

Dispute Over Woman Caused Shooting, Parks Trial Witnesses Testify

Argument in the murder case in which a dispute over a woman was the alleged cause of a shooting involving two married men, was heard in 31st district court this afternoon.

The case is State of Texas vs. Willie Parks, charged with murder in alleged connection with the fatal shooting last August 7 of Boyd Wilkinson.

Selection of the jury was made Monday and testimony started yesterday.

During the trial, the widow of Wilkinson, and the wife, child, and mother of the defendant, have been seated at the lawyer's table, on which has been placed the weapon allegedly used by Parks in the shooting, and the automatic pistol that, according to defendant's testimony, was in the possession of Wilkinson at the time of the slaying.

Newton P. Willis and B. S. Via represent the defendant, with Clifford Braly, district attorney, and Bud Martin, district attorney elect, on the opposing side.

District Judge W. R. Ewing prepared the charge last night, which was to be read this afternoon to the jury, preceding the argument.

Fourth witness on the stand yesterday morning was Sheriff Cal Rose, who arrested Parks near the scene of the shooting last summer.

John Van Winkle, cafe proprietor, was the first called to the stand yesterday afternoon. He was followed by Paul Hughes, Sinclair employee, who said he had seen the defendant at the rear of Huber's market, across the street from the Champion filling station, five or 10 minutes before the shooting.

Hughes testified that Parks came in and said he was "going to see two guys as fast as he could." Later questions amplified this remark to Parks saying, according to Hughes, that he was "going to kill two—"

"that they were no good—just like myself," Hughes testified Parks had said.

Leonard Richardson was standing beside him but left before the conversation was finished, Hughes said. He stated that Richardson had bought a car and had asked him to come and see it, and this was the reason he was there.

Asked what he thought of Parks remarks, Hughes replied he "didn't think he meant what he said."

An automatic pistol was identified by Hughes as one formerly belonging to Hughes that had been sold by his brother to Wilkinson. He said he did not deliver the gun to Wilkinson, who wanted to buy the gun on instalments, but that his brother, Lewis, gave him the money for the weapon, and the price was $8.

It was a perfect quick action gun when Hughes had it, the witness said. The transfer of the gun to Wilkinson occurred, two, three, or four months before the shooting occurred, he testified.

Parks showed Pete Russell, 24 year old Cities Service employee, a gun. Russell testified. He said the weapon was in Parks' belt, underneath his shirt, and that Parks had said he was "going to kill two—"

He stated this occurred 20 minutes before the shooting took place and that he was across the street in a butcher shop when the shots were fired.

He said the defendant ran into a cafe and that he saw Wilkinson lying in the filling station drive; that somebody asked "who shot him," and Parks had replied, "by I did."

On cross examination the defense attorney made an issue of whether Parks had said "he" or "they" in

London Scene Of 'Indescribable Chaos'

LONG LINES OF REGISTRANTS WAITING EARLY

Russia, Turkey Discuss How To 'Stop Axis'

Turks And Soviet Reported Near Agreement

(By The Associated Press)

Nazi quarters in Berlin threatened a triple-force "typhoon stage" in the aerial siege of Britain today after an armada of 1,000 German bombers reportedly dropped 1,000 tons of bombs on London during the night and left the British capital a scene of "indescribable chaos."

Even that terrific assault was only a "zephyr" compared to the storm ahead, the Germans said.

London dispatches said diving Nazi warplanes machine-gunned the streets and dropped the biggest explosives yet rained on the empire capital.

German airmen returning from the dusk-to-dawn assault told of "dazzling detonations... terrific concussions... skies reddened by great fires..."

Many were feared killed and wounded in the smashing of a two-story London schoolhouse used as an air-raid shelter. The building, hit squarely by two huge bombs, was leveled.

Fire and oil bombs, known as "Goering cocktails," started countless fires throughout the metropolitan area, and Germans said the havoc recalled the wreckage of Warsaw, Rotterdam and Dunkerque.

Hitler's high command, complaining angrily that British RAF bombers were "planlessly attacking non-military targets" and thus primarily against the German civilian population, said retaliatory attacks on London "therefore were considerably increased."

"Big fires following strong explosions in the city's heart, the Thames bend, as well as the Victoria docks, were visible from the channel coast on the return flight," the German communique asserted.

One bomb exploded near a shelter under a building in which 110 persons had taken refuge for the night. By mid-morning, rescue crews had taken out seven dead and many wounded.

Today's "invasion weather" heavy mist shrouded the Strait of Dover, seas calm.

Amid this intensified Nazi onslaught, the critical situation in the Balkans grew rapidly. Reports that Turkey and Soviet Russia are near agreement on a "stop the Axis" military alliance spread through Balkan capitals.

The reason was that a rough-neck was in the line and he passed out the word that the particular line was for the registration of persons desiring to become machine gunners and that the average life of a machine gunner was seven minutes.

London Death Toll Last Night Heavy

Bomb Attacks To Be Tripled Nazis Boast

BERLIN, Oct. 16 (AP)—Attacks on London will be tripled before the German air offensive reaches its peak, and one of bombs will be the British capital's daily fare from now on, informed Nazi sources predicted today.

