

Ross Sterling May Hold Legislature to Re-District State

CARDINALS WIN, 2 TO 0

HOUSE MOVE TO POSTPONE NOW PENDING

Governor Holds Constitutional Mandate Involved; New Term for Solons to Be Due Wednesday.

CHARGES HURLED

Representative Mathis Asserts Senate Trying to Cram Imperfect Bill Down Throat of House.

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—Gov. R. S. Sterling intimated today that unless the legislature, now nearing the close of its second extraordinary session, passed an acceptable congressional redistricting bill, he would reconvene it immediately and submit that subject.

A motion was pending in the house at noon to indefinitely postpone consideration of redistricting bills.

The motion was made by Rep. John Mathis of Houston who charged the senate was trying to "cram" an unperfected bill down the throats of house members by applying pressure late in the session.

Blame Is Placed

Blame for failure of the legislature to enact a congressional redistricting bill was laid on Senators W. R. Peage of Waco, author of the present senate bill and Julian P. Greer of Athens, sponsor of congressional redistricting in the regular and first called sessions by Mathis.

"Don't you think the people want the state rearranged into 21 congressional districts to make room for the three additional national representatives the last census gave us? He asked newspaper men when they inquired if he would let the legislature go home tomorrow night. The legislature would be obliged to quit next Wednesday under the constitutional limitation of 30 days for extraordinary sessions. It had set 6 p. m. tomorrow for sine die adjournment after reconsidering a previous decision to quit last Tuesday night. The governor forced the legislators to stay on to pass the river bed bill.

"I cannot make the legislature redistrict the state and I cannot make it remain in session but I can reconvene under the constitution and the same constitution directs redistricting in an emergency of this kind," Governor Sterling said.

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—The Texas senate refused today to concur in house amendments to the bill authorizing the state to develop river beds for oil and a conference committee was appointed.

The house passed the bill late yesterday, the senate having enacted it Tuesday after Gov. R. S. Sterling threatened another immediate special session unless the state were empowered to protect its share of the oil underlying the Sabine river bed in the East Texas field.

Lieut. Gov. Edgar Witt appointed to the conference committee Senators George C. East of Galveston, Frank Hawkins of Fort Worth, Margie Neal of Carthage, Walter Woodward of Houston and Walter Woodward of Coleman.

Would Censure Remarks

Sen. W. R. Cousins of Beaumont introduced a resolution censuring the purported remarks of Governor Sterling, in commenting on action of the senate last Monday in stilling the river bed bill by rules which governed consideration of legislation within 24 hours of sine die adjournment. Sine die adjournment at that time had been set for 6 p. m. Tuesday. After the governor took the legislature to task for refusal to pass the oil bill both houses reconsidered and reset adjournment for Saturday.

The senate sidetracked the Cousins resolution to permit it to get back on the impeachment trial of District Judge J. B. Price of Bastrop.

Sen. T. J. Holbrook of Galveston was unsuccessful in his motion to have it ruled out on a point of order. He said it was "in the nature of love letter to the oil corporations and has no place in the senate records."

Mentioned Oil Lobby

The governor had been quoted as saying that it had come to him that "the oil lobby has kept the legislature from passing the river bed bill."

The Cousins resolution said "such statements are contrary to the facts and that any and all statements or intimations that an oil lobby representing the oil interests of Texas has in any way prevented or attempted to prevent the senate of Texas from passing the river bed bill."

SIR THOMAS LIPTON IS DEAD

LONDON, Oct. 2. (AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton died here tonight. The 80-year-old yachtsman, as popular in the United States as he was at home, became gravely ill from the effects of a chill contracted several days ago and yesterday was reported near death.

Sparks Charge Is Dropped

But Judge Wilson Rules That Other Defendants Must Stand Trial.

AMARILLO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Judge James C. Wilson in federal court this morning ordered liquor conspiracy charges against William Leo Sparks, former Potter county attorney, dismissed, but ruled that the other nine defendants must stand trial. The move followed a defense motion for an instructed verdict freeing all the defendants, made as the state rested its case late yesterday.

The dismissal was on the grounds that Sparks was not connected with a general conspiracy involving all defendants, as charged by the prosecution.

"Moratorium" on Delinquent Taxes Is Believed Illegal

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—The legislature's "moratorium" on delinquent taxes, invoked as a relief measure pending improved economic conditions, has been relieved of its potency today by Attorney General James V. Allred's opinion that the bill probably was unconstitutional. The bill provided that all taxes, except those due in incorporated cities, delinquent to and including Oct. 20 this year, would not bear interest and penalties if paid on or before Jan. 31 next year.

"I am directing your attention to this act because it is my opinion that its validity is so doubtful that it ought not to be respected by the comptroller of public accounts and the several tax collectors of the state until its validity has been determined by the supreme court of this state," Allred wrote Sheppard.

"In order to properly safeguard the tax collectors of the state, it is my opinion you should immediately notify each one of them to collect no delinquent taxes unless all interest and penalties due thereon are fully paid in accordance with existing laws, and to disregard, in its entirety, house bill number 30 until its validity has been determined by said court.

Suicide Verdict in Collins Death

HOUSTON, Oct. 2. (AP)—Former Sheriff H. Wyatt Collins of Fort Bend county, who died at his ranch home near Richmond last Saturday, committed suicide, according to a verdict returned by Justice C. D. Meyers.

Meyers refused to divulge information pertaining to the inquest or the verdict. The county clerk, Mrs. Mamie Lehman, likewise refused to give information over the phone.

It was learned from other sources that the verdict of Justice Meyers read "Death due to acid, self administered." At the time of death, it was said that Collins died from natural causes.

Several Men Give Excuses for Failing

Several lotterers who will be caught in the police dragnet which will be started Monday morning by city officers reported to Chief of Police J. I. Downs this morning, giving excuses why they could not work and asking to be excused from working, leaving town or going to jail.

The chief listened patiently to all excuses, but did not commit himself. "No doubt some of them were true but most of them would not hold water," he declared. "I was not bluffing when I said lotterers were either going to work, leave town or go to jail," the chief declared this morning.

Clyde Garner of the employment department of the Pampa Welfare board has several openings for men and every lotterer will be given a chance to go to work before being sent to jail.

F. P. Reid transacted business in Sikeelytown yesterday.

GENERAL WOLTERS ORDERS ALL OWNERSHIPS REPORTED

East Texas Production Going Steadily Back Toward 400,000 Barrels. Five Pay Fines In Police Court

KILGORE, Oct. 2. (AP)—A general order requiring oil operators to report immediately any changes of ownership of wells, leases, loading racks or transportation lines, or changes in the names of companies in the East Texas field, was issued today by Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters, who is in charge of enforcement of the state railroad commission's oil conservation program.

Frequent and numerous changes in names of firms and companies of producing crude oil wells and leases, as well as transportation lines and loading racks at the railroads, due to changes in ownership, cause endless confusion in the efforts to maintain correct records by the representatives of the railroad commission and the military authorities in this district. Wolters said to eliminate this confusion, this general order, number 13, is issued.

"All managers, officers, superintendents, operators or agents in charge of producing crude petroleum oil wells, transportation lines and loading racks, the name of whose firms or companies are changed, or who purchase, lease or sell any producing wells, leases, transportation lines or loading racks in the military district, will immediately upon the accomplishment thereof report in writing such change."

KILGORE, Oct. 2. (AP)—East Texas steadily in printing oil production was nearing the 400,000-barrel mark again today.

Reports from oil operators to Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters revealed 2,138 wells in the field produced 396,000 barrels of oil.

The field's daily production increased 30,000 barrels in the 10-day period. First day's run of oil under the railroad commission's order limiting output of each well to 185 barrels a day was approximately 396,000 barrels. The number of wells at that time approximated 2,000.

