Death Takes Commissioner R. A. Smith

Funeral Services Pending Arrival Of Relatives

Funeral arrangements were pending today for R. A. Smith, 68, county commissioner of precinct 2, who died at 6 o'clock this morning at his home on Highway 18, near Pampa. The body is at Dunkel-Carmichael Funeral home. Services will be announced later. Commissioner Smith became ill at the court house yesterday afternoon. His death was due to a heart attack.

He is survived by his widow, eight sons, four daughters, and two sisters. The widow, and one of the daughters, Miss Juanita Smith, reside in Pampa. Other daughters are Mrs. Ora Sheets, Midland; Mrs. H. K. Wolfe, Senett; Mrs. Lester McKinzie, Wink. Sons, Raymond, Weldon, and Alvis all of Pampa; Don, now in the U. S. army; C. W. whose residence is in Louisiana; Carl Las Cruces, N. M.; Bill, Houston; and Grace of Sibley. Don, C. W., and Carl were prominent on the football teams of Pampa High school, and Carl and Don were later stars on the football teams of the Cameron Agricultural college, Lawton, Okla.

Sisters, Mrs. Paul V. Binlon, Pampa; and Mrs. Bill Lee, Pike. Mr. Smith was born on May 20, 1872, in Pike, Collins county, Texas, where he lived for 25 years, before moving to Graham, thence to Clay county, and to Pampa. He has been a wheat farmer in this vicinity since 1920. He was elected county commissioner of precinct 2 in the general election last autumn and took office on January 1 of this year.

Judge White To Name Smith's Successor

A successor to R. A. Smith as county commissioner of precinct 2 is to be named by County Judge Sherman White. There is no statutory time in which this is to be done. The county judge said he had not yet decided on who is to succeed Mr. Smith, who died early here today, and would without announcing his selection until some future time. Whoever is named will fill out practically a whole two-year term, as Mr. Smith had only been inducted into office on January 1 of this year.

Pampa Receives .14-Inch Rain

Fair weather was ahead for Pampa tomorrow, but tonight is due to be colder, the official weather forecast stated today.

Freezing drizzle and a light fog added .14-inch precipitation to the March total here, to make the record read .17-inches for the month to date, 1.83 for the year. Temperatures were holding steady at 30 degrees from 7:30 a. m. up to early this afternoon. The overnight low was also 30 degrees. Wednesday's maximum was 25, minimum 29. Visibility early today was seven miles.

The complete weather forecast for West Texas: fair southwest portion, partly cloudy elsewhere tonight; Friday fair, with scattered cloudiness except partly cloudy in southeast portion; colder tonight.

Thunderstorms, fog, drizzling rain, heavy downpours and the prospect of a sharp drop in temperatures was the weather picture in Texas today. Precipitation was light, but skies were heavily overcast in the Panhandle area.

In Central Texas, Corsicana reported heavy, continuing rainfall. Precipitation for the 24 hours ending at 7 a. m. totaled 2.52 inches and it was still raining hard. There was a brilliant electrical display, but no damage. Streets were flooded and creeks were expected to overflow in that area.

Corpus Christi had intermittent light rains and the local forecast was for more showers, thunderstorms, and colder.

The Dallas weather bureau predicted colder for both east and west Texas, clearing in West Texas, with north winds whipping the coast tonight.

OFFICIAL DIES

Gray county court house offices will be closed for the funeral of R. A. Smith, county commissioner of precinct 2, who died at his home here early today. Exact time and date of the funeral services are pending. Offices at the court house will also be closed Saturday afternoon, when rites are held at Alameda for Mrs. W. S. Wilson, 91, mother of District Clerk Miriam Wilson, who died this morning at the Wilson home here on Duncan street.

Dutch Warned Not To Think Against Nazis

(By The Associated Press) AMSTERDAM, (Via Berlin), March 6.—The president of the German military court which has condemned 18 Netherlands to death told the Dutch people today that everyone who, even in thought, plots against the German army is playing with his life.

He disclosed that sabotage cases are awaiting German court martial proceedings. Most of those already sentenced to death were charged with spying for England and plotting to cooperate with the British army in the event of an invasion.

The trial which resulted in the convictions Tuesday revealed that a secret Dutch organization had been active from May until December, 1940, especially in the Dutch region nearest the English coast across the channel.

German authorities, the court president asserted, regretted that several Dutch soldiers had been pushed into the water and drowned or fallen victim of snipers as a result of the Dutch underground organization. The hearing developed a declaration that the plotters circulated pamphlets written in invisible ink advocating acts of cruelty against German soldiers. The prosecutor also said he was shocked on hearing of a plan to poison Nazi troops with acids.

In all there were 43 defendants. Six were acquitted. The other 19 who escaped the death penalty were imprisoned for various terms. Verdicts were handed down Tuesday.

One defendant was sentenced to death four times and, in addition, got a 10-year prison term. Witnesses in the five-day court martial session described an extensive but loosely organized conspiracy which was fostered by a secret society known as the "Geuzen." That is the name by which the Dutch soldier was known in the 80-year war against Spain.

Officers said they found stores of dynamite, arms and poison. Other testimony indicated that some were giving signals to British airmen and conspired against the safety of German troops.

CAA Ground School Begins Here Tonight

Final organization of classes in the Civil Aeronautics Administration ground school here will be completed tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the high school building. Everyone in Pampa and the Pampa area who signed to take the course should attend tonight's meeting.

Text books arrived today and will be distributed at tonight's meeting. Study assignments will also be given out tonight.

At least 100 persons are expected to take the course. Because of the large number, several classes will have to be organized. F. A. Hall is instructor of the ground school.

Wheeler Denounced in Bill

South Americans Suspicious Of Us, Rotary Speaker Declares

If the United States wants to improve its relations with South America it must cease acting like an overlord, quit patronizing the Latin republics, call a halt to dollar diplomacy, and deal with the Southern continent on a basis of culture and sentiment. These were the opinions expressed by Charles D. Hurrey of Montclair, N. J., second speaker in the Pampa Rotary club's institute of international relations, who addressed a crowd of 300 persons last night in the high school auditorium.

South Americans like us, but are suspicious of us and have reason to be, the speaker said. On the larger point he mentioned the late General Smedley D. Butler's statement to the effect that "he was tired of having American boys called out to shed their blood in foreign countries to protect private interests;

Here's Some Of The Income Tax Credits To Take

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Take it from the officials who examine your income tax blanks, don't forget the New Yorker.

Every year, he added, thousands of persons try to "chisel" extra deductions, and many are caught. Often, however, the mistakes are innocent. A Wilmington, Del., man voluntarily sent $50 to the treasury a week ago, saying he had just learned that some deductions he took years ago were illegal.

Here are some of the credits, exemptions and deductions you can take legally. 1. Personal exemption: $2,000 for heads of families, $800 for single persons. 2. Dependent credits: $400 each for dependent children under 18 or adult physically or mentally incapable of self-support.

