Shortly after he lost it he appeared at The News expressing confidence that when the person who found it saw his want ad in The News he would return it. That's exactly what happened. The finder was Mrs. T. H. Steele who was directed to leave it at The News office for the loser, but she waited until she saw the ad. She got a reward.

1942 Lines Of Buick Cars No 'Ersatz' Models

1942 lines of Buick motor cars are in no sense "ersatz" models. They represent, according to Tex Evans Buick company, local distributors, substantial advancement in mechanical design.

The new Buicks are built on six chassis varying in wheelbase from 118 inches for the lowest priced group of models to 139 inches for the series 90 limited cars with which the company competes in the upper medium price field.

The Buick 1942 line is offered in 23 models, three fewer than last year. The six groups of cars are the series 40-A special, 118-inch wheelbase; series 40-B special, 121; series 50, super, 124; series 60 century, 126-inch; series 70 roadmaster, 129; and series 90 limited, 139.

Electric Tops

Convertible coupes in the 50 and 70 series, having electrically operated tops and six passenger compartments of sedan dimensions, supplant the comparable models of last year and have eliminated the need of convertible phaetons which were dropped from the 1942 line.

Elimination of the cowl ventilator, which is replaced by a new system of ventilation built into all models, permits extension of the hood closer to the windshield. Hoods are of the one-piece side opening type introduced by the manufacturer last year, with hood fasteners and hinges improved to make their operation easier.

Stronger Bodies

Added strength in bodies is made possible by full box section construction where structural bracing is required.

Disbursements Exceed Receipts

County disbursements exceeded receipts six to one during the month of September, according to the monthly report submitted yesterday by County Treasurer W. E. James.

Receipts were $5,761.81; disbursements, $33,007.76. Reason for the difference was explained by the fact that September is regularly a low month on county income.

Labor on the Alanreed-LeFors road accounted for $7,061.88 of the $33,007.76 expended during the past month. The road and bridge fund of precinct 2, in which Pampa was located, was credited with an expenditure of $6,608.84. Salaries accounted for $4,666.14, and road and bridge 1 for $2,695.46.

Balance on September 1 was $506,453.85; on September 30, $479,207.90.

MONTGOMERY WARD

President At Hyde Park

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—After a day at his town house in New York City, President Roosevelt arrived here by motor tonight to spend the week-end at his country estate and perhaps receive reports on the chances for survival of religious freedom in warring Europe. White House officials would not deny that there was a possibility that Myron C. Taylor, America's envoy to the Vatican, might see the chief executive here some time in the next two days. Taylor arrived in New York by trans-Atlantic clipper today bringing, he said, reports of utmost importance.

The chief executive had brushed aside—without a denial—a press conference question yesterday whether Taylor had taken up with Pope Pius XII the issue of religious freedom in Russia.

He disclosed at the same time that he had instructed W. Averill Harriman, head of the American Mission to Moscow, to discuss freedom of religion with the Soviet government. There was no indication whether this issue was linked in any direct manner with Harriman's task of ascertaining Russia's military needs, but some speculation developed that Mr. Roosevelt might want assurances that the Soviet Union would guarantee freedom of worship in exchange for American aid.

White House officials looked for a prompt statement from Harriman on the results of his overtures to the Russian government, either in the form of a confidential communication to Mr. Roosevelt or a public pronouncement in Moscow.

Camp Life

CAMP LEE, Va., Oct. 4 (AP)—The fifth medical training battalion stepped out on its training march to the accompaniment of martial music, but not a band instrument was in sight.

Inspection disclosed portable radios, by the score hanging at the soldiers' belts—and no complaints about the weight added to the 55-pound field packs.

"New Yorkers," an officer said understandingly, "can't let them get left out on the world series, you know."

ASHEBORO, N. C., Oct. 4 (AP)—The cashier of a cafe here was just plain flabbergasted, and who wouldn't be.

Up walked a buck private and handed her a $1,000 bill in payment for a meal, with the nonchalant "sorry, it's the smallest I have."

No, the cashier couldn't break it up. But another soldier stepped to her aid. He thumbed through a fat roll and peeled off nine $100 notes and assorted smaller bills.

CHESTER, N. C., Oct. 4 (AP)—A private, participating in the army maneuvers here, was short three suits of heavy woolen underwear when he spread out his wardrobe on the bunk for inspection.

An explanation was demanded, it was quickly given. The private had on the three suits, "It was kind of cold this morning, sir," he explained.

Stevenson Talks Up State Defense Projects To FDR

DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson said upon his arrival here today that official Washington considers Texas as the leader in the defense effort and that President Roosevelt himself indicated that he was highly pleased with the progress made in the Lone Star state.

The governor stopped in Dallas en route to Austin from Washington to address the annual banquet of the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce tonight.

Gov. Stevenson said his trip to Washington and his conference with the President were "very pleasant."

The governor said a good part of his time while in Washington was taken up in discussions of the proposed extension of Social Security benefits to farm laborers and domestic help as a part of the defense program.

He said this extension may call for a special session of the legislature to make the state Social Security program conform to those changes in the national setup.

He said the federal changes would be inaugurated with out similar action by the state.

He said defense officials in Wash-

NYA Clerical Project May Be Established

A resident clerical project for Gray county boys may be established in Pampa by the National Youth administration.

Mrs. Willie Baines, Gray county case-worker, has been requested, in a letter dated September 29, to make a survey in this area to determine the approximate number of youths that would be interested in assignment to this type of full-time resident project.

Eligibility requirements have not been determined, according to C. P. Little, Jr., director, division of youth personnel, NYA, Austin.

More than likely, however, it will be necessary that youths selected shall have had some clerical experience or have successfully completed one or more commercial courses in high school and be able to pass a battery of clerical tests. Youths selected for the project must be between the ages of 16 and 24.

Training in the project would consist of typewriting, shorthand, business English, and bookkeeping. The project would set up for six to nine months. It is planned for 50 to 60 youths, who would be paid $30 a month for work performed, of which $18 would be deducted for subsistence.

Information on the proposed project can be obtained by interviewing the county case worker, whose office is located on the first floor of the court house.

ington told him the government ultimately will furnish uniforms and equipment to the Texas Defense Guard.

Temple Soldier Wins 'Hard Luck' Outing

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 4 (AP)—Another "unluckiest" soldier came to town today—George W. Gardenhire of Camp San Luis Obispo—to enjoy himself as reward for his bad fortune.

Each week, the soldier with the longest tale of hard luck is sent to a football game with the compliments of Actor Preston Foster, and sees the town on a USO-arranged program with a feminine companion. Gardenhire's girl friend for the day is Esther van Buskirk, a visitor from Chicago. Here's the story which won Gardenhire today's trip: He hadn't been back to his home in Temple, Tex., for over a year. Recently, when the army granted 15-day furloughs after the war games he saw his chance. The wife of a lieutenant was driving 'back, and that would fit in with Gardenhire's time and finances. But a hurricane roared in over Texas, and at the last minute the lieutenant's wife decided to fly instead of drive. Gardenhire hurried to the hotel where several Texas friends were staying, hoping to get a ride home with them. He arrived 10 minutes after they had departed. There was one more chance. He went to the Pomona fair race-track with $25, hoping, he said, to build it into trainfare both ways. A few hours later, he was hitchhiking back to his headquarters company of the 40th division.

Defense Costs To Reach Two Billion A Month

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Estimating that defense spending would reach a rate of $2,000,000,000 a month in the spring, Budget Director Harold D. Smith predicted today that defense expenditures out of the treasury will total $18,000,000,000 this fiscal year or $135 for every person in the country.

"In the near future," he said, "defense costs will take 18 per cent of the national income." This estimate was $2,500,000,000 higher than a similar calculation he made a few months ago. He said the increase was due to faster defense factory construction, higher prices on some items, and new appropriations.

The record-breaking figure—larger than defense costs in the peak of the World War—did not include about $1,000,000,000 to be spent by the British and $1,500,000,000 to be disbursed by federal lending agencies for defense work and materials in the same year. The fiscal year will end June 30, 1942.

Taking all budgetary items, Smith estimated the treasury would spend $24,581,000,000, "take in $11,583,000,000. These totals compare with last year's expenditures of $12,710,000,000, receipts of $7,607,000,000, and deficit of $5,103,000,000.

The budget director calculated that about $2,000,000,000 of the expected revenue would come from the new tax bill, and the remainder from old tax laws. The new tax measure was designed to raise $3,500,000,000 a year, but was expected to fall short of this mark in the first year because the usual lag in income tax collections.

FRONTAL STYLING of the Oldsmobile Sixes and Eights for 1942, on display at Christopher Motor Co., 114 S. Frost, introduces a striking appearance entirely new to motor cars. Front end appearances of all five series of new Oldsmobiles are similar and present an artistic combination of headlamps, parking lights, fenders, radiator grilles and bump-

ers. Contributing to the sturdy and massive front end design are Oldsmobile's exclusive "double-duty" bumpers, which also provide great added protection to the car.

Flashes Of Life

(By The Associated Press) COLUMBUS, Ohio—Judge Clayton W. Rose has marked October 13 on his calendar as a probable busy day.

Assignment Commissioner Malcolm Lindsey has scheduled 125 uncontested divorce cases for hearing that day in domestic relations court.

SALT LAKE CITY—The city wanted two flagpoles and the police radio towers painted, but the budget carried no provision for such frills.

So when a prisoner charged with drunk driving said he was a steeplesjack, Judge Frank E. Moss suggested the city would settle for a paint job. The defendant agreed.

Teachers At Odds With Stevenson On Turkey Day Date

LUBBOCK, Oct. 4 (AP)—The third Thursday in November will be observed as Thanksgiving in most Texas public schools, an announcement by Dr. W. B. Irvin, Lubbock city school superintendent and president of the Texas State Teachers association, indicated today.

Dr. Irvin said that the association's convention will be held in Houston Nov. 20 to 22 as scheduled, despite Gov. Coke Stevenson's announcement that he will proclaim the official observance for the last Thursday in November.

The conventions are customarily set on the official Thanksgiving, and the present dates were set last winter in the expectation that the third Thursday would be celebrated, Dr. Irvin declared.

A change at this time would be impractical, he added, because a number of the speakers could not appear on later dates.

BIG PRODUCER COMPLETED IN SOUTHEAST WHEELER COUNTY

Guild Well Might Make 100 Barrels

Southeast Wheeler county came up with what might be a big producer Friday when the Guild Oil company's No. 2 Sloss in section 96, block 13, H&GN survey, flowed 30 barrels in 30 minutes on Texas Railroad commission test. The company accepted the well as a 30-barrel well but oil men estimate the well as good for anywhere from 500 to 1,000 barrels if allowed to flow a full 24 hours.

The new well, north of the Osborne pool is six miles east of Shamrock, was two locations northeast of nearest production. The hole was bottomed at 2,025 feet. Some oilmen believe that the well may be in another pool. The Sloss area has been noted for good wells which last produced after short producing periods.

The Panhandle field slowed down last week after a wild September during which 130 new locations were staked and 66 wells were completed and given potentials.

Last week there were 15 new locations staked, eight in Gray county, three in Carson county, two in Hutchinson county and one each in Wheeler and Moore counties. That biked the total for the year to 761. Eleven new wells were tested and given total open flow potential of 2,272 barrels. Gray county registered six of the new wells, Hutchinson county four and Wheeler county one. A total of 498 new wells have been tested this year. Included in the completions was the Skelly's 134th well on the Schafer ranch in Gray county.

Completions by counties follow:

In Gray County
Sinclair-Prairie Oil co., No. 3 Dave Pope, section 173, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 100 barrels.
Skelly Oil co., No. 134 Schafer ranch, section 173, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 277 barrels.
The Texas co., No. 2 W. H. Taylor, section 37, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 243 barrels.
Coronado Oil co., No. 2 Myrtle Davidson "A," section 64, block B-2, H&GN survey, gauged 84 barrels.
Danziger Oil & Refineries Inc., No. 20 Powell "A," section 28, block B-2, H&GN survey, was given a potential of 268 barrels.
Skelly Oil co., No. 2 H. B. Lovett, section 36, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 238 barrels.
In Hutchinson County
The Texas co., No. 38 T. D. Lewis, section 7, block 23, BS&F survey, gauged 33 barrels.
J. M. Huber No. 16 Weatherly, section 26, block X, AB survey, tested 399 barrels.
Shell Oil co., No. 33 Harvey Sisters "B," section 14, block M-21,

TCRR survey, was given a potential of 119 barrels.