The first order opening the gigantic field under supervision of military authorities set the allowable of wells at 225 barrels a day. That order was amended and the smaller figure substituted when production in the field soared beyond 430,000 barrels.

Alex Schneider is scheduled to return from Monroe, La., this afternoon. Mr. Schneider attended the hotelmen's convention at New Orleans during his trip.

ESTRANGED WIFE OF SLAIN MAN DEFENDS KILLER AND GIVES DETAILS OF AFFAIR

Mrs. Elnora Stanley of Amarillo Backs up Assertions of John F. Williams That His Life Was Threatened on Night B. O. Stanley and Four Men Called and Asked For Defendant.

DENIES CHARGE

State's Witness Had Said Couple "Obnoxious" on Trip to Clarendon to Visit Her Children.

AMARILLO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Mrs. Elnora Stanley, estranged wife of B. O. Stanley, shot to death here in August, today took the witness stand in defense of John F. Williams, her husband's slayer.

Mrs. Stanley said she was employed as a housekeeper by Williams on the evening when the estranged husband was slain in the front yard of the Williams home.

She testified that Stanley came to the door and said, "I'm looking for this man Williams." She said he was accompanied by four other men, and that he stood with his hand on his hip Williams, she testified, asked the men to leave, then went into the house and returned with a gun.

Mrs. Stanley denied charges made by Mrs. Ed S. Eubank, housekeeper for Stanley and the state's chief witness yesterday, that she and Williams made themselves "obnoxious" when they visited the Stanley children on a farm near Clarendon, and that Stanley had called on Williams to reprimand him for his conduct.

Williams was on the witness stand just before noon. The story he told was similar to the testimony of Mrs. Stanley. He said Stanley told him she had come here to get work and that he believed his life was in danger.

Bristow Must Prove He Was Really Prisoner

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 2. (AP)—It may be worth $3,800 to J. E. Bristow, former Oklahoma oil man, to prove he was kidnapped by Mexican bandits in the spring of 1930.

Bristow, now of San Angelo, Texas, was here today in an attempt to convince officials of the internal revenue department that he wasn't in the country in March of last year.

If he succeeds, Bristow expects the government to overlook the fact he failed to make a personal income tax report while idling in a bandit camp in the mountains east of Mazatlan. If he fails, he will be taxed on a purported erroneous return filed by an employee of his oil company fixing the payment $3,800 too high.

Box Rent Must Be Paid at Once

Rent on postoffice boxes is past due and unless paid immediately the boxes will be sealed and given to other parties. Postmaster D. E. Cecil announced this morning.

Box rent has been due for some time and the postmaster has been letting collections rest due to hard times but the time has come when rent has to be paid, he says.

"Non payment of box rent not only works a hardship on the renter but on the postoffice staff," Mr. Cecil said. "If the box owner is unable to pay, a suspension of mail service and a congestion of mail, he declared.

There are a number of applicants ready to take over boxes, the postmaster says.

The papers printed the stuff the editors thought the public wished to read. Then the trouble began. The editors were besieged with letters of protest, as was also the author of the trivial idea. MANY TO BE AT OIL MEET

Gray County Men Have Much Interest in Panhandle Hearing.

More than 100 Pampa and Gray county oil men plan to attend a hearing in Amarillo tomorrow at which time the railway commission will decide whether there is an oil waste in the Panhandle and if such is found, to devise means of correcting the situation. The ratable production for the Panhandle field will also be set.

The hearing has been set for 10 o'clock at the Amarillo hotel. J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission for the Panhandle field, is preparing a report on the Panhandle potential production which will be presented at the meeting.

Everyone interested in the oil situation in Gray county will attend the meeting which will be open to the public.

Football Game to Be Seen in Movies

Negotiations are under way to have C. T. Benefiel, representative of Universal and Paramount News, take pictures during the Amarillo Sundry-Pampa Harvesters football game here Oct. 17. C. B. "Brownie" Akers, manager of the La Nora theater, is in touch with Mr. Benefiel at Wellington.

It is planned to take pictures of play and the crowd. Pictures would be taken from the sidelines and from the top of the press box. The pictures would be shown at the La Nora theater.

Section Foreman Blamed in Wreck

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2. (AP)—Failure of a section foreman to station his men in such a manner as to permit them to watch both ways was blamed by the Interstate Commerce commission today for an accident near Wichita, Texas, on Aug. 10, in which four section men were killed and one injured.

The accident occurred when east bound train No. 16 on the Texas and Pacific Railroad struck a motor car on which the five section men were riding.

Brown Describes His Trip to Convention

M. K. Brown, recent delegate to the International Rotary convention in Vienna, told Amarillo clubmen about his trip yesterday.

McLean Ordinance on Gas Suspended as Hearing Fixed

McLean's city ordinance arbitrarily lowering gas rates will be considered in a hearing to be held there Tuesday.

Pat M. Neff, member of the commission, will hold the hearing. Upon the gas utility's posting of a $6,000 bond to guarantee the payment of a rebate in case the new rates are sustained, the ordinance has been temporarily suspended by the commission.

A similar instance here was obviated by the acceptance by the gas company of the new rates imposed.

Murray's Troops Patrolling Field

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 2. (AP)—The martial forces of Lieut. Col. Geo. I. Murray patrolled the Oklahoma City oil field today to see that Murray's latest stringent shutdown order was observed.

Murray, in charge of the military shutdown, ordered Aug. 5, by his cousin, Gov. William H. Murray, yesterday issued orders prohibiting production of all wells and oil movements after nightfall, and requiring special reports of all operations to military officials.

Activity in the field except drilling of wells was halted after dusk. Hitherto wells were permitted to complete and flow eight hours nightly production.

Meanwhile, drastic reduction of new crude stocks in the Oklahoma City field reflected the September shutdown.

New crude stocks totaled 252,395 barrels as of Oct. 1, with gross stocks 462,182 barrels, 119,780 barrels of which, however, was carried as "below connections." Stocks above connections Sept. 1 totaled 617,650 barrels.

September pipeline runs averaged 19,051 barrels daily, an amount in excess of production, which averaged 10,536 barrels daily.

Mickey Cochrane was Earnshaw's battery mate, Jimmy Wilson caught for the Cardinals.

DESCRIPTION OF GAME

First Inning
ATHLETICS—Bishop was out, Frisch to Bottomley, Haas struck out swinging at a low fast ball. Cochrane struck out swinging at a curve. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

CARDINALS—Flowers grounded to Bishop and was out at first. Watkins singled to center and raced to second as Haas handled the ball slowly. It was a fluke. Frisch hoisted to Haas in left centerfield. Bottomley flied out to Haas. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Second Inning
ATHLETICS—Simmons drove a long fly to Haley. Fox grounded to Frisch and was thrown out at first. Miller struck out swinging.

Wild Bill tamed them today.

Hallahan was working carefully and showed a lot of stuff as he retired the sixth straight batsman. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

CARDINALS—Haley went out Earnshaw to Fox. Martin hit to left field and slid into second as Simmons juggled the ball. It was a two base hit. On the first pitch—E. L. Martin stole third base. Wilson flied out to Haas and Martin scored easily after the catch. Gelbert singled sharply to right. Hallahan struck out swinging. One run, two hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning
ATHLETICS—Dykes popped to Flowers. Williams fanned missing a fast ball on the outside. Earnshaw.

"I WISH I WERE YOUNGER"

In Mississippi there is a 75-year-old lady who is suing for a share in New York's $50,000,000 Wendell estate; and the other day, talking about the lawsuit, she remarked plaintively, "I wish I was younger, if I'm going to get the money."
There is something very human about that remark, and something rather pathetic. To come into great wealth is the buried dream of all of us; but we want it while we still have desires to satisfy and dreams to fulfill and years to waste. To grow suddenly rich at 75 is better, probably, than not to get rich at all, but it is not a great deal better. For youth is not on the market and when the last flicker of youth has vanished there is not a great deal else than the ordinary person wants to buy.

