Fair Attracts Throngs

GRAY COUNTY FREE EXHIBIT OF INTEREST

Several Hundred Exhibitors on Hand Today as Products Are Placed and Booths Filled.

VISITORS ARRIVE

Amarilloans Here to Inspect Event and to Advertise Tri-State Exposition to Be Held soon.

The Gray County Free fair got off to a good start this morning. Many entries were late, but at noon were being assembled in the basement of the city hall and in the McCormick-Deering warehouse on Ward street in gratifying quantities.

A total of 21 club pigs and swine had been entered in the hog show at noon. County Agent Ralph R. Thomas was expecting more to be placed on exhibition in the pens this afternoon. Dairy cattle are also due to arrive before night.

Many Entries Today

The exhibition room in the city hall was well covered with agricultural products. A half dozen community booths are expected to be completed this afternoon. Doubt of the fair committee that the fair would be short on grains, garden products, and individual exhibits were allayed when farmers from every section of the county continued to literally flood the hall with all sorts of products.

Most of today will be required to assemble the exhibits and to arrange the booths. Attendees at the fair early today were chiefly the exhibitors, and they will likely number several hundred. A large attendance was not expected for the first day of the fair, because the committee reckoned that most of the day would be spent in checking in entries. However, an appreciable crowd is expected tonight, tomorrow and Saturday.

The booths and exhibits, most of which were in the county stage, were inspected by a delegation of Amarillo citizens, representing the Tri-State fair association, this morning. They were accompanied by Henry Anselby of the Amarillo GLOBE-NEWS who will give the local exposition full publicity. Mr. Anselby declared Amarillo "is for the Pampa fair, and we want you to be for the Tri-State exposition."

The Amarilloans were guests of the Lions club at noon.

Alexander Rites to Be Saturday at First Baptist

The Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion and the Elks club are meeting this afternoon to make arrangements for the funeral service to be held for C. C. Alexander Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church. The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Pailbearers will be J. M. Dodson, Guy C. Saunders, H. E. Saunders, Dr. W. B. Wild, Charles L. Hughes, and Harry New.

Mr. Alexander will be buried with full military honors. The Hanson post of Amarillo will furnish the firing squad, the color bearers, and the caisson. The Pampa American Legion post band will be in attendance, and will march in the Pampa cemetery where interment will take place. Representatives from Legton posts of Borger, Wheeler, Shamrock, Miami, McLean, and other cities will attend.

Mr. Alexander, leader in both lodge and civic activities, died of pneumonia after an illness of only a few days. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie C. Alexander, a daughter, Elizabeth Jean, 4, three brothers, Ray Alexander of Winston Salem, N. C., Gene E. Alexander of Atlanta, Ga., and Frank Alexander of Winston Salem; a sister, Miss Pauline Alexander of Winston Salem.

The deceased Pampaan was born in Comer, Ga., April 7, 1889. He had been in the oil business here for the five years preceding his death.

Window on West Foster Attractive

One of the first stores to decorate its display windows with agricultural products was the Pampa Hardware & Implement company on West Foster.

Farm products are so attractively arranged in a front window that the display resembles a community booth more than a shop window. By using a "floor" of alfalfa and a background of green stalks of sorghums and corn standing up against the wall, unusual effects were achieved. Products in the window include ears of corn, maize, knaffir, sweet and Irish potatoes, green beans and peas, oats and wheat, and a nest of eggs.

SILAS STRAWN IS CONFIDENT OF RECOVERY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—Encouraging signs in the expressed opinion of Silas Strawn, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, are appearing on the business horizon.

He expressed this belief last night in a radio address in which he said that "more faith and fewer doubts" were the need of the day. "Let us quit talking about our troubles and regard the present as an opportunity to demonstrate our capacity for accomplishments," he told his radio listeners. "The whole world looks to America for leadership. Let us justify their expectations."

"I cannot predict when we shall revive out of our present economic condition, but when we look backward and see that in the past we have always come out of depressions and gone on to a better prosperity, I am confident that we shall repeat our past experience. When that recovery will come no one will have the hardihood, definitely to forecast. Certain it is that it can only be brought about by co-operating individual effort and not by governmental action."

Mr. Strawn let us be courageous and optimistic. Let us have an abiding confidence in the fundamental soundness of American institutions, in the enduring principles of our government. Let us have faith in our financial institutions and in the securities of our industries and utilities, and let us be patient and frugal."

On the matter of wages, the former president of the American Bar association expressed belief that the situation would receive cooperation from capital and labor.

"By reason of the lack of continuous employment," he said, "the difficulties of our wage-earners would be increased if they were to take a reduction in wages. On the other hand the wage earners must come to a realization that some manufacturers cannot resume production at a cost too high for the consumer to pay."

