Former Chief Executive Says Prohibition as an Issue Would Again "Blight" Demo. Hopes

GAS TAX CHANGE

Senate Joins House in Putting One Cent Available For Bonds Voted by Various Counties

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—Texas legislators finishing a second extraordinary session, had their attention diverted from pending legislation to the 1932 presidential campaign today by a statement from former Governor Dan Moody that injection of prohibition as an issue might "blight" if not "blot" the best chance democrats have had in years to elect a president.

Moody, who voted for former Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York for president in 1928 but who opposed his nomination and made only one speech during the campaign, made his declaration in response to J. J. Shouse, chairman of the Democratic National Executive committee, who had said he believed the party should deal frankly with the prohibition issue.

He said it was "obvious" attempts to write a wet plank into the party platform would be "vot" by efforts to write one just as dry as Mr. Shouse's is wet.

No Defaulting

He said "we who are for prohibition will not let the wets take default judgment against us."

"Such a change inevitably will precipitate a split in the convention over this subject and blight if not doom the best chance the democracy party has had in years to elect a president."

Moody's statement regarding the gas tax change was met with approval in the national convention.

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—Amendment of the gasoline tax law to provide a fund for trunk and road districts to receive outstanding highway bonds was considered by the Texas legislature today as it sought to dispose of important bills before closing its second extraordinary session tomorrow.

Senator Will Martin of Hillsboro lost an amendment to fix the gasoline tax at six cents. The proceeds would have been distributed as follows: One-half to the general highway fund, one-fourth to the schools, one-eighth to the counties for bond retirement purposes, and one-eighth to the state's general revenue fund.

Senator Walter Woodul of Houston led opposition to the bill, claiming that to divert highway funds to bond retirement purposes would hamper highway construction in the state. He said the federal aid agreement would be affected by such an arrangement.

Both Houses Agree

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—The senate today joined the house of the Texas legislature in passing a bill allocating one cent of the four cents per gallon tax on gasoline to counties and road districts for retirement of bonds issued to build highways.

The bill, written by Representative Ben Brooks of Bagwell, was engrossed 16 to 6 with two pairs and finally passed 16 to 5 with two pairs. Efforts to amend it in the senate to increase the gasoline tax to six cents and five cents were defeated.

Under the new bill two cents will go to the highway department, one cent to the schools and one cent to retire county and district highway bonds outstanding as of Jan. 1, 1931.

Senators Walter Woodul of Houston, T. J. Holbrook of Galveston and W. A. Williamson of San Antonio strove in vain to persuade the senate to vote against disturbing present distribution of the gasoline tax money.

Speculation obtained as to attitude of Gov. Ross S. Sterling toward the bill. It was predicted the governor, former chairman of the highway commission, would veto it, adopting the claim of the senators who opposed it that to relinquish approximately $9,000,000 annually proposed claimed would be taken from the highway funds would greatly hamper highway construction.

Officers Have Few Clues in Search For Offenders During Last Week-End.

Thieves were busy in Pampa over the week-end. An automobile, two tires, a set of golf clubs, and several dresses were reported stolen. City officers are working on the various thefts but have few clues to follow.

L. D. Whitehead of the Kelley-Dempster Pipeline company reported that a company coupe had been stolen from in front of the Adams hotel some time Saturday night or Sunday morning. He said the car had the company name on both doors.

The Gray Country Creamery reported the loss of two Goodyear truck tires taken from trucks at the plant garage.

M. O. Eden reported the loss of a set of golf clubs taken from his car during the week-end.

Three dresses also were stolen during the week-end.

Patman Will Try To Oust Mellon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—Rep. Wright Patman, democrat, of Texas, today said he would institute impeachment proceedings against Secretary Mellon as soon as the new congress convened in December.

The Texan intends to base the proceedings on charges that the secretary of the treasury has violated the obligations of his office by maintaining an interest in private business.

Patman said that while Mr. Mellon is not a member of the board of directors of the Aluminum corporation, he is still a stockholder and as a stockholder has a voice in the election of members of the board.

The Texan also said he will show Mr. Mellon is a large stockholder in the Koppers corporation, which he said is erecting a $200,000,000 iron and steel plant in the Ural mountains for the Soviet Union.

Failure of Public to Spend Money Blamed as Cause of Unemployment

He enumerated a four-point program for coping with unemployment distress. It concluded: 1. Appointment of a statewide committee of leading citizens by the governor.

PIPELINES TO BE TOPIC OF SECOND MEET

Schedules to Be Considered at Session in Which Evidence Can Be Considered by Railroad Commission.

NO TIME IS SET

North Texas Association Is Back of Argument That No Reparations Possible in Case of Error.

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—Hearing before the Texas Railroad commission on setting of new pipeline rate schedules for oil transportation ended abruptly shortly before noon today when the commission sustained an objection that any rate temporarily fixed by the commission would deny shippers the right to reparations in event the tariffs were found to be excessive.

No date to hear evidence on rate schedules was set.

Today's hearing will be continued only as far as it relates to promulgation of rules and regulations affecting operation of pipelines under the law passed at the first special session of the legislature.

The objection to the commission setting a temporary rate was raised by C. K. Walsh of Wichita Falls, attorney for the North Texas Oil & Gas association.

Six objections were raised by the procedure in a written objection. Application for reduction in pipeline rates was made by the Texas Independent Petroleum Association and today's hearing was set under that application.

The exception of the North Texas Oil & Gas association stated that the fixing of any rate without considering the aggregate value of the carriers' property would "indefinite, uncertain, and discriminatory" and would stop the collection or reparations and debates that shippers might be entitled to under complaints and petitions filed with the commission.

Walsh Speaks

In offering the objections, Walsh declared his association was in favor of lower rates but wanted the commission to proceed legally and not take action that later could not be sustained.

The notice for the hearing called for setting rates and to make effective immediately and to remain in effect until the commission could make an inquiry and ascertain the value of the pipelines.

Rates now in effect are those filed by the pipeline companies and accepted by the commission as fair and equitable. They vary materially as between companies and fields.

The list of objections to the rate portion of the hearing cited it was an attempt to fix rates without the hearing of evidence and that such contracts to law. The objections charged that shippers might be bound by the unlawful rate during the time it was purporting to be in effect without any right of reparation or debate.

Julian Accused of Making Threats to Scare Witnesses

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28. (AP)—C. C. Julian, oil man, pleaded not guilty to a mail fraud indictment here today and after a heated argument between prosecutors and defense attorneys, Judge Edgar S. Vaughn ruled that Julian's $25,000 bond remained unchanged.

Herbert K. Hyde, district attorney, who sought to have the amount of bond raised, charged Julian and his personal aide, C. C. Boren, had threatened the lives of government witnesses who appeared before a grand jury, before it returned indictments against the oil promoter and 36 others. He also alleged Julian removed more than $200,000 in bonds of the C. C. Julian Oil and Royalties company from the possession of John W. Harrell, receiver.

"C. C. Julian thinks he is bigger than the U. S. government," the attorney alleged.

He also alleged Julian and Boren transported certain property of the oil and royalties company to Fort Worth, Texas, after both had been charged with mail fraud and said Julian wrote letters to more than 1,200 shareholders, alleging persecution by the government.

"We have witnesses to testify that both Julian and Boren threatened to kill certain government witnesses should they testify before the grand jury," Hyde charged.

Mrs. Collings Gets Additional Proof

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—Mrs. Collings' story of her husband's murder by two men who boarded their cruiser on Long Island Sound was further substantiated today by the finding of two pairs of trousers and a bathing suit in the waters of Cove Neck.

