The $100,000 Coronado Entrada which will have its Texas premiere in Pampa June 13, 14, and 15 is a male "Vivien Leigh."

In other words, Coronado has been named, and the fortunate man is a dark-horse in Pampa, but not in Oklahoma.

The role of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado in the magnificent Entrada will be played by Harold C. Shadwick, descendant of Lee C. Shadwick, a famous governor of early Oklahoma.

Mr. Shadwick is five feet and 11 inches tall, the exact height of Coronado. He has a perfect Coronado beard. He is dark-skinned and has an aquiline nose, although his eyes are blue, as were Coronado's.

Director Mark Hamilton and the casting committee selected Mr. Shadwick Wednesday night when try-outs were held for principals. Previously he had not been considered, but when they saw him they knew they had their man.

"I feel that it is a great honor to be chosen for the role of Coronado," said Mr. Shadwick. "I will do my best to justify the confidence of the casting committee, and I will try to interpret the role of Coronado authentically and realistically and at the same time in an entertaining manner. I consider this to be the highest honor that has come to me. I am fully aware of the responsibility reposed in me, and I promise to give my best."

Ford, Massey Will Be Pool Life Guards

Salaries of the management and employees of the Pampa Municipal Swimming pool for the summer season of 1940 were set up by the city commission at its meeting yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hinger are to be in charge of the pool, at a combined salary of $115 a month, plus the proceeds from concessions, such as sale of candy and soft drinks, estimated at $25 a month, plus 10 per cent of the net profits from the operation of the pool.

Employed as life guards are Darrell Ford and Pascal Massey. Each is to receive $60 a month salary. Mrs. Josie Young is employed as an assistant to the Hingers at $60 a month, while Elmer Young, her son, is to be janitor at $40 a month.

City Manager Steve Matthews said the number of employees might be reduced later in the season if patronage did not warrant the expense.

Last year a filtration system was installed at the pool, and the seasonal closed with the city operating the place at a loss of $703.02, according to the annual audit, recently completed.

The pool is scheduled to open June 1.

War Flashes

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The senate approved the $1,473,756,728 navy appropriations bill today, basing the administration's extraordinary national defense program far toward final congressional action.

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—An air raid warning was rounded tonight in a town on England's southeast coast. Pursuit planes went up immediately.

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill repeated today Neville Chamberlain's pledge that Britain would never make a separate peace with Germany. In a written reply to a question whether he renewed the pledge to conclude no peace except in agreement with France, Churchill answered one word: "Yes."

City Manager Steve Matthews being "kidded" about reporting his mileage to Amarillo and back as 114 miles, for which the commission allowed a bill at its meeting yesterday. Other city officials accompanied him on the trip Tuesday to a district meeting of the Texas League of Municipalities. "What did you make your passenger do—walk the other six miles?" he was asked.

President To Give Fireside Chat Sunday

Defense Will Be Discussed Over Radio Networks

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—President Roosevelt will discuss defense conditions and needs in a "fireside chat" to be broadcast to the country Sunday night.

In announcing Mr. Roosevelt's decision to make the radio address at 8:30 p. m. central standard time, Stephen Early, Presidential secretary told newsmen it would be a "straight forward and factual report from the government to the people."

He said it would be a "general discussion of the defense situation and defense needs."

Early said the chief executive would mention such things as commodities, materials for war, agricultural problems, prices, wages, and other topics important in the present state of world affairs.

The address will be broadcast by the three major radio companies. It may be relayed abroad by short wave.

The senate, out to duplicate its double-quick action on army funds, rushed approval today for the navy's share of the record-making $3,297,011,352 peacetime defense program.

The $1,473,756,728 navy bill was called up for debate, and leaders predicted a speedy decision, perhaps rivaling the five-hour drive which swept the $1,823,254,624 army measure through yesterday by a 74-0 vote.

The tenor of senate feeling was indicated by Chairman Pittman See ROOSEVELT, Page 6

French Fight With Fury To Reunite Isolated Armies

(By The Associated Press)

The German blitzkrieg, smashing at 500,000 to 1,000,000 "pocketed" Allied troops in Belgium and northern France today recaptured Abbeville, 12 miles from the English channel and Nazi authorities said it was "quite probable" they had also taken the vital channel port of Boulogne.

Boulogne is just 26 miles across the straits of Dover from Folkestone, England.

The Germans admitted, however, that the "real battle" against England could not begin until the strategic Allied "pocket" in Belgium and northern France—extending from Abbeville to Ostend—has been crushed.

"In view of the strong forces encircled there, it will not be done without heavy fighting," said DNR, the official German news agency.

The fall of Abbeville, 12 miles from the English channel, to German shock troops blasting their way through to the coast, was announced today by Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

"This country is in fearful danger," declared Alfred Duff Cooper, British minister of information.

Heavy fighting is raging around Boulogne, France, on the channel, Churchill said.

"It is too early yet to say what the result of this coastal fighting may be, but it evidently carries with it implications of a serious character," he declared.

French reports yesterday said the Germans had been "chased out" of Abbeville, but once again the Nazi onslaught has broken through to the sea.

Paris, however, gave a more hopeful picture of the conflict. There it was reported that the French armies, swiftly reorganized, were fighting with new fury to reunite their northern and central armies and chop off the long, sharp spearhead which the Germans have driven through northern France to the sea.

Simultaneously Clement R. Attlee, deputy leader in the house of commons, disclosed that the governments of both Britain and Ireland were apprehensively "alive to the possibilities" of an invasion through Ireland.

As emphasized by Churchill, the threat of a Nazi invasion was apparently becoming hourly more grave.

Possibly as a preparation for this heralded next blow in Hitler's "total war" scheme, power-diving Stuka bombers and wasp-like German speedboats smashed at channel communications.

Meanwhile, Premier Mussolini summoned the Italian supreme defense council into session, perhaps arguing the long-awaited Italian decision to enter the war.

Count Galeazzo Ciano, 11 Duce's No. 1 man and foreign minister, has been inspecting Italian-held Albania, left for the Yugoslav border—local tension point where Yugoslav troops have long been.

The Allied position this morning remained grave, especially for the great army which is partly surrounded by Germans in Belgium.

True, the great blitzkrieg has slowed down, somewhat, although heavy fighting was proceeding at several points, and this eased the strain on the Allies.

The fact that the Allied troops have been making counter-attacks at various places has caused a rise of spirits in London and Paris.

We must regard this as a respite in a battle which will be resumed with all its former ferocity.