"Certainly no sensible American would regret contemplating for a moment precipitating this country into the debt and unemployment insurance systems now obtaining in Great Britain and Germany and which have necessitated the appeal by those countries for outside aid to carry the monstrous burden upon their treasury. For the workers of this country don't want doles—they want jobs."

Tentative Route of Highway 33 Is Picked by State

Highway No. 33 will extend along No. 34-A, now No. 152 for six miles and then will be routed in a northeasterly direction to the Roberts county line. State Resident Engineer White announced this morning.

It will leave No. 152 at a point in the middle of the section line between sections 30 and 31, block 3, and proceed to section 153, block 3, where it will enter Roberts county. After leaving No. 152, the road is routed over farms and pastures. It will be necessary for the county to buy all right-of-way from the point of intersection on No. 152 to the county line. The survey made by Mr. White must be approved by federal engineers, Federal Highway No. 33 will be routed in Gray county over this road.

About sixty percent of No. 152 between Pampa and the Wheeler county line will follow the present road. The remainder of the highway is surveyed over farms and pastures.

Aged Mother of Willis Succumbs

A pioneer woman of the Panhandle, Mrs. Eva Willis, 83, mother of Newton P. Willis, local attorney, died at her home in Canadian last night. Funeral services are being held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Willis was the wife of the first judge of the 31st judicial district before it was organized as it is now. Both her sons, Frank Willis who died in New York City two years ago, and Newton P. Willis were judges of the 31st district.

Mrs. Willis moved with her husband to Canadian about 45 years ago. Among those attending the funeral from Pampa are Otto Studer, Mr. Willis' law partner, and Walter Coffey. Mr. Willis was assisting the state in the trial of Clarence Pryor, charged with murder of his father-in-law, Dr. Guyton, when he was called to the bedside of his dying mother. John Studer is at Wheeler assisting in the trial of the case.

CLARENDON, Sept. 10. (AP)—Mrs. Guy Pierce, wife of the Donley county sheriff, blocked a jail escape here last night by holding two men at bay with a gun until her husband arrived.

The third prisoner in the plot, Belk Brown of Tucuman, N. M., serving four years on a murder charge, escaped. Mrs. Pierce said she shot at him and thought a bullet struck him.

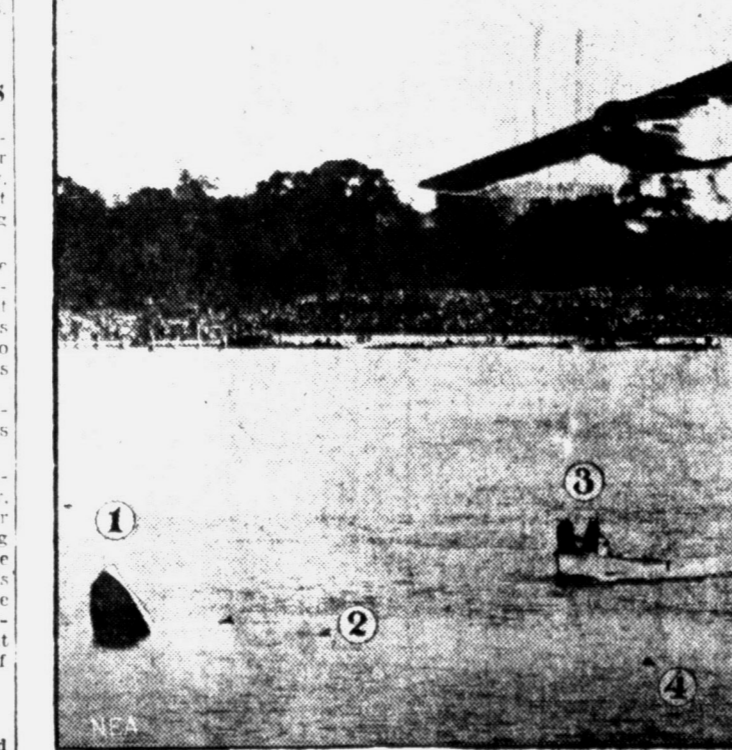

Those who failed to escape were Milan Brown of Tucuman, N. M., serving five years on a murder charge, and "Sleep" McDaniel of Clarendon, doing three years for car theft.

Four other prisoners refused to leave their cells.

HOUSE IS WARY

If Reduction Idea Fails, Solons May Turn to Proposal of Governor Long; to Study Constitution.

AUSTIN, Sept. 10. (AP)—Proponents of cotton acreage reduction in the Texas senate today agreed to restrict cotton acreage control bill while the house moved forward with its public hearings on the several bills introduced.

