

Merchants To Protest Gas Order At Austin -- C-C Luncheon Postponed

Business men of Pampa have decided to "do something" about the gas situation which exists in this section of the Panhandle and between 25 and 30 merchants were to leave this afternoon for Austin to appear before the Texas Railroad Commission on Wednesday.

At a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce board room this morning the merchants decided that if Pampa is to maintain its present standing in the state and future growth it must keep casinghead gasoline and carbon black plants operating at full capacity. On Wednesday the railroad commission will be asked by the merchants to decide now in favor of allowing low pressure, sweet gas wells that have no pipe line connections to use that gas for manufacture of casinghead gasoline and carbon black.

The merchants passed a resolution asking Representative Eugene Worley to accompany them to Austin to appear before the commission. Representative Worley tried to have the sweet gas bill amended to allow sweet gas wells with low pressure to be classed as sour gas wells but this amendment was defeated when the commission and pipe line companies agreed.

A protest has been filed by Northern Natural Pipe Line Company against those particular wells being allowed to produce gas for other than light and fuel. Closing in of the wells would mean curtailing of operation of many plants with the possibility that some would move out of the country. Because of the large number of merchants who signed to make the trip to Austin, directors of the Pampa Board of City Development decided to postpone the noon luncheon tomorrow when plans for the "Parade of Progress" were to be discussed. The regular meeting of board directors tonight will also be postponed.

Figures were presented at the meeting showing that 12 plants employing nearly 500 men would be affected if the order shutting in the wells was signed. Those plants have a payroll of nearly one million dollars a year.

The Pampa merchants will tell the commission that their business is in danger and that Pampa will lose gas for other than light and fuel. Recently a company that has a plant and also a pipe line protested and the hearing was called by Commissioners Ernest O. Thompson and Jerry Sandler.

Walter Rogers Quits As City Attorney

Acceptance of the resignation of Walter E. Rogers as city attorney was the last business of the outgoing city commission at a special meeting this morning when Fred Thompson was installed as mayor and H. C. Wilson and George B. Cree as commissioners. No one has been named to succeed Mr. Rogers, no other resignations have been submitted, and the new commission has not made any changes in the personnel of city departments, Mayor Thompson said. A list of the city employees and the salaries paid to be furnished the commission for its meeting tomorrow.

Rotary Lectures To Be Concluded Wednesday Night

A revealing series of lectures, giving Pampan authentic and first-hand information of foreign affairs, will be concluded Wednesday night at the high school auditorium when Dr. Allen Albert speaks on "The Struggle for Raw Materials." These lectures have been given for the past three weeks at 8 o'clock each Wednesday night, under the sponsorship of the Rotary clubs of Pampa, Boyer, Lawesa, Stamford, and Garham, in Rotary's Institute of International Understanding. Attendance at each lecture has been 500 or more and a good crowd is expected at the final program this week. The speaker is the author of many articles on city planning, city analysis, and social changes. He is also the author of articles in encyclopedias on "World Fair Architecture." Dr. Albert has been very active in the rural school teacher movement, having served as President of Rotary International, and as a Rotary speaker on many occasions. He has delivered anniversary addresses for the Rotary clubs of Chicago, New York, Boston, Minneapolis, Omaha, and other cities.

Blackout' Of Sun

Pampan imitated Europeans yesterday as they gazed into the sky. They were watching a "blackout" of the sun, however, and not looking for bombing planes. Crowds of curious residents gathered in downtown streets for a sight of a spectacular show that won't be repeated in the United States for 54 years. In a rare alignment of heavenly bodies, the moon came directly between the earth and the sun. The moon was further away from the earth than usual and the sun closer than usual with the result that only the inside of the sun's face was blocked out. Locally, Pampan saw the sun peeping through high clouds, with the first shadow coming over the sun at 3 o'clock. An hour later only a ring around the top of the sun was visible. The effect—seen through smoked glass, photographic film and special filters—was that of a big black polka dot with a shining orange rim around it. It was the first eclipse of such widespread visibility in the United States since 1865. The annular ring phase of the eclipse, which obscures 99 per cent of the sun's diameter, entered the United States at Big Bend, Tex., and sped 2,000 miles eastward across the southern part of the country in slightly more than half an hour.

Even Hoboes To Be Included In Nose Counting

Census enumerators in this section of the Panhandle will count the hoboes tonight—if they can find them—according to Carroll Smyers, district census supervisor with offices here. "We're going into all the hobo jungles we can find and ask the questions," Mr. Smyers declared today. Plans have been laid to question everyone of the 1,000,000 American nomads, from flophouse bums to traveling millionaires wherever they may be spending tonight it was reported today by the Associated Press. Hobo "jungles," huts, shacks and cabins will be covered tonight. Tourist and trailer camps will be explored, and forms distributed to all hotel guests to be filled out and sent to their home towns. Persons in flop houses and trailers will be counted as residents of the towns where they spend tonight unless they can give other permanent addresses. The taking of the census in the district is more than half finished, Mr. Smyers said today.

School Teacher Dismissed On Charge Of Paddling Pupil

MORGANTON, N. C., April 8 (AP)—A rural school teacher was brought into court on a charge of paddling a 13-year-old pupil. Judge W. Gordon Boger dismissed the charge with this comment: "If I had gone to court when I was in school every time I was paddled x x x I would have lost so much time from my schooling that I wouldn't be out of high school yet."

Students See Meat Cutting Demonstration

J. L. Lester's third year agricultural boys and Mrs. R. H. Sanford's second year foods class last Wednesday watched H. J. Suttle of Suttle's Market demonstrate the cutting of pork and beef in the school cafeteria.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Everette Sparks is little but powerful, judging from his record as a boxer. He is on the P. F. A. and Harvester boxing teams and has won several trophies. "I like to box better than anything else I can think of," he says. Other hobbies are collecting old gun shells and match folders. Everette is 17 years old and plans to attend Texas Tech next year.

Ann Chisholm is one of those "darn Yankees," hailing from Bradford, Pennsylvania, and her northern accent is quite noticeable. She is the brunette with such pretty blue eyes that works in the office the third hour. "Everyone loves Annie," they say, and that is just about the truth—at least all those who know her. Her sense of humor assures that.

Ann has had quite a colorful career in P. H. S. As a sophomore she represented the school in junior declamation; during her junior year she was a member of the student council and acted as prompress for the class play. This year Ann acted the part of the woman in the balcony in the senior play as an office assistant, and is generally enjoying her position as a senior.

Ann claims as her hobbies dancing and reading—especially the "funnies." She tastefully chooses blue as her favorite color. "I'd rather argue than anything else I know of," said Ann when asked what she liked best to do. Her pet hate is people who prevaricate. She plans to attend St. Mary's college in Kansas next year.

"My hobby is stamp collecting," says 18-year-old Bob Clemmons, who has attended school in Pampa for five years, during which time he has made quite a record as an athlete. He played one year on the Reaper football team, one on the Gorillas, and two years on the Harvester team. Also he served one year on the Reaper track team and two years on the Harvester team. He has won numerous popularity contests in P. H. S.

Aubrey's hobby is fooling with Judy, his car. His ambition is to be in the army. He plans to attend Texas A. and M. college and major in military science.

Grace Mann school's band received a first division rating for elementary school bands, and the Woodrow Wilson and Sam Houston bands received second division ratings.

