Germans Push Through Middle Of Norway

MAGNITUDE OF $100,000 ENTRADA DESCRIBED

Nazis Can't Be Stopped, Says Expert

Allied Troops Face Grave Odds In Two Sectors

GRONG, Norway, via Gaddede. SWEDEN, April 28 (Sunday) (AP)—British troops attempting to block the advance of the Germans up the Gaubrandalen valley south of Dembas were retreating early today under heavy machine gun and light artillery fire while attacking airplanes aided the German forces.

A decisive struggle apparently had not yet been reached, however, and there were indications that the fast German advance had slowed temporarily for re-coordinating.

(By The Associated Press) Powerful Nazi forces, embarked officially now on war against the Norwegians as well as the allies, pounded on through the middle of Norway today (Sunday), threatening their opponents in a new and perhaps decisive phase of the struggle in the north.

Allied troops faced grave odds in two sectors below strategic Trondheim, city. Superbly mechanized German flanking units were pressing on against allied concentrations at Storaen, only 30 miles from Trondheim, important port which has been in German hands since Hitler's lightning move into Norway. The Germans' swift climb over mountain trails was described as a marvel of military efficiency.

The invasion of the Norse kingdom, German diplomats told the world yesterday (Saturday), was justified because on April 6 and 7 Britain and France began a move of their own to invade Scandinavia. The German occupation of Denmark and Norway on April 9, German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop said purely and simply was an action to beat the troops of German's enemies to the new battleground.

He produced for diplomats and journalists in Berlin documents which he said were clear proof of allied intentions, with Nor-

Young Men Protest Dies Speech Before United Methodists

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 27 (AP)—While several young men distributed circulars protesting his presence, Representative Martin Dies (D-Tex.), chairman of the House committee investigating un-American activities, told the general conference of the Methodist church today that a "good, old-fashioned religious revival" was the only thing that would save Democracy in the United States.

The congressman referred to "pernicious inculcation" of Communist and Fascist doctrines by foreign agents in the United States and said:

"There can be no democracy and no freedom in this country without the Christian religion. If democ-

The War Today

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

However confusing and uncertain the immediate military situation in Norway, some effects of the German invasion of Scandinavia upon Europe's post-war map making, already can be foreseen. That Hitler surprise completely changed the scene with which allied-German and perhaps world peace makers will have to deal whenever the war ends.

It wrote a new chapter into allied war aims. It also portrayed not only for allied and Scandinavian attention, but for consideration of Hitler's still doubtful friends in Italy and Russia, an ominous blue print of what German victory might mean for them.

Restoration of Poland and Czechoslovakia are cardinal points of the Franco-British declarations, thus far made of their war aims. Restoration of the League of Nations and events make it necessary, Sweden, has now been added to the allied peace formula.

By every yardstick of allied policy and interest, erection of a Scandinavian-Finnish union or confederation is a logical step.

The general's speech here is sponsored by the Kerensky Crossman post of the American Legion.

Butler, America's most famous general, has seen service in Cuba, Nicaragua, France, and the Far East.

Dates for the Pampa News-Lions club second annual Soap Box Derby are expected to be announced within the next few days. That will be news that long has been awaited by hundreds of Pampa boys who are planning to enter the event this year.

County Judge Sherman White, general chairman of the 1940 derby in Pampa, received word Saturday that the All-American derby to which the Pampa winner will be sent will be held in Akron, Ohio, on Sunday, Aug. 11.

The Pampa derby, no doubt, will be held during the latter part of July.

In the first derby held here last year, Hugh Blevins, 14, became the city champion and made the all-expense trip to Akron where he competed with boys from 100 cities in the U. S., Canada and Canal Zone. Young Blevins, because of his victory last year, will not be eligible to compete this year.

General Chairman White stated Saturday that the derby executive committee of the Lions club will be called together within a few days to select the dates for the Pampa races.

Boys who wish to enter may begin on Monday filling their entries

Worley Resigns House Seat To Make Campaign

Eugene Worley of Shamrock, representative in the Texas legislature from the 122nd district, announced here tonight he was resigning from the legislature to make the race for congress in the 18th Texas district.

Worley entered the congressional race soon after Marvin Jones, congressman 24 years, was appointed to the U. S. court of claims. Eight other candidates, including Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo, have announced as candidates for the place.

AUSTIN, April 27 (AP)—The love bird flew out of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's hillbilly band today. Kermit Whalen, "Horace, the Love Bird," on the governor's radio program, sent in his letter of resignation, following the lead of big Leon Huff, tenor soloist who quit yesterday.

Commercial Floats Will Be In Parade

Jimmy Myers Will Be Chairman Of Committee

Fired with enthusiasm after learning the magnitude of the Coronado Entrada, Pampans during the week-end tackled the big job of making the Coronado Top O' Texas Fiesta "the celebration of our dreams."

All were agreed on one thing—the show will be big for one group to handle, and members of the senior chamber of commerce, the Jaycees, civic clubs, women's club, veteran organizations will cooperate in doing the Fiesta chores, and will share in the satisfaction of doing a big job well.

There are as many members of the Senior Chamber of Commerce, Women's club, veterans groups and service clubs on the committees as there are Jaycees, annual sponsors of the Fiesta Committee chairman for the Entrada and Fiesta were announced.

Head of the float committee will be Jimmy Myers, young and vigorous filling station manager. The floats will not be built by the Jaycees this year—they're resolved to have no deficit. The floats will be commercial and will be built by business men and merchants, clubs and towns, churches, schools and other groups. An entry fee will be charged, and cash prizes will be given. Mr. Myers will announce his committee later, and requirements for floats.

Jim Edwards, recreation supervisor, was appointed chairman of the parade hobbies division. Fred Roberts and his Scouts will have charge of ushering and parking.

Head of the Entrada grounds committee will be Lonnie Hood who

Peace Officers To Shoot It Out Here May 8-9

There's a keener look in W. C. Dillman's eyes these days. The Pampa policeman, a crack shot, Saturday saw some of the trophies that he will be awarded in pistol shooting at the North Texas-South Oklahoma Peace Officers' association, convention to be held here May 8-9.

Shooting matches are to be held on both days of the convention. There will be 57 awards in all, seven permanent trophies, one rotating trophy, nine medals, and 40 merchandise prizes.

The trophies received here Friday consisted of six statuettes, representing a police officer firing a pistol, with arm extended. The policeman is a silver figure. Base of the trophy is of bakelite. One of the awards has a wood base.

Fergusons Open Up Fifth Campaign

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

WACO, April 27 (AP)—Shouts of "me for me" and "what's wrong with pa?" rang here tonight as Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, seconded by her husband, James E. Ferguson, launched her fifth campaign for the governorship of Texas.

A big crowd on the lawn of the McLennan county courthouse listened attentively and at times warmly applauded as the former governors declared the condition of state affairs made Mrs. Ferguson's candidacy a matter of public duty.

It also cheered as both urged the renomination of President Roosevelt and as Ferguson asserted opposition to the presidential candidacy of Texas' native son, vice president Garner.

Ferguson estimated the attendance at 5,000, while estimates among press correspondents ranged from 2,500 to 3,500.

WACO, April 27 (AP)—Asserting she was answering a call to duty, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson opened her fifth campaign for the governorship of Texas with an address here tonight.

LORRAINE MURPHY First Pampa Entry in Buffalo Lake Review

Girls Wanted To Enter Buffalo Lake Contest

WANTED—Pampa girls over 15 years of age to represent Pampa in the Buffalo Lake Bathing Review to be held there May 5 as a feature of the grand opening of the lake for the 1940 season.

That was the appearance of Saturday by Dr. Adrian Owen, chairman of a committee named last week by members of the McClellan Lake Boat Club to organize Pampa's delegation to the lake opening a week from today.

One Pampa entrant already has filed her name with the committee which is composed of Dr. Owens, O. L. Boyington, and Tex DeWeese. She is Miss Lorraine Murphy, 16-year-old Pampa high school girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Murphy, 117 N. Gillespie street.

A meeting of the boat club members and their wives will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the City Hall auditorium to complete plans for the Pampa delegation's trip. All other Pampa girls who wish to enter

Hearing On Pampa Bakery Suit Set

The Union bakery at Pampa and other property is involved in a levy action brought by the government to satisfy the taxes in a suit now pending at Amarillo.

Final hearing on a government motion to set aside a restraining order preventing it from selling the property for alleged unjust enrichment tax will be held in Amarillo on May 14.

Judge James C. Wilson made the announcement in federal court at Amarillo Friday after conducting a hearing on the government's plea.

The restraining order had been obtained by Mrs. Gertrude Dee and her brother, P. E. Faust, both of Pampa. The Union bakery, involved in the suit, has now gone out of existence.

25,000 Will Fight Mock War In Texas

South Dakotans Will Represent Enemy In Forest

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

JASPER, April 27 (AP)—Twenty-five thousand troops bedded down in the historic East Texas forest country tonight—a quiet prelude to a mock war involving one-third the entire United States army.

Arrival at Nacogdoches of the 69th coast artillery anti-aircraft regiment from Fort Crockett (Galveston) brought to an end the concentration of the ninth corps—the red army—a band of units from Texas, Oklahoma, Utah, South Dakota, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Colorado, and Illinois.

After the week-end holiday, the doughboys will get down to brass tacks in maneuvers designed to prepare them for actual combat with the invading blue army, starting about May 11.

The blue army is the fourth corps, which accomplished its preliminary work at Fort Benning, Ga., and will move into the Alexandria, La., territory May 5-11.

Collision of the two forces will inaugurate the greatest peace-time maneuvers in the army's history, in which will be tested the new "streamlined" division; the value of a civilian warning net in defense against the use of force of horse cavalry with and against mechanized forces, and the movement and supply of large motor masses.

During the red army's preliminary maneuvers starting Monday, the fourth cavalry from Fort Meade,

May Pole Dance To Be Held At Phillips

"Winding of the may pole," a dance not generally seen in this section of the country, will be one of the highlights at the Phillips May Dance to be held Wednesday night in the Southern club and to which everyone is invited.

Participants in the special dance will be members of the "Phillips family" in the Pampa area.

A May Queen will be selected and she will preside during the evening. She will also be presented with a suitable gift and a crown.

Music will be furnished by the Cornshuckers of radio station KPND, directed by Ken Bennett.

Church Wrecked By Ghost Story Tellers

DALLAS, April 27 (AP)—Rogers community folk today decided to ask 89 boys and girls, who used the community church to tell ghost stories, to pay for repairing the old church, which has been virtually wrecked during the past year.

T. B. Crosby, trustee of the cemetery association, demanded at a mass meeting that the young couples be prevented if they do not pay for repairs to the 35-year-old church and 85-year-old graveyard.

The youngsters went to the church and cemetery to tell ghost stories. Churchgoers said the church was wrecked and that the youths danced on overturned gravestones.

Group 'Sold' On 'Chance Of A Lifetime'

Southwest To Be Invited To 'See' It First In Pampa

Pampans were completely "sold" on the Coronado Entrada to be staged here June 13, 14 and 15 at a dinner Friday noon.

Attending were officials of leading men's and women's clubs, chamber of commerce members and numerous residents.

Invited were all interested Pampans.

The "salesman" was Walter Reger, promotional director, representing the Federal agency, the U. S. Coronado Cuarto Centennial commission. Mr. Reger's salary is paid by the U. S. government.

Ivy E. Duncan, former Gary county judge and long-time Pampa booster, just before the meeting adjourned probably spoke the sentiments of the 75 people present.

"Pampa is almost unbelievably fortunate in getting this Entrada," he declared. "It's the kind of a show that we have wanted all these years since we've been putting on celebrations; it's the kind of a show we've dreamed about but thought we'd never get."

"I think it's a marvelous opportunity to really become the entertainment capital of Texas, Oklahoma and points in every direction. As for me it has my full support, and I agree with Mr. Reger that it, an honor to be chosen to appear in the cast of the Entrada—as well as a duty."

Pampans immediately realized that the Entrada will be staged the first time in Texas in Pampa months before it goes to Amarillo, Lubbock and Dalhart, and they at once began voicing the slogan "See it in Pampa first!" that will be plastered on billboards from Wichita Falls to the Kansas border, from Oklahoma City to Amarillo, and all over an arid, which should send the greatest number of out-of-town spectators to the three performances.

A publicity bureau will be set up next week to publicize the Entrada all the towns of the Panhandle and in Fort Worth, Houston, Oklahoma City, Wichita Falls, St. Louis, Chicago, New York, Boston for the benefit of tourists who may be heading this way on vacations at that time.

