The couple entered the field and left the home-plate ceremony beneath an arch of crossed bats held by members of the two teams.

The bride wore a powder blue redingote with white trim. Her shoulder corsage was of white gladioli.

Miss Bonnie Frick, attending the bride as maid of honor, was dressed in black and white eyelet embroidered with a corsage of pink gladioli.

GOWN ENSEMBLE

8998

Today's pattern is a sheer cool night gown with matching jacket. All this loveliness can be yours with just a little sewing effort. The gown is cut low in front with shirring on the shoulders which gives a soft fullness throughout. Edge the entire neckline and sleeves with a narrow ruffled lace—if you like this touch of femininity. The jacket is made on a simple yoke also to be edged with lace.

A wife owes it to her husband to appear at her best even in the most casual contacts with others. The nice about whom people wonder, "Why did he marry HER?" is letting her husband down, no matter how good a job she does of making a home.

Every woman owes it to herself to be as attractive and gracious a human being as possible. But almost every woman owes it to someone else, too.

GLOWIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART
If the "how-to-be-look-while-traveling" problems of the summer vacationist aren't solved once and for all, it's not the fault of the people who dream up new beauty preparations and gadgets. Cosmetics counters are covered with easy-to-pack, simple-to-use items that are well worth consideration.

There are, for instance, thin soap wafers which dissolve quickly in water, one contains a sufficient supply of lather for a thorough hand scrubbing. Each little case holds 25 soap discs which make a lather in hard water as well as soft. They look like discs of tissue paper and are pleasantly scented.

Also new is a small kit containing lacquer, matching lipstick and cream rouge in stick form and a bottle of liquid base to be applied before polish. Nail polish and base come in full-size bottles. The lipstick is small, but adequate for a two-weeks' vacation. The cheek rouge eliminates necessity for carrying along a separate pot of rouge.

Atomizer-addicts will be pleased to know that one of the finest toilet waters now comes packed with an atomizer which screws into the top of the bottle. For traveling, it may be removed and the enamel bottle-top replaced.

Marine Post At Guam Damaged By Sunday Typhoon

GUAM, Aug. 4 (AP)—A typhoon swept past the island of Guam today, causing extensive damage to the United States Marine post and a crop loss greater than the typhoon of last November. No lives were reported lost.

Berlin Blasted By RAF Bombers

LONDON, Aug. 4 (AP)—British bombers pounded Germany and occupied France day and night over the week-end, carrying their heavy offensive to a peak with a Saturday night mass attack on Berlin.

There were new forays into western Germany last night. Despite unfavorable weather, the raids last night carried to Hannover and Frankfurt, where industries and communications were the objectives, as well as to the docks at Calais.

As the British daylight planes returned from their attacks yesterday, squadrons of night bombers set off in the dusk across the channel and, through the night, the noise of their bombs and the lights from their fires in France were visible even from England's shores.

Only a few German bombers, meanwhile, made scattered flights over Britain. In the northeast, some casualties were caused when houses were demolished. German planes were reported off the south coast early this morning.

Watchers last night saw the assault progress along the coast from Calais to Boulogne and Cap Gris Nez as the night bombers rattled doors and windows in England.

Berliners "got their money's worth," as one pilot expressed it Saturday night, when an estimated 200 to 300 British planes gave the German capital its Sunday raid.

Another pilot said he saw a huge patch of fire "heaving like a volcano" 80 miles away from the city.

Gunman Cuts Loose, Killing 3 In Saloon

SEATTLE, Aug. 4 (AP)—A jittery gunman cut loose with deadly bursts of pistol fire in a dingy little nightclub saloon just before daylight Sunday and, when the smoke cleared, there were three dead men sprawled around the bar and seven others, including the gunman, lay wounded.

Just what mental quirk caused the gunman, who entered the basement club with the admitted intention of robbing it, to start firing into the crowd around the bar was something that had not been explained. No one apparently, made any attempt to resist.

A doorman called police and, as two of them charged through the door, they were wounded, but one of their bullets ripped into the gunman's head. Then a bystander snatched his pistol, another slammed him over the head with a bar stool and the fight was over.

The gunman, in admitting to Deputy Coroner Harley Callahan and Deputy Prosecutor C. H. Ralls he had planned a holdup and that he did the shooting, identified himself as James Green, gave his age as 28 and said he had arrived in Seattle on Saturday from Tampa, Fla., riding freight trains.