Numerous other good ratings were made by students from Junior High and the ward schools in solo and ensemble contests.

"I don't know when I was ever out with a group that conducted itself more orderly than the Harvester band when down at Plattville this year," said Mr. Cox of the Senior High band.

In charge of arrangements for Pampa participation in the contests was Winston Savage, principal of Sam Houston school.

Officers of the Senior High Parent-Teacher association for next year were installed at the final meeting of that group last Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Mrs. W. L. Campbell was installed as president; Mrs. Burl Graahm, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. Roy McMillen, secretary; Mrs. Zenobia McFarlin, treasurer; Mrs. H. Dehnert, historian; Mrs. Roy Holt and Mrs. C. E. Simmons, representatives to the city council; Mrs. Claude Lard, Mrs. John Brandon, and Mrs. Ernest Crane, representatives to the county council.

Principal D. F. Osborne welcomed the special guests, the mothers of students who will graduate from Junior High this spring. Mr. Osborne explained the dual system of graduation which is to be introduced into Pampa High school, whereby students may choose between a liberal arts course with college preparation in mind and a practical course for vocational training.

"American Youth" was the subject of a talk by the Rev. R. J. Snell, pastor of St. Matthew's Episcopal church. He stressed that the home, the school, and the church should work together in training the youth of today.

Mrs. Claude Lard, outgoing president, was given a handkerchief shower in appreciation of her service in leading the Parent-Teacher association this year.

Miss Madge Sears, music teacher in Junior High, accompanied the eighth grade sextet as they sang their contest number, "Now the Day Is Over." The Senior High sextet, accompanied by Miss Helen Martin, also sang their contest number, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes."

HARVEST GRAINS

E. W. CABE, JR., supervisor of instruction, visited Amarillo High school last Tuesday when he attended a series of conferences at which Dr. W. B. Townsend of Butler university, Indianapolis, Indiana, discussed the problem of remedial reading.

"I was especially interested in this because of the work which we are doing in the same field," Mr. Cabe said.

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES have been playing baseball, touch football, and plunging the past week. Coach Oscar Hinger reports that the boys will begin playing volleyball soon.

MOTHERS OF GRADUATING SENIORS met Thursday afternoon to make plans for the traditional reception to honor the graduates following the Senior Vesper service on May 19.

DR. H. H. HICKS spoke to Harry Kelley's third hour occupations class last Friday on his profession, dentistry, explaining cost and length of training required, chances of employment, income possibilities, etc.

MISS MARGARET JONES announced in assembly last Wednesday that a few annuals are now for sale as the result of students' not having completed their payments by April 1, after having made a deposit last fall to hold an annual until that date.

HARRY KELLEY, coordinator of diversified occupations, visited that department in the Plainview schools last Thursday.

IN CASE YOU MAY HAVE FORGOTTEN, with so many contests in music and interscholastic league events, this is exam week. Friday will end the second six-weeks.

BAD WEATHER OVER THE WEEK-END interfered with a great many school activities. The invitation boys' tennis tournament had to be postponed, also eliminations in girls' tennis. Track eliminations were delayed and the squad was unable to go to Claude to take part in an invitation meet.

STUDENTS WILL BE GIVEN an opportunity one day this week to see the contest play, "Overtones." Last Tuesday evening a small group of faculty members and townspeople were invited to serve as critics at a private performance of the play. A special assembly will be called tomorrow at 11:30 o'clock.

When Visitors Come On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week Pampa schools will be host to hundreds of visitors here to attend the district meet of the Interscholastic league and the tournament of champions of the Panhandle Plains High School Boxing league—boys and girls who will take part in the numerous contests, leaders who have trained them, and parents who are interested in seeing their sons and daughters perform.

May we remember our responsibilities as hosts and show our visitors every courtesy. Of course we shall all be trying our best to win for Pampa in every contest. But let us remember that others are trying just as hard to win for their schools. May we not be scornful of the efforts of others or too boastful of our own.

Let us remember that we, as of course we shall in some of the contests—let's be good sports about it and not blame it on the judges. Remember, since the contests are being held in Pampa, the other towns will have more grounds for feeling that the judges have been partial than will we Pampans. But, of course, the judges aren't going to be partial. In the main they will come from outside the district, and they will not know what school the contestants represent. There can be only one winner in each event.

Whether Pampa is winner or loser, may we remember at all times to be good sports and to show our visitors the same courtesies we should expect if the contests were being held in their town.

Boxing League To Hold Tournament Of Champions Here Next Friday Champions of their weights in the north and south divisions of the Panhandle Plains High School Boxing League will meet in a tournament of champions to be held here next Friday. Twelve bouts representing weights from 75 pounds to the heavy-weight division will be staged to decide league champions.

Three schools are in each division. The north division consists of Pampa, Canadian, and Stinnett. Pampa will lead all schools by placing seven boys in the tournament of champions. Canadian has three and Stinnett two boys in the tournament.

Weight classes will be as follows: 75 pounds—Osborne, LeFors, vs. Campbell, Pampa. 85 pounds—Gise, Pampa, vs. Shipman, LeFors. 95 pounds—McKenney, Wellington, vs. Berger, Stinnett. 105 pounds—Cobb, LeFors, vs. Stephens, Pampa. 115 pounds—Kiviehen, Miami, vs. Henry, Stinnett.

125 pounds—McDonald, Pampa, vs. Hughes, LeFors. 135 pounds—Ray, Pampa, vs. Cook, Wellington. 145 pounds—Callaway, Canadian, vs. Bowen, Wellington. 155 pounds—Jennings, Canadian, vs. Silman, Barrick, or Stracener, LeFors. 165 pounds—Mullings, Pampa, vs. Thompson, Wellington. 175 pounds—Osborne, Miami, vs. Bussell, Canadian.

Heavyweight—Carlisle, Pampa, vs. Moulton, Wellington.

Dr. Doman Talks On School Life Of Hungarians

Nicholas R. Doman, Hungarian author and lecturer on international affairs, was a guest speaker in assembly last Wednesday when he addressed the student body on the subject of "Education in Hungary."

Dr. Doman was brought to Pampa by the Rotary club as the third lecturer in their Institute of International Understanding. Next Wednesday Dr. Allen D. Albert of Chicago will be the final speaker in the series. Dr. Albert has traveled extensively in Europe and the Orient and was formerly editor and publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune.

Has Keen Sense of Humor Dr. Doman displayed a keen sense of humor which kept the student body entertained throughout his talk. He discussed grade schools, high schools, and universities in Hungary, showing that the Hungarian methods of conducting classes are quite different from ours.

High school students have to address their teachers as "Miss High School Professor" and "Mr. High School Professor." There are no co-educational high schools in Hungary. Hungarian girls are required to wear uniforms to school but do not like to wear them.

Limited Curriculum Instead of being offered a wide range of subjects as in this country, Hungarian students are required to study only a few subjects. Examinations in Hungary are much "stiffer" than in the typical American high school.

Holidays observed in Hungarian schools about the same as in this country, except that school is dismissed on the birthdays of the superintendent and principal. Classes take up at 8 o'clock in the morning and are dismissed about 1:30 in the afternoon. There is no lunch hour; however there is a breakfast period about 11:30. Dr. Doman explained that Hungarian boys and girls eat five times daily—breakfast at 7:30 and again at 11:30, lunch at 2, tea at 5, and dinner in the evening.

