College Won't Bow to Texas Millionaire for Financing

NATCHEZ, Miss. — (AP) — Although in a desperate financial plight, Jefferson Military College yesterday broke all ties with Texas millionaire George W. Armstrong.

Trustees met for 90 minutes and then concurred again on his withdrawal of a proposed $50,000,000 endowment which would have required the 147-year-old prep school to be run according to his ideas of white supremacy.

A statement by the trustees declared there had been "a complete misunderstanding between Judge George W. Armstrong and the entire Board of Trustees."

The officials even rejected Armstrong's offer to pay off a $5,000 bank note for the college and to help the school along financially the rest of its school year.

S. N. Murphy, chairman of the trustee's Executive Committee, said he didn't know what is in store for the school now.

"The future at the moment is a blank," he said.

The trustees' announcement was made after the elderly advocate of white supremacy had apparently left the door open for the little school to reopen his endowment offer.

But he made it sharply clear it would have to be on his own terms.

The new development arose at a meeting with two school officials after he had announced Friday night he had "concluded to withdraw my offer."

"If Jefferson Military College officials can meet my conditions," he later told newsmen in an interview, "I'm ready to support them. Otherwise, they'll have to look somewhere else."

"I want to make it plain I have no controversy with the trustees," Armstrong said. "They're trying to serve the country in their way and I in my own way."

The meeting held in the office of Joseph E. Brown, Armstrong's attorney, were Armstrong; his son, Allen J. Armstrong, a school trustee and also business manager; and trustee chairman Murphy.

The elderly Armstrong issued this statement:

"My son, A. J. Armstrong, has correctly stated that the principal purpose of my proposed endowment of Jefferson Military College is to promote constitutional government, our Christian religion and white supremacy."

"I am not anti-Semitic as has been charged. I am for the banishment from our country of all Socialists and the trial and execution of all Communist traitors. Only to the extent that Jews are Socialists and Communists am I anti-Semitic."

The elder Armstrong is a colorful person. He is a son of an itinerant Methodist minister who fought for the Confederacy. His son calls him a "self-made man" (See COLLEGE, Page 10)

5 Students in Running for Scholarships

Five Pampa school students are in the running for scholarships to the annual Western State Music School at Gunnison, Colo., next summer. B. R. Shultz, president of SPEBSQSA, and sixteen Junior and Senior High School pupils competed for the honors Friday night at the SPEBSQSA sponsored "Barbershoppers Talent Search."

The out-of-town judges agreed Pampa has much musical talent.

Charlotte Ann Call, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Call, will be awarded a scholarship to the camp for her flute solo. She is an eighth-grade student.

Finalists in piano solos were Phoebe Cochran, Junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Osborne, and Berna Lou McMin, Sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McMin.

Voice finalists were Jann Ethridge, Senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ethridge, and Bernice Homer, Senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Homer.

The local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America Inc., will award scholarships to the music school.

Piano and voice finalists will be judged at the Barbershoppers parade of quartets Nov. 12. Members of the Borestone Four, Oklahoma City, and Flying L. Tull, will pick the other two winners from the four finalists.

Quartet to be here Nov. 12 will be from Carlsbad, Lubbock, Amarillo, Borger, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Pampa.

Shultz served as master of ceremonies Friday night.

"We would like to make our 'Talent Search' a national affair here," he said. "If we can get the opinions of Pampans and find they are in favor of us continuing our projects, we will make the search an annual affair."

He urged residents to write SPEBSQSA, 632 Wells, Pampa, and express their opinions.

Indonesia Will Become United States

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands. — (AP) — Delegates signed yesterday the provisional Constitution for the soon-to-be-born East Indies republic — the United States of Indonesia.

Independence is expected to be handed the 70,000,000 people by mid-December. The Dutch formally transfer sovereignty over the islands, sea, in rubber, tea and tin.

The provisional Constitution was written by delegates who have been participating in a round table conference with the Dutch since Aug. 22. Formal agreement is expected at a session Nov. 3.

The Constitution, yet to be ratified by the state legislatures, is intended to serve as a charter for the Indonesians for a year. An elected constituent assembly then will fix the permanent form of government.

The Constitution provides for a non-party president, a cabinet headed by a prime minister and a Parliament consisting of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senate will have two members from each state to protect state rights in a federal government. Its veto can be overridden by a two-thirds vote of the House of Representatives elected on a population basis.

The Republic of Indonesia, which has fought for independence since the liberation from the Japanese occupation, will have one-third of the seats in the House of Representatives.

Steel-Coal Strike Picture Is Very Dark

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Another sliver of hope slanted feebly across the nation's darkened steel-coal strike picture.

The government yesterday working feverishly to crack the industry-stifling steel deadlock — dropped squarely in the lap of the CIO United Steel Workers a move by small producers to recall the presidential fact finding board for clarification of its peace formula.

Otherwise, the situation remains as dark as ever.

The steel and coal strike twins have outgrown their swaddling clothes. A robust four and six weeks old respectively, they have left the nation's economy battered.

While President Truman says the strikes do not yet add up to a national emergency, more than a million workers are idled and losses are in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

In the steel and coal capital of Pittsburgh, requests for jobless aid are flooding state employment offices at the rate of 10,000 a day, most of them as an indirect result of the strikes. That's the pattern elsewhere.

Federal mediators are continuing talks with top steel producers in an effort to drive a peace wedge into the stalemate but say they haven't gotten anywhere yet. The coal strike is just joggling (See STRIKES, Page 10)

Man Hurt When Car Hits Bridge

Harvey E. Yoachum, 609 Monroe, Borger, was taken to Pampa Hospital at 6:05 p.m. Friday after his car crashed into the east side of the N. Ballard bridge over Central Park.

Yoachum was first believed to be injured seriously, but physicians at Pampa Hospital said he suffered mostly bruises about the chest and a laceration of the shoulder. They described him as badly shaken up. The theory of a possible punctured lung was also discounted by physicians yesterday afternoon.

Just what happened is still a mystery to City Police. Patrolmen Joe Wilkinson and J. R. Manning were unable to get anything out of Yoachum after the accident early yesterday afternoon due to his condition. However, police declared the man showed no signs of drinking. (See WRECK, Page 10)

Bulgaria Turns to Arrests In Effort to Curb Titoism

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia. — (AP) — Yugoslavia's press said yesterday Bulgaria has turned to mass arrests of officials, workers and peasants as part of the Russian-led Cominform's effort to curb the spread of Titoism — nationalistic communism.

Bulgaria has been forced into extensive construction of new concentration camps because "old camps are filled," said the Communist newspaper Borba, voice of Premier Marshal Tito's government.

At the same time, Yugoslavia accused Hungary — another of her Communist neighbors — of stirring up new trouble on the border. The Interior Ministry charged that Hungarian troops fired rifles and threw grenades across the frontier near the town of Donji Miholjac Thursday night in a "warmongering provocation."

The ministry added, however, that no one was injured and Yugoslav troops did not return the fire.

Borba's three-column article obviously bearing the approval of Tito's regime, termed the Bulgarian situation an example of that existing in all Cominform countries that have remained under control of Moscow. The last big purges were in Czechoslovakia.

Without citing the source of its information, Borba said that in one Bulgarian district alone, Plevna, 2,500 persons are under arrest, four-fifths of them on political charges. Cryptically, it said that among them were "honest Communists, friends of Yugoslavia, foes of Titoism."