3. Contributions: Only if made to certain charities such as Red Cross, or to churches, veterans organizations, lodges, community chests; provided organizations use money only for religious, charitable, scientific and educational purposes.

4. Interest—Interest paid on bank loans, charge accounts, etc. 5. Taxes—real estate, car license, sales, state gasoline, state cigarette, and similar taxes. Deductions are not allowed for federal gasoline and other federal excise taxes such as are levied on liquor and cigarettes. The taxes technically are paid by the manufacturer, not the consumer. Federal income, gift, estate and inheritance taxes also are excluded.

6. Uninsured property losses through theft, fire, storm, and bad debts. Gambling losses may be deducted, too, but not in excess of any gambling winnings reported at the same time. 7. Earned income credit—usually 10 percent of salary or other "earned" income.

Even the personal exemptions have their angles. Husbands and wives must live together to get their $2,000 credit.

A famous example of how it works was the man who agreed to support his sister if she would cook for him. The courts ruled she was, in effect, a hired servant and not a dependant.

Battle Due On Oil Board Bill

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—A forecast of bitter controversy today accompanied a committee's recommendation to the House of Representatives that it strip the Railroad commission of oil and gas regulatory powers and give them to a three-man agency appointed by the governor.

After listening many hours to advocates and opponents of a bill creating an appointive commission, the State Affairs committee last night voted 11 to 8 to report the bill favorably.

Action came after Rep. O. L. McAlister of Fort Worth, who made the motion, asserted many house members had asked for floor consideration of the proposal. A motion to kill the bill, following a contention it might block tax-social legislation, failed.

Arguments for the proposal included contentions it would abolish political administration of conservation statutes, would permit more efficient regulation, prohibit discrimination in allowable production allocation, and eliminate complaints. Witnesses appearing against it praised the railroad commission's first and second acts, and when she revisits in the third she does every screamingly funny thing you want her to do.

The play is saturated with mirth. See COMEDY, Page 6

that these private interests should do their own protecting." When will the U. S. annex Mexico is a question the speaker said was dominant in the minds of many citizens of South American countries.

The Panama-Columbian dispute, under which America edged in its way to acquire the Panama Canal Zone, the Sandino affair in Nicaragua, were among incidents mentioned by Hurrey as the basis for Latin-American suspicion of the United States.

Battleships vs. Scholarships As means of improving relations the speaker suggested fellowships and scholarships, "which, unlike battleships, do not become obsolete in 15 years"; conferences, educational tours, and the interchange of letters and articles.

He said that the United States was a decade behind Germany in cultivating Latin-American relations and there were considerable numbers of Japanese on the southern continent as well as Germans. More immigration of these nationalities was not wanted by the Latins now, he said.

The blight of nationalism, the idea of Argentina for the Argentines, Brazil for the Brazilians, makes it harder than ever before for us to make friends," Hurrey commented. In this connection he said it was better to let down trade barriers a bit and lose some money rather than have the blight of nationalism.

He commented briefly on the importation of Argentine beef, saying it was not his intention to enter any argument about Argentine beef vs. U. S. beef, but he claimed that Argentine beef was of superior quality and could be purchased cheaper than the U. S. product. Obstacles that keep the continents apart, he said, is our psychological differences that have us believe Latins are lazy, shiftless, undependable.

He praised the South American custom of the siesta as a sample of how the Latins take time to live. Film titles in Spanish while the sound is in English were an odd feature of motion pictures shown in South America, he cited.

State Church Criticized Although he added that "he spoke without bitterness, merely as a fact," he claimed that church con-

Extension Of Oil And Gas Promotion Laws Favored

Funny Comedy Will Open Here Tonight

BY THE ROVING REPORTER They've never starred on athletic teams and they are not gleaming socialites, but they are nearly every member of the cast of "Big Hearted Herbert," a straight A student; in other words they are at the head of the list when it comes to grades.

The play will be staged at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night in the high school auditorium. The brains make a difference, one attendance at dress rehearsals indicates—and every rehearsal of a play directed by Kenneth Carman is a dress rehearsal. From the first, Mr. Carman wants his cast to become familiar with their make-up and all the stage properties.

The "intellectuals" in the cast are Phillip Silcott who was salutatorian of Junior high, Joe Blackwood who was valedictorian; John Knox, Dorothy Drescher, Frankie Lou Keehn, Imogene Sperry, Gretchen Ann Bruton, Beatrice Sloths. The members of the cast are not only mentally proficient but they are attractive physically, for instance Frankie Lou Keehn, popular dancer who starred in the Kiwanis revue.

This merry comedy has a number of fine juvenile actors, just as did the high school's last play, "What A Life," which was attended by more than 2,000 persons. Another large first-night crowd is expected tonight.

Phillip Silcott is a slight youth of 16 but he has the strongest, foghorn voice within the stage memory of the director, Mr. Carman. When he roars out his tyrannical ultimatums his family cringes. Joe Blackwood is a good lover—an maybe that is because he happens to have a crush on Alice Kaines (Frankie Lou Keehn) both on stage and off, and Joe doesn't care who knows it.

Herbert's wife, Elizabeth Kaines, is the meek wife throughout the first and second acts, and when she revisits in the third she does every screamingly funny thing you want her to do. The play is saturated with mirth. See COMEDY, Page 6

Greeks Mass 90,000 Troops In Mountains

(By The Associated Press) With Britain pledged to the fight at her side "until final victory is won," embattled Greece massed 90,000 troops in the mountain passes north of Salonika today in readiness for the imminently expected assault of 150,000 Germans poised on the Greek-Bulgarian frontier.

Amarillo Helium Appropriation Cut

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—An appropriation of $175,000 for expansion of the government helium plant at Amarillo, Tex.—$350,000 less than what the budget bureau recommended—was contained in legislation introduced today in the house. The $225,000 sought by the Bureau of Mines contemplated an increase in the plant capacity output from 24,000,000 to 36,000,000 cubic feet yearly. The amount allowed by the House Appropriations committee in a deficiency appropriation bill contemplated improving facilities to increase the actual annual output from 13,500,000 cubic feet to the present minimum capacity.

Of the amount recommended by the committee, $50,000 would be used to conduct investigations to locate other gas fields where helium could be produced economically. Though the Amarillo plant could produce far in excess of 36,000,000 cubic feet of helium annually, the plant is not producing above that figure would be uneconomical through lack of market for all of the residue gas. Bureau officials testified before the committee that there were other probable sources in the mid-continent oil field. They stated that the two small helium plants owned by the government in Cowley county, Kan., and LaAnimas county, Colo., had been closed down because cost of production at them was far above that at Amarillo.