"You can make this show just as big as you want to," said Mr. Reger and the BCD and the Junior chamber of commerce are joining to make it as big as they can.

All attending agreed unanimously with Mr. Reger that Pampa has a great opportunity to become the entertainment capital of the southwest because the Entrada will be staged here first.

Government Paying Bill

Mr. Reger in his quiet, convincing voice told how Congress appropriated $200,000 for Coronado celebrations in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Kansas; how the best-known "cavalcade" author in America was chosen to write the script for the

I Saw ...

A touching example of a dog's loyalty and devotion. A dog, hit by a motor vehicle and fatally injured, was found by the side of the Amarillo highway on the outskirts of Pampa Saturday morning, and determinedly guarding him was a smaller dog, his pal while living. The smaller dog resisted all efforts of people to remove the body or to come near it. The guardian dog had worn a path around the body, and marks showed that he stayed with it during the Friday night storm. The only person who was able to get near the dog was Foster Fletcher, who came out to make pictures. Then the dog advanced, sniffed at the camera and went back and stood by the body. The dog was owned by Wayne Johnson.

How did he get it back, if ever? Through the town crier? Or did he do his own crying, to save money. These days, of course, he'd simply run a classified ad in a paper like The Pampa News. Hutchinson Wildcats Top Pay Formations

Dolomite Pay Discovered In Pringle Test

Panhandle oil operators are keeping watch on the north Hutchinson county area where two wells are nearing the pay. Four miles west of Pringle the J. R. Phillips No. 1 McClary in section 101, block 5T, T&NO survey, had topped favorable dolomite formation and a good producer is expected.

Farther south the Gordon Burch No. 1 Weatherly hit the big pay Friday and yesterday the hole filled with oil. It is three locations north of the Huber well on the Weatherly which was completed for 2,000 barrels last November. Mr. Burch would not estimate production when contacted yesterday but often said the well might be as large as the Huber gusher.

The J. R. Phillips test is causing considerable excitement because it is within three miles of the E. J. Dunning Trustee well which was abandoned as a dry hole last fall.

In Ochiltree county casing has been set at 5,000 feet in the Macon wildcat on the Norris ranch and a deep pay will be tested this week.

In Sherman county the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company's Bryant wildcat is reported to have set casing at 4,200 feet preparatory to testing a lower pay.

Six new oil wells were gauged last week adding 2,360 barrels to the field potential. One gusher was also tested.

Fourteen new locations were staked for each in Gray and Hutchinson counties and three each in Moore and Carson counties.

One of the new locations, the J. M. Huber Corp., No. 1 Carver in the Carver survey, Hutchinson county, is five miles southwest of Pringle, more than a mile from nearest pay.

The Texas company has made a location on its newly acquired 50,000 acre tract in Childress and Collingsworth counties. The test will be drilled on P. B. Smith Land & Cattle company acreage, in section 97, block 9, H&GN survey, Childress county, two miles south of the Collingsworth county line. It will be the first strictly seismograph structure test for this district.

Completions by counties follow:

TO ENTERTAIN AT PANHANDLE PRODUCERS AND ROYALTY OWNERS BANQUET

Kathryn Duffy, nationally recognized producer of foremost dance and stage productions, will present the entertainment at the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners annual banquet in Amarillo Saturday night. Above are some of the artists who will appear on the program.

Miss Luffly's new revue "Hello Beautiful," has scored hits throughout the west this spring. Her revues are fast moving, colorful and glamorous.

The revue will be presented in the Crystal Ballroom in the Herring hotel following a banquet and talks by outstanding figures in the oil business. Tickets are on sale in Pampa, Borger, Amarillo and Shamrock.

Pennies Will Be Sent To Crusade Fund

Pennies from Pampa will be collected here Tuesday and sent to an Emporia, Kas., bank for transmittal to the jury of award, New York, in the Children's Crusade for Children. The crusade opened in Pampa Monday in the Pampa schools and at Holy Souls school.

Nine boxes, in the form of tiny cans, have been issued to the schools and are used in receiving the children's contributions.

Aim of the nation-wide movement is for school children to contribute their coins for the benefit of war refugee children in Europe.

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of Horace Mann school, is in charge of the local campaign.

In connection with the crusade, pupils have been encouraged to write essays and poems. The following compositions are from Horace Mann pupils:

Tracy Cary, sixth grade, writes: "The pennies in our cans will help children in other lands. So help in this crusade. That their happiness will not fade. And if you do I'm sure Their joys may endure And if you'll help some other child Which perhaps has lost its country And we'll pray to glory then That war will come to an end." Bessie Baggett, sixth grade, writes an essay on "Why I Want a Part in the Children's Crusade." "I am thankful that I do not live under a dictator. I am glad that I live in a country where every person has an opportunity if he will only take it." "I am thankful that I can speak what I want, write what I want, and worship the way I want. So I am willing to sacrifice to help the children in other lands who are not so fortunate as I am."

Ruling May Not Affect Plains Gas Situation

The ruling by the attorney general's department Friday regarding commingling of sweet and sour gas may not affect the Panhandle gas situation, it was reported here yesterday after wording of the ruling had been studied by interested parties.

It was stated that the law regulating sour and sweet gas uses and the law on commingling of sweet and sour gas with casinghead gas were separate laws that applied to fields where only one type of gas was produced.

Many Panhandle gas producers, operators of casinghead gasoline and carbon black plants, and Pampa citizens have been urging the commission to pass a permanent order authorizing use of sweet gas from low pressure wells for manufacture of casinghead gasoline and carbon black.

When the ruling of the attorney general's department stating that the commission had no authority to allow sour and sweet gas to commingle with casinghead gas was first received here it was believed it would affect the existing situation.

High Officials Will Address Royalty Owners

The Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners association will bring several nationally-known speakers to Amarillo next Saturday when the association holds its annual meeting. New officers will be elected at an afternoon business session following a noon luncheon. The annual banquet will be at 6:30 p. m.

Speakers at the afternoon session will be Col. Ernest O. Thompson and Jerry Sadler, members of the Texas Railroad commission, and George Gibbons, executive vice-president of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, Texas division.

Following the banquet in the evening there will be two talks, one by Eugene McFarney, vice-president and cashier of the First National bank, Dallas, on "Taxation and Oil Financing" and the other by C. E. Buchner, executive manager of the Independent Petroleum association of America, who will speak on the situation of the oil industry from a national viewpoint.

Entertainment at the banquet will be presented by the Kathryn Duffy entertainers from Oklahoma City. The "Hello Beautiful" revue has just returned from an extensive tour through Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Florida.

There will be new songs, new dances, new skits by some of the nation's most beautiful girls. Included in the cast will be Gene Stockwell, Gayle Robbins, Dale Taylor, Jane Allen, Louise Eads, Jeanne Garron, Wanna Lee, Mackie and Paul, and others.

Luncheon and banquet tickets are now available in Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, and Shamrock.

County Having No Trouble With Motor Titles

They may be having troubles in making prompt issuance of certificates of title for the sale of automobiles, but Gray county isn't adding to the state's bureau's difficulties.

Since the deadline on automobile registrations, there has not been much activity here on applications for certificates of title. It usually requires from 10 to 15 days to get an application through from the county tax assessor collector's office to the state bureau and returned to the owner.

Jack Back, deputy tax officer, said Saturday that with the exception of a few dealers applications, there had been no delay here.

Ralph L. Buell, chief of the title division of the state police said, the six-month-old law requiring certified titles for motor vehicles has brought a daily average of 10,000 office hours but the force of 25 clerks is unable to complete the checking and issuance of more than 6,000 daily.

He asserted the certificate of title administrative as of April 22, had deposited $130,000 in the state general fund while appropriations for the state department were limited to $37,000.

Tax collectors who received applications for titles were paid $97,000 on a basis of 10 cents for each application. The state received the remaining 15 cents of the 25-cent fee.

Buell pointed out administrative costs amounting to slightly less than two and one-half cents for each title issued, one cent of which was spent for postage. The general revenue fund received 12 1/2 cents for each title.

It was estimated by Buell that the flood of applications for certificates of title doubled the number expected when the legislature enacted the law.

BEHMAN'S
"Exclusive But Not Expensive"

Federal Aid Improvements Here In Last Two Years Totaled $690,000

Steve Matthews of Berger will come to Pampa Wednesday to take office here as city manager, one day after the regular meeting of the city commission.

Mayor Fred Thompson Saturday in a reply to a question, said Matthews would not be in Pampa at the commission meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Matthews succeeds W. T. Williamson, resigned. Mr. Williamson was still on duty yesterday at the city hall. He said he had no immediate plans for the future.

During the time that W. T. Williamson served as Pampa's city manager, $690,000 worth of public improvements were obtained for the city through federal aid projects.

These projects were: street paving, divided into three separate jobs, 12 blocks paving, bridge on Texas and on North Russell streets, federal cost $13,400, sponsor's $18,250, total $29,650.

Cuyler street bridge widened, and 65 blocks of paving, federal funds, $45,150, sponsor's $64,050, total, $119,200.

The third and present street paving job consists of 75 city blocks, 40,000 feet of sidewalks, and 1,300 street markers, federal funds, $64,400, sponsor's $7,450, total, $121,850.

Out of the total number of blocks listed in the three jobs, a hundred blocks have been paved.

Erection of steel grandstand at Recreation park, federal funds, $30,000, sponsor's (contributed in number from old grandstand) $4,750, total $35,850.

Three park sites to be developed, sod and trees set out, terracing, federal funds, $29,250, sponsor's, $16,350, total $45,600.

Sixty-two tennis courts at B. M.

Baker school and two at Woodrow Wilson, through federal grant of $1,900.

Development of Pampa's water-works system, two new wells, doubling of water supply, 96 fire plugs, 12 miles of water lines, construction of overhead storage tank, rebuilt water system, approval by state health department, reduction in key fire rate, federal funds, $116,325, sponsor's $185,000.

Sponsoring of National Youth administration project and starting of full-time recreation program.

Mr. Williamson prepared the plans for the U. S. Weather Bureau station here and also helped the school district to obtain a federal grant for the new high school building.

Thomas To Assist In Wheeler County Dairy Day May 1

Ralph R. Thomas, Gray county farm agent, will go to Wheeler Wednesday, May 1, where he will help in directing the second annual Wheeler county Dairy day, a five-county event, embracing Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Donley, and Collingsworth.

Mr. Thomas acted in the same position at the first Wheeler Dairy day, held last year at Shamrock. The Wheeler event is one of 30 held over the state, for the purpose of encouraging the dairy cattle industry and better dairy products.

State extension officials at the Wheeler show will be Miss Nora

TYPICAL ENTRY IN GUYMON PIONEER DAY

The old Chuck Wagon comes into its own again at Guymon's Pioneer Day of "No Mans Land" celebration, May 1 and 2.

The one pictured above was a prize winner in last year's parade, one of the largest and most unique of its kind anywhere. This parade depicts the history of "No Mans Land," with no synthetic touch. All entries must be of pioneer significance. Each year the pioneers who have been here for 50 years or more eat a chuck dinner from a rig similar to the one above, prepared by themselves, over a cow chip fire on Guymon's main street, as they did in the early days.

Ellen Elliott, specialist in food preparation, E. R. Eudaly, dairyman, G. T. Gibson, assistant, and B. W. Maddox, dairy manufacturing specialist. Dairy cattle judging, classifying of dairy cattle, and scoring of dairy products and cattle, will be a part of the event. Men and boys and women and girls will compete in the various classes.

Lions Delegates Will Be Selected

Delegates and alternates to the Lions district 2-T convention to be held May 3, 4, and 7 in Big Spring will be elected at the Pampa Lions club luncheon at noon Thursday. The local club is to name eight delegates and eight alternates.

At the club's luncheon last Thursday, Mrs. Lillian Jordan gave a talk advocating Texas allow women to serve on juries, and two other members of the Pampa Business & Professional Women's club, Mrs. Bob Cecil and Mrs. Lillian McNut, presented a comedy skit.

Guests at the luncheon were Don Donovan, former Pampa, from Big Spring, Eugene Alderson, Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Corrigan of Dearborn, Mich. Mrs. Corrigan is the former Miss Jackie Jones of Pampa, and a sister of Mrs. Roy Boudland.

Local guests were John Ketter and Walter E. Rogers.

Open House To Be Observed By Hardware Stores

Featuring the value and variety of merchandise found only in a hardware store, the hardware merchants of Pampa are holding open house as their participation in National Hardware Open House, April 25 to May 4.

