

Food Will Be Most Fascinating Item On Labor Day Picnic Program

Food and lots of it will have first place on the program of the All-States Victory picnic which will be held a week from this afternoon at Central park.

That's the good word sent out today by Jaycees and the All-States committee, sponsors of the picnic.

Other items on the program—which will be short indeed—will pale into insignificance before the picnic feast which will be spread on "the longest table in the world" about 6 o'clock Monday evening.

Yesterday the Roving Reporter, who is by the way of being a gourmet, made a canvass of persons who have signified they will attend the picnic and found that 12 families will bring the following items: fried chicken, potato salad, salmon salad, barbecued beef, beef roast, roast turkey, pork pie, baked ham, fried liver, deviled eggs, fried fish, roast lamb, black-eyed peas, green beans, baked squash, corn, five kinds of salad, jello with bananas and coconut, eight kinds of pie, including lemon, apple, chocolate, caramel, four kinds of sandwiches, three kinds of beans.

Doesn't that make your mouth water? To say the least, it's tantalizing. So you can see it will not be an exaggeration to say that the few remarks anybody will make, and the few songs anybody will sing or play, will naturally take a back seat when they go to setting' that food on the table. Over to the right the lines will form for lemonade which will be about 15 barrels and will be in covered containers.

Now, of course, the Jaycees and the committee are going to make a lot of fuss about it before next Monday, but they are determined to induce you to bring your family and a full lunch basket to that picnic, and they are going to put on the propaganda pressure this week. In fact, they are going to put on the pressure so hard that you wouldn't miss that picnic for nothin'. And who would with all that food in plain sight and reachin' distance?

So tonight the committee is going to line up 30 of the prettiest girls in Pampa, the queens of last June's

Folks Fests, to put the finger on you and to spread the word that for patriotic reasons, for neighborly reasons, for good old American reasons you can't afford not to go to that picnic.

The queens are asked to meet with the committee at 8 o'clock in the district courtroom where the general committee will meet. There Finis Stilwell, who has charge of the invitation tour next Thursday, will tell the girls about the tour and what they will wear.

Then R. B. Saxe will give more details of Stutterin' Sam's part on the program, the songs which he will sing and the music the veterans band will play.

Mr. Stilwell will announce exactly when, where and how the motorcade will visit more than a dozen Top O' Texas towns Thursday to invite the neighbors to come to Pampa next Monday and bring a basket.

The motorcade will be led by Mr. Stilwell, Lord Blinksop, KPND radio comedian, Stark family and will include cars representing all the state clubs. The tour will be climaxed Thursday night at 7:30 with a program in front of the LaNora theater in which Blinksop, the Stark's, the Dogcatchers, and a hill-billy band and all the queens will take part.

The Weather

West Texas: Generally fair this afternoon, tonight and Tuesday except scattered thundershowers in the south portion this afternoon.

PERSIAN ARMY REPORTED RESISTING BRITISH

The Duke of Kent, left, youngest brother of King George VI of England, is met by Mayor LaGuardia upon his arrival at LaGuardia field, New York, after a flight from Canada. The Duke will spend two days with the President at his Hyde Park home before continuing on to Washington.

Singapore Forces Greatly Increased

SINGAPORE, Aug. 25. (AP)—The British empire's formidable fighting strength in the far east again was increased today, soon after Prime Minister Churchill's pledge of support to the United States in the event of trouble with Japan in the far east.

Besides the largest single body of Royal air force personnel to arrive here in more than a year, transports disgorged strong Indian army reinforcements at Malayan ports.

One great liner docked here after a 10,000-mile voyage from the United Kingdom without the loss of one man of the hundreds who will staff Britain's steadily expanding chain of east Asian air bases and fly the growing number of bomber and fighter squadrons in the far east.

Income Tax Base Broadened In Vote

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—The Senate Finance committee voted today to broaden the income tax base by lowering exemptions from $2,000 to $1,500 for married persons and from $800 to $750 for single individuals.

Senator Clark (D-Mo.), a committee member, told reporters that the vote for the lower exemptions was "substantial."

The lower exemptions would bring an additional 6,000,000 persons under the income tax structure and would add between $300,000,000 and $350,000,000 to federal revenues. Most of the increase would come from persons already paying income taxes.

Rebuffed in their bid for White House support, senate old-age pension advocates were reported ready today to buck the administration leadership in an effort to write a modified version of the Townsend plan into the $2,336,700,000 tax bill.

Authoritative informants said Senator Downey (D-Calif.), a Townsend adherent, would appear before the Senate Finance committee this week to urge that the federal government provide a minimum of $30 monthly for persons over 60.

Gov. Stevenson Asks Compromise In Bond Battle

AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—Governor Coke Stevenson, commenting on the controversial subject of a prospective special session of the legislature on the road bond assumption issue, today asserted there should be a compromise between opposing factions.

Defying a physician's orders not to leave the mansion, the governor, appearing hale and hearty, conducted his first press conference in 10 days. He had been afflicted with a throat ailment.

Stevenson declared he was still hopeful that a compromise agreement on the road bond question would enable him to proclaim a 30-day assembly of the state's lawmakers starting Sept. 9.

"Do you think the demand of a group of county judges, headed by Merritt Gibson of Longview, that you should call a session to thresh out the matter would be the proper procedure?" the governor was asked. "I do not," he replied. Stevenson a bill which would receive approval has repeatedly asserted that unless of both houses of the legislature was agreed upon beforehand, he would not call a special meeting of the state's 181 lawmakers.

"Everybody knows I want the money (a $2,000,000 balance in the state's county district road bond indebtedness fund) to go to the highway department. The county judges want it to go to the counties.

"They (the judges) have no more right to expect those who differ with them to take their program lock, stock and barrel than we have the other way around."

English And Reds Invade Oil Kingdom

Iran May Line Up With Hitler In Desert War

(By The Associated Press)

Armed forces of little Iran (Persia) were reported offering resistance today as British and Russian troops simultaneously invaded the Middle East oil kingdom, marching in to enforce demands for the ouster of German agents.

The German wireless broadcast a dispatch from Ankara, Turkey, declaring that "chasers" have already been reported from the Caucasus border," the point of entry for Soviet troops.

Russian Cossacks and mounted infantry headed the Soviet invasion columns, striking from the north across the burning deserts for a junction with the British.

Dispatches from Cairo, headquarters of the British middle east command, said Indian mechanized forces, strongly supported by RAF squadrons were in the vanguard of the synchronized British thrust from the south and southwest.

Authoritative London quarters said British forces entering the country had met some opposition, although previously it had been expected that Iran would yield before the overwhelming Anglo-Soviet armies.

The British said their troops had landed from ships at Bandar Shapur, at the head of the Persian Gulf, and at other points.

Authorized quarters in Berlin asserted that planes bombed the city of Tabriz, in north Iran, causing damage and casualties.

The Moslem kingdom, which derives its present name from ancient Aryans—the land of the Aryans—the site of the world's richest single oil field.

Early reports on the invasion, which started just after midnight, made no mention of fighting. Iranian forces had withdrawn 12 miles from the Soviet frontier last week to avoid border incidents.

About 30 Russian divisions (450,000 troops) were reported massed on the Iran-Soviet frontier.

Whether Iran would resist, possibly with German help, was a moot question. In Washington last week, Iran's minister to the United States declared his country would combat any invader—British, Russian or German—even at 10-1 odds.

In Berlin today the limousine of the Iranian minister to Germany was seen in front of the Nazi foreign ministry a few hours after the invasion began.

London observers said the British were faced with a race against time, declaring German agents in Iran would attempt to destroy the oil pipeline running from Jamsid-I-Sulaiman to the Iran frontier and wreck the great oil fields in the north.

As an advance indication that the Iranians might fight, the kingdom's constitutional monarch, Riza, Mhan Pahlevi, last week ordered 1,072 newly-organized officers to active duty with the regular army.

In the 65-day-old Russian-German war, Adolf Hitler's high command again reported tersely that "operations in the east are making progress everywhere."

Soviet military dispatches declared that Red army defenses had checked the German onslaught toward Leningrad and that heavily reinforced Russian divisions were successfully counter-attacking.

Mammoth Soviet tanks were credited with smashing 135 light German tanks in bloody fighting south of southwest of Leningrad, while on the central front, in the Gomet area between Smolensk and Kiev, the Russians said they

FDR Vetoes Laws To Freeze Wheat Stocks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. (AP)—President Roosevelt vetoed today legislation to freeze government stocks of wheat and cotton, declaring it to be contrary to sound governmental policy and to the long-time best interests of both farmers and consumers.

In a message to the house, the chief executive said it was his conviction that approval of the measure "would seriously and adversely affect the agricultural adjustment program and the attendant policies which have been so beneficial to our farmers during the past few years."

Advocates of the bill at the capitol had contended that sale of the government stocks might depress prices.