The French this morning were engaged in a fierce counter-offensive in the Cambrai sector on the Scheldt (Escaut) river.

This region marks about the center of the German westward thrust and is at the point where the Nazis shot

Churchill Warns Of Great Danger Ahead

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in a two-minute war report, told the House of Commons today that there is heavy fighting in the English channel coastal area of Boulogne, that Abbeville is in German hands and that British communications are endangered.

"It is too early yet to say what the result of this coastal fighting may be," the prime minister said, "but it evidently carries with it implications of a serious character."

The prime minister said German mechanized forces which had made their way through the breach of the French lines had penetrated into the Allied rear in Belgium and are now attempting to derange their communications.

He appended this note, however—that the Allied command, headed by general Maxime Weygand, is conducting operations involving all the Allied armies with a view to restoring and reconstituting their combined front.

At the same time, with Britain giving her whole resources and energy to the one task of waging war, these developments were disclosed:

1. The arrest of captain Archibald H. M. Ramsay, conservative member of parliament, and a roundup of a number of other persons because of the dangerous actions "prejudicial to the security of the state."

2. Establishment of police control over headquarters of fascist leader Sir Oswald Mosley—in the general drive to root out or suppress any "fifth column" in the British Isles—and examination of its files.

3. A statement in the House of Commons by Lord Privy Seal Clement R. Attlee that the governments of Great Britain and Ireland (Eire) both are "alive to the possibilities" of an invasion of Britain through Ireland.

4. A declaration by minister of information Alfred Duff Cooper, before the English speaking union, that England is in "fearful danger." He added a pointed reference to the See CHURCHILL, Page 6

French And Germans In See-Saw Duel

PARIS, May 25 (AP)—The French armies, effecting what foreign military experts called a "miracle of reorganization," fought today with new fury to reunite their northern and central armies and chop off the long, sharp spearhead which the Germans have driven through northern France to the sea.

Pocketed with their British and Belgian allies, the central French army, using tanks, planes, motorized units and artillery, engaged the Germans in a bitter see-saw battle between Cambrai and Valenciennes, 25 miles apart.

Here, at the base of their long southern salient which extends northwest to the Abbeville coastal region, the Germans attacked to make tighter and smaller the sack in which they are holding the Allied forces of Flanders (estimated by the Germans at between 500,000 and 1,000,000 men).

The battle jockeyed back and forth along the Scheldt river, with temporary advantages for both sides. At one point the French, a military spokesman said, fought their way down to the outskirts of Cambrai, territory from which they had been pushed earlier in the week by their armored columns.

$179 Needed To Hit Pampa Goal For Refugees

While the Hemphill county chapter of the American Red Cross exceeded its quota by 163 per cent the first week of its appeal, Pampans have yet to contribute the $179 needed to reach the local goal of $880, as the drive for the aid of European war refugees continues for the second week here.

Wichita county has topped its quota of $4,420 Saturday. In Pampa, $701 has been obtained to date.

A letter from William M. Baxter, Jr., manager, Midwestern branch, American Red Cross, St. Louis, received here by Guy E. McTaggart, local chairman, states that the immediate needs are for clothing, shoes, layettes, cooking utensils and food.

Large quantities of surgical dressing, blankets and clothing produced by Red Cross chapters have been shipped to Europe, supplementing the $600,000 cabled the Red Cross relief delegation in London Monday for the immediate aid of five million refugees pouring into France.

A wave of letters and telegrams has been pouring into the Red Cross office at St. Louis from the 1,500 chapters of the Midwestern area since the week-end, touching all phases of the $10,000,000 fund appeal.

Latest contributors to the fund in Pampa are:

$10 donations from C. M. Jeffries, J. Stephens, Gunn-Hinerman Tire company; $5 from each of the following, C. H. Walker, L. H. Sul-lins, Des Moore, B. F. Addington, Edmondson's, Herman Kreiger, Northeast dairy, W. J. Sparks.

A. A. Tiemann, H. E. McCarley, $2 each; $1 donations from R. R. Watson, a friend, E. M. Heard, and Ralph Dunbar.

At that time, the army will be divided into squads, platoons, and perhaps two companies. If two companies are formed, officers of a second company or perhaps both will be chosen. Director Mark Hamilton said he could use up to 100 more Indians.

Final Meeting Of Child Study Club Held This Week

Child Study club sponsored by the American Association of University Women met Tuesday in the city club rooms for the final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Foster Fletcher, president, presided over the business session in which the group adopted the constitution and by-laws and voted to name the organization: Parent Education club, Mrs. Fred Roberts installed the new officers.

Due to the lengthy business session, the program was shortened considerably, but Mrs. Carlton Nance discussed "The American Family in a Changing Society" in which she pointed out that social institutions are not easily adjusted to inventions; therefore, it has been hard to revolutionize the modern family.

"The inventions of recent years have changed our ways and deprived our families of the joy of working and earning together. In order for a home to overcome the difficulties confronting it, because of changing times, fullest cooperation must be achieved between husband and wife. Through the closest cooperation, superficial ills will be forgotten and a healthy, congenial attitude will be achieved."

Mrs. Nance also pointed out that much of the education, formerly achieved in the home is now given over the school, but if we teach a few basic ideas and an understanding of human conduct in the home, are we not going a long way toward educating them, she continued.

"We must select from American life today those factors which are most clearly shaping standards of personal conduct for our young people. It is attitudes and standards in community life which furnish such powerful education forces today, but forces affecting each family profoundly."

Mrs. M. E. Lamb gave a brief outline of her discussion on the "Family," which she will repeat in detail next September when the club begins its new year.

Nazis Await Order To Go To England

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
 WITH THE GERMAN ARMIES ON THE WESTERN FRONT, May 23 (AP)—I have reached the English channel to find German forces here with the Nazi swastika flying. It seems almost unbelievable that I should find Germany at this channel.

But the Nazi swastika waving from the local commander's headquarters leaves no doubt about it. Crews of U-boats and speedboats are champing to be sent on their errands of destruction.

(Lochner, chief of the Associated Press bureau in Berlin, is in the fifth day of a tour with the German forces on personal invitation of Hitler. He did not specify the point at which he reached the English channel but apparently it was some place in Belgium.)

(Technically the eastern limit of the channel runs between England and France but Belgian ports popularly are considered to be on the channel.)

Here as elsewhere the roads of approach are jammed with infantry, more infantry and still more infantry and with artillery ever more formidable backed by an air force equipped to the last fine detail.