Indeed, this attitude explains a great deal, when you stop to think about it. It explains why get-rich-quick schemes always have flourished, and always will. It explains why there are always plenty of people to buy lottery tickets, and dream of the lucky stroke of chance that may enrich them. It explains why decent young men occasionally turn into embezzlers and defaulters. It explains why a gold rush will recruit men from all over the world.

An industrious and gifted man can very often make a huge fortune in business. But he can't make it all at once, and that is the whole trouble. For, when we dream about being rich, we don't put it far in the future. We want it now, while we have vigor and long years and bright hopes to squander. The long climb up the ladder, looked at from that angle, sometimes seems impossibly tedious.

And this is true, too, whether one's desires are noble or base. The man to whom a fortune is only a means for gratifying his appetites will quite naturally want the money while he is young; but so, too, will the person who wants money for the leisure it will bring him, for the release that it will mean from petty cares and mean demands, for the doors that it will open to the things of the spirit.

And that, of course, is where life always seems hard and cruel. Unless a man is the especial favorite of the gods, things won't work out as he wishes. We dream of money, which is another way of saying that we dream of complete freedom; but we have to put in long years of service first, and if we can't find our compensations in serving we are out of luck. Riches and youth do not go hand in hand.

Site of Wichita Falls Franchise Still in Doubt

DALLAS, Oct. 2. (AP)—Reports that the St. Louis American league club contemplated transferring its Wichita Falls Texas league franchise to El Paso next season brought vigorous denial from both the American and Texas league clubs last night.

D. De Ce. Ball, president of the St. Louis Browns, answered with "that's the first I've heard of it. There's absolutely nothing to it."

William E. Huff said he had every reason to believe the St. Louis club had not reached a definite decision to move the franchise to El Paso next season.

Secretary Lee Saunders of the El Paso baseball club said he did not know whether the El Paso club owners, the citizens, would be interested in such a move.

Defense Tactics In Quinn Trial Bitterly Assailed

NEWKIRK, Okla., Oct. 2. (AP)—Defense tactics in bringing into the name of a brother of Jesse and Zexia Griffith, slain school teachers, were assailed as unwarranted today by Bruce Potter, Kay county attorney, in a closing argument.

Potter also told the jury defense attorneys had "a well framed alibi."

Quinn is on trial for the murder of Jesse, the younger sister, who was attacked before she was shot down with Zexia last December 29, while on a motor trip to their schools following Christmas holidays spent at their Blackwell home.

Displaying bloody clothing found at the scene of the crime the county attorney told the jury the state's theory of how the sisters were shot to death.

The defense knew the attack upon Ames Griffith was not a part of the evidence, Potter said. "It was unjustified and unwarranted."

Potter pointed out that in opening statements the defense had indicated it would prove by "a Wichita ta bootlegger" that Quinn was in Wichita about the time of the slayings.

"If the defense hadn't been able to obtain a former policeman to testify that Quinn was there it would have had to get a bootlegger to testify," the county attorney shouted. "He didn't mention in the opening statement that a policeman would testify."

Mrs. J. F. Griffith, mother of the girls, wept as Potter described what he believed was their death struggle. Her husband kept his eyes on Quinn, a few feet away.

ABOUT THREE HUNDRED PARENTS AND TEACHERS MEET

PROGRAMS FOR ALL SCHOOLS ARE ON SUBJECT OF SAFETY; NUMBER GIVEN BY CHILDREN

About three hundred members of the four local ward school Parent-Teacher associations attended regular meetings on Thursday afternoon. Programs on health and safety were given at all meetings, and business sessions were held.

More than seventy members and visitors attended the gathering at Woodrow Wilson school. The president, Mrs. W. R. Wanner, was in charge.

Following the opening song, America, and the Lord's prayer, the president introduced Mrs. Pafford, who explained the advantages of installing a cafeteria.

Woodrow Wilson juvenile policemen were introduced by Lois Dean Walters.

Little H. B. Griffith, first grade pupil, rendered two vocal solos. He was accompanied by Mrs. Annie Daniels, principal.

The following committee chairmen were appointed: Membership, Mrs. Murray; entertainment, Mrs. Robert G. Christ; finance, Mrs. Moorehead; reporter, Mrs. J. G. Osgood.

The Rev. A. A. Hyde, minister of the Presbyterian church, gave an interesting talk on morality.

Seventy-Five Present

About seventy-five persons were present for the Baker Parent-Teacher association meeting.

Invocation by Principal J. A. Meek opened the meeting, and a song, "Pack Up Your Troubles," was sung by the entire group. The second grade symphony orchestra then entertained with two numbers.

Following a talk on the state birthday of the Parent-Teacher association by Mrs. Boyd Allen, Joe Persky, A. G. Post, and Lee Miller made talks on safety.

It was voted to try to have a national standard organization this year, and plans were made for a membership drive by means of a contest. The losing side will serve refreshments at the next meeting, the first Thursday in November.

The group decided to give a shower of dishes and dish towels for the proposed cafeteria as soon as the cafeteria plan has been approved by the school board.

Officers Announced

At a meeting of about seventy-five members of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association, announcement was made of the following officers and committees: President, Mrs. C. P. Buckler; vice-president, Mrs. L. N. McCullough; secretary, Mrs. C. W. Stowell; treasurer, Mrs. I. Baum; historian, Mrs. John I. Bradley; program committee, Mrs. Raymond Harrah; chairman, Mrs. L. N. McCullough; Mrs. J. M. Dodson, and Mrs. G. C. Malone; hospitality, Mrs. T. R. Martin; chairman, Mrs. Chris Baer, and Mrs. E. C. Will; publicity, Mrs. C. B. Akers and Mrs. Sam Erwin; finance, Mrs. A. C. Shaw, Mrs. W. O. Workman, Mrs. H. A. Nelson, and Mrs. M. J. Davis; welfare, Mrs. R. B. Bourland, Mrs. R. B. Thompson, and Mrs. S. A. Hurst.

It was decided to give a suitable book or books to the room having the largest representation of mothers present each month. Mrs. C. W. Stowell's room, with 21 mothers present, was best represented Thursday.

Mrs. V. E. Fathere addressed the members on the ideals of the Parent-Teacher association. She also suggested that the organization be referred to by its full name, not as the P-T. A.

Mrs. E. H. Surret spoke on fire prevention. She stated that about 8,000 lives were lost from fire last year in the United States, and said fires were hard to control in this windy section.

Joe Persky, traffic officer, asked the cooperation of parents and teachers in enforcing traffic regulations.

A sextet composed of Mesdames Tom Rose, W. A. Bratton, L. N. McCullough, A. H. Doucette, W. R. Chafin, and H. C. Stinnet, delighted the group with two selections, "Pond Lilies" and "When a Maid Comes Knocking." Miss Ruth Anne Mitchell was at the piano.

Mrs. Maddux Presides

Mrs. N. F. Maddux presided for a meeting of more than fifty members of the Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association.

The meeting was opened with a

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

The busy mother whose children come home from school at different hours for their noon meal will find produce the lousy feeling that frequently makes afternoon work so trying, but is nourishing and stimulating to tired young brains and growing bodies.

When a meal is planned around a vegetable chowder, keep in mind the necessity of serving some other food that is very crisp. Crisp crackers or toast sticks or croquettes are an excellent choice because they require chewing and also add calories to the menu.

Radishes and celery are good crisp foods to use with chowders on two counts—they are crisp foods and must be chewed and are also appetizing raw foods generally available in October.

A simple salad is suitable providing a dessert hearty enough to take care of the necessary calories is served. Endive, head or shredded leaf lettuce, cabbage, cress, romaine, escarole and Chinese cabbage offer a variety of greens which may be served with a plain French dressing or used as the basis for a meat, fish or egg salad.

