Pampa Hit By Coldest of Season

Wind Whips Mercury to Two Above

The coldest weather of the winter chilled Pampa and the whole state of Texas yesterday. The Associated Press reported the mercury dropped to two degrees above zero at Pampa and Amarillo, snow flurried across the western part of the state and a freeze was indicated for the Rio Grande Valley.

The lowest temperature in Pampa Friday was 3 degrees above zero and a high of 14. The high for yesterday was 10 degrees above.

Clear skies and a bright sun yesterday afternoon seemed to brighten Pampa's prospects about the weather. However, by 4 p. m. the mercury began dropping.

By noon yesterday, the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Pampa had most of the toll lines that were blown down Friday and yesterday repaired. Most of the trouble were wire breaks, caused by the wind whipping the wires. Most of the lines to Dallas, Oklahoma City and Amarillo are now back in order.

No livestock losses have been as yet reported in the Pampa vicinity; however, several sick calves have been reported during the recent snowstorms.

Another half-inch of snow fell Friday night making two and one-half inches on the ground. The 35-mile-per-hour wind Friday simmered down to a slight 10 mile per hour wind yesterday.

Trailway buses are remaining on schedule.

AP said cloudy to partly cloudy weather was forecast for all of Texas. Snow-blocked highways in the Panhandle at many points stranded travelers at several places.

Temperatures dropped below zero today.

Vishinsky Reported as 'Gravely Ill'

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia—(AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky is "gravely ill from a nervous disorder," a staff member of a Russian army sanatorium at Karlsbad said last night.

"Mr. Vishinsky is unable to concentrate on anything," the staff member said. "He cannot be seen by anyone."

The sanatorium is located in the Hotel Imperial, one of the show places of Karlsbad, an ancient health resort 70 miles west of Prague not far from the German border.

Staff employees and a nurse made no secret of their concern over the condition of Vishinsky, one of the top figures in Soviet diplomacy.

The statement of his illness was the first official disclosure that Vishinsky was in Czechoslovakia. It was given out after a conference with one of his attendants.

Rumors circulated here Thursday that Vishinsky had been "trouble shooting" in Czechoslovakia.

These rumors stemmed from reports of dissension in the Czechoslovak government in the Communist Party that controls it. They were not confirmed.

Vishinsky, 66, headed the Soviet delegation at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in Paris. He has been one of the most vigorous defenders of Soviet foreign policy in all international assemblies.

Priest Is Shot At Confessional

NEW YORK (AP)—A man walked into a Catholic church yesterday, unwrapped a rifle and fired into a confessional, wounding a priest in the leg.

The man then fled, pursued by a woman from the church, but she lost sight of him several blocks away.

The shooting occurred at the St. John the Martyr Roman Catholic Church at 252 East 72nd, while a number of women and children awaited their turns at confession.

The wounded priest, Rev. Vincent J. Campbell, was taken to a hospital, where attendants said the wound in the calf of his leg was not serious.

Heavy Twins Born To Small Mother

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—(AP)—Birth of twin boys, with a combined weight of 14-12 pounds, to a woman weighing only 90 pounds, was reported by Valley Hospital in nearby Van Nuys.

Heaviest twins ever born at that institution, they and their mother, Mrs. Loren L. Stevens of Canoga Park who is only four feet, 11 inches high, are doing nicely.

Woman to Face Desertion Charge

Florence Bertha Gaines, 34, alias Mrs. C. E. Walton, was taken back to Shawnee, Okla., at noon Friday to face child desertion charges there.

The Gaines woman, police said, left her four minor children at Shawnee, Okla., over a month ago and came to Pampa with another man. While here she requested her former employer, in Shawnee, to have her withholding income tax receipt sent to a Pampa address.

The Potts County Sheriff's Department, learning of the request, wired City Police a warrant for her arrest, and the pickup was made. Deputy sheriffs from Shawnee took the Gaines woman back to Oklahoma a few hours after she waived extradition.

TRUMAN INCREASES BLIZZARD AID

Injunctions Dropped as Strike Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Truman administration has discarded the idea of trying to block "national emergency" strikes after court injunctions. It proposed instead a voluntary "cooling off" procedure.

The plan is blueprinted in the administration's bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley Labor Law and restore the old Wagner Act with the "improvements" which President Truman wants.

The Taft-Hartley measure dealing with labor-management relations, lets the government get 80 day court orders to prevent strikes that imperil the national health or safety while mediators try to work out a settlement.

Administration officials debated for weeks whether to keep the injunction provision. Organized labor protested vigorously against it. The idea finally was dropped.

In national emergency strike threats, the new bill would depend mainly upon the moral force of recommendations by emergency boards—as in the Railway Labor Act. While the boards are at work and for five days thereafter—a total of 30 days—the bill says both labor and management shall continue operations. But no injunctions or penalties are provided in case they don't.

In fact, the only injunctions allowed under the entire bill are those which the National Labor Relations Board can get to enforce its "unfair labor practice" findings.

"Certain boycotts and strikes of a 'jurisdictional' nature (in which a union seeks to beat out another union to do certain work) are made 'unfair labor practices' under the new bill. A union conceivably could be subject to injunctions in those cases—but only after the NLRB had found them guilty of violations.

The new bill was sent to the Capitol by Secretary of Labor Tobin. He will discuss it Monday before the Senate Labor Committee.

Mr. Truman's drive to get rid of the Taft-Hartley Law already has stirred furious debate in Congress. Backers of the present law predict the move will fail. Foes are claiming that repeal is a foregone conclusion.

In addition to new "national emergency" machinery, the administration bill contains these things:

1. A ban on jurisdictional strikes and "unjustifiable" secondary boycotts. (See INJUNCTION, Page 6)

CURTIS DOUGLASS

Curtis Douglass Elected to Head Bar Association

Atty. Curtis Douglass yesterday was elected president of the Gray County Bar Association at the groups monthly meeting in the banquet room of the Court House Cafe.

The new president announced that meetings would be held monthly, but the dates left flexible to agree with any contingencies that may arise from time to time. Prominent legal men from various parts of the state will be invited to appear at different meetings to speak on professional problems and procedures.

A resolution to support the State Bar Association's drive against the unauthorized practice of law in Texas was passed unanimously. Another resolution, asking the State Legislature to enact into law an increase of annual state bar dues, from $4 to $10 was also passed. The State Legislature, Douglass explained, is empowered to set dues to the State Bar Association.

Other officers elected to serve one year terms were: Attorneys Aarab Sturgeon, vice president; Fred Cary, secretary-treasurer; Clifford Braly and Walter Rogers, directors.

Attorneys W. R. Ewing, Arthur Teed and Sherman White were elected to the Professional Ethics and Unauthorized Practice Committee.

Douglass appointed District Attorney Tom Braly, chairman; Attorneys Joe Gordon and Sherman White as a committee to investigate, study and recommend a fee schedule. Other standing committee appointments will be made within the next few days, Douglass announced.

The meeting, fully attended by Gray County lawyers, adopted a memorial resolution and observed a moment of silence in memory of Attorneys John V. Osborne and S. D. Stennis who died during 1948.

Retiring officers are: Attorneys Arthur Teed, president; Bob Gordon, vice president; S. D. Stennis (deceased) and Fred Cary, directors.

Kiwanis Show To Play for Polio Fund

"Colossal—magnificent—best yet" were some of the comments on the sixth annual Kiwanis-sponsored Top o' Texas Revue after its second performance Friday night.

The Kiwanis Club, in keeping with the March of Dimes spirit, has decided to hold another performance of the revue at 8 p. m. tomorrow, Hueylen Laycock, president, said yesterday.

Admission to the third showing of the revue has been reduced. The proceeds of tomorrow's show will go into the March of Dimes.

Both nights of the revue had a capacity crowd despite the 17-degree temperature Thursday night and 3-degree temperature Friday.

Eighty-three Pampans, under the direction of Ken Bennett, took part in five hours of delightful comedy and song. The words and music to every song used in the show were written by Bennett.

The show is entertaining from the opening, when Jerry Nien and Mariotte Lohm Welborn display placard holders announcing the model's name and the store for which she is modeling to the climax. Each model displays her clothing with "I Like Your Style, Madam" playing in the background.

Some of Ken's catchy tunes that were immediate hits with the audience were: "If I Lived in the City," sung by Pete Welborn, Cameron Marsh, John Locke, Maurice Lockhart and Artie Abonath; "I Got a Yen for the Men," by Bunny Shelton and Max Praelini; and "Indian Boogie," by Bunny Shultz, Dude Balch, Chick Hickman and Hansford O'Neal.

"Here Comes the Choo-Choo," sung by Bob Brown, Dick Oden and Don Tuth, received much applause, as did "It's Twilight," sung by the 32-member chorus.

The three-act musical comedy uses much of Pampa's acting, dancing and singing talent. Solo dancers were Jennie Willingham, who did a ballet to the tune, "Today's the Day," Erma Lee Kennedy, who tap danced to "Indian Boogie" and Max Praelini, who sang and danced to "Texas."

Clear Skies Help Rescue Efforts In Stricken West

The Associated Press reported President Truman stepped up federal aid Saturday as clear cold weather came to most of the blizzard stricken West.

The weather was a boon to expanding rescue efforts, but it added additional hardship for hungry, snow-stranded livestock.

The cold wave, which extended east to the Atlantic, also relieved the present threat of major floods in the Midwest.

The President authorized Defense Secretary Forrestal to dip into funds set up for river and harbor control to speed relief work in the disaster areas. Forrestal can spend for blizzard relief such funds as are available in the military establishment.