The senate compromise bill would restrict cotton acreage one-third of the cultivated area in 1932 and 1933 and prohibit the planting of any land to cotton on successive years.

A special committee of the house was named to study the bills introduced to a next test and if necessary to write one that would meet requirements.

The four requisites of the bill a material beneficial effect on the crop. Sufficient reduction to have price of the current crop, constitutional, enforceable, and acceptable to other states.

The motion for the special committee was adopted without dissent. Representative Lawrence Westbrook of Waco, said he expected the committee would report by noon tomorrow.

Two Points Debated
The senate agriculture committee was torn between two desires, one for a speedy action as possible and the other to know what kind of a law the farmers wanted the legislature to pass. The committee started hearings today and will conclude whenever a majority believes sufficient information has been added.

The action of the two houses, caused hope to wane that any bill would be passed yet this week.

Appointed to the house committee were A. P. Johnson of Clutz Springs, Ed Murphy of Livingston, J. B. Ford of McGregor, Henry Turner of Madisonville, and Eugene Gies of Austin.

The string of cotton farmers continued to file the house microphones to tell the legislature what it wanted in the way of relief.

Farmer Speaks
"They ask us what we are going to do if we don't plant cotton," H. H. Matthews of Orange county, stated. "I ask them what are we going to do if we do raise cotton? You can't eat it—it's getting so you can't sell it. It is even getting so worthless you can't trade it for a few yards of calico to make sally a dress."

Cotton acreage reduction advocates in the house were reported to have agreed on a bill that would limit cotton acreage to 25 per cent of the tillable land. The bill will be introduced by Representative J. J. Oson of Yoakum, author of a bill to limit acreage to one-third the cultivated area.

Westbrook said the bill had been submitted to the attorney general's department for a ruling and that on opinion had been given holding it to be constitutional and enforceable.

COAST GUARD IN SEARCH FOR FLIERS

SEATTLE, Sept. 10. (AP)—Ships of the coast guard cruised south of the Aleutian Islands today hunting the missing trans-Pacific fliers, Don Macle and Greil A. Allen, but officers of the guard found the search a hopeless one before they started.

The incident remained to bolster the conviction of the few who cling to the belief that the aviators were safe. An anonymous message saying a large monoplane had been seen to land on a small island off the British Columbia coast.

The three left Vancouver, British Columbia, early Tuesday with a 47 hour supply of supplies. Their fuel could not have lasted longer than until about noon yesterday. Pacific Standard Time, and they had expected to land in Seattle some time during the morning. They were last seen 110 miles from Sitka, 70 minutes after the takeoff.

Three coast guard cutters, the Northalbyn, Cheilan and Taska, started searching along the rocky and storm-scoured islands late yesterday.

The cutters were ordered to cruise to the western extremity of the island Chain and make a thorough search of the water and the coastline for the fliers or possible wreckage of the plane.

"It is almost a hopeless task," said Capt. H. D. Hunkley, division commander. "We'll do the best we can—but I'm afraid that will not be enough."

One person refused to admit the men were lost. Mrs. Frances Byson, Riverside, Calif., Macle's fiancée, who came here to greet him when he completed the flight, insisted they would be found.

As she sat in her hotel she fought back tears and betwined the hope racing through her mind, often to cry.

COMMISSIONERS DECIDE TO PAY REVISED GRAVEL DEBT

Doquette's Estimate Plus 20 Per Cent for Shrinkage Is Adopted Today.

A motion to pay Tom Jack on an amount equal to 643.3 cubic yards of gravel at $1 per yard, plus 20 per cent for shrinkage for gravel and other material on a road from the Methodo refinery to the railroad was passed by county commissioners this morning by a 3-2 vote.

Mr. Jackson, through his attorney, W. M. Lewis, immediately announced that he would appeal the case to district court.

The commissioners voted to pay Mr. Jackson approximately $1,621 less than $3,840, the amount the claimant contends the county owes him. Allowing 20 per cent for shrinkage, 643.3 cubic yards of gravel at $1 per yard would total approximately $2,219.

The court voted to accept County Engineer A. H. Doquette's estimate of the gravel priced on the road that is 643.3 yards.

After hearing testimony of a number of witnesses, recalled by both J. L. Noel, who protested against payment of the bill, and Jackson, Commissioner Lewis of Cox of the Pampa precinct made a motion to allow the bill for $3,840. There was no second to this motion.