All are awaiting Adolf Hitler's final command to go to England. Everywhere one hears soldiers singing the "Engeländ" song.

Young men realized such a venture would be no picnic. "Maybe 50 of each 100 ships will be sunk by the British," one infantryman from Saxony said to me in his quaint dialect.

"But why shouldn't I be lucky and be on one of the ships that gets over?"

"And if not... well, that just cannot be helped."

Another lad from Mecklenburg rubbed his hands and declared: "Oh, boy! Won't it be great to march on to London?"

Just when Hitler will push the button, however, nobody could predict.

Meanwhile the occupation forces have normalized life in this sector of the front as they did everywhere else.

The Belgians go about their work as usual. Cafes and restaurants are open with Germans and Belgians mingling freely.

Destruction First Job
 Germany's western armies battled today to close the right wing of their pincers about Allied forces in northern France and Belgium and at the same time poured other divisions into mopping up operations behind their lines before undertaking their next big maneuver.

Adolf Hitler is not likely to attempt to attack England herself until he has paved the way to his satisfaction with a tried and trusted program of these main points:

1. Destruction of all British naval, air and ground organization by air raiding.

2. Similar destruction of air-planes and vessels.

3. Combined attack by speedboats, submarines and air bombers on British transports and warships.

Not until the fuhrer feels that this has been done satisfactorily is he likely to aim a decisive blow with land forces.

Deadliest Poison Cure For Insanity

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH
 Associated Press Science Writer
 CINCINNATI, O., May 23—Insane persons are being restored to normal with one of the deadliest poisons known to man.

Dr. A. E. Bennett, of Omaha, Neb., told the American Psychiatric Association today that curare, used by South American Indians on their spear and arrow heads to kill men and animals within a few minutes, can now be prescribed safely in medical treatment.

Just as the deadly venoms of some snakes are now used successfully in the relief of pain, curare serves as a preliminary drug in the shock treatment of persons suffering from schizophrenia and other mental diseases.

The treatment came from witch doctors in the Amazon jungles. Richard C. Gill, an explorer, brought back a large supply of the poison brewed from native plants and turned it over to Dr. Bennett for research.

Dr. Bennett described the drug as a "tailor-made shock absorbed for convulsive shock therapy" during which the patient is jarred out of his abnormal mental state with metrazol. "A number of cases can now be salvaged that formerly could not have taken the treatment," he said.

City Commission 'Doodle' Expertly

Clean white writing pads are a natural magnet for the hands of members of the city commission. At the regular meeting of the group held yesterday, the city officials indicated their liking for "doodling."

City Secretary W. M. Craven expertly penciled phrases in a fine hand. Mayor Fred Thompson likes to draw straight lines and put down problems in arithmetic.

Rectangles and a square with an "x" through the center, distinguish the "doodling" of City Attorney R. F. Gordon.

New Bus Will Be Displayed

A unit of the new Santa Fe Trailways air-conditioned buses will be on display and open to public inspection Friday afternoon at the Pampa Bus terminal, 115 South Russell.

The buses are a part of a new fleet placed in service along Santa Fe Trailways highway routes linking the Great Lakes with California, the Rockies with the Ozarks, the Middle West with the canyon country of Arizona and Utah.

Cooperating with Ray P. Shaffer, assistant general passenger agent of Santa Fe Trailways, Wichita, Kas., in the display of the new buses, is Jimmie Dodge, Pampa Bus terminal agent.

The buses, according to Santa Fe Trailways officials, are equipped with surprising new features designed to add to the passenger's comfort. Electric speaker systems are installed in the buses enabling the driver to explain points of interest along the way. The driver speaks into a lapel type microphone attached to the rear of the bus, a system which in turn carries his voice clearly and distinctly throughout the bus.

Officials point out that the majority of passengers traveling over the Santa Fe trail are interested in learning the names and descriptions of scenic points along the way.

Another innovation in the new Santa Fe Trailways buses is the "under-the-seat" luggage compartments, conveniently accessible from the aisle. All hand luggage can be stored beneath the passenger's chair while heavy baggage is carried in a locked, dust-proof, weather-proof compartment at the rear of the bus. Individual reading lights of new non-glare design are built in the chrome hat and parcel rack which extends above the seats. These lights are individually controlled and so focused that passengers may read at night without disturbing their neighbor.

Stable Rentals To Go To City

All rental of stables at Recreation park is to go to the city in the future as the result of an order passed by the city commission yesterday releasing Thomas Cox from a contract dated December 15, 1939. Cox operates the livestock sales pavilion at the park. His original agreement with the city covers the pavilion, stables, and corrals. The pavilion and corrals are not effected by the release.

When the price of stable rentals was raised from $1 to $1.50 a month, owners of horses who had stabled their mounts at the park, transferred the horses elsewhere.

Consequently, the stables have been empty and no revenue has since been derived from them. It was to remedy this situation that the release, with option of renewal cancelled, was offered by Cox and accepted. Under the old plan one-third of the stable rentals accrued to the city.

WTSC Art Colony To Open June 4

Special To The NEWS
CANYON, May 23.—Librarians for the Palo Duro School of Art at West Texas State college were appointed this week, as plans for the 12-week art colony starting June 4 were completed by Miss Isabel Robinson, director.

Dorothy Terry of Snyder and Charo Whitten of Amarillo will be librarians and recreation directors. Mary Lou Robinson of Lubbock, who was to have been librarian, will teach art in the high school division instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Curties will be host and hostess at Buffalo courts, where the colony will be centered. The unique courts of native stone are being made ready for the art students, who will pay $4 a month rental for them.

Their Days of Waiting Are Over

(From March of Time's "Inside the Magnot Line")

Scenes like this, where French Magnot Line troops march to the attack through a steel-rail tank barrier during maneuvers, came to grim reality along the 50-mile Meuse River battle line as the swift German advance turned the conflict into a roaring war of movement. Taking a leaf from Nazis' own book, French abandoned static defense by forts and pill-boxes, launched a counter speed-krieg at vital Franco-Belgian border points.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART
The first thing the college graduate should do after she receives her diploma is to make up her mind to enroll as a life member in another school—the "up-and-at-em" school. It's owned cooperatively by the doers of the world. And anyone who doesn't join it isn't going to get very far after graduation—in any direction.

LITTLE COMES TO HER WHO WAITS

Slender, red-headed, blue-eyed Joan Crawford told me that today. "No smart young graduate is going to lick her diploma under her arm and then sit around and wait for something nice to happen to her," Miss Crawford went on.