J. E. Crosbie No. 44 Pitts, section 7, block M-21, TCRR survey, gauged 407 barrels.

In Wheeler County
Magnolia Petroleum co., No. 2 J. P. Koons, section 43, block 24, H&GN survey, tested 104 barrels.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Buying in rails and specialties offset sparsity in other parts of today's stock market and enabled the list to emerge from a struggling week pointing slightly higher on average. Steels, motors, aluminum, rubbers, mail orders, however, did little if anything and a number were under water at the close. Advances of fractions to around 4 points, however, had shade the best of it.

The Associated Press average of 80 stocks was up 1/4 of a point at 43 1/2 and on the week showed a net gain of as much. Leaders mostly were slow movers but liveliness of several low-priced issues put the volume at 214,176 shares compared with 194,224 a week ago.

International Mercantile Marine was the day's fastest sprinter, pushing up 3/4 to 41 1/2 on authorization of Reconstruction Finance corporation loan to this concern for retirement of 16 1/2 per cent bonds which matured Oct. 1. Heavy purchasing of these loans at an upturn of 9 1/2 points at 87 1/2, with the department's largest dealings for a Saturday in more than two years.

Wheeler Given 7-Year Sentence For Burglary

A plea of guilty was entered and a sentence of seven years imprisonment in the state penitentiary assessed Don Wheeler charged with forgery on two counts, in 31st district court Saturday.

Wheeler had been indicted here on September 24. The charge was in connection with a check for $450 on the First National bank of Pampa, dated August 9 of this year, purporting to be signed by "Fred Sherman," and passed to Ervin Purdew, local Dept. distributor.

A companion case is that of a girl, a minor, also indicted on September 24 in alleged connection with the same transaction, and also charged with forgery on two counts. Her case is to be heard in the next term of county court.

Third week of the September term of 31st district court will open tomorrow. A panel of 45 petit jurors is to report at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The week is criminal jury and first week of this kind in the current term.

New Allowable For Panhandle In Effect

New allowable for the Panhandle oil field is now in effect wherever operators have filed plats with the office of the Texas Railroad commission. All plats must be submitted in order for operators to receive any credit for acreage.

The new order, based on acreage and potential, gives all wells in the field a basic allowable of 19 barrels. The acreage factor has been set at 5775. Thus, a well on a 10 acre plot will be given an allowable of 26 barrels while a well on a 20 acre plot will have an allowable of 31 barrels, each on 22-day a month production, providing they can produce that amount.

Under the new order the 10 acre wells will be increased from 520 barrels to 572 barrels a month while the 20 acre wells will be increased from 520 to 686 barrels.

DUKE BEATS VOLS, BUCKEYES LICK USC IN MAJOR UPSETS

Texas, Navy, Tulane Shine In Spotlight

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Alabama, Georgetown, and Wisconsin all suffered unexpected defeat today as the football machines of Duke, Texas, Navy, Tulane, and Notre Dame gave new demonstrations of all-around class and Fordham's highly-touted Rams barely got past their first test.

Duke, clashing with Tennessee in the day's most important engagement, crushed the Volunteers, 19-0, with a great display of alert football and will be favored to whip through the rest of their schedule unbeaten. Handing Tennessee its first regular season defeat in 35 successive games, Duke took advantage of all its scoring opportunities in the first half and then settled back to hold the Vols safely in check.

Texas, looking more and more like one of the country's greatest arrays, buried Louisiana State on a 34-0 count as Pete Snyder and Jack Crain led the way. Navy, meeting what supposedly was to be a stern test in dark-horse West Virginia, turned on the heat in the second half, scored 33 points, crushing the Mountaineers, 40-0. Following hard upon its rout of Boston college a week ago, Tulane's green wave, apparently certain to be a major factor in the Southeastern conference race, had no trouble with Auburn's Plainsmen and won, 32-0. Dippy Evans scored all three touchdowns for Notre Dame as the Irish stopped Bo McMillin's Indiana outfit, 19-5.

Alabama, picked by many to run 1-2-3 in the Southeastern conference, never could get going against Mississippi State's green eleven and fell, 14-0. Alabama's line was badly outplayed and the coach had an essential difference. Georgetown, which had whipped Mississippi in an upset a week ago, was in turn spilled in sensational fashion by Virginia Tech, 3-0. Roger McClure's field goal in the third quarter meant victory to Tech, which had absorbed a crushing defeat from Kentucky in its last start. Wisconsin, rated well up in early season forecasts, took a frightful 28-7 beating from Marquette, making its first start under its new coach, Tom Slichman.

Fordham had to come from behind to beat Southern Methodist's Mustangs, 19-10, and start the season off on the right foot. After Joe Pasqua's fourth-period field goal had given the Mustangs a 10-7 edge, Steve Hudacek booted one a little later and the contest had turned into a rout. Steve Phillips tossed a pass to Blackie Blumenstock in the last 38 seconds for a touchdown and the ball game.

Yale, opening Spike Nelson's coaching regime, gave the east-another sensational intercollegiate victory. The Elis spotted Bill Dudley and Virginia 19 points in the first half and then, led by sophomores, pulled the game out of the fire in the last half, 21-19. John Petty's touchdown in the second period enabled Furdie to halt Penn, 6-0, and Army outpointed Citadel, 19-6, in other intercollegiate tests.

Penn, defending champions in the Ivy league, put a fast, inexperienced team on the field against Harvard's veterans and spilled them easily, 19-0. Ken Stoffer scored a second period touchdown and the game was over. Cornell needed to whip Syracuse, 6-0. Paul Gornall's passing carried Columbia to a 13-6 decision over Brown; Colgate stopped Penn State, 7-0, as Jo Jo McCourt scored the game's lone touchdown; New York university halted Lafayette, 6-0.

Michigan's Wolverines opened the Western conference season with a hard-earned 6-0 defeat of Iowa with Tom Kuzma scoring the touchdown. Northwestern uncovered a flock of brilliant sophomores and ran over Kansas State, 51-3 as Otto Graham scored three touchdowns, one on a 90-yard run, and passed for another. Nebraska opened the Big Six season with a 14-0 conquest of Iowa State. Missouri had little trouble with Colorado, 21-6, and Kansas stopped Washington University (St. Louis), 19-6. Texas Christian took a Southwest conference test from Arkansas, 9-0.

Clemson's Southern conference champions spilled North Carolina State, 27-6. Washington and Lee put up a fine fight against Kentucky, but bowed, 7-0.

Out in the far west, upset followed upset, and only Stanford's Indians, Rose Bowl champions, held up for the form players. Stanford scored almost at will against U.C.L.A., and won, 33-0.

At Los Angeles, a crowd of 60,000 was stamped by Ohio State's brilliant offensive as the Buckeyes handed Southern California an unmerciful, and unexpected, 33-0 beating. Washington's Huskies, figured as a sure contender for the Pacific coast crown, was beaten by Oregon State, 9-6, while California's Golden Bears were victims of a shocking upset at the hands of Washington State, 13-6. Colorado State took a Rocky Mountain Big Seven game from Wyoming, 27-0.

The census bureau is using more than 100,000,000 punch cards to turn into statistics the answers to the 1940 inquiries on the activities of over six million farms. These punch cards, similar to a music roll, are run through electric tabulating machines for the purpose of converting these statistics into totals.

Pampa Beats Northeast 26-6 For Third Win

Coming to life after being the underdog in the opening quarter, the Pampa Harvesters swamped the Northeast Norsemen of Oklahoma City 26 to 6 here Friday night to keep their 1941 record clean of a defeat.

Last week the Harvesters took a 29 to 13 game from Clovis, N. M., and two weeks ago they defeated Burk Burnett 19 to 7.

The Harvesters started their point grabbing midway through the second quarter and from then on they never stopped, even when a heavy mist blanketed the field to make the ball slippery.

A new star rose in the Pampa line when Floyd Allen replaced Arthur Moyer at left guard. Allen had been on the injured list and held out of play, but when Moyer's ailing leg started slowing him up Coach Buck Frejeman and Mac Eber went to give Allen a chance and the tall boy came through with some of the outstanding defensive work of the game. Other linemen played steady games, doing as good work, or even better, than the previous week.

Bright work in the backfield was the new drive of every boy who lugged the mail. The plowing quality of Jack Waters, fullback, and of Don Meador and Leonard Hollis, was particularly heartening to coaches and fans. The previous week it had been Edmondson, Halter, Boyles and Arthur who showed they had what it takes. The defensive play of Bobby Dunham and Leslie Burge was particularly brilliant.

Ary, Crawford Star
Pampa fans really took their hats off to Ray Ary, big Northeast fullback, and Ed Crawford, fleet little Jack Crain led the way. Navy, meeting what supposedly was to be a stern test in dark-horse West Virginia, turned on the heat in the second half, scored 33 points, crushing the Mountaineers, 40-0. Following hard upon its rout of Boston college a week ago, Tulane's green wave, apparently certain to be a major factor in the Southeastern conference race, had no trouble with Auburn's Plainsmen and won, 32-0. White Deer And Tulia Battle To Scoreless Tie

Special To THE NEWS
WHITE DEER, Oct. 4.—Two well-matched teams battled to a 0 to 0 tie when the White Deer Bucks met the Tulia Hornets here Friday night.

The Bucks took the offense in the first quarter when Willis Albert and Willie Driscoll accounted for two first downs each, and Captain A. C. Hourigan driving the ball into scoring position where Tulia made a goal line stand and White Deer lost the ball on downs.

Leroy Milton, Bucks' half-back, also made some nice gains in the first quarter, but two 15-yard penalties made a bad hole in the Bucks' yardage. Hourigan intercepted a pass on about the 25-yard line just as the quarter ended.

In the second quarter White Deer ran up two first downs and Tulia one. In the last half, Tulia took the offensive and in an aerial bombardment completed two long passes, had three intercepted, and at least seven knocked down. They also picked up two first downs on running plays in the fourth period. While playing a good defensive game against this aerial attack, the Bucks tried two passes which were incomplete and had one intercepted.

The play had gained stayed in the game. Ary roared to the 1-yard line and then punted off for a touchdown. Ary missed the try for extra point. Pampa 13; Northeast 6.

Cornett returned the kickoff to his 46, Edmondson made an interception of 28 yards around his right end. Waters followed with a power drive to the 12. Edmondson on three drives went 19, 5 and 7 yards from where Waters crashed from placement. Pampa 26; Northeast 6.

Eleven Pampa reserves went into the game.

First Quarter
Pampa won the toss, taking the wind to their back and kicking off to Northeast. Phillips booted out of bounds and Edmondson intercepted on the 35. Edmondson intercepted a pass on Pampa's 40. Three Harvesters line back lost four yards and Edmondson punted out on the 20.

Then Northeast started to march with Williams' line and took a 10-0 lead on three first downs, until stopped on the Pampa 45. After a punt, Waters reached 45 and Edmondson kicked a 20-yard field goal. Pampa recovered on the 15. Arthur and Dunham made a first down, on the 8-yard line, and then Arthur, behind great blocking, crossed the goal line. Phillips' try was wide. Pampa 12; Northeast 6.

Texas Shows Vast Power In LSU Win

By BILL KEYS
AUSTIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—The orange wave of the University of Texas, which threatens to engulf six other members of the Southwest conference, showed its vast power today by rolling over a gallant Louisiana State university eleven 24 to 0 before 19,000 fans.

Despite rain and mud, the Steers, reaching deep into their reserve strength to conserve regulars, humbled the Tigers with a brilliant ground and air attack.

Coach Dana X. Bible's second and third stringers performed most of the time but first stringers were in long enough to put the game on ice.

Seven minutes after the kickoff, bounding Pete Layden, steer full-back, alternated with fleet Jack Crain to work the ball from the LSU 40 to the 7 and Layden dashed over. Malcolm Kueber blocked Gerald Hightower's punt to set up the initial Longhorn score.

After that it was the Steers all the way, blocking, kicking, running and passing with precision.

The Tigers never got inside the Texas 30-yard line. They made only three first downs to Texas' 14. The Steers piled up 268 yards by rushing compared with the Tigers' 19 and passed for 113 yards against 29 for LSU.

Layden contributed a second marker and Crain tallied one before the reserves went in to add two more, one by Max Minor and another by Walton Roberts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Fordham's football veterans recovered a game which one of its star spangled sophomores almost lost today.

With passes by Steve Filipowicz to Blackie Blumenstock and a 28-yard field goal by Steve Hudacek—all Cotton Bowl campaigners—the Rams came from behind to shade Southern Methodist, 16 to 10, for a crowd of 20,000 that almost fell asleep through the three quarters but never got a chance to sit down through the last one.