The trials in preparation, it said, are aimed at "diverting the attention of the masses from existing problems which Bulgaria is not solving." The arrests were reported to have "provoked great bitterness among Bulgarian workers."

Boy Rescued From Pipe

AUSTIN — (AP) — Slight scratches on the face and side were the only physical reminders today that Bobby Andrew Gow, a tiny 3-year-old, was imprisoned three hours Friday deep in an 8-inch cast-iron pipe.

Bobby, whose 26-pound body dropped from view at 2:48 p.m. (CST), just 50 feet from his back doorstep, was reported in good shape at Brackenridge Hospital. He spent the night there under observation in the pediatric ward.

The slender brown-eyed boy went home with his mother and father at 10:45 a.m. Saturday. His doctor pronounced him in "fine condition, fit as a fiddle, absolutely nothing wrong with him."

"Lucky he's as young as he is," said the doctor. "He's too little to even know what happened."

Bobby just blinked his eyes — still groggy from the heavy sleep induced by a sedative — and clinging to his parents.

MISS DAIRY QUEEN—Miss Nancy Thomason of Pampa is Miss Dairy Queen of Oklahoma A&M, and will compete for the top campus title, Miss Aggie Princess, in the spring election. She is shown above holding an armful of roses presented to her just after her victory a few nights ago over 14 other contestants. A Sophomore, she will reign over the campus this year, all Dairy Science Club activities

WITCHES AND GOBLINS WILL ROAM PAMPA

Tomorrow night, Halloween witches and goblins will make their annual foray on Pampa as well as other parts of the state and nation.

Police hope they will leave their vandals at home or in some deep, remote cave.

Chief of Police J. O. Dumas reported no complaints had been received so far from property owners on vandalism in the city.

"The kids may have all the harmless fun they want, and play all the 'trick or treat' stunts they can think of, but we do hope the younger set, and those old enough to know better, will respect other peoples' property," Dumas said.

To guard against any wanton destructiveness the Police Department will call in men to duty Monday night. Although some vandalism has been reported in years past it has been on the decrease generally in Pampa.

Dumas also requested parents to caution their children against defacing private or public property and to explain to them that it isn't smart or funny to deliberately break windows, throw paint on houses, break street lights or other forms of malicious mischief that will cost someone money for repairs.

HST Overrides Congress on Issue of 58-Group Air Force

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman overrode Congress yesterday on the hotly debated 58-group Air Force issue.

He signed a $15,585,863,498 military appropriation — the biggest in peacetime history — but in doing so he ordered the secretary of defense to impound $615,000,000 that the lawmakers had voted to build up the Air Force to 58 groups.

Mr. Truman's budget provided for a 48-group force and that is about what he'll now get. The Air Force will acquire a total of 1,200 new planes instead of 1,800.

In forbidding the proposed expansion of the air arm, the President said in effect that it isn't only the original cost but the upkeep — more men to man the planes, more operating costs, more replacement expense; all in all "greatly increased" future expenses.

Furthermore, he declared, to give the Air Force more than provided in his budget would be "inconsistent with a realistic and balanced security program which we can support in peacetime."

The $15,585,863,498 appropriation represents more than $100 for each man, woman and child in the United States. It is far more than one-third of the entire federal budget.

Heads of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees did not question the validity of the President's action. Senator Byrd (D-Va.), who has led a fight to cut federal costs, praised it. But some Republican lawmakers were critical.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.), interviewed at Bangor, Me., said he was not surprised at the President's move but added it raises the question: "What are the limits of his disregard of Congress?"

The big money bill provides the following sums:

Army: $4,380,944,298 cash.
Navy: $4,388,352,200 cash and $643,546,000 contract authority.
Air Force: $4,088,386,000 cash (See AIR FORCE, Page 10)

Laborites to Take Power of House of Lords

LONDON — (AP) — A final swipe of the Laborites scissors will clip the powers of Britain's House of Lords Monday.

The noblemen's chamber of Parliament thereafter will be able to delay laws only for one year. Now they can hold up legislation for two.

This is the biggest change in Britain's unwritten Constitution since all women were given voting powers 21 years ago. The heavy Labor majority in the House of Commons — the dominant body of Parliament — will push it through.

The move will make way for the Labor government's bill to socialize the iron and steel industry before its five-year term ends next July.

These twin bills — to scissor the power of the peers and nationalize steel — have occasioned the bitterest British political battle since Prime Minister Attlee's Labor regime took office in July, 1945.

A heavy opposition vote — perhaps equaling the 222 scored on a no-confidence amendment this week — is expected.

The Conservatives insist the two-year veto is necessary to stop hasty legislation.

Play Benefit For Christmas Party Here

The local chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will bring "The Hasty Heart," a Broadway success by John Patrick, to the Junior High School Auditorium at 8 p. m. Nov. 9.

Jones Seitz, commander of VFW, said the play is being brought here by special arrangements of Charlie Thomas, VFW, is sponsoring the play to help raise money for its annual Christmas party for Pampa children.

"The Hasty Heart" is a theatre-on-tour production with cooperation of the Theatre Guild of New York. Pampa's showing will be one of the first since it was seen on the stage of metropolitan centers.

Described as "comedy about a tragedy," "a war play which is not about war," the play is set in a British hospital in Burma. (See PLAY, Page 10)

Condition of New Yorker Still Same

HOUSTON — (AP) — Allen Thomas Sturges II, continues unconscious in a Houston hospital.

The 26-year-old New York society figure was found shot in the head last Saturday in an upstairs spare bedroom in a private home in Houston's River Oaks residential suburb.

Police said the bullet wound was self-inflicted. Surgeons have not removed the bullet.

Sturges' mother, Mrs. E. N. Taveniere, Englewood, N. J., has been at her son's bedside since Thursday night.

At the time Sturges was found last Saturday Brownsville police were looking for him on two charges — swindling by check and moving mortgaged property, a Buick automobile, from the city.

He had been working in Brownsville about three months but had come here early last week.

Miss Marion Yturria, 23, member of a prominent Brownsville and South Texas family, who had been working here as a reservations clerk for an airline, told police Sturges called her shortly after he arrived here, saying that mutual friends in Brownsville had suggested he do so.

She had lunch with him when he twice became suspicious when she discovered he had registered under an assumed name at the Shamrock Hotel.

After advising her family in Brownsville of the situation, Miss Yturria left for Houston. (See CONDITION, Page 10)

Traveler Says Conditions in England Bad

Conditions in England cannot get much worse, a Wichita, Kans., girl wrote her sister, Mrs. J. Herman Jones, 601 N. Gray, this week.

Dr. Myrtle M. Nickel is touring Europe for the Church of the Brethren with 10 other lay church members in the interests of foreign relief and international peace.

"England," Dr. Nickel wrote her sister, "is facing an economic crisis that is calling for a new election soon. The pound cannot devalue any more without serious results."

The average wage for a working man, she said, is five pounds a week, or about $15. Bread and rents are rising 10 to 20 percent. Food is severely rationed; only one egg per person per week is allowed.

To top it off, the doctor wrote, crops are in short supply due to a three-month drought. Municipal water reservoirs are nearly empty and water service is cut off at night.

The bright note, however, is that "all over Britain the flowers are very beautiful."

The party took a 1,200-mile trip through nine British counties and visited the northern lake country, famed in poem and story, Shakespeare's home at Stratford-on-Avon, and the Scottish Border country immortalized by Robert Burns.

The group has since visited Norway and Sweden and is now in Poland. They plan to visit 16 countries altogether in their two-month tour.