After completing his talk, Dr. Doman answered questions asked by students.

Sport Lites--By LANE

Sports will reign in Pampa this week when the athletic events of the Interscholastic league district meet get underway. Also the tournament of champions of the Panhandle Plains High School Boxing league will be staged here Friday night.

Winning schools from ten county teams and the two city systems Pampa and Borger, will be represented in four divisions of sports in the district two meet of the Interscholastic league. Track and field contests will lead all the sports events in popularity, and fans are invited to attend the meet. A grandstand will be erected to accommodate spectators at the track field west of Harvester park.

Boys' and girls' tennis, as well as girls' volleyball, will attract their share of attention. Tennis will be held at the courts in the central park, while volleyball will be held in the gymnasium.

Golf, the fourth athletic event on the league program, will be played on the country club course. A mistake was made in this column last week. Jos instead of Lloyd Blackwood is a member of the golf team.

Coach Odus Mitchell has announced that football spring training will begin a week from today. Although many football prospects are out for track to get in condition, others are conditioning. Coach Mitchell urges all prospects to begin conditioning now, as spring training has been limited by interscholastic league rulings to one calendar month. Therefore it is vitally necessary that all prospects be in shape so that actual football work can be started immediately without delay for conditioning.

Herbert Maynard, Harvester center last year, received a compound fracture of a leg in a car-motor cycle accident recently. Herbert was an outstanding player on the football team last season and was interested in boxing this season.

Volley Ball Girls Defeat LeFors But Lose To Groom Groom continues to be the chief competitor of the district tournament, as far as Pampa is concerned. Groom is the only team that has defeated Pampa girls have not been able to defeat this season.

During the past week Pampa played matches with LeFors and Groom. Pampa won the first match by a score of 15-7, 15-5, 15-8. Peggy Wilkinson was high point player in the games.

Thursday the team went to Groom and lost the three-out-of-five match when Marcene Berry was high point player of the series. Scores were 4-15, 7-15, 15-7, 7-15.

Borger will be the next foe of the team when the teams meet at Borger tomorrow afternoon. Girls who have won places on the first team are Marcene Berry, Virginia Fore, Peggy Wilkinson, Evadene Bennett, Martha Orr, and Geneva Binion. Virginia Mae Prestidge is the first string substitute.

Practice matches will be held every day next week in order that the team will be ready for the district meet here April 12-13.

Six F. F. A. Boys Go To District Judging Contest At Lubbock

Six Pampa boys, accompanied by J. L. Lester, vocational agriculture instructor, went to Lubbock Friday to compete in the annual district judging contest held there Saturday.

Billy West, Marvin Burke, and Calvin Skaggs judged poultry. Livestock judges were W. C. Epperson, Leonard Hollis, and Herndon Sloan.

Districts one and two, covering approximately one-fifth of the state, combined for the annual judging contest, in which 34 poultry judging teams and 22 livestock judging teams were entered.

"Although the Pampa boys did not rank among the five winning teams, they worked hard and did a good job," said Mr. Lester, who also commended the good behavior of the boys.

The group returned to Pampa yesterday.

One-Act Play Wins State Three Times Since 1929

When the cast of this year's contest play enter competition in the district meet of the Interscholastic league here next Thursday, they will have a long record of fine performances and many honors in the one-act play contest to live up to.

Four girls, Jeanne Lively, Betty Plank, Allene Beville, and Vera Lee von Brunow, comprise the cast of Pampa's play, "Overtones," which is directed by Kenneth Carman. Mr. Carman has directed one cast which won the state contest.

Since 1929, evidently the first year Pampa High entered the contest, Pampa's play has won first in state three times and placed third in state once—a record unequalled by any other high school in Texas. In 1929 the comedy, "Thursday Evening," under direction of Miss Yolva Reed, placed second in the district meet, which was then held at Canyon and was about the equivalent of the present regional meet.

In 1930 "The Valiant," directed by Miss Arless O'Keefe, took second place in the regional meet, which included a large territory than the present regional organization. The following year "Submerged" with an all boy cast won the district at Canyon and went to regional. Then in 1932 came the first state winner, "The Mad Breakfast," which was directed by the "High Heart" took second place in district. All the plays from 1930 through 1933, including the state winning play, "He," were directed by Miss O'Keefe.

In 1934 the first contest play directed by Ben Guill won first in state. It was "Smoke Screen." That year Imogene Hollenbeck won the Until 1934 the district meet was held at Canyon, and a regional meet covering about a fourth of the state was held before the state meet. In 1934 Pampa was made district headquarters of the interscholastic league for 10 counties and the two city units, Pampa and Borger. The regional meet at Canyon includes four similar district, Texas is divided into eight regions, and winners of regional meets go to state.

Oilers Report For Season's First Workout

More Players Expected To Arrive Today

Despite winter weather which was more favorable for ice hockey or football, several Pampa Oilers prospects were at Road Runner park yesterday afternoon limbering up for the opening of the spring training season today. The boys ran around the field, included in pepper games and even hit a few as pitchers limbered stiff arms.

Manager Grover Seitz expected boys on every train and bus today. He didn't, however, expect more than half of the boys who wrote asking for a chance to report.

An infielder and outfielder arrived last night. They were Roland Rains, an outfielder, and Dick Boman, an infielder. Rains looked like a good prospect, standing 5 feet 11 inches and weighing 180 pounds. Boman, a San Angelo boy, is supposed to be a speed demon.

On hand yesterday were Lefty Dilbeck and Gus Hallbourg, from last year's Oilers. Lefty Summers, veteran catcher, the three boys who arrived from San Diego, Calif., four from Independence, Kas., Fred Boswell, an outfielder from the Big Spring sandlots who moved to Pampa to make his home a few weeks ago, and others.

Scheduled to arrive today were Sam Malvi-a, shortstop, Jerry Jordan, third baseman, both 1939 Oilers, Merle Adams and Johnny Williams from Chicago, and many others. Missing will be "Hook" Stratton of McLean who is playing the game of war for Uncle Sam.

Most kitchens player on the field yesterday was Lloyd Summers. The wedding catcher is already five pounds under his playing weight last season and he said he plans to lose another five pounds.

Although heavier than last season, Hallbourg said he was in fine shape and ready to go. Time of future workouts were to be set this afternoon.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—The Chicago Cubs called on Dizzy Dean to make his belated pitching debut today against the St. Louis Browns. Manager Gabby Hartnett didn't say how far he expected the great one to go, but Dean announced "I'll go as far as I can."

HUTCHINSON, Kan.—Frankie Frisch, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is much improved after treatment for a cold that settled in his throat. He left a Wichita hospital yesterday and moved into a hotel. The Pirates hoped he might motor here today for their game with the Chicago White Sox.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Earl Brucker is building himself a reputation as a pinchhitter with the Philadelphia Athletics. Several days ago he hit a home run with two on against Pittsburgh. Yesterday his pinch triple with the bases loaded beat Dallas.

HUTCHINSON, Kan.—The Chicago White Sox are planning to open the season without Jackie Hayes at second base. An eye infection has failed to respond to treatment. Eric McNair has been shifted to the second and rookie Bob Kennedy is at third.

