MARTIAL LAW WILL REMAIN FOR PRESENT

Limit of 225 Barrels for Each Well Will Be Enforced—Reports to Be Asked Daily.

TO PATROL AREA

General Wolters to Explain Proration Details at Special Gathering of Oil Producers.

KILGORE, Sept. 4. (AP)—Following a conference with state Adjutant General W. W. Sterling today, Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters announced that the East Texas oil field would be allowed to resume production at 7 a. m. tomorrow under the proration order permitting each well in the field to produce 225 barrels of crude daily. He said martial law would not be lifted.

Gen. Wolters, who is commander of the militia enforcing martial law in the shut-down area, said that 1,817 wells were capable of production in the East Texas field at this time. However, he thought a number of new wells would be ready for operation by the time the field reopened.

Operators Notified General Wolters said he would make a survey after the order had been put into effect, to determine how many militiamen would be needed to enforce it before he began a reduction of the military force.

Operators in the area were notified at once they might reopen all wells tomorrow at the hour designated.

The general immediately began drafting necessary plans for putting the rule into effect, which probably will include patrols over the 600 square mile field by detachments of cavalry in the same manner as when the field was shut down.

News of the reopening order was received by many in the field with satisfaction, although a few would not have been disappointed at longer delay, believing the longer the great field remained shut down the higher crude oil prices would go. East Texas oil now is pegged as high as $1.25 a barrel, according to the latest postings made here.

Prices during flush production days before martial law fell as low as five cents per barrel. Soldiers Pleased The soldiers were frankly joyful at the prospect of seeing the "war" end. The field was shut down August 17 by the governor's declaration of martial law, in order to halt production while pending deliberations of the railroad commission incident to preparation of the new proration order.

The governor did not intimate, said General Wolters, "that martial law would be lifted and I am not in a position to speculate on it."

By 10:20 a. m. he had completed the final draft of the general order permitting resumption of production. The railroad commission's proration order was made a part of the general order, "just as if embodied in the body thereof."

In addition to obeying rules and regulations set out in the proration schedule, producers were ordered to furnish before noon each day, beginning Sept. 6, a statement of the number of barrels of oil produced during the previous day.

Reports Asked All purchasers, users and transporters of oil would be required to report to military headquarters here the amount of oil purchased or handled during the previous day.

"When this general order becomes effective at 7 a. m., Sept. 5," the order concluded, "the shut-in phase of martial law comes to an end."

"Military authorities adopt the order," the railroad commission and will enforce the same. The commanding general conveys his appreciation to oil producers and citizens within the military district as a whole for the courteous co-operation extended since the institution of martial law and invites continued co-operation."

Simultaneously with signing the order, General Wolters announced he would meet oil men at military headquarters at 4 p. m. today to explain proration details.

Pick-Pocket Bass Is Latest In Fish Stories

CUCAMONGA, Cal., Sept. 4. (AP) Leonard Smith, railroad agent here, went deep sea fishing off Oceanside yesterday. He missed his watch and thought perhaps he had left it home. Smith caught a good-sized bass. An hour later he picked up the fish to clean it. "Why this fish isn't dead yet—I feel its heart beating," he told companions. He slit the fish open—and there was his watch still ticking away. He couldn't explain how it happened.

BORGER'S GAS HEARING SET

Mayor Miller Asks People to Support Move for City Plant.

BORGER, Sept. 4. (AP)—Borger's fight for a reduction in gas rates reached a hearing before representatives of the state railway commission here today.

The Panhandle Power and Light company appeared at the commission after the Borger city commission reduced gas rates from 50¢ to 30 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

At a mass meeting last night Mayor John R. Miller urged citizens to stand behind the commission in a plan to install a municipally owned system. He said the city could avoid serious financial problems by doing that.

Laten Stambert, chairman of the gas utility division of the railroad commission, was to conduct the inquiry.

McDonald Says People Demanding Cotton Session

AUSTIN, Sept. 4. (AP)—J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, said today he confidently expected a call for a special session of the legislature in the next few days to pass a cotton acreage control law.

McDonald, who stumped the state urging farmers and business men to express themselves to the governor on the matter of a special session for cotton, said Gov. Ross S. Sterling had received the greatest response ever accorded on a public question and that between 70,000 and 80,000 persons had replied to the newspaper questionnaire sent out by the governor.

The commission stated last night that 18 members of the senate had agreed to ask or had asked the governor to call the session, assuring him they would vote for a cotton acreage reduction bill. One hundred and ten members of the house have pledged themselves to an acreage reduction program, he said.

People Impatient McDonald said yesterday the governor promised a special session would be called when 17 members of the senate had been placed on record favorable to the reduction plan.

"The people of Texas are expressing their impatience in Governor Sterling's delay in calling a special session of the legislature in order to save the state from bankruptcy," McDonald stated.

"While many deplore the delay and recite that each day's delay costs the cotton farmers and their creditors millions of dollars and places Texas in bad grace with other cotton states, I am not ready to impugn the governor's motives."

Farmers' Session "Through the press, he asked the people of Texas for an expression and stated that if the farmers of Texas evidenced to him that they wanted a special session he would call it and name it the 'farmers' session.' Then, as a matter of precaution, the governor asked for the attitude of the legislature and more than 110 representatives and 18 senators expressed themselves favorably.

"I have gone over the state assuring the people that Governor Sterling was as anxious to aid cotton farmers as he was to aid oil producers. Since the people and the legislature both have expressed themselves in unmistakable terms, I cannot conceive of our governor refusing to call a special session as per promise."

Therefore, I again express confidence and ask the people of Texas to be patient and confidently expect the special session to be called within the next few days without much further delay."

FARMERS FOR IT LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 4. (AP) Governor Farnell said today "I am convinced 75 per cent of the farmers of Arkansas are in favor of Governor Long's cotton production prohibition bill," but that he was awaiting action of Governor Sterling before he took steps to call a special session of the Arkansas legislature.

WORK ON PIPELINE STOPS AS LOCAL MEN SEEK JOBS AND DISCUSS PROPOSITION

Newly Formed Gray County Home Labor Association Outlines Acute Need of Idle Men and Urges That Imported Laborers Be Sent Back to Their Own Communities.

PROPOSAL MADE Contractor Declares 31 Key Men Necessary; Skilled Welding Crew Also Vital Says Superintendent.

Protests against employing out-of-town labor on local construction jobs took definite form this morning when 200 unemployed men stopped trucks bearing 66 workmen hired by the Kelly-Dempster company, which is laying a pipeline for the Continental Construction company in East Gray county.

After a short conversation with Tom (Tex) Buster, president of the Gray County Home Labor Association, L. D. Whitehead, superintendent, instructed the men to go back to their lodging places or homes; that no work would be done on the pipeline job today.

The Continental Construction company is laying lateral pipelines to the line to Chicago from the Texas Panhandle.

Early this afternoon the unemployed men had not accepted a compromise offer made them by Mr. Whitehead and J. W. Zempfer, according to the construction company's proposition about 40 local men would be hired on the job. The company contended that the services of 31 key-men and 16 welders were necessary and could not be dispensed with. Mr. Buster and his associates argued that the number of foremen was unreasonably high.

The labor association, Mr. Buster said, would contend for a 75 per cent representation on the construction crew. Mr. Whitehead said he thought about 40 more men would be employed on the work, and if so they would be hired locally.

Most of the 66 men in the employ of the company came here from Tulsa and middle western states, it was claimed. Laying of the pipeline has been under way a week.

The discussion was carried on in a conservative manner. Both parties to the issue described their needs. It was believed an amicable settlement might be effected before tomorrow.

The list of firms that have consented to cooperate with the committee has been increased to 30, 10 firms this morning having agreed to the proposition. In addition to the list published in yesterday's NEWS, the list now includes:

Howell negotiated the first round in 79 strokes to Outmet's 80, well over par, and held an advantage most of the way after taking the lead for the first time on the sixth hole.

Arctic Submarine Nautilus Is Silent In Polar Seas

Ready for its daring dip under the Arctic ice, Sir Hubert Wilkins' submarine Nautilus is shown above as it departed from Tromsø, Norway, on the final stage of its voyage to polar regions. Now no radio reports from it are being received and a search may be started.

RELIEF EXPEDITION MAY SEEK ARCTIC SUBMARINE

Sir Hubert Wilkins and Little Nautilus Radio No Message for Five Days.

OSLO, Norway, Sept. 4. (AP)—Norwegian Premier Kolstad announced today that the government probably would send a relief expedition in search of Sir Hubert Wilkins' submarine Nautilus, unheard from for five days on a cruise to the arctic.

The sealer Vieding or the sloop Fridtjof Nansen will be sent, it was said, and the plans will be worked out during the day. Captain Riser Larsen, noted North Polar airman, searched the availability of a search with polar experts last night and the opinion was expressed that there were no grounds for anxiety but preparations should be made in view of the lateness of the season.

Sir Hubert said before he left August 18 that it would be unnecessary to send an expedition even if communication with the submarine had been broken for some time. He stressed the fact that he had no intention of endangering the lives of the crew by taking a foolhardy risk.

The public has begun to feel grave concern for the explorers and to picture the terrible fate which may overtake them if the Nautilus should be trapped under the ice or if they were forced to land on a floating icecap.

