1,000 Feet Of Fire Hose To Be Purchased

Pampa is to have more fire hose, the city commission decided at its meeting yesterday, when it voted that bids be taken next Tuesday on 1,000 feet of double-jacket, rockers-joint, 2 1/2-inch fire hose, capable of standing a pressure of 400 pounds per square inch.

Replacement of fire hose is a constant problem with cities. City Manager Steve Matthews pointed out to the commission yesterday that the necessity of folding the hose in the trucks caused it to wear out as much as actual use.

The city government does not desire to have too large a stock of fire hose on hand, for this reason, it was said at yesterday's commission meeting, but it was agreed that fire fighting equipment must be in top shape at all times to insure passing inspection by the state fire marshal, and thereby keep the key rate low.

Bid of the Oil Well Supply company of Pampa on a carload of 2-inch galvanized water pipe, was accepted by the city commission at its meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The company's bid was $17.64 per 100 feet on 10,900 feet.

Part of the shipment will be used in laying a water line along Wilton street in Buckler addition. By purchasing in a carload lot, a saving of 4 cents a foot was effected, according to Oran J. Payne, water department superintendent, who met with the commission at the time bids were opened.

Other bidders were Panhandle Hardware & Supply company, Bovard Supply company, Jarecki Manufacturing company, all of Pampa, and Clowe & Cowan of Amarillo.

U. S. VOLUNTEERS FIGHT WITH RAF IN FRONT LINE

When the R.A.F. soars aloft to combat Nazi raiders, with them go the fliers of the Eagle Squadron—the R.A.F.'s all-American fighter unit, now in active combat service. Here they're pictured on duty "somewhere in England." Upper left, Pilot Chesley Peterson of Utah has his parachute adjusted by a flight-sergeant before going aloft.

Lower left, pilots race to their planes for action against the Luftwaffe. Right, jauntily Pilot Eugene Quimby Tobin of Los Angeles carries his maps and gloves in his boots.

Governor Heil Dodges Stones In Wisconsin

(By The Associated Press)

Scattered fights in which more than 20 persons were hurt led to state police being ordered to stop disorders today at the huge Ford Rouge plant at Dearborn, Mich., where a CIO union called a strike last night. The plant employs 86,000 persons.

Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner ordered the full strength of the police to be used, if necessary, to restore order. Reports were that 250 officers stood ready for service.

The fighting broke out when workers attempted to climb fences at the plant to get inside. Pickets fought them with bricks and clubs. Later some 200 workers came out of a plant gate and pelted pickets with metal missiles, which the pickets picked up and threw back. Pickets jammed automobiles together to block traffic near the plant, except for police cars.

One CIO official claimed the strike was "completely effective."

Mayor John L. Carey, just before Governor Van Wagoner acted, had telegraphed him that immediate action was imperative and that there was "flagrant disregard of all rights of citizens."

Riots forced the closing of the defense-important Allis-Chalmers plant yesterday, and even Governor Julius Heil of Wisconsin, addressing a meeting of strikers, had to dodge stones.

A mine guard was shot and killed and a union picket was wounded in violence at coal mines in Harlan county, Kentucky, as pickets took up posts in the coal stoppage.

The CIO United Automobile workers called the Ford strike shortly after midnight at Ford's Rouge plant at Dearborn, Mich., where 86,000 men are employed. The union claimed almost immediately that the 20,000 night shift workers had left the factory and were prepared to take up picketing positions.

R. J. Thomas, UAW president, declared the strike was "forced on the union" by the company, which he said had for months "engaged in a deliberate and continuous effort to prevent adjustment of the Ford workers' grievances through means of conference and conciliation." Yesterday, Thomas asserted, the company "deliberately discharged the chosen spokesman of the Rouge workers" and "falsely accused to the Rouge workers the attempt to carry on a sit-down strike."

Earlier Harry H. Bennett, Ford personnel director, declared the "union men have seized the plant illegally" and called on the governor of Michigan to have them evicted. After the union strike call, Bennett announced that "all those who want to work should report as usual" today.

The plant is the largest single factory unit in the world, has orders for army trucks.

Oral arguments are scheduled at Washington Saturday on the UAW-CIO petition for collective bargaining elections in the Rouge and Lincoln plants. Evidence taken by an NLRB trial examiner here last week already is before the board.

Bennett said three weeks ago that if the UAW-CIO won such an election, "we'll bargain till hell freezes over, but bargaining doesn't mean you have to say yes."

Governor Julius Heil of Wisconsin personally dodged stones in the Allis-Chalmers disorders near Milwaukee, and had to seek refuge inside the plant. His automobile, along with several others, was damaged by the rioters.

Heil at last got out of the plant and immediately telegraphed President Roosevelt that "the situation is absolutely out of control of all peace officers available." To prevent further bloodshed, he announced, he directed the company to cease operations.

For 10 weeks CIO auto workers have been on strike there, demanding a union shop and wage adjustments. The factory was reopened last Friday at the request of federal officials, to speed the output of $45,000,000 in vital defense orders.

Governor Heil had come to the plant to address the men from a sound truck after rioting had occurred the previous night. But even as he spoke strikers smashed through a company gate and the trouble was on again.

Congratulations— Mr. and Mrs. Merle R. Lewis are the parents of a son, weighing six pounds, 15 ounces, born Friday, he has been named Hugh Elliott.

Askev of Berger who has been fighting in the 125-pound class all season weighed-in in the 115-pound class, and this corner wants to put this proposition up to Coach Telford of Berger: If Askev doesn't weigh at least 123 pounds tomorrow night when he fights Richard Stevens, 113 pounds, this corner will walk these last five miles to Pampa from Berger that you made Askev walk yesterday to lose all that weight, and this corner will also starve as Askev did, providing you, Coach Telford, will walk those five miles and starve two days, if Askev weighs more than 115. What do you say, Coach, both of us could stand to walk off weight—a whole lot better than the boys.

Two Radio Stations To Advertise Pampa

Phillips Increases Price In Two States

Pampa will be advertised to radio listeners over the Panhandle and Pampa area tomorrow afternoon when Pampa will be host to the Panhandle on Parade program from 4:30 to 5 p. m. on a joint broadcast of Radio Stations KGNC and KPDN.

The program will be broadcast from the high school auditorium and the general public is invited to attend. F. M. Cuberson, president of the Pampa Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce, has announced.

All singers and music lovers are given a special invitation as a good part of the program will be group singing of the audience.

Similar programs have been held in previous weeks at Dalhart, Borger, Tulia, Hereford, and other Panhandle cities.

"We are especially anxious to have a banner crowd at the high school auditorium Sunday afternoon," President Cuberson said today. "At the other programs everyone seemed to have a big time and we want to have one of the largest audiences of any similar program."

Gayda Hints Japan Will Attack U. S.

ROME, April 2 (AP)—Virgino Gayda, the Fascist editorial spokesman, indicated today that Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini had reached agreements with Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka on Japan's action in event the United States engages in hostilities against the Axis powers "even without formal declaration of war."

At a special press conference with German and Italian reporters, Matsuoka said he had had "several talks with Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano on questions of the most pressing importance."

He described the conversation with Premier Mussolini yesterday as "a frank exchange of views of all problems interesting to the two countries and the world." This interview, he said, made "a deep impression" on him.

Stefani, official Italian news agency, said Matsuoka "spoke with emotion of the paternal kindness with which the Pope received him." He had a private 65-minute audience with Pius XII at the Vatican City today.

I Heard....

That Paul Sardinha of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, here studying oil production methods in the Panhandle field, yesterday purchased a mattress from a local mattress factory and it was made out of Gray county cotton. Mr. Sardinha said the cotton here was of much better texture than in his own country.

16 Cast Absentee Ballots In School Trustee Election

Sixteen persons cast absentee ballots up to last night, deadline for advance voting in the Pampa school trustee election to be held here Saturday.

Six candidates have filed for the office. Two will be elected, each for a three-year term. Candidates are C. E. Ward, H. W. Waters, D. W. Kelley, Harry W. Matthews, M. A. Graham, and Irvin Cole.

Only voting box will be in the high school building. Voting will be from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. George W. Briggs has been named judge of the election, replacing B. W. Rose.

Eligible to vote in the election will be persons with poll tax or exemption receipts residing within the district which includes all of the northwest quarter of the county, or Precinct two, and a small portion of Precinct three.

Rehearing Denied In Case Of Buford Reed

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—The life sentence assessed C. W. Ely, Jr., for the slaying of Earl Burket, Monahan city marshal, on May 17, 1939, was affirmed today by the court of criminal appeals.

The tribunal ruled finally that Tommie Harris, negro, must die in the electric chair for murder of Mrs. Edna Allen of Grandview last August.

The 99-year penalty against Willie Parks, convicted in Gray county of murder of Boyd Wilkinson, was affirmed.

A rehearing motion filed by Buford Reed, assessed a two-year sentence in Gray county on conviction of misapplication of county funds, was overruled.

Primary Trainers Land At Airport

Eight army PT 14's—better known as primary trainers—landed at the airport yesterday afternoon so that pilots could get their bearings.

"We're not used to such wind as we encountered in this section," Lieut. Hart, flight commander, told airport attendants.

The planes were enroute from the Stearman factory in Wichita, Kan., to the Pacific coast. They were flown by United States army cadets from coast bases.

