SENATOR HARRISON OF MISSISSIPPI DIES

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Death closed the book Sunday on the long congressional career of Pat Harrison, above, skillful legislator, tax authority, and well-liked companion of his fellow senators.

Following a major abdominal operation a week ago. Toward the end, friends said, the tall, cheerful Mississippian suffered a great deal and was able to recognize only his wife, his son, and Miss Catherine Blanton, his secretary.

Harrison, ill for almost two years, died in the dawn hours at Emergency hospital here yesterday following a major abdominal operation a week ago.

Light Rain Falls Here This Morning

While no rain fell in the immediate Pampa area Sunday and only a trace was recorded this morning, a strip about five miles wide and of unknown length, beginning about 12 miles south of Pampa, received a heavy rain yesterday afternoon, according to farmers in the area.

It is believed the wind and heavy rain caused considerable damage to wheat in the area. Much grain was noticed almost flat on the ground, it was reported.

A heavy rain, followed by hail, fell south of Wellington yesterday afternoon, according to motorists who came through the storm.

The weatherman has issued a forecast of continued cloudiness and rain and thundershowers through Tuesday at least.

I Heard . . .

U. S. Condemns Attack On Russia

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—The United States condemned Germany's "treacherous attack" on Russia today and declared that "any rallying of the forces opposing Hitlerism" would rebound to the benefit of American defense and security.

The statement made by Sumner Welles, undersecretary of state, after he had conferred with President Roosevelt left open the question of whether lease-lend aid would be given to Soviet Russia.

Welles said no communication had been received from the Soviet government as yet and consequently the question had not been decided by the American government.

He said, however, that President Roosevelt had authority under the lend-lease act to furnish aid to any country resisting aggression.

The formal declaration of policy read by Welles at a large press conference declared the immediate issue before the American people was whether Hitler's plan for universal conquest was to be successfully halted and defeated.

"In the opinion of this government," Welles said, "consequently any defense against Hitlerism, any rallying of the forces opposing Hitlerism, from whatever source these forces may spring, will hasten the eventual downfall of the present German leaders and will therefore rebound to the benefit of our own defense and security."

"Hitler's armies are today the chief dangers of the Americas."

Officials and committeemen, or representatives of all the 25 state societies which were organized before the Fiesta are invited to attend. Suggestions for organizing a permanent program and for the 1942 state club Fiesta program will be welcomed, according to Finis Stillwell, who was appointed by Pres-

First Load Of 1941 Wheat Received Here

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—A shipment of 50,000 bushels of 1941 wheat to be delivered to a Pampa elevator was received by the Martin-Lane Grain company. The load was delivered by Forrest Ritter, farmer living 16 miles south of Pampa.

The wheat tested 53 with the yield estimated at nearly 30 bushels to the acre in the particular area where the grain was harvested. Mr. Ritter was paid the market price, 80 cents a bushel.

Moisture content was high and the grain was mixed, some being exceptionally well formed but with some shriveled, elevator attendants stated.

Cutting in general is not expected to begin until late this week or early next week, farmers report.

Both optimistic and pessimistic reports are being received from farmers regarding the condition of the wheat crop and the estimated yield. Some farmers predict the yield all the way from 15 to 30 bushels while others doubt if the average will be more than 10 or 12 bushels.

Much of the wheat has been knocked down by wind and rain. Some wheat is being menaced by rust. Some of the wheat failed to start developing in time because of heavy rains.

The government will not accept green wheat this year which means that general cutting will be later than usual.

Mann Will Speak Over Radio Tonight

Gerald Mann, candidate for U. S. senator, will speak tonight from 9 to 10 o'clock over the Texas Quality Network, it was announced here today by Mann supporters.

Mann has announced that he will discuss expenditures being made in the campaign by Lyndon Johnson who carries a floor show around with him and gives away defense bonds. He also said that he would again prove his loyalty to Roosevelt and the defense program.

Applications To Join Marines Will Be Accepted This Week

Sergeant Oscar T. Filipo, U. S. Marine Recruiting service will be located in the Post Office building in Pampa for the remainder of this week for the purpose of interviewing and examining applicants for the U. S. Marine corps.

Men between the ages of 17 and 30, in good physical condition, single, with no dependents, white, and who can read and write well enough to understand written orders are eligible for enlistment. Men who have registered for selective service are eligible for enlistment until they have actually been ordered to report for induction.

Due to the rapid expansion of the corps, many vacancies now exist in all branches of the service, and the expansion also makes promotions much more rapid.

All men accepted for enlistment in Pampa will be furnished free transportation to Amarillo, from where they will be sent to Oklahoma City for final examination and transferred to San Diego, Calif., for training.

Men who have been rejected from the Marine corps due to dental defects are advised to see the recruiting sergeant again due to changes made in dental regulations, which are now lower than before.

Russian Army Given Only Slim Chance

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—The Red army was conceded only the slimmest chances by military experts today in its stand against the armed might of Nazi Germany, but considerable doubt prevailed as to the immediate advantages Hitler could reap from his grandiose Russian adventure.