Motion Is Amended
Commissioner John R. White of Laketon then made a motion allowing the bill in an amount equal to 643.3 cubic yards, plus 25 per cent for shrinkage, at $3 per yard. Commissioner H. G. McClosky of Mesquite No. 3 made a motion to amend White's motion and allow 15 per cent for shrinkage instead of 25 per cent. Mr. White then offered another motion allowing 20 per cent for shrinkage, the bill to be paid on Mr. Doquette's estimate. Mr. McClosky seconded this motion, and Mr. Cox and Commissioner M. M. Newnam voted against it. Judge S. D. Stennis cast the deciding vote for the county judge does not vote except in case of a tie.

Both Jackson and W. B. Hendrix, checker on the job, were recalled to the stand by the claimant. Mr. Noel recalled G. H. Russell and Roy Hiatt, truck drivers on the project.

Last Book Found
The book which Jackson testified was used by Hendrix in keeping a record of the yards hauled, was introduced in evidence this morning. It was reported stolen from Mr. Jackson's house yesterday afternoon. The claimant explained this morning it was found last night.

Hendrix first denied it was the book he used, but under cross-examination by Mr. Lewis, agreed that every entry in the book was made in his handwriting except one. Mr. Jackson testified tickets were made from it. Yesterday, Hendrix stated tickets were made from another book which was introduced in evidence. Jackson introduced evidence intended to prove Hendrix's book did not contain the true record. This book had a mirror encased on the front cover.

Russell and Hiatt testified the "mirror book" was the one used by Hendrix on the job; they said they saw it several times when Hendrix rode with them.

Asked by Mr. Lewis if he ever saw Jackson's book, Hiatt said he couldn't remember, and would not say if he had or hadn't.

Mr. Kuykendall said that financial arrangements concerning his contract, satisfactory both to himself and to the school board, had been made. Members of the board confirmed Mr. Kuykendall's statement since last spring.

INJURED MAN TELLS STORY OF OUTRAGE

Continental Oil Company Clerk Shot by Blacks While in Wichita Falls With His Young Fiancee.

GIRL HYSTERICAL

Conoco Manager Succumbs to Heart Attack While He Assists Officers Who Seek Two Assailants.

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 10. (AP)—One man was dead, another with a bullet in his spine, and a 23-year-old girl in a serious condition at a hospital here Thursday as the sequel to the attack by two negro men upon the couple as they sat in an automobile on one of the better residential streets about 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

Meanwhile, practically every officer in Wichita and adjoining counties other than on duty or prepared for instant duty while the search, unmarked at noon approached Thursday, for the assailants was continued.

Dies of Heart Attack
J. D. King, 43, manager of service stations of the Continental Oil company, was the indirect victim of the outrage, having died of a heart attack in an automobile while accompanying officers in a search for two negroes who had been reported to have been seen on a road south of the city limits. His widow and 10-year-old daughter survive him.

Andrew N. (Ted) Nudriff, 25, formerly of Wichita Falls but now of 1834 Alton street, Fort Worth, a bookkeeper for the Continental Oil company, who is suffering from a considerable total bullet wound, and his 23-year-old fiancée, a stenographer for a business concern here, were the patients in the Wichita general hospital as the result of the attack.

Nudriff, informed as to the seriousness of his wound, chimed though with obvious difficulty, detailed to George Anderson, assistant district attorney, during the early hours of Thursday morning the story of the attack.

It corroborated in detail the information related by the girl after she had pushed her companion from beneath the steering wheel of the automobile and had taken him to the hospital. Opines still were necessary Thursday to calm her hysteria.

The bullet which struck Mr. Nudriff was described as having entered the right side of the neck, severing the spinal cord and lodging beneath the skin on the left side.

While there had been no evidences of high feeling, officers here were prepared for emergencies in the event of the capture of the assailants, according to Perry Browning, sheriff, and Dick Morris, chief of police, who were directing the search.

Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary in a law office, sees Mark Travers for the first time when together they rescue a puppy from downtown traffic in Marlboro, western metropolis.

Norma receives telephone calls from Travers but ignores them. She goes for a drive with Bob Farrell and he tells her he is leaving Marlboro. Two days later she meets Travers on the street and goes to lunch with him.

Mark is invited to dinner at the apartment, Norma is there, making preparations when a caller arrives. He tells her he is Mark's father and demands her affair with his son shall end.

Norma pressed her fingers together nervously. She took a step back, felt her shoulder touch Chris Saunders. "Christ, the younger girl whispered, 'I'm frightened, Christ!'"

There was not even time for an answer. Light had appeared in a window to the left of the little group on the shadowed porch. Now the door of the house opened. A man's figure, black against the yellow lamplight, appeared.

Bradley Hart was saying something to the minister. Mark turned and came to Norma's side. How handsome he was! Oh, of course everything would be all right. Mark would make sure of that.

Since $1 will buy a bushel of tomatoes—

And a bushel of tomatoes may be transformed into 40 No. 2 cans of this fruit—

Which is equal to 20 quarts.

