Hospital Districts Tell of Success

Several hospital administrators and board members of Hospital Districts have been contacted to ascertain what has happened since a hospital district was voted in their area. "We are operating in the black," said John B. Martin, administrator of the Stamford Memorial Hospital at Stamford. "Our 50-bed hospital opened in August, 1969 and we have three doctors on our medical staff. Our occupancy has averaged about 60 percent since opening the new hospital!"

He added that the district has a $19,000,000 valuation and the tax rate is 25 cents per $100 valuation. He added there is no tax money set aside for operating the hospital and it costs approximately $5,000 per year to operate the tax office.

According to the administrator, the old hospital had been operated under a non-profit corporation.

The administrator of the Floyd County District at Floydada said their 40 bed hospital opened in October, 1967.

Initially, the tax rate for the district was 40 cents, but this has been raised to 75 cents, which produces about $100,000 per year. Two doctors were on the original staff in the hospital district, one of whom was partially retired. One doctor joined the staff in January, 1968 and another in October, 1969. Mr. Barnett, the administrator, added that the hospital has been operating in the black since the addition of the doctor in 1969 and the tax rate is expected to be reduced again in 1971.

The hospital administrator from Floydada concluded, "One interesting feature of this district is that two law suits were filed after the district was voted, delaying everything for almost three years. This delay caused an increase of $76,000 in the cost of construction."

With a population of 16,000, Brownwood is expecting to increase the 116 bed Brownwood Hospital by 100 beds to make this hospital district facility a 216 bed hospital.

Board member of the Brownwood Hospital Dr. Joe Smith said the hospital has been open in Brownwood for approximately 12 months and runs at 98 percent occupancy.

He said the hospital was built with a Hill-Burton grant.

On the staff of the more than 15 doctors are the following specialist who were added since the new hospital was completed: one pathologist, one

Hospital Board Answers Petition To Contest Election

Following the filing of a petition to contest election, referring to the May 16 Hospital District and Bond Election, the Bailey County Hospital District Board Members, through their attorneys, filed an answer to the petition Wednesday afternoon.

In the original contesting petition which was filed, some 300 persons objected to the election and challenged the constitutionality of House Bill 97 which was passed by the 61st Legislature to enable the hospital district to be formed.

They also alleged unspecified irregularities and fatalities in the election and contested the two polling precincts which were open during the election hours. The contestants also challenged the vote of 309 unnamed persons and asked that the election be invalidated and the Bailey County Hospital Board be dissolved.

Members of the Bailey County Hospital District Board include Dr. Charles Lewis, Don Harmon, Mrs. J.G. Arm, Mrs. Bernard Phelps, Neil Dillman, Eddie Beene, Freddie Parkman, D.O. Burelsmith and Sam Damon.

The hospital board retained the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree and Milam of Lubbock as their attorneys and the attorneys filed the answer to the petition and answer to a statement of election contest. The statement of election contest was filed on County Attorney Roger Gorrell Wednesday afternoon.

Man, It's Hot! Moisture Low; Winds Higher

Muleshoe's official U.S. Weatherman Jeff Peeler looked in the 1969 weather book to compare temperatures of this year with temperatures at the same time last year.

It was considerably cooler at this same time last year with temperatures for the most part up to 32 degrees cooler than last year.

For instance, this year June 14 showed a high and low of 96-66, last year it was 65-48; June 15, 96-67 and 63-47; June 16, 100-65 and 68-45; June 17, 101-66 and 75-43; June 18, 104-66 and 82-59; June 19, 97-63 and 82-57; June 20, 91-63 and 92-59.

CONTESTEE'S ORIGINAL ANSWER TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

NOW COME Don Harmon, D.O. Burelsmith, Freddy Parkman, Mrs. J.G. Arm, Eddy Beene, Sam Damon, Neil Dillman, Mrs. Bernard Phelps and Charles G. Lewis, members of the Board of Directors of Bailey County Hospital District, and Roger Gorrell, County Attorney of Bailey County, Texas, Contestees in the above entitled and numbered cause, and file their Original Answer to the Contestants' Petition for Election Contest herein, and would respectfully show the following:

1. Contestee specially excepts to the Petition in its entirety on the ground that the instrument styled "Statement of Election Contest" does not comply with the provisions of the Texas Election Code, particularly Articles 9.03 and 9.30, in that such instrument does not contain notice to the contestee that it is the intention of contestants to file a petition in Court and use such Statement of Election Contest as the basis of a contest, which constitutes a jurisdictional prerequisite for the Court to consider the Petition for Election Contest, and, therefore, such Petition should be dismissed.

2. Contestee specially excepts to the Petition in its entirety on the ground that no notice in writing and no written statement of the ground or grounds upon which contestant relies to sustain the election contest was served on any of the officers or directors of the Bailey County Hospital District within thirty (30) days after the return day of the election and prior to the filing of this Petition, as required by the provisions of the Texas Election Code, which constitutes a jurisdictional prerequisite for the Court to consider the Petition for Election Contest, and, therefore, such Petition should be dismissed.