In the first half of that final period, the Texas Mustangs tied the score at 7-7 on a 49-yard forward passing play, and then took a 10-7 lead on Joe Pasqua's 44-yard field goal that was set up on a fumble by Benny (The Fabulous) Babula, the Rams' sophomore quarterback.

But in the last eight minutes Filipowicz' long, accurate passes brought the Rams a 10-10 tie on the judges' kick, and then lifted them in front for good. With 38 seconds to go, the fireplug fullback from Kulpman, Pa., dropped back and let fly another pitch. Blumenstock cut in behind the 8-Mark left halfback, today, as the 10-10 tie on the four-yard line and went over for a scoring play that covered 36 yards.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 4 (AP)—Texas Christian had everything, especially defense, in Razorback football today as the Horned Ears gained a well-earned 9 to 0 victory over the University of Arkansas Razorbacks in the opening Southwest conference football game before 6,000 rain-drenched fans.

The Frogs took advantage of the windy, once in a while, second period when Frog End Phil Roach leaped above the Porkers' small back, Max Salling, to grab a 31-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Gillespie, who looked like shades of Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien, TCU greats of other years. The aerial climaxed a 40-yard drive.

In the third quarter, the Porker line momentarily held the Frogs on the Arkansas 14 and substitute back Frank Medanich place-kicked directly between the uprights with substitute Dean Bagley holding the ball, which was placed down on the 23.

The Frogs threatened the Porkers' goal line on several other occasions and had what looked like a 15-yard touchdown run by Back Nolan Sparks called back in the third period when a teammate was offside. Later in the same quarter, Bagley rilled an aerial to Roach for a 14-yard gain to Arkansas' three but another offside set the Frogs back to the 19.

Dodgers' Ball Game Goes When Drive Injures Fitz

By JUDSON BAILEY
EBBETS FIELD, Brooklyn, Oct. 4 (AP)—Masteful pitching by Maris Russo, driver young scout with a sick stomach, and four quick singles in the eighth inning brought the New York Yankees a 2 to 1 triumph over the Brooklyn Dodgers today and gave the Yanks a two to one advantage in the games played.

But the memory that was printed indelibly in the minds of the 33,100 sweltering fans who jammed this little park for Brooklyn's first series show in 21 years was the gallant fight of old Fred Fitzsimmons until a line drive struck him on the left leg in the seventh inning and knocked him out of the ball game.

The fat, 20-year-old knuckle ball expert who in his younger days as a star of the New York Giants was beaten three times in World Series contests, battled beautifully in a scoreless hurrying duel that kept every fan in suspense while it lasted and brought them to their feet cheering time after time.

Then with two out in the seventh, Russo ripped off a vicious line drive that struck topheavy old Fitz inches above the left knee and booted high in the air. Peevee Reese caught the ball to end the inning, but Fitzsimmons had to be helped off the field and later was taken to a New York hospital for X-rays to determine whether the kneecap might have been broken.

His removal let down the dykes in the power of the Yankees and after Johnny Sturm had filed out to open the eighth against relief pitcher Hugh Casey, Red Rolfe, Tom Henrich, Joe DiMaggio and Charley Keller blasted four consecutive singles for two runs.

Fitzsimmons' double play and Bill Dickey ground into a double play and Johnny Allen pitched hitless ball in the final frame.

The Dodgers tried to recover the lost ground in their half of the eighth when Dixie Walker led off with a double in right center, Red Casey, a slugger of good repute, topped a curve and the ball rolled tantalizingly along the third base line while the Yankees hovered over it and waited for it to go foul. Instead the ball stopped dead just inside fair territory about half way to third base and Medwick recovered credit for a single.

The other safety, in addition to the two that made the run in the eighth, was a tremendous double by Two-Gun Pete Reiser against the centerfield wall at the start of the seventh.

But Russo was supreme, striking out Medwick and Dolph Camilli, the latter for the second time during the game.

The only hit off him in the first six innings was coming. Joe Medwick, a slugger of good repute, topped a curve and the ball rolled tantalizingly along the third base line while the Yankees hovered over it and waited for it to go foul. LeFors Continues Victory March Against Yannigans

LEFORS, Oct. 4.—The LeFors Pirates of Coaches Francis Smith and John Rankin continued their 1941 victory march Friday night at the expense of a good Amarillo Yannigan team, the Pirates coming thru with a spectacular 34 to 6 victory.

LeFors' coaches pulled a Notre Dame stunt by sending shock troops into the game. Amarillo started strong, racking up three first downs before being stopped on the Pirate 10-yard line. After two unsuccessful plays, "scout" Earhart broke loose behind almost perfect interference and raced 90 yards to score. Earhart then converted for the extra point.

Earhart roared 50 yards for another touchdown before the half, after taking a pass from Oldham. Ammons' hard-running halfback, who had broken behind almost perfect interference and raced 90 yards to score. Earhart then converted for the extra point.

Amarrillo's lone touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Woodring intercepted a LeFors flat zone pass and romped 70 yards for a touchdown. Starkey added the extra point from placement.

Final LeFors drive came near the end of the game when Earhart took another pass from Oldham and scored 65 yards to score without a Yannigan near him.

The Pirate blocking was the outstanding feature of the game as Earhart, Oldham, Ammons and Jackson turned in great backfield games and Matteson, File and Bates were line stars.

Popular use of public libraries is indicated by recent census bureau figures. Out of a total of $26,000,000 spent on the libraries of the 94 largest cities in 1938, the taxpayer received over $19,000,000 worth of services and more than $3,000,000 worth of new books; whereas less than $2,000,000 was spent for administration.

Although the population density of the United States is twice that of the outlying territories of the country, the density of the Virgin Islands is eight times as great as that of continental United States. Alaska is the sparsest of the nation's territories, with about one person in each 10 square miles, according to census records.

Rice Flattens Sam Houston Teachers 42-0

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Rice's Owls, rated with Texas and Southern Methodist among the big three of the Southwest conference, opened their season by flattening Little Sam Houston State Teachers' college, 42-0, in a contest which left a crowd of 14,000 puzzled to Rice's potentialities.

Owls appeared sluggish in spots, with even Fireman Bob Brumley fumbling the ball away twice with touchdowns in sight.

Possibly five weeks of pre-season conditioning left the Owls slightly stale. Also, Coach Jess Neely was experimenting to find the best combination of scoring power.

Whatever the reason, Rice lacked the verve and snap of most Neely-coached elevens.

Sam Houston had nothing in the way of the Owls and much of its trouble resulted from its habit of passing deep within its own territory. The Owls intercepted 9 passes for 199 yards, two of them for scores.

The Bearkats from Huntsville had a net of minus seven yards rushing, while the Owls rolled up 289.

Despite his butter fingers, Fullback Brumley took up where he left off last year, spearheading the Rice offense along with Stoop Dickson, tailback, and Center Billy Blackburn, who used his six-foot-four-inches to run two interceptions for touchdowns in the last period.

Aggies Bombard Javelinas 41-0

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Combining blinding speed with a sure-fire passing attack, Texas A. & M. bombarded the Texas A. & I. Javelinas into submission, 41-0, in a non-conference football game in Alamo stadium tonight before 16,955 cash customers.

The defending Southwest conference champions registered only seven points the first half but turned loose their aerial might the second half to make the issue a runaway.

Rogers and Williams each wound up with two touchdowns and Spivey and Pickett picked up one apiece. Webster kicked three extra points and Steinko of A. & I. contributed the other two points when he stepped out of the end zone for an automatic safety.

West Texans Upset Arizonians 13 to 7

TEMPE, Ariz., Oct. 4 (AP)—An under-rated West Texas state college football team made its Border conference debut tonight by upsetting the Arizona State Teachers college Bulldogs, 1940 champions, 13 to 7, before 4,500 spectators.

Ben Collins, 156-pound halfback, sparked the Buffalo attack, scoring the first touchdown and setting up the second with a spectacular line-plunging exhibition.

Temppe got its scoring chance in the fourth quarter on an exchange of punts. A pass, Ted Oles, sub for Vernie Vitek, to Tom Campolo, quarterback, placed the ball on the West Texas 27-yard line. From there Oles shot a pass into the end zone to half-back Ray Ybarra for Temppe's lone score. Bob Lackey kicked the extra point.

Pat Toombs, Buffalo center, was carried from the field in the third period with a brain concussion.

West Texas counted 16 first downs to 12 for Temppe.

The visitors got the jump by scoring in the first quarter, going from their own 38 to a touchdown in eight plays, with Collins carrying the ball five times, including a 28-yard run for the payoff. He converted.

Larry Sanders, Buffalo fullback, scored in the first quarter after a march featured by Collins' 31-yard dash to the 18-inch line.

Clerics Speak On Free Press And Free Religion

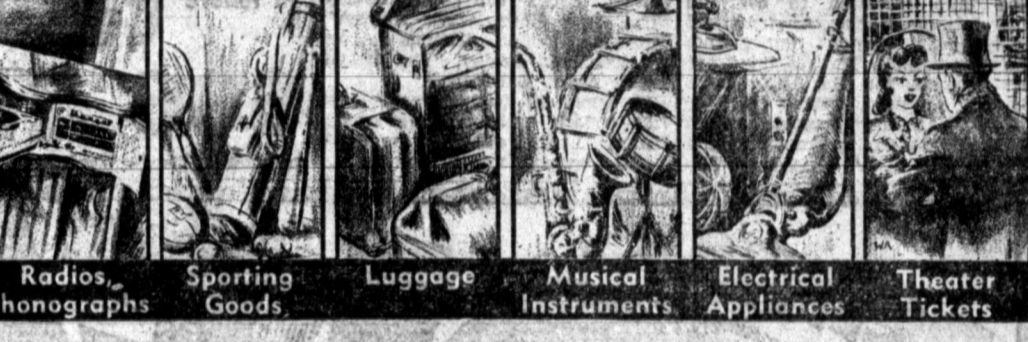

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Three leading clergymen—a Roman Catholic, a Protestant and a Jew—stressed today the growing importance to democracy of a close relationship between America's free press and free religion, in statements issued by the Religious News Service in connection with National Newspaper week.

They were Dean Luther A. Weigle of the Yale divinity school, president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America; Bishop John Mark Gannon of the Catholic Diocese of Erie, Pa., chairman of the National Catholic Welfare Conference press department; and Rabbi Edward L. Israel of Baltimore, executive director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Texas State Fair, Largest In Nation, Opens Oct. 4 In Dallas

By BRACK CURRY
Associated Press Staff
Texas' cycle of fall fairs and regional celebrations starts this month at a score of points from Amarillo to Abilene, to Tyler. The Texas State Fair—largest in the nation—opened October 4 in Dallas.

The West Texas Fair at Abilene, now in progress, is emphasizing in displays, exhibits and contests the part West Texas is playing in the national defense program in business, industry, agriculture, livestock, oil and allied fields.

The 53rd since Abilene's first major fair in 1888, the West Texas celebration features for the third year the Palomino Horse Show with entries exceeding 300 from 16 states and Mexico.

Amarillo's Tri-State Fair began a full week of activities Monday. More than 500 officers and men and 100 pieces of mechanized equipment staged a night defense display there Oct. 4 with a simulated battle between land and air forces, employing sound detectors, searchlights and anti-aircraft guns.

During the week the fair honored Gov. John E. Miles of New Mexico, Capt. Charles E. Rosenthal, noted naval officer, and Rep. Gene Worley of the 18th congressional district. Gov. Coke R. Stevenson cancelled his scheduled appearance at the Fair's opening to attend defense conferences in Washington.

Lubbock offers one of the richest prizes in West Texas—rodeo history with $3,000 in prize money slated for contestants at its 28th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair Oct. 6-11.

Officials of Tyler's 9th annual Texas Rose Festival Oct. 9-12 have invited 41 colleges and high school bands to participate in the spectacular Rose parade Oct. 11—largest number of bands ever invited to participate.

Governor Stevenson will make his first trip to the East Texas area since he became chief executive to open the fourth annual Texas Forest Festival at Lufkin Oct. 6. Designated "Legislators Day," Stevenson, members of the Texas legislature, and pioneers of the Texas

United States was drifting toward the "horrible state" of "atheistic democracy" and urged Americans to awaken to the importance of religion in a democracy, asserting that the American daily newspaper was a powerful force in turning the tide "back toward the simple ways of God our forefathers obviously desired for us, as witnessed by the larger space being given over to religion."

Jack Durance, New Hampshire skier, and Merrill McLane of Rockport, Mass., both experienced mountain climbers, were en route by plane from New York to aid in the rescue attempt.

AKRON, O., Oct. 4. (AP)—The blimp "Reliance" was ordered today to take off at dawn Sunday for an attempt to rescue parachutist George Hopkins, marooned atop Devils Tower near Sundance, Wyo.