Last night's assault on London, during which 1,000 tons of bombs were reported to have been dropped, was only a "zephyr" compared with what is in store, these sources declared.

"We'll reach the typhoon stage yet," they asserted. "We're only about one-third of the way there now."

German submarines were reported at the same time, to be stepping up their attacks on British's lifelines and on overseas raiders. It was credited with sinking 31,000 tons of merchant shipping on a single trip.

The number of bombs dropped on England during the night, it was said, was 1,000 times the number unloaded by British warplanes which flew over various regions of Germany last night.

DNB, official German agency, quoted returning Nazi pilots as saying London was "a great sea of flames."

Extensive fires were raging north of the Victoria docks and others were seen in the center of the city and at the bend of the Thames, DNB said.

Strong forces of Nazi planes were reported striking fiercely again at

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 16 — Rescue squads today dug for the dead, the wounded and dying and uninjured persons entombed in one of the worst overnight bombardments in six days of continuous air raids of London while Nazi planes roved the coasts of England, Scotland and Wales.

The air and home security ministries, calling the night attack "widespread and quite wanton," said the number killed was greater than in other recent raids, but "considerably" less than in early September, when the German air force first laid siege to London, and damage likewise "was not so great."

The greatest 1-day casualties in September were 400 dead and 1,400 wounded Sept. 9, according to official estimate.

Despite widespread reports of the presence of Nazi raiders by daylight, the air and home ministries said there has been hardly any enemy activity over this country today.

Apparently the principal objective of the daylight planes was reconnaissance.

"Bombs are reported only in one coastal town in Scotland and at one point in the west country," the late afternoon communique said. "No damage or casualties are reported."

In London, rescue workers, digging in frenzy at tons of masonry which turned several air raid shelters into tombs, siphoned liquid food to those buried alive to sustain them until they could be reached.

Almost without pause the Germans followed up with fresh thrusts here, and near Liverpool, the great port on the west coast, as well as along the south and east coasts and over coastal regions of Scotland and Wales.

The cold October dawn lighted many a scene of devastation and death in London.

9 Prisoners Taken From County Jail

Teachers Assist As Young Men Swamp Workers

(By The Associated Press)

Registration places, 17 in all in the county, buzzed with activity as hundreds of registrars listed Uncle Sam's defense strength in terms of the men 21 to 36 available for service.

Black and white, student and worker, executive and employe, rich and poor—all available were included in the military nose-count.

From the county jail nine prisoners were taken to the sheriff's office this morning, and registered. At the city jail one of three prisoners was thought to be of registration age, but police had to wait until he sobered up to learn that he was too old.

Estimated registration for the county is 3,200. No totals were available this morning. County Clerk Charley Thut, key man in the listing, said there were so many registrars at work, that cards had not been collected, and no count was possible.

Chief registrars are to turn their cards over to the county clerk after the registration places close at 9 o'clock tonight. The registration places opened at 7 a. m.

Long lines of registrants were waiting when county offices opened this morning.

To supply the need of registrars, county offices were operating on skeleton crews today, as office employees helped with the listing.

In precinct 10, located at the court house, there were 30 persons at work, using the offices of the justices of the peace, constable, county case worker, old age assistance supervisor, sheriff, and the north corridor.

Over at Hurrach chapel, precinct 2, Chief Registrar C. A. Burton was swamped with registrants, that Aaron Meek, B. M. Baker school principal, sent over a group of teachers to assist his staff.

I have registered slips were seen on numerous coat lapsels of Pampa men downtown this morning. As each registrant completed his registration, these slips and registration certificates were issued.

County Clerk Thut said he had not heard of any under-age registrants insisting on registering, as happened in many cases at Austin.

In Minneapolis, the first to register was Woodrow Wilson Franklin.

Pampa teachers, court house employees, members of the Business & Professional Women's club, Legionnaires, were represented among the registry staffs.

Tomorrow will see the local board, composed of District Judge W. R. Ewing, John Sturgeon, and Dr. Adrian Owens, all of Pampa, starting work on classifying the cards they receive from the county clerk.

The board will shuffle the cards, number them serially, make out three copies of the list of registrants, enter order numbers when received from Washington, and prepare classification record, then mail out questionnaires.

Ninth in the series of R-day articles, current in The Pampa News is published here:

Classification—Procedure
1. Q.—What does classification mean?
A.—After all men between the ages of 21 and 36 have been registered, selective service officials must then determine which men are best fitted for immediate military training.

School Board Plans Purchases Tuesday

The Pampa school board will meet in called session next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to examine samples and possibly purchase lockers, flooring, ceiling material, roofing material, rest room partitions and other equipment for the new high school building. Date of the called meeting was set yesterday afternoon when the board met in regular session.

The board at yesterday's meeting insured all band uniforms and band instruments against fire, theft, damage. The school owns band instruments valued at $5,000 and band members own their own instruments. The school will insure them at the low rate secured by the board which was $1.50 on the $100 valuation.

Because of the increased enrollment in the negro school, the board instructed Sup't. L. L. Sone to secure another teacher and also additional teaching space. At the present time one class is being conducted in the one-room school building and another in a church. An effort will be made to secure another church as a classroom. The board discussed plans for erecting a new school building. There are now 86 negro children enrolled in school here.

