FILLING STATION ATTEMPT SHOT TO DEATH

Fifty Planes Battle Over English Coast

A violent air battle which cost the Nazis at least nine planes and the British two as air fighting raged over the channel and the southeastern coast of England for an hour today, filling the air for miles around with the roar of cannon and chatter of machine guns.

Fifty planes took part, sometimes swooping down to within a thousand feet of rooftops or sea, at other times vanishing high in the clouds.

The British said the Nazis lost at least nine planes and the British themselves two as air fighting raged over the channel and the southeastern coast of England for an hour, filling the air with the roar of cannon and chatter of machine guns.

The announcement on the Indian situation, made simultaneously in common and the house of lords and in India, said the government was willing to let Indians "devise the framework of a new constitution" at the end of the war in the hope that the distant country's 350,000,000 people, overcoming their own differences, would at last attain "freedom and equality within the British commonwealth" of nations.

Britain herself, the statement said, was unwilling to undertake "fundamental constitutional issues" at this time.

The British account of the air battle said at least fifty German bombers and a large number of escorts took part against only a dozen British fighting planes. Sometimes they swooped down to within a thousand feet of the rooftops or sea, rattling the windows of homes and shops. At other times the planes vanished high in the clouds.

The fight opened with a German attack on channel shipping, a phase of Nazi warfare intended to block off supplies from the embattled Britons.

Along the shore and far inland watchers thrilled. Once a German See FIFTY PLANES, Page 6

Absentee Voting Under Way Here

Gray county voters can now cast absentee ballots for the run-off election to be held here on August 24. A supply of ballots has been received at the office of County Clerk Charlie Thut.

Absentee voting will end on August 21, three days before the election. In the first primary, 505 absentee ballots were cast.

In contrast with the first ballot, which listed 136 candidates for state, district, county, and precinct offices, totaling 58, the ballot of the run-off election has only 16 candidates vying for eight offices.

There are four run-offs in four state races and four in the county. The official ballot:

For congressman, 18th district, Eugene Worley, Wheeler, Deskins Wells, Collingsworth, for railroad commissioner, Olin Culbertson, Jackson, Pierce Brooks, Dallas; for chief justice of the supreme court, H. S. Lattimore, Tarrant, James P. Alexander, McLean; for state senator, Grady Hazlewood, Potter, Max Boyer, Ochiltree.

For district clerk, Miriam Wilson, R. E. Gatlin; for sheriff, Cal Rose, G. H. Kyle; for county commissioner, precinct 2, R. A. Smith, H. C. Coffey; for constable precinct 2, Jess Hatcher, Earl Lewis.

India Offered "Free And Equal Partnership" By Great Britain

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP)—India was promised "free and equal partnership" in the British commonwealth, today as Britain sought to unify the greatest possession of her empire for an amassing of manpower and wealth against Germany and Italy, the latter now driving for an outlet into the Indian ocean.

The pledge, announced by L. S. Amery, British secretary of state for India, in the house of commons, was authoritatively interpreted as offering an "even broader" status than that of dominion, which is enjoyed by Canada, Australia and South Africa. Post-war dominion status for India was proposed by the government last October.

A similar statement was made simultaneously by Lord Linlithgow, viceroy, in India.

Fulfilment of the pledge was expressed for Indian insistence that the new constitution should be framed by Indians and ready "assent" was announced to organization, after the war, of a body representing the principal elements in Indian national life to devise a new constitution.

An invitation to Indian leaders to join the governor general's executive council and establishment of a war advisory council which would contain representatives of the Indian states also was announced.

The government statement frankly declared its hope that satisfaction of Indian nationalist aspirations would lead to a greater contribution of Indian wealth and manpower to Britain's war effort.

With unlimited Indian aid, Britain might be in position to assemble overwhelming manpower to smother Italian expansion in the Mediterranean and Red Sea areas, and at the same time offer a check to a

Man Pleads Guilty, Drops Dead

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 8 (AP)—George Johnson, 30, dropped dead after arising in an alderman's office to plead guilty to assault and battery last night.

His wife, Mary, collapsed when she saw him fall. Her head struck a piece of wood, sending her to a hospital with a slight concussion.

Air Stewardess Hurt In Strange Plane Accident

DALLAS, Aug. 8 (AP)—The mid-air injury of Stewardess Rosemary Griffith of the American airliner "Palmsman" shortly before it landed at Nashville, Tenn., last night was still unexplained after Supt. Chester Borum of the Nashville airport accompanied nine passengers of the flight here today.

Borum theorized that a jolt, occasioned by a thunderstorm, may have caused Miss Griffith to fall in the baggage compartment.

"Passengers to whom I talked said the plane was jerked about considerably before the storm was left behind," Borum said.

Hospital attaches at Nashville said X-ray pictures revealed Miss Griffith had swallowed a key, supposedly the key to the compartment.

Borum said it was his belief that the stewardess was holding the key in her mouth and "the sudden shock made her swallow it."

Rips in the stewardess' clothing may have been caused when she was jolted against sharp-edged hinges on the compartment door.

Borum said he added that "of course there are other things that could have happened."

Borum said passengers had not noticed Miss Griffith's absence until the cabin's temperature began mounting as they neared Nashville.

"Someone asked the pilot to turn down the heat," Borum said. "A few minutes later a woman passenger went to the rest room that adjoins the baggage compartment. Miss Griffith was lying on the floor unconscious."

"Two passengers sitting near the compartment said they had heard or seen nothing to link with Miss Griffith's injury."

"None of the 15 aboard the plane—11 men and three women—were aware that anything was wrong until Miss Griffith was found," Borum added.

No statement had been given by Miss Griffith, still in a Nashville hospital.

Gas Explosion Takes 6 Lives

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Aug. 8 (AP)—Six dead were identified today as physicians fought to save the lives of other victims of a gasoline explosion which rocked a residential district here.

Five of the dead were the wife and four children of Thomas Myers, gasoline distributor, and the other was a neighbor child.

Myers and more of his children are among the most critically injured. Only member of the household unhurt was a son, Gay, asleep in a front bedroom some distance from the Myers' back yard, where the blast occurred.

Myers said he was pouring gasoline from truck tanks into small containers when suddenly a "solid sheet of flame shot out in four directions." The explosion shook adjoining houses and broke windows half a mile away.

Farley's Resignation Accepted By President

HYDE PARK, Aug. 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt today accepted with "real regret" the resignation of James A. Farley as postmaster general, effective as of Aug. 31—about two weeks after Farley steps out of his post as national chairman of the Democratic party.

Farley resigned his political post after the Chicago convention, giving as his reason a desire to return to private life. There have been apparently well-founded reports that he would head a syndicate buying the New York Yankee baseball club.

Mr. Roosevelt's announcement Farley was leaving the cabinet preceded by only a few hours a conference of the southern gateway to the Suez canal, one suspects that he may find it a mixed blessing.

There is more than meets the eye in the seeming complacency of the English as they pursue what they describe as a strategy of "active defense" and give ground to numerically superior invaders. The reasons are several.

For one thing there are no supplies for the Italians either in British Somaliland or in adjoining French Somaliland which they are using as a base. They must depend on what they have in their African possessions, for the Suez canal—only direct communication with Italy—is closed to them.

Then the Fascist forces likely are headed into a bunch of grief with the Somalis. These natives are a hard lot, whom the British finally got in hand after years of warfare but who will fight at the drop of a hat. They are anti-everything that's foreign, and the Italians must expect to have to conquer them before consolidating their gains.

Beyond all this, however, is the vital fact that Il Duce can't get control of the Suez canal and the eastern Mediterranean without smothering Egypt and conquering the British. He has troops massed on the Libyan border, presumably ready for the assault, but one wonders whether he won't pause before sending his forces out to make their way across more than 400 miles of blazing desert, with every oasis and water-hole heavily guarded by the British.

Or, to get right down to cases, the outcome of this whole African show is likely to be determined, not on the Sahara but on the English Channel. For as Hitler's blitzkrieg against England goes, so will go the conflict on the dark continent.

Should the Italians undertake the assault of Egypt, we shall have a campaign that will present the odious extreme of the terrible conditions under which the Russo-Finnish war was waged. Then wounded soldiers froze stiff as they fell in the killing.

Chance Seen On French Payment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau disclosed today that the United States was considering the possibility of taking World War debt payments out of frozen French funds in this country.

Whether the subject of war debts was raised at his press conference, the treasury chief said that before French funds are released he wants to see "what happens of American investments and debts over there."

The treasury head had referred many times to the possibility of offsetting American business and other losses in the invaded European countries against the funds of those countries being held here, but formerly he had given no reply to inquiries about World War indebtedness.

France alone owes this country about $4,000,000,000 from the last war.

Asked whether the freezing regulations, imposed upon the funds belonging to invaded nations and their peoples, also applied to Germany, Morgenthau replied:

"No, any amount of money can be sent to Germany, and there is nothing we can do about it. It's silly but we are at peace with Germany and cannot do anything about its funds."

Woman And Infant Killed In Crash

CAMERON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Mrs. C. B. Whitehurst of Dallas and an infant daughter, believed to be three or four years old, were killed in the collision of a truck and the Whitehurst machine seven miles east of here today.

