FDR In Favor Military Bill

Senate Committee Delays Final Action Today

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)-The senate military committee today delayed final action on the Burke - Wadsworth compulsory military training bill and ordered hearings immediately on a meaauthorize President Roosevelt to train the national guard and the officers reserve corps.

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)-Senator Sheppard (D.-Tex.) said today he had gained the "definite impression" in conversations with President Roosevelt that the president favored enactment of the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military training bill in its present form.

Sheppard, just back from a threeday tour of Norfolk, Va., defense Roosevelt, said he had discussed the bill at length with Mr. Roosevelt. favorable to it. The measure, receiving final onsideration from Sheppard's committee today, called for registra-tion of all men between 18 and 64 years, with local boards to select those between 21 and 45 who would be given a year's military training. Sheppard's statement was the first indication of Mr. Roosevelt's view on the bill, although he previously had said that some form of conscription might be necessary in order to provide sufficient per-

Hitler Soldiers Believed Preparing To Attack

NEW YORK, July 30 (A)—Heavy massing of German troops in Nazioccupied France across the channel from England was reported today by Edwin Hartrich, CBS corre dent who has just toured the area.

Moving only under the cover of darkness, he said, they are mobilizing in tremendous numbers toward the French coast from Marseilles as far north as the Belgian channel ports. He said the touring correspond ents were warned by their military guides not to divulge in which di-rection the troops were moving.

(By The Associated Press) Nazi Germany, disputing British claims of 17 to 1 RAF successes in an air battle of Dover, sent her bombers across the channel again today with the hope of crushing English moral before the long-awaited invasion begins. An undisclosed number of civilians, among them an infant, were killed and buildings were damaged or de-molished as the Nazi airmen sprinkled their loads up and down the East

While the British admiralty was announcing that Germany had sunk 35,577 tons of the Empire's shipping n the week ending Judy 21, the Ger man high command maintained that much damage was done in the Dover fight alone.

Nazi dive bombers, the high command said, virtually destroyed four ships, totalling 32,000 tons in the Dover attack.

It also said German airmen sank a 10,000-ton cruiser in the English channel, as well as a small merchant

England claimed yesterday's air attacks cost the Germans 20 planes, 17 of them in the Dover battle where 80 Nazis bombers and fighters were fought off by RAF men. Loss of one British plane was acknowledged. Germany, on the other hand, claimed 15 British planes were shot down and only three German craft were lost.

The Berlin newspaper Borsen Zeitung said that although air raids so far had only "softened" the English defense system for the big blow, ombs and torne

BUENOS AIRES, July 30 (P)—foreign office spokesman said today that Argentina's reservation about signing the Havana convenwas "entirely natural and formal since, in all such cases, ents to treaties require legslative approval."

HAVANA, July 30. (A) - An Argentine reservation on the ques-tion of foreign possessions in the new world clouded today the colidarity of the 21 American re-publics as their foreign ministers reached the end of their confer-ence on hemisphere economic and political defense.

The unanimity rule of the conference, a Pan-American tradition, technically was upheld as the delegates agreed one after another on the many defense matters, but Argentina at the last moment of last night's secret plenary session reserved the right of its government to pass finally on the merits of the Act of Havana.

This act declared the deep concern of all American republics in the status of European possessions in this hemisphere and authorized American nations singly and jointly to assume temporary control of sary to protect the continent.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—Argentina's sudden ban on wheat exports brought a quick advance to wheat prices today before the trade began to argue whether the action was surprising or, to be expected.

Prices held most of the gains despite assertions the action merely signified that Argentina was unwilling to further reduce stocks of old wheat with weather conditions unfavorable to the current growing crop.

Late rallies carried wheat prices to the best levels of the day with the close 1-1½ cents above yesterday's finish, Sept. 761%-74 Dec. 763%-77, and corn closed 1¼-1½ up. Sept. 62½, Dec. 593%-14, Oats %-1% advanced, and Lard 3-10 cents higher.

Most of the relentless German air warfare was along the coasts of England nearest to France, where the Nazis have been piling blow on blow apparently to "soften" Britain for a blitzkrieg invasion.

