HIGH COURT UPHOLDS NLRB'S BROAD POWER

Drunk Driving Assailed By Judge Ewing

Smart Aleck Real Menace On Highway, Grand Jury Told

Defining drunken driving as one of the most vexing problems courts have to face these days, District Judge W. R. Ewing urged members of the grand jury to consider the problem in their deliberations as the 31st district court grand jury was sworn in this morning.

"Drunken driving," Judge Ewing said, "requires the court to treat as a criminal a man who is not, ordinarily, a criminal at all. He is usually a married man with a steady job and has some social standing in his circle."

"If he is sentenced to jail or the penitentiary for driving while drunk, as the law requires, he is apt to lose his job and his family. Innocent ones, are certain to suffer."

"For this reason, paroles and suspended sentences are handed out pretty generally by the courts to the intoxicated driver. In some cities it is the policy to give him a good scare, or charge him with some minor offense and let him go. Such a policy is a great mistake. The drunken driver and his family may suffer if the letter of the law is followed as in practically all criminal cases, but society as a whole suffers unduly if drunk drivers are on our highways."

District Demo Rally To Be Held Jan. 23

Democratic oratory will resound and Democratic cheers be heard in Pampa on January 23, when from all the counties of the 18th district come party workers to welcome E. B. Germany, state chairman, at a banquet to be held here.

Mr. Germany has informed local Democrats planning the affair that he will do his best to also have attending the rally Mrs. Clara B. Driscoll, of San Antonio, national Democratic committeewoman from Texas. Price Daniels, president of the Texas Young Democrats, has promised to attend, and Gerald B. Mann, Texas attorney general, has also been invited.

Present plans call for the arrival of the state chairman and the national committeewoman at noon, and a reception to be given in Mrs. Driscoll's honor by the women, that afternoon, preceding the banquet that night.

Place of the banquet, program, and master of ceremonies for the first Panhandle-wide Democratic party rally ever held in Pampa, are to be arranged, H. C. Coffey, chairman of the Gray County Democratic Executive committee, said today.

District Democrats Start Fund Campaign

Solicitation of the Democratic party's "war chest" in the Pampa district today, with a drive started to collect funds under the direction of Mel Davis, chairman of the Pampa district Jackson Day.

A state Jackson Day banquet is to be held on January 8 in Dallas. Tickets to the banquet set at $25. "I am personally going to contribute an amount equal to the cost of attending this banquet," he said.

Mr. Davis will accept contributions mailed to him for forwarding to state headquarters.

The Pampa district Jackson Day chairman expressed the opinion that the present Democratic administration has done more for the Panhandle than any other administration in history, and that as Texas has become an important state in Democratic power, it should be a leading contributor to the party fund, and likewise the Panhandle should contribute in a manner comparable to other sections of the state.

Late News

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (AP)—The United States formally protested to the British government today against Britain's seizure of mail from the United States destined to Germany.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (AP)—Secretary Hull disclaimed today personal ambitions for the presidency.

At his press conference, he said he knew nothing of reports that President Roosevelt had chosen him as his successor. He added immediately that he had made all comments that could be made on this subject, six to twelve months ago, when in writing to various persons, he stated that he had no personal purposes, in any sense, of a political nature.

So The People May Know!

An Editorial

The people of Pampa no doubt will wish to keep in mind that the city commission's proposed plan to go into the municipal power business coincides with a Federal policy that is putting the government into active competition with private electric companies from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and from Canada to Mexico.

This Federal policy includes the building and operating of government-owned power projects plus the encouragement of local municipal projects to displace private service. Federal socialization of power is at present a definite government policy.

Let's take a look at a little history: Not so many years ago, the United States stood aghast at the confiscation of property and the destruction of private wealth in Russia. Communism seemed to be a nightmare that was unthought of in this country. The first Five-Year Plan of

What Do YOU Think About it?

The Pampa News welcomes honest criticism and differences of opinion. It believes that it is the duty of every editor and publisher, to his nation, his community and to himself, to discuss those problems and issues which have a vital bearing on the lives of the people. The Pampa News welcomes any letters expressing opinions for, or against, the municipal electric plant proposal in Pampa. All communications, to show good faith, should be signed with the name and address of the sender. A free interchange of ideas enables people to arrive at fair and intelligent decisions on questions of public interest.