The President will ask Congress for a supplemental appropriation to replace blizzard relief funds spent by the military branches. He also sent to Congress a request for a supplemental relief appropriation of $500,000.

Meanwhile, the Fifth Army started moving into the blizzard disaster area where it already has sent bulldozers, half-track weasels, and snow plows.

C. W. Anderson, divisional federal works agency engineer from Kansas City, was named to supervise storm relief work in Nebraska and South Dakota. Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick of Omaha, Missouri River Division engineer, was put in charge of (See CLEAR, Page 6)

Army Asks Switch of Occupation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army, appealing to President Truman, wants the administration of the U. S. zone of Germany turned over to the State Department as soon as possible, it was learned last night.

Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall urged the switch in a formal recommendation to the White House.

Neither the White House nor the State Department, however, wants to rush through any quick change in the American setup in Germany, a political and economic battleground in the cold war.

General Lucius D. Clay reportedly is again pressing officials here to be allowed to retire as military governor, but President Truman is represented as anxious to keep him on the job a while longer.

Responsible officials said disposition of Royall's proposal will turn largely on the advice to be given President Truman by Secretary of State Acheson.

Acheson's office little more than a week, has been swamped with other matters.

Moreover, insiders regard it likely that he would want an extensive review made of the whole situation in Germany, including the specific issue of administration.

Poll Taxes Now 2,500

Tomorrow at 5 p. m., close of business for the county tax office, will be the deadline for paying 1948 poll taxes.

To date approximately 2,500 poll taxes have been paid, but 290 exemption certificates granted.

County tax officials said yesterday afternoon they did not expect to remain open after hours to catch stragglers, and added that the number of poll taxes sold may reach 3,000.

Should Governor Beauford Jester's intended poll tax abolition bill pass the Legislature, Texas holding poll tax receipts this year will have a souvenir of the last poll tax levied in this state.

600 Bodies Still In Wrecked Ship

SHANGHAI (AP)—Divers estimated that about 600 bodies are still in the sunken steamer Kiangyia, which exploded Dec. 2 near Shanghai with a loss of more than 3,000 lives.

About 1,300 bodies were recovered from the ship before bodies halted diving operations. Chinese junk and sampans picked up other bodies. Many more were washed ashore and many were blown to bits in the explosion.

The Kiangyia was bound from Shanghai to Ninghsien to the south with an estimated 4,000 refugees. An unexpected explosion sank the small steamer in the mouth of the Yangtze.

Repair of White House Going Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—It may cost $6 million instead of the originally estimated $1 million to repair the White House.

Commissioner W. E. Reynolds of the Public Building Administration said that engineers found more things wrong than expected.

Defects were so "fantastic," he said, that the White House could have collapsed at any time.

Lucas Calls Chairmen to Weekend Strategy Huddle

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic leadership moved Saturday for a faster pace in Congress toward President Truman's objectives.

Senate Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill) summoned all Senate committee chairmen into a weekend huddle to lay out a schedule of action.

The first two sections of the President's economic program—relatively small but still significant—may get to a vote in the next few days.

It takes considerable time to organize any new session of Congress, but the Democrats nevertheless are having to put up with some painful goose-nibbling by the Republicans.

In a speech at Charleston, S.C., Friday night, House Republican Leader Martin remarked that the 81st Congress has been in session four weeks "and all that has happened so far is a pay increase for the President."

Martin didn't mention two other small measures which became law. One of them gave Washington government workers a four-day weekend for the President's inauguration; the other added the President $500,000 for relief in the blizzard-swept West.

Lucas told reporters that the aim of his caucus with the committee chairmen was to assure teamwork.

"And I am sure that is what we're going to have," he added.

One of the hottest fights—repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act and adoption of the administration's substitute—will break (See LUCAS, Page 6)

Legislative Bills Seek 300 Millions

BY DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN (AP)—The 51st Legislature is just three weeks old, but it already has before it bills that could spend more than 300 million dollars from the general fund.

That's a whangdilly of a figure when you recall that 318 million is all that's available for spending from this all-purpose fund.

It becomes whangdilly when you consider that it does not include any money that will be needed from the general fund under the Gilmer-Alkin education bills.

It does mean this: either reducing the funds are going to have to be pared down, or some more money will have to be tax-pumped into the general fund.

At least two such revenue-raising measures are ready for early introduction in the House—where tax bills must originate—when it gets organized. Both would tax natural gas.

Speaker Durwood Mansford indicated the House would be organized by Wednesday. He said his committee roster is nearly complete, that there may be some reshuffling that will delay final announcement until after Monday, when the session starts its fourth week.

Mansford also indicated the door may be opened for formal introduction of the session's first House bills Monday. These, he said, would have to be emergency or uncontested bills.

More than 300 measures have been introduced and referred to Senate committees. There is no telling what the final total of House bills will be, but last session there were 892. Of these, 289 went to the Governor on final passage.

Included in last week's Senate bills were the so-called "big four" money measures for departments, colleges, the eleemosynary institutions, and the judiciary.

They were introduced by Finance Committee Chairman James E. Taylor in blank, but for work (See LEGISLATIVE, Page 6)

Caravan Finds 5-Foot Snow At Flagstaff

A Highway 60 Association caravan returned home Friday night, having traveled on their return trip from California over Highway 66.

On Jan. 19, the group left Pampa for Riverside, Calif., via Highway 60, making stops along the way for luncheon and dinner meetings.

With the exception of a 10-mile snowstorm in the mountains over the continental divide near Showlow, Ariz., there was no bad weather along Highway 60.

On the return trip, which began at Riverside last Tuesday morning, the four-car caravan was obliged to put on chains at the foot of the San Bernardino mountains, on Highway 66. There was a hard-blowing snowstorm in the famous Cajon Pass.

The trip from there was uneventful until the group neared Flagstaff, Ariz., where at high altitude it drove into inclement weather—not to mention 67 inches of snow lying on the ground at Flagstaff, Ariz. (See CARAVAN, Page 6)

Reds Insist On Arrest Of Chiang

NANKING (AP)—The Chinese Communists insisted yesterday that arrest of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other government figures on the Red list of "war criminals" must precede any peace talks.

Since Chiang and almost all others on the list long since have gone south, it is impossible for acting President Li Tung-jen to comply, even should he wish.

The Communists demanded a prompt reply, but there was no official public reaction. Acting President Li, inside his strongly-guarded home, was the only responsible official left in the capital. Not a single cabinet member could be located.

The victorious Communist armies were idling on or near the north bank of the Yangtze at many points. Coupled with this, the political demands plunged Nanking hopes of a negotiated settlement to new lows.

The Communist broadcast, by an unidentified spokesman, also angrily demanded re-arrest of Lt. Gen. Yasuauji Okamura, a last Japanese commander in China. He was acquitted of war crimes before a Chinese military court Wednesday.

The statement suggested that the local surrender at Peiping Jan. 22 was a pattern for similar bit-by-bit settlements covering Nanking, Shanghai, Canton and all other government-held territory.

It made clear, however, that the Red's 8-point surrender demand of Jan. 14 must be met first.

Trainmen Help Crippled Girl Get New Arms

NEWARK, N. J.—(AP)—A four-year-old Lovell, Okla., girl was helped to wave the stumps of her arms at passing railroad crewmen enters a hospital Monday for an operation which may give her artificial arms.

Grace Purcell, the soft-spoken little girl, talked with Dr. Henry H. Kessler, famous surgeon who will operate Tuesday in Crippled Children's Hospital. He will endeavor to fit artificial arms to the muscles in the stumps Grace now has.

Although Dr. Kessler had no comment on the expected outcome of the operation, it was thought Grace may know by Feb. 7—her fifth birthday—whether she can have the new arms.

Little Grace, who waved to the crewmen of Central of Georgia Railway Co. trains that went past her home, arrived here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Purcell. It was the first time the young railroad fan had ever made a railroad trip of more than 25 miles.

"She had a wonderful time," her father said, "especially this morning when there were so many trains going by."

It was the trainmen who made the trip—and operation—possible.

After seeing her wave to them, one crew dropped off a note wrapped in a banknote as the train roared past Grace's house. Her parents wrote the trainmen of their daughter's handicap, and a spontaneous fund quickly collected more than $4,000.

Damage Heavy in Car-Truck Crash

Heavy damages, but no personal injuries, were caused late Friday night in a car-truck crash at S. Cuyler and Brown.

City Police said a 1939 Chevrolet pickup, driven by Harold E. DeVare, was traveling north on Cuyler and collided with a 1941 Plymouth coupe, driven by Earl Barmes, traveling east on Brown, as DeVare was making a right hand turn into Brown.

Damage to each vehicle was estimated at $250 by Police. DeVare was charged with driving without a commercial operator's license.

Rites Tomorrow For Mrs. Askew

Services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the Macedonia Baptist Church for Mrs. Lila Askew, 54, who died in a local hospital Thursday morning after a brief illness.

The Rev. E. F. Nelson will officiate and burial will follow at the Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers will include E. L. Lightfoot, Bruce Brooks, C. P. Durham, Noah Harris, George Duke and James Morgan.

Mrs. Askew, who was born in Sulphur Springs, Tex., had been living in Pampa the past 18 years.

LABOR MEETS MONDAY

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Most of the American Federation of Labor's 12-member Executive Council was to arrive Saturday for the annual mid-winter conference which opens Monday.

POLIO VICTIM WALKS—LILIA Barbara Sue Hand's partial recovery from infantile paralysis was made possible wholly by March of Dimes aid, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hand of Skellytown, said.