One-Third of Fund Drive Is Collected

More than one-third of the goal for the 1949 fund drive of the Pampa Girl Scout Association has been reached, Joe Wells, general drive chairman, said yesterday.

During the first week of the general drive more than $1,000 was raised and the advance gift drive netted about $1,000. By press time yesterday a total of $2,201.50 had been turned in to the Scout office.

The general drive got underway last week at a kick-off breakfast, attended by 36 volunteer workers. The goal for the 1949 drive has been set at $6,600.

"The real backbone of the association is not the money received from the drive," Mrs. K. E. Thornton, executive, said. "Rather it is the many Pampans who have continually shown an interest in the operation of the association. They are the true friends of Scouting."

She added the job is more than half done when good leaders have been obtained. Mentioning some of the special friends of Scouting, Mrs. Thornton said:

"Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Boyd always are ready to do anything asked of them by the association. O. K. Brown always has an interest in the Scout activities."

"Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright have helped the association for (See DRIVE, Page 10)

Man Shot Down Is Identified

BROWNVILLE — (AP) — Sheriff Boynton H. Fleming said a man killed by police Wednesday was identified as Floyd Luther Lewis, Clairmont, Wyo.

The body was identified by Nina West and her mother Mrs. E. L. Harris, Clairmont, the sheriff said yesterday.

Lewis, who was slain by police machine gun fire at the scene of an attempted safe burglary, was wanted by the FBI on a charge of transporting a stolen car across a state line.

LONDON — (AP) — Ambulances and fire engines pointed on the runway at Croydon Airport yesterday as a private plane carrying Prince Aly Khan reported it was coming in with one of its two engines dead.

They were not needed, however. The plane, an eight-place deHavilland transport owned by the princely husband of movie actress Rita Hayworth, landed safely on one engine.

One Man Killed in Wreck Near Perryton

PERRYTON — (AP) — Peter L. Regier, about 50, of Adams, Texas County, Okla., was killed Saturday in an auto-truck collision at Brown's Corner, Okla. Officers said heavy smoke blowing off a grass fire was a contributing cause of the accident.

Brown's wife and daughter, Viola, were injured seriously. Cecil Allen Gipson, 50, of Perryton, was hurt slightly. Brown's corner is about 15 miles north of Perryton.

Permit Okayed for New Pampa Station

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission Friday granted a permit for a new standard radio station at Pampa, Texas.

Hugh DeWitt Landis and Ross B. McAlister obtained the permit for the station, to be known as KICA, 1230 kilocycles, 250 watts, unlimited time.

Four Other Members of Staff Held

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Chinese Communists have seized the American consul general at Mukden and four members of his staff, it was disclosed yesterday. The State Department at once ordered intervention with the highest Red authorities.

The Communists accused the official, Angus Ward, and his companions of beating unconscious a former Chinese employe. They said the case would go before "the Mukden People's Court."

The arrest apparently came a week or so ago. Official word reached here Saturday after taking five days to squeeze out of China. The Chinese Communist radio gave its version too.

About the same time, the State Department hotly denounced actions against American diplomats on the other side of the Communist world — Czechoslovakia. The Red regime there had accused two American diplomats and arrested an Embassy clerk on spy charges.

It was learned that almost certainly the next American step will be ouster of one of two Czech diplomats from this country on the ground their activities are contrary to the interests of the United States.

Baptists to Hold Annual Convention

EL PASO — (AP) — Thousands of Baptists will flock to El Paso Tuesday for the annual meeting of the 101-year-old Baptist General Convention of Texas.

A raft of well-known denominational leaders from Texas, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Louisiana will speak during the three-day meeting.

The convention will hear a recommendation that half of a $5,000,000 budget be designated for worldwide causes.

Denominational causes within the state, which would receive the other $2,500,000 of the budget, are generally being allowed more than 50 percent of the receipts.

Besides the regular budget, the convention will be asked to accept another $5,000,000 goal for individual gifts to Baptist institutions.

Pre-convention meetings of the Women's Missionary Union and the Men's Brotherhood will be held Monday and Tuesday. The general convention begins Tuesday evening. There a thousand Baptists are expected.

The convention will hear financial and service reports from nine Baptist colleges and six Baptist hospitals in Texas.

Speakers will include: Dr. Duke McCall, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Forrest Frazier, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Waco; Dr. J. Howard Williams of Dallas, state executive secretary and Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Dallas.

New Addition to First Baptist Church Open Today

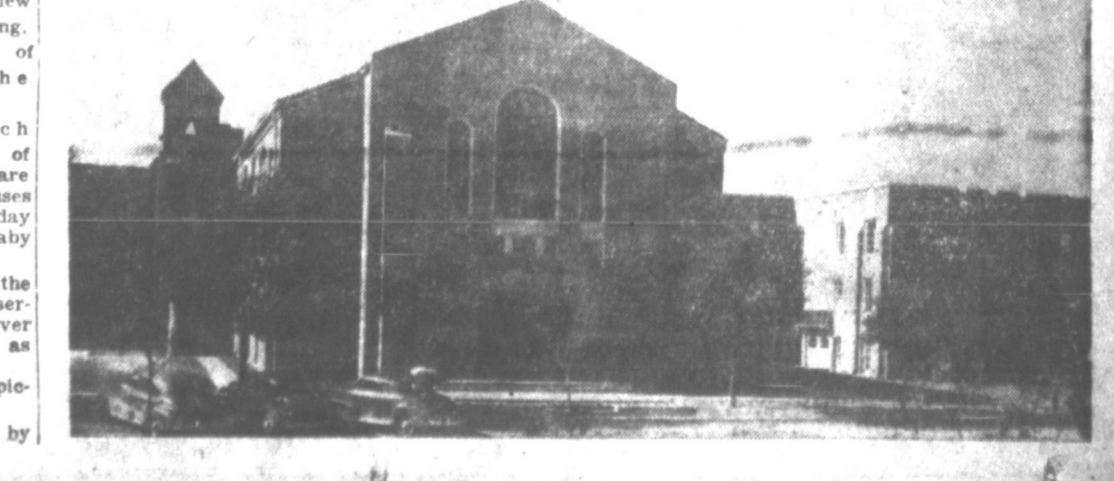

The First Baptist Church new addition, the Educational Building, just completed at a cost of $165,000, will be open to the public at 2:30 this afternoon.

The new section, for which ground was broken in October of 1948, has a total of 19,000 square feet on its three floors. It houses all departments of the Sunday School and church from the baby to 16 years.

The building has one of the most complete of church nurseries, the Rev. E. Douglas Carver said. It includes such things as double-deck beds.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

It's a girl. Yes, a few years ago, those words floated down the hospital corridor when that little girl of yours came into the world. A cute little tyke she was—all rosy and sweet-looking. Right then and there, you vowed to yourself "she'll have nothing but the best." Through the years, you've kept your vow and you've seen that she has received plenty of love and attention from you but now she requires something more than you can give. She must branch out and gather knowledge from other sources. The solution? Girl Scout training.

Special attention will be focused on our Girl Scout Organizations from October 30 through November 5. Those are the Seven Service Days during which time our Scouts will make a special effort to show the community what they are doing. Today is Girl Scout Sunday and our churches will be filled with Girl Scouts and their Leaders. Monday will be known as Home-making Day, Tuesday as Citizenship Day, Wednesday as Health and Safety Day, Thursday as International Friendship Day, Friday as Arts and Crafts Day, and Saturday as Out-of-Doors Day.