Hundreds of manufacturers are furnishing real values for the national event, many of which will be on display in Pampa stores. This merchandise includes gift items, kitchen wares and home appliances as well as other hardware items of outstanding quality.

The purpose of open house, according to hardware dealers, is to keep the public informed of the new and improved products featured by independent hardware retailers, and to give the public a better understanding of the broad scope of the hardware retailer's stock.

More than 10,000 hardware dealers throughout the country will participate in the ten day event this year.

"Open House is more than a sale, although many manufacturers have produced special values of their latest merchandise to be featured during this event," said Horace P. Aikman, president of the National Hardware Association, which is sponsoring Open House throughout the country.

"Hardware merchants have confined their merchandising plans to items of regular quality, and price reductions or special merchandise will be of outstanding quality and of the highest merchandise."

Pampa Hardware and Supply company, Hilson Hardware company, and Thompson Hardware company, are the first firms holding open house in Pampa.

Pampa Hardware and Supply company, one of the original businesses in Pampa, now 13 years old under the present name, will, through special arrangement, have demonstrations of various appliances and a noted home economic instructor of Chambers ranges in their store sometime during open house.

Harry Lee Johnson, 58, Dies in Pampa

Harry Lee Johnson, 58, Pampa resident for six months, died unexpectedly at his home at 183 East Chaves street Friday afternoon. He came to Pampa from LeFors where he had resided for eight years.

Mr. Johnson had suffered from asthma for several years. He suffered a heart attack while sitting in a chair at his home and death soon followed.

Survivors are the widow, three daughters, Mrs. Juanita Craig, Panhandle, Mrs. Velta Lee Borden, LeFors, and Miss Helen Johnson, Pampa. Three sons, Cecil, Raymond, and H. L. Jr., all of Pampa, and a half-brother, Will Smith of Oklahoma City.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in the LeFors Baptist church by the Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor, and the Rev. J. H. Vermillion, pastor of the LeFors Church of Christ. Burial will be in LeFors cemetery under direction of Duenk-Carmichael Funeral home.

Tank Designs Released

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—The war department has released designs of the army's latest tanks, guns and other weapons for sale abroad, but officials reported today that thus far there have been few orders for such munitions.

Representatives of Great Britain, France and other governments, however, were said to be continuing negotiations looking to possible large scale orders for powder, shells and weapons.

Menace Of Collectivism

Creeping collectivism is the menace which threatens the destruction of free enterprise in the United States, according to the thesis of Samuel B. Pettengill's new book, "Smoke-Screen," of the press April 15.

This forthright indictment of increasing bureaucracy in the United States, which the author holds is inevitably leading toward National Socialism, is not the first venture in the field of letters for this former Congressman. His previous books were "Hot Oil" and "Jefferson, the Forgotten Man."

The United States is already well started along the Nazi Road, the author states. A life-long Democrat and for eight years a Congressman from Indiana, Mr. Pettengill believes that unless this National Socialistic trend is halted, the democratic liberties of individuals, of business and of industry will vanish.

The author refrains from supporting by soap-box methods his startling contention that America is subtly being guided along the same road which Nazi Germany followed. He does not rant. He states his thesis and supports it with facts.

In his chapter on taxation, the author says that the increasing tax burden placed on industry provides a means by which management and earnings may be taken over by government, while the paper title to property is left with its owners. This method does not require government ownership, he says. There is no confiscation of property.

"You keep your hens," he writes. "Give us the eggs!" For the increasing bureaucracy he finds in the doubling of the number of federal employes, and the rise of all government employes—federal, state and county—to the startling total of 3,788,616 persons in 1937-38, Mr. Pettengill finds one solution ready at hand, at least in federal bureaus.

Congress could do it, he says, by refusing to vote the money. And even if the money is voted, the president is not obliged to spend it. With but a few exceptions, the president can slash expenses at any time he wants to.

As a resident of an automobile city (South Bend, Ind.) and a student while in Congress of the petroleum industry, the author cites these industries as examples of the trend toward collectivism.

The Patman bill, he writes, could enable a new federal bureaucracy to undertake control of contracts between motor vehicle manufacturers and dealers and prevent new men from entering the dealer field.

The Cole bill, he says, would put absolute control of the oil industry under the Secretary of the Interior. Both pending bills, according to Mr. Pettengill, are long and definite steps along the road toward a Nazi United States.

Meeting Ourselves

A rather moving letter arrived the other day from an American whose work has kept him abroad for the past 20 years.

"I have been reading all the books I can get about America and her history," it said. "I don't know when I will see home again—perhaps never. I love the story of America."

Perhaps he who has been long "among the alien corn" appreciates and loves his country best. But there are signs that Americans at home are also learning to know and love their own story. A single year saw the movies produce "Gone With the Wind," "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," "Union Pacific," "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," "The Grapes of Wrath," "Northwest Passage," "Alexander Graham Bell," "Drums Along the Mohawk" and many other films on the American scene past and present.

While it is true that America is part of a world community, it is also true that she has something infinitely precious of her own. It is good to husband that heritage.

Behind The News

WASHINGTON, April 27—If the Japanese have at least eight battleships under construction—which is accepted as pretty straight here—then their navy would actually be ahead of the American, in capital ship strength.

The Japanese are supposed to have four battleships almost ready to be launched and four more pretty well along. Considering difficulties of operating a fleet away from its bases, that would mean heavy superiority for Japan in the western Pacific.

Getting accurate dope on Japanese naval building is just about the hardest job the U. S. Navy has. In all other countries, it's almost impossible to maintain real secrecy about the broad outlines of a naval program; sooner or later, spies can find out what's going on.

But in Japan it's different. A U. S. intelligence agent may pass himself off as a German in Germany or as a Russian in Russia—but how is he going to pass as a Japanese in Japan?

That means our intelligence service has to rely mostly on information it can buy from Japanese individuals—and it never can be dead sure it isn't buying stuff purposely planted by the Japanese government.

CONGRESS SKEPTICAL ABOUT WAR SCARES

Which perhaps is one reason why Congress isn't getting into a lather over these reports. A more important reason is that a lot of congressmen sense a rising tide of war sentiment in the government and are being pretty hard-boiled and skeptical about any and all scare rumors.

It would be interesting if one could make a chart of the ups and downs in the war temperature in Washington.

Last September, when the war began, that temperature was "way up. Almost everybody down here seemed to take it for granted that America would be in the war before long; six months was the commonest es-

PICKETING AND WAGE LEVELS

The Supreme Court decisions outlawing picketing ordinances in California and Alabama brings the question as to whether picketing and collective bargaining raises or lowers wages, as Judge Murphy inferred in the report. It also brings up the question as to what civil rights are.

Associate Justice Murphy wrote the decision and seems to be very much confused as to what causes higher wage levels and what liberty really means.

Associate Justice Murphy says: "It is recognized now that satisfactory hours and wages and working conditions in industry and a bargaining position which makes these possible have an importance which is not less than the interests of those in the business or industry directly concerned." This, of course, is a truism but has nothing to do as picketing.

The inference is that collective bargaining raises wage levels. But no economist of the past or of the present has ever been able to even work out in theory how collective bargaining, that uses force and intimidation, can raise wage levels. All that collective bargaining does is to give arbitrarily high wages to the few and lowers the wage levels of other customers more than it raises the wages of the few.

If one undertakes to lift anybody, he must have a fulcrum or point of resistance, all elevation, you give to one by any other means than his own production must be gained by at least an equivalent depression of some one else.

Collective bargaining never created a yard, a pound or a bit of useful commodities, but it has prevented billions upon billions of dollars' worth of wealth from being produced. This thus means that collective bargaining, instead of raising wage levels as a whole, has lowered them.

Free Speech Not the Question. Certainly picketing ordinances are not for the purpose of preventing free speech but they are for the purpose of preventing mobs from intimidating other workers from selling their services to their best advantage.

Of course, one cannot pass an opinion on the decision of the Supreme Court on these two particular ordinances until one knows exactly what they prohibit. If the Supreme Court, however, intends to permit any group to assemble in unlimited numbers, it is certainly illogical to contend that this is necessary in order to preserve free speech. Free speech certainly does not give a man the right to yell fire in a crowded theater and create a panic, when there is no fire; nor does the right to picket give the workers the right to assemble in unlimited numbers in order to inform the public of their grievances. Picketing has come to be not a question of free speech but a question of intimidation. Assembling in large numbers is for this purpose and men should be regarded as guilty of creating a riot or provoking a breach of peace, when large groups assemble for the purpose of picketing, just as a man is regarded as guilty of burning a building when caught in the dark on private property with carbon oil poured on the property and a match lighted ready to set it on fire; or just as a man is regarded as guilty of adultery who is caught in bed with a woman who is not his wife. The act of violence in the case of union picketing does not have to be performed in order to prove the motive when the assembly is in large numbers or they carry concealed weapons.

If picketing is to be preserved, I cannot see how it could be unfair or unconstitutional to require each man who desires to picket to register with the sheriff and have his photograph taken, just as a man who desires to lobby for a bill must go on record as evidence of his sincerity. This would in no way prevent freedom of speech but would tend to make hoodlums and racketeers more easily detected in their real motives. Certainly the owners of property must be protected in their inalienable right to exchange services in the form of wages on a free market without intimidation, just as all labor must have rights to exchange their labor for other labor. And no group of laborers have a right to exclude other laborers from the same right.

Picketing does not give union labor the license to interfere with the rights of other workers or with entrepreneurs to exchange freely what they have to exchange.

Cooperating with Free Market. When any labor unions work to cooperate and make the law of supply and demand of labor function fairly, it is of benefit to society. In other words, when a labor union is able to find a better job for a worker and prevent the employer from hiring him for less than other people are willing, permanently, to do the same job for, then this labor union is in harmony with the law of supply and demand and freedom and it is of benefit to society; but when the labor union attempts to prevent the free and natural division of labor from being established, then this labor union, as is the case of picketing and intimidation, is simply robbing other workers and preventing wealth from being produced, that lowers the standard of living of society as a whole.

It is of the utmost importance that people come to understand the difference between the honest objectives of labor unions and what has developed under collective bargaining and picketing.

One is worthy, Christian and democratic; the other is a racket, tyranny, Fascism and Communism.

Practically all the talk was about "when" we would get in, not "if."

Then came the special session of Congress called to revise the neutrality law. The administration got its law revised, but it also got a cold compress applied to its fever-stricken brow. The returning solons came to the capital with one firm conviction: that the folks back home didn't want any war.

WAR FEVER ON WAY UP. In a sense, the isolationists really won the special session fight, even though they were badly outvoted. They did stop the war talk. The curve on the fever chart took an abrupt dip.

Now it has gone 'way up again. It started up in mid-winter, when it began to be realized that the allies weren't winning and that the Welles peace effort was no dice. The Norwegian news put it up almost to last-September levels.

So once again we hear this "when we get in" talk and once again there is a lot of talk about six months. Luckily, though, Congress is doing a pretty fair job of keeping cool and refusing to get scared.

THE TOURIST SEASON IN EUROPE

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD—Spring in Movietown is a good deal like a new Disney feature. It pays no attention to schedules but lags along, mixing its paints, gathering its full forces of charming madness, finally to emerge at one bound and in spectacular triumph.

The weather isn't wholly responsible for the premiere of spring, but it helps. Comes a hot spell that lasts long enough to overcome nature's shyness, and everything pops into bloom—studio gardens, Ross and Russell's hats, Myrna Loy's freckles, Cesar Romero's wardrobe, and love all over the place.

Other events confirm the vernal advent; Errol Flynn and Lili Damita stop quarreling; Alice Faye rides around the lot on a bicycle. Twentieth-Fox announces that its great crop of pictures will be the greatest of any studio in the history of Hollywood. Bette Davis gets hay fever.

Joan Crawford plays tennis in a pair of shorts that establish a new high. Ann Southern's new evening gown reaches an all-time low. A press agent writes a blurb in verse. Dorothy Lamour puts her winter romance (with Robert Preston) in storage and sails for Honolulu alone.

M-G-M announces that it is fall crop of pictures will be the greatest from any studio in the history of Hollywood. A sparrow tries to build a nest in Jim Tully's hair.

FUR COATS, SKYROCKETS USHER IN SPRING. Arleen Whelan poses in fur coats for fall publicity pictures. Nancy Kelly puts on a bathing suit and straddles a skyrocket for Fourth of July art. Waitresses in drive-in sandwich stands switch from slacks to shorts, and business picks up immediately.