SHREVEPORT, La.—Young Max Lanier may prove the answer to the St. Louis Cardinals' need for another starting pitcher. Manager Ray Blades praised the 24-year-old lefthander's work against Houston yesterday when he spread four hits and one run over six innings.

ANDERSON, S. C. Babe Young, the fellow Bill Terry said would be his first baseman this season, has just about lost out altogether. Johnny McCarthy and Zeke Bonura have taken over. McCarthy has hit three homers and leads the club in runs batted in with 14. Bonura, the chunky chunker, has never failed to shine when used.

ROANOKE, Va.—"We are definitely the club to beat for the pennant," insisted Manager Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds today. "I don't see any reason why we shouldn't."

His observation was strengthened by the good showing of Johnny Vander Meer against the Boston Red Sox Saturday when he struck out five, allowed three hits and three walks in three innings.

Mexicans Rally Behind Cardenas

MEXICO CITY, April 8 (AP)—Ignoring partisan differences, labor and political groups today rallied behind President Cardenas' administration and joined the press in bitterly denouncing a United States proposal for arbitration of the two-year-old controversy over expropriation of American oil interests.

News of the United States suggestion, the government's preparations to answer it and a swiftly organized campaign to consolidate public opinion virtually pre-empted the front pages of the nation's newspapers, both conservative and progressive.

Press comment referred to the proposal as a "Yankee assault" and "imperialist aggression," and predicted that it would be flatly rejected.

Messages reflecting the solidarity of normally divergent groups poured in on the government.

The permanent committee of congress, which sits between regular legislative sessions, was summoned to meet today to study the United States proposal.

Gangling Oklahoman, Split To Armpits, May Be First Jumper To Hit Seven Feet

By JERRY BRONFIELD
NEA Service Sports Writer

Don Boydston was coming along quite well as a basketball player at Sand Springs, Okla., high school when someone took a second look at his chassis and suggested he go out for track and maybe do a little high-jumping.

The suggestion probably will go a long way because now they're talking in terms of 6 feet 10 inches—and better—for the unheralded Oklahoma A. and M. sophomore.

Making his debut as a varsity man in Fort Worth a couple of weeks ago, Boydston leaped 6 feet 8 1/2 inches, higher than anyone in this country has done in more than a year.

Officials shoved the bar up to 6 feet 10, which is three-quarters of an inch above the recognized world record shared by the negroes, Dave Albritton of Ohio State and Cornelius Johnson, the tall young man of Compton, Calif.

Boydston lifted himself over the bar but a trailing elbow knocked it off on his way down.

STANDS 6-2, WEIGHS ONLY 145 POUNDS
Joshingly referred to as the home-liest man on Coach Ralph Higgins' squad, Boydston has black, curly hair that never stays put. He is gaunt of face and thin-chested. Standing 6 feet 2 and weighing but 145 pounds his legs look as though they're split to his armpits.

Boydston uses a short approach, taking only a few slow steps to gain perfect footwork and timing. He takes off with his left foot, using a variation of the western roll combined with a right leg flutter kick at the top of his leap which jerks him up another inch or two.

As a high school junior he could do no better than 5 feet 9 inches. As a senior he won the state scholastic crown at 6 feet 1.

He began his real sky-climbing as a freshman at Stillwater and did 6-4.

FAVORED TO WIN NATIONAL COLLEGIATE
Boydston is improving so rapidly it will come as a surprise to very few southwest critics if he sets a world record of 6 feet 10 inches this spring.

Most high jumpers will tell you that any man who does 6-10 is a cinch to do seven feet because the clearance on perfect jumps often is by an inch or two. Virtually unknown until recently, Boydston already is favored to win the National Collegiate title.

"He's the finest natural jumper I've ever seen," says Higgins. "They wouldn't believe me last year when I told 'em I had a freshman who'd be doing 6-3 in a year."

Majoring in physical education, Boydston in his spare time is sports editor of the school daily. You'd never know he was on the track team by reading one of his stories. "That's most he'll say for himself!"

"Among other entries in the meet will be Sophomore Don Boydston in the high jump."

Three Persons Dead In Louisiana Storm

AMITE, La., April 8 (AP)—Citizens and relief agencies toiled today to clear Amite of tangled debris in the wake of a tornado which left three persons dead here, 25 seriously injured and property damage estimated at $500,000.

Another tornado at Barataria, 100 miles away, caused widespread damage and took at least one life, with another person missing.

The dead at Amite were C. C. Pittman, 50, superintendent of Tangipahoa parish schools, his wife, 47, and Oliver Ruters, 64-year-old negro.

Mrs. Albert Guillie, 24, drowned at Barataria in the picturesque bayou country when a tornado splintered a houseboat. Her husband, 38, is missing. Several homes and houseboats were wrecked, but there were few serious injuries. Damage there was unestimated.

The two tornadoes and smaller storms in Mississippi, Alabama and Florida early yesterday developed from a low pressure area which moved northeastward out of Texas Saturday.

The twister here flattened six square blocks of the business area, destroyed 55 homes, damaged nearly 100 more and made 700 persons homeless.

Amite, a town of 3,000 population, is in the heart of the rich strawberry belt.

Terrified residents groped about in the darkness in their night clothes after the vicious twister raged diagonally across the town.

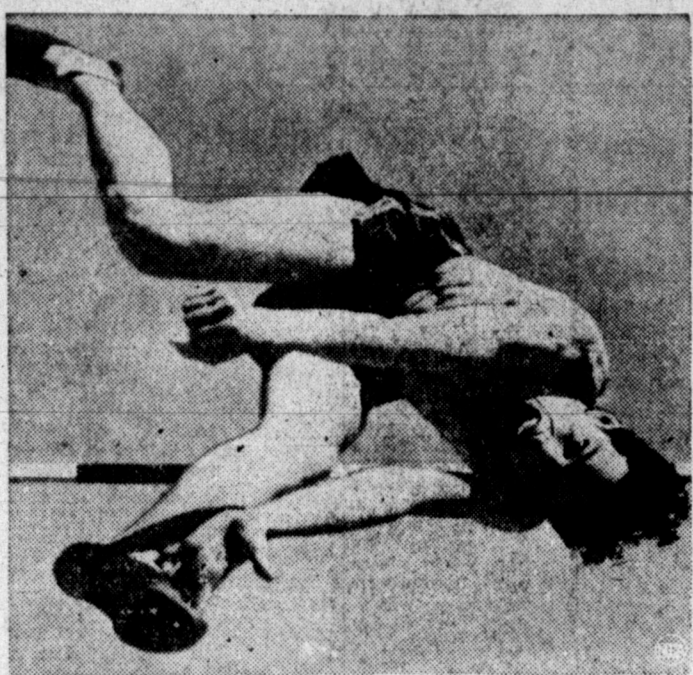

Bauxite Shipment From Yugoslavia At Italian Port

ROME, April 8 (AP)—The German freighter Ankara arrived safely at Trieste today with 5,000 tons of bauxite from Yugoslavia, carried through Yugoslav and Italian territorial waters on a test trip which Germans hoped would open up a new blockade-puncturing route for war supplies.

British warships were believed to be in the Adriatic and had been reported planning to halt such a shipment, but the Ankara, which left Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia, reached Trieste after what her Captain described as an uneventful trip.

Once the goods reach Trieste, they may be transhipped to Germany by rail.

Meanwhile Italy kept an alert eye on developments in Scandinavia, watching the allied blockade tightening there for signs of any possible extension to the Adriatic.