The rated capacity for the Kansas and Colorado plants combined was 12,000,000 cubic feet annually, but they do not have the necessary gas supply to actually produce that much, mines officials added. Secretary Ickes today authorized Great Britain to take over 500,000 cubic feet of the helium gas originally sold to France. The gas was sold to France for research and medical purposes, but was halted at Halifax, N. S., when the French capitulated to Hitler. Under Ickes' authorization it will now be used in this country in connection with British industrial contracts.

Personnel To Be Withdrawn From States

Action Follows Closing Of U. S. Consuls In Italy

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The United States has notified Italy that the movements of Italian consular officials throughout this country are to be restricted and has asked that Italian consulates in Detroit and Newark, N. J., be closed.

The state department made public today a note to the Italian government requesting that its consular officials confine their movements to those areas in which they exercise their recognized duties of their respective offices.

The Italian diplomatic staff in Washington was excluded from the request but the embassy was asked to keep the state department currently informed of the movements outside Washington of the military and naval consular personnel attached to the embassy.

The action, believed to be the first of its kind in peace time against a country with which the United States maintains diplomatic relations, followed a request from Italy for the closing of American consulates at Naples and Palermo and restrictions imposed in Italy on the movements of American diplomatic officials.

Secretary of State Hull's note did not explain the United States' action. In a previous announcement, the state department said the closing of the consulates was requested "for reasons of national policy."

Phrasing of the department's announcement indicated that similar action might be taken against other foreign consulates.

In the case of Germany, however, the United States has not been forced to close any consulates in that country. Germany has required the closing of American consulates in some German-occupied countries.

The decision of the government that foreign consulates in certain areas should be closed was announced by the state department.

It followed the recent action of the Italian government to have the United States close its consulates at Naples and Palermo, Italy.

"The state department announcement said: 'For reasons of national policy it has been decided that foreign consulates in certain areas should be closed.'"

Peace Looms In Orange Strike

ORANGE, March 6 (AP)—Negotiations described by a federal conciliator as "making some progress" are continuing in an effort to end a strike delaying construction of 12 United States destroyers.

"I am hopeful," Joseph S. Myers, commissioner of the United States Conciliation Service, said early today when a conference between labor and management broke up almost 10 hours with no agreement reached. Pickets continued to parade at the plant of Consolidated Steel Corporation of Texas where 247 employees walked off the job Saturday assertedly because their demands for a wage increase had not been met.

The pickets said they planned a 24-hour vigil until the strike is settled. Townspeople are bringing them food.

Consolidated is a steel fabricating plant which supplies materials to Bechtel-McCone-Parsons corporation, builders of the shipyards where the destroyers will be constructed.

Thomas Attends AAA Referendum Meeting

COLLEGE STATION, March 6 (AP)—AAA officials today made tentative plans for balloting in Texas following announcement from Washington of a possible referendum May 31 on wheat marketing quotas.

Charles L. Thomas, state committee man and wheat grower from Pampa, said marketing quotas will be proclaimed only if the crop estimates on May 15 indicate a 1941-42 supply in excess of the marketing quota level.

Senate Committee Passes Favors Bill

A hearing was ordered by the senate oil, gas and conservation committee of the Texas legislature today for March 12 on the house approved bill permitting the use of sweet gas in carbon black manufacture if production equals or exceeds five pounds to each 1,000 cubic feet of gas produced. The General Atlas Carbon company, three miles southwest of Pampa, is among those affected by the proposed law. Representative Ennis O. Favors of Pampa introduced the bill which was passed in the house on February 26. The bill went to a house committee on February 7.

Enloe Introduced As Junior Rotarian

Charles D. Hurrey of Montclair, N. J., second speaker in the institute of international understanding, held each Wednesday night at the high school auditorium, was the principal speaker at the Pampa Rotary club's regular weekly luncheon at noon yesterday at the First Methodist church. Attendance at the luncheon was 45.

How Rotary is helping to improve the friendly relations between North America and South America was the subject of Mr. Hurrey's speech.

The classification talk was by Travis Lively, retail hardware merchant.

Entertainment on the program consisted of three songs, "Frenesi," "Perfidia," and Brahms' "Hungarian Dance No. 5," played by an accordion quintet, composed of Janice Wheatley, Marjorie Gaylor, Wesley Geiger, Wanda Lou Gordon, and Elaine Carlson, accompanied by Bill Haley, director.

As an encore Haley played a solo, "South of the Border."

Introduced by Coach Mitchell as the Junior Rotarian for March was A. C. Enloe, Harvester basketball player, who with Coach Mitchell, left the luncheon early to join the team on its trip to the state basketball finals in Austin.

Frank Baird led the club in singing of "God Bless America," and "Vive le Rotary."

Invocation was by Mr. Lively. Guests, introduced by Jess Rogers, were Warren H. Ebner of Detroit, Mich.; Joe Burrow, president of the Pampa Lions club; and Brownwood Emerson of the editorial department of The Pampa News.

During the first 24 days of January, 1941, 105 principal cities reported a 14.78 per cent increase over the same period of 1940 in retail sales of passenger cars.

"Our United States" To Be Presented By Horace Mann Pupils

"Our United States," a pageant developed by the fifth grades of the Horace Mann school, will be presented in the school assembly tomorrow morning at 9:15 o'clock.

This pageant will be the culminating activity of a whole semester's work in the history and geography of the United States. The pageant developed by the students will be under the direction of the two fifth-grade teachers of Horace Mann school, Miss Lema Jane Butcher and J. H. Flathers.

The fifth grades of Horace Mann school have been centering their units of study this year around the United States—its history and geography—in an effort to develop an appreciation of our country and the progress it has made. Miss Butcher and Mr. Flathers express the belief that "our students have learned to appreciate the great men of our history, because of the heritage they have passed on to us. When the children of today learn the price our forefathers paid for democracy, they will be willing to sacrifice for its defense."

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal, urges that all patrons and friends attend the pageant in the auditorium of Horace Mann school.

G. W. Porter, Pioneer Wheeler County Man, To Be Buried Today

Funeral services for G. W. (Green) Porter, 80, a resident of Wheeler county for 39 years, who died of a heart attack yesterday at his home in Wheeler, will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Wheeler Baptist church, with the Rev. Murray Paquay, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the Wheeler cemetery.

He had retired from ranching about 20 years ago, came to Wheeler, where he was a charter member and a director of the Citizens State bank of Wheeler and retired as a director only two years ago, but retained his interest in the bank.

Mr. Porter was a brother of J. M. (Jim) Porter, who died in Wheeler two years ago.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Cordie Porter; and three sons, Nelson, of Wetumka, Okla., and George and Dennis, both of Wheeler.

Mrs. R. F. Bielefeldt introduced Mrs. J. L. Lester, a first grade teacher from Woodrow Wilson school, who discussed "Ways of Developing Good Character and Personality Traits in Children."

Mrs. Lester stated that psychologists agree that personality and character traits are not inherited but that they are developed by the training the parents give the child. She continued by saying that this training must start from birth because the background for all character traits is laid in the first five years of life.