The Warner Brothers announce that their fall crop of pictures will be the greatest from any studio in the history of Hollywood. Spring housecleaning in Beverly mansions brings to light several skeletons in the closet.

Greta Garbo goes to a night club and drinks something besides carrot juice. Eleanor Powell goes bicycling on the Sunset bridge path. Studio writers leave the stuffy little cubicles where they have hibernated, blink at the bright sun and ask what month this is.

A horned toad crashes the Warner lot and is tested for "The Desert Song." Universal announces that its fall crop of pictures will be the greatest from any studio in the history of Hollywood. Rudy Vallee goes into a flower shop and orders three orchids, but leaves in embarrassment because he can't remember which gal he intended sending them to.

NEW SIGNS OF SPRING—MORE RHYME FOR LOVE. Marry Pickford loses a party to celebrate her birthday. Buster Keaton smiles. Movie songwriters get into a joyous dither over the report that a New York etymologist has found a new word that rhymes with "love."

Paramount announces that its fall crop of pictures will be the greatest from any studio in the history of Hollywood. Boris Karloff gets up at 5 a. m. and sets out 120 zinnia plants before going to the studio to commit a triple murder.

Real estate agents begin advertising their spring line of houses, priced from $75,000. Anne Shirley finishes "Andy of Windy Poplars" just a jump ahead of the stork. Ann Sheridan takes a sunbath and an aviator circles around until he runs out of gas.

Hedy Lamour puts her top down on her car. Victor McLaglen lovingly sprays his rose garden.

The sport of throwing beardless Jaycees into the law on the courthouse lawn went on a wholesale basis Friday afternoon when the be-whiskered boys tossed five in the "drink." The first was B. M. Behrman who submitted with grace and dignity. The second was Otho Humphrey who also got a kick out of it, but who at the last moment tried to drag Chief Ducker Johnny Wells in with him and as a consequence was shoved in backwards with his shoes on. Foster Fletcher was permitted to change into old clothes, and he had his studio assistant on hand to take pictures as he stepped forward. Afterward Wayne learned he was not even a member of the Jaycees. Next on the Jaycees list are Jack Johnson, Tom Howell, Dick Hughes, Joe Gordon has started letting his whiskers grow. "We don't want to toss the boys into the drink," Wells said yesterday. "The whole point is to get them to grow whiskers to advertise the Corcoran and Albuquerques. After all there's still two months left."

Children have most accidents right in the home.

It is a serious commentary upon our social organization that while we have been saving more and more children from the gastrointestinal diseases, smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and other acute diseases we have not at the same time made as great gains in the prevention of accidents in our homes and on the public highways.

In those places where special attention has been paid to accident prevention encouraging results have been obtained, but there is still considerable room for improvement in wide stretches of the United States.

Young children suffer from all kinds of accidents, principally in the home from falls, scalds, electric shocks. Young children are likely to put any object at hand into their mouth, ears or nose and this may result in serious trouble. This points clearly to careless habits or unsafe conditions in the homes.

More vigilance is needed in keeping matches away from children and in protecting them against gas stoves and open grates as well as from tubs of hot water.

While nearly as many children are killed, and many more injured, at home than on the streets, automobile accidents now take a heavy toll of child life.

It is encouraging that the whole country is becoming aroused to the necessity for more intensive education along accident prevention lines. Safety councils, traffic police, school teachers, parent-teacher groups and the Red Cross are all urging eternal vigilance and co-operation with the public authorities to help reduce the large number of unnecessary traffic accidents.

AN inquiry on wedding anniversaries sent to several of the old family almanacs the other day. . . . Almost everybody knows that the 25th is the silver and the 50th is the golden anniversary, but what about the others? . . . A man called to find out about the 10th anniversary. . . . Now, for the benefit of those who go ten rounds in the marital ring, the answer to the tenth is that it is the tin anniversary.

Getting around to some of the others—In 15 papers, 15 is wood, 10, tin; 15 crystal; 20, China; 25, silver; 30, pearl; 35, coral; 40, ruby; 50, gold; 55, emerald; 60, amethyst; 75, diamond. . . . The war on dandelions got off to a good start the past week on the courthouse lawn. . . . It's an old custom. . . . Each year gardeners hopefully try some new scheme to rid lawns of the dandelions, and year—like the dusters—they come up again.

AN unusual photoplay is "The Story of Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet," coming to a local theater next Wednesday and Thursday. . . . While it features Edward G. Robinson, it is not a gangster picture. On the other hand, it is the story of the life of Dr. Paul Ehrlich, the man who discovered cures for some of mankind's most dread diseases. . . . This picture will be a delicate subject handled with ultimate finesse to make it completely absorbing drama at its educational best. . . . No audience can fail to be stirred and thrilled by the screen story of this particular episode of medical history. . . . It should be a "must see" picture by all those interested in bringing medical truth to light.

The people of Texas and the Panhandle who are petroleum producers will find particular interest in the indictment of collectivism made in Samuel B. Pettengill's new book, "Smoke-Screen." . . . In it, Mr. Pettengill makes special mention of oil and the automobile industry, both of which are the targets, he contends, of bureaucracy seeking federal control.

FOR eight years a Congressman (Democrat) from Indiana, Mr. Pettengill states that National Socialism in this country has finished tap-tapping at the back door, has made its quiet way through the rear rooms and now has its eye on the master's chair in the living room. . . . Pettengill is no newcomer to the field of books. He was the author of "Jefferson, the Forgotten Man," and of "Hot Oil," which dealt with the perplexing problems raised by the opening of the vast new oil fields of the Southwest. His new book, "Smoke-Screen" is printed by Southern Publishers, Kingsport, Tenn.

The author is particularly qualified to discuss the oil industry, having served on the Congressional committee which investigated the industry in hearings held in the states where oil is produced. . . . Pointing out the beneficent purpose of the free enterprise system, Pettengill declares that the laboratories of the American oil industry have saved six times the amount of petroleum used by the entire world in 1937.

By constant improvement of the cracking process, the oil industry has saved 11,369,900 barrels of oil, in effect "finding" more than half as much crude oil in 18 years of research as was brought out of the earth in eight years. A practical application of this saving of twice as much oil as Texas has produced in its entire history. . . . "Do these National Socialists in Washington give the industry credit for saving eleven billions barrels of oil?" he asks. "No. They do not. On the contrary, they want leave of Congress (the Cole Bill) to tell the industry how to run its affairs."

"Let us inquire what they plan to do with this industry," Pettengill writes. "A bill is pending which was introduced by Congressman William P. Cole, Jr., of Maryland. It is known as the Cole Bill, although it was written by Secretary Ickes' staff and Congressman Cole has stated that he by no means approves of the bill as written. This bill, if enacted, will give the Secretary of the Interior not only final absolute power to prescribe all means and methods by which petroleum is produced, but also the power to determine for what purposes petroleum and all its products may be used."

"Today, the petroleum industry is united, almost to a man, against the pending bill. Today, twelve governors, eight in person and four by personal representatives, have appeared before Mr. Cole's committee in Washington to protest against any more federal control over industries or states. Governor Phillips of Oklahoma told the congressmen 'your conclusions in this matter may not only affect a great industry but may fashion and shape the destiny of the nation.'"

"Don't give us any more don'ts," said Governor Ayres of Montana. . . . Other states making official protest, Pettengill writes, were Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Michigan, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana.

"THIS bill is a step which would undermine the basic structure of the Republic," said Governor Ratner of Kansas. . . . The author himself declares: ". . . It is probable that this petroleum bill goes further toward the Nazi America than any legislation on the books."

STORIES IN STAMPS

Stamp Marked Growth Of U. S. Manufactures

RAPIDLY increasing demand, both in domestic and foreign markets, boomed the growth of the American factory system in the first 23 years of the 20th century. This expansion was marked philately by the issue of the U. S. 25-cent parcel post stamp, above, honoring manufactures, released in 1912.

In 1890, 207,514 factories employed 4,712,763 workers, produced $11,406,926,701 worth of products; in 1914, there were 275,791 factories, 7,036,337 wage earners producing products valued at $24,246,434,724.

This year 1919 saw manufacturing at its peak with 290,105 establishments employing 9,063,372 workers to produce goods worth $62,418,078,773. Ten years later the value of the goods jumped to $69,960,909,712, but fewer factories were in operation and fewer workers were employed. Latest census reports list 166,794 factories, 8,569,231 workers, and products valued at $60,712,871,737.

Census Chief Thanks Pampa Residents

Carroll Smyers yesterday issued a statement in which he expressed his thanks to the residents of the counties in the Pampa census district for their cooperation in making the taking of the census such a success.

"The work has not quite been completed but within a few days all enumerators will have made final reports and then an opportunity will be given anyone who has not been visited to notify the office that they have been overlooked. Mr. Smyers, district supervisor, said.

"Four of the Pampa enumerators have not completed their field work, therefore, one job of counting Pampa's population according to our methods has not been completed. Within the next few days all of the field work in Pampa will be completed, but this will not mean that we have positively not missed anyone. At that time we are going to ask the newspapers of Pampa to publish the fact that the population enumeration of Pampa has been completed and if there is anyone or any household that has not been counted, he will be requested to fill in a coupon that will appear in a later edition of the local papers giving his name and address, whereby the census bureau will make a thorough check through its records to see if such an omission has been made, and if so, that person or persons will be promptly and accurately added to the population of Pampa," Smyers explained.

"Please give us an opportunity to contact every household and individual in Pampa, and to complete the census according to the regular routine before you begin notifying us that you have been omitted from the enumeration. This cooperation will help to avoid confusion in the local census office," Smyers concluded.

Extension Of Gulf Highway Advocated

CHILDRESS, April 27 (AP)—The Colorado-to-Gulf highway association approved at its 28th convention today a recommendation that the road be extended northward from Denver to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C.

The road would give a through channel from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico by way of the Glacier National park. Extension of the highway through Mexico to Mexico City may be proposed next year.

W. H. Wright of Vernon, Tex., was elected president of the association today at the closing convention session.

Other new officers named include Floyd S. Padgett of Colorado Springs, vice president; Anell A. Swagerty of Clayton, N. M., vice president; A. G. Hammond of Childress, vice president; Ray Nichols of Vernon, Tex., treasurer and Ralph Faxon of Raton, N. M., secretary.

Nazi Column Speeds Over Steep Trails

By THOMAS F. HAWKINS

STOCKHOLM, April 27 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's war machine advancing steadily along the rocky roads of central Norway, was reported to-night to have sped a mechanized column 50 miles over steep mountain trails in an amazing flanking movement which threatened allied soldiers in two sectors of the front below Trondheim.

The fully equipped Nazi motor units, covering the 50 miles in less than 24 hours, climbed the mountain trails from Thyset, west south of the advance German column at Roros, and thrust northward toward Kvikne and thence to Inset. This put them about 15 miles south of allied concentrations at Storöen. The German column is only 30 miles to German-occupied Trondheim.

Thus this column not only was in a position to cut the railroad from Storöen south to Dombas, where there are other allied troops, but it appeared also to have outflanked the fighting along the Glomma river, to the east, in the Roros area. Norwegian forces have been fighting against heavy odds to stop German columns from getting to Storöen from Roros along the main valley route. The mountain flanking column, however, appears to be almost at Storöen without fighting anybody.

The German column advancing over the rough Thyset-Kvikne trail had armored cars and small tanks. They were credited with negotiating a road which even in peacetime presents an unusual hazard. It bends and dips from 1,500 to 3,000-foot levels and sometimes curves around narrow mountain ledges where a mistake will plunge any vehicle down perpendicular cliffs.

As a result of all this, the British-Norwegian opposition appeared thus far ineffective in central Norway south of Trondheim. One foreign neutral military observer of long experience expressed the conviction that the Nazis could not well be stopped.

The German drive is in three main sections, along the railroad inland from Bergen and in Roros and Dombas sectors farther north. The flanking column is an offshoot, sprouting northward between the two latter places.

show: how the Commission employed Lucy Barton, one of the leading costumers in the U. S. to make 1,000 dazzling costumes, how the commission built the largest stage in the world, a stage that would be portable, 350 feet long, 45 feet high; how horses, men, sheep, cattle would travel over 35-foot high ramps on this stage; how the Entrada technicians labored to make costumes, hand properties such as swords, guns, scenery absolutely authentic; how the show would cost $100,000 if Pampa had to produce it.

