WAR CLOUDS DARKEN BALKANS AS HITLER CALLS RUSSIAN COUP A 'BRITISH TRICK'

The War Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Russia's successful ultimatum to Rumania, demanding sweeping concessions which include cession of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, is to my mind largely a strategic defensive move against Germany in particular and the axis partners in general.
The thunder from the unimpeded charge of the great German war machine across Europe is beginning to rattle the windows of Moscow's Kremlin.
The Bolshevik action has sent sparks showering about the open Balkan powder-keg. The situation is tense and there is danger of an upheaval in this cock-pit of southeastern Europe.
If the Muscovites don't encounter any snag in carrying out this sudden maneuver which further scrambles the already unrecognizable map of Europe, the Reds not only will acquire fresh territory but secure a large degree of control over this important Balkan state which Hitler has staked out for himself.
This is calculated to improve the Soviet's military position, and further safeguard its interests in the Balkan peninsula and the near East.
The Berlin attitude that Germany is disinterested under such conditions can be dismissed as just another way of saying that Nazi-dom doesn't want to talk. Equally unsatisfying is the idea in some diplomatic quarters that the Bolsheviks are acting with the approval of Germany.
Herr Hitler isn't likely to abandon his ewe lamb in such fashion. If he appears to acquiesce it is because there is very little else he can do about it, in view of his commitment to perform the considerable task of dismembering the British empire. The fact that King Carol appealed to Hitler for help shows how the wind lies.
Moreover, the Fuehrer can't afford to have a war started in the Balkans, because he is depending greatly on this area to feed his people in case the conquest of England gives him trouble and the British blockade continues to cut him off from food supplies.
Control of Rumania certainly is a matter of vital concern to Berlin. Here is the oil which is all-important to Germany, especially for war. Here are wide grain fields to help fill her cavernous bins.
Here the great Danube river, which winds its navigable way thru

Wheat Yield Greater Than Anticipated

The wheat crop in the Pampa area is scheduled to be much larger than predicted, it is reported at local elevators. Several farmers report their yield at between 25 and 30 bushels to the acre, with the average above 20 bushels, it was said today.
Much of the wheat, especially south of Pampa, is still green but cutting is becoming more general north and west. There is very little east of Pampa where little rain fell early in the season.
Because of the unexpectedly low price, little wheat is being delivered to local elevators. Three car loads have been shipped to date.
Top price on Monday, was 60 cents a bushel, but the trend has been downward with a low of 57 cents yesterday. This morning the price was quoted at 58 cents.
Because of the scattered production areas, no estimate on the yield has been attempted by elevator men.

124 Boys Enter Soap Box Derby

Boys who are building cars for the second annual Soap Box Derby, sponsored by the Pampa News and the Pampa Lions club, were urged today by Sherman White, general derby chairman, to show their stick-to-it-iveness, and finish their cars.
When the deadline on entries came yesterday, 124 boys were lined up for competition in the races to be held here July 18-19.
"In making plans and building these cars," the general chairman said, "boys demonstrate the stuff they are made of. If they have the old American spirit of getting the job done they will not drop out now, but will snap into it, build their cars, and be all set to show what they can do when the model automobiles race here next month."
Winner of the Pampa derby will be given an expense-paid trip to Akron, Ohio, where he will compete against winners of other local derbies in the All-American and International Soap Box Derby to be held August 11.
The thrills and excitement that are crowded into one day during the All-American Soap Box Derby finals are held in Akron, Ohio, next August 11, culminate a year's work on the part of hundreds of men in scores of different occupations.
A program that extends clear around the calendar—beginning with the opening of the finals here, and ending with the big race the following year—is required to assure smooth functioning of every individual connected with the operation of the race itself.
For example, Chevrolet Motor division, which co-sponsors the Soap Box Derby with the nation's leading newspapers, details one man to handle the many elements that must be fused to create the derby. He is J. P. Gormley, national director of the race, and a sincere friend of boys.
Under Gormley's direction, the derby has grown from a race in which 34 cities were represented in

Willkie Says U. S. Should Become 'United' Before Building Defenses

By WENDELL WILLKIE

Just what are we defending? Just how do we propose to defend it? Just what do we mean by 'national defense'?

Chamberlain Denies He Would Come To Terms With Hitler

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, June 28 (AP)—A conservative party united under the leadership of former Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain pledged itself anew today to full support of the British government in its "determination to win the war."
In a statement issued on Chamberlain's authority the powerful conservatives denied and branded as "rumors obviously inspired from fifth-column sources" reports that Chamberlain heads a group which "is prepared to come to terms with Adolf Hitler."
The declaration of "whole-hearted resolve" to back Prime Minister Churchill and the government came almost simultaneously with raids on Britain by Hitler's bombing planes for the seventh time in the last ten days.
This time the Nazi raiders appeared over northeast and southeast England and southeastern Scotland.
They were met by British fighter planes and intensive anti-aircraft fire and, according to a communiqué from the air ministry and ministry of home security, inflicted "no serious damage" and "very slight casualties."

Entrada Cast To Be Picnic Guests

Members of the Coronado Entrada cast will attend the chamber of commerce picnic at Lake McClellan Tuesday as guests of the Junior chamber of commerce. It was decided at a meeting of Jaycee directors yesterday afternoon in the city hall.
The 500 persons who worked so hard and faithfully practicing for the Entrada and who did such marvelous work the three performances will receive letters of appreciation and tickets to the barbecue through the mail.
The barbecue is scheduled for 6:30 o'clock to be followed by games, swimming and boating, and a dance. The general public can make reservations by telephoning 383.
Tickets to the barbecue and letters of thanks will be sent by Jimmy Dodge and Otis Pumphrey, co-chairmen of the Entrada committee.
Other guests at the barbecue will be officials of all government agencies which had a part in the construction of the lake.

Willkie To Resign From Presidency Of Holding Company

PHILADELPHIA, June 28 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee, told a press conference today he intended to resign from the presidency of the Commonwealth and Southern Corporation, public utility holding company, Monday.
Willkie arrived late for a press conference after a closed, important meeting in his hotel room and laughingly announced in response to questions, that he already had accepted the Republican nomination but that the time for the formal acceptance speech had not been determined.
"Don't spread any rumors," he said with a grin, seated on the edge of a desk in the glare of a battery of flood lights. "I've already accepted."
Willkie said he expected to have a series of conferences before the day is out concerning the selection of a chairman for the Republican

Six Indicted By Gray Grand Jury

Six indictments were brought in by the 31st district grand jury before it adjourned late yesterday afternoon. The jury is to reconvene on July 23.
There were two indictments each for burglary, theft, and drunken driving.
Suspended sentences of two years each were assessed by District Judge W. E. Ewing against a 17-year-old McLean youth, charged with theft of a chicken, and against Ernest Jones, 32-year-old metal dealer, charged with drunken driving.
Others indicted were Carl Watson, charged with theft in alleged connection with the fraudulent taking of 50 pounds of mercury valued at $75 from the Lone Star Gas company; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Warren and Cletus Rinehart, jointly charged in two indictments with burglary on June 4 in alleged connection with breaking into houses controlled by C. F. Free and L. M. Batten.
Cases against the Warrens, Rinehart, and Watson, were all in alleged connection with mercury theft. Watson was apprehended in Corpus Christi and brought back to Pampa by Sheriff Cal Rose.
Drunken driving was charged in the sixth indictment, but the person charged has not been arrested.

Officials Will Be Guests At Picnic

Officials from all parts of the Texas Panhandle are expected for the Chamber of Commerce barbecue at Lake McClellan Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m. when water conservation officials will be honored guests of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce. Letters of invitation have been mailed to H. H. Finnell, area conservator of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, to A. A. Meredith, district director of the Works Projects Administration, to come and bring the ranking officials of those two agencies. Invitations have likewise been extended to officers and directors of the Panhandle Water Authority.
A large local crowd is expected. Letters went to members of the

Frustrated Nazis Promise To Settle Things Later On

(By The Associated Press)
A clash of the Red army's march into Bessarabia and northern Bucovina appeared today in Nazi reaction to the Soviet union's triumph in Rumania.
Officials of the German legation at Bucharest charged that the Russian coup was a British-inspired trick to create a new front for the European war but that Germany would act only if her own territorial and economic interests were damaged.
Germany, they argued, is more immediately concerned with smashing Great Britain.
These quarters said frankly that Germany had advised Rumania to accede to Russia's demands on the grounds that it was only "a temporary adjustment" and that Germany "definitely will settle things later."