And since tomatoes have food value which is often lacking in the diets of the needy—

Why let anyone go hungry this winter?

The campaign to put up 5,000 cans of food for welfare work is well under way, and practically all women's organizations are helping either with this or with other welfare activities.

Clubs of the entire seventh district Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will assist with welfare work this year, according to Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president. The various groups are beginning their year's activities this month.

A hearty response is expected to the request of the president's emergency committee that the clubs of the General Federation cooperate in the preservation of food supplies.

The following suggestions made by the committee are printed in The Clubwoman, national magazine:

1. Arrange canning demonstrations by competent persons to instruct low income groups in methods of home canning.

2. Arrange for supervision of group canning where group gardens have been grown. Where there are no such gardens, devise ways and means of securing surplus fruits and vegetables which otherwise would go to waste. In many places berries and other products suitable for jellies and jams are growing wild and may be had for the asking.

3. Devise ways of securing the necessary containers for canning where families are not able to buy them.

4. Many homemakers not in the low income group may preserve surplus food stuffs and thus contribute to local needs next winter.

Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner of Claude, nationally known clubwoman, is to be a leader in this work. Club women throughout the nation are advising her as to what food surplus there is in the various districts in order that needs may be better met this winter.

Ben Stone and James O. Guleke, Amarillo attorneys, arrived at the courthouse this morning to present and argue a motion for a new trial in H. E. Stephens' damage suit against Dr. W. F. Nicholas.

Ten days ago, a jury returned a $7,500 verdict for Stephens. Stephens' suit was based upon alleged negligence of the dentist in extracting a tooth. W. M. Lewright is representing Mr. Stephens. The motion is due to be presented this afternoon.

The meeting of the Woman's Missionary society at the Central Baptist church Wednesday afternoon was attended by the following members: Mesdames G. C. Stark, B. F. Walker, S. L. Anderson, G. L. Moore, O. J. McAllister, Ray B. Hungate, J. M. White, W. C. Brown, Will Turpin, D. L. Lunsford, and Cecil Lunsford.

The opening song was followed with a prayer by Mrs. Walker. It was voted to observe a day of prayer Sept. 16. Each woman is to bring a covered dish and to spend the day at the church.

Following the business meeting, an interesting Bible study from the Old Testament was presented by Mrs. S. L. Anderson, who also dismissed the group with prayer.

JUDGING IS BEGUN IN WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT

AWARDS MAY BE COMPLETED BY TONIGHT; MRS. SWEATMAN IS WINNER IN CHINA PAINTING

This morning, the first half-day of the Gray County Free Fair, was a busy one in the women's department, which is being maintained in the Mitchell building. Entries continued to arrive, judging was begun, and scores of visitors reviewed the exhibits.

China painting entered by Mrs. T. W. Sweatman proved to be the decided favorite in this booth as judged by Mrs. J. B. Saul, Mrs. C. T. Locke, and Mrs. A. L. Muncey, all of Miami. Mrs. H. C. Wilson was in charge of this division.

Mrs. Sweatman took first, second, and third prizes in the conventional china painting group. It was with her tea set that she won first place. It was with a tea set painted by Mrs. Sweatman also that took first place in the luster group. With her vase she took second and third place in this group.

Mrs. H. C. Wilson took first place as having the finest exhibition of hand-painted china of six pieces or over. It was her dinner set that won the prize.

The sweepstake was won by Mrs. Sweatman with her hand-painted plaque in naturalistic design.

Many Flowers Entered
Flowers were still being entered at noon today and others were expected this afternoon by Mrs. Mels Walberg and Mrs. C. O. Duenkel, who are in charge.

The flower booth is covered with white muslin. "The flowers are their own decorations," said Mrs. Walberg. Entries in the department thus far include cockscomb, coleus, periwinkles, dahlias, fern, poinsettia, arctichoke, centuria, snapdragons, and the "wonder plant," the latter, entered by Mrs. Walberg, being so called because she can discover no name for it.

Many Pictures Entered
Mrs. V. E. Paehere and Mrs. C. L. Craig were hanging scores of pictures this morning. Some were by professionals, others by adult amateurs, and still others were by school children.

Judging of the pictures was to have been begun during the noon hour today by the three Miami women who judged the china painting.

Antiques Still Coming
Antiques were still being entered shortly before noon today. They were being arranged and cared for in the lunch room of the building by P. P. Reid.

Mrs. Fred Schneider was one of the most valuable contributors to this division. She entered a number of antiques which she brought to this country from Switzerland.

Much interest was shown this morning in the booth of applied arts, handcraft, and novelties, headed by Mrs. Clifford Braly. Here there are ship models, lamp shades, fancy trays, baskets, candlesticks, and dozens of other articles made by residents of Gray county.