The initial reaction of well-informed specialists was that the invasion of Russia constituted the first open acknowledgment of the blitzkrieg's failure—Germany, despairing of the total "lightning" victory she sought, was striking to assure the supply of food and raw materials she needs for a long war.

The sudden thrust into Russia also was regarded as tantamount to an admission that Germany still felt herself unequal to the supreme test with her avowed No. 1 enemy—Soviet invasion and conquest of the British Isles.

The fog of war surrounding the opening phases of the Nazis drive to the east made it difficult for experts to appraise the initial progress of the campaign, but they saw at least three temporary results in the general war picture.

1. An easing of German pressure in the North African theater, for it appeared unlikely that the Reich would be sending additional armored reinforcements to General Rommel in Libya.

2. Relaxation of the invasion threat against the British Isles, for it appeared unlikely that the Reich would be sending additional armored reinforcements to General Rommel in Libya.

3. More time for Britain and for the production facilities of the United States.

64 German Planes Downed, Claims RAF

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—Making an offensive sweep over northern France for the seventh successive day, the RAF reported the destruction of seven more German fighter planes today, bringing the total for the last three days to 64.

"Less opposition was encountered from German fighters," an authoritative statement said.

British fighters were accompanied across by Blenheim bombers. It was acknowledged that two RAF fighters were missing.

The raid followed up the 12th straight night assault on Germany proper, in which bombers pounded the big naval base of Wilhelmshaven and other targets in the northwest.

Successive waves of RAF planes crossed the channel and from time to time the heavy rumble of bombs echoed back.

The British seemed to be attacking targets inland as well as on the coast, with bombing by large forces carried out on a selective basis over a wide area.

Some quarters expressed the opinion that the flares were striking at Nazi communications in northern France.

Late News

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—The German radio reported today that Nazi forces had crossed the Prut river, the border between Rumania and Soviet Russia, and were continuing to advance after German artillery and the Luftwaffe had smashed Soviet border fortifications. The broadcast was heard by NBC.

CAIRO, Egypt, June 23 (AP)—The British announced today that they had taken 8,000 prisoners, including 11 generals, in the capture of Jimma, in southwestern Ethiopia.

BERLIN, June 23 (AP)—A Russian submarine base on the Black sea was especially hard hit in an attack by German bombers yesterday, DNB, official German news agency, said today, adding that all stores were set afire.

Destruction Going Ahead On Schedule Says Nazi Command

(By The Associated Press)

The Baltic bulwark which Soviet Russia erected by threats and persuasion against the possibility of just such an attack by Germany as is now raging along her great western frontier appeared today to be crumbling.

Combined military and political blows within and without the three little states—Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia—which the U. S. S. R. took into camp and started fortifying a year ago, threatened to link them up with Adolf Hitler.

According to Berlin advices, based in turn on broadcasts from the Kaunas radio, Lithuanians have risen up, forming a new government, pledged to help Germany fight Russia.

An effort to cut Latvia also out of the Russian camp was indicated when the German radio broadcast a declaration by a Latvian "government-in-exile" that Latvia, too, would fight alongside Germany presumably when and if Russian rule could be cast off.

Helsinki reports said Estonia, farthest removed of the three from the German-Russian battle line, was expected to follow suit. Baltic political refugees, themselves anti-Russian, said Russia had expected revolts in the three states.

Finland, who lost territory to Russia by war, declared at the same time, that she would maintain neutrality as long as possible—this despite Adolf Hitler's classification of her as his ally.

In Washington Warren Lee Pierson, president of the Export-Import bank, said transfers already had been stopped on the bank's $35,000,000 credits to Finland, but he declined to tie this in with the war.

Lithuania's declaration of independence came as German land forces, now at least 10 miles inside Russian territory, and the air force pounded Russian bases and communications in a tide of destruction which the German high command announced was proceeding "on schedule and successfully."

From Kaunas, Lithuania, capital of a little republic fronting on Germany which Russia absorbed last June, this announcement was broadcast.

"The Lithuanian people, with all the means at their disposal, will fight for freedom and independence."

The Kaunas radio apparently already was in the hands of a coup government.

Rearguard attacks on Russian troop emplacements and communications in Lithuania were pressed by an appeal of the new regime to the people to take up arms in order to assist the German army in liberating Lithuania from the bolshevik occupants and to receive the Germans with open arms.

Kazys Skirpa, former Lithuanian minister to Berlin, became premier of the new government, according to the Kaunas radio, and General Stasys Rastikis, former defense minister, has taken up his old post.

The coup was credited to the "front of Lithuanian activists."

Russia acknowledged a 10-mile German penetration of Lithuania from East Prussia. It was likely the Russians deliberately abandoned their new fortifications in the Baltic region, Poland and Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, fighting a delaying action until a stand could be made up arms in the primary fortifications along the old Russian frontier.

Russia pushed her border into Poland in a partitioning with Germany at the start of the war and incorporated the states of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia and the Rumanian territory of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina about a year ago.

Whether Russia would withdraw from bases and territory which she wrested in her war with Finland and which guard the land and sea approaches to Leningrad remained to be seen, but the Finnish government's statement of neutrality followed a denial that German forces were using Finnish bases.