But let's get back to that little girl of yours—you're mighty proud of her, aren't you? She's taking a big part in her Scout Troop and is learning to do things you had never dreamed a little girl her age could do. Her community is interested in her the same as you are. Yes, you just watch the results of the current drive, and you'll see how we'll all back that little girl of yours because her future is also the future of Pampa, White Deer, Letora and Wheeler County. Just you wait and see for yourself!!

Southern District Scouters Take Basic Training Course

Huelyn Laycock, county superintendent of schools and Kiwanis Club president, will add "Scoutmaster" to his list of titles tomorrow night when he begins instructing a 12-hour Scoutmaster basic training course.

Laycock will serve as Scoutmaster to about 15 Scoutmasters of the Adobe Walls Area Council in the Southern District at the Wellington Scout House. He will instruct the Scoutmaster two hours a night for the next two Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

After dividing up the Scoutmasters into patrols, he will appoint Paul Beisenherz, council executive, as his senior patrol leader and John Pound, field Scout executive, as his assistant Scoutmaster.

Plaintiff Given $10,000 by Jury in Compensation Case

It took only one hour and ten minutes for a Gray County 31st District Court jury to find in favor of William W. Cheely against the Texas Indemnity Insurance Co. Friday night.

The jury retired at 9:30 after hearing summations of the case by Atty. Walter Rogers, representing Cheely; Atty. Arthur Teed and Curtis Douglass defense counsel. They returned with their verdict to 33 special issues, and one defense requested special issue, at 10:40 p.m.

Summed up, the jury found that Cheely suffered permanent injuries from a fellow employe who struck him over working conditions while on his job on Sept. 3, 1949, at the Cabot Shops, Inc., and was entitled to lump sum of 401 weeks workmen's compensation at the rate of $25 per week, totaling over $10,000.

After calling several witnesses in rebuttal testimony, including Mrs. W. W. Cheely, Grady Cheely, the plaintiff's son, and recalling Mrs. Verna Donham, telephone operator at the gate house where Cheely and Silas Prather had their encounter, Atty. Rogers closed his case at 1:25 p.m. Friday.

The remainder of the afternoon was taken up by District Judge

Lewis M. Goodrich in preparation of the Court's charge and by defense attorneys' objections and exceptions to it.

At 5:50 p.m., the charge was read to the jury and court recessed until 7 o'clock for argument by counsel.

The trial took a little over two full days to complete from selection of the jury until the verdict was read in open court by District Clerk Dee Patterson. Defense Atty. William Jarrel Smith, who declined to use any time in arguing before the jury and put only a few questions to witnesses, indicated Friday night a motion for a new trial would be filed.

Tourist Trade Is Discussed by CC Managers

E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, was among the 35 Chamber of Commerce heads attending a Tourist Development Committee meeting in Amarillo Friday.

Speakers were Tom H. Taylor, Austin, head of the Texas Highway Department's information bureau, and Bill Haynes, who has charge of the bureau's port of entry information station near Del Rio.

Charlie Newman, head of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, presided over the meeting.

Taylor described the economic significance of tourist business saying seven percent of all national income is spent for travel. He added no dollar travels farther and quicker than the cash money spent by tourists.

"The United States is a travel country," he said. "There is a tremendous urge for going places in every American family. Surveys show that 80 percent of all the people in this country prefer to travel to any other recreation." A film was shown by the Chamber of Commerce officials during the afternoon session.

It does not make any difference whether a plane rises from the water, land or from a catapult. The important thing is what it is designed to do after it becomes airborne.

Fair Enough - Pegler

NEW YORK — Jack Lait, the editor of the New York Mirror and a great newspaperman, being invited to speak at the dinner of the Chicago Press Veterans on Dec. 3, induces in some reflections on a craft which I'd call newspaperism.

Dec. 3, induces in some reflections on a craft which I'd call newspaperism. It is distinguished from journalism, which he and most of the members of this association practiced in our galaxy days.

Arthur James Pegler, my father, now living in Tucson, is a member of that wit, wonderful crew, and Walter Howe was another. I think you could include Ben Hecht, although Hecht had pronounced "literary" leanings in those days and drew a cold and cynical bean on our passion for journalism.

Big fires and hangings. He thought it naive if not juvenile. If you want to see Mr. Howe's reality you would insist that some crazy liar just wrote him.

LOOKING AHEAD

By GEORGE S. BRISON

President's Working Group

Why America is ENDANGERED

Why is it that America is just one national crisis away from state socialism? How is it that we have come to this tragic fate, despite the fact that we have given to our people, through the American productive system, the highest standard of living that any section of the human race ever knew?

I would like to advance what I think are three clear-cut reasons. Nobody has instructed each oncoming generation about the danger of our achievements nor about the why of our productive system. Nobody has undertaken this task, our educational people least of all. No generation has ever failed so miserably to teach its traditions to its children. The result is that we are growing up a generation that does not understand nor value our productive system. We are therefore not dedicated to its preservation.

"THE FIFTH COLUMN" On the other hand, there is a sizeable army working to destroy our freedoms and liberties. Besides the 1,800 Communists said to be in this nation from the certain countries, it is believed that 800 American converts have been trained in the "school for revolution" near the Kremlin and returned to America. There are from 80,000 to 100,000 Communist party members in this country, although they do not carry cards and will deny they are Communists if asked.

In addition to the Communists, there are several hundred organizations that have been officially classed as affiliated or "front" groups for the Communists. All of them are working heartily to discredit the profit system, and would be deprived of visas home. These pressures and the earnest desire to save Italy from communism caused 4,000 Americans to participate. Many were of Italian extraction, born in the U.S.A. or naturalized. But others were American natives of old colonial stock.

PUNISHED — One was a naturally Scandinavian - American who had been elected to the school committee in a city of the Middle West. He was being punished for their seal in promoting American principles abroad.

As the result of the joint efforts of campaigners, 92 percent of Italian voters went to the ballot in the highest vote in Italian history. De Gasperi's forces buried the Communists. Today Italy is free and grows stronger each month.

Up to now a few exiles have been introduced to return by means of private bills in Congress. Several hundred such special-immigration and naturalization bills were introduced in this session but only a few were passed.

Congressman Walter seeks to eliminate the delay and remove the injustice to fellow Americans by lumping all cases under an overall measure. Thus these 4,000 veterans in the front line election battle with communism may come home with honor and that soon.

Gracie Says

By GRACIE ALLEN

The American Academy of Ophthalmology, which has something to do with people who do something about people who need glasses to see, now admits it can't see itself. It says it can't see why the girls who need glasses won't wear them. It blames the whole thing on a remark once made by a famous poetess who said, "Men never make passes at girls who wear glasses."

That's not exactly true. I had an aunt who never wore glasses and lived to be over 80 without anyone trying to molest her. Of course, her buckteeth and bowlegs were little against her. On the other hand, another aunt of mine was so famous for her glasses, half the men in San Francisco were chasing her. However, it's only fair to report she owned a saloon, and the glasses usually had beer in them.

Personally my romantic life is fair happier if I forget I own a pair of spectacles. Without my specs, my husband George is an attractively pleasant blur, who looks like an out-of-focus Clark Gable. With my glasses, he looks exactly like a fellow I met back in vaudeville years ago.