Wireless experts were inclined to doubt the authenticity of signals which the Norwegian whaler Flobergen and the steamer Ingertun picked up several days ago under the impression they came from the radio operator of the submarine.

OSLO, Norway, Sept. 4. (AP)—A report from Longyear City, Spitzbergen, lights were observed in Ekman Bay last night and were believed possibly lighted by the crew of the Polar submarine Nautilus, as no hunters or fishermen live there. A government representative at Longyear City sent a small boat to investigate. The craft was expected back some time tonight.

The Nautilus has been in the area north of Wide Bay and if anything happened to the submarine, a natural way to Longyear City would be across Ekman Bay.

El Paso Bank Is Forced to Close

EL PASO, Sept. 4. (AP)—The First National bank of El Paso failed to open its doors today.

Pres. Frank M. McCarthy issued a statement which blamed heavy withdrawals of depositors for the closing. His statement follows: "Because of continued rumors and withdrawals, we do not feel it right or fair to prefer one depositor over another. For that reason we have turned the business over to the National bank examiner."

"We hope and believe that with the cooperation of the depositors and others interested, a plan may be worked out by which the depositors may be protected."

Lubbock Phone Rates Are Cut

LUBBOCK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Representatives of Dallas and Fort Worth headquarters of Southwest Bell Telephone company were here today to confer with the Lubbock city commission concerning the company's rate schedule now in force.

William Duls, Dallas, a member of the legal department of the company, and M. P. Caldwell, Fort Worth, a superintendent of commercial service in Northwest Texas, came in here last night and were joined this morning by Frank Shupe, Dallas, director of public relations. They planned to answer a recent letter, sent the company by the Lubbock city commission, asking a reduction of local rates.

Present rates here are $6 per month for business phones; $2.75 for single party residence service, and $9 for commercial trunks. Indications were that a decrease, similar to that granted yesterday in Amarillo, were to be offered Lubbock.

Doolittle was officially declared the winner of the Los Angeles-Cleveland section of the derby, thereby winning first prize of $7,500. An additional $2,500 awaited him if he broke Capt. Frank Hawks' transcontinental speed record by flying on to New York.

Doolittle arrived here at 1:50:21 p. m., and thereby won the Burbank to Cleveland race for the Vincent Bendix gold trophy and a first prize of $7,500. His time here from Burbank was 9 hours 18 minutes and 21.2 seconds. He took off for New York at 2:04:2 p. m. (EST).

Killer's Victims Will Be Buried At Park Ridge

CHICAGO, Sept. 4. (AP)—As friends and neighbors of Mrs. Asia Bulck Elcher in suburban Park Ridge were preparing for the funeral tomorrow of the widow and her three children who were slain in Clarksburg, W. Va., the Chicago detective bureau was today investigating the report of the disappearance of another Park Ridge woman.

She is Mrs. Anna Purcell, also known as Mrs. Anna Boehle, who, mistrusting banks, was reputed to have carried a considerable sum of money in the seams of her dress. Two letters sent to Chief of Detectives John Norton by an unidentified writer said Mrs. Purcell might have been a victim of Harry J. Powers, who confessed to slayings of Mrs. Elcher and her children.

The letters said Mrs. Purcell vanished from Park Ridge in 1929 after she had corresponded with an unidentified man with the object of matrimony. Chief Norton said the man was Mrs. Purcell's brother-in-law, after taking the money, disposed of the body.

The bodies of Mrs. Elcher and her three children were cremated yesterday and the remains were forwarded to Chicago. The funeral will be held tomorrow in the suburb's largest theater. The Rev. Walter D. Spangler of the English Lutheran church will preside.

Waco Salesman Is Found Dead

WACO, Sept. 4. (AP)—The body of O. L. Jones, missing automobile salesman, whose blood-stained car was discovered on a highway near Waco today, was found later a short distance from the automobile.

The body was on the right-of-way of an interurban line. Officers went to the scene after an interurban motorman had told them of seeing the body of a man. They said Jones had been shot to death, apparently elsewhere, and his body dragged to the right-of-way. Bits of clothing had been torn off and left hanging on a barbed wire fence. Nearby, officers found a .38 caliber revolver. Three shells had been fired and another had missed fire, they said.

By roping three steers in thirty-five seconds, Ike Rude of Mangum, Okla., won the world's steer roping contest in the Pendleton, Ore., roundup.

Governor Ortiz Is Under Fire of Gambling Ring

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 4. (AP)—The newspaper Excelsior's correspondent to Chihuahua City says repeated refusal by Governor Ortiz to grant gambling concessions at Juarez has led to attempt to have him removed.

The correspondent says it is understood a person interested in the concession offered four Chihuahua members of the federal congress $300,000 to obtain it for him with the condition the money would be used in furthering educational facilities of Chihuahua.

When Governor Ortiz refused to grant the concession four congressmen who are known in Chihuahua as the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" resigned from the Chihuahua revolutionary party and, according to the correspondent, began stirring up agitation which led to the present movement.

The congressman charged Governor Ortiz was using the party for his personal benefit and announced they would present charges against the governor before the national revolutionary party of which the Chihuahua party is a subsidiary organization.

WAR—AND FRIENDSHIP

War, after all, is an impersonal thing for the average soldier.

Col. Eddie Rickenbacker and Maj. Ernst Udet, aces de luxe, met the other day at the Cleveland air races and shook hands like old pals. Back at Chateau Thierry, Soissons, and St. Mihiel they fired bullets at each other.

The war was not of their making. They had no dislikes for each other. They were loyal countrymen, and their duty was done well as the whole world knows.

Better understandings between the people of the earth will remove many of the causes of war. Friends settle their differences by arbitration or, if necessary, in the courts. When nations are as intelligent as their average citizens they will not shed the blood of their young men in disputes of their leaders.

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1. (NEA)—The republics of Latin America have shown two marked tendencies in the last couple of years: First, to get rid of their presidents in one way or another; and, second, to replace them with their ministers or ambassadors to the United States.

Now that Dr. Isidro Ayora has been forced out of the presidency of Ecuador there are no longer in office any of the seven South American presidents who greeted Herbert Hoover when, as president-elect, he made his tour of South and Central American countries less than three years ago.

They have all lost power either through revolution or under irresistible pressure. Ayora, who turned over the reins to army officers, was said to be the executive who made the most favorable impression on Mr. Hoover.

Serious economic depression, such as has afflicted the Hoover administration here, has been at the seat of all the upsets. Probably none of the seven South American presidents during the "good will" tour suspected that hard times were ahead. They all seemed to feel that their countries were aiming toward eras of bigger and better prosperity. At least they talked that way.

First the price of tin nearly ruined Bolivia and President Hernando Siles resigned to an insistent military junta. Peru became hard hit and President Augusto B. Leguia, who had been dictator for 16 years, was overthrown by armed revolt and tossed into a prison where he still languishes. President Hipolito Yrigoyen of Argentina, another aged dictator, went down in the next revolt and just about managed to escape.

Brazil, her coffee, rubber and other agricultural industries in dire distress, then staged a large scale revolution which resulted in the expulsion of President Washington Luis. Meanwhile, President Campisteguy of Uruguay was going through an election which threatened revolt and bloodshed because it was so bitterly contested and Campisteguy saved much trouble by announcing his retirement from politics.

President Carlos Ibanez appeared to be firmly seated as dictator of Chile, but he, too, was sitting on a depression and he was unseated after a short and snappy revolt in July.

Presidents of Panama and Santo Domingo have also been cast out and there have been unsuccessful rebellions in Cuba, Mexico, Honduras and Guatemala. Two men who were presidents-elect when Hoover met them in visits to Central America remain in office—Moncada of Nicaragua and Colindres of Honduras.

Two members of the Latin American diplomatic corps here stepped from Washington to the presidencies of their countries, and at least three others are talked about for similar honors. First, Enrique Olaya Herrera was peacefully elected president of Colombia and then Dr. Ricardo J. Alfaro was chosen by the party in power in Panama after the revolution.

Since Ambassador Carlos Davila resigned and returned to Chile after Ibanez was booted out it has been widely predicted that he would be Chile's next president. Minister Harnoldo Arrias of Panama is said to be likely to succeed Alfaro. Minister Juan B. Sacasa of Nicaragua is regarded here as the most likely successor to President Moncada.

More than one diplomat has become excited over journalistic speculation as to his presidential possibilities, protesting that such talk might result in loss of his post. In most of the Latin American republics, especially the smaller ones, the presidency and the diplomatic job at Washington are considered the two highest governmental positions.

Murray is Fearful
 OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 4. (AP) Fear that scheduled reopening tomorrow of the broad East Texas oil pools would retard the demanded $1 price for Oklahoma crude brought from Gov. W. H. (Dolar Bill) Murray a threat to build state-owned refineries paid for from a tax on oil men's income.

Shouting "that won't do" when told of provisions of the Texas railroad commission order, permitting a flow of 225 barrels daily from the more than 1,700 wells in the field, Governor Murray launched into an exposition of a "last resort" plan he has conceived to bring oil purchases into line.

"The fight is still on here," he said. "I won't compromise. The oil's safe underground and no one can steal it."