The Finns said, however, Soviet bombers had struck swiftly at their ports and shipping a few hours ago.

Pampans Asked To Cut Their Weeds

Residents of Pampa are being asked to cut all weeds on their property in an effort to reduce the mosquito and grasshopper menace. Although the pests are just about as numerous on lawns and yards, cutting of weeds will help materially. City Manager Steve Matthews said today.

The city purchased a new tractor, mower and all necessary equipment to cut weeds and grass on city property, last week. All grass and weeds in the South Pam-after Adolf Hitler started his dawn offensive against the U. S. S. R.

Helsinki had a 25-minute air alarm this morning and Turku a 50-minute alarm, but no bombs fell.

The conflict ranged from continued maneuvers for position in the far north where, in Finland, the 2,000-mile front touches the Arctic sea, to the fierce encounter of men and machines, aloft and aground, in the central and southern sectors.

The German high command, customarily chary of detailed claims in the first stages of its blitzkriegs, announced favorable progress, according to plans, by the German land and air forces while in the eastern Baltic German torpedoboats penetrated Russian coastal waters, sinking a patrol boat and four small merchant ships.

A mixed German-Rumanian force of light naval units in the Black sea was reported to have weathered bombardment by Russian coast artillery while on a "scouting thrust."

The clash of the military titans who now have cast aside their pretense of friendship and non-aggression brought in its train a series of hurried conferences in world capitals, for policies had to be confirmed, altered and agreed in the light of the great engagement.

It promised to intensify United States production of armament for internal defense as well as for Britain, but whether Russia would come directly under the lend-lease act was an undetermined question. It was possible any aid she gets from the United States would be doled out by Britain as Britain sees fit.

Russian ambassadors to London and Yichai conferred with the United States envoys, John G. Winant, Admiral William D. Leahy, U. S. envoys in those capitals. Following Winant's talk with Ivan Maisky, the Russian ambassador, called on Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary.

In Tokyo, Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye conferred with Emperor Hirohito and, without explanation, a special liaison conference of Japanese cabinet and military leaders was postponed, for a second time, until late today or tomorrow.

Japan is bound by the three-power Axis pact to go to the assistance of either Germany or Italy in event of "attack" by a new belligerent in the world's wars. Whether Russia attacked Germany—as Adolf Hitler charged and Vyacheslav Molotov denied—was up for decision in Tokyo.

Japan also is bound to remain neutral in a fight involving Russia. This is in a Moscow-Tokyo pact, signed while Hitler still was trying to yank Russia into the Axis-planned new world order.

Nevertheless Far Eastern observers keenly watched Japan for signs that she might try to seize eastern Siberia while Russia battles for her life in the west.

The newspaper Nichi Nichi of Tokyo said under a Stockholm date that the United States, Britain, and Russia intended to form a military alliance shortly. There was nothing to bear this out from other quarters.

War claims and reports apart from the unprecedented struggle in progress from the Arctic to the Black sea included:

1. Sinking of nine British merchantmen—a total of 37,500 tons—in

Southern Methodist University, '41

There are plenty of people who seem to think the world is rushing headlong toward destruction. Destruction is not a future—it is an end.

Most of this year's college graduates believe there is going to be a future. What sort, we don't even try to guess, and we are afraid to make very elaborate plans for the future.

Yet we believe in a future, even if we are not kidding ourselves that maybe we will just get off with a year's training and then be able to settle down to our chosen profession and ordinary living. We are more or less living from day to day.

It is my belief that the principal contribution of college in preparing the 1941 graduate for his role in whatever kind of future comes has been to train him to adjust himself to changing conditions. He has been trained to do a variety of things, and if he is not able to do the thing which he specialized in, he will be better able to adjust himself to doing something else.

Undergraduate morality has not been undermined completely by the world crisis. Some students are a little more feverish in their search for a good time, and I think there has been an increase in drinking, but this does not apply to the student body as a whole.

Accompanying the couple were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Welton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, and Mr.

Graduate Knows 'World Do Move' --And Is Ready To Move With It

"The boys who dance and are seemingly so carefree at night gathering during the day to discuss when their draft number will come up... and, most important, whether we will actually be engaged in war."

To discover what the Class of '41 thinks of the uncertain world into which it is graduating, NEA Service and The Pampa News asked six college editors to write a series of articles, of which this is the last.

By CECIL EDWARDS

The "What Hell" attitude is growing to some extent as the world situation continues to grow darker.

But at the present on this campus there has been no well-defined swing of morals either to the development of a better or a poorer moral standard.

Closely tied in with the question of the effect of the world situation on college morality is this question of its effect on social life. There have been a good many more social functions on the S. M. U. campus this year—more dances, parties, picnics. People have been pretty gay at these affairs, have laughed a lot, but down underneath they have been serious about everything.

The boys who dance and are seemingly so carefree at night gathering during the day to discuss when their draft number will come up, whether or not they will be deferred so they can finish college, and most important, whether we will actually be engaged in war any time soon. You can see them on the campus, in the Co-op store, in the frat houses, and they are completely serious about the situation in which they find themselves.

The undergraduate could scarcely avoid knowing the most significant happenings from day to day if he tried. And in most cases he doesn't try to avoid them.