The pilots said they encountered the strong winds over Oklahoma.

Dallas And Kansas City Win Traffic Safety Grand Awards

CHICAGO, April 2 (AP)—Kansas City, Mo., and Dallas, Tex., were ranked today by the National Safety Council as the cities which did the best job of promoting traffic safety in 1940.

They were adjudged co-winners of the grand award in the national traffic safety contest in which 1,281 cities participated. Connecticut won the grand award for states.

Dallas' traffic death rate in 1940 was 7.4 per 100,000 population, compared with a national average for cities of 14.5. There were 22 deaths against 32 in 1939 and an average of 25 for the three preceding years.

Kansas City's death rate was 6.0, based on 24 deaths, compared with 32 in 1939 and an average of 57 for the three previous years.

Governors and mayors of the winning states and cities will be awarded bronze plaques at Washington, D. C., April 21.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Joe Hyatt, Buck Britt, Raymond Holt, Ansel McDowell, Glenn Porter, Bill Horchem, Stina Cain, T. S. Puckett, Fred Ashley, Clint Wofford, Inez Garrison, Miss Reba Wofford and the hostess.

WAR BONNET

DIANN WELLS, of Pueblo, Colo., certainly got herself a sure "ough war bonnet when she fixed up the "hat" she wears above. It's a soldier's steel helmet, decorated with a bow of gilded barbed wire in front and a "feather" of rifle cartridges at the back. With it she wears a veil of wire mesh such as is used for artillery camouflage nets.

FASHION PUTS ON FRILLS

The frills of fashion appeared in a big way when this pale pink dinner dress was shown at a recent New York display of the newest spring fashions. It features a waist-to-hem black lace frill down one side.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART

More often than not, it's a girl's appearance that makes a man ask to be taken across the room and introduced to her. However—and this, too, more often than not—it's what she has to say that makes him ask to see her again.

And, as a woman grows older, being an articulate, interesting conversationalist becomes increasingly important.

Entirely too many women waste entirely too much conversational time on the curtains, the servant problem, how difficult it is to get long wear out of a pair of stockings, and what cute things the children say. These topics have their place, but their place isn't in mixed company. And even when the company isn't mixed there's not much point dwelling on them for hours at a time.

With all that is going on in the world today, it behooves every woman, regardless of her age, to read newspapers thoroughly instead of glancing at the headlines and skipping quickly through the rest of the news. There's no reason under the sun why anyone should be so poorly informed that conversation about current events is impossible.

LEARN VALUE OF PAUSES

Experts agree that reading aloud, with dictionary close by, is the simplest and one of the most effective ways of improving your diction, enlarging your vocabulary and acquiring a nice feeling for words. The person who will read aloud for ten minutes every day, taking time to look up the meaning of unfamiliar words, and who to pronounce them, is bound to be a more interesting conversationalist within a few months.

It's also important for women to learn the value of pauses and of speaking clearly but softly. No matter how well informed you are

Informal Luncheon Given As Courtesy To Miss Finley

Honoring Miss Flora Deen Finley, bride-elect of A. C. (Bud) Martin, Mrs. R. G. Allen entertained an informal luncheon at the Schneider hotel.

Centering the table was attractive arrangement of lilies. White cards marked the places.

Guests included Mrs. B. E. Finley, mother of the honoree, Mrs. M. L. Ferguson of Corpus Christi, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mrs. Tom Rose, Sr., Mrs. Tom Rose, Jr., and the honoree.

MODERN MENUS

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

For the Christian work, hot cross buns are a traditional specialty for Good Friday. Be sure to include them next Friday in your family menu.

Today, commercial bakers make them for most families. Quality bakers turn out a good product. However, if you like to do your own special-day baking, either one of the two reliable recipes given here will produce a batch of hot cross buns as good as you want.

HOT CROSS BUNS I

One cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 yeast cake, 1/2 cup lukewarm water, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 egg, 1/2 cup seedless raisins, 1 to 2 cups flour, 1 egg, beaten.

Scald the cup of milk and add the butter, 2 tablespoons of sugar and salt. Cream the yeast cake into the lukewarm water with 1 tablespoon sugar and mix well. When milk is lukewarm, add dissolved yeast and 1 1/2 cups flour. Cover and let rise until light and full of bubbles. Add the cinnamon and 1 egg, mix thoroughly and add the raisins and 1 to 2 cups flour, or enough to make a dough not too soft to knead. Let rise until double in bulk, turn on floured cloth, shape as large biscuits, place in pan 1 inch apart, let rise, brush over with beaten egg, and bake 20 minutes at 375 degrees F.

For Good Friday breakfast make a dough not too soft to knead. Let rise until double in bulk, turn on floured cloth, shape as large biscuits, place in pan 1 inch apart, let rise, brush over with beaten egg, and bake 20 minutes at 375 degrees F.

CONFECTIONERS' FROSTING

To 1 tablespoon hot water add sixteens confectioners' sugar until thick. Add flavor to taste.

HOT CROSS BUNS II

One cup scalded milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 yeast cake softened in 1/4 cup warm water, 4 1/2 cups flour (about), 3 egg yolks.

Add scalded milk to salt, sugar, and shortening. When lukewarm, add yeast and 1 1/2 cups flour. Beat well and let rise until very light. Add the egg yolks and the remaining flour. Knead lightly and let rise until double in bulk. Roll out dough to 1-inch thickness and cut into rounds. Set these close together on a greased pan and let rise. Glaze the surface of each bun with a little egg white diluted in water. With a sharp knife cut a cross on top of each bun. Bake about 20 minutes in a hot oven (400 degrees F.). Just before removing from the oven, brush with sugar and water. Fill the cross with a plain frosting. A cup of raisins may be added to the dough, if desired.

About five quarts of milk are required to make one pound of American cheese.

LOOK SLIMMER

A beautifully slenderizing version of the all-important jacket ensemble, with elongating front panel and new plunging neckline. As shown in small sketch, the dress is a complete fashion in itself, for daytime and afternoon. Silk print, flat crepe, and chiffon are smart choices.

Pattern No. 8886 is designed in even sizes 36 to 52. Size 36, 8 yards 39-inch material with nap; 1 1/2 yards trimming. Sew chart included.

For this attractive pattern send 15c in coin, your name, address, pattern number, and size to The Pampa News Today's Pattern Service, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago.

Send for the Spring Fashion book, too. Brimming over with designs that bring you the best spring styles. Pattern 15c; Pattern Book, 15c; One Pattern and Pattern Book, ordered together, 25c.

VERSATILE FABRICS

The spring shopper will find on fabric counters many dress materials that make attractive luncheon and breakfast sets. Such a fabric is a new lustrous linen-weave of spun rayon, available in bright fruit shades and pastels as well as dark tones. It is washable, sun-fast, and wrinkle-resistant. Using one color for the cloth or runners and a harmonizing color for the napkins makes an interesting treatment. Fringing makes a suitable finish.

Member Honored At Calvary WMS Social This Week

Members of all three circles of Woman's Missionary Society of Calvary Baptist church met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. T. Parker for a fifth Monday special. Games were played and a blue and white shower was given for Mrs. H. B. Browning.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Henry Lane, Buster Black, J. L. Bowers, Jr., Jack Patton, Vernon Ritter, U. S. Sapp, E. M. Dunsworth, M. J. Warner, C. A. Pixler, G. C. Teague, Neale Byrd, F. F. Pritchard, Claude Crane, J. D. Hunt, D. B. Brown, W. J. O'Neal, R. T. Parker, and H. B. Browning.

Girls were sent by Mmes. J. H. Tucker, Bill Clatterbaugh, and Travis White.

All three circles will meet at the church next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for a Royal Service program and business meeting.

Third Birthday Of Phyllis Jean Little Celebrated At Party

Phyllis Jean Little was honored on her third birthday at a party given Monday evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Little, 633 North Banks street.

The room was decorated with Easter bunnies and eggs and the gifts placed in a box arranged with bunnies and chickens. A large rabbit overlooked the gifts. The birthday cake was a small white lamb on a bed of green coconut with three blue candles.

Games were played and pictures were taken of the guests. Many gifts were received by the honoree.

Refreshments were served to Lynn Stueberg, Jerry Don Stueberg, Daris Hunter, Barbara Sue Hills, Betty Lou King, Carolyn Jones, Helen Keeton, Joe Dean Little, Morris Enloe, Jr., Jimmie Enloe, Mrs. A. L. Hills, Mrs. Leon Stueberg, Mrs. Bert Jones, and Mrs. Morris Enloe.

Girls were sent by Sandra Kay Noblitt, Dena Smith, Mrs. Emory Noblitt, and Mrs. Ethel Olsen.

450 Students Will Play In Band Contests

Musicians of the Pampa schools, 450 in all, will represent this city tomorrow and Saturday in the Texas Music Educators Association Region 1 contests in Amarillo.

Leading off the Class E bands, the Pampa Junior High school band will play at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, followed by the band of Plainview Junior High, and the Sam Houston Junior High band of Amarillo.

The Pampa band for four years has been recommended for national competition.

Bands of Horace Mann, B. M. Baker, Sam Houston, and Woodrow Wilson, rated in Class EE, will play later that morning.

In Class A, the Pampa High school band will play at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Concerts Start Friday

Other Pampa entries on Saturday will be boys, girls, and mixed choruses, Class E; mixed and girls choruses, Class A.