The board voted to cooperate in the adult vocational instruction program and discussed plans for a shop program here. If a shop can be installed the state will pay three-quarters of an instructor's salary, it was pointed out. The initial cost, however would be several thousand dollars.

The board voted to divide the school tax, 77 cents on the $100 valuation to the maintenance and construction fund, and 10 cents to the interest and sinking fund.

O. L. Boyington reported that work on the new school building is progressing favorably and that windows will be received shortly. The architect and window concern have

Johnny, Introduced By Gene Autry, Steals Spotlight On Radio Program

Not only was Johnny Campbell and Gene Worley given the featured spot on the We The People program last night, but Johnny was introduced by that idol of boydom, Gene Autry, the singing cowboy.

Autry described Johnny as a product of the great Panhandle of Texas and as an admirable specimen of the type of boys the great Southwest produces. He said that he had met Johnny the preceding night and that he had found him to be a 100 per cent boy and that he was proud to know Johnny and to introduce him.

As for Gene Worley, he need not worry any longer about how he sounds over the radio. A casual survey this morning indicated that in their opinion "Gene done fine."

The boys up at the radio station said that Gene has a good radio voice. It was Gene's first appearance over any radio. He was introduced by Johnny. Gene spoke briefly. He thanked Johnny and the other young people in the Panhandle for helping him out in the campaign, and he promised that he would do his best to live up to their confidence in him. He said he was glad to appear on the radio program with Johnny.

Johnny in a clear boyish voice that spoke out with determination and conviction described the origin and the activities of the Mr. Worley Goes To Washington club which supported Worley in his campaign for Congress.

Johnny made good his determination to speak the word "Pampa" as many times as possible, and he spoke it five times in three minutes. The script read by both Gene and

There's no question about that. The department of justice can well take care of the few reasonable aliens and immigrants.

Dr. Montgomery cited as an example of how defense is being delayed the case of a great manufacturing concern which had an order from the government to make 2,000 airplane range finders. More Pampans Join Kiwanis Revue Cast

Another new member joined the chorus of the Pampa Kiwanis Club's Top O' Texas Revue last night, and she's a dead-ringer for Claudette Colbert of the movies.

The young lady will be another of the many surprises in store for audiences on the nights of Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 6 and 7, when the Kiwanis club stages its big musical revue in the high school auditorium for the benefit of its underprivileged children's fund.

The chorus and dancers of the cast worked hard last night from 7:15 o'clock until after ten rehearsing the lighting tunes under direction of Ken Bennett and the intricate dance steps, arranged by Miss Vivian Eansom.

And, even beyond the 10 o'clock hour, a half dozen male members of the cast remained on the city hall auditorium stage and rehearsed their lines and music for the extremely satirical "Mendelssohn and Bach" travesty which promises to be one of the hits of the show.

Mr. Bennett announced today that Tex DeWeese, president of the club, had been selected as master of ceremonies for the revue, and that the next rehearsal will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the City Hall auditorium. All singers, dancers, principals and chorus members are urged to attend the Sunday rehearsal.

Mr. Bennett, who has written the music especially for the Kiwanis show and who is directing the production, said today he would like to hear from Negro jitter-bug dancers needed to work in one of the scenes. The Negro jitter-bugs are asked to contact him at Radio

She pointed out

Main way it helps relieve periodic distress is by increasing appetite that the words "democratic" and "democracy" do not appear in the Constitution, that the term "democrat" was held with low regard at the time the Constitution was framed, and that widespread emphasis on American democracy did not come into being until the first World War with Wilson's declaration about making the world safe for democracy. She showed, however, that the principles we now cherish as American democracy were included in the Constitution and the first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights. With the ever changing interpretations of democratic principles and the functions of government in a democracy, she pointed out, a few believe that our present problems can be solved only by changing the

Former Principal Guest Speaker At Woodrow Wilson

At a regular meeting of Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher association recently in the school auditorium, one of the largest crowds of the school history was present to hear Principal Frank Monroe of Junior High school, formerly principal of Woodrow Wilson, speak.

Mrs. R. E. Gattlin introduced Mr. Monroe who spoke on "What Interest to Develop in Our Children" keeping with the theme of the year, "Enjoying Our Children."

The three most important things to develop in a child are the church, the home, and school, he pointed out. Parents and teachers should work together to develop these interests. Parents have a better opportunity to develop a lasting quality, he continued.

Encouragement in the right kind of interests, hobbies, radio, and personal interest in families was suggested by Mr. Monroe, who emphasized the necessity of teaching a child to be a good sportsman, to be tolerant, to be a good citizen as well as a leader and to be broad enough to consider both sides of any controversy. These qualities can best be encouraged by example, especially by parents.

The invocation and a message on the spiritual guidance of pre-adolescent children was given by the Rev. D. W. Nichol of Francis Avenue Church of Christ. He stated that "spiritual education must be administered in order to preserve a democracy."

Principal H. A. Yoder spoke in observance of fire prevention week. He assured parents that children are being well trained should an emergency arise. Fire prevention posters were displayed.

Mrs. Bob Alford read a message on Founder's Day.