King Appeals To Hitler For Aid In Crisis

(By The Associated Press)
BUCHAREST, June 28—Soviet Russia's swift, bloodless acquisition of a huge expanse of Rumanian territory was labeled by German legation officials today as a British trick to make Germany fight on a new war front in the Balkans.
But, they declared, Germany is carefully staying out of any such trap.
They declared frankly that German diplomats had advised Carol to meet Moscow's demands but had told him that relinquishing of the territory was only "a temporary adjustment," and that Germany "definitely will settle things later."
There was every indication that the Soviet ultimatum and advance into Bessarabia and Bucovina took the Germans completely by surprise.
Wealthy German landowners and German experts employed in the territory now being occupied by the Red Army fled to Bucharest late last night and early today like ordinary refugees, without any warning.
The legation quarters declared bitterly that Russia had moved ahead and abetted by Britain to take advantage of German preoccupation in the west with the war with Britain.
Stalin 'Pushed'
These Germans alleged that the British ambassador to Moscow, Sir Stafford Cripps, had "pushed" Stalin into Rumania in an attempt to create a new embarrassment for Germany and to cause the Reich to turn her attention away from the west.
They asserted that Germany would not be fooled by this "maneuver" at this time.
They declared only that the

KPDN Listeners To Get Full Leased Wire News Beginning Next Monday

KPDN's regular 1 o'clock noonday newscast will be moved to the period beginning at 12:30 o'clock noon effective next Monday, July 1, Herman Krieger, station manager, announced today.
Effective next Monday also, Mr. Krieger stated, KPDN will be served by the full leased wire facilities of The Associated Press, world's greatest newsgathering service.
This new arrangement for presentation of the latest news of world, nation, state over KPDN, places the Pampa radio station in a position to compete with the big network news programs and gives listeners of the local station the very best possible news service.
The news for KPDN will be edited and arranged by Tex DeWeese, editor of The Pampa News. Two of the daily newscasts, at 12:30 noon and 5:45 p. m. will be voiced regularly by Mr. DeWeese who has been a part-time newscaster for KPDN for the past three years.
KPDN's contract with The Associated Press now makes available to radio listeners in this area the full resources of the thousands of Associated Press correspondents throughout the world and the news as reported by such outstanding national and international reporters as DeWitt McKenzie, Louis Lochner, Frank King, L. T. Easley, W. B. Ragsdale, Eddie Briets and many others.
In addition to KPDN's regularly scheduled newscasts each day, the station beginning Monday will be equipped to give listeners spot news of the day at any hour it happens—whether it be major disaster in the United States or the assassination of a dictator in Europe.

Impressive Rites Unite Miss Alberteen Schukley And Bob Tripplehorn

Couple To Visit Western States On Wedding Trip

The marriage of Miss Alberteen Schukley and Robert Tripplehorn was solemnized in an impressive ceremony at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening in the First Baptist church, in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Schukley and Mr. Tripplehorn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Tripplehorn of Fort Worth.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Gordon Bayless, pastor. Guests assembled as Mrs. Tom Rose played musical music including "All For You" (Brown), "O Promise Me" (R. de Koven), Indian Love Call (Frim), Ave Maria (Schubert), Because (de Hardt), and The Evening Star (Wagner). Preceding the service, Harry Miner of Amarillo sang "Ab-Sweet Mystery of Life" (Victor Herbert) and "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond).

The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin (Wagner) was played for the entrance of the bride party and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional. During the ceremony Mrs. Rose played "Love Song" (Henselt).

Boston ferns arranged across the front of the church formed the background for a large huckleberry draped trillix beneath a temple top candle arrangement. Floor urns of white gladioli, palms, and braced candelabra filled the altar space behind the bride party. Woodward ferns, carnations, and white gladioli extended to the chancel entrance. The pews were marked alternately by pines and fern tied with white satin.

Attendants Named
Miss Maxine Wheatley attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Price, Miss Catherine Pearce, Miss Helen Marie Jones, and Miss Betty Tripplehorn, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Betty Lou Schukley, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and Ann Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collins, was flower girl.

The bridesmaids were gowned alike in various shades of pink net made with full skirts, short puffed sleeves, and shirred bodices with sweetheart necklines. Each wore matching fingerless lace mittens and large picture hats of pink horsehair tied with pink velvet ribbon. They carried colonial bouquets of pink gladioli and fern with showers of tiny pink satin ribbons.

Little Miss Collins wore a floor-length dress of baby pink marquisette with short puffed sleeves and square neck. Her hat matched those of the bridesmaids and she carried a white basket filled with pink rose petals.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dress of egg shell marquisette with a full skirt and long full sleeves. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a floor-length gown of sheer powder blue crepe with full skirt, short sleeves, and long, white kid gloves. Her corsage was of white waterlilies.

Bride Wears White
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette over heavy white satin fashioned with a close fitting waistline, forming a low point in the back from which the full skirt fell into a long train. Small satin covered buttons extended from the back neckline to the waistline. A large V-shaped insert of duchess lace formed the upper part of the bodice, made with a sweetheart neckline. Coronet sections of the lace finished the short sleeves.

Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of staphinotis and lilies of the valley, and her circular face veil extended almost to the waist. She wore elbow-length white lace gloves and carried a bouquet of white roses, staphinotis, and lilies of the valley from which white satin ribbons caught with lover's knots showered the length of the skirt.

Bridegroom's Attendants
Jim Tripplehorn served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Dr. H. E. Howard, Jim Myers, John Adams, and Joe Tripplehorn of Tulsa.

PLAYSUITS FOR HOMEMAKERS

The up-to-date young homemaker finds playsuits smart and comfortable around the house. The one at left is of blue and white checked pique. It includes pleated shorts, tailored shirt, and skirt which buttons on in a jiffy.

For morning marketing, the youthfully chic housewife wears tailored, washable dresses, like the polka dot chambray model at right.

Cousin of the bridegroom, Aldo Allen Hill, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, escort of Ann Collins. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Tripplehorn left on a wedding trip through New Mexico and Colorado after which the couple will be at home at 1003 Fisher street. For travel, Mrs. Tripplehorn wore a sheer navy crepe with life-red torso jacket. Her accessories were navy and red, and she wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Tripplehorn was graduated from Pampa High school where she took part in various activities including the a cappella choir, pep squad, and office staff. During her senior year, she was elected the most popular girl in high school. She later attended Baylor University and Texas Tech. Mrs. Tripplehorn is a charter member of the local Beta Gamma Kappa Club.

After Mr. Tripplehorn's graduation from Paschal High school in Fort Worth, he attended Tulsa University and the University of Texas, majoring in geology. He is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is associated with his father in the independent oil business.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. S. H. Williams, Mrs. W. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Williams, and Annalee Williams of Chickotchee; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Tripplehorn, Miss Goldie and Betty Tripplehorn, Miss Alma Ruth Schukley, and Miss Nancy Lee Schukley of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Tripplehorn, Lenamae and Gertrude Tripplehorn, Mr. and Mrs. Joe K. Tripplehorn of Tulsa; Dr. D. May Wilson and Miss Hazel Wilson of Vernon; Mrs. Helen Langhammer of Oklahoma City; Mrs. D. E. Hedgecock, Maurice Hedgecock of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCaskey and Mrs. E. Howard, Jim Myers, John Adams, and Joe Tripplehorn of Tulsa.

Miss Butts And Thurmond Butler Marry At Erick
Special To The NEWS
SHAMROCK, June 28—Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Butts of Lela announce the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Marie, to Thurmond Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Butler of Mayfield, Okla.

The marriage was an event of Saturday night with the Rev. A. E. Bishop, pastor of the Baptist church of Erick, Okla., reading the ceremony in that city.

Mrs. Butler is a graduate of the Shamrock high school with the class of 1939 where she was a popular student. Her parents are longtime residents of this vicinity, having moved here in 1911.

Mr. Butler is well known in this area. He formerly lived in Shamrock and for a number of years was a resident of Erick.

Mr. and Mrs. Doren Lowe were the only guests at the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom will leave this week for an extended honeymoon in California, after which they will make their home at Mayfield where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

Knitting For Soldiers Will Benefit You, Too

By ALICIA HART
The old ideas about busy people being happier people haven't changed. Now, more than in years, the intelligent woman is realizing that these are times when it is important to find something to do with whatever free time she has.

The first thing practically every woman I meet these days says is: "I want to do something. I wish I could think of some way to help."

Well, the answer is that she can. That you can. That we all can.