In all, there will be 57 school bands, 18 orchestras, and 18 choruses among the musicians from all over the Panhandle in the three-day competition.

The concert contest will begin tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock and will run continuously until 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night. An intermission will be taken from 6:30 until 7:30 o'clock.

Bands will begin playing again at 7:30 o'clock, the last band of the evening taking the stage at 10:30 o'clock. Friday and Saturday the contest will run from 8 o'clock until 6:30 o'clock.

All contests will be in the various rooms of the Amarillo Municipal auditorium and in the Girls social center. Concert competition will be in the auditorium proper.

All bands will be allowed a 30-minute "warm-up" period immediately preceding their appearance on the concert stage. Bands will warm-up in Room 3, upstairs in the YMCA headquarters, north wing of the Auditorium building, or Room 4, upstairs in the Federated club rooms, south wing of the building, according to the printed schedule.

All bands except Class EE will participate in the sight-reading contests which will be held in the auditorium of the Social Center for Girls building. They will go direct from the concert stage to the sight-reading contest.

Solo contests will be held all three days in order that soloists may appear on the day that their band is here, rather than having to make

Senate Refuses To Trim Farm Funds

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—The senate leadership, ready for a vote on the record-breaking $1,340,000,000 agriculture appropriation bill, turned a deaf ear today to a bipartisan demand that farm "participations" be trimmed to the house-approved level of $212,000,000.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said he would have to have the bill carry the proposed increased fund of $450,000,000 from which producers of five major crops would be paid benefits designed to bring their receipts nearer 1909-14 price levels.

Republican Leader McNary of Oregon also was expected to back the increase.

Nevertheless, Senators Byrd (D. Va.) and Taft (R.-Ohio) said they would seek retention of the lower, house-approved figure on the grounds that President Roosevelt had advocated reduction of non-defense expenditures.

Many British boys between 14 and 19 have been given jobs stuffing sandbags and filling in bomb craters.

SINGERS WILL GIVE CONCERT

The Blue Danube singers of Chicago, Ill., pictured above, will appear in Pampa tomorrow morning, singing at the high school assembly program at 11 a. m., it was announced today. The public is invited to hear the singers. Admission will be 10 cents.

The Blue Danube singers will present a program in two parts. In the first part they will sing well-known duets and trios from late Broadway and Hollywood musical shows and operas. For the music lover there will be selections to suit the most exacting taste. For those who love ballads and folk songs, these will be included in modern arrangements.

Part two of the program is a musical dramatic presentation in costume entitled, "The Blue Danube," the story of Johann Strauss' great waltz. Given on leading concert courses in eastern and mid-western states, it is acclaimed by audiences as truly picturing the feeling between father and son, Johann Strauss, Sr., and Johann Strauss, Jr., and Johann, Jr.'s, love for the Countess Olga. Coupled with this is an imaginary story of the writing of the great waltz, "The Blue Danube." Woven into the dramatic presentation are some of the most noted and beloved compositions of both father and son.

Winter Wheat Losses Will Be Fewer This Year

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—The Federal Crop Insurance corporation reported today that preliminary inspections indicated that losses on winter wheat insured by it would be fewer this year than last when indemnities exceeded premium collections.

Leroy K. Smith, manager of the corporation, said field representatives had already started making adjustments on insured acreages which have been damaged.

"On the basis of personal inspection and reports from fieldmen," Smith said, "the chief causes of early losses are wind, winterkill, freezing, and rabbits. This is true of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, and Arkansas."

Under the 1941 wheat insurance program, farmers paid the equivalent of 14,358,000 bushels of wheat for a guaranteed production of 110,591,000 bushels on 10,946,000 acres. The insurance protects farmers from losses from unavoidable causes, including weather factors and insects.

The corporation gave this summary of loss prospects in this leading winter wheat states:

Texas—February dust storms revere. Wind erosion was reported particularly heavy in Panhandle territory in counties along New Mexico border. x x x In Dallas county reports indicate virtually 100 per cent of wheat was destroyed. x x x

Oklahoma—Only one or two minor wheat producing counties have losses amounting to as much as one per cent of the total number of contracts in their areas. Winterkill has caused 75 per cent of total.

Losses reported to date. x x x As a whole, wheat in the state is in excellent condition. x x x Unless wheat crop hazards of major proportions develop in coming months, it is probable that losses incurred last year will be offset by net gains this year.

Arkansas—"No reports of loss have been received."

Refugees In France Grow Dissatisfied

MARSEILLE, France, April 2 (AP)—Growing bitterness and unrest among the 30,000-odd foreigners in refugee camps of unoccupied France were reported today adding to the troubles that beset this beaten nation.

Substitution of a dole system was suggested by one official as a way to cut administration costs that add to the camps' 1,000,000-franc daily budget.

The increasing ill will of foreign statesmen, authors, journalists and artists interned in the cheerless French tented camps, cost them dearly, particularly in the future.

Unoccupied France has perhaps 90,000 foreigners who were admitted under the third republic, one-third of them in eight refugee camps and the rest in labor camps and foreign soldier camps.

There are Jews, anti-Nazi Germans and Spanish Republicans who have changed with the course of Europe from men without a country to men without a continent.

The 19 relief organizations—mostly American—working in France have banded together to do what they can to make interment camp life more livable.

Their model is the Mexican government's Spanish war veteran camp at La Reynarde, where the heaviest penalty for breach of discipline is expulsion.

At La Reynarde is a large Renaissance chateau surrounded by trees and broad lawns that make the sun-baked, dusty surroundings of French camps at Rives Altes, Argelles and Barcenes look like deserts.

On a budget of six francs 96 centimes a person daily, the Mexicans serve meals of soup, macaroni, meat, bread, wine, salad and dessert.

In contrast, Argelles camp's menu for a day is wine, bread, two ladies of turnips or carrots and a thumb-size piece of meat on a budget of 1 1/2 francs a day.

The Mexicans said they made their saving on administrative costs, using a trusty system like that in effect in some American prisons and penal farms. Unlike the French camps where police stand guard, La Reynarde is patrolled by Spanish war veterans. Its 900 male inmates do all their own work, and still have found time to build football, tennis, basketball and swimming facilities.

Governor Signs Sweet Gas Bill

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Use of sweet gas in the manufacture of carbon black in certain instances had been legalized today.

A bill permitting such usage was filed yesterday in the secretary of state's office with Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel's signature.

Sponsors said the measure would apply to only one plant in Pampa, which ships a portion of its output to England. Carbon black, they explained, was essential in the manufacture of certain types of rubber.

Objections had been raised that the bill would alter a long-established policy of allowing only the use of sour gas for carbon manufacture.

Plans to give the moneys to the highway department for construction of military highways and to reenact the current law and extend the bond assumption date two years were rejected. A senate committee approved two bills, one similar to that passed by the house and another allocating the surplus to the highway department.

Discussed but not acted on in the house was a bill taxing rice for promotion purposes.

The governor signed in to law a bill increasing the 45-mile-an-hour speed limit to 60 in daytime and 50 at night. Limits in cities were set at 30 miles an hour, buses were permitted to run 55 miles an hour day or night and trucks 45 during the day and 40 at night.

Three Fliers Die In Plane Crash

SAN ANTONIO, April 2 (AP)—Kelly Field officials began an investigation today of plane crashes that cost the lives of three fliers.

Captain David N. Crickette of Byron, Ill., and Technical Sergeant Beril L. Williams of San Antonio died when their plane crashed near New Braunfels yesterday while they were directing a ground party to a burned plane in which was found the body of Flying Lieutenant Lawrence Hastings, Jr., of Lexington, Ill.

Two other plane crashes in the state did not result in loss of life.

At Sandoval last night, an army plane crashed with Sergeant B. Grady Alvin being injured.

A junker all line that "froze" the motor of their basic training plane forced Lieut. R. S. Wilson and Pvt. William Hamling of Fort Sill, Okla., into the marshes of the Neches river near Rockland late yesterday.

Neither of the fliers, who were en route to Galveston from Little Rock, Ark., was injured, but their plane was demolished.

Reds Plotted To Create Negro Republic In South, Says Gillog

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2 (AP)—Benjamin Gillog's stories of Communist scheming in the United States, with Moscow firmly directing every move, was elaborated today in the record at the Harry Bridges deportation hearing.

Without actually naming the CIO waterfront leader in his testimony, Gillog, who once was a sizeable figure in the Communist party of the United States, was led by government counsel through a description of how the Communists work in this country—with violent overthrow of the government as the ultimate objective.

If the government can prove that this subversive objective is what the party is working for, and that Bridges has been a Communist or affiliated with the party, he can be ordered deported to his native Australia. In the event he loses the decision at this hearing, however, he would have recourse to appeal.

Bridges came to the United States 21 years ago and, after some years, rose to national prestige as a west coast longshore leader.

Gillog, using numerous documentary exhibits to support his testimony, stated that the Communist party worked for a left-wing bloc in American labor, had plotted to create a negro republic in the south, had supported the rebel Sandino against United States marines in the Nicaraguan disorders, and had propagated against the Pan-American congress.

The inserted activities were responsible for formation of the CIO.

No opportunity was overlooked, he added, in Communist efforts to disorganize and destroy labor unity, even while the Communists were making it appear they were trying to help the laboring man.

Gillog was at one time the Communist party candidate for vice president.

