Pampa Will Have Four Methodist Preachers GREECE APPEALS TO U. S., BRITAIN FOR AID

Assistant To Pearce Named By Cabinet

Bishop Holt Cites Protestant Church Objectives

Reading of the appointments of pastors concluded this afternoon at the five-day session of Northwest Texas conference.

G. T. Palmer returns as district superintendent of the Clarendon district, the area in which Pampa is located.

The First Methodist church will have two pastors, the Rev. W. M. Pearce, present pastor, who will have an assistant, the Rev. Frank Weir.

Pastor of McCullough church will be the Rev. Aubrey Ashley, of Harrah, the Rev. Charles N. Starnes, The Rev. H. H. Bratcher, who formerly served both churches, will go to Groom.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas, who presided at the conference, outlined the objectives of Protestant churches in America, basing the aims on those expressed by a group of preachers gathered in Washington cathedral last September.

The church must be concerned with the obligation it owes a nation preparing for war.

The church has an obligation to maintain world-wide missions.

It is an obligation of the church to keep vital the faith of our people.

Cites Lack Of Chaplains Explaining these points, the bishop told of the number of young men in this nation soon to be going into military camps, the Federal Council of Churches in Christ has selected Paul Moody, a son of the famous Dwight Moody, to head a committee relating local churches to the spiritual needs of the training camps.

On world-wide missions, the bishop said: "If Germany, Italy and Japan dominate Europe, Asia and Africa, it will not be hard to see that the missions in those continents will be ended. Missions in Scandinavia, Holland, Germany, Central Europe—these are no longer supported."

He sounded an ominous note in declaring "the day may come when British missionary work shall cease."

Speaking of keeping religion vital, he said every preacher must be a prayerful and thoughtful man and sermons must be attuned to the times.

Despite the rain a large crowd gathered in the auditorium of the First Methodist church to attend the final session and hear the announcement of the appointments, which had been prepared by the bishop and his cabinet.

Dies Bares Arrest Of Secret Agent

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Chairman Martin Dies summoned additional witnesses before the congressional committee on un-American activities today after disclosing the arrest of a man he identified as a Nazi secret police agent.

Dies said he planned to question four persons in a continuation of the committee's investigation of evidence unearthed by committee agents here.

Dies identified one of yesterday's mysterious witnesses as Heinrich Peter Fassbender, alias Harry Smith, an agent of the Gestapo.

Fassbender, 23, was seized on the west coast, taken to Washington and then brought here for questioning by the committee.

The witness told newsmen that he had been a Gestapo agent since 1935, working in Spain and Belgium before coming to this country.

Interest in the committee's hearing was heightened by Dies' disclosure that a "socially prominent" Chicago woman had been named in a letter written by the agent of a foreign country and seized by committee investigators.

'Miracle' Baby Dies At Age Of 5 Months

VAN (Van Zandt county), Nov. 19 (AP)—Five-month-old Vevia Marie Camper, the miracle infant swathed in a 22-year-old doll dress who survived premature birth in a cook stove oven "incubator," is dead.

Vevia Marie died several days ago of pneumonia. In the little three-room house on a small farm where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Camper, filled the soil, she died. Quietly, simple services and burial were held.

No stranger story of a tiny babe's valiant fight for life has ever been told.

Just five months ago in the Camper farmhouse off a sandy road deep in East Texas farmland, Vevia Marie, three months premature and weighing only two and a half pounds, was born one night.

Physicians despaired of keeping her alive.

But Mrs. Vevia Swinney, 45, second cousin of Vevia Marie's mother, and a neighbor, asked for the chance.

Quickly a fire was built in the old kitchen stove. Mrs. Swinney guessed at the correct temperature from the old wood-burner, slipped the babe into the oven, cradled on a pillow. A milk pan full of steaming water sat beside the infant to insure moist air.

Many hours later she lifted the child from the oven, carried it a half mile through a cotton patch to her own humble home. Three quart bottles of hot water and fraying blankets were converted into a makeshift incubator for the babe on a little iron bed.

Vevia Marie grew strong. Every three hours she took three ounces of a corn syrup and cow milk mixture.

Many days Vevia Marie was placed in a bushel basket and carried to the fields, a piece of tarlatan protecting it from the sun while Mrs. Swinney picked tomatoes.

Dr. James Montgomery, elderly Van physician, said:

"Only love has kept her alive. . . . Such premature babies at best live 48 hours or maybe five or six days at the outside. And that's in the very best surroundings. This case is a marvelous thing—a miracle."

But the miracle ended a few days ago. In the little farm house, where hundreds of gifts had found their way after the story of the child's birth had been told the nation over, she died.

Philip Murray Not CIO Candidate

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 19 (AP)—Philip Murray, Pittsburgh labor leader, told the Congress of Industrial Organizations' convention today that he was not a candidate to succeed John L. Lewis as CIO chief.

The gray-haired, quiet-spoken vice president of the CIO had been the only person mentioned at the national convention as a possible successor to Lewis.

"I want the convention to know that I don't have any aspirations," he said.

"I am not a candidate for president of the CIO. That decision has been reached by me."

Cancer Control To Be Subject Of Broadcast

Continuing the series of talks on cancer, Mrs. Gerald Franklin, local nurse, will speak on a radio program broadcast over KPND at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

Due to a crowded program, the Pampa Rotary club tomorrow will not hear the address that had been scheduled by Dr. B. M. Bellamy. The address has been postponed until the club's meeting next week.

Dr. R. Malcolm Brown will speak over KPND at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Last night Dr. H. L. Wilder was the speaker on the radio program.

Talks on cancer have been arranged throughout the county this week, according to Mrs. G. C. Waldstad, program chairman for the local unit of the Women's Field Army for cancer control.

Included in the talks are the following facts that have been established by the American College of Surgeons:

Cancer is not hereditary or contagious; from 50 per cent to 95 per cent of the many kinds of cancer are curable if treated early.

There are only three accepted forms of cancer treatment, surgery, x-ray, and radium; 55 per cent of cancer victims are women; 45 per cent are men.