Deputy Sheriff Kehendek, acting on orders of District Attorney Alexander G. Blue, found the articles yesterday as he was grappling in the sound. The garments were covered with seaweed and sand indicating they had been in the water for some weeks. Collings, a Stamford, Conn., engineer, was drowned Sept. 9.

Mrs. Collings has told Suffolk officials that two men, one about 40, the other about 18, threw her husband into the sound, and took her away in a small boat on which they changed clothes, throwing their discarded garments into the sound.

Borgerites and Girl Companion Left Bound but Manage to Wriggle Loose and Return to Report.

BORGER, Sept. 28. (AP)—The Borger State bank was robbed of approximately $8,100 last night by two men who kidnaped Reginald Rugeley, teller, and forced him to open the safe.

The robbers trailed Rugeley and another teller, J. B. Castle, and two girls out on a lonely road. They tied Castle and the two girls hand and foot and then returned to the bank with Rugeley.

After looting the safe the robbers returned Rugeley to where his companions were held, tied him, and escaped. Rugeley managed to work loose from his bonds and notify officers shortly after midnight.

The robbers had taken the key to his car, but he had a spare one. One robber stood guard over the girls and Castle while his partner carried out the robbery. The robber on guard was masked with a handkerchief and smoked cigars and wore overalls.

The other took off the goggles, chief mark on entering town with Rugeley but kept his prisoner in front of him and constantly threatened him with death if he made any noise or attempted to flee.

The men took the girls to a house on the safe. The robber carefully selected all currency and a few checks. Bank officials said the time lock had not been set pending receipt of Sunday night theater proceeds, which ordinarily were accepted by Rugeley about 11 p. m.

The tellers and the girls were seized about 10:30 p. m. Rugeley believed the robbers had studied operations of the bank and had decided to act when the safe would be most vulnerable.

The robbers forced Rugeley to put the currency upon the safe and after taking the money in order to eliminate the danger of detection.

FARMERS CONTINUE TO PRAY

Farmers' prayers have appeared by the score during the depression, and each has had stinging ridicule for Hoover's efforts as a master economist.

Oscar Johnson this morning brought THE NEWS this one he found in a Sharon Springs, Kan., paper: Lord, I am only a farmer. Thou knowest that when wheat was $2 per bushel and I had flour and sugar in the house and cakes and pies and everything I wanted—I was not satisfied—I voted for a change, for Hoover—Thou knowest that I wore a Hoover badge and was faithful in all things to the G. O. P. Even so! Thou knowest that I believed in the dawn of a new day.

That wool would advance in price that I would get $3 for wheat and 20c for pork. Lord, two years have gone never to return—I am too poor to buy necessities—and I still wear the Hoover badge in the seat of my overalls.

Oh Lord, I am thankful for one thing—that Hoover has been able to make the Jack Rabbits taste good in the summer time. I pray that Thou wilt keep the rabbits replenished so that I shall not go hungry; that I may use the hides for clothing.

I am glad, O Lord, that Thou hast proposed the great trucking system, and that they and also the railroads have been able to keep their high freight rates and my corn will pay the expense of husking.

I pray that Thou wilt continue to uphold Wall Street, that Big Business will be able to collect the year's interest on the funds of my own bank account for it is a righteous cause. Teach me to pray: Our father, who art in Washington, Hoover is thy name, his kingdom come, his will be done even to deny drought sufferers relief and beating the soldier boys out of their bonus. Give each our daily corn bread that Hoover tried to make us eat for two years and Harding had us eating in three months. Lead us not into temptation to vote for a democratic president. For Hoover has all the power, Wall Street all the money, Rockefeller the oil, the manufacturers all the protection and I have the patched overalls forever and forever. Amen!—From an Exchange.

GUILTY LIPS

By Laura Lou Brookman. Author of "MAD MARRIAGE".

BEGIN HERE TODAY: Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary, marries Mark Travers, son of F. M. Travers, millionaire real estate dealer, in spite of the father's opposition and threats to disinherit Mark. The story opens in Marlboro, middlewestern metropolis. Mark sells his expensive roadster to get money for the honeymoon and he and Norma go to fashionable Blue Springs. There Norma meets Hollis Stone, and it is evident from the girl's manner that she has known Stone before and for some reason seems to fear him.

not notice it for several moments. Then she realized the others about her had gone on. She crossed the street hurriedly. "Funny clothes" that girl had jeered. Norma caught the reflection of herself in a plate glass window. Well, she probably looked "funny" to Natalie Price's crowd because her coat wasn't an exclusive creation from Fanchon's or Mome's. Her hat too—that was "funny" because it had been bought from a bargain table and reshaped according to Norma's own taste.

She forgot her morning's errands and walked a block past the five-and-ten store where she was to begin her purchases. "What right has Natalie Price to set herself up as a judge of other people?" Norma raged inwardly. "What has she ever done to make herself better than anyone else?"

She knew without need to hesitate the answers to those questions. Natalie's father was rich. Natalie was "in society," her name and pictures in newspaper society columns frequently. But those were not the things that mattered. What gave Natalie Price her tremendous advantage was the fact she belonged to the life Mark had always known before his marriage. If Natalie sneered at Mark's bride it meant others would do so.

Was she so pitifully a failure? Was she a hindrance to Mark? "But he married me!" Norma told herself deviously. "He knew Natalie first and instead he married me."

The mood burned only a little less fiercely when later she stood at a counter piled high with dishes and selected a blue-flowered saucer to take the place of the one she had broken. Lucky to find the same pattern in stock, however, the oil cloth was next on the list.

Norma moved across the store. She was buying five and ten-cent supplies for Mark's kitchen while Natalie Price and her friend might be trying on gowns that cost hundreds of dollars, fur coats worth fabulous sums.

"Oh, what do I care!" Norma told herself a little too insistently. She was remembering that only yesterday she had declared nothing was lacking from her happiness. That was when Mark had praised the Thanksgiving dinner she had cooked.

She said to the blond girl behind the counter. "I want a yard and a half of that blue oil cloth. No, the plain piece."

Mark Travers looked up as the newcomer leaned his elbows on the lunch counter. "Why—Johnson! I'm a blue-nosed baboon if it isn't the old boy himself! How're you, Johnson?"

The newcomer drew back and greeted him with a gasp. "Glad to see you, Mark," he said heartily. "This is a surprise! Didn't recognize you when I came in. I'm very well, thank you. Looking first-rate yourself!"

Mark laughed. "Sure, I'm O. K. George Johnson, how's the old place bobbing along? Miss me down there?"

They were sitting at a drug store lunch counter. A half-consumed sandwich lay on the plate before Mark. He raised a heavy porcelain cup to his lips. The man beside him was middle-aged. He wore a gray hat and dark overcoat. Beneath the rim of the hat the close-clipped hair showed a grayish tinge. Johnson had the manner of a quiet, efficient man who has spent most of his life executing other men's orders. He had done that, Johnson for 15 years had been a reliable cog in the smoothly operating mechanism building up F. M. Travers' real estate holdings and F. M. Travers' annual dividends.

At 55 Johnson was in charge of the department to which Mark had so casually and briefly lent his services the few months he had been in his father's employ. And at 55 Johnson received a salary considerably less than that which had been paid to Mark.

Traditional homage to all persons and things associated with the name Travers colored George Johnson's voice. "Oh, we're getting on about as usual," he answered Mark's question. "Never very much changed, you know. Yes, indeed, we miss you."

