

Dangers To U.S. More Serious Now Than Ever Before, Says FDR

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 30.—An informal, homespun gathering of old friends and neighbors heard President Roosevelt emphasize today that peace for Americans "isn't all in our keeping" and that dangers which have convulsed the world may be even more serious now than when the second World War began.

The President quoted a charge that domination of the world, including the Americas, was the definite planned purpose of the dictators and indorsed a thought that only through the defeat of Hitlerism can peoples everywhere attain peace and live in peace.

The chief executive spoke extemporaneously to members of the Roosevelt home club, holding its twelfth annual meeting on the lawn of Moses Smith, a tenant farmer on the Roosevelt estate.

"I think all of us pray that next year x x we will still be able to say that. Yet, as you know, it isn't all in our keeping. It isn't all our decision."

Mr. Roosevelt told of receiving a letter from a woman just returned from the front line, and it was this document that carried the charge that dictators planned world domination.

He said this woman, whom he did not identify, was an exceedingly good observer and that because of her husband's occupation she had been able to see things for 15 or 20 years in Europe, Asia, Africa and South America.

In many respects, her words were reminiscent of admonitions which the President himself has voiced to the American people, and of conditions on which the administration's foreign policy rests.

The President read her statement that it was "terrifying" to realize that many people "seem to have no idea of what hangs over their heads today."

Pampan Crushed To Death When Pickup Rams Into Moving House

'V' PICNIC MONDAY TO BE PATRIOTIC RALLY

Crash Occurs On Highway Near Bowers

Pieces Of Skull Found 40 Feet From House

Harry Albert Snook, 51, employee of E. C. Sidwell, was killed at 9:55 a. m. Saturday when his 1941 pick-up truck was in collision with a house being moved by two trucks of John Kiser, Pampa contractor.

The pick-up Snook was driving rammed underneath the house and Snook was crushed to death. Pieces of his skull were found 40 feet from the house. The top of the truck he was driving was sheared off. It stopped about half-way beneath the house.

The accident occurred near Bowers City, on a road one-half mile east of the Texas Elf Carbon Black plant.

Investigation of the accident was by Deputy Sheriff Glenn Carruth, accompanied by H. B. Stanley, agent of the Texas Liquor Control commission. These two were later joined by Texas Highway patrolmen.

Deputy Carruth said that the crash occurred shortly after the trucks moving the house had rounded a curve. One of the truck drivers told the deputy that he had seen Snook approaching and had motioned him to get to one side of the road.

When Snook, according to information given the deputy, failed to turn out, the truck driver applied his brakes. Snook's car hit the left hand corner of the 28 x 40 foot house, which was being moved from LePons to a location on Charles street in Pampa, according to Deputy Carruth.

Driver of one of the trucks moving the house was Buck Chambers; the other driver was Eddie Lee Riley. Both men live here.

Deputy Carruth said he could not account for the accident. He expressed a possible opinion that Snook might not have been able to distinguish the trucks moving the house, due to possible dust and sun, and that he perhaps saw only the truck ahead of him, according to the deputy.

The officer said he had been informed the house-moving trucks were proceeding at a speed of not more than 20 miles an hour, while the speed of Snook's car was 45, according to Carruth's investigation. He said the trucks moving the house stopped within 40 feet of the point of impact.

Snook had been a resident of Pampa for four years, coming here from Winfield, Kan., during which time he had been employed by Sidwell.

'Uncle Sam Wants You At 'V' Picnic!

Uncle Sam wants you at the 'V' Picnic Monday!

That was one of the slogans carried aloft by a "picket" in a last-minute parade downtown last night by the Dogpatchers, the Stark family, Fleeta queens and "Arkansawyers" who have taken upon themselves to publicize the picnic—just because they believe in the picnic.

Other signs said, "Be Patriotic, Attend the 'V' Picnic." "Bring Your Lunch." The parade was led by the Dogpatch float which consisted of a log cabin and paper decorations around it labeled "Dogpatch." The Stark family band consisting of Douglas, Warren, Willis, Lowell, and Lillian played patriotic airs. This popular band will play several numbers at the picnic Monday afternoon. They wear red shirts and cowboy hats.

The "Arkansawyers" in the parade were Mrs. Frank Holland, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis, Billy Joyce Holland who was labeled "Yard Yo' Youngun's," Carroll Douglas Bowman was labeled "Floor Youngun," and a babe in Mrs. Holland's arms was labeled "Lap Youngun." The Arkansawyers wore colored ribbons.

Pretty Virginia West, queen of the 1941 Folks Fiesta parade, which was good enough to make the March of Time, carried a placard which invited, "Uncle Sam Wants You to Attend the 'V' Picnic."

Mrs. Bell Wells and the Flanagan family organized the Dogpatchers. Finis Stilwell was in charge of the parade.

Young People To Sing Tonight At Baptist Church

All young people of the Pampa churches are invited to attend the 13th weekly "Back From Church" singing program to be held at 9:15 o'clock tonight at the First Baptist church.

This will be a special rally and six definite proposals for the autumn months will be submitted by the steering committee. The committee is composed of two or more representatives from each participating church. Joe Cargile is president of the organization.

The Rev. R. G. West, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, was the originator of the interdenominational gathering of the young people of Pampa. He and Arthur Nelson have been leaders in the movement.

One of the most important of the proposals to be decided tonight will be the question of when the organization will meet. Heretofore, the program has been held weekly, but since school has started, other arrangements may have to be made, and the group may meet semi-monthly instead.

Plans for tonight's meeting were made at a steering committee session held Tuesday.

Gilks To Be Speaker At Kiwanis Club

Lieutenant-Colonel William George Gilks will be the principal speaker in Pampa next Friday noon at the regular weekly luncheon of the Pampa Kiwanis club.

Accompanying the lieutenant-colonel will be Major Ernest Clevert, state public relations secretary of the Salvation Army.

After the luncheon a meeting of the Salvation Army Advisory board will be held at which time Lieutenant-Colonel Gilks and Major Clevert will confer with the board on plans for the Salvation Army campaign which will formally open here on Oct. 17.

The major directed the campaign in Pampa last year.

Great Civic Worker Lieutenant-Colonel Gilks was recently promoted from the rank of brigadier. He is national chaplain of the American Legion, vice-president of the Southwestern States Probation and Parole conference, member of the American Prison association, director of the Dallas Kiwanis club, a Mason, Scottish Rite, and member of the American Association of Social Workers.

He has been an officer of the Salvation Army for 27 years. His father, Colonel W. Roy Gilks, served 52 years in various parts of Great Britain, and is now retired, living in California.

Parole Authority The lieutenant-colonel is particularly known in Texas because of his interest in probation and parole and has become an authority on this important subject.

All out-of-state parolees are handled through his office and reports sent back from various parts of the nation concerning these men.

Labor Day Dance Orchestra Will Feature Singers

A "different" dance at the Southern club tomorrow night will climax the Labor Day celebration in Pampa. An orchestra, the Perryton Playboys, which has never played here before will make its debut at the dance. The orchestra is a stringed band, and is popular on the North Plains. They play swing music and old-time music and both kinds will be played tomorrow night, according to the demand of the dancers. The orchestra is said to include several good singers.

Japs Rough On Americans

SHANGHAI, Aug. 30 (AP)—A report of mounting nervousness and anxiety in Japan was brought today by 59 American residents who arrived aboard the Japanese liner Tatua Maru.

The evacuees, among whom were 17 United States Army, Navy, and embassy officials and language students, said they had to cut their way through a barrier of red tape to get authorization to leave and were shown open hostility throughout the voyage.

One embassy official said at least 500 more United States citizens still are in Japan and between 30 and 50 were unable to board the Tatua Maru either because they were refused permits or because line officials would not sell them passage.

Those left behind were told the ship was completely booked, he said, but he declared there actually were many empty berths.

Several Axis subjects aboard the Tatua Maru said they, too, were subjected to cool treatment and declared the Japanese were obviously unfriendly to all foreigners, regardless of nationality.

At Shanghai, Japanese soldiers forcibly prevented several German embassy officials from boarding the Tatua Maru, pushing them away from the gangplank with rifle butts, while the Japanese-controlled customs officials refused to issue permits.

36 Boys Flee From State Reformatory

GATESVILLE, Aug. 30 (AP)—Supt. E. H. Nesbitt said 36 boys—tired, hungry, scratched and bruised after their flight from the state reformatory—were captured, leaving only 11 still fugitives tonight from their mass break.

School Tax Rate Set At 95 Cents

The Pampa school board set a called meeting Friday afternoon at the 1941-42 tax rate at 95 cents, on the $100 valuation, an increase of eight cents over the rate in effect last year when a rate reduction was made. Valuation this year is expected to be $30,000,000.

In determining the rate, the board decided to pay off a deficit of approximately $30,000 which will be the amount due on the contract for the new high school building.

Tax representatives from several oil companies attended meetings here Wednesday night and Friday morning at which time they asked the board to pay the deficit off on the installment plan instead of in a single year. The board, after going into executive session, disagreed with the tax men and decided to pay the deficit off this year.

Although the district valuation has been set at $28,000,000, the board believes new oil and gas and new buildings will increase the total about $2,000,000—and that it will be an easy matter to pay off the deficit and meet the budget in a single year without working a hardship on anyone.

The operating budget, without the deficit, as presented at the meeting, met with the approval of the 40 who attended the called meeting.

Budget for the 1941-42 school year was set at $341,534, which was approved. Total amount to be raised, including the deficit, will be $369,983. The operating budget is approximately the same as last year.

The 1940-41 tax rate was reduced because of a large surplus on hand. That surplus was placed in the new building but it was not enough to complete the job, which necessitated the raising of an additional amount of money this year.

General items on the budget are: General control, including educational administration, business administration, assessing and collecting of taxes, etc., $22,120.

Instructional service, including teachers' salaries, teaching material, etc., $198,350.

Operation of school plants, including janitors' salaries, janitor supplies, fuel, light, water and gas, etc., $27,950.

Maintenance of school plant and upkeep of buildings and grounds, $7,000.

Russians Dispute German Victories

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, Sunday, Aug. 31.—Red army forces, declared officially to be battling with gathering strength against German armies, "weakening noticeably" and heading for "their end much sooner than expected," were reported throwing the Nazis back on the center bulge toward Moscow today and standing off unending assaults upon Leningrad and Odessa.

After 10 weeks of fighting, the German drive on the Soviet capital was reported at a standstill with counter-attacking Red army troops on the offensive across a battlefield littered with dead.

With accounts of this action coming from the front line, the Soviet information bureau clung to its silence on details, saying merely that the Red army was putting up fierce resistance up and down the 1,800-mile front.

On the north, Leningrad remained in imminent peril but the Red army, backed by a peoples' army, held firmly the approaches to that second city of the Soviet union.

In this area Red army forces behind the German lines appeared, too, to be holding two huge pockets along the coast of the Gulf of Finland where Tallin, capital of Sovietized Estonia, was declared still in Soviet hands despite German claims of its capture.

On the central front the Red army struck back savagely in counter-attacks across mud-churned battlefields in the direction of Smolensk and Gomel, reportedly taking a toll of 10,000 German dead and wounded and many prisoners.

Russia's Black sea fleet was declared keeping communications open from Odessa, which is under continued German shelling and aerial bombardment.

The Russians said life in the big port city was going on as nearly normal as possible with stores and restaurants open, street cars running and factories still producing tanks and arms.

(By The Associated Press)
Germans and their Finnish allies claimed destructive victories last (Saturday) night over Soviet Russian forces reported driven from the strongholds of Tallin and Vilpuri while the Red army reported Adolf Hitler's troops were driven back with 50,000 casualties at several places on the rain-drenched central front.

Pierce fighting continued along the entire Baltic-to-Black Sea battle zone, the Soviet information bureau reported in a brief Sunday morning communique, as the German-Russian struggle entered its eleventh week.

Sixty Russian ships which sought to rescue the garrison of long-besieged Tallin, the capital of Estonia, definitely were destroyed by Luftwaffe bombers and mines in the Gulf of Finland, the German high command said, and the toll may pass 100.

All-Day Song Session To Be Held At Gym

Pampa will be the "singingest" town in nine counties today when the Top O' Texas Singing program is held from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. at the high school gymnasium.

The program will be directed by Charles Ward, who will be master of ceremonies for the singers of nine counties of this area.

The Stamps-Baxter quartet from Dallas will be a feature attraction. A special invitation, Mr. Ward says, is extended to every church in Pampa to supply a number on the program.

Players of brass and woodwind instruments are especially invited to participate.

Persons attending are to bring their own lunch, but coffee will be available at no charge.

Capper Calls New Tax Bill 'Starter'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—While finance committee members predicted their record $3,672,400,000 tax measure would have clear sailing in the senate next week, Senator Capper (R-Kan.) said today that "this bill is just a starter, and next year's will be even stiffer."

Capper, a member of the finance group, told reporters that the unprecedented revenue legislation "is a good bill" and added: "I would have liked to see more of a pay-as-you-go program, but this was the best we could do. I believe we are in for steadily increasing taxes from now on."

The new measure, carrying $456,000,000 more than similar legislation approved by the house, will be taken up in the senate next Wednesday. Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky said he hoped for senate approval by the week-end, but conceded that two finance committee amendments might cause controversy.

One of these, designed to raise more than $300,000,000 of new revenue, would lower existing income exemptions from 2,000 to 1,500 for married persons and from $800 to $750 for single individuals. The broader tax base would bring 6,000,000 more persons into the income tax system.

Top O' Texans Will Join In Flag Pledge

Supper Will Be Served After Inspiring Program

The United States flag with its stars and stripes, the flag that flies over the only land you want to live in, invites you to tack flag and pledge allegiance to it, and to dedicate themselves to the victory of democratic America in the present crisis.