Postal Receipts Show Slight Losses

Pampa postal receipts for the month of March, and also for the quarter ending March 31 this year, showed slight decreases from the same periods in 1940, Postmaster C. H. Walker revealed today.

The decreases were not alarming because last year was one of the peak years in the history of the office.

Receipts for last month totaled $6,799.10, compared with $6,882.80 the previous March, or a decrease of $83.70.

Receipts for the past quarter were $20,475.42, compared with $20,533.02 in 1940, or a decrease of $57.60.

Britain And U. S. Dissatisfied With Japanese Actions

LONDON, April 2 (AP)—Britain and the United States are working closely and regard Japanese actions in China with increasing dissatisfaction, Richard Austin Butler, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons today.

Questioned about Tokyo's attitude toward the "open door" policy, Butler responded that he had taken a "recent opportunity" to acquaint the Japanese ambassador with this British view.

The British government, he said, is unable to reconcile Japanese insistence that the "open door" policy remains intact with "developments" in China.

German School Closed In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, April 2 (AP)—The most important German school in Mexico, Colegio Aleman, with 1,600 students, suspended classes today.

School officials referred inquiries to the foreign ministry, where no explanation was immediately available. Anti-Nazi has assailed the school as a source of pro-Nazi propaganda.

Oil Producers All Smiles Due To Price Hike

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—From the Texas coast nearly to the Great Lakes, oil producers were all smiles today because of a general increase in the price of crude.

It was the first boost in several years for most of the areas involved. The price rise came last Saturday by the Humble company, biggest purchaser in Texas, ranged from two to eleven cents a barrel.

Besides Texas, affected states included Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

In Texas, which has far more oil than any other state, interested persons weighed the probable effect of the price hike on proposed legislation to increase the state oil tax. The house had passed a bill containing a provision which would boost the oil levy from 2 3/4 to 4 1/2 per cent of value, and the senate state affairs committee hoped to conclude long hearings on it tonight. The committee may send it to a sub-group for alterations.

Rep. G. C. Morris of Greenville, the bill's author, stated that the price rise in Texas would average six cents a barrel and that the oil men therefore should not object to paying a substantially higher impost. On the other hand, it could be argued that the state's "take" under the existing tax rate would go up in proportion to the price boost and that less additional revenue would be required.

A Skelly Oil company official asserted that "fundamental" improvement in the refined oil market and a higher rate of demand contributed to the price increase.

Due to the nearness of the heavy gasoline-consuming period, many operators had great production allowances as well as higher prices. The United States Bureau of Mines estimated national demand for oil in April as 3,709,300 barrels per day, compared with 3,665,500 in March.

Conn Favored Over Barlund Friday Night

By TOM SILER

CHICAGO, April 2 (AP)—Gunnar Barlund, durable Finnish heavyweight, will be eligible for membership in the "bum-of-the-month club" if he can upset Pittsburgh's Billy Conn Friday night in Chicago stadium.

Such a triumph would qualify him to follow Gus Dorazio, Abe Simon, Tony Musto, et al, to the Joe Louis chopping block.

The 195-pound Finn, an in-and-out for several years, is given almost no chance to get by the fancy-punching Conn despite a 15-pound weight advantage. The betting fraternity on Randolph street has set the miniature heavyweight up as a 6 to 1 choice over Barlund.

"Where do they get those kind of odds?" asked Paul Damski, Barlund's loquacious manager. "I'd like some of that myself."

"This boy of mine is going to fool a lot of people. He was never in better shape than right now and he's ready to give Conn a real fight. Conn has never fought a heavyweight as experienced and smart as Barlund. And don't forget Conn will be giving away between 15 and 20 pounds."

This fight is slated as Conn's last before his June bout with the heavy-weight champion, a defeat by the Finn would doubtless eliminate the Pittsburgh fighter from the title picture for several months.

Hostak Knocks Out Brown In Third

SEATTLE, April 2 (AP)—The road to the NBA-middleweight boxing championship, already trodden twice by Al Hostak, of Seattle, resounded to the tramp of his feet for a third time today.

Hostak, 161, scored a three-round technical knockout over Ben Brown, 163½, Atlanta, Ga., last night before an indoor crowd which promoter Nate Druzman estimated at 7,500.

The first thing Hostak said after his hand was raised in victory was "Just let me get another crack at Zale."

Hostak lost his twice-won title to Tony Zale of Gary, Ind., here via a 13-round knockout last summer. They may be rematched either here or in Chicago.

It was the first time Brown ever lost by a knockout or technical knockout, the end came in 1:07 of the third, after two fairly even rounds.

Rookie Struck In Back, Hit In Nose

MACON, Ga., April 2 (AP)—James Carlson, rookie outfielder with Macon's South Atlantic league club, was struck in the back and almost broke his nose.

The Chicago recruit tried to dodge an inside fast pitch and caught the ball in the back in a practice game yesterday. As he whirled, his bat flew up and hit him in the nose.

Jimmy went down, grabbing at his back with his left hand and his nose with his right. An examination showed only torn cartilage.

Many persons have been electrocuted by kites when piano wire used to fly large ones has touched power lines.

Six Oiler Batterymen Begin Practice Yesterday

Three pitchers and three catchers were issued Oiler uniforms yesterday afternoon, first practice for batterymen trying out for the 1941 Pampa entry in the West Texas-New Mexico league. The pitchers and catchers will work out through Friday and on Saturday will be joined by the rest of the squad.

On the field yesterday were Pitchers Monty Montgomery, holdover from last year, and A. C. Miller and Doc Howard, both of Pampa. They had trials with the Oilers last season. Catchers on hand were Harry Monroe, holdover from last year, M. A. Smith, from East Texas, and Jack Lewis.

Order of business yesterday afternoon was "twice around the field," followed by calisthenics, limbering exercises, throwing the ball around, pepper game and then plenty of hitting. The pitchers taking their turns on the mound.

Montgomery, who left Pampa last fall weighing about 150 pounds, arrived yesterday noon weighing 175 pounds after playing professional basketball all season with the Davenport Rockets. He came from Chicago where his team played in the national professional tournament.

Miller, who has been attending West Texas State college at Canyon, withdrew at the end of the first semester. Howard has been working here. Monroe has also been working in Pampa during the winter. Smith and Lewis are newcomers.

Owners announced last night that they have signed the Matney brothers from Vernon and they will report on Saturday. One of the brothers is a third baseman, under contract to Shreveport in the Texas league but coming here on option, while the other is a pitcher. He tried out with Shreveport but signed out contract.

Manager Dutch Prather is scheduled to leave San Diego, Cal., tomorrow, taking with him a station wagon load of boys including John McPartland, big lefthanded pitcher from last year's team.

Six or eight prospects from Oklahoma will arrive here Saturday, having been signed by Prather early last month. A bunch of other rookies will also be on hand.

No word was received here yesterday from Frank Grabek who was examined Monday for army service at Portland, Conn. "Guess he'll be pitching for Uncle Sam," owners remarked.

Cowtown Getting Noisy Over Golf's National Open

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

FORT WORTH, April 2 (AP)—Golf's greatest show—the National Open—has a three-day run out here on the frontier of the west in just eight more weeks.

The homefolk, rather noted for shindigs of all descriptions, are putting all their tricks into this party in honor of the first appearance below the Mason-Dixon line of the United States Golf Association's blue ribbon event.

Business leaders, all golf enthusiasts and members of the Fort Worth Golf Association, sponsor of the event, have taken their places on a flock of committees with noisy now to make this National Open the greatest in history.

Respected Marvin Leonard, the quiet president of Colonial Golf club, scene of the event, teams with Dr. Aldon Coffey, president of the golf association, as the board of strategy.

"Never felt more confident about anything in my life than I do about the success of this tournament," said Leonard. "We want the players and spectators to say when they leave Fort Worth they have spent one of the finest weeks of their lives."

Dr. Coffey, father of state amateur champion Billy Bob Coffey, said Dean Wood, veteran course engineer who has worked a year on Colonial's layout, "has conceived everything that is antagonistic to a golf course," and that the world's best golfers would have difficulty cracking a 72-hole par of 280.

Some 35,000 spectators are expected for the three days, with thousands more due for the earlier practice rounds, officials said.

Facilities for handling 25,000 automobiles will be provided. Machines will be parked at nearby Texas Christian university football stadium and shuttle buses provided to take spectators to and from the parking lot.

Six thousand season tickets will be sold before the event opens—and 2,000 of them were gone after a two-day sale. Daily tickets will be available at the course gates.

More than 1,000 persons will be employed during the tourney.

The course will be closed to all but open contestants from May 31 to June 8.

Tournament Director Reuben Albaugh, the coordinator of the various committees, predicted one of the largest galleries in all history for the week.

Two new holes, the famed fourth and fifth, will be in readiness in a preview staged for golf writers and professionals recently, only five pairs were recorded by 47 players on the treacherous, river-lined 469-yard par fourth hole. It is popularly known as "death valley."

Twenty-two boys who were not seen in action last night will fight tonight in the Panhandle High School Boxing league tournament from which will emerge 26 champions, half representing the north and half the south districts.

There will be 13 choice fights tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium.

An even dozen fights were staged last night before an exceptionally large crowd, but because of illness among the boys and inability of several boys to make the weight, the number had to be reduced. Shamrock's team failed to appear. The quality of the fights, however, was not affected.