The big boy in the white coat across the counter paused significantly—almost belligerently—in front of Johnson. "Whassa oodery?" he demanded in a voice with a nasal quality.

Johnson hesitated. "Let me see." He studied the menu hunched on the mirror-lined wall. "A fried egg sandwich," he announced. "And coffee. No cream, please. And apple pie!"

The order given, he turned again to Mark. "You know, I'm really glad to see you," he repeated. "We've missed you. I read—er, about your marriage. Of course I wish you and Mrs. Travers every happiness."

affairs for those of your father. I'm carrying out instructions, Mark. "But I've got a job. I don't have time to go down there." "Any time you see I'm sure will suit Mr. Travers. I would stop at the office when you've finished this afternoon he'll be waiting for you."

"I couldn't make it until 5:30. Might be after that." "Then I'll tell him you'll be there at that time! He'll be pleased, I'll tell him to expect you at 5:30—"

Johnson had risen. He seemed delighted that his mission had been a success. Before Mark could interrupt the man was gone. The food Johnson had ordered remained untouched on the counter.

Mark frowned. Here was a situation indeed! Johnson had rushed away assuming Mark was committed himself when in actuality he had done nothing of the sort. "I don't have to go," Mark told himself. "I don't have to go just because Johnson thinks I will. Now, what in the world is Dad up to? Does he really mean it, I wonder?"

Complete surrender on the part of F. M. Travers seemed too much to expect. Yet his father had sent for him. There was consolation in that thought. If Mark went it would be because his father had made the first move toward reconciliation. That was indeed a triumph!

"And if I don't go," came the afterthought, "old Johnson will probably get Hades!" Mark lunched with the problem still unsettled. He thought of it repeatedly throughout the afternoon. A 3:45 he was standing in his father's anxiously carpeted private office.

"You mean," Mark said, slowly, "that you'll do all that? You really mean it?" The elder Travers leaned back in his desk chair. "I will. That and more! I'm only asking you to meet my terms and here they are—"

FEMININE FANCIES

By Hollywe Sellers Hinkle

Good news. A box from home. What could be more welcome for a college student after the glamour of the first few days in college had worn off?

The following is suggested as a tasty delicacy that will not be quite as good when it reaches its destination as it is when it is sent:

- Honey Date Bars
- 2 cups dates, seeded and chopped fine.
- 1-2 cup nut meats, cut fine.
- 2 eggs, beaten light.
- 1-2 cup honey.
- 1-2 cup flour.
- 1 teaspoon baking powder.
- 1-2 cup all-bran.

Mix well, bake 20 minutes in moderate oven (375 F.). Cut in bars and roll in powdered sugar.

Education does not stop with a college degree, and there is no better way for a Pampa woman to broaden her knowledge, develop her personality, or increase her capacity for service than thru a study club.

In addition to making a comprehensive study of the psychology of personality, members of the Junior Twentieth Century club will strive toward the fulfillment of 10 club commandments this year.

The commandments might well be accepted by every club woman in Pampa. Here they are:

1. Thou shalt have no other club before this one.
2. Thou shalt not covet office.
3. Remember thy club engagements.
4. Honor thy club sisters.
5. Thou shalt not murder the King's English.
6. Thou shalt be present at roll call.
7. Thou shalt not at seventh hour begin to hunt material for thy paper.
8. Thou shalt strive to realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life, we are as one.
9. Thou shalt never be hasty in judgment of others; nor forget to be kind.
10. Thou shalt diligently keep these commandments, that thy club days may be lengthened and thy fame spread unto the uttermost parts of the club room.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Reality" was the lesson-sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, Sept. 27.

James 1:17 furnished the golden text. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." The lesson-sermon embraced the following verses from the Bible (Psalms 93:2,5). "Thy throne is established of old; thou art, from everlasting. Thy testimonies are very sure; holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever."

Included in the service were the following citations from pp. 335 and 492 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal. For right reasoning there should be put one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeness, mortality."

Says New Bidding Is Novice's Boon

(Editor's Note: Clairborne Foster star of "The Patsy," "Triggs" and other stage successes, is one of the ranking bridge tournament players of the Cavendish contests in New York. She explains in the following the new "official" system of bidding contract bridge.)

By CLAIBORNE FOSTER NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—Those players who cannot spend the time to become experts are the principal beneficiaries of the simplified system of bidding contract bridge which was adopted at the first general convention of bridge teachers in New York.

It is really a combination system, the best features of a number of well known systems being utilized in these new rules which should remove many obstacles for infrequent players.

First known as the "universal" it is now called the "official" system, being sponsored by nearly all well known bridge teachers with the exception of Ely Culbertson.

The changes brought about in this new system are not complex. Under its rules, a one bid shows two and one-half tricks.

A two bid shows a stronger hand of three and one-half to four and one-half tricks. A two bid is not a demand bid, but requirements for a partner helping are considerably less.

A three bid is a demand bid and the partner must respond. This means a hand that is probably a game hand with practically no assistance from the partner.

Heretofore, under old systems, such as the Cavendish, a two bid is the stronger bid. This is changed under the "official" system. A two bid is stronger than a one bid, and a three bid is stronger than a two bid. And a three bid is the only one that is a demand bid.

An optional provision of this system is an artificial two-club game demand bid made only as an original bid.

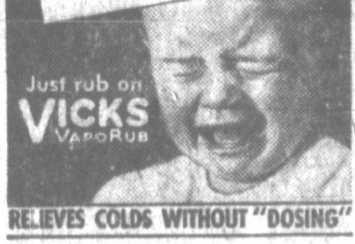

The popularity of this new system, of course, remains contingent upon its fast spreading introduction in bridge tournaments.

There is little doubt but that it is welcome to the novice player who has not had the opportunity to learn the more subtle points of the game.

REDSKINS TO GIVE LOCALS HARD BATTLE

Pair of Ripping Backs Will Test Harvester Wall Next Saturday.

The Pampa Harvesters will meet what may be their toughest competition of the football season Saturday afternoon when the Wichita, Kans., Redskins come to Pampa. Coach Lindsey Austin of Wichita has 97 boys in uniform according to a letter and a picture of the team that he says the Redskins has gone football mad this year and that every boy in the school is anxious to get into a football uniform.

His team will be led by co-captains who look like college players in pictures sent here. Hobson, left, weighs 170 pounds and Stevens, fullback, weighs 185 pounds. Both are built like the great Savoldi of Notre Dame, if pictures are not deceiving. Coach Lindsey sends the following information about the school and his team: "We have a team with an enrollment of about 1,400 pupils. There are 97 boys in uniform this season, from which I hope to pick a winning combination. The game with the Harvesters will be the first of the season excepting with second teams. We have eight lettermen back this year—seven in the line and three in the backfield. Our team was Wichita champions in 1929 but lost out to the other Wichita team last year. Our colors are red jersey with white stripes. The team and a number of fans will leave Wichita about 2 p. m. Friday on a special pullman over the Santa Fe and will arrive in Pampa about 4 a. m. Saturday. Coach Oud Mitchell and Assistant Coaches A. M. Fox and Warren Moore will put the Harvesters through half workouts this week and getting them ready for the big game. Reserve seats tickets will go on sale Thursday at the office of Joe Smith in the court house.

COTTON IS STEADY
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26. (AP)—The cotton market had a steady opening here today. Although Liverpool cables were much lower than here, there was a sharp advance in Sterling exchange. First trades here were unchanged from Saturday's close and December advanced 1 point after the start to 6.26, on reports of considerable price fixing by spinners. The market also was supported by a marked absence of hedging. Later in the first hour, prices eased off 5 to 7 points on realizing, December dropping to 6.19 and January to 6.30, near the end of the first hour the market was steady and at the lows.