The Victory picnic is going to be primarily a patriotic rally. It will give Pampanas and Top O' Texans an opportunity to salute their flag and pledge allegiance to it, and to dedicate themselves to the victory of democratic America in the present crisis.

The picnic will give you a chance to prove that the civilian morale in the Panhandle is equal to the task of supporting the defense effort unselfishly, according to Finis Stilwell, chairman of arrangements for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, co-sponsor of the picnic with the All-States clubs.

"You will have a chance to silently make the patriotic declaration that you will make personal sacrifices before you would risk a defeat and then trust to hell and to Hitler that he can't hurt us much anyway if he wins," said Mr. Stilwell.

The climax of the patriotic rally will be the lowering of the flag by the American Legion, and the pledge of allegiance by the massed assembly while the two bands present play the "Star Spangled Banner," the national anthem. A member of the Legion will lead the assembly in the pledge.

Previously, Rep. Dick Craig of Miami, dressed in an Uncle Sam suit, will welcome his niece and nephews, natives of the 48 states and foreign countries, and will deliver a short but inspiring and thrilling call to unselfish patriotism, a plea for active encouragement for the soldiers, a plea to put patriotism above business-as-usual and pleasure in winning the victory for democracy.

The comic note on the brief program will be supplied by Radio Comedian Stutterin' Sam who will call the roll of states, natives of which will be grouped around ban-

Locations And Completions Hold Even In Panhandle Oil Field

19 New Wells Gauged For 3,227 Barrels

Nineteen new locations and the same number of completions was the story of oil activity in the Panhandle oil field last week. Gray county was the hot spot with nine new wells and the same number of locations.

Amarillo's third test for oil was reported plugged and abandoned as a dry hole. It was the R. and J. Drilling company's test on the Pavillard three miles northwest of the city limits. Only the territory south of Amarillo has not been tested for oil and it is rumored that a block of land is being gathered for a south test. The R. and J. test was abandoned with the hole bottomed at 4,471 feet after water encroachment.

The Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company's Sherman county wildcat was drilling at 3,800 feet latest report.

Seventeen new oil wells were gauged for open flow potential of 3,227 barrels and two gas wells tested 25,800,000 cubic feet.

Best well of the week was the Skelly Oil company's No. 131 Schafer ranch, Gray county, which gauged 595 barrels.

Completions by counties follow:

In Gray County
The Texas co., No. 8 W. J. Brown, section 137, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 187 barrels.

King Oil co., No. 3 Archer, section 139, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 216 barrels.

Daniger Oil & Refineries, Inc., No. 4 McLaughlin, section 33, block B-2, H&GN survey, was given a potential of 305 barrels.

Cities Service Oil co., No. 23 Hughey "B", section 129, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 8 barrels.

The Texas co., No. 4-M Davidson, section 65, block B-2, H&GN survey, was given a potential of 263 barrels.

Stanford Oil & Gas co., No. 12 Sullivan, section 136, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 82 barrels.

Skelly Oil co., No. 131 Schafer ranch, section 172, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 595 barrels.

Stanford Oil & Gas co., No. 10 Sullivan, section 136, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 137 barrels.

In Hutchinson County
Shell Oil co., No. 28 Harvey Sisters "B", section 14, block M-21, TCRR survey, tested 304 barrels.

J. M. Huber, No. 2 Bryan, section 2, block M-21, TCRR survey, gauged 210 barrels.

Phillips Petroleum co., No. 78 Cockrell ranch, section 2, block M-21, TCRR survey, was given a potential of 216 barrels.

Phillips Petroleum co., No. 7 R. C. Kay, section 27, block M-23, TCRR survey, gauged 184 barrels.

Stanford Oil & Gas co., No. 28 Watkins "A", section 12, block M-21, TCRR survey, tested 178 barrels.

Parton and Holt No. 8 Whittenburg, section 15, block X02, BS&F survey, gauged 57 barrels.

Phillips Petroleum co., No. 16 Jordan, section 6, block M-21, TCRR survey, tested 179 barrels.

In Wheeler County
Sha-Pey Production co., No. 6 Koons "A", section 4, block 24, H&GN survey, gauged 18 barrels.

In Carson County
Continental Oil co., No. 6 B. F. Block, section 112, block 4, I&GN survey, tested 18 barrels.

Gas wells tested:
McGill and Malone, No. 2 Sanford, section 78, block 46, H&TC survey, gauged 13,200,000 cubic feet, in Hutchinson county.

W. H. Taylor, No. 2 Taylor Fee, section 37, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 12,600,000 cubic feet, in Gray county.

Intention to drill:

Roosevelt To Speak At 11:45 Monday

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt, in a Labor Day statement, asserted tonight that management and labor "realize now and I am sure will continue to realize that there must be full and uninterrupted production" of defense materials.

The production of such weapons and materials, he said, was needed "for our protection and needed also by the nations engaged in opposing those who would do away with the liberty and happiness of free peoples all over the world."

The statement was viewed as a forerunner to a presumably more detailed discussion of international and domestic affairs in an address scheduled for delivery by the president from his home at Hyde Park, N. Y., on Monday. That address will be broadcast over all radio networks at 11:45 a. m. Central standard time.

ners bearing the name of their state.

After the flag ceremony, the picnic supper will be spread upon the long table, and the end of the invocation by the Rev. B. A. Norris will be the signal for the feast to begin.

Music for the picnic will be played by the Harvester band and the Veterans band.

All picnickers, on arriving at the park, are requested to go immediately to their respective state headquarters at the long table, with their basket, for registration, information. State registration places will be designated in alphabetical order at the table. The baskets may be left at the table until the program begins. Or they may be left in care at the parking place.

The bridge on the east side of the park. There will be plenty of shade and grass near table headquarters for each state organization to assemble before the main program begins. Many chairs or cushions.

The main program will be conducted from a stage facing the south end of the park. The space in front of the stage will be divided into state sections, designated by markers.

Following the program, picnickers will return to their state sections at table for the basket supper.

All baskets should include eating utensils, including cups for free lemonade.

Girls who were queens of the 1941 picnic parade will preside at the state sections. They will be dressed in costume and will assist the state reception committees.

Those sitting on the platform will include Mayor Fred Thompson, officials of the carpenters union, all field groups, painters, American Legion, VFW, Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions clubs, P-TA groups, the Business and Professional Women's club, presidents of state clubs, visiting mayors and out-of-town notables. These persons are requested to report to Master of Ceremonies Tex DeWeese before the program begins.

Employees Of Texas Company Hold Picnic

Hundreds of employees of The Texas Company and their families gathered at Lake McClellan yesterday for the company's annual picnic.

Employees from all points in the Panhandle field and from West and North Texas attended.

Entertainment included motorboat riding, swimming, softball, horse-shoes and many other games.

Barbecue with all the trimmings was enjoyed after which the games and fun continued.

Many company officials, including some from Houston, attended the outing.

Father, Daughter Drown At Silsbee

SILSBE, Aug. 30 (AP)—Clara Bumstead, 50, drowned in Village creek today in a vain attempt to save her daughter, Aubrey Mae, 10, while four other children were rescued by their sister, Pearl Marie, 14.

One of the children, Claudean, 12, was pulled from the water by fishermen and revived by Pearl Marie, who used methods she learned in school.

The drownings occurred after a board upon which five of the Bumstead children floated while the father taught a sixth to swim was swept into midstream and capsized.

The unmarried men of Korea are not allowed to wear hats.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The stock market stepped out of a modest recovery week and a not-so-rosy August with slight rising tendencies prevailing.

Buying of aircraft and rubbers served to prop other groups in the brief proceedings and dealings were fairly lively at intervals. While a handful of favorites closed with gains of 1 to 2 points, improvement generally was limited to minor fractions.

Many customers deserted boardrooms for a lengthy holiday—major markets will recess over Labor Day—but the few who appeared were more bullish than otherwise.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 1 1/2 points at 487 and on the week showed a net advance of .5. Except for yesterday's slight dip the composite had not suffered a loss since Aug. 21. The average was at the month's high of 44.1 on Aug. 1, sliding to a low of 42.4 on Aug. 16.

shells screamed into the night air. Crew members and guests sent up a mighty cheer when they learned that the North Carolina had passed her tests. No one had known how she would react because never had such a powerful salvo been fired from a single vessel.

It was touched off at 8:30 p. m. when Capt. Olaf K. Hustvedt, stern-faced but calm, climbed onto the foretop high above the main deck and took his place beside the trigger.

His stocky, strongly-built figure, silhouetted against a brilliant background of stars, was a source of strength to the frightened newsmen crouching in the forecastle.

Informing that his crew was at battle station, Capt. Hustvedt, 55, stepped forward and gently squeezed the trigger that made naval history.

A huge flame of red, blue, green and purple burst from the nine 16-inch guns trained over the port side. Short, sharp flames darted from the ten 5-inch dual purpose guns and the crescendo of thunder seemed to carry beyond the horizon as the shells whistled away.

Most of us wilted after the "big noise" but we felt like better men and we were proud of our navy. We had been conditioning our guns and our bodies for three days with single, double and triple shots and we thought our muzzled ears and powder-choked eyes had experienced the worst.

The terrible blast, learned later, was much worse than any that would be fired from the $70,000,000 vessel if she were to engage in battle. Trial tests include every possible type of fire to prove the strength of structure and guns.

Matter-of-fact Lieut. Comdr. Thomas B. Hill, Crittice Creek, Colo., the gunnery officer, gave this as his reaction:

"The news here is that we got them all fired without hurting. This salvo cost $23,750.

Its effect on some of the green sailors was magnificent. In a few moments raw country boys from nearly every state in the union became sailors, strutting and swaggering along the main deck and bragging of the feats of their individual turrets and batteries.

The result of that the North Carolina was a real set lady, strong, proud, brave and ready for the call to join the line.

The 3-day firing did slight damage to new ships. A few light bulbs burst and some lightweight frame locker doors buckled under the pressure waves that swept the ship from stem to stern.

We boarded the North Carolina, sister ship of the Washington, after a thrilling dash on a new motor torpedo boat, one of the fleet of craft commonly known as mosquito boats and famed for their speed, rough riding and well-trained crews.

The navy treated us to a ring-side view of the catapulting of three new, fast navy scout planes as our ship and her escorting vessels put out to sea. The planes roared away, circled the ship and darted off to their land base.

The first night out for enveloped the ghostly, blacked-out ship and the fog horn kept us awake, shivering, in our deck cots.

The next night was clear and the serene beauty of the northern lights lulled us to sleep as the mighty craft plowed through cold and calm seas.

Watching the gunfire in between tours of the ship and satisfying ravenous appetites in the wardroom took up most of our time.

Critiques with Commander Andrew G. Shepard, executive officer, gave us tastes of naval background and technical knowledge at night.

The first night out an accompanying warship detected an underwater sound that might have come from a submarine, whale or blackfish. The usual investigation was made and everybody ho-hummed at the idea of a submarine penetrating American waters.

The cruise in this rolling blue ocean traversed 1,200 miles and was marked by a neat transfer of newsmen from the North Carolina to an escorting warship. Halfway across the pitching sea the whale boat's rudder came loose and sturdy sailors effected repairs calmly and smoothly.

I came back with the sting of salt in my face, the itching feel of the rolling deck in my legs and the firm conviction that Secretary of the Navy Knox was right when he said we soon would have the most powerful navy in the world. It was a comfort to know that six ships of the North Carolina type will be constructed.

The North Carolina is a powerful daughter of Mars, the morale of her men is fine—they are ready for general quarters (battle stations) at any time.

city 75 miles northwest of Leningrad which Russia won under the Helsinki-Moscow peace terms of 1940. Hitler conferred on Finnish Field Marshal Baron Mannerheim the Knight's Cross of the Iron Cross and telegraphed an expression of "admiration for the bravery of the Finnish soldier." The Finnish high command said three Russian divisions were smashed.

But S. A. Lovozsky, Soviet vice-commander of foreign affairs, declared that the Red army, "continuing to gather strength," had "shattered the legion of the blitzkrieg."

Russian sources said the German drive toward Moscow had been halted and in some places shoved back and that the Red army garrison and civilians of Odessa, besieged Black Sea port, were resolutely resisting German-Humanian thrusts.

Battlefields in the sector west of Moscow were described as deadlocked, with the Germans concentrating on flank attacks and mired by rain falling in sheets.

Problems of supply drew attention in both Axis and British camps. Rome dispatches said sharp Axis needs for oil and other raw materials were high among topics of the sixth meeting of Hitler and Premier Mussolini, sharing discussion with means of protecting the continent against a British or allied invasion.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told British munitions workers at Coventry that the output of war material by Britain, her allies and the United States was far short of needs for victory.

"Further efforts and further sacrifices," were urged for "the immense effort that lies ahead in the field of production."

The British embassy in Tokyo announced that a ship would be sent to remove from the Japanese empire all of some 1,000 British nationals who wish to leave and that means for Americans to depart on the vessel were being considered.

This possible indication of an expectation of increasing tension in the Pacific came as Dornel, the Japanese news agency, declared the Axis pact remained the pivot of Japan's foreign policy.

"Whatever interpretation may be put on the (Premier Prince) Koyote message (to President Roosevelt) either at home or abroad," Dornel said, "the policy of constructing the co-prosperity sphere for East Asia and disposal of the China affair are two great immutable national policies of Japan."

Air bombs fell in Teheran Saturday, despite capitulation of Iran to British and Russian invasion armies, and martial law was proclaimed in the capital. The nationality of the fliers was not established, but a Teheran radio broadcast said Iran fliers flew over the city in disobedience to orders.

Expressions of sympathy developed in France for Paul Colette, young gunman who wounded Pierre Laval, collaborationist politician, and others Wednesday even while Laval remained in danger.

