COMMUNIST LEADERS COME UP FOR TRIAL—Indicted last July, 12 leaders of the Communist Party will go on trial in New York today. The 12 are charged with conspiracy to overthrow the United States government. Included are top officials of the party: Chairman William Z. Foster, General Secretary Eugene Dennis, Labor Secretary John Williamson and Organizational Secretary Henry Winston. Others are Jack Stachel, Communist Party propagandist; John Gates, editor of the party's newspaper, Daily Worker; Irving Potash, chairman of the New York Joint Board of the CIO's Fur and Leather Workers' Union, and New York City Councilman Benjamin J. Davis. Rounding out the list are the chairmen of the party in four states: Carl Winter, Michigan; Gilbert Green, Illinois; Robert Thompson, New York, and Gus Hall, Ohio.

NATIONS' 12 TOP REDS TRIED FOR CONSPIRACY

NEW YORK (AP)—Trial of 12 top Communist Party leaders, accused of working for the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government, opened at 9:43 a. m. (CST) today. Only 11 of the defendants were present. Missing was William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist Party, whose attorneys previously had indicated he would not appear because of illness. A large police guard stood by to preserve order as the controversial court case got underway. More than 400 police and federal agents have been assigned to prevent disorderly demonstrations of alleged subversive activities and Communist espionage. They are free in $5,000 bail each. The defendants, in addition to Foster, are: Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the American Communist Party; Benjamin J. Davis Jr., Negro Communist member of the New York City Council; John Gates, editor of the Daily Worker, Communist newspaper; Robert G. Thompson, New York State Communist Party chairman; John Williamson, the party's labor secretary; Jack Stachel, national education director; Henry Winston, national organizing secretary; Irving Potash, manager of the party's newspaper, Daily Worker. The trial was postponed last November because Foster, 67, was suffering a heart ailment. He and his eleven co-defendants are charged with conspiracy to organize a party advocating overthrow of the government by force and violence. U. S. District Judge Harold R. Medina will open the sealed reports, filed by two doctors last Wednesday, stating whether Foster is in physical condition to stand the trial, which is expected to last at least two months. Defensive attorneys have said Foster would not be on hand today when the case is called. If the two court-appointed physicians' findings are the same as last November, U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey is expected to move for a separate trial later for Foster and for immediate start of the trial of the other eleven. Defense attorneys are expected to contend that Foster is a vital defense witness and that trial of the co-defendants cannot proceed without him. Besides ruling in the separate trial, Judge Medina will decide a defense motion challenging the jury panel. Defense counsel contends the panel is composed of the "rich, propertied and well-to-do," and that Negroes, Jews and members of other minority groups are excluded. The defendants—who com-

Two Die in Road Crash At Wheeler

WHEELER—One man was killed instantly and a woman died a short time later in Wheeler Hospital from injuries in a truck-crash near here at 9:15 p. m. Saturday. Tom McAllister, 31, Dumas, died in the crash and Mrs. Willie Wisdom, 32, Borger, died shortly after admittance to the hospital. C. F. Henry, 32, Borger, another passenger in the car, was hospitalized with a back injury and cuts around the face and head. State Highway Patrolmen investigating said Willie Wisdom, also of Borger, was traveling east on Highway 152 enroute to Hobart, Okla., when he struck the left rear end of a stalled truck west of Wheeler. The driver of the truck, John Weeks, had parked the truck on the side of the road when it developed engine trouble. He left the clearance lights on and walked to Wheeler for aid. The truck was also headed toward Wheeler. Wisdom, apparently uninjured, had his wife and McAllister, her 16-year-old son, in the front seat. C. F. Henry, the injured man, was sitting alone on the rear seat. The accident was described as "unavoidable" by Wheeler County Sheriff Jess Swink. McAllister's body was shipped to Stamford and Mrs. Wisdom's body to Borger. An ambulance took Jimmy to the hospital. His 29-year-old mother was taken to jail. She has been charged with lunacy. Jimmy's eight-year-old brother has been placed in a foster home by juvenile authorities.

Child Sees Only Affection After Mother's Brutality

DALLAS (AP)—Jimmy Karmicki aged three, sees only affection by day through eyes clawed by his mother. His world now is a white hospital bed in a ward where nurses laughingly order "hug my neck." Four days have made a big difference in the life of the chubby, tow-headed boy. Dallas County Sheriff Bill Decker found the boy Thursday, cringing on the rumpled bed of his one-room plywood home in West Dallas and drinking milk from a nipple-equipped soft pop bottle. "I'll never forget it," Decker says. "Blood was running from both his eyes." An ambulance took Jimmy to the hospital. His 29-year-old mother was taken to jail. She has been charged with lunacy. Jimmy's eight-year-old brother has been placed in a foster home by juvenile authorities.

