

Poppy Making Benefits World War Veterans

The memorial poppies to be worn here Saturday in honor of the World War dead have been made by the disabled comrades of the dead in the Legion Hospital at Legon, Texas. Poppy making has developed into a nation-wide industry for the disabled veterans and puts more than $100,000 each year into the pockets of these men who have no other way of earning money.

The work of making poppies begins early in the winter in most of the hospitals, under direction of the state organization of the American Legion Auxiliary and with the cooperation of the hospital authority. Mrs. Al Lawson, local poppy chairman, explained. Materials are supplied by the Auxiliary and the men are paid regularly from Auxiliary funds.

Employment is limited to veterans receiving little or no government compensation, with preference going to those having families to support. The number of flowers each man can shape per day is restricted to guard against overtaxing his strength. Many of the men become so expert that they can make several hundred poppies in a brief working day.

Money is not the only benefit the veterans derive from the poppy work. Making the bright red flowers lightens dreary hospital hours for them, encourages a healthful state of mind, and as a form of occupational therapy, helps speed their recovery.

Approximately 12,000,000 poppies have been made by the disabled veterans this year in anticipation of increased response of the American public to the poppy appeal—"Honor the war dead and aid the war's living victims."

Model Champion

Proof that war pictures are not the only kind that Britshers see these days is seen in this photo of golden blonde Rae Fuller. Spectators at recent Royal Academy show saw her likeness in a dozen different paintings, which made her, for the fourth successive time, the model most popular among England's ace artists.

Ruth Millett Calls For Recognition Of That Maid-Of-All-Work, The Secretary

By RUTH MILLETT

Mother's Day is a good idea. For at least one day out of the year, mothers get patted on the head and told how much they are appreciated. If the gratitude is in evidence only on that one day, it is still better than nothing.

Which brings up the idea that there is another hard-working, little-thanked, absolutely-necessary group of women—the secretaries of the world.

Why don't we establish a National Secretary's Day for them?

On that day, and by all rights it should be on Monday, the most dreaded day of the week, the world could well take off its hat to the modern secretary, who sees all, knows all, does all the dirty work and says nothing.

National Secretary Day would be a holiday, of course, but a holiday granted only to secretaries. If the boss doesn't have to get down to the office as usual, some of the benefits of the day would be lost.

For, after a day of talking to everyone who telephones him, seeing everyone who calls, having to actually do things himself, instead of saying "You just see to that," a man would be in a mood to appreciate the Miss Jones who makes his business life so simple—and who more than doubles the amount of work he could do alone.

And there is no reason for wives to get jealous over the secretary's having a day of glory.

Chances are the secretary picked out the wife's birthday present on her lunch hour, after reminding her boss that it WAS his wife's birthday; that she has often had to take much of the disagreeableness left over from an early morning quarrel with the wife.

And her ability to remember and keep things straight may even account for the wife's new hunk of jewelry.

Nobody ought to begrudge secretaries a day of praise. They earn it.

Big Spring Will Play Oilers Here Tonight

Bill Garbe To Be In Lineup Of Visitors

Tony Rego and his Big Spring Barons, with Bill Garbe, former Oiler, at first base, will be in Pampa tonight for the first of two games with the Pampa Oilers who won two straight in Big Spring last week. Yesterday afternoon the Oilers split a doubleheader with the Midland Cowboys, taking the first game 12 to 8, but dropping the nightcap 9 to 7 in an extra inning.

It was a case of too much single-handed beat the Oilers in the second game. He mightly near turned the trick in the first game with his hitting and flashy fielding. He had six putouts in the two games, three of them sensational, and bagged five hits on eight trips to the plate, including a home run and two doubles.

The Oilers staged a big rally in the seventh inning of the opener to put it away. Base hits sounded like rifle shots as each team bagged 17 singles. Lloyd Summers was the biggest noise of them all with three singles. Jerry Jordan bagged a triple and double while Daniels, new left fielder, helped the cause with a brace of doubles. Benites and Rowden blasted three hits each.

