'Hands Off Dutch Indies!' Hull Orders

Bluebonnets To Be Sold On Saturday

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt expressed a hope today that the status quo in the whole Pacific area could be maintained in the interests of peace. He stated his view to a press conference when asked for comment on Secretary Hull's statement yesterday that disturbance of the status quo would prejudice the cause of "stability, peace and security not only in the region of the Netherlands Indies but in the entire Pacific area."

British Hold Narvik, Says AP Reporter

(Editor's note: J. Norman Lodge, veteran Associated Press reporter, slipped across the closely guarded Swedish border into northern Norway to obtain the following first-hand account of the situation at Narvik.)

By J. NORMAN LODGE

VANNAAS, Sweden, April 10 (AP)—I have just returned from Narvik after a journey afoot through Norwegian frontiers, only a short distance from the Swedish border. The British are extending their hold in northern Norway. I found British marines in possession of Elvegaard, 10 miles south of Narvik. They also have driven east from Narvik some 15 or 16 miles to Bjorkesen, only a short distance from the Swedish frontier. In between these points the British were established, at Oyjord and Gratjan. They also were holding Evgeilarsmoen, five miles north of Narvik and Jarstad, their main point of debarkation 30 miles farther up the coast.

RESERVE AND GRAND CHAMPIONS OF DOG SHOW

Here are shown the reserve champion, above, and the grand champion, right, of the Pampa News Panhandle Kennel club show held last Sunday. Above is shown John McCarty's colie which won the reserve championship. Holding her leash is Mrs. McCarty. Jake Tartar, of Wheeler, veteran dog judge, is standing in the background. Note the proper show pose the dogs have assumed. Large trophies will be given both champions. The McCarty colie's litter of eight pups won the litter blue ribbon. These pictures were made by Joe Burrow. The News wishes to thank Mr. Burrow for the privilege of using them.

FDR Asks Funds Be Spent In 8 Months

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt proposed today that congress accept his budget recommendation of $975,000,000 for WPA in the next fiscal year but grant him or the WPA commissioner authority to expend the entire sum in eight months, if necessary.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote the speaker of the house that if the $975,000,000 scheduled for expenditure in the year beginning July 1, were spread over 12 months it would provide an average employment of only about 1,300,000.

The president said his budget estimate had been based on hopes for improved employment and business but that those hopes had not been entirely realized.

Partly because it is impossible to tell how the European conflict will affect private industry and private employment, Mr. Roosevelt said, it is difficult to predict the employment volume for the entire 1941 fiscal year.

But omitting any major fluctuations, resulting from events abroad, the president said, private employment in the next fiscal year should be as high as in the current year.

"In my judgement," he wrote the speaker in a letter read to the commissioner of work projects, "the congress could take at this time what would be to appropriate the budget item for the work projects administration but to lodge discretionary authority in me or in the commissioner of work projects to expend this amount in the first eight months of the fiscal year, on condition that unemployment conditions in the country are such as to require such expenditure within this period."

"I can assure you that if this discretionary authority is provided in the appropriation act, the appropriation will not be expended within the eight months unless it is absolutely necessary to avoid suffering and hardship."

The president's remarks on taxes were made to a press conference, held just before his letter on relief was read to the House. In connection with the possibility of larger relief appropriations to cover the full year beginning July 1, Mr. Roosevelt was asked what might happen to the public debt which is nearing the $15,000,000,000 legal limit.

The president replied that Congress might cut his budget estimates for 1941 by a couple of hundred million; that all appropriations voted this session would not necessarily be actually spent in the fiscal year, and that it was possible that tax receipts would be up perhaps $200,000,000 over estimates.

Germany Claims Port Of Narvik

BERLIN, April 18 (AP)—Germany declared today that her forces, repelling Britain on land, in the air and at sea, steadily were strengthening their grip on Norway, political as well as military.

DNB, official German news agency, declared emphatically that Germans hold Narvik "and are in possession not only of the harbor, but of the city."

At 5:05 p. m. (9:05 a. m. CST) the German official radio broadcast a statement that the Norwegian iron ore port and its vicinity are in German hands.

Authorized sources said Norwegian King Haakon VII had recognized the provisional government commission set up in German-occupied areas of his kingdom.

Famous Producer Describes Stage, Costumes, Scenery

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

SEE IT IN PAMPA FIRST!

The biggest show of the U. S. in 1940! The first showing in Texas! It will cost $100,000—donated by the Federal government! It will have the world's largest highest and only steel-supported, portable stage. It will be held in Pampa months before it is shown in Amarillo and Lubbock! Scenes from it will be shown in Life and National Geographic Magazine and every newspaper in the country.

What the Cavalcade of Texas was to 1936, what the Cavalcade of the Golden West was to 1939, the Pampa show will be to Texas.

That's the way Pampans yesterday learned to describe the Coronado Entrada that will be a major attraction of the Top O' Texas Fiesta. It will be staged two nights, and in all probability three nights at the grandstand at Recreation park.

Who do you think will be in the cast of the Coronado Entrada? Guess again, because it is the plan of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Board of City Development to first sign the big names of Pampa on the dotted line.

Yesterday, Jerome Cargill, famed New York show producer who was hired by Congress to stage the Entrada in 14 Texas and New Mexico towns, said that if the reaction here is like it is elsewhere, principal roles in the cast will be played by leading bankers, attorneys, military doctors, merchants, business and professional men and women.

Yesterday at a luncheon, Supt. L. L. Sone, Frank Culbertson, Mayor Fred Thompson, Robert Boshen, Oils Pumphrey were told frankly that they should feel it an honor to be in the spectacular show.

Rehearsals Start May 21

Rehearsals for the Entrada will start in Pampa May 21. A cast of from 500 to 700 will be needed, according to Mr. Cargill who received $10,000 for putting on "Southwest Days" the Yale Rogers celebration held at Amarillo. Mr. Cargill received $30,000 for staging a celebration in the Yale Bowl, in which the Yale dean of men carried the leadership role.

Mr. Cargill in describing the lights to be used said that 100,000 kilowatts would be needed to supply the great lighting system ever assembled for one show. It will take two electricians who travel with the show and several local assistants to operate the lights.

Next Thursday Walter Reeger, Albuquerque, N. M., will bring a tabular size reproduction of the stage, scenery, etc., and samples of all costumes to Pampa to give local committees more information and instruction. Mr. Reeger will also have a script of the production.

To Cost $100,000

Mr. Cargill yesterday painted a word-picture of the show which will be the biggest ever staged in Texas. It will be bigger than the Cavalcade of Texas at the Dallas Centennial and Mr. Cargill has figures to prove it. If Pampa had to buy the show outright, it would cost $100,000. Mr. Cargill said, and no town in Texas could raise that much for a show, he declared, not even Dallas where the state paid for the Cavalcade.

And of the U. S. government hadn't given Texas and New Mexico $200,000 to spend on the Entrada for 14 towns, Pampa wouldn't get such a show. Federal money alone will be responsible for the spectacular show.

The stage will be as big as a football field and will be located about 50 yards in front of the grandstand. The scenery will be built on a framework of safety steel. There will be rods on ramps 25 feet above the first stage, and 115 feet over which armies and animals and vehicles will pass.

There will be horses and oxen and cattle trained to traverse these ramps, and these animals will be the stunt men who will fall off pueblos backward. There will be 12 professional actors with the show. Six of these will be in the sound booth and will speak all the lines of the show through the most expensive sound equipment that money can buy. Actors on the stage won't hear their own voices; they will hear them, because the lines of the Entrada will be spoken by the six men in the sound booth. The other six actors will be on the stage in key roles; although, Mr. Cargill stated, a man to play the role of Coronado should be a Pampan.

"I hope you Pampa people realize, especially prominent leading men of the town, that it will be a great honor and not a task to play the role of Coronado!"

Any Pampa man should feel distinctly honored if he is asked to play any role in this great show!

Because actors on the stage and actors in the sound booth must speak the same lines at the same time, it will be necessary for the cast to memorize the lines. In charge of rehearsal here will be Larry Doyle who directed the Will Rogers show at Amarillo and two assistants, one a local director who will assist in casting and directing. Rehearsals will be held three times a week, and a bulletin board will give a complete schedule of rehearsals.

Mr. Cargill said that rehearsals for the $100,000 show would require a place as large as a basketball gymnasium. He said that the city hall would not be large enough.

