Mind Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- Should a girl, who has been a guest at a fraternity house party, even though she has not been introduced, go back to the house when she leaves?
- Should a girl, who is a houseguest at a fraternity party, feel free to talk to other girls who are guests, even though she has not been introduced?
- Should a girl, who is invited to an out-of-town fraternity party, pay for her own railroad ticket?
- When she returns home, should she write a letter telling her undergraduate host that she had a wonderful week-end?
- Should a girl at a fraternity dance refuse to dance with any member who cuts in on her?

What would you do if—

- You are a girl sending your picture to a young man at college.
- Sign it "With love" or some other appropriate phrase?
- Not sign it?

Answers

MODERN MENUS

By Mrs. GAYNOR MADDON

A snack for tea is often the nourishment of friendship.

Tea Fruit Squares
(24 squares)

Three eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 1-3/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped dates, 1 cup seedless raisins, 2-3 cup chopped nuts, powdered sugar.

Separate eggs, beat yolks until lemon colored. Add sugar and vanilla to yolks, combining thoroughly. Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt; add to the egg mixture. Add finely chopped dates, raisins, and finely chopped nuts. Mix well. Beat the egg whites until stiff and fold into mixture. Spread into a well greased 2-quart utility dish and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 to 35 minutes. Cut while warm into squares and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Cream Cheese Cookies

One package (3 oz.) cream cheese, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg yolk, 1 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift the cream cheese and butter together. Add the sugar, beaten egg yolk, flour and vanilla. Roll thin and cut with a cookie cutter. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until delicately browned.

Review Of Best Seller Given At AAUW Meeting

Mrs. Ned O. Miller of Amarillo, who reviewed Christopher Morley's "Kitty Foyle" Monday night at a meeting of the Contemporary Literature Group of American Association of University Women in the city club rooms, was presented by Mrs. Elv Wagner.

"Kitty Foyle" has been a best seller without aid of book club sales. Mrs. Miller pointed out. The reviewer stated that she feels it is a best seller because of its realism as it is almost too real in spots, and because it strikes a familiar note with most of us.

Morley, who is 50 years-of-age, knows more about women than he should know when 150 years old, she criticized. The book is a natural history of a woman and it is difficult to review because it is told as a woman thinking, which may be looking forward or at times looking into the past.

The story, which is set in Philadelphia, the middle west, and New York, begins with Kitty, a young lady of 28, lying on a shawl on the floor toping with a glass ball that caused a snow storm when inverted. The entire book is of her reflections and recalling her life from the time she was a very young girl.

Critics have stated that it is an appealing close-up of a girl as well as a portrait of an American girl as real as anything in the family album. Morley has created character that will rate its place among lasting American characters, she concluded.

Following the review, Mrs. H. E. Howard presided at the punch bowl as members and guests were served at a table decorated in the St. Patrick motif with tall green tapers and a floral centerpiece.

Hostesses were Mrs. H. V. Matthews, Mrs. V. P. Sheldon, and Miss Bernice Larrh.

Sixty members and guests were present as well as four out-of-town guests, Miss Mable Holland, Mrs. Gladys Henderson, Mrs. Earl O'Keefe, all of Amarillo, and Miss Nora A. Congdon of Greeley, Colorado.

Mrs. Roosevelt Thinks Housewife's Job Is 'Most Important In World'

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt rates woman's outside activities second to the essential job of being a wife and mother. The first lady is pictured with Ruth Millett after presenting Miss Millett with the New York Newspaperwomen's club award for best columns of critical comment.

By RUTH MILLETT

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is a little bit afraid her much publicized activity—her continual criss-crossing of the country by train and plane—may make women who can't get away from home even for a day a little bit dissatisfied.

She wouldn't have that happen for the world, she told me the other night. She has reached the point in her life where she is able to fill it with the most important job in the world today. If she does it well, she is accomplishing all that anyone can ask of her. Anything she manages to do outside is just so much extra.

Perhaps Mrs. Roosevelt's concern is based on the tendency of today's housewives to apologize for being housewives.

Sometimes housewives show their envy of working women by the kind of antagonism which asks, "Why don't they stay at home where they belong?"

FEW REALIZE THEIR JOB IS IMPORTANT

Both attitudes show a lack of confidence in the value of the job they have undertaken. For if a housewife fully realized how important is her job of making a home, and seeing that her children grow up to be the right kind of persons, she would not be apologetic for her role or envious of other women, no matter how exciting their lives seem.

The housewife who sometimes wonders if she is missing the best of life should remember that the world, including the women who, for their own reasons have filled their lives with outside things, knows that a really successful housewife is still the most successful woman in the world.

Women Married To Foreigners Caught By Sweeping Laws

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Many hundreds of American women married to foreigners and living abroad have been caught by the sweeping laws of belligerent and neutral nations alike requiring citizens to list or surrender their foreign securities.