Mr. Reger—Four Pampa people, Helen Dudley, Mrs. Kathryn Steel, Carl Hills and Pat Flanagan, modeled four costumes exhibited by Mr. Reger. The costumes were lavish in the 15th century fashion; they were of velvet, satin and silk and glittered with ornaments.

Came Near Pampa "If the 1,000 Pampa people who will wear these costumes would just walk across the stage which will be lighted in a manner you have never seen, that would be shown enough," he said, "but in addition to that there will be a story to go with it—the breath-taking, thrilling story of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado's expedition through Texas, the Panhandle, Pampa!"

"It's hard to realize that that brilliant, costumed, glittering cavalcade of old Spain, came within sight of Pampa and marched over the plains that we prosaic people see every day but they didn't."

Mr. Reger said that the lighting and sound systems are the best that money can buy and that there are none better in the U. S. "We will use 100,000 watts in lighting the stage in daylight, twilight, sunrise, moonlight and at the brilliant colors you can imagine."

Mr. Reger exhibited a table-sized reproduction of the stage, and persons present who saw both the Cavalcade of Texas at the Dallas Centennial and the Cavalcade of the Golden West at San Francisco's world fair were convinced that the Entrada stage will be higher, longer and that the plains, mountains, seas painted on the scenery will be an authentic reproduction of the Southwest terrain.

The speaker cited that the steel framework which will support the stage scenery will weigh 46,000 pounds; the sound equipment 10,000 pounds; the lighting system 12 tons. Costumes will come in 10 trucks painted red and gold.

Cast To Be Picked Rehearsals for the Entrada will begin May 20 with Larry Doyle of the Jerome Carrell producing company of New York directing the Pampans. Casting will begin immediately. Forty leading roles will be played by Pampans, six by professional actors who travel with the show, their salaries paid by the government. Each club in the city will furnish members of the cast. The show will be selected by the club. Mr. Reger described the privilege of being in the cast as an "unforgettable experience," and said that men who grow whiskers should be allowed prominent places in the cast. Immediately afterward, Jimmy Dodge, co-chairman of the Entrada and Fiesta who presided at the meeting, announced that those bearded men will be invited to portray roles in the show. The high school Parent-Teacher association will assist in procedure to select high school students for roles in the show. No appeals for a cast will be made, it was emphasized.

IT WON'T BE LONG NOW, BOYS!

Pampa boys between the ages of 11 and 15 years soon will be getting this kind of a thrill as they prepare for The Pampa News-Lions club second annual Soap Box Derby to be held here the latter part of July. New for the 1940 running of the derby is the solid steel helmet worn by the young driver in this photo. A new design characterizes the aluminum finished helmet, which has been improved in many ways, including superior fitting and padding features. All race drivers are supplied with these helmets which are given free to each entrant and become a valued souvenir of the world's greatest amateur racing event.

signed by W. D. Neville, commandant U. S. Marine Corps. "The major general commandant takes pleasure in quoting for your information the endorsement of the secretary of the navy which the commander-in-chief, Asiatic fleet, placed on your historical report of the occupation of Tientsin by the Third Brigade marines under your command from the first part of June, 1927, to December, 1928:

"1. The commander-in-chief directed General Butler to submit this report because he believed that a record should be made in this way of the occupation of Tientsin by the Third Brigade of marines from the first part of June, 1927, to December, 1928.

"The information in this report was given to the commander-in-chief personally from time to time when he visited and inspected the Third Brigade at Tientsin. This report will be valuable historically and also should be of great benefit to any officer in the future who may be called upon to perform similar duty.

"2. The work of the Third Brigade in Tientsin was very unusual and quite different from anything which the marines usually are called upon to perform. This was particularly the case with General Butler, whose experience in the past had, in general, been the military offensive.

"As soon as General Butler understood the mission which he and his command were required to perform, he undertook the work with that energy and intelligence which he has always shown when he had anything to do. I believe it is only necessary to read over this report to realize how fully he and those under his command and especially with his leadership, prepared for every possible contingency with the idea that they were to protect American lives, property, and interest without incurring the ill will of the Chinese and, if possible, without bloodshed.

"I would like to state that in my opinion General Butler and his command added one more page to the record of the marine corps of our navy and that this page in their history is one which the navy can be proud; and it reflects decided credit on the marine corps."

It was in Waco that Mrs. Ferguson in 1932 made the opening speech of her successful campaign for a second term as governor.

Both the Fergusons closely linked her campaign for a third term with efforts to nominate President Roosevelt for a third term.

Closely following statements made in her recently announced platform, Mrs. Ferguson also advocated: "Financing the state's social security program by a gross receipts tax of one-half of one percent, with reasonable exemptions, and a reasonable additional tax on natural resources if needed."

"It is my wish to meet and talk with everyone in the county," Mr. Kelley stated.

DERBY

with Registrar Luther Wagner at the Culbertson-Smalling Chevrolet Bldg. Entrants will be notified just as soon as rule books are received in Pampa. Each entry will be given an official rule book.

Typically American in concept and conduct, the Soap Box Derby, now in its seventh year, is generally recognized as "the world's greatest amateur racing event."

The derby is a coaster wagon race for boys aged 11 to 15 years inclusive. It is sponsored jointly by the Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors and leading newspapers in more than 100 cities throughout the United States under an arrangement whereby Chevrolet maintains supervision over the broad general program. The paper at each sponsoring point conducts its own derby under national rules, and then sends its local champion to compete in the National Finals at Akron, O., where Chevrolet and the Akron Beacon Journal collaborate as hosts.

The racers are gravity-powered cars built by the boy entrants themselves. Rules set certain restrictions on weight and dimensions, and specify certain types of wheels and brakes, the main purpose of these restrictions being to assure safety for drivers and onlookers, and equal opportunity to all boys, regardless of family circumstances. No car may cost more than $10 to build and no adult may assist in its construction, except by giving advice. Professionally-built cars, or entries involving processes specifically barred by the rules, are disqualified.

The Mayflower Hotel in Akron, annually is taken over from lobby to roof to accommodate the boys, their newspaper escorts, parents who make the trip with them, and the many officials who are required to handle the program. The boys will arrive there Aug. 9 and 10, and their cars will on display in the auditorium of a large department store near the hotel. The visiting champions will have opportunity, the afternoon before race day, to try out their cars on Derby Downs, a puppet state in event of Nazi victory. It was dissembled by a Hitler announcement Saturday.

Abandoning the original claim that the Norwegian occupation was for "protective" purposes, Hitler declared that a state of war existed between Germany and Norway. Permanent extension of Germany's "protective" role over all Scandinavia is the logical consequence that those countries must vision if Germany wins.

As a grand prize at the national finals is a four-year college scholarship. First-place winner receives, in addition to the scholarship, a handsome gold-finish trophy, and a diamond-set gold medal. Awards to remaining finalists through sixth place include gold-finish trophies and special medals.

In the international finals, similar awards are made to winners of first, second and third place. Here in Pampa, there will also be many prizes for local winners. The top prize of course is the trip to Akron to compete in the national finals.

REVIEW

ter the bathing beauty review are asked to report at the Tuesday night meeting in City hall. Dr. Owens stated that it is the plan for all Pampa members and their wives to meet at City Hall at 8 a. m. Sunday May 5 to join with a delegation from the Canadian Boat club and go to Buffalo Lake together.

Miss Oriana Farmer, Miss Amarillo Casa Manana for 1939, was the first Amarillo entry in the Buffalo Lake Review. Approximately 40 entries had been received yesterday for the annual bathing beauty review. Included were Miss Opal Tedder of McLean, winner of the St. Patrick's Review at the Shamrock St. Patrick's Day celebration, and Miss Doris Jean Russell of Spearman, Miss Panhandle at last year's review.

Entries do not have to be sponsored by any organization, the only requirement being that they be 15 years old or older. All beauties interested in entering the contest should telephone the contest directors, telephone 7177, for full particulars.

Arrangements for the 1940 opening indicate an even greater show than the first opening a year ago. The first "over-the-water" stage in the post-war is being constructed at the stage show to be presented. The stage is being constructed on floats. Music for the stage show and the Grand Ball will be provided by Carlton Scales and His Orchestra.

Plans for the annual Panhandle Regatta, highlight of the opening program, indicate that the fastest boats and most daring racing drivers in the races. Substantial cash prizes in the "Scowfest" will enterprizes have been pooled in all classes except the sailing inboard motorboat races. Handsome trophies are offered for the winners in these events.

Entry fees have been eliminated, guaranteeing that every motor boat driver in the Panhandle and many outstanding drivers from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico will participate.

While Dies condemned "atheism and materialism sweeping over the world," 20 uniformed policemen stood guard at the municipal auditorium entrance to prevent picketing. The young men who had announced plans to picket were distributing circulars among the conference delegates.

The circulars charged "Mr. Dies' committee has become the mouth-piece of disgruntled individuals who wish to use its avenues of publicity to smear their enemies," and added: "To bring Mr. Dies before the Methodists is to throw support to a man who has brought shame and dishonor to those things which we as Americans and Christians have been taught to hold dear."

Herman Will, Jr., of Chicago, president of the National Council of Methodist Youth, led the young dissenters.

will have charge of hiring workmen to erect the stage.

Carl Benefield will be in charge of outdoor publicity, chiefly billboards. Copy for the billboards will be furnished by the U. S. Commission at a nominal cost. Johnny Wells of KPDM was named chairman of the radio committee.

George Grammas will head the committee to distribute thousands of folders supplied by the commission. He will also head the dance committee. Dick Hughes will name an old-timers committee at an early date. Paul Schneider, former state champion baton twirler, will use his musical connections to bring numerous bands to the Fiesta. He will also name his committee soon.

Russell McConnell was appointed chairman of a committee to secure horses for the Entrada and to accept entries for the parade. "Bill Jarratt was named chairman of the parade coordinating committee. Jack Johnson will head the ticket-selling committee.

Selection of a casting committee being to assure safety. Decision on whether to sponsor a rodeo was delayed; also a suggestion that the parade be held in the afternoon instead of the morning. Until recent years, the parade was held in the afternoon, and supporters of the afternoon parade contend that more visitors saw the parades when held in the afternoon.

South Dakota, will represent the enemy. The quality of its attempts to smash the superior strength of the remainder of the corps by concealed, lightning movements through the thick pine woods will be a gauge upon which the red army may conduct itself later in the big battle.

At the end of the preparatory period, the fourth cavalry will rejoin the corps and on May 9, the red army will cross the Sabine river, which will represent an international boundary line, and move 50 to 75 miles inland. From the east will come the blue army, numerically superior with its 45,000 troops, in an effort to dislodge the defenders. The opposing forces are not evenly matched because, army theorists say, "fewer can defend than it takes to attack."

Boundary cities during the combat will be Logansport, La., on the north and Deweyville, La., on the south, which permits approximately a 100-mile front. Democrats To Hold Precinct Meetings Here Next Saturday

Democrats in each of the county's 17 precincts will meet at 2 p. m. Saturday at their usual voting places to elect delegates for the county convention to be held at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of May 7 at the court house.

H. C. Coffee, Gray County Democratic Executive Committee chairman, said a list of the precinct convening places would be announced tomorrow.

At the county convention delegates will be elected for the state convention to be held at Waco on May 28, to name Texas' nominee for the Democratic presidential candidate.

From 15 to 18 delegates are to be named from this county to the state convention. Precincts are allowed one delegate to the county convention for each 25 votes polled in the last governor's race.

Phillips Directors Can't Visit Here

Because of limited time, directors of the Phillips Petroleum company from New York and Bartlesville, Okla., will be unable to visit Pampa and this area, it was learned yesterday.

The visitors will arrive at Panhandle at 12:15 p. m. today and go to Borger and Phillips. They will go from Borger to Amarillo from where they will leave Monday morning.

"This trip will have to be confined to a visit at Phillips and other plants at Borger because of limited time," R. C. Jopping, vice-president, telegraphed the Pampa News yesterday.

way's connivance, to make Norway a base against Germany. He said the Nazi army took those documents from British officers taken prisoner, from allied consular offices and the Norwegian foreign office in Oslo.

Hitler Blames Norway Adolf Hitler's earlier proclamation of a state of war with Norway said the country of King Haakon brought it on herself by resisting Germany's move to protect her.

The official German declaration of a state of war with Norway, published two days after President Roosevelt proclaimed it and invoked the United States neutrality act, put German-occupied Denmark in a strange position.