The American Red Cross needs knitters—women who can or will learn to knit sweaters, socks, helmets and other items of wearing apparel so desperately needed in Europe at this time.

If you are tired of waiting for someone to form a concrete plan in which women will play a definite part in our national defense program, run—don't walk—to your nearest local Red Cross headquarters, get yourself some yarn and some knitting directions and begin.

You can look at the finished garments and know that you really have been doing something worthwhile. In addition, going in for knitting and other forms of needlecraft arts will, as the relaxation experts always have agreed, have a calming effect on nerves and temper.

If you doubt the relaxation experts' theory, ask half a dozen knitters in your community why they always are knitting, war or no. In addition to all the practical reasons—"I like handknit suits for myself," "I save money by knitting so many of the children's clothes"—you'll hear many, many claims that knitting calms the nerves and makes for a pleasanter disposition.

LET'S GET THE DIRECTIONS NOW!
Anything we can do these days to ward off semi-hysteria should be done. Especially if the "anything" helps others as well as our troubled selves. Knitting for the Red Cross will serve this double purpose. Let's get yarn and directions and specifications from the local Red Cross office now.

New Officers Of B-PW Installed By Shamrock Club
Special To The NEWS
SHAMROCK, June 28—Installation services for new officers of the Shamrock Business and Professional Women's club were held Tuesday night in the garden of the home of Miss Nell Adams, with Mrs. Henry Hise acting as installing officer.

Miss Audrey Henderson, outgoing president, gave the welcome address. Miss Faye Robertson gave the club report, and Miss Evelyn Bernbaugh played three accordian selections.

Ester Club Names Mrs. Stephens As New President

A meeting of Ester club was held in the home of Mrs. W. H. Peters this week with Leta Followell, May Forsyth, and Pearl Stephens as co-hostesses.

In the business session new officers were elected as follows: president, Pearl Stephens; vice-president, Etta Crisler; secretary, Lilly Rohitt; treasurer, Essie Cone; and lieutenant, Ethel May Clay.

Games, directed by Essie Cone, were played after which refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

Attending were Ellen Krotamerer, Fredella Potter, Eva Howard, Ethel May Clay, Leona Burrows, Essie Cone, Daphna Buer, Pearl Stephens, May Forsyth, P. O. Spoonmore, Ruth Roberts, Leah Miller, and Etta Crisler.

At the next social meeting, a sack lunch will be served in the city park.

Mind Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below.

- Should the golfer who has the honor to be allowed to drive before his opponent tee his ball?
- Should a golfer be careful that he does not walk ahead of a player whose ball is further from the green than his own?
- Where should a golfer stand when his opponent is driving?
- If a foursome stops to hunt for a lost ball, must they tell the players behind them go through?
- Should a golfer stand still when his partner is getting ready to drive?

What would you do if—
You are playing golf with a friend who doesn't observe the courtesies of the game?
(a) Correct him?
(b) Stand it for the 9 or 18 holes and then never arrange to play with him again?

Expert Sees Ancient Craft Of Weaving Enjoying A Boom

By WITH MILLET
If you don't think that weaving is glamorous, exciting, and can lead to a top-notch career, you haven't talked with Dorothy Wright Liebes, who makes her home in California, when she isn't traveling all over the world to round up the work of artist craftsmen.

Miss Liebes says there is a great revival of weaving going on in the country, and gives WPA credit, because of the many classes it organized throughout the nation.

Miss Liebes works hand in hand with architects and decorators, designing fabulous fabrics to be used in the homes of the wealthy and in public buildings where beauty is counted above expense.

Her designs for fabric are worked out by her first on paper, then transferred to a loom. The fabrics are then woven by hand, by the 18 girls (most of them like Miss Liebes, graduates of the University of California), who make up her staff of weavers.

Miss Liebes doesn't stick to usual materials. Draperies may be woven of silver foil and raw silk. Decorative Venetian blinds may be made of strips of plastic, white leather, silk and rayon.

Right now Miss Liebes' assistants are busy weaving the draperies for the grand ballroom of the United States liner "America"—huge, luscious, single roses on a silver gray background.

Members, Guests Of Country Club Will Have Supper

A box supper will be given tonight at 7:30 o'clock for members of the Country club and their guests in the club house.

A prize will be presented to the woman whose box receives the highest bid.

After the supper, the group will be entertained with dancing. Both new and old-time dances will be featured.

Colligates' Parents Will Have Swell Time This Summer If . . .

A creed for college students spending the summer with their long-suffering parents:

- I will not be a pain in the neck this summer.
- I will not monopolize the family car, but will get up occasionally and eat breakfast with the family.
- I will not try to reform the family, leaving their naive political opinions and their English as I find it.
- I will not sleep until noon every day, but will get up occasionally and eat breakfast with the family.
- I will go easy on spending money. In fact, I may go so far as to get a job and earn my own.
- I will help a little to "earn my salt," instead of regarding my home as a summer hotel delighted to have my patronage.
- I will not try to "shock" the old folks.
- I will not parade my newly acquired knowledge all day long.
- I will not over-throw the slang that passes for conversation among college students.
- I will not tell Dad how to run his business or Mother how to run the house.
- I will show my appreciation for all the things done in my honor—like having my favorite dishes served again and again.
- I will talk something besides college when I am around my high school friends who are working.
- I will not resent (at least openly) being bossed a little by my parents, realizing that as long as they foot the bills, parents have a right to dish out advice.
- I will not turn up my nose at my home town because it seems dull after an exciting year away from it. Nor will I seem anxious to get away again.
- In short I'll give my family little or no reason to console each other with "He'll outgrow it" when I am out of earshot.

Troop Five Girl Scouts Have Week Of Varied Activities

Troop five Girl Scouts are completing a busy week of various activities.

Tuesday morning the group went swimming at the municipal pool and on Wednesday a regular meeting was held. A picnic at the Scout house entertained the group Thursday. Following the picnic the girls attended a show.

The troop has accepted an invitation from Boy Scout troop 20 to a party which will be given tonight. Attending the picnic were Evelyn Kidwell, Bobby Lou Fossey, Janice Wheatley, Louise Shaddux, Ann Mae Darling, LaVerne Covington, DeLores Dixon, Doris Jean Caldwell, Juanita Caldwell, Erlene Shotwell, Nita Rose McCarty, Virginia Covington, Elizabeth Roberts, and two leaders, Mrs. L. J. McCarty and Mrs. Donald Besse.

RACE WEIGHT LIMITS SET

As in the local races, every car must be officially weighed in for the finals of the All-American Soap Box Derby. For 1940, rules limit the combined weight of the car and driver to 250 pounds, car alone not to weigh more than 150 pounds. Here a home-town champion gets the weighmaster's official OK. Pampa boys entered in the local derby, to be held here July 18-19, will go through a similar check-up four or five days ahead of the races. Cars are to be taken on trial spins on the old Miami road, then brought back to the high school gymnasium and inspected.

ANVIL PARK PREVUE SCENE

Man against horse will be the drama enacted July 3 and 4 during Canadian's eighteenth annual Anvil Park rodeo. Above is a slight scene as will greet spectators when they pour 'em out of the chute to get in the Panhandle's fastest, finest and hardest sport. Three rodeos are scheduled, at 8 o'clock the nights of Wednesday and Thursday, July 3 and 4, and at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

FDR Will Ask Five Billions For Army Alone

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 28—President Roosevelt, it is reported, intends to seek an immense boost in the defense program that would more than double the $5,022,310,080 already appropriated and shatter the arms bill of the peacetime World War year.
Usually well-informed sources said last night the request would be exclusively for army purposes, and that it might be ready for submission when congress returns next week from its recess.
They said that if the funds were voted the nation's arms expenditures for the coming fiscal year would surpass the all-time record outlay of $11,911,387,000 for the 12 months beginning July 1, 1918.
Mr. Roosevelt, it was said, will ask congress to make the additional billions available without delay so the army can place more orders at once for planes, tanks and other weapons. The projected recommendation also was reported to include provisions for financing expansion of aircraft production and munitions factories construction.
Before the likelihood of a further defence increase was mentioned, President Roosevelt authorized late yesterday the seizure of foreign vessels in American waters if such action was necessary either to protect this nation's interests or the safety of the ships themselves.

The President's action, one high official said, could be interpreted as laying the basis for the possible detention, if necessary, not only of French vessels in American waters but also of shipping owned in other European countries now controlled by Germany.

Beauty Shop Adds Steam Bath Cabinet

Installation of a steam bath cabinet was made this week at La Bonita Beauty shop, 410 South Cuyler.
The cabinet is equipped with ultra-violet and infra-red lights. Originally designed* for reducing treatments, the cabinet is adaptable for treatment of minor ailments.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wylie, proprietors, have recently completed courses in Swedish massage.