Pampa Cadet Finishes Course At Flying Field

William H. Davis, Jr., 24, of Pampa, is one of approximately 47 young men who have completed almost two-thirds of their flight training at Gardner Field, Taft, Calif., and will report shortly to one of the advanced flying schools for the final ten-week period of training.

Davis reported at Gardner Field on June 2, following completion of the ten-week primary training course at the Ryan School of Aeronautics, at Hemet, California, one of the Air Corps' Civilian elementary flying schools. With the completion of the basic flying work at Gardner Field, he will be sent to one of the advanced schools for a ten-week period of advanced training.

Prior to his acceptance as a flying cadet in March, Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, 1025 Mary Ellen Street, attended Pampa High school, Texas A. & M. College Station, Texas, and Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas.

On completion of the basic, or second course, at Gardner Field, Davis and his class will go to one of the advanced schools, probably at Stockton, California, for the advanced course. The completion of this course will lead to a commission as second lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve, and his wings as a full fledged Air Corps pilot. He will then be assigned with one of the Air Corps Units for tactical instruction and training.

Japs Oppose U. S. Cargoes To Siberia

SHANGHAI, Aug. 25. (AP)—A French dispatch from Tokyo quoted well-informed quarters today as saying the Japanese government had decided to tolerate temporarily the passage of American war materials to Vladivostok.

The shipments, which must go through waters controlled by the Japanese navy, the dispatch said will be used as a lever to obtain relaxation of United States economic restrictions on Japan.

Japan was expected to seek a Moscow guarantee not to use American arms against Japan, according to this source, and not to participate in the alleged British-American encirclement.

Adolf Hitler's newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter, referring to the Roosevelt-Churchill conference, headlined its account of the work of the German raiders as "also an Atlantic meeting," which "meeting," it said, effectively answered the British.

A special Sunday high command communique said the convoy was stalked for days by U-boats which picked the vessels off one by one.

Of the entire convoy, it added, only eight freighters escaped to the territorial waters of neutral Portugal.

Senae Confirms Rexford Tugwell

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. (AP)—The senate confirmed today the nomination of Rexford Tugwell to be governor of Puerto Rico despite an assertion by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) that Tugwell had "no sympathy with American ideals or the American system" and was "the apostle of collectivism."

Confirmation was on a standing vote.

Tugwell, a close adviser of President Roosevelt in the early days of the new deal, recently was nominated to the post by the President.

Taft told the senate that Tugwell was opposed to the American constitutional system and "looks with greatest sympathy on the program of Communism in Russia."

Coke Vetoes Doctor; Back At Work Today

AUSTIN, Aug. 25. (AP)—Ignoring a doctor's orders, Governor Coke Stevenson, who has been confined to the mansion 10 days with a throat ailment, today resumed, in full, the duties of the governorship.

Appearing hale and hearty, the governor tackled an accumulation of pending business and, answering a question, remarked:

"You know how these doctors are. They keep telling me to be careful. This morning I was told again not to go to the office.

"I said all right and here I am. I haven't felt bad at all. It was just my throat. I couldn't talk without coughing."

"How do you feel now?" Stevenson was asked.

"Fine. My throat's still a little sore. Guess it's blistered from all the turpentine they've been using."

21 Convoy Ships Sunk, Nazis Boast

BERLIN, Aug. 25. (AP)—Germans boasted today they had delivered one of their heaviest blows yet to Britain's commerce—the sinking of 21 Gibraltar-bound merchantmen totalling 122,000 tons out of a single convoy, three of the convoying naval craft and three other merchantmen in other operations.

Adolf Hitler's newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter, referring to the Roosevelt-Churchill conference, headlined its account of the work of the German raiders as "also an Atlantic meeting," which "meeting," it said, effectively answered the British.

A special Sunday high command communique said the convoy was stalked for days by U-boats which picked the vessels off one by one.

Blinksop Will Attempt To Tell Folks About Picnic

Lord Blinksop, otherwise Bill Browne, KPND sports announcer, will open his daily talks on the All States Victory picnic tonight at 6 o'clock over KPND. His lordship said he would attempt to tell about the picnic each night this week. Tomorrow night he will deliver an antidiversion (his word for it) on the dance which the Louisiana club will sponsor next Monday night at the Southern club. The Perryton Playboys stringed orchestra will furnish the music.

Lord Blinksop of the British accent, said that he would attend the picnic and take along a "rasher of mountain oysters. This is Texas, you know."

Troops Wrestle With Fourth Problem In Army Maneuvers

WITH THE SECOND ARMY IN ARKANSAS, Aug. 25. (AP)—Red Kotkin, the famed cowboy of Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, and Kentucky that is "invading" Blue Almat (Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee), opened a broad frontal attack today on the Blue seventh corps of the second army in southwest Arkansas and simultaneously extended wide flanking movement around the Blue battle line.

And thus was posed for the 75,000 seventh corps men caught in pincers the fourth problem of the Arkansas maneuver—that of strategic withdrawal to prepared positions in rolling country toward Camden.

The withdrawal held for maximum coordination between the three divisions holding the front, and the 75th field artillery brigade of Tennessee, which rolled up to support the temporarily successful Almat drive on the invaders last week. The whole operation out to test one of the most delicate maneuvers of the art of war under the eyes of exacting umpires.

Workers Leaving WPA Jobs At Rate Of 100,000 Monthly

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. (AP)—Workers are leaving WPA jobs voluntarily at the rate of 100,000 a month, officials disclosed today, but still to be solved is the problem of what to do with 1,000,000 who have been on the waiting list since spring.

Another source of worry for WPA heads, whose appropriation for the current fiscal year, was slashed sharply, are 1,000,000 persons who government officials and labor representatives estimate will be thrown out of work by defense priority claims on materials.

Last year the WPA received $1-350,000,000 and maintained an average of 1,700,000 workers. This year it got $875,000,000. To make the money last the full 12 months it has cut the number of workers from 1,410,223 in June to 1,041,734 in the middle of August.

Late News

LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 25. (AP)—Thirteen British merchantmen had arrived in Lisbon today out of a convoy attacked by a fleet of German submarines, and it was reported that seven other freighters and the British Destroyer Eskimo, 1,850 tons, had been sunk.

The convoy was attacked off the Spanish coast. The survivors said there originally were only 20 ships in it, compared with German high command claims that 21 were sunk.

TOKYO, Tuesday, Aug. 26. (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's assertion that Britain and the United States were trying to obtain a peaceful settlement with Japan was described as "nothing but a big lie" today by Nichi Nichi, one of the most influential Japanese newspapers.

Miss Cleora Stanard And Kenneth Carman Wed Sunday Afternoon

Impressive Rites At Church Unite Popular Couple

The marriage of Miss Cleora Stanard and Kenneth F. Carman was solemnized in an impressive single ring ceremony at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Christian church in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alta Stanard of Pampa and Mr. Carman is the son of Bert Carman of Buckley, Illinois.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Todd, Jr., of Pampa.

Guests assembled during an organ program given by Ken Bennett. Selections included "Ave Maria" (Schubert), "The Rosary" (Nevin), Miss Louise Smith of Amarillo sang "On Promise Me" (Scott) and "Ich Liebe Dich" (Grieg). "I Love You Truly" (Bond) was played softly in high register. The "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) was played for the entrance of the bride party and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional.

The vows were said as the couple and the attendants stood before an altar of white and green which was illuminated by a graduated arrangement of white tapers in white candleholders. Kenia palms formed the background for floor stands and wedding baskets filled with white gladioli. Northern ferns banked the choir rail and a tall classic urn of white gladioli decorated the organ.

Mrs. Earl Ross Goble of Shamrock attended her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was of cornflower blue chiffon designed with a graceful skirt, long sleeves, and a white lace yoke forming a high neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of Briarcliff roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Earl Ross Goble. Her gown was of white bridal satin fashioned with a close-fitting gathered waistline from which the full gored skirt fell into a long train. Small satin buttons extended from the back neckline to the low waistline. The long fitted sleeves accentuated the large sweetheart-shaped yoke of white lace which was topped with a high collar. The full-length veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of stephanotis. Her circular face veil extended almost to the waist and both were edged in lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. For "something old" she wore a cameo pin belonging to her mother.

Mrs. Stanard wore a black dress with a lace yoke and matching hat. Her corsage was a single gardenia.

W. Postma of Coleman was best man. Ushers were Robert Curry, Ernest Cabe, Jr., Bill Anderson, and Winston Savage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 420 North Russell street. Vases and baskets of white gladioli were arranged throughout the house. The three-tiered all-white wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and encircled in a lei of white gladioli flowers. White candles lighted the table at which Mrs. W. Postma poured coffee. Mrs. Goble served the cake and Miss Winifred Wiseman had charge of the registry. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Vaughn, Mrs. Bill Anderson, Mrs. Bob Curry, and Miss Johnnie Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman left after the reception on a wedding trip to Colorado. They will be home in Pampa upon their return.