Temperatures of 150 to 180 degrees have been taken in the Persian Gulf coast of the Iran, but these are unofficial records, since official records must be taken in sheltered and ventilated locations.

news behind the news

By ROGEE WARREN

(Ray Tucker on Vacation)

WASHINGTON — Congressman Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania will introduce in the next Congress a bill to restore citizenship to Americans who helped Italy win Europe's most critical election battle against Stalin but who, in doing so, lost their franchise and their chance of returning home.

These involuntary exiles are 4,000 native-born and naturalized Americans. They were caught in Italy at the outbreak of the war through inability to get transportation.

Later, in response to urging by United States officials in Rome, they participated in the 1948 election which stopped cold the Western tide of communism. Recently when shipping became scarce they refused to pass passage papers by American consuls solely because of a 1940 federal law which denaturalizes Americans participating in foreign voting.

SHOCKED — Their plight came to the attention of warm-hearted Congressman Walter, chairman of the Immigration Committee of the House Judiciary Committee, while on an official tour of Germany and Italy this month. He was so shocked by the seeming ingratitude of the relatives that he is now preparing legislation to remove the ban.

The story begins when Mussolini stabbed France in the back and went to war. American businessmen and other Americans living in Italy were stranded. They stayed on even after the close of the war because their errands were uncompleted and shipping still was very scarce.

In the meantime two important elections occurred. The first was in June, 1946, in which voters were offered a choice between a monarchial and republican form of government. The second was the contest in April, 1948, to control the newly formed Legislative Assembly.

VOTE — This developed into the most important European election in the struggle between the East and West. Togliatti's party, supported by funds and supplies from Russia, threatened to follow the tradition of loving people who yet remain upon the earth. The world can ill afford to have America lose her heritage. Unless we are willing to see it otherwise, the degrading hand of bureaucracy can usher in another Dark Age.

Both sides used every trick in the book to win. Communists smeared American capitalism, vilified the Catholic Church and threatened bodily harm. The tentative right wing government also put on the heat to persuade people to go to the polls.

It passed two laws, one of which said: "The exercise of the vote is an obligation, which no citizen should evade failing in his specific duties to his country." Another with more teeth stated: "The list of persons, who, without justified motive, failed to vote in the election of the House of Deputies, will be posted publicly for the duration of the month in a town hall."

STIGMA — Government leaders employed even more drastic measures. They warned that an absentee would have inserted on his identification certificate for years the words: "He has not voted." This stigma would have been a black mark on his "good conduct file."

People, especially in the villages, were told that non-voters would have their ration cards cancelled, their living quarters taken away and their jobs abolished. Congressman Walter could discover no case in which these dire threats were carried out. But at the time the scare note certainly influenced the electorate.

Actually, American citizens could not have been compelled to vote. But their names were on the police lists. Some, who were born in Italy and later became naturalized Americans, still were in the old military conscription rolls. Many voters did not realize that Uncle Sam had laws forbidding dual ballot-ing.

INVOLVED — Besides, the United States was deeply involved in preventing the Soviet Union from winning the election. Washington feared that a Red triumph would be followed by Communist victories in France, Austria and West Germany. It would have frightened nations from joining the Atlantic Pact and eventually the whole continent might have fallen to Stalin.

Again-the Ukulele

By GORDON MARTIN

There's a kind of strummin' music being heard throughout the land, and the modern bobby-soxers think its strains are simply grand. And perhaps the kids are thinking they've discovered something new, but their fathers and their mothers played that strummin' music too. For it takes 'em back a score of years to youthful courtin' days, when the country first experienced a ukulele craze.

Now it used to be a lovelorn kid-carryin' the torch 'd did some ukulele wootin' on his lady friend's front porch. And her sleepless papa often from his bedroom used to shout, that unless that racket stopped, he planned to throw the boy friend out. And the silver moon shone brightly down on crooning, love-sick lads, and today the boys who sang and stumped are just old graying dads.

But the ukulele's back again and music's heard afar, though the kids have ditched the porch and do their strummin' in a car. And although the ukulele can't be likened to a harp, any auto who can play it is an angel mighty sharp. Should you think the blue-jeans crowd is simply living in a haze, just remember that we've got another ukulele craze.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

By Edwin P. Jordan, MD

Everyone knows about penicillin and the remarkable effects which it has on certain diseases. Recently two new substances somewhat like penicillin have been developed, which have brought another group of frontal attack.

These relatives of penicillin have been obtained from a group of bacteria which grows commonly found in ordinary soil. These preparations are aureomycin and chlormycetin; they are related to still another known as streptomycin which has been available for a somewhat longer time.

Aureomycin which was the first of the two available in quantity appears to be of value in several diseases caused by germ-like organisms known as Rickettsia. Rickettsia causes a number of diseases among which are Rocky Mountain spotted fever and Q fever, both of which have been discussed in these columns. Aureomycin also appears to be of value in several other types of infections.

Both these substances have not been tried long enough to be absolutely sure of dosage in all cases, nor to decide which is better than the other. Enough work has been done, however, to show that both are enormously helpful in the battle against many of the infectious diseases which could not previously be successfully conquered by anything available.

It is practically certain that a whole new group of infections will eventually be brought under control by the use of one or both of these preparations, or perhaps others still to be discovered.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he'll answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

QUESTION: Should a woman who is pregnant travel? My husband wants me to go to New York with him and the doctor says to travel at my own risk.

ANSWER: There is apparently some risk in traveling, especially during the early months of pregnancy. Some women have no difficulty but others, especially those who have a history of easy miscarriages, can get into trouble. Each case has to be decided by itself on the basis of the importance of the trip.

Girl Scouts Celebrating Halloween

Halloween parties have been the latest projects of the local Girl Scout troops during the past week.

Troop 28 went through the traditional bobbing for apples, fortune telling, balloon races and donkey tail pinning Wednesday night.

Under the leadership of Mrs. W. E. Hinton and Mrs. Robert Coley, the Scouts played every imaginable Halloween game. For refreshments they had candy, cookies, nut cups and witches brew.

Scouts attending were Anita Wedgeworth, Carol Hughes, Dorothea Allen, Carol Carnes, Stella Chisholm, Nancy Coley, Jennie Halley, Carol Ann Arney, Betty Ann Hinton, Charlotte Leder, Myrna Matlock, Carol Miller, Jerry Shelton, Martha Skelly, June Smith, Ruth Helen Stewart, Mary Elizabeth Young, Martes Williams and Sharon Cook.

A scavenger hunt at a party of Troop 22 was about the only thing that marked its difference from Troop 28's.

Troop 22 Scouts at Thursday night's party at the Scout House was attended by Sharon Osborne, Charlie Mae Black, Shirley Keel, Janice Ann Dillman, Norma Jean Dillman, Jan Dyer, Gaynell Grundy, Carolyn Lane, Sherry Hyatt, Vicky Osborne, Ann Price, Jeaneane Price, Judy Neslage, Carolyn Anderwald, Sandra Sulins, Sandra Williams, Eileen Moore, Phyllis Burns, Brenda Parker, Barbara Arney, Celia Fowler and Rose Langford.

The winner from Carson County will play the winner from Castro County in the first round of the playoff. Three teams, Groom, Panhandle, and White Deer, make up the Carson County league.

Plans are being made for an adult shop class at White Deer High School to begin the first or second week in November. The class will meet once each week, and will continue for five months.

If there is sufficient demand, B. J. Thompson, high school shop teacher, will instruct a course in wood shop, and Alvin Smith, shop teacher in the Skellytown school, will offer a course in leathercraft and plastics.