"We'll not do it if there is any other way to bring about the increase in the price of oil, but they'd better not get me with my back to the wall."

The Oklahoma governor said he would promote a referendum on a law "based on issuance of bonds, build refineries, assess on the incomes of the oil men and refine oil for the state."

"I'll use their own money to whip them," he declared.

Paso, Corsicana, San Antonio, Dallas, and many other Texas cities will tee off here tomorrow morning in the eighth annual Texas Public Golf Links association state tournament.

John R. Noble, association president, said today that this year's starting field would be the largest in history, and probably the fastest.

The tournament will continue through to Sunday night. It will consist of 72 holes medal play, 36 tomorrow and 36 Sunday. All entries 15 strokes back of the leader at the close of play tomorrow, will drop into the first, second and third flights for 36 holes of medal play Sunday. All within 15 strokes of the leader will remain in the championship flight to compete for the right to succeed Francis McGonagill, 1930 champion, who has since turned professional.

Professional W. B. Glas at the local Stevens park course where the tournament will be held, said the public would be closed to the public today in order to have it tip-top for tournament competition tomorrow and Sunday. Stevens park is a difficult par 36-38-70 course, cluttered with trees and water hazards.

President Noble said pairings would not be made until tonight due to late entries expected today.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Hollyce Sellers-Hinkle

Women's organizations have responded well to a call to aid in assisting the needy of Pampa. They are helping with their needlework, their canning, and their money. This they must continue to do—and more.

Here is where the "more" comes in. Contributions in the form of money and supplies are vital at the moment and the lack of them would prove tragic. Groups must not only meet the need of the moment, but they must look backward and find the cause of the trouble, and they must look forward and see the cure.

This is especially true of Parent-Teacher associations. "The P-T. A." said Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, president of the city P-T. A. council, this morning, "is the most vital power in the making and the enactment of laws in Texas pertaining to the welfare of women and children. If the P-T. A.'s of the country have the support of other organizations, we can solve the hospitalization problem."

The Business and Professional Women's club is, we predict, another organization which will make an intelligent study of situations arising with the depression. This study has been urged by Miss Marion H. McClench, past president of the national organization.

"Since the vast majority of women who earn are among the lowest paid workers," declared Miss McClench, "they have a more academic interest in establishing social justice and a greater diffusion of wealth. Opportunity for the development of whatever capacities the individual may possess, with a fair reward for those abilities, is the nearest approximation of social justice we can achieve."

She continued: "We should use the vote to promote sound, scientific progress aiming at social questions. They should take the lead in demanding governmental action which will make possible not only their own fullest development, but that of every other individual, also."

Miss McClench believes the depression is brought about by a long period of economic disturbance which began even before the world war, and was increased in its severity by the habits of thoughtless living and careless spending which we acquired as part of the abnormal war psychology. "Over-production and under-consumption," she said, "were not the disease itself, but symptoms of a deeper trouble which we failed to recognize or attempt to cure."

"So we have gone on, in fitful spurts, chasing economic butterflies, day dreaming that we would find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, until suddenly clouds gathered—clouds charged with the rain of financial difficulties, and the deluge that followed swept many in the floods to perdition."

The Cuban department of interior has announced that 626 prisoners were taken during the revolt two weeks ago, four of whom are women. Substitution of electricity for manure in the heating of glass-covered hotbeds is one of the latest outstanding developments in truck gardening.

REV. JOHNSON USES "POWER" AS HIS THEME

The revival services at the First Methodist church continue with great interest. Rev. Ray M. Johnson spoke yesterday morning on "Power" and took his text from the first chapter of Acts, eighth verse. He said the need of every church and every Christian was for a powerful life and that life could only be found in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Another large crowd filled the main auditorium last evening when Rev. Johnson preached on "How a Flapper Danced the Head of One of the Greatest Preachers that ever lived."

Taking the sermon of John the Baptist Mr. Johnson showed that his fearless preaching cost him his head. He said it would cost some preachers their ecclesiastical head now if they preached like John did. "There were 19 definite seekers during the day. This brings the total of definite seekers for either a Christian experience, reclamation or reconsecration to well over a hundred thus far," Rev. Johnson said this morning. Tonight's subject has been announced as "Wages."

There will be no day services visiting with his sister, Mrs. Nail, this week. Max and Bob Brown, sons of Mrs. N. E. Monson, returned home Monday from Texline. Bob spent the summer in Denver. Olen Warford made a trip to Wichita Falls Tuesday. Mrs. Blake of the Blake Beauty parlor, returned Wednesday night from Dalhart where she has been visiting her brother. The Rev. C. Warford, editor of the Lefors NEWS, left Saturday for Hooeyan to hold a 10-day revival meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Boien are the proud parents of a girl baby, born Aug. 24. The baby's name is Patricia Jean.

WOMEN ARE AT WORK ON GRAY COUNTY FAIR

County-wide interest in the Gray County Free fair on the part of women in the various communities indicates that the women's department, to be held in the Mitchell building, will be a marked success. The women's work is directed by Mrs. A. B. Goldston and Mrs. O. H. Booth.

The fair is the chief topic for discussion at all of the home demonstration club meetings, and labels are being prepared for the entries. Bluebonnet club women planned for a large exhibit when it met Thursday afternoon, and similar plans were made by girls and women of the Laketon clubs on Thursday. Meetings in Alnared and McLean are set for today.

Among the most interesting of the exhibits will be the 4-H pantry, which is to be shown under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Shackleton and Mrs. Leo Paris. In this will be shown enough canned food to last a family of five for three months. There will be wheat cereal, leafy vegetables, starchy vegetables, tomatoes, fruit meat, jelly, jam, pickles, and other articles.

The club women also will enter canning and sewing as individuals. Others at Work Extensive plans also are being made for other divisions of the women's work. The art exhibit promises to be especially interesting. It will include paintings by the best artists of Pampa, as well as by some of the art pupils. This division is under the direction of Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, a member of the Pampa art league.

Other divisions and their chairmen are as follows: China paintings, Mrs. H. C. Wilson; applied arts, handicraft, and novelties, Mrs. Clifford Braly; pot plants and bouquets, Mrs. Neils Walberg and Mrs. C. O. Duenkel; culinary department, Mrs. C. S. Boston; fashion show, Mrs. J. B. Massa.

Mrs. W. A. Bratton will direct musical programs during the fair.

Saturday but at 8:15 there will be an evangelistic rally service at which time Mr. Johnson will preach on "The Black Horse of Sin." This sermon is based on a true story concerning a boy and his horse.

The Order of the Eastern Star will meet at the Masonic hall for a regular session this evening.

JOSH LEE TALKS TO TEACHERS ON SUCCESS IN LIFE

CANYON, Sept. 4.—Gray county has more teachers present at Panhandle - Plains Counties Teachers institute than any other county, according to estimates made yesterday afternoon by Secretary W. E. Lockhart. Nine hundred, fifty teachers, representing 14 Northwest Texas counties, were present yesterday, and the number was expected to reach 1,000 by noon today.

Supt. R. E. Fisher, Supt. G. B. Rowell of McLean, and County Superintendent John B. Hossey are taking an active part in the meeting. Josh Lee, Oklahoma university humorist and philosopher, took the crowd by storm with his lecture, "The Pot of Gold." Said Lee, "The measure of your success is what you can do with the tools you have, not what you would do if... there will always be ifs which must not be heeded." And again he declared, "Industry, charity, honor and ambition are the ingredients of success; these teachers must have even greater degree than other workers."

Dr. A. L. Crabb of Peabody college, Nashville, gave the initial lecture of a series, discussing the problems of fitting into one's environment.

Professor F. E. Savage of the education department of West Texas State Teachers college is conducting the institute, with Superintendent C. H. Dillehay, chairman of the executive committee. The institute continues through Saturday.

Mrs. C. F. Naylor will be hostess to the club next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. M. I. Goodfellow will open her primary school next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the basement of the First Baptist church. She has invited the mothers to meet with the children at that time.

BOYS' CLOTHING IS MUCH NEEDED

Boys clothing is needed more than anything else by the Parent-Teacher associations and the Welfare Board in their preparations to clothe the needy school children. This was found by the P-T. A. group which met yesterday to mend and to assort garments which already have been contributed. There are 10 times as many garments for girls than there are for boys, it was said.

The public has been generous in making donations, but the supply is still far short of enough to meet the great demand. All clothing contributed will be repaired by a P-T. A. committee, and will be distributed to those most in need by the principals and P-T. A. presidents. Names of those receiving help will be given the Welfare Board in order to avoid duplications.

OUTING IS HELD BY CLASS HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. C. E. Hutchins' class of the First Christian church had a Coos Cola party Wednesday evening. The group met at the high school gymnasium at 6 o'clock and motored to a spot on the Canadian river, where other side of Miami, where lively games were played, a picnic supper spread, and Coca Cola served.

Girls attending were Misses Martha Enosh, Orlina Jones, Mary Spauld, Etha Jones, Maxine Robinson, Deva Dean, Louise Smith, Madeline Ganig, Ruth Wakeman, Retha Lester, Lorene Nicholas, and Florence Hobbs.