For travel, the bride wore a black redingote with white jabot and black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

At the rehearsal dinner Saturday evening in the Schneider hotel, a low arrangement of white gladioli flanked by two smaller bouquets decorated the table. White candles burned in holders covered by gladioli florets. Place cards were white slippers arranged beside small bags of rice on tiny paper dollies.

The bride wore a corsage of Briarcliff roses.

Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross Goble of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. W. Postma of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cabe, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bennett, Rev. and Mrs. James Todd, Mrs. Alta Stanard, Mrs. C. O. Nestling, Miss Louise Smith, and Miss Winifred Wiseman.

Mrs. Carman who is a member of the Junior High school faculty, was graduated from Texas State College for Women at Denton and has done graduate work at the University of Colorado in Boulder. The bride is a member of Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mr. Carman attended Illinois Wesleyan college and received his Master's degree from Northwestern university at Evanston, Illinois, where he has worked on a P. H. D. degree also. He is a member of Phi Alpha fraternity. The bridegroom, head of the dramatics department of the local high school, is an instructor of dramatics and speech at West Texas State college at Canyon this summer.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. C. O. Nestling of Winslow, Arizona, and Mrs. J. A. Plunket of Amarillo.

An automobile which goes 18 miles on a gallon at 30 miles an hour will go about 12 at 60. Oil consumption is seven times greater at 55 miles an hour than at 30.

THAT TATOODED LADY IS OLD FAVORITE, GLORIA SWANSON, PEPPING UP STYLES

This "Tattooed Lady of 1941" is Gloria Swanson—wearing a white jersey blouse designed by Rene Hubert for her return to the screen. The designs were done by a genuine waterfront tattoo artist, using paint instead of the usual needle and dye. With it Miss Swanson wears an unusual pair of culottes of gray gabardine.

By DEE LOWRANCE
HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 25—Nineteen years ago Gloria Swanson was "Hollywood's Best-Dressed Woman." Now she's back on the screen—and many think she still rates the title.

After eight years of retirement, Miss Swanson is set to startle a style-wise world with her wardrobe in "Father Takes a Wife." All of her 18 Rene Hubert-designed costumes are outstanding, several of them breath-taking and stylish-smarties say they will bring them right back to the 'fgr.

Gloria hasn't changed her rules for dressing. Caught on the set, she expounded them gladly: "I'll stick to simple lines, becoming colors. Because I'm so short, I stay from the horizontal, adhere to flattering vertical lines. And when I go giddy—I go giddy indeed!"

BRINGING TATTOOED LADY BACK TO LIFE
By "giddy" she means one of the most unusual items in the wardrobe—a blouse that brings the tattooed lady back to life. On a plain white jersey blouse is a collection of brilliant designs, the time-honored favorites of sea-going men, placed there by a real waterfront tattoo artist, using a paint brush instead of the usual needle. With this she wears gray gabardine culottes, cut to look like a skirt in the back.

The vertical lines Miss Swanson loves so well are to be found in all her costumes, most notably in an intricate jersey evening gown. The gown itself is of ashes of roses, classically draped in the bodice with a panel which draws through a neckline and falls straight to the floor.

Over this she wears a "half cloak" of amethyst jersey with one sleeve—the right—and full drapery to fall over the left shoulder. A similar "half cloak" in vermillion has left done by a genuine waterfront tattoo artist, using paint instead of the usual needle and dye. With it Miss Swanson wears an unusual pair of culottes of gray gabardine.

a sleeve only and a cape for the right shoulder—very striking.

A BEST DRESSED WOMAN'S WARDROBE
Vertical lines, too, with a difference, mark her stunning afternoon suit of black and white checked wool. Instead of a conventional jacket, Miss Swanson wears a wrist-length cape, cut narrow, with rounded lines at the front revealing a low-necked black blouse.

Another example of lean lines is the streamlined exercise suit she wears in "Father Takes a Wife." Pearl gray gabardine trousers are tailored like ski pants, pulled down narrowly to the ankles where they fasten under the insteps with elastic bands. Elastic makes the high-waistline fit snugly, keeps the jersey and gabardine blouse from creeping up. Two shades of gray kid-skin, held with an old-fashioned chain, watch and fob, make the belt, while the clogs are gray pigskin.

Other interesting costumes were a wedding suit of azure wool crepe; a gay wool dress and matching, sleeveless jacket with peacock-feathers clipped to the shoulder; black hostess slacks with a white chiffon top; a rose crepe negligee over a daisy printed nightgown; an apron-front garden frock of white plique; a stark white chiffon evening gown with confetti palette-covered wrist gloves.

Defense Dollars Tempt College Boys
BY RUTH MILLETT
A new frontier has opened up for college boys, and in increasing numbers they are deserting college campuses. The new frontier is Defense. Jobs are easy to get. The pay looks big, especially to boys who until now have been earning anything more than meals for waiting on tables in a fraternity house.

And so they are letting themselves be side-tracked from their one-time ambition of getting an education in order to start making some money now.

The Sam Smith, for example, Sam has finished two years in midwestern university. Until June of this year he had every intention of finishing his liberal arts education, and then going into one of the professional schools.

He has the brains, the ambition, and his family is willing to help him through.

SHORT RANGE VS. LONG RANGE VIEW
But when in June he heard that jobs were to be had in a nearby defense-boomed city, his ambition took a short range view. He wanted one of those jobs—and got it.

He figures it this way: Here he has a chance to be entirely self-supporting, to earn a pay check that for a boy used to scripping along on small checks from home, looks big. And having heard all the talk about the hard times that will follow the present defense boom, he has decided that there isn't much future in preparing for a profession, anyway.

Even if Sam can always earn a living by his new-acquired skill he has deliberately forfeited the right to a profession when he had the ability to make the grade. Besides that, he will probably never dig out for himself the cultural education college would have given him.

By the time he realizes how he has limited himself it will probably be too late to do much about it. By then he may have married and started a family, and will be responsible for its support.

He and the other young men like him are facing a terrific temptation to give up their chance at an education.

GENEROUS FULLNESS
If you have very wide windows in your home, the very best thing you will want to do is skimp on curtain material. If you are buying full measurement, for you will want an effect of generous fullness. If you are buying ready-made curtains, one pair of very wide ones may be sufficient. Otherwise you may need two or even three pairs of narrow width curtains for each window.

Tires in continuous runs generate such heat that in some cases the temperature runs as high as 12 degrees below the boiling point. Heat and oxidation are unrelenting enemies of rubber.

PANELLED FRONT

Let this frock achieve a new slimmness for you, with its front skirt panel. As you see, the gathers above the panel give the bodice the desired fullness. The neckline, too, contributes to a streamlined effect, it is also flattering to your face. Here is a dress for right now, cool through the early autumn months, smart to wear through the winter under your coat. Make it in black or colored crepe, satin, faille or in velvet as an afternoon dress.

Pattern No. 8015 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 42 and 44. Size 16, three quarter sleeves, 4 3/4 yards 20-inch material without nap. 1-2 yards of 1/4-inch bias fold required for finishing bodice.

BRIGHT-HUED HOSE, STRIDING INTO FALL STYLE PICTURE, PUT SPOTLIGHT ON LEGS

With a two-piece dress of taupe jersey, Fira Benenson, famous New York designer, shows sheer stockings in a much darker shade of taupe than the dress. Bag and shoes are of black alligator gloves of black suede.

BY ALICIA HART
Fashion's newest brain child—colored stockings and sheer, sheer black ones—focuses attention on the legs. This is the time to decide to concentrate on learning to walk gracefully, to stand well, to have good seated posture.

Stockings in wonderful shades of green, dark subtle greens, as well as vivid, Kelly green tones, electric blue, navy, smoky gray-blue, cyclamen (yes, cyclamen!), platinum, rich copper and, of course, sheer black put the accent on the legs. It will be a fall to use a depilatory or razor on your legs at least once a week and to make the most of the new lines of "keyed-to-the-costume" stockings.

DESIGNERS KEY CLOTHES TO STOCKING SHADES
Fashion designers are entirely open-minded about the new idea. Famous Jo Copeland introduces nutria stockings to match three nutria buttons on a short taupe jacket of soft wool. And she shows wine stockings with a wine suit of rough wool.

Nettie Rosenstien, another famous American designer, puts ruby red stockings on a model who wears a double-breasted fall suit of ruby red wool. Also in this collection, olive green stockings are worn with a blue, green and fuchsia silk dinner costume.

Charles Cooper, a designer who is a veritable genius with color, likes electric blue hose which includes a black jacket and a gently gored skirt in Tang blue, a new shade. Also in the Cooper collection for fall, sheerest black stockings are shown with a black wool dress with black satin yoke. Tenagra brown ones with a dinner dress in Tenagra brown, with sash of red and green.