Russia for government development of industries was something that which private industry here at home was astounded. Such a thing could not happen here. Great government power projects in Russia were a part of the Communistic program.

At the same time Russia was doing this, however, the seeds for socialization of power in the United States were being sown. A new school of politicians was using abuses or shortcomings in the management of a few power companies, as an excuse to undermine public confidence of the electric industry as a whole, and as a basis of their argument to put the federal and local governments in to the power business. The cry of "power trust" and "exorbitant rates" were used to inflame the public against private enterprise, and promised low rates from public plants were used as the bait to induce an unsuspecting public to authorize expenditures for the building of government-owned plants.

The basic principle involved, namely, whether government or municipal ownership of private industry is wanted by the people, even if they could furnish service because of tax-subsidization and other privileges, cheaper than taxed private enterprise, always was kept carefully hidden.

A public speaker or an editor who had the temerity to point out the dangers that result from a political policy which would put the government or a municipality into business to the exclusion of private citizens, was subjected to the charge of being a tool of the power trust and other similar choice names. History also shows us that as the relentless hand of dictatorship swept over Russia, Germany, Italy and lesser countries, crushing private initiative and wiping out the rights of private ownership of property and business as we have enjoyed it in the United States now for more than 150 years, the hand of Socialism, or Communism, or Government Ownership, or Municipal Ownership, or whatever you want to call it, was closing around the private electric power industry in the United States.

Here at home we have failed to connect this trend with our own personal liberties. We have overlooked the fact that a change in our Federal policy which puts the government into competition with one line of business, will, if tolerated, sooner or later put the same government into competition with other lines of business.

Pampa's city officials released a public statement last Saturday in which it was asserted that the existing electric rates charged by the private utility now operating in Pampa are reasonable.

Apparently the only aim city officials have in mind, then, is the uncertainty of trying to operate for profit. If that is the case—then, as suggested in a letter from Dr. H. L. Wilder, of Pampa, on today's editorial page—why doesn't the city insist on taking over other private businesses in Pampa that are operating for profit?

Why doesn't the city go into the lumber business, or the hardware business, or the newspaper business, or the jewelry business, or the theater business, or the gas business, or the telephone business, or any other business that is operating for profit? Why doesn't the city take over some of the professions that are pretty profitable? The city might make some money by taking over a good law office or doctor's office.

If, as city officials have stated, there is no complaint against the existing electric rates charged in Pampa—why should the city commission pick out the Southwestern Public Service Co. and decide that the city just wants to go into the power business alone?

Whether our public officials who are promoting this municipal power plant program in Pampa realize what they are doing, or not, is of little consequence. The results of their action, if they go ahead with it, will be the same, whether they are deliberate or just ill-advised.

Certainly the city commission will not go ahead with the proposal without giving the voters a chance to say whether or not they want a municipal electric plant in Pampa.

This newspaper again urges the city commission to reconsider the step it already has taken, to rescind its right-of-purchase resolution, and to reopen discussions of the electric company's request for a franchise renewal in Pampa.

Pilot Lands Plane Upside down—Safely

NEW ALEXANDRIA, Pa., Jan. 2 (AP)—An army pilot skidded a small monoplane to an upside-down landing in a snow-covered field near here early today after a fellow officer had "balled out" of the ship. Lieut. Dwight B. Johnson, 22, Chicago, leaped with a parachute after the plane's gasoline supply ran out shortly after midnight. Lieut. Stanley Stewart, Kalamazoo, Mich., who had intended to jump but changed his mind, brought the plane down belly-up in the dark. Both men escaped injury.

DR. DAFOE RESIGNS AS GUARDIAN—QUINTS GO BACK TO DADDY

Agreement by Dr. Allan Roy Daffoe to resign as guardian of the Dionne quintuplets ends a series of controversies between the doctor and the Dionnes over control of the quintuplets. Olivia Dionne had sued the physician, twice over income received through advertising contracts, and once charging ridicule. The quintuplets' father had long protested the separation of the five girls from the rest of the Dionne family. Dr. Daffoe, shown above with Yvonne, Annette, Marie, Cecile and Emilie, has cared for the quintuplets since the day he brought them into the world and will continue as their personal physician. The agreement signed by Dr. Daffoe and Mrs. Dionne, wipes out the pending legal actions. It recommends erection of a house in which the children can live with the rest of the family.