Slain were Monte P. Brown, 61, vice-president of the Seattle Daily Journal of Commerce; Gus Goina, 48, a bartender, and John Linder, a bystander.

Fol-Boat Conquers Rapids Of Colorado

BOULDER CITY, Nev., Aug. 4 (AP)—Alexander Grant, Jr., folded and tucked into a gunnysack today a canvas boat in which he became the first to traverse—in such a flimsy craft—the treacherous rapids of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

The first man to navigate the dangerous course in a fol-boat, Grant, Eastern Whitewater champion, said he intended to use the same craft to ride every fast rapid in the United States and Canada.

Grant concluded yesterday a 20-day solo ride from Lee's Ferry, Ariz. He reached the calm waters of Lake Mead Saturday, but had a 75-mile paddle ahead of him to arrive at Boulder dam.

Grant, 26, a cousin of President Roosevelt, is from Doxham, Mass. "In my worst spill," he said, "I was sucked into a terrific whirlpool and my life preserver broke. Luckily, I had a spare life belt with a carbon dioxide bulb attached, straining for air, I pressed the bulb. It worked and I shot to the surface."

"My fol-boat was 300 yards downstream. I swam to it, climbed in and was on my way again."

Bank Holiday Held As Usual In Britain

LONDON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Today marked the beginning of the 101st week of the current war and the 27th anniversary of the start of the last conflict but Britons took the day off for their traditional August bank holiday.

The ignored Prime Minister Churchill's warning that the zero hour for invasion is less than a month off and they thought, instead, they saw hopeful signs of progress in the allied front against Axis.

The news "is good," was the cheerful comment everywhere among people punished by bombings and many months of grim reverses.

A discordant note came, however, from the press, which angrily flayed the public for "launting" the government's request to stay home and scolded the government for making "IrChu raOinCmWymfW"ing it a "request instead of a demand."

The Daily Sketch called it a "reckless holiday spirit" and the Daily Mirror emblazoned: "Joy Trains Halt Arms."

It took 700 special trans—200 of them from London—to take a million or more holly makers to the seaside during the week-end.

There are about 30 different types of warplane models now being produced for Great Britain and Canada by the United States.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 (AP)—The stock market was more or less flat today and leaders generally failed to get anywhere in particular. Dealings were moderately lively at times, with slow intervals frequent. Transactions for the full proceedings were around 450,000 shares.

Stocks favored at times included Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio, General Motors, Chrysler, Willys-Overland, Standard Oil (N.Y.), Union Carbide, North American Aviation and Sears Roebuck.

Twentieth Century-Fox, Budget, Lockheed and Consolidated Aircraft edged into new high ground for the year.

In the largest dividend "U. S. Steel, Goodyear, Southern Pacific, Air Reduction, Allied Chemical, Dow Chemical, American Smelting, Anaconda and General Electric.

Joint Tax Returns Opposed By Willie

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 4 (AP)—Wendell L. Willie, commenting on President Roosevelt's suggestion that husbands and wives be exempted from filing joint returns on earned income, asserted today, "the provision requiring joint returns be made by husband and wife should be eliminated."

"If earned income is exempted then all income should be exempted," said the 1940 Republican presidential nominee in a statement. "There is no logic in any distinction between earned income and income derived from property whether accumulated from earnings or otherwise acquired."

"To require women to return earned income or income from property in joint return with their husbands is a throwback to the dark ages. One of the historic struggles of women in their fight for emancipation was for the right to manage their own property and receive the income from it."

LEVINE'S PRICES TALK

"Beware of rashness, but with sleepless vigilance, go forward and give us victories..." Abraham Lincoln is probably the best loved President the people of the United States have ever had. Certainly he is one of the wisest. When he counseled his countrymen to "beware of rashness" he little knew that his words would go echoing down the years to be reprinted in the Pampa News or hundreds of other newspapers—symbols of the Freedom for which he gave his life. Little did he know that now, three-quarters of a century later, his words would have a meaning as fresh as when he spoke them. But now America is going forward with sleepless vigilance, and she is giving us victories. Thank God our victory is still one of Peace and of Liberty.

LESSONS IN LOVE

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

Copyright, 1941, NEA Service, Inc.