UnAmerican Committee Is Legal Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—A pay raise and a new secretary of state for President Truman were ticketed for quick approval today in a Congress bucking down to work after two weeks of getting started.

And House Democrats called a meeting to okay their committee assignments and a shake-up that boosts two Southern Democrats off the UnAmerican Activities Committee and puts on an all-lawyer team. Speaker Rayburn told reporters a bill boosting the presidential salary a third, from $75,000 to $100,000 a year, would pass the House easily. Then it goes to Mr. Truman for his signature. Senate leaders said they would roll up a big vote, too, for Dean Acheson to be secretary of state. That, expected tomorrow, will be the first presidential nomination confirmed by the new 81st Congress.

So far Congress hasn't had much to do because it has lacked legislative machinery—the committees where bills are worked over, changed and then sent to the floor for a vote. The delay has been in the House, where the committee problem is bigger. More members and more newcomers had to be taken care of. House Democrats finished their part of the job Saturday by filling up the UnAmerican Activities Committee. Republicans were expected to finish theirs today.

HST Asks to Reorganize Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to give him permanent authority to reorganize the government. The president's message to Congress said he needs the power to shift government agencies in order to promote "efficient and economical conduct of the public's business." The president emphasized: 1. The reorganization legislation "should be permanent rather than temporary." 2. The act should be "comprehensive in scope, no agency or function of the executive branch should be exempted from its operation." The Hoover Commission recently recommended that the President have authority to reorganize the government subject to Congressional veto, be restored. The commission, headed by former President Hoover, is studying ways to improve operations of the government. Under the President's recommendation, reorganization submitted to Congress would become effective in 60 days unless rejected by both Senate and House.

U. N. Group To Supervise Kashmir Vote

AP FOREIGN AFFAIRS ANALYST BY DEWITT MACKENZIE We owe the United Nations a debt of gratitude for securing an armistice in the Kashmir crisis which threatened to plunge the Indian peninsula into conflict. The warring dominions of India and Pakistan—both eager to absorb this huge, rich state—have grounded arms. There is to be a plebiscite to determine which of the two dominions should have the right to join. For it is essential that they attach themselves to one or the other. The British in granting independence to the whole Indian peninsula strongly urged that the plebiscite be supervised by one of the dominions. The U. N. commission, having made its peaceful report, is now success, is heading back to supervise the voting. A highly interesting but delicate aspect of this situation is that the commission will have to work with the Maharajah of Kashmir, His Highness Sir Hari Singh. He is the autocratic and haughty ruler of some 4 million people. His state, which is one of the world's beauty spots, is nearly as large as Great Britain and provides an annual income running up to $175 million. (See U. N. GROUP, Page 8)

County Gets $85,000 For Hospital Aid

The girls in the Courthouse were given a thrill Saturday by County Auditor Ray Wilson when he let them hold a check to the county for $85,654.69. The check, issued from the office of the state comptroller, was the first of several checks on federal aid for Highland General Hospital. Yes, it has been deposited.

Capital Is All Dressed Up For Inaugural Festivities

WASHINGTON (AP)—This 150-year-old federal city just about finished dressing up today for the nation's 41st inaugural ceremony—one that may go down in history as the most festive of all. Out-of-town visitors who began streaming in for an entire week of celebrating saw a mass of white enveloping the stand and seats built in front of the great-domed Capitol where Harry S. Truman and Alben W. Barkley will take the oath as president and vice president Thursday at noon (EST). They saw the circus seats of more somber hue stretched out along well-trod Pennsylvania Avenue awaiting some of the 700,000 or more persons expected to see all or part of the formal launching of the Truman "fare deal." Lamp posts clutch American flags and blue-gold presidential seals on shields of wood. Another great white pine-boarded stand has been constructed in front of the White House where the President will watch a two-and-a-half-hour parade of troops, cadets, bands, and state floats in which 40,000 persons will take part. The "Avenue of Patriots," that

Today Is Deadline For Many Taxpayers

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is a deadline tonight for many taxpayers. Ordinarily it would have been Saturday—Jan. 15—but it was extended until midnight tonight since the original deadline fell on a day when the government closes up shop. It's the last chance to file federal income tax returns on 1948 income or correcting declarations filed earlier. For farmers it will be their first contract with 1948 taxes. Farmers whose income exceeded $800 must declare the amount.