LeFors will have six boys in action tonight followed by Pampa with five, Wellington with three, Stinnett with two and Canadian and Sanford with one each.

LeFors jumped into the lead last night in the south half while Berger took the lead in the north, each with three victories. Pampa had two winners and Stinnett, Sanford, Canadian and Miami one each.

The little fellows, from 65 to 100 pounds, slugged away at each other in opening bouts with Stinnett, Pampa, Sanford, Berger and LeFors as the winners.

Then at 105 Cheek of LeFors was given a hairline decision over McRory of Canadian to start the heavier weights.

Askev of Berger, who had been fighting all season at 125 pounds, appeared in the ring in the 115 pound class and decided a game over courageous Herring from Stinnett. Askev had been sweated down between nine and 10 pounds and since he doesn't have to weigh in again he will probably be back to his old weight when he meets Pampa's Richard Stephens tomorrow night. Coach Telford of Berger refused to fight him before tomorrow night.

Spurlin of Canadian decided Montague of Wellington in a classy bout which saw few fans landed. Tomorrow night the long-awaited Spurlin-Twigg battle will be staged.

Bruce of Miami won a decision from Bussells of Canadian in a cautious round by a wide margin but who faded out of the picture in the second round.

Coach Telford of Berger also refused to fight Fralley tonight. He and Sparks of Pampa will mix it up tomorrow night. Fralley sweated and starved down from the 115-pound weight to the 105-pound weight. He also will probably be back to his old weight tomorrow night.

Pairings for tonight's bouts: 65 pounds—Stevens, Pampa, vs. Bieberdorf, Stinnett, final. 65 pounds—Dunn, LeFors, vs. Howard, Miami, final. 85 pounds—Mays, Berger, vs. Campbell, Pampa, final. 85 pounds—Smith, Wellington, vs. White, Canadian, semi-final. 95 pounds—Graham, Miami, vs. McLaughlin, LeFors, final. 95 pounds—Van, Berger, vs. Herky Lane, Pampa, final. 105 pounds—Cheek, LeFors, vs. Christie, Wellington, final. 115 pounds—Vanlandingham, LeFors, vs. Kivlenen, Miami, final. 125 pounds—Stephens, Stinnett, vs. Palmer, Sanford, semi-final. 135 pounds—Hughes, LeFors, vs. Graham, Miami, semi-final. 155 pounds—Nelson, Berger, vs. Pendleton, Pampa, final. 155 pounds—Barrier, LeFors, vs. Ingram, Wellington, final. 165 pounds—Cornett, Pampa, vs. Carter, Berger, final. Results last night: 65 pounds—Bieberdorf, Stinnett, decision, LeFors, Canadian. 65 pounds—Stevens, Pampa, won from Snyder, Sanford. 75 pounds—Williams, Sanford, decision, Bieberdorf, Stinnett. 75 pounds—Hale, Berger, won from Cagle, Pampa. 85 pounds—McLaughlin, LeFors, decision, McRory, Canadian. 105 pounds—Cheek, LeFors, decision, Oliver, Canadian. 115 pounds—Askev, Berger, won from Herring, Stinnett. 115 pounds—Stephens, Pampa, decision, Williams, Sanford. 125 pounds—Jackson, LeFors, won on technical knockout from Van Pelt, Wellington, second first round. 135 pounds—Priest, Berger, won from Lane, Pampa, by technical knockout in second round. 145 pounds—Spurlin, Canadian, decision, Montague, Wellington. 165 pounds—Bruce, Miami, won from Bussells, Canadian.

Two Games Played Monday In Softball Tournament

The Junior high school intramural softball tournament started off with a bang Monday when Room 79 out slugged Room 72 to win 12-5. Frank Friant pitched for the winners and Oscar Brothers for the losers.

Billy Glise, second baseman, led the attack for Room 79 by slugging out two doubles and one single for a perfect day at bat. Billy Evans bagged the only homerun of the game.

The losers were led by Kyle Bunch who got two for two and Dale Conner who got a triple in the first inning.

Robert Cotten and Donald Rook, members of the student's coaches club, were the umpires for the four-inning contest.

Room 79 made 11 hits, 12 runs, and 1 error. Room 72 made 8 hits, 5 runs, and four committed 4 errors.

Making 10 runs in the last of the third inning, Room 74 nosed out Room 71 11-10 in an intramural contest Tuesday.

Don Stevens, the losing pitcher, allowed only five hits but was unable to get them over the base and gave up 8 walks. Frank Howe was the winning pitcher. The five hits were made by Doyle Lane, Frank Howe, Melvin Spencer, Jerry Reeder and Keith Robinson.

The losers made 15 hits. Raymond Spencer and Don Stevens each got three for three. Claude Taylor, Wayne Reeves, and R. T. Richardson got two hits each. Other hits were made by Jack Taylor, Bobby Siler, and Sammy Taylor.

Room 74 made 5 hits, 11 runs, and 5 errors, while Room 71 made 15 hits, 10 runs, and 3 errors. The student umpires were Howard Bass, Mike Gavin, and Jack Dunham.

Nelson, Missing Putts, Says He's No Bargain To Win Masters Meet

By ROMNEY WHEELER

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 2 (AP)—You can get 7 to 1 odds on Byron Nelson as a probable winner of the 1941 Augusta Masters tournament. But take it from Byron Nelson, he's no bargain at the price. The reason? He's missing two-foot putts.

PGA champion and winner of the recent Greensboro open, the big Toledo pro won the Masters crown in 1937 and was third last year, five strokes behind winner Jimmy Demaret. Yesterday, in practice over the incredibly smooth Augusta national course, he was the hottest thing in sight from tee to green. And there he folded.

"I took 37 putts," Nelson confessed gloomily after the disastrous round. "And you don't win tournaments that way. I was missing two to six-foot putts. And regularly, I never played better in my life up to the greens. And I never putted worse. It was horrible."

Still, no one is going to bank top money in this $5,000 event until Nelson's final score is posted Sunday night. Despite his 37 strokes over the green, he turned in par 72 for the round—proof that he wasn't hitting the ball with a potato sack elsewhere on the course.

Nelson, voted by fellow pros last week as most likely to win the tournament this year, estimates you can't take more than 30 puts on 18 holes and expect to pay off the butcher, baker and your landlord. Thirty putts and average luck the rest of the way, he figures, would add up to a 69—entirely satisfactory if you could keep it up four days in a row. You could even indulge in a bobble now and then, because in Nelson's book 280 will win this year's Masters championship, and likely the winner won't have less than 282 or 283.

Demaret won with 280 a year ago—and four strokes to spare. Ralph Guldahl did it in 1939 with 279, a record, while Nelson's win in 1937, came on 283.

All former champions except Henry Picard, 1938 victor, were on deck today for final practice before Thursday's opening round. Horton Smith, only two-time winner, had a moderate 75 yesterday. Gene Sarazen and Guldahl spent most of their time on the practice green. Best score was posted by U. S. Open Champion Lawson Little, who rounded the course in 68.

Five Men Tried On Race Fixing Charges

LOS ANGELES, April 2 (AP)—Two hundred dollars a race was the rate of pay for four jockeys to "pull" their horses at the 1939 Hollywood Park season, Irving Sangbusch told a superior court jury trying five men on horse race fixing charges.

Sangbusch, who said he was known to horse race men for 20 years as James J. Murphy, testified he himself received another $200 as go-between. Fixing charges against him were dropped when he became a state witness.

He said Bernard Einstoss, alias Barney Mooney, arranged with him to bribe riders and gave him the money to pay them on 25 days of the 1939 Hollywood Park season.

On five other days, Sangbusch said, he received the money from Einstoss' brother William and from I. W. Kivel, and on one occasion, "when the jockeys were clamoring for $2,500 or $3,000 that was owed them," Benjamin Chaplin produced the sum.

The suspension of Fritz Zivic, world's welterweight champion, and his manager, Luke Carney, by the Pennsylvania state athletic commission was disclosed today.

Chairman Leon Rains of the commission announced the two Pittsburghers had been suspended because they refused to honor a contract for $2,500 to fight Phil Furr of Washington at Convention Hall here April 21 in a non-title bout under the promotion of Phil Glasman.

Ward School Declaimers Here Named

Winners of the boys and girls declamation and essay writing events in the Pampa elementary interschool contests, held Monday in the Sam Houston school auditorium, will compete Saturday in the District 2 Interscholastic League Meet here.

In junior boys declamation, Jimmy Comstock of Horace Mann will be entered; junior girls declamation, Carol Curry, Sam Houston; essay writing, Billy Doug Wilson, Horace Mann.

Second place in these events at the elementary school try-outs were won by Tom Darby of Woodrow Wilson, in junior boys declamation; Neva June Bowden, Horace Mann, in junior girls declamation; Guineet Killingsworth, Woodrow Wilson, essay writing.

Results of the other elementary school contests, winners not competing in district meet:

First grade story telling, Eddy Johnson, Woodrow Wilson, first; Ruth Ann Barrett, Sam Houston, second.

Second grade story telling, Betty Lou Howard, Sam Houston, first; Anna Fern Timmons, Woodrow Wilson, second.

Third grade story telling, Bobby Epps, Sam Houston, first; Velda Bailey, Woodrow Wilson, second.

Spelling contests are to be held during the week of April 14. The elementary schools competition will conclude with a softball tourney later in the spring.