The little four-year-old, curly blonde was stricken in June, 1948, just after the family moved from Skellytown to Alice, Texas. She spent two months in a hospital at Corpus Christi and is still under the care of a Dallas doctor, Mrs. Hand said.

The March of Dimes Polio foundation took entire charge of the child's care, her mother said. It took 1,100 dimes a day to pay for her hospital care, not counting medicines and special treatment. One thousand dimes every other day went to pay for special treatments and exercises to strengthen a crippled leg after the child got out of the hospital. Six thousand, five hundred dimes were used to pay for a leg brace to help a little four-year-old girl try to play like a normal child.

Gray County's goal for funds to help little girls walk again is 100,000 dimes.

Girl Scouts Meet Monday

All Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scout troop leaders have been requested to meet at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow in the Girl Scout office, City Hall, Mrs. Frank Hogsett, Training Committee chairman, said yesterday.

The Scouters roundtable, originally scheduled for Friday, was cancelled until tomorrow. Mrs. Glenn Radcliff and Mrs. E. A. McLennan will have charge of the first discussion, which will be centered around the proposed Scout fair, March 12.

The Girls' Planning Board, composed of one representative from each troop, will meet at 4 p. m. Friday at the Scout office to decide on a name for the fair. Each troop will submit a suggestion before the board comes to a decision.

Last tomorrow's meeting, Mrs. Acheson will discuss plans for local leadership courses. She will instruct dancing and dramatics during the first part of February. Also, she will lead a group in craft workshop.

Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald will lead a discussion on a leaders first aid course, which will follow the dancing and dramatic course.

All Scouters working with ceramics also have been urged to attend tomorrow's meeting. The kiln will be put into operation next week when the Scouters will begin baking for the first time.

'Tulsa Plan' Hits Snag

TULSA—(AP)—Rebellious Tulsa landlords, ordering mass evictions of their tenants in 60 days, may have hit a stumbling block in their strategy against federal rent controls. The Property Owners Association of America, parent body of the Tulsa Property Owners Association, Inc., denied Friday night in Kansas City that the "Tulsa plan" has its sanction. Thurman L. McCormick, association executive director, called the Tulsa incident "a grass-roots rebellion against government control of property." He said, however, that the National Association of Property Owners will hold a meeting in Washington Feb. 14 to start a big drive against rent control. Meanwhile, the landlords here stood firm, although they may have stirred up a minor hornet's nest in their own backyard. Dick Olin, secretary of the Tulsa chapter of the American Veterans Committee, said he has wired the Oklahoma delegation in Washington urging "an immediate Congressional investigation" of the Rev. Wallace J. Murphy, leader of the evictions drive.

Cold War of Attrition Seems Certain Many More Years

Whither Away?

For the sake of argument, say you're in Honolulu, Hawaii. You're at Kau Kau Korner, a spot calling itself the "Crossroads of the World." This sign will tell you how far you are from almost any big city in the world. Airline stewardess Marge Tolosano stands beneath the international signpost.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Secretary of the Army Royal has told the Armed Services Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives "there appears little likelihood that for a number of years to come we will be free of an international situation fraught with danger and subject to marked fluctuations." We are entitled, I take it, to assume that the secretary was talking about the "cold war" which Bolshevik Russia is waging against the democracies. He cautioned that while war (hot war) isn't imminent, it is "at least a possibility." Therefore America must maintain adequate defenses. The question immediately arises as to how long the world is going to be tortured by this Red aggression. The answer naturally must be speculative, but there are certain things which are clear enough. One of the absolute certainties is that Russia won't abandon her world revolution for the spread of communism so long as she can move a muscle. That means she will keep it up until some as yet unforeseen element stops her in her tracks. Should some unexpected contingency produce a hot war, that would provide the element which would stop the Bolsheviks in their tracks. Russia couldn't win a war against the Western powers. However, Moscow is far too smart to start a hot war deliberately. She may be expected to stick in the main to her present tactics. This means continuance of espionage and fifth column tactics in all non-Communist countries, and the breeding of revolutions or the encouragement of upheavals already started. Thus, barring an accident, what we are up against is a cold war of attrition. As things now stand that won't be difficult to keep going. We have a clear cut illustration of possibilities in the present two-front warfare involving Europe and Asia. Having absorbed as much of Europe as she could by taking advantage of her position as a major "ally" in the World War, Russia now is holding along the European front while intensifying her drive in Asiatic countries like China and Burma. That's the Bolshevik strategy—to keep everlastingly boring and to take advantage of the course of least resistance. Barring an accident this sort of thing might continue indefinitely without producing a hot war. But of course, as Secretary Royal points out, we must keep prepared because war is "at least a possibility."

Mexico Outlaws Political Group

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—Mexico yesterday outlawed the militant pro-Catholic Sinarquista Party, Fuerza Popular. The ban becomes effective with publication of a decree in the official gazette, expected shortly. An official report by the Interior Department said the party was undemocratic, seditious and a threat to public order. The Sinarquista organized in the 1930's and are particularly strong in the more backward rural areas. In early prewar days they openly praised the regimes of Hitler, Mussolini and Generalissimo Franco of Spain. At the outbreak of the war they claimed to have one million members. They teamed with the conservative Accion Nacional Party to oppose President Miguel Aleman in the 1946 elections. They organized along military lines with the leaders calling themselves "chiefs," and the members calling themselves "soldiers." In accordance with a new election law they reorganized into a national party, Fuerza Popular, and registered with the government. The registration now has been cancelled by the government.

Plane Aids In Capture

SUGAR LAND, Texas—(AP)—An airplane has been used for the first time in history of Harlem Prison Farm in aiding in capturing an escaped convict. Farm Warden Joe Hines said the experiment was so successful he plans to use the plane as often as possible when faced with escapes. Johnnie Hruzek, Richmond cafe operator, had offered the services of the plane to Hines in the event of an escape. The warden took advantage of the offer Friday when Efren Hernandez, 20, serving a five-year burglary sentence from Cameron County, slipped away from the farm. After receiving a telephone call from Hines, Hruzek and Milton Lane, one of the owners of the Richmond Airfield, flew low over the farm and guards pointed out the direction in which Hernandez had fled. The escapes was spotted about four miles from the farm. Hruzek circled the site and dipped the plane's wings until Hines arrived by automobile. Hines made his capture 45 minutes after Hernandez escaped.

Potosi, Missouri, Ready to Trade Austin's Bones for New Town Hall

POTOSI, Mo.—(AP)—The Potosi Lions Club is backing a project to send the bones of Moses Austin to Texas provided the Lone Star State will raise $50,000 with which to build a new town hall here as a memorial to the pioneer. J. Smith, secretary of the club, said he wrote Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas Friday, outlining the proposal. Austin died and was buried here in 1821. The year before his death he went to Texas, which was then under Spanish domination, and received from the Spanish governor a grant of land on which he was permitted to settle 300 families. He died before the colonization plan could be carried out, but it was continued by his son, Stephen, for whom the capital of Texas was named. Prior to his Texas venture the elder Austin had founded the town of Potosi to house workers in the lead mines in this area which he had developed. About 15 years ago, Smith said, a movement was started to have Austin's remains removed to Texas, but nothing came of it.

Armed Forces Duck Comic Book Question

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The armed forces have hurriedly ducked out of the line of fire in a dispute over comic books. The military had tentatively agreed to ban the sale on U. S. bases of any comic books whose crime and sex content was too high to rate the approval of the Association of Comic Magazine Publishers. The comic book people who don't belong to the association raised a hue and cry. They claimed they represented 60 percent of all comic book circulation. Friday the armed forces announced that they had changed their minds. Maj. Gen. E. B. Parker wrote the association that it would be a much better idea if "the publishers exercise self-censorship."

Russia Rebuffs U. S. Query on Prisoners

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Russia has rebuffed a new United States attempt to learn how many thousands of German war prisoners are still in Soviet hands. That's the Bolshevik strategy—to keep everlastingly boring and to take advantage of the course of least resistance. Barring an accident this sort of thing might continue indefinitely without producing a hot war. But of course, as Secretary Royal points out, we must keep prepared because war is "at least a possibility."

29 Students on 'A' Honor Roll

Harvesters Fall Again Before Sandie 'Jinx'

WARREN'S WARM UP

By Warren Mason—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What ballplayer holds the record for the most home runs with the bases filled in a lifetime?

"COMPLEX. A controlling mental attitude that disposes a person to regard someone or something with exaggerated love, fear, or hostility. An inferiority complex is a morbid sense of one's own inferiority and is shown in undue timidity or undue aggressiveness."

That's the way Webster defines it, and that is the suit that the Harvester athletic teams wear when they play Amarillo.

Why the Harvesters tighten up when they see a Sandie uniform is something unexplainable. They had the best team Friday night, though the score wouldn't indicate it. They couldn't beat the Sandie second team, which played the better share of the final period and the overtime. Even "everyone's critic," Putt Powell, said after the game that the Harvesters had the better team.

The boys were just plain scared Friday night. They didn't show their usual good ball handling, throwing several balls away. They couldn't get off the floor on rebounds, controlling very few of them at the expense of several baskets. They didn't show their usual speed on fast breaks, and on their passing. They missed several scoring opportunities by failing to shoot when they were open, and missing easy layup shots that they could normally make blindfolded. No one was to blame. They all played the same brand of ball. They just froze up.