It was disclosed that a German firing squad—not French, as first reported—had executed eight men Friday for espionage and activity against the Germans.

toms refused to examine and release any luggage except hand baggage.

Nervous tension is evident throughout the empire, the arrivals reported. They said wealthier classes were rushing to rent houses outside of cities in fear of air raids by American or Russian planes in the event of war.

Nearly all Americans, they said, are considering shutting their businesses in Japan because of the credit-freezing.

Most of the American arrivals were business men and missionaries.

to defeat Hitlerism. They pray for this because it seems to them that is the only way in which peoples everywhere can attain peace and live in peace."

As he finished reading the communication, Mr. Roosevelt remarked: "I suppose that's the thought we all have. John Mack expressed it. Moses Smith expressed it.

"We all feel it down deep in our hearts that we want to keep America so that in all the years to come, long after we have gone, long after there isn't any home club any more, somebody in this township—perhaps on this lawn—will be able to hold a party like this. Just as we are doing it today, just as we hope we will all come back next year, and do it again."

Smith and Judge John E. Mack, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., lawyer, had spoken to the home club earlier. It was Mack who nominated Mr. Roosevelt for President at the Democratic conventions in 1932 and 1936.

Mack had described the President as the nation's best informed citizen on world affairs, and added that America looks to him for the preservation of freedom.

"We heartily approve of his every act in arming countries against Hitlerism," he asserted. "If we must have war, it is better to have it on the shores of Europe or Asia, it is better than to have Hitler and his ilk drive in on us.

"Often the best defense is attack and when the time comes we are ready."

Mack closed with a personal, direct appeal: "Franklin, clear up all the troubles of the world, the wide world, form a police force big enough and strong enough to enforce order, finish the work which Woodrow Wilson conceived and tried to perpetuate, and then come home in peace."

Assailing isolationists, Smith mentioned by name Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) and Rep. Fish (R-N.Y.), the latter his and the President's congressman, and the American First committee.

Somebody told him, Smith said, that "this Senator Wheeler bought a property almost adjoining mine, and I said, 'Let him come, I'll make it pretty hot for him.'"

"I pray to God I'll live long enough to see the isolationists isolated somewhere out west on the highest mountain, where they can talk themselves to death."

Among those surrounding the President at the "party" were Harry L. Hopkins, lease-lend supervisor; Louis Brandeis, President of the Puerto Rican senate; and Mrs. Roosevelt. On the first lady's knees during part of the program sat a grandson, Elliott Roosevelt, Jr. She kept an eye also on little Ruth Chandler Roosevelt, Elliott's sister, and on Hopkins' daughter, Diana.

In a joking manner, Mr. Roosevelt told the home club members that because he promised reporters they would have a light day today, he could not tell them about the plane, tank and shipping programs. Problems in the far waters of the Pacific and his "tremendously interesting" conference with Winston Churchill at sea.

But the chief executive is to make a 15-minute radio address shortly after noon Monday, the second anniversary of the start of the war in Europe, and has hinted that he might have something significant to say at that time on foreign affairs and defense.

COOK WITH THE GAS TURNED OFF IN A CHAMBERS RANGE

Three times a day, 365 days a year, or 1095 times annually, the average American housewife is faced with mealtime—a monotonous procedure, no matter how well she likes to cook. But with a Chambers Range she can enjoy new freedom. She can start complete meals at her own convenience, with only 15 to 30 minutes of gas, turn off the gas completely, and forget all pot-watching, for nothing can burn or scorch while it cooks on retained heat. Although food finishes cooking in the usual length of time, it need not be removed when done, but can be served hours later. A Chambers Range puts cooking on a convenience basis, yet pays for itself in savings.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE—"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The All-States Picnic Can Build Morale For Victory

If the United States is to emerge victorious from the present emergency there is more to be accomplished than winning the war against the Axis nations—although that in itself appears to be a herculean and timeless task. America faces the greater job of achieving unity, of building up the civilian morale to create a patriotic solidarity.

Before America's problems are solved capital and labor must see eye to eye, class consciousness must be obliterated, and the Good Neighbor policy must begin at home.

So don't you think that Pampa and the Top O' Texas, a small dot on the population map of the U. S., can make a good start toward achieving the unity, the solidarity, the morale we all so much desire by taking the All-States Victory picnic tomorrow afternoon seriously? We can clean our own house, build up our own fences, so to speak, even though we can't reconstruct the American Way in other parts of the nation.

Doesn't it seem fitting that on Labor Day Pampans and Top O' Texans should strike a blow for victory—victory in morale, victory in unity, victory in solidarity, victory in loyalty to democratic ideals—by attending that picnic? It has been designated a victory picnic, and that means, we believe, that the sponsors hope to be victorious in building up a civilian morale in the Panhandle that will be void of sectionalism, class prejudice; a morale that will recognize the importance of both labor and capital; a morale that will help push the defense effort to a national victory.

This picnic is a new kind of picnic for Pampa. Nobody is going to make any money out of it. There are no concessions. Nobody has a political or commercial axe to grind.

The program will be patriotic; it has been designed to rekindle those patriotic impulses which create unity. The flag will be displayed, and the massed assembly will take the pledge of allegiance to the flag. It is good for Americans to go out of their way to take this pledge; it refines the spirit and rekindles love of country. It will not only build up the morale of the citizenship, but will infuse in us a new determination to be personally responsible for victory on all fronts—social, economic and military—in the crisis which confronts America today.

And there is a crisis, and the first thing to do to combat the forces that seek to destroy democracy is to unify our thoughts, ideals, and to make any sacrifice that will help win the ultimate victory for democracy. We must stand together lest we perish.

Pew And Pulpit

"It is a sad commentary on Christian living," observes a church publication, "that when the pastor resigns, there is often a sudden decrease in church interest and attendance. Often this decline is at least one-half in attendance and nearly as much in contributions."

It seems as if, in Protestant churches, the pastor is often more important than the congregation. Yet surely the church, of any denomination, should be a living unit and a functioning organism, playing at least as dominant a role as the pastor himself. And the big majority of ministers would doubtless prefer to have it this way, instead of being forced to function as almost the "whole show" themselves.

The Nation's Press

LET HIM GO EAST (Los Angeles Examiner)

"I say let him go east. Turn his attention away from the west, or rather encourage him to keep it turned away. Let him go to Russia. That is the logical cure for Hitler," said Dr. Karl Jung, the famous Swiss psychologist in an interview with H. R. Knickerbocker in the Cosmopolitan Magazine for January, 1939, eight months before the outbreak of the war.

Two years and a half after Dr. Jung's almost prophetic advice Hitler went east. Dr. Jung's theory was that Hitler was a land-hungry sick man. Russia would have filled his craving for a long time—and to boot, would have struck Communism in its vitals. Hitler made an alliance with Stalin because he was afraid of England and France. If England and France had been anti-Communist, as they should have been, they would have given Hitler the green light east, but they leaped on the hyena when he was after his natural food—the Bear.

If the western powers had taken Dr. Jung's advice, Hitler and Stalin would have pretty much annihilated one another by this time—and the civilized world would have breathed a profound "thank God!"

PRESIDENTIAL EXPLANATION

(San Diego Sun)

President Roosevelt's statement to congress yesterday was a reiteration of the public declaration he had made jointly with Mr. Churchill, but one major point was added. That point was an ultimatum to those who have criticized the conference and its program for a new world order, an ultimatum which says in effect: "Agree or be branded as Nazi sympathizer."

Mr. Roosevelt phrased it thus: "The declaration of principles at this time presents a goal which is worth while for our type of civilization to seek. It is so clear cut that it is difficult to oppose in any major particular without automatically admitting a willingness to accept compromise with Nazism; or to agree to a world peace which would give to Nazism domination over large numbers of conquered nations. Inevitably such a peace would be a gift to Nazism to take breath—armed breath—for a second year to extend the control over Europe and Asia to the American hemisphere itself."

Actually there are few Americans who op-

Common Ground

By R. G. HOLLIES

This column contends there can be no satisfactory program until we measure the shares of each man by the common yardstick of the Golden Rule: what he creates and enjoys anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN THEORY PRACTICED BY THE ADMINISTRATION

I was very much interested in the new Federal houses being built at San Diego. The thing that interested me most, however, was the Russian policy of renting these houses. The rent is based upon the pay the renter receives working for the government or for private industry; that is, a man who has $200 a month income pays more rent for the same house than the man who has $100 a month income.

The government here is adopting the Russian policy of charging people according to their ability to pay. And when a nation begins to tax people according to their ability to pay, it is only natural that sooner or later they adopt this policy in general. It is only a question of time until the socialistic and communistic theory, from each according to his ability and to each according to his needs, will be adopted. This theory is proclaimed, but no one has ever yet devised a mathematical rule by which to determine what each person's needs are and what each person's ability to produce really is.

It always evolves into a question of those making the decisions making them with an eye of keeping themselves in power and with no relation or connection whatever to the theory that each man should have all that he produces.

And to the degree we get away from the attempt to have each man get all he produces we have socialism and communism.

Everything the New Deal does is just mimicking and the parrot-like copying the Russian theory.

It is little wonder that the New Deal is so desirous of sending the fruits of the labor of our workers to Russia.

All its laws, passed by the New Deal is evidence and proof that their leaders do not believe in free enterprise where each man has a right to help establish values and thus is enabled to get all that he produces. The renting of government houses in proportion to the ability of the renter to pay is evidence that Karl Marx ideas are running our government.

MORALE NECESSARY FOR SUCCESSFUL WARS

Nowadays war cannot be won simply by the morale of the soldiers. Of course, the morale of the soldiers is necessary but, in addition to the soldiers having morale, the people in industry and on the farms and in the offices must have morale. And they cannot have morale unless they believe they are being treated fairly by their government.

There can be no unity of purpose among the private citizens of a nation at war, when the government uses no definite, universal rule by which all people are treated equally before the law. When the government attempts to be the final, arbitrary decider as to how the products of labor are to be divided, there can be little morale among the citizens.

There certainly can be no morale among the Russian workers not in war. The soldiers probably have morale because they are probably treated better than the private citizens.

What the American people need to watch is that we have morale at home. With all the discriminatory laws passed in the last three decades and especially during the last decade, there can be very little morale of unity of purpose in America.

The only rule that has always brought unity of purpose and morale is a government that treats all people equally before the law, just as God is no respecter of persons.

Our government is not making decisions now on this basis. Its decisions are made solely on the basis of votes. Its idea of justice, is treating those people who have the most votes in a preferential manner.

ROOSEVELT-CHURCHILL MEETING

Some of the keenest students of European affairs are of the opinion that the meeting of Roosevelt with Churchill was for the purpose of bolstering up Churchill with the English people. Keep observers are of the opinion that it is only a question of time until Churchill's lack of accomplishments will cause him to receive the same fate as Chamberlain.

If Churchill, by this meeting, could make the English people think that the United States was going to send their soldiers to Europe for another European war, then Churchill would be doing something and could still keep his people satisfied.

There was little else that could be accomplished by this kind of a meeting so this explanation seems as logical as anything I have run across.

Does the Roosevelt-Churchill eight points in principle. The points outline a model democratic world, the variety of world which Americans would prefer to any other. If the points are the definition of a Roosevelt-Churchill hope for the future, that is one thing; but if they are a pledge to force the democratic will upon all the rest of the world, that is quite another matter.

Mr. Roosevelt undoubtedly understands that apparently will not admit that the opposition is not assailing his eight points as such, but is attacking the implied promise that the United States will fight Nazism abroad and join in policing the world after victory, and asking to be told the many things which Mr. Roosevelt did not say in his message to the congress.

These undeclared points concern any commitments that Mr. Roosevelt may have made and the strategy by which he hopes to make his peace aims effective. LABOR DAY PARADE—1941

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 31—Bill Fowell, Myrna Loy, W. S. Van Dyke, and Asta are making another "Thin Man" picture. The two stars, the director and the dog are the only ones who have worked on all four. The Thin Man himself has been dead since 1934. Played by Edward Ellis, he was an inventor who was murdered after appearing in only a few scenes of the first film.

Nobody suspected, of course, that initial whodunit comedy, which was run in 14 days, would make a million dollars, start a cycle of daffy domestic flickers and establish Miss Loy and Mr. Powell as the stars of series. So when things turned out that way it was too late to revive the original Thin Man, but the name was so valuable that it has been worked into the subsequent titles. Current effort is "The Shadows of the Thin Man."

Sitting in his dressing room and frowning over a script, Powell said the job is getting tougher all the time. Dashiell Hammett isn't around any more to write the original stories, nor are Albert Hackelt and Frances Goodrich, who did the first two screenplays. New writers have a hard time staying within the established pattern, Powell explained.

Plot thickened Result is that the two stars and Director Van Dyke do a lot of re-writing as they go along. They're in frequent, heated discussions and dialog, and in thinking up new gags for the dog and the kid.

The youngster, by the way, is an anachronism. In the third "Thin Man" picture, the Charles' son was 8 years old but in this one he's only 5. The role is played by Dickie Hall, a prodigy who began to read at the age of 1, played the piano at 2, gave recitals at 3, and now knocks off Bach and Beethoven as easily as her dial. Powell was surprised if Dickie writes the script for their next picture.

Powell certainly doesn't have to act in pictures unless he wants to, yet he always works as hard as a half-donkey average star. The Thin Man, and particularly his teaming with Miss Loy, have done a lot for them. Their first picture together was "Manhattan Melodrama," in 1934, with Clark Gable as third member of the cast. Powell was fre-lancing at the time, and the picture brought him a fat contract from Metro. Miss Loy was just beginning to emerge from slant-eyed siren roles.