The boys were James King, Parks Brumley, George Ingram, Jimmy Garrett, Fred Lamb, Robert Daugherty, John Lester, Franklin Montgomery, Russell Kennedy, Floyd Voss, Vernon Lawrence, Billy Hyde, Charles Hutchins, and Grant Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchins also attended. For the first time in many years women control the Memphis, Tenn. movie censor board with a majority of two to one. Angered by an umpire's decision at third base, a Watsontown, Pa., crowd surged on the field, seized the umpire and ducked him in the Susquehanna river.

HOUSTON WINS WHILE RESTING UP FOR SERIES

Shreveport Helps Them by Making Five Errors; Hart Is Pitcher.

By the Associated Press

The Houston Buffaloes, Texas league champions, defeated Shreveport 10 to 3 last night while waiting for the Texas league season to end and the Dixie series to start. Shreveport made five errors to help the Buffaloes triumph. The Buffaloes scored four times in the third and three times in the fifth to take a lead that Shreveport failed to overtake. Hart, a newcomer to the league, pitched nine-hit baseball for Houston. The Buffaloes made a clean sweep of the three-game series.

Thormahlen and his Galveston Buccaneers mates held Fort Worth scoreless for eight innings last night. In the ninth, the Cats clicked with a pair of runs to beat Galveston, 2 to 1. Leon Chagnon pitched five-hit baseball for Fort Worth, giving the Buccaneers their only run in the seventh inning.

The Dallas Steers won two out of three games from Beaumont by taking last night's battle, 8 to 5. Lefty Minogue went the route for Dallas to win his fifteenth game this season.

Members of Coach Odus Mitchell's 1931 Harvester squad were to get a real test at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when the mentor will send his squad against a team of ex-Harvesters. The coach said last night that he would use between 25 and 30 players during the scrimmage and would probably pick his varsity squad following play.

The coach said he would not make public his choice until before the game with the Clarendon Bronchos a week from today. There are so many good men trying out for every position on the team that the coach wants to be sure he has the right men.

The ex-Harvesters will be under command of Don Salsbury, sensational fullback from last year's squad. Other members of the team will include Dick Benton, Jones Seitz, Jack Benton, Bob Mullin, Earl Isley, Jim Ayres, Henry Ayres, and others.

Joe Kahl will probably be the only regular out of the game. His finger had not mended enough to

BY ALAN GOULD

John Arnold Heydler doesn't mind telling this story, even though he is partially the butt of it, because it has the following moral: The folks are getting very much steamed up over the forthcoming world's series, especially in the fortunes of the old sergeant, Gabby Street.

Anyway, it seems that the National League's chief executive, after attending a motion picture show a few miles from his Garden City home recently, discovered his automobile lights had gone out.

There was nothing to be done but make a run for the home garage, fearing the law's worst but hoping for the best. To one or two critics along his course, John replied hastily: "Way to Garage" and kept right on going.

He was, he says, about two blocks from home breathing fairly easy, when up buzzed a police roadster, forcing him over to the curb.

John was already figuring on raising the $25 fine, as well as a good alibi, but he never had a chance to get under way. The officer leaped out and remarked:

"Never mind about those lights, Mr. Heydler, but how's my old pal, Gabby Street, getting along?"

A BALL PLAYER, NO LESS

As a matter of fact, after recovering his poise, Mr. Heydler quickly foresaw he had nothing to be concerned about. The officer was the captain of the Garden City police, a good friend of the National League's president, a former ball player and one-time battery mate of Street.

His name is W. H. Chapelle. He was in the major leagues in 1908-09 with the Boston Braves and Cincinnati Reds. He pitched for Nashville before the war when Street was with that club.

Gabby stayed with Nashville longer than any other team outside of Washington.

BASEBALL MILESTONE

In a story telling mood, Mr. Heydler recalled an incident of his recent visit to Boston where for years he has stopped at the same hotel, ordered the same dishes for breakfast and patronized the same barber shop.

He noted among the familiar faces one in particular that it seemed to him he had remembered over a considerable stretch of years. To this particular individual, the baseball leader addressed an inquiry as to how long he had been on the job. The reply was unhesitating:

let him get into the lineup. Ed Burch may play but his shoulder is still weak and the coach doesn't want to have it hurt again. Jim Groom probably will replace Burch in the line.

Old Dobbin In Greater Demand

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. (AP)—Among the come-back attempts of former champions list that of old Dobbin.

The agriculture department believes it will be partially successful, basing its opinion upon reports from widely scattered sources which indicate an increasing farm demand for horses and mules.

The development adds one more to the hundreds laid upon the littered threshold of the economic depression.

Horses and mules eat feedstuffs grown upon the farm. The tractor consumes oil and gasoline and these, however, low in price, ordinarily must be paid for in cash.

The farm is over-burdened with a lot of things but cash isn't one of them.

The surplus in many crops has soured agriculturists on mass production and they are seeking cheaper, if less efficient, methods of farming. At least, these are the views of the department experts in touch with the situation.

Hearing in Gravel Case Is Arranged

A hearing on the $3,840 gravel bill which Tom Jackson claims Gray county owes him was set for Wednesday morning of next week by the commissioners yesterday afternoon.

The court is due to take action on the bill at that time. If the commissioners should refuse to pay the bill, it is understood Mr. Jackson will appeal to the district court. W. M. Lewright, attorney, represented Mr. Jackson before the commissioners yesterday.

Mr. Jackson first presented his bill during January of this year, but payment of it was stopped by a temporary injunction granted J. L. Noel by Judge Clifford Brtly. The court of civil appeals later dissolved the injunction. The bill was for 1,280 yards of gravel spread on a road west of Pampa leading from the McElroy refinery to the railroad.

A Kentucky lake has dried up and part of it has been planted in millet, a dispatch from Hickman announces.

Rum Witness

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Some phases of Mayor Walker's trip to Europe were under scrutiny today by the legislative committee which is investigating the city government.

Heinrich Schuengle, resident director of the North German Lloyd line, was questioned for several hours yesterday by assistants to Samuel Seabury, the committee's counsel. The lawyers asked about financial arrangements for the trip on the steamship Bremen and what part was played by David Maier, who is accompanying Walker in Europe. Maier once served time in Sing Sing for bribery.

News of the inquiry into Walker's trip on the Bremen came after Seabury had commented on the absence of Russell T. Sherwood, Mayor Walker's bookkeeper. Seabury tried to serve a subpoena on Sherwood to question him about some transactions he made for Mayor Walker.

"It is an extraordinary as well as a suspicious circumstance that Sherwood should flee the jurisdiction of the state," Seabury said.

Sherwood left a hotel in Atlantic City Sunday. Seabury said he was considering various means for compelling Sherwood to return to the committee's jurisdiction.

Walker's German Visit Is Mystery

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Some phases of Mayor Walker's trip to Europe were under scrutiny today by the legislative committee which is investigating the city government.

Heinrich Schuengle, resident director of the North German Lloyd line, was questioned for several hours yesterday by assistants to Samuel Seabury, the committee's counsel. The lawyers asked about financial arrangements for the trip on the steamship Bremen and what part was played by David Maier, who is accompanying Walker in Europe. Maier once served time in Sing Sing for bribery.

News of the inquiry into Walker's trip on the Bremen came after Seabury had commented on the absence of Russell T. Sherwood, Mayor Walker's bookkeeper. Seabury tried to serve a subpoena on Sherwood to question him about some transactions he made for Mayor Walker.

"It is an extraordinary as well as a suspicious circumstance that Sherwood should flee the jurisdiction of the state," Seabury said.

Sherwood left a hotel in Atlantic City Sunday. Seabury said he was considering various means for compelling Sherwood to return to the committee's jurisdiction.

Storm Diminishes

HAVANA, Sept. 4. (AP)—The national observatory today reported a storm which passed over Haiti last night had been located this morning between Jamaica and Oriente province, moving slowly westward with its intensity diminished.

The observatory said all danger for Cuban shores had passed, although the disturbance might bring wind and rain.

Harvesters Seen in Hard Scrimmage

Members of Coach Odus Mitchell's 1931 Harvester squad were to get a real test at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when the mentor will send his squad against a team of ex-Harvesters. The coach said last night that he would use between 25 and 30 players during the scrimmage and would probably pick his varsity squad following play.

The coach said he would not make public his choice until before the game with the Clarendon Bronchos a week from today. There are so many good men trying out for every position on the team that the coach wants to be sure he has the right men.

The ex-Harvesters will be under command of Don Salsbury, sensational fullback from last year's squad. Other members of the team will include Dick Benton, Jones Seitz, Jack Benton, Bob Mullin, Earl Isley, Jim Ayres, Henry Ayres, and others.

Joe Kahl will probably be the only regular out of the game. His finger had not mended enough to

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "MAD MARRIAGE"

BEGIN HERE TODAY Norma Kent, pretty 20-year-old secretary in a law office, meets Mark Travers, attractive and wealthy, when together they rescue a frightened puppy from the midst of downtown traffic.

Norma tries to tell the young man her name or where he can see her again. Later she joins Bob Farrell, young lawyer, for a dinner engagement. Farrell asks her to marry him and Norma says "no."

The scene of the story is Marlboro, middle-western metropolis. Norma takes the puppy to the shabby apartment she shares with Christine Sammers. Norma fears Chris is falling in love with her married employer, Bradley Hart, proprietor of an advertising agency.