Clovis Authorities Stop Grain Thieves

Because a grain elevator operator became suspicious, and because of long hours of work by several law enforcement officers, a grain theft ring thought to encompass operations in at least four states has been halted in the area.

District Attorney Morris Stagner of Clovis said in a telephone interview with The Journal Thursday morning, "I think there is a need to alert feed yards and elevator operators in this area as to the large theft ring which has been operating."

"We have charged two persons, who are presently free on bond, and other charges are expected to be made shortly," he continued.

The district attorney said the law enforcement officers have uncovered operations of the sophisticated ring which has allegedly bilked grain dealers and feed lot operators of an estimated more than $1.5 million in the last three or four years.

He said details of the charges or the arrests could not be released at this time pending court hearings, but still felt grain dealers should be informed as to the techniques of the operations of the alleged ring.

The ring, which authorities has at least 10 members and perhaps as many as 17, is believed to be based in Colorado and has been known to operate in the past in Texas, California, and Arizona. Several known methods have been used, including night-time burglary of grain, tampering with scales at elevators and feedlots, bribery of weighmasters and use of false hoppers and false bottoms on the beds of grain trucks.

The false bottoms, authorities say, retain as much as 3,000 pounds of grain though the truck bed appears empty.

The two arrests climaxed an investigation by Stagner's office and state police. The pair

Man Rushed To Hospital After Wreck

Ben Franklin Kennedy, who recently moved to Oklahoma City from Tulsa was rushed to West Plains Memorial Hospital by Singleton ambulance Friday morning following a two vehicle accident approximately one mile east of Lariat on Highway 84. He was being treated for a possible broken neck late Friday. The driver of the other vehicle was not injured.

The accident occurred at approximately 9:25 a.m. Friday, when a 1965 Chevrolet driven by Terry Lee Stephens of Cannon Air Force Base, Clovis, was attempting to pass the 1959 Ford pickup driven by Kennedy.

Both vehicles were traveling east toward Muleshoe at the time with Kennedy driving on the outside lane and Stephens attempting to pass on the inside lane, according to investigating Highway Patrolman Mike Greer of Farwell. Greer said Stephens was passing Kennedy suddenly switched to the inside lane where the pickup was struck just behind the left front panel. He added, the pickup went into the median and rolled onto its left side before it stopped and Kennedy was not thrown out of the vehicle.

Passerby righted the pickup to remove Kennedy amid splattered jelly of some type. He apparently was hauling several jars of a red berry jelly or preserves and he and the pickup were liberally covered with the sticky substance.

Officer Greer said investigation is continuing.

was arrested by Texico town marshal B.F. Foster. Authorities say they know who some of the other members of the ring are and photographs of three were run in a recent Texas Department of Public Safety crime bulletin.

The three men whose pictures appeared in the DPS bulletin, have been convicted of grain theft at Holyoke, Colo., and are presently free on bond. The three, originally from Sterling, Colo., are suspected of stealing grain from elevators at night.

They are currently believed to be operating out of Lubbock, according to the bulletin.

Stagner said the ring in the past has bought grain both from individual farmers and elevators. It is then transported directly to feedlots where it is sold.

Their methods include installation of a "badger," an electronic device which is installed in the elevator scales and operated with a remote control radio to show a false weight on the scale.

Burglars Take Merchandise At Enochs Gin

Sheriff Dee Clements and Deputy Sheriff Ken Petree investigated a large scale burglary at the Enochs Co-op Gin this week, Wednesday morning, Bob Newton, gin manager, called the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center to report that several items had been taken the night before. He estimated the value of the missing items at approximately $2,332.71.

Taken in the burglary were four cases of AG Chemical of Caplan; four-five gallons of Lasso; two-five gallons of Treflan; two cases (12) one-quarts of Treflan; four quarts of treflan; one case Lorax; four bags Lorax; one case, two-one-gallons Hi-Yield Desimate; one calculator; one electric typewriter; 10 tires of various sizes; an unknown amount of tire tubes and a small electric radio.

Jack Little reported to the sheriff Wednesday morning, that a battery had been taken from his farm southwest of Muleshoe.

In another recent burglary, three rifles were taken from Poyner's White Auto. Taken were a 30-30 Winchester Centennial rifle; a Centennial Cowboy model rifle and a 22 Browning Lever Action rifle. Investigating officers were Sheriff Dee Clements, Deputy Sheriff Pete Black and City Patrolman Lee Simmons.

DeVaney's mother, Mrs. C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, who was donating the transplant kidney for her son, developed a kidney stone 3 1/2 hours before the scheduled surgery.

Had the stone-plagued kidney been transplanted, it could have been fatal to DeVaney, physicians said after calling off the transplant.