Valentina, whose designs always are headline-making, is showing gray stockings with every costume in her current collection. But every known shade of gray is included.

And Fira Benenson, whose creations are loved by women of South America as well as the United States, uses accessory-color stockings either to match or as a contrast to the costume—always keyed to the accessories. With a taupe jersey two-piece suit, Miss Benenson combines a taupe taffeta plaid hat and scarf, black alligator bag and shoes, black suede gloves and sheer taupe stockings in a much darker tone than the dress.

SEEK TO STREAMLINE LEGS
While the idea of colored stockings with street, dinner and evening clothes is catching on in the designers' workrooms, the figure experts are busily thinking up new ways to reduce thick ankles, superfluous weight on calves. This is the time to revive interest in the leg and ankle exercises you haven't thought much about lately.

And, as we said, it certainly is a time to learn to stand, walk and sit properly. The smart woman—her legs encased in stockings keyed to her costume—will remember to stand with weight on both feet and with feet close together. She will take medium length steps—not long, minish strides or, worse yet, little mincing, teetering steps. She never will sit with feet crossed at the ankles. She never will sit with knees apart. And she will cross her legs above the knee. She knows that it is awkward and ageing to cross legs below the knee instead of above it.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART
With the cost of fabrics and of ready-to-wear clothes rising steadily, the beauty-minded woman renews her attention to sound rules for making less expensive clothes look like expensive ones. It can be done—as perfectly groomed career girls can tell you.

There's the matter of having your clothes fitted by an expert, for instance. Any smart woman will agree that a ten-dollar dress that really fits well will be twice as flattering and look worth twice as much money as will a twenty-dollar dress that is too loose at the waistline or too tight across the hips.

Correct posture assumes new importance, too. If you stand tall and straight with stomach in, chest high and backbone as straight a line as possible, your clothes will look more expensive than they will if you slump.

ACCESSORIES AID THAT EXPENSIVE LOOK
Furthermore, if you replace lifts on heels as often as necessary, keep white collars and white gloves immaculately white and remember to press your tops and skirts a little more often, your wardrobe will seem more expensive than it really is.

Also, remember that it is often better to economize on dresses than on accessories. When it comes to having to make a choice, pay a little more for shoes, gloves, hats and less for dresses rather than the other way around. Good accessories can do wonders for a closet full of cheaper dresses.

Remember that a smartly made up face, trim hands, and a shining, interesting coiffure are number one rules. You may have to wear less expensive clothes next fall and winter, but nobody will notice if your face, hair and hands are so lovely that attention is focused on them instead of your clothes.

EFFECT OF SPACE
To make windows appear larger, extend the valance eight or ten inches beyond the window frame on each side, so that the draperies cover the frame but do not fall over the glass. The effect of greater height can be achieved by placing the valance as high as possible without showing the window frame beneath it.

Little effort is required in removing tires with the aid of a special tool operated by air pressure and designed for prying tires off safety rim wheels.

Heart Attack Causes Death Of J. M. West

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 25 (AP)—A heart attack caused the death of James Marion West, 70-year-old Houston capitalist and oil man and president of The Dallas Journal and Austin Tribune publishing companies, in Menorah hospital yesterday.

Funeral arrangements had not been made pending return of the body to Houston on a plane leaving Kansas City at 7 a. m. today.

Aboard the plane were members of the family, including two sons, Wesley M. West of Houston, who was with his father when he became ill, and J. Marion West, also of Houston. The latter was in Colorado Springs, Colo., when notified of his father's death but left immediately for Kansas City.

The oil man and publisher, who had been in ill health for two months, entered the hospital here last Thursday after catching cold while on a business trip.

His condition was believed so far improved yesterday that Wesley West left the hospital to go to luncheon. When he returned his father was dead.

West rose to wealth from a modest beginning. He was born at Waynesboro, Miss., in 1871, on a farm. His parents brought him to Texas in 1890 and he obtained his schooling in that state. His business career began in a drug store at Groveton, Texas.

By 1939 he was able to sell 30,000 acres in Southern Harris county to the Humble Oil and Refining company for $8,000,000 cash and royalties estimated by oil men as worth from 30,000,000 to $40,000,000.

In December, 1939, he became a publisher, purchasing the Dallas Dispatch-Journal and changing the name to the Journal. He bought the Austin Tribune later.

After leaving the drug store at Groveton, he entered the lumber business at Westville, a town named for his family. Several years later he went to Houston and established the West Securities company. In 1910 he and his associates bought the South Texas Lumber company.

He was president of the West-Cage Cattle company and headed the West Production company, an oil firm operating in the Gulf coast fields.

He was a member of the board of directors of Southwestern university, Georgetown, chairman of the board of regents of Texas Tech at Lubbock; member of the board of directors of the Federal Reserve bank, Dallas; member of the board of trustees of the Methodist hospital of Houston and a steward of St. Paul's Methodist church of Houston.

Five Hundred Melons for Four Hundred Children

WACO, TEXAS—Five hundred watermelons for four hundred children was the capacity-testing record when children at the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, were guests of Waco Lodge No. 92, A.F. & A.M., at a giant watermelon party.

Streets were roped off while the Karem special, a miniature train manned by members of the Karem Temple, puffed up and down the streets and spilled over with excited children as it gathered and unloaded passengers at every stop.

Prior to the feast, a program was given in Haynie Garden, beautiful outdoor amphitheater on the campus of the Methodist Home, followed by a special kiddie comedy on the screen.

When the signal was given for the feast, the 400 children raced to the lawn of the Perkins Home, senior girls' dormitory, where the melons had been cut by a slicing-crew of fourteen Masons. Slices after slice of the juicy, ice-cold melons, spread on table tops stretching across yards of lawn, were consumed by the children, whose appetites had been heightened by anticipation.

Invitations were mailed to all members of the lodge and masters and secretaries of all other lodges in McLennan County, and approximately 800 guests were present for the party.

Churchill Warns Japan To Stop Army Expansion

LONDON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill warned Japan yesterday that her campaign of military expansion must stop and pledged Great Britain to range herself beside the United States should the latter's efforts to secure a peaceful settlement in the Pacific fail.

On the other side of the world, he called the Atlantic charter, drawn by him and President Roosevelt, a British-United States pledge to destroy Nazi tyranny.

In a broadcast to the world he described his meeting with the American executive as a "marshalling of the good forces of the world against the evil forces" and a beacon of hope for all the conquered nations of Europe.

In the German attack on Soviet Russia, he said Nazi blood for the first time "has flowed in a fearful flood." He promised aid to Russia and praised her efficiency and equipment.

If Germany were to defeat Russia and then Britain in a policy of destroying her opponents one by one, Churchill expressed the opinion that the United States would be attacked next.

"I rejoice to find that President Roosevelt saw in their true light and proportion the extreme dangers by which the American people as well as the British people are now beset," he said.

His reference to Japan won most of the comment in the British newspapers today.

The Japanese, he said, "now stretch a grasping hand into the southern seas of China. They snatch Indo-China from the wrecked flood of the Pacific and menace by their movements Siam. They menace the Singapore British link with Australia and menace the Philippine islands which are under the protection of the United States."

"It is certain that this has got to stop. Every effort will be made to secure a peaceful settlement. The United States are laboring with infinite patience to arrive at a fair and amicable settlement which will give Japan the utmost reassurance for her legitimate interests. We earnestly hope these negotiations will succeed. But this I must say, that if these hopes should fail we shall, of course, range ourselves unhesitatingly on the side of the United States."

Fire Alarm Warning
FDR Names Biddle
Attorney General

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt nominated Francis Biddle, solicitor general of the justice department, today to be attorney general of the United States.

Biddle will move up to the post vacated when Robert H. Jackson was appointed to the supreme court. It is expected that Charles E. Fahy, assistant solicitor general, will become Biddle's successor.

Biddle, before going to the justice department, had served as a federal judge in Pennsylvania.

McGrew 'Throws Book' At Offenders
Four men charged with being intoxicated appeared before City Recorder C. E. McGrew today, and in the words of Tax Assessor W. C. deCordova, the judge "threw the book at them" meaning he assessed heavy fines because all were old offenders.

Fines assessed by the judge totaled $70 and the four were taken back to jail when they were unable to pay their fines.

One speeder was fined $5 by the judge.

Police are holding for state officials a parolee who failed to report to his board. He is listed on court records as a clemency violator. A representative of the state board will come to Pampa to decide whether the man should be released or taken back to the penitentiary.

Oil Firms Gather For Tax Hearings
Brief cases were as thick as mosquitoes at a Sunday school picnic as a crowd of 80 persons, many of them representing oil companies, gathered in the county court room today to present their tax cases to the county board of equalization.

The board, composed of the county commissioners, held a preliminary meeting in the office of the county judge. This is the regular day for the county commissioners to meet.