YESTERDAY, Barbara and Dugan go sight-seeing and Barbara confronts him with her knowledge that he is not a full-blooded Indian. He admits he isn't, but insists he has Indian blood and that he practically grew up with Redskins. They play golf the next day, and Dugan beats her by one stroke. His presence at being indifferent to her charms inspires Barbara to conduct a campaign to make Dugan fall in love.

BARBARA ACCUSES DUGAN

CHAPTER VII

THERE was a message for Barbara to call Larry Grover when she and Dugan returned from the golf course. She excused herself and went to the phone in the study.

"We're all invited to Larry's place over the week-end," she announced later at dinner.

"What's the occasion?" Uncle Hank demanded.

"Oh, I guess Larry's just lonely. That awful big place of his with all those grounds can be pretty confining without company once in a while."

"I told Larry to sell that place when his father died," Uncle Hank said, "but I guess he's too attached to it. You must admit, though, it's a darned nice place in the summer, with the pool and the horses."

Hank Chase popped an olive into his mouth. "Well, maybe I can scare up a poker game with the younger, so-called horse set go gallivanting."

"Maybe I'll join you," Dugan said. "I've never been to one of these large-scale week-end parties and I'm not sure how much fun I'll have, either."

"If you don't have fun it'll be no one else's fault but your own," Barbara warned.

The usual crowd descended on Larry's place Friday night. Some of them Dugan had met; others he had not. Those meeting him for the first time "had heard ever so much about him," and Dugan decided that all the gushers weren't in an oil field.

Barbara finally caught him alone for a moment after dinner.

"There are a lot of people here," she observed, "who are getting quite a kick out of the way I've been victimized by my darling uncle's little joke."

"Meaning me?"

"Meaning you," she told him, "and don't try to give me the idea you're not enjoying it. You're getting more attention than a two-headed calf at a county fair."

"Nice comparison," he murmured.

"However," she continued, "if you can tear yourself away for a minute, Uncle Hank would like to see you. He said he'd be in the kitchen, of all places."

DUGAN found Hank Chase draped over a glass of beer.

"Guess this is the only place in the house with any degree of privacy," he said laconically. "Sit down, Dugan."

Dugan sat down.

Hank looked at him intently.

"Dugan, I'm going straight to the point. I heard today from reliable sources that you've been offered a job at $15,000 a year with Midwest Oil Products."

That's almost three times what you're getting with me. Why didn't you tell me, Dugan?" he asked quietly. "Midwest Oil," he repeated slowly.

"I was going to, Hank," Dugan said softly. "Somehow, I just—"

Hank Chase rose. "You don't have to, Dugan. I think I understand. Everything," he added significantly.

Someone in a group huddled around a portable radio called to Dugan, but he hurried by unheeding. He had to find Hank. Instead, he bumped smack into Barbara and Larry coming out of the garden.

Larry grabbed him. "Just the person I want to see."

"Sorry, but . . ."

"No 'but's. I want to talk to you a minute. Won't give you all the details now, but I want you to play a little polo for our Briar Hill team. We're having a little practice game tomorrow with the Hunt Club outfit, and we're not taking 'no' for an answer."

Dugan started to protest, thought differently and nodded assent. "Talk to you about it later," he called over his shoulder. "He's in an awful hurry," said Barbara curiously.

DUGAN didn't find Hank Chase because Hank had gone to his room and stayed there. Barbara, knocking on his door before she retired, found him in a chair, puffing on his pipe.

"Hey, where've you been? We had some swell charades. I was a refugee mother with triplets, and . . ."

"Sit down, Barbs," he interrupted quietly. "I have something to tell you. Something that has been bothering me all night."

"What is it?" she asked quickly.

"Barbara, we've both been fooled, but it's hard to believe."

"Fooled?"

"Dugan's taking a job with Midwest Oil."

"No!" she whispered. "So what I innocently implied was true all the time. He DID sell you out on that tract of land."

She got up, her eyes blazing. "I'm not wasting any time telling him what I think of him."

"No, don't . . ."

But she was gone. Barbara knocked on Dugan's door.

"Come in," he called.

She stepped inside and a look of surprise crossed his face.

"To what do I owe this honor?" he asked with a smile.

"To your dishonor," she replied coldly.

He walked over to the window and looked out grimly. "So, you've been talking with my uncle, I take it."

"Yes, you—you thief. You insufferable, contemptible cad! Needless to say, we expect you to leave our house when we return. There's nothing I can do about ordering you from Larry's place, but I wish I could."