ITALIANS

by Mussolini in the Yugoslav-German crisis, "have attained no result and no negotiations are in progress."

(By The Associated Press)

British troops were reported today to have trapped 100,000 Italian soldiers in East Africa in twin drives in Emperor Haile Selassie's African rooftop kingdom of Ethiopia and the Italian colony of Eritrea.

Dispatches from Cairo said the British seizure of Asmara, capital of Eritrea, had thrust the survivors of 40,000 Italian troops from the bloody battle of Cheren into a pocket with their backs to the Red sea—where the British navy bars retreat.

In Ethiopia, conquered by the Italians in 1935-36, British columns striking inland from captured Dire-dawa were reported pressing towards Addis Ababa, the capital. About 60,000 Italians, led by the duke of Aosta, were said to be encircled there.

Premier Mussolini's high command asserted that fascist troops were putting up "stiff resistance against numerically superior British forces" in the Awash river valley between Dire-dawa and Addis Ababa.

The British command of Red sea waters was highlighted by a London admiral's communique noting that a naval aircraft had sunk a 1,500-ton Italian destroyer after it left Massaua harbor and that a 4,188-ton German merchant ship had been "intercepted" by a British warship when it attempted to escape from the port.

Massaua lies only 75 miles by rail from fallen Asmara.

In North Africa, Axis communiques reported that German and Italian troops were pressing offensive operations against Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell's Libyan desert campaigners and had advanced 30 miles eastward.

Hitler's high command said the British hastily retreated to Agadabia after a clash with Nazi mechanized units.

Presumably, a considerable force of Gen. Wavell's Libyan armies has now been shifted to Greece, leaving only defensive garrisons to block the combined Nazi-Fascist counter-offensive in North Africa.

Diplomatic maneuvering kept abreast of warlike preparations in the Balkans today, with Yugoslavia apparently intent on plumbing all aspects of the tangled international situation before clarifying her attitude toward the Axis powers.

Germany watched the Yugoslav government's actions with signs of increasing annoyance and also kept a close eye on developments in the western hemisphere as Latin American nations, following the lead of the United States, took additional Axis merchant ships into "protective custody."

The well-informed Nazi commentator, Dietrich von Leites, declared frankly that German-Yugoslav relations steadily were growing more serious.

No Appeals Made On Classifying Of Draft Board

One of the best records in the state has been made by Gray county in the selective service system, according to the report of the local board of state headquarters, for the period October 16, 1940-April 1, 1941.

There has not been a single appeal on classification made to the board of appeals from Gray county. Only one of the 86 men sent from Gray county has been rejected at the induction station, attesting the care with which trainees are chosen here.

Total number of registrants in Gray is 3,375, not including 21 transfers. Of the 3,375 registrants, 3,301 are white and 74 negro.

Selectees classified total 1,418, of which 1,387 were white, 31 negro. Listed in Class I-A, excluding previously chosen trainees, are 94 whites, one negro; in class 3, 1,087 white, 19 negro; Class 4-F, 93 white, four negro.

Class I-A means available for general military service; Class 3, registrants with dependents; while Class 4-F is the lowest rating.

Two of the Gray county registrants have gone to the medical advisory board. Both had previously been examined out of town.

Gray county's April quota of eight trainees will report at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 391 Court House, and leave Pampa Friday for the induction station at Fort Bliss, El Paso.

Sent out yesterday from the local office were five more questionnaires: 1666—Melvin Thomas Myers, LeFors.

1667—Oliver Mack Winget, Pampa.

1668—Temple Price Hoffer, Wichita Falls.

1669—Rex William Kiff, Pampa.

1670—Byron Ross Byars, Pampa.

White Favors Appropriation For WPA Intake

Although Gray county is not seriously menaced by the curtailment of WPA projects through lack of a uniform system of certification over the state, County Judge Sherman White has joined the County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas in recommending a legislative appropriation to certify applicants for WPA jobs.

A resolution, adopted at the convention held in Wichita Falls on March 21, calls for the state to make an appropriation for WPA intake in Texas so that WPA shall not be terminated, which would cause "widespread unemployment, distress, and suffering."

Texas WPA has been operating on a temporary basis on intake. There was a hitch in the machinery two years ago, when loss of WPA projects was threatened through lack of a state agency to certify applicants. Finally, it was agreed that WPA certification could be continued until the legislature put up some money for this purpose.

The legislature made no provision for this. In the meantime, counties worked out their own problem. In Gray, the certification was left up to the county case worker, under the department of public welfare.

Now, the WPA wants an authorizing state agency to do the job of certifying applicants, so that regulations for taking persons on WPA rolls will be uniform over the nation.

To do the certifying takes money for the state agency to do the job of certifying applicants, so that regulations for taking persons on WPA rolls will be uniform over the nation.

ROCHESTER

"Sugar Blues" the audience applauded.

Then, later, Ken Bennett sang Jerome Kern's "Old Man River" with a feeling that made the audience want more of his singing.

That's only a part of the picture, however, in this fast-paced, entertainment-packed minstrel show, which opened last night at the high school auditorium. The production is to be repeated at the same place at 8:15 tonight.

A cast that shows the results of intensive training put on a show last night that was original, melodious, humorous, and clever from the opening song by the chorus to the patriotic finale, with the American flag at the front of the stage, fluttering in the breeze, and spotlighted.

Every member of the cast was letter-perfect last night and the show moved without a hitch.

A constant flow of gas by the end men, the dances of Vivian Monday and Frankie Lou Keen, the solos of Dr. H. L. Wilder, Jack Dunn, Dr. Calvin Jones, Bill Browne, Johnny Wells, and Bert Curry, and the songs by the sextet and the Tenettes, were neatly interwoven into the minstrel pattern.

The piano playing of Hal Lucas and the "Rochester" act of Dr. H. H. Hicks, were new features of the annual charity show. Arthur M. Teed was intercolloer.

Director Ken Bennett was the composer of much of the music used in the production.

Wickersham, a Democrat, was elected from the seventh district yesterday by a majority of more than 13,000 votes over Republican George Davison. It was the first time the 35-year-old insurance salesman had thrown his hat into the political ring.

The new successor to the late Sam Massingale declared he won the office because "I shook hands with everybody from bank presidents to back alleys."

Of all the oil refined in the 32 refineries in Pennsylvania, only 15 per cent originates within the state.

Panhandle Team Wins Texas Tech Judging Contest

Not to be out-punied by the dairy team which won in the first division of the Fifteenth Annual Texas Tech F.P.A. contest, Spicer Gripp, Ernest Russell, and Lee Roy Cox won the very coveted gold livestock loving cup. The Panhandle team scored 1,554 points. Tulla was second with 1,544, and McLean third with 1,536.

Spicer Gripp placed first in hog judging, second in beef cattle, and was awarded the first place gold medal for his $30-point score.

Ernest Russell scored 524 points for fourth man of the entire contest and ranked third in beef cattle and fifth in sheep judging. Lee Roy Cox was third in hog judging.

The poultry team did not place in the high five teams, but Boyd DeWald was high man on breed identification and fifth man in the contest with 153 boys competing. Estee Ketchum and Junior Kammerer were other members. The grain judging team also made a good showing. Odell Williamson, Bobby McGregor, and Frank Stephenson were team members.

One hundred and four schools in West Texas competed for the sweepstakes. Spur ranked first; Lubbock, Clarendon, Tulla, Friendship, Panhandle followed in the order given.

Sixty-five per cent more girls between 15 and 25 die of tuberculosis each year than do boys of that age.

Oilmen Face Hard Times Jakosky Says

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, April 2 (AP)—Men who probe the earth for oil were admonished today the "future geological and geophysical techniques must achieve their successes in the face of increasingly greater difficulties of finding production."

J. J. Jakosky, dean of the school of engineering at the University of Kansas, said "these difficulties will be due to greater depth of drilling, increased drilling costs, the declining number of structures and increased petroleum requirements even for peacetime purposes."

Jakosky addressed the Society of Exploration Geophysicists, who are in convention here jointly with the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists.

He said "it is now predicted" that the percentage of dry holes drilled would "continue upward until new techniques are developed that will be effective for stratigraphic traps—places where oil is trapped in the strata as distinct from that resting in structures—and direct means for location of oil deposits."

Regarding oil demand and reserves, Jakosky said estimates "indicate we must continue to supply at least as much and probably more oil than is being produced today."

"This future production must be obtained in the face of increased difficulties in finding the fields," Supply, he said, must be considered in terms of the daily ability to meet the United States demand, rather than in terms of a supply for a number of years.

The price of oil, Jakosky said, "has always been more dependent upon the excess daily production over the actual consumption than upon the actual quantitative demand itself."

Jakosky said legislation "favoring probation has tended to smooth out the price peaks and has unquestionably extended the useful life and productivity of many fields."

The maintenance of our present supply and price structure is dependent upon our ability to find new fields at a rate at least equal to our present rate of depletion, which is over a billion barrels a year.

"Present data indicates that this is not being done. It seems logical to believe that the slowly rising price trend, starting about 1930, will continue, and very probably continue upward at an increased rate when war demands for increased supplies are felt."

More than 1,000 persons had registered by noon and at least that many more were expected by tomorrow.