Gutzon Borglum, Famous Sculptor, Dies In Chicago

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Gutzon Borglum, 69, internationally famous sculptor, died today after a brief illness.

Borglum succumbed at Hennrich hospital where he had been since February 13. On March 3 Mrs. Borglum said her husband had been working too hard recently and had entered the hospital for a rest.

He had been reported as improving.

His wife and a son, Lincoln Borglum, and a daughter were at his bedside.

Borglum, whose best known work was the nearly completed Mount Rushmore memorial in the Black Hills of South Dakota, was one artist whose work could be described as "colossal" without fear of overstatement. Countrysides were his studios, weather-beaten mountains his granite blocks, and dynamite and power-driven hammers and chisels his tools or art.

The Mount Rushmore memorial, hewn into the side of a mountain, consisted of gigantic faces of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt, a monument dedicated to America as a pioneer nation. Borglum expected to complete the heads this year.

An earlier undertaking of similar scope was a Confederate memorial on the side of Stone Mountain, near Atlanta, Ga. In 1916 he was called upon to carve a great figure of General Robert E. Lee on the mountain side, but he decided a single statue would be inadequate and designed a work including 1,200 figures.

The World War interrupted the task until 1924. After the 20-foot head of Lee was carved, dissension arose among the committee in charge of the memorial and between committee members and Borglum. The artist was discharged and another man took over the work, which still is far from complete.

His work is scattered throughout the country and the world.

Borglum was born March 25, 1867, in Idaho; and was a brother of another noted sculptor, Solon Hannibal Borglum. Solons Favor $56,500,000 Tax Measure

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—Two bills nicking Texas taxpayers for an additional $56,500,000 a year bounded toward the house floor today on favorable reports from the powerful revenue and taxation committee.

The group's recommendation of $14,500,000 omnibus bill boosting levies on natural resources and public utilities and imposing a few new taxes was not surprising. The unexpected came when, with a minimum of discussion, it also voted out a measure to place a tax of one cent a gallon on all gasoline refined in Texas.

Backers of the refinery tax estimated it would bring in $87,000,000 a year. The four-cent gasoline sales tax would be repealed, however, leaving a net of $42,000,000.

The announcement was made today by the senior Mr. Pursley who said the deal was completed Tuesday. The younger Mr. Pursley is building a home in Pampa and the father and son will center all their business interests here.

C. P. Pursley joined the partnership with Mr. Martin one year ago. The new company, to be known as Pursley Motor Co., will continue as an agency for Dodge and Plymouth cars.

Japs Claim U. S. Aid To China "Nullified"

HONGKONG, March 6 (AP)—Japanese declared today that their landings at six Chinese coastal points on the Gulf of Tonkin had nullified United States aid to the central Chinese government and, as an army spokesman at Canton put it, "the doom of Chiang Kai-Shek's regime is sealed."

Greeks Say They Will 'Fight On'

(By The Associated Press) ATHENS, March 6—Greek leaders and the press reaffirmed today, in farewell messages to British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, the nation's determination to fight on against any and all comers.

With German forces massing on the Bulgarian frontier facing Greece, Eden matched the Greek declarations with a promise that Britain would stand by her, although "the future may be arduous."

"Indomitable and proud," asserted the newspaper Asyrmatos, "we shall march to victory. The heroic example we set on Oct. 28, 1940, (when the Italians invaded Greece) will guide us in any decision; it may be necessary to take in the future in case our independence or integrity is threatened."

This attitude was reflected in other sections of the press which, with one voice, declared Greece's stand was "heartening to all free people" and undoubtedly will be followed by other peoples in the Balkan Peninsula.

Eden told Greece Britain would fight at her side "until final victory is won."

FDR To Set Up Super-Committee

By MAX ROYD
WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—President Roosevelt will set up a super-committee including four cabinet members and possibly Harry L. Hopkins to help him dovetail the far-flung national defense and British air program, reliable sources predicted today.

Full responsibility for production, it was emphasized, would continue to rest as heretofore upon the office of production management and its co-directors, industrialist William S. Knudsen and Laborite Sidney Hillman.

But Mr. Roosevelt would rely heavily, these sources declared, upon the four cabinet officers, their advisors and Hopkins in determining combined British and American needs and in deciding what existing equipment and new production should be released to the British.

The exact form which the overall advisory group would take was not disclosed. Secretaries Hull, Stimson, Knox, and Margenthau were listed as certain members, however, and Hopkins was reported to be set-up. This might be as a member, administrator or liaison officer between the group and the White House.

Presumably, it was said, the committee would be created as soon as congress passed the pending lend-lease bill.

Army Ordered Away From Sooner Lands

DENISON, March 6. (AP)—A recent order by Governor Phillips of Oklahoma directing United States army engineers to keep off Oklahoma school land was interpreted by army engineers today as not a threat to the Denison dam project on the Red river.

"We didn't intend to go onto the school tracts until they were acquired either through purchase or condemnation," an army spokesman said.

If the Oklahoma school land commission refuses to sell three tracts to be needed shortly for relocation of the Frisco railroad, the spokesman added, the Denison project may have to be divided into two jobs.

Engineers want to build a mile-long trestle before the river is diverted through the outlet works next summer, when the trestle area will be subject to overflow. No school tracts are involved in this step, engineers declared, and the land can be obtained without difficulty.

The school tracts on the new railroad route are away from the trestle and this project could be left until later, engineers said.

"We hope," a spokesman declared, "to accomplish all relocation work under one contract because it would be more economical. After all, we are using the taxpayers' dollars."

Plans for the dam project already have been approved in Washington.

Buying Defense Like Buying Sweaters, Says Jesse Jones

By IRVING PERLMETER
WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Jesse H. Jones figured up today he had committed $1,200,000,000 to the defense program already, but said it was just like buying sweaters.

As the federal loan administrator, he controls the Reconstruction Finance corporation and five other government corporations putting money into the defense program.

He is working 12 hours a day in spite of his 66 years, and says he's enjoying it immensely.

"But to explain his operations, he had to go back for an example to the days in 1918 when he was buying sweaters for the Red Cross.

"The boys in the army needed sweaters," he related. "The ladies knitted a lot of them, but we had to buy a lot more. I bought as many as I could at one price, but needed more so I bought all I could at the next highest price, and so on."

"The point was the boys needed sweaters, and they needed them whether they cost $1 or $5."

He was trying to explain that theory of spending to a congressional committee recently and accidentally said that it was time "to throw money away." Reputed to be one of the shrewdest businessmen in the world, he didn't mean it that way, at all. He meant that when things were needed, they had to be bought—and without penny-pinching delay.

A new method to train pilots consists of manipulating the controls in a cockpit of a dummy training plane. For the first lessons, the stick and foot controls are locked together, forcing the student to co-ordinate hands and feet.