The commissioners went into the court room to act as the equalization board about 10:30 this morning.

Great Grand-Daughter Of Joy Gould Weds
JACKSON, Wyo., Aug. 25 (AP)—A minister's announcement today disclosed the divorce and remarriage during the week-end of Anne Gould Elsbury, 28-year-old great-granddaughter of the late Jay Gould, railroad magnate.

The Rev. L. K. Barbee of the First Baptist church at Jackson said he performed a marriage ceremony for the bride and Gus Waggoner, a rancher, Saturday afternoon.

Friends understood the bride had divorced her second husband, Herman E. Elsbury, a cowboy, Friday.

The marriage was the third for the bride. She first was married to Frank Meador, member of a Texas ranch family, and after a divorce from him married Herman E. Elsbury, of Cody, a cowboy.

New Sub Added To Navy Month Early
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25 (AP)—A month ahead of schedule, the new navy submarine Finback was launched today before a restricted crowd of naval officers and yard workmen at the Portsmouth navy yard.

Mrs. Adolphus E. Watson, wife of the commander of the fourth naval district, Rear Admiral A. E. Watson, of the Philadelphia navy yard, was the sponsor.

The Finback originally was scheduled to be launched Sept. 24. It is only six weeks since the submarine Flying Fish was launched.

Mauriello And Lesnevich Will Fight For Title

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—A couple guys are going to climb into Madison Square Garden's ring tomorrow night and look in a gasoline tank with a lighted match.

Naturally, they're not going to drive right into the place. But with what young Tami Mauriello and Gus Lesnevich, pack in their fists, the results figure to be the same.

They're slated to tangle 15 rounds for the honest-to-hash world's lightweight championship—the whole thing this time and not just a piece of it at the disposal of one commission or another.

There won't be too many customers on hand to see it happen. Say 12,000 or so, paying into a gross pot of some $25,000 for the opening of the Garden indoor season. But this gathering figures to see fireworks being dealt freely off the arm.

Gray County Women Make 250 Mattresses
Gray county farm women will resume the making of comforts next month at the county's three centers, Pampa, Eldridge, and McLean. The work was discontinued in May to avoid the heat during the summer.

A total of 250 mattresses and 69 comforts were made under the department of agriculture's cotton mattress program, in Gray county.

Over the nation, with 46 states reporting, there were 2,683,000 mattresses and 765,000 comforts made.

Mildred Horton of the Texas extension service and R. T. Price of the AAA, College Station, report that 463,230 mattresses had been delivered to Texas families on August 1. Comfort deliveries were set at 75,048.

Strikers Go Back To Work

(By The Associated Press)

Three thousand workers, vanguard of 18,000, headed back to work today under navy management at the plant of the Federal Shipbuilding and Drydock company in Kearny, N. J.

CIO's Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, who tied up half a billion dollars of ship construction with their strike call August 7, voted yesterday to end their walkout in view of President Roosevelt's order Saturday that the navy take over the yards. It was expected that full operations would be underway Tuesday.

The union will negotiate with the navy over its demand for a maintenance-of-union contract clause which would provide for dismissal of workers who failed to pay their dues. This clause was what caused the company to balk at accepting a national mediation board recommendation for settlement of the dispute.

Ended also yesterday was an AFL strike which had tied up Detroit buses and street cars since last Wednesday. An Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Operators agreed to resume work pending an election to determine whether a majority of the transit workers wish to be represented by that union or CIO's State, County and Municipal Workers of America.

The AFL called the strike to sue a demand that it be recognized as sole bargaining agent.

FDR Lifts Ban On Press In Iceland
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt lifted restrictions today which had prevented American newspapermen, photographers and radio representatives from going to Iceland.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, announced that the American and British commanders had reached an agreement under which news pictures and radio men may carry out assignments in the north Atlantic island and that the chief executive had approved it today.

President And Duke Of Kent Ride To Capital

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt and the Duke of Kent rode to the capital by special train today, the chief executive to slip back into routine in a conference with congressional leaders and the duke to fly to Norfolk, Va., to inspect defense operations.

The duke, youngest brother of King George VI of England, had spent an apparently uneventful week-end at the home of the President at Hyde Park, N. Y. The President chaperoned the duke around the family estate yesterday and took him to an exhibit of WPA drawings at the Franklin D. Roosevelt library.

Sunday activity at the temporary White House offices included announcements that the chief executive had signed two documents designed to assist the defense program.

One was a proclamation authorizing the Plantation Pipeline company to use the right of eminent domain to acquire rights-of-way for a pipeline from Baton Rouge, La., to Greensboro, N. C., with a potential capacity of 90,000 barrels of fuel daily. The line would help relieve a gasoline shortage in the east.

The other was an executive order, the effect of which, officials said, will be to let British officers and men operate vessels which the federal maritime commission acquired under the ship seizure act of last June.

Board of a man who gave his name as Walter Mead, charged with theft in alleged connection with the taking of a suitcase valued at $25, from J. C. Penney Co., was set at $1,000 today in county court. Mead was arrested Saturday by police, then turned over to county officers this morning.

Hemphill Bridge Election Carries

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
CANADIAN, Aug. 25—Election held in all precincts in Hemphill county Saturday resulted in carrying for the $72,000 bonds for purpose of constructing a bridge across Red Deer creek west of Canadian.

County Clerk Hiram Parks stated Sunday that votes counted 442 for the bonds and 88 against. One county precinct had not reported Sunday night, but only a probable vote of 10 there which could not possibly affect the result.

Election held earlier this year failed to cast the necessary two-thirds ballot to carry.

A bridge is much needed by the ranchers on the west side who trade in Canadian and send their children to the schools here.

Three marriage licenses were issued Saturday from the office of County Clerk Charles Thut. Orval Roberts Parrish and Edna Mae Taylor; Bobbie Guy Andis and Miss Vera Lee Von Brunow; Fay Savage and Miss Betie Frances Clark. The latter couple is from Canadian.

Mr. and Mrs. Farris Oden and children returned Saturday from a vacation trip in Colorado.

13,350-Acre Ranch In Hemphill Leased
SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
CANADIAN, Aug. 25—Agreement was made Wednesday whereby Sam Isaacs sells his livestock to George B. Mathers and leases his ranch of 13,350 acres to him for a period of five years.

The deal includes 330 cows with calves, 80 yearlings, about three dozen saddle horses.

Pastures leased for 40 cents per acre.

The transfer of stock is to be made Saturday, at which time Mr. Mathers takes charge of the ranch.

Sam Isaacs was born in Bosque county, Texas, January 26, 1894, came to this section of the state in the spring of 1894. In the fall of 1893, Sam with his oldest brother, W. C. Isaacs, borrowed money and entered ranching business as partners. This partnership was dissolved in 1912, since which time Sam has been ranching independently.

Two faithful saddle horses are not to be sold, but a pasture home has been reserved for them for their remaining years.

As a result of the device invented by Charles H. Roberts, of Burbank, Calif., safer and more economical landing of airplanes is foreseen. His invention sets airplane wheels spinning at what ever speed will gear them to the speed of the plane.

You Men Of The New Army

We believe in American youth. We believe in the portion of that youth now serving in the new army. From what we know of them, from what we have seen and heard of them, we believe no finer body of men ever stepped forward to defend their country.

Such discontent as exists (and there is always some, in any army) comes, we believe, from lack of more thorough understanding of just what the United States is up against. Secretary Stimson, reviewing the way in which Germany, Japan, and Italy have, in seven years, attacked and overrun 16 countries, shows clearly the prospects for actual attack on this country, and the steps taken in building defense outposts, to keep war away from America.

The mere size of the present American army, a million and a half men, is a guarantee that no "wild adventures in foreign wars are contemplated."

We have confidence in it and in the men who make it up. They will go through with what the country has decided it needs for safety.

Beating Something With Something

Those who have been fearful of the advent of socialized medicine would do well to look at the Cleveland Hospital Service association, through which 500,000 people protect themselves against the chance of sudden hospital expense.

The plan has been under way, constantly growing, for seven years. It has a surplus, and everybody, hospitals, doctors, the city, and the members, find it good. In those seven years, one hospital alone has been paid more than a million dollars, others in lessening of worry, tax burden for free cases, garnishments, and attachments and borderline compensation cases.

Broader means of assuring hospitalization to more people are a desirable social end. If opportunity is offered for people to do it cooperatively for themselves, there will be less cry for socialization. It takes something to beat something.

The Nation's Press

The proprietors of the magazine Life have been prominently identified with the interventionist movement. Perhaps for that reason they felt free to explore the delicate question of army morale in the latest issue of the publication.

"I talked to some 400 privates from five different regiments," the reporter wrote. "Fifty per cent of them say they will desert (go over the hill) in army slang after this year's period of service is over. Actually, most of these will do nothing so drastic, but there definitely will be trouble with deserters. Another 40 per cent rue the day they got in the army. The final 10 per cent are not happy either, but are anxious to get in some other part of the army, like the air corps, the armored force, or a parachute battalion, where they feel they will learn more."