"Whether it's marriage or a career, or a combination of the two that she wants, she ought to draw up a reasonable five-year plan for herself. The plan will include suggestions for getting what she wants and ways and means to hold on to it afterward.

"The plan may have to be changed—the chances are that it will be changed radically and often. But that shouldn't deter her from making it. I never heard of anyone getting anywhere with anything unless she went about it in business-like fashion."

YOU DON'T NEED TO BE JITTERY

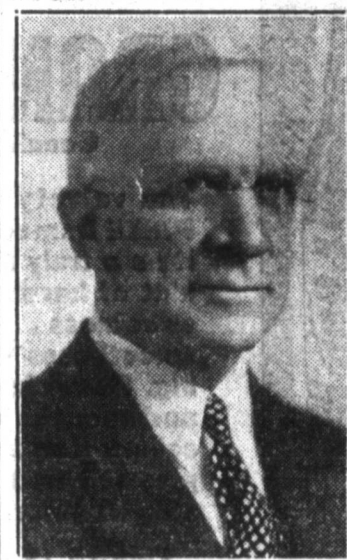

Miss Crawford doesn't think that being a member of the "up-and-at-em" school mean that you are a jitterbug, dishing madly and nervously hitler and thither. She means that you simply get things done, and refuse to allow yourself to go to seed, mentally, socially or physically.

"It's the do-nothings of limited interests who sound old, walk old and look old at 30. The active woman keeps her youthful figure, her youthful curiosity about the world and her youthful viewpoint." The attractive actress continued. "Every woman ought to have a variety of interests. And I don't consider membership in a bridge club an interest."

Rotary Club Has Numerous Visitors

Harold Nichols of Amarillo, district secretary of the Great Plains Young Men's Christian association, was the principal speaker at the Pampa Rotary clubs regular weekly luncheon at noon Wednesday. "Christ, Ideals and Leadership" was the subject of an inspirational address of the Amarilloan. Jack Stephens of Grandview was present to invite the Rotarians to attend the eleventh annual Grandview picnic to be held May 28 at the Grandview school, 20 miles southwest of Pampa. Attendance at the luncheon was 54. R. S. Tisdal of Amarillo and J. Sid O'Keefe of Panhandle were visiting Rotarians. Mark Hamilton of Dallas, directors of the Coronado Entrada to be held during the Fiesta here, June 13, 14, 15, and Walter J. Reger of New York, promotional director of the U. S. Coronado Cuarto Centennial commission were other guests.

Councilman Grover Ingram, Floyd Ketchum, Walter Gripp and Otis Weatherly served the dessert course on the lawn of the Sterling home. Following the last course table games were played.

MODERN MENUS

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
Warm weather makes a clean kitchen and spotless cooking utensils doubly important. Management of your kitchen time and tested methods of cleaning will pay large dividends.
Clean as you cook, is a practical rule. While vegetables are cooking or a cake is baking, put supplies back where they belong. Rinse mixing bowls, spoons, the egg beater, and all other pieces of equipment as soon as you are through with them.

To keep your aluminum utensils bright and your iron utensils spotless, rub them lightly with steel wool. Strong soaps and scouring powders that contain alkalis will discolor aluminum. If your aluminum utensils become stained, boil a vinegar-and-water solution in them. Steel wool will take rust spots off iron utensils, and a light coating of mineral oil or other salt-free fat will keep them from rusting again.

Tin and enamel utensils need gentle care. Soak food loose rather than scrape it off with a knife. Or heat the utensils for a few minutes in a weak soda solution. Wash in soap and water. If the stain is stubborn, rub it gently with a fine powder that is free from grit.

The kitchen sink needs constant attention to spare the finish from a harsh scouring. If there are spots that will not respond to soap and water, rub them with a fine scouring powder. But never use a gritty powder or lye—the powder will scratch the finish and lye will almost "eat" it off.

The chromium plating on modern plumbing fixtures needs only to be wiped frequently with a damp cloth or washed with soap and water. But the older types of plumbing fixtures may occasionally be polished with a light rubbing of a fine scouring powder.

Clean the refrigerator every week. Use mild soap suds with a little soda added to help remove odors. First take out all food. Then remove the shelves and refrigerator dishes and wash them as well as the inside of the box. Finally rinse with clear water. In an ice refrigerator, remove the pipe and drain trap. Wash and scald them carefully to kill any bacteria.

If the stove is wiped regularly, the weekly cleaning should be quite simple. Take out all the removable parts, wash in soap and water. If you have trouble with some of the grease and soot, use a little washing soda or trisodium phosphate in the water.

Mass Production Of Aircraft Seen

VAN NUYS, Calif., May 23 (AP)—From an army aviation expert comes a prediction that huge airplane "bakeries"—kneading plastics rather than dough—may open the door to mass production of fighting craft.

Col. Joseph L. Stromme of the army air corps planning division witnessed the testing of an all-plastic airplane here yesterday. In an address to 300 spectators he said: "Aviation heretofore has been individual in production. It is almost as if each airplane has been hand-made."

"Now we see demonstrated the extreme possibility that airplanes soon may be turned out of molds, swiftly and at comparatively low cost. This may mark the start of an era of mass production of aircraft, military and commercial."

Colonel Stromme said the sleek, bright blue-and-gold plastic trainer which test pilot Vance Breece put through its paces was not the first plastic plane.

"But today's demonstration indicates that this particular ship is superior in strength, at any rate, to earlier models."

The plane is of thin layers of spruce plies glued together and coated with a phenolic resin plastic liquid, the composition of which is secret.

The material is subjected to extreme pressure in molds, the various fuselage parts pressed together without rivets, bolts or other metal fastenings. The entire structure then is baked in a huge oven for about two hours.

Ship Ordered To Ireland For U. S. Citizens There

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The State Department, manifesting concern for Americans in Europe's "total war" zone, gave the liner President Roosevelt sailing orders today to go to Ireland and bring back as many as it can accommodate.

To protect the ship against military molestation, the government served notice of her peaceful mission on Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, Holland and Norway.

The President Roosevelt will sail from New York tonight for Galway, Ireland, where her arrival is expected about May 30. The return voyage will begin as soon as she has taken aboard all Americans wishing to come home.

uncement last night followed by a few hours a blanket warning to Americans to quit Europe's near eastern region as soon as possible. The warning cited the danger of hostilities spreading to that area. Americans there numbered 17,956 on January 1.