Instead he discusses and evaluates them with his friends and together they try to figure out how those events will influence them, what effect current happenings in the crisis will have on their lives—and what they are to do about it.

Sunday School night will be observed this evening at 8 o'clock when Rev. Bayless will speak on "How to Find God."

No Move Expected Of Japan Against Russia Or Hitler

TOKYO, June 23 (AP)—Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye conferred today with Emperor Hirohito but was not disclosed immediately whether the current international situation was among the subjects discussed.

Indications were that Japanese government leaders and military heads were discussing the situation in groups preparatory to a regular cabinet session tomorrow.

A special liaison conference between the cabinet and high command had been ordered for today but was postponed and now may be deferred indefinitely because of the regular cabinet meeting.

The railway ministry announced suspension of the sale of passenger tickets for Russia or Europe via Vladivostok and Manchuria.

Japan, outwardly calm, was considering carefully the outbreak of war between Germany and Italy and Soviet Russia, with which she had a pact of friendship, and it seemed evident that no immediate move was expected of Japan by her Axis partners.

Two Pampa Girls Attend Deep Sea Banquet At Camp

In Davy Jones' briny depths Martha Pierson and Elizabeth Ann Sturgeon feasted at the Waldemar deep sea banquet, Friday night, Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pierson, and Elizabeth Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sturgeon, are popular seniors at Camp Waldemar, near Kerrville.

Wearing their most nautical ensembles, these Pampa girls dined and danced in the rustic dining room of Cyprus Inn, which had been transformed for the occasion into an ocean floor cabaret. Fish suspended from the ceiling swam amid the guests, and anchors weighted down the fishnet covered tables. Mossy rafters dripped marine flowers as the camp orchestra played nautical music.

Campers dressed in bathing suits, sailor slacks, and shorts, diving costumes and other salty ensembles were served from fish decorated plates. Sea horses and starfish held nut cups.

On June 18, Elizabeth Ann celebrated her birthday and to her was given a cake, which she cut and divided among her friends at a special table in the camp dining room. Included in the party were Martha Pierson and Catherine Pearce, who is a Waldemar counselor. The girls are looking forward to the field day events Saturday in which the two tribes, Texas and Comanches, compete in sports. Both girls are members of the Texas tribe and have been chosen by their groups to represent them in several of the contests.

Measles Saves Texan

MCKINNEY, June 23 (AP)—The fact that Billy Payne was exposed to the measles may be the reason he was not a victim of the submarine 0-9 which sank Friday off Portsmouth, N. H.

Payne's two children caught the measles from a Dallas cousin while on a Texas visit from New London, Conn.

Ordered to report for active duty on the 6-9 while on a visit to Texas, relatives here feel assured that Payne was detained from service after being exposed.

Pampa Boats Win Major Honors At Lake Marvin

Pampa racers walked off with the major share of the honors at the opening of Lake Marvin in Hemphill county yesterday. Local boating enthusiasts swept the 16 horsepower race, placed second and third in the 22 class, first and third in the 22 class, and took second and third in the free-for-all.

One of the largest crowds to attend a lake opening this year witnessed the races, conducted by members of the McClellan Boat club, hearing interested talks, witnesses, and a floor show by Dixie Dice.

Miss Margaret Farnsworth of Perryton repeated in the bathing beauty contest, being crowned Miss Lake Marvin for the second year.

Judge E. C. Fisher of Canadian held the master of ceremonies at the dedication ceremony. Speakers included Col. E. A. Simpson of Amarillo, and Jimmy Caserta and the Hon. A. W. Fanning, representing the government.

Col. Simpson paid tribute to Judge Marvin Jones as the man who was largely responsible for the Panhandle lake program.

The speaker in talking on national defense warned that United States was never nearer war and that the invasion of Russia made conditions more grave.

"If Hitler can whip Russia he will control more than one quarter of the two billion people in the world," Col. Simpson declared.

Earl McConnell of the McClellan Boat club acted as starter for the races. Paul Hughes of Pampa was pit manager, and Jess Hess and Howard Lane of Pampa and Oran J. Cross of Canadian were finishing judges.

One of the most unusual features of the meet was the finishing of two boats of 22 horsepower over 33 horsepower boats in the free-for-all race, won by Ollie Jones of Paducah with Shorty Phillips of Pampa, second.

An added attraction was a grudge Class A hydroplane race between Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Pitt of Amarillo, with Mrs. Pitt winning by a length.

Race results follow:
 33 horsepower—Mrs. Bobby Pyle, Borger, first; Artie Shaw, Pampa, second; Shorty Phillips, Pampa, third.
 22 horsepower—Shorty Phillips, Pampa, first; Ollie Jones, Paducah, second; Cecil Branscum, Pampa, third.
 16 horsepower—George Sportman, Pampa, first; J. C. Stewart, Pampa, second; N. A. Leonard, Pampa, third.
 Free-for-all—Ollie Jones, Paducah, first; Shorty Phillips, Pampa, second; Artie Shaw, Pampa, third.