Big Week Starts For Pampa Gridmen

Today starts the big week for the Pampa Harvesters—the week in which they get to take their crack at the Amarillo (not so golden this year) Sandies. Pampa fans had the fever ever since the weekend the Westerners from Lubbock clubbed the Sandies into submission, 47-7.

At the Harvesters practice session the boys have also been hot on the trail of a victory. They realize that they stand a good chance of upsetting the Amarilloans this season, which would only be the fourth time the Green

Memphis Wins From McLean

A 19-17 tie was the result of a clash Friday night between Memphis and McLean. Memphis, with five penetrations to McLean's four, was given credit for the win.

McLean's Watson broke into the open before the tilt was two minutes old for a 64-yard touchdown jaunt. He then plunged over for the extra point.

Crooks trotted 70 yards for Memphis' first score. The try for extra point failed. At the half, McLean lead Memphis 7-6.

Two long passes, Watson to Cox, accounted for McLean's second tally making the score 13-6 after the attempted conversion failed.

Crooks broke loose for another long run with the point-after attempt good. In the final period, Crooks scored for the third time with the conversion unsuccessful. The game ended at a 19-17 tie.

Arkansas Overpowers A&M 27-6 in Homecoming Tilt

By CARL BELL. FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — (AP) — Ground-minded Arkansas overpowered the hapless Texas Aggies almost exactly as expected, 27 to 6, here yesterday.

The Razorbacks were 19-point favorites in the betting. The victory before some 20,000 Arkansas homecomers evened the Razorbacks' Southwest Conference record at two wins and two defeats, and left A&M winless in three league starts.

The young Aggie team fought stubbornly to hold Arkansas to a one-point, 7-6, lead in the first

Capot Wraps Up 'Horse of Year' Honors by Win

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Capot just about had "Horse of the Year" honors wrapped up for Greentree Stable, Saturday wrestling them from Calumet Farm in one stunning race.

Capot forged ahead as the 1949 champion of the turf by beating the horse with the most formidable record of the year, Coaltown, in Friday's Pimlico Special.

It may be that he beat a horse which became lame sometime during the mile and three-sixteenths race.

Trainer Jimmy Jones and other horsemen who gathered around to watch Coaltown during his cooling out period noticed the Calumet star favored his right hind leg.

"We'll be able to tell more about his trouble tomorrow," Jones said dimly. "I wouldn't be surprised to find him a lot worse then."

The way Capot won — by a smashing 12 lengths — came like a bolt.

The special evidently ended the year's contention for division honors, as "Horse of the Year" and best 2-year-old colt. Capot figures to take both the latter from Calumet's Ponder.

Greentree took the whole 15,000 special pot and Capot nibbled on the floral wreath in the winner's circle. Capot's backers got $5 for $2.

Louis Prepares For Exhibition

NEW YORK — (AP) — Joe Louis insists he isn't planning a comeback but the retired heavyweight champion is going to unusual extremes to prepare himself for his exhibition tour.

Loss Drops Texans From SWC Championship Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF. DALLAS — (AP) — All-American Doak Walker came off the bench for another golden moment yesterday. Kicking the extra point that brought Southern Methodist a breathtaking 7-6 victory over Texas.

Appearing in only 11 plays and obviously a weak young man as the result of a siege of influenza, the great Walker was the man when the time came.

Hammer Kyle Rote, great Southern Methodist halfback, had taken a pass and skipped to the touchdown that tied the score. It was 6-6. Only because Raleigh Blackely, Southern Methodist wingman, had crashed through to block Randall Clay's try for point.

Then the hushed throng of 75,000 watched the great Walker as he stood there and aimed at the Texas goal post. Back came the ball and Walker stepped into it. The oval sailed like a bird between the crossbars—that was the ball game although Texas had the crowd in hysterics with drive after drive that carried deep, deep in to Southern Methodist territory.

Texas stormed and passed, getting to the Southern Methodist three-yard line with six minutes to go but down here Ray Bornemann, keyman in the Longhorn drive, fumbled and Grover Walker recovered for SMU.

Rote boomed a kick out to the Southern Methodist 34 and then, stymied in three tries, tried a field goal. It was a forlorn effort. On the 59-yard mark, Ben Tompkins put his foot into the ball but it didn't even reach the SMU goal line.

Southern Methodist was outplayed in everything except the score. Most of the breaks went its way and when Texas did get one it couldn't crack the SMU line or fooled away its chance.

With only two seconds to go, Ben Procter, Texas wingman, took a 33-yard pass from Paul Campbell across the goal line but dropped the ball.

The first half was scoreless—the first time this has occurred in the Southwest Conference this season. Texas scored deep in the third period when Fred Benner, SMU sophomore, back to pass from behind his goal line had the throw blocked by Bill Wilson. The ball bounded into the air and into the arms of John Adams on the SMU two. Adams merely fell across the goal line.

The loss kicked Texas out of the conference championship race. Eight times Texas was in Southern Methodist territory and only once could it cash in.

Southern Methodist never got past midfield until late in the third period. Erratic punting by Rote in the first half kept SMU in hot water but Kyle was tops in other ways. On the SMU touchdown, which came on a 75-yard drive, Rote took a throw from Benner on the Texas 12 and stormed his way over a half-dozen Texas would-be tacklers.

Texas rolled up 270 yards, 155 of it on the ground. Southern Methodist got 118 rushing and 86 passing. The Longhorns led in first downs 11 to 9.

Leading ground-gainers of the day were Clay, who hammered out 76 on 16 runs, and Rote with 63 on 13 tries. In passing, Campbell completed 11 for 115 yards and Benner five for 72. Bornemann averaged 56.5 yards kicking for Texas and Bobby Coy Lee averaged 41. Rote ended up with a 39-yard mark on eight boots.

Skelly Jr. Trounces White Deer Jr. 49-0

Undeclared Skellytown Jr. High remains undefeated this week after burying White Deer Jr. High by a score of 49-0 in a game in White Deer Thursday.

The shortest touchdown run by either team was a 20-yard run by Skellytown's Ronald Mills. The rest were 46 yards and above.

Mills, Donald Denham and Gerald Hunt did all the scoring in the game.

Mills contributed 20 points to his team's cause by making 60-, 45- and 30-yard touchdown runs and two conversions.

Denham ran 50 yards for one touchdown and intercepted a White Deer pass and ran 70 yards. Rote ran 45 yards for another.

Hunt added six points to Skellytown's score with a 55-yard run. All conversions attempted were successful.

Although the scoring was wild on Skellytown's part, the team made only three first downs. White Deer made five. Both teams were credited with one penetration each.

Syracuse University's cross-country team is unbeaten since 1946 and Coach Bob Grieve's forces have won 12 straight dual meets.

"AUTOMATIC CLIFF" IN ACTION — Cliff Boucher, Tulsa University's extra-point specialist, aims one for the uprights in a practice session. Tulsa quarterback Pete Annex is holding. Boucher has made good 15 of 18 attempts in six games this season and two of Tulsa's three victories have been decided by Boucher's talented toe. Boucher, 200 pounds and 6 feet 2 inches tall, is from Augusta, Kans. The secret of Boucher's extra-point kicking success is said to be the fact that he keeps his eyes down, "spot kicking" much as a bowler "spot bowls." (AP Wirephoto)

Wheeler Mustangs Trample Stinnett Rattlers, 54-19

WHEELER — (Special) — The Wheeler Mustangs downed the Stinnett Rattlers 54-19 Friday night. The Mustangs had 10 penetrations as compared with the Rattlers' four. The teams each got 13 first downs.