Willkie's Home Town Celebrates Until Wee Hours

ELWOOD, Ind., June 28. (AP)—Elwood slept late today but it was proud and happy for a home town boy who has been making good in New York made good in Philadelphia as well.
So the 10,000 residents of this north-central Indiana town whooped and shouted and reminisced until the wee small hours after the Republican national convention nominated Wendell L. Willkie for the presidency.
Factory whistles shrieked; automobile horns tooted; townspeople jammed sidewalks and streets, talking, shouting, trumpeting on horns, pounding on pans, drums or whatever was handy. Neighbor slapped neighbor on the back and told about when "Win" Willkie was a kid... or used to drive the bakery truck... or played football at Elwood high school... or practiced law with his parents, Herman and Henrietta Willkie, after his graduation from Indiana university.
A few weeks ago Willkie promised Elwood friends that, if nominated, he would make his acceptance speech from the steps of the high school here. He has been invited to attend the Indiana tomato festival here the final night, July 26, in the hope he would make his speech then.
The townspeople were given free reign until they decided they had celebrated enough and finally straggled off home. The police decided it would be futile to try to regulate traffic or keep thoroughfares open.
"It looks as if they might tear Elwood down," Sgt. Ray Ballard said at headquarters at the height of the impromptu festivities.
"I think we'll let them, though," he mused.

Poem Written By Pampan Published

A poem entitled "Trees," written by Mrs. W. J. Ulrich of Pampa, has been accepted for publication in the 1940 edition of "The World's Fair Anthology of Verse" to be published by the Exposition Press, New York.
Acceptance of the poem also entitles the Pampa woman to entry in the $100 prize poetry contest of the publishers.
Mrs. Ulrich has submitted a story to McFadden Publishing company and lyrics to Columbia Music company and Richard Brothers Music company.
Although she has been writing poems and stories since she was a child, she has never attempted writing for publication until six months ago.
Mrs. Ulrich is a native Texan. She was born near Dallas.

Douglass To Speak In This Territory

Curtis Douglass, candidate for the state senate from the 31st Texas district, will speak in the Pampa area this week-end.
The Panhandle man, runner-up in the campaign four years ago, will speak at 8:30 o'clock Friday night at Miami.
His schedule for Saturday follows: Hedley, 2 p. m.; Wheeler, 4:30 p. m.; Mobeetie, 5:30 p. m.; Canadian, 8:30 p. m.
He opened his speaking campaign in Shamrock Saturday afternoon, and has made talks this week at Dumas and Stratford.
His program includes cooperation with the chief executive, prompt payment of social security obligations, raising the truck load limits, aid to public schools and colleges and getting rid of fifth columnists.
Eighteen of the 24 national parks in America now are open throughout the entire year.

What Of The Indies Now?

The murk which overhangs Europe today is thick and impenetrable. It is impossible to know just what is going on. Events move with such lightning rapidity that it is hard to know where we've been, let alone where we are now.

The French island possessions in the western hemisphere are a good example.

Technically, France still exists. There is some kind of a French government in Bordeaux which has signed an armistice ending France's part in the war. There is some kind of a French government in exile, like those of Holland and Belgium and Norway.

Which now controls the French islands in America? Does either control them in any practical way? Does either government, one under German domination, the other under the wing of the British, really represent the France that owned Martinique, Guadalupe, French Guiana, St. Pierre and Miquelon?

These are questions that are undoubtedly costing the U. S. State Department, as well as the corresponding offices in 20 other American governments, a lot of lost sleep. This is a situation which did not occur to Monroe, which does not fit into any of our prescribed policies.

Of course it cannot really be considered in any final way until peace is made between France and Germany on what passes in today's world for a permanent basis. What has been signed is merely a military armistice. What kind of a French government will emerge from that peace, whether it will have any of the attributes of genuine independence, we do not know. Japan, it should be noted, did not wait to find out, but has begun to deal with French Indo-China without regard to its relations to any French government.

But if it should be a Fascist French government, set up by the Germans as the Russians have set up theirs in the Baltic states, and as Japan has set hers in China, it would be hard for the United States to think of the French islands in America as still belonging to the same France. Such a change might constitute a transfer from one European power to another in as real a sense as if the islands had passed to Germany.

This need not be decided now, for the permanent relationship as set up by a definite peace treaty have not yet been set forth. But they will require the closest attention, and every effort to catch glimpses of the true situation through the murk which now beclouds European events.

The Nation's Press

ART CRISIS AT POTEAU (Tulsa Tribune)

The citizens of Poteau are greatly incensed over a new mural in their postoffice which has just been completed by a girl from Rochester, N. Y., on funds provided by the federal works agency.

The mural, it appears, features a cotton picking scene, although any one who knows LeFlore county is aware that cotton growing is of little importance there. Specifically, the irate townspeople object to what they describe as the wooden face expressions on the characters depicted there, the fact that the cotton pickers are all wearing new, clean clothing, and—worst of all—the figure of a youth carrying a cotton bale. All persons from points south of Rochester, N. Y., know that cotton bales weigh about a quarter of a ton.

During the last seven years in which the New Deal has been spending a few modest millions in "fine arts" projects for the relief of impecunious artists and the edification of the unartistic general public it has become apparent on a number of occasions that the boys in Washington are no hotter art connoisseurs than they are as recovery experts. A lot of the work has been plainly lousy and some of it has carried "social messages" reminiscent of soviet political posters. It is true that the cost of this work while it might have staggered any previous administration, didn't bulk large in the New Deal budget but still the money might have built a few dozen warplanes and thus slightly lessened the current defense "emergency" which the administration is now frantically viewing with alarm.

If the young lady from Rochester has made any mistakes in her painting it is merely because she is expressing the philosophy of her bosses. For to an administration that publicly doubts if the people of America ever will be even slightly inconvenienced by a 45 billion dollar debt there is certainly nothing remarkable about a youngster hoisting a cotton bale.

IT'S TIME TO THINK OF AMERICA (Chicago Tribune)

In this dark hour Americans can find some comfort in the knowledge that now there is little prospect of another military adventure in Europe on our part. There is no front in France to be defended by our men and guns.

Americans can now turn their attention to our own defense, so long neglected. We must rely upon our own will and our own strength to preserve our national integrity and our heritage. We must adopt a foreign policy and an armament policy not with a view to participation abroad on the side of allies but for the defense of America.

Behind The News PHILADELPHIA, June 28—The faint outlines of that grimmed of political specters, a split in the party, can be made out in the background at this Republican convention.

Now that the first flush of indignation has died down—and there was some real, two-handed, one-syllabled indignation on tap for a while—party leaders are discovering acceptance of cabinet jobs by Col. Frank Knox and Henry L. Stimson has put the party in a decidedly unpleasant spot.

Immediate effect was to turn the G. O. P. sharply away from the help-the-Allies course and in the direction of isolationism. But the fact then emerged that the general point of view represented by Colonel Knox and Mrs. Stimson

MORE ABOUT FREEDOM

The other day, I quoted from Harold Hough's book, "Free Men" on the importance of freedom. There were some other wonderful quotations that I wish to pass on. I quote:

"It is the free choice of the quality of life which makes heaven heaven." * * *

"At the moment we may be a little more modest in our declarations and may be content with saying that only an uncoerced and freely chosen goodness is of supreme worth on earth." * * *

"But we will say in all fearlessness that life cannot be safely cut into bits. In a noble sense it is organic. And its final secret is found in that which makes the limitations of time seem an impertinence." * * *

"The moment you measure Italy by the standards of the society of men's minds, Fascism stands condemned. No person is allowed to be a person. And when you include, as you must, in your thought of the society of men's minds, regard for the rights of others, respect for the rights of smaller peoples, scrupulous justice for those who are too weak to resist injustice, the condemnation becomes very secure indeed." * * *

On Germany "I was in Germany when the inflation was at its worst, and I remember feeling ashamed to pay my hotel bill when I returned. I remember how every German face I saw was heavy, hard, bitten and angry—in some cases you might say sodden." * * *

"If the Nazi experiment should prove finally successful, you would have a Germany of animate automata, thoroughly well fed and thoroughly well clothed, who have forgotten the meaning of the word 'freedom'."