U. S. Destroyers Inspect Papers Of Two Latin Tankers

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Crews of the Mexican Tanker Cerro-Azul and the Honduran Freighter Ceiba said today upon arrival in Tampico from New Orleans that United States destroyers eight miles off Tampico had ordered them to stand by for inspection of the ships' papers.

Official Mexican reports said the presence of the destroyers last Saturday caused one German merchant ship master to scuttle his vessel and three others to scurry back to Tampico for refuge, believing the warships were British.

The Cerro-Azul and Ceiba crews identified one of the destroyers as the Plunkett, one of the U. S. Navy's newest.

DOWNEY, Calif., Nov. 19 (AP)—A conference between union leaders, aircraft executives and government representatives, in an effort to end the strike at the Vultee Airplane factory, was recessed at 6 a. m. today—17 hours after it started.

There was no indication that progress, if any, had been made toward reopening the plant, closed now five days.

Ten Ships Sunk, Germans Claim

BERLIN, Nov. 19—Ten British merchant ships totaling 51,220 tons were sunk off England yesterday and last night—eight by submarines and two by dive bombers—the German high command reported today.

In addition, a communicate said, three other ships were damaged by bombs.

The high command said the eight ships sunk by submarines were all armed merchant vessels.

One submarine was credited with sinking four totaling 23,880 tons, the other sinking four, including two armed tankers, totaling 21,340 tons.

A communicate described attacks by a "restricted number" of British submarines on German territory last night as without effect.

During the night attacks on England, the communicate said, "battle planes of the Italian flying corps attacked a city on the east coast of England with good results."

The German air attacks yesterday were said to have been aimed at "war vital objectives" of London, England's south coast and the midlands.

DNB (official German news agency) said German planes last night started new fires in attacks on industries at Birmingham and Coventry and harbor facilities at Liverpool.

Night Raid Problem Far From Solved

LONDON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Air Marshal Sir Philip Joubert declared today the problem of night air raids on London was "far from being solved," although the government is "doing its damndest to find an answer."

The Evening News reported a new method of combating night raiders already was being tried out successfully on a "small scale."

"It is known that points where the new device has been tried," the News said, "have been marked down by the Germans as 'hot spots' to be avoided."

Production of the devices is starting on a large scale, it said, and it is likely that "anti-aircraft fire will become steadily more accurate."

28 Firms 100 Per Cent In Roll Call

Twenty-eight Pampa business houses and offices have 100 per cent membership in the 1940 Red Cross roll call, Chairman Hal H. Lucas reported today after a meeting of workers in the business district held in the city hall.

A complete report is not yet available because a number of workers have not yet completed their territories and some have not even turned in reports.

Mr. Lucas asked his business district workers to "go out and finish up your work as soon as possible."

If there are firms with 100 per cent memberships who have been overlooked, they are asked to call Mrs. E. White, telephone 980.

Additional 100 per cent firms and businesses reported today are: Martin-Lubricating company, Dick Gibson's Service station, Texas Furniture company, Jones-Roberts Shoe store, Western Auto store, Gilbert's store, Southwestern Public Service company, Bill Fraser Insurance, Panhandle Insurance, Weir's Barber shop, Stennis and Osborne, Dr. H. H. Hicks' office, Dr. R. M. Johnson's office, Drs. Overton and Howze's office, Dr. W. B. Wild's office, Sturgeon and Sturgeon, Dr. Bellamy and Jones' office, B. L. Parker's office, John Plant's office, Braly and Braly's office, Texas company, Dr. Wild and Brown office.

Director Reno Stinson, who has been appointed chairman of the Gray county committee to direct local observation of Texas Highway Week, Dec. 1 to 7, which was proclaimed by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, discussed plans for the week. His plans call for a luncheon or banquet program with prominent highway and other officials as special guests. A prominent speaker is to be invited to make the principal address at the function.

Purpose of the week, sponsored by the Texas Good Roads association, is to call attention of the people of Texas to the need for additional highway construction and maintenance and to protect from further diversion the funds, provided by motorists through gasoline and other motor taxes, for highway purposes.

Director Ray J. Hagan, chairman of the BCD Food Stamp committee, was called upon for a report of his committee. The board directed that the committee again contact the Gray county commissioners court to discuss the advisability of the Food Stamp plan for Gray county.

Scarberry Faces Assault Charge

Charges of assault with intent to kill were filed by District Attorney Clifford Braly today against Joe Scarberry, arrested yesterday in connection with an alleged assault upon Earl Gossage who is a patient in a local hospital. Gossage suffered severe head lacerations, concussion of the brain and a fractured arm.

Scarberry's bond had not been set this afternoon. He will be bound over for action of the grand jury in the district attorney said.

Three other men arrested in connection with the case have been released.

Britain Also Not Shipping Gasoline And Iron To Japan

LONDON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Britain is cooperating with the United States in banning exports of aviation gasoline and scrap iron to Japan, Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs R. A. Butler told the house of commons today.

"We ourselves are not exporting any of these commodities," Butler said.

He reiterated that Britain and the United States are in close consultation on "all matters affecting supplies . . . to ensure the greatest practicable uniformity of action."

King Visits Hitler

BERLIN, Nov. 19 (AP)—Reports were current in Berlin today that King Leopold of Belgium was among those who visited Adolf Hitler in the past few days at Berchtesgaden in the Bavarian Alps.

Authorized sources said they had "instructions" about such a visit, but did not flatly deny it.

Proration Inequities Charged By Humble

AUSTIN, Nov. 19 (AP)—Inequities among fields in allocating Texas' crude oil production were charged by the Humble Oil company at a proration hearing before the state railroad commission here today.

Members of the commission, government administrator of oil conservation in Texas, retorted sharply, criticizing figures cited by Humble representatives and inquiring if the Humble contemplated wrecking the oil industry by means of its tremendous purchasing power.

The hearing was conducted by the commission as a preliminary to issuance of a new statewide proration order which will succeed one that expires November 30.

At one point Commissioner Jerry Sadler asked Hines Baker of Houston, Humble attorney, if he was charging that personalities had been involved in the commission's orders.

Baker replied that personalities must be involved unless the commission "accepts a standard of equitable ratings," in which case he declared "competition will divide the markets."

Humble advocated proration according to a formula based 50 per cent on acreage and 50 per cent on the number of wells, Baker said.