Mr. Cargill praised Pampa for being "on the ground floor" when the Entradas were allocated.

Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, President D. L. Parker of the Jaycees and Mr. Cargill all stressed importance of the fact that Pampa will be the third town in the two states to get the brilliant show, and will be the first town in Texas to obtain a presentation. The same show will be staged several months later at Dalhart, Lubbock and Amarillo.

It is predicted that literally hundreds of Amarilloans will come to Pampa to see it, besides great segments of the population of every town in the Panhandle. Local BCB, Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees officials foresee the largest crowd to attend any panhandle show at the Entrada here.

The show will be advertised all over the Panhandle on huge billboards 25 feet long and 12 feet high. At least 60 "24 sheets" will announce in the Coronado red and gold colors and in huge letters that the Coronado Entrada will celebrate the discovery of the Southwest, and that it will consist of a huge cast on the world's largest stage. The billboards will proclaim that in the gold and red conquistador suits will march and pueblo Indian battles will be fought and that it will be a magnificent dramatic spectacle in 18 scenes.

President Parker and Mr. Reeves announced that the tickets to the show will cost only 50 cents each and that intensive ticket drives will be staged by the cast and by other groups. Tickets will be sold in books of five strips, three tickets to the strip for $1. The Pampa officials ordered 2,000 ticket books.

The Entrada will be staged two

Even Band To Be Clad In 'Loud' Bowery Raiment

They used to sing about never going to the Bowery anymore, but they'll all come to Pampa's "Bowery," when the Pampa Jaycees hold another smash-hit dance at the Southern club next Tuesday night.

Even the orchestra—New Bradley's—the musicians who by popular demand are returning to play for a second Jaycee dance here—will be attired in Bowery fashion.

The loud checked suit, glaring colored tie, and the "Bowery" man's haircut and his hair, it is time will be a part of the scene of the dance.

Persons attending the affair are expected to dress in typical Bowery style. Anyone wearing clothes of a different kind is liable to be regarded as a member of an enemy band from a distant borough.

The dance will start at 9:30 o'clock. Proceeds are to be applied on the Junior Chamber of Commerce deficit.

War Flashes

ROME, April 18 (AP)—An exchange of military commissions between Germany and Italy, already joined in a military alliance, was authoritatively announced here today.

The first members of the German mission have arrived in Rome, where it was said their visit was "part of a general program under way since 1938, the purpose of which is to maintain constant contact between the armed forces of the two countries."

LONDON, April 18 (AP)—Norwegian troops still are holding out in the Bolsove forests near the entrance to Oslo Fjord despite German attempts to bomb them into submission, the exchange telegraph agency said today in a dispatch from Goteborg, Sweden.

BERNE, April 18 (AP)—The Swiss federal council, after conferring with General Henri Guisan, commander in chief of the nation's defense forces, today called out an additional 60,000 militia troops, who must join the armed forces between May 6 and July 29. The order is designed to bring Switzerland's forces close to 500,000 men by midsummer.

STOCKHOLM, April 18 (AP)—Reports reaching here today that the Norwegian frontier had been closed to a question of hours before a Norwegian attack started against German positions in the Trondheim district.

Cold Wave Moves Down Into Texas

(By The Associated Press)

A low-pressure storm area moved eastward away from the Texas coast today, its vacuum drawing a new cold wave out of the Panhandle far down into the state.

Freezing weather and a heavy frost, apparently finishing fruit crops which escaped the last freeze a week ago, swept over Amarillo. The temperature there dropped to 25. Damage to other crops, if any, was not determined.

On the coast around Port Arthur, rain fell out of the clouds in a torrent, amounting to three inches in all, an inch of which fell in 15 minutes. The wind and rain moved eastward into Louisiana, Shreveport reporting a heavy rain during the night.

The southwestern end of the coast, meanwhile, reported no rain and temperatures were coming down slightly from the highs of Wednesday. Fair and cooler was predicted for tonight.

Lubbock in the plains south of Amarillo reported 32 degrees. Plainville with 30 degrees suffered fruit damage. To the south temperatures were warmer, Abilene having 43, Dallas, Fort Worth and Corsicana 47, Wichita Falls reported 45, Paris 44.

The cold wave will continue across middle and southern Texas tonight while temperatures in the Panhandle warm up, the weather bureau said.

Two Women's 'Other Selves' Speak Truth About Them In One-Act Play

By THE ROVING REPORTER

Not having seen it, having been busy seeing people about their dogs, how was one to know that Kenneth Cornan had directed the touching, exciting one-act drama which will be staged for the public tomorrow night in the high school auditorium.

There's one thing about going to a play directed by Mr. Cornan—one always enjoys it, whether it be slapstick or drama. Well, it happens that "Overtones," the Interscholastic League play is a drama.

Last night the R. R. got around to seeing the play—at first he could not find it because there was no light in the auditorium, and no stage lights were on; then he saw a vague light glinting on the door. Inside the play was in progress, and the only light used is a spotlight that shines full on two of the four girl characters, and at tense moments on the other two girls.

Pampans will get their last chance to see the play tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock. In addition, the A Cappella choir under the direction of Helen Martin will sing their best concert of the year—it will be their most finished performance. Proceeds will be used to send the choir to the national regional contests at Waco.

The actresses in "Overtones" are Jeanne Lively, who plays the role of the cool, beautiful woman who turned down a poor artist whom she loved to marry a rich man she didn't love; Alene Beville who married the artist and is starting to doubt with him; Vera Lee Von Brunow, Jeanne's mind and conscience; Betty Plank, Alene's other self.

The two "other selves" stand in the shadows, occasionally coming within range of the spotlight, and they speak the consciences of the two women, or what they really think. Jeanne and Alene speak the brittle, sophisticated little white lies they are supposed to do—calm, friendly on the surface, but hating, envious and jealous underneath. The plot of the play rises to a swift, smashing climax and leaves one gripping the edge of the seat.

The play is also an entertaining study of woman's mind. Of course, in the play Jeanne still loves the artist and resolves to have him put her picture so that she can win him back, and Alene is certain her husband loves her.

Particularly interesting are the husk-voiced roles played by Vera Brunow and Betty Plank as the consciences and the better selves of the two women. The single spotlight and the perfect shadows of the girls give the stage setting an ominous, eerie effect that portends deep and bitter tragedy in the offing. Jeanne plays the role of a scheming, beautiful, self-controlled woman who is resolved to steel another woman's husband, and Alene gives a demonstration of a shallow, scatter-brained chatterbox, artificial, unreal, boastful, deceptive, who nevertheless is wise plays the role of a scheming, beautiful, self-controlled woman who is resolved to steel another woman's husband, and Alene gives a PARTNERS IN A GREAT TEXAS ENTERPRISE

Oil

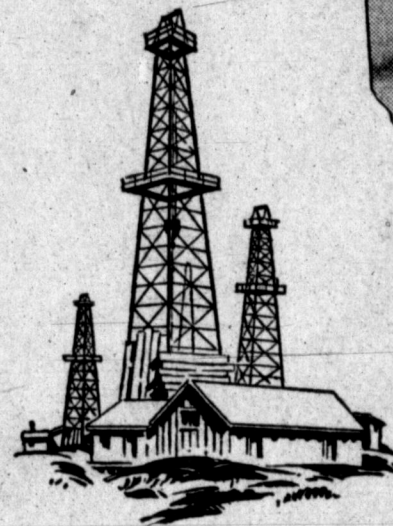

TEXAS farmers and ranchers received last year from oil men the huge sum of $132,478,000 for leases and royalties as their share in this partnership.

All but seven of Texas' 254 counties now share in this cash return from leases and production on more than 50,000,000 acres of Texas land.

Then too, the Texas farmers and ranchers sell to oil workers and their families more than $60,000,000 worth of farm and livestock products each year.

Thus the farmers and ranchers of our state receive nearly 200 million dollars a year as their share of oil's total expenditure of 750 million dollars annually in Texas. These 200 million dollars in turn flow into every channel of Texas trade.

The Texas farmer and rancher and the oil man are partners in the development of Texas.

STINNETT, April 18.—Putting the finishing touches on "Young Lincoln," Director Coy C. Palmer said the Stinnett senior play would be ready for production tomorrow night. The play is in three-acts with prologue and epilogue, and will be presented at the high school auditorium.