Because there are no landing fields en route for the 123,000 cubic foot blimp, it will be accompanied by a 12-man ground crew in a bus with a portable mooring mast. The blimp and bus were told to start from the Wingfoot lake air dock here between 5 and 6 a. m. (Eastern Standard time) Sunday with expectations of completing the trip the middle of next week.

New Weight Statute Goes Into Effect

Into effect at the same time as the new federal taxes on radios, electrical appliances, jewelry, watches, and various other merchandise, goes the new state weights and measures law, passed by the 47th legislature.

Main point of lengthy bit of legislation is that it is designed to prevent deception through misrepresentation.

Dr. N. L. Nichol, assistant city health officer, said the weights and measures law would be strictly enforced in Pampa.

One section of the law provides that the net quantity of contents in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count and the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor, shall be plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package of each commodity put up prior to sale thereof.

It will now be necessary that each package prior to the sale of the article be plainly marked with the net quantity of the contents and the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor.

There will be one exception to this rule in the case of packages put up by the retailer to be sold upon the premises where packed direct to the consumer and not to be re-sold.

In other words, those packages of beans, dried fruits, etc., ordinarily packed by the retailer, in his own store and sold on the premises direct to the consumer will not be required to bear the name and address, but will be required to be plainly and conspicuously marked with the net quantity of contents in the package.

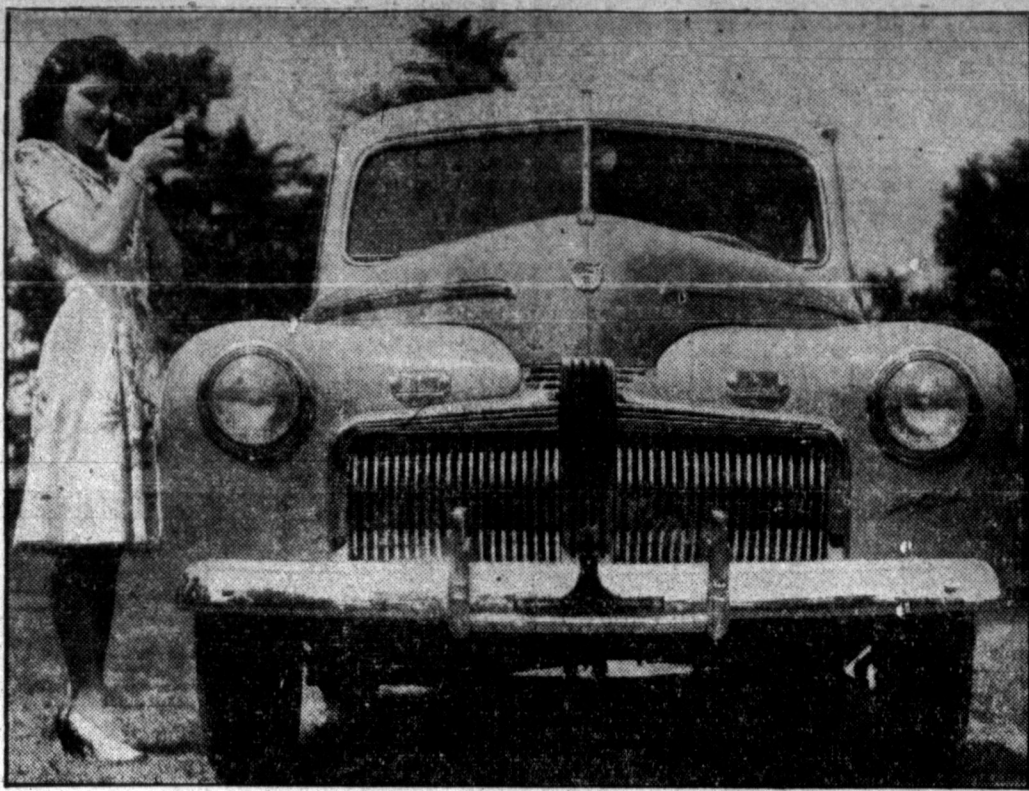

All packages not to be sold by the retailer, direct to the consumer, on the premises where packed, will be required to bear the latter marking.

Must Show Net Weight
Another section of the law provides that cheese, meat, and meat food products, including poultry, shall be sold by standard net weight. It requires that all poultry sold by live weight shall be weighed alive at the time of sale, and that any poultry dressed or killed prior to the time of sale, whether cooked or uncooked, shall be sold by net weight at the time of sale, and not by live weight or by the piece.

Section G provides that "it shall be unlawful for any person to misrepresent the price of a commodity, thing, or service, sold or offered or exposed for sale or to represent the price or the quantity of any commodity, thing, or service sold or offered or exposed for sale in any manner calculated or tending to mislead an actual or prospective customer.

ber and a fraction, the figures in the fraction shall be of a proportionate size and legibility with those of the whole number."

There has been a common practice in the past among dealers to display the whole number on a price sign in extra large figures, while the fraction was so small that it was not noticed except at very close range, and in the future the price signs must be so arranged that any fractions included therein must be of proportionate size and legibility with the whole numbers.

Penalty for violation of the provisions of the act ranges from $20 to $100 for the first offense, and from $50 to $200 for any subsequent offenses.

Slovs Hold 650 Nazis

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Yugoslavs are showing the Germans that the execution of hostages can be two-sided, the British radio said today in a broadcast heard by CBS. Yugoslav guerrillas, BBC said,

Police To Begin Drive For Proper Lights On Vehicles

A drive to see that cars operating on Pampa streets have proper lights will be started this week by city police officers, it was announced Saturday.

The old story of "I didn't know it was out" won't hold water in the campaign because the officers have secured the cooperation of all service station operators in Pampa in the campaign for safer driving. All service stations will check car lights while gasoline tanks are being filled and then there'll be no excuses for no lights.

Revival Begins Today At First Christian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pollock of Nebo, Illinois, will arrive this evening to assist in the revival at First Christian church. The Pollocks are one of the greatest evangelistic teams of the Christian church brotherhood; they have worked with churches of all sizes from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf for 20 years.

"We are especially happy to bring such outstanding christian leaders as the Pollocks to Pampa," Rev. B. A. Norris, pastor, stated. "Mr. Pollock has few equals as a worker in personal evangelism besides being a master leader of gospel singing, and Mrs. Pollock is an excellent pianist and accompanist. Her work with the children's Sunshine Booster band, which meets each day after school, is unusual. No high-pressure methods are used with the children. A constructive piece of educational work is done."

Rev. Norris, local pastor and evangelist for the revival, has chosen as a text for the entire three weeks meeting Paul's statement, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." Every sermon will be a "gospel sermon" drawn from the four gospels. The following are the subjects for the first week: Sunday morning, "What is the Gospel?"; Sunday evening, "Glad Tidings About God"; Monday, "Good News About Man"; Tuesday, "The

Citrus Fruit Season Expected To Be Best

WEELAGO, Oct. 4 (AP)—The two may seem unrelated at first glance, but the defense program may have a lot to do with the success of the citrus fruit season, expected to be one of the best in years for the lower Rio Grande valley.

Arnold Krause, sales manager for the Rio Grande Valley Citrus exchange of Weelago, said on his return from a tour of American citrus markets that the defense program probably would play a worthwhile part in the citrus season.

Several large U. S. army training camps have been established in the valley's primary sales area—Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. In addition, government purchases of surplus farm products through the surplus market administration may be expected to take all available citrus that does not find its way into commercial channels.

The valley has sold practically every can of canned grapefruit juice in its warehouses and thus the new juice will begin to move into waiting markets as soon as the citrus harvest gets into full swing.

Valley growers expect to receive the highest prices in years.

Chain Newspapers Rapped By Senator

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Declaring that "chain newspaper publishing has become a menace to democratic institutions," Senator Guffey (D-Pa.), told the senate today that "the time has come when legislation should be introduced and considered looking to the curtailment of the chain newspaper industry."

Guffey, consistent administration supporter, said Roy Howard, head of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, had refused President Roosevelt's request that he seek to improve United States relations with South America.

"That's the kind of patriot this particular chain newspaper publisher reveals himself to be," Guffey continued in a prepared address. "The only man called by the President, the commander-in-chief of our forces, to service during this crisis who refused to serve."

He said that Howard and Robert P. Scripps had formed personal holding corporations and thus had "evaded and avoided payment of income taxes."

While the population of the United States itself increased seven per cent between 1930 and 1940, that of Hawaii jumped nearly 15 per cent. Between 1900 and the present, Hawaii's population has increased approximately 2 1/2 times, according to the census.

Just Between Us Girls

BY JOHNNIE DAVIS

October gave a party, the leaves by hundreds came—
The Ashes, Oaks, and Maples, and leaves of every name.
The sunshine spread a carpet, and everything was grand;
Miss Weather led the dancing; Professor Wind, the band.
The Chestnuts came in yellow; the Oaks in crimson dressed.
The lovely Misses Maple in purple looked their best.
All balanced to their partners, and gaily fluttered by.
The sight was like a rainbow, new-fallen from the sky.

Today marks a first anniversary for us... One year ago this Sunday the first column, Just Between Us Girls, appeared... And yet we don't know where we got the idea that we could write a column... Never have we had the desire to quit this weekly prattle but two or three occasions it would have been very convenient to forget that anything existed "Just Between Us Girls."

Names mentioned in the first column were Mrs. Frank Hall, who was judge for the cake baking contest of the Happy Kitchen Cooking School (ditto this year)... Mrs. H. E. Howard, the former Jeannie Stennis, was moving to Station... Mrs. Volney Taylor, state commander of the American Society of Cancer Control, who was a guest speaker here... Four pledges, Mrs. Oscar Hinger, Miss Winifred Wiseman, Miss Helen Houston, and Miss Evelyn Gregory (now Mrs. Bill Anderson), of the Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority... Peggy Arnold, who was betting on the Detroit Tigers.

Speaking of anniversaries, 10 years ago the revengeful Pampa Harvesters gave the Amarillo Sandles a 13-6 licking... Amarillo and Pampa started playing football games together in 1921 but 1931 turned out to be the first and only season in which the Pampa team won... On three previous occasions the Pampa-Amarillo game ended in a tie... Who knows? The Harvesters may celebrate their twentieth year of playing football with the Sandles with their second victory over that team... At least they have enough feminine supporters... Among the women who never miss a game are the Harvester Mothers... This group was re-organized for the year when the women met at the home of Mrs. H. H. Heiskell, who has had at least one son on the Harvester team for several years.

Pampa—a city of clubs—is soon to be a city versed in the principles of parliamentary law... The dynamic Mrs. H. F. Godeke of Lubbock, president of seventh district Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will conduct a session in parliamentary procedure at the club institute to be held here on October 16... Another guest speaker will be Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, national director... Attractive Mrs. F. E. Leech is general chairman of arrangements for the institute.

Personality: (1) An outward expression of the inner self.
(2) Yardstick of the traits required to get along in the world.
(3) The extent to which one is able to interest and influence other people.

After visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance, for six weeks, Mrs. Frank Akright packed up and went back to El Paso last week... Mrs. Akright, the former Janice Purviance, has been here while her husband, Lieutenant Akright, has been in Louisiana on maneuvers... Other Pampa visitors include Mrs. Jim Mobley of College Station, who will be remembered as Leona Hurst, and Mrs. Arthur Holland who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell... Faraway visitors here are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartman of Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, who have been with their son, D. C. Hartman, and Mrs. Hartman... and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Beecher of Toledo, Ohio, who are with their daughters, Mrs. W. S. Dixon and Mrs. George Friauf, and families.

Following initiation week, pledges of the Sub Deb club feel as if they are full-fledged members... With their faces covered in white pack, the pledges weaved in and out of stores in the business district as they counted and kept in step to the rhythm of the Conga.

Typical of the reaction to the arrival of a rookie piano at camp is the following report from a barracks at Fort Briggs: "Our piano came on Tuesday and the list didn't have gone to a better barracks. With five or six men able to play, it was kept going Saturday night from 7:30 p. m. to 2:15 a. m."

Once an instrument is received, there is never a dearth of players... Many of the service men are professional musicians... Others have had considerable musical training, which they are now able to continue, thanks to the camp piano... With the piano as a center, many camps now have their own orchestras. In the list stating the articles which may be taken to camp and those which are prohibited, selectees were told that "musical instruments such as guitars, banjos, etc. should be taken."... This music again is helping to build morale as the center of camp entertainment.