Negro Woman Arrested For Shooting Man

A charge of assault with intent to murder has been filed against Mattie Mae Glynn, negro woman, in connection with the shooting of Ellis (Sweet Dick) McNeil, negro, Sunday morning in the negro section of the city. The complaint was signed by Sheriff Cal Rose. Bond of $1,000 was set by Justice of the Peace E. F. Young and was made yesterday.

The negro woman was arrested by Ray Dudley, city traffic officer, who answered a call. He called an ambulance before leaving the police station. When he arrived at the scene of the shooting he found McNeil bleeding profusely from a wound in his right side. McNeil was rushed to Worley hospital where it was found that a bullet had entered his side, striking a lower rib and glancing around nearly to his back, still under the skin. He was dismissed after treatment.

Officer Dudley said he arrested the woman who handed him an old-fashioned .22 caliber police special revolver with a two-inch barrel. Only one shot had been fired from the gun, Officer Dudley said.

Following an investigation the woman was turned over to officers of the sheriff's department.

Pope Dismissed By Sheriff Cal Rose

George A. Pope, chief deputy sheriff of Gray county, was dismissed from that position Sunday night when Sheriff Cal Rose informed him that his $2,000 bond as deputy would not be renewed for the new year.

Dismissal of Pope followed by two days the announcement by James P. Stewart, fingerprint expert and deputy, of his resignation and his plan to run for the office of sheriff in this year's election. Pope said he had no immediate plans for the future.

Sheriff Rose today confirmed the report of Pope's dismissal but made no further statement.

Bill Kenton's $1,000 Accordion Stolen

Radio fans who listen to the Cornshuckers over radio station KPDD, every morning between 7:30 and 8 o'clock noticed something wrong with the accordion music which is usually outstanding. Well, there was a reason for the melancholy music played by Bill Kenton, ace accordionist on the program, because someone stole his $1,000 accordion early Sunday morning.

The accordion was taken from Ken Bennett's car, parked in front of a South Cuyler street restaurant. A minute or two after entering the cafe, Kenton asked his friend if he had locked the car and the answer was no. Bennett immediately went out and locked the car. When the two left the cafe they found the accordion missing. It had apparently been stolen during the minute or two the car had been left unlocked.

Mr. Kenton will pay a reward for the return of his accordion.

Postal Receipts Show Increase For Entire Year

After showing decreases for the first two quarters of 1939, Pampa's postal receipts started to climb until the deficit had been wiped out and an increase of $489.09 registered at the close of the year, according to the report of O. K. Gaylor, assistant postmaster, filed today with Postmaster C. H. Walker.

Receipts for the past calendar year totaled $78,102.88 compared with $78,102.79 for 1938. The largest year in the history of the office was in 1937 when receipts totaled $82,008.35.

December business in 1939 amounted to $10,040.02 compared with $9,611.34 for the same month of 1938 or an increase of $428.68. Receipts for the quarter ending December 31, 1939, totaled $23,338.70 compared with $21,897.78 or an increase of $1,440.92.

'39 Rainfall Greater Than Previous Year

With 18.86 inches of precipitation, the 1939 rainfall record was 1.75 inches above the 1938 total, but 3.86 inches under that of 1937.

The 1939 precipitation here exceeded that of 1920, 18.31 inches, 1922—18.15 inches, 1933—13.91 inches, 1936—15.95 inches.

Maximum rainfall in the 11 years between 1928 and 1939 was 27.61 inches in 1928, followed by 1929's 26.70, 22.86 in 1931, 20.14 in 1934, 19.54 in 1935.

Monthly precipitation for 1939: January, 2.31; February, .04; March, .38; April, 2.29; May, 2.37; June, 5.66; July, 1.41; August, 2.77; September, none; October, .72; November, .06; December, .85.

April 5 was the day on which the greatest amount of rain fell. Precipitation on that date was 2.06 inches. June was the rainiest month with 5.66 inches recorded. September was the only month of the 1939 in which no precipitation was recorded.

In 1935, the only month of the year in which no precipitation occurred was in April. The 1935 rainfall was 19.54 inches, divided as January, .42; February, .45; March, 1.50; May, 4.76; June, 1.45; July, .35; August, 5.61; September, 1.67; October, 1.57; November, 1.31; December, .48.