Mr. Palmer said that this is one of the most difficult plays ever presented by a high school group in this vicinity. The 16 characters have been working hard on the play for one month, and are adept with the century-old dialogue, according to Director Palmer.

Boxer is Boy Lincoln

In the prologue, Abraham Lincoln is played by Roland Berger, the 95 pound boxing star, as a boy of twelve. Kathleen Lankford plays the part of his mother, and Maxine McPeck portrays the part of Abe's sister Sarah. Junior Flora Brock takes care of the work-beaten old mountain woman, Auntie Sparrow.

In the main part of the play, Valedictorian Tom Luginbyhl, ably portays the part of Abe Lincoln, who jests, courts, and fights himself to the top. Frances Groves play the part of alluring red-headed Ann Rutledge, who is belle of New Salem until she meets Abe Lincoln and becomes his guiding star.

Gall Holloway takes the part of Mrs. Rutledge, a stickler for the properties, and ruler of the Rutledge Inn, over the vigorous protests of Mr. James Rutledge, Leoman Weatherford. Martha, the none too intelligent colored maid, is the ace comedienne of the play, and is done ably by Betty Good.

Mrs. Bennett Able, the chief community newspaper, is played by Floriene Larkey. Her charming niece is portrayed by Cynthia Lankford. John McNeil, hero who first wins the love of Ann only to jilt her, is played by Shelby Weatherford. Jack Armstrong, the villain, then hero of the play, is portrayed by Lloyd Geodroy.

Sam Hill, another suitor for Ann's hand, is played by Bernard Denny. Malcolm Judd, the fiery slave owner heaps more trouble on Abe's already burdened shoulders, is taken by Lester Williams. Mattie, slave girl, who has seen the worst part of slavery, is portrayed by Freshman Annabeth Claybrook.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with astringent and burning sensations shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

War's Ugly Stain Spreads

No country at war is going to refrain from doing anything that will help it to win the war. No country engaged in a desperate struggle for existence can afford restraint, nice moral balancing, or even common decency. War is war.

It is pretty useless to grow indignant over the fact that the most decent, civilized countries in the world are about to become a battleground for others.

Both sides were desperate. The British and French, seeing that neutrality rules in Norway were benefiting the Germans, decided to waive the rules and halt Scandinavian iron shipments at any cost. They were probably not averse to seeing a northern battle front created to break the Maginot Line-Westwall stalemate.

The Germans decided not to stand idle while this essential source of supply was choked off. Without warning Germany invaded peaceful countries, getting in the first blow.

Neither side can plead any other but that ultimate plan—necessity.

It is an ugly plea at best. It has been used to cover some of man's most despicable acts. It will be used again. That is war. There is no use being holier-than-thou about it. Can we be sure we would not do the same things under the same circumstances?

As the war approaches a showdown, neither the United States nor the other remaining neutrals can expect any consideration from either side. Should peaceful American shipping to neutrals, or any other American interest, get deeply into the war resources of either side, that side will not hesitate to challenge them. We may as well begin to prepare ourselves mentally for that.

The development of a "northern front" means that the long-simmering European war may break forth at last in full fury. Maintaining American neutrality will be harder than ever. We shall need every ounce of patience, calm, and level-headedness we can muster to keep the United States out of the spreading war that seems so likely to ruin every country which is sucked into its deadly whirlpool.

LYNCHING IS QUICKER, TOO (Los Angeles Times)

The President, commenting on the Walter-Logan bill to permit court reviews of the orders of the bureaucrats and to require administrative agencies to comply with the rules of evidence, intimates that such provisions might slow up government procedure to an "unconscionable degree."

There is no doubt that lynching is much more expeditious than regular court trial. It takes longer to find out the truth than to jump at conclusions. If speed is the only requisite and justice is a minor consideration, the kangaroo courts into which some administrative agencies have made themselves are undoubtedly proper.

The agency that causes the greatest amount of injustice is the National Labor Relations Board. The Wagner Act says the findings of this board shall be conclusive as to matters of fact "if supported by evidence," which the Supreme Court takes to mean some or any evidence, though it has held also that the evidence must be real and substantial. The point is that it does not matter how much evidence there may be to the contrary—the N.L.R.B. can disregard it and the courts are not permitted to inquire into the matter. In court, in an criminal case, the evidence must be sufficient to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; in a civil case the decision is given according to the weight of evidence. The N.L.R.B. may, and does, throw both these rules in the wastebasket. The Walter-Logan bill requires the weight of evidence to be considered, which would seem to be the minimum requirement for fairness.

All of which would not matter so much if the members of the administrative agency were required by the President to be impartial and unbiased. Most administrative agencies try to be fair. But the President has permitted outrageous unfairness by the majority of the N.L.R.B. to go unrebuked.

Behind The News

WASHINGTON, April 18—Real story back of the extension of the stamp plan to cotton goods is that the Agriculture Department is plenty worried about what the war may do to our export trade.

Plan starts in Memphis May 3, and will be started in two or three other cities within the following fortnight. There are no plans for expansion beyond that. It's strictly an experiment, and the war is the chief reason for it.

Secretary Wallace figures it like this: War has already hit our agricultural exports; it'll probably hit them worse as time goes on, and may stop some of them—like cotton—entirely. If that happens, we have to "live at home" and consume things that we used to sell abroad. Hence, it's smart to find out whether the stamp plan would be a workable means of solving that problem. The department already knows what the plan's possibilities are in the case of foods; now it wants to know about cotton.

GROWER WILL GET SMALL SHARE Cotton is a different sort of problem. Most of the money spent on the food stamp scheme found its way to the farmer. With cotton, not more than about 20 cents out of every dollar will go to the grower; the rest will go to labor, to distribution and to the retailer. It's the first time the stamp plan has offered a cut to non-agricultural labor, which will get the biggest slice of all.

Plan will be the same as for food stamps, in that the same people—refiners—will participate, and will get free stamps, good in any store, along with the stamps they pay cash for. Stamps will be good for purchases of cotton goods. The plan will be different

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

ANSWERING A DEFENDER OF ESTABLISHED SCALE OF WAGES

A contributor who admits that he has no way of determining how wages shall be established, and that God only know how they would be established, if they are not established on a free market basis, still continues, parrot-like, to repeat that the employer must pay an established scale of wages or be forced to quit and go to work for someone who can.

He also fails to say how the man who cannot earn this arbitrarily established minimum scale is to get a job. And when he cannot explain how the talents of the slow producer will be used, which is always the result of an arbitrary scale of wages, he is certainly advocating something that does a great injustice, not only to the man who cannot produce and get a job, but to every other worker who has a job.

Unconscionable This is true because it would be unconscionable for one group of men to establish wages which prevented the inexperienced and slow workers from having the right to sell their services at the same rate per unit of production as the men who established the wage were permitted to sell theirs and then permit these excluded men to starve because no employer could afford to hire them. Thus the workers who had jobs would have less to live on after they supported those without jobs than they would have had had they not established wages preventing millions from being able to get jobs.

This same theorist, who likes to write to be heard of men, contends that formerly the entrepreneur fixed the wages arbitrarily and that this system produced a few billionaires and a nation of paupers.

I challenge him to cite a single example of an employer being able to fix wages arbitrarily when there were no wages fixed arbitrarily by labor groups. And if he cannot cite one, then his statement is not based on facts.

The contributor says that you can strike a bargain by counseling together, but it will not be a bargain when a group combines to prevent the employer from freely bargaining with others or to destroy the savings of the employer, if he does not pay the group more than thousands of other people will do the same job for. It will be a form of robbery and slavery.

These collective bargaining groups when they make an established wage scale always fail to take into consideration the men whom they will not allow in the collective bargaining group. And, yet, they blatantly repeat that they are working for the general welfare of mankind. They will not talk about how they are benefiting him.

There can be no real counseling together until the consumer is taken into the council. This, collective bargaining always refuses to do by establishing a closed shop.

If a consumer would prefer to work and produce rather than buy the product from the employer who has let wages be set arbitrarily by collective bargaining groups, he certainly, by every law of justice and every law of freedom and every law of democracy and every law of Christianity, has a right to do so.

IS VIRTUE ITS OWN REWARD? OR DOES IT PRODUCE A REWARD?

Many theorists and those who would repeal the law of action and reaction and substitute their own arbitrary will in its place, like to leave the inference that virtue is its own reward and that any man who works for reward is not as virtuous as they are.