Common Ground

This column contains there can be no satisfactory program until we measure the shares of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

EACH PERSON'S TAX OBLIGATION TO THE GOVERNMENT (Continued)

The defender of the income tax to whom I referred in the last issue, contends that the income tax has merit because it only takes from profits and does not take from the original capital. He overlooks the fact, however, that the individual who pays taxes when he wins is not permitted to deduct his losses in former or subsequent years, so these taxes in the long run reduce his capital; that over a period of years, the capital of a business will eventually all be lost.

When the government takes a large part of the profits, when a business succeeds, and the losses of other years have to be taken out of the capital, the eventual result is bankruptcy. The results are the same as when a man keeps on playing a slot machine or the races.

It is just as illogical to think that private enterprise can grow and flourish year after year under a graduated tax where the government arbitrarily takes its "take", as to believe that a man can be prosperous by gambling.

Certainly, no thoughtful person could contend that a tax system would be just and promote prosperity and an ever-increasing standard of living that says a man should not pay taxes because he had no profits and the taxes he paid would have to come out of capital.

Again, unless the government believes in plain robbery, why should it tax any man, as the income tax does, for adding to the tax duplicate of the world on which property taxes would continuously have to be paid?

Such discontent as exists (and there is always some, in any army) comes, we believe, from lack of more thorough understanding of just what the United States is up against.

Rule Works Both Ways. Certainly it is true that every bit of wealth that I, or anyone else, consume, that could be used as capital, is harmful to every other worker in the world.

The argument that taxes are paid out of profits is no argument at all because the profits are wealth and they reduce the capital of the man who pays the taxes by the amount of the tax.

TEX'S TOPICS

EDITOR'S NOTE: While Tex DeWesse is on vacation this space is being filled each day by a different writer. Incidentally, Tex DeWesse saw none of the copy before he left and had no say in the matter of any of it. So here's today's guest columnist:

By HARRY E. HOARE Sports Editor

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said: 'I'll like to write a column. Well, here's one. But Ye Ed, leaving on his vacation trip to see Bobby Dedmon in the Kentucky Derby—I mean the Soap Box Derby—said to go ahead and take a shot at it; it couldn't be any worse than the rest of the guest columnists he had selected. So here goes.

No, it's not going to be a sport column: It's going to be a column of suggestions, questions and answers, questions for which no answers are available, and plans, every day gripes, both personal and general.

Starting off with the "department" list: Question department—Where is the community center and gymnasium the Jayces started last winter? It's coming fall again and dozens of independent basketball players are going to start wanting me to organize industrial leagues to which I'll reply, "Where's the money?" That'll stump 'em, too, as it has in the past. The Jayces reported that plans had been completed and dances, etc. were held to raise money to get the project started but nothing has been heard of it in months.

Another and probably bigger question is why didn't Pampa get some of the $80,000,000 the government let loose last month for construction, enlargement and repair of airports? Pampa is ideally suited for flying. The weather is more suitable than in nearly any other part of the state. In fact, Pampa would be an ideal spot for a training school.

Question and Answer department—I have asked myself, and read and read until I found the answer, and many others have asked the same questions: Why do the British and Russians bomb the Czechs in Czechoslovakia? Well, the answer is that it is largely owned by British capital and the money boys in Britain aren't going to see their investment blown up, even though the plant is making bombs and guns to kill the British people.

And while on the subject of the war, Gene Green has just returned from a trip to Canada and he says the Canadians aren't nearly as excited about the war as Americans. Gene got pretty hot up talking about how the Americans are being Good Samaritans and giving Britain everything while she is paying the bill for everything she gets.

And now to my pet peeve—a park, playground and swimming pool for South Pampa. I don't know how one can be built in the city or civic clubs or the taxpayers of the city go ahead and get the job done. It's a miracle that several children aren't killed every year playing on the streets, not only in South Pampa but in other sections of the city. It would really be something if a vacant lot or several lots in different parts of the city could be cleared of weeds and used for playgrounds the way round. School grounds are used but they are too far away from the majority.

Here's a suggestion for some organization—Get behind W. J. Finley's plan to organize a Klitte band composed entirely of girls and young women. It would really put Pampa on the map. Mr. Finley has 24 Klitte uniforms and a $10,000 music library. He doesn't ask one cent for his time. He just wants to give Pampa an unusual musical organization. He needs 24 girls who have musical instruments to join the band. He'll direct them and mould them into a real musical organization. The Veterans band is available for boys leaving high school who want to keep up with their music.

It's getting so bad that every time I hear or see an airplane I think it's going to drop a bomb. "COTTON ED" SMITH, U. S. senator, South Carolina.

No man can serve God and a dictator. —Rev. Dr. WILLIAM F. MERRILL, moderator, Presbytery of New York.

Answers on Classified Page. To speak out against Communist control of our union has been compelling to quit the organization. —JOSEPH J. DOYLE, on being bounced out of the National Maritime union.

The army and navy have a program calling for the training of 40,000 pilots a year.

Behind The News In Washington

BY IETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25—In the big scramble to increase productive capacity of war materials, facilities officers in the undersecretary of war's department recently completed a swing through the Cleveland-Detroit-Chicago-St. Louis area, surveying some 500 more plants which have been making civilian goods, to see how they could be converted into military manufacturers.

Regional field officers of the army, navy and OPM's defense contract service sat in, and some of the plants they looked over included the making of equipment, heating and cooking apparatus, filling station pumps, bicycles, musical instruments, watches, soda fountains and sewing machines. Not that the army or navy had any great shortages of beauty shops, soda fountains, typewriters or sewing machines, but just that almost any plant with experience and good capacity for metal working has a chance to be useful in defense manufacture.

Some of the plants looked at on this latest survey are nearly as foreign to the idea of defense manufacture as some of the plants which have already been converted and are now turning out all manner of war orders.

There are still some citizens who are asking as to why a bottling works and a soap factory were given multi-million dollar contracts to operate powder bag loading plants, as was done in the cases of Coca-Cola and Procter and Gamble companies.

These weren't exactly conversion jobs, as the contracts were made to operate new factories which were to be built and owned by the government, but operated privately. The army was looking for good management, which is as hard to find as good politics.

The number of companies with experience in powder making and handling are decidedly limited—DuPont, Hercules, Remington, Winchester and firms like that. They had already given big explosive contracts and were expanding their plants and their management personnel as fast as they could. The problem was therefore to find operators with good financial records, reputations for good management and plenty of experience in big mass production operations.

In the line of fish-out-of-water contracts, though, there are plenty which make the Coca-Cola and Ivory soap changeovers entirely rational. There is a manufacturer of beauty compact in Linden, N. J., making percussion caps for shells. An old manufacturer of rat traps found that the army had beat a path to his door with a contract to make camp cots, even at the risk that soldiers who had to sleep on the cots might make odious comparisons. A pipe organ manufacturer is making addie frames for the horse artillery and cavalry.

A metal coffin maker has converted his plant to the manufacture of bomb bodies and fins, while a manufacturer of parking meters has been given the job of making machine tools for the army. One of the time bomb mechanisms, both dead devices in this case were converted to the making of still deadlier devices.

Armstrong Cork, International Harvester and Willys-Overland are among the big types of industries which got shell making contracts, while Goodrich Rubber got one of the management and operations contracts to run the big shell and bomb-loading plants for the government, at Texarkana, Tex.

To show what varied industries can make the same thing, it is only necessary to list as plants that are now making fuses, a manufacturer of bathro equipment, a watchmaker and a lipstick factory.

SIX BITS FROM WASHINGTON. A housing authority project in New York has established a community workshop where tenants can put under fixing furniture, or the iron, or junior's tricycle. Federal Works Agency has helped four states remove 27 toll gates. Senator Truman's Defense Investigation Committee, which started with a $15,000 appropriation, wanted $100,000 to continue the work, asked for $50,000 and got $25,000. Commerce Department has received average per capita farm income in the U. S. is $305. It's highest in Iowa at $741 and lowest in Alabama at $121.

To conserve gasoline and oil that would be consumed in warming up the engines of a bombing plane before the take-off, the Germans have been using a portable heater. This unit delivers hot air through flexible ducts to the engines.

SEIZING PIONEERS HERE TONIGHT FOR DOUBLEHEADER

Pampans Drop Couple More To Lamesa

The Clovis Pioneers, who rose from deep in the cellar to a play-off berth in the West Texas-New Mexico league under the fiery guidance of Pampa's Grover Setz, will be here tonight for a doubleheader with the Pampa Oilers who have slipped to seventh place in the league race but who are still battling to beat Lubbock and Lamesa to get into fifth place when the season closes. The Oilers have little chance of finishing in the first division.