A Stinnett fumble early in the first quarter set the pattern for the course of the game. Marsh Pettit went over from the 11 yard line giving the Mustangs their first touchdown. David Johnson converted.

Later in the first quarter Stinnett fumbled again and David Johnson went over for the second Stinnett score with a back sneak from the 20. Johnson also converted.

In the second quarter Early passed to Keable from the 20, which gave Stinnett its first score. Keable passed to Williams for the extra point.

Later in the second quarter Keable took a pass from Early on the 15 yard line and went over for the second touchdown. The conversion was missed.

Vicky Johnson went 35 yards for the third Mustang touchdown and David Johnson scored the extra point. At the half the score stood 21 to 13.

During the early part of the second half, Vicky Johnson broke loose for a 55-yard run and a touchdown. David Johnson brought in the extra point. Shortly after this J. D. Johnson took the ball over for another Mustang touchdown, but the play was called back.

Not to be without scoring, J. D. grabbed a Rattler pass a few minutes later and went 25 yards for another Wheeler touchdown. David Johnson converted.

A pass to an end in the fourth quarter netted Wheeler's next score. David Johnson again was successful in scoring the extra point.

Stinnett took the ball to its 40 yard line, but David Johnson intercepted a pass and brought the ball back to Wheeler. Tom, left-end, grabbed a pass and scored again. Johnson missed the conversion.

Near the end of the game when Wheeler kicked, Williams got away for a 75-yard run and another touchdown.

Pirates Take Friday Tilt From Broncs

LEFORS — (Special) — The winsome Lefors Pirates remain in the undefeated column this week after scuttling Clarendon in Clarendon Friday by a score of 33-12.

Coach James Lovel's Pirates, helped by Joel Comb's 25- and 80-yard touchdown runs in the final period, scored in all four quarters. Comb also plunged over from the five-yard line in the second quarter.

Clarendon ran up six points in the first quarter and six in the fourth.

Lefors' Todd bruised his way ten yards in the first quarter to mark up Pirates' first tally. The attempted conversion failed.

Clarendon tied the score before the first period was over when Odell LaGrone slipped through the Lefors defense for a 20-yard touchdown run. The try for extra point failed.

In the second quarter, Comb made the first of his three touchdown runs by smashing five yards with Todd trotting over for the extra point.

Half time score was 13-6 with Lefors leading.

Lefors racked up its third-quarter tally when James McEntire went 15 yards to cross the stripe. Ike Doorn kicked the extra point.

In the fourth quarter, Comb got away for eighty yards and Doorn again kicked the extra.

Trussell went ten yards for Clarendon's final touchdown. The conversion kick was wide.

Comb broke loose again in the final period for a 25-yard jaunt bringing Lefors' score to 33. The try for point failed.

The game ended with Lefors leading 33-12.

The Pirates will meet the Wallington Skyrocks at Wallington next Friday.

Baylor's Bears Smother Texas Christian Frogs 40-14

Tennessee Dethrone N. Carolina

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. — (AP) — Tennessee look most of the steam out of famed Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice yesterday, came up with a triple-threat star in Hal Littleford, and defeated North Carolina 35 to 6 in one of the major upsets of the 1949 football season. North Carolina was a two-touchdown favorite, but Tennessee's tough line and a glue-like pass defense dashed the hopes of the Tar Heels to regain national ranking in preparation for their big game with Notre Dame in Yankee Stadium, New York, Nov. 12.

Penalties were frequent and tempers ran short. State police had to break up a fist fight immediately back of the Tennessee bench. The 1948 All-American Justice never really got going and finally was injured in the third period so badly he had to leave the game, coming back only for kicking duties.

Tennessee scored after only three minutes of play when end Bud Sherrod recovered fullback Bill Hayes' fumble on the six yard and left half Harold Payne swept right end for the touchdown. Capitalizing on frequent breaks, Tennessee built up a score of 35 to 0 before North Carolina, inflated by the injury to Justice, finally went 83 yards down the field with back Dick Wiss' scoring on a three yard plunge, at the start of the last period.

Justice had trouble keeping his balance on the wet turf, and cut loose only once, a 55 yard return of right halfback Bert Rechichar's kickoff in the first period, but Tennessee finally took the ball on downs on its 18 yard line.

Tennessee's final touchdown was scored appropriately enough by Sherrod, who played a great offensive and defensive game at end. Sherrod snared a pass that Hayes intended for Justice in the third period, slipped out of Justice's arms, and ran 20 yards to the goal line.

Bruins Rack Up Tallies In All Four Quarters

By DAVE CHEAVENS

WACO—(AP)—Baylor rode high in the ranks of the nation's undefeated teams smothering Texas Christian 40 to 14 with a potent offense and a tight defense at Municipal Stadium yesterday.

Texas Christian's Lindy Berry had a bad off day. Baylor's Adrian Burk and his pass-snatching mates were at their best, and that was the ball game.

Baylor counted with one touchdown in the first period, three in a big second quarter, one each in the third and fourth, plus a safety in the second to give the Horned Frogs their second setback in Southwest Conference play.

A Christian fumble early in the game and a recovery by tackle Wesley Roberts led to Baylor's first touchdown. Big Frank Boydston rammed through from the nine to score. Frank Dickerson's placement was wide.

A 44-yard heave from Burk to Dudley Parker, standing clear in the end zone, gave the surging Bruins another tally. Burk then passed 42 yards to James Jeffrey on TCU's three and Boydston again powered over for the score. Eoth tries for extra point failed.

Tackle Rupert Wright tackled Otis McKelvey of TCU in the end zone for a safety and two more points. A pass from Burk to Parker and a missed conversion attempt ran the Baylor total to 33.

That 33 to 0 margin held through the third period. Baylor was using many reserves and the Frogs surged back for two touchdowns in the last quarter. The first was a 46 yard drive climaxed by a scoring pass from Roy Bassinger to Bill Elliott, Homer Ludiker's place kick was good.

Baylor scored another touchdown in the final frame after recovering a TCU fumble on the 20. Louis Gajdosik plunged over and Dickerson's placement was good. Then Marshall Alford blocked Larry Isbell's punt and Keith Flowers ran 34 yards for a score, with Ludiker's placement again perfect for the extra point.

Burk completed 11 of 19 passes attempted for total yardage of 192.

Only one of his passes was intercepted.

Berry was able to connect only on two of 11 tries for 15 yards, but six interceptions of Berry's pitches were a tribute to a head-up pass defense that thwarted the vaunted Christian attack.

But it wasn't all Burk for Baylor. The air-minded Bruins total yards gained by air was 216, and they powered for 121 on the ground. TCU netted 41 yards by passes and a scant 25 on the ground.

The Christians threatened several times, but misused, and just-missed passes hurt badly. Early in the game a long heave from Ben Wilde to Snake Bailey was a near-miss that was a heartbreaker for the TCU team that was definitely off stride.

Bill Moorman blocked a Baylor kick early in the fourth period, TCU winding up with the ball on the Baylor three. The Baylor line refused to budge on four line plays and that's the way the ball game went all afternoon.

Guerillas Avenged by 26-0 Victory

The Pampa Guerillas avenged their only defeat by stomping the Price College Cardinals 26 to 0 Friday night. The Cardinals are the only team that holds a win over the Guerillas this season.

Big gun for the Green and Golders was little Harold Smith, who with his shifty running and power drives, racked up three touchdowns and many important yards. Billy Davis was credited with the other score and Gene Bynum kicked two out of four extra points.