When an egg or meat salad is served, a simple dessert without eggs should be chosen. Apple sauce and ginger bread, crisp cookies and canned or fresh fruit, fruit Betty served with hard sauce and fruit tapioca puddings sound out a chowder luncheon satisfactorily.

However, when a plain green salad is planned, rice custard puddings, custard bread puddings and desserts rich in eggs are usually wanted.

Naturally the chowder itself is an important factor in determining the type of salad and dessert desirable for the meal. If grated cheese is stirred into the hot soup just before serving the food value is increased in proportion to the amount of cheese added. Eggs stirred into the chowder also increase its food value and make a hearty salad and dessert quite unnecessary.

The following rule for vegetable

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Sliced peaches with ready-to-serve cereal and cream, breaded green tomatoes with cream sauce on toast, extra toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Vegetable chowder, toast sticks, open egg and lettuce sandwiches, grapes, milk, tea.

DINNER: Lamb pie, creamed new turnips, honeydew and stuffed pepper salad, fresh plum pudding, milk, coffee.

chowder can be varied to suit the vegetables at hand.

Vegetable Chowder

Two potatoes, 2 medium sized onions, 1-2 cup diced celery, 1-2 cup thinly sliced carrots, 2 tablespoons butter or bacon fat, 3 cups boiling water, 1 cup milk (optional), 2 eggs (optional), 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon white pepper.

Pare and dice potatoes. Melt butter or fat in kettle or saucepan and add minced onions. Cook over a low fire for five minutes. Add potatoes, celery, carrots and boiling water and cook 20 minutes. Season with salt and pepper and cook ten minutes longer. If milk is used, add and bring to the boiling point but do not let boil. Remove from fire and stir in eggs. Heat just enough to cook eggs, stirring constantly, but do not let boil after adding eggs. Keep hot over hot water.

High school Boy Scouts, assisted by Boy Scouts of Horace Mann school, gave a first-aid demonstration.

Foods suitable for school children were discussed by Mrs. Hazel Raines, nurse and dietitian. Mrs. Raines gave several menus suitable for a child's lunch.

Joe Persky, traffic officer, spoke on Safety in Traffic. He introduced Lee Miller, state highway patrolman, who spoke briefly on the same subject.

A bit of humor was added to the meeting through a contest in which members of the organization were required to draw posters with fire prevention as the theme. The award for the best poster went to Mrs. Curtis.

Miss Durrett's room was awarded a picture for having the largest representation of mothers.

GRAINS IMPROVE

CHICAGO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Substantial upturn in grain prices early today accompanied rallies in stock market quotations. Unexpected strength shown by the Liverpool wheat market tended also to lift values. Opening 3-8 to 1-2 to 5-8 cent higher, wheat continued to point upward. Corn started at a shade to 1-4 gain and subsequently scored an additional advance.

Mrs. A. C. Huime of Skellytown shopped here this morning.

Mrs. A. C. Carter of LeFors was in Pampa this morning.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

D. B. Jameson Jr. celebrated his birthday with a party Wednesday afternoon in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Jameson. The guests were Bryan Rusk, Rennis Mae Madison, Elmer Lee Madison, Margaret Sullins, Billy Sullins, and Robert Berri.

After games were played and the candles lighted, the honoree's birthday cake was cut and served with other refreshments.

Ray Dysinger of Wichita, Kan., arrived here this morning to attend the Wichita-Pampa football game.

CARDINALS TO LOSE HOPE IF BEATEN AGAIN

Athletics' Terrific Hitting in Pinches Gives Them Every Advantage.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2. (AP)—Amid steadily increasing plaudits of a baseball world that knows a truly great team when it sees one, the world champion Philadelphia Athletics have picked up the thread of world series conquest where they dropped it last fall.

It isn't so much that the A's, seeking a record of three straight series championships, whipped the St. Louis Cardinals 6 to 2 yesterday in the opening game of the annual fall diamond classic. One game, important as the start of a short seven game clash, still does not necessarily mean ultimate victory.

Rather it was the way the champions of the baseball world, insolent in their confidence, rose up in their might to come from behind and administer a typical Athletic thrashing to a team keyed to the point of desperation in its quest of victory. It was the old, old story of Athletic power, administered with crushing effect, steam-rolling the enemy into broken submission just when hope was beginning to sprout again.

world series, blasting them apart at just exactly the psychological moment, to win their second straight world triumph for Connie Mack. They entered the first game of the 1931 pageant a natural favorite at 8 to 5. And today, facing the second and last game here until three matches have been played in Philadelphia next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, they stand out a 4 to 1 choice to gather in their third straight series conquest, something never before achieved in the history of baseball.

A crowd of 38,529 paid $165,161 yesterday to see the Athletics, with absolute ease and nonchalance, another a situation that had dramatic possibilities as great as any opening contest in the history of these time honored duels of the American and National league champions.

Derringer is Cool
Paul Derringer, No. 1 man of the Cardinals and the first freshman in the major leagues ever to start the opening world series game for his team, solid and chilly as a cold storage turkey, bent to his task. Four of the first six men to face him went down, lunging futilely at his dazzling curve ball. And in the meantime, the Cardinals, swinging from the hip in desperation, climbed aboard the mighty Grove.

There was something wrong with the great Lefty's curve and control in the first inning when the Cards scored twice. But he coasted in after a big fourth inning although the Cards reached him for 12 hits, more than the A's got off Derringer.

Today the Cards had "Big Jarge" Earnshaw to contend with and even in the hearts of the most rabid Na-

MANY WICHITA FANS WILL ACCOMPANY REDSKINS HERE

Harvester Line-up Is Not Yet Certain; Gorillas Are Playing Panhandle.

While the high school Gorillas were meeting the fast Panhandle Panthers in Panhandle this afternoon, Coach Odus Mitchell was putting the finishing touches on his Harvesters preparatory to the big game with the Wichita, Kans., Redskins at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Coach W. O. Workman took a crippled eleven to Panhandle and did not expect to come through on the win end of the score. Three regular backfield men are out with injuries, while two linemen are in the same condition. Panhandle has lost Pug Weaver for a few days and his loss will be great, the Panther coach says.

Mitchell still refuses to put out tomorrow's starting line-up. His substitutes are making such a fight for regular berths on the eleven that he wants all the time possible to get a line on his players. The team has had its toughest workout this week and are in great condition.

The Redskins will come to Pampa with a one-pound advantage in the line and anywhere from six to 19 pounds in the backfield. The boys from Kansas with Coach Lindsey Austin will arrive in Pampa at 4:44 o'clock tomorrow morning on a pullman behind the regular Santa Fe passenger. Many fans are accompanying the team according to a letter from the coach.

Stevens, giant fullback and punter, and Hobson, left halfback, are apparently the boys that will have to be stopped. Assisting them in the backfield is a fleet quarterback, and one of the greatest blockers seen in several years. The line is well balanced with heavy guards, and tackles and fleet ends.

The Harvesters will play a night game in Canyon next Saturday night. Opponents will be the West Texas State Teachers college freshmen.

SERIES EVEN AT REST
ST. PAUL, Oct. 2. (AP)—With their Little World series all even at one game apiece, Rochester and St. Paul had an open date today.

The Rochester Redwings, champions of the International league, squared the count yesterday with a 3 to 2 victory over St. Paul, pennant winners of the American association. The Saints won the first game, 4 to 0.

national league partisans there was little hope. Gabby Street named Wild Bill Hallahan, the lefty who shut out the Athletics last year, to do his pitching. But the general impressions now is that it doesn't matter much. The Athletics are in their usual blasting mood.

YOUNG SHORT STOP IS HERO OF ATHLETICS

Dibrell Williams Replaces Joe Boley, Who Helps Youngster to Stick.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2. (AP)—He does not aspire to heroics, but Dibrell Williams, 21-year-old recruit shortstop of the world champion Athletics, is well on his way today to becoming one of the heroes of the 1931 world series.