Judging in Mrs. Braly's division probably will take place this evening.

RAMPAGING PIRATES NEARLY ELIMINATE ROBINS' CHANCES

Jobless of New York and Chicago Benefit by Over $100,000.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Completely out of the pennant race but hoping to gain a first division berth in the National league the Pittsburgh Pirates have begun a brilliant spurt just in time to do some serious damage to the chances of the teams they meet.

Triumphing over Brooklyn yesterday, the Pirates extended their latest winning streak to eight games, their longest of the season, and left the Robins in the uncomfortable position of being within a half game of mathematical elimination from the struggle for the flag.

The defeat put Brooklyn 17 games behind the league leading St. Louis Cardinals with only a possible 17-game gain if they win all their remaining games and the Cards lose them all.

Fast Traveling

Before downing Brooklyn 5 to 1 yesterday on a fine pitching performance by Henry Meine, Pittsburgh had given St. Louis a setback by winning three straight and had taken four from Cincinnati.

Washington carried off the honors of the American league's only game, downing the Philadelphia Athletics 2 to 1 in a 10-inning duel between "General" Al Crowder and Rube Walberg without doing any serious damage to the A's' pennant prospects. The victory still left the Senators 13 games behind with only 18 to go.

The two exhibition games, played on an off day for nearly all major league clubs, netted $104,131.60 for the unemployed of New York and Chicago, brought a victory apiece for the two leagues and apparently proved that it is easier to score with the National league ball than the Ivelier American league sphere.

As 60,549 fans saw the New York Yankees beat the Giants 7 to 3, only three of the 10 counters were scored with the American league ball in the first five innings while the rest, including a homer by Babe Ruth, came in the last four frames.

The results of the comparison were much the same in Chicago, where a crowd of 34,865 saw the Cubs and Charlie Root down the White Sox 3 to 0. Not a run was scored with the American league ball and all three in the last half of the game. Root proved himself equally proficient with either, holding the Sox to six hits.

Secretary Klein Is Wrong About Fish

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—The Atlantic ocean is not so big as Assistant Secretary Klein of the commerce department thought, and his error cost him an apology.

Klein a few years ago laughed at the idea of the bureau of fisheries that tagged fish, dumped into the sea, could be traced. He said the ocean was too big.

A recent fishing trip in Maine proved to Klein he was wrong. He and his party caught three tagged finners.

Klein sent the tags and an apology to Commissioner O'Malley of the bureau along with the declaration that the commissioner could laugh at him.

Hornsby to Stay At Cubs Helm Despite Trouble

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. (AP)—Baseball has produced many queer contrasts but the brief and fitful managerial career of Rogers Hornsby, boss of the flattering Cubs, today looked like the classic of them all.

Five years ago, the "Rajah" led the St. Louis Cardinals to their first National league championship. He topped that performance off by plotting the Cards to the world's championship. As St. Louis toasted him as the "wonder man" of baseball, he lost his job and was traded to the New York Giants.

Today, he is leading the Cubs in one of their poorest campaigns in years. Trouble appears to be dogging his footsteps everywhere. Fans boo him. Yet, he appears more strongly entrenched as manager of the Cubs than ever. Owner William Wrigley Jr., who dismissed former Manager Joe McCarthy toward the end of the 1930 campaign because he failed to win the pennant and the world's series in 1929, insists that "Hajah" is here to stay as manager.

"Hornsby is here to stay as manager of the Cubs," owner Wrigley said. "He will be given a full rein of the team and all my support is with him. He has had many difficulties this year but I'm convinced he will have the fans cheering him and his team before long."

The case of Hack Wilson, baseball's man of tragedy for 1931, has been the most distressing to Hornsby. The big little man, who batted out 56 home runs last year and broke the National league record for runs batted in, has failed to deliver all season. Whether the reason for his reversal of form was failure to keep in condition, refusal to do his best under Hornsby or a seasonal slump may never be known. He will wear a new uniform next year and so may Pat Malone, the Cub fireball ace, who was fined heavily last week for assaulting two Chicago sports writers after what Manager Hornsby reported was a "night out."

Judge Refuses Capone Report

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. (AP)—A federal grand jury report on its investigation of the prohibition charges against "Scarface" Al Capone was refused by U. S. District Judge James H. Wilkerson today.

"I'm not interested in reports, only in indictments," Judge Wilkerson informed the jury.

A moment later the grand jury appeared before Federal Judge John P. Barnes, advised him it had no indictments to report and was discharged.

This Game of GOLF

By O.B. KEELER

"They say there's nothing new under the sun," observed Harry Stephens, professional at Druid Hills Golf club, Atlanta. This was, of itself, not a particularly original observation. I fancied Harry would add to it. He did.