Reds And Cards In Cellar

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of the nicest things about baseball's spring grapefruit league is that every team in it can be a winner—and if a couple of the members step lively in the final week of the campaign all accomplish it.

By simply picking up victories against minor league opponents the major league clubs can offset defeats they hand each other.

As a result the only two clubs with less than a 50-50 break in the win and lost column are the Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals.

The Reds, who have played 29 of their 23 games against big league opponents, are only one victory short of the even-steps standard and the Cardinals are within shooting range at 12-15.

The clubs will reach their home ports this week and some of them will have city series for a climax.

Many Visitors Will Attend Boxing Meet Friday Night

Although the time has arrived for the sound of ball hitting bat, the swish of spikes on the cinder track and the thud of footballs in spring training, boxing hasn't taken its final bow this season. On Friday night the first Tournament of Champions ever held in the Pampa high school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A challenge has been issued to Pampa boxing fans by other cities in the Panhandle. Plains High School boxing league that more out-of-town fans will be in the stands than Pampans. In fact, Coach Toby Waggoner of LeFors is nearly ready to bet that there will be more LeFors people in the gymnasium than Pampans.

LeFors put nearly 800 fans in their gymnasium two weeks ago for the final bouts in the south half of the league to set a new record. More than 1,000 are expected to be here Friday night when the champions of the north and south districts of the league meet to decide league titlists.

LeFors will send five boys, Wellington six and Miami two to represent the south half. From the north Pampa will have seven boys, Canadian three and Stinnett three. All weights from 65 pounds to the heavyweight will be contested.

The five-year-old died Sunday at Hollywood Park here, despite transfusions from a mule, Tiajuana Red, which had recovered from the lock-jaw with which Profundo was stricken.

No Man's Land Game Preserve For East Texans

DALHART, April 8 (AP)—When Boss Neff, 73, came to Oklahoma's No Man's Land in 1882 there was an abundance of buffalo, deer, antelope, lobes, mustangs and wildfowl of every description.

There isn't much he can do, he says to bring back the buffalo, deer and lobes, but he believes wildfowl left the country because deprived of cover and nesting ground rather than because of hunting.

Neff, credited with being the earliest living settler of No Man's Land, resides at Hooker, Okla., and to test his ideas on restoration of wildfowl is setting up a ten-acre game preserve on his Beaver river ranch.

It will lie along the river but be above flood line. It has an abundance of natural plum thickets and Neff will plant trees and vines. He plans to grow his own posts on the tract and to have plenty of fruit for his household.

Father Leaves Daughter In Car Parked For The Night

MACON, Ga., April 8 (AP)—A man parked his car in a storage garage for the night and left for his hotel. A little later he reappeared at the garage.

"I left something in my car," he said, mopping his brow.

Sure enough, he had. His six-year-old daughter was fast asleep in the back seat.

Demaret the person is an easy man to describe. He's colorful, he has the biggest and readiest grin this side of the Grand Canyon, and he has a tremendous flair for making friends.

Demaret the golfer is something else again. There isn't anything overwhelmingly spectacular about any part of his game. He neither hits tremendous drives, nor is he a cinch to can any putt from within a 20 foot radius of the cup.

His secret, we believe, is the natural ease and grace with which he hits everything. In that respect Demaret is the day's nearest approach to the "old masters"—Jones, Hagen, Sarazen. He also is amazingly accurate.

Besides being champion of the masters, Demaret now also is the undisputed king of the winter tour which ended with that tournament.

He is the leader in the Vardon trophy race (267 points to 215 for Ben Hogan) and in money winning $7,652 to Hogan's $6,538. He started in twelve tournaments, won six of them, and was out of the money in only three.

Bodies Wash Ashore After Sea Battle

OSLO, April 8 (AP)—A Norwegian schooner reached Norway today with between 40 and 50 German and British seamen aboard and half a dozen bodies on deck following a battle in the North Sea in which a British vessel and a German submarine were sunk.

According to the crew of the schooner two German submarines attacked the British vessel which was armed.

The schooner herself was so close to the battle that she was damaged slightly from the explosion of a torpedo.

It was reported from several points along the west Norway coast that the bodies were being washed ashore. Reports stated that the dead were believed to be from a German troop transport.

White Deer Home Economics Meet Attended By 141. WHITE DEER, April 5.-In spite of the bad weather, 141 girls and their sponsors.

Registration began at 9 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Josephine Powers.

After the business session, an amateur hour was held with each school presenting a stunt.

During the business session held at 1:30, a representative of each town told of the accomplishments of her club.

Clayds Armstrong, area supervisor, announced that an emblem, designed by the girls, and similar to that of the P. F. A., would be adopted.

Glenn P. Davis led the group in a "sing song" the feature of which was an impromptu teachers' chorus.

At 3 o'clock, tea was served in the Home Economics department, with Juanita Colgrove as hostess and Mildred Haggerty and Virginia Clegg presiding at the tea table.

Republicans Urge New Trade Proposals. WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)-Creation of an independent agency to direct America's foreign commerce was suggested by prominent republicans.

President Roosevelt had signed the administration bill extending the reciprocal trade program.

Republican members of the House Ways and Means committee asked appointment of a special 15-man group to give Congress recommendations for a permanent tariff and foreign trade program along specified lines.

This new system, the committee proposed, would be administered by an independent agency which would take over certain functions of the tariff commission.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)-Motors and specialties commanded a following for gains of fractions to around 1/16 at the best in today's stock market.

Stocks did well for a while, but backed away when the American Iron & Steel Institute estimated this week's mill operations of 4 of a point at 61.3 per cent of capacity.

Wheat closed 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher compared with Saturday's finish, May $1.04 1/2, July $1.03-1.03 1/2, Corn 3/4 off to 1/4 up, May 73 1/2, July 75 1/2, Oats 3/4-3/8.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)-The unbroken wheat belt moisture situation continued to disturb the grain market today.

Overcast precipitation in the soft winter wheat area and in Kansas and Nebraska as well as the Pacific northwest caused a new selling which lowered prices as much as 1/2 cent at one time but there were frequent rallies which, on one occasion, lifted the market to small net gains.

Wheat closed 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher compared with Saturday's finish, May $1.04 1/2, July $1.03-1.03 1/2, Corn 3/4 off to 1/4 up, May 73 1/2, July 75 1/2, Oats 3/4-3/8.

Powdered Grass Urged As Food

CINCINNATI, April 8 (AP)-"Please pass the grass" will be good dinner table etiquette if science confirms that man can eat grass as reported to the American chemical society here today.

Powdered grass would be used in a shaker about as sparingly as salt. It would furnish all the vitamins that come from all the fruits and vegetables to dessert.

Chemical analysis shows grass contains all the vitamins from J, the B-complex, iron, calcium, potassium, sodium, phosphorus, magnesium, zinc, copper, manganese, selenium, and cobalt.

Grass has 29 times more A than the fruits and vegetables, 8 times more B-1, the nerve vitamin, 21 times more B-2, the growth vitamin, and 14 times more C, the anti-scurvy vitamin.

Twelve pounds of grass was said to be a little more than equal in vitamins to the 340 pounds of fruits and vegetables which dietary surveys find the average person eats in one year.