All the allies, including the British dominions, have promulgated such laws. Germany, and some neutrals like Italy, had them in effect a few years before the war began.

In European countries, a foreign woman married to one of their nationals acquires his citizenship and is subject to the laws of his country. She is required to list or turn over to those governments her foreign securities, whether held there or abroad, and also her foreign credits such as bank or building association deposits in the United States.

In return she receives payment at the full market value and at the full rate of exchange—in the currency of her husband's country. The governments liquidate the holding to obtain credits in the United States and elsewhere.

Under United States laws, an American woman married to a foreigner keeps her United States citizenship. The value of American securities and credits now held by American women married to foreigners in affected countries has never been computed, but officials here believe it runs into many thousands of dollars.

Howell sang "Home Sweet Home" during a pantomime of a "Happy Contended Home" enacted by Mrs. Everett Hall and sons, Carroll and Richard.

Miss Fannie Johnston gave a talk on "The Child in the Home and Home Influence." Rev. J. P. Cole told "How to Build Character in the Home" and Mrs. H. G. Gull gave a brief history of "Founders Day."

After the program a social hour was enjoyed by the 35 members present. The next meeting will be held on Thursday afternoon March 23. This session will be a business meeting.

Alanned P-TA Has Monthly Meeting

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

ALANRED, March 12.—Alanned P-T-A met in regular session on Thursday night, March 7.

The subject of the program was "Home Making." Mrs. Marvin Hall, chairman of the program committee, who was in charge of the program, gave a talk on "What Constitutes a Good Home." Edmund C. Clair talked on "Good Reading Material for the Home."

Spacing Rule Condemned By County Board

A resolution condemning the Texas Railroad commission's state-wide spacing rule and asking that it be rescinded so that once more oil wells may be drilled at leases on every ten acres, was mailed to members of the commission, meeting in Amarillo today.

Reasons for condemning the state-wide spacing rule were stated in the resolution: "It is such new spacing order is permitted to stand, fewer wells than normally expected to be drilled will be drilled in Gray county, Texas, which will result in the loss of large valuations on royalty interests and working interests for tax purposes in this county."

"Unemployment among oil field workers will be increased and a greater burden will thereby be placed upon the unemployment rolls of this county."

The commission's order passed on January 25 of this year provided that no oil or gas well should be drilled nearer than 933 feet to any other completed or drilling well on the same or adjoining tract or farm, and no well should be drilled nearer than 467 feet to any property, lease, or sub-division lines.

In addition to condemning the new rule, the resolution states: "Be it further resolved that the county judge be and he is hereby authorized to petition the County Board for relief from the spacing rule."

Hereford Calf Wins Grand Championship

FORT WORTH, March 12 (AP)—A 13-month-old Hereford, adjudged champion of the boys' baby beef show Sunday, at noon today was declared the grand champion steer of the 1940 Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock show—the most coveted honor in the show.

Exhibitor of the winner was 17-year-old Kenneth Lewis of Sweetwater, son of County Judge and Mrs. Charles W. Lewis.

It was the sixth time in seven years that the title has gone to a club calf.

In climbing to the grand championship with the calf, young Lewis defeated the champion Hereford steer of the open classes, shown by Oliver Grote, 19-year-old, Mason county, who was awarded the reserve grand championship.

The Sweetwater lad thus broke the virtual monopoly on the grand championship title which Mason county had taken in every year, except 1936, since 1933. The Grote boy's steer was the 1939 grand champion.

Exhibited in the boys' show as "Dick" the 1940 grand champion underwent a sudden rechristening and is now "Sweetwater's Best."

The calf was given the boy by E. B. Dickinson of Stanton, nearly a year ago. He was first shown as an individual at the San Angelo Livestock show and took third place.

Lewis gave most of the credit for the win to Nolan County Agent Tate, under whose direction the calf was fed and trained.

The son of County Judge and Mrs. Charles W. Lewis of Sweetwater, young Lewis is the grandson of the late John B. Lewis, one of the first men to bring registered Herefords to Texas.

Commissioners Buy Two Desks, Raise Salaries Of Two

Approval of bills for the purchase of two desks for court house offices and for repairs on the building's heating system was made by the county commissioners at their meeting Monday afternoon.

The commissioners voted to amend the general fund $24.30, covering a $62.24 desk in the district attorney's office, and $84.25 for a $62.32 flat top metal desk in the office of the county clerk.

An amendment in the court house and jail fund amounting to $228.80 was the other amendment voted. This is in payment of new valves on all radiators in the court house and other repairs to the heating system.

Other business transacted at the meeting included two salary raises. Court house Custodian Lee Harris is to receive $200 a month during 1940. His work includes the payment of all additional labor, making of minor repairs, and keeping the court house clean.

Salary of Jewel Aldrich, employe of the county farm agent, was ordered increased from $85 to $75 a month as of March 1.

