Bullish On Stocks Second-grade bond issues of concerns covering their interest, unfortunately are selling for 80 to 70 cents on the dollar while 3 1/2 per cent "Triple A" corporation bonds are gobbled up at prices to yield as little as three per cent. Some time—maybe not in the first half of 1940—but sooner or later, the bond market must take its medicine just as the stock market of 1929-30 had to take its knock. So I am moderately bullish on carefully-selected stocks and medium-grade bonds for early 1940, but I am bearish on "high-grade," long-term bonds.

World commerce is all muddled up. You cannot make any strong forecasts about it. The best you can say is that our trade with Canada, South America and Italy will be the high-spot of the export and import picture in early 1940. Our commercial treaty with Japan expires on January 15. If it is not renewed our trade in the Pacific may be sharply curtailed. However, I think something will be worked out with the Japanese.

No War Forecast No forecast on the war or its duration is possible at this time. It may be all over tomorrow, or it may drag on for years. The important point right now is to recognize that war's effect on business is being over-emphasized. So far, it has done no harm to American business. When, and if, fighting breaks out in earnest, Allied war orders will help our business. But under no circumstances would the belligerents buy as much from us as they did in 1915-17. The war is, in no sense, the major prop under our current boom. That's why I say, "War or peace, early 1940 will see the best business in ten years."

THE FIRST HALF OF 1940 WILL COME THE CLOSEST TO "GOOD TIMES" THAT WE HAVE EVER SEEN SINCE 1929. READERS, MUST NOT THINK, HOWEVER, THAT I BELIEVE EVERYTHING IS HUNKY-DORY. REAL PROSPERITY IS AS FAR AWAY AS EVER. REAL PROSPERITY IS MERELY A SYNONYM FOR PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION, WITH MILLIONS OF MEN JOBLESS AT HOME AND MILLIONS MORE TRYING TO KILL EACH OTHER ABROAD. REAL PROSPERITY IS NOT EVEN "JUST AROUND THE CORNER." REAL PROSPERITY AND LASTING PEACE WILL RETURN ONLY WHEN THE DESIRES AND GOALS OF OUR AND ALL OTHER PEOPLES CHANGE—THAT IS WHEN WE ALL, PRACTICE WHAT JESUS TAUGHT 2,000 YEARS AGO.

Aggies Greeted By 'Eyes Of Texas'

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29 (AP)—A band played "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You" as the Texas A. & M. Sugar Bowl football squad of 32 players arrived at the Union station here today enroute to Biloxi.

A large crowd of officials and admirers from New Orleans and their home state greeted Coach Homer Norton and his No. 1 team of the nation and many took part in a parade to the hotel where breakfast was served.

Norton dropped the word at the station that his team was in "fine shape for the game."

After breakfast the players boarded the two buses and continued their trek to Biloxi, 30 miles to the east on the Mississippi coast where they will train secretly until New Year's morning.

Prior to the team's arrival the fellows who dish out the adjective spoke their predictions.

EARTHQUAKE

of doctors with supplies and medical supplies managed today to reach some of the ravaged areas isolated since the great tremors of Wednesday.

They were unable to reach many localities because of blocked roads and collapsed bridges.

Authorities said more tremors might come in the next ten days. Director Fier of the Istanbul Observatory said the geological disturbance apparently occurred 15 miles below the surface and covered a wide area, so that further movements were likely before the strata settled.

As one single item of the tragedy rolled, workers reported finding great numbers of stray children in pitiful condition in the mountainous, tree woods.

Freeze To Death

Three additional earth shocks struck night, added to the damage in the ravaged areas of east, central, Turkey.

Public-stricken, many persons prostrated themselves in the snow before ruined mosques to pray for deliverance. Minarets have been toppled on sleeping townfolk in the first shock.

Other miserable survivors huddled in the fields, where many froze to death.