Next day Norma inserts an advertisement about the puppy in the Post and found column of the Marlboro Press. The first person to answer this advertisement is Mark Travers, who explains he has made every effort to learn Norma's identity.

He tries to make a date but she declines his invitations. Travers explains. Later he telephones Natalie Price, popular debutante, and goes with her to a gay party, concluding with a round of the night clubs.

The following evening Norma arrives home and finds Chris absent. A note explains she has gone to aid Minnie Baker, bookkeeper at the advertising office, whose 2-year-old son has been seriously burned.

A small boy comes to claim the stray puppy and takes him home. Bess Hawthorne, the custodian's daughter, asks Norma if she received an important telephone call that afternoon.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER VII Bessie's eyes widened. Her voice showed surprise. "Why?" she went on. "I gave the man your telephone number at the office. I supposed of course he'd call you!"

"Who did? Who was it?" "I don't know," Bessie shook her head. "He didn't give any name. I didn't think to ask. It was about 2 o'clock the phone rang and

Akron's Skipper

Bob started the motor and with a jolt they moved forward. The chariot—Bob told her this was the vehicle's official name—proved to be a good traveler. They were heading away from downtown traffic.

"Where would you like to go?" Farrell asked. "Anywhere. It doesn't matter."

"Like to drive through Washington park and take a run out on Chrysalis Creek highway?" "That would be grand."

"Then we'll do it." Neither cared to talk while they were on the city streets. Other vehicles, traffic regulations took Farrell's attention. Norma was content to lean back in her seat, letting the cool, crisp night breeze whip color into her cheeks.

It was mid-September. The first frost was still several weeks away but there was the unmistakable scent of fall in the air. Norma loved it. The breeze hinted of fallen leaves and bonfires. Of summer dying in the lap of rugged, hardy autumn.

Hillsides a riot of gold and crimson, coloring. Colder nights and the harvest moon. Days of chilly freshness. Oh, yes, Norma loved the fall.

All this was in her mind vaguely when she realized they had reached the park. Pattering rows of lights stretched ahead and twinkled at them from behind shrubbery and rolling hillocks as though a gigantic jewel case had been overturned on the black velvet of the night.

"It's beautiful!" the girl sighed. "Oh, Bob, isn't it beautiful?" Farrell, less emotional, agreed. "Yep. Always liked this park."

The girl put a hand on his arm. "Drive around to that circle above the pavilion, won't you?" she urged. "I want to see how the city looks with all the lights on."

Bob nodded. The circle to which Norma referred was a show spot of Marlboro, providing a sweeping view of the entire business district and beyond that section of the metropolis known as East Marlboro. Bob brought the coupe up the winding hill, maneuvered to a sheltered position and cut off the motor.

"There you are," he said with a wave toward the city below. "There's your fairyland!" "That's exactly what it looks like!"

Both of them gazed in silence at the panorama. Towering skyscrapers and hideous commercial structures, gaudy, gigantic signs and street lights all were interwoven by the magic of the night into and electric fairyland.

Usually there were half a dozen or more bars parked in the circle to enjoy this view. Tonight there was only the borrowed coupe.

Norma turned from the scene below them to meet the eyes of the boy at her side. She knew what was to happen a full instant before he did yet seemed helpless to prevent it. The girl felt herself swept into a tempestuous embrace, felt Farrell's kisses on her lips and cheek. It seemed a long, long time before she was able to pull herself away.

"Bob!" she cried indignantly. "Bob, how could you—" "Don't say it!" he interrupted shortly. "Don't even try to tell me how big a fool I've been! I know it as well as you do. Better!"

He was fumbling with the mechanism to start the car. In another moment the coupe had backed and turned and they were driving away swiftly. Through the park the coupe flashed and out on the open road.

Farrell's eyes were on the pavement ahead. He seemed not to realize the girl was beside him. In the shimmering light of a cross-roads lamppost Norma caught a

Amarillo Phone Rates Are Cut

AMARILLO, Sept. 4. (AP)—A reduction in telephone rates today rounded out a perfect score for Amarillo in its fight for lower utility rates.

The reduction amounted to 35 cents on residence telephones, 50 cents for business connections and 75 cents for commercial flat rate trunks. It will benefit 14,000 subscribers in Amarillo, effective September 1.

Mayor Ernest C. Thompson, who asked the Southwestern Bell Telephone company for the reduction less than a month ago, said: "It certainly is a step in the right direction. Every subscriber in the city will benefit on an equal basis."

When asked if he was satisfied with the reduction, Mayor Thompson refused further comment.

G. N. Halley, district manager of the telephone company, said that conditions in Amarillo enabled the company "to try out the reduced rates with the hope that they will not so impair earnings as to make them inadequate."

The reduction is in accordance with an agreement between the city and telephone company entered into when the local exchange was changed from a manual to a dial system of operation, Halley continued.

"The company spent approximately $200,000 in Amarillo and the city agreed to permit such rates as would enable a fair return on the investment."

In answer to a question regarding the company's attitude toward other West Texas cities who have asked for reductions, Halley said: "Each case will depend upon its own merits. It is simply a matter of investment and earnings. Company officials will give each request for lower rates proper consideration."

The mayor directed his attack through the newspapers, and called on the citizens to aid him, saying: "There is no law against having your telephone taken out. The only thing the telephone company does not charge for is to discontinue your service."

The new rates will be $6.50 a month for business telephones, $3 for one-party residence phones and $9.75 for private trunk line exchanges.

Drastic reductions were made earlier in the year in the Amarillo gas and water rates and a moderate reduction has been obtained in electrical rates.

Mrs. C. C. Cook will leave tonight for Dallas to receive medical attention.

Solo to Seattle?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Juanita Burns wants the $25,000 Seattle business men have offered for a flight from Tokyo to Seattle. But she desires also the honor of being the first person to make a solo flight between the two cities.

She'll use a few wing monoplane for the attempt which she says will be made within a month. Meanwhile she's brushing up on navigation.

HOOPER WILL ATTEND CORNWALLIS CELEBRATION WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. (AP)—The celebration of the 150th anniversary of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, Virginia, October 19, will be attended by President Hoover.

The chief executive will deliver an address on the site where the commander of the red coated British forces surrendered his sword to George Washington, terminating the war of the revolution.

In making known his intention to speak at the celebration, President Hoover issued a proclamation calling for the observation of October 19 as a holiday.

WHEAT SLOWS CHICAGO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Moderate selling based on relative weakness in Liverpool quotations eased wheat prices slightly at the start here today. Trade was restricted because of the triple holiday ahead. Corn was firmer with offerings light.

Wheat opened steady to 1-4 cent lower and showed little change. Corn started steady to 5-8 cent advance and held around initial quotation.

Modest Pilot Is Bleacher Favorite

CLEVELAND, Sept. 4. (AP)—A modest pilot and his home-made plane attracted pluck and color into the national air races today. He is Ben O. Howard, Chicago mail pilot, who drew the first spirited applause of the meet from the largest race crowd to date, estimated at 53,000 persons by officials.

The spectators, who usually back a winner gave their ovation in tribute to the sportsmanship and skill of the pilot. Howard, a slight, white-haired man, cuts the air from the energy of a four-cylinder engine, could not nose across the finish line first.

Howard, who is spending his vacation from flying a mail route by flying in the races, said: "It's all just a lark. Besides, I've got a last year's pilot and there is not much hope after seeing some of the speedsters that have been developed since."

Speed, enough of which has been given to the crowds to whet their appetites for more, was promised by Lowell Bayles, slightly built and quiet pilot from Springfield, Mass., who announced he would try to set a new world airspeed record Saturday.

Jitney Jungle Is Observing Fourth Year In Pampa

The Jitney Jungle Grocery is this week celebrating its fourth anniversary of doing business in Pampa. In appreciation of the splendid business they have enjoyed the past four years, the management is making it a real celebration by offering a number of "appreciation prices" on their merchandise for this Saturday and Monday.

Four years ago Robert Woodward and Mrs. E. C. Kolb came here with their families from Cherokee, Okla., and as partners opened the Jitney Jungle Grocery in its present location at 511 South Cuyler. Prior to that time Mr. Woodward and Mr. E. C. Kolb had been partners in the wholesale and retail confectionery business in Cherokee for 20 years.

They have enjoyed a good business since the day they opened here because of the complete line of groceries, meats, drugs, and confections they handle. One may almost supply his daily needs from this store. In the grocery and meat department may be found anything desired in these lines. Then, in connection is operated a confectionery and soda fountain, carrying a large line of school supplies, patent medicines, and drugs.

Profit sharing coupons which entitle one to credit on free silverware are given with each 25c purchase. This is another reason why this business place is such a favorite to trade.

Then, too, one may almost always find plenty of parking space nearby. The personnel of the business is as follows: R. Woodward and Mrs. E. C. Kolb, proprietors; Jim Kolb in charge of the drug department; Robert Woodward, Jr., assistant in drug department and at the soda fountain, and also sign writer; Mrs. R. Woodward; William Riggs, in charge of meat department; Floyd Ramsey, checker.