Gold Sox Beat Oilers 5 To 4 In Ninth Inning

The old ninth inning jinx got the Pampa Oilers yesterday afternoon in Amarillo and the Gold Sox salvaged the second game of the series 5 to 4. Tonight the Oilers return home with the Lubbock Hubbers providing the opposition. Game time will be 8:30 o'clock.

Either Lefty Frank Glab or Ernie Myers will be on the mound for the Oilers. Opposing pitcher has not been named by Manager Charlie Engle of the Hubbers.

The Oilers took the Saturday night game from the Sox chiefly due to the slugging of Matney and Frater, each hitting for the circuit. Frater also slapped a triple and Matney added two singles.

Harley LaFever had things pretty well his way after the third inning yesterday when three Oiler errors cost him three runs. Then in the ninth Cato opened with a single. D'Antonio, Matney and Frater grooved a single to left and the score was tied. DeCarlo was passed intentionally but in the meantime Hargrove stole second and third. Grabek replaced LaFever and Buchanan lined one down the third base line as Hargrove broke for home. Phillips made a sensational stop but didn't have a chance to get Hargrove at home. He threw to second to force D'Antonio but the relay to first was a second late and Buchanan was safe and the winning run had crossed the plate with two away.

Reynolds, Texas Tech graduate, started for Amarillo but gave way to DeCroo, new leftlander from Arkansas, who finished the game by holding the Oilers in check.

The Oilers return home tonight hoping that nice weather will be with them on their stand here. They have played in tough luck all season but are hoping for a break this time. Crowds have been good considering the weather but the attendance is thousands and thousands behind last season.

Amateurs Defeat Pros In Amarillo PGA Tournament

AMARILLO, June 23 (AP)—Texas' simon-pure golfers are now all even with the pro players in the nine-year old Texas Cup match series.

Ten amateurs defeated the same number of pros, 10 points to 5, yesterday in the concluding event of the four-day P. G. A. golf meet at Amarillo Country club.

The amateurs, captained by Jack Munger of Dallas, won eight of the 10 singles points and two out of eight in the doubles.

In Sunday's feature match Harry Todd of Dallas staged a comeback to win 3 and 2, from Henry Ransom, Fort Worth pro who won the Texas P. G. A. and Open titles in the annual tournament which closed Saturday.

Grabek replaced LaFever and Buchanan lined one down the third base line as Hargrove broke for home. Phillips made a sensational stop but didn't have a chance to get Hargrove at home. He threw to second to force D'Antonio but the relay to first was a second late and Buchanan was safe and the winning run had crossed the plate with two away.

Texans Demaree And Hogan Win Tourney

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 23 (AP)—Jimmy Demaree and Ben Hogan were headed home today after en route had crossed the plate with two away.

The two Texans ripped 42 strokes off par in their seven rounds against as many pairs of the nation's top-flight professionals, finished three points ahead of their nearest rivals, and pocketed $1,000 each in cash—a matter of $250 a day plus expenses which include board and room.

In second place were P. G. A. Champion Byron Nelson, the host pro, and his partner, long-hitting Jimmy Thompson, who divided $1,200. Lloyd Mangrum, sporting the only moustache in the tourney, and Harold J. McSpaden, were third, garnering $600 each.

Others, in order of the finish: Henry Picard and Johnny Revolta, $500; Horton Smith and Lawson Little, $600; Sam Byrd and Johnny Lullie, $500; Dick Metz and Clayton Heafner, $400, and Ralph Guldahl and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, $350.

Raymond D. Phelps, 20, also of Healdton, was injured internally, and Jack Pemberton, 21, of Healdton, received face, throat and knee injuries. Both were members of Company B.

Patrick's body with a military guard of honor was returned to Healdton for burial this afternoon.

Wyatt, Brooklyn's 'Old Feller,' Scaled Baseball Peak Hard Way

Larry MacPhail caresses knee, okeh now but which handicapped Wyatt Wyatt the past two seasons.

BY HARRY GRAYSON
 NEA Service Sports Editor

CHICAGO, June 23—Having escaped from St. Louis with an even break in four games, the Dodgers are more confident than ever that they'll win the National league pennant.

When Max Lanier shut them out for the first time this season in the inaugural at Sportsman's Park, the Flatbushers were definitely down in spirit for the first time this season.

"Things haven't gone so well at Ebbets Field, what with the Cincinnati sweeping a three-game set, among other things.

Pee Wee Reese had to be relieved at shortstop by Leo Durocher.

Joe Medwick was flattened by mumps.

The MacPhails were in the dumps. And the fact that the Red Birds beat John Whitlow Wyatt under the lights, where he is even more effective than in daylight, wasn't exactly a cheery note.

WYATT IS BELL COW OF BROOKLYN STAFF

Whit Wyatt is the bell cow of the Brooklyn staff.

In his previous start against the Braves in the red blazers, the thin-ly-hatched right-hander unfolded a shutout to put the Brooks on top with his ninth victory.

But this time, and though he yielded no more than four hits, he was tripped, 1-0.

Having failed to throw the Cardinals back with their ace, the Dodgers were in danger of losing more ground to the surprising Red Birds, so it can readily be understood how well they felt about winning two of the remaining three.