New Order of Martyrs

"A little while ago in talking to a group of young radicals in a certain city, I made the half friendly, half malicious suggestion that we need a new order of martyrs, an order of martyrs for culture. There is indeed something in the mental life of free men worth dying for. And no solution of physical problems which dulls the intelligence and stultifies freedom can ever be a real solution." * * *

Greatness and Circumstances "I scarcely need to say to you, although I do say it, that in one way or another every great man in the world has extorted greatness from hostile circumstances. I do not know of one man who floated into greatness, drifting down the stream. All the greatness I have ever read about is described in the accounts of men extorting greatness from grim and antagonistic circumstances. And this they did because they had great minds and were determined to live in great ways. And so Christianity sets about the task of making great persons to live nobly in the fellowship of tree minds, whatever their environment. This is the first step." * * *

"When a man loses belief in his own freedom, when he loses belief in his own ideals, then indeed dark days come to his soul. But this need not happen. If he will, he can be an 'architect of fate.' Only the loss of standards and the loss of the belief in freedom or the misuse of freedom can corrupt the soul. In this great sense it is indeed true that men are not creatures of circumstances; circumstances are creatures of men." * * *

SOUL OF FRANCE IS NOT BROKEN

Premier Reynaud, in addressing his appeal for help to the President, eulogized the heroism of the French soldiers and their chief. He said, "the soul of France is not broken. Our race does not allow itself to be beaten down by invasion."

It takes more than soldiers to have a strong nation. The soul of France was broken years ago, when they permitted short-sighted, selfish labor groups and legislators to pass laws that prevented people from having the right to work and turned over to the racketeers the privilege of selling the right to work, as was the practice before the French Revolution in the Sixteenth Century.

An army alone, no matter how heroic, can never win a battle or defend a country, when the people become so corrupt that they have no respect for the law of equal rights, as France did to her own citizens.

Truly, the soul of France was broken, in spite of what Premier Reynaud claimed, not in the war, but in civil life.

MAJORITY FAVORS AID TO ALLIES

A careful "sampling" poll, taken before all of the delegates had arrived but still intended to give a cross-section of general opinion in the convention, showed a majority of between three and four to one in favor of helping the Allies, and an even bigger majority in favor of a firm stand on the Monroe Doctrine and hemisphere defense.

This doesn't mean the majority has ceased to be highly suspicious of President Roosevelt's foreign policy. It is as suspicious as ever, if not more so. But there is very strong sentiment here in favor of a policy pointed in much the same general direction as that of the President.

It is strong enough, in fact, to cause real fear that if the party takes the politically logical step of setting up as the "peace party" it will lose some very important support.

For instance: one poll indicated that of the 12 men on the important sub-committee which drafted the foreign policy plank, at least seven were personally in favor of aiding the Allies. One of them was former Senator George Wharton Pepper, who is a member of William Allen White's aid-the-Allies committee.

POSITION ELATES PEACE SOCIETIES

The obvious riposte for the party, politically speaking, is to take a position diametrically opposite to the President's. Representatives of the organized peace societies are working hard to have it do just that. They are elated over the development, and predict that the campaign will be fought on a straight-out "war or peace" basis.

But so many important people here, plus a lot of the ordinary delegates, are so close to the Knox-Stimson position that they just couldn't swallow an extreme anti-war, isolationist plank—which is the only politically logical answer to the President's maneuver.

NO TIME FOR MOANING

THE JOB TO BE DONE NOW

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, June 28—More studio sets have been closed to visitors lately than ever before—not that temperament is raising its silly head, but because a good many English and French players are so emotionally frazzled by war news that they couldn't endure distractions.

At RKO, for instance, they're taking no chances on some chatty visitor asking Charles Laughton, "How does it feel to be a Britisher playing the role of an Italian?"

Laughton and Carole Lombard are co-starring in an untitled picture version of the Sidney Howard play, "They Knew What They Wanted," in which the overstuffed Italian—one of the thousands of good citizens who live in Napa county. In spite of such an innocuous characterization, there was some discussion of changing the screen nationality of Tony to Portuguese.

In this story, she is a tough little hash-slinger who answers a matrimonial advertisement and eventually, after some torrid dalliance with the ranch foreman, Bill Gargan, becomes Tony's wife. There have been long conferences with the Hays office, and one of the late's most surprising decisions is that the picture cannot be called "They Knew What They Wanted." I suppose they'll come out of it with "Clinging Vine" or maybe "Grapes of Laught."

BLACKOUT COMES TO TEX ALSO

If the war has done little else for pictures, it at least has reminded movie-makers of the dramatic effectiveness of the blackout. Back in the pre censor and Von Stroheim days there were occasions when a darkened screen, maybe showing the glowing tips of cigars, proved almost shocking.

In this Lombard-Laughton film there's a sequence in which the actress urges the reluctant Gargan to go walking in the vineyard. He is somewhat reassured by the flashlight she carries, but pretty soon she drops it. Blackout. The song of a mocking bird is heard.

Spook pictures have been making good use of the device, and at the beginning of "Ghost Breakers" Paulette Goddard is shown (by recurrent flashes of lightning) packing to go to Cuba. Funny things also happen in the dark, and in "Little Men" there's a sequence in which Jack Oakie smuggles a baby into a hotel without benefit of illumination.

"Waterloo Bridges," which is a wartime story anyway, starts with a present-day blackout in London.

Low-key lighting is profitably used in most of that film, and all Hollywood finally seems to be acknowledging that less light makes for greater artistry and realism. There's no reason why, when a man comes into a dark room and lights a candle, the place suddenly should assume the brilliance of a Hollywood premiere.

People You Know

By Archer Fullington

"Mine started last Monday," said Miss Yvonne Thomas, referring to her hay fever, and that's the day that many Pampans had their first attack of hay fever this summer. This dog sounds good doesn't it: medium long hair, white with brown spot on back and brown down his nose. Well you can have him if you will go see Peggy Ketter at 820 North West street. She is keeping him until his owner or somebody else comes and gets him. Mrs. Ed Foran has a pup on hand that her husband found at the cemetery. She will give it to the first person who comes for it. People, says Mrs. Foran, are always leaving dogs at the cemetery. Mocking birds are singing all night here and that is a rare occurrence. A man on east Fisher reports that Wednesday night a mocking bird began singing at 11 o'clock and sang all night. He said that he counted 44 different songs, and that the bird would go back to a song he had already sung about once an hour. He says this particular mocking bird sang the call and the song of at least 100 birds during the night. He said the bird seemed beside himself with joy and almost frenzied with song, and that he, the man, was strangely fascinated by the bird's song and didn't want to go to sleep. Here's consolation for all hay fever sufferers, including the afore-mentioned Miss Thomas: Dr. Buenaventura Jimenez of the University of Michigan, 10 years ago thought he noted an unusual number of high-honored students among his allergy patients. He kept records. It proved out mathematically, believes Dr. Jimenez. So next time you are rocked and racked by sneezes console yourself with the thought, "Gosh, I'm smart!"

The Field of Science

Here are some puzzles in various scientific fields. You should be able to answer four out of five.

1. With what sciences are the following terms associated? (a) logarithm; (b) parallax; (c) molecule; (d) igneous; (e) cephalic index.

2. About how many volcanoes, would you estimate, have been active in the world during the past century? (a) 4; (b) 17; (c) 45; (d) 76; (e) 223.

3. About how much of the air you breathe is oxygen which can be used by the human body? What is the other principal gas in the air?

4. A photograph reproducing unit employing a "floating needle" design to increase the life of records many times, represents the first basic change in the instrument since it was invented in 1877 by . . .

5. What is the average weight of the adult human brain?

Masons Hold Outing At Ranch Near Miami

Special To The NEWS MIAMI, June 26—Members of the Masonic lodge with their families and a number of friends from the Pampa chapter met Monday evening at the C. P. Burnett ranch in the suburbs of Miami for a social get-together and big feed.

A long table was prepared in the outdoor living room under the tall trees and a dinner featuring barbecued meat was spread.

TEX'S TOPIX

BY TEX DEWEESSE

THE group whose members do not believe in saluting the American flag is coming into the spotlight again in Pampa as some of its leaders go about with a petition seeking local signers. . . . It seems the state of Ohio has rescinded its permit for the organization to use the state fairgrounds at Columbus for a national convention of the sect this summer. . . . What the Pampa members are trying to do is get signatures on a petition asking Gov. John Bricker of Ohio to change his mind and allow the convention to proceed as originally scheduled.