Climaxing the observance of National Business and Professional Women's week, Pampa club members will be invited to business and professional women of district one at a two-day conference... State officers who are to be here are Jewell Sparks, state president; Hattilu White of Amarillo, state president-elect; Miriam Coleman, executive secretary; Dora Davis, district one director; and Vaneta Cross, public affairs chairman... Since last spring the local club has been making and sending clever reminders of the conference to clubs throughout the district... Among these favors were a small brown paper traveling bag fitted with soap and a tiny wash cloth designating "All packed and ready to ride to Pampa"... An invitation covered in Scotch plaid—"We may be scotch but no expense will be spared to show you a good time"... and a small violin—"Quit fiddlin' and get ready to come to the district one conference"... Ask Audrey Fowler, local president, who furnished all of these ideas.

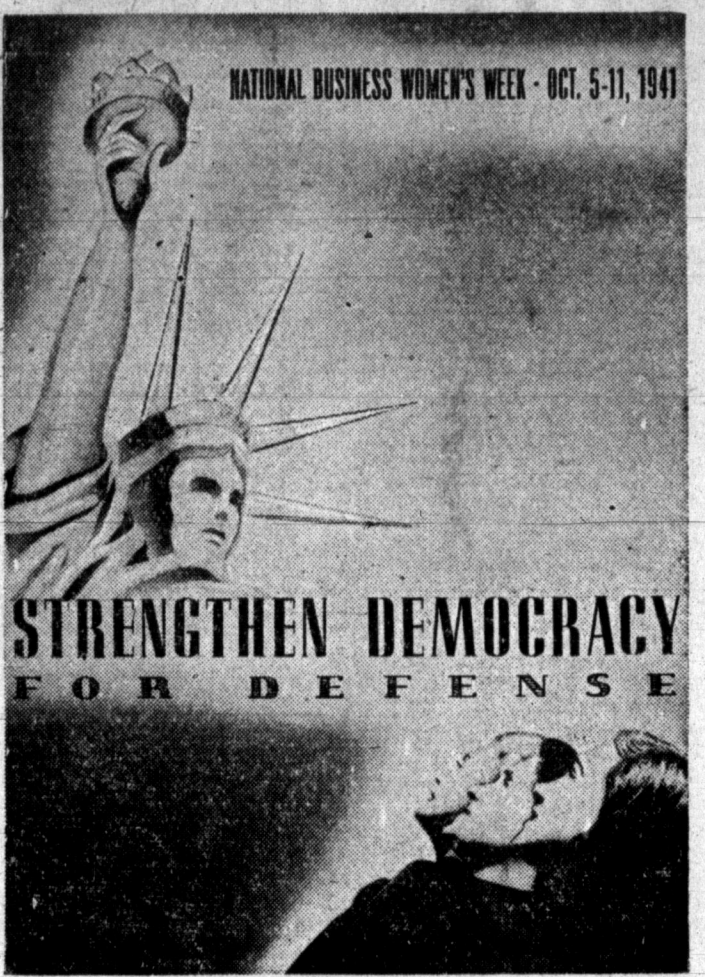

Oldtimers in Pampa will remember Supt. and Mrs. W. B. Irvin who made their home here from 1922 to 1925, the days before the late Supt. R. C. Campbell, Supt. R. B. Fisher, and Supt. L. L. Sone... After leaving Pampa, Mr. Irvin served as superintendent of Perryton High school and for several years has been superintendent of Lubbock schools... In a meeting held in the First Christian church of Lubbock last week, Mrs. Irvin of the First Baptist church was elected president of the Church Women's Federation... Mrs. Irvin and other officers were chosen unanimously by representatives of Lubbock's nine churches.

Study leaflets based on "Primer for Americans," that star-spangled text book for women's clubs, recently issued by the Women's Division of the National Association of Manufacturers, are making the study of Americanism easier... These new leaflets are small enough to tuck in a woman's purse along with a compact, a lipstick, a bunch of dress goods and the grocery list... So, on a bus ride downtown, a woman can get her lesson for the next week—and be ready to take part in the animated discussion that is inevitable whenever this book is used.

In seven federated clubs of the city are many talented women... An example is Mrs. H. T. Hampton, whose ability to write poetry won her second prize in the poetry division of the entire seventh district... Her selection, "O Wind," appeared in the September issue of the state magazine, Federation News... It is as follows:

O Wind! You rage and rant and roar
And bang against our dwelling door.
You roll the tumbleweeds in droves
Across the fields and plains and roads.
You dust the sky with somber hue—
Until the sun cannot show thru.
You tear the tender wheat and rye
From out the ground and toss it high.
Oh, chill, harsh wind! 'tho' cruel you be
Man's more merciful than thee.
For he makes war—that awful state
Where man fights man in greed and hate.
Where bombs rain down from out the sky
And little children scream and die.
Where old folks drag across the snow—
No home—no hope—no place to go.
And young men, with all life ahead
Fall on the field of battle—dead.
Oh dreadful, useless war! You like the wind
Must rage and roar and tear out hearts—
Blot out our joys—and even rob us of our boys.

Happiness consists in the enjoyment rather than in the mere possession of things... Some people miss a lot of happiness because they do not include others in their enjoyment... The habit of viewing things cheerfully and thinking about life hopefully may be made to grow up like any other habit.

NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK - OCT. 5-11, 1941
MEMBERS OF PAMPA'S BUSINESS and Professional Women's club are among the thousands of American Women who will join in the celebration of National Business Women's Week, October 5-11, which has been dedicated to the theme, "Strengthen Democracy for Defense," which was chosen by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Observance of B. P. W. week here will be climaxed with a two-district conference with headquarters at the Schneider hotel.

FDR Says Federation Is Qualified For Defense Work; Governor Proclaims National B-PW Work

President Franklin D. Roosevelt yesterday gave his official endorsement of National Business Women's Week, October 5 to 11. In a letter to Dr. Minnie L. Maffett, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which sponsors this annual event, he said that the organization appears to be particularly well qualified for the task of defense preparations. The full text of his letter follows: "Modern war spares no element nor individual. We have had terrible demonstration of this fact for two years now. Civilians, including women and children, have in many instances undergone as great suffering and privation as the armed forces. 'We are defending ourselves in order to prevent this form of cruel warfare from reaching our shores. That means that we must achieve total preparedness in order to forestall total war in the United States. 'The women of this country have a definite place in our defense preparations. Any national organization which tends to solidify their efforts is doing a thoroughly worthwhile thing. 'The Business and Professional Women's clubs appear to me to be particularly well qualified for such a task, since they have, through personal experience, learned to distinguish between just motion and constructive action.' In addition to President Roosevelt's endorsement of the National B-P. W. Week, Gov. Coke Stevenson joined in proclaiming the state-wide celebration as follows: "WHEREAS, the Business Women throughout the country will be celebrating the anniversary of National Business Women's Week this October; and WHEREAS, it is fitting at this time to commend business women for the manner in which they have assumed the increased duties and responsibilities that came with the greater privileges and opportunities of the century; and WHEREAS, the business woman should be encouraged and urged to continue assuming the obligations of citizenship to the end that through the united efforts of men and women alike the problems of democracy may be solved; and WHEREAS, the Business Women throughout the nation have adopted for study and action this year a program that will unify their efforts to 'Strengthen Democracy for Defense'; NOW, THEREFORE, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby set aside and proclaim the week of October 5th-11th as BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK and urge that it be fittingly observed in our State of Texas. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, this 24th day of September, A. D. 1941. COKE STEVENSON, Governor of Texas.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

By Mrs. Hol Wagner

Many volunteers have assisted at the Red Cross production room this past week sewing in labels and sorting and packing garments for shipment. More of this type of work still remains to be done. It is hoped that by the end of this week all of the girls' cotton dresses, the soldiers' convalescent robes, and the women's crocheted shawls will be turned in and ready for shipment—and as many socks and sweaters as possible.

Of our quota of 224 sweaters, 85 are now ready for shipment. This does not include the 40 sweater, beanie, and mitten sets that will have to be packed with the other garments making up the toddler packs, or the 80 little sweater and pants suits. We still have a long way to go before the entire quota is filled.

If you happen to be working on any of the articles we want to ship now, won't you make a special effort to finish them this week?

Mrs. A. Cole put in more hours than anyone else this past week sewing in labels, sorting out garments that needed buttons or snaps, etc. She worked on several different days and also checked out some hospital bed shirts to make at home.

On Wednesday morning a group of women from the Faithful Workers class at the First Baptist church helped: Mmes. Fuller Barnett, Joe Foster, C. B. Tillstrom, O. V. Batson, V. L. Hobbs, L. H. Anderson, C. M. Elliott, and A. Cole. Friday after school ten girls from Mrs. Jack Goldstein's Girl Scout troop sewed in labels: Patsy Miller, Nancy Yoder, Wanda Gordon, Patsy Pierson, Sybil Pierson, Carol Perkins, Dot Culbertson, Joan Thomason, Patty Burrow, and Margaret Small. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Nation.

Mrs. Lee Cady has donated wash cloths for all 100 layettes. In earlier quotas wash cloths were among the items required in the layettes.

but this time no provision was made for them. Mrs. Cady's generous gift therefore will make a very useful addition to each layette.

Another of the study clubs has started on Red Cross work. The newest of the federated clubs, the Parent Education club, checked out 20 little undershirts for the toddler packs this last week.

St. Matthew's Episcopal Woman's auxiliary has decided to sew for the Red Cross on alternate Wednesdays from their regular meeting days.

Crocheters will be needed in large numbers again now to make the little thumbless mittens for the layettes. If you will help with this, call Mrs. S. G. Surratt at 594-J.

All of the hospital bed shirts and all the undershirts for the toddler packs were cut out last week by volunteers. Only three women helped on Tuesday: Mrs. Doyle Osborne, Mrs. L. L. Davis, and Mrs. Charlie Thut. Each of these women is in charge of the production room one afternoon per week, but they usually give several afternoons a week to the Red Cross.

On Thursday the following volunteers assisted with the cutting: Mmes. C. M. Heflin, B. Baldrige, Walter Daugherty, Andrew Melkie, Joe Shelton, and L. L. Davis.

Completed garments were turned in during the last week as follows: Mrs. George Berlin for the Central Baptist church—one convalescent robe; Mrs. D. V. Burton—one child's dress; Mrs. J. G. Curgle—one crocheted shawl; Mrs. Joe Casperson—trimmed 12 dresses; Mrs. Walter Daugherty—one pair socks; Mrs. Ralph Gray—one child's sweater; Mrs. F. O. Gurley—one crocheted shawl; Mrs. Cyril Hamilton—two women's dresses; Mrs. O. To Heve—five toddler sleepers; Mrs. W. S. Kiser—one crocheted shawl; Mrs. E. M. Keller—trimmed and added buttonholes to four dresses.

Mrs. Kiser Presides At District Meeting Of Catholic Women

With one of the largest gatherings in the history of the Amarillo Council of Catholic Women meeting for the tenth semi-annual district convention in Panhandle last week, new impetus was given to the organization and to the program outlined for the year ahead. Delegates from Dalhart, Borger, Groom, Herford, Shamrock, Amarillo, White Deer, St. Francis, Panhandle, Happy, Canadian, and Pampa were present.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. R. J. Kiser of Pampa, president of the Amarillo district. Reports of various standing committees, both of the parishes and of the entire district, revealed a steadiness of activity throughout the entire year, and covered such fields as Parent-Teacher association, religious vacation schools, religious discussion clubs, youth, libraries and literature, shrines in the home, press and publicity, and immigration and social service.

Theme of the meeting was "Leadership," and the addresses of Mrs. Kiser, and of the Rev. T. J. Drury, director, centered around that topic. Mrs. M. F. Roche, of Pampa, diocesan president, gave a comprehensive report on the Rocky Mountain Regional conference held in Denver early in August, the theme of the conference being "Service for God and Country."

Mrs. Harry Cochran of Borger read a paper entitled, "The Holy Eucharist," and during the luncheon the Rev. J. A. Zienta of White Deer, addressed the assembly on "Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament."

The convention accepted the invitation to hold the spring meeting in Borger.

City Council PTA Sponsors School Of Instructions

A school of instruction, sponsored by City Council Parents and Teachers, was held Thursday afternoon in the new high school auditorium.

Mrs. Carl Boston, president, presided at the meeting. The group sang "America" after which Mrs. J. E. Baird led in prayer. During a brief business session, the Council voted to sponsor a P-T-A. news column in the daily paper. All publicity chairman of locals were asked to call their P-T-A. news for the coming week to Mrs. F. W. Shotwell, City Council publicity chairman, by Friday afternoon of each week.

Principal Winston Savage, district Red Cross chairman, announced that the Red Cross drive will begin November 12 in Pampa. He stated that the city has been restricted into four divisions and he asked that the P-T-A. units cooperate in making the Red Cross campaign.