Victories May Not Continue, Says Minister

Fighting Nation Six Times Greater In War Materials

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Greek government has appealed directly to the United States government for permission to purchase aviation and other military supplies.

This was made known today by Summer Welles, acting secretary of state, who said the Greek government had been assured that the appeal would receive a most sympathetic response.

Welles said the matter had been deferred to other government departments for consideration.

(By The Associated Press)

Greece appealed for aid from the United States and other "free countries" in her struggle against Italy today as evidence mounted that the Rome-Berlin Axis may be planning a new offensive in southeast Europe.

The Greek press minister, Theo Nicoloudis, directed the appeal especially to the United States and Britain, declaring that his country was fighting a nation six times greater in war materials and that the world should not be misled by current Greek successes in the field.

He compared Greece's present situation with the position of Finland in the war with Russia a year ago, adding:

"We won't make the same mistake as heroic Finland, which, content with her first successes, failed to ask help from abroad."

Britain has already pledged all possible help to the little Aegean kingdom.

Adolf Hitler is rapidly forging an "axis empire" in Europe, it became increasingly clear today, attempting step by step to array a whole continent in political ties against Great Britain.

Amid a new flurry of diplomatic activity, presumably bringing Bulgaria and Hungary within the axis fold, the German Fuehrer was evidently drawing his lines swiftly to present Britain with a fait accompli of European "unity."

DNB, the official German news agency, disclosed that Hungary is next on the list of axis discussions—starting in Vienna tomorrow—and that King Boris of Bulgaria secretly conferred with Hitler at his Bavarian mountain retreat, in Berchtesgaden, on Sunday.

Previously, either Hitler or his axis partner, Benito Mussolini, had conferred with leaders of Soviet Russia, France, Spain and Rumania.

If successful, these talks would appear to leave Europe virtually a "closed corporation" under a Rome-Berlin Axis directorate except for conquered nations and the four neutral states of Switzerland, Sweden, Portugal and Yugoslavia.

Turkey, though neutral and Britain's friend, is reported strongly under the influence of Russia.

The Nazi foreign office mouthpiece, Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz, described Hitler's activity as a "clear sign that the goal of building Europe on completely new principles is being . . . brought nearer realization."

Meanwhile, in the 23-day-old war, Greece claimed sweeping new successes in a counter-invasion into Albania, with Italian troops steadily falling back from the key city of Koriza, 10 miles inside Albania.

Premier Mussolini's Fascist columns were reported fighting fiercely to keep open their road of retreat from the Koriza zone, and the advancing Greeks were said to have captured great Herman Jones, Harold Wright, J. B. Crowson, Dan Lelch, Malcolm Denison, and H. O. Roberts. Mrs. Frank Elliott played the accompaniment for all of these numbers.

Refreshments of tea, coffee, cookies, sandwiches, yellow mints, and salted nuts were served at a table laid with rattacha on natural linen. Yellow tapers in a three-armed silver candelabra, yellow chrysanthemums in a silver bowl, and the silver tea service was arranged on the table. All of this silver was in the renaissance pattern. A similar arrangement was used on the buffet numbers of prisoners, stores and war materials including 10,000 blankets, quantities of grain, 10 field guns, 33 anti-tank guns and 15 mortars.

GREECE

Reuters (British news agency) dispatches from Yugoslavia said the town fell at last to Greek attack at 1 a. m. today (6 p. m. EST, Monday), but the Greek high command made no immediate claim of capturing the crossroads base.

The Italians were reported, however, to have given up counter-attacking and called upon their planes to cover their retreat to a new defense line.

The Greeks said their advance troops were threatening to cut off the last road of Italian escape, and reported "fierce fighting" there and on the Epirus battlefield, where Greek troops were said to have made other raids into Albania, capturing prisoners and seizing supplies.

The Bulgarians, who long have demanded an outlet to the Aegean sea through eastern Greece, learned today their King Boris had joined the list of European leaders who have talked with Adolf Hitler.

An official announcement in Sofia said Hitler and the king met Sunday—preceding yesterday's conference of Hitler, Italy's Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano and Spain's Foreign Minister Ramon Serrano Suner.

Many observers added these conferences to their list of indications the axis may be planning blows at Britain through Spain toward Gibraltar and at England's little Mediterranean ally, Greece, through Bulgaria, in support of the stalled Italian drive from Albania.

A storm over Britain and the English Channel cut down the customary trading of air blows last night between Britain and Germany.

Pampans, Norsemen To Be Evenly Matched

Neither Team Has Winning Grid Record

Football fans always like to see two evenly matched teams in action regardless of whether they are undefeated or defeated in nearly every game. And that is what fans are scheduled to see at Harvesters park here Thursday afternoon when the Pampa Harvesters meet the Northeast Norsemen of Oklahoma City in the last home game of the 1940 season. Game time will be 2:30 o'clock.

Neither the Harvesters or the Norsemen has impressive records. The Harvesters have won only one game, tied three, and lost four this season. The Norsemen have won either one or two games; the record has not been received here.

Like the Harvesters, the Norsemen started the season with an inexperienced team. They dropped a 46 to 0 decision to Capitol Hill in their opening game but have been making a steady comeback ever since. The team is light but fast and tricky with a razzle-dazzle passing attack, according to Assistant Coach J. C. Prejan who scouted the Norsemen last week.

And the Norsemen play football for the love of it, not for the crowd because last Thursday they lost a half-raising battle to St. Gregory's at Oklahoma City before 25 fans, and Coach Prejan. The game was played in the northern which hit that section.

The Harvesters have been working long hours trying to perfect their pass defense and on offense. They went through a stiff workout yesterday afternoon.

The same team that started in Borger will take the field. Coach Mitchell said today. Grover Heskell, quarterback, is still unable to bend his knee so R. L. Edmondson will call signals.

12th Man Will Call Signals In Oklahoma Game

ABILENE, Nov. 19. (AP)—Here's a nice opening for some young fellow who wants to play football but doesn't have the avoirdupois and stamina for withstanding those jarring tackles and blocks.

Oklahoma City university and McMurry college of Abilene play at Oklahoma City Nov. 23.