Bitter cold, ranging to 25 degrees Fahrenheit below zero, hampered efforts to extinguish the fires that burned in nearly every village and town.

Martial law was proclaimed, and fire-bearing soldiers had orders to shoot looters on sight.

In the province, or vilayet, of Erzurum alone, the dead are in the hundreds. In the province of Van, they are estimated officially at 6,000, nearly a third of the total population.

Destroyed In 1784 In the capital of the same name, the walls of a great military barracks were the only masonry left standing.

The city was almost destroyed by an earthquake in 1784.

Farther north, where the 10,000-foot peaks of the Janik mountains meet the Black Sea, entire villages were buried as steep cliffs tumbled down.

The sea, on which there was a violent storm two days before the earthquake, was driven by a high wind that sent it pounding against the shore.

Ships were smashed against buildings and seaside homes were carried away with their occupants.

The chaos of communications made full reports impossible.

In some places the earth split into huge crevices; in others it bulged, water and fuel mains were ripped apart like soda straws.

Jewelry Popular Gifts This Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (AP)—Those Christmas packages for the girls and women between the Red River and the 35th parallel must have contained a lot of diamonds, bracelets and the like, if figures released today by the commerce department mean anything.

A survey of 1,042 independent retail stores in Texas showed that their dollar volume of sales in November was 17 per cent greater than during the same month of 1938, and that jewelry stores, with an increase of 9.2 per cent, enjoyed a greater gain than any other line of business.

Sales of Texas furniture stores and motor vehicle dealers were up 8.6 per cent over last November, but business in department stores dropped 1.6 per cent. Total dollar volume of sales was $15,434,957.

Cities with sales gains in November over the same month last year, as reported by the department, follows:

Dallas, 14 per cent; El Paso, 2.8; Houston, 1; San Antonio, 2.6; Beaumont, 4.1; Galveston, 1; Amarillo, 12; Wichita Falls, 2; Pampa, 17; Tyler, 4.

Fidkeinstein Sends Check For Finns

The Pampa News today received the third check for $5 for the Finnish Relief fund, sent to this newspaper by D. A. Fidkeinstein of the Standard Pipe & Metal company.

Yesterday a check to the fund for $5 from Carl M. Smith, was received here.

All contributions are forwarded to the Finnish Relief Fund headquarters, New York.

vastness by ski troops toward Russia's far north supply artery, the Murmansk railway.

The communists said the Russians were "flooded" by the guerrilla warfare being waged by the hill-troops, ski troops or Russian soldiers of Liekski and that "the enemy also has been pushed back across the frontier northeast of Liekski."

There were still no reports of the outcome of a parallel foray toward the railway from the Salla region.

(However, dispatches reaching Stockholm from the Salla sector told of a new Russian assault there, against Finland at her narrowest point.

War Not Popular

On the extreme north, near Petsamo, the Reds were said to have ended a five-day, 50-mile withdrawal toward the Arctic circle and had started digging trenches for a day of position.

(The Finnish command was reported to have shown correspondents the diary of a slain Russian officer in which it was written that the war on Finland was not popular with Russian soldiers.)

The Finnish airforce, gaining power with the arrival of Italian and other fighting planes, reported silencing with bombs at least one anti-air gun which had been blasting Vilpuri.

With the main Finnish line, the Mannerheim defenses, still unbroken in the Isthmus north of Leningrad, and with varying success in checking or turning back the invaders in other sectors, Finland at the end of a month of war appeared to be holding her ground.

Correspondents Give Roosevelt Dose Of His Own Medicine

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt received a wish today for "an eventual 1940" from the president of the White House Correspondents' Association, who spoke on behalf of his colleagues of the press.

Earl Godwin, of the Washington Times-Herald, the association president, stressed the word "eventual" in extending the New Year's wish to the chief executive.

Why be so equivocal? The President inquired with a grin.

"We've learned it here," Godwin responded.