Whitehurst, a Dallas postal employee, was critically injured and not expected to survive leg and body injuries. Another Whitehurst daughter, about 12 years old, received dangerous hurts, hospital attaches reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hughes of Upshur county, riding in the Whitehurst machine with their young daughter, were injured, but not seriously.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The house has voted to let American ships bring refugee children from war-torn nations to the United States, but the senate has yet to act.

Cook Held In Jail Charged With Murder

'Slim' Wilkinson Inflation Tire When Shot Fired

Examining trial of Willie Parks, cook charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting Wednesday of Boyd C. (Slim) Wilkinson, 27-year-old service station attendant, was set today for Monday by Justice of the Peace E. F. Young.

This date was set in order to allow time for the return to Pampa of District Attorney Clifford Braly and County Attorney Joe Gordon. Both these officials are in Colorado on vacation trips.

Wilkinson, a distant cousin of Pampa's chief of police, John B. Wilkinson, was shot at 5:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon while he was filling a tire with air at the Champion Super Service station, 422 S. Cuyler.

There were two shots fired, one of which went through Wilkinson's right arm and into his ribs. He was taken in a Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance to Worley hospital but was dead on arrival.

After the shooting, Parks walked away from the station. He was arrested nearby by Sheriff Cal Rose. County officials have in their possession a .38-caliber Smith & Wesson pistol allegedly used in the shooting.

Wilkinson Rites Pending

The body of Wilkinson is at the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home. Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of a brother, Fredon C. Wilkinson, of Devine.

Besides his brother, Wilkinson is survived by his wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wilkinson, Devine; and two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Flynn of Chulchoche and Mrs. Arthur Harrell of Graford.

Burial will likely occur at New-castle, his former home.

Wilkinson had been a Pampa resident for three and one-half years.

He and Parks, the man charged in the shooting, had been acquainted with each other for some time, as Parks frequented the station often.

Wilkinson was the only one on duty at the time of the shooting. One of the station proprietors said he had been away for about five minutes and was not at the station at the time of the shooting.

He said he could not say as to whether any conversation passed between the two men before the shooting or if they had been on unfriendly terms in the past.

In the complaint filed in justice court, Parks is charged with voluntarily and with malice aforethought, killing Boyd C. Wilkinson by shooting him with a gun. The complaint was dated today, and was sworn to by Sheriff Rose.

We Learn About Our Aliens

For the first time, the United States is going to get together some really complete information about its aliens.

The registration which will begin Aug. 27 and close Dec. 26 is a tremendous undertaking. Perhaps 3,600,000 residents, non-citizens, will be required to list with the government basic data about themselves, including their fingerprints.

Time was when a proceeding of this kind would have been regarded as smacking too much of European restriction to fit into the American picture. Scarcely today. Left to itself, the United States would never have adopted such a plan. But the impact of European tension on the world has brought about adoption of this registry almost without opposition.

Several things ought to be kept clearly in mind as the day approaches when all aliens must appear at one of 7300 registration centers to leave a record of themselves and their activities.

First, this is no witch-hunt. The definite assurance of Director Earl G. Harrison has been given that all loyal aliens will be protected from unfair attacks or discrimination. The fact that a person must register is nothing against him.

Second, there is no charge or fee in connection with the registration. Already unscrupulous persons have appeared, ready for a suitable fee to "help" aliens through the registration. No help is required except that which will be freely given through postoffices. The registration must not be allowed to open up a profitable source of graft by preying on ignorance.

Director Harrison is not expecting any widespread disclosures of criminal activities or Fifth Column work. He is convinced that the vast majority of aliens are peaceful and law-abiding.

Among the questions asked (with penalty for willful falsification) is one covering all membership or activities in clubs, organizations, and societies. Another covers connection with political activities of foreign governments.

Persecution and injustice could easily follow abuse of such information, and even of the mere fact of registration itself.

On the old Anglo-Saxon principle that all are innocent until proved guilty, all should guard against jumping to conclusions. The government has instituted the registration. The government is quite capable of taking any necessary action upon it in an orderly and legal manner.

Behind The News

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Until the Democrats pick a new chairman for their national committee to replace the irreparable Jim Farley, it will not be possible to say just how far the "amateur politician" management which put over the third term idea will be continued in the campaign.

Meanwhile, it ought to be noticed that Mr. Roosevelt's amateurs have done fairly well by themselves despite the fact that they have made a lot of the professionals pretty sore.

The line-up of the Democratic party today is unusual, in that effective control lies pretty much in the hands of men like Harry Hopkins and the brain-trusters. Boss-Mayors Kelly and Hague are useful, of course, and such Senate veterans as Barkley and Byrnes are in there pitching all the time. But the big decisions are all being handed down through Hopkins and his crowd. And for all their inexperience and lack of tact, the Hopkins group is getting exactly what it wants and making political veterans like Paul McNutt, Sam Rayburn, Carter Glass, Bennett Clark, and Speaker Bankhead take it and like it.

NO COMPROMISE ANYWHERE

As a matter of fact, the New Dealers rather surprise themselves by the extent of their success. A Roosevelt-Wallace ticket, a new national chairman to be named by the New Deal, complete defeat for the Garretites and the Wheeleries, no compromise anywhere along the line—this simply is more than the New Dealers themselves had counted on.

As a result, the attempt to rationalize the Chicago program is only now being made.

One explanation beginning to appear is that whether the party wins or loses in November is actually less important than the fact that the 1938 "purge" has now been completed. According to this theory, the way has finally been paved for making the Democratic party in effect, if not in name, a real farmer-labor party.

The farmer part of it comes in with the triumph of Secretary Wallace—who, incidentally, didn't himself know the President had picked him as a running mate until about 12 hours before the nomination. The labor part of course comes in with Roosevelt himself. Most of the important C. I. O. leaders are in line, and John L. Lewis himself is apparently preparing to swing into the column once more, despite his harsh words a few months ago.

CAN SPLIT BE HEALED?

However, the fact remains that the beginnings of a bad party split were made at Chicago. Healing that split stands as the big item on the party's immediate program.

Garner is probably gone for good, though much of his following can probably be wooed back into the fold if suitable harmonizing measures are taken. The much-talked-of bolt of "Willkie Democrats" so far hasn't taken away any important Democrats, but it is likely to before long unless something is done. And it is here that the New Dealers are going to have to take counsel with the more experienced party leaders—the men like Byrnes, Bankhead, Barkley, Harrison, and Wagner—if the party is to avoid real trouble.

Otherwise the present tentative "inner circle" analysis of what happened at Chicago is likely to be all too true: that the New Dealers put a triumph inside the party above a triumph at the polls.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOILES. This column contends there can be no satisfactory program until we measure the share of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

WHAT IS A CLOSED SHOP?

We hear a great deal about the open or closed shop, but few people attempt to define what they mean by the closed shop when they use the words. It is generally understood, I believe, that the closed shop means that everyone working in the establishment must belong to a union. This is one kind of a closed shop but probably is not the most dangerous kind. It is not the most dangerous because it, on the face of it, is so un-American, un-Democratic and un-Christian and shows such discrimination that the American citizen can see its perniciousness, unfairness and evil effects. It is easy to see it eventually means serfdom for those who are excluded from membership, or it means serfdom for those competing unions which might have some semblance of respect for the rights of other workers. It means in reality that the most tyrannical and the most cruel union and the one that is dominated by the most coercion will make serfs of any other group of union workers that has some respect for the rights of other people. Of course, the people they exclude will also be serfs.

The Most Dangerous Closed Shop

But there is another kind of closed shop that is more dangerous to the democratic form of government and the capitalistic system than the closed shop that means only members dare work. The real dangerous closed shop is a closed shop that simply establishes a minimum wage under which no man dare sell his services. This is dangerous and eventually leads to complete regimentation, tyranny and dictatorship because those unscrupulous individuals can establish a minimum wage so high and work seniority in the jobs so that all the rest of the world are their serfs.

This kind of a minimum wage closed shop entered into by unpatriotic or thoughtless employers and employees interferes with the free exchange of goods and services and throws everything out of balance and causes unemployment and eventually complete collapse of free enterprise.

Any agreement that establishes a minimum wage either shows that the parties entering into the agreement are selfish or thoughtless because there is no way of determining what the minimum wage should be other than a free market to establish it. Any attempt to arbitrarily establish minimum wages is a closed shop of the worst form because it stealthily and slowly creeps over society and eventually takes away their economic, moral and spiritual freedom. It is a form of creeping paralysis. Beware of any form of closed shop, if you believe in the principles of Christianity and Americanism.

DESTROY TO HAVE MORE

A news report that some $500 worth of Federal supplies, intended for the needy, were destroyed and thrown on the Los Angeles dump and the explanation of the rulling made by the head of the WPA, shows the real short-sightedness and inconsistency of the whole New Deal scheme. Their whole scheme is that we can live better by destroying wealth and preventing people from working.

I quote the regulations: "Unserviceable or damaged property having no salable value, ordered destroyed on an approved Report of Survey, shall be destroyed by the warehouse superintendent, witnessed by a representative of the Survey Reviewing Authority. If total destruction is not possible, the items shall be reduced to non-salable residue and disposed of at a public dump."