ALL that we can say about the members of this organization is to repeat that if they do not care to show the proper respect for the American flag, it might not be a bad idea to leave these shores and take up residence in a foreign country where it will be entirely all right if they do not wish to salute the American flag. . . . And that reminds us that we made an error the other day and that we should have said that the community-wide flag sale is being conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary. . . . Household and service sizes are available. . . . If ever there was a time when every day should be flag day, this is it. . . . You can get your flags by phoning 1824 or 685-W.

And, here's something for those who prefer not to salute the American flag. . . . Any American citizen should assume the right to interfere when the flag is being treated otherwise than with respect and reverence. . . . This, of course, does not mean license and rowdiness should at all times be avoided.

The American Legion is going to have its July Fourth annual fireworks display out at Lake McCellan this year on a scale bigger and better than ever. . . . The fireworks display will be held shortly after dark and should start between 9 and 9:30 p. m. . . . It's all free. . . . There's no admission to the lake grounds any time. . . . Immediately after the fireworks there will be a dance in the Recreation building at the lake and Legion members now are selling advance tickets for the dance. Lake McCellan will be a grand place to spend the Fourth of July. . . . There is something doing all day and night.

Boycott On Ford Debated In Canada

OTTAWA, June 28 (AP)—Henry Ford's refusal to manufacture aircraft for the United States has aroused demands in parliament for a Canadian government ban on sale of Ford vehicles and seizure of the Ford Canadian plant.

But after a stormy debate in the House of Commons and senate yesterday, conservative leader E. B. Eason said in commons: "Public opinion in Canada and, I believe, in the United States at this time will deal with Mr. Henry Ford. I think we can leave it there."

Unfilled military export orders, according to plane manufacturers, amount to about 3,350 units.

You and Your Nation's Affairs

IMPEDIMENTA TO THE REAR! By GUS W. DYER

Professor of Economics and Sociology, Vanderbilt University

In the crisis of battle Caesar would order all impediments to the rear. . . . We nation faces a serious crisis, patriotism and common sense demand that all impediments be removed to the rear. Both England and France disavowed their military aid to us soon after they entered the war that their peace-time leaders were impeding progress, and scattering billions of dollars abroad, and might have led us into war by threatening to quarantine foreign dictators. . . . But when Chairman Dies made public the fact that over 500 federal officers and employees are members of a communist organization, promoted from Russia as a fifth column movement, the President denounced the act of Chairman Dies as sordid, mean, vile, base!

In view of all that is going on in the world today, it was a shocking surprise to learn recently that the country is really in a very low state of preparedness. Notwithstanding the fact that the administration has been spending more than a billion dollars a year on the army and navy. . . . To compare the supposed preparedness achieved in the seven years under the New Deal with that of the emergency achieved in the seven years before the New Deal when there was no sort of threat to American safety from any place in Europe, is practically that is unworthy of notice by any intelligent person.

Listen to what the Army Corps Chief told the Senate Committee: The United States Air Corps lacks even one completely modern equipped plane. . . . a mobile force of not more than 15,000 men could be placed in the field. . . . A serious shortage of ammunition exists. . . . Appalling deficiencies ranging from 50 to 90 per cent in mechanized equipment, anti-aircraft guns, sea coast artillery, anti-tank guns, and automatic rifles. The armed force is so poorly equipped that it actually is short of uniforms and blankets.

Oilers, Gassers Play Rubber Game Tonight

Vannoy Stars As Hitter And Pitcher

Milbert Vannoy pitched and batted the Pampa Oilers to a 12 to 2 win over the Berger Gassers here last night in the second game of the current series. The final game tonight, at 8:30 o'clock, will be a Ladies Night game and another packed grandstand is expected.

The Oilers will leave tomorrow for seven days during which they will play three games in Lubbock, two in Midland and three in Clovis, including a doubleheader on July 4. They'll return home July 6 with Lubbock.

Although Vannoy was hit hard and often, he kept the hits fairly well scattered and bore down in the tight spots. It was his big bat, however, that started and led the Oiler attack all the way. It wasn't until the fifth inning that the Oilers were able to get to Letty Parks and then it was Vannoy who started the fireworks with a home run over the left field fence. He added two more singles before the night was over to score twice himself and bat in five runs.

Seitz Follows Vannoy
After Vannoy got the Oilers started, it was slaughter. Malvica laid down a perfect bust in the same inning and Seitz followed with a home run over the left field fence which sent Parks to the showers and Franklyn to the mound.

But Franklyn held no terror for the Oilers. Jordan fanned to open the sixth. Potter and Clutter walked and Vannoy came through with a single to score one. Seitz then singled after Malvica had fled out and when the ball rolled through Scopetone, two more runs crossed the plate and Seitz drew up at third.

Jordan and Potter singled in succession with one away in the seventh and after Clutter struck out Vannoy scored with a single. The slaughter was not over even then. Prather walked to open the eighth and Summers and Jordan singled in succession. Potter flied out and then Clutter singled as three runs crossed the plate in the inning.

Nell Hits Ball
While Vannoy and Jordan, with three hits each, led the Oilers, it was big Gordon Nell of the Gassers who walked off with batting honors. Every time the former Oiler waved his bat it hit the ball and Nell was credited with three doubles and a single on four trips to the plate. He got two singles and a double before Vannoy got his number. Decker and Williams also doubled for the Gassers, but their hits were scattered.

Borger scored in the fourth after Adams had forced Williams on a perfect double play when Malvica threw the ball away. Adams scored on Potocar's single. The other Borger run crossed the plate in the sixth when Williams and Potocar doubled.

Clutter and Malvica came up with some great plays to lead the Oiler defense. Clutter made a great catch of Adams' liner and on the next play hooped up a hot grounder one-handed to get Franklin. Malvica roared deep to left field to make a catch of Short's single as the ball went over his shoulder.

Seitz Injured Wednesday
Manager Grover Seitz played the entire game although just out of the hospital where he spent the day receiving treatment for a pulled muscle. The Oiler manager hurt his leg rounding second in the seventh inning of the Wednesday night game.

Borger pulled two snappy double plays, Decker to Gilchrist to Nell in the first two innings of the game but many fans believe they were gifts of the base umpire who failed to notice that Gilchrist missed second on both plays. Fans, players and everyone in the press box were of the opinion that Gilchrist stepped over second without even touching it on the first play and on the second he reached high for a toss from Decker and when he came down he missed the bag completely.

An umpiring mistake that has been noticeable in several games has been when the umpire turned his back on first and led the batter to second on a two base hit, failing to wait and see if the runner tagged first. Twice in a recent game players missed first by large margins.

The American League Scores

NEWSOM WINS TENTH
ST. LOUIS, June 28 (AP)—Big Buck Newsom, helped along by Charley Gehring and Hank Greenberg, pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 2 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Browns last night. It was Newsom's tenth straight triumph.

Score by innings: 01 001 000—2 3 1
DETROIT—Sullivan; Harris, Trotter and Swift, Grace.

San Antonio Has Won Eight Straight

(By The Associated Press)
A couple of "streaks" are causing most of the talk in the Texas league race.

San Antonio, in hot pursuit of leading Houston, now has won eight straight. That's not worrying Houston much because the Buffs are doing about as well.

Fort Worth has lost 13 straight, and is deep in the cellar, eight and one-half games behind seventh place Shreveport.

Houston beat Fort Worth 6-5 last night in 14 innings.

San Antonio downed Oklahoma City 9-7 with the Indians' ninth inning rally pushing over four runs. Beaumont defeated Dallas 3-2 behind the four-hit pitching of Clay Smith.

Tulsa swept its series fifth Shreveport, 6-4.

SERIAL STORY

Ticket to Hollywood

BY W. H. PEARS

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Jerry Finney gives Francis a ride in the evening. When Jerry kisses her, Francis is thrilled, but something is lacking. In the studio, the next day, Francis is waiting to get in to see Icon, she says Gusty, and he wishes her to be named by her failure to recognize him.

CHAPTER XI

FRANCIE danced lightly over the rest of the day, her head in the clouds. Gusty Gair, after a few hours of remorse, had become a shadowy figure outside the shimmering fringe of her dream world. At times he tried to push through and tantalize her conscience, but Francis fought off these intrusions.

Jerry Finney brought her back to the hotel late Saturday afternoon. As she walked to her room, Francis caught herself thinking that Jerry hadn't even wished her good luck. He had been too busy talking about his own part in the broadcast.

Aunt Hat bounced up to meet Francis. "I don't know what's got into your father. An hour ago he received a telephone call. He went out in a rush and I haven't seen him since. Now who in the world would call him here?"

Francie had a cold feeling in the pit of her stomach. "I-I don't know, Aunt Hat, unless..." "You're thinking of Gusty again," Aunt Hat accused.