That's all right, Mr. Roosevelt chuckled, that's very sweet of you.

Japs Deny Attack

SHANGHAI, Dec. 29 (AP)—A Japanese naval spokesman today challenged the statement of Miss Frances Donaldson of Louisville, Ky., that she had been struck by a Japanese sentry.

He said an investigation based on a United States request for disciplinary action revealed "no evidence thereof" and investigators "do not believe it occurred."

Fans Will See 2 Good Games Here Tonight

Reserves As Colorful As First String

Pampans were assured of seeing two good basketball games tonight at the high school gym where the first and second string Harvesters will play similar teams from Tell in Hall county. The first game will start at 7 o'clock, the second at 8.

Today close followers of Harvesters basketball were urging local fans to come early and see the first game because the reserves are among the most promising Coach Odus Mitchell has had in years. They are a colorful crew too.

The reserves nosed out the strong White Deer reserves by one point the same night the Harvesters lost to the White Deer regulars by two points.

Coach Mitchell will probably start the following lineup in the first game: forwards, Tim Cox and A. C. Enloe; center, Frasher; guards, Billy Mounts and Durward Mitchell, brother of the coach. Clatus Mitchell is another member of the reserves.

Cox will have three years to play after this one. Enloe, one, Mounts one and Mitchell one.

For a time it looked as if Cox and Enloe might beat some of the Harvesters out of their positions but during the tournament last week they bore down, but Coach Mitchell would still use his strong reserves any time the regulars faltered.

Yesterday in a scrimmage the reserves scored quite frequently on the regulars who are learning slowly but thoroughly. The first string ers are trying hard and doing their best and it is practically a settled fact that they will be one of the strongest teams in the Panhandle before the season ends.

Coach Mitchell will probably start Bearden and Carlisle at the forward positions; Dumaway and Seth Cox, guards and Terrell, center.

Not much is known of the Tell Tigers who have played in previous years at Pampa, but they always have a strong team, and fight it out with Carey, Childress, Crowell for the district championship. They have never won the district but they have been nosed out several times by Carey by one or two points.

Also Tell is famous for its tall players, and it is expected that some tree-tops will be in the line-up tonight.

Clemson, Boston Parade For Public

DALLAS, Dec. 29 (AP)—Clemson and Boston college footballers, getting in important work to knock off the rough edges for their Cotton Bowl game, trained on opposite sides of town today, away from the roar of the crowd.

Behind locked gates Clemson banged away in practice at the Southern Methodist university stadium. Equally as secretive was Boston college as it drove through two workouts at the new Dallas high school field.

Both teams were paraded for the public yesterday, climbing aboard the trucks, for a rollickous ride down Main street. The occasion was the official greeting of the arriving Boston team. Clemson got here two days before.

Only one casualty was listed as the squads began their taping-off process for Monday's battle. Coach Jess Neely said Walter Cox, regular guard on the Clemson team, probably would be unable to start due to a leg injury.

Coach Frank Leahy of Boston college pronounced his boys in good shape physically except that some of them still are weak from an attack of gripe that clung to the squad for several days at Boston.

Wider And Lower Goal Posts Asked By Coaches

By RUSSELL NEWLAND
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Dec. 29 (AP)—News and views on the American Football Coaches Association and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, meeting here concurrently.

Coaches want the foot put back in football. Some of them, perhaps, recall losing games by one point last season. A 30-man committee, representing a cross section of the country's coaching talent, voted yesterday to recommend to the National Football Rules committee, adoption of new goal posts, wider and lower than the standards now in use. If the rule is adopted, as some think it will be, there should be a boom market for drop and place kicking specialists.

The mentors, however, neglected to put their best foot forward. The graduate engineers among them fixed to lay down specifications. The powerful rule body could grant the wish by the technical side-tracking of widening the uprights one inch and lowering the cross bar that much.