It seems to me the facts are that no one has ever been able to test the statement "virtue is its own reward," because the minute a man is virtuous and actually promotes the greatest of all virtues—equality of rights to create and help people understand the truth—then this man is rewarded with the greatest of all rewards—the friendship and assistance of all like spirits. And these friends exchange ideas with him and assist him in finding the truth. This virtue produces its reward.

On the other hand, the man who likes to proclaim that "virtue is its own reward," is invariably the man who has discarded the law of equality of rights to produce and substitute instead of this law or rule his own arbitrary ideas of what each man should work at and how he should live.

This man, of course, has no friends but succeeds in making himself believe that he is a martyr and his only reward is virtue.

Of course he is not virtuous but he kides himself into believing he is. It is only a misuse of the word "virtue."

No, there is no such thing as a man being virtuous without receiving the greatest of all rewards—the reward of better understanding the truth and having friends and himself being made able to have more and greater experiences.

In that stamps will be distributed quarterly instead of twice a month; also the outlets will be mostly department stores instead of grocery stores.

Nobody knows yet, of course, whether it will be as popular. Nobody knows what sort of cotton goods the stamp recipients will want—mattresses, shirts, underwear, sheets, or what-not. Nobody is even sure that the plan is administratively feasible. That's why it'll start slowly.

STAMP PLAN EXPANDS

Meanwhile, the food stamp plan gives every sign of being destined to go on getting bigger instead of smaller. It's expanding fast now; is operating in 50 cities, will start presently in 20 more, will probably be in 100 by July 1 and 125 shortly thereafter.

Which means costs are going up. By March 1 of this year, $5,500,000 had been spent on it; to maintain it through the next fiscal year, which begins in July, at the rate it will be going when July comes, will take anywhere from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000.

Even that doesn't tap the plan's possibilities. Operating in 125 cities, the plan will reach only 3,000,000 people—and there are 20,000,000 eligible in the U. S. To let them all in on it would take around $360,000,000 a year.

Don't be too sure Congress won't eventually vote that. The plan builds up coils of back-home pressure. This spring, when the Senate was asked to take $85,000,000 in stamp funds onto the farm bill, the vote in favor was 79 to 0.

The thing may easily keep on growing until it approaches the maximum.

LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD IN SMALL TOWNS!

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, April 18—This is the story of a story, and how "Personal History" was rewritten five times for the screen, and why Walter Wanger has so many gray hairs. Hollywood always has been ridiculed for its prodigious practice of buying well-known literary properties, changing the stories often beyond recognition, sometimes discarding the titles, and emerging with pictures which you'd think might as well have been budgeted as studio originals. That's about the way it is with the best-selling Vincent Sheean autobiography, except that this time, if ever, the changes have been justified.

Early in 1937, while "Personal History" was becoming a widely discussed analysis of contemporary events, Producer Wanger bought the movie rights for $25,000. Even then, he never contemplated making a picture directly from the book, because Sheean's experiences as a writer took him pretty much all over Europe, North Africa and the Orient. But Wanger was sure that there was a good movie in the ill-shattering contacts of an alert American reporter with endless intrigue and suspicion and international blather.

WAITED FOR WORLD TO SETTLE DOWN

A first treatment of the story fell flat on its face. Wanger hired J. H. Lawson to prepare a second. The idea was to take a liberal-minded youngster fresh out of college and impatient with American conservatism, then pop him into back-grounds of the Spanish war, French communism and Nazi oppression. After strong doses of those, he'd come back with full appreciation of his American birthright.

But just as the script was being completed, the war in Spain ended and the French and German situations showed such change that the story was outdated. So a third treatment was begun with a new plot—this one involving adventures in central Europe. Before anything could be done about filming it, Hitler matched Austria and Czechoslovakia. Screen play No. 3 was discarded.

Four months passed while Wanger waited for world chaos to subside. Then he thought he saw a chance to base a picture more closely upon Vincent Sheean's career as a newsman. For this he hired John Meehan, veteran scenarist and playwright, who worked nearly six months on the assignment. Meehan doesn't toll for oases or street car tickets; he gets $2,000 a week.

BECAME EXPENSIVE WRITING JOB

You can guess what happened then. Meehan completed the final treatment and scarcely had laid it on Wanger's desk before it was covered, like a shroud, with a war extra. Germany was driving into Poland. Pretty soon England and France declared war. Hitler and Stalin made a pact. Wanger tossed the story on top of a growing pile of expensive and utterly useless manuscripts.

Last December Director Alfred Hitchcock waddled into United Artists with an idea suggested by Sheean's story. There wouldn't be much left from the book except the central character of an American correspondent. After that it turned into a Hitchcock thriller, complete with spies, treachery, a drugged diplomat and a mysterious windmill.

Wanger said okay, and got out his checkbook. Charles Bennett and Joan Harrison joined Hitchcock in five weeks of preparation on the first screen treatment. Novelist James Hilton and Satirist Robert Benchley (who plays in the picture, too) were hired to help with the writing. When the five had worked for two months, Alma Reville was brought in to do the final script. It's probably the most expensive

Wait until you see those costumes that are to be worn in the Coronado Entrada in June, and you'll want to be in it. Samples of the costumes will be on display in Pampa next Thursday and you'll want to see them. Also a table-size but exact reproduction of the stage, scenery, etc. It's not hard to realize after talking with Jerome Cargill who was hired by the government to put on the Entrada in 16 towns, that the Entrada scenery, stage, script, etc., will be more elaborate than the Cavalcade of the Golden West at the San Francisco World's Fair and the Cavalcade of Texas at the Dallas Centennial. If Pampa had to buy the show outright it would cost $100,000, and that is the absolute truth.

Talking over the dog show: Mrs. Lulu Price of Skellytown showed a fox terrier that made a big hit with the crowd. It won a blue ribbon and was in the competition for the grand champion. Boots, name of the small dog, was a gift to Mrs. Price from her son several years ago when he attended the University of Oklahoma. At first Mrs. Price, who thought she never would like dogs anyway, declared she was going to get rid of it. But Boots had a way and won Mrs. Price's affection, and now she wouldn't take for him. Boots posed admirably for judging and looked smart in new harness.

A reader calls attention to a glaring error in the picture, "Virginia City." He states truthfully that in 1866 there was no such place as Arnavillo, as a character in the entertaining film states. . . . On your "must" list of films should be "Primrose Path" at the Crown. One needs to see it to understand types of people you usually frown upon, but who live as they have to and not as they want to.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

By RICHARD ARTHUR BOLT M. D., Dr. P. H. Secretary, Maternal and Child Health Section of American Public Health Association

RIGHT DIET IMPORTANT IN PREGNANCY

The prospective mother needs to pay special attention to personal hygiene. More than ever before she should give strict attention to diet, bathing, sleeping, exercise, recreation and elimination. Her doctor will outline her daily routine, but it will be her responsibility to see that it is all carried out faithfully. If she knows something about the normal functions of the body and what she may expect during pregnancy it will be a great help in following good health habits.

The diet is of primary importance to the expectant mother. The food which the mother takes must not only fulfill her daily needs as to calories, protein, minerals, vitamins, etc., but must be so balanced as to meet the needs of the unborn baby. Strictly considered, it is not necessary for the mother to eat for two if she has an ample, well-balanced diet herself. The foods taken must provide for growth and repair, must give sufficient energy, must be protective against the deficiency diseases and must promote regular elimination. Water is very important for regulation and should be taken in such quantities as the doctor advises.

The foods which are basic to good nutrition may be listed as follows: Milk up to one quart a day should be taken in some form.

Fresh and stewed fruits may be taken daily and some of the citrus fruits should be included.

Vegetables, especially the colored ones, cooked and uncooked, are desirable and should be eaten daily.

Whole grain breads and cereals are to be preferred to refined foods.

If the mother is given an ample well-balanced diet with all the food elements and vitamins, it will not be necessary to resort to the more costly refined foods and vitamins which in any case should be prescribed only by her physician.

The health of many women are more susceptible to decay during pregnancy and should therefore receive the early care of a dentist and be periodically examined for defects. The proper care of the breasts should be emphasized as a prelude to successful breast feeding.