Mrs. H. H. Boynton opened the meeting by telling why schools of instruction are held each year.

"Just to know Parent-Teacher work is not enough; unless we put into action the things we have learned, we cannot accomplish very much," she said.

Place of P-T-A. Speaking on "The Place of the P-T-A. in the Community," Mrs. D. V. Burton said, "Our name implies our importance. As parents and teachers we do not only have the privilege but duty of building the community of tomorrow."

Mrs. Tom O'Rourke represented the parishes. P-T-A. by stressing the importance of the individual members. We cannot all be officers or chairmen but by paying our dues and supporting our association with our presence, we can mean much to our local groups, she pointed out.

Mrs. Roy Holt of Junior High P-T-A. and past president of City Council in Pampa, explained why the councils are formed and their work. She asserted that everyone who is interested in P-T-A. work is eligible to attend any council meeting; however, only the president of the association or the individual delegates may vote at the meeting. The council is not a money-making body, it is supported by dues paid by the local units, Mrs. Holt concluded.

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of the school, represented Horace Mann P-T-A. and discussed "The Principal and the Parent-Teacher." Miss Thomas said the principal is important to the association because he or she represents the teachers as the president of the association. The principal and parents and both cooperating intelligently can accomplish much for the association.

P-T-A. Reports Mrs. V. L. Hobbs, president of Sam Houston P-T-A., told how reports might be given in an interesting and informative way. If an association has the time, she suggested a delegate to a conference, the delegate should feel an obligation to bring back an enthusiastic report of the things she has heard and learned.

Mrs. J. E. Beard, president of B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher, told of the benefits derived from the summer round-up. She said that it has ceased to be a program of gathering children on the first day of school for health check-up; it is a program beginning with pre-natal care and ending with the child's health of the child into the college age.

Study groups were explained by Mrs. E. L. Anderson, past president of Woodrow Wilson, who told of the women of the association meeting for lunch in the cafeteria and then for study. Mrs. Anderson stressed the using of local talent as leaders of discussions.

Miss Helen Martin, music teacher in high school, represented high school P-T-A. and presented the subject, "Mother Singers." She said that parents are anxious for the schools to train their children in music appreciation but the homes could do much to help. She suggested that parents singing together would help the children towards music appreciation.

"Do's and Don'ts" Mrs. Roy Holt explained some of the Do's and Don'ts in working up the procedure book. All reports must be signed in ink, in longhand; also Mrs. Holt stressed that the use of the pronoun, "I," in working out reports is incorrect. She said Sam Houston P-T-A. procedure book was the most nearly perfect of the Pampa books.

Mrs. Cliff Wincent of LeFors, third vice president, presided at the question box.

The attendance award, which will be a parent education book for the book shelf, went to Junior High school Eighty-five parents, teachers, and guests registered.

MISSOURI AGAIN IN "WAR" SPOTLIGHT AS 20th-FOX PRODUCES ANOTHER BANDIT PIC

Gene Tierney Featured In "Belle Starr," Story Of "Queen" Who Believed War Between The States Wasn't Ended Simply Because Robert E. Lee Surrendered Sword

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Just when we think 20th-Fox has run out of "bandits," along comes another. This time it is a bandit queen, one "Belle Starr," played by comely Gene Tierney.

It's her first starring part, earned by her performance in "Tobacco Road."

"Belle Starr" is beautifully mounted in technicolor.

Missouri is the locale. Belle's father is killed by renegade bands which she views as being under the Union banner. The ancestral home is burned because Gene and her brother, John Sheppard, have harbored the wounded Randolph Scott.

The latter is the interpreter of the role of Captain Starr, who, despite the fact that hostilities have ended, keeps up the fight against the carpetbaggers invasion.

His view that the war could not be terminated by any little matter such as Lee's surrender is shared by Gene.

"Belle Starr" opens a four-day run today at the LaNora. Besides Scott and Tierney, the other principals are Dana Andrews and John Sheppard. Running time, 87 minutes.

"Fan" Mail

Joe Louis, whom we understand is a very dangerous guy to get in an argument with, writes from Greenwood Lake, N. J., asking a contrib. to department of race relations of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Sorry, Joe, but the U. S. O. got our last bit of spare change.

The House of the Lion sends the screen editor a streamlined 1942 model press book, asked my "valed" opinion. Just when I catch a spare sec between assignments, I'll tell all.

Paramount's alert publicity boys send me a copy (autographed, too, no foolin') of Bob Hope's "They Got Me Covered." Bobs autolog. Your humor is still colorful, and hopefully terrific. It's a wow, Bob. Many thanks.

Maybe they think my last name ends in "sen"—anyhow, Norway's consul general writes from 115 Broad street, N.Y., to tell me about the visit of five Douglas attack bombers of the Royal Norwegian Air force to New York. How they ever got my name on their mailing list is something to wonder—or should I take up ski-ing over the fjords?

Aherne in Dual Role

Brian Aherne plays two parts in Universal's 72-minute comedy, "The Man Who Lost Himself," at the LaNora Thursday. Aherne, as a visiting business man, runs into Aherne, no-good department store executive and estranged husband of Kay Francis.

Due to their similarity they decide to celebrate, with Aherne as the

Blues Chasing Comedy

Down-to-Earth hokum is found in MGM's 77-minute comedy, "Whistling in the Dark," Red Skelton, Conrad Veidt, Ann Rutherford, Virginia Grey. It's on the LaNora screen Friday and Saturday. Moon-worshippers, a radio character known as "The Fox," and the "perfect" crime are mixed in the plot.

No. 1 Bogey Man

Boris Karloff put the thrills and chills in Columbia's 65-minute melodrama about a college professor who has spent most of his life working on a machine which registers brain waves and records them on a chart. It's at the Rex, today through Tuesday.

Nutter Mike Shayne

Best in the Shayne series is "Dressed to Kill," 20th-Fox, 72-minutes, with Lloyd Nolan, Mary Beth Hughes, William Damarest. Nolan and Miss Hughes are about to be married when Nolan stumbles (that guy's always stumbling around as sleuth Shayne) into a double murder which the plot-maker lengthens into a triple. Shayne nabs the killer, but loses the girl. On the Rex screen Wednesday and Thursday.

Bennett-Tone Farce

On the State screen Wednesday and Thursday is Columbia's 85-minute pic, "She Knew All the Answers," with Joan Bennett, Franchot Tone, John Hubbard, Eve Arden. Based on a Cosmopolitan magazine story, Pic opens with Hubbard, 1940 model playboy, stopped in the midst of his elopement with a Broadway chorine by his guardian because of that ever-present will.

Miss Rae Files, member of the Texas legislature from Waxahachie, drew a bow from The Film Daily for introducing a resolution lauding films for the part they played in contributing to and defending the American way of life. Historic Pitchfork

The actual pitchfork used as a weapon by the Scottish farmer in the capture of Rudolf Hess when the latter landed by parachute in the mystery plane flight from Germany was on display at the Capital Theater in St. Catherine's, Ontario, Canada. Cleverest bit of acting I've seen in a long time is the scene in "Dive Bomber" climaxed by the messenger boy warbling "I don't like quarrels, I don't like scenes, if the navy's too busy, I'll try the marines."

All communications from Warner Brothers now calls attention through a special imprint of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 1-8. Incidentally, Harry M. Warner really rang the bell in his testimony before the senate committee probing propaganda in pics. "I am an American citizen and I bow to no one in my patriotism and devotion to my country," is one of Mr. Warner's statements. That's how EVERY AMERICAN should believe, Mr. Warner—and more power to you.

Silver Dollars Of Colorado Student Cause Stir At Tech

Special To THE NEWS LUBBOCK, Oct. 4—Silver dollars are carried to pay debts, not to create a sensation, thinks Nana Mae Milliken of Mont Vista, Colo., enrolled as a freshman home economics student at Texas Tech. This fall, she was faintly surprised at the stir caused in the college business office when she rolled out 20 silver dollars to pay the balance on her first month's room and board.

She brought six more silver dollars with her—just because she happened to have them—from her Colorado home, but failed in her effort to spend each one. Every attempt was thwarted by some eager coed who offered her a dollar bill in exchange for the collector piece. Others asked her to send home for silver pieces coined in the year of their births.

"Asked if they were not heavy to carry around in a purse, she answers matter-of-factly, "Oh, you don't carry them unless you are going to pay a bill."

Gallup Holds Boy Charged In Burglary

Charges of burglary have been filed in the court of Justice of the Peace E. F. Young against Harold Richardson, 17-year-old Pampa youth now being held in Gallup, N. M., on similar charges, according to Police Chief J. B. Wilkinson who filed charges here yesterday.

The youth, according to Chief Wilkinson, was arrested in Gallup, N. M., Thursday night after "the car" he was driving was in a wreck. Police Captain Ed Jackson of Gallup called Chief Wilkinson Friday afternoon reporting that the youth had confessed to three burglaries in Pampa, one in Boger, one in Grants, N. M., and one in Gallup.

The youth also implicated a 20-year-old companion, whom officers said apparently fled from the accident, possibly crossing into Arizona.

Captain Jackson reported that the automobile used by the pair had been stolen in Houston. Young Richardson suffered a fractured arm and had facial cuts in the accident.

The youth, according to the Gallup officers, was arrested for questioning when a shotgun and shells were found in the car. Later he admitted the burglaries, Captain Jackson said.

The gun found in the car has been identified as one stolen last week when the Pampa Lubricating company station on West Brown street was entered, Chief Wilkinson revealed yesterday.

Five service stations have been burglarized here within the past two weeks. The last burglary was Thursday night. The youth held in Gallup said he was unable to remember the names of the stations entered in Pampa.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE—"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Freedom Of Press Great Bulwark Of American Life

In expressing his appreciation of American newspapers, President J. A. Hill of West Texas State College, Canyon, issued the following statement for National Newspaper Week: "Freedom of the press is one of the several freedoms that distinguish the United States from all forms of authoritarian government and without which we could lay no claim to being a democracy. These freedoms jointly have made our country the land of hope for oppressed people everywhere, for our history is replete with examples of great personal achievement made possible by our political and social systems.

I like to think of the average citizen in this country as the man who is carrying the ball in a great football game and of these freedoms as the other ten men on the team who knock down all opposition and clear the way to the goal. Under totalitarian governments the average citizen has to whip the whole opposing team by himself and hence has no chance.

I do not see how this or any other country could survive as a free republic without freedom of the press, for without this freedom there could be no other. It seems to me, therefore, that we must cling to and cherish this great bulwark of the American way of life as one of our most sacred heritages. Destroy it, or lose it from any cause, and mass ignorance, with all its attendant evils, will engulf us completely."

Of Death And Taxes

Taxes in the United States will actually be higher in 1942 than in Britain. The U. S. Chamber of Commerce is authority for that, basing its figures on both the per capita tax burden and the percentage of national income taken. For some years Britain has been paying the heavier taxes. The U. S. Chamber admits, but beginning next year we Americans, long accustomed to having the biggest and best of everything, are going to have the biggest taxes, too.

Not only that. Our tax collectors also bear away the palm for ingenuity. Down in Muskogee, Oklahoma, the city fathers are spiritedly debating a proposed tax of 25 cents a month on all toilet seats.

All this is a bit breath-taking, perhaps will suggest new vistas for the ubiquitous tax-gatherer.

Grim Reminder

On the very eve of the National Safety Congress meeting in Chicago, when 10,000 safety leaders meet, it is learned that August set a new all-time high for traffic deaths. The toll was 3910, an increase of 21 per cent over the 3230 total of August 1940.

This is all out of proportion to the increase in traffic on the roads, and suggests a growing tension and strain on motorists. Of all times, now is the time to remember these simple and primary rules of the road: "Take your time and keep your temper!"

The Other Side Of Inflation

It is quite certain that it is desirable and necessary to slam down the inflation brakes. Inflation is a condition in which the available supply of money outruns the production of goods on which it may be spent; with more dollars bidding for the restricted stock of goods, prices rise, money loses its value, and the spiral speeds toward chaos. Efforts are now being made, through taxation and the Defense Bond drive, to cut down on the available money supply. To be made to increase production of such materials as do not conflict with defense. There is a tremendous carry-over of cotton, for instance. The more cotton goods of all kinds that are produced, the more sales offerings there are to match the money floating around. That is the other side of inflation-control—to produce more of every kind of goods that can be produced without hampering the defense effort.

The Nation's Press

THE AFL CONSTITUTION AND THE GOONS (Chicago Tribune)

Angelo Inciso is an ex-convict with a record as long as his arm. The record came to light when police picked him up on a picket line that he was running as an organizer for an AFL union—the United Automobile Workers. Not until it was publicized did the union fire him. No effort was made to investigate him, it appears, before he was given the power to economic life and death over a group of Chicago working men.