Now here we have a great government deliberately destroying things so that they are not useful. No country can ever be prosperous or have a high standard of living when we are so foolish as to put people in office who believe and put into effect rulings that make the government destroy wealth.

This is just the same kind of philosophy as killing the pigs and paying people for not producing and subsidizing wealth to be shipped out of this country. We are certainly "babes in the woods," when it comes to political economy and good government.

The Nation's Press

A TWO OCEAN WAR FOR A ONE OCEAN FLEET

Mr. Roosevelt placed oil and scrap metal under export license by an order of July 25. Immediately it was announced that the shipment to Spain had been stopped and that the maritime commission had refused charter to American ships to carry oil to Japan. License was granted for the shipment of scrap to Russia. Stalin is still in good standing.

The British have decided that this is not the time to have trouble in the far east. Mr. Churchill's government has yielded to Japan on the Burma road. For three months it will be closed to supplies for the Chinese. The ministry in London used necessity as a defense of its act against criticism. The injury to the Chinese was not what the British chose to inflict. It was dictated to them by their own national emergencies. They have war enough on their hands.

Secretary Hull rebuked the British for closing the road. He said it was a violation of rights. It stopped lawful trade and aided an aggressor. Presumably the next move in Washington will be to embargo the shipment of scrap and oil to Japan by refusing to issue licenses. Japan is the biggest buyer of American scrap.

Also representatives of the American nations have been consulting in Havana because they are concerned with new problems of national security of the American fleet, the only available guarantee of that security, is in the Pacific. We are told that the danger is in the Atlantic. We are told it is so great that congress must draft Americans of military age and qualifications. By October the draft boards may be drawing the names of conscripts out of a bowl.

The fleet is in the Pacific when the danger is said to be in the Atlantic. It is in the Pacific because the relations with Japan are bad. They are bad and they are to be made worse. The United States, just when it is affirming that the Atlantic coast line of the western hemisphere is in danger, keeps its fleet in another sea because it does not like what the Japanese are doing to the Chinese. We don't like it and, for more material reasons than ours, the British do not like it. Part of their empire is involved. But the British will act rationally. They will reduce the area of conflict. The Washington government seems determined to spread it wherever possible.

Alone At Long Last

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON, NEA Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 8.—From two individual sources which ordinarily I'd consider reliable, this department has heard that Germany is censoring American pictures in three South American countries, and that the governments have agreed tacitly to suppress any films disapproved by Nazi diplomatic representatives.

The situation seems a little overstated. The U. S. Department of Commerce doesn't know about it, anyway, and the Producers' association denies it.

All the same, I'm pretty sure that this has had a lot to do with the movies' quick swing away from anti-Nazi subjects. There is some proof in the current Claudette Colbert-Ray Millard picture, "Arise My Love."

The story is based somewhat on the experience of Harold Dahl, the American flyer who, captured and condemned by General Franco, was rescued by the British. From there on, through, the character of the wife seems to be modeled after Dorothy Thompson. Anyway, the comedy proceeds to Nazis. And almost every reference to Germany or Hitler is being filmed in two versions—one definitely anti-Nazi, the other with most of the scenes removed. The latter will be used in South America.

The colony is chuckling at a prominent actor whose wife recently left him with the intention of suing for divorce. With the breaking up of their home, says the actor, his mother-in-law agreed to take care of the details of closing the house and paying off the servants. So he and a signed check with the amount left blank—and she took his entire bank account.

Until recently, when he went off contract at one studio, the actor had been working steadily for several years and had deposited quite a lot of cash. Yet, when he began a picture on another lot the other day, he had to borrow eating money for the week! And his wife's family are wealthy!

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy are co-starring in "Bitter-Sweet." Recording a song for the picture, Eddy gargled a couple of notes and spoiled a take. "Where's Allan Jones?" asked W. S. Van Dyke, the director. "Is he busy right now?"

"Maybe we could get him," said Miss MacDonald. "But how about Lawrence Tibbett. I'm sure."

"Now you've got something!" exclaimed Eddy. "Tibbett and Grace Moore—the perfect team for this picture!"

There's a strong indication of the new order of practical picture-making in a move by Warner Brothers which will be a local sensation. The studio is going to fire Paul Muni and Director William Dieterle. This is not a mere refusal to renew contracts. The stellar actor and director are being ousted before their contracts have expired and will be given settlements.

Both men were regarded as too domineering and argumentative and temperamental. Muni always raised Cain about his scripts and has insisted on changes which hurt his picture at the box office. Currently he has been making trouble about "High Sierra," slated for his next flicker. Dieterle has refused to direct numerous stories, and in turn

OUR DEFENSE-- The Cavalry

Yes, there still is cavalry. The cavalry is very explicit on that subject. The cavalry is usually what gets to the fight first. They may come on horses, as there are some territories where a horse is still the best means of going places. But a large number gallop up in armored cars and in combat cars, that look, and—if you are on the receiving end—feel just like tanks. In fact they are tanks. Tucked away in the cavalry are even men mounted on motorcycles. The cavalry is still the fastest-moving ground-fighting arm.

The cavalry stays out in front of the main army, exploring the ground ahead. Because of its ability to move and fast it is supposed to spend a good portion of time in the enemy's rear lines making a mess of things. To move being its prime function, a cavalry regiment needs the wherewithal to get places, and the job devolving on the National Defense Advisory commission, in respect to the cavalry, is to tell the army where, and when, and how, it can procure that transportation.

When it comes to horses for the horse cavalry, the commission bows to the army. They have been buying and one article necessary to keep a cavalry division in the running are hand when and where they are needed, even if a day's run may put them anywhere in 270,000 square miles of territory. But behind the army there must be another organization ready to find the supplies in the necessary quantity and get them to where the army can take them over. That is the job of the National Defense Advisory commission. And it has to be done, not only for the cavalry, but for every other branch of the army and navy as well. That is why the commission, for instance, has recommended that supplies of strategic materials be tucked away for future reference.

Mechanized Cavalry A mechanized cavalry regiment is made up of four combat car troops of about 100 men each. These are the striking power of the mechanized cavalry. Many of these may be shortly be fitted out with heavy machine guns, mortars, and howitzers, which can be taken apart and made up into several suitable one-horse loads. Just for information, the cavalry, when it gets to a fight, dismounts and sends the horses back.

There is a troop service which provides for transportation and maintenance. The reconnaissance troop is used by the regimental commander to find out where the enemy is at any given moment. Like the combat cars, all the command cars are equipped with machine guns, and two-way radios so that the commanders are set up to give orders to their units whether they are moving or waiting to move. So it is that every part of a mechanized cavalry regiment is able to roll, and it has a tremendous fire power, which makes it a hell-on-wheels.

For weapons the mechanized cavalry has pistols, rifles, 30 caliber air-cooled machine guns, 30 caliber water-cooled heavy machine-guns, 50-caliber machine guns and 37 mm. guns (both used as anti-tank guns) and a 42-inch mortar to fire smoke shells. These shells are used as protection against enemy anti-tank guns. And to add a typically American touch, the cavalry is supplied with the famous "Tommy guns," beloved of the prohibition wars.

A cavalry division also has all the units of the infantry division. For example, it has a field artillery unit, drawn by six-horse teams in a horse cavalry unit and by trucks in a mechanized unit. The distinguishing mark of the cavalry division is that it contains no one who habitually walks.

Keep The Cavalry Rolling Now to keep all the rolling stock of a cavalry division able to roll takes considerable organization. There have to be men able to make a gasoline or diesel motor purr when the motor may want to quit. There has fought for stories which the studio didn't like.

Guardsmen At Camp Beauregard 'Stuck'

CAMP BEAUREGARD, La., Aug. 8 (AP)—Southern national guardsmen here for war maneuvers are getting some immunization treatment for malaria, a tropical disease, but the army says officially it's only routine.

Questions as to whether tests were being made to determine how best to treat any army called to service in such hot climates as Central and South America drew no comment from officers. Press headquarters said it was "routine and not experimental."

The malaria germ is carried by the mosquito and it was only after that pest was curbed that the United States was able to build the Panama Canal. Many soldiers died of the disease in Cuba during the Spanish-American war.

Bogged down in a sea of mud and rain, by-product of a tropical hurricane which swept along the Gulf of Mexico coast, guardsmen marked time today awaiting clearing skies. The storm yesterday swept the tented cities in which troops are bivouacked, confining thousands to quarters.

Clearing skies promised a start of training for 20,000 troops at Camp Shelby, Miss.

Oil Operating Bodies In Mexico Aug Merged

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 8 (AP)—Three government agencies operating the $400,000,000 Mexican oil industry since foreign companies' properties were expropriated have been merged.

The chamber of deputies unanimously approved last night an act proposed by President Cardenas incorporating the petroleum administration and petroleum distribution department into the third body, Petroleos Mexicanos.

The unified agency will be directed by a board of nine administrators, five to be named by the government and the rest by the oil workers' union.

Italians Claim Zeila Captured

ROME, Aug. 8 (AP)—Italian occupation of Zeila, westernmost port in British Somaliland, is the first step in a move by the Italians to join British and French Somaliland with Italian Somaliland in the African offensive now under way, a high fascist authority indicated today.