For the 12-year period, 1928-1939, the total amount of rainfall in Pampa was 241.86, or an annual average of 20.15 inches of precipitation.

2 Pampa Teachers Injured In Wreck

Jack Davis, teacher and coach at Junior High school, Herbert L. Miller, teacher and music instructor at Sam Houston school, and Harvey Blanks of Lakewood received minor injuries when their car skidded on an icy road near Carthage, Mo., Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Miller, who received head and body bruises, returned to Pampa yesterday. Mr. Davis received bruises and cuts about the face and remained in Carthage with Mr. Blanks who received cuts, bruises and shock. They will return tomorrow, Mr. Miller said.

The party was returning from New York where they had spent the Christmas holidays. They were not driving fast but when the car started to skid it was impossible to stop. The car struck a telephone pole and was badly damaged, Mr. Miller said. There were 18 car wrecks in the vicinity of Carthage Sunday, Mr. Miller said.

Independent Union Issue Takes Beating

Unanimous Opinion Delivered By Justice Black

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Supreme Court upheld broad powers claimed by the National Labor Board today by ruling that a Federal Court of Appeals does not have the right to pass on the board's certification of a CIO union as the exclusive bargaining agency for all Pacific coast longshoremen.

This opinion, a defeat for the American Federation of Labor, sustained a decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia that it could not review the board's action in lumping all West coast longshoremen into the voting unit.

The federation had contended that the longshoremen of each individual employer should be permitted to determine their collective bargaining representative.

In two other decisions, the court also upheld the convention of the Labor Relations board that it had the power to direct elections to determine collective bargaining representation without interference by the federal circuit courts.

One of the decisions sustained a board order placing the name of only one labor organization (a CIO affiliate) on a ballot for a run off election to determine collective bargaining representation for employees of the Consumers Power company of Jackson, Mich.

The other sustained a board order directing the complete establishment of an independent union of BERLIN, Jan. 2 (AP)—A German high command communication today said the Nazi air force whined in the new year with flights over Britain's Orkney and Shetland islands and obtained "valuable information."

The communication reported "light artillery disturbance fire" in the west.

PARIS, Jan. 2 (AP)—A military summary of war operations today disclosed that German warplanes attempted to reach the Paris region during the first day of 1940, but no air raid alarm was sounded in the capital. Other German reconnaissance planes flew over several parts of eastern France. A German patrol attacked a French outpost with hand grenades near the Vosges region but was driven off.

MONTEVIDEO, Jan. 2 (AP)—One of the victors in the sea battle with the German battleship Admiral Graf Spee, the British cruiser Ajax, docked here today as Uruguayan authorities studied details of "intermingling the Nazi freighter Tacoma and disposing of her cargo of oranges, grapefruit and nuts."

The Ajax, bearing Rear Admiral Henry Harwood who directed the fight of the British cruisers against the Graf Spee, steamed into port under a Uruguayan permit to stay 48 hours to refuel and obtain provisions.

AUSTIN, Jan. 2 (AP)—The state school land board today faced the task of opening stacks of sealed bids on more than 527,000 acres of state land offered for sale or lease. Placed on the market were 205,000 acres of surveyed public school lands located in 108 counties and 322,000 acres of submerged coastal area, possible oil producing territory, in Matagorda, San Antonio, Aransas, Copano and St. Charles Bays.

Bids on submerged acreage occupied the board today. School land bids will be opened tomorrow. H. C. Bishop, board secretary, anticipated several days would be consumed in tabulation before determination of awards.

Trojans Run Over Vols 14-0 In Decisive Rout

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 2 (AP)—Football's Gibraltar was a mass of crumbled ruins today—the team that couldn't be beaten met up yesterday with the team that wouldn't be beaten.

Southern California was the toast of the Rose Bowl; Tennessee a new member of the losing team brigade and shorn of distinction that began accumulating back in the season of 1937.

The 14 to 0 score deciding the 25th Rose Bowl classic, witnessed by a jammed-in crowd of 92,000, was the most conclusive since Pittsburg won from Washington here in 1937, 21 to 0.

Tennessee staked one of the nation's greatest gridiron reputations in the game. Defeat called a halt to a consecutive victory record of 23 hooking together through two full seasons and part of a third. Until the Southern California Trojan power machine rolled to touchdown in the second period, Tennessee's goal line had not been crossed in 15 encounters—10 last year and five in 1938.