City Employees Bonds Approved

Approval of four bonds, two on the city secretary and tax assessor collector, one on a tax department employee and the other on a water department worker, was made by the city commission at its meeting Tuesday afternoon.

All of the bonds were on the American Bonding company of Baltimore. Bonds were for W. C. de Cordova, as city secretary, $2,000; as tax assessor collector, $5,000; for Mrs. Jewel Shackelford, tax department, $1,000; for Miss Johnnie Alene Hodge, water department, bond raised from $1,000 to $3,000.

Government Needs Construction Men

The United States Civil Service commission announces open competitive examinations for the positions of senior inspector, engineering materials (construction), $2,000 to $2,600 a year; inspector, engineering materials (construction), $1,800 to $2,100 a year; and assistant inspector, engineering materials (construction), $1,620 to $1,980 a year. These examinations are announced for filling vacancies as they occur in the engineer department at large in the Tenth United States Civil Service district, which comprises the states of Louisiana and Texas.

These examinations are open to men who have not yet passed their 55th birthday. Applicants must show that they have had the following experience in receiving and issuing, or in purchasing or distributing in wholesale quantities such construction materials as lumber, brick, stone, sand, cement, tile, sewer pipe, reinforcing and/or structural steel: for senior inspector, four years; inspector, three years; and assistant inspector, two years. For each grade it is specified that at least one year of the experience shown must have included the inspection for delivery or acceptance of a variety of the materials above described. The completion of each year of a course in civil or mining engineering in a college or university of recognized standing may be substituted in lieu of the full amount of required experience up to a maximum of three years for senior inspector, two years for inspector, and one year for assistant inspector.

Applications may be filed with the manager, Tenth U. S. Civil Service District, Customhouse, New Orleans, Louisiana, until further notice.

Additional information and application blanks may be obtained from the secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Post Office, Pampa, Texas, or from the manager, Tenth Civil Service District, Customhouse, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Workers Beaten Up By CIO, Says State Senator

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Action by the senate in the near future appeared imminent today on Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's bill intended to outlaw force and violence in labor disputes.

Senate approval would send to the governor a proposal making it a felony to interfere with anyone working at a lawful occupation and assess a penalty for violation of one to two years in the penitentiary.

Without a dissenting vote a senate committee yesterday approved the anti-force and violence proposal which passed the house by an overwhelming margin.

The committee action followed an appeal by Brig. Gen. Preston A. Weathered of the Texas National Guard to pass the bill as an aid to the nation's defense program.

Senator John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, steering the bill, asserted there had been violence in labor troubles in Texas and declared "A C. I. O. leader who was an ex-convict" figured in a Houston disturbance.

"Fifty C. I. O. men went into an oil field near Wichita Falls . . . and men were beat up and sent to a hospital," Smith continued. "The new airplane factory near Dallas is being undermined by this same group of imported Communists from the North."

Harry Acreman, secretary for the State Federation of Labor, told the committee Texas labor was cooperating with the federal government.

"I resent the implication of lack of patriotism," he said. "It is a slander on the working people of Texas."

Camel Steaks
Settlers in the American west of the 1870s and 1880s relished wild camel steaks. Descendants of a herd imported from Egypt by the army in 1856 and turned loose because they caused horses to stampede, the camels multiplied rapidly until wiped out by hunters in search of the meat.

Registration Of Workers Under Way Over Nation

Nationwide registration of workers now in progress will expedite finding qualified workers, Lonnie Hood, manager of the Texas State Employment service office, in Pampa, said today.

"The Pampa office, like other employment offices in all the states," Mr. Hood said, "is not only taking new registrations from workers, but also re-examining its files of workers previously registered. We shall re-interview men and women now registered to find out whether they are immediately available for employment or training."

"Plans for this national registration," he continued, "have been made after careful consideration of the problems now confronting employers and workers. The office of production management and the United States Employment service have asked the states to cooperate in this effort to determine the number, location, and occupation of those who are fully qualified for immediate or future jobs and to locate those who, with additional training, might fill jobs in expanding defense industries."

"Here in Pampa I am sure that employers and workers, as well as the employment service are prepared to do their part."

The employment service does not encourage or desire workers who are employed in any of the above industries to register.

"Our office," he continued, "wants to know what workers here in Pampa and its vicinity are available now for jobs, or for the training courses being given for defense jobs. We do not want anyone who has a job to give it up. We do not want to dislocate anyone who is using his best skill at his present job. We do want to be in a position to refer to local employers—those in the defense industries and others—the kind of workers they need, when they need them."

Workers in rural areas of Texas are also asked to register for the T-SES.

Location and office hours of itinerant employment service points in the Pampa area:

McLean, Wednesdays, 8-9:30, justice of the peace office; Shamrock, Wednesdays, 10-2, chamber of commerce; Wellington, Wednesdays, 2:30-4, court house. The Pampa office is at 206 N. Russell.

Schools Crowded In Defense Centers

ORANGE, April 2 (AP)—J. W. Edgar, superintendent of Orange schools and chairman of the state committee of schools in the national defense areas of Texas, predicted today a number of cities would have to adopt emergency measures to care for expanded scholastic enrollments.

Edgar said the Orange schools planned to go on half-day sessions at the beginning of the 1941-42 term in September because of an increased enrollment due to national defense activities in three local shipyards.

"In Orange we are faced with the prospect of almost doubling our enrollment by September and although federal aid is anticipated under terms of a bill now being considered by a sub-committee of the house of representatives it cannot possibly reach us in time to avert an enrollment disaster in September," he said.

Edgar said schools at Mineral Wells, Abilene, Fort Worth, Garland, Brownwood, Grand Prairie, Corpus Christi, Palacios, and Galena Park faced similar conditions.

Provisions Of Old Age Pension Law Clarified

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—A bill clarifying child support provisions of the state old age pension law today awaited further consideration in the house of representatives.

Recommended by a house investigating group, the measure was reported favorably by the state affairs committee last night. It would eliminate the ability of a child to support a pension applicant or recipient as a means of determining eligibility for assistance.

The bill also provided an applicant possessing $360 or less may not be denied a pension, if other qualifications are met.

Rep. Gene McNamara of Waco, chairman of the house investigating group, authored the bill.

The committee also recommended passage of bills to:

Regulate itinerant non-resident photographers, providing for an annual $25 license.

Retain the orphanage for negro children at Gilmer.

Clarify and tighten a law regulating architects and providing for mandatory architectural supervision for construction of certain public buildings on projects exceeding $3,000.

Authorize the state park board to acquire land for beautification purposes.

Permit the state park board to contract with any conservation district for creation of parks in such districts.

Meals Cost $1,000 Each; Man Gets Divorce
LOS ANGELES, April 2 (AP)—His bride's meals cost him $1,000 each. But that's not what irked James F. Nugent. After only two, she not only refused to cook any more, she walked out on him.

"I gave her $1,000 cash and $1,000 in oil stocks and she promised to come back. But she didn't," the oil man told Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler.

Nugent, 66, was granted a divorce from 20 year old Orietta Nugent.

What Hitler Won't Tell Matsuoka

There is a long-sounding bunk about international relations. That every country acts in its own self-interest is a childishly simple axiom. It would be hard to find in all history an example wherein a nation deliberately took an action which it knew was to its own disadvantage.

These nations seldom act to their disadvantage, there is such a thing as restraint. Some nations have, from time to time, restrained themselves because of morality or decency from stooping to squeeze the last advantage from a situation.

Hitler's great advantage thus far has lain in his absolute disregard of the pledged word, of fixed principles, or restraint from any cause, whenever there was advantage to be had.

Thus for 20 years Hitler railed and stormed at Russia as a menace, and at Communists as bestial murderers. But when he needed an understanding with the Soviets, he tossed all that lightly out the window, and made the pact.

He created the Jews as a scapegoat, blamed them racially and personally for all ills. Yet the other day German newspapers fell over each other to praise Erise Eisenstein, a Jew, because he happens to be Russia's fair-haired boy of the arts.

Yoskie Matsuoka dodged R.A.P. bombs in Berlin. Hitler said many things to him. He probably did not find it necessary to mention his own bitter criticism of Britain after the World War when Britain made an alliance with Japan.

Matsuoka is too smart a man to swallow the baloney about spiritual union which was fed in Berlin. He must know that Hitler wants him for one reason, and one reason only—to help Hitler win the war in Europe.

No "alliance" between Germany and Japan can possibly be anything better than a temporary conspiracy to accomplish an immediate advantage.

Behind The News

The Pampa News Washington Correspondent Second of two articles on things to see in Washington and how to see them.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Without a worry about nickels and dimes, you probably can get as much for your money here as anywhere. The District of Columbia is no land of milk and honey, but Congress has put a stoppage on some of the common rackets which drain the tourists of their shekels.

Hotel prices aren't cheap anywhere along the line, but if I had all the money in the world to spend, I wouldn't look for the MOST expensive hotel. I'd probably check into the Willard. It's a comparatively modern hotel, but it has a bowl-and-pitcher charm that is somehow reminiscent of the days when Senator Douglas congratulated President-elect Lincoln with a hearty handshake in his vaulted lobby.