Museum Dioramas Planned By Federal Coronado Officials. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 8 (AP)-The Federal Coronado Commission is giving consideration to cooperation with the West Texas Museum Association for dioramas telling the romantic story of the Spur, the Matador, the JA and other great ranches.

The dioramas would be housed as permanent exhibits in the museum at Texas Tech in Lubbock, Texas, and would be part of the U. S. Coronado Exposition Commission's permanent program.

A similar program for exhibits has been approved for the West Texas Teachers College museum at Canyon, Texas.

George C. Dickens, executive officer of the federal commission, announced plans to visit Lubbock within two or three weeks about the request. He said he would inspect the museum, and meet with its directors and members of the Texas Coronado commission.

"We are giving careful consideration to the Texas Tech exhibit," explained Dickens. "The elaborate program of exhibits that has been set up already by the federal commission obligates practically all of the funds now available."

One of the dioramas for the Canyon Teachers' museum is a horse wrangling scene on the famous old T-Achard ranch. It is now being exhibited here and soon will be moved to Canyon.

Clinton P. Anderson, managing director of the commission, explained the museum program is aimed at perpetuating the story of the livestock business of the Southwest. A comparatively small number of dioramas are planned, but of a quality to set a new standard for the region.

SERIAL STORY

K. O. CAVALIER BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

Copyright 1940, NEA Service, Inc.

YESTERDAY: Val finds Eddie a more likable chap than she had imagined. Eddie accepts Wong as a pal, and the Chinese cook explains that sensibleness is the cause of the manager's illness. Even Eddie thinks Val's story on Kello's "poisoning" is great.

CHAPTER X

THE sun hid behind a big, dark cloud the next morning but the sea was calm. Eddie took a dozen turns around deck to get loosened up and then worked out on the light bag while Mike Kelly skipped rope.

"Okay," said Pop. "Let's go, now. About five rounds, fairly fast, will do it."

Val sidled up to the veteran trainer as the two fighters climbed between the ropes.

"How's Duffy this morning?" she inquired.

"No better. He can't look foot straight in the face. Not even orange juice. He just lays there and moans. He tried to get up once and almost fell flat on his face."

"Such a pity," she murmured. And then, business-like: "Pop—what do you think? About him, I mean," nodding toward Eddie who was having his hands bandaged by Kelly.

"He's in great shape," said Pop. "He didn't need much more than this. Just somethin' to taper off with. But you gotta admit that this is no place for a fighter to taper out so far in his career."

"Granted. So what? Anyhow, go on and bandage Mike's hands and let them get going."

Mike shuffled out and met Eddie in midring. "Throw everything you got, Mike," Eddie told him. "Don't be afraid to belt me one."

Mike grunted and stuck a left out experimentally. Eddie blocked it, bobbed low and "knew" his right. It landed on Kelly's ribs but Mike worked in close and shot a left and right of his own to Eddie's midsection.

He worked Cavalier into a corner, jabbed a left and swung a hard right but his target had vanished. Eddie's chair empty.

But he had his answer when she came out of the galley with a tray of hot biscuits. She went back in and came out with two big pots of coffee.

"What's this?" he asked Barney couldn't have done any better. I've seen a lot of 'em," he confided, "but this kid has 'em all beat. "Time!" he shouted, looking at his watch.

THEY rested for a minute and then went at it again. For five rounds it was a fast pace. Mike Kelly threw everything he had but Eddie slipped the punches, blocked beautifully and peppered Mike with stinging lefts and rights.

"Couldn't have gone another round," Mike panted when it was over. "The legs, the old legs ain't what they used to be."

"You're a good boy, Mike," Eddie told him.

"How about you, Eddie?" Pop rubbed him off with a towel.

"How's the wind?" "It was breathing heavily but not too hard," "Swell, Pop, swell. Could've gone five more just like that. Honest, Pop, straight stuff. Y'know, I think this salt sea air is doing a lot for me."

"What'd I tell you," said Val, leaning on the ropes. "You'll owe me a debt of gratitude yet."

"Incidentally," she said, sauntering over while Pop was stripping the bandages from his hands. "It wouldn't make me too mad if you won. In fact, I'd consider taking a lot of credit for it if you do. Maybe later on I could do a yarn on how I shanghaied Eddie Cavalier into the middleweight championship."

He drew the towel around his neck and got into his sweater. "You really wouldn't be such a disagreeable sort of wench if you could just forget your newspaper angles for a minute. You're so all wrapped up in cold print I'm beginning to believe you have ink in your veins instead of blood."

"Astounded, she watched him duck down the companionway with Mike.

That, Val Douglas thought to herself, was the most startling thing any man had ever told her.

Ink in her veins instead of blood! She had to grin in spite of herself. She glanced at Pop Grimes and he stuck his hands in his pockets and turned away whistling. He hadn't missed a thing.

EDDIE CAVALIER looked across the table at noon mess and was somewhat surprised when he saw Val's chair empty.

But he had his answer when she came out of the galley with a tray of hot biscuits. She went back in and came out with two big pots of coffee.

"What's this?" he asked Barney

MacGregor. "Who's the new galley hand?"

Barney speared a biscuit with a fork. "It seems we had a mutiny on our hands," he said. "You got Wong Lee so scuppered with your special diets and such he says he quits unless he gets help. Well, sir, Captain Hansen didn't feel like assigning one of the able-bodied hands so Miss Douglas ups and volunteers."

Eddie Cavalier's mirth was almost uncontrollable. He laughed until the table shook. Pop took a hand after Eddie had knocked over a glass of water into his lap.

"What's so funny, Pretty Pants?" Val asked in a hard, brittle voice. "Maybe you'd like to drop in here and do a little potato peeling and pot-scouring yourself."

His face froze immediately. She took her place at the table and filled her cup with coffee.

"Report to Wong Lee this afternoon at two bells," she said grimly. "This'll make a story, too."

Barney MacGregor conveniently choked on a piece of biscuit behind his napkin.

EDDIE CAVALIER stared aghast at the pile of potatoes Wong Lee placed before him.

Eddie had never seen so many potatoes at one time. Big ones, little ones, medium sized ones. Sand-covered, grimy potatoes. He snorted disgustedly.

"Hey, Wong. There's enough here to feed the whole merchant marine. I'll take me 30 days to get these peeled."

"Only 25 pounds," Wong informed him. "No take long. Two hour, mebbe, if you work chop-chop."

Val came in about an hour later. "How's he getting along, Wong?" Wong shook his head sadly. "Better we cook peels. Have more potatoes that way."

"So I notice," Val murmured. "But don't get discouraged, Mister Cavalier. You've only got about 12 pounds to go."

"I'd rather fight 12 rounds," he said gloomily and she laughed.

"Say, Wong," he inquired curiously when he had finished. "How do you find time to get these spuds peeled when you're here by yourself?"

Wong pointed over in a corner. "We use 'lectric peeler," he said blandly. "Take mebbe 15 minutes."

Eddie dropped his paring knife into the huge pot at his feet. "That dame's humor kills me," he moaned. "If I thought there were any sharks in these waters I'd throw her overboard."

Socialists Name Thomas, Krueger For President

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Norman Thomas, white-haired veteran of three presidential races, and Maynard C. Krueger of Chicago, 34-year-old economist, professor, will carry the socialist banner in the 1940 campaign.

They were nominated unanimously for president and vice president, respectively, at the socialist party convention late yesterday.