Four Double Plays
Four double killings, two by each team, got pitchers out of trouble. Rex Dilbeck went the distance for the Oilers with B. Mitchell doing the chinking for Midland. Mitchell, a giant, put a ball over deep center field fence with no apparent effort. Midland drew first blood with a two-run assault in the second. The Oilers tied things up in their half when Daniels and Jordan doubled in succession and Potter singled.

The Cowboys went three up in the fourth on singles by Rowden, Burris and Naranjo, plus some pretty base running. An Oiler rally in the fifth fell one short of tying the score. Dilbeck singled to start things off. Malvia singled after Akers had gone out and went to second on an error. Prather was hit and Summers singled two across.

Oilers From Behind
Nine Oilers went to bat in the big seventh inning rally. Seitz, Prather and Summers singled in succession. Jordan and Potter were infield outs. Dilbeck was safe when Stephens and Jordan doubled in the eighth and Seitz stole home on a daring play. A single by Daniels, walk, sacrifice and out, gave the Oilers another in the second stanza when Midland scored once without a hit.

McPartland Will
Wilson's double and singles by Benito and Rowden allowed Midland to tie things up in the fourth but the Oilers also scored to again go ahead. Jordan singled. Potter walked and McPartland sacrificed. Stephens filed out and Jordan scored.

McPartland walked two in the fifth with two away and Halliburton relieved only to see one of his pet pitches leave the park when Rowden connected. Not to be outdone, the Oilers came back with three runs attack in their half of the inning. With one away Halliburton and Stephens walked. Malvia filed out but Seitz followed with a single off E. Mitchell who had relieved Smith. Prather drew a walk and Summers again singled.

Malvia booted one to open the seventh. Benito sacrificed. Rowden walked and then pinchhitter Ward singled to tie the score.

Farrish and Rice Ready
Naranjo and Hale doubled to open the extra stanza, Sealing was safe on Stephens' error and K. Jordan single to end the rally. Johnson relieved Mitchell for Midland. Pampa's McPartland, a tall left-hander, showed plenty of stuff but was wild, walking seven during his four innings on the mound. He fanned four, however, with a baffling curve ball.

Jaycees' First Skeet Shoot Booming Success

Parrish and Rice will be ready for mound duty tonight against the Barons who will also be here Tuesday night. On Wednesday and Thursday the Oilers will invade Amarillo and on Friday and Saturday they return home to meet Amarillo.

Texas Women Golfers Seek Southern Title

PORT WORTH, May 20 (AP)—A bunch of tanned Texas girls set out today to show the golf world the Lone Star State's dominance of the game laps over into the feminine field.

Dotted in the great field that teed off for the twenty-fifth annual women's Southern Golf Association classic was Texas talent the homefolk backed to the hilt. Betty Jameson, the national women's champion of San Antonio; the terrific hitter from San Antonio, comprised the backbone of Texas' attack on a title now held by Lexington, Ky.

Here in Fort Worth, where the fans worship in local boys, who made good, national open champion Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan, the natives were solidly behind Mrs. Goldthwaite, only two weeks ago a 6 and 5 winner over Miss Jameson in the Texas tournament.

From Houston, home of Sam Snead, Jim Demaret, came a player who could wreck the championship flight—Miss Kay Pearson.

But the Texans will encounter some of the nation's finest tournament players. Only Patty Berg, Elizabeth Hicks and a few others, all ineligible because of western residences, are missing from a field of big names.

Miss Miley, winner of the title the past two years, has several days of practice over River Crest country club's par 37-38-75 course to her credit.

Match play starts tomorrow, one match being played daily until Saturday's 36-hole championship battle.

Mays Fans 16 Batters As Skelly Beats Mags

Teams in the West Texas-New Mexico league might look over old Pierce Mays who is pitching baseball for Skellytown this year. The veteran fanned 16 batters and walked only two yesterday afternoon as his team won 9 to 3 from the Magnolia Red Hoses of Pampa.