Nationalists Mass Troops For Defense

NANKING (AP)—The Chinese government today massed about 150,000 troops on a 300-mile front in what neutral military observers describe as a hopeless effort to defend Nanking. Communist armies with a total strength of more than 300,000 troops already are poised north of the Hwai River, 105 miles to the northwest, for a descent to the Yangtze River valley. Meanwhile, it was learned authoritatively that the Chinese navy Sunday night evacuated the government garrison from Tangku, export port for the North China commercial center of Tientsin. Tientsin, 27 miles west of Tangku, fell to the Reds Saturday. Earlier, Nationalist evacuation of Pengpu was officially announced. The government's final abandonment of Pengpu and evacuation of towns north of Pengpu's flanks have yielded to the Reds necessary river crossing areas. Pengpu, anchor of the erstwhile Hwai River defense line, has been outflanked by the Reds for a month. Nationalist headquarters were pulled back to Chushien, 30 miles northwest of Nanking, as early as Dec. 17. Troops have been following since. Realization of the government's weak military position is spurring active appeals by the general public and official bodies for government action to bring about a peace settlement with the Communists. (In North China, a peace delegation prepared to leave Peiping today for cease-fire talks with the Reds amid indications of a climax approaching in Peiping, a peace settlement with the Communists. (The government's North China commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi, provided the delegation with transportation and an escort to the Nationalist perimeter. Fu's own newspaper in Peiping conceded the presence of the Reds are victorious in North China.) Members of China's Legislative Yuan and the National Assembly in Nanking have again appealed for swift government efforts to obtain an "honorable peace."

Big-Money Bill Readied

AUSTIN (AP)—Speedy passage of the 51st Legislature's first emergency big-money bill was forecast as the session went into its second week today. The lawmakers also faced the routine but essential job of declaring Beauford H. Jester was elected Governor last November, and Allan Shivers lieutenant governor. Jester and Shivers will be officially inducted to office in Tuesday's inaugural ceremonies. First urgent legislative business this week was consideration of an emergency request from Gov. Jester for appropriation of $8 million to make up a shortage in rural school aid funds. A bill to put up the money has already been filed in the Senate. By Grover C. Morris of Greenville, it would appropriate $3 million for the 1947-48 school year and $6 million for the current year. It is designed to make up last year's shortage and to fill anticipated needs for this year. The last Legislature two years ago made it easier for schools to qualify for what is generally termed "rural aid" or "equalization aid." These are schools where local support plus regular state aid is not enough. Money appropriated by the 50th Legislature was found to be insufficient and many schools in the classification had to borrow cash to "finish out the year." Gov. Jester refused to call a special session to make up the shortage, saying he would submit the matter as emergency legislation at the 51st regular session.

Election Contest Already Filed, Stevenson Says

AUSTIN (AP)—Former Governor Coke Stevenson insists he has contested Lyndon B. Johnson's right to sit in the U. S. Senate. He challenged a recent statement attributed to Sen. Francis J. Myers, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Elections, to the effect that no contest has been filed with the Senate. In a telegram yesterday to Myers, Stevenson said the Senate committee had before it court records which he said showed "fraudulent votes in favor of Johnson sufficient to more than account for his majority." "If anything else is needed to invoke your jurisdiction, please advise what it is," Stevenson said. Stevenson was referring to records growing out of his U. S. District Court effort to block certification of Johnson's name as the Democratic nominee for senator last fall. The U. S. Supreme Court held that the district court had no jurisdiction. In the general election, Stevenson supported Jack Porter, the Republican nominee for senator, records which he said showed "fraudulent votes in favor of Johnson sufficient to more than account for his majority."

BUNCHE SEEKS PEACE FOR ALL MIDDLE EAST

RHODES (AP)—A United Nations spokesman says Dr. Ralph Bunche has launched a general peace offensive in the Middle East. The spokesman for the acting U. N. mediator added, however, that other Arab states will not be invited to take part in talks now progressing here between Israelis and Egyptians. Dr. Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation, said in an interview today that Israel wants an armistice throughout the Middle East, but does not want any other Arab states to join in the Rhodes talks. (A reliable source in Tel Aviv said Israel, which has been discussing armistice talks with Lebanon, as well as Egypt, now has begun similar talks with Trans-Jordan.) The U. N. spokesman said last night the Israelis and Egyptians have reached agreement on one of the most controversial points of their current armistice negotiations. The spokesman would not disclose the point on which the two sides had reached agreement. The chief subjects in which agreement is sought are the fate of the Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluja pocket, the withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Negev and a reduction in the armed strength of both sides in Palestine.