A new tally on the wholesale sky fights yesterday over the English channel harbor of Dover-closest to the Nazi-held French coast—ir creased the unofficial toll of downed German warplanes to 25. Within it lie possibilities for changing the entire life of every family in the country. It is, in a sense, revolutionary. Never before has it been proposed in time of peace to commandeer the lives and hopes of every citizen. Such a departure is probably forever-we know of no country which adopted such a plan, then

If this bill is to be acopted, and it is more than possible, it should be thoroughly debated and discussed by the people's representatives in Congress. The effectiveness of any such plan will be all the greater in proportion as people realize that it is their own decision, deliberately adopted as their will by their representatives.

Some will say, "This delay! There's your democracy for you! This bill ought to be passed today! Why delay?"

Our situation is critical. But not so critical that we cannot afford to discuss from every angle so sweeping a law as this. If this is the deliberate decision of the American people it will be all the more effective for that.

Nine hundred and ninety-nine Americans out of a thousand are willing and anxious to serve their government in whatever way is determined to be best. Is this the best way? There is only one way to determine -to thresh it out.

Behind The News

washington, July 30—if Windell Willkie campaigns for the election the way he campaigned for the nomination, the people of the republic are in for an interesting summer-and the politicians are in for some more surprises.

All of the old rules were discarded in the primary campaign. By every canon of political practice, the campaign should have fallen on its ear. But the happy bunch of political amateurs who did the job simply invented a new kind of game and played it like mas-

Somewhat uneasily, the Democrats in the capital are wondering if this new kind of game is going to continue right through the campaign. This new technique the Willkie people set up may be a hard one for old-timers to master

The Willkie boom started in April under the guidance of three men: Russell Davenport, who had just resigned as editor of Fortune; Charlton MacVeagh, a Gorton-and-Harvard man who had been a learned economist for a New York bond house and Fred Smith. a cagy publicity man,

BOOSTER CLUBS

A volunteer mailing committee was set up in New York, to reprint Mr. Willkie's speeches and mail them around the country. Through the contacts thus formed Willkie-for-president clubs began to spring up all around the country. What usually happened was that two or three people in some town would write in: "We want to start a Willkie-for-president club-will you send us some literature?"

The central office would check up to find who "we" were, send out some speeches and pamphlets, and let nature take its course. These clubs mushroomed, and acted almost entirely on their own; so loose was the contact that when the convention opened. Willkie headquarters didn't really know how many clubs there were except that the number was somewhere above

NAME CALLING MIGHT BE COMPLIMENTARY Some people object to having an individual called a robber or a murderer or even a liar.

Certainly it is no use calling a man a robber, a murderer or a liar who knows that he is a liar, a robber or a murderer. To call a man this, who knows it, is done only to satisfy the ego and vanity by comparison of the man calling the individual the name.

On the other hand, if one is obliged to use drastic words and descriptions in order to arouse the individual as to what he is really doing without knowing he is doing it, then name-calling, instead of being objectionable, ought to be a compliment to the one called a name.

Certainly no rational, sane man would call another a name unless he believed that the individual would correct his wrong doings if he realized he was doing things that were detrimental to others and to himself and was being disapproved by consistent people.

It will be remembered that Jesus, one of the greatest teachers who ever lived, called men liars, murderers and hypocrites.

So the next time one hears a man call another a robber, or some such uncomplimentary name, analyze the motives of the man and determine whether he does it for the purpose of arousing the person to his errors, in which case it is good for society, or whether he does it simply to show by comparison his superiority and to make himself appear important.

It is sometimes necessary to use very drastic and plain language in order to awaken people as to the great harm they are doing to their fellow-

EMPLOYER ONLY SALES MANAGER

Few people realize that the workers really have the right to fire their employer, who is nothing but a sales-manager. The employer is simply attempting to market the energies of the employe. When the employe finds that he can get another sales-manager who will market his labor to a better advantage, he fires his sales-manager; that is, he quits his job and takes another. This is as it should be. Every transaction is both a sale and a purchase. The employe is selling labor and buying dollars and the sales-manager, or the employer, is selling dollars and buying a product which he expects to again sell his customers.

If you are sore at your sales-manager, do not stay with him. Get some other sales-manager who can give you more for your services. If there is no one, however, willing to give you more in rewards than your present sales-manager, maybe he is not such a bad salesman after all.

ARGENTINE CORN (Chicago Tribune)

Once again American farmers are threatened with the competition of imported grain in the domestic market. The other day an offer of Argentine corn was reported at 76 cents a bushel anded in Boston with all charges paid. It is said that there are regions in northern New England where the imported corn could be sold below the American price.