(British sources in London said today Britain might give Italy a "cheap victory" in British Somaliland by withdrawing her forces from desert wastes considered not worth defending.)

The capture of Zeila described officially as of great strategic importance, was announced in today's high command communique, which said Zeila had been taken after a three-day march from Ethiopia, 50 miles from Zeila at the nearest point.

(The British announced loss of Zeila yesterday.) Zeila, and Berbera, capital of British Somaliland and largest port in the protectorate, are natural outlets to the Gulf of Aden—a sort of window on the Indian ocean—Italians said.

They said these ports were much better for their new empire in Ethiopia than Jibuti, in French Somaliland.

The Italian communique today said their armored columns, accompanied by bombing planes, were well advanced on the way to Berbera, having occupied Oadweina on Tuesday, as well as Hargeisa.

Eight or about 30 miles inside the arid country, but a difficult march of 100 miles through rough terrain remains from Hargeisa, the nearest point, to Berbera.

The Italian communique said nothing of land operations near Bardia, where the British yesterday said the Italians were concentrating for an apparent offensive against Egypt along the Mediterranean coast.

Destruction of four British planes—three bombed on the ground at Wajir, Kenya colony, and the other shot down in an air fight—also was reported.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Vargas Is Dictator—South American Style

GETULIO VARGAS, pictured with President Franklin D. Roosevelt on Brazil's Pan American commemorative stamp above, is dictator of the world's fourth largest country. He rules the destinies of Brazil's 43,000,000 inhabitants by decree, controls everything from bus fares to coffee prices.

This small, Napoleon-like dictator wants no Fascism in Brazil, wanted a machine gun in 1938, when a Green Shirt organization tried to oust him. Result of that revolt was a series of decrees curtailing German efforts to make Nazis out of Brazilians.

Vargas staged his own revolution in 1930 to seize power, after being defeated in a presidential election which he charged was fixed. He has remained in office since then, revising the constitution when necessary. His present term expires in 1943.

"Brazil for Brazilians" has been his motto. He has developed government-sponsored industries, controlled commerce, regulated private business. His rule is gentle, but he can be firm with opponents.

JUST WHAT IS A "DEMOCRACY?" By GUS W. DYER, Professor of Economics and Sociology, Vanderbilt University

Few other words have been so outrageously abused as the word "democracy." The word no longer means anything in particular. In general and all over the world, it is capitalized by radicals to win and hold the allegiance of the unthinking crowd to their programs.

It is grossly misleading to classify American a constitutional democracy with the "democracies" as understood and interpreted by the radicals. To the modern radical "democracy" is a government under the absolute control of the administration in power, and the administration in power is under the control of the majority of those who go to the polls and vote. Such a "democracy" is free from any constitutional limitations, and may do anything that those in control of the government may will to do.

The advocates of "democracy" of this type are organized into three separate groups or parties in this country—the socialists, the communists, and the New Dealers. All three of these groups are seeking by different methods to convert our American form of constitutional government into a "democracy" as they define the term. The socialists would persuade the voters to abolish the constitutional system. The communists would persuade the voters to reach their revolutionary objective. The New Dealers have adopted the method of indirectness. It is a recognized principle of law that nothing can be done indirectly that is prohibited when done directly. This principle of law seems now to have little force as the following examples tend to indicate.

(1) The Administration has no sort of authority under the Constitution to dictate to nor to interfere with the decisions of the Supreme Court. But when the decisions of the Court became distasteful to the President he resorted to his policy of indirectness to control those decisions by changing the personnel of the Court. Constitution gives no authority to the Federal Government to go into business in competition with private business. But by the concentration of the ownership of the electric power business on an unlimited scale under the constitutional authority of improving navigation on rivers even though those rivers have no navigation provisions. The American constitutional system can be completely destroyed by the subversive "use of indirectness."

The prime purpose of the founders of the American system was to establish a government that would protect fundamental human rights, and the essential principles of social stability and industrial progress against the hazards of irresponsible majority rule.

Yesteryear In The News

Ten Years Ago Today A number of local people were planning to attend the annual horse show in Panhandle at the Ellis track.

An unestimated portion of the citizens of precincts 1, 2, and 3 went to the polls to decide whether $2,000,000 in bonds should be issued to pave and improve the highways in road district No. 5.

Captain Owen Dies In Truck-Car Crash

HOUSTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Captain A. N. Owen, 58, in charge of the Harlem state prison farm near Sugar Land, died in a hospital here at 8:40 a. m. today, 30 minutes after the automobile in which he was riding alone was in collision with a heavy moving van on the Houston-San Antonio highway.

The collision occurred two miles this side of Missouri City, just inside Harris county. The driver of the van was uninjured. The telephorus beetle is influenced by the magnetic poles.

WCTU Introduces Beverage Board

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance union introduced the "beverage board" today as a handy gadget for the nation's drinkers of non-alcoholic liquids. It's simply a board covered with gaily-colored oilcloth and set on legs, with an olecloth "hoop skirt" hiding the ice bucket and jugs of fruit or berry juices. Its equipment of glasses, cups, straws, napkins and pitchers should be in matching colors. Mrs. Blanch Pennington of Huntington, Pa., director of the W. C. T. U. non-alcoholic fruit products department, said the contrivance should not be mistaken for a portable cocktail bar. "No, indeed," she said, "it is not a bar; it must not be called a bar. It is a beverage board."

FDR To Confer With Hopkins And Wallace

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 8 (AP)—A conference with Secretaries Wallace and Hopkins, which may set the course for the Democratic campaign, was the major item on President Roosevelt's schedule today. There was nothing to indicate whether the three would disclose immediately any strategy that might be devised, particularly since Wallace, the vice-presidential nominee, has said he would keep out of the political arena until he has accepted his nomination officially. He will do that about August 20.

Germans Lay Mines In British Harbors

BERLIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—German planes laid mines at the entrances of several English harbors last night and attacked a number of armament works and anti-aircraft and searchlight positions, the German high command announced today. The communique said motor works in Leyland, the Vickers-Armstrong plant at Chester, airplane works at Yeovil and industrial plants at Plymouth were targets of bombers. It listed British defense positions at Manchester, Cardiff, Dorchester and Plymouth as additional objectives. British raids over north and western Germany last night were said to have been carried out "without causing much damage." Fires in a suburb of Essen and at Datteln were reported to have been extinguished quickly. Two British planes were reported shot down. The Germans said one of their submarines sank three armed enemy merchant ships of over 16,000 tons. One-tenth of the world's crops annually are destroyed by insects.

Change In Hatch Bill Favored By Willkie

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 8 (AP)—Aldes of Wendell L. Willkie said today he would ask former President Herbert Hoover and Al M. Landon, the 1936 Republican nominee, to support his demand for broad amendments to the Hatch anti-politics law. Willkie told his press conference yesterday the existing act should be amended to require the President, cabinet officers and all others now exempt officials to file sworn statements of their assets upon taking office and upon leaving office. He added that another desirable amendment would be a provision prohibiting any member of a family of an official from receiving compensation for representing clients before federal agencies. If he is elected, Willkie said, he and members of his family will file statements of personal assets with the secretary of state regardless of whether the Hatch law is amended.

Economic Plan For Americas Being Studied

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The American republics began formal consideration today of methods to relieve and develop the economy of this hemisphere under the broad program adopted at the Havana conference of foreign ministers. The inter-American financial and economic committee, composed of representatives of 21 nations, set aside its weekly meeting to a detailed study of the measures approved at Havana and steps necessary to carry them out. Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state and committee chairman, said it would canvass the field of existing and prospective economic problems growing out of the European war and the application of proposed remedies. Heading the list was the mounting surplus of commodities of some Latin American countries to which former European markets have been closed by the war. Spearhead of the United States attack on this is the administration bill before congress to increase the lending power of the export-import bank by $500,000,000. Jesse Jones, federal loan administrator, testifying in support of the bill before the house banking committee yesterday, said the potential benefits of loans to South and Central American countries justified the risk of losses from revolutions or debt renunciations. Secretary of State Hull called the measure essential to economic defense of the hemisphere. Hazlewood to Give 3 Radio Addresses. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, candidate for state senator of the 31st district will give three radio talks over station KGNC in Amarillo according to word received here. Talks will be made at 1 p. m., August 10; 1 p. m., August 12; and at 7:30 p. m., August 15. Grady Hazlewood is of pioneer Panhandle stock, his family having lived in Miami before 1900. He grew up on a farm near Silverton and between school terms, he freighted hogs to Tulsa before the time of railroads. In 1920 his family moved to Canyon where Grady entered West Texas State college. After working his way through college, he entered the law school of our state university, working and studying to a degree there in 1926. Returning to Canyon, Grady Hazlewood was appointed assistant district attorney of the 47th district. He served six years as assistant district attorney and then four years as district attorney of this same 47th district. Following this service, he has attended to private law practice and owned and operated a farm in Deaf Smith county. In addition to his busy professional and business life, Grady has always found time to be of service in the civic and church life of his community. He has been superintendent of the Young People's department of one of the leading churches in Amarillo for four years, most of this time he was also teacher for this mixed group of young people. Forum Held By Pampa Rotarians

Current events provided the theme of the program of the Pampa Rotary club at its regular weekly luncheon at noon Wednesday.