Besides whiffing 16, Mays allowed only four hits and bagged a triple for himself. It was Norton of Skellytown that was the big hitter, however, with a triple and double. Clark and Howard also tripled.

Stephens hit a triple for the Red Hoses while Bailey doubled. Stephens added a single and Mage Keyser singled for the rest of the Mag hits.

Jake Miller started for the Red Hoses but was relieved by Ged Hines in the fourth. Miller fanned six and walked two, while Gastineau whiffed a pair and walked two.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIEZE
NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—Babe Ruth has turned down a very fat offer to front for a world's fair entry. . . . There is a five buck fight waiting for any Cardinal who speaks to the opposition. This came to light when Herman Franks of the Brooks halted an old Red Bird pal and the guy replied in the sign language. . . . Joe Gould's $104,000 suit vs. Mike Jacobs is so near settlement lawyers now are sitting in on the daily huddles.

Ben Hogan Easily Wins Round Robin Golf Tournament

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The calibre of golf played by Ben Hogan in winning the Goodall round robin tournament the past weekend at Fresh Meadow is certain to place the Texan among the prime favorites both in the Metropolitan open this week and in the National open championship at Cleveland June 6 to 8.

The slight, young professional practically made a runaway of the Goodall, in which he played seven match rounds against 14 of the world's leading money players. He took the lead with a great 68 on his second round and never was headed.

Hogan shot a very fine 69 in his final round of the Goodall, to choke off the last threat against his victory. Sam Snead came up and glared at him in the afternoon but that was as far as Sam got.

Hogan completed the seven rounds with a total medal score of 491, only one stroke over par-70s, and with a final match score of plus-23. He had, in other words, won 23 more holes than his 14 opponents in the course of seven matches. He won 10 matches while losing 4.

Snead, with his great finish, took second place with a "plus" of 19 points. He took 498 strokes for the seven rounds. Gene Sarazen was third with plus 7, Dick Metz fourth with plus 5 and Paul Runyan fifth with plus 4. Byron Nelson, the open champion, was plus 2.

Ben Hogan Easily Wins Round Robin Golf Tournament

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The calibre of golf played by Ben Hogan in winning the Goodall round robin tournament the past weekend at Fresh Meadow is certain to place the Texan among the prime favorites both in the Metropolitan open this week and in the National open championship at Cleveland June 6 to 8.

The slight, young professional practically made a runaway of the Goodall, in which he played seven match rounds against 14 of the world's leading money players. He took the lead with a great 68 on his second round and never was headed.

Hogan shot a very fine 69 in his final round of the Goodall, to choke off the last threat against his victory. Sam Snead came up and glared at him in the afternoon but that was as far as Sam got.

Hogan completed the seven rounds with a total medal score of 491, only one stroke over par-70s, and with a final match score of plus-23. He had, in other words, won 23 more holes than his 14 opponents in the course of seven matches. He won 10 matches while losing 4.

Snead, with his great finish, took second place with a "plus" of 19 points. He took 498 strokes for the seven rounds. Gene Sarazen was third with plus 7, Dick Metz fourth with plus 5 and Paul Runyan fifth with plus 4. Byron Nelson, the open champion, was plus 2.

SEE US BEFORE YOU TRADE! TOM ROSE (Ford)

Invitations have been mailed to 40,000 persons in the Panhandle area to visit Works Projects administration professional and service division projects this week, as "This Week Pays Your Community" week opens, marked by a series of "klick-off" suppers in a number of Plains towns.

In Pampa, a supper is to be held at 6:30 o'clock tonight in the high school cafeteria, to be followed by a program directed by Jim Edwards, recreation project superintendent, held in the city hall auditorium.

A national radio broadcast program will be heard in connection with the program held in the auditorium.

Open house will be held by the various projects during the week, including the library, commodity distribution, housekeeping, side and sewing rooms.

Renomination Of Roosevelt A Certainty

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Selection of national convention delegates approaches the final stage this week in a political situation clouded by the onrush of the European war and the call for unity behind the President's defense program.