The 12-man idea will again be carried out but this time the coaches won't call the signals as was the case when Oklahoma City U. met St. Mary's at San Antonio recently.

Instead each team will use a twelfth man, who will call the plays but retire from the immediate scene of action when the ball is snapped.

It was the idea of Coach Ossie Doenges, who evolved the 12-man coach-calling-the-signals plan.

Yesterday Doenges contacted Dale Morrison, McMurry coach, and suggested that they vary the program by use of a regular member of each squad for all the brain work.

Kidney and Bowel Misery Relieved, Thanks Hoyt's

Stomach Misery, Stiff Legs, Muscular Soreness and Body Wracked With Pain Relieved, Says This Tulsa Boiler-Maker.

Mr. W. F. ELLIS, 114 West First, Tulsa, Okla., states:

"I was bothered with constipation, gas pains, bloating, sour acid risings. Muscular pains due to constipation and kidney weakness gave me a lot of misery. My legs and ankles became so stiff that I could hardly go. "Since taking Hoyt's, constipation is leaving; gas, bloating and sourness of stomach are gone. It was as good as the relief from aches, pains and soreness that it gave. I can get a good night's rest. I feel 100 per cent better!"

Hoyt's Compound is sold by the Grocery Drug Store and by all druggists in this section.

Norton Puts 8 Aggies On All-America

Fill in blank spaces, and you have...

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

Asked for All-America recommendations, Homer Hill Norton nominates no fewer than eight Texas A. & M. players.

So just fill in the blank spaces at right end and tackle and center, and you're all set.

For these spots, the coach of the Texas Aggies respectfully suggests Jack Russell, of Baylor at the end, Jack Sommers of U. C. L. A. as the tackle, and Stewart Clarkon of Texas A. & I. as the middle man, but, summing up, the top kick of College Station says you might as well name his entire club and let it go at that.

Norton agrees that fellows like Tom Harmon of Michigan and huge Don Scott of Ohio State are splendid backs, and that Nick Drahos of

Dartmouth Recognized As Victor Over Cornell

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Although Cornell and Dartmouth, with the co-operation of Referee Red Friesell, seem to have worked out a satisfactory solution to their "fifth down" mixup, the whole affair seems to offer a good argument in favor of making the "Ivy League" an official organization.

When pictures of the disputed play in which Cornell scored its touchdown last Saturday finally were developed, they revealed Cornell had been given five downs in the series. Officials' reports proved there had been no double offside called, and Friesell promptly admitted he had been in error and telegraphed his apologies to all concerned.

James Lynar, Cornell athletic director, wired William H. McCarter of Dartmouth that Cornell relinquished its claim to victory and McCarter accepted the offer. So both sides will regard it hereafter as a 3-0 triumph for the underdog Dartmouth team and the end of Cornell's string of 18 games without a defeat.

The confusion surrounding the game, however, indicated the need of some sort of organization which would have jurisdiction over such cases. Where organized conferences exist, such an affair would be referred to conference authorities for decision. There's no major conference in the East, however, and if Cornell had been disposed to argue about the play, the doubt might have lasted indefinitely.

That was the case when the New York University-Columbia game in 1922 produced an incorrect ruling by the referee. The two colleges still list different results in their records.

Hardin-Simmons Lives Up To Southwest's Passing Tradition

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

One of the more entertaining football teams this season is that of Hardin-Simmons university.

The Baptist Cowboys live up to the tradition of the great southwest by being one of the throw-in clubs in the country.

For their size they don't make a pair of Touchdown Twins better than Owen Goodnight and L. B. Russell, who take turns pitching and catching. Goodnight throws the ball like a baseball. Receivers button-hook back to make catches, then run diagonally across the field to elude the secondary. Russell throws the floater variety, and the boys pick the ball out of the air on a dead run.

Frank Kimbrough, coaching brother of All-America John and Jack of Texas A. & M., has developed one of the slickest passing attacks ever witnessed. Pass protection is iron-clad. Receivers are exceptionally clever at maneuvering into the open, and they hardly know what it means to drop the ball.

Hardin-Simmons can smash, too. Russell, the half-back star; Pagan (Moon) Mullins, power fullback, and Moose Bryson ramrod a vicious running game.

CALIFORNIA ONE WEEK.

WASHINGTON THE NEXT.

Hardin-Simmons went into its battle with Catholic university in Washington unbeaten in 10 straight engagements... six this fall.

The Cowboys return to Abilene, Tex., from Washington to square off with representatives of a major Catholic institution for the third successive week-end by tackling the University of San Francisco Dons, Nov. 23.

After crushing Loyola in Los Angeles, 40-5, they remained in the home corral only three days before shoving off for Washington for another and longer leg of a 7000-mile trip.

Hardin-Simmons this autumn repelled Daniel Baker college, Centenary, Arizona State, Texas Mines, West Texas State and Loyola of Los Angeles, amassing 147 points to 32 for the opposition. The Cowboys close their regular campaign against Howard Payne in Brownwood, Nov. 30.

Kimbrough, in a half dozen seasons, has herded the Cowpunchers to a position that has earned them respect in the southwest and national recognition.

ADVISED BROTHERS TO ATTEND TEXAS A. & M.

From west Texas material, mainly from Class B and C high schools, Kimbrough has turned out numerous stars.

Clyde (Gulledge) Turner, the Chicago professional Bears' prize recruit, tops players drilled by him.

Frank Kimbrough, handsome and genial, is the oldest of six brothers to play football for Haskell, Tex., high school. He is an old Cowhand himself, his career as a four-letter man dating back to Simmons college of the mid-20s.

Boo! It's Fagan Mullins, power plunger, garbed to thoroughly convince you that Hardin-Simmons players are Cow-boys.

On their graduation from high school, Big Brother Frank debated whether the kid brothers, Fullback Jarrin John and End Jack, should play football for Hardin-Simmons. "You'd better not come out for my team," at last he told them. "I don't want to be embarrassed by your ability."

Frank Kimbrough did Texas A. & M. a good turn, but he's doing all right with what he has.

Aggies Close Second In National Grid Rankings

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (AP)—While some football authorities have advocated the abolition of the point after touchdown on the ground that it gives false indications of the strength of teams, one point still seems to carry a lot of weight when it comes to ranking the nation's leading teams.