Except for the fates of baseball which have just about eliminated Joe Boley from the championship series with the Cardinals, Williams would not be in a spot to make or break the Athletics' defense. But, being dropped into the spot has made no difference to the youngster, who regards every contest in the world championship series as just another game of baseball.

INSERT 1 COOL CUT WILLIAMS—Boley, thoroughly realizing Williams is taking over his job, perhaps permanently, has worked tirelessly to teach the youngster all he knows, and must have been happy at the latter's performance yesterday.

Chews Tobacco
Young Dib, whose most noticeable characteristics are a huge chew of tobacco, and an almost phlegmatic calmness, is the youngest player in the big series.

Williams' arm has not been regarded as too dependable, there having been a tendency to throw one away once in a while. But yesterday he came up with a performance that surprised many—the many, however, not including Williams.

"Yeah," he said last night, "I've thrown away quite a few, but I have worked to become an accurate thrower, and I'm not worried about throwing any away in this series. If you are going to throw wild, you just throw wild, but after yesterday I know I don't have to worry."

Had Five Chances
Williams handled five chances yesterday and at least two of his fielding efforts were huge factors in heading off possible Cardinal rallies. In the first inning after the Cards had scored their two runs, Williams went over back of second base to snare Wilson's grounder and throw perfectly to nail the St. Louis catcher at first.

White Sox and Cubs Now Even

CHICAGO, Oct. 2. (AP)—The White Sox and Cubs were all square today as they moved their fight for the city baseball championship over to Comiskey park for the third game.

Breaking the charm held over them for 17 consecutive innings by the White Sox pitchers, the Cubs squeezed through with a thrilling 1 to 0 victory at Wrigley field yesterday to deadlock the series and insure its life past the four-game mark.

Kiki Cuyler and Vince Baron were the heroes of the Cub's winning punch yesterday. With one out in the ninth inning, Cuyler smashed one of Vic Frasier's fast ones into center field and dashed to second with a fine burst of speed. When Lester Bell fouled out to Grube, the rally appeared nipped but Barton spanked a single and the fleet Cuyler steamed home with the winning run. It was the only run scored in 18 innings by the Cubs as the veteran "Red" Faber blanked them, 9 to 0, in the first game Wednesday.

SIR THOMAS IMPROVES
LONDON, England, Oct. 2. (AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton, who is seriously ill from the effects of a chill, was said today to have maintained the improvement registered last night.

His doctors expressed satisfaction with the fight he was making. His secretary said the outlook was more hopeful in view of his improved condition.

QUIET MEXICAN WILL BE WHIRLWIND ON THE MAT

He and Clingman Seek Same Title, and Both Are in Perfect Condition.

A quiet, courteous Mexican, stockily built, has been walking around Pampa streets a couple of days. Tonight he will be seen in a tigerish role at the Majestic as he tackles Otis Clingman, the young man who has been wrestling in the west all summer and who is prepared for anything.

The Mexican, Pancho Vatel, has a tough reputation and is an aspirant for the title Clingman is after. He is said to be tireless, with a flair for action from the first going. Since Clingman is best when crowded, it is expected to be a fitting match for the opener.

The preliminaries will bring together Barber Kelly and Red Michaels, and Lewis and Lee. The main event will be at about 8:45, with the first prelude at 8:15 p. m.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2. (AP)—The junior lightweight championship doesn't mean much to the fistie world in general but Kid Chocolate evidently prizes it.

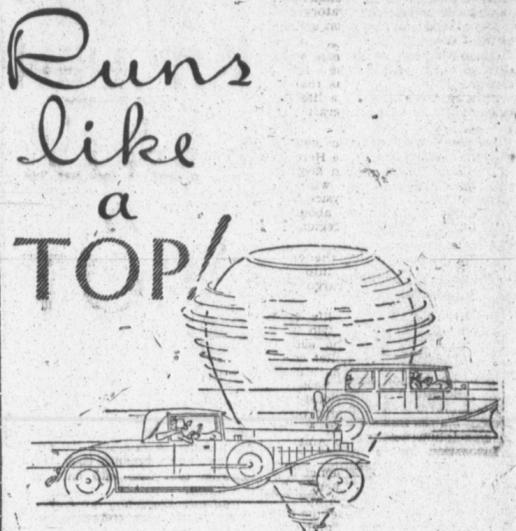

The Cuban won the synthetic 130-pound crown by stopping Benny Bass in Philadelphia several months ago. Last night, with the title at stake, he disposed of Joe Scaifaro, hard-hitting Harlem boy, in 39 seconds of the first round at the Queensboro stadium.

Bowling League to Open This Evening

The Commercial Bowling league will open tonight with four teams entered. At least two other teams will be entered and an effort is being made to increase the entry list to eight teams. Alex Schneider is president of the league.

The season will open with the Schneider hotel meeting the Powell Prides, last year's champions, and The Texas company playing the Country club team.

The best bowlers in the city are members of the various teams and large scores are expected.

Lindberghs Are Rescued as Ship Upsets on River

HANKOW, Oct. 2. (AP)—Thrown into the turbid flood waters of the Yangtze river when their plane capsized here today, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh escaped a fate that had overtaken scores of thousands of Chinese in recent weeks.

The plane, bearing the Lindberghs and Dr. P. Z. King, Chinese relief worker, upset when one wing struck the water as the colonel was turning it about preparatory to taking off from the river on a flood survey flight.

Tossed into the swift stream while wearing their cumbersome flying togs, the flying couple was rescued along with the doctor by a lifeboat crew from the British aircraft carrier Hermes.

The plane had just been lowered from the flying deck of the Hermes, where Lindbergh had been keeping it during his sojourn here, with the flying couple and the physician in the cockpit. They were about to leave for Tunting lake region, 75 miles southwest of here.

As the colonel turned the craft about, the wing dipped into the stream and its human cargo was catapulted into the flood.

The Hermes lowered a life boat quickly and soon had the trio safe. The accident halted the survey flights which the flood relief commission had hailed as of the utmost value. It was not believed, however, that the mishap would seriously interfere with the Lindberghs' plans for continuing their flying in the Far East and returning to America by air.

It was learned that Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh had planned to go to Shanghai in a few days anyway to get the plane in shape for the next phase of their flight and that an expert already was in the latter city to do the work.

However, the colonel remained as non-committal as ever regarding his future plans but there were increasing indications he would go to Europe by way of Southern Asia.

The Texas Pecos Valley country is expected to ship approximately five hundred carloads of cantaloupes this year an estimated 3,000 acreage crop.

Von Hindenburg Is Strong at 84

BERLIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—Paul Ludwig Huns von Hindenburg, who was first in war and is first in peace, was 84 years old today and the fatherland rejoiced.

Thirteen years ago on this very date, he saw the hitherto impregnable Hindenburg line waver and collapse under the united assaults of the allied forces under Marshal Foch.

Today, as president of the first German republic, he is once more the field marshal leading the nation in a peace-time war against the on-laughs of economic depression and political dissension.

He is nearing the end of a seven-year term in which Germany rehabilitated herself from the effects of post-war disillusionment, revolution, and monetary inflation only to fall prey to the ravages of world wide maladjustments.

During the last year he has achieved triumphs as a leader of government which overshadowed even his exploits on the field of battle.

At an age when most men are semi-invalid, his body seems as sturdy, his mind as active, and his eye as piercing as when he was a youth. Known as "Der Alte" (the old gentleman) he still is a stickler for military discipline as a veteran of three wars but a man of kindly disposition.

Gulf Strike Is Still in Progress

GALVESTON, Oct. 2. (AP)—No immediate settlement of the strike of 3,000 longshoremen in Texas Gulf ports was seen today as steamship operators prepared to load their vessels with non-union labor.

Ship owners made no attempt to load cargoes yesterday. The bulk of the ships in port here were cleared before the strike as steamship agents foresaw the union labor shortage.