Yesterday the Oilers dropped two more games to the Lamesa Lobos when Lefty Courtney pulled an iron man stunt and hurled both games for the Lobos. He beat Lefty John McPartland 1 to 0 in the opener and Frank Clark and Al Gracey 7 to 5 in the second struggle.

Tonight's games will begin at 8 o'clock sharp and each will be seven innings. In the past, night doubleheaders have begun at 6:30 o'clock with the first game seven innings and the second nine. The early starting inconvenienced a number of fans so the later starting and shorter games will be in order the rest of the season.

Frank Grabek, who hurled Friday night in Lamesa, will have to come back in the opening game and Monty Montgomery, who pitched Saturday afternoon, will have to take the second shift, the other pitching staff being completely shot because of so many doubleheaders. Montgomery has been playing second base and the outfield while not pitching since Fred McGahey was injured. In yesterday's second game Montgomery continued to show up personally at second base, handling two assists and making five putouts without an error.

Setz' pitching staff is not in such bad shape because of fewer doubleheaders and he will have two comparatively fresh pitchers to throw against the Oilers tonight.

Emmet Fullenwider was the only Oiler who had any luck with Lefty Courtney's sweeping curve ball yesterday. He kept up his sensational hitting with four singles in seven trips to the plate. During the past week Fullenwider has hit the ball as better than a 500 clip and his average is gradually nearing the coveted .300 mark.

Only run scored in the opening game yesterday came in the sixth when Courtney was safe on a single and advanced to second on Reynolds' error. He scored on Lang's double.

Lamesa jumped on Olab for three runs in the opening inning of the second game and the Lobos were never headed although out-hit 9-7.

After the second game Kirby Jordan, Lamesa's right fielder was given his release and he left for San Diego where he will join the Coast league for the rest of the season.

Howard Pollet Loses As Cards And Dodgers Split

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Long after this season is over and the stirring struggle of the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers for the National league pennant has been settled, one thrill will remain memorable for 31,000 baseball fans.

For the fanatics packed into Ebbets field at yesterday's crucial doubleheader between the foremost rivals of the senior circuit, the season reached a high point when Whitlow Wyatt singled in the ninth inning to snatch a 3-2 victory in the face of enervating darkness and save Brooklyn's game and a half lead over the Cardinals, who had swept majestically to a 7-3 triumph in the first encounter.

It was a finish lifted right out of a scenario. The teams were playing for big stakes and the St. Louis victory in the opener had cut the Dodgers' lead to a half-game. Wyatt, a grand veteran, was wrapped in a blanket of glory, having pitched over 20-year-old Howard Pollet, a lefthander who had been a sensation in the Texas league till the Redbirds promoted him 10 days ago.

Pollet pitched superbly, allowing only five hits till the ninth, but he got into jam in the fourth inning and Dixie Walker smashed a double along the left field line for two runs. The Cardinals had counted a run in the first on three singles and in the eighth they tied the score with another on a double by Coaker. The Cardinals' lead was restored by a single by Frank (Creepy) Crespil.

With this situation when the Dodgers came to bat for the last time, Peeewe Reese laid a perfect bunt down the third base line for a single. Mickey Owen sacrificed with a bunt to clear the bases and Pollet pitched for the rest of the game.

Then Manager Leo Durocher came trotting from the coaching box and put his arm around Wyatt. The fans expected a pinchhitter. Instead Durocher let Wyatt bat for himself. The conference, he said, later, was just to tell Wyatt to wait for a curve ball.

The curve came in the first pitch and Wyatt, who swings the heaviest bat on the Brooklyn club, met it squarely. It was a single that shot straight into center and put the Dodgers back in a commanding position for the rest of this series.

The Cincinnati Reds, coming fast and probably too late, gained a game on both the leaders by trouncing the New York Giants, 13-9, and 6-4. Supposedly a weak-hitting club, they made 33 hits in the two games.

The flying Phillips hit down the Chicago Cubs twice, 8-5 and 7-6, while the Pittsburgh Pirates split the 12-inning opener, 4-3, and Pittsburgh the nightcap 7-3, in six stanzas.

The New York Yankees showed any doubtful American leaguers and 44,926 Chicago fans that they still were boss by swamping the second-place White Sox, 5-1 and 8-5.

The St. Louis Browns put the Washington Senators through a 4-3 10-inning wringer to bounce from the cellar into sixth place.

Al Bentzen pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 7-4 decision over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Cleveland Indians downed the Boston Red Sox 4-3 and 5-2.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21—A lot of Johnny-Come-Latelys are ranting about the current Yankee outfield—Henrich, DiMaggio and Keller—being the greatest of all time.

But mightily few old-timers hold still for anything like that. Indeed, not a few critics and addicts rate the previous outstanding outfield—Ruth, Combs and Meusel—ahead of the current one.

But when you discuss outfield combinations, the talk never falls to drift back to Hooper, Speaker and Lewis in a two-day charity match at the Detroit Golf club.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH S. FULLERTON
(Pinch-Hitting for Eddie Briets)
NEW YORK, Aug. 25—Well, the Yankees are in. . . Joe McCarthy, who usually is the last to admit it, came out in the open Saturday when he benched a couple of regulars with the explanation: "They won the pennant and so are entitled to a short layoff."

Looks like the National will keep going, as usual, right to the last minute. . . Wonder what Larry (the other lip) MacPhail thinks now of his failure to include Dixie Walker and White Wyatt among the guys who are responsible for keeping the Brooks on top.

Lot of the other clubs are busier guessing how many guys, including managers, will have their jobs next year than they are playing ball games. . . Word from Detroit is that there'll be plenty of axe work on the salary list if the Tigers don't make the first division.

Cleveland writers now are calling them "Peck's Bad Boys" and a tipoff on the Tribe's collapse is that Jimmy Dykes does his managing from the bench against all the other clubs but gets out in the coaching box against the Indians to make sure they won't miss one of his cracks.

Today's Guest Star
Gerry Horn, Boston Post: "It looks as if the railroads might have to run 'Notre Dame specials' on Sept. 1 to accommodate, not spectators, but young men from this district who will be candidates for freshman football at South Bend."

Rhymed Sports Review
Jones' boys versus Ryder Cuppers made golf fans without their own sippers. . . Twelve thousand of 'em raised a din to see their hero, Bobby, win. . . Cards and Dodgers split a pair with pennant fever in the air. . . Louis-Nova fight set back when Joe got off the training track. . . Derby goes to Whirlaway and forty-five grand isn't hay. . . Ward should cop the amateur, but golfing experts aren't too sure. . . Kramer-Schroeder win in doubles; Forest Hills they'll have their troubles. . . And that is all the news is, so let us stop this monkey biz.

People You Know
Al Schacht will miss his first world series in 21 years this fall; he's heading for Hawaii instead. . . Friends of the late Howard Jones have launched a movement for a memorial to him, probably in the Rose Bowl, where Jones-coached teams won five times. . . Word from Milwaukee is that Lou Novick will be recalled by the Cubs as soon as the Brewers finish their American Association schedule, even though Lou's fielding has left a lot to be desired. . . Old Doc Kearns is hollering for two referees for that 25-round thing between Bill Point and Eddie Blunt Wednesday at Washington. . . Doc claims the ref might not last the whole distance and they should have a sub ready. . . Fete Layden, the all-around Texas, likely will sign a pro baseball contract soon as the football season ends. Scout Herb Penneck of the Red Sox is said to have the papers all ready for Pete. . . Patty Berg, who gets her fun from football and flying, expects to hop a plane home for at least one Minnesota grid game this fall. . . Russ Van Atta, former Yankees and Browns' pitcher, is a candidate for sheriff in Sussex county, N. J. . . Heinie Manush, managing the Greenboro club, has been chased out of every Piedmont league play by the ump's this season. . . Heinie put himself into a game as pinch-hitter the other night and busted it with a healthy poke, so now he threatens to return as a regular. . . Still pitching in the Piedmont are Hod Lisenbee and Garland Braxton, which may help explain the absence of 300 hitters among the young fellers.

Bobby Jones Wins Over Henry Picard

DETROIT, Aug. 25 (AP)—Bobby Jones, golf's 39-year-old elder statesman from Georgia, was back in the thick of his former glory today after his 2 and 1 victory over Henry Picard turned the tide against Capt. Walter Hagen's Ryder Cup team in a two-day charity match at the Detroit Golf club.

The stocky Georgian, once master of them all, emerged from virtual retirement after 10 years and yesterday provided the ounce of inspiration that hosted his team of challengers to an 8 1/2 to 6 1/2 victory the first ever scored over Hagen's Ryder Cuppers.

Other victors for the challengers were Craig Wood, National Open champion, who drubbed Vic Ghezzi, National P. G. A. titleholder, 3 and 2; Ben Hogan, who defeated Byron Nelson, 2 up; Jimmy Demaret, winner over Paul Runyan, 5 and 4; Clayton Haefer, who defeated Horace Smith, 7 and 6; and Denny Shute, who downed Harold Gugg McSpaden, 4 and 3.