The program was in charge of Ernest C. H. Everett, who asked five questions of current interest. Names were drawn from an envelope, and Rotarians discussed the questions in turn.

First query was: do you agree with General Pershing that we should send 50 destroyers to the aid of England? This question was answered by Otis Humphrey, De Lea Vicars, and Walter Daugherty.

Do you agree with Cordell Hull that an economic bloc should be formed by the United States with Latin-America to counteract dictatorship, was the second question, answered by John Haynes, Frank Foster, Irwin Cole, Doyle F. Osborne, Charlie Burton, club president.

Neil McCullough, Hol Wagner, Joe Burrow, Lions club president, and Ross Buzzard, junior Rotarian, were those discussing the third question, do you favor the Burke-Wadsworth bill for compulsory military training?

The proposal of Josh Lee of Oklahoma that wealth as well as manpower be conscripted in time of war was the subject of the fourth interrogation, discussed by Grover Healy, W. P. Ford, and Tom Perkins.

C. A. Huff, Joe Key, Travis Lively, C. P. Buckler, Mark Van Tine, and Steve Matthews were speakers on the fifth query, the two major proposals for raising revenue in Texas are the sales tax and the resources tax— which do you favor and why?

President Burton and Walter Daugherty, secretary, will leave Sunday afternoon for Vernon, where the 127th district assembly will be held at the Wilbarger hotel on the following day.

Attendance at the luncheon yesterday was 41, including three visiting Rotarians, Riney Rheinboldt of Borger, John L. Nunn, Shamrock, and C. H. Everett, Ardmore, Okla., and Tom Rose, Jr., Aubrey Steels, A. C. Cox, Roy McMillen, Lions club secretary.

Anti-Aircraft Gun Mount To Cost $9.80

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 8 (AP)—Development of a new anti-aircraft machine gun mount, costing only $9.80, which might revolutionize defense tactics, was disclosed here today by the army during its current gigantic maneuvers in southwest Washington.

The new device permits the mounting of 50 caliber anti-aircraft machine guns on any type of truck, thus making it possible for the army to commandeer whole fleets of commercial vehicles at a moment's notice and send them over the countryside to fire at planes.

The mount was developed by the 65th coast artillery anti-aircraft regiment.

Life Must Go On

War or no war—life must go on for civilians. Hungry mouths must be fed, clothes must be bought, shelter must be paid for. So Parisians, grown desperate as their savings dwindle, turn to the paper marks of their German conquerors—for the marks are worth 20 francs apiece. This exclusive first photo of German-ruled Paris shows French men and women selling souvenirs to Nazi soldiers. The scene is the world-famous Place de la Concorde. threatening Japan in the other direction.

By her advances through British Somaliland, Italy is seeking to reach a vantage point looking toward the eastern and middle eastern empire, much of which is dominated by Moslems.

While repeating the government's offer of dominion status for India's 350,000,000 people, the statement reiterated unwillingness to undertake "fundamental constitutional issues" in the midst of war and held off devising of a new framework of government until after the war—delay which has been criticized by ardent nationalists in India.

On another point, however, the government gave assent to the setting up, after the war, "with the least possible delay" of a body representative of the principal elements in Indian national life in order to devise the framework of the new constitution x x x.

The government promised "every aid in their power" in this task. "India's anxiety at this moment of critical importance in the world struggle against tyranny and aggression to contribute fully to the common cause and to the triumph of our common ideals is manifest," the statement said.

"She has already made a mighty contribution. She is anxious to make a greater contribution still. Her majesty's government in this moment of national purpose in India which would enable her to do so should be achieved at as early a date as possible."

Huge Farm Poster Received By Thomas

Reminiscent of the posters of World War I, is the huge lithograph that covers the east wall of one of the offices of the county farm agent.

The poster, received three days ago, is titled "Our Country—Let's Conserve It," and depicts a farm family atop a green hill, looking down on a prosperous appearing village.

In the background are insets of the Mayflower, the Spirit of '76, the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and a covered wagon train.

A sub-heading on the poster reads: "AAA Farm Program Helps Farmers Hold the Soil for the Nation."

Six Arsenals To Work Full Time

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Orders went out from the war department today to place six army arsenals on a three-shift, day-and-night operating schedule in order to increase production of guns and ammunition at least 65 per cent.

Officials said the three-shift plan, effective Aug. 10, would make possible the employment of more than 8,000 additional skilled mechanics and possibly 16,000 semi-skilled and unskilled workers.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—Most traders again held on to their cash in today's stock market and left leaders to rustle for themselves in exceptionally narrow territory.

Definite trends were lacking and about the best that could be said for the list, as a whole, was that it never encountered any real selling.

Transfers ran to around 200,000 shares. Brokers virtually were unanimous in assigning the blame for the lengthy market stalemate to the European war, favorable business items, including dividends and earnings, were without particular influence.

What concessions Britain is prepared to make to India, where nationalist demands for independence have been rebuffed, were expected to be outlined in parliament today at the same time that a government white paper on India policy will be ready for publication.

After a night of comparative quiet, German bombers carried out a heavy raid on Great Britain during the night, dropping bombs and leaflets containing extracts of Hitler's recent Reichstag address.

A British communiqué said casualties were few and damage slight except that in one town in the northeast part of England a sanatorium and shop property suffered considerably.

In Africa Italians held the port of Zella, seized in a short march from French Somaliland, and aimed a principal drive across British Somaliland toward Berbera. The British said massed Libyan troops have not yet pushed across the frontier into the west Egyptian desert.

In France the new supreme court was called to its first session today at Riom with its No. 1 job a lengthy, far-reaching investigation to fix the blame for France's war blunders and to punish the guilty.

Hungary served notice on Rumania that she would be content with no less than 75 per cent of the Rumanian province of Transylvania in their territorial dispute in which Adolf Hitler is said to have advised Rumania to settle promptly. Rumanian negotiations with Bulgaria over the latter's claims on southern Dobruja were scheduled to open today.

Rumania, cleaving close to the Nazi pattern, worked out new laws limiting the rights and activities of Jews and making them liable to special taxes.

The United States speeded its defense armament program by putting army arsenals on a three-shift basis. Senate anti-conscription leaders lost a move to muster the national guard for federal service on a voluntary instead of the compulsory basis. The house passed and sent to the senate a neutrality amendment that would allow U. S. ships to enter war zones to bring back child refugees.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 8 (AP)—America's first army, spurred by orders of its commanding officers, accelerated the tempo of northern New York's gigantic training maneuvers today with an unprecedented emphasis on offensive tactics.

Instructed by Lieut. General Hugh A. Drum that the main objective of the three and a half weeks of war games is to train the nearly 100,000 troops to be "offensive fighters" and "secure decision by offensive action," officers swung the smaller units into a program based on "carrying the fight to the enemy."

FIFTY PLANES

fighting plane, picked out of a bomber, and shot swiftly in flames to the channel.

Six of the German planes lost were bombers, the others chasers and escort planes.

But even as Britons cheered this new evidence of growing power of the RAF, many were concerned with developments in that hot dry corner of northeast Africa where a British force, in the Kipling tradition, sought to block Italy's intended conquest of the continent.

British military authorities in London, pending capture of Zella in British Somaliland, expressed belief the Fascist forces would have a tough time taking Berbera, principal port of the country, and connected with Zella by a 150-mile motor road. An Italian advance along this road could be placed under constant fire from air and land and perhaps from sea.

Meanwhile as the British kept one eye on the menace of a blitzkrieg and the other on Mussolini's African campaign, the people waited to hear the announcement of important policies regarding India.

One objective appeared to be to tap the wealth of the Indian empire in men and gold, both vital to the British war effort and of especial significance in view of the Italian threat.

What concessions Britain is prepared to make to India, where nationalist demands for independence have been rebuffed, were expected to be outlined in parliament today at the same time that a government white paper on India policy will be ready for publication.

After a night of comparative quiet, German bombers carried out a heavy raid on Great Britain during the night, dropping bombs and leaflets containing extracts of Hitler's recent Reichstag address.

A British communiqué said casualties were few and damage slight except that in one town in the northeast part of England a sanatorium and shop property suffered considerably.

In Africa Italians held the port of Zella, seized in a short march from French Somaliland, and aimed a principal drive across British Somaliland toward Berbera. The British said massed Libyan troops have not yet pushed across the frontier into the west Egyptian desert.

In France the new supreme court was called to its first session today at Riom with its No. 1 job a lengthy, far-reaching investigation to fix the blame for France's war blunders and to punish the guilty.

Hungary served notice on Rumania that she would be content with no less than 75 per cent of the Rumanian province of Transylvania in their territorial dispute in which Adolf Hitler is said to have advised Rumania to settle promptly. Rumanian negotiations with Bulgaria over the latter's claims on southern Dobruja were scheduled to open today.

Rumania, cleaving close to the Nazi pattern, worked out new laws limiting the rights and activities of Jews and making them liable to special taxes.