The Sandies on the other hand played inspired ball. They knew they had to win, and they did. The tall men jumped even higher, and the small men shot even sharper. They were a hot team, throwing baskets in with either their right or left hand on turning push shots. They smashed in shots from the side, from the front, from all angles. They played a brilliant defensive game. The Pampa guards were unable to get the ball down the court to their forwards or the center. The fact that the Harvesters only got off 17 shots, some of them rebounds, attests to the guarding ability of the Sandies.

The fact that the Harvesters hit 47 percent of the shots they did take would indicate that if they could have gotten more off, they would have hit more.

The Sandies just outthrust and outshot the Harvesters all of the way. But it is our honest opinion that the Harvesters still have the best team and the finest coach, and that we will trample the Sandies in the return game.

ANSWER: Lou Gehrig, brilliant New York Yankee first baseman, hit 28 home runs with the bases jammed during his career.

DOTS AND DASHES: Wish to thank Putt for, as he said, "the privilege of sitting at the scorers table" Friday night. . . . And for building up our morale at half-time with the statement that the Harvesters would go on to win by 20 points.—The Golden Gloves cut the crowd down considerably. . . . A lot of people missed a thrilling game.—Lots of loyal Pampa fans made the trip despite the bad weather. . . . The threat of closed highways didn't bother them, and they found that they weren't closed.—One Pampa fan had to resort to tears to get her parents' permission to go in the storm. . . . Many others gave up after the reports from the highway department.—Expect to read a tirade on the officials again in "everyone's critic's" column. . . . He was a little unhappy at times the way some of the fouls were called.—The only tears weren't shed by the players. . . . Many of the other Pampa fans in attendance went around red and wet eyed. . . . They had really counted on this being the time.—Midshipman Emmett Forrester arrived in Amarillo on his way home from the West Coast just in time to catch a cab to the Sports Arena and see the three-minute overtime.—Randy Clay and his parents also witnessed the downfall.—It was the first time that Curtis Douglas had seen his son play in a conference game. . . . Malcolm is captain of the Green and Gold team.—Coach Tom Tipps knew just how Coach McNeely felt. . . . He had the same thing happen in football this season.—The team stayed at the same hotel as the Pampa Golden Gloves team.

Eck Curtis Will Be Guest Speaker

Pampa football fans, male and female, will have the opportunity to spend an evening packed with entertainment and football thrills next Thursday night at the Chamber of Commerce football banquet. Guest speaker will be Eck Curtis, backfield coach of the Texas Longhorns. He will show the movies of the Longhorns' upset victory over Georgia in the Orange Bowl, featuring Pampa's Randy Clay in the star role.

Incidentally, Randy and Carl Mayes, another Pampa star footballer, will be guests at the banquet that night. Randy said Friday night that one of the most impressive parts of the film is the between halves ceremony staged at the game. Nearly 19,000 people participate in the beautiful display.

Tickets for the banquet and movie are on sale at the Court House Cafe, Wilson Drug, Richard's Drug and the Chamber of Commerce office. They are going fast, so get yours today.

Eck Curtis who was one of the top Texas high school football coaches just three seasons ago, has made big strides in his start at college coaching.

The popular, personable little Abilene Christian College graduate draws much of the credit for the Texas Longhorns' smooth T-formation offense under the tenure of Blair Cherry.

But Curtis' coaching finesse with the Longhorns in two big bowl games—the Sugar Bowl and Orange Bowl—comes as no surprise to his many West Texas friends and fans.

He became virtually an institution in West Texas schoolboy football with eleven fine teams at Breckenridge from 1934 through 1944. He had gone to Breckenridge after brief stays at Ranger (where he succeeded Cherry, incidentally), and Electra.

While tutoring the Buckaroos, Curtis made the little town a household word in Texas high school football. And he pioneered the T-formation in the Southwest.

In 1945, he stepped into a real hotbed, moving to Dallas' Big Highland Park High, where he was promptly saddled with the favorite's role in the 45-state race, in August, before a down was played.

But in December, before the largest crowd ever to see a high school game in the South, some 49,000, Curtis' Highland Park team duelled Waco to a 7-7 tie, and wound up with the state co-championship.

In 1946, D. X. Bible was looking for a new man to move into the Texas coaching family, Cherry, who was to assume the head coachship a year later, and Bible had one man in mind—Eck Curtis. In addition to his wide

Drop Overtime Battle 41-37 After Coming From Behind

"Blood, sweat and tears." That was the scene in the Pampa dressing room after the upset loss handed the Harvesters Friday night by the Sandies at the Sports Arena in Amarillo.

It was the same old story, oft repeated, and witnessed earlier in the school year during the football season. The sight of a Sandstorm team just puts fear in the hearts of the Harvesters. They were tight, tense, jittery, and at times, lost.

The Green and Gold had to fight from behind all of the way from the initial basket. They held a one point lead at halftime, and a two point lead midway through the final period. But the game was tied at the final horn. Five points by Bob Garner, and the stalling tactics of the Sandie team during the final three minute overtime period brought them a 41-37 victory.

The one thing that kept the Harvesters in the game at all was their ability to hit charity tosses from the free throw line. They canned 21 of 28 attempted, but were only able to get 17 shots off from the field, a remarkably low number. They made 8 of the shots attempted, for an average of 47.0. But it was the lack of shots, and the poor ball handling that cost them the game. And these two reasons were caused by that old Sandie jinx.

The Sandies, meanwhile, got off 46 shots, cashing in on 37 of them, for a 37.0 average. Pampa was outshooting them, but wasn't getting the shots they should have had. It appeared that the Amarilloans would rather foul, than let the Harvesters get a shot off, 22 fouls being called against the Hullmen, compared to 13 on the Harvesters.

But the defeat didn't knock Pampa out of the race. The Harvesters will now be fighting an uphill battle, and it will be almost necessary that they win all of their remaining conference games to win the championship. The Sandies met Lubbock last night at Lubbock, a game which should determine who will be the main threat in the title race.

Little started the scoring for Amarillo with a medium shot and followed it with a free throw. Ford hit a short shot to give the Sandstorm a 5-0 lead. Davis scored on a free throw after five minutes for the initial Pampa score. Garner hit a long, Howard made a free throw and a short shot, Franklin hit a short shot, Bond a free throw and Ford tipped in a rebound to give Amarillo a 15-5 lead at the end of the first period.

The second period the Harvesters seemed to snap out of the lethargy they were in. After Garner cashed in another medium push and Franklin added a free throw, Davis hit two charity tosses and Gallemore a medium jump shot. Franklin laid a rebound. Gallemore added a short shot and a brace of free throws. Bond made a free throw and Howard a medium push shot to end the first half with the Harvesters holding a 17-16 lead, the first time they had the lead during the night.

After the intermission the Sandies got hot again. Gallemore made a free throw and Little a medium push shot, which Howard reputation, and his past presidency of the Texas High School Coaches Association, Curtis was by then one of the T-formation masters, with a dozen years experience. Cherry planned on adopting that new formation when he took over, so the move was a "natural" for Curtis.

Curtis has been in charge of developing the Texas backs. He changed Bobby Layne from a single-wing fullback to a T-formation in one month, when football experts all over the country said it couldn't be done. Layne made All-America.

One of his prize pupils has been Pampa's Randall Clay, whom he has worked with for three years. In '48, Clay's smashing runs made him the Southwest's finest short-yardage plunger, and he starred in Texas astonishing 41-28 win over Georgia in the Orange Bowl.

Cancelled with a long push shot which ripped the net. Little parried with another medium push and Howard made another gift toss. Garner added a layup, and another layup. Howard made a free throw, and Garner hit two other baskets. Davis hit two free throws, Howard one and Sutton cashed in a rebound to make the score 25-28 to start the final period, with the Sandies in the lead.

The Harvesters jumped out in to the lead at the start of the final period. Sutton sneaked through for a layup, Howard and Davis hit the foul line. Maness splashed in a push shot to tie the count at 30-30 with three minutes to play. Gallemore and Howard again hit from the foul line, but Foster cancelled them with a short shot, and Hughes added another. Howard tied the count again with two more free throws and Davis hit a rebound to give the locals a two point lead. But two free throws by reserve guard Galen Foster tied the count at 36-36 at the end of the regulation time.

The three minute overtime period again found the Harvesters fighting to come from behind. Garner hit a short shot right away. Sutton cashed in a free throw. Then the Sandies started a stall. Garner was fouled and made the gift toss, and the Sandies staked out the remainder of the overtime, with Garner sneaking in for a crisp shot at the final horn.

It was a hard loss, but not too costly, yet. The Harvesters still have plenty of time to win the championship, although this game would have been a big step toward it. They will meet the Sandies in a return battle in Pampa on the night of February 12, and it is sure to be a slam bang affair. This defeat brought to an end the 16 game winning streak of the McNeelymen, leaving them with a season record of 16-2. But they will be out to get another string Tuesday night when the Berger Bulldogs invade the Junior High gymnasium.

Replenish Rockets
CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Rockets, one of the All America Conferences worst wheelchair cases, were due to get a healthy player transition from the dissolved Brooklyn Dodgers and perhaps other clubs yesterday.

AAC owners and representatives, who a week ago decided to forge ahead in 1949 with a seven-team membership, returned to Chicago for a special parley.

First football uniforms were sleeveless jackets of canvas, laced in front and drawn tight to fit the body. Navy first used them in 1879.

Five Pampa Boxers Fight in Finals of Regional Tourney

Four more Pampa boxers fought their way to the finals of the regional Golden Gloves tournament at Amarillo Friday night, and one lost a very questionable decision. One Pampa team member had already advanced to the finals. The five finalists scheduled to fight last night were Donnie Ray, Joe Landrum, Rex Bradford, Francis Hunt and Eugene Cooper.