"No, I'm not!" Francis denied with far more emphasis than was necessary. At 7 o'clock Aunt Hat said, "Whatever shall we do, Francis? Do you think anything might have happened to your father?"

Francie had bought some theatrical make-up and was making her fresh young face rather grotesque with it. "Of course not, Aunt Hat!"

But as it drew near 7:30 Francis began to shiver and nervousness. It wasn't like Pops to be mysterious. But what could she do? She couldn't miss the big moment of her life...

Aunt Hat settled the matter by calling a cab. A page boy examined Francis's ticket, then handed her back "Hold your ticket," he intoned. "Mr. Rhinegold and Mr. Klump will interview after the broadcast."

A second boy said, "Come this way, miss," and led her to the stage where nearly 50 wide-eyed youngsters fidgeted. The curtain hadn't gone up yet. Francis seated herself and tried to appear self-possessed. She wasn't "green" like the others, she told herself. She was a personal friend of Jerry Finney.

ABOVE and on either side of the stage was a glass-fronted booth. In one of these sat a group of people in evening clothes. In the other, four men hovered around an instrument panel. One of them wore headphones; another leafed through typewritten pages.

The curtain rose, revealing a mass of upturned faces. Francis's heart leaped. To be singing before all these people! It was her dream come true. Her throat felt tight and her knees shook.

In the control booth the man with the headphones brought his finger down in an arc. The announcer spoke into the microphone in low pleasant tones. "...and now, ladies and gentlemen, I'd like to introduce that brilliant young actor and comedian who tonight will be our master of ceremonies—Jerry Finney!"

Jerry ran on stage, smiling and bowing. He read his lines with the assurance of a veteran. He introduced the first participant in the "Parade of American Youth" broadcast. He stepped away from the microphone, and a lank-haired young man began to sing "Roses of Picardy" in a shaky voice.

Jerry stood only a few feet from Francis. Eagerly she waited for him to pick her out of the crowd, to smile encouragement at her, but he had eyes only for the audience. He did a few dance steps, mimicked the young amateur, mugged. A ripple of laughter broke in on the song.

Francie plucked at Jerry's coat. With her lips she formed, "Hello, Jerry."

He turned with a frown, nodded briefly, then moved away from her.

Francie clenched her hands. She felt as if Jerry had stabbed her in the heart. And then, remembering the starched shirts in the glass booth, she understood.

A page boy tapped her shoulder. "Francie Weston?" She nodded, heart pounding. "Your father's back here and wants to see you."

"But I can't leave now. My name may be called any time."

The boy shrugged. "He says it's a matter of life and death."

HER father stood just off-stage, his face set and grave.

"Pops," Francis cried, "What's happened?"

"I've news of Gusty," he said quietly. "I thought you ought to hear it."

"Oh, but, Pops, can't it wait? If I'm here, then when they call my name..."

He nodded. "I know, Francis. This is important, too. Gusty's in the hospital, seriously injured."

"Oh, no!" Francis's eyes were wide. "He—he isn't going to..." "They were taking an X-ray when I left."

"How—what happened?" Momentarily Francis had forgotten the broadcast, forgotten Jerry—everything but Gusty Gair.

"Gusty was conscious a few minutes," Mr. Weston said. "Gusty was stranded 100 miles from Hollywood. He got enough money on his trumpet to finish the trip, but he arrived broke. Well, somehow the young idiot got inside of a studio. They were ready to shoot an automobile smash-up, and the stunt man hadn't appeared. Gusty bluffed his way into the job and just about broke his neck ramming a stone wall."

"Gusty did that?" Francis's eyes sparkled with tears.

Mr. Weston said, "You see, Francis, he was trying to stick it out until the broadcast. He had to have money to rent another trumpet."

Francie's cheeks burned. She looked at the floor. "I—I tried to find him."

"Let's be honest, Francis. You were busy with young Finney."

"But, Pops, Gusty can't play now. Why shouldn't I have my chance?"

"If you want it, Francis."

THEY stood in silence a moment.

On the stage the orchestra stopped playing. Jerry Finney's voice carried to Francis. "And now, ladies and gentlemen, a clever little lady who sings them sweet and hot—Miss Francis Weston."

"Pops! That's me! It's my turn to sing!" Francis was pale, breathless. "I can go to Gusty as soon as the program's over."

"Yes, Francis, you can. But first, Gusty sent something to you. He had the nurse call all the hotels to find me. He wanted you to have this."

Francie stared. "It—it's his wallet."

"Yes. He never discovered the loss of the ticket."

"And—and he wanted me to have it," Francis choked. "After the way I acted..."

"Yes, dear, and he needs you now."

Jerry Finney's voice was louder, a little irritated. "Miss Francis Weston, please."

The orchestra played a second introduction. Francis pressed her fingers into her eyes. Just a few quick steps would take her back into her bright world of glamor. But if Gusty died as she sang...

Jerry's voice seemed to come from a great distance: "Last call, Miss Francis Weston..."

Girl Scouts in Camp North Of Canadian

Special To The NEWS

CANADIAN, June 28—Thirty Girl Scouts with their captains, Mrs. O. W. Garrison and Mrs. Logan Owens, also Mrs. Hollie Spiller, a trained nurse, are in camp at the Country club on the north side of the river.

In addition, one or another of the mothers will be present each night. Mrs. Ben Jordan was there Wednesday night. Mrs. Norman McGill, Mrs. Jim Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Callaway, the latter appointed as Girl Scout sponsor from the Woman's club, at other times.

The camp is not only a delightful outing for the enjoyment of the troop, but is an opportunity for the girls to make some of their scout tests, working towards the time they may receive a merit badge.

Mothers of all the girls were invited to spend Thursday evening with the troop in camp and eat ice cream.

Each girl took her own camp equipment with her and is responsible for its use and care. They are making their stay in hiking, fire-building, setting up camp, etc., this week.

The Girl Scouts are between the ages of 10 and 16. They hold weekly meetings in Canadian each Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Scout hut.

Clarendon Trippers Guests Of Shamrock

Special To The NEWS

SHAMROCK, June 28—Shamrock Boosters club enjoyed a musical evening of vocal duets at their regular luncheon Wednesday presented by Mrs. Glen Truax and Mrs. Shirley Draper, who sang "Beautiful Isle" and "At Dawning."

The club had as guests John R. Gillham, manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Clarendon, Ralph Andis and Verna Lusk, Clarendon boosters. Mr. Gillham outlined Clarendon's Coronado celebration to be held on July 3, 4 and invited the residents of Shamrock to attend.

Bedford Harrison, manager of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce announced the meeting of the Safety council of the Pampa to be held in Pampa on July 2 and also the opening of the McClellan lake which will take place on July 4. He also invited Shamrock boosters to attend the barbecue at McClellan lake on the evening of July 2.

PROPAGANDA NOT NEW

Propaganda dates back at least to the 15th century, according to recent findings. French experts, in restoring Joan of Arc's famous castle at Vaucouleurs, Lorraine, found erude metal discs bearing the words: "Long Live the King of France." The discs evidently were meant for general distribution.

The largest recorded fire loss in New York City was in 1922, when $22,743,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Candler And Nichols To Play In All-Star Game

R. G. Candler and Glen Nichols, of the 1939 Pampa Harvester football team, will be members of the West Texas football team which will meet an aggregation of North Texas stars in an Oil Bowl football game in Wichita Falls on Labor Day, September 2. The game will be sponsored by the Maskat Temple (Shriners).

The team representing the western section of the state will be coached by Blair Cherry of the University of Texas and J. G. "Goober" Keyes of the Lubbock Westerners. In charge of the northern team will be Matty Bell of Southern Methodist university and Ted Jeffries of the Wichita Falls Coyotes.

Members of the West Texas team will be from Pampa, Amarillo, Lubbock, Tahoka, Tulla, Perryton, Wink, Floydada, Wellington, Littlefield, Matador, Otton and Shamrock.

Candler played tackle and Nichols end for the Harvesters last season. Both boys plan to enroll at the University of Texas this fall.

Crayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

Joe Louis' willingness to tackle anybody at any time is commendable, but there is no one for him to fight, so the champion should take a long vacation.

If Louis cares to wait until Billy Conn or someone develops, he can wait in shape in exhibitions and gymnasiums, where no one will have to watch him make comic valentines or soft touches such as Arturo Godoy.

Louis and his managers and Mike Jacobs do not see things that way, of course, although they have cheapened the championship to such an extent that it drew little more than $100,000 at Yankee Stadium the other night... a lightweight figure in the heavyweight division.