Minnesota, on top of the list for the second straight week as 169 sports experts rank the teams, has won two of its most important games by one-point margins; Stanford, ranked third behind the Texas Aggies, was just one point better than Santa Clara when they met, and Boston College's 19-18 victory over Georgetown last Saturday enabled the Eagles to advance from eighth place to fourth.

Texas A. & M., last year's champion and a close second now, hasn't had a winning margin smaller than seven points in its eight games.

The fall of Cornell brought this new "Big Four" of the title contenders into being. Although most of the ballots were cast before it was decided officially that Cornell had lost 3-0 to Dartmouth, instead of winning 7-3, the experts thought even that showing was so poor that the big red team was dropped from second place to fifth.

Minnesota polled 68 first place votes and 25 for second to amass a total of 1,544 points. The Gophers wind up their season this week against Wisconsin, which doesn't figure to do any serious damage to Minnesota's ranking. The Aggies, picked first by 19 experts and second by 51, totalled 1,485 points. They, too, are safe this week, for they remain idle preparing for their final game against Texas Nov. 28.

Stanford, third of the big four, meets Auburn Saturday and may find the Volunteers troublesome, if there is a reaction from the Georgetown game.

Rankings of other teams this week:

5. Cornell (6 firsts) 885 points; 6. Tennessee (3) 851; 7. Michigan, 821; 8. Nebraska, 329; 9. Georgetown, 318.5; 10. Northwestern, 105; 11. Mississippi, 85.25; 12. Pennsylvania, 81; 13. Washington, 60; 14. Notre Dame, 59.5; 15. Hardin-Simmons, 57.85; 16. Mississippi State, 47.25; 17. Alabama, 47; 18. Southern Methodist, 46; 19. Santa Clara, 33; tie for 20. Penn State and Texas Tech, 25 each.

Also ranks: Lafayette, 15; Duke, 7; Ohio State, 6; Hardin-Simmons, 57.85; Pacific Lutheran and Utah, 4 each; Texas, 3; North Carolina, 2; Tulane, Colgate, Clemson and Duquesne, 1 each.

Michigan, Nebraska, Northwestern and Washington, incidentally, are numbered among Minnesota's victims, by margins of one point, or one touchdown.

Shamrock And McLean Will Play 'Game Of Games' Friday

The "game of games" will be played Friday night in Shamrock when the Shamrock Irishmen, coached by Forrest Kline and Scott McCall, meet the McLean Tigers, coached by Cricket Christian. The game will decide which team will be eligible to meet Clarendon in a playoff to determine the conference championship.

At the present time Clarendon, McLean and Shamrock are all tied up with one loss each. Clarendon has no more conference games so that leaves the Bronchos a clinch for a playoff berth. A win for McLean Friday night would send them against the Bronchos in the extra game while a Shamrock win would make the Irish tied up with Clarendon.

But the Friday night game will make the 10th of the season for Shamrock and the rules read that no team shall play more than 10 games in the regular conference race. McLean's Cricket Christian, thinking the conference might end in a tie, cancelled his game with White Deer two weeks ago so that he would have only nine games during the regular season.

If Shamrock wins will the rule mean that the Irish will be unable to play Clarendon, leaving Clarendon to claim the title and the right to play in bi-district competition? That is the question in the minds of Shamrock fans.

The conference race was sailing smoothly until Friday night when Wheeler, the underdog, defeated Shamrock 7 and 6, and Clarendon defeated McLean 19 to 13.

Fans from all over the Panhandle will be in Shamrock Friday night to see the big game between two of the outstanding teams in the Panhandle.

An average automobile of today could travel more than 300 miles if all the energy contained in one gallon of gasoline were utilized.

Only Time You Ever Hear About Officials Is When They Do Wrong

By TOM SILER
CHICAGO, Nov. 19. (AP)—Football officials, harassed this season as never before, get their names in the headlines only when they do something wrong or questionable.

The current season has found the men in white frequently caught in a cross-fire of criticism from an increasingly enlightened football public, second guessers, disgruntled diehards and coaches and writers who have the benefit of game movies.

In most cases the officials' word stood up.

Perhaps the most prominent error was committed last Saturday in the Cornell-Dartmouth game, in which Referee W. H. Friesell, Jr., one of the best in the business, inadvertently allowed Cornell a fifth down in the final minute of play. The hitherto undefeated eleven scored on this illegal play for a 6-3 margin. But Friesell, displaying admirable frankness, admitted his mistake and Cornell later conceded the game to Dartmouth with a 3-0 score.

Friesell also was a principal in a much disputed angle of Cornell's game with Ohio State. The big Red team whipped the Bucks soundly, 21 to 7, and afterwards Ohio State charged Carl Snavely with calling signals from the bench.

The "fifth down" incident recalls the 1938 Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech game in which Referee John Getchell advised Tech it was third down when it was fourth down. Tech ran one play, whereupon the Irish took the ball on downs in an advantageous spot and scored a touchdown to win, 7-0.

Texas Wesleyan edged out Oklahoma Baptist U. after a Baptist touchdown was called back. The losers blamed Referee Luther Scarborough for loss of the game, contending he recalled the scoring play and penalized Baptist without giving a reason for it. Wesleyan, however, had a wide edge in statistics.

Business Men May Sponsor Special Train

Pampa business men are being given an opportunity to sponsor a special train to Amarillo Thanksgiving Day, November 28, when the Pampa Harvesters meet the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm in the last conference game of the season for both teams. Game time will be 2:30 o'clock on Butler field.

Only requirement for the train would be the sale of 200 tickets at 85 cents for the round trip. The train would leave here after the dinner hour and return in time for the supper hour.

Several Pampa merchants have already expressed a desire to guarantee their pro rata share of insuring the train running. Other merchants wishing to make the train possible may call The Pampa News, telephone 666. The list of sponsors will be released in a few days.

Dick Roberts, Santa Fe traveling freight and passenger agent, was in Pampa yesterday in the interest of giving Pampa fans safe, quick and cheap transportation to and from the game.

Pampa will observe November 28 as Thanksgiving Day so most places of business will be closed on that day.