Mason Boy Exhibits Best Hereford Steer FORT WORTH, March 12 (AP)—The purple ribbon for the championship Hereford steer of the 1940 Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock show was awarded today to Oliver Grote, Mason county 4-H club boy, who also exhibited the grand champion steer of the 1939 show.

Grote's winner was in entry in the class of steers weighing between 900 and 1,025 pounds. Oklahoma A. and M. college took second place in this class, and third to A. and M. college of Texas.

Grote also won the blue ribbon in the class for steers under 900 pounds. Another Mason county boy, Marvin McMan, took second place in this class and Oklahoma A. and M. was third.

Texas Technological college at Lubbock topped the first blue ribbon of the day when judging of the open classes of Hereford steers started.

The award was announced by E. A. Trowbridge of Columbia, Mo., chairman of the animal husbandry department of the United States department of agriculture, judge of all breeds of fat steers.

Texas Herefords Win Top Honors At Stock Show

FORT WORTH, March 12 (AP)—Texas animals walked off with top honors in the judging of registered Hereford breeding cattle at the Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock Show today.

Coroner Ladd 233d, exhibited by Joe Cross of Truap, was declared the champion Hereford bull of the show by Pablo Rizzo of Uruguay, judge of the Hereford breeding classes.

Real Silver Domino 9th, shown by the Silver Creek Farm of Fort Worth was the reserve champion Hereford. In the shorthorn division, Shiek of Leveldale, shown by Mathers brothers of Mason City, Ill., was the senior and grand champion bull, with the junior championship going to Gold Duster, shown by Sin-A-Bar Farms, Green Valley, Mo.

Special delegations, including a large number of republicans headed by Governor Ralph L. Carr of Colorado, converged on the exposition today.

Arriving during the morning the autodecistors got a damp reception, but the first rainy day of the forty-fourth annual edition of the stock show didn't dissolve their enthusiasm.

The visitors from Atlanta, Albany, Waco, Anson, Clay and Montague counties, and the republicans of New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas points swarmed the grounds.

The grounds resounded with band music as the Baylor University and Atlanta, Nocona, Bowie, and Henrietta high schools' organizations, followed each other with short concerts.

The Southwest Dairy Products' special contest for senior agricultural colleges and the intercollegiate meat judging contest were being held today.

The Texas Technological college men were trying for its third win and permanent possession of a special trophy in the dairy products contest. The team from Texas agricultural and mechanical college also was competing for its third win and the permanent possession of the special trophy in the meat judging contest.

At noon the cattle breeders and other interested parties headed to the cattle auction sales arena for the auction of the Texas Hereford Association.

FDR's Third Term Issue Gets Test In New Hampshire MANCHESTER, N. H., March 12 (AP)—A handful of candidates—split in their choice of a democratic standard bearer—bucked a strong and well-organized state of delegates pledged to President Roosevelt's renomination today in the nation's first primary ballot-box test of the third term issue.

Robert H. Sanderson, treasurer of the democratic state committee, who ran as an unpledged candidate for delegate-at-large, appeared to have the strongest chance of breaking through the Roosevelt line-up.

Personally popular, he emerged from retirement to campaign against a third term, asserting the ideals of the founding fathers included "changing laws to meet changing conditions, but no perpetuation of power in any one man's hands."

A complete slate of Roosevelt-pledged candidates faced opposition from three unpledged candidates, three supporters of Postmaster General James A. Farley, and one candidate endorsing vice president John N. Garner.

Fog Obscures Peace Situation

(By The Associated Press) A fog of official secrecy blanketing Moscow today obscured the answer to Europe's most urgent question—peace or continued war between Finland and Russia.

Finland's delegates apparently still were closeted in the Kremlin hearing Russia's terms while the rest of Europe speculated intently on conflicting rumors emanating from the negotiations.

The Finnish capital became as non-committal as Moscow about the parleys and Helsinki newspapers disagreed even on whether the delegates were about to come home with the Soviet terms.

The Finnish news bureau in Copenhagen negotiations were still in session, a statement taken in Scandinavia as meaning Russia's demands had stiffened.

The Plan's Scandinavian neighbors seemed to be divided about 50-50 between optimism and pessimism over the negotiations, but Swedish newspapers agreed a decisive peace seemed near.

Russia announced that Isthmus fighting, unabated during the peace talks, had brought the Red army new gains with penetration into the north and eastern parts of Vilpuri battered coastal city around which the battle has raged for more than two weeks.

New Radio Story To Begin Over KPDN A new radio program, "Pleasantdale Folks," a story of a family and its experiences with the new social security program, is to start at 5:45 p. m. Saturday over station KPDN. The program is to be given once a week on Saturdays.

"Pleasantdale Folks" is an interesting story, each episode including appropriate music and dialogue in which professional artists of the National Broadcasting company participate, according to Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office.