The United States speeded its defense armament program by putting army arsenals on a three-shift basis. Senate anti-conscription leaders lost a move to muster the national guard for federal service on a voluntary instead of the compulsory basis. The house passed and sent to the senate a neutrality amendment that would allow U. S. ships to enter war zones to bring back child refugees.

Solons Won't Let Guardsmen Quit

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Senate rejection of a proposal to let national guardsmen resign rather than enter active training pushed the militia mobilization bill to the verge of passage today.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, sought a vote by 3 p. m. CST on the measure, which would authorize the president to call the guards and the officers reserve corps into service for a year. Both advocates and opponents agreed it would win approval.

The amendment to give guardsmen and reserves 20 days after the bill's passage in which they could turn in their uniforms failed yesterday 47 to 36. It was offered by Senator Danaher (R-Conn.), who contended that many men had enlisted in the belief they would not be called to duty outside their own states unless congress declared war.

Administration senators argued the guardsmen had enlisted to serve the nation in any emergency and should not be permitted to quit at a time when they were needed.

Neither side, however, acknowledged the vote as a clean-cut test of sentiment on the main controversy—whether conscription should be ordered to supplement the militia or whether voluntary army enlistments should be sought. Anti-conscription leaders supported Danaher's proposal.

As soon as the guard bill is acted upon, the senate will take up the Burke-Wadsworth conscription measure. A closely-knit group of senators met yesterday in the office of Senator Norris (Ind-Neb.) to plan for a "full debate, no compromise fight" against the legislation.

The bill as approved by the senate military committee would require registration of all men from 21 to 30, inclusive, followed by a selective draft for a year's training.

The conscription bill probably will not come up for consideration until the senate has acted, because its military committee is going to reopen its hearings.

temperature of 52 degrees below zero. Now men will be called to fight under a sun which registers may be 125 degrees and produces a soil temperature of 175 degrees.

It seems almost impossible that the shift be able to conduct war under such conditions. Actually, however, acclimatized troops get along first rate, with proper care.

The fortunes of Italy in an Egyptian campaign will rest in the hands of one of the greatest desert fighters of the world—Mehdi Graziani, conqueror of Cirenaica and Libya. The marshal knows all the tricks of the sands, as he will need to know, for he will be up against British officers who represent generations of training in desert warfare.

Farley said in his letter of resignation, dated yesterday, that he, too, felt sincere regret at taking the step, listed accomplishments of the postal service, and added:

"I know that it will please you to learn that I have made definite arrangements for my future in private business where I know I shall be very happy."

Detroit Purchases Young Dutch Meyer

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 6 (AP)—L. D. (Dutch) Meyer, hard-hitting young second baseman of the Knoxville baseball club, was sold today to the Detroit Tigers. Secretary Edgar Allen announced.

The Knoxville club received for Meyer an unannounced sum of cash and two players yet to be selected. Meyer will report to Detroit immediately, Allen said.

Meyer, a former football star at Texas Christian University, is leading the southern association in home runs with 22. In runs batted in with 96 and has a batting mark of .331. He has been a member of the league's all-star team for the last two years.

Candidate With No Promises SEATTLE, Aug. 8 (AP)—John W. Aiken, Chelsea, Mass., running for president on the Socialist Labor party ticket, refuses to make campaign promises.

Asked why he doesn't, Aiken said: "That's simple, I know I haven't a chance to be elected."

War Blame Trial Opens In France

(By JOHN LLOYD) RIOM, France, Aug. 8 (AP)—The formal setting way for several days' trials called here "the greatest trial in French history," was laid today in this ancient city where the supreme court of defeated France will sit to determine who and how many led the nation to disaster and what punishment they should suffer.

Inauguration of the nation's new high tribunal, brought into being by the Petain-Laval government and charged specifically with judging acts of men of previous regimes, will lead at once to exhaustive investigation of factors which involved France in an ill-fated war against Germany.

Today's brief ceremony turns over the tribunal to 62-year-old Pierre Gaois who, as president of the supreme court, will have direct charge of the trials.

The war-blame inquiry itself may not get under way for several days, but even months of judicial investigation may ensue before the defendants are officially named and specific charges entered against them.

War who have been mentioned in the French press include former Premier Edouard Daladier, his successor Paul Reynaud, General Maurice Gamelin, former (Popular Front) Premier Leon Blum, former Air Minister Pierre Cot and former Minister of Interior Georges Mandel. How many will face formal charges remains for the court to decide.

Red Cross Estimates 5,000,000 Homeless

PARIS (Via Berlin), Aug. 6 (Delayed) (AP)—Richard F. Allen, Red Cross official in charge of distributing food and clothing received from the United States on the relief ship McKeesport, estimated today there are about 5,000,000 refugees in the part of France unoccupied by the German forces.

He added that there are between 1,000 and 2,500 Americans in the area.

Allen said three-quarters of the food and clothing received on the McKeesport had been distributed to the departments in the unoccupied territory.

The refugees, Allen said, include 3,500,000 French, 1,000,000 Belgians, and 500,000 Germans, Austrians, Netherlands, Luxembourgers and Spanish. Most of them are living in hotels or homes and very few in camps or barracks.

Five-Year-Old Girl Has Set Of False Teeth

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Aug. 8 (AP)—A full set of false teeth is helping five-year-old Barbara Jean Bates restore her health so she can start to school this fall.

A pre-school health checkup disclosed her baby teeth had decayed, leaving only the roots and causing poor general health.

Complete false teeth were provided. Now the girl is gaining weight and as she grows, new plates will be fitted until her second teeth come in.

Japanese Vote To Drive British Out

TOKYO, Aug. 8 (AP)—One hundred and twenty-six members of the Diet (parliament) adopted a resolution today urging the government to take "all available and effective measures to drive British influence from east Asia."

Britain's arrest of prominent Japanese business men in her empire were declared "purely retaliatory" and "unpardonably atrocious" acts.

Five Pampa Boys Enlist In Army

There is still a good selection of vacancies in the U. S. army, some of which are infantry, field artillery, coast artillery, quartermaster, and medical department. They are located in Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado.

The following boys were sent from the Pampa recruiting office in the last few days: William F. Alford, Lemuel R. Goodwin, Raymond H. Johnson, Clovis E. Lockhart, Robert S. Mitchell, and Virgil T. Simmons, all of Pampa; John J. Archer, of LaFors and Kecton C. Rhodes of Clovis, New Mexico.

There is still a demand for flying cadets in the army. Any young men between the age of 20 and 27 that have two years of college and possess the required physical ability are eligible. For information see Corporal Harvey M. Gist at the local recruiting office in the postoffice building, open every day except Sundays.

Pilot Crashes In Blazing Plane

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Heroism of a British pilot who crashed to his death in the sea in a blazing plane saved a southeast coast town from a disaster today.

The pilot remained at his controls to avert what appeared to be an inevitable crash into buildings of the town. As a result of his guidance, the plane fell in the water 50 yards from shore.

Japanese Army Looking South

SHANGHAI, Aug. 8 (AP)—Trustworthy foreign sources said today the Japanese army and navy is speeding preparations for further moves southward, in the direction of French Indo-China and the Dutch East Indies.

A lightning Japanese thrust, these informants predicted, would be timed to coincide with an attempt by Adolf Hitler to start his long-threatened invasion of England.

In the event Hitler failed to move, it was believed Japan would proceed cautiously but inevitably toward further extension of her influence.

At the moment the immediate point of pressure is French Indo-China, today said the return of General Isaku Nishihara, head of a Japanese economic mission, from Tokyo conferences was taken to indicate Japan would be content at present to pursue her aims through "persuasion."

What the Japanese want most now is the right to transport troops and supplies over the French Indo-China railway to Yunnan province for a drive against Chinese-held Kunming, key city to southwest China. In the event of resistance, Japan was said to be ready to attack. This almost certainly would extend the Chinese-Japanese war to French Indo-China, since the Chungking government of Chiang Kai-Shek has announced it would send troops there to battle any Japanese invasion.

Lubbock To Make Last Pampa Stand Tonight

5 Oilers Will Play In Dream Game Friday

The Pampa Oilers and Lubbock Hubbers split a doubleheader here last night, Lubbock taking the opener 15 to 2 and Pampa the nightcap 10 to 5. The two teams will play their last scheduled game of the season here tonight, providing not too much rain falls.

No game will be played Friday night, date of the league All-Star game in Amarillo. On Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, the Lamesa Lobos will be here.

Five Pampa players will appear in the Dream Game in Amarillo. They will be Prather, Seitz, Hallbour, Dilbeck, and Malvica.

Lubbock's mighty Hubbers tied off on Gus Hallbour in the opening game last night for 16 hits in seven innings while the Oilers could do no more than five hits off Williams, who got away to a shaky start.

Drake led the assault on Hallbour with a double, triple and two singles. Manager Charlie Engle followed with a triple and two singles.

Phil Potter blasted a triple and single for the Oilers.

The Hubbers looked like tennis players hitting for the corners and the Oilers as they dropped hits from lefthanded batters on the left field foul line and drives from right-handed hitters along the right field foul line. Potter also got a line shot on his triple.

The big blowup came in the third when Williams, Niedziela and Hajduk bagged singles and Drake and Engle triples, both hitting the foul line. The visitors teed off for six more in the fifth and closed the assault with four in the sixth.