Legislator Would Confiscate Vehicles Of Cattle Thieves

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—Cattle thieves were brought to the attention of Texas legislators today in a bill providing for confiscation of vehicles used in theft of livestock.

The proposal was reported favorably by the house criminal jurisprudence committee last night.

Rep. Woodrow Bean of Sierra Blanca, the author, agreed to proposed amendments expanding provisions to cover seizure and sale of vehicles used in the transport of any stolen articles.

A bill clarifying the duties of the state pardon board and parole board regarding rehabilitation of ex-convicts was referred to a subcommittee.

Rep. W. W. Bridgers of El Paso asserted an ex-convict is "spotted" by police officers in cities and that in small towns he is "locked up" when a crime is committed and no better clues are available.

"The bill would make it the board's duty to provide for placement of parolees in jobs."

Canadian Church To Start Revival Meetings Tomorrow

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
CANADIAN, March 6.—A 10-day series of meetings will be held at the First Methodist church, beginning Thursday, and covering two Sundays.

The Rev. Uel D. Crosby, pastor, has secured Rev. Harrison W. Baker, superintendent of Sherman district, North Texas conference, to deliver the sermons.

Many of our first customers still trade with us, and they remember better than anyone else those first five years when we were on "trial" in the eyes of Pampa people. We feel certain that they, just as we do, can understand the significance of this event. It means that we have been "accepted" by Pampa. # OILERS SELL HALLBOURG, DILBECK, POTTER TO SAN DIEGO

Pitchers Had Good Record With Pampa

Three members of the 1940 Pampa Oilers, Gus Hallbourg, Rex Dilbeck and Phil Potter, have been sold to the San Diego Padres in the Pacific Coast league. Hallbourg and Dilbeck have already reported to the Padres, according to word received here today. Potter has not reached the coast yet.

Announcement of the sale was delayed until all leasehold papers had been signed and approved by W. G. Bramham, president of the minor leagues.

Dilbeck and Hallbourg were two of the best pitchers in the West Texas-New Mexico league last year. Dilbeck ended the season with 23 wins against seven losses and an earned run average of 3.447. Hallbourg won 21 games and lost 11 and had an earned run average of 4.149.

Potter, right fielder, was a defensive star and slugged the ball at a .313 clip. Potter scored 105 runs and bagged 163 hits, including 42 doubles, 10 triples and 11 home runs. He batted in 108 runs.

Thirteen contracts have been mailed to players on the eligible list. Only one answer has been received—from Sam Malvica, shortstop, at his home in Chicago. He returned his contract unsigned but club owners believe they can reach an agreement with Malvica who hit .327 last season.

PAMPA OILERS SOLD TO SAN DIEGO

The three Pampa Oiler stars pictured above are scheduled to play baseball in higher company in 1941. They have been sold to the San Diego Padres in the Pacific Coast league, according to an announcement made today by owners of the Oilers. They are the first players sold by the Oilers.

Chicago Cubs May Be Dark Horses In National League

By ROBERT MYERS

AVAILON, Santa Catalina Island, Calif., March 6 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs might be the darkhorse contender in the National League race this year, but it doesn't take the wisdom of a Hindu crystal gazer properly equipped with a bright red turban to know that the club's chances would be vastly enhanced if some of the questionmark pitchers should come through.

The tension in the club during the late stages of Gabby Hartnett's reign apparently has disappeared completely, replaced by something closely akin to the old college spirit and a firm hold on the bridle by Jimmy Wilson, a veteran with more knowledge than illusions about ball players.

Wilson, idol of the Cincinnati fans for his world series performance last fall, makes his debut as manager of the Cubs with:

Three winning pitchers, Claude Passeau, reliable Larry French, and young Vern Olsen, and a host of others who might—or might not—deliver, including none other than Mr. Jerome H. Dean.

A good defensive infield, with Captain Billy Herman at second, Billy Meyer at short, smiling Stan Hack at third, and Rip Russell back at first, provided he can hold off the challenge of Ed Waitkus, who batted .303 with Tulsa last season.

A potentially powerful outfield of Bill Nicholson in right, Hank Leonard in center, the much-talked-of Louis Novikoff in left, and Augie Galan looking like he's ready for a big year, liable to push either one to the bench. Barney Olson from Tulsa is also back for a try, but he's battling strong opposition. The same goes for Harvey Storey from San Francisco, who came to the Cubs as an infielder but may be tried out in the outfield.

Capable catching, with Al Todd the reliable mainstay and at this date three younger men battling for a chance to stay with the club. Husky Clyde McCullough, who clouted 324 with Buffalo in 1940, seems to have an edge in the race but Bob Scheffing from Rochester, and Charley George from from Nashville, are making a strong bid. Bob Collins, a fine catcher in the Pacific Coast league, may go back to Los Angeles after a season with the Cubs last year.

Sam Houston Favored To Win Southwestern

DALLAS, March 6 (AP)—Sam Houston college, playing under the banner of Denison Frozen Foods, became the favorite today to win the Southwestern AAU basketball tournament.

Sam Houston last night defeated Texas Wesleyan college, playing as Dallas Seven-Up, by a 77-60 score in the first loss by Wesleyan in 24 games this season.

In the semi-finals tonight, Sam Houston meets E. M. Kahn (East Texas State) and Majors and Majors, made up of North Texas State college players, tangles with James K. Wilson (Southern Methodist university).

Kahn defeated Dallas Dr. Pepper 37-35. Majors and Majors won over Trinity university 43-27 and James K. Wilson governed Dallas Railways 55-49 last night.

Harry Danning Sent To Giant Outfield

MIAMI, March 6 (AP)—The baseball fans who chewed their nails last year over the efforts of big Hank Greenberg to switch from first base to leftfield for the Detroit Tigers, can worry over a similar shift this season by Catcher Hank Danning of the New York Giants.

The surprising decision to move Danning into the outfield was announced yesterday by Manager Bill Terry at the same time he disclosed:

Southwest Conference Basketball Ends Tonight

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—The Southwest conference basketball season closes officially tonight when the University of Texas and the Texas Aggies clash in a game that may mean third place for the Longhorns.

Texas could gain undisputed third place with a victory but would tie Baylor and S. M. U. for third, fourth, and fifth by losing. The Aggies would finish in sixth no matter how the game goes.

Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic National committee, . . . Ernie Vigh will be offered a bout with Tony Zale, N. B. A. middleweight king, if he whips Billy Soose tomorrow night.

In two years of bowling in a Detroit league, Mrs. Theresa Lotz has varied only one pin from her average.

'Big Four' Of Golf To Play For Duchess

By GAYLE TALBOT

MIAMI, Fla., March 6 (AP)—A golf match which, if played on almost any course in the United States, probably would draw a greater crowd than saw the last Dempsey-Tunney fight, is due to take place 10 days from now in comparative seclusion.