Other suggestions to be passed on to the rules makers include reduction of the penalty for an illegal receiver being hit by a passed ball behind the goal line from 15 to 5 yards; adoption of a three-eighths inch cleat instead of the present half-inch ground gripper and physical examination of all games officials. Some of the coaches were of the opinion that a lot of officials were too slow of foot to be out on the field.

Faculty athletic representatives and other educators who make up the N. C. A. A. huddled today with the coaches in joint session to discuss "the function of national associations in intercollegiate athletics."

Later in the convention, the NCAA bosses intend to pick this subject to pieces cleaner than the carcass of a holiday turkey. The educators, come Saturday, may adopt a new code giving them wider jurisdiction, authority to disqualify members who violate the ethics out of the outfit. Proselyting and subsidization of athletics is another way of putting it.

Sports Roundup

By ROBERT MYERS
(Sitting In For Eddie Briets)
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29 (AP)—Today's boldest prediction: The 1941 Rose Bowl game will be between the Washington Huskies and the winner of the Texas-Texas A. and M. at Austin.

Tidbits, odd and otherwise: Kayak II is the sold horse to win the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, but Seabiscuit is still the people's sentimental favorite. . . . Sammy Baugh evidently wasn't kidding last fall when he said Andy Parks would be a sensation with the Washington Redskins. . . . Harry (Truck) Hannah, new boss of the Memphis club, went into a huddle with Tennessee sports writers over the baseball prospects and emerged from the conference offering to bet that the Vols trim Southern California New Year's Day. . . . Speaking of the Rose Bowl, as who out here isn't, those Dallas Cotton Bowl folks certainly gave the Rose people a scare when they nearly signed Tennessee and the Texas Aggies for their game. . . . Lou Novikoff of the Los Angeles baseball club, voted the no. one player of the minor leagues, was the most feared batter in the coast league. The pitchers weren't so afraid he'd belt the ball out of the park as they were of getting a leg taken off by the horsehide. There is a $100,000 price tag on him, by the way.

The golfing pros go into the 1940 merry-go-round next week in the Los Angeles open. Watch out that an amateur doesn't win the event. His name is Bud Ward of Spokane, Wash. After the L. A. comes the Oakland, San Francisco and Bing Crosby's tournament at Del Mar.

Today's guest star: Jack Troy of the Atlanta Constitution—U. S. C.

Ten Golfers Win Medal Play Events

By LARRY ROLLINS
MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 29 (AP)—Considering that there are some 600 professional tournament golfers scattered around the country, it comes as a mild surprise now that the firing is over, to realize that just ten of them won all of this continent's medal play events in 1939.

Fred Corcoran, tournament bureau manager for the Professional Golfers association, delved into his record and found, too, that the average winning score was ten below par for 72 holes.

It was a grand year for seasoned performers, not a single dark horse coming through among a dozen promising youngsters.

Byron Nelson, national open champion, accounted singlehandedly for five of the 23 events in capturing the Harry Vardon trophy, emblematic of professional supremacy. In addition to the national, he finished first in the Phoenix, Pinehurst north-south, western and Massachusetts opens.

Henry Picard, who topped the pros with $10,202 in money winnings, not only captured the match play P. G. A. championship but took the New Orleans, Thomasville, Ga., Metropolitan and Scranton, Pa., opens.

The other open victors were: Dick Metz—Oakland, Asheville, St. Paul; Ralph Guldahl—Augusta national, Pittsburgh; Sam Snead, St. Petersburg, Miami; E. J. Hargis—Texas; Bing Crosby; Denny Shute—Glens Falls, N. Y.; Jimmy Demaret—Los Angeles; Felix Serafin—Hershey, Pa.; Harold McSpaden—Canadian.

Corcoran also offered his set of the year's golf superlatives: Lowest 72-hole score—Metz' 270 in the St. Paul open. Best record—Nelson's 65-65-130 for 36 holes in Phoenix open. Lowest 18-hole score—McSpaden's 63 on par 70 course in Texas open (Metz scored 64 at St. Paul, Harrison 64 at Oakland, Snead 64 at Miami).