"Long John" McPartland allowed the Hubbers to get a three-run lead in the opening of the second game but the Oilers came back with five in their time at the plate. Niedziela opened proceedings with a single but was forced at second. Schweda fanned. Hajduk tripled and Watkins singled, stole two bases and scored on Schiereth's single.

Jordan Tees Off

Hyma had trouble with his control and walked Knobles. Malvica singled and Seitz was safe on an error. Prather doubled and Jordan followed with a single which saw Kramer take over the mound duties. Potter fanned but Clutter came through with a single.

From then on McPartland kept the lead, cooled off by a slow drizzle which continued the balance of the game.

Jordan was the hitting star of the game with a triple, double and single while Prather followed with a double and two singles.

Rex Dilbeck is scheduled to get the call tonight with either Gorski or Rash on the hill for the Hubbers.

The game will be played unless the field is a mud puddle because the game is the last of the season

Joe Gardner To Be Buried On Friday

DALLAS, Aug. 8 (AP)—Joe W. Gardner, 65, "grand old man" of Texas league baseball, will be buried here tomorrow.

He died here yesterday.

Heading the Dallas baseball club from 1902 to 1918, he had the longest record of continuous ownership of a club in the Texas league.

A fast friend of the late John McGraw, New York Giant manager, Gardner was credited through that friendship with bringing major league clubs to Texas for spring training and exhibitions in the early 1900's. He aided in reorganizing the Texas league in 1902.

Although not connected officially with baseball for several years, he was honorary life vice-president of the Texas league.

Born at Austin, Tex., Nov. 12, 1874, he spent his boyhood in Austin, San Antonio, and Houston.

He was no relation to J. Alvin Gardner, current Texas league president.

Conn Favored To Beat Bob Pastor

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—As befits one who has been knocked down by Joe Louis six or seven times and knows, therefore, that nothing much worse can possibly happen to him, Bob Pastor is amazingly calm about his approaching fight with Billy Conn, the light heavyweight champion.

Most of the ballyhoo has centered about Conn's chances of licking Louis after he has disposed of Pastor next Tuesday night. Pastor has been more or less neglected, yet he isn't resentful. He thinks it's funny. His manager, the voluble Jimmy Johnston, thinks it's crazy.

"In all my years in the game this is the silliest thing I ever ran into," said Jim. "Bob ought to be a 3 to 1 favorite over that kid from Pittsburgh. He'll probably win every round. But they've made Conn a favorite. It beats me."

Pastor has had two bouts with mediocre opponents since Louis flattened him in Detroit last summer. He won both easily, and close observers, like Ray Arcel, say they can't see that he has gone back in any way.

Johnston tried to rib Pastor into a state of indignation about it, but Bob only grinned.

Wind Lifts Roof Off Beaumont Grandstand

(By The Associated Press)

A tropical hurricane held the season's Texas league record for heavy hitting today.

Roaring out of the Gulf of Mexico late yesterday, it blew down the center field fence and lifted the roof from part of the grandstand at Beaumont's Stuart stadium.

Bob Muncie, league-leading San Antonio pitcher, added the 22nd scalp to his string as the Missions nosed out Oklahoma City's Indians 7-6.

Shreveport swept a doubleheader with Tulsa 4-1 and 7-0.

Fort Worth's game at Houston was postponed because of the approaching hurricane.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By BILL WHITE

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)-There wasn't a dry eye in the house last night when Master Melvin Ott got all those nice presents. As lippy Leo Durocher, the Dodger boss, said, "Well, he's the one guy who deserves all this."

"Hal Surface, who beat him, says Welby Van Horn, team's problem child, will wow 'em in the nationals at Forest Hills again this year. He says when the chips are down, the kid'll come through."

Denver's gridders will travel 7,800 miles for one game this fall. (They play in Hawaii Dec. 14.)

Dean T. J. Thompson of Nebraska will have two reasons (his two sons) for whooping it up for the Husker grid team this season.

Today's Guest Star: Jack Miley, New York Post: "They never give a fellow a dinner until he can afford to buy his own. Man and boy, Mel Ott has been with the Giants for 15 years, so last night the fans finally got around to paying him a tribute. Maybe they've just been waiting to see if he was going to make good."

Nos. 3 and 4
 Closest a ball player by the name of George Bone—who flopped with Danville in the Tri-State league—will ever get to fame comes Tuesday when he whoopee it up for the Husker grid team this season.

One-Minute Interview
 Eddie Brannick, secretary of the Giants: "You know, I've always been fond of the theater. That's why I talk so much about the Brooklyn club. They're the one chance that vaudeville may come back again."

Dock Walter, the Minneapolis Times-Trib's fearless forecaster offers this neat rater: "The winner of the Washington-Southern Cal game to meet Texas Aggies in the Rose Bowl... With organized baseball getting so much help from the American Legion-sponsored loops, why not clap hands for Frank McCormick of Minnesota. U. who conceived the idea almost two decades ago... Coach Chet Benefield of Tulsa, U. who usually weeps by the bucketful, shocked the natives recently by predicting the T. U. line would be the best in the midlands in Washington farmed the faltering Alex Carrasquel to Jersey City, where he flopped. Not knowing what else to do they brought him back—and he promptly won four as a reliever hurler."

King Louis XIV, of France, spent $100,000,000 to build the magnificent palace of Versailles.

SERIAL STORY SUMMER THEATER

BY MILDRED WILLIAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Johnny and Jean... The fact that Jean Reynolds had given him the cameo for Molly...

CHAPTER X

THE fact that Jean Reynolds had given him the cameo for Molly made little difference to Johnny...

It was noon when he awoke. He went to the mirror and looked at himself. His face was still smudged with soot and his eyebrows were singed.

Jean had given him the cameo. He must find Molly and tell her the good news. He tried to imagine the thrill of Molly's kisses in gratitude...

Jean had said that Molly was interested in Masters. Was she? Johnny would find out. Then he would know just where he stood with her.

At the Blue Whale he ordered breakfast, then telephoned the Meltons to ask about Jean.

"Still love me to death, don't you, Sue? Well, tell Jean I'm glad she's better."

Johnny bolted his breakfast and went around to 43 Cottage street.

"Miss Travers and Mr. Masters left early this morning for Dennis."

"What's the big idea?" Johnny wanted to say. Then he remembered that Molly couldn't have found him if she had wanted to.

"What time will they be back?"

"Back about supper time, they said. Johnny thanked them and went to while away the four hours intervening at the Meltons."

JEAN came across the lawn to meet him. She waved her "boxing gloves." "Want to fight?" she asked him.

Everyone was talking about the fire. Johnny didn't answer them. He dropped on the grass beside Jean and they watched a croquet game.

"What did Molly say when you told her I'd given you the cameo? I thought at least she'd call to thank me for my belated generosity."

"She and Masters have gone to Dennis. I just got up," he finished, hoping to close the subject.

"Johnny," Jean said, "you don't suppose Molly plans to use my cameo to get something out of Masters?"

"Of course not, silly. Been reading a melodrama?"

She laughed, too, then, and put one hand, bandaged to elephantine size, on his. "I'll miss you, Johnny, after you and Molly are married."

Johnny took the hand in his. He held it tenderly. "I'm going to get your cameo back for you, Jean. I haven't seen Molly yet, that's why I haven't it with me now."

He had a pleasant afternoon, lying on the lawn beside Jean's deck chair. It was nearly twilight when he decided to go home.

"Miss Travers isn't back yet," he was told at Molly's boarding house. He decided to wait.

He sat in the porch swing and began a crossword puzzle. How long ago it was that he had first sat here waiting for Molly?

He remembered the feverish excitement and enthusiasm with which he anticipated that first date.

Love was a fever. "Love was..." he had caught himself thinking. Was it possible that the fever was over? How easily he had slipped back into his relationship with Jean.

His pencil was making little squares on the paper. He was initializing the squares. JRR, he wrote and under that, Jean Reynolds Regan.

WHEN Masters' green roadster drew up at the curb, Johnny jumped the railing and ran down the walk. Molly was lying back against the cushion. She was more lovely than he remembered her.

"Have a good time?" he asked. "We missed you last night," Molly said accessingly. "Where were you?"

"I went home and went to bed. Slept till noon. Why didn't you tell me you were going?"

Molly shrugged. "Didn't want to interrupt your dreaming. All business."

Masters took a cigaret from a tooled leather case and said: "Beautiful scenery up the Cape. Quant little town, Dennis. I'm to play there week after next."

"And, Johnny, I..."

"Must be going, my dear," Masters interrupted. "Nice day."

He leaned over to start the motor and Johnny opened the door for Molly to get out. But in that brief moment Johnny understood something. Masters and Molly. They might not love each other, but their worlds were the same.

"Did you meet any big producers?" Johnny asked Molly. "I assume that's what you meant by business."

"Not only that, but I have a contract." She dug in her handbag and Johnny looked at it. It was signed by Harry Babbitt, an ingenue part for the fall show.

"I'm glad," Johnny said. "A lot now that all that is settled, I'd like to give the cameo back to Jean."