The mental attitude of the prospective mother toward her pregnancy is of considerable importance. She should be impressed that a calm mind free from worry and fear should be cultivated. Harmony within the family and the banishment of superstitious fears will do much toward a happy outcome of pregnancy.

My Personal Opinion Is . . .

By JUDD

It's always been a sort of a boast with us, that any kid born in this country has an equal chance of getting to be President some day. And I kin remember when I was a kid how me and my Mother both thought I was a cinch for the job, and how encouraging it was to have a thing like that to look forward to. Well, 'course I never did get to be President, on account of after all there's only one job, and lots of other fellows was after it too, besides me. I think I better take the first opening I could find. But jest the same I was always able to comfort myself with the thought that I might of been, and probably the only reason I ever made it was just on account of 'me not meeting the right people.

But now I ain't sure if that was the reason or not, on account of me jest reading in the papers where some Harvard professor says that 92% of the population is mentally or physically unfit to be President. Now that was a big disappointment to me to find that out, and I couldn't help thinking how that's libel to discourage lots of other young fellows from ever trying for the office. The only thing is, they shouldn't ought to let it worry em too much, on account of evrybody can't be President anyway, and besides there's lots of other juicy government jobs for fellows with mediocre mentality.

In fact recent statistics proves that all you need to qualify for one of them high diplomatic posts, is jest fer your old man to leave you enuff money so's you kin afford to make a respectable contribution to the campaign fund.

Now I don't know where the professor got his figgers, and maybe it's so that 60% of the people is mentally or physically unfit to be President. But anyway that still leaves us 40% to pick from, and I don't think that we'd ought to be able to find one out of that many, without having to keep on having the same one, term-after term-after term.

JUDD. P. S.—'Course 'd be jest another experiment, but why not pick the entire cabinet from the 40% too.—J.

Navy Again Asks For Base At Guam

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—The navy renewed today its advocacy of a major air and submarine base at Guam, tiny American island outpost 1,500 miles from Tokyo.

A Guam base strong enough to make operations against it a formidable undertaking, the navy department said, would tend to "stabilize the political situation in the Far East."

At the same time, the department rejected as "fantastic" any suggestion that the United States permanently station a fleet superior to Japan's in Far Eastern waters. The idea of a "two ocean" battle force was likewise dismissed.

The statements were incorporated propounded by Chairman Walsh in a series of answers to questions (D-Mass.) of the senate naval committee, which is holding hearings on legislation authorizing an 11 per cent expansion in fleet strength.

Previous proposals for fortification of Guam have met defeat in Congress after sharp debate. Foes of such a program declared that it would be "a dagger pointed at the throat of Japan." Japanese naval officers have called the plans an "unfriendly gesture" and a "moral threat" to their country.

The navy said its desire for a base at Guam was not affected by the question of protection of the Philippines; observing that Guam would be useful against any power because of its proximity to the shipping lanes to the East Indies, China and Japan.

Pettengill

EIGHT YEARS Democrat Congressman From INDIANA

Give Us A Strong Congress. Nominations for congress and senate are now getting under way. During the next month I shall write a column each week about the importance of congress.

No one knows who the next President will be. But we can take steps now to ensure a strong congress. Your vote counts far more for congress than for President. For the latter you have one vote in 45 million. For congressman you have one vote in about 125 thousand, and in the average congressional primary one vote in 50 thousand. That means that your vote to nominate a strong congressman counts a thousand times as much as your vote for any one of the fact remains that the legislative branch—congress, parliament, a state legislature—is the heart of free institutions. Freedom has always risen or declined with the strength of weakness of the parliamentary body. It has been safely stated that no parliament ever destroyed the liberty of its constituents so long as it retained the powers given it by them. As Jefferson said, "The authority of congress can never be weakened without injury to the union."

In the first message that congress ever received, the inaugural address on April 30, 1789, President Washington said that in place of recommending particular measures for its consideration he preferred to pay "the tribute of respect to the talents, the rectitude and patriotism which adorn the characters selected to devise them."

It is apparent that the people are being confronted with the question whether the law-making power is to be exercised by their chosen representatives or by bureaucrats, not elected by them, nor responsible to them. Not only have vast powers been turned over by congress to the executive, but every attempt to amend or recapture those powers is being fiercely challenged by the bureaus. N. L. R. B., for example, does not blush to put pressure on congressmen in their own districts against any change of the Wagner act or any subtraction from their powers; public funds in violation of law, are brazenly used in radio programs to propagandize congress, and the executive himself has not hesitated to utilize and hold up to ridicule congressional committees and to purge congressmen and senators from public office by the vast power of patronage and blank-check expenditures of public money; and it now opposes the new Hatch act.

As has happened before "the ruling class found government too profitable to share it with other possessors." The great change in the properties which should govern the executive branch is to control present methods of the view of Thomas Jefferson, the founder of the party whose name is now used by those who betray the principles he fought for. Said Jefferson of congress, "I do not mean that any gentleman, relinquishing his own judgment, should support all the measures of the administration—my friendship with congress I valued too highly to risk by usurpation and their freedom of judgment, and the conscientious pursuit of their own sense of duty."

If your present senator or congressman is a strong man, and has demonstrated that fact under fire—men for example like Burke of Nebraska and Byrd of Virginia—keep him there. But if you don't have a strong man in congress, put on one of the SAMUEL B. PETTENGILL.

Japs Act Pleased With Hull's Order

TOKYO, April 18. (AP)—Secretary Hull's statement opposing any change in the status of the Netherlands East Indies was greeted by Japan today as coinciding with Japan's own wishes.

A report on the American statement was made to the privy council by Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita who focused world attention on the rich Netherlands possession last Monday by a declaration that Japan would be concerned deeply over any change in the East Indies' status.

The foreign office spokesman, Yachihiro Suma, declared that "Japan hopes to prevent the spread of European war to the Pacific and the step was taken in accordance with this wish." Suma said the Hull and Arita statements coincided.

It was asserted Arita intended his words to clarify Japan's position in advance of any European development which might come swiftly in modern warfare.

Commander T. Kanoe, acting as spokesman for the Japanese navy, compared Japanese interest in the Indies with the United States' interest in Greenland.

He said, however, that Japan's interest was "much more vital" and that "development of the natural resources of the East Indies must be made by all means, but Japan has no territorial designs there."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP)—War stocks worked through a barrage of profit-taking today and later advanced as much as two points, carrying most of the market to higher ground. There were some early rises which melted in the heat of noonday trading and a long period of inactivity followed, of which traders toward the close by a burst of buying orders. Traders approximated 900,000 shares. Every section of activity was colored by the struggle in Norway, traders basing their judgment almost exclusively on predictions as to whether German or allied might prevail in the strategic conflict.

Pampa Students To Aid Refugee Children Abroad

Pampa school children next week will express their gratitude for the aid in which they live by contributing coins to the mite cans to be distributed in schools of the Pampa Independent School District.

There will be a half-dozen of these cans issued to each of the Pampa schools. Principals will collect the money—donated in the national "Children's Crusade for Children," April 22-30, and take it to the bank.

From the bank the money will be sent to Citizens National bank at Emporia, Kas. thence to the Empire State building in New York City, where it will be received by the "Children's Crusade for Children," Eleanor Roosevelt, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Mgr. John A. Ryan, William Allen White, Dr. Charles B. Glenn, Hon. Irving Lehman, and Caroline S. Woodruff.

Purpose of the campaign is to supply money for the clothing and feeding of refugee children who have been "dumped" in Italy, Switzerland, Hungary, Scotland and other countries.

By making it strictly a children's proposition, the crusade will inculcate a vivid consciousness in American children of the unrecognized blessings they enjoy here in America.

It was expected that the county schools and Holy Souls school, Pampa, would also participate in the crusade, but confirmation could not be obtained as County Superintendent W. B. Weathered and Rev. Joseph S. Wonderly, Holy Souls pastor, both being out of town.

nights and a third night if necessary, depending on popular request. The cast will contain 70 per cent men and 30 per cent women, with a few children. Mexican Fiesta scenes will open and close the show. The opening scene will be a brilliant Fiesta dance that takes place as the army of Coronado prepares to leave Compostela, Mexican town near the Pacific coast about 100 miles northwest of Mexico City. Other high lights of the Entrada will be the fall of the Indian pueblos, Indian ceremonial dances, and the trial of Coronado in Mexico City after his return from his fruitless quest in 1540 of the Seven Golden Cities of Cibola and Quivira.