In Friday night's bouts, Donnie Ray scored another first round knockout. This Shamrock slugger hasn't had to fight one complete round in any of his fights thus far in his quest to gain the state title. He has scored first round knockouts in all of his fights through the district and regional meet. His victim Friday night was Don Reece of Lockney. In the finals he met Elmo Samms of Lakeview.

In the 118-pound class, Joe Landrum won a default match from William Mathews of Dalhart, when Mathews failed to show up for the bout. His opponent in the finals was John Wilkerson of Borger.

At 135 pounds, Rex Bradford earned a hard fought decision from Lyle Baldwin of Phillips. Rex has been one of the busiest fighters on the Pampa squad, and has done an excellent job of fighting, despite a cut on his eye which he got in the district tournament here. He met Gene Cook of Wellington in the finals. In the 147-pound class, James Bowers lost a questionable decision to Frank Taylor of Amarillo. James has been one of the most outstanding fighters from Pampa, fighting in the all-city, district and regional meets. He gave and received a lot of blows Friday night and many fight fans thought that he deserved the decision, but the judges thought otherwise.

In the 147-pound open division, Eugene Cooper earned a three round decision from James Worthan, a salty boy from Amarillo, who pressed Gene most of the way. Last night Cooper was scheduled to meet Ray Chisholm, who advanced to the finals by virtue of two knockouts in his two fights. Chisholm is from Amarillo College.

Going into last night's fights, the Pampa team had a good chance to retain the team trophy which they won last year, and there were also two or three boys capable of getting the outstanding boxer award.

THE DRILLER'S LOG
By KEN BENNETT

A reminder on my desk from Fred Neelage, chairman of the API membership drive for the coming year, reminds me to mention that you should get your membership tickets now. Ralph O'Neill, chairman of the chapter, is making big plans for the year and the organization is hoping to attain the largest membership ever in the Panhandle Chapter.

The new vice chairman, Max Harmon, who is head of the program committee, is also planning a most unusual program for the year to include several meetings of special interest and attention to all members of the oil and gas industry.

Let's all get behind this drive for membership for the API is certainly worthy of your consideration. Don't forget, the big API dance to be held at the Southern Club on the night of Feb. 11 can be attended only by submitting your paid-up membership card to the organization, and your dance ticket.

Bobby Burns and his fine musical organization of Amarillo will furnish the music and the dance itself will be well worth your price of a membership. If you are not contacted about your membership get in touch with Fred Neelage or myself and we will be glad to supply you with them.

This organization is not restricted to those actually connected with the oil and gas industry, in fact business men of the town are urged to join and attend meetings so as to become better acquainted with the problems of the organization.

The weather has been a real hazard to the production of oil the past few weeks and many problems have to be faced because of it. Many a worker whose livelihood depends on his daily work at the wells has been forced to lay off since drilling operations have been so curtailed.

So far the results have only been temporary, but if this weather continues over a long spell it could certainly have some far reaching effects. This week your Drillers Log will have to pass up any information regarding the various deep tests and wildcats since it has been almost impossible to learn any actual facts regarding them during the storm.

SHELL PARTY. A party was given in the Palm Room of the City Hall on Monday night, Jan. 24, by J. C. Nichols, plant superintendent for the Shell Oil Company employees of Gasoline Plant No. 15, in observance of a two-year period without a lost time accident. Safety posters were conspicuously displayed on walls and tables.

The evening was spent in games and contests, with prizes consisting of First Aid articles. Refreshments were also in keeping with the Safety First theme, with white iced cakes decorated with green crosses, also green and white napkins. The following employees were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nichols; Reuel Casey, wife and son; G. M. Walker and wife; H. G. Cockburn and wife; P. E. Goddard and wife; P. T. Hawkins and wife; P. P. Overstreet, wife and daughter; Mrs. W. L. Parker; and E. IPAA Reports on Import Problem

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—The Independent Petroleum Association of America lashed a strongly worded blast against excessive oil imports today.

The denunciation was in a 300-word statement by its executive committee and vice presidents setting here.

Members of the association termed the statement a report to the American people and a warning of the grave danger inherent in unrestricted oil imports which they said would destroy our national economy and seriously endanger our national security.

"A few large importing companies, through shortsightedness, indifference or selfish interests, are endangering our national security in their rush to produce and sell their surplus oil in markets of this country, the IPAA declared.

"This revival of international cartels, which owe allegiance to no country, should not be permitted to monopolize or destroy American life.

Congressional action restricting imports will be sought. The IPAA resolution asserted that "an increasing flood of foreign oil is jeopardizing our national economy, our national security and resulting in unemployment of American labor.

AUSTIN (Special)—"If excessive petroleum imports are permitted to retard normal exploration and development of reserves in Texas and the nation, not only will our national safety be dealt a severe blow but the chief source of revenue for our Texas government will be cut drastically.

"The nation is faced with a decision of whether it will permit oil produced in foreign countries to flood the domestic market, forcing producers in this country to greatly reduce the rate at which the balance between maximum production and demand is being rebuilt, said Warren.

With imports now exceeding 600,000 barrels per day and oil stocks increasing, the Texas Railroad Commission was compelled under its "waste powers" to cut back Texas allowances.

"Across the board" cuts made during the last month are already costing the state government more than $12,000,000 annually in taxes.

"Drilling operations have been drastically reduced in recent weeks, largely resulting from the fear that foreign oil will displace production in supplying this nation's demands. This," said Warren, "would soon leave this nation wholly dependent upon foreign areas that might be inaccessible in time of great need. It seems to us that such a policy is decidedly not in the best interest of our nation."

Hart and J. E. Torvie were re-elected directors of the association and will serve for the coming year along with holdover Directors O. B. Grant and C. Little.

The following were elected to the Supervisory Committee: F. M. Corbitt, W. G. Sanford and Miss Ava Swafford. The Credit Committee for the coming year will be composed of J. Fray, H. B. Landrum, R. M. Barrett, C. O. Fitzgerald and H. W. Nippert.

Upon recommendation of the Board of Directors, a 6 percent dividend was declared upon the shareholdings of record Dec. 31, 1948. A total of 169 shareholders will participate in the disbursement of approximately $1,850.

Several officers of the Credit Union stressed the fact that its primary objective is the encouragement of thrift and suggested that each member present contact other members and urge them to make regular systematic deposits in their share accounts. Members were also advised that a limit of $25 a month per share account had been placed on deposits by the Board of Directors and it was explained that this was done in order to encourage the smaller shareholders to build up their savings accounts rather than inviting unlimited deposits from members who do not particularly need the Credit Union facilities.

In the Senate chamber, Democratic leaders called for a preliminary step in President Truman's anti-inflation program. Curiously it is an extension of the "voluntary controls" over steel and other scarce materials voted by the last, Republican Congress as a substitute for more direct and drastic powers over business and industry asked by Mr. Truman.

Republican senators already have served notice they will seek to limit Congress as a substitute for more direct and drastic powers over business and industry asked by Mr. Truman.

House leaders expect to call up a 13-month extension beyond March 1 of the voluntary allocation plan instead of the temporary seven-month continuation asked by the administration.

Area Reports Completions

Nine new wells were completed in the Panhandle Area during the past week according to a report issued by the local offices of the Railroad Commission yesterday.

One new gas completion was reported in Hutchinson County. All of the oil completions were in Hutchinson County with the exception of one well in Gray County and one in Carson County.

Army operations in the field. Two Air Force helicopters, brought in from Kansas, flew over snow-clogged Nebraska communities on relief missions. The two helicopters will be used principally in transporting doctors to their patients and vice versa.

Two Nebraska National Guard companies were mobilized for relief and rescue work. They will supplement four other guard companies which have been on duty since early in the month.

Another blizzard which whipped across Nebraska Friday, set back relief work. The storm set new road blocks before bulldozers which were traveling to other areas still blocked by old snow. At least 135 bulldozers have been assigned to the blizzard area and more are on the way.

Further west in the Utah-Nevada-Arizona disaster area favorable weather aided airmen and ranchers getting food to snow-stranded livestock and humans. Army planes dropped food supplies by parachute to the relief flights for Navajo Indians snowbound deep in their reservations north of Winslow, Ariz.

Although trucks have succeeded in getting some feed to Utah areas, hundreds of wild deer have come down from the snow-covered mountains to seek food in Salt Lake City.

If a hard-freeze predicted for the valley were to materialize, vegetable growers would lose heavily.

Sixty-five towns in North Texas as which were icebound for three days last week still had no telephone communications with other points. Power failures still dotted the great areas from Denison and the Red River on the north to Hillsboro on the south and from Paris on the east to Gainesville on the west.

At least seven deaths were directly attributable to the long, cold spell. Among the Friday fatalities were Weldon Eugene Bastinger, 19, Fort Worth, and Miss Patsy Nell Hudson, Childress. They were Texas state school students traveling to Childress. The accident occurred near Amarillo.

A Missouri-Kansas-Oklahoma bus with 34 passengers and 25 automobiles were stalled by ice in a 12-mile east of Enid, Okla., yesterday. Snowplows were working to clear the area, where snow had drifted from strong northwest winds.

Telephone Company reported 6,600 poles broken by last week's ice and 27,000 wire breaks. Radiophones have been installed at Denton and Bonham.

Ornery Camel No Ladies' Man

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Hal, the ornery camel of Griffith Park, has made it very plain, in fact, that he is not a ladies man.

Zoo officials, deciding that Hal was lonely, got him a camel girl friend. They paid $1,500 for her.