Inciso has pretty close to the laps of William Green and the executive council of the AFL. The UAW-AFL union is a group that Mr. Green and the AFL picked up when the communists and left wingers took the rest of the auto workers away from Homer Martin. Nominally an international union, it actually is being spoon fed by the AFL in the hope that some day it can win the auto industry back from the CIO.

Goons and extortionists have been having rough riding in Chicago in the last six months. A number of them have been tossed out of their jobs, but none of them can blame his misfortune on Mr. Green or the AFL executive council. They were exposed and rooted out by Chicago authorities, stoutly assisted by such local labor leaders as John Fitzpatrick and Victor Olander, who see more clearly than the national leaders of their organization what the goons are doing to the

ANSWERING AN INTERVENTIONIST

The Bakersfield Californian editorially asks this question: "What is it the isolationists and non-interventionists want the government to do?" The answer to this question is that they want the government to more nearly return to the aspirations of our forefathers—that all people be treated equally before the government.

They want the government to let any one who wants to voluntarily enlist in the English, Russian or German army to do so; anyone that wants to send his wealth there to be permitted to do so. They object to being forced to enter the war against their will when they believe it will help destroy most of what freedom we have left.

They are, however, not sure they are right as the interventionists are, who evidently are so sure that they are willing to force people to enter this war against their will.

They want to more nearly return to a government with the consent of the governed, not just 51 per cent. This would mean a very limited economical government.

They want the government to permit exchanges with any people in the world, who have something to exchange that we want.

They want the government to stop taking sides in European quarrels.

They want the government to use all its energies in making justice cheap for all our own people.

They do not want the government to take the wealth of our country and attempt to distribute it either at home or throughout the earth.

They want the government to build a strong air defense to protect our own country from invasion.

They want the government to train an army, navy and air force to use these modern airplanes and tanks for defense against any attempt at invasion of our own country.

What Do the Interventionists Want?

Now the question is, how do the interventionists propose to lick Germany without sending from five to ten million people to Europe?

How do they propose to do that without losing millions of them and bankrupting the country?

Do the interventionists propose to forever police the rest of the world?

Do the interventionists claim that England, with approximately three or four million soldiers, can defeat six to ten million German soldiers?

We would like the interventionists to explain a practical method by which we can lick Hitler and permanently rid the rest of the world without losing millions of men, losing more and more of our own freedom, and greatly lowering our own standard of living. Will the interventionist please be specific as to how they propose to crush Hitler, as they constantly talk about doing?

IS RELIGION NON-DISCUSSABLE?

Judging from the protests that have recently been made about the statement that most of the Jews were for getting this country into the war, one begins to wonder whether religions, or races, are a sacred institution that dare not be discussed publicly.

Religion is certainly one of the most important things in our lives and if a religion, or a race, advocates an act that a citizen believes will tend to take away our inherent, equal rights, it does not seem that that religion or that race should claim that it is being persecuted when this matter is being pointed out.

If the Methodists or the Presbyterians were almost unanimously advocating entering into the war, there would be no one who would hesitate in pointing it out.

But when the Jews almost unanimously are for entering the war, and when Lindbergh makes this factual statement, we hear a great hue and cry about setting class against class. I know of no other race or religion that is taking such an active part in getting us into war as the Jews.

I attended a meeting in Los Angeles recently sponsored by the Jewish Committee to aid the Allies, attended by over 1500 people. The whole tenor of the meeting was a condemnation of the America First Committee, Lindbergh, Wheeler and Nye. Every speaker advocated the United States committing acts that would be, in reality, an act of war against Germany. Any religion, or any race, that contends the acts of the great majority of its people cannot be publicly discussed, is asking for a special dispensation that should not be asked for by any religion or any race.

Probably the reason most people hesitate to talk about religion is that they are thinking of a religion dealing with a future life and not a religion governing our actions in this world. There is good reason not to discuss this kind of religion. However the religion pertaining to our human relations on this earth is certainly something that should have the frankest and freest discussion every day of the week.

A religion of this nature should not insist that its light should be kept under a bushel.

reputation of the AFL

In a few days the annual convention of the AFL will assemble in Seattle. The executive council will report on what it has done to carry out the mandates of the last national convention. It will be interesting to see what Mr. Green and his associates have to say about their activities in enforcement of the resolution that convention adopted, deploring the activities of gangsters in the labor movement.

Has it done anything, for instance, about the New Jersey labor hoodlum and ally of Boss Hague who assaulted David Dubinski, the leading sponsor of the anti-racketeers resolution at the New Orleans convention? Has it done anything about Brother George Browne, the nominal sponsor and actual tool of a whole gang of panders, strike men, and extortionists as exists in the AFL?

Brother Browne is a member of the executive council. At their meeting this summer in Chicago the members of that august body broke into a cold sweat every time they assembled, for fear Brother Browne would appear and take his rightful seat in their midst. But did they, by word or deed, disavow him and his gang? They did not.

The AFL can't do anything about Brother Browne, Mr. Green will explain for the thousandth time, because international unions are autonomous bodies and the AFL can't interfere in their internal affairs. The unions that broke away to form the CIO were autonomous, too, but that didn't prevent the AFL suspending them and, in the convention from which they were barred, amending its constitution to give the action an air of postlegality. If the constitution stands in the way of driving goons and extortionists out of the AFL, the convention at Seattle can amend the constitution. Mr. Green's excuses don't hold water.

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 4.—Lay out my doublet and skis this morning, Jasper, and have someone saddle the electric horse. I'm going for a canter through the Hollywoods. Serve breakfast at 8:15 in the padded cell, and if that Garbo woman comes around again, tell her I don't want any more autographs, carrot juice or doses to castles in Sweden.

Ah—to horse! Did I say skis, Jasper, or spurs? No matter. Shoot the volts to him, dolls, and hand me my switch, Star, ol' pal, it's you an me agin the lot of 'em now. If you kin waller through Bromide-Gulch at flood time an' gallop 'em over at the Cliches, we'll head 'em off at Platitudes Pass.

Ol' boss, it's like I say s'wain' to the boys at Jack Barrymore's bar last night "Boys," I says, "it's like I say s'wain' to Lupe Velez's joint last week: 'Ladies,' I declared, 'it isn't that my intellect is impaired, exactly, it's just that I got to thinking too much about that Interstate Commerce sub-committee hearing in Washington which started with the announced intention of investigating war propaganda in the movies.'"

WHAT PRICE SANITY?

I didn't mind so much the disclosure that the senators had seen hardly any of the pictures they charged were objectionable. Nor was I especially disturbed when the founding and embarrased inquisition wandered into the fields of monopoly, nepotism and why William S. Hart isn't still a movie star. But when a group of 10,000-a-year senators began earning their wages by listening to a controversy over whether a dress purchased by Alice Payne had fallen apart during its first wearing—then, ladies and lads, is when this correspondent realized that there was no percentage in clutching at sanity when all the rest of the world has gone goofy.

So sit on, Star, with a yipee-o-e and a shrill etoain. If that's Carole Landis on the phone again, tell her we won't want any. By the way, my yep, know, ol' pal, that Mary Beth Hughes isn't married, though she told everybody she was? Or that Marjorie Weaver was married, though she insisted for years that she wasn't? Do you care? Do you think anybody cares? Okay; I don't either.

STEADY, OLD BOY

Of course, it's just a vagary of a befuddled brain, but do you suppose the senators would care to underwrite the production of a production?

What really threw me, though, wasn't my trusty cause, Star, but the patient attention paid by the Senate Interstate Commerce sub-committee to the name calling contest between a radio scandal-gossip and two press agents. The significance of these dual encounters could be engraved on an earlobe of Errol Flynn. And it was, too—by the sanguine fingernails of the snooper's wife in a night club brawl.

Aside from the goofy notion that I'd like my senators to engage themselves in some constructive activity in this time of crisis, both of these intramural quarrels caused me distress: On one hand, the talk of studio bribery set me off on a frenzied, frenetic calculation of the fortune I've overlooked while composing a few praising pieces about pictures and people I've liked. The Washington wit said he was offered $2500 for a favorable review of a picture—a picture to which he later gave his approbation, encomium and kudos to the tune of five bells.

Another thing that irks my addled quertyop is the stupidity of the press agents and the collaborating insensibility of the dress-ventor's radio-raving husband. They'd both have been smart to have subpoenaed Alice Payne in the controversial gown, with photographers

Highlights From Latest Books

"The Timeless Land," by Eleanor Dark; (Macmillan; $2.75).

It probably will be a long time before the first settlement of British people in Australia will be described more affectingly than Eleanor Dark has done in "The Timeless Land," which is the October Book-of-the-Month. And certainly the life and the spirit of the aboriginal tribes of Australia has never, to my knowledge, been presented so fully or so beautifully. Yet I suspect many people who read the book will have some difficulty with it, for Mrs. Dark has done almost too good a job.

She establishes her setting and her mood very slowly. There is page after page of rumination, in which she explores the mind of the savage by placing her reader inside the mind and letting him see the world through it. But two things are, I think, obvious. One is that Mrs. Dark has never been inside the mind of a savage. The other is that no person conditioned to the life of the white race ever will be. These things invalidate, for me, a great many pages of the novel—in spite of all wishful thinking there seems to be little reason to read the Australian aboriginal tribes had that lovely and logical sense of the beautiful attributed to them in "The Timeless Land."

I am perfectly willing to admit that Mrs. Dark may be right and I may be wrong. She is closer to her subject than any American could be. But even she offers little evidence beyond the extraordinary persistiveness of her prose.

Just the same, the basic thought of the book is sound. Her chief character is a boisterous boy named Bennelong, and Bennelong is fascinated by the whites and when he mingles with them too much he is ruined. At the same time, the convict Andrew Prentice escapes to the savages, takes himself a native wife and eventually dies for her and her child. These things could happen. Perhaps the thing that really will worry some readers of this novel is the fact that in an effort to produce two symbols, one of savagery and one of civilization, Mrs. Dark has withdrawn her people a little too far from day by day living—at least at times.

Behind The News In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Just how they got there, Director Douglas C. MacKeachie isn't sure, but in the Division of Purchases of the Office of Production Management are half a dozen related and unrelated programs, including management of the Plant Site Board, control over the organization of the Central Post Exchange Service and reorganization of all the accounting and distribution methods to eliminate paper work in the army, and control over the production and distribution of new fire engines.

This multiplicity of functions is something that baffles a good many people, but it all traces back to the fact that some problem arises which needs to be cleared or managed or looked into, and unless there is a definite appropriation for handling it, the task is shoved into some convenient department, there to stay until the specific appropriation is set up for an organization to handle it.

Take fire-fighting equipment. With all the new cantonments being built and all the new factories going up, there was a shortage of new fire engines. Then the Office of Civilian Defense under Mayor La Guardia came through with suggestions that every community get at least a couple more fire engines as a safeguard against incendiary bombs.

DEGLAMORIZE FIRE TRUCKS

Fire engines weren't tanks and they weren't automobiles and they weren't trucks and they weren't boats. There wasn't any specific bureau or division to take over the control and production of fire engines, but they involved definite priorities and supply problems of rubber for the hose, nickel and copper and chrome trim and all that. So the control job was given to the purchasing division and its sad duty has been to take a lot of the glamor out of fire engines.

They may still allocate red paint for them, but all that stuff to polish and shine will be missing. If Mayor La Guardia gets his federal appropriation to buy a lot of cities some extra equipment, what they'll probably get is a one-ton truck with a tank of chemicals, a hose reel and a pump. All the sex appeal will be sacrificed to defense.

Fire engines make up just one of the commodity sections which O.P.M.'s purchasing division has to look after. Some of the others are textiles, clothing, hides and leather, equipment (tents and such stuff), drugs and medical supplies, containers for everything containable in cans, jugs, bottles, boxes, bags, drums—what have you.

These commodity sections are really just getting down to business now. They're made up of representatives of the industry who confer with the government agencies and help work out programs of allocation. The more the military will get everything they want, and the nonmilitary won't be given too raw a deal. A lot of the conservation, substitution and allocation work of these commodity sections will be creeping up on you gradually from here on in. The matter of clothing simplification, for instance, won't be handled as the silk stocking thing was, with a lot of fanfare.

In the case of silk, it couldn't be helped. The embargo on imports of raw silk from Japan was big news which couldn't help sending a lot of women—and men—into the market to do a lot of unnecessary buying. With other items of clothing, and textiles and shoes, the effort will be made to have the simplification of lines made by the trade without getting everyone all excited. But when you go in to buy, along about six months or a year from now, you'll find the number of models and styles to choose from greatly reduced.