Panhandle Lumbermen Meet Here

The largest delegation of lumbermen ever to meet in the Texas Panhandle held an annual meeting at the Pampa Country Club Saturday night. There were 128 members of the Panhandle Lumbermen's Club in attendance, who witnessed the election and installation of 14 officers of Panhandle district of the international organization. W. F. Ford, Amarillo, manager of the Panhandle Lumber Company, was installed as president; Lynn Boyd, Pampa, first vice president; Herman Steele, Dalhart, second vice president; and Elbert Lamb, Amarillo, secretary-treasurer. New board members include John R. Armstrong, retiring president, Dave Alexander, Henry Ellis, Jack Sullivan and Mark Clemmer. Boyd, supreme Jaberwork of the Panhandle club, presided over the meeting. He was elected one of the nine supreme Jaberworks at the convention in Los Angeles in September. His jurisdiction extends over Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Texas. LeRoy Stanton, supreme Jaberwork, Los Angeles, is "Snart of the Universe," corresponding president. Other Jaberworks live in Chicago, New York City, Washington, D. C., Seattle, St. Cloud, Minn., Jackson, Mo., and Port Arthur, Canada. Twenty-seven "kittens" were taken into the club and four former members were reinstated. The kittens took the club's pledge in unison, after which the principles of Hoo-Hoo were read. The 57-year-old organization is founded on fellowship. Boyd read the code of ethics of the club and various members gave short discussions of the club's nine principles—fraternal, helpful, grateful, friendly, tolerant, progressive, industrious, ethical and loyal. The next convention of the group will be Sept. 9 at Kansas City. The recent enlargement of the Panhandle club to meet in Pampa for the first time. Following the business session four films were shown, including "White Magic," 1948 Football, World Series and "Music With Spice."

Inauguration Is Unsettled

AUSTIN (AP)—Whether the inauguration of Gov. Beauford H. Jester tomorrow will have to be moved inside is as unsettled today as the weather in Austin. The official forecast for tomorrow was continued cold and cloudy. At midmorning today the temperature was 25 degrees and ice and glazing conditions were beginning to form. Workmen are waiting until late this evening to start putting up the speakers platform and draped lighting. The Governor's office said the inaugural ceremony would be moved inside to the House of Representatives if it rained. The House can seat 3,000 persons in an absolute maximum. And if it's not raining but very cold—that's for the legislators to decide. It's their show, the Governor's office explained, and they may decide as late as tomorrow morning to move the ceremony inside. Gregory Gymnasium on the University of Texas campus was mentioned as a possible site.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

Mrs. Mary Flasher, who is with the Columbus Citizen in Columbus, O., made the nice suggestion that I select six out of the many good bridge players in that city and write up a bridge hand for them. To start the series, I am giving you today's interesting hand, played by Mrs. Flasher herself. When West opened the nine of hearts and dummy went down, it looked as if Mr. Flasher (South) would have to lose a spade, a heart, and possibly two clubs, depending upon the location of the ace.

The lead of the nine of hearts indicated that West did not hold the queen or jack, so Mrs. Flasher played low from dummy and won the trick in her own hand with the king. Now she led the king of spades. East won this trick with the ace and returned the queen of hearts, which Mrs. Flasher won with the ace. She then took two more rounds of spades, picking up the opponents' trumps, and cashed out the three diamonds.

She did not want to have to guess where the ace of clubs was, and she knew where the jack of hearts was. So at this point she led the four of hearts, played the ten from dummy, and East won with the jack.

Now East was helpless. He had no hearts or spades. If he returned a diamond, it would give Mrs. Flasher a ruff and a discard. She would be able to discard her three of clubs and ruff in dummy. East's only alternative was to cash the ace of clubs, pretty as the day they were married, that they're always the best looking woman at a party, etc., that wives sort get in the habit of thinking their husbands don't really see them as they are.

Best Black Dress Is Thrifty Buy

The woman who in spite of the season's temptations to wear colored dresses clings to beloved blacks probably knows what she is about.

She does, if she chooses the best black dress that she can afford to buy. The trick is in the dress, the fabric, the dye that makes the fabric black. A good dye means that color will be deep, strong and flattering to begin with; will continue to remain so after a dress has had repeated cleanings.

The more simply-styled the black dress is, the more expensive it is apt to be. Simple line calls for the use of quality material and fine workmanship. But the argument for the simple dress is that it can be kept indefinitely in wardrobe service, which in the long run spells economy for the woman on a budget.

If she is mature in years, she proves that she knows what she's about in picking black by the way she contrives to relieve its somberness. She will dispel any gloomy look of all-black by winding ropes and ropes of gold chains around the neckline of her dress or have more fun by mixing ropes of pearls with strands of colored beads. Such highlights are not only fashionable tricks to use this fall but are simple ones, the where-withal for which can be dug up out of a box of costume trinkets.