"You can depend on it," said Mr. Cargill, "that there will be more elaborate scenes and more changes of scenery in the Entrada than there was in either the San Francisco or Dallas Cavalcades.

"It will be most difficult for Pampans to realize the importance and bigness of the show," said Mr. Cargill. "It's only because that congress appropriated this money that you will get it; it's just like dumping the biggest show on the continent in your lap; you can thank your local chamber of commerce, BCD and Jaycees for getting it for you. It will probably be the last time you'll ever have an opportunity to stage such a show, although you never can tell what the Federal government will do," he added with a smile.

"The thing for Pampans and all residents of this plain country to realize that on June 13 14 and 15 there will be held in Pampa a show of world fair proportions, and that if you advertise it people will be coming from Wichita Falls, Dallas, Fort Worth to Kansas and from Hereford to Oklahoma. Why you ought to advertise this show in all parts of Texas."

vik, a matter of some 18 miles north. I found that all foreigners had been ordered from Swedish border areas, especially foreign journalists.

I boarded a train for the return trip but 50 miles south of Kiruna I slipped off at Gellivare, determined to get across the border.

A taxi-drive, unable to resist the promise of a bonus, finally agreed to take a chance on driving me the 120 miles to the frontier. By hiding on the floor of the taxi now and then I managed to reach the border a mile north of Vassijuaare-Riksgaransen, on the Narvik-Kiruna railway, and stepped across in mid-afternoon without benefit of visa.

Tramped 15 Miles In a snowstorm, I tramped 15 miles or more to the outskirts of Narvik, traveling by wooded paths.

As I attempted to enter Narvik I was arrested by British patrols, but was released after displaying my credentials.

My freedom was shortlived. As I left the city in hope of visiting surrounding towns, I was arrested again and turned over to Norwegian military authorities, who insisted I must return to Sweden because my passport bore no visa.

During the trip back, escorted by Norwegian soldiers, I saw several German patrols along the five miles from the Swedish line, as well as scattered Norwegian troops.

We arrived unmolested, and I was turned over to Swedish authorities. With 250 Norwegian troops who had crossed the frontier and been interned, I was taken back to Kiruna and held there under guard until I could be put aboard a train for the south.

Tax Delinquency No Problem Here

Tax delinquency, a bummer of many counties of the 30's has been no worry to Gray.

Records of County Auditor R. C. Willson reveal this county as having an exceptionally good record on tax collections.

In the period 1932 to 1938 inclusive, tax collections including penalty and interest on delinquent taxes, has totaled 90,178 per cent of the amount of taxes assessed.

For the past four years delinquent taxes in Gray range from 6.7 per cent to 7.1 per cent.

This percentage is lower than that of 150 major cities that reached a new "low" of 9.2 per cent at the end of last year. At least 24 cities showed delinquency of less than 5 per cent, and San Jose, and Fresno, Calif., stepped out with only one per cent each.

For the period 1932-1938 in Gray county, total tax levies and per cent collected, by years, were: $263,803.55—100.00 per cent; $223,280.96—102.94 per cent; $237,057—99.70 per cent; $249,130.25—97.57 per cent; $290,591.96—97.55 per cent; $333,629.04—100.51 per cent; $312,554.22—97.18 per cent.

Tax statements are a year late. The 1939 tax rolls will not be ready until June 30.

In cases where the percentage of collections is above 100 per cent, in the table above, this is explained by the taxes paid in one year for taxes due in other years. This sum, plus interest and penalty charges, put the percentage above the 100 mark on collections.

No action was taken at the meeting, the purpose being simply to explain the non-profit hospital organization.

'Blind Selling' Of Films Disapproved

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—The commerce department, it was learned today, has suggested that the motion picture industry abandon "blind selling" of films as a possible basis of settling anti-trust suits. Any discrimination against independent theaters also would be banned.

The proposals have been sent to Thurman Arnold, chief anti-trust prosecutor of the justice department, and to leading Hollywood producers, but have not been acted on. If both the justice department and the industry agree to the plan, it may be incorporated in a consent decree ending the anti-trust litigation.

Angels Have Defeated Borger And Amarillo

St. Jo Will Play Couple Games Here

A gang of Angels will swoop down on Pampa Friday afternoon but they won't be in white robes and they won't have wings. Instead they'll be wearing baseball uniforms and will be carrying big bats. The Angels will be from St. Joseph, Mo., and they'll be here to play the Pampa Oilers.

Games time will be 7:30 o'clock at Road Runner park with admission 25 cents for everyone. On Saturday afternoon at the same time the Angels and Oilers will meet again.

No practice session was possible yesterday because of cold, wet weather but Manager Grover Seitz hoped to put his Oilers through a long session this afternoon. He planned to give his pitchers the work because they have only five more days in which to get ready for the season which opens next Tuesday afternoon with the Borger Gassers here.

Manager Seitz hasn't named a starting lineup but he'll probably use Jordan at third, Malvea at short, Ballard at second, Adams at first and Summers behind the plate for an infield with himself, Potter and Fornasero in the outfield.

Before the game is over Mendoza will probably be behind the plate, Peterson at first, Potter at second and Adams in the outfield.

Pitchers Nearly Ready
With the exception of Lineback, the pitchers are all ready for several innings. Lineback, who comes from South Dakota, had no chance to get in shape before arriving because of winter weather. He's a big fellow and needs to train down and that's exactly what he's been doing.

Other chinkers still with the squad are Hallburg, Dilbeck and Vannoy of last year's team. Parish, who was with Amarillo, A. C. Miller, local boy, Mosley, who arrived here last Sunday from the Fort Worth Cats, and Cullum, who arrived Tuesday from his home in Ponder, Texas.

St. Joseph has been in training on the Pacific coast for more than a month. They have played exhibition games in this section for two weeks defeating Borger, Amarillo, Clovis and other teams. They lost one game to Amarillo.

Before the Angels leave here four or five players will be released for trials with the Oilers and out of the bunch Manager Seitz may be able to find outfield strength.

One Angel that won't be left is Billy Capps, third baseman, who was the power of the Big Spring club last year. Capps has been going strong with the Angels since joining them two weeks ago.

Missions Still Undefeated In Texas League

(By The Associated Press)
Much is said about psychology in baseball.

But the best psychology is generally agreed is a lousy clout that sends the ball over the fence.

Jim Levey, Dallas shortstop, appears to have the right idea. In the last two games he has banged out homers, each on the first pitch of the evening.

The effect of the Texas League opposition has been quite gratifying. Dallas won the games and thus edged into a tie for third place in the Texas League.

Last night the victim was Shreveport. The score was 9 to 7. Dallas clubbed 14 hits off four pitchers.

San Antonio's amazing Missions have yet to taste defeat. Last night the Padres nosed out Fort Worth 3-2 in a pitchers' battle between Bob Muncie of the Missions and Claude Horton.

Houston moved into second place with a 7-5 decision over Oklahoma City in eleven innings.

Wet grounds caused postponement of the Tulsa-Beaumont game. The Fort Worth Cats were elated over news that Ray Starr, one of the "three old men" who carried them to the championship last year, had ended his holdout and would report Friday.

'Beartracks' Resumes His Triumphant Tossing For Cats

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
FORT WORTH, April 18 (AP)—Only five things kept Ed (Beartracks) Greer out of major league box scores—two knock knees, two ached feet and one love for the west.

Old Beartracks is a great baseball pitcher—with reservations. Frankly, baseball wise men say it still isn't too late. Some big league club with a venturesome spirit would be making a low-odds gamble to try him just one season. Eighteen years of baseball have only served to develop Beartracks' control.

Only last season this hulking man won 26, lost 12 for Fort Worth of the Texas League. No youngster came within hailing distance of the 39-year-old fellow's 2.29 earned run average. Nor did he suffer in the Shaughnessy playoff and Dixie series. The E. R. average in those five games was 1.93.

Now he's at it again. Two weeks before the Texas league opening Manager Bob Linton advised Beartracks he would hurl the opening game, advised him to get his flailing legs ready.

Beartracks did a little private training. Beartracks, he explained, moves with the approximate grace of a charging rhinoceros. His five errors topped pitchers last season.

But Beartracks hurled that opening game and choked formidable Shreveport, 6-0. Four days later he came back and whipped Beaumont 2-1, on five hits.