By Saturday night the Republicans will have picked all but 36 of their 1,000 delegates, with no candidate having enough publicly-instructed votes to guarantee a first-ballot presidential nomination.

While the chief executive remains silent, the consensus of Washington politicians is that the war has made his acceptance of renomination a virtual certainty. It is the general opinion, however, that he will not say "yes" or "no" until the convention actually has asked him to head the ticket again.

Talk has arisen in some quarters of postponing the Republican convention—now set for Philadelphia June 24—until the war situation is clarified, but opposition was voiced last night by Alf M. Landon, titular head of the party.

"I am opposed to any suggestion that the Republican party postpone its national convention or lend itself to any intangible conditions which would tend to decrease party responsibility," Landon told reporters at Topeka, Kans., before leaving for Washington to lunch with Mr. Roosevelt Wednesday.

"We Republicans can best serve the cause of national unity by maintaining ourselves as a patriotic and constructive party of the opposition in the best tradition of popular government until we are voted into power by the election next November."

"Thereafter, the country will need and expect the same service from our Democratic friends."

Maintenance of democracy was the theme yesterday of a conference at Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., celebrating the sixth anniversary of the Progressive party's founding in the state.

Senator La Follette said that the party is "committed to the task of strengthening the internal as well as the external defenses of American democracy." He will seek reelection in November under the party's banner.

The sole remaining presidential primary will take place tomorrow in New Jersey, with Mr. Roosevelt and Thomas E. Dewey of New York opposed on the Democratic and Republican ballots, respectively.

Nine other states will hold conventions during the week to select delegates for one or both major parties.

U. S. Entry In War Opposed At VFW Meet

Idealism, akin to the religion of Christ, has been the basis of America and every citizen should be alert that American ideals should be defended and perpetuated, Travis Lively of Pampa told Veterans of Foreign Wars of district 9, at a meeting held yesterday at Holy Souls school. Attendance at the meeting was 75.

Mr. Lively said he was glad to hear statements of veterans stressing their desire that no Americans be sent to Europe to take part in their wars.

"In the last war we tried by force to inculcate the principles that are inherent to us, over there. We failed to do this, because such principles cannot exist there.

"There has been a war in Europe for every generation for the past thousand years and it looks like it might continue that way for the next thousand."

The Pampa speech came near the conclusion of the district 9 meeting of VFW posts and auxiliaries, which opened at 10 o'clock.

Five Initiated

Veterans met at Holy Souls school, where five members were initiated, Robert R. House, Leo R. Chisum, Ray F. Barnes, Jesse J. Good, and Earl Perkins, all of Pampa.

Presiding at the ceremony were E. J. Kinney, district commander, Jim Sturgeon, senior vice-commander, Fred Pender, junior vice-commander, Bob Orr, officer of the day, Paul Hill, chaplain, L. R. Franks, commander of Pampa VFW post 1657, and J. V. Roche, acting adjutant, all of Pampa.

At noon auxiliary members came to the school and met the veterans at lunch.

Mrs. E. J. Kenney, district auxiliary president, was in charge of the women's meeting held that morning.

Announcement was made that $50 had been contributed by Mrs. J. L. Jackson on the purchase of a standard by the Pampa auxiliary.

Amarilloan Named 'Sweetheart'

Entertainment on the program consisted of accordion playing by Armida Cargile, Wesley Ceiger, Bill Kenton, all of Pampa, and Lorna Jean Lieberknecht, Amarillo, a tap dance song by Mary Anne Lieberknecht, and a reading by L. R. Franks, Lorna Jean Lieberknecht, daughter of Ray Lieberknecht, was elected district VFW sweetheart.

In the roll call of posts, Pampa with 99 members led in membership of the district, which includes posts at Amarillo, Borger, Dalhart, Tulia, and here.

A resolution was passed thanking all posts participating in the meeting. The resolutions committee was composed of A. L. Morrison, Borger, chairman; George A. Vaughn, Tulia, and E. R. Bruce, Amarillo.