He walked up to her very deliberately, his cheeks flushing. "You're the first person who ever called me a thief. The rest of it wasn't so bad, but I refuse to be judged a thief without a trial. Now, then, come with me."

He grabbed her by the wrist and all but jerked her into the hallway. There wasn't a chance for her to protest, even if her numbed senses had time to function.

House Leaders Hope To Pass Tax Bill Today

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Passage tonight of the $3,529,200,000 tax bill, stiffest in national history, was the goal of house leaders today but President Roosevelt appeared to have strengthened chances for elimination of the provision requiring all married persons to file joint income tax returns.

In an eleventh-hour appeal to the house ways and means committee, made public Saturday, the chief executive suggested three changes in the revenue measure, including modification of the joint return provision so as to exempt income actually earned by either husbands or wives, but the committee rejected all three proposals by "decisive majorities."

Nevertheless, informed legislators forecast that as a result of the President's action, the already strong opposition to the joint return provision could count on picking up additional votes.

Mr. Roosevelt also suggested committee revision of the excess profits tax so as to hit certain types of wealthy corporations harder and the lowering of existing individual income tax exemptions from $200 for single persons to $750 and from $2,000 for married persons to $1,500.

However, the house already has agreed upon drastic parliamentary procedure for consideration of the bill and this will preclude direct action on any of the President's suggestions. Under the rule adopted, the only amendments that can be voted on are those recommended by the ways and means committee.

In its present form, the bill would virtually treble the tax bill of individuals in the lower and middle income brackets. For instance, a married man with no dependents and $2,500 of taxable income would pay $38.50 under the pending measure, whereas he would pay only $11 under existing law.

Nazis Puncture Red Lines In Ukraine Area

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Aug. 4—Swift, deep stabs by German and Hungarian schneid truppen (spear troops)—in the Ukraine have cut off vital railroad connections behind the Red army, the German high command declared today.

This and frequent dispatches indicated that the greatest German progress on the vast eastern front was through the ripening grain fields of the southern Ukraine, far below the provincial capital of Kiev, but the Germans credited their armies with valuable week-end gains all along the line.

In the central sector, where the Germans have punctured the Stalin line in a drive toward Moscow, the high command said "the bulk of Soviet armed forces trapped east of Smolensk now have been destroyed" and "the remainder is facing dissolution."

Unofficial reports told of numerous "new encirclements" by tanks slashing through faltering Russian lines south of Kiev.

(The Russians have acknowledged new Nazi penetrations in the Ukraine, but declare the offensive has failed because the Germans lacked necessary speed to consolidate their gains. Two sides of a German outcracker around Kiev, however, are admitted to be near Korosten, 80 miles to the northwest, and Bel Tserkov, a bare 50 miles to the south.)

There was no indication of the number of Russians claimed to be caught in the German pockets in the Smolensk salient but other communiques have told of Soviet forces isolated, surrounded and wiped out one by one.

'Unfettered' Army And Navy Advocated By Legion Commander

ANTIGO, Wis., Aug. 4 (AP)—Milo J. Warner, national commander of the American Legion, demanded preparations "that will allow us to do our defensive fighting outside the United States—with an army and navy unfettered," in addressing the Wisconsin American Legion convention last night.

Asking support of General George Marshall's position that the national emergency requires the retention of draftees, he declared that "this is the time to begin universal military training for the youth of America."

Wheeler Raises Hemisphere Issue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) charged today that the army was waiting for the pending service extension bill to pass so that it could offer legislation authorizing the use of selectees and guardsmen outside of the western hemisphere.

The Montanan, long a foe of administration foreign policy, said he was agreeable to a prompt vote on the extension bill, but he promised an energetic opposition filibuster against any subsequent proposal for use of the men beyond hemisphere confines.

In raising the hemisphere issue as the senate opened its fourth day of debate on the service bill, Wheeler sided with Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.) of the senate naval committee who also contended that the army had such plans.

Wheeler and Walsh were challenged by Senator Hill of Alabama, the Democratic whip, who informed reporters that, to his knowledge, the army was contemplating no such request to congress.

The bill, as drafted, would empower the President to extend indefinitely the service of regular enlisted men, selectees, reservists and national guardsmen until such time as congress terminates that authority. Last week, however, a majority of the senate military committee agreed to have the legislation provide that no man would be held longer than 18 months beyond his original service period.