Only Ralph Guldahl, Dick Metz, and Jimmy Hines won for the Cup-winners. Guldahl beat Gene Sarazen, 4 and 2; Metz trimmed Ed Dudley, 5 and 4; and Hines beat Johnny Bulla, 6 and 5. Sam Snead and Lawson Little sec-sawed through 36 holes to finish even.

Whirlaway After 'Biscuit's Record

CHICAGO, Aug. 25 (AP)—Whirlaway, Warren Wright's bushy tailed cannonball of the turf, is on the trail of Seabiscuit's record as the leading money winner in American racing history.

The Chumet colt vaulted into sixth place among equine earners Saturday as he added the $44,975 first place money in Washington Park's American Derby to his bankroll. That brought his total for less than two years of campaigning to $320,611, compared to Seabiscuit's record of $437,730. The 'Biscuit won his last $100,000 as a six-year-old.

Kramer, Schroeder Win Doubles Title

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 26 (AP)—California's 20-year-old Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder ruled the tennis courts today as the first successful National Doubles champions the game has produced in seven years, since mighty George Lott and Lester Stiefen turned professional.

Those capable youngsters retained their titles in impressive fashion yesterday when they trounced Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., one of last year's runners-up, and Wayne Sabin of Portland, Ore., 9-7, 6-4, 6-2.

SERIAL STORY
WANT-AD ROMANCE
 BY TOM HORNER

CHAPTER I
 SECRETARY-RECEPTIONIST young, attractive, capable; must keep books. Apply in person to 1044 Simpson Bldg.

The dark-eyed girl circled the help wanted ad with a heavy black line. Similar circles were scattered over the page. She read on, poised her pencil, changed her mind, then abruptly folded the newspaper.

"That's enough to keep me waking until midnight," she said, half aloud. "And probably every single job will be taken just five minutes before I get there."

"You talking to me, Miss?" She had not noticed the young man at the far end of the park bench.

"No, Oh, no!" She could feel her cheeks color; she knew her neck was crimson. Why should she blush because a stranger asked a civil question? She opened the paper again, stared at it without seeing words.

He was a nice looking fellow—not a park bench loafer. Some youngster, just out of college, looking for his first job. Possibly a football player, she decided, saying him from the protection of the paper. Well, he should have no trouble finding a job—at least not as much trouble as she was having.

Illustrated by John Sunley

The young man was paying no attention to her. She noted he was reading the classified pages, too. He was a nice-looking fellow—not a park bench loafer. Possibly a football player, she decided, eyeing him from the protection of the paper. Well, he should have no trouble finding a job—at least not as much trouble as she was having.

THE boy at the end of the bench looked up, caught her staring at him, grinned.

"Any luck? I see you're reading want-ads, too."

The grin forced her answer. Now could this brother-in-unemployment sit there and grin as if he owned the world? He wouldn't think life quite so funny if he had no more money than she had in her purse.

"Nothing much," she answered at last, trying to make her voice sound a little friendly. "I walk and walk, and every place I go, I find the job has just been filled."

"Tough," he agreed. He extended a package of cigarettes.

"Have one?" She shook her head. "Never learned how."

"Wish I hadn't." He blew smoke toward a cloud. "Wish I didn't have to go looking for a job. Much rather just sit here in the sun, talk to you."

"Words so softly she hardly heard him."

"It's a grand day for park bench sitting," she agreed. "But no work, no eat. And I get hungry."

"Don't go," he asked. "I really want to talk to you—someone."

The grin flashed on again. She determined not to let it influence her again.

"I'm no masher—no park-bench Romeo"—he was like a child asking her to help him—she wouldn't even ask your name and address. I've just been fired and I want to talk to someone to get a little confidence. You can leave anytime."

"It was difficult to refuse. "Well . . ."

"That's fine! I knew I could count on you. I'm Ted Andrews, up to one hour and 33 minutes ago, by that tower clock, the super-salesman for Ace-High tables. Ace-High riding car tables. Easy to set up. Guaranteed rigid. The plasto-fiber cover is resistant to liquids, heat, everything but acid and forgotten cigarettes. Ace-High is always a winner."

"I don't see why they fired you," she laughed. "You've practically sold me an Ace-High car table."

"They'll be coming after me," Andrews bragged, "begging me to come back, probably double my salary. But I'm not going back, at any price. I'm through with Ace-High tables. Wait until old Archibald tries to find another salesman as good as I am."

He was so self-confident, so sure of himself, she could not have the heart to laugh. "Why did this Archibald fire you?"

"Just because I had an idea—a really great advertising stunt for Ace-High tables. But I had a little bad luck.

"You know how people at a circus like to watch a clown sway back and forth on a high tower of tables and chairs? I was going to do that—not sway—but I built a tower of Ace-High tables on the sidewalk right in front of the store. Ten of 'em. Had to get a ladder to set them up."

"Ten, while thousands of people watched?" He caught her smile. "There were at least 300," he admitted. "While they watched, I climb out a window onto the top table. Cops arrive and tell me to come down. Traffic jams. The sidewalk is blocked. I tell the cops, and the crowd, that I'm out to prove that Ace-High tables stand up under any strain."

"More people stop and gawk. More cops. Reporters. Photographers. It's almost as good as flagpole sitting. Then—it happened."

"What?"

"Old Ace-High let me down, and completely. I fell through the top of the highest table, legs collapsed, tables tumbled everywhere. A cop got a bump on his head when I landed on him with a table under my middle. Four persons were hit by falling tables, all injured. Two women fainted. The show window was cracked. I was arrested for inciting a riot, disturbing the peace and assaulting an officer."

"I didn't go back to work until this morning—I left again, almost immediately."

The girl made no effort to hide her laughter now. "I can see you, on top of 10 car tables."

Ted laughed, too. "It was a swell idea," he insisted, "but I'm glad it didn't work. That stunt is going to cost old Archibald all the salary he didn't pay me. I turned to the girl. "How about you? No flagpole sitting?"

SHE shook her head. "No stunt, no crowd, no tables. I just got tired of the same old daily routine. I've been working for a doctor in Sumner, a little town downstate, for five years. Ever since I left high school I've been listening to people cry about their aches and moan about their bills. So I came to the city to find a new job."

"And you'll probably find one working for a doctor again." The young man surveyed her closely.

"Nice figure. You could model, if you want to. Now tell us your story, with or without

Bureau Warns Residents Against Unscrupulous Land Salesmen

A flagrant case of misrepresentation in the sale of a tract of land in the Columbia Basin Project, in which a young Montana couple agreed to pay $600 for land worth $84 and which never will be irrigated, contrary to an unscrupulous land agent's promise, was reported today by the Coulee Dam office of the Bureau of Reclamation.

The misguided couple, whose name the government withheld, informed the Bureau that a slick-tongued salesman for a Seattle land company told them water would be available for their tract in 1942, and that it was one of the best pieces of farmland in the basin.

Sadly they learned that no water will be available for any land in the project area prior to 1944, if by that time, and worse, that the land they had purchased was so-called Class B or poor land, for which no irrigation water will be provided. They found they had agreed to buy sagebrush-covered waste, dry as a bone, with no prospects of ever being usable; land worth $3 an acre for $23.50 an acre!

To prevent honest people from being similarly bilked, the Bureau today repeated its warnings against falsifications being made by shady, fast-talking salesmen.

When anyone is approached to purchase land within or near the Columbia Basin Project, he should get in touch immediately with the Bureau of Reclamation, Coulee Dam, Washington, to determine if the land is actually within the project area, what its government-appraised value is, and when it will receive water. This information will be given absolutely free.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that some of the land may remain without water for 20 years or more, and no water will be given away free.

Furthermore, some real estate agents are pretending to represent the government. Neither the Bureau of Reclamation nor any other agency of the federal government has any land to sell, and no one is authorized to represent them.

"Write the Bureau before you buy" should be everyone's slogan, the Bureau urged.

Last year American plane, propeller and engine manufacturers spent more than $15,000,000 in research, and this year's bill will be higher.

Oklahomans Win Carlsbad Rodeo Roping Titles

CARLSBAD, N. M., Aug. 25. (AP)—Everett Shaw of Stonewall, Okla., had a claim to the southwestern, if not the world's steer roping title today plus a big chunk of the $2,000 prize money from Carlsbad's annual rodeo.

The rodeo ended last night with Shaw emerging from a field of 33 topflight lariat twirlers with an aggregate time of 61 2-5 seconds for tying three steers.

Clyde Burk of Comanche, Okla., won the calf roping prize with a three-calves time of 48 4-8 seconds.

Relie Is Taxicab The car in which Archduke Ferdinand of Austria rode when he was assassinated in 1914 now is used as a taxicab in Sarajevo.