Zeppelin Dips in Farewell as It Leaves Brazil

PERNAMBUCO, Brazil, Sept. 4. (AP)—The Graf Zeppelin, ending a two-day visit to Brazil, dipped in farewell early today and started homeward for Germany on her ninth crossing of the Atlantic.

Dr. Hugo Eckener pulled her away from the airport mooring mast, eight miles from the city, at 2:40 a. m. (11:40 p. m. Thursday, SGT) and five minutes later she soared over Pernambuco, riding high and brilliantly illuminated. She is expected to reach Friedrichshafen late Sunday or early Monday if she maintains her speed of the outward trip.

Sevsn hours after the takeoff she was reported passing over Fernando de Noronha island, 125 miles off the coast.

Truck Law Is Under Attack

HOUSTON, Sept. 4. (AP)—Truck men and their attorneys were here today to continue an attack on the constitutionality of the state's two newly enacted truck regulatory laws.

The case testing the constitutionality of the bills went to trial before a three federal judge court yesterday.

Charles I. Francis of Wichita Falls, attorney for Ed Sproles of Fort Worth, pleaded with the court to grant a temporary injunction effective until the court shall decide on the complainant's request for a permanent order restraining enforcement of the law.

In the Sproles case the clauses specifying length, width, height and load were especially assailed. The third suit, brought by the J. H. McGeachin company, assailed the law as discriminating against cotton.

Machine Guns Rattle as Strike Begins in Spain

BARCELONA, Spain, Sept. 4. (AP) Machine guns rattled in the streets today and pistols were used in a dozen encounters between strikers and soldiers as disorders accompanying the city's general strike continued.

Since yesterday at east four men have been killed and a score or more wounded. A considerable number of prisoners have been interned aboard ships commandeered for the purpose and anchored in the harbor.

Peaceable householders remain indoors with their shutters down and suspects who appeared in the streets were fired upon at sight. All normal business was at a standstill.

As the day wore on the disorders got out of hand and guns roared all over the city. The situation looked extremely grave. The women appeared to be united against continuing the strike and in many places they appeared pleading with their men to come home, out of danger.

Twenty Grand and Sun Beau Hold Attention

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 4. (AP)—A $50,000 race will take a backseat at the Spa course tomorrow when Sun Beau, Twenty Grand and a few other horses battle chiefly for the honor of winning in the $5,000 added Saratoga cup. Financially the $50,000 hopeful, first of the rich two-year-old features of the year, heads the closing day program but the crowd of 20,000 more will be there because of the expected duel between Sun Beau, world's leading money winner, and Twenty Grand, co-holder of the three-year-old title.

Probably three or four other horses will be named to contest the issue over the mile and six furlongs but past performances indicate the race will be strictly a Sun Beau and Twenty Grand affair.

Sun Beau, which has earned $355,444, is at the top of his brilliant career, while Twenty Grand has been defeated only twice this year—both times by Mate, which will not be in tomorrow's contest because of a leg injury.

Because of the weight for age clause, Twenty Grand will carry 118 pounds as compared with Sun Beau's package of 126 pounds.

Jubilee Singles Start Tomorrow

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4. (AP)—One of the most "open" tournaments on record is the prospect for the Golden Jubilee men's singles championship of the United States Lawn Tennis association, which starts tomorrow.

With the figures of Big Bill Tilden, Henri Cochet and other outstanding stars of the past missing from the scene about 20 of the 84 players who have entered the tournament, which helps the celebration of 50 years of organized tennis in the United States are conceded fair chances of victory.

Little hope is held out for Johnny Doe, who scored a surprising victory last year. Although he is ranked first in the national list, he was dropped to fifth place when it came to seeding players, and the place of honor was given to Ellsworth Vines, the sensational Pasadena, Calif., youngster. Only one former champion is in the list, R. Norris Williams, II, who won the title in 1916.

Behind Vines on the American seeded list came Frank Shields, Dabnis cup ace, Sydney Wood, the Wimbledon champion, George Lott, Philadelphia ace, Cliff Sutter, of New Orleans, Johnny Van Ryn of Philadelphia and Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas.

From the time the first golden pumpkin makes its appearance until the last one has been taken out of storage, there is no more miserably popular dessert than pumpkin pie. Although canned pumpkin is available at all times and makes excellent pies, pumpkin pie enjoys a definite season, and is most appreciated during the fall months.

Everybody has his own very definite ideas of just what a pumpkin pie should be from either to taste or different sections of the country follow their own traditions in the making of pumpkin pie, making it so dear a dish to be treated lightly.

If you use canned pumpkin, cook it over a low fire until perfectly dry. Fresh pumpkin can be baked, steamed or stewed until tender and dry. Fresh pumpkin can be baked, method for the pumpkin is merely cut in halves, seeds removed and baked, cut side down in a dripping pan until tender. Then scrape from shell and force through a ricer or colander.

To stew wash pumpkin and cut in narrow strips. Remove seeds and pare off yellow shell. Cut in cubes and put into heavy aluminum or iron kettle. Add just enough water to prevent burning before pumpkin begins to cook. Cover and cook over a good fire until pumpkin is dry. It takes five or six hours to stew a pumpkin. When dry rub through colander or ricer.

This first careful preparation is as important as the final well chosen recipe.

Some old-time cooks added raisins to the custard mixture, but now we find nuts, dates, citron and grated orange rind and juice being used in pumpkin pie. The modern fashion of topping pumpkin pie with whipped cream seems as superfluous as painting the lily to those of us who like our pie in the "real American" manner. However, this is a popular custom that finds favor with many persons.

AS BRITISH ACE CRACKED UP AT CLEVELAND

Here is the wrecked biplane in which Flight Commander E. L. R. Acherly of England turned over in landing at the Cleveland, O., airport on the eve of the opening of the National Air Races. Omission of a bolt in the landing gear when the plane was assembled after being shipped from England was blamed for the wreck. Acherly escaped with cuts.

War Hero in Rifle Matches

Samuel Woodfill, called "the greatest hero of the World War" by General Pershing, feels once more the familiar grip of an army rifle as he levels this one at the National Rifle and Pistol matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. Captain Woodfill is a member of the Kentucky civilian team.

Light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 egg, 2 cups rich milk.

Mix and sift flour, spices and salt and add to sugar. Mix and stir into pumpkin. Add molasses and egg slightly beaten with milk. Turn into a deep pie dish lined with plain pastry and bake one hour. The oven should be hot for the first ten minutes to set the crust. Reduce the heat and bake at 350 degrees F. for 50 minutes. The rule will fill an eight-inch pie pan.

Fluffy Pumpkin Pie

Three-fourths cup sifted pumpkin, 3-4 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 1-2 cups milk, 1-2 cup cream, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Beat yolks of eggs with sugar, salt and spices. Add pumpkin, milk and cream and mix thoroughly. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and fold into first mixture. Turn into a pie dish lined with pastry and bake as in other recipe.

If a highly spiced pie is liked more spices can be added to either rule.

Squash often is substituted for pumpkin and while it makes an excellent pie, the flavor is not the same.

Norman Thomas Tests Labor Rule

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 4. (AP)—Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for president of the United States in 1928, spent 2 hours in jail yesterday while he and 45 others awaited arraignment on a charge of unlawful assemblage.

Thomas encountered the legal obstacles when he attempted to champion, by picketing, the cause of 6,000 silk workers now in the sixth week of a protracted strike. He said he thrust himself into the silk workers' fight at the request of the American Federation of Labor.

He and his 45 companions, including two clergymen and a labor college president, were freed last night in his bail each.

Thomas' appearance with a group of pickets at the hand mill was to test a ruling by Judge Eogor W. Freeman of the First Criminal District court forbidding strikers from assembling in front of a mill not affected by the strike.

"Judge Freeman's 'judge-made' law is a new quirk in labor law and if it is permitted to stand it will nullify all of the gains labor has made in the past through litigation and legislation," Thomas said.

He asserted the local jurist's ruling established a precedent, a new ruling, which if upheld, would be "injurious to the cause of labor throughout the land." Thomas said he intended to carry the case to the highest tribunal, if necessary.

After his arrest and a release on bail, Thomas and Maurice Kaitz, an attorney, conferred with Assistant Prosecutor Nicholas O. Beery. Beery assured the socialist leader he would expedite presentation of the case to the grand jury.

Chicago Attorney May Help Powers

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 4. (AP)—Barrett O'Hara, Chicago attorney who recently defended Virgil Kirkland, Gary, Ind., youth sentenced to 10 years in the slaying of Ashene Graves, came here today to confer with J. Edward Law, counsel for Harry F. Powers, said by police to have confessed the killing of two women and three children.

Law and O'Hara were in conference for a long period, and together they went over evidence in the case of the middle-aged salesman who conducted an extensive one-man matrimonial agency.