The police ought to do something about it right now, but Louis will be faced by Tony Galento-Max Baer survivor in September.

The Galento-Baer thing in Jersey only Tom Yawkey and Ed Barrow holding out against night baseball in the American league.

Buck Newsom Checks Off 10th Victory

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Buck "Snowboat" Newsom of the Detroit Tigers, one of the poisonous personality kids of the thundering thirties in the major leagues, is a fellow who will tell you it's better to be lucky than good anytime.

Newsom has been beaten since the season's opening game with the St. Louis Browns and last night he checked off his tenth victory, a 2-1 tally against those same St. Louis Browns.

Old Snowboat won 20 games in both 1938 and 1939, hasn't had any snap maintaining his present winning streak. That's why he knows that good breaks have helped a lot.

In two of his victories he was knocked out of the box before Detroit won. In two other games he was batted out and Detroit lost without his being charged with the defeat. But the fates were never with him any longer than last night in St. Louis.

Newsom scattered seven hits and struck out six. This performance was shaded, however, by Bob Harris and Bill Trotter, who held the Tigers to three hits.

The difference was simply that two of Detroit's hits were home runs by Charley Gehringer and Hank Greenberg. That's how victories are born sometimes. This one narrowed the gap on the idle Cleveland Indians to two games.

Another three-hitter last night was Hal Schumacher's performance against the Phillies to give the New York Giants a 7-0 shutout.

In the only other action in the major league yesterday the Brooklyn Dodgers edged out the Chicago Cubs 4-1 in a tight game in which each team got nine hits.

The victory brought Brooklyn within a game of the first place Cincinnati Reds with the Giants not far behind.

Boudreau, Mack Take Place With Great Second Base Duos

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

CLEVELAND, June 28—Two college kids made the Cleveland club... already are ranked with the greatest second base combinations of all time.

Indeed old-timers say Louis Boudreau, Jr., and Ray Mack make double plays no other pair could have engineered.

No shortstop ever got rid of the ball faster than Lou Boudreau. No second baseman ever took less time pivoting and speed the sphere to first base than Mack.

Oscar Melillo, veteran infielder coaching the Indians, attributes Boudreau's cat-like disposition of the ball to his basketball at Illinois, where he stood out as forward. Basketball probably helped Mack, too, for he was a topnotch all-round athlete at Case School of Cleveland.

Boudreau and Mack brought 60,000 persons to their feet in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium when, with the bases full in the eighth inning of a game with the Red Sox, they pulled Al Smith out of trouble with a double play the like of which tired old eyes had never seen.

Competent critics say only Boudreau could have started it... on a slow roller from the bat of Bobby Doerr.

MACK THROWS SWIFTLY FROM ANY POSITION

"The ball came from Mack like a bullet," asserts Hal Trosky. "I thought for a second Bob Feller was trying to pick a runner off first base. It had to be fast because I felt Doerr's foot hit the bag a fraction of a second after the ball landed in my glove."

Mack's throwing from any position and with plenty of stuff on the ball is remarkable.

Although he weighs 200 pounds, Mack gets a jump on the ball as well as the 170-pound Boudreau.

Both have fine hands in which baseballs stick.

They are instinctive players... sense the proper thing to do with the pellet the instant it strikes the glove.

Both are of good speed anyway. Neither has to be told anything a second time. This is only the third year in professional ball for Boudreau and Mack, who first attracted attention with Buffalo last summer.

When they were recalled by the Indians last fall, Mack, whose home is in Cleveland, tightened up before the home folks. An effort was made to change his batting style, but when he went from bad to worse it was decided to let him alone.

He has improved 100 per cent at the dish since the campaign started... now leads the Tribe in batting.

Diesels To Pull Freight

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—The Santa Fe Railway today announced the purchase of two 5400 horse-power Diesel-electric freight locomotives—listed as the first to be used by any road for main line freight service.

"Teeming" in the steel industry, refers to the pouring of molten steel into ingot molds to solidify.

CLEVELAND CLUB RALLIES AROUND YOUNG BOUDREAU

The Redskins rallied around Boudreau the day he reported... closed phenomenally well in 1939... won 19 of 22 games on their final road trip.

Boudreau winds himself like a pretzel at bat, but a stance doesn't mean a thing when the hitter goes into the ball, and the Frenchman goes into it. He has hit around 300 from the opening bell.

Boudreau and Mack scarcely can miss taking their place with the great second basing combinations of history—Tinker and Evers, Turner and Lajoie, Bush and Schaefer, Barry and Collins, Maranville and Evers, Risberg and Collins, Sewell and Wambsgans, Pekinpaugh and Harris, Crossetti and Lazzeri, Junges and Herman, Crossetti and Gordon, and some more.

For it is in the field that Lou Boudreau and Ray Mack make the crowds stand up and cheer.

TIME DEALS GENTLY WITH PRATT & LAMBERT PAINT

sey City, July 2, brings together a swinger who finally got himself in condition but who has no heart, and a fat barkeep who couldn't possibly get in shape, but who has plenty of moxie.

Baer quit to Louis five years ago, and only last summer was stopped by the mediocre Lou Nova, who in turn was halted by Galento.

Galento saved the show a year ago by catching Louis off balance and dropping him just before the Orange Oval was belted out, but anybody who saw that one knows Two-Ton doesn't belong in the same enclosure with the Negro.

Godoy was a filler-inner when Mitt Monopolist Jacobs dragged him back from Chile to provide Louis with employment at the Garden in February. And that's all he was the other night.

Yet in making a chapping block out of a target he couldn't miss, Louis again is hailed as the greatest warrior of them all, despite a record showing him to be nothing more than a remarkable hitter. Outside of his quick knockout of Max Schmeling, an old man whom he kept waiting two years, Louis' record easily might be matched by any number of ordinary performers in the past.

All Galli-Curci could do was sing, it is true. It is not the young savage's fault there is no worthy opposition.

But the fact remains that Louis has yet to meet an opponent thru whom he could establish ring greatness.

Why not call the whole thing off before Louis faces a charge of homicide?

LZ Ranch To Hold Rodeo On July 19

The eighth annual Northwest Panhandle Amateur Rodeo and Neighbor's day will be held July 19, on the LZ ranch on Wolf creek, 20 miles southwest of Perryton, operated by Tom Elzey and son.

Liberal purses will be awarded in all rodeo events, the rodeo being strictly amateur with all professionals barred.

In connection with the program this year will be a round-up of friends of Tom Elzey for congress, and a John Snyder barbecue free.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. with outstanding speakers on "Neighborliness."

Dr. W. Angie Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church of Dallas, one of America's greatest preachers, will bring a message on "Who Is My Neighbor?"

A delegation from every community in the 18th congressional district is expected to be present. Everybody is invited.

Plane Factories Will Be Enlarged

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—Plant expansion programs by four of the nation's leading fighting plane manufacturers—Douglas, Lockheed, Vultee and Brewster—were made public today.

Douglas will add 112,000 square feet of floor space to the El Segundo, Calif., plant at a cost of $20,000.

Lockheed will spend $8,000,000 to double the capacity of its factory at Burbank, Calif.

Vultee is spending $2,900,000 to increase its plant space by 142 per cent to an area of 802,000 square feet.

Brewster is doubling its manufacturing space by leasing from Ford Motor Co., a plant near its present factory in Long Island City, N. Y. The leased plant brings Brewster's floor area to 884,000 square feet.

Tennis Hints

By ELEANOR TENNANT
Coach of Alice Marble

The overhead smash is associated with the serve, chief difference being that it is a frontal swing without a windup. The reason is you must create your own action on the service by tossing up the ball.

In the overhead smash the ball already is in play and coming toward you.

You have time only to lift the racquet head up as high as oncoming ball. Drop your racquet in a follow-through which places it seemingly over the net, the same as in your service, hitting up and into the ball.

It is important that you get depth on the shot and never let the follow-through take a line below your shoulder.

Common fault is hitting down on the ball, which should clead the net by six feet or more.

Get underneath the ball in hitting, standing sideways as in the service, with feet, shoulders and left foot forward.

'Dead' Man Arrested

HAZARD, Ky., June 28 (AP)—Deputy Marshal Andrew Combs believes in bringing 'em back alive—even if they're supposed to be dead.

He proved it by locating and arresting a man who had been reported drowned in this section's "flash flood" a year ago.

The "death" report followed the man's indictment on a moonshining charge.

Over 150 cities are now debating whether or not to install parking meters on their streets.