DeVaney is now scheduled to begin training on a home dialysis (artificial kidney) machine at Parkland on June 26 --

Acreage Increase Enhances Prospects

With much of the cotton in the county and area wind and storm damaged, and grain sorghum, corn and other field crops sustaining some degree of damage from blistering heat and sand, Harmon Elliott, president of the Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation reports a bright picture for vegetable growers in this area.

He said vegetable acreage for the area this year should be 1,700 - 2,000 acres, with this acreage variant, according to adverse weather for planting and crops that will be planted later.

Onions which are planted are being watered constantly, according to the MAIF president, and they are in the bulb stage at this time. Some of the onion producers include Dudley Malone, James Ensor, Houston Hart, Jimmy Kalbas, Edwin Lingnau, and possibly others.

Onion harvest will be underway by mid-July.

Approximately 430 acres of cucumbers are being commercially grown in this area. V.T. Tanner of Western Vegetables at Progress, has a remodeling and expansion program underway at the cucumber processing facility at Progress.

He said that concrete is being poured for a loading dock where the receiving machinery is located. The 40 X 50 foot loading dock is the first step in the expansion program.

Some of the cucumber producers include David Stovall, J.L. Calvert, J.B. Young, Loyd Williams, Tim Campbell, James Ensor and Billy Mayfield.

L.A. 'Lusky' Green, local vegetable producer said he will have slicer cucumbers for the fresh vegetable market this year, along with squash, beans, peas, and tomatoes as fresh vegetables.

Although he said he lost approximately 100 acres of tomatoes in the wind and sand which has been unremitting in this area, he is in the process of replacing the lost tomato crop and has presently planted back to peas and will add other vegetables.

Green said approximately 120 acres of tomatoes were undamaged in the recent storms

July 4 Parade To Feature Vietnam Vets

As an added attraction during the July 4th Parade, Parade Marshal Jeff Smith said a Vietnam Veteran float has been scheduled.

He said the names and addresses of all local Vietnam Veterans is being sought at this time. Smith commented that he presently has the names of eleven veterans, and would like for anyone who knows of a veteran to contact him to add their name to the list.

He also asked that all businesses possible to have a float in the parade, advertising some aspect of their particular business.

"We are striving to make the 1970 Celebration bigger and better in every way, therefore, we are inviting the Muleshoe businesses, as well as surrounding territories, to participate in the parade," he concluded.

Smith may be contacted at 272-4571 for information on the parade or with names of Vietnam Veterans.

DeVaney Transplant Cancelled Monday

(Editor's Note: The story below was taken from the Castro County News, Thursday, June 18, 1970 edition. It was written by Don Nelson and concerns Elvon DeVaney, a former Muleshoe resident.)

The scheduled kidney transplant for Elvon DeVaney of Dimmitt was called off Monday morning at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, just hours before he was to undergo surgery.

DeVaney's mother, Mrs. C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, who was donating the transplant kidney for her son, developed a kidney stone 3 1/2 hours before the scheduled surgery.

Had the stone-plagued kidney been transplanted, it could have been fatal to DeVaney, physicians said after calling off the transplant.

DeVaney is now scheduled to begin training on a home dialysis (artificial kidney) machine at Parkland on June 26 -- his 36th birthday -- and will use the machine indefinitely.

"Mrs. DeVaney had been completely X-rayed Sunday and no kidney stones had shown up," DeVaney's wife, Sue, said. "At 3:30 in the morning she started having back pains but wouldn't tell anybody because she was afraid it would stop the transplant."

"But later that morning the pain became so bad that she had to have help. As a result of her pain they did one final X-ray and discovered the kidney stone, then called off the operation. There won't be a transplant for at least a year now, and maybe not then."

DeVaney, a victim of Bright's Disease, had his kidneys removed last month. He is now back in his Dallas apartment, preparing to start his training on the home dialysis machine.

Answer...

 does not apprise contestee of the specific alleged fatalities and irregularities.

4. Contestee specially excepts to the allegations of Paragraph V of contestant's Petition on the following grounds:

(A) Such paragraph does not state the names of the 309 persons who are alleged to have been improperly permitted to vote and does not state or allege how each of such persons voted.

(B) By failing to allege the names of the persons who were allegedly improperly permitted to vote and how such persons voted, such paragraph does not sufficiently allege that the results of the election would have been different if the votes of such persons were not counted.

(C) No persons were permitted to vote in the election who were not qualified and entitled to vote under the laws and Constitution of the State of Texas and of the United States.

5. Contestee specially excepts to the provisions of Paragraph VI of said Petition on the following grounds:

(A) That, as specifically provided in the first paragraph of Article 2.02 of the Texas Election Code, the subdivisions (a) through (h) thereunder are applicable only in the absence of a specific statute.

Section 3(a) of the statute providing for the creation of the Bailey County Hospital District (H.B. 97; Article 4494q, V.A.C.S.; Acts 1969, 61st Legislature, page 253, Chapter 100), specifically provides:

"The election order may provide that the entire district shall constitute one election precinct or the county election precincts may be combined for elections."

An election precinct is simply a geographical division of a county, city or other political entity for election purposes.