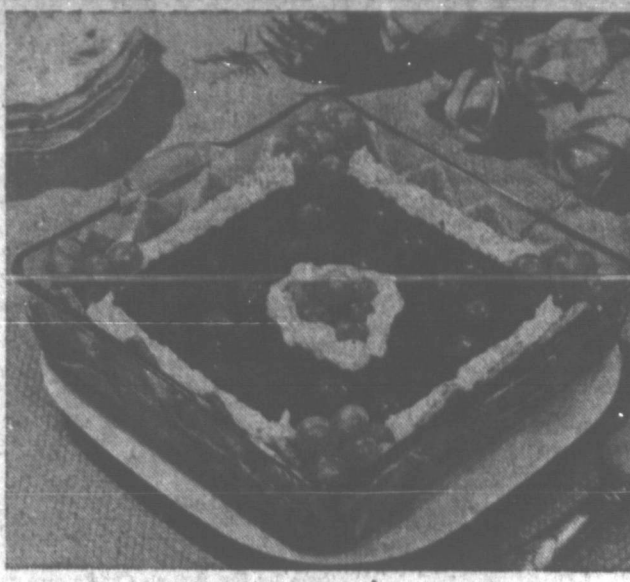

SPECIAL SALAD
To arrange an extra-special salad fill a large wooden salad bowl with a variety of greens, lettuce, romaine, curly endive, escarole, watercress. Circle the outside edge with thin slices of cucumber and sprinkle finely crumbled Roquefort cheese over the center. Toss with a well-seasoned French dressing just before serving.

If you do not have the salt pork called for in the usual chowder recipe, use a little bacon instead.

Graham Cracker Dessert Is New

Grape lime mold with graham cracker base.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Graham cracker pie shell is an old favorite. But here are two new variations on the graham cracker theme as a dessert base:

SUGAR-HONEY PEARS
Three graham crackers, crushed; 1 tablespoon brown sugar; 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 tablespoon melted butter; 6 canned pears; 1 egg white; 2 tablespoons white sugar; 1-4 teaspoon vanilla. Combine graham cracker crumbs, brown sugar, cinnamon and melted butter; mix well. Fill pear halves with the graham cracker mixture. Beat egg white until stiff; gradually beat in the white sugar and vanilla. Cover tops of pears with the meringue. Place in a shallow baking dish; add just enough water to cover bottom of dish. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

GRAPE LIME MOLD
One 3-ounce package lime flavored gelatin; 1 cup boiling water; 1 cup ginger ale; sugar-honey graham crackers; 1 cup white grapes cut in half; whipped cream.

Soak the gelatin in the boiling water; add the ginger ale and the sugar-honey graham crackers; 1 cup white grapes cut in half; whipped cream. Dissolve lime flavored gelatin in the boiling water. Cool. Add ginger ale and chill. Line bottom of square dish. When gelatin mixture begins to thicken, fold in grapes and turn into cracker lined dish. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

Hat Rental Firm Started Recently

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor
NEW YORK — It's funny about hats.

When a woman is wearing the right hat, she can get the job, make the speeches or impress the man she's after.

When she feels that her hat isn't up to snuff, she might as well get a new one. The good she'll do, in business or in love. Realizing this long-established fact, a custom milliner by the name of Mrs. Matty Clarke has started a hat-renting house on New York's fashionable East Side, for the benefit of women who must have a special hat for a special occasion and don't feel that they can pay the required $50-and-up to buy one.

For an outlay of $3 per day plus a $15 deposit, Mrs. Clarke sends her customers out equipped with the right hat for the right purpose. Those who rent hats fall principally into two classes: career girls who want to make the right impression during important job interviews, and women confronted with an unexpected dinner date, who must have a fabulous hat for a big evening.

Most in demand are the dinner cocktail hats, all strictly alluring, rented by business girls for a big date. Says Mrs. Clarke: "One of my first customers was a girl who came in for a hat to wear on a blind date. I fixed her up with a romantic little bonnet that made her look as pretty as a calendar picture. Two weeks later the same girl came back to pick out a hat for her wedding. The bonnet did the trick."

It will take about half an hour over low heat for diced cooked potatoes, in a few tablespoons of fat in a skillet, to acquire a crust.

The woman who wears glasses for reading or sewing also needs to use her specs in order to apply her lipstick accurately.

So says a make-up expert who maintains that the reason so many older women appear with ill-proportioned lines and badly applied rouge is because they don't use their specs for better seeing.

Says this critic: "A woman should not only put on her specs before she puts on lipstick and rouge, but she should also illuminate her dressing table mirror with a good strong light."

The best light, according to our expert, is strong sunlight, preferably from a north window. The woman whose dressing table mirror can't be illuminated by good natural light should, he insists, supply herself a reasonable facsimile thereof from a powerful electric bulb. He says—the strong electric bulb used for lighting up a face should be stripped of a lamp shade.

A little canned tomato soup is a good addition to French dressing.