It will be surprising if more than 1,000, counting both natives and visitors, see the benefit "match of champions" at Nassau March 15-16, even though the Duke of Windsor with the Duchess along, will be the official referee.

In the dawn of March 15 a seaplane will put up to the ramp in Dinner Key here and take on its spectacular cargo for the two-hour flight to Nassau, right out into the Atlantic.

On board will be Bobby Jones, winner of 13 major championships; Walter Hagen, with 11 to his credit; Gene Sarazen with 6 and Tommy Armour with 3. Hagen, Sarazen and Armour—the only players ever to win "all three," the British and American Opens and the Professional Golfers Association championship—Jones, who scored the unforgettable "grand slam."

That afternoon, over the pretty Nassau course, Hagen and Sarazen will pair against Jones and Armour in the first round of their 36-hole four-ball match for the benefit of the Red Cross, with the Duke jotting down the scores. The second round will be played the following day, with the whole crowd flying back that night.

The original plan was for the Duke to play the first day, paired with his friend of gladder days, Jones, but the governor of the Bahamas tried a practice round to see how he was doing and decided "nobody wants to watch me play, let's make it a real golf match."

He is enthusiastically behind the exhibition. In addition to refereeing and making himself generally helpful and accessible the Duke has promised to go on the radio Saturday night, over a national hook-up. This will mark one of the few times his voice has been heard over radio since the night he began in a strained voice from his study in Fort Belvedere: "At long last. . ."

Obviously, the paid admissions at the match itself will do little more than stand the expense of transporting the players to and from Nassau.

Everybody who would like to witness the match is invited to purchase a ticket at $2 a head. It will be a genuine ticket, photographed by the four players, and a souvenir to

Harvester Boxers To Meet Borger Here Friday Night

Borger high school will send 11 of its best boxers to Pampa Friday night for a dual meet with the Pampa Harvester milt artists. The first bout of the night will be called at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium. Admission will be 25 cents for students and 40 cents for adults.

Friday night's battles will be the first of the season between the two schools. Borger is the new member of the Panhandle Plains High School Boxing association. Borger had a strong boxing team last year and several lettermen are back this season.

Coach Oscar Hinger is fast getting his Harvesters in shape. He is giving them plenty of actual ring work to overcome the late training start this season.

At least two new boys will make their appearance with the Harvester team Friday night. They will be Billy Gamplin, junior high youngster who will battle at 75 pounds, and Gene Winget who will be in the 135 pound class replacing Herndon Sloan.

It is expected that Co-Captain Roy Ray will be able to tackle Newberry. Borger ace, Roy has been nursing a cut over his eye for several weeks.

Clyde Small will be back in the lineup again, boxing at 125 pounds since Borger has two boys in that weight.

Fairings will be announced Friday.

Miami And Sanford Boxers To Battle In LeFors Friday Night

Toby Waggoner's LeFors school boxers will take the ring against a combined foe Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the high school gymnasium when Miami and Sanford send 12 to 20 boxers to LeFors.

Neither Miami or Sanford have enough boys out for boxing to make up a full card so the two schools are combining their leather slingers to battle the Pirates. All weights from 65 pounds to 165 (pounds will be contested.

Coach Waggoner doesn't have a light heavyweight or a heavy weight out for boxing so those weights can't be fought. He has all other weights and uses them whenever the opposition has boys close to the same weight.

When six or eight pounds difference in weights crops up, Coach Waggoner, like all other coaches, will not match his boys. In bouts the other night, one of his boys was six pounds too heavy for the opposition, so naturally he wouldn't take advantage of the difference in weight to make a match.

Headliners on the Pirate team include Twiggy, Hughes, Dunn, Nipper, and others who have seldom had the judges decision go against them.

Miami will feature the Kivichen brothers, Maddox, and others.

Mobeetie To Play Lot In Tourney Opener At Waco

WACO, March 6 (AP)—Seven games are on the schedule this afternoon and night to open the third annual state high school girls basketball tournament.

Fifteen teams are entered but the defending champion Wayside sextet is not included.

The opening schedule has La Poyner playing Silbee, Mesquite meeting Sidney, Rush tussling East Texas Normal, Blanco playing Trent, Lot clashing with Mobeetie, Gatesville tangling with Dodd City, and Ennis playing Van Horn. Priona, the other entry, draws a bye.

Red Sox In Red For Eight Years

BOSTON, March 6 (AP)—Give the so-fabulously wealthy Tom Yawkey's Boston Red Sox a long run in the 1941 American league pennant race and he might break even financially—for the first time in his nine years as a club owner.

But that is a mighty hard order to fill, probably as much so as one demanding that the pennant race and he might break even financially—for the first time in his nine years as a club owner.

If the genial Yawkey, reputed to have more than fifty millions left, did not have much more important matters to attend to this March morning, such as rushing to the Sarasota training camp to help Lefty Bob Grove celebrate his 41st birthday, he probably would be concerned about the latest figures his auditors have reported to the Massachusetts state department of corporations and taxation.

A close study of the Red Sox' fiscal matters indicates that, disregarding its original purchase price and real estate, has lost exactly $1,384,112 during the eight years of Yawkey ownership. That is an average of $173,014 a season.

NEW YORK, March 6—Customers are complaining there isn't enough baseball done in this album of song, so pull up a chair.

Bill Terry and Horace Stoneham ought to get together. . . A few weeks back Horace said Mel Ott and Carl Hubbell are as much a part of the Giants as the Polo Grounds. . . Now Terry says he'd trade every gut on the club except Babe Young and Johnny Rucker. . . For the first time in years some of the St. Louis papers have their first string critics covering the Browns instead of the Cardinals. . . Most of the American Association experts already have conceded the pennant to the Columbus Red Birds. . . They say Ted Williams signed up as soon as he heard Mike Ryba was with the Red Sox. . . Bill Cunningham, Boston Post: "Babe Dahlgren's sale was the tip on the Yanks. . . Reasoning seems to be that if the Yanks are in such a gambling mood that they'd sell the only bottled in bond first baseman they have, even if he tests only around 85 per cent proof at the distillery, they have something in mind and that can be only a pennant. . . SERIAL STORY

DRAFTED FOR LOVE

BY RUTH AYERS

YESTERDAY April finds Ann at Carter's and her last chance to talk to Kent before the trial is gone. In court Kent wrecks Winkler's case by testifying the man was drunk, produces the young rascal to prove it. The case is dismissed. Kent comes to April. "You've been running away. You've got to talk to me now."

GOODYBY TO LOVE
CHAPTER XXII

STILL holding her hand, Kent walked to his car with April. She tried to keep her head averted but there was something compelling in his look, something that drew her to him.

"What is it you want?" she asked.

This was the first time she'd seen his eyes clearly since he had been blinded. They were gray, serious, and yet holding a warmth like no other eyes she'd ever known.