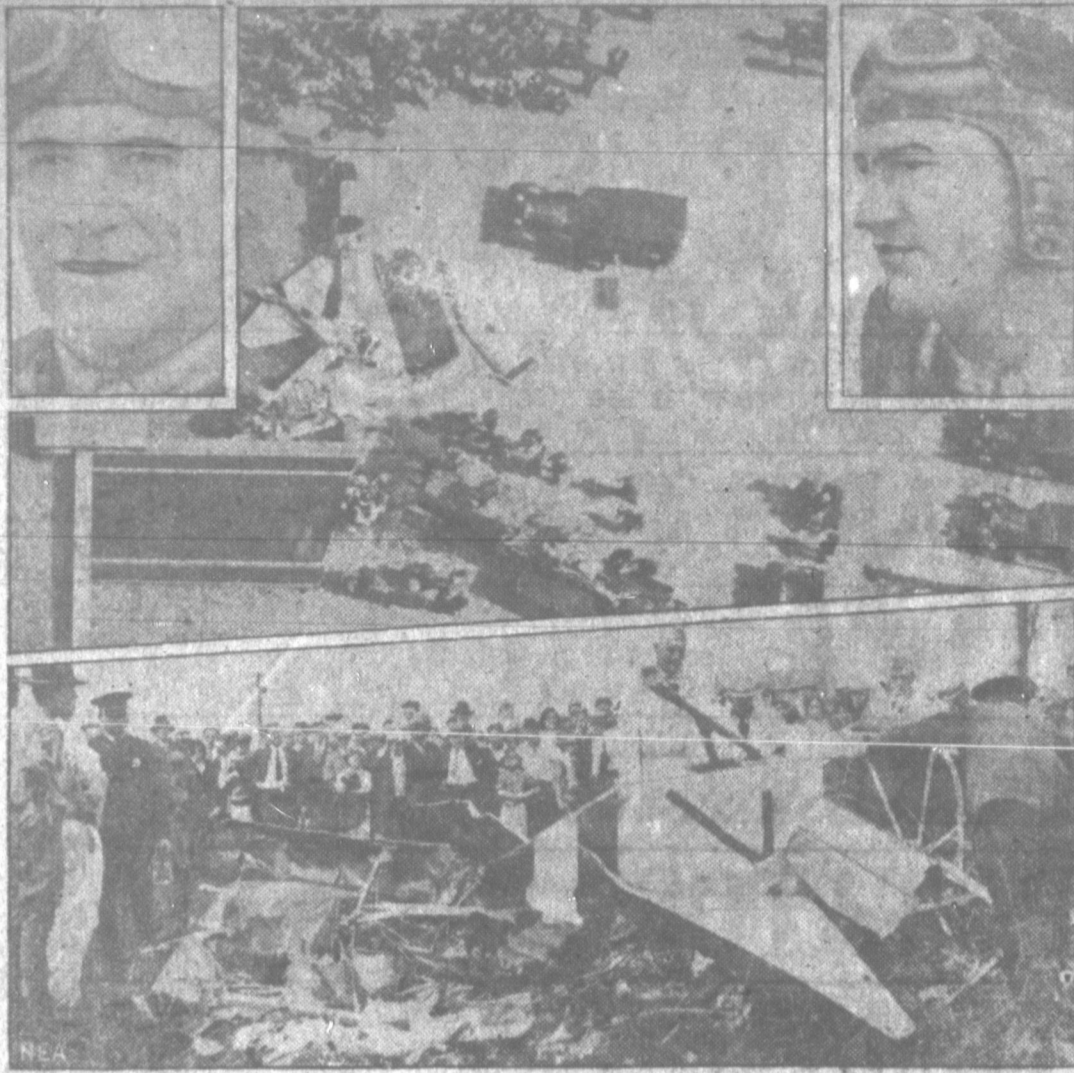

The Chicago lawyer said he had not been retained and added he did not know if he would be asked to assist Law.

Verdict for Meers Returned by Jury

A verdict for J. F. Meers and wife in their suit to try title to 80 acres of land against Albert McCollum was returned in 114th district court yesterday afternoon. Trial of the suit had been in progress since Monday.

A jury to try W. E. Favara's compensation suit against the Texas Indemnity company was selected late yesterday.

30,000 SEE FLYERS CRASH IN MID-AIR AT RACES

Thirty thousand spectators at the National Air Races at Cleveland, O., got a thrill that wasn't on the program when two marine corps pilots, Lieutenant Lawson H. Sanderson, left and Lieutenant W. O. Brice, right, saved their lives by parachute jumps after their ships collided in mid-air during thrilling maneuvers. The upper picture is a striking aerial view of Brice's plane atop a school house where it fell. Part of the ship is on the ground. Below, a crowd is shown gathered about Sanderson's wrecked ship in a nearby field.

Fifteen Gallons of Whiskey Seized

One ten-gallon keg full of whiskey and a ten-gallon keg about half full were seized in a raid by Constable E. E. Turman last night at a residence in the Talley addition.

One man was arrested and lodged in jail. Constable Turman said he would file a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale this morning. The kegs were stored in a closet in the room where the man was sleeping.

Train Schedules Are Disrupted by Rains

Trains over the Santa Fe line through Pampa are expected to resume regular schedules some time today, according to information received at the local depot last night. Traffic has been disrupted for several days due to washouts on the coast line through Arizona. The line was washed out in three places and traffic had to be rerouted at various places.

Passengers have been from one to seven hours late while freight traffic has been halted. The first freight from the west is scheduled to reach Pampa some time this afternoon or tonight, according to word received here.

Passenger traffic was slowed along the entire line in Arizona.

CINCINNATI REDS WIN TITLE OF BEST CELLAR BALL TEAM

RED LEGS IN FOURTH WIN OVER CHICAGO

Rookie Tony Piet Leads Successful Attack on Burleigh Grimes.

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The boys smiled tolerantly, not long ago when Col. Dan Howley, in one of his exclusive interviews, expressed the opinion that his Cincinnati Reds were the best "last place club the National League ever saw."

What the colonel inferred was that he had a corking good team, but that it was up against the strongest opposition in the history of the circuit. From the manner in which his Red legs have been knocking off the Chicago Cubs the last several days, it appears he knew what he was talking about.

Four Straight
They made it four straight yesterday when Owen Carroll outlasted Pat Malone in a 10-inning mound duel, 3 to 2.

The Reds' present winning streak is their second longest of the year. They captured five straight back in June, but their victims were the Phillies and Braves, not a first division club like the Cubs.

In the only other National League game spared by the rain, the Pittsburgh Pirates fell on Burleigh Grimes, himself, for a 6 to 4 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. Led by young Tony Piet, rookie second baseman, who rapped two doubles and a single and scored twice, the Pirates got to Grimes for seven hits and all their runs in the second and third innings. Lindsey and Rhem held them thereafter, but it was no use in the face of Bob Osborn's swell relief work for the Snamen. He allowed only two hits after relieving French in the second inning.

Coffman Saves One
Oscar Melillo cracked a double and three singles and drove in five runs as the St. Louis Browns took their opener from Cleveland, 11 to 3. The Browns finally drove Clint Brown from the hill in the eighth to give Dick Coffman his sixth victory in his last seven starts. Fred Schulte contributed a home run and a double to the assault on Brown.

Scoring six times in the third frame, when they knocked Bob Westland loose, the Detroit Tigers ran up a 9 to 3 score in their opener against the Chicago White Sox. Herzig held the Sox to three hits the last six innings and received bang-up support, Mark Koenig banding 13 chances without a bobble. Carl Reynolds of the Sox hit a homer in the third.

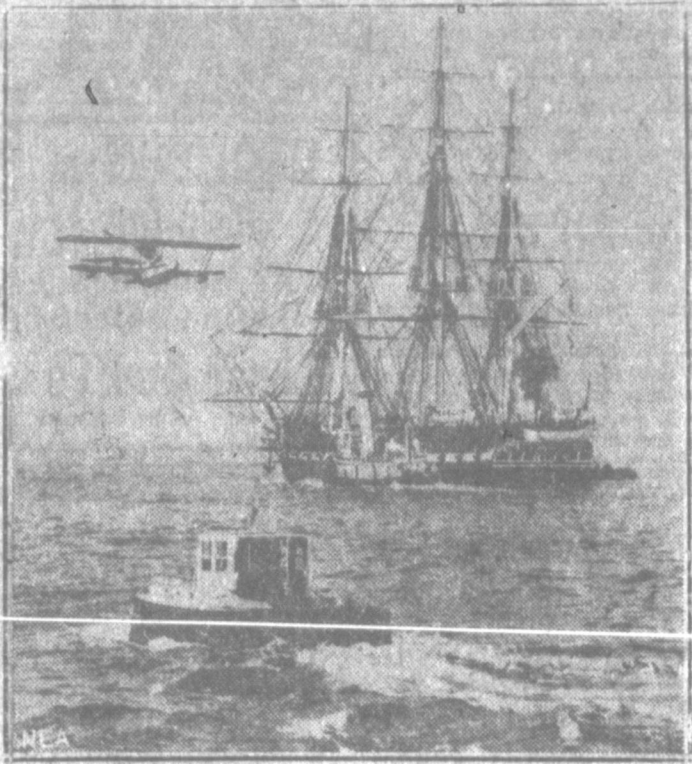

The league's four eastern clubs had an off day.

COTTON OPENS QUIETLY
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4. (AP)—The cotton market experienced a quiet and barely steady opening today. Liverpool cables were a little worse than due and first traders here showed losses of 3 to 4 points. Prices eased off a little further after the start, October trading at 6.70 and December at 6.98, or 3 to 5 points under yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour prices rallied 2 to 4 points on shorts covering owing to the labor day holidays and the fact that the government report will be issued early next week caused a general indisposition to trade except for evening up purposes.