The best backfield man in the Tennessee string played parts of the game "handcuffed" by knee injury. Whether or not a George "Bad News" Cafego in top physical condition would have stayed off the Trojan yard-gaining landslide was a matter of debate among grandstand masters.

From start to finish Southern California left little doubt as to which side was superior. It outplayed and outgained Tennessee, on the ground and when checked there took to the air.

Ambrose Schindler sparked the two scoring drives, late in the second quarter and again toward the tail end of the fourth.

The first touchdown march opened on the Tennessee 47-yard line. Schindler had returned a punt of 10 yards to set the stage. He carried the ball in five of the six ground plays and tossed an 11-yard pass to a teammate in one of the other two gainers. He finally went over from the one-foot line.

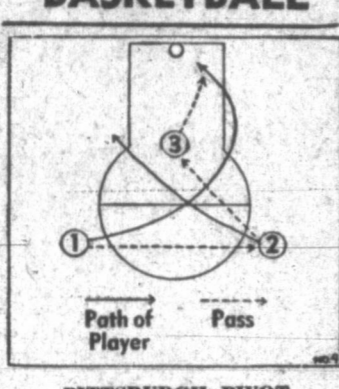

Traced by Coach Bryant, the last-period, touchdown gave the assembled thousands a true picture of Trojan power. The team passed and smashed 45 yards after recovering a Tennessee fumble. Newman, Volunteer's fullback, had dropped the ball and U. S. C.'s sub fullback Joe Angle had snaked it into his own arms on his 15.

Schindler was in the role of field marshal. He directed an attack that brought racy praise for his coach. Headman Jones is not renowned for lavishness in this respect.

"Twice in the trust, line battering or skirting failed. Schindler turned to the air. The second such sortie brought the second score. The ball passed the one-yard line. Tennessee players lightened for another plunge. Schindler passed over the goal line to his left to Al Krueger, sub left end. The Volunteers were caught flat-footed.

When Tennessee's Newman fumbled it ended the only scoring bid of the team from the old South—the only time it had been able to advance the oval past mid-field.

West Defeats East 28 To 11

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2 (AP)—A 28 to 11 West victory over the East went into the books today, and the boys who played in the 15th annual Shrine charity football contest were still digging the mud out of their ears.

A downpour, starting midway in the second period, turned the Kezar stadium gridiron into a sea of mud.

The ninth western victory in the 15-year history of the classic was an amazing display of brilliant kicking and passing.

The teams, hand-picked from all sections of the country, each scored in the opening period. The West tallied when Bill Anahu, Santa Clara end, grabbed a 50-yard pass from Halback Kay Eakin of Arkansas and ran 25 yards to the goal line. Then the East evened the count with a touchdown by George Stirrweiss, North Carolina halfback, who took a short pass from Ed Boell, New York university quarterback, and eluded five Westerners en route to scoring ground. Each team converted.

In the second period the West tallied twice. Herb McCarthy, Denver fullback, tossed a short one to Ole Cordill, Rice Institute halfback, who skirted end for the second West score. Soon after, Leroy Zimmerman, smooth-passing halfback from San Jose (Calif.) State, passed three times for 36 yards to the East one-yard line, from where Frank Emmons, Oregon fullback, plunged over.

The East picked up two points on a safety in the third when Francis Stulgaitis, Columbia end, pounced on the ball after Eakin's punt from behind his own goal was blocked. The Easterners got two more in the next period. The West was backed to its one-yard line after a 15-yard clipping penalty, and Zimmerman grounded the ball in the end zone rather than risk a weak kick.

The West scored its fourth touchdown in the final period when Lee Artoe, California tackle, grabbed a bad Eastern pass from center which sailed over the head of Dick Casiano, Pittsburgh, half, and plopped into the end zone.

Aggies May Play U.S.C. In Los Angeles, Jan. 15

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 2 (AP)—Rulers of college football after his bold Sugar Bowl triumph over Tulane, mighty Texas A. and M. today pondered the thought of playing Southern California, Rose Bowl kings, in a post-season game for the Finnish relief fund.