Radio listeners who desire a complete resume of the social security program and how it operates under the old law and survivors insurance system, the unemployment compensation and public assistance laws, will be particularly interested in "Pleasantdale Folks."

Happy Birthday, Girl Scouts! America has always needed citizens with the courage to look for facts and the integrity to weigh those facts carefully. The need grows greater as the business of running a great democracy becomes more complicated and more confusing to the uniformed citizen.

But that's not all. These activities are all voluntary. Girls become Scouts and do these things because they want to. No government supervision says they must. Yet this voluntary organization of girls from seven to eighteen is growing so fast that it can hardly take care of the girls who want to belong.

Behind The News WASHINGTON, March 12—The real nature of the split in the Labor Board has so far eluded even the Smith committee, although it was the Smith committee which made the split public.

BROAD FUNCTIONS OF BOARD ARE HIT Basic complaint against the board throughout the Smith hearings has been the charge that it is judge, jury and prosecutor all in one.

VIEWPOINT ADOPTED FROM WISCONSIN Leiserson draws his philosophy from the Wisconsin school of a generation ago—the school of the elder La Follette and the famous Dr. John R. Commons. That philosophy, in brief, runs like this:

LEISELSON IS NOT A RIGHT-WINGER This is what is back of Leiserson's oft-repeated complaints about "too much of the legalistic viewpoint" on the board.

Grudge Fights On Card With McLean Here

Loveless And Bonner Will Settle Fend

Both Doug Loveless of Pampa and Bonner of McLean are determined to put everything they have in their fight tonight here.

Last time they fought, at McLean, Judge called it a draw. Neither have been whipped this year, and Bonner was undefeated last year. Until he met Loveless he was regarded as the uncrowned champion of the 115-pound weight.

Pampa high school boxers will make their third appearance of the season before a home crowd tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium. The Harvester mitt artists will meet the crack McLean team. The admission will be 25 cents for students and 40 cents for adults.

The Harvester boxers will be out to balance the ledger with as many wins as losses while McLean will be out to avenge a loss handed them by the Pampa boys in McLean two weeks ago.

Bouts will be presented in all weight divisions from 75 pounds to 145 pounds, and maybe heavier.

Grudge bouts will be on the card especially when Pampa's Lefty Pendleton meets LeRoy Braxton of McLean, Charles Brethauer of Pampa meets W. Leubetter and L. V. McDonald of the Harvesters tangles with Ollie Low.

The high school boxers are fast losing their early clumsiness and gaining technical knowledge. In fact, fans cheer the kids on a par with Cotton Gloves boxers already.

Tonight's fights will be the last at home until next week. On Friday and Saturday nights the Harvester boxers will compete in the Stintnett open tournament.

Pairings for tonight's bouts will probably be (Pampa boys first):

- 75 pounds—Johnny Campbell vs. F. Simpson.
- 95 pounds—Charles Brethauer vs. W. Leubetter.
- 105 pounds—Richard Stephens vs. W. Back.
- 115 pounds—Doug Loveless vs. F. Bonner.
- 125 pounds—Wendel Stanley vs. T. Corbin.
- 135 pounds—L. V. McDonald vs. Ollie Low.
- 145 pounds—Gene Wingett vs. Andy Corbin.
- 155 pounds—Roy Ray vs. M. Combes.
- 165 pounds—Leonard Hollis vs. Clyde Glenn.
- 175 pounds—Lefty Pendleton vs. LeRoy Braxton.

St. Mary's Fires 'Slip' Madigan

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12 (AP)—Edward P. (Slim) Madigan, who raised St. Mary's college from obscurity to national prominence on football gridirons, was out of his 18-year coaching job today by order of the college athletic board, but the reason for the sudden action was undisclosed.

The board decided yesterday not to renew Madigan's contract when it expires March 31, 1941, and announced the decision in telegrams dispatched to newspapers. The board members vanished as far as interviews were concerned.

Madigan, who came to St. Mary's in 1921 when the college had 71 students, likewise could not be reached.

J. Phillip Murphy, chairman of the St. Mary's board of athletic control, announced the body not only voted to end Madigan's services, but that he would not coach the 1940 team either in spring practice or during the fall season.

The spring practice will be handled by Norman P. (Red) Strader, assistant mentor, mentioned in some quarters as a possible successor to the retiring coach.

Speculation surrounding the board's action centered on the health of Madigan, who has been ill several months with a stomach ailment, and the fact St. Mary's season was somewhat dismal. The Gaels won three games, lost four and tied one.

Reports that Madigan might withdraw from the coaching picture and submit to an operation have been current for some time.

Bradshaw And Walker To Attend Boat Meeting

Do you own a boat? Are you a boating enthusiast? If so be at the city hall auditorium at 7:30 o'clock tonight urged Commodore Earl McConnell of the McClellan Boat club.