They introduced her to Hal. But would Hal give her a tumble? No sir! He not only gave her the cold shoulder, or hump, but he ran away from her.

She chased him, in fact, all over his fenced yard. And Hal, stupid fellow, covered in a corner with a look that said "Get this babe out of here!"

Zoo attendants disgustedly shook their heads, but hoped her feminine charms eventually would conquer his girl-shyness.

American Faces Treason Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—A military plane carried Herbert John Burghman—20 years a State Department employee—back to the United States from Germany to face treason charges.

Burghman, a Minnesotan who went to Berlin in 1921 and worked for the American Embassy as a clerk and statistician, has been charged by the Justice Department with broadcasting Nazi propaganda during the war.

the group again encountered bad weather. Travel was hazardous for almost 200 miles—through 40-mile-an-hour winds that whipped up snow dust.

Delegations in the caravan were from Illinois, Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico. The group was escorted by highway patrol and engineers through all the Western states.

The trip was made primarily to acquaint Oklahoma Highway Commissioners with Highway 60, which runs from coast to coast. It is an all-pavement road with the exception of a small strip in Oklahoma.

A rich vein of uranium-bearing pitchblende has recently been reported on the eastern slope of the Rockies in Colorado.

Democracy Moves Slowly Avoids Heat, Writer Says

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON—(AP)—A democracy is liable to feel the heat. That's why so much of what you read about in Washington gets done, when it gets done, so slowly.

Congress is the prime example. This very slowness has a virtue of its own.

It gives an issue which seems red hot at the moment time to die down, until it's no longer an issue.

And it gives the people, with their conflicting and often strong views, time to make their feelings and their reasons known.

Then, since Congress represents the people, the decision it makes at last should pretty well represent the will of most of the people.

That isn't always so and when it isn't, or when Congress by its slowness shows it doesn't understand or ignore the needs or will of the people, they can change the Congress at the next election.

This slowness—the result of trying to get the minds of Congress and the people to reach an agreement—isn't always a virtue. Some day, in a time of great danger, it may be a disaster. So far we've been lucky.

Three issues in the present Congress show pretty well the slow process of government:

Opening the benefits of social security to those not protected now; raising the minimum wage; and the pre-paid medical care program.

The social security program and a higher minimum wage may get through Congress this year, although that's not certain. There seems far less chance for the medical program.

But the labor law is one of the

Beware of Romance

By Roberta Courtland

... Mike Channing ends in confusion. Mike says he's falling in love with her and wants her to meet him at City Hall next day so they can be married. Merry says, "When she doesn't respond to his goodnight kiss, he goes off in anger."

XXII

At last she got upstairs and let herself into the apartment with the latch-key Lissa had given her. Her knees felt like wet tissue paper and her heart was beating so thickly that she felt as though her whole body was shaken by it. That kiss of Mike Channing's had been a revelation. She had been kissed before, of course; awkward, boyish kisses. And Tip had kissed her—darling Tip! But none of those had prepared her for Mike's kiss.

She was trembling, and her face was paper-white. She was frightened to the very depths of her being by the storm of emotion that Mike's kiss had unleashed within her. But in fleeting moments of sanity, in between remembering that lovely magic kiss, she knew that it had all been an amusing game with Mike. He hadn't meant a bit of it. She was somebody new—novel, amusing, interesting. Any of Mike's own crowd, the girls with whom he was accustomed to play around, would have taken that kiss in stride, as of course he had expected Merry to do. And she must never let him so much as suspect that she hadn't.

She must never hint that she thought the kiss or the things he had said held any significance whatever.

She fell asleep at long last when dawn was creeping into the window.

IT was noon when she awoke, and for a little she lay still, puzzled to find herself in the prize examples.

For years before 1935 labor had clamored for a law which unions felt would help them in dealing with employers. Employers fought the whole idea.

Finally, such a law, the Wagner Act, was passed in 1935. Then for 12 years employers clamored to have it changed or knocked out.

This wasn't done till the Republicans got control of Congress in 1947, after being out of control since 1932.

Right away they drastically rewrote the labor law and passed the Taft-Hartley Act, which pleased employers. But labor screamed.

But after only two years in the saddle, the Republicans now have lost control again to the Democrats. The people made the upset in the elections.

And now the Democrats are going to change the labor law around to suit at least some of the union's demands.

"Mike Channing—wasn't it silly of him? They must have cost a fortune."

"Mike? He usually sends orchids. I loathe the things, but they seem highly regarded among Mike's set," said Lissa lightly, and added a trifle dryly, "I wouldn't worry about his extravagance. Mike happens to be quite able to afford it."

Merry was very pink as she pretended to eat her breakfast, and Lissa studied her curiously for a moment.

"Mike's fun, isn't he?" she suggested.

"Oh, lots of fun! I am not sure I'm going to be able to keep up with him. I'm a small-town girl and he's pretty dashing," confessed Merry honestly.

Lissa laughed. "All the more dangerous to Mike, my dear, because of your enchanting novelty! Well, I have an appointment. You're all taken care of for the afternoon and evening, I believe? Are you dining out?"

"Louise Martin and Anne Bates have invited me to a matinee. I want to see, and afterwards somebody's giving a tea—they know where it is, I don't. And then dinner some place, I've got it all down. Oh, yes, I'm taken care of—don't give it a thought."

Lissa nodded and took herself off.

Merry sighed contentedly and looked about her at the pretty room, sniffed the scent of the delicate spring blossoms and, with an eye on the clock, sprang up to dress.

She and the two other girls enjoyed the matinee. Afterwards, they walked up Fifth Avenue in the late afternoon and rose in an expensively quiet elevator to somebody's beautiful apartment, already noisy with the clatter of voices, thick with smoke, fragrant with the perfume of half a hundred mingled scents.

And the first person Merry saw was Mike listening with polite attention to a tall, slender, very lovely woman in a misty blue-gray chiffon frock that was a triumph of the dressmaker's art and so becoming to her that one accepted it as a part of her personality.

In Hollywood
 By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—If the pollsters whose errors are coming home to roost are still having headaches, Jimmy Stewart is ready to share the aspirin.

In a nationwide contest, Jimmy asked fans to write and tell him what they'd like to see him do on the screen. He confessed he was confused. After five years at war, he returned to Hollywood, starred in "It's a Wonderful Life" and the critics said they were tired of him playing a small-town hero. They liked his performance in "Northside 77," but questioned his change of space in "Rope." They liked his comedy in "You Gotta Stay Happy." So Jimmy appealed to his fans.

The fans came right back. They agreed Jimmy should:

1. Be different.
2. Remain the same.
3. Play comedies.
4. Take only serious roles.

"I guess," Jimmy told me, "I'll just go on accepting the stories I think are right for me—I'd like to do a Western next—and play them as well as I can."

MILD RECESSION
 UI isn't going to be caught with its prices up—or down.

Film fans have been snickering at the low prices on store window signs, on meals, on clothing, etc., seen in movies shot from a year to two years ago. Now the price problem—should they be up or down?—for movies to be released a year hence, is being answered.

Prices shown in "Illegal Entry" and other UI films to be released during the next 12 months will be down 15 percent from current levels—based on predictions made for the studio by mail-order house economists.

Anyone who doubts the potentiality of films for television should talk to Hal Roach. His production program, exclusively for TV, includes 18 different series. The details of the conversion of his studio to television production and the elaborate production plans are summed up in a slick brochure prepared by Jules Seltzer.

"Portrait of Jennie" is playing here, but David O. Selznick is still mixing colors trying to improve her looks—cutting and adding new dubbing to the picture.

JOB FOR HORSES
 Bruce Bennett is up for the lead in four big Westerns—Hollywood is going to the horses to bolster the box office.

Tex Williams goes to London in the spring with a new Western tune written especially for the British, "I Say Old Chappie, Where's Your Zippo?"

Diana Lynn's performance as a meanie in "Bitter Victory" is a terrific switch from her nice young girl roles and is bound to raise her stock as an important dramatic actress.

Economy note: The Delta, swank filmtown cafe, long has featured an item on its menu listed as "Child's Portion—$2." Recently they had to add "For Children Only." It hasn't been announced yet, but the big amateur cycle of the Major Bowes era is about to descend on us again. The Skouras Theater chain will soon reveal an enormous talent hunt involving hundreds of theaters west of Chicago. It's a gimmick to lure people back to the movies and the winners will get trips to Hollywood and other big prizes.

Recovery note: Glenn Billingsley, nephew of the Stock Club, ran a couple of swank Hollywood restaurants during the war but found the going rough. Now he has a hamburger stand at the corner of Melrose and Vine and business is so good he's thinking of opening another. From caviar to hamburgers—well, that's what's happening to Hollywood, too.

Palaver de Pampa

CONSIDER IT campaigning for the March of Dimes if you want to—and that would be fine—but if you heard Ken Palmer interviewing Pinky Vineyard on the radio Wednesday night, you probably have given more than a dime to the cause. . . . By gosh, that's one thing Pampa has on Amarillo—Pinky!

SAW Ione Barnhart and Lena Hood scouring the Combe-Worley Building "selling" a permanent receipt from the sales to benefit the March of Dimes—they set quite a record, it seems. . . . by the way, Louise Dunn was the lucky gal who was awarded the permanent.

JOHN Pitts will make out your receipt for your poll tax while you drink coffee at the Court House Cafe. . . . this seems like a worthwhile service for those who don't seem to get time to go over to the courthouse to pay their poll taxes.