Buffs Damaged In Tech Contest

CANYON, Sept. 26.—The West Texas Buffaloes emerged from the Texas Tech game in a rather bad plight for the next football encounter that is coming up this week-end with the Central State Teachers at Edmond, Okla.

Jack Spence, the 185-pound sophomore halfback who ran wild against Panhandle A. and M. college, received some cracked ribs that will probably keep him on the sidelines for two or three weeks. Ronald Woolver, the heavy-set guard of the Buffs, suffered a badly wrenched leg and may be out for a game or so. "Cow" Williams had opened a new and old chronic knee that will place him on the disabled list for some time.

MISSOURI AND TEXAS BATTLE ON SATURDAY

Big Six Eleven Will Try Powerful Opponents in Hot Climate.

DALLAS, Sept. 26. (AP)—Four southwest inter-sectional football combats will be erased this week when every member of the conference goes into action Saturday—some with powerful opposition, others with opponents just strong enough to furnish good workouts. Leading the parade will be the University of Texas and University of Missouri game at Austin, and the Texas A. & M. and Tulane contest in New Orleans. The other inter-sectional affairs will send Rice to Norman to battle the University of Oklahoma and Texas Christian into Tulsa for a night game against the University of Tulsa.

Football wisecracks have termed it the suicide schedule of the South-west conference. Whatever it is, the University of Texas Longhorns start unwinding it against Missouri. For the rest of the season, Texas plays only powerful opponents such as Rice, Oklahoma, Harvard, S. M. U., Baylor, T. C. U., Centenary, and Texas A. & M.

Other games this week call for S. M. U. to play Simmons in Dallas. Arkansas will play Hendrix college in Fayetteville and Baylor, idle last week, will battle St. Edward's in Waco.

PARADE TO BE STAGED TODAY BY CARDINALS

"Victory" Procession to Include Grover Alexander, Hero of Series in 1926.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26. (AP)—The National league champion Cardinals will return home today to start making up for the world series but preparations will be interrupted long enough tomorrow for a "victory parade" in honor of the team. Grover Cleveland Alexander, Cardinal hero of the 1926 world series, has been invited to ride in the parade and the three batters which likely will be asked to play "Alexander's Ragtime Band" in honor of the once great pitcher, now a manager of the bearded House of David team.

Convinced Robert Moses Grove, Connie Mack's ace southpaw, will play a prominent role in the series, even if not assigned the pitching job in the opening game here Thursday. Manager Gabby Street of the Cards plans to give his players best batting practice against left-handers. Bill Walker, star left-hander of the Giants, has agreed to help groom the National leaguers for the series.

Rookie to Start
The Cincinnati Enquirer said today Manager Street announced before the Cardinals left here last night he would start Paul Derringer, sensational rookie in the first game and follow with "Wild Bill" Hallahan, a left-hander who won from and lost to the Athletics last year.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (AP)—The world's champion Athletics have decided edge over the Cardinals in offensive strength, measured by the power of their long range guns and ability to strike swiftly in the pinch. The Cards excel in speed on the bases.

There are weak spots in the A's batting order but the dynamic is likely to explode any time Al Simmons, Mickey Cochrane, or Jimmy Fox steps into a fast ball. Gabby Street regards Simmons as the greatest menace, thereby being in complete accord with seven American league managers.

The Athletics, in the season's unofficial averages, show a club batting mark of .287 to the Cardinals'. The slugging records showed a more conspicuous difference in favor of the A's who collected 118 home runs against only 58 for the Cards.

Sluggers Are Strong
Charley Gelbert, sensational young shortstop, was the batting leader of the Cards a year ago in the championship fray with 316. Sunny Jim Bottomley, bothered by a hand injury, hit only 245 and was a "bust." Chick Hafey hit a mere 373. These two sluggers have been hitting harder than ever this year and are counted on to redeem themselves.

If Bottomley and Hafey can hold

Vines Smashes Tennis Record

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26. (AP)—H. Ellsworth Vines Jr., celebrated his twentieth birthday anniversary as possessor of 13 tennis singles titles and eleven doubles championships—all the spoils of a single season—a record believed to be without precedent.

This afternoon the national singles king will seek to add the fifth annual Pacific Southwest doubles crown to his collection, for he teams with Keith Gledhill, Santa Barbara, against Wilmer Allison, Austin, Tex., and John Van Eyn, Los Angeles, national doubles titleholders, in a postponed final of the tournament. Vines yesterday successfully defended his Pacific Southwest singles honors by turning back Frederick J. Perry, England, in five sets, 8-10, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Philadelphia's Athletics finished their season Sunday by taking it on the chin from the Yankees, 13 to 1, as the A's hurlers were walked for 20 hits. But with all that, the Athletics finished the year with an average of .704.

The Cardinals finished strongly, winning from Cincinnati, 8 to 2, and 5 to 3 behind the pitching of Paul Derringer and Sylvester Johnson, and checked in with 101 victories and 53 defeats.

With several places in the standings still undecided until all the games were over, there was little dullness in the closing day's program for the big league. The three-cornered battle in the American league's second division wound up with St. Louis, Boston, and Detroit in that order. The Browns took two games from Chicago, 10 to 8 and 2 to 1, to capture fifth place by the margin of a single point over Boston's Red Sox. The Sox gained a virtual tie for the place when they downed Washington, holders of second place up to Saturday, 4 to 2.

Detroit lost out in the struggle when Cleveland pounded out an 8 to 1 victory in the final game. Philadelphia beat Boston, 5 to 3 in the first game of a doubleheader, clinching sixth place in the National league. Boston easily pounded out a 12-2 victory in the second game.

Brooklyn and New York finished all square for the year when the Rot. S. pounded out a 12 to 3 victory behind Clark in the first game of a twin bill and darkness halted the second before four innings were completed. Timely home runs enabled Chicago to take two games from Pittsburgh, 3 to 1 and 8 to 4.

Bombs Shake Denver

ONE HOME IS BLASTED AND THEN BURNED

Holy Family Church in North Part City Damaged—Woman Sees Stout Man Run Before Explosion.

PEOPLE FEARFUL

Thousands of Persons Remain in Streets, Afraid to Return to Their Homes During Nighttime.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 29. (AP)—The explosion of a group of bombs, one of which endangered the lives of 10 children in a church school here today.

Six bombs in all were fired within a few hours of each other last night, resulting in the destruction of one home and a general panic in North Denver and two suburbs. The first three did no damage.

Police originally ascribed the first reported explosion in Vanderde to small boys but abandoned this theory after a terrific blast rocked the Holy Family church in North Denver.

Fifty members of a church school club dashed terrified from the building. The blast stopped the motion picture machine in the Oriental theater across the street and hundreds of theater patrons rushed for exits.

Mrs. Mary Jackson, who lives near the church, told police she saw a "stout man" leave a car, walk up an alley behind the church school and run out later, a second before the explosion.

A few minutes later a bomb blast rocked a neighborhood a few blocks distant, shattering windows and knocking goods from store shelves for several blocks around.

Police were investigating these explosions when a fourth blast wrecked and set fire to a house owned by Custer Rand in Barnum, another suburb. Rand, who lived next door, could not be found last night.

Thousands of persons stayed in the streets until daylight today, afraid to return to their homes.

Many Pampanos to See World Series

Pampa will have plenty of representatives at the opening game of the world series in St. Louis, Thursday. Although Pampa is known as a football city, there are plenty of lovers of the "greatest sport in the world" left.