Arkansas On Way To Play New Yorkers

(By The Associated Press)

Arkansas' towering Razorbacks, finding little to be happy about in their own ballpark, were on the way to New York today to try their luck against the Fordham Rams.

They are the only gridgers from the Southwest Conference to play outside the circuit this week.

The other six conference squads were hard at work, four of them for some immediate business and the other two—Texas A. and M. and the University of Texas—getting themselves into a frenzy for their traditional battle at Austin next week.

This week finds all the squads in good shape. Arkansas had only one sprained ankle, that belonging to Sophomore Fullback Jay Lawhorn.

The Aggies rested yesterday but Texas didn't take any time off from the hard work.

Texas Christian University goes to Houston to battle the Rice Owls. Southern Methodist University, aiming at second place and a possible bid for the Cotton Bowl game—in the event the Aggies go to the Rose Bowl or some other post-season classic—play the Baylor Bears at Waco.

SERIAL STORY

DUDE COLLEGE

BY OREN ARNOLD

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

The young man turned from a book... "Oh, yes, Miss Bailey. It is a pleasure..."

YESTERDAY, Thomas T. Bailey, manager and airplane manufacturer, is on his way to New Mexico to see his New Mexico ranch that he orders his play-girl daughter, Ronnie, to join him. The telegram catches up with Ronnie, dancing with Andre Girardeau, Gotham's No. 1 star. She is to attend Pueblo University, better known as Dude College. Her father's word is law. After Andre takes her home, he goes to his own apartment, writes a message on a card with disappearing ink, and snatches the card and in a twinkling, mails it to Washington, carefully avoiding leaving any fingerprints.

MEET THE PROFESSOR

CHAPTER II THREE days after Ronica Bailey received the telegram from her dad, New York's best read newspaper columnist had this opening paragraph:

"The Town's most omphatic Sombdy has left the Town in the lurch, maybe for good. She took off yesterday in her new golden monoplane, and by now she's probably at the controls of a saddle horse with a golden mane. The location, if you want to follow roaming Ronica, is Pueblo University in New Mexico, famed more for dudes than for football. We'll bet a week's salary Ronnie's the best-looking maverick that college ever corralled. And the best news is that the too, too devastating gentleman from Europe was successful in his rapid wooing, hence will become a cattle baron, too. Exact date of the wedding is yet a secret but—stand by for further announcement."

The columnist, shrewd fellow, knew whom he was talking. Pueblo T. had been more or less taken over by the dude ranch patross in the past few years, where some dozens of America's wealthiest and loveliest girls were registered there, but Ronica Bailey's coming was a distinct sensation. "Where-ew!" was the definite if uncholarly reaction of the university's young men.

MONDAY at 9 o'clock saw Ronnie tap-tap-tapping down the arched colonnade of the administration building, walking fast as always, dressed in a simple, but costly, sweater and skirt outfit. The skirt was almost knee short, convenient as well as cute.

She smiled at everybody, including those she didn't know, and practically everybody turned to watch her. She entered the registrar's office.

There she received instructions to report at once to her faculty adviser, and counselor, a Dr. Woodrow Wesley York, Ph.D. Ronnie heard his name with definite misgivings. He sounded formidable. He sounded like—a frump-up her way had arranged. Daddy hadn't liked the reputation she acquired at college last year—too much publicity to her traveling and flying and general extra-curricular activity—so he had probably connived in advance with some crusty old guy to boss her here. She climbed soberly to room 308.

"I am Ronica Bailey," she told the bespectacled young clerk in Dr. York's outer office.

The clerk turned from a book and spoke first without looking up. "Please sit down... Bailey... Bailey... Oh, yes, Miss Bailey, here is your record card. Now it is a pleasure to welcome you officially and I trust that—"

All at once he stopped. He had looked up and gotten a full bang-on view of Ronica Bailey from New York.

He is not to be blamed. Many another man had experienced the arresting pleasure of discovering Ronica Bailey, of coming directly in front of her violet eyes. Ronnie waited. Her ebony curls flowed down behind to strike white clad shoulders and sort of splash back.

upward, like a black cascade. "Is—Dr. York in now?" she asked, courteously. "I am Dr. York," croaked the young man, basso profundo.

FOR a moment they just stared in mutual appraisal. Then all at once Dr. York arose, remembering his manners. That embarrassed him even more, however, because she was already sitting, and he could only plip back down. He turned a bit crimson.

He took out a handkerchief and blew his nose, glanced fearfully at Ronica again and said, innately, "Uh, yes, yes indeed!" All at once Ronnie laughed out loud. "I'm so sorry!" she quickly apologized. "I didn't mean to be rude."

He smiled then. Moreover, his smile was genuine, human. He didn't look like Dr. Woodrow Wesley York. He looked more like somebody's big brother who has been working too hard in an office. Ronnie told herself. Suddenly she liked him, and so with characteristic impulsiveness she spoke.

"Do you know how to dance?" she asked brightly. "No—I beg pardon?" His mouth remained open.

"You surprise me, Dr. York. You are a professor, aren't you? Chemistry or something?" "I—archaeology! And as for surprising me, Miss Bailey, you, ah, do right well yourself. But wait—I do not misunderstand. I like your frankness. I mean. Your, ah, natural verve and ebullience. It is an added pleasure to discover one of your striking personality. You have the capacity for leadership, I'll wager."

"Tell me some things," she leaned a shapely elbow on his desk. "Will it be all right if I keep my monoplane here? I do so love to fly!" "Oh by all means, Miss Bailey. Pueblo University has no foolish disciplinary restraints, so long as its students stay within reason. Freedom of action is a concomitant of freedom in thought, and hand, and youth must have free rein."

Ronica sat back, smiling happily at him. Oddly, she suddenly took careful note of Wesley York as a man. He was big. Not as tall as well as Andre Girardeau, for

Catholic Church And Depot Won't Be Sold

ALBERTON, Md. Nov. 9. (AP)—Everything in this mill town of 800 persons—excepting a Roman Catholic church and a railroad right-of-way—will be knocked down to the highest bidder in an auction Saturday.

And when the sun sets twice (no foolin') and parents gather the youngsters for supper they expect to be dealing with a new landlord.