By JIM McCLUSKEY
Public Relations Editor
During the past five years, the Martin & Turner Insurance Agency has gathered many followers in Pampa.
Besides handling every type insurance, the agency is well equipped to serve Pampans. The business of the agency is built on honesty, so it is little wonder that so many Pampans have turned to 107 N. Frost to receive wise counsel and advice on their particular needs.
The agency specializes in fire, auto, casualty and hail insurance, bonds and loans. The agency represents only stock companies, so Pampans may rest assured of putting their money into a good investment when dealing with the Martin & Turner Agency.
J. Ray Martin and Mrs. J. M. Turner, co-owners of the establishment, have spent many hours with customers explaining in detail the provisions of their various types of insurance.
When getting auto loans through Martin & Turner, Pampans are assured there will be no extra services. Auto loans are handled directly through a local bank.
There are several advantages of receiving auto loans through local banks—the money is spent right here in the city rather than ending up in the hands of some out-of-town company. The procedure of dealing with local banks also establishes credit and good relationship with the banks.
In this way, the money goes for the advancement of local schools, churches and other worthy establishments rather than some other town. Therefore, the money spent with Martin & Turner indirectly benefits every Pampans.
Another type of insurance handled at the agency is polo insurance. Four local cases during the past summer had policies with Martin & Turner, which saved the National Polo Foundation a great deal. Each case of polo averages $600 or more for a few weeks treatment.
Mr. Martin, realizing there were many cases of polo that had no insurance, urges Pampans to contribute to the current March of Dimes drive to help pay the heavy cost of each polo case.

Women May Have Cosmetic Needs Solved at Berry's Pharmacy

Mrs. Emma Olson, head cosmetician at Berry's Pharmacy, has a complete line of women's cosmetics.
Featuring Helena Rubinstein's cosmetics, she carries items to include bath powder sets, perfume, boxes, compacts, manicure sets, ladies' billfolds, Dorothy Perkins Sachet, cologne, sachet sets, Ciro's perfumes, jeweled powder boxes, Evening in Paris perfume, Old South toilettries, and Tabu.
Mrs. Olson has had 12 years experience as a cosmetician. She worked as a cosmetician at another local store until last March when she started at Berry's. After her many years in her line of work, it is little wonder so many of her regular customers followed her to Berry's.

12 Years of Service to Pampans Have Brought Success to Daniels

J. C. Daniels, outstanding automobile dealer in the Top of Texas area, keeps many items on hand that have very little demand.
He keeps these items to create good-will, to have the particular gadget needed by Pampans when no other auto agent has it.
If the present rate of persons having business dealings with him continues as in the past, more than 50,000 people will have visited his quarter-million dollar plant in a year's time.

Good Used Cars, Priced to Sell

Lloyd Kuntz has been the wonder of the Magnolia Service Station and Panhandle Motor Company, 120 S. Cuyler, since 1941.
Carrying a complete line of Mobil products, the service station features tires, tubes, batteries and all Mobil specialty items.
In connection with the service station, Kuntz has a good line of used cars that are priced to sell. One of the main reasons there is such a fast turnover of used cars at Panhandle Motor Company is that one can depend on Kuntz to tell the exact condition of the cars, no high-pressure selling.
His son, Bob, recently returned to Pampa after serving as manager of the Goodrich Store in Altus, Okla. He now helps his father at the two places of business.

DeLuxe Offers Special Services

He is a member of the Lions Club and heads the Sports Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. An active member of the First Christian Church, he has worked with the youth of the community for years.
His wife's name is Irene and they have three children, Morris, Jr., 12, James Andrew, 11, and Carol Ann, 3.

Renovation Offered By Hall & Pinson Co.

Omer V. and Leymond O. Hall and Dale Pinson have operated the Hall & Pinson Tire Company at 301 W. Foster for the past five years.
One special service offered by the tire company is an entire renovation of the interior of cars.
Many customers have brought old wornout cars to the station hoping something could be done to make the old car last a little longer. After one of the Hall & Pinson special renovation jobs, the customers feel almost as if they are driving away in a new car.

Safety Is Important In Child's Program

A home with an active child but without a playground usually means unhappiness for the small fry and confusion for the homemaker. This problem can be solved in most cases, by making Junior's bedroom do double duty as a playroom.

In providing equipment and furnishings for the room, safety is of prime importance. Lamp cords should be securely fastened in sockets and kept from trailing across the floor. Avoid small throw-rugs which are likely to slide when the youngsters decide to frolic.

Replace old fashioned radiators with new heating units that offer little chance for cut heads, burn hands or scorched fingers. The new convactor radiator is recommended. The heating element of this unit is safely enclosed in a smooth metal cabinet, away from youthful prying fingers. The smooth surfaces of the cabinet never get too hot to the touch, and provide an added safety factor by their freedom from sharp edges and pointed corners that might cause painful cuts or bruises.

Shut Off Water To Avoid Frozen Pipes When Away

As most cases of frozen water pipes occur when the home is unoccupied, water should be shut off at the meter, and all pipes, toilet tank, radiators and boiler drained when the family is absent more than a day or two during the cold months.