The invitation is for everyone in this section of the Panhandle—Canadian, Miami, LeFors, McLean, Alameda, Groom, Panhandle, White Deer, Skellytown.

It won't cost anything to attend the meeting and no donations will be sought. It's just a meeting of every boating enthusiast to show lake officials that there is great interest among Panhandle folk in the opening of Lake McClellan.

No date has been set for officially opening the lake but it is believed the date will be in June or July. Boating enthusiasts don't want to wait that long to get their boats on the lake so tonight they'll talk about ways and means of getting on the lake sooner than opening date.

Talks will be short with discussions taking up the major part of the program. Postmaster C. H. Walker will try to answer questions on lake rules and regulations. Earl Bradshaw, project construction engineer, will be asked questions as to how near completion is the work on the project. Congressman Eugene Worley is scheduled to be here also.

An invitation was to be extended to Carl Hinton, secretary of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority, who was a speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon today to remain over for the meeting. He said he would try to be present.

Tyler, Tarleton To Clash In Opener

TYLER, March 12 (AP)—Tyler Junior College and John Tarleton College of Stephenville will clash here tomorrow night in the opening game of a series to determine the Texas Junior College basketball championship.

They play a second game at Stephenville Friday night. Tyler and Tarleton are undefeated in the round-robin play-off. Last night Tyler eliminated Lee Junior College of Goose Creek with a 42-25 victory. Each team defeated Lee College twice.

Yankees Pour It On Reds In 8-7 Game

By GALE TALBOT
TAMPA, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Those of us who wondered last fall how long the Cincinnati Reds and the New York Yankees could have gone on playing the World series before the Reds won a game had the question partially answered, at least, when the champs poured it on again in an exhibition battle here yesterday, 8 to 7.

That made it five in a row for Joe McCarthy's mighty crew over the National leaguers, and they gave the impression they could win whenever they pleased. They still are the best.

Yesterday the Reds didn't have to look at Joe DiMaggio, Bill Dickey or Red Ruffing, the three who dealt them such sustained misery in the World Series. Yet the result was the same. Joe Gordon knocked across the winning run in the eighth, like some Yank usually does, while Steve Sundra, one of the second-line Yank pitchers, baffled the Reds in the late innings.

In two interviews with this correspondent up to now, Manager McCarthy has yet to say anything about repeating in the National league, despite the superiority of their pitching. They still must be counted the favorites, but unless they solve their outfield problem there might be a decided shift to the St. Louis Cardinals by the time the race begins.

Racing Career Of Seabiscuit Ended
LOS ANGELES, March 12 (AP)—The racing days of the gallant Seabiscuit are ended.

He ran his last, and greatest, race when he captured the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap March 2.

A brief, but formal, announcement yesterday by wealthy Charles S. Howard, the owner, wrote final to the career of this turf idol. Seabiscuit, he said, will race no more.

Seven years old, courageous competitor in more than 80 races; once an ignored workhorse claimed for a mere $7,500, now the greatest all-time money winner in the history of the sport; once thought through, then victor in a dramatic comeback that thrilled the nation; once a plater, now a king—that is the story of Seabiscuit. Now he'll graze on his master's California ranch, far from the turf wars.

Seabiscuit, said Mr. Howard, simply, has earned retirement. His purse winning record of $437,740 will stand until another, but never more gallant, champion comes along.

New Jersey Passes Horse Racing Bill

TRENTO, N. J., March 12 (AP)—Only Governor A. Harry Moore's signature was needed today to make law a horse-racing and pari-mutuel control bill authorizing a four-man bipartisan commission to control turf activities in New Jersey.

Godoy May Get Chance At Joe Louis In July

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—Monsieur Armand Weill, better known as Al, stuffed a fighter into each of the upper pockets of his large checked veskit, stuck a cigar in the corner of his mouth, and went up to trade with "Uncle Mike" Jacobs the other day.

The reason was that Lew Jenkins, the larruping lightweight from Sweetwater, Texas, had just flattened Tippy Larkin, and Uncle Mike wanted to give him a shot at the title held by Lou Ambers, who is managed by M. Armand.

In the upper left pocket, Al put Ambers. In his upper right pocket, he carefully placed Arturo Godoy, the heavyweight, who is also in the Weill corral.

Now Arturo fought Joe Louis a few weeks back and went 15 rounds with the bomber.

Since that time, Uncle Mike said he wasn't contemplating a return match for Godoy with the bomber. The general belief is that it wasn't Mike so much as Louis and his tistic "family" who wanted no more of the South American was.

So, with Ambers in demand, Weill figured he and Mike could get together.

"Sure, I'll give you Ambers for a May 10 or May 17 fight with Jenkins," M. Armand offered, "but I want Louis for a fight this summer with Godoy."

This was a new one on Uncle Mike, but he told Weill he was always willing to trade when it couldn't do any harm to the Jacobs' pocketbook. So the report went around that Ambers and Jenkins would get together in May, and that Godoy would have his chance at the head man in July.