Alberton, about 15 miles west of Baltimore, lies in a sleepy, wooded valley along the winding Patapsco river. Ninety-eight years ago mill operators bought up 550 acres of land, built a cotton spinning mill, and started business as a company-owned town rose around the mill.

But hard times caught up with the latest owners, James S. Gary & Son, Inc. and last month C. R. Daniels, Inc. took over a lease after the Garys went into receivership.

The Catholic church holds a long-term lease, as does the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, so the auctioneer can't do anything there. But he could point out to bidders that with the old mill property go 118 dwellings, the new and old Evangelical churches (they have no leases), a general store and such odds and ends as a bridge, some unpaved streets, and a water system.

About those two sunsets? Old timers say the sun first sets in the river gorge and the chickens start to roost as twilight falls. But the sun sets out again behind a sharp rise in the hill, casts a few long shadows, and slips down finally in a gap due west.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

"Auf Wiedersehen," ("Till We Meet Again"), a modern one-act play portraying the plight of Jews under the Nazi regime, is a plaintive little phrase, a German farewell which is particularly appropriate in a world gone mad.

We are saying, sadly, "Goodbye to an old culture, to countries which lived leisurely and well, to tradition, to the wild gypsy music of Hungary, to the waltzes of Vienna, Paris in the spring with sunshine through the trees emerald-ever-changing patterns on people in little side-walk cafes.

LOOKS OR BOOKS

Compacts, lipsticks, occasionally books. Mirrors comes forth—got to see how she looks. She dreams about boy friends, a new dress for fall. Believe it or not; she's in study hall.

A bell; a rush; a clamor for the right seats; and she's finally there. Another bell; quiet; she sinks down in her seat. Her gaze wanders to the world outside. She thinks of the freedom beyond that wall. The sharp clang of the desk bell brings her to her senses and two piercing eyes cause her suddenly to seize a book and begin to study with fervor.

Peace comes again. Already five minutes have gone! She must hurry! If she expects to get anything accomplished before the period ends. She grabs at her compact, puts furiously at the shine on her nose, smears on rouge, and dabs on crimson lipstick. Horrors! Her eyebrows are growing out again and she has to meet "him" after school. She squirms about in her seat in an attempt to get the best light and her eyebrows become a thin line.

She likes the effect and practices the look she is to greet him with after school. Then she fits that look into what she would first say. Her heart skips a beat as she hears, only five minutes before she takes this time to worry over that test she must "think" to dab at her nose, and to hurry on to the next class totally unprepared because she simply has not had time.

Conflicts are the most interesting things in the world. Love, war, athletics, politics—all are based on struggles—a struggle for the fittest.

There are many grouped and individual conflicts and contests in high school. One conflict which is not so widely known is the race for 1941 valedictorian. Dorace Joan Caldwell and Lucille Matthews are in a keen race for valedictorian even though only in their sophomore years.

Lucille was victor in Junior High over Dorace Joan by a narrow margin but Dorace Joan is doing some brilliant work.

To those who have tasted the joyous cups of victory must also drink from the bitter cup of failure and defeat.

The Pampa Harvesters have had more than a generous share of hard luck but their superiority has finally shone through with a defeat of the mighty Berger Bulldogs.

You, O mighty forces, prides and joys of Pampa, come through again with a great square victory of those Northeast "Ole's" long-hairs.

Songs by Miss Helen Martin's A Cappella choir, one-act play, "A Plea for Democracy," presented by Mr. Kenneth Carman's dramatic class and awarding the prize to Elizabeth Roberts, who won first place in the essay contest, were the highlights of the best assembly presented to the student body this year.

The one-act play, "A Plea for Democracy," whose characters were Frieda—Mary Jane Davis; Elsa—Evelyn Barnes; Harting—Joe Cargile; Levinah—Billy Waters; Johann—Ed Terrell; and a soldier—Herbert Maynard. The play took place in Germany where the Jews were fighting against joining the Nazis.

Mr. E. W. Cabe, director of instruction, Herndon Sloan, president—Mary Jane Davis; Elsa—Evelyn Barnes; Harting—Joe Cargile; Levinah—Billy Waters; Johann—Ed Terrell; and a soldier—Herbert Maynard. The play took place in Germany where the Jews were fighting against joining the Nazis.

Miss Margaret Jones, annual sponsor, made announcement that the senior picture are fifty cents until Thanksgiving, then they will cost seventy-five cents. She also urged the students to turn in snaphots.

H. Sloan, Stockstill Attend FFA Meet At Kansas City, Mo.

They attended a banquet Wednesday and each state was represented by some food. Texas was grapefruit and black-eyed peas.

The boys attended a horse show held at the American Royal.

Billy Waters Gets Letter Of Thanks From Roosevelt

Within the last three weeks, the speech classes under the direction of Kenneth Carman have made recordings of their voices.

Billy Waters, student in the fourth hour speech class, made a speech on "Comparisons of Roosevelt and Willie." The recording was sent to President Roosevelt.

The following letter was sent to Billy Waters last week:

My Dear Billy:
The President has asked me to thank you very much for your kind letter which he has noted with interest. He appreciates your letting him see your photograph and the copy of your speech and wants you to know that he is deeply grateful for the friendly interest which you express in such generous terms. He sends you his best wishes.

Very sincerely yours,
M. A. Le Hand
Private Secretary

The faculty and students of Pampa High School are very proud of Billy Waters, Helen Dudley, and Johnny Campbell, who have made a small dent for themselves in the hall of fame.

Teachers Urged To Have Pictures For Annual Made Soon

Teachers of Pampa High school are urged to have their pictures taken for the annual.

"This must be done before the 23rd of this month," Mrs. Margaret Jones said.

Office workers under the direction of Mrs. Roberts are sent around regularly to check on the number of teachers who have had their pictures made.

PROPER CARE OF BOOKS TO BE TAUGHT

(1) Never draw books out of the shelf by pulling by their binding. Instead, place the finger firmly on the top of the book, next to the binding, and press down while drawing out the volume.

(2) Do not wedge books tightly together.

(3) Do not pile many books on top of one another.

(4) Never lay open books down upon their faces, or place weights upon books when they are open.