SCHOOL FOR STARS Caesar Romero was given a boost by the first Thin Man. Jimmy Stewart played the murderer in the second and Ruth Hussey started toward stardom in the third. Friday night Glenn Dawkins and this columnist went to the baseball game with emphatic instructions from Finis Stittwell, generalissimo of the picnic, to get something on the air about the picnic. So we went to the press box and sat down next to Ray Monday and Bill Browne and began writing them notes to put on the air. These were ignored. Then Bill and Ray began reading jingles sent in by listeners about an advertiser on the radio, and Glenn said, "Our best bet is to write jingles," so he wrote this one and Bill read it: "I'd like to put in a lek for the 'V' picnic. Be sure to attend, and bring your kin. You'll have a lot of fun, though you have no mon. There'll be plenty of food, if you're in the mood. And who ain't? Somebody got a hit when he got to 'mood' so he ended it abruptly.

Then we collaborated on this one: "Come to the park on Labor Day, and I'm sure you'll want to stay. The lemonade is free, for both you and me, and if you are not there, it'll get in your hair, when the folks all yell, that the picnic is swell." Glenn came up with a single for every inning and last night Bill promised that he'd talk it up every inning if we'd not besiege him with lousy rhymes. Admittedly that was a show-off stunt, and the Arkansas sayer and the Dogpatcher admit that they have been showing off but they figure that if they can get people to attend that picnic, here's a volume to share with you. GAY NINeties IN VERMONT

Just why books about Vermont are so numerous and popular is a question for experts, but if the people of that rock-ribbed state are as colorful as characters in R. L. Duffus' "That Was Alderbury" (Macmillan; $2.50), the mystery is solved.

For the reader surfeited with the blood and tears school of contemporary literary offerings, this novel of life in a Vermont village during the gay nineties is made to order. Momentous events in Alderbury, still under the spell of Puritanism, are the death of the village halfwit, arrival of the afternoon train, church, and elopement of old man Jarvis' daughter with her fiancé of 15 years' standing.

WRITING two columns for one day is rough sledding. . . . If you don't believe it, try it some time. . . . It is suspected that the page we handled the Society Page's "Just Between Girls (and Boys)" today and now are trying to do the regular daily stint, that both of them will suffer as a result. . . . The day's best tip comes from Postmaster C. H. Walker who tells the easiest way to buy a $50 U. S. Defense Saving Bond. . . . It's as simple as this: . . . Just save 10 cents a day and throw in an extra dollar on your birthday. . . . A dime a day for 365 days amounts to $36.50. The extra dollar makes it $37.50, the price of a $50 bond.

We made reference to the silk stocking problem today in "Just Between Us Girls (and Boys)," but since writing that column we have come upon some new dope. . . . We learn that American hosiery shops soon will place on sale the Yankee brand of "crats silk" stockings—made of cotton. . . . They say you can hardly tell the substitute from the real silk, and the government inspectors add that it is many times better than the uncomfortable hose Nazi scientists have fashioned from wood or glass or coal. . . . Uncle Sam's experts promise to give American women a cotton sock so near silk that they'll never know the difference. . . . That is, unless the girls simply can't bear "fish-net" and "spider web" designs.

YOU'RE been reading in the papers lately that the first boys to go to the army camps a year ago, soon will begin to come back home. . . . That's something for all of us to think about. . . . These boys will start the homeward trek after tomorrow are those who are entitled to discharge because of age, dependents, or other obligations. . . . Now is the time to get ready to welcome them. Remember, they were to have their jobs back if the condition of the employer's business permits it. Those who had no jobs when they were inducted ought, whenever possible, to have an opportunity to get them. . . . This is part of the selective service system as we, the American people, enacted it. The returning soldier will have done his part, now it is up to the rest of us to do ours.

General Hershey, director of selective service, has made it clear that the working of the whole military program depends to a very great extent on how this civilian re-employment end works out. If it works reasonably well, and men who have done their share in the military and industrial life without prejudice for the time spent in service, then future inductees will get into their service period with lighter hearts. . . . Local draft boards have been instructed to get in contact with employers and see that the law has been complied with. They will also receive complete copies of the returned man's military experience for use of the U. S. Employment Service. . . . It is asked that all returning men clear through the state employment offices even if they get their old jobs back immediately, so that records may be kept of how this added manpower has been distributed in industry.

This fitting of discharged army men back into civilian and industrial life is more than a legal obligation, more than a moral obligation; it is a practical part of the defense of the United States, no less important than the purely military part. Many of the men who have served their year will have valuable experience which they did not have before. . . . Even if they had no jobs on induction, they will be better qualified for them now than they were then. Scarcely a man will return who is not a better professional employe than he was before his year of service. . . . Now is the time to begin getting ready for smooth and effective performance of this new and vitally important phase of the defense program.

WASHINGTON ORDERS

When Colonel Donovan returned to the United States from his inspection trip to the Near East, it was reported in Washington that he wanted to be called to active duty and given a job of training soldiers and fifth columnists in guerrilla warfare. This ambition stemmed from a belief that the only way to overcome rapidly moving, mechanized units was a return to tactics of frontier warfare.

The Colonel has long been known to have a high dislike for desk generalship. Though he has kept his reserve commission and has made field studies of the warfare in Spain and Ethiopia, he has refused promotion to his title of Colonel until he can win promotion in command of troops on the field.

He didn't particularly want the job as co-ordinator of information, his friends say, but he took it because he was a good soldier, and they told him he could train guerrillas later.

WARD WINS AMATEUR TITLE DESPITE HOSTILE GALLERY

Unruly Crowd Unfriendly To Spokane Man

By BILL BONI
 OMAHA, Aug. 30 (AP)—A true champion was crowned at the Omaha Field club today—a self-assured, 28-year-old westerner who had to overcome what undoubtedly was the toughest combination of obstacles in the 47-year history of the U. S. Golf association's amateur championship.

The champion is Marvin Harvey Ward of Spokane, Wash., whose friends call him "Bud," but who discovered today that apparently he doesn't have a friend in Omaha.

The obstacles, in the order in which they stood between him and his second amateur title, were Pat Abbott, handsome young Los Angeles player who was matched with him in the 32-hole final; the Field club course, with its tight fairways, an hidden, slick green, and a boisterous, unruly gallery of 3,000 that had come out to see Abbott win and didn't care who knew it.

That, at least, was the most charitable interpretation that could be put on the actions, notably on the 24th hole in the afternoon, it was there that six people got in front of Abbott's ball when it was on its way over the green, after having been warned to be alert so they could move out of the way if necessary, and thus stopped the ball on the fringe of the green and in none too serious trouble.

Perhaps this was accidental. Harold W. Pierce of Boston, U.S.G.A. president, said he thought so. Yet after a marshal, in the ensuing scramble for places around the green, had kicked Abbott's ball on to the green, and the time taken by accident—Pierce himself felt it was necessary to step to the center of the green and deliver a lecture on proper gallery conduct which opened with the statement that "we all know what is happening here today."

Again, perhaps it was accidental. Then it must have been coincidence that on the 31st hole, with Ward's approach shot rolling fast toward the back of the green, someone shouted "Let her go through," and the crowd standing on the fringe moved back enough so that there wasn't anyone in the way of the ball when it came on over and down the back edge.

Joseph C. Day, Jr., of New York, U.S.G.A.'s executive secretary, said he never had seen such demonstrations and Pierce admitted he never had seen such animosity in a gallery. Back of it all, apparently, was a wide-spread story that Ward on his first day here had labeled the course a "cow pasture"—a remark he had never made, though he admits quite frankly it was in no one too good condition.

The finish of the match, on the 32nd hole with Ward the winner by 4 and 3, was entirely typical. No sooner had Abbott, who had taken five to reach the green on this par-4 hole, made the gesture which conceded the hole and the match to Ward than two huskies rushed forward and hosted the loser on their shoulders, while the new champion was left alone until someone shouted:

"How about Ward?"

Despite all this turmoil, the match itself was worthy of better treatment between the man who won the 1939 title at North Shore in Chicago and an equally likeable Californian who took the Public Links crown in 1938 and two years later went to the amateur final at Oakmont in Pittsburgh.

It was a good match, but one in which at only one stage did there appear even a shade of doubt that Ward would be the winner. That came from the 21st through the 24th holes in the afternoon when Ward, who had been 4 up at the luncheon interval and made it 5 up at the 19th, lost four holes out of five to have his margin sliced to 1 up.

Final Baseball Game of Year Scheduled Today

Scott And Frierson Still Leading Oilers In Hitting

Frank Scott and Lou Frierson are sure to finish the 1941 baseball season hitting above the coveted 300 mark but the situation of Jim Reynolds is precarious. Scott is still leading the Oilers with a .341 average with Frierson next with an average of .317. Reynolds is hitting an even 300.

Emmet Fulewider and Homer Matney are both flirting with a .300 average. Fulewider batting .295 and Matney .290 through games of Friday night and four more games to play.

John McFarland, Oiler's ace left-hander, needs one more victory for 20 wins this season. He has 11 losses. Big Ernie Myers, back in the lineup after a long absence because of a knee injury, won two games last week to give him six wins against six losses. Other pitchers are far from an even mark.

Oiler batting averages, including Friday night's game:

Harvesters To Report For Practice Monday Morning

Boys eligible to try out for the Pampa Harvester football team will meet at the gymnasium on central campus at 9 o'clock Monday morning instead of the gymnasium at the new high school north of the city as previously announced. Head Coach Buck Prejean announced Saturday.

The locker rooms at the new high school are not yet ready for use. It was necessary to change in meeting place, Coach Prejean said.

Necessity of using the downtown gymnasium will cause no inconvenience since the boys will have to be brought to the downtown cafeteria for dinner until school starts September 8.

First practice will be called at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning with another practice at 3 o'clock the day after tomorrow. That will be the program until September 8 when practice will be at 3:30 o'clock each afternoon.

50 Canadian Boys To Open Training Monday At Canyon

Special To The NEWS:
 CANADIAN, Aug. 30—Athletic Coach Bill Mack Gibson will take 50 Canadian high school boys to Canyon Sunday for seven days intensive training in preparation for the football season beginning with the opening of local schools Sept. 8.

The schedule is for leaving Canadian at 9 a. m. Sunday and be ready for a workout Monday forenoon and another in the afternoon, keeping this up all week.

A house has been secured for use of the boys and a negro cook employed to prepare their food. West Texas State college permits them the use of their buildings, their showers, and swimming pool. It will cost the boys about $4 each, the balance of expenses to come from the athletic fund.

Elvis Ward, industrial arts teacher, and former coach, will meet Coach Gibson in Canyon and assist with the training of the boys.

Of the 50 boys to have this week of special training, some will be playing football their first season this fall, quite a number who played on the squad last year.

Twelve are letter men.

The letter men are Billy James, captain; Paschal King, co-captain; R. T. Smith, Lawrence Briggs, Dale Worley, Bill Hopkins, Domingo Esquivel, Norman Winkle, Bill Hodges, Jim Hutchison, Clyde Murray, and Jack Vorhes.

Hubbers Get To Oilers For 17 Bingles

The Lubbock Hubbers salvaged the last game of their series with the Pampa Oilers here Friday night, getting to Frank Grabek for 17 hits, good enough for a 9 to 2 win. Vrablik, Lubbock ace, gave up 10 hits but he kept them well scattered.

Gene Schlereth particularly liked Grabek's pitching, bagging four singles in his first four trips to the plate. Bengston and Kallis weren't far behind, Kallis hitting for a triple, double and single and Bengston for three singles.

Frank Scott got back into hitting stride for the Oilers with three singles, two of them on bunts which he beat to the bag despite clean plays by the Lubbock infielders.

Fred McGahey, Pampa second baseman, had a field day with seven assists and a putout without an error. He and Frierson combined for three consecutive putouts in the first inning. McGahey had the second out in the first inning. McGahey came up with one for the record books when he raced back of second and made a backhanded stab of a hard hit grounder and got his man at first.

 Greer, utility, Big Spring.
 Tate, manager, Big Spring.
 Hogue, manager, Frather, D'Antonio, Crider, Dorman, and Jonnard of Amarillo; Lorenz, Mahan, and Castino, Lubbock; Guynes, Brown, and Jordan, Lamesa; Phillips, Scott, Fulewider, and McFarland, Pampa; Farrington and Setts, Clovis; Haney, Zmitrovich, Drake, and Zigelman, Big Spring; Bolton of Wichita Falls; Garland and Yanny of Borger.

McWright Calls For Reapers To Meet Monday

Coach C. P. McWright of the Pampa Junior High Reapers has called a meeting of all prospects for the 1941 Reaper team at the gymnasium on central campus at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

First practice will not be held until later in the week or maybe not until school begins September 8, Coach McWright said yesterday.

Doves are reported numerous in this section of the Panhandle and hunters expect an excellent season despite the reduced period. A drastic reduction in the shooting season for mourning doves was ordered, a survey showing the numbers of these birds were "decidedly unsatisfactory." The seasons were reduced to a maximum of 42 days against shooting periods as long as 77 days in some areas last year.

Cats Again Roaring For League Title

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (AP)—The throaty roar of Fort Worth's Cats, finishing the same kind of garrison fight that made them Dixie series champions in 1939, sounds throughout the Texas league today and it rasps like a file on the consciousness of Dallas' embattled Rebels.

For all purposes the battle has simmered to a four-place struggle between the Shaughnessy play-off team and Shreveport for third.

But Fort Worth is in the midst of a scrap that harkens the faint back to two seasons ago when the Cats drove down the stretch to capture fourth place, the play-off against Shreveport, while Fort Worth was meeting the Beaumont Exporters.

After tonight Dallas will have nine more games to play and Fort Worth ten. The Rebels were hanging on to a slender one-half game lead over the Cats before squaring off against Shreveport, while Fort Worth was meeting the Beaumont Exporters.