Women Stage Mad Rush For Hose

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—In the midst of a mad rush for the nation's women to stock up on silk hosiery, rayon yarn producers operated today under government orders to estimate 10 per cent of their output for silk users affected by a stop-production command from defense officials.

Purpose of the rayon order, the office of price administration and supply explained Saturday, was to "avert complete dislocation" of the $250,000,000 silk processing industry and its 175,000 workers.

Hosiery mills will get 70 per cent of the rayon yarn set aside and the remaining 30 per cent will go to adjust hardships of present rayon customers or to manufacturers who had been using silk for other purposes than making hosiery.

Meanwhile a bull market on silk sheathing for feminine limbs prevailed from coast to coast.

Managers of 12 New York stores said at last week's end that stocking orders had increased 200 to 500 per cent and that another two weeks would exhaust the reserve supply normally good for four months.

Dalhart's XIT Celebration In 'Full Swing'

DALHART, Aug. 4 (AP)—The sixth annual XIT rodeo and reunion was going full blast today with business sessions and entertainment features highlighting the program.

Although the two-day celebration was to open today, celebrants could not wait and started festivities yesterday with dances, speedboat races, a Dalhart-Pampa polo game and the annual memorial service at the Central Methodist church. The memorial address was delivered by Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State college at Canyon.

Meetings were held today by the XIT association, parent of the celebration; the two cowboys' associations, and the old trail drivers of the southwest.

Other events include band concerts, massed concerts, maneuvers, and stunt marching. The XIT parades will be held both mornings at 11 o'clock.

On the shores of Lake Rita Blanco professional rodeos will be held today and tomorrow at 2 p. m. Contestants will receive prizes totaling $1,400.

In the evening hall and street dances will be held, with one dance set aside exclusively for old-time steps.

Axis Ring Around Tobruk Weakening

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 4 (AP)—Axis troops are withdrawing from advanced positions in the siege ring they clamped four months ago around Tobruk, Libya, a British general headquarters communique declared today.

This, however, did not indicate lifting of the siege nor any major withdrawal of the German-Italian forces from their rewon hold on eastern Libya.

The British have reported repeatedly in the past week that their hit-and-run night patrols striking out from Tobruk have failed to make contact with the besiegers and the latter, apparently, have decided that the siege can be held just as effectively without risking men in exposed outposts.

"Our offensive patrols from Tobruk have continued their aggressive activities," the communique said, "although valuable work has been done in locating and destroying hostile mine fields. The enemy has apparently refused contact by withdrawing from forward positions under cover of darkness."

Vichy Decides To Resist Germans

VICHY, Unoccupied France, Aug. 4 (AP)—The German-controlled Paris press today professed to see the hand of United States Ambassador William D. Leahy behind "the brake applied to the policy of French-German collaboration."

Following the reported decision of Chief of State Marshal Petain at a Saturday cabinet meeting to stay within present agreements with Germany despite pressure for a military accord respecting Dakar, the Paris Aujourd'hui thundered, "Are we yes or no—for collaboration with Germany? Unconditionally and unreservedly? That is what they want to know on the German side."

An answering voice in the press of the unoccupied zone meanwhile praised Petain.

L'Effort at Marseille was the boldest paper in this respect, declaring Petain was "trying sometimes to resist, sometimes to maneuver."

Saturday's cabinet meeting followed a 45-minute conference between Petain and Ambassador Leahy. The

Radio-Cone' Fraud Broken Up By Texas Health Department

AUSTIN, Aug. 4—Beware of home to house agents who would sell you merchandise under some high sounding name and claiming that it will cure all diseases known to affect man or beast," warns Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"By patronizing such people the general public is not only wasting its money but is often purchasing an article that may be dangerous to the safety of persons or livestock."

One of the more recent frauds uncovered by field inspectors of the state department of health concerns so-called "radio-active cones." Agents for this company have been covering certain sections of the state zealously, and have been selling a product that is not only worthless, but if used according to directions would be very dangerous to the public health.

False claims have been made by salesmen peddling this product that it will not only cure all diseases, but if used continuously will definitely prolong life.

Laboratory analysis reveals that this product contains radon in sufficient quantities and potency to be unsafe for children and if used by adults frequently and in high dosage would be dangerous to their health.

Personnel of the department of health are constantly on guard to protect the general public against such fraudulent practices but to gain a greater degree of success every citizen should be extremely careful in purchasing any treatment concoction or device from persons who claim marvelous results from their fraudulent product.