She serves as a German base for operations against her traditional friend and neighbor in the north. And occupied Norwegian territories will be in a status similar to Poland's.

Great Britain and France, tracing for new operations in the north, promptly called Germany's document-backed allegations a prevarication.

The allied supreme war council, meeting in London with representatives of the Norwegian and Polish governments, moreover said succinctly that there was "unanimity" in its plan for measures to meet "various situations" in the future.

The French warned Sweden she'd better be wary of German compliance because Sweden "interpreted very seriously indeed" her declaration of neutrality. Poland also got bouquets like that at one time from the Nazis, the French recalled.

In the central Norway fighting zone the Nazi motorized and mechanized detachments were making such progress that an experienced foreign neutral military observer opined that it was doubtful whether they could be stopped.

Nazi Landings Continued Other military experts were of the view that the vaunted British navy had not halted the transport of German troops by sea. Continued landing of Nazi forces was reported at Oslo.

Without reinforcements, said these observers, the allies and Norwegians could not hope to drive the Nazis out of the territory they hold.

Great Britain bent herself to the task in Norway. Her troops were augmented by tough French Alpine "Blue Devils," planes and light artillery.

The British war office, having admitted losing "the first trick," in Norway, declared the situation unchanged around Steinkjer, above Trondheim, scene of last week's British retreat, and said a German attack had been thrown back "with heavy losses" down the Gudbrandsdalen (valley) 100 miles below Trondheim.

Nothing further was reported on the movements of the great British fleet, traditional "silent service." Presumably it was busy getting troops and guns to Norway and helping in the establishment of Norwegian air bases.

Worley made no reference to Commissioner Thompson who announced shortly after he entered the congressional race that he would not resign from the railroad commission. There have been persistent rumors that Thompson may withdraw from the congressional campaign and reenter the governors' race.

You'll be No. 1 in the Hit Parade!

Look at Buick First...you can afford it and you can't know what your 1940 money ought to buy until you've seen this really modern automobile.

YES sir, something pretty special happens when you turn the ignition switch, and drive away for the first time in your very own 1940 Buick.

In that little act, you get a years-long jump on the other fellow. You step out in a car that is not only 1940's biggest news but the pattern for many a season to come.

Style? Just look the others over and see how they mirror the trend Buick began a good twelve months ago!

Size? Just try to find a car as long as Buick, bumper to bumper, for the same money—or one with a frame as husky and rigid.

Comfort? Performance? Appointments? No one else on the highway has soft, gentle coil springs all around that never need lubrication, with the steady rolling firmness of torque-tube drive.

No one else gives you a gas-thrifty Dynaflex valve-in-head straight-eight engine, much less a power plant electro-balanced after assembly.

No one else has a Two-Way Direction Signal with automatic cut-off—or standard equipment so complete that even a lock for the gas tank is included in the price.

And with the whole range of Buick's six dozen 1940 features you'll be No. 1 in the automotive hit parade, leading the way in a car that will still be full of big news many a season hence.

You'll be driving a Buick, staunch and solid in its tested metal, fashioned with Buick craftsmen's skill, a car you can count on to keep its value, lose mighty little through either use or depreciation.

And the price? Unbelievable as it sounds, the Buick SPECIAL carries a price lower than some sixes—which spells "buy" in any man's language. Why not learn more from the nearest Buick dealer?

Texan Breaks Drake Pole Vault Record

By CHARLES W. DUNKLEY
DES MOINES, Ia., April 27 (AP)—Soaring into the air on a determined, final leap, Beerus Bryan of the University of Texas, smashed a 10-year old record in the pole vault today when he cleared 14 feet, one-sixteenth of an inch, in the finals of the 31st annual Drake relays.

Another record was equalled as the carnival, with survivors of a field of 2,500 athletes in hot competition, came to a brilliant close before 15,000 spectators.

The absence of more new records was attributed to a gusty, chilly wind, but the thrilling races and field events produced a splendid show of individuality and team talent.

The University of Texas shuttle relay team ran the 400-yard back-and-forth event over hurdles in 1:00.1 to tie the record established by Kansas State Teachers college, of Emporia, Kas., in 1938. The Michigan later came back to capture the quarter and half mile relays.

The University of Indiana relay teams which yesterday captured both university medal events, won the four-mile event today while Michigan triumphed in both the one and two-mile championships.

The Wolverines' mile victory produced a thrilling finish when anchorman Breidenbach, came from behind to pound home by a scant foot ahead of Frank Church of Louisiana State, who collapsed and plunged headlong into the cinders of the finish.

Bryan rubbed out the record of 13 feet, 11 inches hung up by Tommy Warne of Northwestern in 1930. This was Beerus' best effort in the north since he leaped 14 feet two inches in the Kansas relays a year ago.

Freddy Wolcott of Rice Institute, America's greatest hurdler, captured the 190-high sticks event for the third successive time to duplicate the performance of Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette's great Negro sprinter of another day, who triumphed in the century three times in a row here.

Wolcott bounded away to a two-yard lead midway through the race. Boyce Gatewood of Texas, turned on the power and began to move up on Freddie. They cleared the last hurdle almost as a team, but Wolcott had the greater speed in the drive to the tape.

His time 1:4.3, was a tenth of a second slower than the record he set here in 1938, but was exceptionally fast considering the brisk headwind.

Baseball Ousts Politics
CLARKSDALE, Miss., April 27 (AP)—Politics can't hold a candle to baseball in this delta town.

On April 25 the municipal election was postponed a week because it coincided with the opening of the Cotton States league.

Last night a political rally was called off because the local nine started playing evening games.

All seven candidates for office agreed it wouldn't be fair to the team to hold the rally.

WHERE 198 NEGROES DIED IN BLAZE

Interior of Natchez, Mississippi, dance hall where 198 Negroes met death in a blaze which ran through the moss-festooned building trapping the dancers. The windows of the metal building had been barred to prevent "gaterashers" entering, and the panicked dancers stampeded in an effort to get out through the one door in the building.

How Can You Tell When Man Is Drunk?

AUSTIN, April 27 (AP)—Evidence of intoxication obtained through breath, blood or urine tests forced on a motorist is not admissible in drunk driving cases in Texas courts, Attorney General Gerald C. Mann ruled today.

The opinion was at the request of Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the public safety department.

The attorney general said it would appear that such evidence when given voluntarily would be admissible.

Mann added the court of criminal appeals apparently had never ruled on the question.

He cited civil cases in which state courts have refused to require physical examinations and added the state constitutional provision that no person accused of a criminal offense shall be compelled to give incriminating evidence has been held to protect one from being required to produce private papers which are incriminating.

"In our search for precedents," he added, "it appears the Texas courts have never been called upon to sanction a forcible invasion of the body of a person charged with a crime."

Food Locker Plant To Be Built Here

An order for cooling coils, freezing plates, and other equipment for a refrigerated food locker plant to be constructed in Pampa was placed today with a Pampa dealer.

The plant is to cost from $12,000 to $15,000 complete and is to be constructed in anticipation of business to be derived from Gray county farmers.

A month ago, meetings of farmers were held in Pampa and McLean to discuss the feasibility of establishing a locker plant at Pampa and at McLean.

Inspection of locker plants at Floydada and Plainview was made by a committee assigned by the Gray County Land Use Planning committee, of which R. M. Gibson of Alameda is chairman.

Reports of the committee were heard at later meetings. Farmers favored the plan, but did not agree on whether the plants should be cooperative affairs or if private concerns should be encouraged to establish such a business.

He Just Won't Stop Fighting

Fighting for Great Britain in his third war, Colonel Adrian Carton de Wiart (above) is reported in command of one of the Allied forces landed in Norway. Reported thirty times wounded in his career, the 60-year-old, Belgian-born officer fought in the Boer War, lost an eye and a hand in France during the World War.

Panhandle Oil Allowable Cut

The Panhandle oil field's basic allowable was cut down from April's 81,488 to a May 1 allowable of 74,150 in the May oil proration order issued Friday by the Texas Railroad commission.

For the state the order authorized production of approximately 1,420,500 barrels daily, 108,655 barrels under the average net daily allowable of April 20, and 76,300 barrels larger than the Bureau of Mines estimate of May demand.

However, the commission estimated the proration schedule which called for a one-day statewide shutdown of wells May 1 and 13 shut-in days for the giant East Texas field would result in actual average production of approximately 1,362,200 barrels above the bureau's estimate.

The estimate was based on a 4 per cent underage, the amount production normally falls short of allowable. Operators of non-marginal wells were given the privilege of closing on May 1 or producing the basic daily allowable of 30 days rateably over 21 days.

The basic allowable for May, not considering shutdowns, is 1,765,882 barrels daily compared with 1,827,849 barrels for the current month.

Comparative basic allowables by districts as of May 1 and April 1 follow:

East Texas, 690,000 and 690,000.
North Texas, 125,932 and 132,317.
West Central Texas, 55,881 and 58,532.
West Texas, 242,718 and 257,134.
East Central Texas, 87,932 and 89,654.
Southwest Texas, 249,585 and 257,134.
Gulf Coast, 239,714 and 257,752.

The East Texas field was ordered closed on May 1, 4, 5, 8, 11, 12, 15, 18, 19, 22, 25, 28, 29 and 31.

1,000 Attend School Comedy

A hilarious three-act comedy, "Believe It or Not," was presented by the Pampa Junior High School Dramatics club in the high school auditorium Friday night before a crowd of 1,000 persons. Proceeds of the play amounted to $120, which will be turned over to the general welfare fund of the school.

There were 14 roles in the play, directed by C. T. Hightower. Plot of the comedy was based on the situation of a young girl who had to marry at a certain age to inherit a fortune. Dorothy Campbell and Jerry Smith had the leading roles.

Others in the cast were Mary Jane Davis, Mary Nelson, Bobby Jo Dunham, Tom King, Ernie Eller, Dora Jane Phillips, Louise Shadock, Ernie Shotwell, Lavon Constock, Betty Jean Gregory, John Robert Lane, and Flint Berlin.

Motorcycle And Gas Tank Fires Put Out

A short circuit on a motorcycle and gasoline leaking from a tank in a garage caused two runs by Pampa firemen yesterday.

At 8:35 o'clock last night, firemen made an half-block run to the Pampa police station where the motorcycle of Policeman Lawrence Flaherty had caught fire. Flaherty had just stepped on the starter, when flames burst forth. Water from the pump on the truck was used in putting out the fire.

A short circuit was believed to have been the cause of the fire, Chief Ben White said.

An hour and a half later, firemen made a truck to the 800 block on Frederic street where gasoline from a 50-gallon tank in a private one-car garage had ignited.

Firemen strung 500 feet of hose and used the boosted in putting out the fire. A charred roof was the only damage to the garage.

Fire Chief White said. A gate valve had been left open on the gasoline tank, according to firemen.

Both the new truck and one of the two old trucks were used in answering the alarm.

Bellamy Pens Article On Tuberculosis

Editor's Note: This is the sixth in a series of articles, written by Pampa physicians in connection with the local observance of National Hospital day, May 12. The following article on "Tuberculosis" is by R. M. Bellamy, M. D.

Tuberculosis is and has been one of the great killers of the human family for centuries. In spite of our increased knowledge of the cause, prevention and cure, this disease still strikes down the flower of our population—the youth and young adults.

Our own Texas has a higher mortality rate from tuberculosis than the average of the nation. If this mortality rate is to be lowered it must be done through the combined efforts of the masses.

Prevention of tuberculosis is partly an economic problem and partly a public health problem. There is very little we can do as individuals to cure the economic evils of our country except to exercise our judgment at the polls. From a public health standpoint, we can do a great deal.

There is only one way that a healthy person can contract tuberculosis: he must take the live germs, the tubercle bacilli, into his system either through the nose and throat in the inspired air or through the mouth with his food. Thanks to sanitary methods and elimination of infected cattle, the food method of infection is becoming rare.

That means that the usual source of infection is from an infected person. Very few people with tuberculosis would knowingly want to give the disease to others; the big trouble is that many people have the disease and spread it to others before they are aware of it.

Our problem then is early diagnosis, and isolation of the "open" cases. An "open" case is an individual with live germs in his sputum. A closed case is an individual with tuberculosis who has no germs in his sputum or other body discharges.

Early diagnosis can only be made when the patient comes to the doctor before he develops the classical symptoms of cough, fever and loss of weight. At this early stage the doctor will have to use all the facilities at his command in order to make a diagnosis. This includes history, skin tests, sputum examination, physical examination and X-Ray examination.