Guess What, Mom! Betty Took A Flop From Window!

CHICAGO, May 22 (AP)—"Guess what—Betty fell."
Thus did three-year-old Peggy Campbell calmly inform her mother that another daughter, Betty, 7, had tumbled 30 feet to the ground from a third floor window in their home.
Peggy was right—Betty had fallen, but physicians were unable to find even a scratch.

President Has 'No Time' To Answer Landon Challenge

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—A challenge from Alf M. Landon that President Roosevelt renounce a third term if he wants Republicans to join a coalition defense administration drew this White House retort today.

"The president regrets that he has no time, just now, to give to the preparation of political statements," Landon declared after a long conference with Mr. Roosevelt yesterday that "political implications" were inescapable in any coalition set-up and that Republicans "can and will participate" only if the president eliminates himself as a 1940 candidate.

In handling his statement to the press, the 1938 Republican presidential nominee said that it could "not be linked" with his meeting with the chief executive as nothing in it was mentioned in their talk.

Declaring that the recent European situation was bound to have "serious implications even for this country," Landon advocated a national council of "leaders and experts in their own fields, the members of which are not merely administration satellites," as desirable to head the defense program.

"But unfortunately for the country," he added, "the leadership is in the hands of a man who has not eliminated himself as a candidate for an indefinite term as president, who at the moment has pledged to him more than enough delegates to take the Democratic nomination if he wants it."

If the president is interested in "unselfish service" from Republicans, he said, he should "publicly and forthwith eliminate himself as a third term candidate."

"Instead of weakening his position, this action would strengthen it. The president would become the leader of the nation instead of the head of a party."

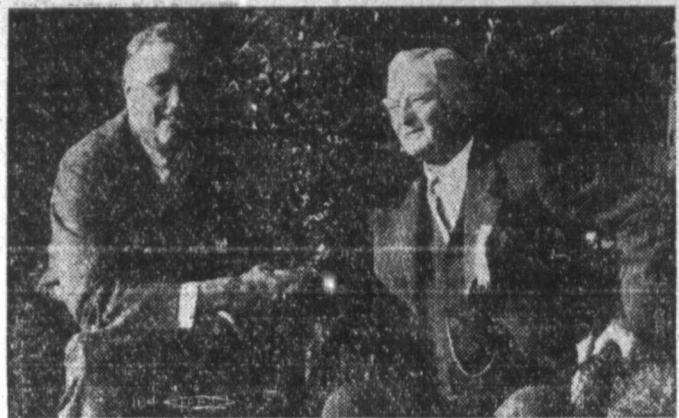

Johnson Announces Naval Air School At Corpus Christi

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Representative Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said today that actual work on the establishment of a $25,000,000 naval air training school at Corpus Christi, Tex., would begin almost immediately after the naval appropriation bill is passed.

Johnson, a member of the House naval committee, said this was brought out in committee hearings during question of rear admiral John Towers, chief of naval aeronautics. Towers disclosed, Johnson said, that despite the fact the navy had not yet acquired title to any land in the Corpus Christi area it was prepared to do so shortly, even if condemnation proceedings were necessary.

The Corpus Christi station is to be as large or larger than the naval

EYES OF TEXAS UPON THEM

Folks down at Uvalde, Texas, will see the above scene re-enacted soon. When the Presidential Special rolls out of Washington in June, carrying President Roosevelt on his western tour, one of its stops will be at the home of his long-time friend and able political ally, Vice President John N. Garner.

For nearly eight years these Democratic leaders have worked together in the cause of political liberalism, and as the President's traditional second term draws to a close, the Vice President is being widely acclaimed as his most logical successor.

The announcement of the projected visit to Uvalde was made the day following the county conventions in Texas on May 7, and is being generally interpreted by political observers as expressing the President's gratification that the Lone Star State gave a ringing endorsement to the presidential candidacy of its distinguished native son. Texas adopted resolutions approving the Roosevelt-Garner administration, and endorsed Garner for the Presidency by a vote of 6 to 1 over proponents of a third term.

House Republicans Support Plan To Control Foreigners

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—House Republicans fell into line with Democrats today in supporting President Roosevelt's plan for more effective alien control by transferring the immigration service to the Justice Department.

After the president recommended the shift to Congress yesterday, Chairman Cochran (D-Mo.) called a special meeting of his government reorganization committee to approve a resolution making the transfer operative in 10 days.

Congress normally has 60 days to reject or approve the president's reorganization plans, but Mr. Roosevelt said that since the session probably would end within that period, special affirmative action should be taken.

Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.) joined Cochran in predicting overwhelming house approval. He said that "ordinary people" would not object.

"I suspect," Taber told reporters, training school at Pensacola, Fla., Johnson said, and will train 2,500 pilots a year. It is expected to be ready for service in about a year.

"that only the people who are interested in getting into the United States, folks who don't have any business being here will be opposed to the plan."

The spotlight against undesirable aliens also was focused on three other points in the house:

1. The house rules committee will decide Tuesday whether to give legislative right-of-way to a bill by Rep. Allen (D-La.) to report Harry Bridges, CIO west coast maritime leader.

2. Rep. Dies (D-Tex.) said that he would press for approval of his bill to plug loopholes in the immigration and naturalization laws and to reduce the annual immigration quotas of 150,000 by one-third.

3. Amendments were pending to the billion dollar relief bill to deny WPA funds to Communists and other aliens. All factions agreed that some restrictions would be approved.

Post Commander Calls For Poppy Day Support

Call for every veteran of the World War and for all other patriotic citizens to wear a memorial poppy on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 25, was issued today by Mike Roche, commander of the Kerley-Crossman number 334 post of the American Legion. The commander's message stated:

"Twenty-two years ago the American forces in France were beginning a series of great battles which brought victory and peace to the United States and to the world. In those battles 50,000 young Americans gave their lives, and many thousands more were wounded and disabled. Those sacrifices assured our country the peace, freedom and democracy we have enjoyed since 1918.

"Bright red poppies studded the fields where these men fell and were the only floral tribute on their bare battle graves. In tribute to them, we wear the poppy, their memorial flower, on Poppy Day each year. This year when world events have brought home to us forcefully the value of our American heritage, the poppy will have increased meaning to America. Wearing that little flower will show that we still are devoted to the ideals for which our war dead gave their lives so gallantly twenty-two years ago.