This is not the result of a scarcity of American grain. Any one who has traveled through the middle west has seen the clusters of galvanized iron storage tanks at almost every railroad station. They are filled to overflowing with corn, the farmers' cribs are also filled, and within a few months another crop will be harvested. The immense accumulation of recent years presents a grave problem and it is likely to become a graver Thanks to his price-rigging schemes, Mr. Wallace has slowed the movement of American corn into consumption and his acreage reduction program has failed to reduce production. On July 1 of this year the government reported that there were 862 million bushels of corn on the farms, about half of it grown in 1938 and previous years and held as security for governloans. In addition, there were something like 65 million bushels and perhaps more owned outright by the government. The carryover on July 1 was just about double the normal amount as indicated by the 10 year average. Despite the surplus, corn is being withheld from the market with the result that competition from abroad is now regarded as well within possibility. Mr. Wallace's attempts to solve the surplus problem have resulted, as it was confidently predicted they would, in aggravating the evil instead of curing it.

It is not possible to state definitely that the gold was transferred from the underground vaults of the Bank of France in Paris when the battle of France first assumed serious proportions. In-deed there was no mention even of the gold being

TAP TAP

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, July 30-Armed with a pocket machete and a pound of lump sugar, your correspondent has ventured into the well-tracked jungles of Baldwin Lake, in the Santa Anita country. A Paramount expedition is filming "Moon Over Burma" there, and the eucalyptus and palm groves harbor flies, mosquitoes, chiggers, and elephants. I fed all of them.

Ordinarily the ten elephants would be with a circus, but the studio signed them first. Movietrained elephants are scarce, and getting scarcer, Anna May, veteran of hundreds of pictures, died last year—appropriately enough for a Hollywood celebrity, of stomach ulers. Sally and Queenie worked six days in "Moon Over Burma" and were killed in a fire that swept Goebbel's animal farm. Replacing those two are Duchess and her double, Pinto. No glamor girls, they're about 50 and 65. Glamor hasn't anything to do with their role, anyway, which is carrying Dorothy Lamour Bob Preston, and Preston Foster through a teak forest.

Talking with Earl, their trainer. while doling out sugar to a line of panhandling pachyderms, I learned there are a lot of difficulties in working elephants for movies. They can't be directed, as can dogs, by hand signals. And they'll obey only the voice of a trainer. "They pay no attention to what any star tells 'em to do" said Earl, a little smugly.

ANIMALS INSIST ON THEIR RIGHTS

Earl has had some trouble con vincing Director Louis King that Duchess, carrying a howdah and the three principals, can't be persuaded to go through an intricate routine, including stopping at an exact spot and lying down, without shouted commands or the nudging of a bullhook. "Some directors are swell with animals," the trainer said. "Dick Thorpe, who made the last two Tarzans, knows just what they can or can't do. Another guy, I remember, got sore because a lion had to be fed at exactly the same time every afternoon and wouldn't work afterward. Say-if that cat hadn't been fed on time, he'd have dined on us!' Another thing few directors un-derstand is that elephants won't stand perfectly quiet. Earl's going crazy trying to keep his pals from spoiling scenes by tossing leaves and dust at the flies, or by snorting Discipline is especially hard to maintain on a movie set because SPCA agents, always present when animals are working, forbid using a stick on a stubborn or mischieyous elephant who needs a wallop This trainer would mistrea Duchess, Pinto, and the rest about as willingly as he's kick Dorothy BEASTS ANXIOUS

Main trouble about training elephants for pictures is that they're too anxious to please. They can't inderstand—any more than many human observer can understandwhy a stunt has to be done over and over again for five or six reand over again for live of the hearsals and a dozen takes. Rather logically, they finally decide that they must not be doing it right, so they try something else. And it was Peavine Trantham, former Amarillo hurler, who was charged with the loss while Ben Parrish, former Pampa chunker, re-lieved Lynn and held the Oilers hitless for two innings to save the game for the Gold Sox.

Lloyd Summers, Oiler catcher, appeared briefly in the game last night after being on the bench for two weeks with a shoulder injury. The long rest apparently didn't help Summers' temper because he and Umpire Myers got into a big argument in the second and the ump waved Summers to the showers. Kelley relieved and finished the game behind the plate.