In the business session, Mrs. E. L. Anderson was named delegate to the P.-T. A. convention to be held in Dallas in November.

In the room court Mrs. J. L. Lester's room won first place and C. Taplinger's room, second place.

The singing of "America" concluded the program.

NEW TAILORED BOW FROCK

PATTERN 8799

This clever little frock is alive with the piquant charm that juniors love in their everyday clothes, and wear with such nonchalant success. The perfectly smooth, waist-hugging princess line looks lovely on petite figures. The bow-trimmed, gathered pockets give it youth and gaiety, and that small sash bow in the back helps too. The time-saving button-front is a joy, because it goes on so quickly and easily, and did there ever live a junior who had time for all the things she wants to crowd into one busy day at college or office?

This design (No. 8799) will be adorable in rabbit's wool, thin tweed or challis, with velvet bows and contrasting lines of stitching to match the bows. Being all long seams with no fussy detailing, this is an extremely easy frock to make.

FDR Assumes Control Over War Products

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt today assumed full control over the sale or export of raw and manufactured products vital to the national defense program, after invoking the government's power to requisition any equipment, munitions, machinery, tools, materials or supplies needed to prepare the nation for any emergency.

In an executive order the President ordered the army and navy munitions board yesterday to make a survey to determine the necessity for requisitioning any of the items necessary for national defense purposes.

The board was authorized to determine whether it is in the public interest to sell, or otherwise dispose of, any of the articles or materials requisitioned.

The President's action was considered far reaching and significant. Defense experts said that under that authority the United States could gain possession of many war materials, equipment and supplies already sold but not yet shipped to foreign countries and then either retain them, or dispose of them to other foreign countries or individuals.

Examples of the President's powers, delegated to the munitions board and the administrator of export control, included retention of the following:

Vitally important machine tools already sold to, or on order for Soviet Russia.

Planes ordered by Sweden, not yet delivered, which some fear may be seized by Germany or some other warring nation if they are shipped abroad.

Planes sold to Thailand (Siam) which, because of conditions in the Far East, might be used for purposes detrimental to American interests.

Scrap metals already sold to Japan, but not yet shipped, which might be converted into war munitions—as many tons have for the war against China—and used in an extension of the war theater in the Orient.

Episcopal Members Advised To Attend Presbyterian Church

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16 (AP)—Proposed union of two large Protestant denominations moved a step nearer today as the Episcopal general convention advised its members to attend a Presbyterian church "if the ministrations of this church are not accessible."

The house of bishops approved a resolution advising Episcopalians living in communities without a church of their faith to "associate themselves with a Presbyterian congregation."

Delegates emphasized, however, that no attempt toward actual merger would be taken at the present triennial convention.

FDR Will Leave Posts Unfilled

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Congressional leaders predicted today that President Roosevelt would leave three important government posts—chairman of the labor relations board, WPA commissioner, and communications commissioner—unfilled until after the November election, along with a number of lesser positions.

With Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra confirmed as selective service director, Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, told reporters it was his understanding that no more important nominations would be sent to the senate until it resumes business on a full time basis next month.

The three-member labor board thus would continue to operate with one vacancy as it has since the expiration in August of the term of its chairman, J. Warren Madden. A vacancy would also exist on the

McNary And Norris Debate Farm Issues

(By The Associated Press)

Wendell L. Willkie made a plea today for farm and factory cooperation as his running mate, Senator Charles L. McNary, attacked the administration's handling of the agricultural problem and Senator Norris (Ind.-Neb.) upheld it.

Willkie, campaigning in Ohio, said in a talk prepared for Mansfield that prosperity for the farmer is related directly to prosperity for the industrial worker.

"The tragic fallacy of that New Deal economy is that scarcity is maintained in the midst of potential abundance," Willkie said.

Norris spoke from Washington last night in a broadcast under auspices of the national committee of independent voters for Roosevelt and Wallace, of which he is honorary chairman. Earlier in the day, the White House said President Roosevelt would make two political speeches before the election.

The first will be on Oct. 23, and the second on Oct. 30. Stephen T. Early, press secretary, said both probably would be made from the White House and would be broadcast nationally.

Norris said no other administration "has done so much to help and preserve agriculture as has this administration under the wise guidance of President Roosevelt and Secretary Wallace."

"The great middlewest, the breadbasket of the union, would to a great extent have been depopulated," Norris asserted. "It had not been for the saving grace of the agricultural policies of this administration."

Farm Problem "Dodged"

Senator McNary, the Republican vice-presidential nominee charged in an address prepared for a meeting at Hutchinson, Kans., today that the Roosevelt administration dodged the farm problem.

"Since 1933," he said, "fifteen farm bills have become law; billions of dollars of public money have been expended. The New Deal has tried to buy its way out of trouble."

He advocated a two-price system for crops with exportable surpluses.

National defense figured prominently in the speeches of other campaign orators last night.

Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York said at Newark, N. J., that "anyone who says that President Roosevelt has neglected the national defense utters a deliberate mis-statement, knowing that he has made a mis-statement."