Greatest round—Gene Sarazen's 66 during ballroom at Augusta. Most thrilling tournament—U. S. open, with Nelson winning in second playoff after triple tie. Finest finish—Picard's two birdies to win P. G. A. title.

Waco-Lubbock Game To Begin At 2 p. m.

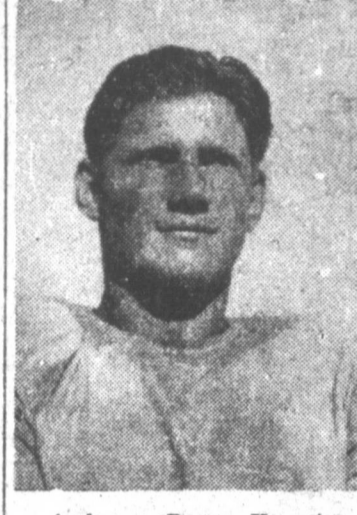

The last high school football game of the 1939 season will be played Saturday afternoon in Dallas between the mighty Lubbock Westerners of District 1 and the big Waco Tigers. The game, to be called at 2 o'clock, will be broadcast over Radio Station KFDN, Pampa, and 25 other stations through courtesy of the Magnolia Petroleum company.

Cy Leland, former star football player and now one of the south's outstanding announcers, will present the play-by-play description of the game. Pre-game color and lineup will be presented beginning at 1:15 p. m.

Waco's record during the season gives the Tigers a slight edge on the dope sheet but the Westerners' great drive down the finish line cannot be overlooked. Waco will have a weight advantage of about 13 pounds per player but speed will be on the side of the Westerners.

had better quit worrying whether George Cafego's knee is good or bad and think about this boy Johnny Butler. He's the young man who really carried Tennessee into the Rose Bowl, and he's liable to carry S. C. out of it—feet first.

IN SUN BOWL

A former Pampa Harvester football star will play in a Bowl football game on New Year's day. He is Durwood (Red) Fanning, pictured above, one of the stars of the Arizona Teachers college at Tempe, Ariz., whose team will meet Catholic university in the Sun Bowl at El Paso. The Arizona team is coached by Dixie Howell. Fanning played football here in 1935.

Another former Pampa player is also a star ball toter on the team. He is Bill Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis now of Prescott, Ariz. He moved to Arizona with his parents in 1928.

Three other Texans, Sam Andrews of Bangs, Bob Lackey, of Merton and Olin Mason of Vernon are members of the Tempe Bulldogs.

Dozen Deaths Due Directly To Football

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29 (AP)—Substantial strides in the reduction of football fatalities were reported today by Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood of Purdue university in the ninth annual survey presented to the National Collegiate Athletic association.

The report for the past season disclosed it had been the safest since the surveys were started in 1931. Twelve deaths were ascribed directly to football, representing a 63.6 per cent reduction from the fatalities in 1931 and a drop of 25 per cent from last season. In addition, there were six fatalities for which football was held indirectly responsible.

Of the 12 due directly to football, seven occurred in high schools, three in colleges and universities, one on the sandlots, and one in athletic club competition. In 1931 there were 33 deaths directly caused by football and 16 indirectly.

Improved equipment and training techniques were given as the chief reasons for the reduction in fatalities. Noting that the last two weeks of October apparently are the most hazardous from the injury standpoint, Dr. Eastwood suggested special emphasis be paid to a review of tackling and blocking fundamentals during that month.

He also suggested the need for improved technique in preparing a player to start a game, with emphasis on emotional control, and the possibility that fourth period fatalities might be reduced by more liberal substitutions.

He likewise advocated continued attention to complete and thorough physical examination for all athletes, exacting care and treatment of all minor wounds, and continued study of the proper construction and fit of headgear.