"If you or your family needs medical attention, play safe, see a competent physician and leave the quacks alone," concluded Dr. Cox.

British Queen Has Quiet Anniversary

LONDON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Queen Elizabeth marked her 41st birthday anniversary quietly today in the country with King George VI and their two children, Princess Elizabeth, heiress presumptive to the British crown, and Princess Margaret Rose.

Among messages from the United States was one from President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Paris press also professed to see the United States ambassador's hand behind failure of Petain to name Ferdinand de Brion, French envoy to the Germans in Paris, to a new post.

'Floor' For Farm Prices Advocated

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—The administration's price control bill was countered today by a demand from some farm state senators that a "floor" be placed under farm prices if a "ceiling" was imposed by the legislation.

Chairman Smith (D-S. C.) said that the senate agriculture committee "was unanimously opposed to any price fixing that did not fix a floor as well as a ceiling."

Others, including Capper (R-Kas.), Gillette (D-Ia.), Thomas (D-Okla.), and Stewart (D-Tenn.) said they agreed that if congress was to fix a minimum price limit on things the farmer sells, it also should protect him by a minimum.

The price fixing bill, introduced yesterday in both branches of congress, would authorize the President to establish maximum prices for commodities and for rents in defense areas but, in existing form, would give no control over wages or utility rates. Under its terms he could require licenses for engaging in transactions coming within the scope of the proposed law, but such licenses would not be required for distribution of newspapers, books and other printed matter.

An emergency court of appeals to which sellers could take appeals from the regulations would be set up, the court composed of three federal district or court of appeals judges named by the chief justice of the United States.

The bill designates the price levels of July 29 as the basis for determining price ceilings.

"We'll fight to have the floor included," Smith said. "Price-fixing is a dangerous business and I don't believe congress will approve it in the present form."

Texas Oil Production Above Daily Estimate

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 (AP)—For the first time in months, Texas oil production this week averaged 1,097 barrels daily higher than the market demand as estimated by the U. S. Bureau of Mines, railroad commission engineers reported today.

The engineers said the statewide average daily allowable increased 52,769 barrels to a total of 1,412,121.

Subtracting 3.5 per cent forecast underproduction in assigned but unproduced allowables amounting to 50,521 barrels a day, the engineers found the actual yield was slightly more than 1,000 barrels daily over the bureau's demand estimate.

The report showed 97,189 producing wells in the state, a drop of 278 from the week previous.

'Lineup Complete,' Mussolini Declares

ROME, Aug. 4 (AP)—Premier Mussolini, in a speech made public today, told Italian troops leaving for the Russian front that the "line-up now is complete" with Rome, Berlin and Tokyo on one side, and London, Washington and Moscow on the other "for a clash between two worlds."

The premier's declaration, hitherto undivulged, was made to Blackshirts he reviewed July 29 at Mantua before they left to fight alongside the Germans and their other allies against the Red army.

Il Duce told the Blackshirts they were going to take part in a "battle of giants" and said the "drama" which Italian Fascism began against Bolshevism had reached its "fifth act."

The other four, presumably, were the Fascist march on Rome which put the Fascists in power in Italy, the conquest of Ethiopia, the civil war in Spain and the defeat of France.

"Legionnaires," Mussolini told the troops, "a great honor and a supreme privilege await you and I am sure you feel it in your souls as volunteers; the honor and privilege of taking part in an authentic battle of giants."

"For 20 years the peoples of the earth have been agitated by this alternative, this hard dilemma—Fascism or Bolshevism, Rome or Moscow."

CAMEL THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

"Less nicotine in the smoke means more mildness to me," says test pilot Marshall Headle (above), as he lights up his... and America's... favorite cigarette

THERE may be little traffic at 35,000 feet, but test-diving any new, untried plane is no Sunday joy-ride. No, not even for a veteran like Marshall Headle (above).

Naturally, cigarette mildness is important to Marshall Headle. And in the slower-burning cigarette of costlier tobaccos... Camels... he gets extra mildness—with less nicotine in the smoke.

What cigarette are you smoking now? Chances are it's one of the five included in the nicotine tests reported above at the left—tests which trace Camel's advantage right down to the actual smoke itself. Obviously, the smoke's the thing! Try Camels. For convenience—economy—buy the carton.