BANK IS ROBBED
ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 4. (AP)—Three men robbed the First National bank of Mill Creek, Johnston county, today and escaped in the direction of Ada. Bank officials estimated the loss at $500.

And Among Incoming Ships—

Gangway, liners! Afloat, dreadnaughts! Let all the shipping in the harbor stand aside—for this proud visitor to New York waters is "Old Ironsides," back again after 116 years. The valiant frigate Constitution is seen here as she sailed into the Hudson river, towed by a tug and a mine-sweeper, at the head of dozens of cutters and naval vessels while a plane roared a salute from the air. The historic old vessel was saved from oblivion by the pennies of American school children.

'OLD MAN' IS DUE TO MEET MERE YOUTHS

Francis Ouimet Is Favored to Win at Beverly If Strength Lasts.

BY PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO, Sept. 4. (AP)—"Old Man" Francis Ouimet of Boston and three of the neighbor's children were still fighting it out, among themselves today for the elusive National Amateur golf championship at Beverly.

It was a field of strange contrasts. At 36 years Ouimet was the "old man" of the field. Aligned against him were three who were playing hide-go-seek, if anything, when he first became forth to win his National Open crown 18 years ago—19-year-old Billy Howell of Richmond, Va., Maurice McCarthy, 24-year-old son of the New York professional, and 27-year-old Jack Westland of Chicago.

To make it stranger yet in the semi-final act of the big show today, Ouimet was matched against Howell, a youth half his age who was in the battle for the first time. McCarthy tackled Westland to complete the battle line.

Howell is Tough
Past performance and his wide edge on experience alone made Ouimet the favorite today and probably the big favorite of the survivors to smother his way through to the championship, which has been denied him 13 times since he won it in 1914. Howell looked like a hard opponent without doubt because of his march through perhaps the strongest opposition of the field, but whether he could match Ouimet's comeback bid was doubtful. Six times in the past nine years has the scholarly, bespectacled Ouimet fought his way to the semi-finals only to meet with defeat—three times falling before Bobby Jones himself. But Bobby was in the gallery today and Ouimet felt far more confident, naturally, recalling in the meantime that it was young Howell who dumped Johnny Goodman out of the title fight Wednesday, 2 and 1 in the first round fight.

Not So Strong
Probably the biggest question involving Ouimet was his stamina, his biggest weakness in his golfing wars. So far he has had the easiest road of them all to travel, crushing Johnny Shields of Seattle, 4 and 3; Loung Frank Connolly, Detroit, 5 and 4, and the younger and slighter Paul Jackson of Kansas City, 7 and 6, in yesterday's semi-final match.

Howell, in addition to his victory over Goodman, defeated Owen Covey of Salt Lake City, 4 and 2, and then staged a fine comeback yesterday to defeat Lester Bolstad of St. Paul, former Big Ten and National Public Links champ 2 and 2.

What there was to choose between McCarthy and Westland was in McCarthy's favor due to shots scored in the current campaign. Bob qualified with border line 156's but McCarthy has played the most brilliant golf of the two, as well as the field, since the struggle entered the match play salient. He was only six over par in yesterday's 6 and 5 romp over Fay Coleman of Los Angeles, shooting an even par 71 on his morning round and then relapsing a trifle with his heavy lead in the afternoon. Westland, who led the qualifiers the first day with a 73 and then fell to an 84 to barely crowd in, was 11 shots over par yesterday and was carried to the 36th green before he defeated Arthur "Ducky" Yates of Rochester, N. Y., 1 up. Westland, Chicago district amateur champion three times in the past four years, was far from a set-up, however, and promised to give the husky New York Irishman plenty to worry about during their excursion over Beverly's hazardous layout.

ROBINSON HAS PLAN
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 4. (AP) Senator Joe T. Robinson of Arkansas today proposed that the United States department of agriculture and the federal farm board cooperate in setting up county organizations which would enter into agreements with farmers to cut cotton acreage fifty per cent each year through 1936.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 4. (AP)—P. H. Reichley, 31, was the only survivor today of an automobile accident, here last night that took the lives of his 29-year-old wife and five small children.

The young mother and her children were drowned when the steering gear on their automobile gave way and sent it hurtling from a park roadway into 20 feet of water of the Scioto river. Reichley was thrown clear when the car struck the water and managed to swim ashore.

Woman Attempts to Take Iodine Dose

Falling in an apparent attempt to commit suicide, a young woman whose residence is on East Craven avenue, was recovering from a self-administered dose of iodine last night.

A passerby made the discovery and called a Stephenson ambulance at approximately 11:30 a. m. Arriving at the small cottage, the ambulance driver found the woman sprawled unconscious on the floor, a small bottle that had recently contained iodine by her side. She swallowed very little of the poison, hospital attendants said. A good deal had run over her face, neck and arms.

Lying on a bed in the same room and apparently in a stupor, another woman was unaware of the melodrama being enacted around her.

The motive for the young lady's attempt on her own life was not divulged, although her roommate said it was "over a man." When questioned at the hospital, the woman told attendants it was "none of their business."

Military Justifies Slaying of Bandit

KILGORE, Sept. 4. (AP)—A military board of inquiry has decided that officers who shot and killed R. E. (Bob) Williams, alias Joe Roach, on the highway near London in Tusk county Wednesday were justified in their act.

In a report to Brig. Gen. Jacob P. Wolters, commander of the martial law zone in which the shooting occurred, the board "found that Williams came to death while resisting arrest and while armed with a deadly weapon."

The report further stated Williams was "undoubtedly one of the three persons who held up and robbed the Pelican, La. State bank of $2,000 Monday."

Williams was identified as a former ex-convict who had served a prison sentence in Oklahoma and had at one time been a member of the Henry Starr robber gang.

Due to the fact the shooting occurred in the martial law zone of the East Texas oil field, it was necessary for military authorities to conduct an inquiry.

Antiques Wanted for Gray County Fair

Persons having antiques who wish to exhibit them at the Gray County Free fair will be assured a place in the antique booth by calling F. P. Reid, chairman of that department, at 296W, or by delivering their entries to the Board of City Development.

Mr. Reid says there are enough antiques in Gray county to make one of the best exhibits in the fair. Mr. Reid is anxious to get in touch with persons having articles they wish to exhibit. If persons are in doubt about the "antiqueness" of their articles he will gladly call on them and view the article.

He also wants the history of the article if it is available. "The history makes the article much more interesting," Mr. Reid said last night.

Judge Ewing's Court Will Open Sept. 21

Judge W. R. Ewing of Miami of the 31st district, was a visitor here yesterday en route to Wheeler, where court is in session. Judge Ewing will hold court in Wheeler until Sept. 18 and will come to Pampa Sept. 21 for a 12-week term.

The criminal docket is heavy this session and it is expected that cases will be heard without a break throughout the term. Few if any civil suits will be heard during the term, the 31st district court being chiefly a criminal court.

District Attorney Raymond Allred will represent the state in all cases. The grand jury will convene Sept. 21 and will spend considerable time on liquor violation cases, it is understood. The sheriff's department has made more than 60 raids since the last term of court.

EX-AGGIE IS WINNER

Weldon Wilson New Night Watchman Here

Beginning Wednesday night, Weldon Wilson, former deputy sheriff of Gray county, became associate night watchman working with R. B. Shannon, according to an announcement made yesterday.

Until Mr. Wilson started working in his present capacity, Mr. Shannon was Pampa's only night watchman. Mr. Wilson, a native of Gray county, was employed after a survey revealed that most of the business men believed a one-man force was insufficient to maintain adequate protection. His salary is to be paid by the merchants.

Railroad Committee Will Meet Tonight

Members of the railway committee of the Board of City Development will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the board rooms to discuss means of collecting money pledged for purchase of right-of-way for the Fort Worth and Denver railway through Gray county. Construction on the part of the line started last week and lack of money to purchase right-of-way is the only thing that is holding up additional work.

Nearly $30,000 remains to be collected, according to E. B. Hedrick, collector for the board. Time could be saved and additional work on the line started if persons who have pledged money would mail their checks to C. P. Bickler, treasurer, at his office in the White Deer Land building, Mr. Hedrick says.

Business Need of Work Continuity Is Under Discussion

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. (AP)—Results of a survey indicating American business wants some system of economic planning to promote continuity of work and prevent unemployment bolstered the efforts today of a United States chamber of commerce committee studying such proposals.

The committee was considering various suggestions for creation of a national planning board to coordinate production and consumption by watching and advising industry of the current trends of business.

Previous to its meeting the committee sent questionnaires to several hundred business firms asking for their views and ideas on a national planning board.

It was this problem the committee was trying to solve today. Members of the group said they could not finish their work at this meeting but would meet again in New York probably September 21 to

The committee was considering whether such a planning board should be set up by the government or by business, or by both; how large the board should be, what industries should be represented, and if it was created by private industry, how it should be financed.

The Pampa coach has not named his starting eleven and says he won't until before the game. There are so many good men for every position that the coach doesn't want to make a choice until every player has been given an opportunity.