Smith Can't Play In East-West Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29 (AP)—Bob Smith, left-handed passing star from the University of Oregon, will play no football for the western all-stars in the Shrine east-west charity game here New Year's day.

Smith, voted Oregon's most valuable player at the conclusion of the season, suffered a shin gash during scrimmage yesterday, and Dr. E. F. Roth took several stitches in the inch-deep wound.

It was the second major injury suffered by the west Saturday. Clyde "Bulldog" Turner, Harding-Simmons center, re-injured his thigh and has been limping ever since. Johnny Schiechl, Santa Clara, likely will be called on for a 90-minute job at the pivot spot.

Texas-Tulane Press Agents Boost Teams

By KENNETH GREGORY
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29 (AP)—You wouldn't expect a sports publicity director to do a song and dance, never!

So this piece today on the classic Sugar Bowl football game is devoted to interviews with those two fellows who dish out the adjectives on the Texas Aggie and the Tulane Green Wave.

Cornered amid the rush, confusion and plans for entertaining a 70,000 record southern crowd that will jam Tulane stadium for the New Year's Day headline football attraction involving two of the nation's undefeated football teams, one Horace Renegar, the mouthpiece of Tulane, and one Byron Winstead, the advance agent of Texas A. & M. were propounded some pertinent questions.

Chief among the interrogations was that familiar angle, "Who's going to win?"

They went into their song and dance, and why not? The game is a sell-out and all anyone looks forward to is good weather and a good football game.

Mr. Renegar speaking: "I think we'll take those Aggies easily, that is if I may be a bit optimistic. We've made a good record this fall and I see no reason to give Texas any of the edge."

Tall, bespectacled Mr. Winstead could hardly wait, and broke in: "We'll show your Tulane boys how football is really played down in the southwest. Year in and year out I think you'll find football tougher in our league than any other. We're ready and, although I think Tulane may score on us, we'll score oftener." With the coach's it's a different story. Such is the case with pilot Red Dawson of Tulane and Professor Homer Norton of Texas A. & M. Dawson has taken extremely pessimistic attitude, but Norton, while not optimistic, has merely warned his boys that Tulane will be their toughest foe of this current campaign.

Amid the hullabaloo of a great influx of holiday visitors, reinforced by the gaudy of New Orleansians, the Texas Aggies invaded New Orleans this morning on a special train and immediately moved on to Biloxi, Miss., for further preparatory drills and avoidance of the New Year noise. Tulane held secret workouts, and the players were guided away from all the celebrations.

Texas Tech Still In Cage Tourney At Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 29 (AP)—A trio of pre-tournament favorites—Oklahoma A. and M., Arkansas and the Warrensburg (Mo.) Teachers—and a darkhorse entry from Texas Tech remained in the running today for the championship of Oklahoma City's fourth annual all-college basketball classic.

The Warrensburg Teachers, defending tournament champions, clash with Texas Tech on one side of the semi-final bracket tonight while the Aggies, winners of the first two tournaments, meet Arkansas on the other side. The winners will battle for the title tomorrow night.

The Missourians went into the regular season this year disclose that the orange clad men of Tennessee advanced the ball 2,978 yards, via land and air, in ten games, and the mighty Trojans traveled 2,733 in nine games.

Statistics credit the Vols with holding their ten foes to a net gain of 939 yards, while S. C.'s fess made 1,258 yards.

Duck Hunting On Plains Ends Today
Today ends the duck hunting season in this section of Texas but it won't be missed because there have been mighty few ducks found this year. The late season, lack of moisture and the weather have been against the hunters.

Hunters can continue to shoot quail through January 16. This has been one of the best seasons in recent years hunters report.

The open season on deer, bear, wild turkey and javalina will end on Sunday.

WHO GETS THE VALUES?

The knack of getting extra value for every dollar spent does not belong to any one group of shoppers. Seamstresses and secretaries, millionaires' daughters and mill-workers' wives are among those who bring home good values every day.