Both pledged themselves to conduct a vigorous drive, backed by a $100,000 campaign fund yet to be raised, on a platform calling for complete isolation from the war and socialization of the nation's major industries.

Adoption of the complete platform was delayed until the final convention session today.

Until their main drive in August, Thomas said they would warm up with workers' picnics, college youth meetings and the like.

Thomas delivered an acceptance speech after a 15-minute demonstration, saying: "I make no prophecy of the size of our vote. But this I affirm: If we can make our fellow citizens stop and listen to our program for keeping America out of war and abolishing poverty, if we can make our words stick like a burr on their minds and consciences in this hour of darkness, doubt and confusion, we shall not have failed."

Two Cities To Take Rio Grande Power

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—The reclamation bureau said today that it was prepared to sell 40,000,000 kilowatt hours of energy annually from the Elephant Butte dam on the Rio Grande river in New Mexico to the El Paso (Texas) electric company.

Officials added that the bureau also would sell 6,000,000 KWH annually to another (unnamed) private utility company serving Las Cruces, N. M.

Contracts, they said, have been approved by the bureau, signed by the purchasers, and await only the signatures of R. F. Weller, the bureau's chief engineer at Denver, Colo.

Authorities said the contracts were for 20 years and that the El Paso company would pay the government $140,000 annually for the service. They had no estimate on the cost of the Las Cruces service.

CAIRO, EGYPT, April 8 (AP)—Young King Farouk and Queen Farida of Egypt have a new baby—not the crown prince that Egyptians had hoped for, but a second girl.

Salutes of 41 guns were fired when the child was born yesterday. She will be named Farwa, after the King's eldest sister.

Convicted Slayer Flees Odessa Jail

ODESSA, April 8 (AP)—Isabella Messmer, brunette under sentence for the slaying of Buford Armstrong, baseball player, escaped tonight from the new Ector county jail, officers revealed today.

Clad in brown slacks, she cracked open the door of her cell with a piece of metal broken from the iron cot, broke a window in the run-around, and somehow made her way to the ground from the third floor of the building.

Saturday she was denied a trial for the slaying, for which she had been sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary.

Ector county officers theorize the slightly-built woman climbed down lattice work one floor, descended the other two by some unknown means. They started an investigation into the escape, but admitted they were without any clues as to what direction she had taken.

Prisoners in the same cell block would not talk about the escape. The woman was alone in her cell.

Armstrong was slain March 31, 1939. His body was found the next day in a tourist cabin. He had been shot to death by a .32 caliber pistol and a nation-wide search was started for a woman who had called a taxicab near the scene of the killing, after telling a justice of the peace "I have just had some trouble with a man."

Once during her trial, the Messmer woman attempted to make a break away from officers toward a window in the courtroom, but was intercepted.

NEWARK, N. J., April 8 (AP)—Isabella Messmer, who escaped last night from the Ector county, Tex., jail, fled in the same cell block women at Clinton Jan. 20, 1939, after serving one year of an indeterminate sentence for atrocious assault and battery.

Newark police charged the brunette girl ran down a city detective and gave police an 80-mile-an-hour automobile chase.

Judge Richard B. Hartshorne, in sentencing Miss Messmer, said she had "relied too long on a pretty face."

New Jersey authorities filed a detainer against her when she was captured in St. Louis last October.

Smoke Pours From Mauna Loa Volcano

HILO, Hawaii, April 8 (AP)—Smoke billowed from red-glowing Mokuawewe crater on Mauna Loa today in the first eruption of the volcano since December, 1935, when rivers of lava approached dangerously near Hilo.

The eruption began shortly after midnight and cast a dull red glow over the side of the mountain facing Hilo.

William Jarratt, in charge of the Waimea CCC camp on Mauna, Loa, said there was no lava spilling from the crater at 1 a. m. (5:30 a. m., CST.)

the tribunal's century of existence, scholarly Judge Calvin Maples Jureton was born September 1, 1874, in Walnut Springs of Bosque county and once was called "a great lawyer, great judge and a great citizen."

An authority on constitutional law, he was the son of a successful rancher and grandson of a pioneer soldier and Indian fighter.

He became chief justice Dec. 2, 1921, and was elected four times thereafter, the last time without opposition. His services on the bench exceeded by one year that of Chief Justice John Hemphill, who was chief justice from 1840 to 1858.

Described by associates as one of the hardest-working men they knew, Judge Jureton was well read in the history of government, classic literature, geology, botany, economics, architecture, music and other subjects.

go. The allies, while in good shape and rapidly getting better, can't reach their peak for maybe another year.

This being so, should Hitler strike quickly, especially while he still has that vital air superiority upon which he has been banking so much? Experts don't believe the allies could catch up in the air service before next year.

Hitler has to consider that if he is tight and tries to beat the allies at their strangulation game he is making a huge gamble on being able to get supplies from the European neutrals. He might get them, but it is at least equally possible that he couldn't.

Hospital Dismisses Women Hurt In Crash

Mrs. Andrew Moore and Mrs. Clyde Martin were dismissed today from Worley hospital, following treatment given for injuries received in an automobile accident east of LeFors Saturday night.

Mrs. Moore suffered cuts and bruises and Mrs. Martin a broken arm.

The accident occurred when the automobile in which Mr. and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Martin were riding was in collision with a car of W. L. Clauson of Sudan, Texas.

Damage In Crockett Fire Set At $60,000

CROCKETT, April 8 (AP)—Loss was unofficially estimated at $60,000 today in a fire which last night threatened an entire business block before it was controlled with assistance of the Trinity and Grapeland fire departments.

The blaze started in the auditorium theater and spread to the J. C. Showwell electric supply store and the A. B. Rush cafe before it was halted. The theater building was regarded as a total loss.

Phillips To Hold Pie Supper Tonight

Pampans are invited to attend a pie supper at the Phillips Community hall, 10 miles south of the city, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The pie supper is being sponsored by women of the production department with proceeds to be placed in the flower fund. Women attending are asked to take a pie to be auctioned off during the evening.

NLRB Loses In Court Ruling

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—The supreme court refused today to review a national labor board order directing the Republic Steel corporation to reinstate 5,000 or more Ohio employees who participated in the 1937 "little steel" strike.

This left in effect a decision by the federal circuit court at Philadelphia sustaining the reinstatement order except for 40 employees.

The cost of the order to the Republic Steel corporation, the labor board said, must await future determination.

A petition for a review of the circuit court ruling, asked by a group of unions of the corporation's employees known as the "Central Council of Steel Plants," also was denied by the high court. The board had ordered their disestablishment on the ground they were "company dominated."

Scientists Take Eclipse Pictures

CHisos MOUNTAINS, Big Bend, Texas, April 8 (AP)—High in these mountains that Mexicans call "ghosts," four scientists today snapped pictures of the sun to follow up a photometric study of the surface edge started during yesterday's annular eclipse.

For six minutes yesterday the scientists, using specially made devices, "photographed" the surface brightness of the huge star. They hoped their work will lead to further knowledge of the composition and characteristics of the sun's outer atmosphere.

The expedition will stay until April 10 at its mile high camp, considered ideal for the experiments because of the absence of dust in the atmosphere.

Their pictures yesterday were made just eight miles off the dead center of a 160-mile wide eclipse belt.