A doctor who makes an early diagnosis of tuberculosis frequently has difficulty getting full cooperation of his patient because the patient feels too well to take his condition seriously.

After an open case of tuberculosis is found the patient should be isolated. Many of these infected people are going about their daily duties which bring them in contact with healthy people whom they may infect.

It is not necessary for the "open case" to spit in public to spread the disease, for even in ordinary conversation there is a spray of droplets which reach out from a distance of five feet from the patient's mouth. These open cases must be taken out of circulation; that is, hospitalized until the sputum is germ free. Until these things are realized by our population as a whole, tuberculosis will continue to be a great killer.

Memphis Man Dies In New York Crash

MEMPHIS, April 27 (AP)—William A. (Bill) Bowerman, who was killed in a plane crash at Port Washington, N. Y., today, was a son of Mrs. Bowerman, daughter of Memphis and attended school here and at the Roswell, N. M., Military Institute.

He was a commercial aviator at Fort Worth when he received his CCA appointment.

Bowerman's grandfather, T. J. Dunbar, and a friend, Ed Foshall, left Amarillo by plane to accompany the body to Memphis.

Survivors include the widow, the former Dot Dunbar of Memphis, and a baby daughter.

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Three men were injured fatally today in the dive of a two-motored amphibian plane into Long Island Sound about a mile and a half from shore.

The man believed to have been the pilot, Eric Radtke, a civil aeronautics authority employe, went down with the ship as it sank under water. George Daufkirch, 46, an airplane broker, and William A. Bowerman, 35, a CAA inspector, were picked up by a powerboat crew but both died of their injuries.

TUCC Issues Warning On Fraud Claims

A tightened enforcement of fraud provisions of the Texas unemployment compensation act was announced today by B. H. Thompson, Amarillo, district supervising examiner of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission.

While other parts of the state have their troubles with applicants who would cheat the state out of money to which they are not entitled, the Pampa office of the commission has had no difficulty of this kind.

"Beginning immediately we will file criminal charges against claimants who make false statements to secure unemployment compensation," warned Examiner Thompson, who said that he had received orders today from Orville S. Carpenter, executive director of the Texas commission.

"We will file criminal charges against any individual guilty of misrepresentation or nondisclosure of any fact resulting in payment of jobless benefits when such benefits are not due him," the supervisor declared.

Executive Director Carpenter stated that the Texas commission would be unceasing in its efforts to uncover cases of misrepresentation. He informed Thompson that no exceptions were to be made and that charges were to be filed in every instance.

Notice will be given every unemployed individual claiming benefits of the provision of the Texas act for filing of criminal charges in cases of misrepresentation or nondisclosure.

"Failure to report pertinent facts is a positive violation of the law, and prosecutions will be instigated immediately," Thompson said.

The supervisor advised claimants to report all their earnings while filing claims, to report any part-time or self-employment, to disclose receipt of workmen's compensation insurance, old age benefits, sick leave assistance, wages in lieu of notice, and vacation pay. Also, they should reveal any fact having a bearing on their availability for work or their ability to work.

Chief among these alleged documents was what purported to be a British plan for an expeditionary force, outlined under the code name: "Stratford."

According to this asserted documentation, an operation order of the eighth battalion of Sherwood foresters showed that on April 7, the battalion was on its way to Norway in the British battleship Glasgow, to be landed at Stavanger, and the first battalion of Leicestershires also was scheduled to take part in the expedition.

Von Ribbentrop, speaking in the new Reich chancellery to the pressive assembly, declared Norway's government "aided and abetted" these plans for an allied Scandinavian front from which Germany might be "destroyed."

But he complimented Sweden for staying out.

"Sweden," he said, "interpreted its declaration of neutrality very seriously indeed, and at no time did anything or let anything happen which might not have been in accord with it."

How and when a successor to Andrews as commissioner would be determined was not decided at the meeting.

Huller Lays 'War Guilt' To Britain

By LYNN HEINZELING

BERLIN, April 27 (AP)—Adolf Hitler, in a characteristic stroke of lightning diplomacy sought today to justify his Scandinavian invasion to the world with alleged secret "war guilt" documents attributed to Britain and Norway, declared the reich at war with the Norse kingdom and absolved Sweden of unneutral connivance with the allies.

Within a few hours of publication a sweeping proclamation from the Fuehrer, dated Wednesday, proclaiming a state of war between Germany and Norway, his foreign minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, was telling the assembled diplomatic corps, German and foreign press and high German army, navy and air officials that Great Britain and France began on April 6 and 7 to spread the war to the north and the German invasion of April 9 merely beat them to the Norwegian scene of battle.

Producing documents which, he said, were taken by the German army from captured British officers, from the Oslo foreign office and allied consular and other sources in Norway, Von Ribbentrop said it was clear that British troops were on their way to Norway even before the British announced the laying of a mine field off the Norwegian coast April 8 to halt German ships in Norwegian territorial waters.

AERO VETERAN

Colonel Jack Leon Echols, veteran of 25 years of flying under the flags of six nations, will address Pampa youths on "Keeping Our Youth Out of Foreign Wars" at 8 o'clock on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the Schneider hotel.

He is coming to Pampa for the purpose of examining young men interested in securing placement in aircraft factories in Los Angeles and elsewhere. Examinations will be conducted at the hotel by appointment throughout today, tomorrow, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

The colonel comes to Pampa after being in Amarillo on the same mission.

Echols has had a colorful career, from the time he soloed as an aviation student of Art Smith in Venice, Calif. in 1915, down to serving as adviser to General Francisco Franco in the use of American pilots and equipment in the Spanish Civil War.

He served with the British Royal

Air force during the World War, organized the first commercial aircraft company in Texas, and fought under Heurta in 1916, Obo region in 1920, and Pablo Silar in 1928, in Mexico, and organized, with three other Americans, the first Nicaraguan air force in 1924.

Col. Echols was invited to China in 1930 as a civilian instructor in the assembling of American-purchased aircraft and was stationed at Hongkong, China, during the Manchuko conflict.

High Point Boys And Girls Selected At Local Playgrounds

The doll show to be held at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 4 at the American Legion-hut was the center of conversational interest during the past week at the playgrounds and craft shop here.

A variety program of entertainment, furnished by boys and girls from the various playgrounds, will streamine the Saturday event.

High point boy and girl in playground activities at Horace Mann last week were Nathan Turbbo and Barbara Norris, at Baker Pearl Richardson and Frankie Thompson. These four receive passes to the La-Nora theater, donated by Carl Benefiel, local theater manager.

The ping pong ladder tournament continues to draw more entries at the Baker ground, the three topping the list for the week were: Polly Moses, Pearl Richardson, and Joe Moses. In the tether ball tournament at Horace Mann, holding down the three top rings of the ladder are Joyce Stovall, C. L. Lewis, and Duane Williams.

At the craft shop, the Girl Scouts have been turning out some beautiful woodwork, papier mache work has been attracting lots of the older folks. The free dancing lessons in folk dances and old fashioned square is still packing them in at the American Legion hut each Friday night from 8 until 10 o'clock. This is a weekly event. The public is invited to attend.

Out-of-town visitors at the playgrounds this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Canadian, Jerome Brown, Amarillo, Miss Josephine Johnson, Tulsa, Okla., and C. I. Crum, Perryton.

Burlesque Call Sale Entertains Kiwanians Here

Wellington Kiwanians met with Pampa Kiwanians in an inter-club dinner here Friday night at the Schneider hotel. The regular weekly luncheon of the local club had been postponed from noon Friday in lieu of the meeting that night.

A burlesque call sale was the program presented by the Wellington Kiwanis club. Cameron Bean, president of the Wellington club, was in charge of the program.

Attendance at the dinner was 56. Visiting Kiwanians were C. V. Griffith, Logan Cummings, J. A. Tyler, Ben Hurst, Cliff Campbell, Howard Riggs, William B. Turk, and Deskins Wells, who made a short talk.

Local guests were Hol Wagner, George B. Cree, and Dan Egan. Pampa Kiwanians will send a delegation to a district meeting to be held in Oklahoma City on May 15.

Cotton To Be Made Into Mattresses

Gray county is to receive a dozen bales of cotton to be made into mattresses, according to a plan outlined by Mrs. Dorris Leggett, district home demonstration agent, at a meeting held Saturday afternoon at the court house.

The plan is similar to that in other counties, with the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation supplying materials to farmers with incomes of less than $400 a year.

County commissioners, the Gray County Home Demonstration council, county AAA committeemen, the chairman of the Gray County Land Use committee, R. M. Gibson of Alanreed, were among persons attending the meeting.

Rev. Gay Dies In McLean Home

Special To The NEWS

McLEAN, April 27—Funeral services were held here Friday afternoon for Rev. J. P. Gay, 86, who died at his home in McLean Thursday morning.

Rev. Troy Sumrall, pastor of the First Baptist church, the Rev. Bond, pastor of the Nazarene church, and the Rev. Hunt, conducted the services.

The Rev. Gay was born in Laiden, Tenn., in 1853 and came to Texas in 1873. Before moving to McLean in 1928 he had resided in Clay county for 50 years.

Ordained to the Baptist ministry in 1880, he was an active pastor for more than 37 years, until forced to retire because of ill health.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. F. E. Robinson, Mrs. J. S. Graham, Mrs. M. W. Watkins, and Mrs. W. E. Cornett, and a score of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Out of town friends and relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mayo and son Alvin, of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watkins and daughter, Marie, of Ash- tala; Mrs. W. E. Cornett, Iowa Park; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Robinson, Wilma, Bill George, and Jack, of Mobeetle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Caldwell and children, of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bingham, and children, Texico, N. M.; Miss Ola Mae Robinson, Amarillo; Oran Robinson, Pueblo, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Rush, Byers.

Funeralbearers were Boyd Meador, F. E. Stewart, Milton Banta, H. W. Brooks, S. A. Cousins, and John Cooper.

Flowergirls were Juanita and Dorace Jean Caldwell, Marie Watkins, and Wilma Robinson.

78 Students Ride Train To White Deer

Completing a study in transportation, 78 second grade Horace Mann school pupils Thursday went to White Deer by train. They visited the McBrayer zoo near the town, then returned to White Deer for a picnic lunch.

Trailway Lunch Climaxes Year For Fine Arts

Special To The NEWS

PANHANDLE, April 22—A trailway covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. George Kistler Thursday climaxed the year's activities for Fine Arts club members.

The travel lunch on completed the year's study of the various U. S. highways.

A miniature crepe paper highway complete with safety signs, small cars, filling stations, stop signs, and the white center line circled the table.

Hand-painted place cards with sprays of sweet peas, the club flower, marked the places. The table was centered with an arrangement of appetizers, baby breath and fern placed on a reflector. Blue candles in crystal candelabra completed the table appointments.

The menu for the luncheon consisted of fried chicken, asparagus, new potatoes, stuffed tomato salad, pineapple sherbet and cake.

The social committee included Mmes. Tom Cleek, Walter Denny, and George Graves.

Mrs. Letha Grammer, county librarian, guest speaker for the afternoon, spoke on "Books, the Magic Highway." Mrs. Grammer suggested travel along the invisible road of reading as a pleasant and instructive way to spend the summer leisure hours.

She listed a number of the newer books for summer reading; among them "Land Below the Wind," by Keith; "A Sea Island Lady," by Griswold; "Bethel Meridian," by Lewis; "The Lean Leathery," by Fuller; "Red Wheels Rolling" or "Chad Hanna," by Edmonds; "Native Son," by Wright; "Mother of the Smiths," by Carr.

As the magic highway of books turns homeward, Mrs. Grammer suggested "On the Staked Plains," by Kelly; "Saddle in the Sky," by Plenn; "Our Southwest," by Ferguson; and "Figures in a Landscape," by Paul Horgan.

At the business session Mrs. J. Sid O'Keefe, president of the club, and Mrs. J. C. Jackson were named delegates to the district convention of Federated clubs at Shamrock.

Mrs. O'Keefe welcomed Mrs. Ralph Randall and Mrs. Joe Rorex as new members.

Attending this final meeting of the year were Mmes. Letha Grammer, J. D. Bender, L. W. Bussey, T. M. Cleek, George Graves, George Kistler, J. W. Morris, C. E. McCray, J. Sid O'Keefe, F. A. Paul, J. E. Southwood, Ralph Randall, and Freda Sterne.