Officials anticipated no serious trouble and the wharf police force had not been augmented. The force was in charge of Captain Joe Brooks, former senior captain of the Texas Rangers and commandant of that body in Galveston in 1920 when martial law was declared during a longshoreman strike.

Gulf cities affected by the strike were Galveston, Corpus Christi, Houston, and Texas City.

Spokesmen for shipping interests said they would not recede from their position of wage reduction which would provide a basic wage scale of 65 cents as opposed to the former scale of 80 cents an hour. Pay on cotton loading under the new scale proposed by the owners called for the scale of 65 cents an hour, compared to the former wages of 18 cents a bale. Labor leaders estimated that was a reduction of about 35 cents an hour.

New Flood Has Inundated China

SHANGHAI, Oct. 2. (AP)—A new China flood disaster following closely other catastrophes that have taken tens of thousands of lives within the last two months, was revealed to the National Flood Relief Commission today in a telegram from B. L. Pond, resident engineer of the Chinese International Famine Relief Commission at Yunnanfu, Yunnan province.

Pond declared 25,000 persons perished and 5,000 square miles of territory were inundated as the result of copious rains in the Yentsing district of Northern Yunnan province.

"Three hundred thousand people are affected," he telegraphed. "Crops are entirely destroyed. The rain is continuing in some districts."

This follows a three-year famine from which it was previously estimated Yunnan province would require 25 years to recover.

Flood waters still cover vast areas of the fertile Yangtze valley in Central China, particularly in the region of Hankow.

It was estimated floods have claimed 250,000 lives in the Hankow area alone. Tens of millions of Chinese are destitute as a result of disaster.

Borger Bowlers, Using Their Own Alleys, Defeat Pampa Men

Borger bowlers proved too good on their own alleys and defeated a team from Pampa two games out of three last night. The Borgerites won by 90 pins.

Hap Baxter was the sensation of the night when he rolled a score of 297 pins. J. M. Powell, also of the Pampa team, was second high man with a score of 225 pins. The Borgerites were more consistent than the Pampans however. Baxter also rolled high three games of the night with a score of 590 pins, four pins ahead of Dr. Crosby of the Borger five.

LEAVE FOR HEARING
AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—C. V. Terrell, chairman of the state railroad commission and R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the commission, left today for Amarillo where they will hold a hearing on proration of the Panhandle oil field.

The commission this week had hearings on proration of all other fields except East Texas and the Panhandle.

Orders based on the hearing setting allowances will not be issued until after Commissioner Terrell and Parker return from Amarillo.

Uncomfortable After Meals

For indigestion, distress after meals, try taking a pinch of THEFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT immediately on leaving the table.

"After meals, I felt so tight in my chest—there seemed to be a lot of gas," writes Mrs. C. L. Lanca, of Jefferson, Ga. "This made me feel dull and stupid. I did not have an appetite. My mother advised me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and a small pinch after meals. I certainly did get relief."

Capone Syndicate On Chain Basis

CHICAGO, Oct. 2. (AP)—A report was printed by the Chicago Tribune today that the Alphonse Capone syndicate has virtually put the saloons and roadhouses of Cook county on a chain store basis for everything from beer to pretzels.

Even towels and table linen must be purchased from a Capone company and laundered by a Capone laundry, according to the revelations which the newspaper said had been made. Gingerale, soda pop, and carbonated water must be bought through the Capone syndicate.

Kidnaping Is Called Just "Fishing Trip"

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 2. (AP)—Leon Gleckman, a politician, reported held a week by kidnapers for ransom and released on payment of $50,000 ransom, returned home today.

Gleckman, head of a finance company, refused to talk except to say: "I was on a week's fishing trip. That's all I have to say. I am glad to be home."

Gleckman, who had served a sentence for liquor law violation, disappeared Sept. 23.

Last Tuesday a letter was received telling of his safety but demanding money for his release.

A governmental radio broadcasting station of 2,000-watt power, costing $65,000 and providing meteorological service, is under construction at Big Spring.

Excursion Rates to West Coast Will be Given

CHICAGO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Special railroad excursion rates from Chicago and other central western cities to the west coast for Christmas holidays were announced yesterday by H. W. Siddall, chairman of the Trans-Continental Passenger association.

Rates for the 1932 summer excursion season for the same territory also were announced. From Dec. 16 to 22, the railroads which are members of the association, will sell round trip tickets from Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, and other points west to California, Arizona, Oregon, Washington, and Western British Columbia for a fare and a quarter plus 50 cents. Returns on these tickets are limited to Jan. 6, 1932. Stop-overs are allowed, and the passengers may return on diverse routes.

Ellsworth Vines Near New Title

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena moved into the quarter-finals of the men's singles play in the Pacific Coast tennis tournament here today and was well on his way toward adding the singles title to the already imposing string of championships he has collected this season.

Vines, National singles champion, playing for the first time in the tournament, yesterday, disposed of Neil Brown of San Francisco in a third round match 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, and Gerald Hyde, of San Francisco, fourth round opponent, 6-1, 6-0.

Vines faced Gordon Jason, another San Franciscan, in the quarter-finals match.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Oct. 2.

(AP)—Four bandits robbed the Citizens' State bank here today of $30,000, kidnaped Elmer Lucas, the assistant cashier and mayor of Hartford City, and escaped. A posse of citizens and officers fired approximately a dozen shots as the bandits left the bank and they believed they wounded at least one of the men.

Clayton Woman Stays in Tourney

AMARILLO, Oct. 2. (AP)—Only one visitor, Mrs. W. A. Martin, of Clayton, N. M., remained in the first flight of the Wolflin park women's invitation golf tournament when play started today. She was paired with Mrs. J. W. Ross of Amarillo.

In the other match of the second round, first flight, Mrs. Walter Sikes was paired with Mrs. Florence Miskler.

In the first flight consolation, the medalist, Miss Alma Douglas of Shamrock was paired with Mrs. A. A. Foster of Hereford, and Mrs. B. F. Holmes of Shamrock was paired with Mrs. Elliott Hatch of Amarillo. The second round of the second flight found Mrs. Mason King of Amarillo paired with Mrs. Lyle Montgomery of this city, and Mrs. Carl Smith of Pampa matched with Mrs. H. F. Massey, another local golfer.

Edison Continues to Grow Weaker

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 2. (AP)—Thomas A. Edison continues to grow weaker, his physician, Dr. Hubert S. Rowe, said today in his daily bulletin.

"As the result of a restless and uncomfortable night, Mr. Edison is slightly weaker this morning," the bulletin read.

Edison by his own choice, has not been automobile riding since last Saturday. He spends most of his time in a soft-cushioned arm chair in the library where he collapsed last Aug. 1.

The Fig ranch of over 100 sections in Winkler county was sold recently constituting one of the biggest single land deals in West Texas during the year.

The University of Texas College of Mines and Metallurgy at El Paso has been recently expanded so that a four-year college is offered.

GUILTY LIPS

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "MAD MARRIAGE" ©1931 BY NEA SERVICE INC

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary, marries Mark Travers, son of F. M. Travers, millionaire real estate dealer, in spite of the father's opposition and threats to disinherit Mark.

The story opens in Marlboro, middle western metropolis. Mark sells his expensive roadster to get money for the honeymoon and he and Norma go to fashionable Blue Springs. There Norma meets Hollis Stone, and it is evident from the girl's manner that she has known Stone before.

Their money is soon gone, partly due to Mark's gambling. With $500 borrowed from Stone the couple return to Marlboro. Mark sets out on a round of pleasure instead of hunting a job. Their funds dwindle again, Mark and Norma move to a cheap apartment. Mark gets one job and loses it. Then he becomes a floorwalker in Blossomdale's department store. Norma practices rigid economies at home and in spite of poverty the young couple are happy. Then Mark's father sends for him, offers to take him back into his own organization if Mark will prove he can make good. His first task involves a business trip to France. Norma is to remain at home. She is frightened and begs him not to go. In spite of her protests Mark departs. He expects Norma to stay with his parents while he is away but she slips out of the house leaving no trace of her whereabouts. In a restaurant she hears her name spoken.