Senator Byrnes (D-S. C.) said in a broadcast from Washington that Republicans in congress had voted against early defense appropriations and revisions of the neutrality law to permit aid to Great Britain and had voted to delay the draft.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said at Elmira, N. Y., that "if our defenses are inadequate to meet the threat of a German attack, and the President himself says they are, surely no one can be to blame but the President himself."

Labor was the topic of a speech by Secretary Ickes at Akron, Ohio. He said that "a company union is Wendell Willkie's idea of collective bargaining under the national labor relations act."

In his address prepared for Mansfield, Willkie said: "Everybody realizes now that the prosperity of a Democracy can be developed only by producing more and better things at decreasing prices and over higher standards for the farmer and the worker. This can be accomplished by more production and by constant attention to refinement of the machinery of distribution."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—Under the firm leadership of Steel Shares, the market advanced today.

An undercut of confidence, based largely on industrial equipment overcapacity, led to a volatile, choppy market.

Overnight buying orders started the session on its upward path. The resiliant small gains were largely erased on small movements, but a recurrence of buying demand once more showed prices higher.

"Twice more in the day, this process was repeated."

At the close, about 650,000 shares had been traded, making the session the liveliest in two weeks.

Affecting market sentiment was an extremely busy day in Worth street, where it was estimated that 25,000,000 yards of cotton gray goods were purchased and price advanced. Also of market interest was advance of 1/2 cent a pound in the price of lead.

Harvesters Will Dedicate Game To Dads

Fathers Will Be Guests On Sidelines

The Pampa Harvesters will dedicate their Friday night game here with El Paso high school to their "Dads" who will sit along the sidelines in folding chairs. Each dad will sit on a chair bearing the number worn by his son.

Additional Sports On Page 8

The "Dads" will also be introduced over a public address system to be installed for the occasion. Plans are being made to organize a "Dads" club and have one game each year dedicated to the fathers of team members. There is already a Harvesters Mothers club. El Paso high will bring a big, evenly-balanced team to Pampa. The line will average about 175 pounds on the right side and 165 pounds on the left side with a 160-pound backfield that is fast and dangerous. El Paso has won three games and tied one so far this season. Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejane are working their charges long and hard this week. The boys came out of their game with Bowie of El Paso without a major injury. With their first victory tucked away, the Harvesters have decided they might as well go the rest of the season without another loss and their spirit and fight in practice has been something to look at.

All-America Backs On Almost Every Grid Team

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—Scratch almost any college football team these days, and you'll uncover a potential All-America back—some of them legitimate.

All-America backfield nominations always have been plentiful. The ball carriers catch the eye, and this season is no exception. The returns barely are starting to come in, but early season reports from Associated Press football experts indicate two carry-overs from the 1939 All-America team are operating even more efficiently than a year ago. One is Thomas Dudley Harmon, the Michigan thunderbolt, and the other is John Alec Kimbrough, Texas A. and M.'s line-smasher. Harmon's exploits thus far are all but incredible. The Wolverine star has scored 69 of Michigan's 88 points and has passed for 12 other points. Few can dissent when Tommy is called football's greatest runner since Red Grange. Kimbrough is the same unstoppable line-rammer he was a year ago. This 222-pound battering ram spent four days in a Dallas hospital last week, riding himself of a possible "strep" throat infection; went by plane Friday to Los Angeles, played 60 minutes against U. C. L. A. and scored the game's only touchdown.

Three other members of last year's second and third All-America teams are back—Paul Christman of Missouri; Don Scott, Ohio State and Jack Crain of Texas. Christman has been handicapped by a leg injury, although he is passing as brilliantly as ever. Scott has been somewhat overshadowed by his team-mate, Jim Langhurst, so far. Crain, however, has picked up right where he left off in his game with most southwest conference coaches the finest ball carrier the conference ever has known.

Ranking well up on the ball-car-

STABBED GRIDDER NEAR DEATH

V. D. Basey, 20-year-old substitute guard on University of Texas football team, who is near death in a Dallas hospital after pneumonia developed in his right lung. The student, whose home is in Austin, Texas, and who saw service in the Texas-Oklahoma game, was stabbed during a fight shortly after the game.

Peepees Will Play Midgets At Canadian

The Peepees will be trying for their fourth victory Thursday afternoon when they go to Canadian to take on the Canadian Midgets. The game was to have been played at night but due to a conflict the game was moved up to 3:30. However, the Peepees will not be denied their first chance to play a night game, as the return game will be played here Thursday night, Oct. 24th.

In the three games this season, the Peepees have run up 66 points to their opponents 7. In the first game of the season, the Stinnett Mittes made seven points while the Peepees were making 19. The Amarillo Peepees were held scoreless in their two games while the Pampa team was hitting pay dirt for seven touchdowns and five extra points.

Although the offense clicked rather smoothly for five touchdowns last week, much time is being spent this week on perfecting the single wingback plays. As Johnny Campbell will not return from New York in time for the game Thursday, a major cog will be missing from the offensive machine. Dee Griffin, a hard blocker, a deadly tackler, and a capable passer, will be calling the signals against Canadian.