The election order in this case was in strict conformity with all of the applicable statutory provisions in establishing two election precincts, as clearly and specifically stated in the election order, one election precinct consisting of county precincts 1, 1a, 2 and 3, with the polling place for such election precinct in the City Hall in Muleshoe, Texas, and the other election precinct consisting of county precincts 4, 5 and 6, with the polling place in the Needmore Community House in Needmore, Texas.

(B) Such paragraph does not state the names of any persons who are alleged to have been disenfranchised or deprived of the privilege of voting and does not state or allege how each of such persons would have voted.

(C) By failing to allege the names of the persons who are allegedly disenfranchised and how such persons would have voted, such paragraph does not sufficiently allege that the results of the election would have been different if such persons had not been deprived of the privilege of voting.

(D) As a matter of law, the allegations of such paragraph constitute no basis for a conclusion or finding that any voter was illegally disenfranchised or deprived or dispossessed of the privilege of voting.

6. Contestee specially excepts to the allegations of Paragraph VII of said Petition for the following reasons:

(A) Such paragraph does not allege that any person was denied the privilege of voting or that anyone who presented himself at the polls between 7:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. did not later vote during the day between 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

(B) Such paragraph does not state the names of the persons who are alleged to have been improperly denied or deprived of the right to vote and does not state or allege how each of such persons would have voted.

(C) By failing to allege the names of the persons alleged to have been improperly denied the privilege of voting and how each of such persons would have voted, such paragraph does not sufficiently allege that the results of the election would have been different if such persons had, in fact, voted.

(D) As a matter of law, the allegations of such paragraph constitute no basis for a conclusion or finding that any voter was illegally disenfranchised or deprived or dispossessed of the privilege of voting.

7. Contestee specially excepts to the allegations of Paragraph VIII of said Petition for the following reasons:

(A) That the allegations of said Paragraph VIII of the Petition to the effect that H.B. 97 and the election order issued thereunder are invalid and contrary to certain provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas are not matters which are within the jurisdiction of the Court in an election contest and do not constitute issues which can be considered or determined by the District Court in this election contest proceeding.

(B) In the alternative, contestee would show that H.B. 97 does not in any manner constitute a local or special law in violation of the provisions of the Texas Constitution.

(C) In the alternative, contestee would further show that there is no right to elect the directors of the district, particularly before the district has even been created and the district was created by the election of which contestant complains here.

(D) In the alternative, contestee would show that there is no constitutional or inherent right to elect officers or directors for the district and that the only right to an election for officers or directors are those derived from and provided by statute. In this case, the applicable statute is the statute providing for the creation of the Bailey County Hospital District (H.B. 97; Article 4494q, V.A.C.S.; Acts 1969, 61st Legislature, page 253, Chapter 100), and Section 4 (a) thereof names the nine persons who shall be and are hereby constituted temporary provisional directors of said District, and Section 4(c) provides, inter alia:

"At such time as the creation of the district is approved and the returns of the election officially canvassed, the persons then serving as temporary directors shall become permanent directors of the district, * * *"

Thus, the applicable statute in this case specifically provides that at this time there shall be no election of directors. Provision is made in Section 4 of said Act for election of directors as the terms of the current directors expire.

8. Contestee specially excepts to the allegations of Paragraph IX of said Petition for the following reasons:

(A) That the allegations of said Paragraph IX of the Petition to the effect that H.B. 97 and the election order issued thereunder are invalid and contrary to certain provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas are not matters which are within the jurisdiction of the Court in an election contest and do not constitute issues which can be considered or determined by the District Court in this proceeding.

(B) In the alternative, contestee would show that the Constitution does not absolutely require that a person shall have actually rendered property for taxation to the political subdivision holding the election in order to be qualified to vote, particularly where, as here, the taxing authority holding the election was not actually in existence prior to the election, and there were no tax rolls in existence, and no one could have possibly rendered property to such taxing authority, and no taxes had ever been levied by such taxing authority, and there were no taxes to pay, and under the Constitution of the State of Texas, a person may be duly and lawfully qualified to vote if he owns property which is subject to taxation within the geographical boundaries of the Bailey County Hospital District. In this connection, contestee would show that the persons referred as taxpaying electors in the Order Canvassing Returns and Declaring Result of Election for Creation of Hospital District and the Issuance of Bonds duly signed an affidavit attesting that they did own property subject to taxation by the Bailey County Hospital District, and they were duly and lawfully qualified to

9. Contestee denies all and singular the material allegations contained in said Petition and demands strict proof thereof.

10. Contestee would show that the election was fairly held and the results as shown in the Order Canvassing Returns expresses the true will of the majority of persons duly and lawfully qualified to vote in such election who voted in such election; that the Bailey County Hospital District was validly and legally created and the District has all the powers granted by the Act providing for the creation of said District, and that the election approving the issuance of $950,000 in bonds by the District is in all respects valid.