Old Beartracks got one major league shot, when Frankie Frisch was managing the Cardinals. But, the story goes, they didn't understand Beartracks.

Scouts tried to make an athlete of Beartracks, and Beartracks definitely is not an athlete. He is strictly a strong-armed thrower. He's a clean living, solid, witty swell fellow.

Getting old? Well, Beartracks managed to pitch 288 innings last season to lead the league over the regular season. He pitched 30 full games and added five more in the playoffs and Dixie championship.

Two McLean Boys Eligible To Play Under New Rule

Special To The NEWS
McLEAN, April 18 — Coach "Cricket" Christian was all smiles when he learned that Leroy Braxton, halfback, and Marvin Combs, tackle, will be eligible for football next year. However, Bonner, another halfback, was declared ineligible under the new ruling.

Amos Hanner, a newcomer, will also be eligible under the ruling. Approximately 25 boys have been out for spring practice so far, and yesterday, in the season's first scrimmage, they showed pep and precision.

The backfield of Les Cooke, Braxton and Combs was outstanding. John Bond and Junior Windom, stars on last year's team have accepted invitations to play at a coaching school to be held in Plainview August 30.

Riggs Faces Conqueror In Houston Meet

HOUSTON, April 18 (AP)—Bobby an old score—a defeat in the western indoor tennis championships at the hands of a gangling boy from Portland, Ore.

Riggs, national champion, met the Portland youth—Tom Kelley—in the quarter finals of the River Oaks invitation tournament. Kelley trimmed Riggs in the western two weeks ago at Chicago and went on to win the title.

The theory and play of indoor and outdoor tennis, however, are considerably different, and Riggs was an overwhelming favorite.

Kelley swept past Owen Anderson of Houston yesterday, 6-4, 6-2, while Riggs had to trot faster than usual to oust Lefty Brown of Waco, 10-8, 8-6.

Riggs insisted "we had a good game," but left the impression he was not pressed as much as the score indicated.

Frank Guernsey, defending champion, met Wilmer Allison, former national crownholder, in a match bristling with interest.

Guernsey was possibly the most impressive player in yesterday's competition, trimming Charles Hare, England's No. 2 man, 6-1, 7-5. Allison likewise showed well, bouncing Jack Tidball of Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-1.

Elwood Cooke, seeded No. 2, met the surprise of the tournament this far, young Bill Umstaedter of Louisiana State University. Umstaedter eliminated Charles Harris of West Palm Beach, Fla., international competitor, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Cooke, Portland, Ore., player, defeated Norman Bickel of Chicago, 6-3, 6-1.

Edward Aloo of Berkeley, Calif., met Blay Grant of Atlanta. Aloo defeated Bobby Curtis of Houston yesterday, 6-2, 6-4, and Grant overcame Frank Froehling of Chicago, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2.

Top match among the women appeared to be the clash between Nina Brown, one of England's finest players, and Virginia Wolfenden of San Francisco. Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabryan of Boston, seeded No. 1, bumped into Estelle Dean, veteran from San Antonio.

2 Harvesters Eligible To Enter Regional Meet

Only two Harvester track and field prospects will be eligible to enter Region 1 meet in Canyon Saturday but neither is expected to attend. The eligibles are Pat Flanigan and Qualls.

Flanigan won third in the shot and fourth in the discus while Qualls placed fourth in the high hurdles. Both are eligible for football next fall and spring training is now under way.

Shamrock won the track and field meet and will send the most boys to the regional meet. Next will be Higgins and Phillips.

Time recorded in the Pampa meet failed to come up to that of other meets but the track here was exceptionally slow. In field events the records were better and compared favorably with those of other meets.

Forbau of Higgins is scheduled to break the existing regional board jump record now held by Nevin Johnson of Pampa at 21 feet 9 1/2 inches.

The original Region 1 records of 1934 have been broken except these three: low hurdles, pole vault, and javelin throw. The original records

Discus—130 feet 2 inches, Hughes, Lamesa, 1935.
High jump—6 feet, Smith, Tell, 1935.
Shot put—48 feet 9 inches, Wilkerson, Tell, 1936.
Javelin—180 feet, Dow, Littlefield, 1934.

120-yard high hurdles—15.1, Compton, Mobeetie, 1935.
100-yard dash—10, Jones, Hedley, 1935.
220-yard low hurdles—25.1, Barnard, Happy, 1934.

Pastor Anxious For Another Shot At Louis

By BOB McCORMICK
ALBANY, N. Y., April 18 (AP)—Bob Pastor, who went 21 rounds with Joe Louis, aimed a few verbal blows at the fight business and came up with the idea that you have to be a politician to get a bout nowadays.

"Boxing has hit a new low," Pastor told an Albany service club yesterday, "when a ranking fighter has to go out on a stump and make speeches like a politician to get himself a fight." After he'd returned to his Saratoga Springs home, Bob amplified his statement.

Pastor, it seems, figures he's a ranking fighter, as good as any heavyweight around save, maybe, champion Joe. Didn't he go ten rounds with Louis before the latter had won the title? And didn't he clip the champ a few good ones before finally going down in the eleventh round of their championship fight last September?

"Yes, and I'll clip him a few good ones again, if they ever let me in the ring with him," he said, confidently. "I still think I can lick that Louis. I've fought him twice in two years and beaten every good heavyweight around but I still can't get a fight."

Pastor might have something there. Since his last Louis battle he's fought just once, winning a ten round decision over Buddy Scott in Dallas, Tex., last December. Twice he claims to have been set to go but each time something happened.

"Lee Savold was supposed to fight me," he explained, "but he went out and got himself licked by one of my former sparring mates, Johnny Withers. Then I was set to meet Billy Conn but he got a case of boils and I was put off again."

"What I really want," he added, "is another shot at Louis and that title and I'm certain Pop (Jimmie Johnston, Pastor's manager) will get it for me."

"But if I have to stump the country like a politician to get fights, okay, then I'll do it."

Yankees Whip Athletics 4-1

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Until Joe DiMaggio gets back into the lineup for the New York Yankees the world champions are sure to see a more or less constant stream of southpaw pitching.

Connie Mack, who has to take chances with what material he has masquerading as pitchers, tried a righthander yesterday in the only game of the day in the major leagues, and the McGarrymen went right to work for a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

But Mr. Mack knows the formula. He gambled with Lefty Lovill (Chubby) Dean and won the opener the day before and he has announced that young Herman Besse, rookie southpaw from Memphis, will be thrown into the lions' den today.

Although the scheme doesn't always work, the American League managers have been feeding left-handers to the Yankees for years. With DiMaggio in sick bay, the Yankees have five left-handed batters in the lineup, four of them coming to the plate in succession.

Besides DiMaggio, the only right-handed hitting outfielder on the Yankee squad is Jake Powell and he is in a hospital and may be lost for many weeks. DiMaggio hopes to get back into harness tomorrow when the Yanks make their first home stand against the Senators.

There is no question that his power against both right and left-handed pitching is sorely missed. In the opener which New York lost in ten innings the Yanks collected only six hits, and yesterday they won with somewhat skimpy seven.

DALLAS ENTERTAINERS COMING APRIL 24

A few of the entertainers who will accompany the Dallas Business Trip trippers to Pampa on Wednesday, April 24, are pictured above. They are only a few because the trippers will bring a bandy orchestra and other artists. For those who enjoy old time music the gang pictured top left will be on hand. A member of the orchestra is pictured top right. The guitar wizard of WFAA is shown in the bottom left while bottom right is the famous WFAA male chorus.

standing bands among the larger schools.

Some of the bands from smaller places who have more than held their own, Yoe High school of Cameron is at present a national champion in class "B" under the direction of Francis Cox. Jacques Nonce of the Iran schools has produced bands whose performances rival the brilliance of their costly oil-produced jackets.

Union Grove at Gladewater, under the direction of Jaco Mahan, has made one of the outstanding records among the smaller schools. For the past two years, the Gladewater band has won first division marching honors in national competition. Last year it was the only class "C" band to win first division concert honors at national contests. To Pile-Ossa on Pelion, it accumulated 22 contest trophies, 17 of them for first place or division awards.

Mexia likewise won first division honors in its class in national competition the past two years. In 1939 it won the sweepstake cup offered to the most outstanding musical organization at the regional competition for national honors.

Many others boast brilliant achievements. These simply suffice as "show mounts" for public display.