"Your eyes," she began, "they're all right now?"

He nodded. "Oh, maybe not quite as good as new," he said, "but I'll never be in the dark again."

Then without speaking further, he guided the car through the traffic tangle on Capitol street and crossed the bridge to the river road. April sat quietly, only the twisting of her handkerchief in her hands to betray the inner tremor.

Abruptly, Kent stopped the car and turned to her. "I can't get the thought of you out of my mind!" he said.

"No, Kent, you've no right to say that."

"You'll have to hear me through. I said I couldn't get the thought of you out of my mind. It's more than that. I can't get you out of my blood, out of my heart. It's because of those three days when I was home on leave. Something happened to me then to change everything. I fell in love with a girl, really in love for the first time. The girl was you."

"Kent-Kent, darling." She whispered it under her breath.

He drew her to him, his shoulders sagging, his hands unsteady.

"If you've never been honest before, if you'll never be again, this time you must tell me the truth," he began to plead. "Everything depends on it, the beginning and the end, I guess, of our future. I've got to know if you fell in love with me or if you were only playing a part, sorry for me, as you said once. If you love me I'll have the courage for anything, even to facing Ann." His voice broke, every line in his face showed the pain these words had cost him.

BUT April Burnett had edged away, sitting stiffly, unbending, in her corner of the car.

Ann! The name had blasted like a bomb into that brief paradise where she had soared when Kent told her she was the girl with whom he'd fallen in love.

Ann was at home this minute, likely pinning the tulle on her small brown head for the wedding veil. Ann, with her eyes stary, a song whispering along her lips.

"I'll have the courage for anything, even to facing Ann," Kent had said.

April remembered that only the other night, when Dad had been in her room, he had spoken of the deep disappointment Ann would always feel because she had failed before the great Vivano. She thought of what she herself had said, "All the more reason why nothing must spoil her happiness with Kent."

Inwardly, something cried out, "But you, April, what about you? You love Kent. He wants you to speak honestly."

She tried to make a decision, her hands twisting at her handkerchief, knotting it. A silly handkerchief with a spidery lace edge.

Many men had fallen in love with her. But they'd recovered and gone their way to find girls who would make better wives. Kent would be the same. He would forget her, or if he remembered, it would be to think that she had dazzled him, charmed him momentarily.

SHE began slowly, uncertainly, and yet with a sure goal ahead. "You're very gallant, Kent."

"Gallant!" He bridled at the word, alert at once.

"It's too bad," she went on, twisting the spidery lace until it was like a string in her hands, "if I misled you. That night when I took up to the train, I told you I had pretended to be Ann because I felt sorry for you."

She saw him straighten, his head lift.

She managed a shrug. "It was more than being sorry for you, ofcourse. I liked you and thought that it would be sort of a masquerade for those three days and no one would ever know the difference."

"Masquerade?" There was laughing in his voice.

She turned her face away. "Well—a lark," she whispered. "You're lying, April."

"No, I'm not lying. I never thought you'd take it this way. It was something that happened and yet as you said that night, was over and done with as if it had never happened at all. Really, Kent, we'd both better forget it. As for me, I'm in love with someone else, Hal Parks. I'm going to up and marry him one of these days."

There, that would let her out, soften the blow for him.

"Very well."

"And, Kent," she tried to touch his hand timidly, "it was better, don't you think, that we didn't try to kid ourselves. You and Ann were meant for each other, you're going to make a happy couple."

The corner was just ahead. If he would only speak, say something kind that she could keep as a treasure of him for the rest of her life! His eyes had been so warm, so searching when he had met her outside the court. But now they were hard as the hailstones that had pelted down the day when the outing had ended in storm.

"Here you are," he said, opening the car door.

If he had been angry with her the night she'd taken him to the train, this was beyond anger. His face held a look of hatred, a look that spoke plainer than words how deeply he despised her.

Then he said, "Thank God you told me in time. For the rest of my life I'm going to be humbly grateful for the love of a girl like Ann."

Well, she could carry it through to the end. She stepped out of the car and, leaning against the door, made a pretense of dabbing at her eyes with her handkerchief.

"You'll have me weeping here in a minute," she said.

"You weeping?" Kent laughed. "You don't know what tears are."

"No? Well, something was surely blurring her lashes as she stood on the corner long after Kent Carter was out of sight."

Weygand To Arrive In France Thursday

VICHY, France, March 6. (AP)—It was announced officially today that last night's government announcement saying General Maxime Weygand, commander of the French army in Africa, had arrived in Vichy was just a "blind" and that he actually would arrive some time today.

The secrecy was seen as a precaution taken in view of the death of Jean Chlappe in the downing of a French plane which was carrying him to Syria last November.

Chlappe and members of his party were killed when his plane was shot down over the Mediterranean while he was flying to Syria to become high commissioner.

Informed quarters said that Weygand is scheduled to report to Chief of State Marshal Philippe Petain, to whom he will be able to give a first-hand report on conditions among French forces not only in north Africa but west Africa as well.

Speculation was rife as to the reason for Weygand's flying visit but a spokesman at the war ministry said he "is merely reporting to his chief. If he were not so far away he would do it twice a month."

Oil Production Under Bureau Of Mines Estimate

(By The Associated Press)
 AUSTIN, March 6.—While Texas oil production remained less than U. S. bureau of mines demand estimates, members of the legislature today studied a proposal which would place oil and gas regulation under an appointive instead of an elective commission.

A house of representatives committee heard arguments against a bill to create a commission of three men with overlapping six-year terms which would be empowered to administer the oil and gas proration statutes, trucks and utilities companies. The governor would name the commission.

A railroad commission order effective Monday will result in an estimated flow of 1,305,132 barrels of crude daily from the state's 95,700-odd wells. Approximately 1,000 barrels daily more than current production, the yield will be some 22,000 barrels under the federal bureau's March demand forecast.

The order assertedly revising allowances toward parity as between the state's 500-odd fields insofar as production conditions would allow followed re-affirmation of the state agency's pledge to keep production with demand estimates.

Amending a statewide order expiring March 31, the one effective next week set an average net daily allowable of 1,352,489 barrels if all wells produced their full allowable. It imposed five shut-down days on the Panhandle production area, nine for the giant East Texas field and 19 for the remainder of the state.

Witnesses before the legislative committee contended establishment of an appointive state agency to regulate the vast Texas oil and gas industry would go far toward abolition of asserted political discrimination of allowable production between fields.

Questioning of witnesses brought from some statements that the industry had prospered under regulation by the elective railroad commission, that politics still dominate a board appointed by the governor, that its membership would not be responsible to the people through election and that railroad commission members had not complained of being overburdened.

Professor To Be Society Speaker

Dr. D. B. Keyes of the University of Illinois will be principal speaker at the meeting of the American Chemical Society, Panhandle chapter, Friday night in the Capitol Hotel in Amarillo. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. Reservations may be made with E. M. Frost, Jr., or by writing the hotel.