"I am calling upon every member of the American Legion to wear a poppy on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 25, and I urge all other citizens to show their patriotic remembrance for the dead in a like manner. While remembering the dead, do not forget those who sacrificed health and strength in the nation's service and the families left in need by war death or disability. Contribute for your flower as liberally as your means will allow and help make the poppy a symbol of hope for the living as well as of honor for the dead."

WPA Week Observed In Carson County

Special To The NEWS
PANHANDLE, May 23.—One hundred and thirty tickets were sold for the W. P. A. supper which was served Monday in the Baptist church basement. The menu consisted of scalloped chicken, hot rolls, combination salad, iced tea, ice cream and wafers. Everything was purchased for the meal including the salt and pepper. The tables were attractively decorated with bouquets of spring flowers.

Miss Margaret Potter was in charge of the program and gave the welcome address. Judge Jackson gave the response and explained the workings of the three projects in the county that are given W. P. A. assistance. He explained that the indexing project is for the purpose of making a complete and accurate record of all transactions of the commissioners court since the county was organized.

Mr. George Group told of the three branches of the county library.

the mending service and bookmobile, all of which would have been impossible without W. P. A. assistance. Mrs. Group explained the ultimate aim of the W. P. A. library project is to help get books to every man, woman, and child in the U. S.

In 1935 there were 40,000,000 people unserved by libraries. Today approximately 11,000,000 of these are being served by 20,000 workers under the supervision of 173 professional librarians and 95 professional workers.

The program was continued with

Mrs. O. C. Wenley giving two readings, "Mother and Her Check Book," and "The Seven Stages of Man," followed with piano and accordion music by Mary Ruth Evans. Miss Norma Jean Franklin gave a musical reading, "In the Usual Way," which was the concluding number.

Table games were played under the direction of Miss Margaret Potter and the remainder of the evening was spent in listening to the radio broadcast by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and others.

Open house will be held all week in the library, sewing room and indexing project at the court house. The dinner was prepared and served by employees in the three professional and service projects in the county.

At one time the American flag had 15 stripes.

Big Names Of Women's Golf Battle In Quarter-Finals

FORT WORTH, May 23 (AP)—Seven familiar faces and one stranger bobbed up in the quarter-final rounds of the women's Southern Golf association today—the perennial appearance of the old guard giving rise to the question: Is there any new blood in American women's golf?

To Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., the 1937 national champion and one of the favored few herself, there are precious few youngsters coming up to threaten the monopolists—but:

"Most of our better players of 10 days are youngsters themselves," she said. "Take our national champion, Betty Jameson. She is only 21. Some of the others—Marion Milley, Jane Cothran, Elizabeth Hicks, Betty Berg, Dorothy Kirby, and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, and several other top notchers, are many years from retirement."

Mrs. Page pointed out, however, that those now holding the reins in women's golf are improving their games annually. She cautiously avoided comparing the women's brand of golf to the men's, but did venture out with:

"Around the greens our women have a little more delicate touch than the men. Don't want to be foolish enough to compare the entire game to the men's, but there is finesse in the women's game that is hard to beat."

One of the youngsters on the way up, Mrs. Page believes, is Nancy Hurst of Portland, Ore.—A 17-year-old girl who gave me trouble in the national last year by shooting a 77 and forcing me to give everything in a round of 75 to beat her."

But today's quarter-finals of the twenty-ninth annual southern classic was dominated by the players who year in and year out take over the headlines.

It was Mrs. Page vs. Mrs. Sam Ensel of New Orleans; Marion Milley vs. Jane Cothran; Betty Jameson vs. Miss Kay Pearson of Houston, just barely removed from national glory herself, and Mrs. Goldthwaite vs. Dorothy Kirby.

INDIAN HOMERS WIN
CLEVELAND, May 23 (AP)—Three Cleveland home runs helped the Indians gain a 9 to 6 victory over Boston yesterday in the opener of a two-game series. Home run Weatherly and Ken Keltner clouted four-baggers, the latter with one up, and Jim Tabor of the Red Sox hit for the circuit. Boston's defeat reduced its margin over the second-place Indians to a game and a half.

BOY PITCHER FOR HOUSTON SEEKS 10TH STRAIGHT
By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, May 23 (AP)—Handsome Howard Pollet, just four months out of high school, is worried more about the approach of father time and his scythe than the possibility of breaking a streak of brilliant pitching.

The 18-year-old Houston Buff southpaw is standing Texas league batters on their heads. There is no record in the league modern history of making his first nine straight victories from the season's start.

He goes after his tenth game tonight against Oklahoma City.

Pollet leads the league in strikeouts with 56 games. In each of his last two games, he has allowed but two hits.

The six foot New Orleans brunet, however, is unruffled.

"I'm not worrying about that winning streak," he said philosophically. "I sure hate to get old; I can just feel myself getting old."

It's his age he's really fretting about.

"I'll be 19 on June the 17th," he sighed. "I sure hate to get old; I can just feel myself getting old."

The dark eyed, slender looking kid first splashed into the sports pages regularly while he hurried for the National American Legion Junior baseball champions of New Orleans.