"You'd think, after all these years and generations of tips on golf," Harry went on, "that whatever else was in store, the tips would have been given out. Wouldn't you?"

Personally, I had been thinking that for a long time—in fact, since some of the alleged wise eggs began boosting the theory of pointing the chin toward the right shoulder before starting the back-swing.

This is a revival of a much older, and sounder, theory having to do with the master-eye which in some cases (and frequently with the most expert players) is the left eye.

Help! New Putting Aid

"Well," Harry went on, "here's a new one on putting. At least it's new to me. And I did think I'd heard every possible sure-fire tip that would tend to improve a man's putting, or at least make it less terrible."

"I've a member who spends his time here and in Florida. His name is W. J. Morrison. He practices putting with each hand separately, and then with both together. He explains it this way:

"Most players practice putting with both hands, just as they put when engaged in playing. A few practice putting part of the time with the right hand alone—trying to get the propelling part of the stroke adjusted.

"Now, the way to practice putting is to put a white with the right hand alone, and then put a white with the left hand, also alone; and then practice a white with both hands—your usual method.

"The reason for the left-hand solo practice is because it is the left hand that is always getting in the way of the stroke, tying it up—blocking it—nipping the swing.

"The right hand may be trusted to do its work reasonably well. It is, and should be, the propelling power in the stroke. It gets plenty of practice anyway, such as it is.

The Tip-Off

"But when you try putting with the left hand alone, you see at once what has been the matter. The darned thing has little or no idea where to go. It usually tends to stop uncertainly as the ball is hit, or go through toward the left, off-line.

"Putting with the left hand alone, if you are going to get the ball into or near the hole, the hand will have to swing itself on smoothly in that direction—just as it should swing in the proper two-handed stroke.

"There's nothing to disguise its vagaries, putting by itself. And if, and when, you can get the left hand to stroke its way smoothly thru impact, on toward the objective, you will find your regular two-handed putting straightened out amazingly."

I like that "if" and "when." At that, it sounds like a new hunch to me. It might be useful.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murfee and daughter, Jeanne, are leaving today to spend the winter in San Antonio.

Del Baker Day Brings Double Win Yesterday to Beaumont Nine.

By The Associated Press

Wichita Falls and Shreveport closed their combats against each other yesterday by splitting a doubleheader. The Sports won the first, 6 to 4. The Spudders grabbed the nightcap, 2 to 1.

Lefty Erickson, who has been sold to the Chicago White Sox, was in top form. He limited Wichita Falls to nine hits. His mates collected 14 off Presnell. Lee and Ferrell engaged in a mound duel in the second game, with Ferrell the winner. He held the Sports to four hits.

The Beaumont Exporters celebrated Manager Del Baker's day by sweeping a doubleheader from the San Antonio Indians, 3 to 0 and 9 to 3. George Hollerson held the Indians to six hits in the first game. Whitlow Wyatt stopped the Redskins with three hits in the second game for his eleven-th victory this year. The second game was called at the end of the sixth because of darkness.

The Fort Worth Cats won their second consecutive game from Dallas by beating Lefty Hansen, 6 to 4. Dick Whitworth hurled the Cats to victory.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

If you want to receive full value and benefit from your vegetables, it's a good idea to study their possibilities and characteristics. Time and thought spent in the preparation of the late summer vegetables make it possible to provide an abundant, varied and satisfactory diet at low cost.

The cooking of vegetables in combinations is a worth-while way to save work and fuel. Mild-flavored vegetables particularly lend themselves to this method of cookery. Combined with a strong flavored vegetable, the result is often a pleasant and unusual whole. Turnips and potatoes are a time-honored example of such a combination. Expensive vegetables combined with inexpensive ones frequently make for economy without sacrifice.

Summer squash is an excellent vegetable too often overlooked when meals are being planned. It is especially good in combinations on account of its bland flavor. Combined with tomatoes and cheese, it offers a well flavored main dish of high food value.

Vitamins Are Numerous
There are several varieties of early or "summer" squash and they are good sources of vitamins. Cymling or "patty pan," crook-neck and marrow, all appear in market about the same time and are delicately flavored. These varieties are very fine and tender and for this reason are seldom peeled and the seeds are not removed. It is at this stage of their development that they are rich sources of vitamins. Later, as they mature and the skin hardens and seeds toughen, they must be discarded, as in winter squash.