The other three members of the backfield will probably be Billy Gehlin, a good open field runner and pass catcher; Kenneth Beesley, a fine defensive player and a hard charging fullback; and Russell Neer, a boy that can block, run, and tackle. At ends will be Randall Clay, one of the finest defensive Peepees ends in the Panhandle. In addition to being a hard blocker, he snatches passes like a veteran and has not failed to gain less than ten yards on his favorite end-around play. The other end will be either J. W. Winborn or Charles Beard,

Gorillas To Play Hornets In Mobeetie

Pampa's rampaging Gorillas will tackle the Mobeetie Hornets Friday afternoon in Mobeetie as they try for their fifth consecutive victory of the season, against one loss. Last Wednesday the Gorillas swamped the Canadian "B" team 43 to 6. The Gorillas have developed into a hard-hitting aggregation. They are playing a rock 'em brand of football that carries the opposition in front of it. Even in scrimmage Coach Oscar Hinger can't slow his battling Gorillas down.

In "Red" Grossman, former guard, Coach Hinger has found a ball carrier who loves the going tough. L. J. Halter has developed into a good passer while the ball totting of Jack Lane, Gene Winger and Jack Waters has been tops.

Line play of Frank Shotwell, Royce Bailey, Doug Lovelace, Bobby Edson, LeRoy Thomas, Kenneth Groves, and Charles Hatcher are showing great improvement. Jack Dunham and Charles Hatcher will be at their regular tackle positions. Henry Lane and Bobby Hill or Evan Jones will be playing guard. Bobby Myers, a line-backer deluxe, will be at the pivot post.

Another team just about as good as the above will be composed of ends—Lindsey and Hughes; tackle—Bird and Raines; center—Wilson; backs—Erickson and Seeds; half-backs—Terrell and Gray; fullback—Tidwell; and quarterback—McTaggart. The entire squad of 38 boys will be taken on this, what the Peepees call, long road trip.

Players Wrestle To Get In Shape

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 16 (AP)—Outside snow lay on the ground. A cold winter wind whipped around the gym building.

Inside a group of husky young men grunted and groaned as they wrestled each other around. After a half hour or so they lined up and ran through football formations.

That was 10 months ago. Today Alan Holman, coach of the undefeated and untied Franklin and Marshall football team, the eleven that stunned the gridiron world by beating Dartmouth 10 days ago, attributed much of the Diplomat's success to winter wrestling practice.

"We lay great store in wrestling here at F. and M.," the Ohio State quarterback of a decade ago explained. "During the last few years I have been living during the off season at Columbus, O. But decided last year to stay here the year round. Being around all winter told the boys to come out for wrestling. We worked out three times a week. The body contact kept the boys in swell shape."

The results are apparent. In three games, against Lebanon Valley, Dartmouth and the University of Richmond, no player has been injured and Lancaster football bugs are dreaming of a "Bowl" game.

But not Holman. "I'm not thinking about it," he said. "We've still got Muhlenberg, Gettysburg, Albright, New York University, Carnegie Tech and Ursinus. I'm afraid one of these teams will knock us down. You know how it is."

Mexico Rejects Plan To Honor Cortes

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Chamber of Deputies says "no" to a proposal to emblazon in gold letters the name of Hernando Cortes, Spanish conqueror of Mexico, on walls of the legislative halls.

Jured and Lancaster football bugs are dreaming of a "Bowl" game. But not Holman. "I'm not thinking about it," he said. "We've still got Muhlenberg, Gettysburg, Albright, New York University, Carnegie Tech and Ursinus. I'm afraid one of these teams will knock us down. You know how it is."

Northwestern Players Find A New Spirit

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 16 (AP)—Northwestern's return to football power is the story of a group of bewildered, deflated sophomores who refused to lose faith in their ability to click in big time competition.

The Wildcats, surprise victors over Ohio State Saturday, are riding high because the players found a new spirit—"One for all and all for one"—to match their physical talent.

Big Alf Bauman, 215-pound punter tackle, and Bill de Correvont, ace halfback, are leading this parade back to the top, just as they sparked Chicago's Austin high to dazzling deeds three seasons ago.

Contrast Northwestern's present grid situation with that of just a year ago and you know that a radical change has been wrought. "I'll tell you one big difference in the two squads," said De Correvont. "Nobody on our club now is thinking of all-star ratings or anything like that. All we want to do is win football games and we don't care how we do it. Just score the most points, that's our goal."

"Yes, we got a great bunch of fellows," echoed the massive Bauman. "Everybody is in shape and rarin' to go."

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Oct. 16—Well, Yale, it's nice to have known you. Buck Newsom got a lot of outside offers after the series, but the screwiest of all was one to sign up as a bouncer. Old Bo Bo would have made a good 'un.... Odd situation: when Quarterback Jack Huebel reported to Umpire Paul Huelbel in the Washington-Itdaho game—merely father and son.

Today's Guest Star: Sec Taylor, Des Moines Register. "All happenings in the major leagues hereafter will be dated before 1940 and after 1940—the year the National league won the world's series and two all-star games."

Most of the boys around town agree Dr. Ogden Miller's blast against big time football showed about as poor timing as the Yale team did against Penn. Eddie Mead, manager of Henry Armstrong, has joined his fighter in the hospital.... The Rockne film is getting rave notices all over the country. All say Pat O'Brien does a whale of a job in the lead.... Big Ten coaches can keep right on worrying—recent call to duty of officers of the marine corps reserve did not include the volunteer unit in which Bernie Bierman is a major.