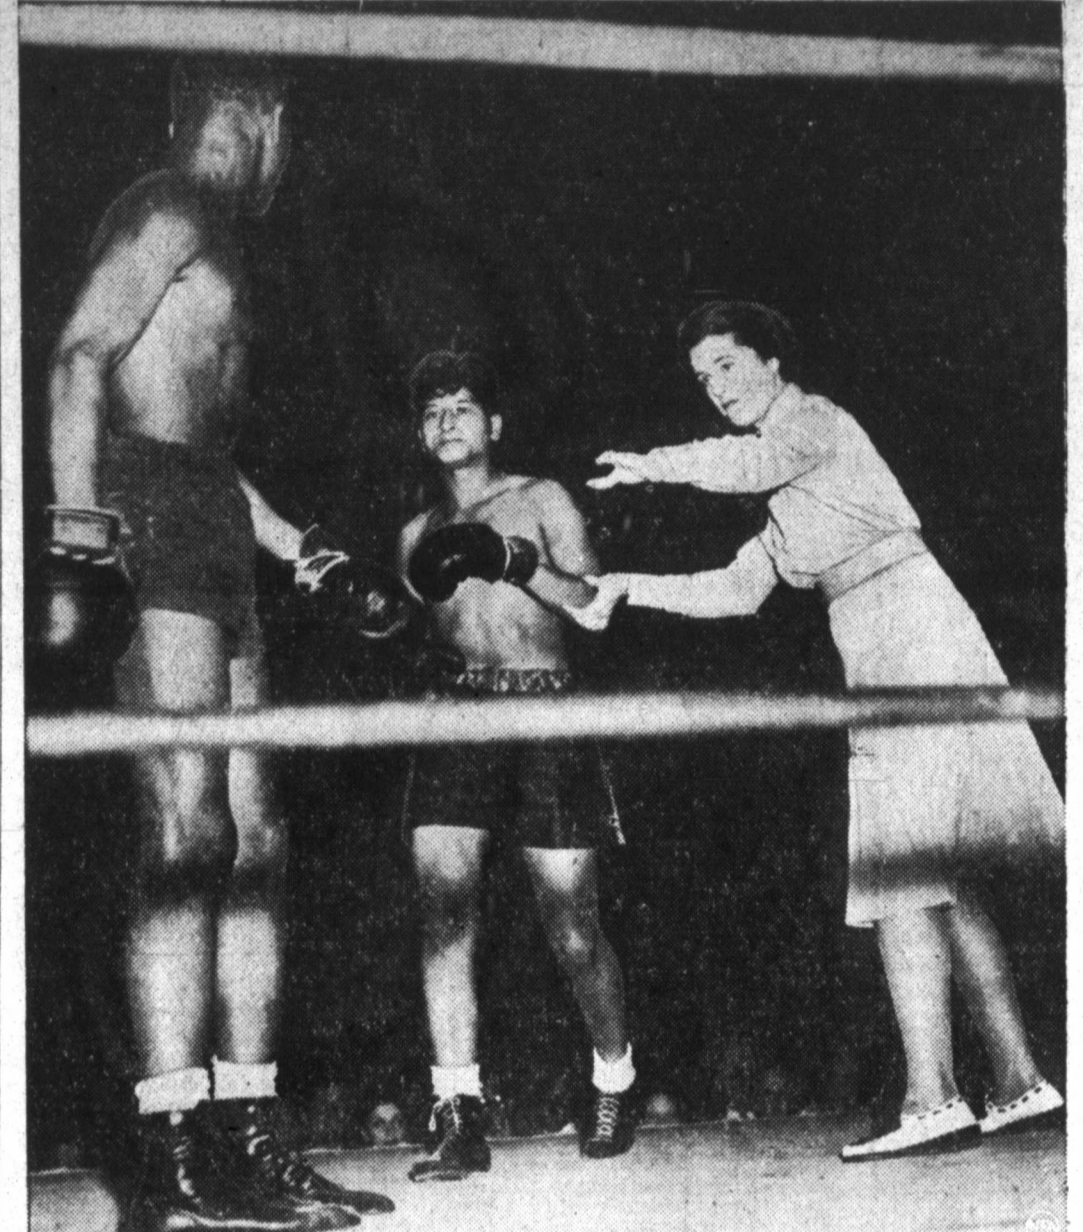

He turned professional last season, winning 14 games and losing 6 for New Iberia of the Evangeline league. He struck out 212 men in 154 innings, and pitched 42 1/2 consecutive innings without allowing a run.

Longhorns To Seek National Track Glory

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AUSTIN, May 23 (AP)—Clyde Littlefield, dominant figure of southwestern track, finds this sport, long a step-child of the Texas-intercollegiate program, making decided progress.

So much so that he indicates a national championship in the near future—something the southwest has not yet known.

From the driver's seat, Littlefield has watched the climb of track and field in this section. He has coached twelve Southwest conference champions in 20 years at the University of Texas. Six other times his team finished second.

Next month the Longhorns make a big claim for national glory when they run the shuttle hurdles relay against Yale for the "national championship" at the Princeton invitation meet.

Texas a few weeks ago unofficially bettered the listed mark for this event by running it in 59.7, one-tenth of a second under the record. Yale had done 60.3.

From Princeton the Longhorns go to Minneapolis to compete in the national intercollegiate meet with at least one potential national champion—Jack Hughes, 245-pound discus thrower who has yet to meet defeat this season.

It would cap an illustrious athletic career for Littlefield's team to win the national title.

His name is legend in University of Texas sports where he was a great all-around star.

Many are the outstanding individual stars he has produced—but that national title has eluded him.

"Track is making decided progress in Texas, judging by the increasing high school participation and the fine records our schoolboys are making, both in high school and after they get to college," he said.

Dodgers And Reds Tied For League Lead

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
There was a time that the National league pennant chase looked like it might be a runaway. First the Brooklyn Dodgers—won nine straight. Then the Cincinnati Reds gave the appearance of gunning for a ten-game lead by July 4.

The result was inevitable. The senior circuit is having its customary brawl for the lead and today the Dodgers and Reds are tied with 18 games won and eight lost.

The American league is having nearly as desperate a dispute for first place between the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians. The New York Yankees have assumed winning ways, and finally have escaped the cellar.

The baseball situation still is as uncertain as the weather.

Cincinnati's chances depend considerably on big Paul Derringer, who has been knocked out of the box three times in his last five games. The only reason he lasted the route yesterday, as the New York Giants beat Cincinnati 6-4, was the great faith, hope and charity of Manager Bill McKechnie.

Freddy Fitzsimmons led the Dodgers to a 3-1 decision over the pitiful Pittsburgh Pirates, giving only six hits and pitching shutout ball after the first.

These were the only games the weather allowed in the National league.

Cleveland took first blood in its series with the Red Sox, winning 9-6 on home runs by Hal Trosky, Roy Weatherly and Ken Keltner.

The Yankees continued their assault on all kinds of pitching (except good) with a 16-hit bombardment that wrecked the Detroit Tigers 8-2.

The Chicago White Sox, who hadn't won a game in their own park until Monday, now have won three straight including a 10-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday.

A seven-hit pitching performance by Ken Chase brought the Washington Senators a 9-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Bobby Dan Lane Wins Scholarship To Military School
Bobby Dan Lane, who ranks first among the boys graduating this year from Pampa High school, has been awarded a scholarship at Texas Military college at Terrell, he was notified yesterday. His scholarship is in engineering.

"I haven't decided whether I will accept or not," Bobby Dan said today.

Bobby Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, route 1, Pampa. He was a member of the 1939 football team and sports editor of the Little Harvester. He is a member of the National Honor society.

He was selected by Supt. L. L. Sone as one of the boys best qualified to receive the scholarship, according to word from the Terrell college.