Mr. and Mrs. Deles Vicars and Charles C. Cook will leave this afternoon for St. Louis where they will see the first two games of the season. L. Baum left this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kasishke, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gribben and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Mel B. Davis, Miss Virginia Faulkner and E. J. Dunigan, Jr., are already in St. Louis having left there last week going to Chicago on business before returning to St. Louis.

Impersonation Gets 18-Month Sentence

AMARILLO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Syde E. Cutter, who pleaded guilty before Federal Judge James C. Wilson to charges of impersonating a federal officer to obtain credit, was sentenced to serve 18 months in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan.

Sentence of Mrs. Verna Moseley, former post office employee at Kingsmill, Gray county, charged with misappropriating $85 of postal funds, was deferred for two years.

Wrigley Uses Cotton For His Letterheads

Wm. Wrigley Jr. has found a use for the over supply of cotton. Mr. Wrigley traded the south a considerable quantity of gum for cotton and when the bottom went out of the market he still had his cotton. Rather than sell the cotton for nothing or pay storage, the big gum manufacturer had some of his cotton made into letterheads. He uses them for all correspondence.

This morning Moody Guthrie received a letter from the Wm. Wrigley company, 400 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, in response to a suggestion sent the company regarding advertising. The letter had the company name and address on the top. At the bottom left-hand corner was a cotton boll and on the bottom right-hand corner was a cotton bale.

The letter was typed and the lettering was clean and clear. The paper or rather cotton was soft and flexible and weighed little more than ordinary paper.

GAS UTILITIES CHANGE HANDS

Community Natural Acquires Systems at Abilene and Cisco in Deal.

ABILENE, Sept. 29. (AP)—Confirmation of negotiations for sale by the West Texas Utilities company of its gas distribution systems in Abilene and Cisco, to Community Natural Gas company was given here today jointly by Price Campbell, president of the Utilities company, and Chester L. May, operating vice president of the Community Natural Gas company.

Consideration was withheld, and both executives said consummation of the deal depends on examinations of abstracts and title papers. The contract for sale, however, was signed in Dallas yesterday.

Mr. May came to Abilene to initiate a clean-up inspection of the gas properties involved in the sale, and to look around for quarters.

Abilene probably will be made district headquarters for the gas company's properties covering 35 towns. Boundaries of the district will be north of the vicinity of Vernon, south of Ballinger, west to Colorado, and east to Strawn. May said that if the headquarters deal goes through the company will station here the general superintendent of the western division, accounting department, records departments, together with the local manager and operating staff.

All employees in the gas division of the utilities company at Abilene and Cisco either will be taken over by the Community Natural Gas company or be retained by the utilities company.

Three Men Killed in Train Accident

ASHKUM, Ill., Sept. 29. (AP)—Three men, including the engineer and fireman, were killed last night when an Illinois Central passenger train, bound from Chicago to Mattoon, Ill., was wrecked. Six passengers were injured.

The wreck occurred when the train, a local which left Chicago at 4:50 p. m., ran through an open switch on a siding to clear the main line for the crack flyer, the Cerok, Chicago-bound from New Orleans. The locomotive, baggage car and two passenger coaches overturned.

The dead: Engineer Henry Fogarty, Chicago. Fireman Charles Nolan, Chicago. Elijah Clemons, 33, a negro of Ashkum, Miss., a casual.

Lindberghs Still Busy on Relief

NANKING, China, Sept. 29. (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh accompanied by Dr. Broeck, health expert of the League of Nations, were en route to Hankow today on their third aerial survey of flooded regions in China.

The aerial investigators planned a stop at Wuhu, 75 miles southwest of Nanking, to inspect relief work in progress there.

DETROIT, Sept. 29. (AP)—

The changing racial complexion of cities of more than 100,000 population was pictured today by the census bureau.

In all but Philadelphia of the five cities having a million population, the negro group had more than doubled in the past decade. In four cities the negro population had increased by more than 200 per cent, in 16 cities by more than 100 per cent.

The Indian was shown to have become far more civitized. Chinese and Japanese groups displayed a steady growth in cities where they have sizeable colonies.

Mexicans appeared for the first time in a statistical classification. Cities showing more than 10,400 of them being Los Angeles, 97,116; San Antonio, 82,373; El Paso, 58,192; Chicago, 19,362; Houston, 14,149.

In El Paso, the segregation of the Mexicans, hitherto, lumped into the "white" classification, caused a 44.6 per cent decrease in the "white" column, although the city grew up 82.1 per cent.

Ten years ago, the Indian, true to his roving tradition, kept to the open spaces. Only eight cities in the list of those now totaling more than 100,000 could boast 100 Indians.

Now 23 cities have more than 100 Indians, and one city, Tulsa, has 1,948. There were but 271 Indians in Tulsa in 1920.

El Paso's Indian population, perhaps, due to a more careful classification among Indians and Mexicans, dropped from 246 to 28.

Policeman Freed in Elston Killing

AMARILLO, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Potter county grand jury today "nubiled" E. R. Murr and Sid Harper, Amarillo policemen, who had been formally charged with the slaying of Bill Elston, Carson county surveyor.

Elston was mysteriously shot to death at Jack Hill's ranch, near Amarillo, on July 27.

Murr and Harper had been under suspension from the police department since the slaying. They had gone to the ranch, an outing resort, to arrest Elston on a charge of criminal assault when the shooting occurred. Murr was chasing Elston when the mysterious shot was fired, and stumbled over Elston's body as he fell.

Authorities who examined the officers' guns said they had not been fired.

The officers will be reinstated on the police force immediately. It was announced.

Oil Hearing Is Important

Every Royalty and Land Owner Is Urged to Be at Big Session.

A hearing to determine whether waste of gas and oil exists in the Panhandle field will take place at 10 o'clock Saturday morning on the Amarillo hotel, Amarillo.

C. V. Terrell, chairman of the railroad commission will be present, according to J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas committee of the railroad commission for the Panhandle field, who with Mrs. McDonald and daughter, Pat, returned from Austin Sunday.

The hearing will be open to every person in the Panhandle interested in the oil situation. Mr. McDonald says. Every producer, royalty owner, land owner, and any persons otherwise interested are urged to attend the session.

Mr. McDonald has sent letters to every producer in the Panhandle field asking him to furnish potential production of every well in the field. The information must be accurate. Mr. McDonald says, as it will have much to do with the setting of Panhandle production.

If the commission finds that waste exists, rules and regulations for the correction and prevention of further waste will be passed.

Although no prorotation schedule is effective in the Panhandle at present, major producers and others are confirming with the last prorotation order submitted before abandonment of the prorotation committee. Some wells are producing larger amounts.

East Texas Total Again Is Mounting

KILGORE, Sept. 29. (AP)—Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters predicted yesterday the East Texas field again would be producing 400,000 barrels of oil by Oct. 4.

The field rounded out a week of operation under the railroad commission's new allowable of 185 barrels per well yesterday. Increase over the first day of production under the new order was approximately 16,000 barrels.

Production reports compiled by General Wolters fixed yesterday's output from 2,079 wells at 382,000 barrels.

General Wolters estimated 500 wells were being drilled in the field.

Two men held up two employees of the bank and their companions and forced one of the employees to return to Borgers and open the safe.

LOAN BILL SIGNED
AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (AP)—Gov. Ross E. Sterling today signed a bill passed by the second extraordinary session of the Texas legislature authorizing a loan of $3,000,000 from the state highway department funds to the general fund of the state. The loan will bear three per cent interest.