(5) Books should be kept dry but not too warm. If moist, they mildew; if too warm, they warp.

(6) Do not press plants or flowers in any books of value.

(7) Never mark the place by using cards or letters. It weakens the binding. Use thin paper.

(8) Do not touch the engraving in books that you handle.

(9) Remember that even clean hands may soil dusty books.

(10) It seems needless to add that one should never wet the fingers to turn the pages of a book.

(11) Mark your books, if you like, but never mark books that do not belong to you. Treat all books with respect.

PRICE OF TURKEYS

First turkey sales time has come and gone. Another period in which to sell comes along in the earlier part of December for Christmas. We complain of the price but the market opened two cents higher in November, 1940, than in November, 1939. Market conditions favor the big turkey growers over the small ones in some respects. It was ever thus and evermore will be, we assume, whether turkeys, beeswax or—what have you.

Fashion Hints

There seems to be the idea prevalent that a high school student can not take Diversified Occupations and meet college entrance requirements. The facts are that a high school student can graduate in four years, take Diversified Occupations two of these years and meet the requirements of our high school for graduation with college requirements and enter most any college or university in our state or any other institution which is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Students Are Questioned About Use Of 25th Hour

The students of the Little Harvester staff are playing a trick on "Father Time." Oh yes! You heard right, were supposing that this twenty-four hour day suddenly became deformed and took on an extra hour; consequently, we have a twenty-five hour day. So what! This is what! We took it upon ourselves to make a survey to find just what students would do if they were given twenty-five hours a day. Following is the result of such a survey—nothing but each person said:

Mr. Herod—"Sleep."

Billy Jean Buck—"I would go a courtin'."

Carroll Montgomery—"Write to a girl friend in Lubbock."

Wileta Stark—"Practice twirling."

Luella Anshus—"Practice base clarinet."

H. Siler Writes On English For "Clearing House"

By "Ugeny Felps"
About three years ago Henry Siler, teacher of foreign language at Pampa High, wrote an article for the "Clearing House," a teachers magazine, about English.

"English is swarming with thousands of irregularities," he noted.

The word "ghost," Mr. Siler stated, was formerly an Anglo-Saxon word "gost." Then Chaucer changed it to "ghost." How that fool got in the word is hard to understand.

"We misspell too much this way and we do not learn how to write," according to the article.

Civics Class Tries Political Campaign

After waging a bitter miniature political campaign, the fifth hour civics class, taught by Mr. Aubrey Steele, finally elected a house of representatives last week.

Two major parties and one minority were elected. The minority party was formed to show that oftentimes in France, a small group of politicians can control laws or obstruct the will of the people.

Several laws were enacted and thus the people learned to do by doing.

Pampa Journalism Classes Enjoy Release From School For Clinic

By Dorace Joan Caldwell
Journalism students of both junior and senior high are still talking about their trip to Lubbock.

"Gee, we had a swell time," they are telling their friends.

The trip left at 5:30 Friday morning with Mr. Harvey Anderson driving bus No. 5. Mr. Anderson, who sang in Ken Bennett's revue, sang bass on all the songs which were sung on the way down and back to Pampa.

The group was colorfully clad in western costume and, directed by Mrs. Ross Ayers, of Lubbock, most of the group tried to learn the schottische, and several dances of frontier times.

Students Stay After School To Bring Up Low Grades To Pass

This is the end of the second six weeks and, of course, that means examinations.

Boys and girls who failed last six weeks are studying from three until four every afternoon to help bring up some of their low grades.

But the ones that made good grades haven't been loafing, either, for they have been studying right along with the slumping ones, and trying to make the honor roll.

Although things have been dull, boys and girls haven't minded so much because everyone has to cut out pleasure and work hard once in a while.

Pampans Roll Up Six Penetrations To Amarillo's 2

Coach Hinger's Squad Wins Six Of Seven
A scrappy and inspired Gorilla team, playing their last game of the season, pushed the Amarillo Yarnigans all over the Yarnigans' field Saturday and then came out on the short end of a 6-0 score.

The Gorillas gave away fifteen points to the man and then outplayed the Yans to the tune of six penetrations to two.

At the end of the first half the Gorillas had the ball on the Yarnigan five-yard line with first down and goal to go when the whistle blew.

Jack Baker Plays Part Of Henry Aldrich Well

The part of Henry Aldrich in the senior play, "What A Life," is being depicted by one of Pampa High's outstanding students, Jack Baker.

Mr. Carman, director of the play, has mentioned the fact several times that Jack is cast perfectly for the part of Henry. Recently Jack was cast into a state of meriment when he sauntered into the auditorium with the statement, "I'm sick!" When asked what was the matter, further investigation proved that Jack's ears were red which made him think something dreadful was the matter with him.

Jack also proves his blushing qualities on other occasions when Clara Mae Lemm, who plays the part of his mother, has to kiss him. Jack was genuinely embarrassed over the situation not to mention the humility which Miss Lemm experienced.

Second Period P E Class Wins Tourney

Belton Bearden sparked the second period physical education class to a 14-12 victory Friday over Kenneth Kyle's sixth period basketballers to win the inter-class physical education basketball championship.

In the preliminaries Bearden's team defeated George W. Cunningham's first period team 34 to 4. Clemmons, Kyle and Mullins, all drew eyes.

In the semi-finals Bearden's team beat Clemmons' 20 to 5 and Mullins' squad 28 to 7 before taking it to Kyle to the tune of 25 to 11.

The boys' gym classes will start playing ping-pong and hand-ball in the red brick building soon.

DAUGHTER HAS GONE TO COLLEGE

I've packed her clothes, She's gone away!
A toddling babe Just yesterday I hate for babe To face the world. My own first born With golden curls. She's gone away. I dry my tears; I cry my tears; She's such a child Of eighteen years.

WALL OF SHAME

Along with the Hall of Fame should go a "Hall of Shame" for the culprits who misuse our school library. This institution is very valuable in both monetary and usable features, and it shouldn't be left to careless hands.

I close with this thought for the week—Did it ever occur to you that almost all our famous men were born on holidays?

I will personally punish anyone to anyone who gets a headache getting it out.