Wyatt is called Brooklyn's "Old Feller," but his story is vastly different from that of Cleveland's farm boy.

Feller crashed the American League at 17... never pitched in the minors.

Wyatt was 29 before he developed a curve to go with his hard one... with Milwaukee in 1938.

He had four major league trials before Larry MacPhail gave the Brewers $40,000 for him in the fall of '38. Detroit looked him over twice. The White Sox and Indians had him.

OPERATIONS ON ELBOW LEFT HIS ARM WEAK

Wyatt quit baseball in disgust at the conclusion of the '37 campaign... had to be talked back into it by the president of the Milwaukee club.

Fourteen chips of bone were removed from his elbow while he was with the White Sox in July, 1934. The operation left his arm weak.

Then, after a flying start with Brooklyn in '39, he suffered a knee injury which handicapped him the past two seasons.

But the trick knee is okeh now, and traveling at his present clip, Whit Wyatt will win 27 games while losing 9.

That would be better than Bob Feller's 27 and 11 of last season. And any Brooklyn fan will tell you that such a record by 31-year-old Whit Wyatt would bring Flatbush its first pennant in 21 years.

Cats Jump From League Cellar To Fifth Place Tie

(By The Associated Press)

The Fort Worth Cats, in the Texas league cellar this time last week, don't look like a cellar club today—and they're not.

In seven days the Panthers have won six games and lost only one to jump from the bottom of the standings to a tie at fifth with Oklahoma City. And their winning streak doesn't appear to be wavering.

The Cats won their fifth straight game yesterday defeating the San Antonio Missions 2 to 1. Fort Worth won in the 10th inning when Baron faced home from second after the ball sailed over the first baseman's head in an attempted double play.

In yesterday's other games the Shreveport Sports took two from Oklahoma City, 8 to 5 and 8 to 0; Houston downed the Dallas Rebels, 3 to 1; and Ray Dyer scored his eighth victory of the season as the Tulsa Oilers shut out the Beaumont Exporters 6 to 0.

Three New Teams Win Important Victories

(By The Associated Press)

There was a happy birthday today among the baseball-bait boys and girls of Pa Nickerbocker's village—like nothing that has been seen in the neighborhood since the Indians' sold Manhattan for 24 bucks worth of fire-water and went to work on it.

From the shores of the Harlem all the way to the banks of the gorgeous Gowanus in Brooklyn, the folks who go in for the sport of hit-and-run were giving out with hoopla and hurrah over the jobs their heroes did Sunday.

The fans were singing the praises of Joe DiMaggio and company of Yankee stadium for smashing a Major league home-run record; they were even thinking of naming a street after not-so-sweet William Terry for the way his Glanis knocked out the St. Louis Cardinals in both ends of a doubleheader, and, as for Brooklyn, well Larry MacPhail could be elected mayor by a landslide and have Leo the Lip Durocher for his police chief as a reward for the double job the daffiness boys did on Cincinnati.

The Yanks were two games away from the Cleveland Indians in the American loop as a result of the 5-4 beating they handed Detroit's Tigers. But the big thing was that Joe DiMaggio and Red Rolfe homered and made it 12 straight hits in which the Bronx bombers have exploded one or more of their subtle socks, thereby wiping out the record of 17 in a row which the Tigers chalked up as an all-time high only a year ago. What's more, DiMaggio's poke marked the 35th straight contest in which he has hit safely, leaving him only six away from George Sisler's record.

The Dodgers took two one-run margin victories in Cincinnati, and since the stars held a pair, it left Brooklyn only one game away from the senior loop's top spot.

With a record Cincinnati crowd of 35,792 fans on hand, the first game against the Rhinelanders went 16 innings before Brooklyn grabbed it, 2-1. Kirby Higbee found holes in the Reds bats in the nightcap, served up a three-hitter and walked in 3-2.

Meanwhile, King Carl Hubbel oiled up his left, or business, arm and knocked off the Cards for the Glanis, 4-3, in the first encounter in St. Louis, on the strength of a three-run ninth inning rally, and young Johnny Wittig threw in a five-hitter to take the nightcap, 3-2.

The Cleveland ball club, otherwise known as Bobby Feller, posted his fifth shutout of the season in whipping the Washington Senators, 6-0.

The White Sox and Philadelphia Athletics traded shutouts. Chicago won the first, 14-0, behind Ted Lyons, and the Quaker City set captured the second, 3-0, back of Phil Marchildon.

Nearly a hundred coaches will register this afternoon for the five-day fourth annual Texas High School Basketball Coaches association. Galento, Levinsky To Fight At Abilene

ABILENE, June 23 (AP)—Pat Tony Galento and Kingfish Levinsky, erstwhile fish peddler, haven't hesitated to promptly term each other a bum.

Now they're going to try to prove it.

These fighters of somewhat checkered careers meet here July 7 in a bout officially billed by promoter A. J. (Doc) Thomas as "The Battle of Bums."

Thomas will use the high school stadium and predicts the place will be jammed when unorthodox Tony, who came within a whisker of the world's heavyweight championship, and loquacious Levinsky square off.