WHEREFORE, contestee prays that the Court dismiss the Petition for Election Contest, or, in the alternative, that the Court enter its order, decree and judgment declaring that the election approving creation of the Bailey County Hospital District and approving the issuance of bonds was in all respects valid and upholding such election and that contestee recover all its costs in this behalf expended.

 and he has 65-70 acres of tomatoes.

Commenting on the vegetable picture, Green added, "I have tomatoes and peppers in the blooming stage right now and the transplants look good. 'I expect to have a fairly good crop of vegetables and plan to plant 45 acres of cabbage around June 25 and another 15 around July 15.'"

He was asked how vegetable pickers added to the economy of the area, Green stated, "A good pepper picker, for instance, will make $25-$30 or even in some instances a little more. On a good picking, I will have 30 to 40 hands in the field. Using the $25 a day figure and 30 hands, that is a payroll of $750 a day from one field alone."

He added that pepper pickers are not hired by him, but are hired locally by the company which contracted his vegetable crops.

Potatoes will actually be the first local vegetables processed. Stan Barrett of Barrett produce is one potato grower. Others include Buck Gregory, Earl Schmitz and Robert Hooten. A spokesman for the potato growers said potato harvest will begin the last of June or first of July. He said the yield looks good and the price right now is good.

Tomatoes are usually a heavily produced vegetable in the area. Some of the tomato producers this year are Ernest Locker, L.A. Green, Arvis Grogan, W.Q. Casey and Byron Gwyn.

Omer Kelton is the area's largest producer of commercially grown pumpkins. Byron Gwyn also produces watermelons and Arvis Grogan is a carrot grower.

W.Q. Casey also grows peppers and there are possibly others who are not generally known at this time.

Carrot growers include James Ensor, Ed Nichols, Melvin Lingmau, Phil Garrett, Billy Mayfield, Huston Hart, Dudley Malone and Cecil Holt.

The MAIF president said work is still being done by the Industrial Foundation in an effort to secure a vegetable processing plant for this area. He said one plant they have checked has the mobility to handle 57 different varieties of vegetables and another not only processes vegetables, in season, but processes meat and poultry during winter months to keep from having a seasonal shutdown.

With the added vegetable producer market in the area, he, along with others attempting to secure industry for Muleshoe, feel that a vegetable processing plant would be one of the most feasible industries for the area.

If good weather holds, vegetable growers should have top yields from all vegetables produced in the general consensus.

 In some cases, authorities suspect, a confederate has hidden in the scales to adjust them so they give a false reading. In using the false bottom trucks, the driver compensates for the weight of the grain by leaving one truck wheel off the scales.

Authorities warned farmers, grain dealers and feedlot operators to be on the alert for signs of the operation.

"There aren't too many of these private haulers around," one investigator said, "it wouldn't hurt to check with the authorities anytime one contacts you."

He also said some persons selling grain to the operators deliver grain at off hours, early in the morning or in the evening, on a proposal involving sale at a few cents under the market price. Without a full crew working, they sometimes are able to defraud a dealer; for example, by sending in five trucks, driving three away while the two others repeatedly go over the counter.

Those individuals without faith in anything or anyone give evidence against themselves.

Adventures in ADVERTISING
 The story of P. K. Wrigley and THE LOCOMOTIVE

One day P. K. Wrigley was riding on a train with a friend and the conversation turned to the chewing gum business. The friend, who had an eye for saving a penny, suggested now that Wrigley chewing gum was so well known and had such a large distribution that it might be wise to dispense with the advertising, save that expense and make that much additional profit.

"I could ask the conductor of this train the same question," replied the financial genius, "This train is now going 60 miles per hour, so why not disconnect the engine? Advertising in merchandising is what a locomotive is to a train. It is the power which keeps it going."

1969 was the temperature logged at 100 degrees and that was June 22. To date in 1970, three days in June have been at least 100 degrees.

Moisture in 1970 on June 20 is 2.68 for the year and for June 20 in 1969 it was 8.67.

It's drier and warmer in the Muleshoe country these days-- and air conditioners are working overtime.

The Sandhills

Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes an optimistic view of things this week, more or less.

Dear editor: Some people are saying the world was never in as bad a shape as it is now, but as I sit out here on this Johnson grass farm and examine it through the newspapers I wonder about that.

For example, take the astronauts. No sooner do they get a good look at what's outside the world out there in forlorn space and get safely back than they take a desk job in Washington or run for some office, here on the good earth.

Things have a way of balancing out. Take the colleges. According to an article I read last night, over 300 college presidencies are vacant, just not enough capable men willing to take on the job, even with combat pay. Yet what happens? College riots shut down about that many universities and so, what's the problem?

Or take government employees. For years they dreaded to see Washington's birthday for example fall on Saturday or Sunday, thus knocking them out of what otherwise would have been an extra holiday.