One-Minute Interview Joe McCarthy: "We didn't lose by much... But we did lose... We lost in the first month of the season when Di Maggio hurt his leg after Jake Powell dented his skull against a steel wall in a Kentucky exhibition."

That's Them Brooklyn fans, be they baseball or football, are always squawking about something.... Sunday, Dr. Sutherland's Dodgers showed real class in pinning Pittsburgh's ears back, 21-0.... But the wolves are howling because their heroes were out slatted, 12, first down to nine.

Pampa Orchestra To Play At WTSC

Special To The NEWS

CANYON, Oct. 16—Residents of the Pampa community who like to dance the old-time dances to string music were issued a special invitation today to attend the West Texas State college homecoming celebration Saturday.

The invitation came from Olin E. Hinkle, director of journalism, a former Pampaan and member of the homecoming committee.

"Pampa groups have contributed much to the success of the western division of homecoming for three years," Hinkle said.

"William T. Jesse and his string orchestra from Pampa again will furnish music. This year there will be a professional caller for old-time dances. Miss DeLotha Martin, area recreation supervisor, a former Pampa school teacher, will bring a dance demonstration to Old Tascosa, as the western division will be called." A circus tent will be pitched on the campus to house Old Tascosa. The fiesta program will start at 7:30 p. m. Saturday with coronation of the homecoming queen.

Good Football Team Has Its Disadvantages

By HAROLD V. RATLIF

DALLAS, Oct. 15.—A good football team, Muses G. Taylor, coach at Buckner orphan home, has its disadvantages.

For one, there is the matter of getting enough games to fill the schedule. If the school wasn't in the Class A division of the interscholastic league the boys might find themselves practically out of competition.

Other schools of the district have to play them under the rules.

The home, operated by the Baptists of Texas, has some 650 children. In his high school division there are 198 of whom 74 are boys. Thirty-five boys are on the football squad.

"The other boys would all be, too, if we had enough uniforms to go around," Taylor said.

This may be taken care of next year, because the home is finishing a stadium where it can charge admission.

It's the sixth year for the home to have a football team in the interscholastic league and they've lost but one game in the last 24 played. This season Taylor has had to content himself with conference games and taking on second teams of the Class AA Dallas high schools.

He tried to get a game this week but it was no go.

Taylor, a product of Howard Payne college, not only is the dean of boys at the home but coaches all athletics. He has no assistants, except the older boys who have charge of the grammar school sports.

His teams in six years have won the district basketball championship four times and tracks twice in addition to two football titles.

In fact it's a habit among all of the boys at the home to win.

"You see, the grammar school has no lost a football game in six years and none could recall when it had been defeated in any other sport."

SMOKE SCREEN CHAPTER 2 "IN THE WORKS"
BY SAMUEL R. PETTENGILL

At Gettysburg, Abraham Lincoln reflected upon this "new nation conceived in liberty" economic, as much as political and religious. He asked himself and us the sober question "whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure." He spoke of the "great task remaining before us" and asked that "we take increased devotion" to that cause in order that "this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

A new birth of freedom! Is it possible that we are finally awakening to the challenge of the returning Caesar?

As the 1940s begin what do we see being planned for our further salvation?

Senator Wagner proposes to include the field of free enterprise further by selling government annuities—a clever and "humanitarian" device by which a spendthrift government could take over the assets of insurance companies and stuff their portfolios with more government bonds. This would undermine the security of $4,000,000,000 of private investment.

A bill is pending to give Mr. Secretary of the Interior Ickes the power to manage the petroleum industry—third largest in the nation.

A bill is pending to socialize the practice of medicine and to destroy a great profession while lowering our health standards from world leadership.

The United States Forest Service recommends that it be given power to regulate lumbering on all privately owned land. The slogan in Washington is not yet "Blood and Soil," but we are being pushed toward a Nazi America.

The Securities and Exchange commission tells a great utility company that it can't sell bonds, but must first pay out the money to manage a war from those who own it, as Hitler does across the sea.

Under power conferred by the reorganization bill of 1939, Mr. Roosevelt forces the resignation of the governor of the Farm Credit Administration and transfers it to Mr. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. This is a great rural credit agency, independently operated in large part by farmers themselves in which they have invested $130,000,000 in stock. Successively, industry wide (which is nation wide) bargaining is permitted, thus destroying local self government in industry, and constituting a long stride toward the "corporative state" of Benito and Adolf.

The federal government, by secret pressures, induces the radio broadcasters to write a code prohibiting the purchase of time to discuss controversial questions, and attempts, thereby, to destroy freedom of speech by critics of government policies.

The United States Housing administration asks for $800 million more to build "low cost" subsidized housing, indirectly competing with private housing and at the expense of all house owners and all taxpayers.

The Commodity Exchange administration proposes to bring twenty unregulated future markets under the same supervision as thirteen commodities now under their control. Just as if the whole effort to control the economic life of a great nation is not, in itself, gambling in futures.