Over a banquet table celebration of the 14-13 defeat of Tulane's Green Wave, Coach Homer Norton, a mild man threatened only a season ago with dismissal in the middle of a disappointing year, shook off the back slaps, admitted he had heard talk of a post-season game with the rose Bowl winners and commented:

"What do we think of it? Well, we love to play football!"

Officials of A. and M. members of the athletic council and others were sounded out and all concurred in the belief that such a game was a rather remote possibility, but indicated that it would be considered.

Reports in this football mad city were that the game would be played in Los Angeles about Jan. 15, with an expected million dollar gate to go to Finland for relief purposes.

To Norton, however, the most important thing was a meeting with the athletic council of Texas A. and M., scheduled in a few days. Then the man who was destined for the junk heap only a few months back is expected to demand a five-year contract with certain changes in the athletic setup.

It's no secret that Norton, riding a boom year, has been approached by several major colleges, including Stanford university.

Yesterday the Aggie's great fullback, John Alec Kimbrough, 210-pound all-American performer, stormed the Sugar Bowl with a classic running exhibition before 73,000 fans—largest sports crowd in the history of the southland—to crush a great Tulane team that couldn't hold the Haskell, Tex., hurricane.

Twice he scored and all afternoon he thundered up and down field in the history of the greatest one-man show ever staged in this part of the country. On 26 carries he crashed through for 152 yards, or a 5.7 yard average.

Deep in the fourth period, after Tulane had hurried across two rapid touchdowns that put the Aggies behind, 13-7, Kimbrough got his timing mates together and put across the winning score on the seventh play of a dramatic 70-yard drive.

Price Boats Points
Walemon (Cotton) Price, Aggie quarterback, booted both extra points, blocked an astounding fashion, shared in Kimbrough's running, and passed the Tulanians silly. On the honor roll also was little Herbie Smith, 160-pound end, who blocked the Tulane try for point that would have tied the game.

Denied once after reaching the one-foot line, the Aggies scored in

Clemson Beats Boston 6-3 In Nerve-Wracking Battle

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Jan. 2 (AP)—Clemson's Country Gentlemen rolled back to South Carolina today with the Cotton Bowl trophy in their possession and with prospects of another all-American during the next two years to replace the great Brant McPadden.

They beat Boston college's bruising Eagles 6-3 in a nerve-wracking game of long runs and sensational passes before 20,000 here yesterday with McPadden being forced to share the honors with a sophomore of pile-driving proclivities.

Charley Timmons, who beat out a senior for a place in the starting Clemson backfield, led the offense of Clemson's fighting Tigers. Timmons carried the ball 27 times for a gain of 127 yards and it was his mighty plunges that gave the Gentlemen their touchdown in the second period.

McPadden stood out, however, as the mainstay of the team, his great punting, generalship, running and defense telling the experts the kix-foto-three 180-pound young man was not over-rated.

Chuckie Charley O'Rourke gave Clemson heart-failure more than once with his sensational passing and it was O'Rourke's sizzling return of a punt down to Clemson's 15-yard line that paved the way for a goal from the toe of Alex Lukachuk, a substitute end. Lukachuk kicked it from the 26-yard line.

It was Bryant who batted down one pass labeled "touchdown" and McPadden who took care of the other as Boston college made its final bids for a score in the last minutes of play. McPadden then zoomed a punt to the Clemson 48 and then Boston college came surging back to turn up to bat down O'Rourke's pass over the goal line to end the Eagles' threat.

It was the last Cotton Bowl game to be promoted individually by J. Curtis Sanford, young Dallas oil man who started the classic in 1936. He is stepping aside next season and handing the Bowl to a group of first period from the Tulane 32 on four plays.

Not until the third period did Tulane come out from under a thorough beating the Aggies were handing out. Kellogg took a quick kick on his own 25 and sprinted 75 yards down the sidelines for a touchdown behind marvelous blocking.

Soon after, Tulane recovered an Aggie fumble and moved right on to a touchdown.

The Aggies took the kickoff and, led by Kimbrough, surged back for the winning score.

Lubbock Turns Down Offer From Jal. N. M.

LUBBOCK, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Texas schoolboy football season definitely is at an end.

State champion Lubbock High school has turned down a challenge from the champion of New Mexico, for a post-season game.