Seitz Switches Batters Manager Grover Seitz switched his batters slightly. He put himself in the cleanup position and moved Dutch Prather, who has been in a hitting slump, up to third place and although Seitz bagged a triple and two singles on three official trips to the plate, he couldn't get anyone on to drive in.

was driven in by Potter's double Then, with McPartland coming back to hurl neatly and blanking the Sox through the next four frames. the Oilers staged a merry splurge in the sixth to wipe out the deficit and take command of the game by a count of 8 to 5.

Oilers From Behind With two out, two on base by virtue of singles. Hill was the victim of a tough break. B. Altenburg muffed Kelley's slow grounder and one run came in. Hill's magic over the Oilers went out like a light and when the spree was over with Fireman Lynn pitching, the Oilers had their 8 to 5 lead, all on account of seven unearned runs. Hill walked two and gave up three more hits before Lynn came in and Jordan flied out to retire the side.

Lynn went on to easily handle the Oilers in the seventh, striking out two and causing one to ground out in spite of an infield error behind

When Lynn gave way to a pinchhitter in the seventh, Ben Parrish, former Oiler who was acquired in a trade for Trantham, took over the mound duties. Although he had some shaky moments. Big Ben pitched cooly and deliberately to hold the Pampans hitless and runless for two innings.

The game was super-charged with itement and entertainment for the huge throng of fans estimated at 3,500. In one of the highlights of the side-shows, Lloyd Summers, Pampa catcher, was ejected from the game by Ump Frank Myers afcer a protracted discussion regardwhether a ball thrown by Mc-Partland was a ball or a strike.

Baseball still is a bruising battle in Brooklyn and the Dodgers have only three clubs to go to accumulate a perfect record of at least one fist fight with every team in the National league.

The latest flare-up involved Catcher Babe Phelps of the dauntless Dodgers and shortstop Arky Vaughan of the once phlegmatic Pirates. It came in the final breathless moments of one of the whackiest ball games seasoned spectators at Ebbets field have ever seen.

For eight innings yesterday Curt Davis held the Pirates helpless with four scattered hits and the only excitement, aside from the steady tattoo of his teammates in thumping up a six-run lead, was the banishment of Manager Frank Frisch of the Pirates for protesting a play at second base in the sixth stanza. It was the sixth time this season he had been chased by an umpire. But in the ninth the Pirates set off a dynamite display under Davis, scoring six runs before Tot Press-nell could stop them. Then when the Dodgers came to bat, Phelps was thrown out at first. Vaughan hustled over to the bag, apparently to ask Elbie Fletcher, Pirate first baseman, if Phelps had tried to spike him Whatever the answer, Vaughan and Phelps waded into each other and were hard at it before teammates could intervene.

Thus the Pirates lined up behind the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds as fistic foes of the Dodgers this season. Mace Brown nullified the Pi-ates' comeback by issuing two walks ahead of a single to Pete Cos-carart in the last half of the ninth and was charged with the loss.

The Dodgers' win enabled them to cut another notch off Cincinnati's apparently ample lead as the Reds dropped a 4-3 decision to the New York Giants.

Bob Bowman pitched seven-hit ball as the St. Louis Cards whipped the Boston Bees 8-3 and climbed back to fifth place. Another seven-hit pitching performance was turned in by Claude that Japan is moving along two courses toward economic command of eastern Asia— elimination of for eign influence and of economic inroads in key territories, reliable '39 FORD Del. Tudor Sedan. Looks and runs like new. Radio and sources declared today.

Passeau of the Chicago Cubs in beating the Phillies 7-3. In the only game in the American league the Philadelphia Athletics again exercised their jinx over the pace-setting Detroit Tigers, getting 9-7 verdict that shaved Detroit's lead over Cleveland to one game.

These apparently are twin paths by which Japan hopes to reach eventual control of the raw materials and trade of the bulk of China, French Indo-China, Thailand (Siam), the Dutch East Indies and possibly British Burma.

The fact all the arrested British and many previously had been un-der surveillance for years without being detained was interpreted as indicating the arrests were timed for a period when Britain appears unwilling to risk a direct test of strength in the Far Fast, as shown strength in the Far East, as show her recent concessions to Japan in Burma.

Nevertheless, Britain is understood to be taking a stern attitude toward the arrests, demanding substantiation of charges of existence of a British "espionage network."

Texas Agriculture Keeps Improving; Business Declines

DALLAS, July 30 (AP)-Employment and payrolls in Texas and demand for merchandise showed declines, the monthly business review of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas reports today, but offsetting there, conditions in the agricultural and livestock industries recorded further mprovement during June. Regardless of a downward trend payrolls and employment from May to June, the review says, these barometers of prosperity remained higher than the record of one year ago. Also, building activity, as measured by the value of construction contracts awarded, expanded to an all-time peak as a result of awards for a large national defense project at Corpus Christi.