The regular season ends Sept. 7 with the Shaughnessy play-off to be Sept. 9. Houston will meet the fourth-place winner with Chattanooga and Shreveport, each a five-game series. The winners then play in a seven-game play-off for the title and the right to represent

Dove Season Opens Monday At Sunup

The dove season opens Monday at sunup.

Hunting in this area will be allowed from sunup to sundown through Oct. 12.

Bag limit this year will be the same as last year, 12 in possession at one time.

Doves are reported numerous in this section of the Panhandle and hunters expect an excellent season despite the reduced period. A drastic reduction in the shooting season for mourning doves was ordered, a survey showing the numbers of these birds were "decidedly unsatisfactory." ### Irish To Hold First Practice Monday Morning

Special To The NEWS
 SHAMROCK, Aug. 30—Initial practice for the 1941 edition of the Shamrock Irish football team will be held on Monday morning, Sept. 1, at 9 o'clock, according to head coach Forrest Kline.

Twenty-nine lads who finished spring training, together with five newcomers from last season's Junior high squad, will report to Coach Kline on Monday. Leading this group will be Co-Captains Thurman Lee Rives and Willard Glover.

The Irish boast at least one letterman from last season's district championship team for each position and two lettermen for some positions. This, together with another year's experience of 107 squadmen, should give the Irish one of the leading teams in district 2-A.

Lettermen returning this season are: Ends, R. O. Lister and Homer Genet; Ewins; tackles, E. F. Karsh and Martin Exum; guards, H. W. Callan, Tom Risley and Walter O'Gorman; center, Willard Glover and Clyde Medkief; backs, Billy Sims, Harold "Bull" Martin, Ike Sewell, Calvin Montgomery and Billy "Red" Wall.

No Schedule Of Army Releases On Hand Here

A question many Gray county parents are asking now is: "When will our boy be given his honorable discharge from the army?" in connection with honorable discharges during 1941 for dependents or men being 28 years old, or older, as a result of the war department announcement Friday which scheduled release of 200,000 men.

For Gray county, there is no answer. There is no schedule of releases on hand at the Gray County Selective Service board. The county board has not received a single headquarters order on this subject.

Priorities on releases from the army will be those claiming hardship or dependency; men 28 years or older on July 1, 1941; married men; regular army men who have completed their three-year enlistment period.

The ruling affects national guardsmen, selectees, and regular army troops.

For the 45th division, largely composed of Oklahomans, there will be 4,000 given honorable discharges during 1941. The 45th is a part of the Third Army, along with the 36th, Texas' own, and the 2nd, 4th, 32d, 34th, 37th, 38th, 21st, and 43d.

Soldiers released will be on the reserve lists for 10 years. Replacements through enlistment and selectees will keep up the total army strength.

Fade Named Possible Starter In Grid Classic

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 30 (AP)—A sectional football rivalry struck up in the annual Texas schoolboy playoffs goes into another inning here today when the North Texas All-Stars kick off with West Texas in the fourth renewal of the Oil Bowl classic.

The West, out where the Texas interscholastic league begins with District 1-AA, annually sends its champion against District 2-AA in North Texas for the first battle in the playoffs each December.

This is the game in which Wichita Falls and its North Texas football cohorts from surrounding schools seek to avenge the 42-7 defeat suffered last fall when Amarillo roared out of the West to the state championship. And nine of the players, four from Wichita Falls and five from Amarillo, from the 1940 All-district game are among the all-stars.

Tonight, however, the same favoritism that went with Amarillo last fall, was missing. Coach Morley Jennings and his assistant, Howard W. Lynch, Amarillo High school mentor, could point to no advantage.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice, and his assistant, Ted Jefferies of Wichita Falls High school, rated nothing better than a 50-50 chance for the north.

The probable lineups:

NORTH TEXAS		WEST TEXAS
Max Bumgardner, Wichita Falls	LE	J. N. Trotter, Borger
Stanley Green, Burk Burnett	LT	Clifton Patton, Big Spring
Phil Bolin, Wichita Falls	LG	Wayne Pade, Pampa, or Jimmie Edison, Brownwood
Lloyd Baxter, Sherman	C	Jack Coats, Odessa
Henry Armstrong, Wichita Falls	RC	J. E. McVickers, Plainview

Canadian Football Boys Entertained At Steak Supper

Special To The News: CANADIAN, Aug. 30.—Forty-five football boys of Canadian High school were entertained at a steak fry Thursday night at the Frank Hutton place on the north side of the Canadian river.

This was a courtesy to the boys by local business men, members of the Big Brother club, organized of football fans to boost for the local team and back them up in their work. Orrin Gross is president. Other officers are John Sivall and Ivan Conklin.

A program before the eats consisted of a reorganization talk by Mr. Sivall, lining up for the school season, talks pertinent to the occasion by John M. Carpenter, superintendent of schools, and Mr. Gross.

The business men outnumbered the football boys and all enjoyed the occasion.

Bill Mack Gibson is athletic coach, and also teaches social sciences.

Standings

DETROIT WINS 7-3
CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—Buck Newsom breezed to a 7 to 3 victory over Cleveland today as Detroit Outfielder Bruce Campbell drove home two of them with a homer against Al Smith, first of four Indian pitchers. It was Newsom's 11th triumph against 17 setbacks. Frankie Croucher also lined a circuit hit for the Tigers as Cleveland smacked one to drive in two of the Cleveland tallies.

KPDN Radio Chat

Newest featured performer on KPDN's program is "The Drifter." That's the only name he uses. He is a cowboy singer who yodels and sings and strums his guitar in a way that'll gladden the hearts of all lovers of range rhythm. The Drifter will be on the air at 8 tomorrow morning and every day.

The baseball season is drawing to a close. This afternoon's game at Roadrunner park and the game tomorrow afternoon at Clovis are the only ones KPDN will broadcast. They are Pampa's last games this season. The sports staff of KPDN hates to see the job finished. It has been a labor of love for all connected with it. They even enjoyed bringing you that game the other night which Clovis won from the Oilers 17 to 2. Thanks to the Oilers for playing some grand games this season—games that have been interesting to watch and to broadcast. Thanks to the fans for listening.

The Pampa Harvester football games may be broadcast also. First game is with Burk Burnett here on September 19. But more of this later. However, the sports staff is spending free moments delving into the intricacies of football rules, formations and so on.

This column, now a weekly feature in this paper, is surprisingly hard to write sometimes. At least that's what the current skipper thinks. But others on KPDN's staff scoff at this. So next Sunday one of the scoopers will write it, and maybe another the following week. So watch for new blood in "KPDN Radio Chat."—B.E.

In The National

WARNEKE BURLS NO-HITTER
CINCINNATI, Aug. 30. (AP)—Leon Lon Warneke threw "a little of everything" today in hurling a masterful no-hitter against the Cincinnati Reds and pitching the St. Louis Cardinals into first place in the torrid National league pennant race.

Only three Reds reached first base as the 25-year-old right-handed veteran of 11 major league campaigns, blanked the world champs 2-0. The Cards' victory showed them into first place with a .649 percentage to .638 for Brooklyn, which lost to New York 4-3 and led.

It was the first no-hitter in either major league this season. Only 25 men faced the six-foot pitcher. Only 23 men received a rousing ovation when he got Third Baseman Billy Werber to pop to Johnny Mize near first for the final out. It was Warneke's 15th victory against seven losses for the year.

All that spoiled his magnificent work was a walk to the seventh by Louie Freese, a high throw by Creepy Cresspi on Frank McCormick's grounder in the fifth, and Jimmy Brown's miff of Jimmy Gleason's short fly in the eighth.

DODGERS DROP FAIR
NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—The New York Giants knocked their hated cross-town rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, out of the National league lead today by sweeping a doubleheader at Ebbets Field at the Polo Grounds. Mel Ott batted New York to a 4-3 triumph in the first game and Bill McGehee's eight-hit hurling took the nightcap, 5 to 1.

FIRST GAME
BROOKLYN 000 300 000—3

ROOKIE HURLER BEATS PIRATES
CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Paul Erickson, 23-year-old rookie recently graduated to starting assignments, pitched eight ball today as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4 to 1, in the series opener.

The victory was the third of the season for Erickson.

PITTSBURGH 000 000 010—1
CHICAGO 000 100 003—4
Errors—Handley, Lopez, Sewell. Runs batted in—Handley, Dahlgren, Cavaretta. Two base hit—Erickson. Home run—Dahlgren.

BROWNS WALLOW CHINOOK
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30. (AP)—With little respect for Johnny Humphries' no-run pitching, the Browns knocked him out of the box today and decisively widened the second-place Chicago White Sox, 10 to 1. Humphries made it 20 scoreless innings in a row by blanking the Browns their first time at bat, but Chet Laabs broke his string with a home run in the second inning.

The victory enabled the Browns to go into a tie for sixth place with Philadelphia, Chicago and Cincinnati.

ST. LOUIS 010 013 14—10
CHICAGO 000 000 010—1
Errors—Knickerbocker. Runs batted in—Laabs, Judnich 2, Hefner, McQuinn 2, Turner, Hernandez 3. Two base hits—Hefner, Lodigiani. Home runs—Laabs, McQuinn, Hernandez.

YANKS RIP SEN'S 8-1
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—The New York Yankees turned loose an 11-hit bombardment on three pitchers today and whipped the Washington Senators 8 to 1 in a game that mathematically eliminated last year's American league champions, the Detroit Tigers, from the present pennant race.

Although the Tigers won today, they have been beaten 68 times while New York could lose only 87 if they didn't win another game this year.

Marvin Brewer pitched steady six-hit ball against the Senators and missed a shutout only through an error in the sixth.

Manager Joe McCarthy was in a hospital and Coach Art Fletcher ran the team.

NEW YORK 000 000 120—8
WASHINGTON 000 001 000—1
Errors—Sturm, Case, Travis, Early. Runs batted in—Keller 3, Dickey, Selkirk, Crockett. Three base hits—Keller, Vernon.

RED SOX BEAT A's 2-3
BOSTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—Ted Williams, striving to keep his batting average over the .400 mark, got two hits, one a homer, three runs to the plate today as the Boston Red Sox took an easy 12-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

It was Boston's 13th victory over the Athletics in 17 games this season.

PHILADELPHIA 000 000 201—3
BOSTON 060 202 024—12
Errors—Siebert, Brancato, L. Newsome. Runs batted in—Moses 2, Collins 1, Peacock 1, DiMaggio 1, Williams 2, Fox 4, Doerr 2. Two base hits—Fox 2, Doerr, Conin, Peacock. Home runs—Williams, Doerr. Sacrifices—Cronin, Wagner 2.

Just Between Us Girls And Boys

By TEX DEWEESE

Writing something of interest to women is probably the one job we are least capable of. . . . The reason we are handling this column today is because of an agreement with Johnnie Davis, the society writer, who filled up one of our columns during vacation time. . . . Now that everybody has had fair warning, there is no time like the present to skip on over to another column and read something of interest.

You will notice that the column heading has been changed for today. . . . After all, "Just Between Us Girls" wouldn't fit so well with our by-line. . . . Another thing, some of the fellows in the back room might try to make something of it in a joking sort of way. . . . Those birds back there really have a subtle method of clipping your chin every time you stick it out just a little bit, and we don't mean peraps.

There's something a lot of the women probably have been wondering about. . . . Miss Davis, of course, is on vacation. . . . Many readers of her page probably do not know that while she is away, her job is being held down very capably by a male member of the staff. . . . While he is not at all crazy about the job, he takes it over with a vim and does a really fine bit of work. . . . And, we'd like to say in that connection, that there are many men who are capable of editing a woman's page. . . . When you find one who can, you know that he is a good newspaperman.

Just lots and lots of newspapermen can write general news, sports, handle the desk and general assignments—but when it comes to writing society and women's news they sink. . . . Some of the best newspapermen who are successful conductors of women's departments on newspapers. . . . Most of them write under a pseudonym that leads their readers to believe the author is a woman. . . . And, that's why we wish to compliment Brownie Emerson, who for the past five years has been handling the women's page when the society editor goes on vacation. . . . The reason he gets the assignment is because he is more capable of doing a better job of it than the rest of us.

You know, school opens next week—and this reminds us once more to play the school teachers. . . . That is to say, that if you want to get a taste of what it would be like to live in Germany where anything you say or do is likely to be used against you, get a job as a teacher in any typical small town in America. . . . If you do, you'll get a rough idea. . . . It won't take you long to discover that there is an unofficial Gestapo at work, whose self-appointed task is to snoop out all the information possible about the private doings of new teachers who, to be good enough for their low-paid jobs, must have none of the faults of the ordinary members of the community.

If perchance you should take one mild cocktail—even at a party where a goodly portion of the town's substantial citizens are taking more than one—you'll find yourself on trial, and you'll probably get no more chance of presenting your side of the case than a citizen of Germany listening to a foreign sign broadcast. . . . You'll know, too, what it is to have the men you date looked over and judged for suitability. . . . If they are attractive enough to make the other women in town jealous of you, they'll be the "wrong type," and someone, "for your own good," will take you aside and tell you so.

If there is mama's boys or slightly absurd old bachelors that no one else is interested in it will be all right for you to date them occasionally—if your conduct is always "ladylike" and "becoming a teacher." . . . If you think this is an exaggerated picture, get a job as a school teacher in a small town—10,000 population or under—and see for yourself. . . . But don't forget to pull down the blinds and open the windows here you light a cigar. . . . We believe in teaching a good job in their classrooms and that they should get their proper sleep and be fit for the job—but we also believe they should be treated as humans.