'GRAPES OF WRATH' AN AMERICAN SAGA

Film Based On Steinbeck's Great Novel Opening Today

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Steinbeck's saga of one of America's minorities, the dust bowl refugees from Oklahoma, who sought haven in California, in its 20th Century-Fox film version follows the novel closely and the result is Darryl F. Zanuck's greatest production achievement—which means that 'The Grapes of Wrath' takes its place as a motion picture milestone.

Emotional impact of the story is tremendous: the dispossession of the Okies from the farms they have tilled for generations, the return of Tom Joad from prison, the long trek to California in search of work, deaths of Gramma and Grampa Joad, slayings, and finally the parting of Ma Joad and Tom—these are highlights that have been grippingly enacted, the Film Daily comments.

Principals in the cast are Henry Fonda, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Charley Grapewin, and Dorris Bowden. The picture opens a three-day run today at the LaNora.

Another picture destined to be among the best of the year is Warner Brothers' "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet" biography of a great physician, played by Edward G. Robinson. Theme of the photoplay is connected with the crusade the U. S. Surgeon-general has been waging. Showing Wednesday and Thursday on the LaNora screen.

A re-make of "One Way Passage" is Warner Brothers' "Till We Meet Again," with George Brent, Pat O'Brien, Merle Oberon and Geraldine Fitzgerald in the chief roles of this story of two lovers doomed to crowd eternity of devotion into a few borrowed hours of love. At the LaNora, Friday and Saturday.

Short subjects booked for the week at Pampa theaters include two in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer "Crime Does Not Pay" series—"Jack Pot," expose of the slot machine racket, showing at the Rex today, tomorrow, and Tuesday; and "Pound Foolish" at the State, today and tomorrow.

Also booked at the State is a thought-provoking, patriotic short subject in technicolor that will stir the blood of every American, "The Bill of Rights." The picture is showing Wednesday and Thursday.

Universal's "Zanzibar," showing at the Rex Wednesday and Thursday, is a rip-roaring adventure story, featuring Lola Lane, James Craig, and Eduardo Cianelli. "First rate action fare," The Film Daily rates it, with "Shipwreck, jungle, wild animals, savages, secret skulls, intrigue, murder, romance, and a few other items to make it entertaining."

Going back into the 1880s, Metro has filmed an unusual theme in "Bad Little Angel" with pleasing results. Virginia Weidler, Gene Reynolds, Guy Kibbee, Ian Hunter, and Henry Hull, have the chief roles. It always requires finesse to deal with religious angles of any description, but certainly this job will be approved.

The story, classified by The Film Daily as very human and heart-warming, tells of Virginia, an orphan, looking to her Bible for guidance, and turning the pages at random finds "Flee to Egypt," forthwith deserting the orphanage for Egypt. N. J. Biggs, and his boys, Ian Hunter, gives her a home. From there on the story is lively and human; Hull, the town drunk, is reformed; Kibbee, the crusty millionaire, is softened up; Hunter gets his job back for heroism and Virginia gets a home as the millionaire's adopted daughter.

"Bad Little Angel" opens a three-day run today at the Crown.

EVERY WEEK IS Baby Week WHAT DOES YOUR BABY'S DIET MEAN TO US?

First, we love all babies; but we love healthy, happy smiling ones best. When we first started in the food business, folks didn't know nearly as much about how important diet is to infants and growing children. And frankly, we didn't realize that babies would grow to be such an important part of our business. But now, every modern mother does her best to know just what foods are necessary to make her child grow up healthy and strong... and we've had to learn all about it too! You'll find that our selection of baby foods and specially prepared foods for growing children is as complete as possible. We carry every type of scientifically prepared baby food, basic foods and delicacies. Our prices are moderate—for more reasons than one. We always try to give all our customers the most of the best for their money and we have an especially soft spot in our heart for "young marrieds." We also know that a young mother who is satisfied with the food we supply for her baby, will continue to buy from us as her child grows older. Here is a partial list.

STORY OF GREAT PHYSICIAN

"Great enough to stand with 'Pasteur' and 'Zola,'" is the New York Post's opinion of Warner Brothers' "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet," showing Wednesday and Thursday at the LaNora. Film Daily calls it one of the finest screen presentations of this or any other year. Picture is based on the life of Dr. Paul Ehrlich, the man who discovered cures for some of mankind's most dreaded diseases. With a fearlessness grounded in the fight of U. S. Surgeon-General Thomas Parran, a script has been fashioned that gives visual and vocal expression to the government's attempt to bring medical truth to light. Edward G. Robinson and Ruth Gordon, pictured above, head the cast.

Reeve are to be in charge of the refreshments. More definite plans are to be made at the next meeting of this group.

During a short business session a scribe, assistant scribe, and reporter were elected. They are Doris Barnett, scribe; Jimmie Jean Dodd, assistant scribe; and Georgie Reeve, reporter.

Ghost stories were told by the girls after the business session. Those present were Geraldine Carter, Doris Barnett, Nancy Jane Rippe, Jimmie Jean Dodd, Betty Jo Dewey, Georgie Reeve, and Mrs. J. W. Barnett.

SERIAL STORY

BET ON LOVE

BY CHARLES B. PARMER

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Sherry finds her Uncle Willie Bond waiting for her at home. A race track "adviser," he has been forced to return to America by the war. Sherry hires him as business agent. Willie is afraid someone will claim Pepper Boy, decides to do so thinking.

CHAPTER III

Sherry Bond was crossing the clubhouse lawn—next afternoon—when she stopped abruptly, and for no apparent reason. Yet something (maybe it was a hunch) seemed to command:

Stop—Look—Listen! She fumbled idly in her purse, came up with a pencil, as her restless eyes swept the crowds. She snapped her purse shut, flipped open her program. The first race: Pepper Boy number one on the rail—her eyes lifted slightly—over the program's top she saw a familiar figure moving through the crowds. His back was turned—he was talking with another man; they were going toward the clubhouse. Yes, it was he. Instinctively, she followed them.

The two men stopped to talk around the building's side—she saw their shadows on the ground. Again she lowered her head over the program, as if studying it intently; slowly she walked to the building's corner. Stopped there. She heard: "My boy, regarding Pepper Boy I'd advise—"

The girl straightened, crumpled and dropped her program. Her face flushed. He was at it again! She strode around the corner, faced a massive man in gray bowler and tweeds, swinging a pair of huge field glasses from a leather strap. It was Uncle Willie Bond. With left hand he was grasping the elbow of a narrow and tall bespectacled man who looked as if he were playing hookey from a desk.

Sherry Bond caught Uncle Willie's eye. She had to admire the aplomb with which he met such interruption. Showing no surprise at her sudden appearance, he dropped the stranger's elbow, raised his hat punctiliously.

"Ah, my dear—," he began, but she cut him short with a jerk of her head and a very firm, "If you don't mind!" "Certainly not, my dear. I'm coming," and to the stranger, "You'll pardon me, old man, as Pepper Boy let it stand status quo."

He was seizing her arm, leading her swiftly away—so no one would hear the calling down he expected. The nerve of him! Sherry pulled free, backed off and frowned. "So you're touting, eh? Telling a stranger how to bet. I noticed you were anxious to leave the luncheon table half an hour ago."

"Wait, Sherry!" The man's manner changed abruptly. She saw him stiffen—why, he could be hard as nails—that old man's attitude was purely assumed—mask he wore. "I was telling the bloomin' fool that Pepper Boy's not up to a hard race—to keep his money in his pocket."

She was silent an instant. "Seems you might have something to do besides giving free advice to strangers. As my agent—," she broke off as a cheery voice spoke at her side: "Hullo, Sherry—what's this?"

Paul Wharton, small but high-powered binoculars swung across wiry shoulders, breezed up to them. "Hullo, Paul—what's what? But Paul, my uncle, William Bond—"

It was like a well-aimed fox terrier facing a mastiff. Then a hand shot out. "Know of you—but if Sherry hadn't told—you are only 23—I'd swear, sight unseen, you were 60 or more. But what of Red Soldier's chances today?"

"Just so—," he smiled, turned to Sherry: "Thought we were going to have a horse race, but you scratch out of the handicap. You're taking chances in a selling race—somebody may claim."

"You got him in the Derby, ain't you?" "I have." Sherry felt her face slowly going white. Paul Wharton had warned her that racing wasn't all romance and roses. "I ain't been spoke for—for the Derby—leastways I ain't got my word yet—though I got two-three chances," he went on in the same low tones. "The reason I took this here mount today—," the girl had wondered at her luck, at this crack jockey coming to her, and asking for the mount on her maiden colt—"I betta watch his workouts—I think he's goin' to make a route-runnin' fool. Derby's a long race—if we don't push him today—," Sherry swallowed hard. So! Even her jockey was suggesting that Pepper Boy be given an easy ride—that they keep the colt undercover—bring him to light in the Derby. "Look here!" she turned on him sharply. "You got out in front and make every post a winning one. Understand? I'll take no excuses."

From somewhere near the stands a bugle sounded. The paddock judge called, "Mount your jockeys." "Gimme that leg, white boy," Sam directed, as the valet held the colt's head. Madden stepped to Pepper Boy, took the reins in his left hand, clasped his saddle, lifted his left foot. Sam grasped the jockey's ankle, tossed him up into the saddle, then took hold of Pepper Boy. Swiftly Madden knotted the reins, caught the whip his valet threw to him. "Bring them out!" the judge called. "Come out with that number one horse!" "Yes, suh, we're comin'," Sam called. As he started the procession toward the track Madden leaned over, said to Sherry Bond: "Okay, I'll push him."

WTSC Madrigal Club To Present Recital At Canyon Monday

CANYON, April 27—The Madrigal club of West Texas State college will present its spring recital Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark.

The program will be given at the Educational building auditorium. Miss Frances Usery of the music faculty will be the assisting artist. She is a pianist.

From the great madrigal library given West Texas State several years ago by the Chicago Madrigal club, the college group will take both modern madrigals and some written as long ago as the 16th century.

The Madrigal club, a group of 32 picked singers, has a large following of music lovers who never miss one of its concerts. Some of these live in other cities.

The songs chosen for the spring concert include many which for sheer musical quality are unsurpassed. Others are lighter and a few are in the modern manner, with a bit of fun added.

The concert is free to the public.

Sinus Diseases Discussed By Pampa Physician

Editor's Note:—Timely at this season is the following article on sinus infections, written by Dr. Clifton High, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. The article is the sixth in a series by Pampa medical men, prepared in connection with the local observance of National Hospital day, May 12.

Sinus infections and other nasal disorders are so common at this season a discussion of this subject is timely. In an adult the sinuses consist of from 12 to 15 air spaces of varying size communicating with each side of the nose. Normally each sinus has a thin lining membrane like that in the nose and each is filled with air. Only diseased sinuses have a thick lining or contain fluid or pus.

At birth the largest pair of sinuses are only the size of a pea, while the sinuses are not fully developed until adolescence. This accounts for the relatively rare occurrence of sinusitis in young children, that is, below 7 or 8 years of age.

Inflammations of the sinuses are caused most often by influenza, colds, acute eruptive fevers of childhood and dental infections. It should be remembered that true sinusitis is caused by bacterial infections and results in pus formation, also that many complaints may simulate sinus infection so that many people think they suffer from sinus disease when, in fact, it is something else.

Allergy, sensitization to pollen, dust or food, (as in hay fever) probably cause more nasal complaints than does infection. It is often difficult to determine whether ones nasal trouble is due entirely to infection, to allergy or both, since a person may have both allergy and sinus infection at the same time.

The sinus lining undoubtedly is affected to some extent with every head cold. Yet when we realize how many more people have had colds than have sinus infections it follows that more colds do recover without complications than result in sinusitis. This is because the common cold is caused supposedly by a virus and it is the accompanying or ensuing infection with pus forming germs that results in sinus disease, middle ear inflammation or bronchitis.

A real sinus infection is not a simple ailment that yields to self medication or haphazard treatment. It should be emphasized that prompt and effective treatment of acute sinusitis is necessary to prevent its becoming a chronic process. Acute sinusitis can usually be controlled by medical management, that is, rest in bed, local and general treatment. A small percentage of cases, however, require surgical drainage in addition. The old saying "Once a sinus infection, always a sinus infection," is certainly not true. Admittedly there are cases of nose trouble persisting for years in spite of repeated operations and all sorts of treatment.

These exceptional cases are often caused by some constitutional disease or allergy, a condition not relieved by any surgical procedure. Most of the remarks in this paper, it is emphasized, refer to acute sinus disease. Conservative sinus surgery most certainly has its place and, in chronic disease, is usually the only hope of relief.