The expedition consists of C. T. Elvey, assistant director of the University of Texas observatory; Research Assistant Dr. Fred T. Rogers, Jr., Yerkes observatory, and Assistants Walter Linke and Arch Garner of the huge McDonald observatory, which is operated jointly by the University and Texas and University of Chicago.

Results of the scientists' work will not be established for another week, Dr. Elvey said.

Freedom Of Chloe Davis Court Issue

LOS ANGELES, April 8 (AP)—The freedom of 11-year-old Chloe Davis became a court issue today as police "defended" themselves against charges they were "reluctant" in questioning her about the bloody deaths of her mother, two sisters and a brother.

The girl's father, Barton Davis, was to receive a hearing on his demand for a writ of habeas corpus, to remove the girl from juvenile hall where she has been held on suspicion of murder since the quadruple slayings last Thursday.

Plot To Blow Up Danube And Make It Impassable Claimed

BERLIN, April 8 (AP)—Authorized German sources today revealed to foreign correspondents details of what they described as a gigantic British plot to make the Danube impassable and to carry the war into the Danubian basin—that is, southeastern Europe.

The plotters, these sources said, planned to send a half dozen barges loaded with dynamite up the river, blast the channel and blow up bridges.

More than 100 British army, navy and air force men who were to have participated in the coup were arrested by Rumanian police before they had time to carry out their design, the Germans said. The barge fleet was reported to have been seized at Giurgiu, directly south of Bucharest in Europe.

The chief plotter was described by the Nazis as an English vice consul at Bucharest, who, they said actually was the chief of the British secret service in Rumania.

"This 'breach of neutrality,' these quarters declared, coupled with the 'equally flagrant breach' in Norwegian waters confronted all neutrals with questions of how they are to react in the future to the British-French method of conducting the war.

German officialdom said the Danube plot was a worthy companion piece to the mining of Norwegian waters by the allies, which they said might have "consequences nobody can foresee."

Hogsett Funeral To Be Held Today

Elvin Hogsett, 27, died yesterday morning in a local hospital where he had been confined for the past 37 days. He had been a resident of Pampa for 12 years and was an employee of the Texas Eit Carbon company.

Survivors are the widow, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hogsett of Pampa, and one brother, Roy Hogsett of Woodward, Okla.

Funeral services were to be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the First Christian church by the Rev. B. A. Norris, pastor. Burial was to be in Fairview cemetery under direction of Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

Palbearers named were R. R. Hawkins, Aubrey J. Johnston, Marion W. Moore, Fred H. McWhorter, Clarence Silvers and Marion L. Colgo.

Two Persons Charged In Cowltown Shootings

FORT WORTH, April 8 (AP)—Murder and assault with intent to murder charges were filed today against a man and a woman in connection with two shootings here yesterday.

William R. McClary, 25, was charged with the fatal shooting of Eldridge Jones, 64, a bartender, in an automobile parked on a downtown street.

Dorothy Pendergrass was charged with assault with intent to murder Tollie A. Wiggins, 30. McClary surrendered to police early today.

The woman, in a statement to Assistant District Attorney Ward, said Wiggins had informed her that her acquaintanceship must end.

The shooting of Jones was an outgrowth of an argument between the two men. Jones died at midnight in a hospital.

NORWAY

the guard by foreign warships "cease."

Koht charged Britain with violating an agreement of last March 11 which he said provides that all Norwegian goods, including contraband, could be sent from Norway to Germany.

Koht's statement came as Norwegians heard ominous reports of a gathering of German and British warships.

German Ships Reported
Rumors reaching here from Denmark said 50 German ships of various sizes, including battleships, cruisers and mine-sweepers, were moving north toward the Skagerrak, an arm of the North Sea accessible from the Baltic.

These rumors—impossible to check readily—were that the German force was moving through the Great Belt, a Baltic-North Sea approach flanked by islands that go to make up Denmark. Entrance to the Kattegat and Skagerrak would bring any German force to the southern-most point of Norway.

At the same time, reports from Norwegian coastal points said that British battleships and cruisers had been sighted. Actually, the allied plan of acquainting shipping with the positions of the minefields called for the presence in territorial waters of allied warships.

Koht said that not only would Norway demand removal of the mines but that she "reserves for herself" the right to take any and all steps which may be necessary as a result of such infringement of Norwegian neutrality.

Announcement of the allied action came amid growing agitation in Norway and Sweden for a defense alliance backed by arms and bombing planes.

The Swedish defense staff announced last night that "a certain stiffening of defense preparations has been made because of present conditions," but gave no indication of what measures had been taken.

A Stockholm newspaper, however, reported that Sweden and Norway had ordered 600 war planes in the United States for immediate delivery. It predicted that the two countries would purchase at least 1,000 American pursuit and bombing planes within the next few weeks.

Death Takes Maine Solon, 63, Today

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Rep. Clyde H. Smith of Maine died early this morning, just a day after he had expressed the hope that his district would elect his wife to succeed him. He was 63.

The congressman, a Republican who had served in the house since 1936, died suddenly while his wife, and a nurse were at his bedside. He had been ill of coronary thrombosis since April 3.

He was the 24th member of the 76th Congress to die in office.

Go To Church, Urges Governor O'Daniel

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—Skipping political entirely, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, in his regular broadcast yesterday, urged his listeners to go to church on Sunday.

The governor read a letter from a condemned convict, since electrocuted, who blamed his misfortunes on failure of his parents to take him to Sunday school and church in his youth.

And I furthermore solemnly swear that I have not directly nor indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed nor promised to contribute, any money or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment as a reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected. So help me, God."

The retiring mayor, addressing the new officials said: "This commission wishes you success and assures you of his cooperation for a better Pampa."

Members of the out-going and incoming administrations shook hands and Mayor Carr, and Commissioners Lynn Boyd and D. W. Osborne retired, leaving the city manager to confer with the new commission.

The city's monthly operating costs budget and a copy of a four-page typewritten letter, signed by the retiring officials, and giving an outline of the city's transactions in the proposed purchase of the Southwestern Public Service company's plant, from October 25, 1939 to April 4 of this year, were submitted.

It was on October 25 of last year that the utility concern requested a new 20-year franchise. Four days ago the city commission cancelled an election that had been called for April 25, when voters were to decide on the purchase of the local plant by the city.

Canvassing of the ballots cast in the April 2 election, when Thompson, Wilson, and Cree defeated the incumbents, Carr, Boyd, and Osborne, was made by the out-going commission, following their approval of the bills. In connection with the canvassing it was voted to pay each one of the election officials $5 for their day's services.

During 1938, U. S. national parks were visited by 7,000,000 persons.

Get in . . . and wait for the world to catch up!

UNTIL you drive it, it's impossible to know how far apart Lincoln-Zephyr stands among cars . . . how completely it points the way to a new and far more satisfying motoring world. It was from the start and still is an altogether new kind of car. Its engine is a mighty "12" . . . yet its price is moderate . . . and its owners report operating economy that would be surprising even with fewer cylinders! Its basic construction is unique, with body and frame a single truss-built unit. Its floating ride and almost effortless handling ease never fail to surprise those who experience them for the first time. Its advanced style has changed a nation's tastes in car design. We invite you to try Lincoln-Zephyr yourself. You'll find it still bigger, more powerful, more beautiful this year . . . and you'll know before you've gone a mile that you're well out ahead of the pack!