EARLY START-AT NOON

The next day, I would be up bright and early—about noon—and start on a list of tours. Beginning with the #1 tour around capital city, I'd branch out to the Arlington cemetery and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier—to old Alexandria, which was once one of the young nation's great seaports—to Mount Vernon, where a fellow named George Washington lived and tilled a great plantation, died and was buried—to the Great Falls of the Potomac river—to Annapolis, where the navy gives vitamins and A. B. C's to future admirals—to the homes of Robert E. Lee and Tom Jefferson—to a dozen other spots that earned their marks in the history books when the nation was aborning or gasping for life in the days of the Civil war.

ONE MUST EAT

Somewhere along the line, I would eat a few good, if too-expensive meals. You probably can do better in New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, New Orleans, San Francisco, and a dozen other cities—but it isn't every one of these that will give you river-front fish houses (such as Hall's) where President Grant and his cronies chomped over Chinoteague oysters and politics; or steak houses (such as the Occidental) where more politicians have hung their autographed photographs than ever the movie stars did in any chop joint in Hollywood.

IN OTHER WORDS, for tourists who must shake the dime bank or those who take a layer from the bulging bank account, Washington is a mecca. If you have any doubts about it, write the Government Printing Office for "Washington—the City and Capital" (#3) or "The National Capital—A Manual on the Origin and Development of Washington" (#2).

Common Ground

This column contends there can be a satisfactory program and we measure the shares of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

MODERN METHODISM

A reader of this column contends that the followers of John Wesley would be horrified and raise the roof against Deism.

There seems to be nothing in this pledge to which the great Deists could not subscribe such as Thomas Jefferson, Emerson, Matthew Tindal, Lord Herbert, Thomas Chubb, who contended Jesus was a Deist.

These requirements for membership in the Methodist Church are a long distance from what was required fifty years ago. In those days people had to say they believed in things that they did not understand.

What Hitler Won't Tell Matsuoka

There is a long-sounding bunk about international relations. That every country acts in its own self-interest is a childishly simple axiom. It would be hard to find in all history an example wherein a nation deliberately took an action which it knew was to its own disadvantage.

These nations seldom act to their disadvantage, there is such a thing as restraint. Some nations have, from time to time, restrained themselves because of morality or decency from stooping to squeeze the last advantage from a situation.

Hitler's great advantage thus far has lain in his absolute disregard of the pledged word, of fixed principles, or restraint from any cause, whenever there was advantage to be had.

Thus for 20 years Hitler railed and stormed at Russia as a menace, and at Communists as bestial murderers. But when he needed an understanding with the Soviets, he tossed all that lightly out the window, and made the pact.

He created the Jews as a scapegoat, blamed them racially and personally for all ills. Yet the other day German newspapers fell over each other to praise Erise Eisenstein, a Jew, because he happens to be Russia's fair-haired boy of the arts.

Yoskie Matsuoka dodged R.A.P. bombs in Berlin. Hitler said many things to him. He probably did not find it necessary to mention his own bitter criticism of Britain after the World War when Britain made an alliance with Japan.

Matsuoka is too smart a man to swallow the baloney about spiritual union which was fed in Berlin. He must know that Hitler wants him for one reason, and one reason only—to help Hitler win the war in Europe.

No "alliance" between Germany and Japan can possibly be anything better than a temporary conspiracy to accomplish an immediate advantage.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Without a worry about nickels and dimes, you probably can get as much for your money here as anywhere. The District of Columbia is no land of milk and honey, but Congress has put a stoppage on some of the common rackets which drain the tourists of their shekels.

Hotel prices aren't cheap anywhere along the line, but if I had all the money in the world to spend, I wouldn't look for the MOST expensive hotel. I'd probably check into the Willard. It's a comparatively modern hotel, but it has a bowl-and-pitcher charm that is somehow reminiscent of the days when Senator Douglas congratulated President-elect Lincoln with a hearty handshake in his vaulted lobby.

JENKINS' hands were deep in the pockets of a striped purple suit...

He was protesting to his wife. "But listen, suppose she stays in South America...

"I've got to get out of here," Beatrice thought swiftly. "I simply can't face Jenkins. I can't have it all exposed now!"

Miss Getz appeared, providentially, and Beatrice cried, "Oh, Getzie, please take my customer in there. I-I don't feel well."

Miss Getz stared, but Beatrice had turned and run. She slipped through the curtains at the other end of the fitting room...

She'd go up to the soda fountain, linger over a forbidden coke, and then she'd loiter on the main floor...

OVER the coke, she wondered again about what was happening upstairs. "I'll sign the slip for it," she told the soda clerk.

"If you ask me, they ought to give us the cokes," the girl said while Beatrice scribbled her name, number and department across the back of the ticket.

Having finished her drink, she wandered into the stocking department...

partment. "I certainly need some, too. But $1.35... that's too much." She fingered 79-cent hose until the speculative eye of a main floor section manager sent her scurrying again...

She walked boldly out the door. Sure enough, there a little way down the street, her shining black town car was parked...

MISS DANE was drumming dangerously on the wrapping desk, her blooded fingers managing to call forth an unpleasantly loud sound from the scarred wood.

"Upstairs for a coke," Beatrice confessed meekly. "Miss Dane's throat purpled. 'How dare you leave the floor? You were taking advantage of the section manager's absence, that's what you were doing! I have a good mind to fire you right now!'"

Beatrice bit her lip. All at once, she wanted fiercely to scream, "Go on, fire me! Fire me, and watch me mess your job up and your whole darned department—watch me mop you up in 10 minutes!"

But sweet thought it would be to put a bomb under Miss Dane, the thought of Anthony Bradley stopped her. She simply couldn't ruin everything now!

Beatrice fled through Housewares, and into a waiting elevator. She'd go up to the soda fountain, linger over a forbidden coke...

She'd go up to the soda fountain, linger over a forbidden coke, and then she'd loiter on the main floor. How long would Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins wait down there?

"Two thousand cokes might be something," Beatrice suggested mildly. Having finished her drink, she wandered into the stocking department...

thony Bradley, after serving the training she was certain Grandfather would have wanted, was going to occupy that perfect appointed office upstairs with "General Superintendent" on the door.

So Bee Davis, salesclerk in Budget Fashions, let Miss Dane, the Budget buyer, fume at her. Bee dropped her eyes and tried hard to look contrite.

"Yes, Miss Dane," she murmured meekly. "Oh, Miss Dane, I'm so sorry. I'm so very sorry." And finally, when she saw that Miss Dane was working herself up into a veritable tantrum, and when she realized that the eyes of every girl in the department were focused on them, Beatrice took a deep breath and burst out, tearfully, "Please, Miss Dane, don't fire me! Oh, Miss Dane, I need my job. I promise I'll never do it again. Really, I won't, Miss Dane." Her wide eyes lifted tragically to the contorted face of the buyer. "Miss Dane, you won't fire me, will you?"

SHE had learned, the day she applied for this job in the personnel office, that if you stood up to people they respected you more. But she had learned, too, that power was sweet to women like Miss Dane. Women who had so little else to glory in. The power of life and death, of hiring and firing, made autocratic tin gods of them. If you begged, they liked to see you grovel... and they grudgingly dispensed a little mercy, after you'd humbled yourself enough.

But Miss Dane surprised her. For, instead of the mounting fury, instead of more threats and final humiliation, Miss Dane suddenly crumpled.

"Stop that!" she cried. "Don't cry, you fool! Do you think I like trampling all over you? But I haven't got it so easy myself... They took my stock girl, they keep raising my sales figures higher and higher. I'm nearly crazy, that's what I am! I was a salesgirl myself once. In those days, the store had some heart. Mr. Huntington wasn't hard-boiled, he didn't drive people..."

To the never-to-be-forgotten stupefaction of the entire Budget department, Miss Dane herself burst into tears. She waited, "Go away, you young idiot. Let me alone! Oh, I wish I never had to see this place again!"

She covered her face with her hands, and turned to Miss Getz, who had somehow crept closer. "Getzie, Getzie," she choked, "it wasn't like this in the old days, was it?"

Joe Jenkins Named Mayor Of Amarillo

(By The Associated Press) The "ins" were generally successful at keeping the "outs" from coming in as city elections were held in hundreds of cities and towns of the state yesterday.

Only one of the major cities held a municipal election, that was Dallas where Mayor Woodall Rodgers and the citizens' charter ticket swept back into office by margins ranging as high as three to one.

All incumbents were re-elected except one, O. W. Cox being named in place of retiring councilman R. D. Suddarth.

At Amarillo Joe Jenkins was promoted from city commissioner to mayor, succeeding Ross Rogers, who did not run for re-election after serving nine years.

At Italy Harold Paisley and W. E. Reed tied in the voting for mayor and will meet in a run-off. Reed is the local newspaper editor and Paisley a bank cashier.

Tyler elected three commissioners, S. G. Fry, Wilbur Shildes and Walter Knight, from a field of seven candidates. Knight and Fry were re-elected.

Midland returned M. Culmer as mayor for his fourth term with all councilmen being re-elected. Mayor John O. Calhoun was re-elected without opposition at Corsicana.

Stocks Of Cotton Covered By Loans To Be 'Frozen'

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—Chairman Smith (D-SO) said today that the Senate Agriculture Committee had unanimously approved his bill to "freeze" stocks of cotton on which government loans have been made.

The measure directs the secretary of agriculture to take title to all cotton now under government loan and hold it until congress orders otherwise. Smith said that the government had title to about 6,000,000 bales and loans on another 4,800,000 bales. He said growers would be "paid" any equity they have in the loan cotton.

The Smith bill would permit the