A General Gets Kissed

There was another part of the ceremony after General Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, had received the grand cross of France's Legion of Honor. And here it is—a congratulatory embrace from Andre Maginot, French war minister. It's an unusual study of how a general looks when he's being kissed. The cross was conferred upon General MacArthur, famed World War figure, at the close of recent military maneuvers held near Paris.

THOMPSON WELL NORTH AND WEST OF CITY IS SPUDDED

Blinking Derrick Lights Show Drilling Activity in Several Gray Pools.

A string of lights flashed into existence on the western horizon Saturday night informing Pampanos that active drilling in Gray county was still under way. Blinking lights can be seen in several Gray county pools to show that drilling activities are not at a standstill.

The latest string of lights denoted the spudding in of Anderson & Beans No. 2 Thompson in the north-west quarter of section 126, block 3 L & G. N. survey. The location is about three miles northwest of the city.

Last week strings of lights denoted the drilling of Texhoma's No. 1 Mary Purvis in section 151, block 32 and of Quicksand's No. 1 Chapman in section 66, block 25, southwest of LeFors.

There are 15 other active drilling wells in the county.

COOLIDGE DOES NOT CHOOSE TO RUN, HE SAYS

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—Former President Coolidge is a headliner in today's issue of the Saturday Evening POST with a political article reiterating his farewells to the presidency and supporting President Hoover.

Mr. Coolidge's actual words, however, were wrapped up in copyright restrictions, which prohibited reproduction in newspapers until tomorrow morning—although the POST itself was on sale throughout the country this morning.

George Horace Lorimer, editor of The POST, wouldn't permit any change in the general release of the story, and Mr. Coolidge, thru his secretary, said the article fully stated his views and that he had nothing to add. There were promises only that if Mr. Coolidge made a further statement today it would be given to the press.

Therefore the actual wording of Mr. Coolidge's article remained to-day a well publicized mystery save to magazine readers, although the general tenor of his views received a widespread notice in the press and over the radio.

Alsop Jury Takes Form Very Slowly

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Only one more man, E. M. Pepper, was added this morning to the jury being selected to try John Alsop, former Fort Worth police officer, on a charge of murder, bringing the total number of jurors selected in two days to seven.

Judge P. A. Martin sought to speed up the examination of witnesses but attorneys for both sides continued their lengthy and tedious questioning of prospective jurors.

Testimony is expected to begin late Tuesday afternoon. The state is still qualifying on the death penalty.

INDICTMENT IS DISMISSED AS CASE CALLED

Immunity Granted Under Martial Law Is One Reason for Dropping Conspiracy Charges.

LITTLE EVIDENCE

Former City and County Officers Were Named—Gray County Defendants May Be Tried Later.

AMARILLO, Sept. 29. (AP)—A blanket indictment charging 21 residents and former residents of Borgers and Hutchinson counties, including several former city and county officials, with conspiracy to violate the national prohibition laws, was dismissed in United States district court here today.

The indictments named Glenn A. Pace, former mayor; John W. Crabtree, former chief of police; C. A. Mitchell, former constable; Sam Jones, deputy constable, and Burlin Mitchell and Cal Baird, former deputy sheriffs.

The dismissal of the indictment disposed of many criminal charges, both state and federal, that resulted from martial law in Borgers in September and October of 1929, following the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes.

Motion for dismissal of the cases was made by H. E. Hoover of Canadian, defense counsel. Alex M. Moon, assistant United States district attorney said, "the indictment was predicated largely on testimony taken by a military court and on confessions obtained under promise of immunity by state officers, and government counsel doubts the voluntary character of the confessions, and is not at this time ready for trial."

Calhoun Speaks
Clem Calhoun, who was sent to Borgers by ex-Governor Dan Moody to succeed the slain district attorney, obtained some of the confessions. He said he had promised immunity to fifty four of those indicted, and that his promise was made only for state courts. These four, he said, were officers in minor positions who gave valuable testimony in the state's efforts tooust their superiors from office.

All of the officials involved later resigned, Calhoun said, and the evidence was not used.

"I was in Borgers as a special prosecutor for the state," Calhoun said, "and had no other interest in mind when I made promises of immunity. I was called before the federal grand jury as a witness present at the returning of the indictments."

Others named in the indictments were Lonnie Anderson, D. T. Blasingame, Ben Chapman, Louis Child, Johnny Ford, John Harkness, Johnny W. Jones, J. D. Lee, Don McCombs, L. E. "Curly" Murray, H. C. Taylor, John Ware, Mrs. Ethel Ware, George Wilson, R. M. "Doc" Ward.

Ware, who is now dead, and Harkness were later convicted on liquor charges and sent to the state penitentiary, Calhoun said. He said Blasingame, Chapman, Johnny Jones, Ford, and Lee had formerly served in the army.

Murder Trial Pending
Sam Jones was indicted for slaying of Holmes, and the case is still pending, Calhoun said.

Thirty-three Gray county citizens charged by the federal grand jury last April will probably not come to trial during the present term of federal court which will close Saturday, attorneys in the various cases declare. The accused in most indictments are charged on liquor counts.

Families Wanted To Pick Cotton—Warning Is Issued

Clyde Garner of the employment agency here is not receiving the response he expected to his call for families to pick cotton. The Clarendon community is in need of at least 20 families and has asked Pampa to supply that number.

There are plenty of families here practically destitute that could make money picking cotton and Mr. Garner wants them to report to him at his office in the Welfare Board office, in the basement of the city hall.

"When the time comes for these people who will not pick cotton to call on the Welfare Board for help during the winter they are going to be surprised when they are turned down," Mr. Garner declared this morning. "We know pretty well who the families are and it would be to them a saving to report for work," he declared.

STERLING "TOO BUSY" TO ANNOUNCE

In pleading that he is just too busy with the state's business to announce for governor, but that rumors of his not intending to run for renomination were "without foundation," Governor Sterling has of course thrown his hat into the political ring.

There is little evidence that Sterling will be in demand for a second term. He served a useful purpose in ousting the Fergusons from the political stage and his tenure as chief executive has not been productive of any sensational accomplishments. There has been the repeated statement that he was allied with major business interests, and that his closest advisers were not of the strata of commerce from which the people draw their safest service. While Sterling has staunch supporters, and while he has not made the worst governor the state ever had, we believe the state as a whole will consider his usefulness largely used up in his present term.

It is fortunate that Texas has a man from the ranks who has served brilliantly, who was nearly nominated before, and whose esteem in his own legislative chamber is remarkably high. We refer to that energetic, legal-minded fellow of our own section but whose interests encompass the entire state—CLINT SMALL.

Mr. Small, ladies and gentleman, is the man Texas needs to follow Ross Sterling. He is, by every dictate of good judgment, THE NEXT GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

Foreign Titles Are Heard in Gotham

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—America has no royalty, but every day here in the world's largest democratic city there are stenographers who say "Yes, Prince," when they take dictation and "I'm sorry, Duke" when they make mistakes.

Most of the titled foreigners are Russian emigres who left their native land just before or after the revolution.

Today, after 14 years, many have risen high in the commercial fields there. Some are on Wall street, others have been successful in the banking field and many have prosperous businesses of their own.

But although they have become thorough Americans in most respects, nearly all still retain their titles and shun the customary Mr., Miss, or Mrs.

At a steamship office it is "Prince Chavchavadze" one asks for if one wishes to see the man who married Princess Nina, kin of Grandduke Cyril Vladimirovitch, pretender to the Czarist throne.