Dallas Club Head Pulls In Crowds With Showmanship

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF DALLAS, March 12 (AP)—President George Schepps of the Dallas Texas League baseball club doesn't even remotely look like P. T. Barnum—but there the resemblance starts.

George last year took over the local baseball properties and found fewer than 100,000 paid their way into the park the season before.

He did everything from hiring red-headed usherettes in slacks to holding beauty reviews for negroes.

He badgered Dallas' old enemies, the Fort Worth Cats, by issuing this statement before the season opened last year.

"You just as well forfeit all your games to Dallas unless you get some ball players."

It made Fort Worth mad—so mad the largest crowds in a decade saw the team climb from seventh place to second and a spot in the Shaughnessy play-off.

And he intimates that last year was just a warm-up compared to what he has planned for this season.

He badgered Dallas' old enemies, the Fort Worth Cats, by issuing this statement before the season opened last year.

"No, won't have them this year," he replied. "They detracted too much from the ball game. Why half of the men didn't know the score. I'm using Boy Scouts this year."

Unless the arena's management signs a collective labor contract, the union informed the federal conciliation board, a strike will "burst out" next Saturday at 2 p. m. sharp.

SERIAL STORY

$15 A WEEK

BY LOUISE HOLMES

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, life in the rooming house gives Ann plenty of cause to ponder love and marriage, but she can't find the answer. Paul asks her to go to a party on Saturday evening. She decides to arrange on one grand, Cinderella evening.

CHAPTER XVIII

A POLICEMAN sauntered past the bench. He spoke cheerfully to Ann and Paul. They said, "Good evening, sir." When he was gone, Ann remarked in a thrilled tone, "I'll have to get a new dress for the party."

"Can you manage it?" Paul asked.

"I will—and evening slippers—"

"How about slippers?"

"Too stiff. As a child I used to wonder how Cinderella was able to hobble around in glass slippers." She went on, planning aloud. "I have two spoon dollars—I know where I can get slippers for $2.50—"

"Spoon dollars?"

"I'm buying a set of sterling silver spoons. Don't think me silly, Paul."

"I don't think you silly at all. Everyone needs an outlet. You'd be surprised at my pet extravagance."

"Tell me."

He laughed embarrassedly. "Underwear—shorts and shirts—silk."

She nodded gravely. "I know what you mean. Just knowing that we have a few nice things keeps our souls from rattling around."

"Right," he laughed.

They walked home through the velvet dark. Ann declined an offer of soda at the drug store. "Let's save for the big night," she said. When Paul left her with a friendly good night she went happily up the stairs. No money, but a delightful few hours had been spent.

ON Friday evening of that week Steve Claybourn waited in the foyer again. Ann, with her arms filled with packages, came hurrying from the elevator. She was going straight to the Center. An evening gown was under construction and her excitement knew no bounds. She would have passed Steve without seeing him had he not halted her.

"Speak to me," he commanded.

"Must I hang around this musty place for an hour and then be snubbed?"

She laughed. "I'm sorry, Steve. My mind was ten miles west."

"Bring it back and put it firmly on me."

She described an arc with her hand. "Here it comes. Look out."

"Had dinner?" he asked.

"Not yet."

"Come with me."

"I'm in a dreadful rush, Steve."

"Can't you spare an hour for an old friend?"

"Not an hour." She thought a moment. "Tell you what I'll do. I'll eat a sandwich with you in the candy kitchen here."

He grimaced. He argued. They ended up in a booth in the candy kitchen. He ordered chicken sandwiches and coffee and French pastry.

"What's the rush?" he inquired.

"I'm making a dress."

"Making a dress," he repeated in an astounded tone. "I thought they grew in windows."

"Mine don't."

THE sandwiches were slapped down in front of them. Ann's coffee sloshed over in her saucer and Steve sent it back. He was quite lordly with the waiter and got exactly nowhere with his tactics.

"Some dive," he muttered.

"Nice food," Ann returned.

"I had a reason for seeing you tonight," he said. "The Athens Club is pulling a party next Wednesday night. I'm taking you. Thought you might be interested."

Steve had been much amused by his decision to take the little working girl to the Athens Club dance. It was his idea of a lark to appear with a nobody and put the nobody over. The Athens parties were attended by a mixed crowd, ex-football stars, lawyers, filling station services men, business executives and their clerks. When Steve received the announcement of the ball, it had occurred to him that Ann would be much impressed. That she would think he was really taking her somewhere, that she was meeting society.

"I'm sorry," she said. "I've already accepted an invitation to the Athens Club party."

Steve suffered a severe shock. "Look," he said, "you don't have to live to me. If you haven't got the clothes to wear I'll see that you get them."

"Thank you. I buy my own clothes."

"Say—is this on the level—are you going to the hop?"