Dr. Keyes will speak on "A Study of Catalysts for the Vapor Phase Oxidation of Organic Compounds." The lecture will be accompanied by blackboard diagrams and illustrations.

Dr. Keyes is well known in scientific groups, and for many years has been active in the affairs of the American Chemical Society. Soon after obtaining his doctorate from the University of California in 1917, he joined the staff of the U. S. Industrial Alcohol company, becoming director of research in 1924. In 1926 he joined the University of Illinois as head of the division of chemical engineering, and member of the executive committee of Engineering Experiment station in charge of all chemical engineering research for the station.

As a member of the American Chemical Society, Dr. Keyes has been chairman of the Division of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry and now is a councilor for the University of Illinois section. He has been a director of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Other organizations to which he belongs are the Electro-chemical society, Society of Chemical Industry, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, and the Illinois Academy of Science.

Dr. Keyes has conducted extensive research in distillation, catalysis, and organic process development, and is recognized nationally as an authority on these subjects. He is prepared to lecture on a variety of subjects, and at the request of the local section will talk on "Vapor phase oxidation," which is of great interest to chemists in this section. Many of our Panhandle industries deal with the catalytic treatment of gas and oil to convert them to more useful products. Some of our best grades of gasoline and aviation fuel are manufactured in the Panhandle by using catalysts in connection with special processes to change the ordinary or naturally occurring product into a better grade. Obtaining the proper catalyst often means the difference between a failure and a successful development of an industrial process.

Plans for the living cadet replacement center at Kelly field to cost approximately $1,000,000 have been forwarded to Washington for approval of the War Department, it was announced today by officials of the field.

Field officials are also considering a new hospital unit to provide 750 beds to augment the small hospital the field now has. It was announced if approved, the new hospital will be located in the triangle formed by the Kelly and Duncan field roads.

Plans for the cadet replacement center call for barracks to house 1,300 men who would be concentrated at the field for a period of training to provide cadet material for the various primary schools. While at the replacement center, the men would be given intensive pre-cadet military training, together with considerable physical training to prepare them for the intensive courses of training to follow at the primary, basic and advanced flying schools.

Field officials pointed out that this plan would make it possible to weed out candidates unsuited as flying cadet material before they entered actual training.

Prints Studied By McLean Camera Club

MCLEAN, March 6.—The McLean high school camera club held its regular monthly meeting Monday night, in the McLean high school science department.

The club had a lesson on film developing and making prints. They also photographed some microscopic slides.

There are four science classes at McLean high school and each class has its own officers. The camera club was organized at the beginning of school this year, and has a membership of 75 students.

The aim of the club is to get more students interested in the field of science.

Plans were discussed for a social, but the definite date was not decided. Miss Mary Lou McHaney is the science instructor and sponsor of the club.

Members attending this division of the camera club were: Mae Campbell, Margie Price, Russell Blackberry, Bobby Crisp, Jess Ledbetter, Carl Sullivan, Vernon Ruff, and Miss Mary McHaney.

The club will meet again April 3.

The average useful life of steel in the many forms in which it is used is about 35 years.

Mr. J. W. Kirby of Idalou, Texas, states: "I have been bothered with gas, bloating, indigestion, causing awful pains in my stomach and bowels. I was very constipated. My back was sore and stiff caused from weakened kidneys. I had to get up three or four times at night breaking my rest."

"I have taken 2 bottles of Hoyt's Compound, and it has done wonders for me. My stomach misery, gas bloating are gone. No more indigestion or getting up nights. I am going to continue with Hoyt's Compound until all poisons have left my system."

Hoyt's Compound is sold by the Getzney Drug Store and by leading druggists in this area. (Adv.)

Fire Razes Big Spring Compress

BIG SPRING, March 6. (AP)—Fire razed the central unit of the Big Spring Compress company here yesterday, inflicting a loss estimated at $150,000.

Flames were discovered at 1 a. m. by a night watchman, and spread over the big compress unit before firemen could apply water. In a few minutes the sheet iron building was a mass of flames.

Fire Chief Olie Cordill said the unexplained presence of a two-inch coupling on a fire plug cost firemen precious minutes while the fire spread from a small stack of bales to the structure.

Firemen came near being trapped as fire suddenly leaped around the rafters and spread over the area like gasoline. Four box cars of compressed cotton on a siding were damaged and a small quantity of cotton adjacent to the building was burned.

The County Superintendents of Schools association and the American Legion were instrumental in getting Senator Lee to attend the celebration and to give his lecture on the eve of the event. Sponsors feature the educational value of Senator Lee's address and a special section will be reserved in the auditorium for high school students of Shamrock and surrounding towns.

Little May Be Made Member of PGA

MIAMI, March 6. (AP)—Lawson Little, the open golf champion, may be made a member of the Professional Golfers' association by special dispensation in time to compete in the next PGA championships.

The big fellow who swept the amateur field on both sides of the Atlantic in 1934-35 and then embraced personally to President Tom Walsh of the PGA to be permitted to join the organization without going through the stipulated five years of making clubs and bawling out caddies.

Walsh wants Little in the fold and so do all his fellow professionals with whom he has become genuinely popular in the last two or three years. The only thing holding them up is that rule, and they may form a special "examining committee" to take care of such exceptional cases as the open champion's.

Little put in two years as resident pro up at Bretton Woods, N. H., but he has dropped that now and is devoting himself to traveling around giving exhibitions and lectures for a sporting goods house and playing in the money tournaments. That doesn't count toward the PGA decree.

"I don't want to get in just to play in the PGA championships," Lawson says. "I think it is a fine organization, doing good for the game and I would like to do my part."

Automobile operating cost has declined in the last 40 years, from 30 cents a mile to 3 cents a mile.

Little May Be Made Member of PGA

MIAMI, March 6. (AP)—Lawson Little, the open golf champion, may be made a member of the Professional Golfers' association by special dispensation in time to compete in the next PGA championships.

The big fellow who swept the amateur field on both sides of the Atlantic in 1934-35 and then embraced personally to President Tom Walsh of the PGA to be permitted to join the organization without going through the stipulated five years of making clubs and bawling out caddies.

Walsh wants Little in the fold and so do all his fellow professionals with whom he has become genuinely popular in the last two or three years. The only thing holding them up is that rule, and they may form a special "examining committee" to take care of such exceptional cases as the open champion's.

Little put in two years as resident pro up at Bretton Woods, N. H., but he has dropped that now and is devoting himself to traveling around giving exhibitions and lectures for a sporting goods house and playing in the money tournaments. That doesn't count toward the PGA decree.

"I don't want to get in just to play in the PGA championships," Lawson says. "I think it is a fine organization, doing good for the game and I would like to do my part."

Automobile operating cost has declined in the last 40 years, from 30 cents a mile to 3 cents a mile.