In an exclusive Madison avenue shop Princess Obolensky, whose daughter fell to her death from the Eiffel tower last July, is referred to as "the princess."

Those who made Grandduchess Marie's autobiography a big seller and other of her business associates who will greet her tomorrow on her return from Paris speak of her as "the grand duchess" and assume their hearers know who they mean.

New Paving Bids to Be Sought by Gray

Re-advertising for bids on 4 1-2 miles of county paving was voted by county commissioners yesterday after they rejected all bids as too high.

The low bid was that of the Reed-Wheeler firm of Waco, averaging about $18,035 per mile, or considerably under any previous bid for county paving. Stuckey Construction company was second low bidder.

The paving included 2 1-2 miles to finish the highway 33 paving north to the county line and 2 miles on the DePors road.

The new bids will be opened Oct. 15 at 10 o'clock.

Clarence Bowers of Miami transacted business here today.

Two Men Held In Tucumcari Killing

EL PASO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Two men believed to be linked with the killing of Henry Hatcher, Tucumcari, N. M., were under arrest at El Centro, Calif., tonight.

Hatcher, investigator for the Southern Pacific railroad, was fatally wounded in yards at Tucumcari last week when he accosted two men. He died in an El Paso hospital.

The men were taken into custody after two other men held at Tucson, Ariz., gave officers descriptions of two hoboes whom they saw throw a pistol from a freight train west of Vaughn, N. M.

The pistol, found by a shepherd, was identified by an El Paso ballistics expert as the one from which the bullet, which killed Hatcher, was fired.

COTTON SHADE LOWER
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Cotton had a steady opening today. While Liverpool was a shade lower than due, sterling exchange was steady at yesterday's advance. First trades here showed losses of two points, but this was soon recovered on moderate price fixing by mills.

Later in the first hour, prices eased off a little owing to weakness in Egyptian cotton, December dropping to 6.08 and January to 6.10, or 3 to 4 points below yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market was steady and a shade above the lows, with trading very moderate.

LIVESTOCK MAN DIES
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29. (AP)—William P. Browning, 71, head of the W. P. Browning & Son livestock firm, died at his home here today. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. O. H. Powers of Temple, Texas.

This Bank Run Is Happy Affair

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Imagine a bank run and everybody being happy. Such was the case yesterday when the Mayfair State Savings bank invited its customers to come and get their money—100 cents on the dollar—because the board of directors decided it was not possible to pay operating expenses and make a reasonable return on the capital invested.

By closing time, however, only about one-third of the $600,000 on deposit had been withdrawn.

Dozens of stock and bond salesmen waited outside the bank to solicit customers.

Policeman Shoots Inmate Husband And Is Himself Wounded

GALVESTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—A spectacular shooting affray here today sent John Burns, Galveston police officer, and L. J. "Jack" Adams, former hotel manager, to hospitals with bullet wounds.

Adams was shot through the face and was reported to be in a serious condition. Burns was wounded twice but was expected to recover.

Both men were wounded when officers answered a call from a steamship company official who charged Adams was causing a disturbance at his home. Burns was shot as he stood on a sidewalk in front of the steamship company official's home.

Several officers opened fire on Adams after Burns was wounded. Adams filed statutory charges against Wayne V. Pittman, at whose home the disturbance occurred, and his (Adams) wife, Mrs. Frances Adams, last night. Pittman told officers Adams was driving his home at intervals and firing into the windows.

GRAINS SAGGING
CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Grain prices turned downward early today, influenced by Liverpool reports of increased pressure to sell Canadian wheat abroad and by cheaper Russian offerings. Further declines in Wall Street securities also were a bearish factor.

Opening 1-3 to 5-8 cent lower, wheat afterward sagged further. Corn started at 5-8 to 3-4 decline to 1-8 advance with new crop deliveries outdoing the season's low price record, but later kept near the initial range.

Mrs. A. C. Bird of Skellytown shopped here this morning.
Mrs. A. Hardy of LeFors visited in Pampa this morning.

MAYOR'S BIBLE CLASS WITHDRAWS FROM CHURCH

ATLANTA, Sept. 29. (AP)—Despairing of settling differences over prohibition between Mayor James L. Key and the Rev. R. Z. Tyler, members of the mayor's Bible class, Grace Methodist church, South, have voted to disband and to follow the mayor into a new inter-denominational class.

Mayor Key withdrew from leadership of the class, which he founded eight years ago, after Mr. Tyler objected to his criticism of the prohibition law and requested that he refrain from further utterances on the subject.

Miss Veima Polson returned to her office in the courthouse this morning after an absence of a week through illness.

FEMININE FANCIES

All I know is what I read in the papers, declared the famous humorist.

We know Will Rogers knows more than what he reads in papers, yet if that were all, he still could be an educated man.

No matter how much book learning a person may have, he cannot be educated unless he reads at least one good newspaper regularly.

For pupils in social science and home economics courses at the summer demonstration school at Columbia University Teachers College, newspapers have replaced textbooks.

Such a file, a library in itself, would be educational for anyone. It would show changes and progress in government; it would give items of interest about famous people; it would give news about discoveries and inventions; it would show changing trends in styles; it would give histories of special days and ways to commemorate or entertain on those days; it would contain hints on health, recipes, travel, and literature.

A class of 10-year-old boys of the Methodist Sunday school has studied the entire Bible since last week.

We went to the dentist yesterday and wondered, while sitting there, if everybody in the world shut their eyes during that grinding which goes with filling teeth.

GUILTY LIPS

BEHIN HERE TODAY Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary, marries Mark Travers, son of F. M. Travers, millionaire real estate dealer, in spite of the father's opposition and threats to disinherit her.

The story opens in Marlboro, middlewestern metropolis. Mark sells his expensive roadster to get money for the honeymoon and he and Norma go to fashionable Blue Springs. There Norma meets Hollis Stone, and it is evident from the girl's manner that she has known Stone before and for some reason seems to fear him.

Their money is soon gone, partly due to Mark's gambling. With $500 borrowed from Stone the couple return to Marlboro. Mark sets out on a round of pleasure seeking instead of hunting a job.

Travers was nodding. "Tuesday at midnight," he repeated. "You had your passport, haven't you? I'll have everything else arranged. Monday you'll be in Liverpool."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVIII

Travers eyed his son levelly. "When I make a bargain," he began, "I expect fair return for my money. Otherwise I'm not interested. And if you agree to what I'm suggesting I'll expect you to keep that agreement as rigidly as any business contract."

ATHLETICS HAVE BIG EDGE OVER CARDS IN MOUND ACES

OLD RELIABLE RED BIRDS ON AILING ROLL

Grimes and Haines Likely to See No Action During World Series.

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—Measured by the caliber of pitching or the yardstick of fielding skill and experience, the world's champion Athletics possess a margin of superiority over the Cardinals in defensive strength for the baseball championship battle.

The National league champions have a faster infield, featuring the Frisch-Gelbert combination around second base. The A's, otherwise, have an edge on the mound, behind the bat and in the outfield, especially if the sensational ballhawk, Mule Hays, is back in top form.

Twin Aces Great
Lefty Grove and George Earnshaw, the twin aces upon whom the hopes of another quick American league victory are based, always have had the benefit of sterling support from their teammates. Inspiration works both ways when either of these fast-ball fingers is on the mound.

It's an old baseball axiom that "you can't hit when you can't see" and at times last October, it appeared some of the Cardinal batsmen were unable to see the ball.

The smoke of Grove and Earnshaw alone, penetrating in with any substantial success. Walberg and Hoyt will form the second line of pitching defense for the A's.