If your family objects to summer squash and regards it as tasteless, try steaming it and serving it with a white sauce to which cheese has been added. This dish is well adapted to the needs of children as well as adults.
Squash salad is unusual. Boil squash until tender. Drain and cool. Reject seeds and cut the firm part in neat cubes. Combine

Five Prisoners Blamed in Riot

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 10. —Five convicts were in solitary confinement today as officials investigated a riot at the state penitentiary yesterday in which one prisoner was killed and several guards and other convicts were injured.

Warden W. F. Davis quelled the outbreak by refusing the bargain with the mutineers as policemen, deputy sheriffs, and firemen swarmed the walls to beat down any wholesale attempt by the convicts to escape.

CHEAP SEATS IN FIGHT MAY DRAW CROWD

Tony Canzoneri Will Defend His Title Tonight; Meets Jack Berg.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10. —Tony Canzoneri is to defend his lightweight title against Jack Berg at the Polo grounds tonight and only $5 will buy the best seat in the place.

The unusually low top price, the result of several failures this summer, is expected to bring out a crowd of about 30,000 to see Canzoneri defend his title for the second time against the English whirlwind. It is the third and rubber meeting between the two but on the first occasion, when Berg gave the grinning New Yorker one of the worst beatings of his career, Tony had not yet taken the lightweight crown from Al Singer.

Reversing the situation before their battle in Chicago, when Canzoneri avenged that earlier defeat by knocking out Berg in the second round, the pre-battle "dope" is all in favor of the champion this time. Canzoneri is favorite at about 2 to 1 and there is a strong conviction among some of the experts that Berg, with his constant display of speed and punching, has burned himself out to the point where he may again become an easy victim.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. (AP)—Grains advanced early today, influenced by withdrawal of Danubian offerings of wheat at Liverpool and by bullish crop reports from France. Wheat imports for France were officially declared necessary owing to confirmation of crop damage and because of further unfavorable weather.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 cent, up wheat advanced held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 1-8 higher but later reacted.

EL PROGRESSO BEGINS STUDY

El Progreso club members met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John V. Andrews to begin their year's study on "The Woman Problem and the Woman Movement."

Because of the resignation of Mrs. C. M. Bryson as president of the club, Mrs. C. P. Buckler was elected to the president's chair.

Those answering roll call were Mesdames George Briggs, C. P. Buckler, W. M. Craven, T. D. Hobart, C. T. Hunkapillar, P. C. Ledrick, H. L. Ledrick, J. M. McDonald, Dave Pope, Walter Purviance, Charles Thut, George Walstad, James Todd, and the hostess.

Mrs. Briggs gave an interesting talk on the economic and social functions of the primitive woman, treating on the primitive woman as a homemaker and showing that around her life radiated the culture of the time.

Mrs. Walstad's discussion was based on the primitive woman and how she was treated, showing that the primitive woman was head of the household and on the same social equality as man.

Mrs. Buckler told of the use of taboos and religious precepts of the primitive woman. She stated that our early ancestors were very superstitious and lived in fear of the evil eye and spirit at certain periods.

The hostess served iced watermelon during a social half hour. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 22, in the home of Mrs. Briggs. Mrs. James Todd will be leader.

peating, hat to herself, "I know they're safe. I know they'll come in."

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, Sept. 10. (AP)—The drone of what sounded like an airplane engine was heard by four passengers on board the vessel Arthur J. Bowdin in this vicinity between 9 and 10:30 a.m. The sound was heard coming from southwest, dying away gradually to the northeast.

Thick weather prevailed over the mountains at the time. Whether it might have been the transpacific monoplane of Don Moyle and G. A. Allen was a matter of question.

Pacific coast aviation circles believed it possible the sound heard off Dutch harbor might have been the missing plane which Don Moyle and G. A. Allen took off from northern Japan on a non-stop flight to Seattle.

It was pointed out, however, that if the sound was really the transpacific plane it indicated Moyle and Allen had made a forced landing and succeeded in getting the ship into the air again, as their fuel supply was sufficient to keep them in the air not later than noon Wednesday, Pacific Standard Time with continuous flying.

able. Relation Provided

The reduction would apply in 1932 and 1933 with provision made for rotation of crops after 1933.

It was indicated reduction proponents would get behind this bill in the belief it would meet all the requirements set for any bill to be reported to the house.

Several members said they favored the acreage reduction bill but that if conditions warranted and it was shown acreage reduction was impractical they would vote for the Long plan.

Sentiment for the Long plan apparently was gaining a little favor

COTTON IS FIRM

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10. (AP)—The cotton market had a firm opening today, responding fully to much better Liverpool cables than due, first trades showing gains of 8 to 9 points, although there was a slight recession of 1 to 2 points right after the start prices soon rallied again on trade buying and covering by shorts scalpers. October traded up to 6.99 and December to 7.22, or 12 points above yesterday's close. The action of the Texas farmers probably helped the early advance.