HERE AND THERE—Irma Francis and Frank Morris are off on a belated honeymoon to Cuba, with new car et al. . . . Lillian Jordan, wearing a beautiful emerald ring—anniversary gift from papa. . . . Pat and Vincent Kersey certainly make a handsome couple.

A FESTIVE group and a good orchestra made a gala evening at that spot east of the city on Saturday night, week ago. . . . it was surprising when the Country Clubbers came tripping in dressed as their "life's ambition" . . . by far the most outstanding costumes, to my way of thinking, were those of Clayton and Lucille Husted. . . . Lucille was dressed as a Spanish senorita while Clayton was a Spanish matador—even down to the long silk stockings. . . . Knowing Clayton, I'm sure he had the bull by the horns before the evening was out. . . . others present were Herman Foster in cowboy attire. . . . Del Beagle in blue denim overalls, jacket and red kerchief—as a railroad engineer. . . . Rachel Brumley, also a Spanish senorita, and Parks dressed as a soldier. . . . Melvin Watkins was quite a bit attired as a bartender; and wife Lois, made an excellent French artist—complete with smock, brush, tam and bangs. . . . the only let-down of the entire evening was that no firemen or policemen were present. . . . you know, that wasn't quite right.

I BELIEVE Ken Bennett scored his most successful show in Pampa. . . . and with the help of his cast, he provided a very entertaining evening. . . . when Harry Kelley came out to sing, a lady sitting behind me gasped "Can he sing too?" . . . I guess Harry can do just about anything. . . . Ben Ogden, selling cracker jacks up and down the aisles "with a diamond ring in every crack" . . . a newcomer to Pampa's stage is Cameron March, history teacher at Pampa High. . . . with his Southern drawl and stage personality, it's well to wager he'll be back. . . . hear that for benefit of the March of Dimes, Ken, the Kiwanis Club and the entire cast will repeat the show tomorrow night—and there will be a slight reduction in price.

OVERHEARD a clerk say during the recent (recent?) bad weather, it was a ray of sunshine for Mrs. A. B. Zahn to come into the store because she was constantly so cheerful. . . . speaking of being cheerful, I didn't know Bonnie Rose was such a whiz at telling jokes until recently. . . . they're nice ones, too. . . . Ruth Caraway and Lucille Sanders returned this past week from market in Dallas. . . . a resident of White Deer, Mrs. J. J. Simmons, is often seen on Pampa streets shopping and passing the time of day with Pampans. . . . one of Pampa's gracious ladies is Mrs. George Cress. . . . this weather is cooping up a large majority of people, and that is an understatement. . . . heard Bill Mullinax complaining that he wanted to be out and around. . . . saw Mrs. R. B. Mathers of Miami buying a new spring suit. . . . there's one this weather isn't bothering. . . . I think it's a compliment to Pampa stores for these neighbors to come to the "friendly city" to buy. . . . Mrs. Roscoe Pitts and Mrs. George Appleby went to visit their only children during "between semesters" at TCU in Fort Worth.

OPEN LETTER to Knox Kinard:
Dear Supt—
There're snow tracks, broken toys, cracked records, and dismembered books scattered all over the house. . . . Won't it be a relief, Sir, when the weather lets up? I never realized before what our teachers put up with—and what we were being relieved of. . . . You can have my Indians back at the earliest possible moment!

For—
I'm prying on 'em
I'm spying on 'em
And they just keep yelling "Mama!"
Which means,
PEG O' PAMPA.

★ WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer
Among the sure ways of scaring off a man whose intentions are not yet serious are:
The girl's mother making too big a fuss over him.
The girl's developing a sudden interest in spending evenings in the homes of married friends, obviously wanting her young man to see what he's missing.
The girl's showing signs of possessiveness, asking too many questions, checking up on how he spends the evenings he doesn't spend with her, showing curiosity about his old girls, etc.
The mother's attempt to be a good press agent for her daughter, telling the young man how popular she is, etc.
ALWAYS READY
The girl's losing interest in having other dates, so that she is always at home to answer the telephone or accept a last-minute date.
Signs that the girl is already serious about the young man, such as worrying about his job, wanting to know all about his family, etc.
The girl's friends assuming that the young man's intentions are serious.
The girl's making it obvious that marriage is the only thing in the world that really interests her, that her job is just something to do until she can get married.

NEW YORK—NEA—Coat colors will match any Gypsy fortune teller's dress. Although so-called "romany" colors run rampant through spring collections, woolen fabrics are the news.

Most aggressive bow-takers are worsteds of wide wale, ribbed and diagonal finishes and of smooth-faced delustrated surfaces.

A new sheenless worsted makes the purple dress coat (right) with a plaid taffeta lining of lavender and rose. New restrained styling is demonstrated by modified skirt flare and a fitted waistline which is buttoned and belted with black patent leather.

A coral red worsted of diagonal weave makes the dress coat (left). A flyaway jib cape is the season's new back interest which flows out from a silhouette of multiple-pleat fullness, tied in at the waist with a self-belt.

Plastic Fingers Massage Scalp

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Finger-tip massage of the scalp will help to keep it in the pink and hair which stems from it in better condition. The girl who wants to see hair-care pay off with lovelier sheen and healthier crackle should allot a few minutes a day to scalp massage.

To make the routine of scalp massage easier and to free fingers of a tiring job is the purpose of a few brush-like gadget. Instead of bristles, this massage brush has fingers of tenite plastic, mounted in a resilient base. When the brush is moved through the hair, fingerlike pegs move individually in a kneading action comparable

St. Louis boys accuse their girls of wearing crew cut hair.

Of course they are not really that closely cropped, but as one boy says, "just ask the fellows. If you meet one who would rather have his date wear one of those curly crew cuts than a long bob I'll sport the woodpecker haircut."

There are a few things the girls with short cuts haven't considered, says another boy. He thinks short hair makes girls look border; makes big ears "more prominent" and will "cost them more in the long run when they visit the barber for haircuts."

However, many of the girls wearing the short hairdo have learned to cut their hair at home. Any way it is not THAT short, so why should the boys gripe? The average teenager still is wearing her hair below her ears.

HAPPY FEET

The do-everything-myself teenager now makes her own shoes! This is a fad shoe, of course, and will not put shoe men out of business. Here's the way-how: Kits come with full directions complete with die cut pieces of leather with perforations, specially molded composition sole and plexon cord to lace the component parts together. Diagram within the package show how to fit each piece. No needles are required because the plastic lacing is flexible and can be inserted through perforations easily. The shoes are sort-a like moccasins but have open heel and toe, leather is calfskin, colors are blue, green, red, yellow and white.

If you attempt these, do the lacing properly. I know a girl who tried to make an impression with her date by making him a pair of moccasins. She twisted some of the lacing inside the shoe and her date reminds her still of that beautiful blister he grew on his foot as the result of her shortcomings in the cobbling business.

ROUND THAT CAMP FIRE

The Camp Fire Girls choice for their 1949 national birthday project is "Make Mine Democracy." Any leader, they say, will find this project a challenge. One of the activities suggested by them to carry out this idea is a Democracy Treasure Hunt. Girls are asked to pal up in groups of two or three and choose one letter from the word Democracy. Then they find examples of democracy which begin with that letter. "D girls might turn up with a newspaper article on democracy, a Diary of a great citizen (found in the library) a Dime with its mottoes, a copy of the Declaration of Independence.

Who ever said baby sitting wasn't a profitable job? Anywho that isn't the way Donald Fornuto, 17, of New York City, heard it.

Donald created an original music composition from the cries of his baby sister Patricia Ann. It starts off with the child asleep in her crib (low and sweet) grasping for her rattle (xylophone), shaking rattle (rumba) and falling to sleep again (rockabye baby).

It played to an overflow audience. They thought it was terrific. Donald, who graduates from Music and Art pretty soon and plans to continue his music studies in college, plays piano in a dance band on weekends.

Court Orders Settlement of Support Clause

Judge Lewis M. Goodrich Friday in 31st District Court ordered one father to settle his delinquent minor support payments within two weeks or face a jail sentence.

The father, M. R. Albertson, summoned into court by his former wife, Mrs. Evadean Herring, told the Court he had been having heart trouble and wasn't able to work regularly, and that he had been denied, by his former wife, the privilege of seeing his two children.

Mrs. Herring told the Court that Albertson was not denied the privilege and that when he visited them on one occasion the older of the two didn't recognize him.

Albertson was ordered to undergo an examination by the county health officer, Dr. Julian Key, to determine his physical condition, and an appointment made for Friday. The Court announced the physician's examination found Albertson to be in normal condition so far as any heart ailment was concerned.

Court records showed the couple was divorced in January, 1945, when a $50 a month support order was entered. The order was later reduced to $40 a month, and still later to $30 a month.

Neither plaintiff nor defendant was represented by counsel before the Court.

Later, Friday, Judge Goodrich granted a divorce to John P. Brunell from Mildred E. Brunell on grounds of abandonment. The couple was married in March, 1941, and separated in September, 1943.

A Prepared Way and Ministry

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

"Be prepared" is a watchword written largely over our life today. Its significance is largely in the area of security and military preparedness, but it has a very, much larger, application to the whole of life and to every enterprise and venture. It is an important watchword in the realm of religion.

"Preparation" is written over every aspect of the ministry of Jesus, the missionary labors of Saint Paul, and the whole story of the founding of Christianity.

John the Baptist, whom Jesus called the greatest of all men born of women, prepared the way, and called for preparation: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight."