"Yes. Will you call the waiter and ask for another saucer of coffee?"

Steve insisted on driving her to the Center. He promised to keep well within the law. He offered to return for her at any stated hour. She declined, explaining that creative zeal might keep her there indefinitely, that the dawn might find her still bent over the sewing machine.

"Had dinner?" he asked.

"Not yet."

"Come with me."

Senate Returns To Hatch Bill Battle

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—The Senate headed into a long, new discussion of anti-politics legislation today after supporters predicted that only a full-fledged filibuster could kill it.

The legislation, sponsored by Senator Hatch (D-NM), would broaden the Hatch law by placing state employees paid partly from federal funds under present restrictions against political activity by federal workers.

Although opponents joined forces yesterday with many farm state senators to try to displace it with the $923,000,000 farm appropriation bill, the Senate sprung a surprise and voted 47 to 36 to continue the week-long debate.

Republicans, who had been reported in agreement with the measure, voted solidly against shelving the Hatch legislation.

The decision came after Senator Minton (D-Ind), the majority whip, had given the Republicans a tongue-lashing for their stand on the measure.

"Talk about pure politics!" Minton shouted. "The Republicans are trying to Hatch-act the Democrats out of Washington. They are playing smart politics, walking up to the line like a bunch of rubber stamps and voting for the Hatch act."

Across the capitol, speedy House approval was forecast for a bill to authorize a $655,000,000 expansion of the navy.

Canadian Sentenced In German Slaying

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—A judge whose voice broke with anger denounced as "a dirty bum" a 34-year-old Canadian boxer who had just been convicted of first-degree manslaughter in the fatal bludgeoning of Dr. Walter R. Engelberg, German consular attaché.

The jury, which had heard counsel for Ernest Kehler, contend he beat Dr. Engelberg to death Dec. 5 after the latter made immoral advances in his Brooklyn home, reached its verdict last night in six hours and 14 minutes.

The boxer, who was caught in Toronto two weeks after the killings, stood frowning as county Judge Peter J. Brancato congratulated the jury for its "absolutely fair" verdict and then remarked heavily:

"That the defendant is a shrewd, clever individual and showed it by slipping in his defense of intoxication. He was no more drunk than you or I."

Looking down at the six-foot-two-inch figure before him, the judge continued:

"What in thunder made this man ill? Was it sex? I doubt it. He is just a cheap bum. Only two men in the world knew what really happened in that room, and one is dead. This man is lucky he was not convicted of a higher degree."

Kehler may receive up to 20 years in prison when sentenced later.

ARI Keenly Enjoys Kellerville Band

Kellerville's school band, composed of students so small that their feet didn't reach the floor to high school pupils, presented an interesting and varied concert at the meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute last night in the city hall here.

The band, wearing gold and royal blue uniforms, was directed by J. W. Lummus. Numbers included marches, overtures, medleys and novelty numbers. Highlight of the program was a wedding skit.

A moving picture showing the stages in the manufacturing and shipping of alloy steel at the Bethlehem plant of the Bethlehem Steel corporation was presented by K. H. Reed of Bethlehem, metallurgical contact man for the company.

The picture was presented through courtesy of the Bethlehem-International Supply company, W. V. Fuller, local manager, and Charley Chapman, Wichita Falls, district manager.

Following the picture Mr. Reed answered questions.

About 200 persons attended the meeting. Chairman George Berlin presided.

Annual Meeting Of Presbyterians To Be Tomorrow

The annual meeting of the members of the church and congregation of the First Presbyterian church will be held on Wednesday night, March 13, at 7 o'clock in connection with the regular monthly church Fellowship dinner.

The dinner will be served covered dish style at 7 o'clock in the annex and the congregation meeting will follow.

Reports of activities during the past year will be made by the organizations of the church and church school. New officers of the church will be elected and other necessary business pertaining to the church will be conducted.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend both the fellowship dinner and the annual meeting afterwards.

Officers Of Stamp Club To Be Elected Here Thursday Night

New officers of the Pampa Philatelic Society will be elected at a meeting in the civil service room in the basement of the postoffice Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. All members and everyone interested in stamps are urged to attend.

The club is just one year old. Regular meetings have been held, auctions conducted and many new members added.

Plans for an ever more active year will be discussed at the Thursday night meeting.

A stamp auction will be conducted at the close of the business session.

War Secretary Says Tommies In France Gaining

LONDON, March 12 (AP)—War Secretary Oliver Stanley told the house of commons today that it was "improper and undesirable to attempt to forecast what task the British army might be called upon to fulfill in the future."

Stanley made his statement in presenting to the house his secret budget for the army.

"We have a great army in process of formation," Stanley said, "and we hope and indeed we are duty bound progressively to take a bigger and bigger portion of the war on land from the shoulders of our allies, the French, who in the early days of the war had to bear such a very great part of this burden."