Borger Selected

It was voted that tenure of post offices would be two years.

Borger was selected for the next quarterly district meeting, to be held in September, the exact date to be fixed later. The department encampment is to be held June 16-19, at Galveston.

Dr. E. O. Herndon, superintendent of the United States Veterans hospital at Amarillo, was scheduled to be one of the speakers at the meeting here Sunday, but failed to appear.

Ciano Going To Albania Tomorrow

ROME, May 20 (AP)—Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano is arranging to go to Albania—Italy's Balkan outpost—tomorrow as a sequel to his advice to Italians yesterday to be ready for a call from Premier Mussolini to gain the nation's upper hand.

Ciano, it was said, intends to inspect public works projects now under way in Albania which Italy occupied starting April 7, 1939, but his trip is bound to be watched closely because of Italy's military foothold there in the Balkan peninsula between Yugoslavia and Greece.

Italian schools were ordered to close May 31, a fortnight earlier than had been intended but still there were no definite signs of imminent Italian entry into the European war.

Rumors that a mass meeting had been called for an important announcement by Mussolini were dispelled when authoritative quarters said tonight's turnout in Piazza Venezia was to welcome a large Japanese delegation come to negotiate a new trade agreement.

Responsible Italians interrupted Ciano's Milan speech as a recapitulation of Italy's position—not a modification. They said it meant Italy had claims she wants settled and that Italians were willing to go to war, if necessary, but if they can be settled without fighting so much the better.

Ralph, you're working all the time!

Yes, Myrtle, but I'm going to sell more new and used washers than anyone in this district then I'll get to go on a paid fishing trip.

Uncle Sam's Lads Can Build Bridges, Too

Hitler's legions invading the Netherlands found pontoon bridges pretty handy after retreating Dutch had blown up regular bridges across streams. Above, Uncle Sam's doughboys demonstrate that they can sling a mean span, too. The 650-foot pontoon bridge, above, longest ever built in the U. S., was constructed by the 18th engineers during huge army maneuvers at Camp Beaugard, La.

Where Fiery Breath of War Seared Norway

No flashlight was needed for this picture—the towering flames of war's destruction amply silhouetting the crumbling wreckage of Elverum, Norway. Bombed again and again by Nazi fliers hot on the trail of Norway's fleeing king, Elverum was blasted from existence.

Is It as Easy as All That?

Being outnumbered four to one, to say nothing of the machine guns on that army truck, doesn't seem to worry the doughty lance corporal at right, as he "captures" the "enemy" foursome. He's member of d'ending "Blue" forces, busy battling invading "Reds" during current field test of 70,000 modernized troops at Camp Beaugard, La.

Expanding Of Flying Forces Booms Ahead

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 20—A quick step-up of American warplane production, with the twin goal of rushing Allied orders and expanding tenfold the country's own flying forces, became the immediate spearhead today of the government defensive drive.

While representatives of more than 40 aviation companies joined army, navy and treasury officials in discussing a $50,000-plane program, other preparedness developments also came to the front:

1. Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, decriing "hysterical chatter of calamity and invasion," said in a radio speech that "we are in danger x x x because American people have attempted to interfere with the internal affairs of Europe."

2. The senate appropriations committee considered the $1,827,000,000 army bill, hoping to send both that measure and the $1,303,980,000 navy bill to the White House by June 1.

3. Senators George (D-Ga.) and Connally (D-Tex.) advocated establishing an industrial-labor-military board as the house naval committee took up a bill designed to speed shipbuilding by relaxing labor laws. The unusual conference of airplane makers and federal officials was called in response to President Roosevelt's recommendation that production be increased to 50,000 planes a year and that the armed services acquire a total of 50,000 fighting aircraft.

Secretary Morgenthau told reporters last night that obtaining sufficient engines was the principal difficulty in putting this program into effect.

"While the industry is working two or three shifts a day," he said, "it is not making enough engines."