But that was only the beginning of the Christian preparation. We must never forget the long period of preparation in the life of Jesus himself, the nearly 18 silent years in Nazareth before He began His public ministry. Nor should we forget Paul's silent years, his going into the desert and the long preparation before he launched out on his missionary journeys.

Think of the boy Jesus in Nazareth, waiting patiently, preparing fully, obediently listening, before He began that ministry, which was to last so shortly in earthly years, but which was to be timeless and endless in its truth and blessing for mankind. Nothing in God's providence is accomplished without discipline and preparation.

I speak of these things with some feeling. Because I recall how at one time in my own life, under unfortunate influences and impulses, I was tempted to throw up my college work with its severe discipline and take a short cut into "Christian work." As I look back I can see how unprepared I was and how much I needed discipline and training.

Education, of course, is not all. The poet Tennyson prayed in "Memoriam" that knowledge should grow from more to more, but along with more of reverence. And Paul's prayer for the disciples was that their love should abound more and more in knowledge and discernment. An old adage says that "a little knowledge is a dangerous thing"; but loveless knowledge is even more dangerous.

But without education and the discipline of scholars we could not have had our English Bible, or the church, or all the valued things that despisers of education forget that education made possible.

But it is well to remember what is stressing—that the greatest of all ministries, the ministry of Jesus, had back of it years of preparation. The same applies to the ministry of Paul. "Be prepared" is still the watchword of Christian progress.

Group Considers Buying Railroad

BRECKENRIDGE — (AP) — A group of persons interested in purchasing the Wichita Falls and Southern Railroad Friday night agreed to investigate further before taking any steps toward buying the railroad.

At a meeting here they voted to ask Orville Bullington, Wichita Falls, president of the line, to set a price and to name other terms for the sale.

Representatives of eight towns served by the line were invited to attend the meeting here but weather prevented all but the Breckenridge group from attending.

Bullington announced earlier that he wished to dispose of the railroad. His announcement followed a strike by union workers, but the strike was later suspended temporarily.

Texas Has 547 New Firms in '48

AUSTIN — (AP) — Establishment of 50 new business firms in December brought the 1948 total to 547, the Texas Employment Commission reported.

New industries gave work to 12,406 persons, the TEC said, noting that its report includes only those establishments employing eight or more workers.

Socialized Doctors Become Bureaucrats

According to an Associated Press dispatch from London, "Britain's national health service... The world's biggest experiment in socialized medicine is under way."

This situation has reached an extreme point... The government's original forecast was that the bill would cost 150,000,000 pounds a year... The actual cost, according to the British Medical Assn., will exceed 250,000,000 pounds.

Rep. Pickett's Bill Would Extend Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Tom Pickett, Democrat from Palestine, Tex., plans to introduce legislation to expand the government's forest conservation and development program.

'Fair' in Spirit?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If the Truman "Fair Deal" chooses to dub it, it is to have one thing about it making it easier to take than Roosevelt's "New Deal."

Fair Enough -- by Westbrook Pegler

WASHINGTON — President Truman, who received less than half of the votes cast in the national election, presumed to say in his inauguration speech that the American people are determined to work for a world in which all nations and all peoples are free to govern themselves.

Success Stories

During the Miami Open Golf Tournament in December, 1948, Chic Harbert went off on a rainy, windy day and set a new record for the Miami Springs course.

Chic must have quit playing "scared golf" and quit trying to "wish them in" for he finished first in the tournament.

Every segment of our population has a right to expect from this government a fair deal — President Truman.

'Fair' in Spirit? by Upton Close

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If the Truman "Fair Deal" chooses to dub it, it is to have one thing about it making it easier to take than Roosevelt's "New Deal."

LOOK AT THE LABEL — A lot of persons, who like to think that they are bandying about a couple of terms that mean less than a whole lot to the whole lot of people, refer to the terms "liberal" and "reactionary."

The President has only just finished his vow of true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States when he announced this highly complimentary opinion of the people of the United States.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — Business men express less concern over President Truman's 1949 legislative program as a result of their post-inaugural discovery that it was framed largely by the more conservatively minded men of his assorted family of advisers.

CONSERVATIVE

When Henry A. Wallace delivered his famous and scorching attack on former RFC Chairman Jesse H. Jones on the ground that the Texan had delayed construction by his "penurious policy," he was really hitting at Mr. Snyder.

ARGUMENT

It was this trio which persuaded Mr. Truman against renewal of his request for an excess profits tax.

So They Say

It is almost impossible for a man to live the good life in the United States. They heat their rooms to 75 degrees, then they nail the windows down so that you suffocate.

New Device Speeds Sub Rescues

This newly-developed messenger buoy is designed to speed submarine rescue work by eliminating the need for deep-sea divers. Released by a stricken sub, the ball-shaped buoyancy chambers carry it up to the surface. The reel in the center carries wire cable, connected to the sub's escape hatch. The rescue chamber is lowered on this cable. (U. S. Navy photo from NEA-Acme.)

Raps DAR

Hitting the Daughters of the American Revolution's "undercurrent attitude" toward minorities, Grace Yuriko Oshima declined to try for a trip to Washington, D. C. She had been chosen by fellow St. Louis, Mo., students to compete in the DAR's "Miss Pilgrim" contest. Miss Oshima is a 17-year-old Nisei.

10 Texans Named To IPA Board

WICHITA FALLS — (AP) — Ten Texans were elected to the board of directors of the International Petroleum Association of America at the conclusion Friday of a two-day meeting.

The association also issued a statement of policy favoring a reduction in foreign oil imports. H. B. Fell, Ardmore, Okla., urged that independent oilmen point out to their state legislators how imports are reducing production at home. He said present imports of 615,000 barrels should be reduced by at least 353,000 barrels a day. U. S. Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls said he did not know what sentiment would be in Congress on restricting imports, but said "I'm sure they (the producers) will get a sympathetic hearing."

LET'S MOVE THIS MAN HERE ---
Mr. J. Wade Duncan
Pampa, Texas
Dear Sir:
I am in the market for 160 to 320 acres of wheat land and am interested in your part of the country, say between White Deer and Laketon, or somewhere in the same distance north or south of Pampa. The land would have to be reasonably close to a town, easily accessible, all, or nearly all in cultivation, and of course good wheat land. I would not be interested in surface rights only or in possible irrigation territory. I'm not looking for possible oil, or gas prospects, but would not want to be in a future field without getting some benefits from it. Please advise me if you know of anything that meets these conditions and if so, about what would be the price. (name on request.)

I've got more customers wanting to buy, than I've got stuff to sell. If you don't think we're on the ball down here give us a try---I've sold 3 deals here this week, and I don't consider that bad considering the weather---and speaking of weather, I've just been out to Ed Guthrie's pasture looking over some of his new born calves---they do look kind of queer with their big antlers---but Ed's got nothing to worry about---the same thing happened here some 42 years ago, only worse---when I first came to this country Lee Quinn would more Moore meat in his market than he did beef---so I wouldn't worry to much Ed---you won't have to shorn them---soon as we have a little warmer weather they'll shed their racks.

I have a nice little deal here that can be bought worth the money, and it's in down-town Pampa right in the heart of the business district---it's a nice clean business, and its a good concern---it could be bought for around 20,000---don't call on this, as I can't give out any information over the phone.
---and now just a few words to the publishers of this paper over the interference they're giving me on my advertising---if you've read down to this, I would like for you to back this part, as its going to more or less confidential between me and them ---
---so you think it really doesn't take a hen 24 hrs to lay an egg---even a child would no better than that---I spent better than 14 years raising chickens---so I think I can speak with authority on how long it takes the average hen to lay an egg---and I mean one that is in fair health, and not to old---it takes just about a minute and a 1/2---how do I know---well I'll tell you---I used to sell eggs to the hatcheries---millions of them---and I found out that if you had a 100 hens, and you built a 100 nests, that the hens would do much better on the job---what I mean by that is they'd just set on the nest (resting I called it)---they'd set for hours at a time---no one day I got my efficiency expert out there and we done some changing---we streamlined the entire set-up---core all the nests down but one---this really done the job---when one laid an egg another one was waiting, and this went on all day long---I remember particularly one bunch extra high grade hens that I once owned---16 to be exact---I kept records on them for a week, and they set the record---their average time was just 46 seconds---that record still stands as far as I can find out.

---now about that word to, who I should say two or too---you ought to know about that now---I'm saving money just like the rest of your advertisers---if I can use the word to instead of the word two, or too, or even too's---then I'm saving some space on that extra letter---and over a period of time that space amounts to quite a considerable savings in money---and as for me having to say Frank Hunt for writing that new press---OH NO---I'd rather buy a new press already with the wiring on it.

You can start Reading again ---
---I was a little disappointed the way the City Commission went around me on the Managers job---I didn't aim to take the job anyway, but they could give me a hearing---after all I pay taxes just the same as anybody---I do think they got a good man though, and I'm going to try and work with him especially if he'll pave the street that runs sideways to my house.

---here's a letter that just came in---Dear Sir: The writer was thumbing thru some newspapers and ran across your large ad in the Pampa News of Nov. 25th. That was a darned good ad and it is easy to see that you believe in advertising, at least you don't skimp for a few pennies. We are needing representation on our products in your territory and was wondering if you would be interested in selling and handling paints. I believe you can sell more paint than any dealer in Pampa. If you are unable to handle paints you may know someone in Pampa that is needing a good paint line. We used to have a dealer in your town but he retired years ago and we need another like him. If you are interested in this line, please let me know. If anyone wants to get in the paint business come by and I'll give you the name of the factory---its located at Kansas City.

When you read this go to Church---You'll feel better the rest of the day.