To prevent pipes freezing on an unusually cold night, open all cold-water faucets slightly so they will drip very slowly through the night. Water in motion seldom freezes.

Thaw frozen water pipes promptly to avoid bursting. In applying heat, work from the faucet toward the meter. Keep the faucet open to know when water flow starts.

Cat, Cheese Losing Out in Nation's New Rat Race

Tabby, you can retire to a soft pillow and a saucer of cream and forget about chasing rats! Yes, with men who know rats best, cats are not considered effective rat killers. At best cats are inconstant raters, they say, and oftentimes are ripped to pieces by large rats.

This is but one of the popular beliefs which are being refuted by rodent specialists of the U. S. Public Health Service. Another is that cheese is a good rat bait. Actually, cheese still is a favorite tid-bit of house mice, but full-sized rats prefer bacon or bread.

The specialists, therefore, advise home owners to use more scientific methods for destroying rats. They emphasize the need for individual rat control drives by citing the annual dollar toll of the nation's 145 million rats—two billion dollars in property damage.

In addition, rats are known to transmit many diseases to man. It has been reported that one of these diseases, Bubonic Plague, could repeat its European performance of the Fourteenth century by taking 25 million American lives if rats are not controlled.

Although rodent specialists admit that the ultimate goal of a rat-free country is a near impossibility, they say that the rat army can be reduced in number so that it will no longer be a serious menace to either health or wealth. To accomplish this, they advise citizens to spend more money on rat eradication drives in and around homes.

The first step of such drives is to keep basements, attics and grounds around homes clean. All waste materials should be stored in covered galvanized steel ash or garbage cans until they can be disposed of permanently. These rust-resisting cans are equipped with close-fitting covers, are of ratproof construction. They help starve rats by eliminating the open refuse pile as a source of rats' food.

Materials stored in or outside of buildings should be stacked neatly to eliminate crevices for rats to travel in or use as living quarters. A safe practice is to keep all stored materials away from walls and at least eighteen inches above floor level of the area of ratproof construction. They help starve rats by eliminating the open refuse pile as a source of rats' food.

Poisons and traps are the tools with which the final step is accomplished. They are recommended for eradicating rats not driven away by the other measures.

The spring trap still is considered the most practical for cease-fire agreement before entering into active negotiations. Well-informed military quarters reported no major movement of Communist columns across Hwai River. Small Red forces that infiltrated previously across the river are now advancing into the area vacated by the Nationalist sixth army group as this group completes its 70-mile withdrawal from the Hwai to new positions 30 miles north of Nanking.

The main body of Communist troops in Central China is reported deploying for a general offensive to the north bank of the Yangtze.

Turning Post Keeps Pans In Range

Where space permits, a unique idea for spring kitchen pots and pans in easy reach is to hang them on a revolving post housed in an 18-inch-square floor-to-ceiling cabinet near the kitchen stove.

A round wooden column or post, 6 inches in diameter and 4 inches shorter than the distance from floor to ceiling, is used. Steel spindles are driven into the center of each end of the post, projecting about 1 1/2 inches. This provides an axle on which the post will revolve. The spindles are inserted in holes bored in 2 inch wooden blocks attached to floor and ceiling. Utensils are hung on hooks screwed into the post.

Further convenience is added if the inside of the cabinet door is equipped with racks for pan lids. This storage idea is especially practical when converting an un-equipped room into a kitchen, as it obviates the need for spacious cabinets.

Winterizing Home Brings Fuel Cost Down to Prewar Levels

Seven-cent fuel oil and $10 anthracite coal have ceased to exist. However, many homeowners are finding that their 15-cent oil or $20 coal actually costs no more today than pre-war when paying the annual heating bill.

They accomplish this by completely winterizing their homes: installing storm-windows and doors which save 12 1/2 percent of the fuel, according to the U. S. Bureau of Standards; weather-stripping these openings for another 4 percent saving; and installing mineral wool insulation full-thick in walls and roof, which saves 35 percent.

Savings effected by the 3 winterizing steps total 51 percent of fuel saved. This cuts the fuel bill squarely in two.

BUNCHE

A Damascus dispatch reported that Stavropoulos had told Byrnie's foreign minister, Khaled Azem, that, in event of an Israeli, Egyptian armistice agreement, the peace plan will be submitted to all Arab countries by the U. N. with a request for approval. The dispatch said Khaled Azem replied that such a request would be considered on its merits.

Eytan insisted that the present conversations be regarded purely as "armistice" talks and not "peace talks."

The emphasis on "armistice" is viewed as a reservation on the part of the Israeli delegation, in case the subsequent peace conference proves unsatisfactory to them.