The Temporary National Economic committee is reported to be preparing a "blast against American banks, insurance companies, building construction, and an enrollment of that reaching an all-time high for a fall semester this year.

The University's Golden Jubilee will extend over the next two years. One of the early major programs is to be the inauguration of Dr. W. R. White, former Oklahoma City pastor, as the seventh president of the school. He was appointed to the post last year after Sandefur's death.

Texans Not Likely To Be Drafted Soon

AUSTIN, Oct. 15.—(AP)—It is official but those in the know believe the male Texans of draft age has a 40 to 1 chance of not being called for compulsory military service this year.

On the same basis, which includes some unknown factors, the percentage will drop to 20 to 1 next year.

Carrying the speculation further, it appears possible that no Texans will be called before next year.

This is because of more than 1,000 national guardsmen and additional volunteers in the regular armed forces, both of which are credited against Texas draft quota.

Approximately 400,000 draftees probably will be called in November and although the Texas quota is not known yet it is estimated at about 18,000. The number of volunteers, to be added to guard personnel in figuring Texas' credit against this call, will not be tabulated until after registration day tomorrow.

"On the basis of the number of men per cent of the conscripts available for immediate training the state will be expected to supply five per cent of each call, distributed proportionately among the counties—less the credit for volunteers.

The credit includes all volunteers in the guard and regular armed forces when conscription legislation became effective and those who have since volunteered.

Thus it is entirely possible, said Adjutant General J. Watt Page, that very few, if any Texans will be drawn for training this year.

State selective service headquarters estimated 900,000 Texans will be in military places today—five day in polling places today—file their names and addresses.

The registration cards will be turned over immediately to 341 local draft boards for numbering and classification.

County clerks will report the number of registrants to state selective service headquarters which reports to Washington.

Golden Jubilee Held By Hardin-Simmons

Special To The NEWS

ABILENE, Oct. 16—Hardin-Simmons university, in beginning the celebration of its 50th birthday, took steps today to effect closer future relations with the Baptist general convention of Texas.

At the first of a series of golden jubilee programs, the Sweetwater Baptist association unanimously voted to "recommend" university trustees in the future, while the general convention will "elect" the board.

At present, the Sweetwater association elects the Hardin-Simmons trustees, and the general convention ratifies their selection.

Newly elected university trustees include Barner Carter, Taylor; E. M. Collier, Abilene; Dr. Fred C. Eastham, Wichita Falls; Howard Wall, Fort Worth, and Dr. O. E. English, Lubbock.

It was in the fall of 1890 that the Sweetwater association passed resolutions providing for an "association of churches" to be founded as "Abilene Baptist college."

The name was changed to Simmons college soon to recognize Dr. J. B. Simmons, New York pastor, a founder.

A decade later an information clerk in an Abilene hotel could not tell Dr. Julius Olsen, newly arrived minister at the faculty with a Yale university doctor of philosophy degree where it was located.

Today, Dr. Olsen is senior faculty member of Hardin-Simmons, which has an endowment of $1,500,000, a plant of 14 buildings, and an enrollment that reached an all-time high for a fall semester this year.

Pampa Orchestra To Play At WTSC

Special To The NEWS

CANYON, Oct. 16—Residents of the Pampa community who like to dance the old-time dances to string music were issued a special invitation today to attend the West Texas State college homecoming celebration Saturday.

The invitation came from Olin E. Hinkle, director of journalism, a former Pampaan and member of the homecoming committee.

"Pampa groups have contributed much to the success of the western division of homecoming for three years," Hinkle said.

"William T. Jesse and his string orchestra from Pampa again will furnish music. This year there will be a professional caller for old-time dances. Miss DeLotha Martin, area recreation supervisor, a former Pampa school teacher, will bring a dance demonstration to Old Tascosa, as the western division will be called." The War Today

IT IS interesting to observe the announcers as they "work" the Mailman's All-Request Hour nightly between 9 and 10 o'clock over KPDR.

Still others find it an outlet for wise-cracking at an acquaintance, or a means to an end—to take a jab at someone.

ANNOUNCER Bob Morris, who most of the time is the middle-man on this Mailman's All-Request Hour via KPDR's microphones, says his biggest worry, however, comes from the flood of telephone calls that develop spontaneously while the program is on the air.

Now in the United States a 1,000-pound bomb costs between $175 and $200, so 5% tons would run to between $1,650 and $2,000.

The War Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

This is one of the big moments of the European war world history, for that matter—since Soviet Leader Stalin may hold in his hands the balance of power between the Berlin-Rome Axis and Britain as he debates Russia's attitude towards the conflict at this critical juncture.

It is a moment of tense drama, too, for they say that Fuehrer Hitler is trying to jockey the Red chief into another horse-race, that Germany's Japanese ally is seeking a non-aggression pact with the Muscovites to stabilize the position.

We are not fighting the war merely to maintain the status quo, but among other things in order to survive. When our capacity to do that is more generally recognized throughout the world we shall be in a position to take further view of what we shall do when victory has been won.

It is difficult to see how Stalin can afford not to challenge Hitler now if the latter tries to smash his way across the Dardanelles.

So They Say I think he (Wendell Willkie) is a very fine man, but I think my old friend is a little bit more capable.