Vastly different as their lives and interests may be, there is one thing they all have in common. They know that news about big values is printed in the pages of this newspaper—the advertising pages, where reputable merchants and manufacturers show you their most attractive goods at most attractive prices.

The shops you already know display their best buys in these pages, and ones you should know invite your consideration. All this is for your unhurried comparison and study in the comfortable surroundings of your own home. Read these pages regularly, and join the ranks of those thrifty shoppers who bring home values every time.

SERIAL STORY BLACKOUT BY RUTH AYERS

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Terrified by the man following her, Mary runs to her cabin. Calm slowly returns and she resumes her usual morbid mood. She dresses Anna in one of her most glamorous gowns and stands in amazement at the transformation. Anna is grateful, supposedly happy, but the overtones of impending tragedy continue.

CHAPTER VI AS Anna turned slowly to leave the cabin, Mary Carroll caught up her own gold leather evening purse. "Here," she cried, tossing it to Anna. "There's make-up and everything in it, just as it was the last time I carried it. Wait for me in the salon. If I don't have to plow through swarms of admirers to reach you, I'll be disappointed."

It was the exact right note to strike with Anna. Smiling, suddenly confident, she left the cabin. When the door closed, Mary's shoulders sagged. It had been exhilarating to work the Cinderella transformation. But now that it was complete, the same black mood she had been trying to fight off overwhelmed her again.

She had promised to join Anna, and she turned to her own dressing. Disrobing, she opened the traveling case for the negligee she would wear to the shower. Her hand reached into the pocket and touched a card. It was the card she had tucked there on that last morning in London two days ago.

She read again its message-- "At Midnight."

THE words leaped up like something evil. Her tortured mind began to go over the events of the past few days. This was the card the waiter had brought to the table in the restaurant where she and Vincent had dined. Vincent had not shown it to her, but in the near-panic during the air raid alarm the card had slipped from his hand and somehow had lodged in the bow of her dress.

It had frightened her when she had found it, but the next morning she had dismissed her fears in the thrilling thought of sailing on the Moravia with Vincent. She had convinced herself the card had been unimportant and meaningless.

Of a sudden, a shattering thought struck her. That note.

The woman who had come into the restaurant and exchanged such an intimate glance with Vincent.

"The message was from Carla!" Mary was unaware she spoke aloud.

She dropped her head on her hands before the dressing table and in her alarm everything became clear.

Carla Marchetta, the hostess of celebrities. Carla, at whose May-fair house Vincent had been a guest.

As a reel unwinding faster and faster, flashbacks came to Mary. She and Vincent had been separated in the rush to the shelter. After the young American doctor had carried her to the basement shelter, Vincent had been strangely jarring.

Had it been because of Carla that Vincent had failed to sail on the Moravia?

"No, no," she moaned, "I'm hysterical--I'm mad."

A SHARP rap sounded on her door. Expecting the steward, she stood up and, wrapping her robe around her, said, "Come in."

The door opened slowly. "Pardon, Mademoiselle, I believe this is your beret."

The blond young man who stood in the doorway, a forced smile on his lips, spoke with a foreign inflection.

Mary frowned. "Yes, it's my beret," she said coldly. "It blew off when I was on deck."

The stranger nodded. "You must not mind, Mademoiselle, because I bring it back myself instead of sending it by the steward."

Mary looked at him. The only one who would have known about her tam blowing off was the man who had been shadowing her on the deck.

"You were following me!" she blazed hotly. "How dare you!"

There was nothing ominous about the face or figure of the flaxen-haired youth now. In the light from the passageway, he was quite innocuous except for his eyes. He turned on her with a haughty, beseeching look.

Taken aback for a minute by Mary's sharp accusation, he recovered his poise and said in the same low voice, "Is it wrong for a man to gaze at a beautiful girl who strides like a Valkyrie on a dark deck?"