"I thought it was to be some sort of wedding present for us. And I want to tell you, Johnny, with the contract all signed, maybe we'd better postpone the wedding..."

"Just as you like," said Johnny firmly, "but I want to give the cameo back now. I told you last night Jean wouldn't sell it..."

Molly looked at him. She seemed to be thinking of something.

"I'll go get it," she said, and then her hand flew to her throat. "Why, Johnny, Johnny, darling, I can't get it. I left it in the dressing room. I just remembered. It was on Mrs. Lyons' dress, hanging on the rack ready for me to put on."

Battle On For Tune Control

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8 (AP)—Battle lines in a fight to control the nation's supply of radio music were drawn today by organized broadcasters and the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, but the issue may ultimately be decided by America's millions of radio listeners.

Backing up President Neville Miller, the National Association of Broadcasters approved a plan to sign contracts for music rights with Broadcast Music Inc., NAB's own organization to combat what it described as ASCAP's monopoly on the tune business.

Miller said that ASCAP had offered new contracts effective Jan. 1 under which the hundreds of American radio stations would have to pay $8,700,000—or nearly double present rates—for the rights to broadcast the popular songs which make up 70 per cent of radio programs. BMI's rates are considerably less.

Political Chiseling Draws Solons' Fire

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Demands for legislation to prevent corporation officials from coercing employees into making political campaign contributions came today from two members of the senate campaign expenditures committee—Senators Miller (D-Ark.) and Tobey (R-N.H.).

Miller said he would ask the committee to make an immediate investigation in connection with a complaint lodged by Senator Byrnes (D-S.C.). Tobey commented he could see no reason why specific legislation could not be recommended within a short time.

Byrnes told the senate yesterday that "corporation friends" of Wendell L. Willkie were attempting to force employees to contribute to the Republican nominee's campaign funds.

Tobey added: "Both parties play the game the same way. It is a reprehensible practice that ought to be stopped."

Northern France Slowly Becoming Inhabited Again

By Preston Grover

LUXEMBOURG, Aug. 8 (AP)—More than a month after the end of fighting, the once populous communities of northern France still are ghost towns in a battle-scarred, almost deserted countryside.

In the backwash of blitzkrieg are left unharvested crops. . . a handful of scattered farm families toiling silently, long after dark to salvage what they can. . . city pavements plowed by Stuka bombs. . . the strong smell of ashes from the ruins of shelled towns.

Such were the scenes I saw with a party of foreign correspondents taken by German guides on an airplane and automobile tour of northern France and Flanders.

Strasbourg, Alsatian capital which once had 200,000 population, was not severely damaged—but housed barely 20,000 persons.

It was evident that families are streaming back to the city now re-incorporated into the Reich, but elsewhere the repopulation of Alsace and Lorraine is at a snail's pace.

The Belgian population seemed to be returning more rapidly, and Brussels has become a hive of activity.

That is probably due in part to the presence of numerous officers and soldiers buying freely, living well.

In northern France, however, we went mile after mile without seeing a man, woman or child. Occasionally we passed a soldier on guard.

The sharpest contrast was at Civet, little town on a tongue of France reaching sharply into Belgium. Of 80,000 normal population, barely 300 have returned. Yet, immediately across the frontier, Belgian towns seemed well on the way back to normal.

It was plain that the French in some places fought bitterly as they were shoved back yard by yard, town by town. Hastily built machine-gun nests could be seen in old barns and at crossroads houses. Roads were blasted with craters from heavy bombs.

In other spots where the retreat was quickened, whole fields stretched untouched by signs of war.

Germans estimated 400,000 persons fled Alsace alone.

In Belgium repatriation was made easier because fewer homes and cities were wrecked. It was evident, even beyond this, that the Germans are pursuing a more liberal policy of rehabilitation in Belgium than has been undertaken yet in northern France.

The Germans, however, said food

Ooh, That Kiss—A La Sheridan, 56.2 Seconds

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 8 (AP)—Some guys never seem satisfied. Take George Brent, for instance.

He stepped back from kissing Ann Sheridan for 56 seconds plus last night and what do you suppose he did? He grimaced.

Grimacing after a Sheridan caress—well, that's something. George didn't know, of course, that he had just become co-holder of the movie all-time long-kissing record. A script clerk's stopwatch timed their embrace at 56.2 seconds.

The voluminous kissing file in Warner's publicity department quickly yielded the information that it exceeded the 49-second mark of John Barrymore and Dolores Costello in the silent "Sen Beast."

"You'll get an idea of how long that is if you consider that the average screen kiss is under five seconds."

But for the fadeout of "Honey-moon For Three," Director Lloyd Bacon decided he wanted a kiss with feeling. The fact that Brent and the red-haired oomph gal are seeing a lot of each other off the set as well as on would, he thought, work in with his plans.

He called Ann aside and explained his needs. "George may be a little self-conscious," she warned, "but I'll just hold on if he tries to break."

She did. Brent gasped a little as he stepped back. What man wouldn't? Then came the grimace. Ann was shaking with laughter.

"My friend," she finally composed herself to query, "is it that you don't like sex in pictures?"

"Forbid, not that," retorted Brent, running a finger under his collar. "I just wasn't breathing."

Britain To Purchase Egyptian Cotton Crop

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP)—R. A. Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs, announced today that Britain was setting up a commission to buy the entire 1940 Egyptian cotton crop of 1,600,000 bales (800,000,000 pounds).

Butler said this was done on the appeal of Egypt, whose regular outlets for the cotton have been cut off by the war. The purchase will be made before April 4, 1941, he said, at prices of about 14.25 to 15.25 cents a pound.

The British government will bear the whole of any net loss which may arise from the transaction and will share equally with the Egyptian government any net profits.

Word Of Death Of Former Panhandle Driller Received

Funeral services for Ellery Sherman Riddle, 58, former Panaman, cable tool driller, and one-time employe of the Dunigan Tool & Supply company, were conducted at the Riddle residence in Fairmont, W. Va., June 22.

A newspaper clipping and memorial card, announcing Riddle's death, were received here by one of Riddle's friends, Jack W. Reed.

Riddle left Pampa a year ago. He had been in failing health for five years, and was a patient in a hospital at the time of his death on June 19.

He worked near Berger in the "roaring 20s," when the magic oil city developed out of raw range land, and has a wide acquaintance with the oil field men throughout the Pampa territory.

The Riddle family has lived in Fairmont for 15 years. Riddle was a native of the New York town, and had followed the oil industry since early manhood, moving to Ohio, thence to Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Riddle was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Christian church at Littleton, W. Va.

Burial occurred in Salem cemetery, Fairmont.

Survivors include the widow and two daughters, a grandson, two sisters, and a niece, Mrs. Wade Massengale, and nephew, Lewis Riddle. The latter two both reside in Cisco, Tex.

German Raider Sinks 30,000 Tons Shipping

BERLIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—The German high command announced today that a German raider had sunk 30,000 tons of British merchant shipping overseas.

Air attacks on England continued, with raids on airplane and munitions plants, the high command said.

(On July 31 London disclosed the presence of a German raider in the south Atlantic in a report that the British armed merchant cruiser Alcantara had fought a battle with it. The raider escaped.)

The high command said raids by British planes over Holland and western Germany last night caused no damage "worth mentioning."

Nation's Business Improved In July
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Business continued to improve in July. Secretary of Commerce Hopkins said today, but he described the gain as "moderate, compared with the sharp rise in June."

The general situation, he said, "is well supported at this time by large volume of unfilled orders and active consumer purchasing."

"Although inventories are not much below the peak to which they were pushed in March by last fall's buying wave," he added, "there is no further accumulation of any significance taking place in total holdings at this time."

Failure of commodity and security prices to respond to the increased volume of trade was traced by Hopkins to the "international political and military situation." He reported a downward trend in prices of "sensitive commodities."

But the status of prices is not due to "any fundamental weakness in domestic economic conditions," he said, "and is no sign that business recovery is running out."

"Any expansion of employment and income resulting from the national defense program will push per capita consumption to new record levels," Hopkins observed.

Hitler Restores Civil Authority In Two Countries

BERLIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—The entire civil administration in Alsace-Lorraine and Luxembourg has been taken out of the hands of the military and placed under civilian officials by a decree of Adolf Hitler.

The Nazi district leaders—Joseph Buerckel in Lorraine, Robert Wagner in Alsace and Gustav Simon in Luxembourg—already have been active in their offices.

Yesterday German was declared the official language in the German-occupied grand duchy of Luxembourg whose grand duchess is a refugee abroad. Alsace and Lorraine were German territory before the world war settlement.

Germany Impatient About Settlement

BUCHAREST, Aug. 8 (AP)—Indications of German impatience with delay in settlement of the territorial controversy between Hungary and Rumania were seen by diplomatic observers today as Raoul Bossy, Rumanian minister to Rome, departed for Budapest to learn Hungary's minimum demands for the return of Transylvania.

Demands for resistance against the territorial claims of Rumania's neighbors vanished from the controlled press.

On the other hand, newspapers reprinted an article from the Berlin foreign office organ, Boersen Zeitung, which criticized Rumanian personalities "who have assumed an attitude of false heroism in settling relations with Hungary."

There are more than 32,000 different coins in the world, according to estimates.