So what happens? They convince Congress it's the holiday, not the birthday, that counts, so now if the birthday falls on Saturday they get Friday off; if on Sunday, they get Monday off. I don't care what the problem is, if a man thinks long and hard enough, there's a solution, although I don't know what would have happened if Washington and Lincoln had been born on the same day of the month, or if Columbus had arrived here on Christmas. I presume however that Washington has a commission drawing up emergency plans in the event some future holiday-worthy hero gets born on an established holiday.

The problem wouldn't come up however if they'd put me in charge of declaring holidays. I declare one whenever I feel like it, having no patience with a man who waits till Congress tells him when to go fishing. What does Congress know about when the fish are biting?

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

It is positively surprising what some people will do in the expectation of a monetary gain.

Senior Citizens will meet Monday, June 22, at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall at 2 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. K.D. Patzer and son, Bart, attended the New Mexico State Chiropractic Convention in Ruidoso last weekend.

Guests with the Patzers were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hicks, Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Payne, Floydada and Brad Carver, Littlefield.

Mrs. Lula Kistler and daughter, Mrs. Ethel Arwin of Floydada, have returned from a week's stay in Topeka, Kansas where they attended the Vintzant family reunion. Mrs. Kistler, who is 90 years of age was the oldest of the 82 members present. The family members came from eight states between Michigan and California.

CLAUDE PEPPER
Congressman (D-Fla): "During the remainder of the year we want to explore the link between poverty, narcotics, gambling and organized crime."

The Elvon DeVaney Emergency Fund which has been started at the First State Bank now stands at $798.24, all of which has been raised by student organizations and through voluntary donations. The figure does not include the net profit from the recent Miss Dimmitt Pageant, which the Jayceece have pledged to fund. The final profit figure on the pageant has not yet been determined.

Contributions to the fund are being accepted at the First State Bank and the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

DeVaney told the News Wednesday morning that he was still optimistic after his transplant was cancelled Monday morning.

"I really wasn't disappointed when the transplant didn't go through and I don't know why I wasn't," he said. "I never could believe it could ever really happen -- it was just too good to be true."

He added, "I'm going to go to work on that machine and try to set a record for learning how to use it. I want to get back to West Texas -- I sure miss the folks in Dimmitt."

He said he's anxious to find what the future holds for himself and other victims of kidney problems.

"The technology they're developing and the things they're learning about the kidneys through research, is fantastic," he said. "They're coming up with new findings almost every day all over the world."

"I'd like to have it the other way and be normal, but the good Lord didn't see it that way, so I'm going to check it on Him. That's the way I feel, I think everything that's happened so far was meant to be, so I'm going to ride with it."

DeVaney, who is the Texas operations manager for Western Vegetables, Inc., of La Junta, Colo., was named Dimmitt's "Outstanding Young Man" this year for his work as a Jaycee, advisor to the Dimmitt Teen Club, justice of the peace, volunteer fireman and Chamber of Commerce director.

DeVaney's address is Lemonwood Inn, 3524 Inwood Road, Apt. 627, Dallas, 75209.

Miss Linda Ashford Wed To Jimmy Bruton

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bruton

A double ring ceremony, June 12 at 8:00 p.m. in the Trinity Baptist Church of Muleshoe, united Miss Linda Carol Ashford and Jimmy Muriel Bruton, Rev. V.L. Huggins officiated at the ceremony that was read beneath an archway of greenery and wedding bells. Heart shaped candelabras stood on each side of the kneeling bench. The pews were marked by wedding bells.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Ashford of Muleshoe and the groom is the son of Mrs. John Bruton and the late Mr. Bruton of Muleshoe.

Traditional music was provided by Miss Becky Sain, organist, who accompanied Mr. Lonnie Merriott, cousin of the bride, as he sang "More" and "The Twelfth of Never".

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an A-line, formal length gown of white bridal satin fashioned with Venetian lace on the three-quarter length sleeves and around the neckline. The gown featured a chapel length train of white satin fastened at the neckline. Her illusion veil was attached to a headpiece of peau-de-soie bows accented with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and love knots atop a white Bible. Her traditional something old was a gold pin belonging to her maternal great-grandmother. Something new was her dress and white Bible. She borrowed a silk handkerchief from her Matron of Honor. Something blue was the traditional blue garter. For luck, the bride wore in her shoe a penny minted in the year of her birth.

Mrs. Larry Bynum, Muleshoe, was Matron of Honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Narssia Otwell, also of Muleshoe. They were attired in street length dresses of white bonded lace over blue. The dresses were styled with short, flared sleeves and empire waists featuring white satin sashes ending in bows. They carried bouquets of blue pom poms with streamers.

Judy Bruton, sister of the groom and Lynial Ashford, brother of the bride, both of Muleshoe, lighted the candles. Best man was Leroy Maxwell of Muleshoe. Groomsman was Doug Lane of Kress, Ronald Ashford, brother of the bride and Jacky Bruton, brother of the groom, seated the guests.