In fact, Thomas, Lubbock automobile dealer, haberdasher and fight promoter of considerable consequence, wants to turn it into a tour, with Tony and Kingfish punching at each other twice weekly.

SERIAL STORY

CALIBAN FROM CALEB

BY NORMAN KAHL

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: After buying a new suit, Angus goes to the Purple Pelican, night club where Adoreen, also shocked by the brevity of Adoreen's costume, Angus tries to take her out of the club, but she refuses. Frustrated and angry, he enters an all-night lunchroom and is eating a bowl of chili when a blond little man on the stool next to him asks Angus to pass the catsup. Instead, Angus jerks the little man off his stool and knocks him behind the counter.

use us for detaining you." "Oh, that's all right, inspector," Angus says. "Mistake all around. Well, so long." "Sit down! The guy you socked cleared out of New York, which is the only smart thing to do as long as you're in town, so we can't prosecute. But we're holding you for disorderly conduct. You can get out if you put up $25 bail." "Oh, gosh," says Adoreen, "that must be Mr. Fitzwater. Now look here, Angus, you behave or—"

ANGUS MEETS THE BOSS

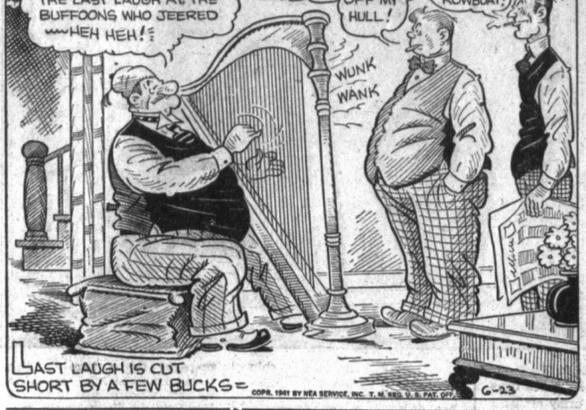

CHAPTER VII

WHEN Joe arrives for duty at the jailhouse the next morning, he greets Angus cordially. "Expected to see you," he says. "Saw it in the papers. Wanna read it?" Angus isn't very enthusiastic, but he takes the paper. Some wise-guy reporter has written: "In the wee hours of the morning, Angus MacPhillips, 28, New York's Caliban from Caleb, who last week nearly demoralized Manhattan's police force by facking 20 officers single-handed, was arrested for the second time, this time for allegedly assaulting Willie Austerschmidt, a subway guard off duty."

San Antonio Heart And Brains Of Fourth Of U. S. Continental Army

By J. E. KRUEGER
Associated Press Staff

SAN ANTONIO, June 23 (AP)—This ancient bastion of military power, which more than two centuries ago royally served the king of Spain, is again thrilling to an old emotion—war.

In all the U. S. there is no greater concentration of men, materials, work and authority than in the nine military establishments ringing old San Antonio.

There are four armies in the United States and one is headquartered here.

There are three army air training centers and the biggest is concentrated here.

This perhaps more than a quarter of all U. S. field effort to become militarily supreme in a world of warriors has its origin and impetus in this glamorous old city of 300,000.

This seems completely natural to San Antonio, which since the days of the Spanish conquerors (starting about 1691) has been a stronghold for military men. It's an old story for this town but the thrill is still there.

Each camp, fort, air field and headquarters is busier today than it has been since the heater-skelter days of 1917-18.

At Randolph, Kelly and Brooks fields great batches of new fliers, fast of reflex, quick of eye and long on courage, are turned out every five weeks.

At Duncan field thousands of soldiers and civilians labor at repairing, reconditioning and modernizing Uncle Sam's planes.

At Fort Sam Houston, for years the greatest army post in the country, acre-sized warehouses are going up row on row, and barracks are jammed into every nook and cranny of the huge reservation.

A hand touched his arm and a voice said: "Going across?"

"Sure," said Lacopa. The other grasped his arm and they started across Broad. Lacopa was puzzled, for his companion apparently hadn't waited for a red light. Horns whizzed, brakes squealed, cars whined past. But they got across safely.

"Thanks," said Lacopa's companion.

"For what?" the blind man asked.

"I'm blind," said the other.

Not man alone but nature too thus has made San Antonio vital to U. S. defense. Its strategic position—150 miles from the Gulf coast, 150 miles from the Mexican border—was manifest to the first men of arms who saw it, notably Don Domingo Teran De Los Rios, emissary of the Spanish king who established a post here in 1691.

Supplies were plentiful. The valley of the San Antonio river—so winding the Indians called it by a name meaning "drunken-old-man-going-home-at-night"—was green. The post was a natural.

Cut of this seed grew another, and most famous, of all San Antonio's long line of forts—the Alamo. It was built as a combination mission and fortress in 1718 and became hallowed ground when Mexican General Santa Ana slew its defenders to the last man in 1836.

For three following, bloody decades Texans fought Indian raiders, Mexican invaders and the U. S. (during the Civil war) and always San Antonio stood as their citadel.

Then in 1876 began the expansion which today makes San Antonians feel they live in the fightingest military town in the country.