Well, we still haven't got started on a column that will be interesting to the women. . . . One member of the staff told us that this is the fall season and that the things women are most interested in right now is fall hats. . . . Oh, boy! . . . When we were on vacation in the East we got some previews of new hats in the New York stores. . . . This preview persuaded us that this fall every woman who accents an air-of-her-own should have an extra chapeau for special occasions—and that, if necessary, she can make one of her own. Fashion this year, we learned in the East, encourages looking as completely different from last year as you possibly can.

For instance, the new down-in-back hat silhouette is such a change that the hair-do people already are inventing a coil to go with them. . . . Among the most interesting interpretations of the new mode are a whole group called "Venezian" caps. They are a great variety of head-bunglers, round, peaked, and sometimes no crown at all. . . . One looked just like a baby bonnet. . . . Yet down-in-front hats are being shown, too—for the woman who prefers to wear those either occasionally or all the time. . . . In the lot we saw in a display window, there was one hat that made you think of a great hunk of spaghetti perched behind a pompadour. . . . It had a chou of velvet cords. . . . A narrow band of the same material holds it on, encircling the head. . . . Spiffy, those new fall hats, gals.

Wives may hate us for this—but have you ever noticed that the average wife is her most tactless self when her husband gets the conversational spotlight at a party and has a chance to tell an amusing story or hold forth on the news of the day? . . . One wife pitches in and "helps" her husband tell the story, confident that it needs her embellishments. . . . Another acts as censor, correcting every small error of fact. . . . "No, dear, it was Tuesday, not Wednesday. I remember, because. . . . Still another sits back and makes no pretense at listening at all. . . . Then there is the wife who, instead of pretending that she is hearing a funny story for the first time, comes right out and says, "John has told that story so many times, I know it word for word." . . . Yes ma'am, it's an odd thing what a wonderful listener the average woman is—until she marries the man!

We got first-hand corroboration from Fred Morgan, the state Junior Chamber of Commerce president, the other night that Pampa has more pretty girls than any other city in Texas. . . . Fred, a bachelor from Corpus Christi, just bubbled over about it, and came right out with the assertion during his address at the Jaycee installation dinner Tuesday night in Hotel Schneider. . . . Take a bow, ladies. . . . Mr. Morgan wasn't telling us anything we didn't already know, however. . . . We have back issues to prove that we've said the same thing innumerable times. . . . Yesir, a pretty girl is a melody, and Pampa is a tuneful spot.

And, just one more word in that connection. . . . We rather suspect that Mr. Morgan's remarks could have been inspired by the fact that he sat opposite Pampa's lovely first lady, the wife of Mayor Fred Thompson. . . . We've been waiting for the first appearance of cotton stockings on feminine legs in Pampa. . . . So far, we haven't seen any. . . . Apparently the silk stocking shortage hasn't yet made itself appreciably felt here. . . . Tip to high school and college girls: . . . Little girl pigtails are going to be popular this fall among school girls, according to the fashion magazines. . . . If your bob is too short to braid, they have a felt cap with long platts ending in bows—very pert.

The All-State spirit really is spreading. . . . Mrs. Jack Goldston, vocally accompanied by her husband, Jack, Kiwanis club president, entertained at the club's All-State program Friday noon by singing the North Carolina state song. . . . Kiwanians said they would like to hear Mrs. Goldston sing the song without the handicap of her husband's nasal monotone. . . . Joking aside, the duet was so good it will be recorded. . . . Kiwanians undoubtedly will be well represented at the All-State picnic in City Park tomorrow afternoon.

Essentially, since this is supposed to be a woman's column, may we issue an appeal now to all the women to get their families out to the picnic tomorrow afternoon. . . . Never in the history of the nation has there been a time when unity has been a greater need than it is today. . . . If we unite locally, it can go a long way toward uniting nationally.

And, with that there's nothing left to say except to express the hope it won't take Miss Davis too long to undo what has been done to her column today.

Women Excel Men In Making Bomb Sights, B & P W Clubs Told

Women are better at building bomb sights than men! The morale of the American people is just as important as guns! World War II started in China. The world will never go back to 1919 conditions. We should work together to see that every person in the world has enough to eat and we should be able to work together. We must have freedom for the whole world.

There were salient remarks in a speech delivered by Mrs. Glenn Pool at a social meeting of the Pampa Business & Professional Women's club last week in connection with a report on her attendance at the B. & P. W. national convention in Los Angeles in July. Mrs. Pool was the delegate of the local club.

He was William Hopkins, a dollar-a-year man, who told the delegates about women making bomb sights.

Tremendous Defense Effort Mrs. Pool said Mr. Hopkins told the convention: "There are 1,500,000 persons being trained for defense jobs. During the last war the total was 60,000. There will be 4,500,000 more persons trained next year, in addition to soldiers. This gives us an idea of the bigness of the defense program."

"Women are better in certain lines of defense work than men. There was one case where trained workers were needed in the manufacture of a secret bomb sight."

"Then they tried women who are adept at the work as they can use their hands better in such jobs than men."

Experts Aid U. S. Mr. Hopkins' talk was one of a series by vocational speakers. Mrs. Pool reported to the local club.

"He said the large companies loan their best men to the government for consultation. If someone had loaned him a year ago that Willie would be running errands for Mr. Roosevelt, they could just as well have told him that Dies would be attending picnics given in honor of Harry Bridges."

In a penal discussion on "Viewing the World From Countries Bordering the Pacific," Mrs. Pool heard that "the sinking of refrigerator ships had caused New Zealand warehouses to be filled with butter."

France's Fall Hurt Islands The fall of France affected the Pacific Islands greatly. Problems of the Pacific were between China and Japan were worse than any war since the 30-years war. "China was unprepared and had no political setup. Half-starved Chinese built roads with their bare hands. Despite that condition she has kept up the struggle. England and the United States have just realized what China's effort have meant. Today it is an important part of the great war and China is safe-guarding our interests."

Meets Geneva Friends At the convention, Mrs. Pool met many persons who she had first seen when she attended the international convention in Geneva, Switzerland, several years ago. She described one of these meetings:

"It was quite a thrill to me to meet Dr. Beth who was president of the Hungarian club when I was in Geneva. I had wondered so many times if she had gotten out. "She told me that she, her husband, and their two children did get to America, that she and her husband were teaching in universities and that her children were in college here."

"They were thankful, but of course a lot of their relatives and friends did not get out and she was so sad about their plight."

Among other highlights of the convention for Mrs. Pool were: Attending a session of the California legislature and listening to two women lawyers; hearing a talk by a woman fashion director; banquet at the Shrine auditorium; seeing Earl Carroll's "Vantiles"; a trip to Catalina, and other trips to Tia Juana, San Diego, San Francisco, Yosemite, the Painted Desert, Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, Leadville, Reno, and the Petrified Forest.

"Come As You Are" Party Entertains Dorcas Class

Members of Dorcas class of the First Baptist church, and class guests, were entertained with a "come-as-you-are" party Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. H. L. Cone, with Mrs. C. E. Williamson as co-hostess.

Class members were given "surprise" invitations to attend. A fine of 5 cents was assessed each person who wore different clothes from the apparel they were wearing when the invitation was made. For those who said they could not attend the fine was 10 cents. Proceeds of the fine went into the class mission fund.

Coffee and doughnuts were served to Mrs. Bill Mitchell, W. E. James, J. H. Mosley, D. H. Caldwell, Emory Noblett, J. Paul Briggs, Harvey Downs, J. W. Marland, E. L. Anderson, H. M. Stokes, L. P. Ward, C. Gordon Bayless, W. R. Bell, W. B. Murphy, Howard Giles.

Roy Holt, Fredella Potter, W. R. Hallmark, T. E. Maness, C. E. Williamson, B. A. Davis, R. K. Douglas, H. A. Gilliland, M. P. Downs, R. W. Tucker, E. B. Davis, J. P. Wehrung and daughter, Wanda Lee, and Mrs. Cannon.

Bible Study Now Offered To High School Students

For the first time since a school was founded in Pampa, a course in Bible will be taught in Pampa High school this year.

The course is offered for the first period and the class will meet daily. It will necessarily be limited to one class and preference will be given in enrollment to juniors and seniors. One unit of high school credit will be given for completing two semesters work.

In the preceding week contests, over the front nine, Mrs. Beagle and Mrs. Harris were the winners in the tie. Tom Herod, Russell Holloway, Ray Evans, Mrs. Temple Hoffer of Electra, and the honoree.

Buffet Luncheon Honors Mrs. Monroe

A buffet luncheon and hankerchief shower was given at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Robert Farley and Mrs. Bill Anderson, at Mrs. Anderson's home, 403 N. Russell, complimenting Mrs. Frank Monroe, who with Mr. Monroe is leaving Pampa for Midland where Mr. Monroe has accepted a position with the Midland schools.

Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. R. K. Edenborough, Jack Stroup, Winston Savage, Foster Fletcher, E. W. Cabb, Jr., Tom Herod, Russell Holloway, Ray Evans, Mrs. Temple Hoffer of Electra, and the honoree.

Annual Sunday School Outing To Be Held Today

Annual Sunday school outing of the Church of the Brethren will be held today at Lake McClellan at 11 o'clock, following the close of Sunday school.

Each family is asked to bring a picnic dinner. At the picnic, a religious and recreational program will be held during the afternoon.

Bethany Class Holds Covered Dish Lunch

A covered dish luncheon was held by Bethany class of the First Baptist church at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the church.

Visitors were the Rev. and Mrs. C. Gordon Bayless and Paul Briggs. Members attending were Mrs. R. W. Tucker, A. B. Kitchens, E. Siddam, J. W. Crout, Frank Johnson, A. J. Young, Nora Patterson, Charles Kemling, J. H. Richey, N. Thorne, H. H. Keyser, H. C. Wil-

A RECEPTION AT THE home of Mrs. Lynn Boyd, aunt of the bride followed the wedding here last night of Mary Lynn Schoolfield, above, to Norman Forest Maddux, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Maddux will make their home in Houston. Mrs. Maddux is a graduate of Pampa High school, later attended Texas State College for Women at Denton. Mr. Maddux is employed in the engineering department of the Eastern States Refinery at Houston. He attended Texas A. & M. college, College Station, for four years, and is a reserve lieutenant in the United States army.

Couple Married In Single Ring Ceremony Here Saturday Night

In a candle-light ceremony at 9 o'clock Saturday night in the First Christian church, Miss Mary Lynn Schoolfield became the bride of Mr. Norman Forest Maddux, Jr., son of the late N. F. Maddux. The Rev. B. A. Norris, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before a background of kentia palms and a white trellis covered with huckleberry. Northern ferns covered the chancel and choir rails and white tapers and tall candelabra lighted the ceremony.

Floor bouquets and classic bouquets of white gladioli contrasted with the green ferns and palms. The aisle and stairs leading to the kneeling-altar were laid with white aisle cloth.

Pre-nuptial music by Miss Helen Poolas, violinist, and Mrs. Madeline Tarpley Rowntree, organist, was "Liebestraum" (Liszt), "Beich" (D'Hardelot), and "Ich Liebe Dich" (Orleg).

"The Wedding March" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional. Ushers were Jack Armstrong of Amarillo and William Haley. Herschel Martin of Houston attended Mr. Maddux as best man.

Bride's Attendants Miss Carolyn Surratt was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Tommy Wurtzbaugh of Jefferson, and Miss Edythe Shearer. Junior bridesmaids were Misses Edwina Lee Emerson and Cherry Jeanne Maddux. Little Barbara Ann Maddux was flower girl.

The maids wore gowns of white moire taffeta fashioned with sweet-hair necklines, puff sleeves and full skirts. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli, and the bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of yellow gladioli.

They wore corresponding coronets of flowers. Junior bridesmaids wore similar gowns of white. They carried small colonial bouquets of pink gladioli and wore coronets of white matriaria. The flower girl wore a miniature halo of orange blossoms and carried a basket of white flower petals.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of mousseline de sole over slipper satin, with small covered buttons down the front. The sleeves were puffed at the shoulders, pointed at the wrist, and the skirt extended into a train. Her full-length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearls. She carried a prayer book with gardenias and sprays of stephanotis.

Reception At Aunt's Home Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lynn Boyd. The receiving line stood in front of the fireplace, which was decorated with classic and floor bouquets of white gladioli and palms.

The mantelpiece was decorated with white tapers. The dining table was decorated in white with a lei of white flowers around the three-tiered cake. The Misses Mary Margaret Gribbon and Ellen Mary Haley assisted with the serving. Miss Margaret Tignor presided at the guest book.

To Make Home In Houston Following the reception the couple left for Houston where they will make their home. Mrs. Maddux chose for her going-away ensemble a costume dress of black velvet trimmed with white. Her accessories were of black and her corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Maddux graduated from the local high school in 1939, where she was a member of the band, National Honor society, and received the citizenship award given by the student council.

She attended Texas State College for Women at Denton where she was a member of Les Debutantes and the Odeon club. She was selected to be a student adviser and during the spring semester was a student organ recitalist for the Little Chapel in the Woods.

Mr. Maddux attended Texas A. & M. college, College Station, for four years, majoring in petroleum engineering. He is a reserve lieutenant in the United States army. He is employed in Houston in the engineering department of the Eastern States Petroleum company.

Shower Honors Bride A prelude to the wedding was the breakfast and bridal shower complementing Miss Schoolfield, given by Mrs. Walter F. Dean at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Schneider hotel.

Guests were Mrs. H. Clay Schoolfield. See COUPLE, Page 8

Mrs. Leudders And Mrs. Bellamy Win Weekly Golf Match

Continuing the series of handicap matches, members of the Ladies Golf association of the Pampa Country club will hold their regular weekly match on the club links Wednesday.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Carl Leudders scored a 35 and Mrs. R. M. Bellamy a 37, to place as winners. Other players were Mrs. Ray Hagan, Mrs. A. J. Beagle, Mrs. Carl Snow, Mrs. Marvin Harris. The contest over the back nine holes of the course.