Stanley said that British troops in France today were approximately double the number in October, and he added that "every day sees an increase."

Last October Leslie Hore-Belisha, then war secretary, said Britain had 188,000 men in France. Stanley's statement would mean there are about 316,000 British troops on the continent now.

The house cheered as Stanley emphasized the close ties with the French.

"In the last year we were allies," he said, "in this war we are friends."

The war secretary said nearly 200,000 Britons had enlisted as volunteers in the army since the war began. This is in addition to some

1,300,000 men enrolled for compulsory military service.

Foreign office sources declined to say when British first offered increased aid to Finland, but emphasized that communications began "well before" opening of the current Finnish-Russian peace parley at Moscow.

No appeal for such help has been received from Finland in the past 12 hours, official sources said.

Dog Saves Mistress

DALLAS, March 12 (AP)—Nancy Jane, four-year-old dog laught to waken Mrs. Jimmie Orem every morning, tugged at the covers a few hours ahead of time.

Mrs. Orem found the room filled with gas. A gas jet had accidentally been left open. She managed to close the jet and open a window before she felt ill from the fumes.

Railroad Commission Members Disagree

AUSTIN, March 12. (AP)—Two members of the state railroad commission disagreed on whether the latest crude oil stocks report of the United States bureau of mines indicated that Texas is producing too much oil.

The report said Texas stocks jumped 2,388,000 barrels during the week ended March 2 and national stocks rose to 244,128,000.

Commissioner Jerry Sadler stated the situation was "alarming" and he would insist that the Texas allowable be substantially reduced, effective April 1.

Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson said on the other hand that crude oil stocks had been too low and "an increase of another 15,000,000 barrels over the nation would do no harm."

Major Will Show Sound Film Here

One of the most interesting programs in the history of the Pampa Reserve Officers Troop school will be presented tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the office of County Agent Ralph Thomas in the courthouse. Occasion will be the official visit of Major C. S. Richards of Fort Worth, officer in charge of this district.

Major Richards will discuss with reserve officers matters pertaining to active duty this year and courses to be offered. He will also talk on the United States position in the Pacific and show a sound picture.

All reserve officers, regular army officers, national guard officers and members of the ROTC and CMTC are invited to attend.

Training For Jobs Theme Of P-TA Talk

PANHANDLE, March 12—A special session in the Parent-Education course was conducted by Mrs. C. C. Weakley Friday evening to permit several participating to make up the extra two hours so they will be eligible for the certificates presented at the district conference in Memphis April 17 and 18.

Mrs. Weakley selected as her topic, "Vocational Training in the High Schools." A motto of a recent graduating class in a Mid-western city—"WPA, Here We Come." is a challenge to our modern set up of education, showing that something is lacking in our educational system," said Mrs. Weakley.

Mrs. Weakley pointed out that the theoretical training students receive in most of our high schools is not adequate for the masses of young people who will never go to college.

"They need some vocational training in connection with history, science, English and Mathematics, to equip them for living."

Vocational schools in the South and other places that have proved a success were cited as proof of the value of vocational training.

Dies Hurries Back To View Red Spy

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Texas) planned to close the Florida phase of his un-Americanism investigation today to hurry back to Washington, where it was unofficially reported an important Russian spy had been taken into custody.

The Miami Herald said it learned authoritatively that a man supposedly heading "a Soviet spy ring" in the United States had been apprehended and would be taken before the congressional committee on un-American activities, probably Friday. Dies is chairman of the committee.

Mexico To Control Radio Advertising

MEXICO CITY, March 12 (AP)—The department of health today announced it planned to exercise strict control in the future over radio advertisements of patent medicines.

In particular, the department said it would ban advertisements of medicines and drugs which had not been approved by the division of health control and whose general use might have serious results.

Pre-Easter Series Started Monday

In a short service last night at the McCullough Memorial Methodist church the pastor, the Rev. Hubert Bratcher, brought the first message in pre-Easter series on the subject, "The Examination."

After stating briefly why people attend medical clinics and carrying some of the same general reasons over into the field of spiritual maladjustment, the speaker listed numerous symptoms of spiritual disorder in people's lives. In closing it was pointed out that "the hardest thing for a human being to do, and the thing most critically important for himself and all affected by him, is to discover what is wrong with him and so be able to expose himself to those influences which can work in him the needed transformation."

The topic for the evening service will be "The Diagnosis."

Flier And Writer Commits Suicide

PORT MYERS, Fla., March 12 (AP)—The career of John Monk Saxard, one-time Rhodes scholar, World War flier and successful writer of thrilling aviation stories for the screen, ended in a closet of his small waterfront home near here.

A housekeeper calling yesterday to clean up the five-room cottage found the body of the 42-year-old former husband of screen actress Fay Wray hanging by a belt of his beach robe.

Cornel Roy Lamberton, who pronounced the death suicide, said he assumed dependency and ill health was the motive.