NO ARMY POST PROFITEERING

It was General Marshall himself who got the purchasing division interested in overhauling the machinery of the army post exchanges. These camp canteens supply soldiers with things the army doesn't furnish, and get about half the $21 a month the average soldier earns. In the last war there was a good bit of dissatisfaction with the way they were handled. Profits, if any, were supposed to go to the company funds for recreation equipment.

Today's War Analysis

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

Implicit in utterly conflicting London and Rome accounts of recent sea-air battles in the Mediterranean is the obvious fact that heavy British reinforcements in men and fighting gear are being rushed eastward through those dangerous waters.

They may be destined to join battle with their Nazi foes, fighting beside Russian troops in defense of the Caucasus. Certainly they are designed to increase substantially the strength of British defense lines that now reach 2,000 miles or more, unbroken, from India to the Egyptian-Libyan frontier in the western desert.

Or they may be taking post for offensive action during the winter fighting season in the north African desert, providing events on the Russian-Nazi battle line warrant another British counter stroke against Axis foes in Libya. Prime Minister Churchill's recent intimation that his government had weighed unfavorably counter invasion proposals as a means of relieving pressure on Russia does not rule out that possibility.

Italian press comment indicates serious expectation of a new British attack in Libya. Hitler could not spare either the air power or the troops and tanks from his great adventure in Russia to prop his faltering Axis mate anew in Africa, even if means of getting German reinforcements to the scene were available.

They are not. Churchill told parliament that while the British sea losses had been cut during the last three months to a third of what they were in the preceding three months, British destruction on Axis shipping had risen three-fold in the same period. And it was Italian or Italian-used shipping in the Mediterranean that the Axis tonnage losses fell most heavily.

At any rate, it seems clear that unless the Nazis carry the battle into the Caucasus soon and force the Russian to withdraw his 256 imperial armies there to aid the Russians, the British soon will have forces available along the India-Egypti lifeline for offensive action.

Most of the exchanges were run at a high price schedule, and soldiers got so many goods that they were

Rounding up a staff of experienced merchandisers, a survey was made of soldiers' demands, and the camp stores were started off on a new sales policy. It was found the total business of the post exchanges for the new army would run $20 million a year. A loan of $200 million was made from R.F.C. and the canteens were stocked with stuff that would sell, priced right for a $21 monthly income.

One of the worst headaches which the O.P.M. purchasing division has tackled is a complete revision of the army accounting and distribution methods, aimed at eliminating or reducing paper work.

It has always been a snarl of red tape, and the inventory control of company, battalion and regimental supply officers has caused almost as much mental anguish as shell shock. Now a staff of some of the best accountants in the country is trying out new methods and they hope eventually to balance the books and lick their problem—"for the honor," they say, "of the accounting profession."

Mayor La Guardia's Office of Civilian Defense, O.C.D. moved from its residence in the 2000 Massachusetts avenue residence vacated by O.P.A.C. and from there into the DuPont apartments. . . . The new Economic Defense Board has taken over the new apartment building at 25th and Q, vacated by O.P.A.

Texas Floods Leave Ruin In Their Wake

The wide Red river, with Texas on one bank and Oklahoma on the other, rose to 20 feet Saturday under the pressure of the heaviest October rains in 36 years.

THE NEWSPAPER IS AN EDUCATIONAL FORCE.

THROUGH ITS NEWS COLUMNS, ITS ADVERTISEMENTS AND ITS FEATURES IT ENLIGHTENS AND INFORMS ITS READERS.

Young Monte Randall is getting along all right in his job. He's had a couple of promotions and the salary increases that go along with them. He's a nice chap and it isn't hard to understand why he does "get along" in his job. He's so vitally interested in everything, likes to discuss world events and scientific progress and the changes in clothing fashions and books and plays and a lot of other things. He's surprisingly well-informed on a lot of subjects, and he really keeps up with the things that are going on around him. Just an average young fellow who reads his newspapers.

The modern newspaper is not content with the mere reporting of news. It interests itself (and its readers) in life and living. It brings to its readers lessons in science and art and sewing and a hundred other ways to help them lead a fuller life. It is an education in itself.

Visiting Officer Will Inspect Company D Of Texas Defense Guard
 Pampa's company of the Texas Defense Guard is being trained now in preparation for another inspection by a visiting officer, who will come here soon to look over Company D.
 At the company's drill Thursday night there was much stress on practice in the manual of arms and in the opening and closing ranks. There will probably be other companies of the 14th battalion in Pampa for the inspection.
 Last Thursday's drill lasted more than two hours, under the new schedule which calls for only one drill night a week, instead of the semi-weekly drill held formerly.
 For this week, the company will assemble at 7 o'clock Thursday night at the new high school building. The time is a half-hour later than last week.
 Members of the Pampa company join with other companies in the statement that in the Texas Defense Guard a private's pay is ten times that of a major's.
 They both nothing, and 10 times nothing is nothing.
Some Buy Uniforms
 Guardsmen are not only payless, but some companies supply their own uniforms. Some of them even buy equipment. In the case of Company D, however, the county commissioners recognized the merit of the organization and furnished the money for the uniforms, and rifles, bayonet belts, and other equipment has been supplied by the state.
 Last night the Berger company (Company B) held a military ball given by Berger city organization, to raise money to buy a Lone Star and American flag and company guidon. Pampa's company has none of these at present.
 The guard's physical requirements are not severe. A man is expected merely to be physically able to carry out duties entrusted to him. Ages are from 18 to 64.
Come From All Jobs
 Lieutenant Colonel Neill H. Banner of the Texas adjutant general's department says: "If an elderly old-timer goes down along the river and comes back with a bunch of squirrels he's shot, why we figure he's able to shoot enemy soldiers and airplanes."
 Who are the guardsmen? They are millionaires and poor boys, doctors and lawyers, fat men, thin men, young men, and the middle-aged.
 From all occupations and professions they come, with no hope of self-aggrandizement. In the Texas Defense Guard's battalions, there is no higher rank than major, and down in the list of non-commissioned officers are names of men high in private life.
 Technical men of impressive rating in civil life are buck privates in the guard; county judges are enlisted men, and men of wealth salute officers who live on meager salaries in private life.
 Dallas has 12 infantry companies, County Judge A. H. Dennison of Odessa is a company commander and three of his sergeants are county commissioners.
 The guard has reached its maximum strength of 48 battalions, although there is room for enlistments. Charters have been issued for as many companies as may be equipped, but nearly 200 requests have come in for permission to form units.
 Interest in the guard is intense all over the state.
 Dallas has 12 infantry companies, headquarters for the air service and an air squadron. Houston has 13 infantry companies and an air squadron. Port Arthur is next with seven companies; Fort Worth has four, and San Antonio, Laredo, Beaumont, and Alpine three each.

Mrs. Fortenberry Dies In Lubbock
 Funeral services for Mrs. Joe Fortenberry of Lubbock, who died at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning in a Lubbock hospital, will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church in Lubbock.
 The Fortenberry family formerly resided on their farm 20 miles south of Pampa. They moved to Lubbock a year ago.
 Survivors are the husband, of Lubbock; four sons, Albert and Bill, both of Lubbock, Floyd of San Antonio, Fred of Oklahoma City; daughters, Mrs. E. G. Nelson, and Mrs. Ray Weiss of Lubbock.

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

PERFECT TEAMWORK
CHAPTER XXIV
AS Judy, escorted by two cheerful officers, entered the side gate to the prisoner's docket, she drew back. She had not expected such an audience.

The commissioner for the Federal Court was in charge today. Suddenly she was aware that her gray calico dress was wrinkled. One foot was encased in an old house slipper, a man's house shoe, size 12, but it did not interfere with the bandages on her arch. She wore its companion on her other foot.

She had neither lipstick, rouge, eyebrow shadow, or a comb to untangle her knotted hair. She looked, she admitted to herself, like a housemaid who had enjoyed a good time somewhere.

Her foot pained a little. There was blood on the bandage. She tried to sit on that foot, but an officer saw the change of position, motioned to the court matron who led her into an inner room where the police doctors cleansed and rebounded the wound.

Once more she faced the courtroom. Her eyes went from face to curious face. These people had come to see what an ex-deb, a girl who had made a place for herself among Manhattan's career women, looked like. Some faces were hostile, facts of little people whose streets never had traveled far. More faces were kind and sympathetic, though their outward paths had gone no farther.

WHEN her name was called Judy walked swiftly, trying not to limp, to the witness chair. At the edge of the second step her bandage caught in a torn piece of carpet.

Judy fell across the steps. If she cried she might make an impression on the commissioner. Men hated tears but they usually did something about them. She couldn't cry, though.

She could only laugh. Laugh until she was assisted to the witness chair.

After order had been established in the courtroom, she instinctively addressed the federal commissioner who acted as judge. After all she had nothing to win, nothing to lose.

"Yesterday I was in my stocking foot—I lost one slipper when I jumped for freedom. My foot got tangled with a nail, you see. And now your worn carpet upset me again. I'm sorry but I can't pay for the medical assistance until I have worked out my fine."

She smiled straight into the eyes of the federal commissioner. She wasn't sure if he smiled or frowned. Life would be rather nice if people would take off their masks. No, it wouldn't. It would be horrible. Life's privacy would be gone. Now she could hate Sandy forever and no one would guess that she might—just might—have liked him a little.

HER case proceeded calmly. She was required to pay a fine of $1000 and costs. She couldn't. She was led back to her cell after a judicial lecture. Just as she left the court by the side door she thought she saw Sandy entering at the front. So he had come to see how low he had brought her! The door through which she was passing closed so quickly she could not follow him.

Judy was not returned to her cell. Long distance wanted her. It was her father. He said all of the things that she had hoped he would say before. Now they sounded like stilted, tenpenny words. Three things she understood. Sandy had been trying to reach him without result. He had succeeded finally, would accept charges of kidnaping, and his rival was flying to Judy to pay her fine and bring her home.

So it had been Sandy whom she had seen in the courthouse. What did he want? Why had he come? She hung up. She had to get to Sandy fast. Dear, brave, lovable Sandy, who would risk everything for her, even go to jail if need be. Why, that was security! And it was love. Dear, crazy, barnstorming, loyal, steadfast Sandy who was all the things that Phil never could be! He wasn't afraid!

LOVE wasn't something that you kept in a house. It was a thing that lived in the heart. She knew now.

"Mr. Ammerman? Where is he?" she asked the attendant at the desk, near the telephone.

"He just went out. Turned to the right."

She began to run, forgetful of the calico dress and the flopping slippers. Far down the street she saw Sandy. She ran faster. Somebody set up a chase.

"Prisoner escaping! Stop her!" "I'm not! My fine's paid!" she called back, but she heard the thud of pursuing feet.

Sandy turned. He stopped, startled, and then came running toward her. The crowd waited. She noted that there were sleepless circles under the aviator's eyes and that he needed a shave.

"Quick, Sandy," she said. "We've got to get away. Phil's coming—you're being arrested for kidnaping me." She was pulling at his arm.

He looked down at her and grinned. "Where are we going, nut?"

"Idiot! Canada—any place beyond the law. Wasn't—wasn't that what you wanted?"

The crowd gasped as the man in the khaki aviator's outfit and the girl in the prison garb kissed each other in the middle of the street. Then Sandy hailed a taxicab and told the driver to step on the gas and make the air field.

Inside the cab, he said, "Judy, I've been thinking things over. I was a heel. I'm a poor pilot who can't give you the ballast you need. Still . . ."

She put one hand over his mouth. "There's only one ballast. Love. I just found out."

"How had she thought she could put him out of her mind like one dismissed a book by not reading it any more or a street by never walking down it again? She caught her breath because that was so nearly what she had done.

Sandy opened a paper that was making a bulge in his pocket. "Just picked this up after I left the jail five minutes ago. Maybe I can buy you a house with a couple of trees, if you'll take it small."

Judy read, "Aeronautical Company Bids for Pilot's 'Chute Used in Kidnaping.'"

"We work together grand," Judy said.

"You said it!" Sandy agreed, and kissed her again.

T. U. To Conduct Course In Design Of Cantonnments

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
AUSTIN, Oct. 4—So that Uncle Sam's new and old soldiers may have the best living facilities available—barracks, mess halls, hospitals, and chapels—a new University of Texas defense engineering short course will treat army cantonnement design, it was announced here today.

To start October 6, the new course—architectural engineering drawing, will be offered by the university department of architecture.

It will deal particularly with Texas cantonnments and other army projects within the state. C. E. Granberry, coordinator of the training program, said.