Supt. W. B. Irvin said: "We regret that we will be unable to accept the post-season game with Jal. N. M. We have had a long season and we feel that it would not be fair to the boys. Also, it is our understanding that the Texas Interscholastic League prohibits such contests."

Keeps Record 'Clear'

NEW YORK, Jan. 2 (AP)—Otis Thompson, 32-year-old negro, kept his New Year's rendezvous with the law.

On Jan. 1, 1938, he was arrested for assault.

On Jan. 1, 1939, he was arrested for felonious assault.

On Jan. 1, 1940, he was charged again with felonious assault in the stabbing of his wife, in serious condition.

Each year, Thompson has been the first arrested for a felony in New York.

Catholic And Temple Teams Play To Tie

EL PASO, Jan. 2 (AP)—As rousing a game of football as ever staged, the Sun-Bowl was staged New Year's day by Arizona State of Tempe and Catholic university.

The boys from the District of Columbia, and the Arizona Cactus belt battled to a scoreless tie before 12,000 southwest partisans in an exhibition of smashing, play-for-keeps football not soon to be forgotten.

Two teams, with a season's record of nearly 500 points between them, found each other too tough to overcome. All for the want of a passer, victory slipped from the grasp of both.

Rock-ribbed defenses stopped the wanted charges of Tempe's Ripper Pitts and Catholic's great Rocco Pirro, and none appeared to lead the way to victory over the aerial route after the best southwest tradition.

Storekeepers in Elford, north London suburb, have signed "mutual assistance pacts" providing that customers of a store forced to close because of air raid damage will transfer to another store included in the pact.

Georgia Tech Beats Missouri

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 2 (AP)—Coach Bill Alexander ranked his 1940 Orange Bowl victors today with the great teams in Georgia Tech football history after watching the Engineers baffle Missouri, 21 to 7.

"This Tech team hasn't as much power as our 1928 Rose Bowl squad, but it can do more things with the ball," the grizzled coach grinned.

Missouri never had a chance after the Tech magicians warmed up yesterday.

A crowd of 36,500 saw the Engineers, far from discouraged by an early Missouri touchdown fashioned by Paul Christman's passing arm, sweep straight back after the kickoff to tie the score and then add two more touchdowns on lightning plays.

Perryton To Stage Bowling Tournament

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

PERRYTON, Jan. 2.—Invitations are being prepared and plans are in progress for a two-day bowling tournament in which Perryton will be host to bowling teams from approximately 25 north Panhandle towns.

Preliminary elimination matches will be played Sunday, January 21, with the final scheduled for the following Sunday, January 28.

Appropriate prizes will be awarded by T. D. Moss of the Ranger Bowling alleys for high scores in the different events with a grand prize to the winning team in the ten, five and three pin competition and to mixed double winners.

All winners in the first part of the tournament will make the trek back to Perryton on the following Sunday for the finals.

Eight alleys will be used for the competition during the tournament.

Briggs To Seek Naturalization Papers Quickly

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2 (AP)—Harry Briggs, California CIO leader, said today "now that obstacles have been cleared away" by Dean James M. Landis' report on deportation charges against him "I shall seek naturalization at the earliest possible moment."

"I have long desired to become an American citizen," said the labor leader in a written statement. "It should not be obvious through the disclosures of the proceedings, why I have been unable to fulfill that desire."

He declared there was "nothing personal" in the proceedings which the Harvard law school dean conducted during 11 weeks here this summer as special examiner into labor department charges that Briggs belonged to the Communist party.

"I was on trial but labor was the defendant," Briggs said. "Labor fought the case, and won."

Kimbrough Badly Underrated Avar Tulane Footballers

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 2 (AP)—Tulane university's football players think John Kimbrough, the fullback who led the Texas Aggies to a 14-13 triumph in the Sugar Bowl game, is a badly underrated all-American.

"Kimbrough," said Ralph Wenzel, Tulane's all-southeastern end, "is the most underrated all-American ever."

Bob (Jitterbug) Kellogg, Tulane's 165-pound halfback who almost led his team to victory, told of his experiences tackling the Texas juggernaut and said Kimbrough remarked to him after one of them:

"You're the cleanest little tackler I ever saw."

Kellogg added that he didn't reply because "any guy who tackles Kimbrough doesn't feel like talking for five or ten minutes."

Sports writers and others almost unanimously labeled Kimbrough one of the great fullbacks of all time.