Norma raised startled eyes. "Why, Bob!" she exclaimed. "Why, hello!" Bob Farrell smiled. "Wasn't sure it was you for a minute," he admitted. "Haven't seen you in a long while. Mind if I join you?"

"Please do! It's good to see you again, Bob." For a moment the girl's eyes lowered, then met his gaze. "Mark's out of town—it's a business trip—and I'm taking a vacation from my own cooking. Sit down and tell me about yourself." Farrell pulled out the chair opposite and sank into it. He looked at Norma admiringly. "I haven't been doing much," he said. "Nothing to talk about." He hesitated, then continued. "I should have sent you my best wishes long ago—when I read about your marriage. I certainly wish you every happiness, Norma."

"Thanks." There was a pause before Norma said hurriedly, "I have been happy. So happy. Some day when you meet the right girl, Bob, I hope you'll know the same happiness. You deserve it—and you'll find it, too! You see this is the first time Mark and I have been separated. It's going to be pretty hard, I'm afraid."

Farrell's tone was sympathetic. "Maybe you'd rather be alone—" he suggested.

Norma shook her head. "Oh, no! I think I'll feel better to have someone to talk to. It's luck finding you here, Bob. I've thought of you so many times. You didn't leave Marlboro after all as you expected?"

"No. No. that — er — that fell through."

She didn't notice that he flushed slightly. "You're been doing things I want to hear about," she told him. "Chris said you've had a promotion."

"Well, not exactly that. Got a raise a while back and they don't load me with quite so many errands to run. I've been lucky on a couple of cases. Old McVaine seems to be pulling for me. That's not interesting though. Tell me what you've been doing."

"Keeping house. Cooking and washing dishes and sweeping. Oh, and I love it, Bob! I've never been so happy in my life."

Farrell traced a pattern on the table cloth with the tip of a spoon. He said without glancing up, "I guess you mean that."

"Of course I mean it! You must come to see us some time. I want you to know Mark. When you do you'll understand. Bob, Mark's wonderful! Come to dinner some night soon after he gets back!"

"Thanks. Hope I can make it. Is he to be gone long?"

"It seems a long time to me. Four weeks and maybe five! Just now that sounds like a lifetime!"

"Oh, the time will pass. That's about the best thing time does. You'll find ways to keep busy. How about Chris? Seen anything of her lately?"

"Not so much as I'd like. She's been at the apartment and occasionally I meet her for lunch. Chris always seems to be the same."

The waitress brought Farrell's order. Norma had been placed before her and she was pleased to see it looked appetizing. She ate with more relish than she had expected.

Continued questioning drew from Farrell some of the details of the law suit that had brought him a modest amount of glory. Laughed on the subject he described curious angles of another legal tangle. Norma was diverted. They finished dessert and still Farrell talked on. Abruptly he said:

"Look here, you're tired and I've been making you listen to all this buncombe. Why didn't you tell me to shut up?"

"Oh, but I've been interested. I was interested in every word! Perhaps we'd better go now though. I am just a little tired."

Farrell was on his feet. "You haven't told me where you're living. Is there somewhere I can take you?"

Norma shook her head. "Just put me in a cab," she told him. "It's been good to see you, Bob, and know you're making such strides to success. But then I always knew you'd do that. You will come to dinner?"

"I certainly hope to. Really, don't you think I'd better come along with you?"

"Really I don't."

Outside on the street Farrell signaled a cab and helped the girl into it. She smiled at him as the taxi moved away.

The driver looked back at his passenger. "Where to, Ma'am?" he asked.

"Turn into Eighth street. Keep going until I tell you to stop."

The driver obeyed instructions. They had traveled three blocks when traffic stopped them. Across the corner Norma saw an electric sign which read, "Hannah Spencer Hall."

She knew the place, though she had never been there. An endowed home for young girls who worked.

A hotel was out of the question because Norma had no luggage. It might be an idea!

Norma rapped on the glass partition and told the taxi driver to stop. She got out, paid her fare and hurried across the street. Then she went up the steps of Hannah Spencer Hall and entered.

"I wonder if I could get a room here for the night?" she said to the gray-haired woman at the desk.

"I've missed my luggage and I don't know what I'm to do!"

The woman asked several questions. Norma answered them truthfully, giving the impression, however, that she was a stranger in the city and that she was friendless.

"We'll find a place for you," she was informed. "Let's see, number 305 is vacant now—"

At breakfast in the Hannah Spencer Hall dining room Norma considered the results of her rashness. She was miserable. She would never in the world have run away if she had realized it was to be like this!

"If I should walk out in the street and be hit by an automobile not a soul in the world whom I care about would know it!" Norma told herself.

She had clipped every bond. By simply walking out of her father-in-law's home she had succeeded in hiding herself as completely as if she were in a distant city. She was entirely alone now. Chris didn't know. They didn't know at the apartment. She had not told Bob Farrell how to reach her.

All that was inconsequential. The terrible thing was that by leaving the Travers home she had cut her-

Mrs. Collings Will View Two Suspects

NEW YORK, Oct. 2. (AP)—Before another day dawns, Mrs. Benjamin Collings will have a chance to say definitely whether two men being held at Daytona Beach, Fla., had anything to do with the murder of her husband.

With her lawyer, William A. Kelly; her sister-in-law, Miss Helen Collings; Fred Gunder, assistant district attorney of Suffolk county, Mrs. Collings left last night for Daytona Beach. She is due to arrive there late tonight. Before deciding to make the journey, Mrs. Collings studied photographs of the two men—Dr. Leslie D. Ritchie, 51, and his son, William, 23.

She said, after looking at tele-photographed pictures, she could not be sure but doubted if the Ritchies were the men who boarded her husband's cruiser Sept. 9, killed him and then abducted her.

Suffolk county authorities wired Daytona Beach police to detain the father and son 24 hours more to give Mrs. Collings a chance to see them.

One lead in the murder investigation collapsed late yesterday when it developed that a body washed ashore on Long Island Sound Tuesday was not that of William Smith, as had been supposed. William Smith was an acquaintance of the Ritchies.

PROMINENT AMARILLO DOG WINS ALL-AGE STAKE

YATES CENTER, Okla., Oct. 2. (AP)—The Mid-Continent Field Trial association meeting closed here yesterday with Unomont Bill Essig, a dog owned by R. A. Buren, Amarillo, Texas, winning the open all-age stakes. Vinita, Okla., was selected for the next meeting and G. Y. Ladow, Fredonia, Kas., elected president. M. B. Gourley, Topeka, was chosen vice-president and H. C. Brooks, Fort Scott, secretary.

MEXIA MAN WOUNDED

HASKELL, Texas, Oct. 2. (AP)—Jack Walton, 40, of Mexia, was wounded seriously in an affray here yesterday. Leonard Banks, Haskell county farmer, was charged with assault to murder and was held without bond. Walton was a dirt contractor and was employed in highway construction projects.

BURNS ARE FATAL

Giant Education Plan Framed by General Butler

NEWTON SQUARE, Pa., Oct. 2. (AP)—Fourteen multi-millionaires representing $5,000,000, Gen. Smedley Butler asserts, stand ready to contribute half their wealth to relieve poverty and furnish widespread employment. He refuses to name them but says they have pledged support to a plan he has formulated to educate youth of the nation to build a stronger union.

In an interview last night, Butler outlined his plan whereby more than 50,000 new schools would be built by the government. No one under 19 years old would be allowed to work but would be educated in the federal schools. Dependents of youths would be supported by the government.