The senate appropriations committee made public testimony from Major General H. H. Arnold, chief of the army air corps, that American aircraft production now is about 340 planes a month, that is expected to increase to 800 a month this summer, and that it should reach an estimated potential capacity of 1,248 monthly by December.

Quake Produces Water Shortage

EL CENTRO, CALIF., May 20 (AP)—Water to replenish dwindling supplies and typhoid serum for any possible emergency were hurried into the Imperial Valley today as the six cities most heavily damaged by a score of quakes since Saturday night launched rehabilitation programs.

Death toll of the tremors was set at eight, two of them in Mexico, and estimates of property loss ran upward from $2,500,000. In Brawley, hardest hit of the valley communities, three men were jailed on looting charges.

South Plains Talk Like 17th Century

LUBBOCK, May 20—Spoken English of the South Plains, although predominantly "hill southern," is a direct descendant of one of the most cultural dialects of seventeenth century England, says Fred Griffin, English instructor at Texas Technological college.

"Speech of the Texas plainsman seems slow," he says, "because we break our vowels. For example, the word 'now' is pronounced 'naow.' Actually, we speak almost as many words a minute as does the Midwesterner, or residents of many other sections of the United States."

He characterized the pronunciation of the west as "hill southern" with extra nasalization and centralization. He also comments on the recessive accent of the West Texan—emphasis on the first syllable of many words, such as 'hotel' and 'guitar.'

Forefathers of Texas plainsmen can be traced to two localities in England, Wessex and the area just north of London, by way of Virginia, the survey shows.

"By tracing immigration through arbitrary columns we find that most South Plains residents come from the Southern states, East, and South Texas," Griffin says. "These localities were settled from Kentucky and Tennessee, to which states population filtered from Virginia."

Although some South Plains residents come from the eastern United States, from the Midwest, and one generation removed from England, these exceptions are soon assimilated by those speaking the "hill southern" dialect.

Evidence of the similarity between South Plains speech and the seventeenth century dialect of Dryden and Pope is seen in the occasional spelling of that time. Griffin cites the word "ten" which appears in seventeenth century English literature with the spelling "tin," a frequent mis-pronunciation in West Texas and other sections of the state.

Yesterday's Newspaper Boys Are Today's Leaders

The Interesting Case of Johnny Jones

Johnny also employs a system of visiting non-subscribers . . . a system he learned from his circulation supervisor. He calls on them periodically, saying something like this, "Hello, Mrs. Brown (of course he knows her name . . . that's a part of his newspaper sales training). I didn't sell you my newspaper the last time I called, but that's my fault, not yours. You see, I forgot to tell you about a recent additional feature in our paper that will save you more than the actual cost of the newspaper." He's truthful and he can prove it. You're not going to keep that boy Johnny down . . . he's going places . . . he's earning his way, and his newspaper salesmanship training has given him a world of confidence.

There's plenty of room in America for men of confidence and business ability. It's the spirit of America, and your newspaper boy typifies that spirit. He's a business man and a salesman (not begging) who merits your consideration.

AND WHO IS Johnny Jones? . . .
You ask. He is the boy who delivers your newspaper. Maybe his real name is Smith, Novitsky or Quinn, but for our purpose now, he is Johnny Jones.

Whether Johnny brings you the morning or afternoon newspaper, there is no interference with his school attendance, and he is developing habits of regularity and promptness.

John is required to deliver his newspapers promptly . . . and, consistent with this practice, he is encouraged to make collections from subscribers just as promptly.

CONTINUED SUCCESS to you, Johnny! Your newspaper's most cherished hope is to have you develop into a successful business or professional man, for then you will be one of those like Ben Franklin, Alfred E. Smith, Senator Arthur Capper, Col. Frank Knox, C. George McCullagh (Publisher Toronto Globe and Mail), and a host of others who say, "Yes, sir, my newspaper route sure started me off on the right track."

YOUR boy will have a better chance of success if he can "sell" his services as a carrier salesman to a circulation manager, whose chief interest is boy welfare.