Mary stood invincible. "I am quite sure you were waiting purposely for me to pass."

He bowed courteously. "I am sorry if Mademoiselle misunderstood." He offered the beret to her. "Perhaps later I may have the chance to prove what you believe is untrue."

Mary took the tam and bowed. "Thanks and good night," she said, but her voice was no longer sharp.

WHEN she shut the door, she had a disturbing feeling the young man still stood in the passageway. Resolutely, she rang again for the steward. She mustn't delay any longer in dressing to join Anna.

Anna's gray uniform dress with the prim white cuffs was still on the chair; her practical black handbag on the dressing table.

Mary pushed them aside as she began to lay out her own clothes for the evening. She chose a gossamer white dress. "White for heartbreak," she said to the silence of the room.

She was still puzzling about the strange encounter on the deck when the bath steward entered.

"Will you see if the shower is ready?" she asked.

"Yes, Miss, the shower room is empty--three doors down."

THROUGH the night, the blackened ship cut through the heaving Atlantic. A few more days and it would dock in New York harbor.

As Mary Carroll picked up her bath kit, lights in the cabin blinked and went out. In the dark, a shuddering thud resounded from below.

An ominous silence followed the deafening sound. Then a terrific din of shrieking, gasping voices struck the air.

Mary groped for the bunk for support. She felt a slash of cold water pouring in through the shattered porthole.

She was pitched headlong across the cabin as the convulsed Moravia listed to starboard.

Doctors Soon To Predict Sudden Heart Attacks

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 29 Coronary thrombosis, the heart death which strikes humans without warning, soon may become predictable due to a Harvard medical discovery announced here today.

Coronary trouble is most apt to hit the high-tension, executive type of person, but no class has been entirely safe, and there has been no way of foretelling. The Harvard discovery, in addition to its warning, promises that those unlikely to have this trouble may have the comfort of knowing.

The report was made to the medical section of the American Association for the Advancement of Science by Dr. Monroe J. Schlesinger, of Harvard medical school and Beth Israel hospital, Boston.

Coronary heart trouble is due to failure in the coronal arteries, which supply blood to the heart muscles. If the supply falls the heart stops working. These arteries pipe blood to both the left and right sides of the heart.

In human autopsies at Boston an odd fact turned up about this coronary piping system. In some persons the pipes delivered more blood to the left side than to the right, and in a third group were evenly balanced.

The third group, 34 per cent of the population, is the least likely to have coronary heart trouble. The right-sided hearts, making up 48 per cent, are not badly off, although more susceptible.

But the left-sided hearts, 78 per cent of the people, are most likely to have coronary heart trouble. Detection of this coronary pattern, Dr. Schlesinger said, would be an important diagnosis.

Thus far, he said, it has not been possible to tell by examination of living persons which type of piping they have. But he said, it is hoped that the electrocardiograph, the instrument which records all the tremors of a heart, may give different patterns to reveal the piping differences. That possibility is now under investigation at Harvard.

Germany Says France, England Deliberately 'Egged On' Finland

BERLIN, Dec. 9 (AP)—The mouth-piece of the German foreign service charged today that Great Britain and France had deliberately incited Finland to resist Soviet Russia to upset northern Europe and thus interfere with the regular flow of supplies to Germany.

The semi-official commentary Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz said that "from the moment it became certain that Russia was not willing to pull chestnuts out of the fire for the western powers the efforts of these powers centered on bringing about complications in the north."

Women of Finland Do Their Part

Every Lotta Svärd member in the field means one more Finn to hold a rifle or load a cannon. Athletic, cultured and capable, these Finnish women man the home line of defense in war time in a unit as well organized as the army itself. Though much of their work is behind the lines, the soldiers of Finland best know them for their work in hospitals, canteens and field kitchens. Fresh milk, above, is one of many nourishing foods supplied by Lottas to fighting men.