One of the most interesting developments of the Texas enthusiasm for high school bands has been the establishment of a city-wide musical festival at Dallas. Once each year, May 3, 4 and 5 this year, all schools in Dallas and immediate suburbs congregate to perform. Judges are imported to deliver their critiques when the students have completed their chores.

As a finale, representatives of each school combine in a giant all-festival orchestra, rivaling in instrumentation and fervor, if not in technique, the best on the modern stage.

The Dallas festival deserves special mention because it is NOT a contest: students do not directly compete against each other. Also, because it has grown to be the largest one-city music festival in the Southwest.

Yes, Texans like to make their own music—or, at least, hear other Texans make it for them.

If you don't believe it, walk up to some glowing parent one of these evenings as the high school band is leaving the stage. Pull in your ears to cut down wind resistance for a quick get-away and remark: "I thought Johnny sounded a little sour on his trombone tonight."

You'll probably find yourself doing a solo performance of the entire overture to "Gone With the Wind."

Waco Music Festival One Of Outstanding Events In Nation

(By The Associated Press.)
Texas folk like to make their own music!

They backslide occasionally into formal black and tilled shirt when a vocalist or instrumentalist of high repute comes to town, or a girl extravaganda pauses in its transcontinental mission to the tired businessman. But on the whole they prefer their music done like Sister Pritchett's biscuits—"browned to a neighbor's taste by a hand that knows its dough and its own oven." Singing schools, glee clubs, mountain music, and the high school band combined with gospel hymns comprise the Aeolian diet the typical Texan loves.

Not that the son of the Lone Star state is unappreciative of the musical legacy of the immortals. He can take the mi-mi-mi-mi-mi with the rest, but the lacquered muse of the classics is an artificial development with him. His native music was born of the West to the cadence of the coyote's night cry, the fugue of the howling herd and the rolling percussion of the pony's drumming hoofs on the prairie sod. Through interpreting the natural music of his environment, he learned to please himself.

One of the domestic musical developments of which the Lone Star probably is proudest is the high school band. Every cross roads village used to have its town band, practicing Thursday nights in the back room of the jail and playing on Saturdays when the farmers hitched around the square. But the pace of the town has largely been taken over by the high school musicians.

Today, every high school, no matter the enrollment, has its company of student troubadors. Perhaps the instrumentation is twelve trumpets, a piccolo and a bass drum. Maybe the uniforms are blue overalls with scarlet bandanas. Whatever the case, the youngsters proudly blow and blow and after the concert the parents proudly blow and blow and blow, too, over their offspring.

Each year, a state high school band contest is held, this year, at Waco. Waco's high school band, with a long string of championships is one of the leading organizations of its kind in the broad realm of the Texas commonwealth. Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, Austin of El Paso, Austin, Texas, high school, Highland Park, Woodrow Wilson and Sunset of Dallas have out-

SERIAL STORY

K. O. CAVALIER BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Eddie and Val... the Northern Belle, they had Mike Kelly tied up on deck...

CHAPTER XIX

THE acid smell of gunpowder filled the room and made Val cough. She stared with horror at Mike Kelly lying there, inert...

Barney MacGregor, with two policemen in tow, was dashing up the gangplank. "We heard shots," Barney yelled. "What's up, Steve?"

Grimly, Steve Hansen explained. Then they returned to the hold and carried Mike tenderly up on deck.

One of the officers bent down and made a hurried examination. "This man isn't hurt as bad as you think. Must have been hit by a ricochete. Bullet that glanced off his temple.

A vast feeling of relief swept over Val. Good old Mike. With some quick medical attention he'd be all right.

Then for the first time she felt herself trembling. She covered her eyes with her hands. Steve Hansen went over and put an arm around her shoulders.

"I think you've had enough for one night," he said gently.

VAL leaned over the rail in the early morning sun and watched the huge cranes swing aboard the Northern Belle and dip deep into her hold. Steve Hansen, puffing on his pipe alongside her, followed every foot of the journey...

Val sighed when it was deposited on the dock and transferred to a huge truck which the company had sent down. "That's a relief," she said.

Hansen nodded. "Yeah... but it's too bad we can't prove those yeggs were agents of that line. We know it, of course, but proving it is something else. It's next to impossible. Only satisfaction we have is knowing our playmates of last night will get themselves a nice long stretch for robbery, attempted vandalism, and a few more charges."

"They're lucky it wasn't murder," said Val. "And Mike Kelly is lucky he has a nice, thick skull."

Hansen grinned. "Look at 'im down there. You'd never know he came within a quarter of an inch of cashing in his chips."

They didn't know Pop Grimes was behind them until the trainer spoke. "Unless you folks have serious objections," he said, "Eddie and me are going to do a little honest-to-goodness road work this afternoon. About a couple of hours outside of town."

"Good," said Val. "I'll go along."

"We ain't walkin', miss, we're runnin'," Pop reminded her casually.

"What's to prevent me from renting a car and driving along behind you?"

Pop shrugged. "You win, as usual. We're starting out a couple of hours after lunch, so have your auto ready."

She invited Duffy Kelso to come along, but he refused. "Thanks," he said, "you've got me believin' it's safest to be where you ain't. And for the luvva Pete, make sure you don't run 'em down."

THAT afternoon, for the first time since she left San Francisco, Val wore a dress instead of slacks and shirt. She put on low-heeled shoes and slipped into a beige camel-hair jigger-coat.

"Where's the party?" Steve Hansen inquired. Eddie Cavalier didn't say anything, but she saw the look of startled surprise on his face.

"That's to remind you she's still a lady," Duffy Kelso observed, but Val gave no sign she had heard.

Yet, she admitted to herself as they swung off down the dock, Duffy had been partly right. Clever man, in his way, was Duffy Kelso. Too bad he was so sure on her so.

She couldn't help chuckling at the thought of it. He certainly had a right to be. She could picture Duffy, once they got back to San Francisco. He'd probably try to put an insurmountable barrier between her and Cavalier. Refuse to see her. Make her get her stories second-hand. Get it tough for her in every way imaginable.

Well, she'd had her innings. Rather riotous ones, at that. Anyway, she had a hunch that Eddie Cavalier wouldn't be too difficult to reach despite Duffy Kelso. It was just a hunch, but Val Douglas always placed a lot of faith in her hunches.

She asked a policeman where she could rent a car and he directed her to a garage a couple of blocks away from the main business section.

She climbed behind the wheel of a shiny blue coupe. It was good to drive again. She slipped through the noonday traffic and headed back for the waterfront. Parking the car as close as possible to the Northern Belle, she boarded the ship.

She was just in time for lunch. "Give you a break," she said to Pop Grimes. "I'll drive you out to the other side of town when you're ready to go."

"Thanks."

"Of course," she lied for Duffy's benefit. "I haven't driven in almost a year, but I think we can stay out of the ditches and avoid the telephone poles."

It was perfect bait. Duffy let out a yelp. "Stay out that car," he ordered Eddie. "She'll get you killed yet."

Eddie grinned. "Calm yourself, Duffy. Can't you see she's just needing you?"

Duffy Kelso glared and put his fork down disgustedly. "Well, anyway, she killed my appetite."

VAL found that following behind Eddie and Pop as they jogged along the Skeena River road was a little too slow. She practically had to stay in second gear all the time. It was too boring to suit her.

She honked the horn and drew alongside. "See you snails farther down the road."

She roared off in a cloud of dust. "Didn't think she'd last long."

Pop granted. "She just ain't used to staying in the same spot for a long time."

The sun had been shining brightly, but now it moved behind a dark cloud which came up from the northwest. Val hummed to herself as the car purred along the country road. And then it happened. There was a loud report and when the car moved sluggishly toward the side of the road she knew she had a fat.

She got out and looked at the tire with dismay. There was a spare in back, but who was going to change it? She looked up and down the road. There wasn't a house in sight. Nor a gasoline station. Nor any sign of another car. She climbed behind the wheel and sat there dejectedly.

It was a half hour before she glanced into the rear view mirror and saw Eddie and Pop come over a slight rise in the road. She breathed a sigh of relief.

"Am I glad to see you," she said. "Look what I've got."

She didn't see Eddie nudge Pop Grimes slyly. "Gee, that's tough," he murmured. "Well—if we come to a garage or gas station we'll send back a mechanic."

And they left her standing there as they jogged off.