The Cardinal twirling defense will be distinctly a gamble, if Gabby Street is forced to rely on Paul Derringer and Bill Hallahan, instead of Burleigh Grimes and Jess Haines, veterans of the Red Bird flock. Derringer is a newcomer to series fire. With Hallahan, it's either a shutout or a knockout. He blanked the A's the first time he faced them last year and was routed in two innings the next time.

Infield Erratic
The A's infield has never been the club's strongest point. Fox, for instance, does not compare with Bottomley as a defensive worker, although Big Jimmy is steady. Bishop is not so spectacular as Frisch, one of the great defensive second basemen of all time. Boley, an old reliable, cannot cover the ground, nor has he the arm that Gelbert owns. The Mark substitute, Williams, is more on Gelbert's style. Dykes is about on a par with either Adams or High at third.

On the entire patrol, the A's have two of the finest fly-chasers in Al Simmons and Mule Hays. Bafey, in left, and either Pepper Martin or Osselt in center, for the Cardinals, do not quite measure up to the exceptional standard of their rivals, Watkins or Reister. In right field for the National leaguers lack the experience of the veteran Bing Miller.

Mickey Cochrane may have one or two mechanical faults behind the bat. His arm is good, though not the best in the back-stopping business, but the great Mack receiver's all-around ability surpasses that of the clever Jimmy Wilson, No. 1 catcher for the Cards.

Gabby Optimistic
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Except for pitchers Jess Haines, who probably will see no action because of an arm injury, Manager Gabby Street expects the St. Louis Cardinals to be at their full strength for the world series.

Gabby said today he believed both John (Pepper) Martin, center-fielder, and "Sparky" Adams, third baseman, will be ready for action in the first game against Philadelphia here Thursday.

Martin, who suffered a wrenched left knee in Cincinnati Sunday, worked out with his teammates yesterday, handling himself without favoring the injured knee to any noticeable degree. Adams, who sprained an ankle Sept. 20, also worked out.

Haines, Street said, probably will not pitch during the series. The big right-handed pitcher pulled a muscle three weeks ago, and has not pitched since.

Derringer May Start
With Haines out of consideration, it was regarded as likely today Street would send Paul Derringer, giant right-hander, against the Athletics in the opening game.

Street ordered another workout for this afternoon, after the players return to Sportsman's park from a "victory parade" through the downtown streets. They will be joined in the polishing up maneuvers by Bill Walker, left hander of the Giants, who has volunteered his services.

What-a-Man Shires Overlooked By Majors Despite Fine Record

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 29. (AP)—Art Shires, the colorful first baseman of the Milwaukee Brewers, is resigned to a fate which seems to decree that he must languish another year in the minors. No one in the majors is clamoring for him in a very loud voice and Art fears that this season at least, he has been overlooked.

Shires, probably the original what-a-man, was eased out of the Chicago White Sox for assorted misbehaviors and a year's penance in the American association was supposed to be good for his cocky spirit. And now, indications are, there will be two more years around first base in Milwaukee.

Determined to regain the good will of major league moguls Shires did behave in Milwaukee—pretty well.

"I admit," said he, "that I lifted a stein or two on occasion, but I was always out there the next day to play and produce. I thought I was entitled to another shot in the big show, and I was disappointed when no one put in a bid for me."

But he'll be no sulking wall flower. Shires made an impressive record with Milwaukee. He was batting close to .400 all season.

HARVARD HAS LATE STARTING FOR ITS MEN

Powerful Backfield Will Be Used by Crimson in Eddie Casey Regime.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 29. (AP) A spirit of optimism is hovering over Harvard stadium these days as Eddie Casey welds some of the finest material in the east into the machine which his admirers hope will regain for the crimson some of its football heritage.

Casey is starting his first season as head coach. Harvard, facing an arduous schedule and bound by a "Big Three" agreement, could not call its gridiron army to the colors until Sept. 15. A total of 104 candidates, 90 of them experienced in some sort of Harvard football, reported that day. Casey quickly divided them into shock troops and reserves.

A few days later four varsity teams were scrimmaging, and Casey was able to replace Ben Tieknor, all-American center for two years, with John Trainer, guard; Fred Richards and Brad Trafford, varsity tackles, and Bob Ogden and Vic Harding, regular ends.

Discards Tactics
Casey then discarded the old Harvard split end in motion attack, with its seldom effective lateral pass, and installed an offense similar to the Warner strategy that demands simple assignments thoroughly executed, aided by some deception.

Harvard has no backfield problem, with Captain Barrywood, Eddie Mays, Bernie White, Jack Erickard, John Schereschewsky, and at least three replacements for each. Charley Devens, who smashed through Yale last year, is ineligible.

The line and end situations are not so encouraging. Charley Cunningham, two years a Tieknor understudy, appears to be the most valuable center. He is flanked by two experienced guards, Henry

Big Six Teams Whip Elevens Into Form for Contests

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29. (AP)—Big Six coaches at Nebraska, Missouri, and Oklahoma are putting in long hours with their charges this week in preparation for important inter-sectional clashes next Saturday.

Coach Dana K. Bible, whose Nebraskans tangle with Northwestern kept the varsity busy on aerial defense yesterday.

With only three days of practice remaining on the grid before journeying to meet the University of Texas, Coach Gwinn Henry of Missouri lost no time in seeking a backfield combination to use against the Southwest conference champions. Hatfield and O'Neil are on the injured list and Coach Henry used Johnningmeier, Blitner, Stuber, and W. Asbury in one quartet, and Van Dyne, Edmiston, Lancaster, and E. Asbury in another.

The Oklahoma varsity tested its defense against the freshmen who were armed with plays used by the Rice Owls, with whom the Sooners open their schedule.

Twenty-three million letters and packages went to the dead letter office last year because of faulty addressing. They contained $5,391,000.

Myerson and George Talbot. The leading tackle candidates are Irad Hardy, 200 pounder, who was ineligible last year, the seasoned Frank Kales, and two husky Orsmen, Mal Bancroft, and Tommy Armstrong, varsity crew captain.

Need Heavy Ends
The need for heavy ends capable of weathering the new attack is so great that Carl Hageman and Vanhan Mouchegian, reserves last year, have been forced to give way to "Red" Record, 200-pound track captain, and Jack Healy, another heavyweight. Jerry Cassidy, powerful stroke out of the crew, also is highly regarded as a wing man.

The schedule: Oct. 3, Bates; 10, New Hampshire; 17, Army at West Point; 24, Texas; 31, Virginia; Nov. 7, Dartmouth; 14, Holy Cross; 21, Yale.

COMPETITION FOR PLACES ON FOOTBALL SQUAD KEEN

Regulars Hear That Reserves Are "Out to Make Team or Bust Trying."

The Pampa Harvesters started on a week of intensive training yesterday in preparation for their important game with the Wichita, Kan., North High Redskins who will be here Saturday afternoon. With the exception of Schmidt and Reno, who were injured in last week's game, Martindale was the only absentee from practice yesterday afternoon.

Lawrence Enloe, Borger Bulldog halfback for the last two years, was in a green and gold uniform for the first time, yesterday. He is a well-built boy and handles the pigskin as if he knows what it was for. He also has a nice toe for booting spirals. Lawrence registered in school here recently. His parents have been residents of Pampa for the last two years, but he remained in Borger until this year.

There is a battle for positions in the Harvesters line and the player that lets up first is going to find himself on the bench. Don Reno, Ivy Berry, Rufus Walker, and Jim