The Fellowship Hall of the Trinity Baptist Church was the setting for the reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Ronald Ashford, Canyon, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests. The reception table, laid with an underskirt of blue and an overskirt of white net appliqued with white satin wedding bells, was decorated with a memory candle and the bridal bouquet. Miss Becky Sain and Miss Debbie Sain, both of Muleshoe, served the punch from cut crystal appointments. The extended three tiered cake was served with the bride and groom's silver knife.

House guests were: Miss Judy Clements, Dalhart; Miss Cynthia Johnson, Llano; Miss Gladys Pinkert, Ropesville and Miss Jeanne Bruce, Estelline.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the bride wore a light blue dress of textured polyester with white patent accessories. She lifted an orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Bruton is a 1968 graduate of Muleshoe High School, and attended South Plains College and Texas Tech University where she was a Home Economics major. The groom is a 1968 graduate of Muleshoe High School. He is a junior Management Science major at West Texas University. Beginning in August, he will become the director of Terril at West Texas State University. Both will attend West Texas in the fall.

REHEARSAL
A rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. John Bruton, Thursday, June 11, at the Corral Restaurant. A salad supper was served to the members of the wedding party and guests.

Vows Pledged In Littlefield Ceremony

Miss Jean Lanell Davis, Littlefield, and Michael A. Richardson, Bula, were united in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. on June 12, in the Crescent Park Church of Christ at Littlefield.

The couple stood before an altar of candles flanked on each side by baskets of blue and white gladiolus as Bob Wear officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Davis, Littlefield. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ashel Richardson, Bula.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of silk organza trimmed with French alencon lace. It featured a sabrina neckline and long sleeves which puffed at the shoulder. A Watteau train, trimmed with lace, was attached at the waistline with a small bow. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a flower of Bordonne lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with French lace on which her tapered bouquet of white French carnations was attached.

The bride's attendants wore sleeveless, floor length gowns of pale blue French Chantilly lace with empire waistlines and jeweled necklines. Their headpieces were of silk illusion attached to a blue carnation. They carried long stem-white carnation with blue streamers attached.

Mrs. Dennis Turney served as Matron of Honor and Miss Margaret Richardson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.

Dennis Turney, Enochs, was best man and Ronald Dennis, Denver City, was groomsman. Ushers were Glen Davis, brother of the bride, and L.D. Holt, both of Littlefield. David Davis, brother of the bride, served as candlelighter.

Mrs. Johnny Hall of Bula registered guests.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by the wedding chorus of the Littlefield Church of Christ, directed by Alvis Jones. Special selections were "The Twelfth of Never", "Whither Thou Goest" and

"The Lords Prayer".

For her daughters' wedding, Mrs. Davis wore a pastel blue sheer dacron voile dress, with embossed, flocked flowers and a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the groom wore a princess styled dress of blue dacron knit with bone accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. Miss Lanet Gilly and Miss Connie Wimberley, both of Littlefield served the guests. They were assisted by Miss Jeneane Huffman and Miss Betty Baldwin, also of Littlefield. The reception table was covered with a cloth of white net over blue satin accented with satin bows and wedding bells. The table was centered with a candelabra and the bride's corsage. A three tiered wedding cake, nuts, mints and punch were served to the guests.

For their wedding trip to Ruidoso, the bride chose a two piece suit of white dacron knit with a pale blue sash and matching blue accessories. Her corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After their honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Littlefield.

"Softness" is The News in dresses that go from April into summer. It begins with soft, supple fabrics: wonderful polyester knits with crepey look and feel, fluid jerseys, soft voiles. Such fabrics are perfect for the new soft styling: the blousey tops, blousey sleeves, easy tied and belted waistlines—skirts swinging softly with pleats and flares. It all adds up to a big fashion change, say fashion buyers. a completely new look—keyed to the word — "SOFTNESS".

Water Plans In Working Says Water, Inc.

ABILENE -- Implementation of the Texas Water Plan at the earliest possible date was urged today by Water, Inc. K. B. "Tex" Watson of Amarillo, President of the non-profit organization, told members of the Texas Water Resources Study Committee that the water plan is flexible enough to provide future water for all of Texas.

Watson testified at the committee's hearings in Abilene today (June 18). The committee, created by the last special session of the state legislature, is looking into all phases of the state's water problem, and specifically into methods of interim financing for implementation of the Texas Water Plan.

In a detailed position testimony for the more than 2,000-member organization, Watson urged support for water resource research centers at Texas University, Texas Tech, Texas A&M and the University of Houston; called for a study of the effects of agricultural chemicals on the quality of water; and recommended the revocation of interest rate limitations from water development bonds.

Watson emphasized that beneficiaries of the Texas Water Plan are not looking for a "handout" and assured the committee that West Texans in particular will pay their share of the cost of implementing the plan.

The Water, Inc., testimony supported the banning of agricultural chemicals which studies show to be a significant hazard to health, but opposed a wholesale banning of chemicals without factual showing of significant detriment to the quality of water and health.

The water study committee will make a report of its findings and recommendations to the legislature early next year.