In the preceding week contests, over the front nine, Mrs. Beagle and Mrs. Harris were the winners in the tie. Tom Herod, Russell Holloway, Ray Evans, Mrs. Temple Hoffer of Electra, and the honoree.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

By MRS. HOL WAGNER

More than half a mile of pink, blue, and white outing flannel—1,000 yards! That's just one item that arrived at the Red Cross production room in the basement of the post office this past week. It will be made into garments for the 100 layettes. Other arrivals included a rosy beige woolen material for snow suits for the toddler packs, woolen tubing for toddlers' undershirts, and woolen material for girls' skirts and dresses.

All of this material must be cut and sewed into garments as a part of our fall quota for British war relief. Cutting is done by volunteers each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. So far some 10 or 12 women have done all of this tedious work of cutting—many of the same women work six hours a week at this in addition to sewing or knitting at home.

Materials to be sewed or yarn for knitting can be checked out any afternoon, Monday through Friday, except that this week the production room will be closed on Monday, Labor day.

The volunteer cutters finished cutting out the 50 woolen dresses for women this week. They're a classic shirtwaist style in dark green or rusty brown. The following volunteers worked Tuesday: Mrs. L. L. Davis, Mrs. Andrew Melkie, Mrs. Robert Louvier, Mrs. Doyle Osborne, Mrs. T. S. Bunting, and Peggy Melkie. All but Peggy were back Thursday with the following additions: Mrs. Walter Daugherty and Mrs. J. M. Sowers.

For some reason very few of the women's garments have been checked out—probably because there's more appeal in making clothes for the young sufferers in this terrible war. But when we think of the mental anguish the women bear in addition to all the physical suffering, we should be eager to lighten their hearts a little by making comfortable and attractive clothes for them. Many of them have so little now, you know, and an article I read recently told how the women were cutting down and making over everything of theirs they could to keep the children adequately clothed.

Mrs. F. O. Gurley and Mrs. Annie Culberson both need just a bit more black yarn to finish the shawl they are crocheting. If any of you crocheters have scraps of yarn left from the shawls you made, and will send it to the production room or directly to these women, it will be greatly appreciated.

Our thanks to Mrs. J. McFarlin for her generous cash donation to buy thread. Cloth and yarn are purchased by the government from surplus commodities and sent to Red Cross chapters to be made into garments by volunteers, but thread and trimmings are not furnished. Several hundred spools of thread will be required to sew up our quota; many women, of course, donate their own thread.

Incidentally, of the $50,000,000 earmarked by congress for foreign war relief, $25,327,822 has been sent to purchase supplies for the Red Cross. And as of June 30, American Red Cross war relief operations in Europe and the Orient reached a total of $47,087,052.

Mrs. O. A. Wagner completed knitting her eighth man's sweater this past week and checked out yarn for another. She also has knitted one woman's sweater and a pair of socks.

You ought to drop into the production room some afternoon just to see how many garments have been made by volunteer workers and how very attractive some of them are. Women have really responded generously to the appeal for help in trimming the kiddies' dresses. Mrs. W. A. Spoonmore brought in six last week that she took to add trimming to, and they are really pretty!

The young women of the Wesleyan Service guild of the First Methodist church added trimming to five dresses and wound six packages of yarn at their meeting this past week. Several other women have dressed checked out to trim. Mrs. Harold Wright is one of our most faithful yarn winders. She brought back two bags she had wound this past week and checked out two more. Her mother, Mrs. Kate Stuart, took two dozen more diapers to make.

The Hopkins Girl Scout troop under the leadership of Mrs. D. Partridge is doing a fine piece of volunteer Red Cross service. The girls have just learned to knit, and they are putting their knowledge to use by knitting six-inch squares to make an afghan. They have worked out an original block design for the colors. Women of the community are furnishing the yarn. That's a splendid example of community cooperation.

Each Sunday I try to give an accurate report of the completed garments turned in during the previous week. If I make mistakes or overlook anyone, I should appreciate having it called to my attention, since the purpose here is to give public credit and recognition for volunteer services to the Red Cross.

Mrs. W. D. Waters must think I "have it in for" her, because in checking back I find I've made two mistakes in reporting what she turned in! For our fall quota Mrs. Waters has made four children's dresses and eight women's woolen skirts and is now working on four more skirts.

Completed garments turned in this past week are as follows: Mrs. Cyril Hamilton—one convalescent robe and two women's dresses; Mrs. W. R. Ketter—four dozen diapers; Mrs. Robert Louvier—one child's dress; Mrs. C. W. Lawrence—three convalescent robes; Mrs. I. S. Marline—four women's skirts; Mrs. Roy McKillen—one child's sweater; Mrs. Aaron Meek—one child's sweater; Mrs. Clint Pridge—two children's dresses; Reeper's class of First Baptist church—12 convalescent robes; Mrs. J. M. Sowers—two children's dresses; Mrs. W. A. Spoonmore—trimmed six children's dresses; Mrs. DeLea Vicars—two women's dresses and two women's skirts; Mrs. O. A. Wagner—one pair socks; Mrs. W. E. Warner—one pair socks; Mrs. W. D. Waters—four women's skirts; Wesleyan Service guild of First Methodist church—trimmed five children's dresses and wound six bags of yarn; Mrs. J. S. Wynne—one pair socks.

Mrs. Mary Price, one of the BKG volunteers, delivered a big sack of woolen scraps to be pieced into a quilt for Mrs. R. E. Newton. This delivery service is available to all women who cannot come to the production room. A telephone call to Mrs. Fred Roberts, production chairman, is all that is necessary.

It's new, very new—the wide shoulder which gives this frock an appearance which is typical of fall 1941 and no other fashion period. Not only does this dress re-introduce the natural shoulder line, it cleverly dramatizes the smallness of your waist by front fullness in the skirt. And while it is far out in front for last-word smartness, it's as easy to make as any daytime frock you've ever tried. Order your pattern today—be first to wear this advance fashion.

Pattern No. 8017 is available in sizes 12 to 20, and 40. Size 14, with three-quarter sleeves, requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

For this attractive pattern send 15 cents in coin, your name, address, pattern number, and size to The Pampa News Today's Pattern Service, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

AUTUMN SIGNALS OPENING OF EXCITING NEW FILM BOOKINGS AT PAMPA THEATERS

Ginger Rogers Featured in "Tom, Dick, And Harry" Opening Five-Day Run At The Crown; Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett Teamed In "Wild Geese Calling," LaNora

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Like the opening of school, autumn also trumpets a "refresher" in the year and brings forth some topnotch film fare.

There's some of the best bookings seen in a long time on Pampa screens this week. Take any of them and you can't go wrong.

All four Pampa theaters have first-class pics. At the Crown there opens today a five-day run on "Tom, Dick and Harry," featured by Ginger Rogers, George Murphy, Alan Marshal.

This is the movie Garson Kanin was making when selective service called him from his chores.

The pic is an ingenious little tale. As Robin Coons says, in this movie era most of our heroines live over their lives in retrospect. Miss Rogers looks into the future.

It's about a romantic working girl's dizzy uncertainty about which of three desirable fellows she'll take to the altar.

Dennis O'Keefe is seen as a bungling sociable D. A. in Republic's 69-minute film, showing Thursday at the LaNora.

Northwest Adventure At the same show Friday and Saturday is showing "Wild Geese Calling," adventure yarn set in the Northwest with Henry Fonda cast as the wandering lumberjack and his desire to see all the country to the north where the geese fly in the spring. Pic is adapted from the Stewart, Edward White novel.

"Mystery Ship," with Paul Kelly, Lola Lane, and Larry Parks, is on the hex screen Wednesday and Thursday. Film has Kelly as a G-man assigned to a dangerous job just before his marriage to a newspaper reporter.

The trio of sagebrush cavaliers, Robert Livingston, Bob Steele, and Rufe Davis, ride into a passel of dirty work when they run up against a gang that is trying to run the Wyoming territory and prevent it becoming a state. It's a long way from Mexico to Wyoming, but somehow the film is titled "Gangs of Sonora." At the Rex Friday and Saturday.

While Harry (Burgess Meredith) is neither ambitious nor rich, and marriage with him promises nothing more material than living in a shack (see inset), he must have plenty of speed and control to kindle that light that's in Janie's (Ginger Rogers) eyes.

Mrs. Olur Bertrand Honored At Shower

Special To The NEWS: WHITE DEER, Aug. 30—Miss Gertrude Wall and Olur Bertrand were married Aug. 17 in the Methodist parsonage at Idalou, with the Rev. J. E. Stephens, former pastor at White Deer, officiating.

Attending "Call" couple were Asseline Wall, cousin of the bride, and Kenneth Harrington.

Mrs. Bertrand is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wall of Idalou. She was graduated from Idalou High school and Arlene's Beauty school at Lubbock.

Mr. Bertrand, son of Mrs. Eugenia Bertrand of White Deer, was graduated from White Deer High school and attended "West Texas State college.

Following a brief trip to Eagle Nest, the couple are at home on the Bertrand farm, two miles south of White Deer.

Mrs. Bertrand was honored with a shower Thursday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage with Mrs. Don Davidson and Mrs. R. R. Fleming as hostesses.

In the receiving line were the honoree, Mrs. Eugenia Bertrand, and Mrs. Fleming.

A procession of fall flowers decorated the reception rooms and the lace covered refreshment table at which Miss Helen Powers and Miss Roberta Bertrand presided.

Preceding the presentation of gifts by the Rondel Nan Davidson, who was dressed as cupid and used a rolling pin as an "arrow." Mrs. Davidson read "It Takes a Heap 'O' Livin' in a House to Call it Home"; Marilyn Brown played a solo, "In Dan One Minute Josephine Powers sang, "Yours."

Mrs. Eula Bishop was in charge of the bride's book. Registering were Mmes. Zetta Edwards, Al Jordan, J. R. Nicholson, Nicholas J. W. Wells, G. W. Culbertson, J. W. Langham, Eula Bishop, Larue Pool, J. L. Harsh, Eugenia Bertrand, Chester Strickland, H. T. Dickens, and Alvin Williams; Misses Roberta and Florine Nicholson, Josephine and Helen Powers, Roberta Bertrand, Marilyn and Patricia Brown, and Kaylene Jordan, Doneta and Rondel Van Davidson, the honoree, and the hostesses.

No Real Gasoline Shortage, Says Senator Lee O'Daniel

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Senators asked for full information on the operations of the nation's oil tankers fleet today after learning that the Pacific coast soon may face the same curtailment of gasoline sales now effective along the eastern seaboard.

Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the maritime commission, was called before the special senate group investigating shortages in petroleum products to supply data on tankers which normally haul millions of gallons of gasoline and fuel oil from the Gulf ports to the Atlantic seaboard.

The warning that West Coast motorists soon may be limited at gasoline filling stations came from Ralph K. Davies, acting petroleum coordinator, who filled both sessions of initial hearings yesterday with a long survey of the present situation.

Several of the five senators conducting the inquiry wanted to know why only motorists in the populous East had been asked to conserve gasoline. Some said that the entire country should share in national defense burdens.

Davies agreed but explained that officials had been more than busy trying to cut gasoline use in the East and that they planned a similar reduction of 15 per cent in supplies for retail outlets on the Pacific coast.

Davies explained that tankers which formerly served Washington, Oregon and other Western states had been shifted to the Gulf of Mexico to help carry fuel to the eastern seaboard. Hence, he said, the Pacific Northwest probably would have gasoline purchase limitations.

Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) observed that officials were asking the public to reduce gasoline consumption "in an effort to conserve our reserves" rather than because of an actual shortage.

"It's pretty hard to convince my people down in Texas that we have a real shortage," O'Daniel said. "We had to pass a state law to curtail crude production. We produce about 500,000,000 barrels now and we could increase that five or six times. We have a known reserve of 11,000,000,000 barrels."

At the same time, O'Daniel said he was certain the public was willing to cooperate in any move required for the security of this country.

(By The Associated Press) Blast
BECKLEY, W. Va.—From a Radford, Va., powder plant comes this tale:

A plant engineer went fishing in the New river and hooked a catfish, which he took home, cleaned and placed in a frying pan. In a moment an explosion blew fish, skillet and hot grease all over the kitchen.

The engineer concluded that the fish, living in the stream below the powder plant, became so impregnated with nitro cotton it exploded in the heat.

High Diving
PHILADELPHIA—Closing of the city's swimming pools to prevent spread of infantile paralysis led four 16-year-old boys to high adventure—and jail.

Police found them swimming in a reservoir tank 125 feet high, in which they reached by climbing the outside of the three-story plant, walking across a narrow plank to the tank and scampering up a ladder to the top.

This year more than ever, we pay tribute to Labor. Without the work of honest labor this country could not be possible. Without labor we could not protect our nation against the greedy aggressors that would undermine our country. . . . Our country is as strong as our labor, and we have the strongest nation in the world, thanks to our labor. America achieved its place in this world by work . . . hard work. America has natural wealth and an enviable position on the map, but without labor this country could not be possible. Labor which has built our country, now is protecting it by its contributions to the national defense. Labor will defend its moral and economical standards to the last ditch. Labor proudly accepts this responsibility.

PARISIANS COME TO DEFENSE OF ASSASSIN
(By The Associated Press)
VICHY, Unoccupied France, Aug. 30—A sudden expression of sympathy developed today for Paul Collette, young Norman who put a bullet so close to the heart of Pierre Laval Wednesday that the stricken politician, although improved, still remained in the danger zone.
The anti-Soviet legion which Laval was inducting when he was shot decided to back Laval's gesture in asking that Collette be treated with clemency, and the latest editions of the newspapers of German-occupied Paris suddenly became much milder in their attacks on him. Some even came to his defense.
While the administrations of both the occupied and unoccupied zones pushed stern measures to deal with growing unrest at home, War Minister Gen. Charles Huntziger went on the air to tell the population of British-held Syria that "you are the victims of a situation you did not want and to permit them a return of rule by European France."
As the Germans continued their drive against their foes within occupied France, it was disclosed that it was a German firing squad—not French as first reported—which executed eight men yesterday for espionage and activity against Germans; also that the eight had been sentenced by a German military court and not by the new special anti-Communist court.