Consumer demand at department stores in principal cities of the elev-enth district fell off by considerably more than the average season amount from May to June and the bank's adjusted index of sales de-clined 3.5 points to 1.5 per cent of the 1923-1925 average. This figure, the review says, is about the same as that recorded for June, 1939, but below that for any month thus far this year. Coincidentally, the distribution of merchandise through reporting wholesale firms declined to a level four per cent below that of year ago.

Crops in most sections of the dis-trict made rapid growth in June and except in areas flooded by heavy and frequent rains, are now in fair condition. The July 1 report of the Department of Agriculture indicates that prospective production of fee GOOD, CLEAN, USED CARS of than in 1939, and in a majority of cases the indicated yield is above he 1929-38 average harvest.

TOHNNY hadn't believed that Capetown was large enough for girl in a pink linen dress to completely. He had run after her that afternoon, but she had disappeared when he reached the corner. He had had a wild desire to ring all the doorbells on Cottage street, and dared not leave his shop for fear she would come in during the minute he was gone.

"She's certainly got me," he decided, when a customer asked for a map of Cape Cod and he sol-emply presented her with a book on the theater. He found himself sitting on the wharf, looking out to sea, imagining conversations between himself and the girl.

When he went to the Theater and asked for Earl, whom he knew slightly, a suspicious doorman told him that everyone knew Mr. Earl never came down until the week before a show.

"Have you a beautiful girl, one the apprentices, who wears pink linen dress and white huaraches?"

"We've 60 apprentices this season, Mister. How do you expect me to keep up with their arches?"

unty for the first six months of 940 were two as compared with four for the corresponding period in 1939, according to the report, July 18, and received in Pampa today from the accident sec-tion, drivers license division, deent of public safety, Austin.

For the semi-yearly period, 1939, there were two killed on highways in Gray, one in a city, and one on a county road. Fatalities in Gray for the first six months of 1940 were one on a highway and one on a county road

Tabulations by state police statisticians show an 8 per cent increase in motor vehicle traffic deaths for the first six months of 1940 as compared to the same period last year. The official state death book that 766 persons were killed from January through June on Texas streets and highways as compared to 712 for the same period last year.

The 22 pedestrian deaths for the month of June is the lowest figure for any month since September 1938 when 21 pedestrians were killed. Sixteen of the 22 were over 25 years of age and half of the total were killed during hours of darkness.

Canadian Minister Urges Compulsory Military Training

OTTAWA, July 30. (A)-Considering the possibility of creating a Canadian army of 1,000,000, War Service Minister James G. Gardiner told the house of commons today every unmarried man in the do-minion between the ages of 21 and 45 will be compelled to undergo 30 days' military training.

"There is no reason," he said, "why Canada should not train an army of 1,000,000 men under this system and still operate her industry and primary production meet demands upon it.' National registration is to b conducted August 19-21.

"It is possible," he said, "that requirements of the department of national defense will be satisfied by the calling up of single men from 21 to 35, and it may not have to go beyond that the first year."
All employers will be required under penalty, to re-employ any drafted employe at the end of his

Pampa Red Cross Still Short Of Goal

Appreciation was expressed today by Mrs. Jessie T. White, executive secretary of the Pampa chapter of the American Red Cross, for activity by workers in securing contributions for war refugee aid.

The Pampa chapter raised $1,417 in the national campaign. This sum was $343 short of the double quota assigned but the remainder s expected to be raised in September through the holding of some benefits, Mrs White wrote.

A copy of a letter received here from William M. Baxter, Jr., manager, American Red Cross, Midwestern branch, St. Louis, states that total receipts for the fund passed the 19 million dollar mark on July 16. Goal of the national campaign is $20,000,000.

British-American Alliance Seen On World Surpluses

LONDON, July 30 (A)-The possibility of British-American co-operation on the general question of world surpluses was disclosed to the house of commons today by Hugh Dalton, Britain, he said, has intimated to the United States government her "great interest in the general quesreadiness to co-operate "in a study of any possible solution of these

His statement was in reply to a question asking whether he would consider steps to assist the United States in finding markets for American surpluses. Dalton also disclosed that Britain