LIFE'S OBSTACLES

We can easily see physical obstacles such as logs, boulders, and many other things that may be too difficult for our children to handle, but things that are not physical are not always so obvious. A young child needs help from his parents in spiritual matters too. The church can be an influence on children's lives, but when you, a parent, are taking part in church worship, you can be an even greater influence. Give your children, the leaders of the future, a hand now when they need it most. Take them to church regularly . . . and you too, will have a fuller and better life.

We have been working on the 4th of July Celebration. I think it will be one of the best celebrations we've ever had. The cooperation has been splendid. Dad's Camping Trailer will be given away Saturday, and as we have said before, we were shooting for one hundred, and our final count was one hundred twelve participants.

We have placed a number of students in our Youth Employment Service, and last week we had a call from Portales, New Mexico inquiring about our Youth Employment Service, and we referred him to one of our applicants from Three-Way. This is an indication of the wide area we are reaching, and the reason for this of course is the fine publicity we are getting with the Muleshoe Journal and Radio Station KMUL.

Thanks to Cross Roads Cafe for free meal to Tourist of Week, Holt's Fina for free tank of gas and Highland Motel for free nights lodging.

SWPS Prepares For Electricity Summer Usage

"Don't hold back. Use all the electric power you want whenever and wherever you want in the 45,000 square mile area that we serve. There is no electric power shortage in this part of the country," Roy Tolk, president of the Southwestern Public Service Company, said today.

The statement of the electric company president was made as a result of frequent articles in national magazines and other media which leave the implication that the whole nation faces a power shortage not only this year but "in the decade ahead", as one publication put it.

"At the end of last year, when we announced our plans to invest $25,000,000 in new plant and equipment this year, I said, 'there'll be no black-outs in our service area in 1970.' That still goes. I'll add at this time that there won't be any in the future, either, as long as we have the right to plan our own future without outside interference. We have a responsibility to meet the electric service needs of this area and we have done the planning required to carry out that responsibility," Tolk continued.

Southwestern Public Service Company has generating capability reserves that are 18% greater than the peak load which has been predicted for 1970. "That's like saying you have $118 put aside to pay a $100 bill that you owe," Tolk pointed out.

Adequate reserves are normally considered to be generating capability that is equal to the largest single generating unit on your system. Southwestern's reserve capability for 1970 exceeds that margin of safety by nearly 100,000 kilowatts.

RADAR FINDS TV'S

London—Electronic sleuths, operating in trucks with special equipment, are beaming in on Britons who are watching television without paying their fees. A popular time for catching watchers is during a soap opera program, "Coronation Street." TV users are supposed to pay between $14.40 to $26.60 a year.

Southwestern is already looking down the line at its next 500,000 kilowatts of electric generating capability. At the present time, a 210,000 kilowatt unit, the first in a new facility southeast of Lubbock, is under construction and is scheduled to go into service in mid-1971. Projected units of 283,000 kilowatts of capability are in the planning stage for 1973 and beyond.

"With the help of our area development department and in cooperation with other local industrial development groups, I have started to write to presidents of some companies and to telephone others whose organizations are interested in expansion to tell them of the availability of electric power and other resources in this area. We have outstanding people, lots of space for expansion, a superb climate and energy reserves. Not many areas can say that these days and all of us should work to benefit from these advantages," Tolk concluded.

A Son's Tribute

by J.W. Layton, Jr.

James Walter Layton, Sr., was born in '89, in the Longhorn state of Texas. He was a bronc-bustin' cowboy Before he was old enough to pay taxes.

He lost his father at an early age And became the family's winner of bread and butter. A capacity he was given for hard work For his mother, younger sisters, and brother.

He started his learning, but it was cut short; This he made up by wisdom and work. When relatives and friends seek his counsel, This respected duty he will never shirk.

Papa Layton, as he prefers to be called, Grew up among the pioneers of Palo Pinto County. Ever since the turn of the century, Lasting friendships and visits are his bounty 1923 saw Papa Layton with wife and three children, In three covered wagons moving to the west. He needed room for an ambitious expansion, In farming and ranching where he is his best.

He adheres to and believes in brotherly love As taught by his Masonic lodge. He is happy when a neighbor asks for help; Love for his family he will never dodge.

On west to Muleshoe in 1944, Adding to his holdings until his hands were full; Here he still is found at his happiest While looking at a young calf or old bull.

Papa Layton may labor six days a week And may have occasion to call a spade a spade, But in spite of not being "caught up" by Sunday, He will be in church as though the crop is made. We all so dearly love him, Although I am not done writing now; Must at this time call a halt Because Papa is ready to look at a cow.

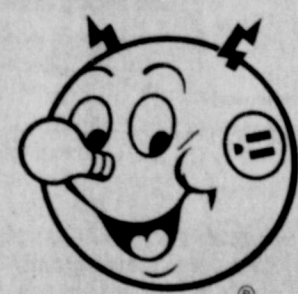

Walter Layton is a great and most colorful man, The best that West Texas has ever had. His whole family is mighty proud That we can call him Dad.