HORSEPOWER TO SETTLE WAR, SAYS COMMANDER
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30 (AP)—Control of the air is based on horsepower, and horsepower will settle the war in Europe, says Col. Charles Sweeney, commander and founder of the Eagle Squadron.
"At the start of the war," said Col Sweeney in an interview, "the German Messerschmitt 109 had 600 horsepower. Now it has 1,350. Our own planes are developing 2,000 horsepower and over."
Sweeney, on an inspection tour of Royal air force training facilities here, said Britain had regained control of the channel. Enemy planes seldom venture more than a few miles beyond the British border, and German planes now must base themselves 25 miles or more inland from the French coast.
With Col. Sweeney is Luke Allen, one of the five original members of the Eagle Squadron, which is the All-American unit with the R. A. F. Allen said the age of the American pilots ranges from 19 to 32.
"There are three fighter squadrons of about 25 men each, with a bomber squadron now in formation. There are 163 American pilots in England now, most of them in British squadrons, and 412 more men in training."
"What do these American boys get out of it? The chance of becoming officers, the thrill of being in on a big thing, all of their living expenses and $2.90 a day."
Col. Sweeney, 60, tall and ruddy of face, set out to be a newspaperman rather than a pilot. He became a pilot because something of a soldier, of fortune instead.
He joined the French foreign legion early in the World War, became a general, transferred to the United States army in 1918 and became a colonel.

STUDENT BODY OF ARCHER COUNTY TEACHER HAS INCREASED TO FIVE
SCOTLAND, Archer County (AP)—Miss Dorothy Ferguson took her M.A. degree from Baylor university Aug. 20, looking forward to almost doubled classes in her little one-roomed ranch school in Archer county.
An oil boom has brought a new family into the 18 square mile school district and Miss Dorothy's student body of three will be increased to five with the opening of the fall session.
All in all, it's a unique situation. The Luke Wilson school, District 29, Archer county, southwest of Wichita Falls. Miss Ferguson, who rides two and a half miles to school through five cattle gates, each morning serves as superintendent, principal, teacher, janitor and sometimes cook.
The district's area of 18 square miles, or 11,520 acres, is comprised of the Coleman and Luke Wilson ranches. Total population is ten families. They get their mail once a week—if the roads aren't too wet—by driving into the Scotland post office.
Citizens of the district are regular men and women of the range. Each a true cowboy. And the great majority of them say "Yes, I got my education at that school building over there," pointing across the open spaces to the structure perhaps three miles distant.
The school is run under the general direction of Archer County Judge Joe E. Shelton, whose responsibilities also make him county school superintendent. It has the same high ranking as any other county school through the seventh grade, and its history dates back prior to 1910.
There once were as many as 13 children in the school, but year by year during the last decade the children have left the range for city schools either at Archer City, to the south, or Wichita Falls, to the northeast.
Last year Miss Ferguson boarded two-thirds of her pupils. Her landlord was the president of the board of trustees and the father of her two male pupils.
In fact the school is of necessity a family affair. W. M. (Bill) Coleman, Jr., is president of the board of trustees, perhaps because he is the father of Charles Coleman, 13, and Don Coleman, 7, Noah Bryan, foreman of a section of the Wilson ranch, merits a place because of his daughter, Nannie Sue Bryan, 11. The third member of the board is Mrs. Dick Coleman, an aunt of the two boys.
It's two and a half miles from the Coleman ranch to the school, the road is only a pasture trail and there are five gates to be opened. But a state law requires that lessons be taught in a school house and not in a private home.
So each morning, the young school man and the two children hitched their favorite horse, Nannie Sue, to a two-wheeled cart and trek out across the mesquite covered prairie. Charles and Don usually scuffed a bit for the middle seat, since the outside passenger has the job of hopping out and opening the gates. This third member of the board is Sue, just arriving astride her horse Daily, having come from her home a mile the other side of the school. Like the boys she also is wearing overalls and cowboys boots, ever true to the west. While Nannie Sue and Charles

PAMPA SHOULD BE AVIATION CENTER OF THE PANHANDLE

Suitable Port Needed For Air Progress

By HARRY E. HOARE
Pampa indeed should be the aviation center of the Panhandle for where else is there a city with more air-minded citizens per capita? This section of the Panhandle is ideally suited for flying and Pampans take advantage of that condition to fly and fly.

Pampa pilots are located in nearly every branch of aviation from the army to the air lines. At least 15 Pampans are now with the United States armed forces, instructors, test pilots or airline pilots.

Future flyers are being developed at the airport through the Civil Aeronautic Administration program of holding ground schools from which 10 students emerge with free flight scholarships. Through efforts of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce and Pampa school officials such a program was made available for Pampa last spring. Now 10 youths and one young woman are nearly ready to receive their wings.

While they are finishing their course, under the able direction of Art Smith, who has more than 3,000 hours in the air, another ground school class took its final examination Friday night and in a few weeks 10 more youths will receive scholarships and will start flight training.

Need Better Airport
Pampa is one of the smallest cities in the country with CAA flight programs and Pampa got the course just because Pampa has always been air-minded. More air mail is sent out of Pampa than any other city in this section and more passengers fly the air lines from Pampa per capita than any other city.

The Pampa airport is anything but the best but it is a recognized airport with beacon and boundary lights and a weather forecasting and reporting station. It has 17 acres of runways, the north-south runway being 4,100 feet long, the east-west runway 2,500 feet long; and the northeast-southwest runway 3,400 feet long.

Many Pampans believe that if the city owned a suitable airport location Pampa could secure an army base because of its favorable weather conditions the year around.

Hangar Space Handicap
Lack of hangar facilities hampers the city's air growth. The hangar at the so-called municipal airport will accommodate only five planes while there are 14 planes owned by Pampans, all but one of them privately owned. Other planes have to be located at a much smaller airport south of the city known as Shaw field.

One of the future licensed flyers who will be graduated from the ground school classes will be Miss Helen Morehead, who has 29 hours of flying time already. Others completing their flight instruction are Andrew Walker, Charles Bradford, Henry Berry, Junior Williams, Joe Mefford, George Lane, Clyde Beard, Floyd Bivins, Oscar Cunningham, George Fred Burdick, who led the class, has been transferred to Tulsa.

Former Pampans now in important positions in the aviation world include Dee Graham, pilot for TWA; Monte Keenan, pilot for Continental Airlines; Fred Bidemour, pilot for Braniff Airlines; George Christopher, test pilot for Lockheed Aircraft; Boyd Kennedy, operating air field at Waxahachie; George Ingram, D. B. Purinton, Mel Dunn and Frank Pemberton, instructors at Hicks field; Earl Douglas and Paddy Parish, instructors at Brady; Jack Johnson, instructor at Grand Prairie; Frank Shaw, instructor at Texoma; Roy Webb, Jr., with the U. S. Air Corps in Panama; Lynn Blackwell, just received his wings in California; and dozens of youths now in training in the U. S. army air corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Brown are now completing training and both will soon be instructors.

Pampans first became air-minded in 1927, soon after oil was discovered. First plane located here was owned by the Wilcox Oil and Gas company and Boyd Kennedy was its pilot. At that time he was the youngest pilot in the United States holding a commercial license.

Landing fields in those days were in wide open spaces. Soon more persons became interested in aviation and Pampa's first landing field was designated in 1928.

Since then citizens have been fighting to improve flying conditions and they're not through yet, they claim.

During 1939, 12,300 pedestrians were killed in traffic.

MISS HELEN MOREHEAD is just as much at home at the controls of an airplane as she is handling a typewriter at Danziger Oil and Refineries Inc., where she is employed. She was the only young woman to receive a flight scholarship at the Civil Aeronautic ground school course held here. She has already had 29 hours in the air and soon will be eligible to receive her private flight license. Miss Morehead is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Morehead, pioneer Panhandle residents. She was born on a ranch near Canadian but moved to Hoover with her parents in 1924. She attended high school in Pampa from where she graduated in 1937. She then attended Hill's Business college at Oklahoma City.

50 Students Needed For Third School

Pampa can secure a third Civil Aeronautic Administration ground school course if as many as 50 youths between the ages of 19 and 29 enroll. Ten free flight scholarships will be awarded if the school is conducted. Ten Pampans are now finishing flight training after receiving scholarships at the spring school. Final examination for the second ground school was held Friday night and 10 more free flight scholarships will be awarded.

Though individual grades from the Friday night examination, conducted by Inspector Waage of Amarillo, will not be known for at least 10 days, it is believed that 88 per cent of the students who took the course were successful. The ten high will receive the free flight scholarships.

The graduating class was smaller than anticipated because several were transferred to other cities, three received civil service appointments, two were accepted as cadets.

Several of the students completing their flying time will go to Ardmore, Okla., or Big Spring where they will receive 48 hours of aerobatic flying and 56 hours of cross country flying before receiving their wings as instructors and commercial pilots.

Students who did not receive their CAA certificates Friday night are asked to contact F. A. Hall, ground school instructor, immediately.

FUTURE FLYERS are the young men and the one young woman pictured above who are taking the Civil Aeronautic Administration flight course at the Pampa airport. Fifty young men and women from this section of the Panhandle took the ground school course and the 11 with the highest grade in a final examination receive free flight scholarships. Another ground school course ended with examinations Friday night and 10 more scholarships will be awarded.

airport manager. Flying students with hours in the air, left to right are: Andrew Walker, 29 hours; Charles Bradford, 21 hours, now in Lubbock; Henry Berry, 30 hours; Miss Helen Morehead, 29 hours; Junior Williams, 22 hours; Joe Mefford, 22 hours; George Lane, 22 hours; Clyde Beard, 23 hours; Floyd Bivins, 29 hours. Not in the picture are Oscar Cunningham of White Deer, 32 hours; and Fred Burdick, now in Tulsa, Okla.

Young Men Can Enlist In Army And 'See World'

Under recent regulations young men entering the army through their Selective Service Boards have no chance of seeing the world. It is only by an enlistment through the regular army recruiting service that the young man's normal appetite for travel and adventure in foreign lands can be satisfied.

The U. S. Army Recruiting Station at Pampa, now has many vacancies for service in the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippine Islands and young men registering for the Selective Service but who have not been called are eligible for enlistment in these vacancies.

For service in the Hawaiian Islands there are the following vacancies: Infantry, coast artillery corps, field artillery, corps of engineers, medical corps, and ordnance department.

For service in the Philippine Islands there are the following vacancies: Infantry, coast artillery corps, field artillery, quartermaster corps, medical corps, ordnance department and chemical warfare service.

These vacancies are something new, heretofore, it having been the policy of the war department to send no one to foreign service with less than one year's service. Now a young man can enlist for one of these vacancies and be sent to foreign service without delay.

There are only a few of these choice vacancies left so young men desiring to see the world should apply for enlistment without delay.

Kiwanians Elect Two Delegates To Beaumont Meeting

Alvin Bell and Joe Gordon were elected as delegates and Edwin Vicars, R. B. Saxe, and Fred Radcliff as alternates, to the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis International district convention to be held October 5, 6, and 7, at Beaumont, at the Pampa Kiwanis club's regular weekly luncheon at noon Friday at the First Methodist church.

Governor Fred Thompson will preside, by virtue of his office as president of the local club. Jack Goldston is automatically a delegate and is to be a member of the local delegation.

Feature of the luncheon program yesterday was the singing of two North Carolina songs by President and Mrs. Goldston. The songs were in connection with the club's program in observance of the All-States Victory picnic, which is to be held today at Central park.

Mr. Saxe, a member of the club, is chairman of the entertainment and program committee of the event, and made a brief talk concerning the affair.

The Kiwanians were grouped by states, in keeping with the program theme. One table was set aside for Texans, another for Oklahomans, and others for other states.

Those present were introduced and gave their home states. Foster Fletcher conducted a quiz on Texas, as head of the program for the Lone Star state, while Cecil Myatt acted for the Oklahomans. A brief talk on Oklahoma was made by E. B. Emerson, a guest of the club.

States represented at the luncheon were Texas, Oklahoma, Virginia, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland.

Hughes-Pitts Opens Addition For 101 New Home Sites

Opening of the Hughes-Pitts Addition to the City of Pampa is announced today by R. G. Hughes in an advertisement in The Sunday News.

Mr. Hughes' announcement states that the new addition has been laid out in lots for 101 new home sites. The entire project, he states, is FHA-approved. This will enable purchasers to take advantage of the FHA building program, if desired.

The new addition to the city is situated on the Miami highway between Henry and Tignor streets.

Mr. Hughes states that the project is the first South Side home site to be approved by FHA officials.

"This is an exceptionally desirable place to build a new home and at an amazingly moderate cost," Mr. Hughes said.

Harriman Appointed To Go To Moscow

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt disclosed today that he would appoint W. Averell Harriman head of an American delegation which will go to Moscow to consider the problem of aid to Russia.

Harriman has been in London handling lease-lend operations, and Mr. Roosevelt said John Biggers, who has been in charge of production for the Office of Production Management, would take over Harriman's duties in the British capital.

The delegation to Moscow, which will meet with corresponding British and Russian groups, may be appointed within a few days, the President told a press conference, and may have a half dozen members.

Harriman originally was sent to London, the President explained, chiefly to handle shipping problems and assist in getting aid to nations resisting aggression.