With building of the schools labor would be needed, he said, and building material would be needed in large amounts. Thousands of teachers of all types would be employed.

Aviation and other industries would be subsidized, inventions would be expanded and supported by a bureau which would encourage "every form of new appliance, machinery, or other inventions of modern science."

Real estate men would be ordered to tear down tenement houses and other crowded living quarters. Homes, modern in every respect, would be built.

Unless his plan, or a similar one was adopted soon, Butler declared, "the mob will rise like it has in other countries."

Mississippi Senate Passes Cotton Bill

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 2. (AP)—The Mississippi senate last night adopted the Texas cotton acreage limitation plan as embodied in the Roberts-Sillers bill by a vote of 39 to 7.

The measure was immediately sent to the house for consideration. Under the bill cotton acreage in Mississippi during 1932 and 1933 will be restricted to 30 per cent of land in cultivation in 1931.

When the measure reaches the house it will find opposition from supporters of an alternative plan. Introduced by Representative Lawrence Kennedy, and similar in practically all respects to the Long cotton prohibition plan of Louisiana.

DALLAS BOY INJURED

CHANNING, Texas, Oct. 2. (AP)—Johnnie Fitzhugh, son of Mrs. E. U. Fitzhugh of Dallas, was injured seriously in an automobile accident on the highway near here today. The car in which he was riding with his mother and three other children ran into a ditch when a tire blew out. The child was taken to a Dalt-hart hospital for treatment.

FLIGHT ENDS FATALLY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2. (AP)—A cross-country flight from March field, Riverside, Calif., to the Canadian border and return has ended with the death of two youthful army fliers in San Francisco bay.

The men, Lieutenant Robert W. Coons, Aberdeen, Wash., and William H. Elbins, fell into the bay with their disabled plane last night. They were attached to the army air corps reserve. Both were under 23 years of age.

OLNEY, Oct. 2. (AP)—Marvin E. Smith, 42, an oil driller, was found shot to death in his home here today. A pistol lay beside the body.

Great Bank Merger In New York City

NEW YORK, Oct. 2. (AP)—A plan of consolidation of the Bank of America with the National City bank—creating an institution closely approaching the Chase National bank, the largest in the world, in total resources—was announced by heads of the two institutions.

It was explained the plan was in conformity with a program announced last week by the Trans-America corporation, which holds 53 per cent interest in Bank of America, under which Transamerica proposed to divest itself of controlling interests in banks.

When completed, this will be the first large bank merger in New York City since the Chase National bank absorbed the Equitable Trust company, early in 1930, through which it eclipsed the National City to become the world's largest bank.

Both the Bank of America and National City are among Wall street's oldest banking institutions. Both were founded in 1812. National City from time to time has absorbed other New York City banks. The merged institution will continue under the name of the National City bank.

Americans to Hop Off Early Tomorrow

SAMUSHIRO, Japan, Oct. 2. (AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, American fliers, hope to take off here early tomorrow on their projected trans-Pacific flight to the United States.

Preparing for the flight, they smeared the wings of their plane today with a substance resembling molasses to prevent the formation of ice in case they encounter sleet.

Pangborn and Herndon are after the $25,000 prize offered by a Japanese newspaper for the first non-stop trans-Pacific airplane flight.

BUYS MUCH MOHAIR

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 2. (AP)—C. T. Parker, vice-president of the Ryder, Brown and company yesterday announced the purchase of 500,000 pounds of mohair at "slightly more than the present cooperative advance." The purchase was the first reported here since the 7,000,000 pound pool recently made in South-west Texas and assigned to the federal farm board agency.

self off from Mark. Less than 24 hours he had been gone. The girl's eyes were red-rimmed. She had scarcely slept during the night. Now in the bright daylight the situation seemed even more frightening.

There was nearly $100 in her purse. Mark's boat had not sailed yet. At this moment he was somewhere in New York. "If only I could reach him!" the girl thought. "Oh, why did I ever let him leave me!"

She knew it was madness to go on in this fashion. She told herself over and over it would be impossible to reach Mark. Even if there were a means the effort would be useless. Mark was entitled to the chance he was so eager for. She could not stand in his way.

"As it is I may have ruined everything!" Norma told herself. "What have I done? Oh, what have I done?"

She could not eat the well-cooked breakfast. Furee in hand Norma paid for the meal and lodging and departed from Hannah Spencer Hall.

On the street corner she bought a newspaper and opened it to advertisements of rooms for rent. She boarded a street car and read the column as she rode. Several of the addresses looked promising and these she checked with a pencil.

Fresh air and the bright sunlight gave her courage. Tackling the situation made it seem easier. Norma told herself the thing to do was to believe firmly that everything would turn out happily.

An hour and a half later she made the first week's payment on a small rear bedroom in a lodging house that had cleanliness and cheapness to recommend it. She had telephoned the storage company to deliver the trunk she had entrusted to them the day before. To the landlady the girl gave her name as "Norma Travers," omitting the prefix, "Mrs."

She sat in the one comfortable chair in the new bedroom, contrasting her surroundings with the apartment and the room she had occupied in the Travers home. Undoubtedly this was the poorest of the three.

"I can stand it for four weeks!" Norma told herself. "Four weeks can't last forever! Four weeks — and Mark will be back!"

When the trunk arrived she unpacked her clothing and hung the dresses in the tiny closet. She put underclothing in neat piles in the drawers of the dressing table. Some of the things she did not bother to unpack. There was no use taking out the pretty evening gowns or evening wrap.

Once Norma paused before the mirror of the dressing table. It was not her own reflection of which she was thinking.

"If only I had a picture of Mark to stand there!" the girl lamented. "Even a little kodak picture would be something."

There was no picture and Norma knew it. She rummaged in the trunk again, brought out an object and placed it on the dressing table. It was a fountain pen Mark had used and discarded. Not very personal—still it had been Mark's.

In the afternoon she telephoned Chris Saunders and agreed to meet her at 5:30 on a familiar corner. Norma reached the place first. She saw Chris, slender and erect, threading her way through the maze of traffic. Norma went to meet her.

"Here I am, 'Chris!' she called.

The older girl turned her head. She caught Norma's eye and smiled. "Sorry to be late—" she began but did not finish the sentence.

"Why, Norma!" Chris Saunders interrupted herself, "what on earth's happened? You look like a ghost!"

"It's—oh, it's nothing, serious. Mark's gone away—on business for his father—and I just thought I'd like to talk to you. That's all."

"Gone away? Where's he gone?"

"To New York. And he's sailing tonight for France. He's going to be gone four weeks, Chris, and already it seems like it's been a million years."

"But I didn't know he was working for his father? When did all this happen?"

Norma's voice did not betray her. She managed to keep it almost steady as she answered, "I'll tell you about it. Let's go somewhere where we can talk."

"How about 'The Galley'?"

"The Galley's all right."

The two girls made their way to the restaurant. When they were seated at a small table against the wall and had given their orders Norma repeated the story of Mark's reconciliation with his father. She told about the business agreement and the trip abroad. Chris listened

Could Indict More County Officials

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (AP)—The Travis county grand jury recessed yesterday with a report to Judge W. F. Robertson that its indictments against four Texas sheriffs in fee cases had been returned only in selected cases and that if the court desired, it could return additional indictments that would "swamp the dockets with cases of similar value."

The report said the grand jury felt that additional cases would bring upon it criticism for the con-pounding of cases.

The report to Judge Robertson by this grand jury, first in his new court created to deal with state cases, said the body had investigated all violations of the fee system presented to it.

"At a time," the report said, "when the public is losing faith in the administration of justice we are grieved that we are duty bound to indict some of our chief enforcement officers for law violation."

seriously, now and then asked questions.

It was after they had gone over the whole affair and there was a pause that Norma said hesitantly: "Chris—there's something I didn't tell you after we came back from Blue Springs. I didn't tell you I saw Hollis Stone there."