U.N. GROUP

(Continued from Page 1) The position has been complicated by the fact that the vast majority of the population is Moslem, while the prince is a Hindu. That at once presents a clash in interests, since the Maharajah's leanings naturally are toward Hindu India whereas his people might be expected to favor Moslem Pakistan.

While Lord Mountbatten at 111 was viceroy of united India, before the grant of independence became effective, he urged the Maharajah to consult the people of Kashmir to see which dominion they preferred. However, the prince delayed until after the transfer of power had been made and then announced that he wished to join Hindu India. This precipitated the India-Pakistan fight.

As things stand, the Maharajah's chances of retaining his autocracy would seem to be most precarious. However, he is lucky to have ruled at all for back in 1923 — when he was 28 — he got mixed up in a mess which threatened his succession to the throne. That could be the notorious "Mister A" blackmail case which involved a bed-room scene in Paris and was tried in a London court.

UN-AMERICAN

Thrust in charge of the Democratic pickling decided to bounce Reps. Rankin (D-Miss) and Herbert (D-La), McSweny (D-Ohio), Harrison (D-Wa) and Moulder.

Tomorrow the House itself has to approve both Democratic and GOP committee lineup. Then Congress will be all set to operate for the next two years.

The first major hearings on legislation are supposed to get going soon. The legislation at hand is intended to provide more ammunition for the cold war with Russia in the form of economic help for Western Europe.

Chairman Bloom (D-N.Y.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee wants to start the hearings a week from tomorrow. They will deal with Mr. Truman's request for authority to spend another $4,500,000,000 on the Economic Cooperation Administration in the year beginning July 1.

But this week, the attention should be on the presidential pay, top diplomatic posts and, of course, Thursday's inaugural oath on the front steps of the Capitol.

If the pay bill is to do Mr. Truman any good, it has to pass before he takes the oath of office Thursday noon. In addition to the raise, the bill would increase his tax-free expense account from $40,000 to $90,000 a year.

While it is at it, Congress is taking care of the vice president and speaker—a 50 percent hike for them, from $20,000 to $30,000, plus $10,000 for expenses.

The Senate rushed the bill through last week by a whopping 68-9 majority.

In the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week, the vote was unanimous that Acheson should succeed Gen. George C. Marshall as secretary of state. Acheson formerly was undersecretary under Marshall, who resigned, effective Jan. 20, after a serious operation.

Budget Director James E. Webb was Mr. Truman's pick for undersecretary. The Foreign Relations Committee considers that appointment tomorrow.

In the field of home affairs, the House Labor Committee will start on repealing the Taft-Hartley Labor law and substituting something else.

Station Visitor Offered Job

It's a fine thing when you drop in for a visit and the boss not only shows you around, but puts you to work.

That actually happened to Pampa visitor Friday at Radio Station KPDR.

Jean McKinney and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McKinney, Toppensh, Wash., came to Pampa to visit Mrs. McKinney's sister, Mrs. Ray Wilson. Jean, a radio enthusiast, wanted to visit the radio station and "look around." He did. He talked to Ken Palmer, Steve Marko and John Michel, "just visitin' sorta," and they auditioned him. It worked.

He was told to start work Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney will soon travel back to Toppensh—minus son Jean.

The new announcer happened to walk in just when John Rohrer was promoted to commercial manager, leaving an announcing vacancy.

Carl Livingston has been promoted to assistant program director.

Ralph H. "Ecca" Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Boyd, Henrietta, was killed in a C-54 crash Jan. 12, near Frankfurt, Germany, while carrying food and coal on the Berlin airlift.

Ralph was graduated from the Pampa Army Airfield in 1944 and was employed here during summers. He worked in the oil fields.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, two children, Jimmie, seven, and Patty Ray, three; five brothers, Wilson Boyd, McLean, Jimmy Boyd, San Antonio, Howard, Bernard and Burton Boyd, Dumas.

He was a pilot for American Airlines following his discharge from the Army Air Corps until October, 1948. Then, he again joined the Air Corps and was sent to Germany Dec. 1, 1948, where he flew the airlift.

He was graduated from Henrietta High School in 1939 and spent one year at the University of Texas and two years at the University of Oklahoma.

The ministry said radio communication with the missing plane ceased at 9:40 a. m.

The crash was near Strachur in wild hunting country north-west of Greenock.

Rain and low hanging mists blanketed the whole area. The wreckage was reported to be 3,000 feet up on the side of Ben Bheula, highest mountain in the neighborhood.

The Air Force customarily with holds official news of crashes until its information is confirmed.

Body of Wheeler Boy Is Returned

They were originally buried in temporary military cemeteries on Okinawa, Iwo Jima, Tinian, Guam and Saipan, awaiting final disposition by the next of kin.