Confidence Seems To Be Main Thing

NEWARK, N. J., June 23 (AP)—Michael Lacopa, blind refreshment stand operator, waited at the corner of Broad and Franklin streets during the peak of afternoon traffic for the usual offer of some passerby to help him across the busy intersection.

A hand touched his arm and a voice said: "Going across?"

"Sure," said Lacopa. The other grasped his arm and they started across Broad. Lacopa was puzzled, for his companion apparently hadn't waited for a red light. Horns whizzed, brakes squealed, cars whined past. But they got across safely.

"Thanks," said Lacopa's companion.

"For what?" the blind man asked.

"I'm blind," said the other.

Kerensky Pessimistic Of Russia's Chances

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Pessimistic of Russia's chances with Germany, Alexander Kerensky, once head of the invaded nation, urges Russians of all political creeds to unite to save the country.

Kerensky, who 24 years ago helped overthrow the czarist regime and briefly headed the provisional government until the Bolshevik revolution forced him to flee, says his country is weak and Joseph Stalin bankrupt.

"Russia stands face to face with Hitler's panzer divisions," he said yesterday. "She cannot expect direct assistance from anyone. Nevertheless, we Russian patriots are grateful to Prime Minister Churchill for his promise of giving the Russian people whatever help may be within the power of England."

Conference Postponed

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—A conference between representatives of major oil companies and Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum coordinator, to consider immediate construction of a pipe line between the Atlantic seaboard and the mid-continent-Texas oil fields was postponed today until Thursday.

The men notified the deputy coordinator they wished more time to consider the proposition.

Members Couldn't Cooperate With Governor, Says Woman Legislator

AUSTIN, June 23 (AP)—The spunk of a woman member today set tongues wagging in the house of representatives.

The overwhelmingly male membership discussed and awaited reaction from an open letter by colleague Rae Files of Waxahachie defending new house members against duplicity of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

A school marm on leave of absence to serve her initial house term, Miss Files was the first house member to carry a protest against the governor to the public via the open letter method.

She did it, she said, because in the interest of fair play people should know that sincere members tried to cooperate with the governor but found they couldn't work with him.

The letter asserted among other things the executive sought to force support for bad legislation, including a deficit financing pension bill, on threat of telling the people members were "against the old folks."

Whether or not they considered her their spokesmen, Miss Files had the respect of her fellows.

From the outset of the general session she has worked shoulder to shoulder with new and old members.

The Files wit, her sense of humor, an ability to tangle in debate with men members and a realization of her responsibility have featured her work.

Assigned to five committees and vice-chairmanship of one, the woman who had no idea she would become a house member only a year ago, thinks the legislature is a swell institution worthy of public understanding.

"After all, it is a cross-section of the people of Texas," she explained. "Between school teaching (his-gig City), Joe Thompson, Keller, C. C. the legislature she thinks the latter Brown, Albert Holcomb; Allison; Ben Parks, John Peoples; Briscoe; O. C. Evans, W. D. Douthit; Mousca friends thought she would make a good member. Johnson Leads For Senator In Poll, But By Small Percentage

AUSTIN, June 23—Texas Surveys of Public Opinion, established poll of Texas sentiment which operates from here, revealed in a copy-righted article released for publication Sunday that Con. Lyndon Johnson had reached the top of its percentage columns after a spectacular six-week climb.

The percentages shown by the impartial survey follow:

| | | |
|---------------------------------|--------|---------|
| Box Score Texas Senatorial Race | June 8 | June 21 |
| Johnson | 19.4 | 26.5 |
| O'Daniel | 25.6 | 25.2 |
| Mann | 27.0 | 24.5 |
| Dies | 23.7 | 22.6 |
| All Others | 4.3 | 1.2 |

(Of the Texas electors today 5.6 per cent are undecided as to their choice).

Remarkable on Johnson's steady rise, Joe Belden, editor of the surveys, said:

"The tabulation of this poll just completed left no doubt that Lyndon Johnson had achieved a remarkable rise from a young and relatively unknown Central Texas congressman to one of the top favorites in the contest.

"It is clear that while Johnson has been gaining, all the others have been standing still or have lost to him."

Johnson, as shown by the figures of this impartial survey, came from fourth place in the percentage columns of May 4, when he had 9.3 per cent, to first place the start of the final week of campaigning (June 21), when he had 26.5 per cent.

The surveys show that Johnson has been the only candidate to show a gain in every sampling. They also show that during the last two weeks his precipitous rise has been gaining in acceleration, so that by election day it is quite possible he will far outdistance the entire field.

This trend was tipped off more than a week ago when an independent poll undertaken by 22 leading papers of the state, showed that Johnson had pulled ahead of the field and was still forging on.

The candidate is visiting in El Paso today. Tomorrow he will speak in Amarillo and other cities in the Panhandle.

However, Belden warned, "the tabulations are given with a word of caution: The three leaders are too close for any one to say that any one of the three is ahead; all sampling is subject to a natural margin of error, 4 or 5 per cent either way in this poll. Since each of the three is within 2 per centage points of the other two, all must for the present be considered even."

Experiments are being conducted with new types of small airplanes with safety factors better than anything yet known. This would permit the average person to learn to fly within a very short time.