MELTING ICE RAISES SEA
When all the Arctic and Antarctic ice has melted, sea levels will be about 100 feet higher than they are now, according to scientific estimates. This rise will be sufficient to submerge completely many of the small islands now extant and to destroy shipping harbors.

Amarillo Will Open In Pampa Tomorrow Night

Jupe Pluvius stepped in and ruined the opening game of the season between the Pampa Oilers and Amarillo Gold Sox scheduled for last night in Amarillo. But Old Sol broke through clouds this morning and the teams will probably play tonight at Main field in Amarillo.

Scene of battle between the top two teams in the league will change to Road Runner park in Pampa on Friday and Saturday nights. Game time Friday will be 8:30 o'clock with the Saturday Ladies Night game set for 9:15 o'clock.

The Oilers will leave Sunday for a doubleheader in Borger and will not return home until the night of June 1, with Clovis. They will visit Lamesa and Lubbock after the Borger games.

With Amarillo tonight will be "Papa" Fullenwider, home run king of the league so far this year and runner-up to Gordon Neil last year. The Fullenwider's became the parents of an 8-pound son last night at 9 o'clock.

Manager Seitz was undecided this morning regarding his starting pitcher tonight. Halliburton and Vannoy are both ready and McPortland, Rice and Dilbeck, the three left-handers, could take over if necessary.

Tonight's game will be the first this season between the Oilers and Gold Sox. Both teams have played home and home games with every other team in the league but have yet to meet.

Last night's rain was mighty good for the playing field which had become hard and rough. Balls of dirt on the base line has been causing balls to take crazy bounces. The infield will be worked over as soon as it is dry enough.

DANGER

SERIAL STORY

ROMANCE AHEAD

BY TOM HORNER

NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY Larry and Monnie became better friends. She might as well go to a dance, but she has a date with Bentley.

CHAPTER VII MONNIE relaxed under the grip of Larry's fingers. She looked up at him, unbelieving.

"Your brother?" "Yes." "But the man was never identified. He was buried so horribly. I know it was Hugh." Larry tried to make his voice calm.

"I'm sorry, Larry, terribly sorry. The touch of her hand on his arm was comforting, her sympathy was sincere.

"He rolled a cigarette, tried to keep his eyes from her. That Monnie knew more about this accident than she was telling, he was sure.

"What was Bentley's role? Hating Bentley as he did, it was easy for Larry to accuse him of some part in Hugh's death.

"This brother of yours, Larry—" "Hugh was a swell guy," Larry began. "Married, lived downtown. He was—he was in the insurance business.

"When Betty didn't hear from him for a week, she wired me. I came down and we've been looking for him ever since. That was more than five months ago." He hoped Monnie wouldn't ask why, as a newspaperman, he couldn't have checked accident records sooner.

"And to think," she said abruptly. "I was the cause of the accident. I killed your brother, Larry."

"Monnie! You don't know what you're saying." "It's true, Larry. I didn't mean to, but I did. It was my fault! Oh, Larry!"

"I happened up on Dead Man's Curve," she began. "That's on the highway about half-way between here and Mike's. You know where you leave the concrete to turn into the Hayhook."

"I was on the way inside of half an hour. I always drive fast and I went up the hill doing about 50 or 60. Then at the curve—" "She paused briefly, got a new grip on her emotions, then went on.

"I must have been about 200 yards from the curve when this car came down the hill. I couldn't stop. The driver apparently made no effort to turn, when he saw my lights. His car crashed through the barricade, plunged over the cliff and rolled down into the canyon."

"I stopped as soon as I could, pulled off the road a little and ran back to where the car had disappeared. Far down in the canyon, I could see flames shooting up from the wreckage of the car. Then I heard a shot. "I stood there, paralyzed, and suddenly, Mike was beside me. Together we scrambled and slid down to the car, tried to pull the dead man from the burning wreck.

"Pretty soon there were other people around and, at last two highway patrolmen arrived. Mike talked to them for a bit, then helped me climb back up to the road. He brought me home."

"But that's not the story you told at the inquest," Larry broke in. "You testified that the car went over the edge before you reached the turn."

"Mike made me say that, Mike and Daddy," Monnie admitted. "After that accident at school, and the others I had been in, Mike said the coroner would never believe I hadn't forced the man off the road. I didn't want to lie about it, Larry—she was begging him to believe her—but Mike was right. With my reputation for fast driving, and because I was the only witness to the accident—they might have tried me for manslaughter."

"If you went straight on, you'd dip down into the canyon and then climb a long hill to go by Bentley's. The curve is halfway up the hill. It's a sharp turn, but it's well marked and not dangerous unless you try to make it too fast. Going up, you have the inside. The canyon floor is about 300 feet below the curve and it's almost a sheer drop."

"On the night of the accident, Mike called me. It was late but he said he'd just come back from Chicago, down town with some friends and they wanted to meet me. He'd brought me some presents, too, and some things I'd asked him to get for me. He couldn't leave his guests, he said, so would I drive right over."

"I was on the way inside of half an hour. I always drive fast and I went up the hill doing about 50 or 60. Then at the curve—" "She paused a minute, puzzling over an unanswered question.

"How did Bentley get there so fast?" he asked. "Monnie had an answer for that. Mike said he went outside to wait for me, right after he called. He saw this car racing down the highway, swinging from side to side, as if the driver were drunk. Mike was afraid there would be a wreck if we met, was terrified to think what might happen to me if we met on Dead Man's Curve, so he hurried out to stop me."

"Bentley said Hugh drove like he was drunk?" Larry demanded. "Hugh was drunk, Larry. The autopsy showed he had been drinking, and a broken whiskey bottle was found in his car."

"But Monnie," Larry countered, "My brother never drank liquor in his life."

2,000 Feet Of Pipe Purchased

Purchase of 2,000 feet of 2-inch galvanized merchant pipe for a water line in Benedict addition was approved by city commission at its meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The pipe is to be purchased from the Jarecki Manufacturing company, Pampa, as a cost of $22.44 a hundred feet.

Other business transacted by the commission at its meeting yesterday included authorization of mileage expense of $16.25 for Dr. T. J. Worrell, city sanitation officer to attend a meeting of sanitary inspectors called by the Texas Health department at Lubbock, on Monday and Tuesday.

Payment was recommended to W. T. Fraser & Co., of $65, covering cost of bonds on five city employees; $397.50, subject to 15 per cent discount if paid before Saturday, to the Acme Lumber company, for 600 sacks of cement; and $11.15 on bills of the recreation project, from the special fund created by donations from clubs interested in the movement.