With a hundred penalty yards charged against them, the Guerillas nevertheless made two hundred yards on the ground to ninety-four for the Red and White eld visitors.

Outstanding on the line for the Guerillas were Roy Poole, Jim Cook, Jesse Dykes, Bill McPherson, and two Harvesters brought down for the game. Dawerence Rice and Dale Gant.

For the Cardinals it was Don Askerman and Wild Bill Greenhouse all the day. Askerman racked up two long runs, one for 30 yards and one 48 yard run.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hesse—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: When was the last time the Harvesters defeated the Amarillo Sandies?

AFTER I GOT THROUGH WONDERING why Pampa football fans failed to support the Harvesters the way they should this season I received many replies, with two reasons outstanding. One was that the price of the tickets was too high and the other was that it was impossible to secure good seats. Though I have to agree that both are reasonable answers, both are explainable.

First, the price problem. The price of tickets for the Amarillo game and for all district games was established at a meeting of the schools represented in the district. It is the uniform price for Saturday afternoon games in the district, and it is important to note that Pampa was in the lone school in the district to vote AGAINST that price, feeling that it was too high. But it was a case of majority ruling and the Pampa school had to go along with that price.

Whether or not the price charged for non-conference games is too high is debatable. Some feel that it is; others that it isn't. Pampa fans who have followed the Harvesters all season long to out-of-town games found themselves paying more at Lubbock than they have to pay at home. But they found 15,000 other fans there besides them paying the same higher price.

Borger and Amarillo both charge the same or more than Pampa fans, and generally by persons who have a standing bid for those same seats. This situation doesn't provide much of an opportunity for the newcomers in a town that has as rapidly a changing populace as the city of Pampa to gain good seats. They have to take what is left, which generally falls down on the 20, 10 or goal line.

There was also a group of disgruntled fans because of the method of selling tickets for the Amarillo game last week. Buyers who were 30th or 40th in line found themselves down on the corners of the field because there

Rice Takes Easy Victory Over Tech

HOUSTON — (AP) — Rice used but did not need some of its crippled players in taking an easy 28 to 0 victory over Texas Tech of the Border Conference yesterday.

The running of fullback Bobby Lantripp and the passing of Tobin Rote and Vernon Glass made the Rice offense click at will. The Owl defense meanwhile was keeping the West Texas Red Raiders from crossing the Rice 20-yard line the entire game.

Lantripp climaxed early game drives of 77 and 70 yards by plungable over from the 1-yard line for a pair of touchdowns, while Rote tossed a 16-yard scoring pass to reserve fullback George Glauser for another shortly before the half.

Glass, who engineered the Rice team to its thrilling victory over Texas last week, completed the scoring in the final period with a 48-yard toss to sophomore Halfback Bill Burkhalter.

End James (Froggie) Williams, who kicked the winning field goal against Texas, protected a shoulder injury and entered the game only to kick the four extra points.

Tech entered Rice territory six times but its deepest penetrations were to the Rice 20, 21 and 22, where Rice held.

Rote, with a bad ankle, played very little, but he completed 8 out of 11 passes for 127 yards. Lantripp, however, was the day's big ground gainer, carrying the ball 19 times for 141 yards.

Irishmen Bow Middies With 40-0 Victory

BALTIMORE, Md. — (AP) — Machine-like Notre Dame bopped Navy yesterday 40 to 0, handing the Middies the worst defeat in their football series.

Showing their gridiron wares to an Eastern audience for the first time this season, the Fighting Irish broke the game wide open with a 20-point assault in the second quarter. They coasted from there on.

Navy made a whale of a game of it for one quarter, and part of the second. Then, sing, sing, sing, came the touchdowns.

The chief Notre Dame slasher was Ernie Zaleski, a skittering left halfback. Zaleski scored three of the six Notre Dame touchdowns as he became the main actor in the affair.

Ernie got Notre Dame out in front in four minutes and 35 seconds of the opening period. He grabbed a 25-yard loss from quarterback Bobby Williams on Navy's 25. He was in the clear, and merely romped the rest of the way.

Michigan Sets Illini Out of Big Ten Lead

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — (AP) — The inspirational fury boiling within Illinois on "Bob Zuppke Day" suddenly escaped into nothingness with a fumble two yards shy of a touchdown and Michigan took the cue to blast the Illini out of the Big Ten football lead 13-0.

Held out of Michigan territory in the first quarter and stalled on the Michigan 18 in the second, Illinois rocketed 76 yards in five plays midway in the third. Sophomore Johnny Karras streaked 56 yards on a double reverse and setback that set up the scoring opportunity.

Loopholes In The Law

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson is chairman of a special steering committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated Criminals Code and Code of Criminal Procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

By WILL WILSON
District Attorney, Dallas County
Having drunk more beer than he could handle, Joe started a great disturbance in a tavern. The county sheriff was called. When he reached the tavern he tried to quiet Joe by talking to him. But Joe was in no condition to listen to reason. He threatened to kill the sheriff.
The sheriff was unarmed, so he went back to his car and got a pistol. When he returned to the tavern Joe had been carried to the back door by two men. The sheriff followed the men and approached Joe. As he came close,

Joe stabbed him in the chest with a knife.
The wound was wide and went to the rib. It would have produced death if it had not struck a rib. Since that happened, however, the wound was not serious and the sheriff had to make only one visit to a doctor.
Joe was arrested, of course, and charged with assault with intent to murder. He was convicted of that charge. But when the case was appealed the higher court reversed the decision, the Court ruling that the trial testimony was faulty because the record contained no testimony regarding the size and length of the knife blade, or the type of knife Joe had used.

Too many criminals go free in Texas because of such technicalities as this one. The State Bar wants to close the loopholes through revision of the criminal statutes.
The 1948 Texas team ran two more offensive plays (714 to 714) than its more successful predecessor, the 1947 crew. However, the latter scored the more points, won more games and made fewer mistakes. Last year's team lost the ball 41 times through fumbles and pass interceptions, while the '48 outfit gave it up only 21 times through errors.

"Yankee" comes from the Dutch word "vanku" meaning to snarl.

'Fun Night' Held at Four Grade Schools

Fun, frolic, food, favors, fables, funny faces and finally families were featured Friday night at the elementary schools' "Fun Nights."
Students at most of the schools arrived decked out as witches, goblins, cats, skeletons, or some other weird Halloween character. Dinners or snacks were served. The proceeds went to each school's P-T-A.

The traditional movies, fish ponds, white elephant sales and ghost houses were played up at most of the schools.
Each room at Horace Mann was arranged with a different theme. Some of the rooms had square dancing and skits which were added Halloween attractions. Charlie Tooker drew charcoal pictures of students in one room, this feature was a big hit.
The fourth graders at Woodrow Wilson had a ball throwing contest and hurled cotton balls into the faces of some of the human targets.
A program in the auditorium at B. M. Baker School featured hillbilly music and John Lee

U.S. Said Slowly Going Socialistic

FORT WORTH — (AP) — "The United States is slowly going socialistic," a Boston real estate and insurance man declared here, "and the people don't know what is happening to them."
William W. Russell, president of the National Apartment and Property Owners Association, speaking at the "victory convention" of the Texas section of the association, declared that "29 percent of the nation's income taxes is going for social benefits which is the same situation Russia was in 20 years ago."
Russell warned that rent control could return and that the owners groups must get organized to continue the fight.

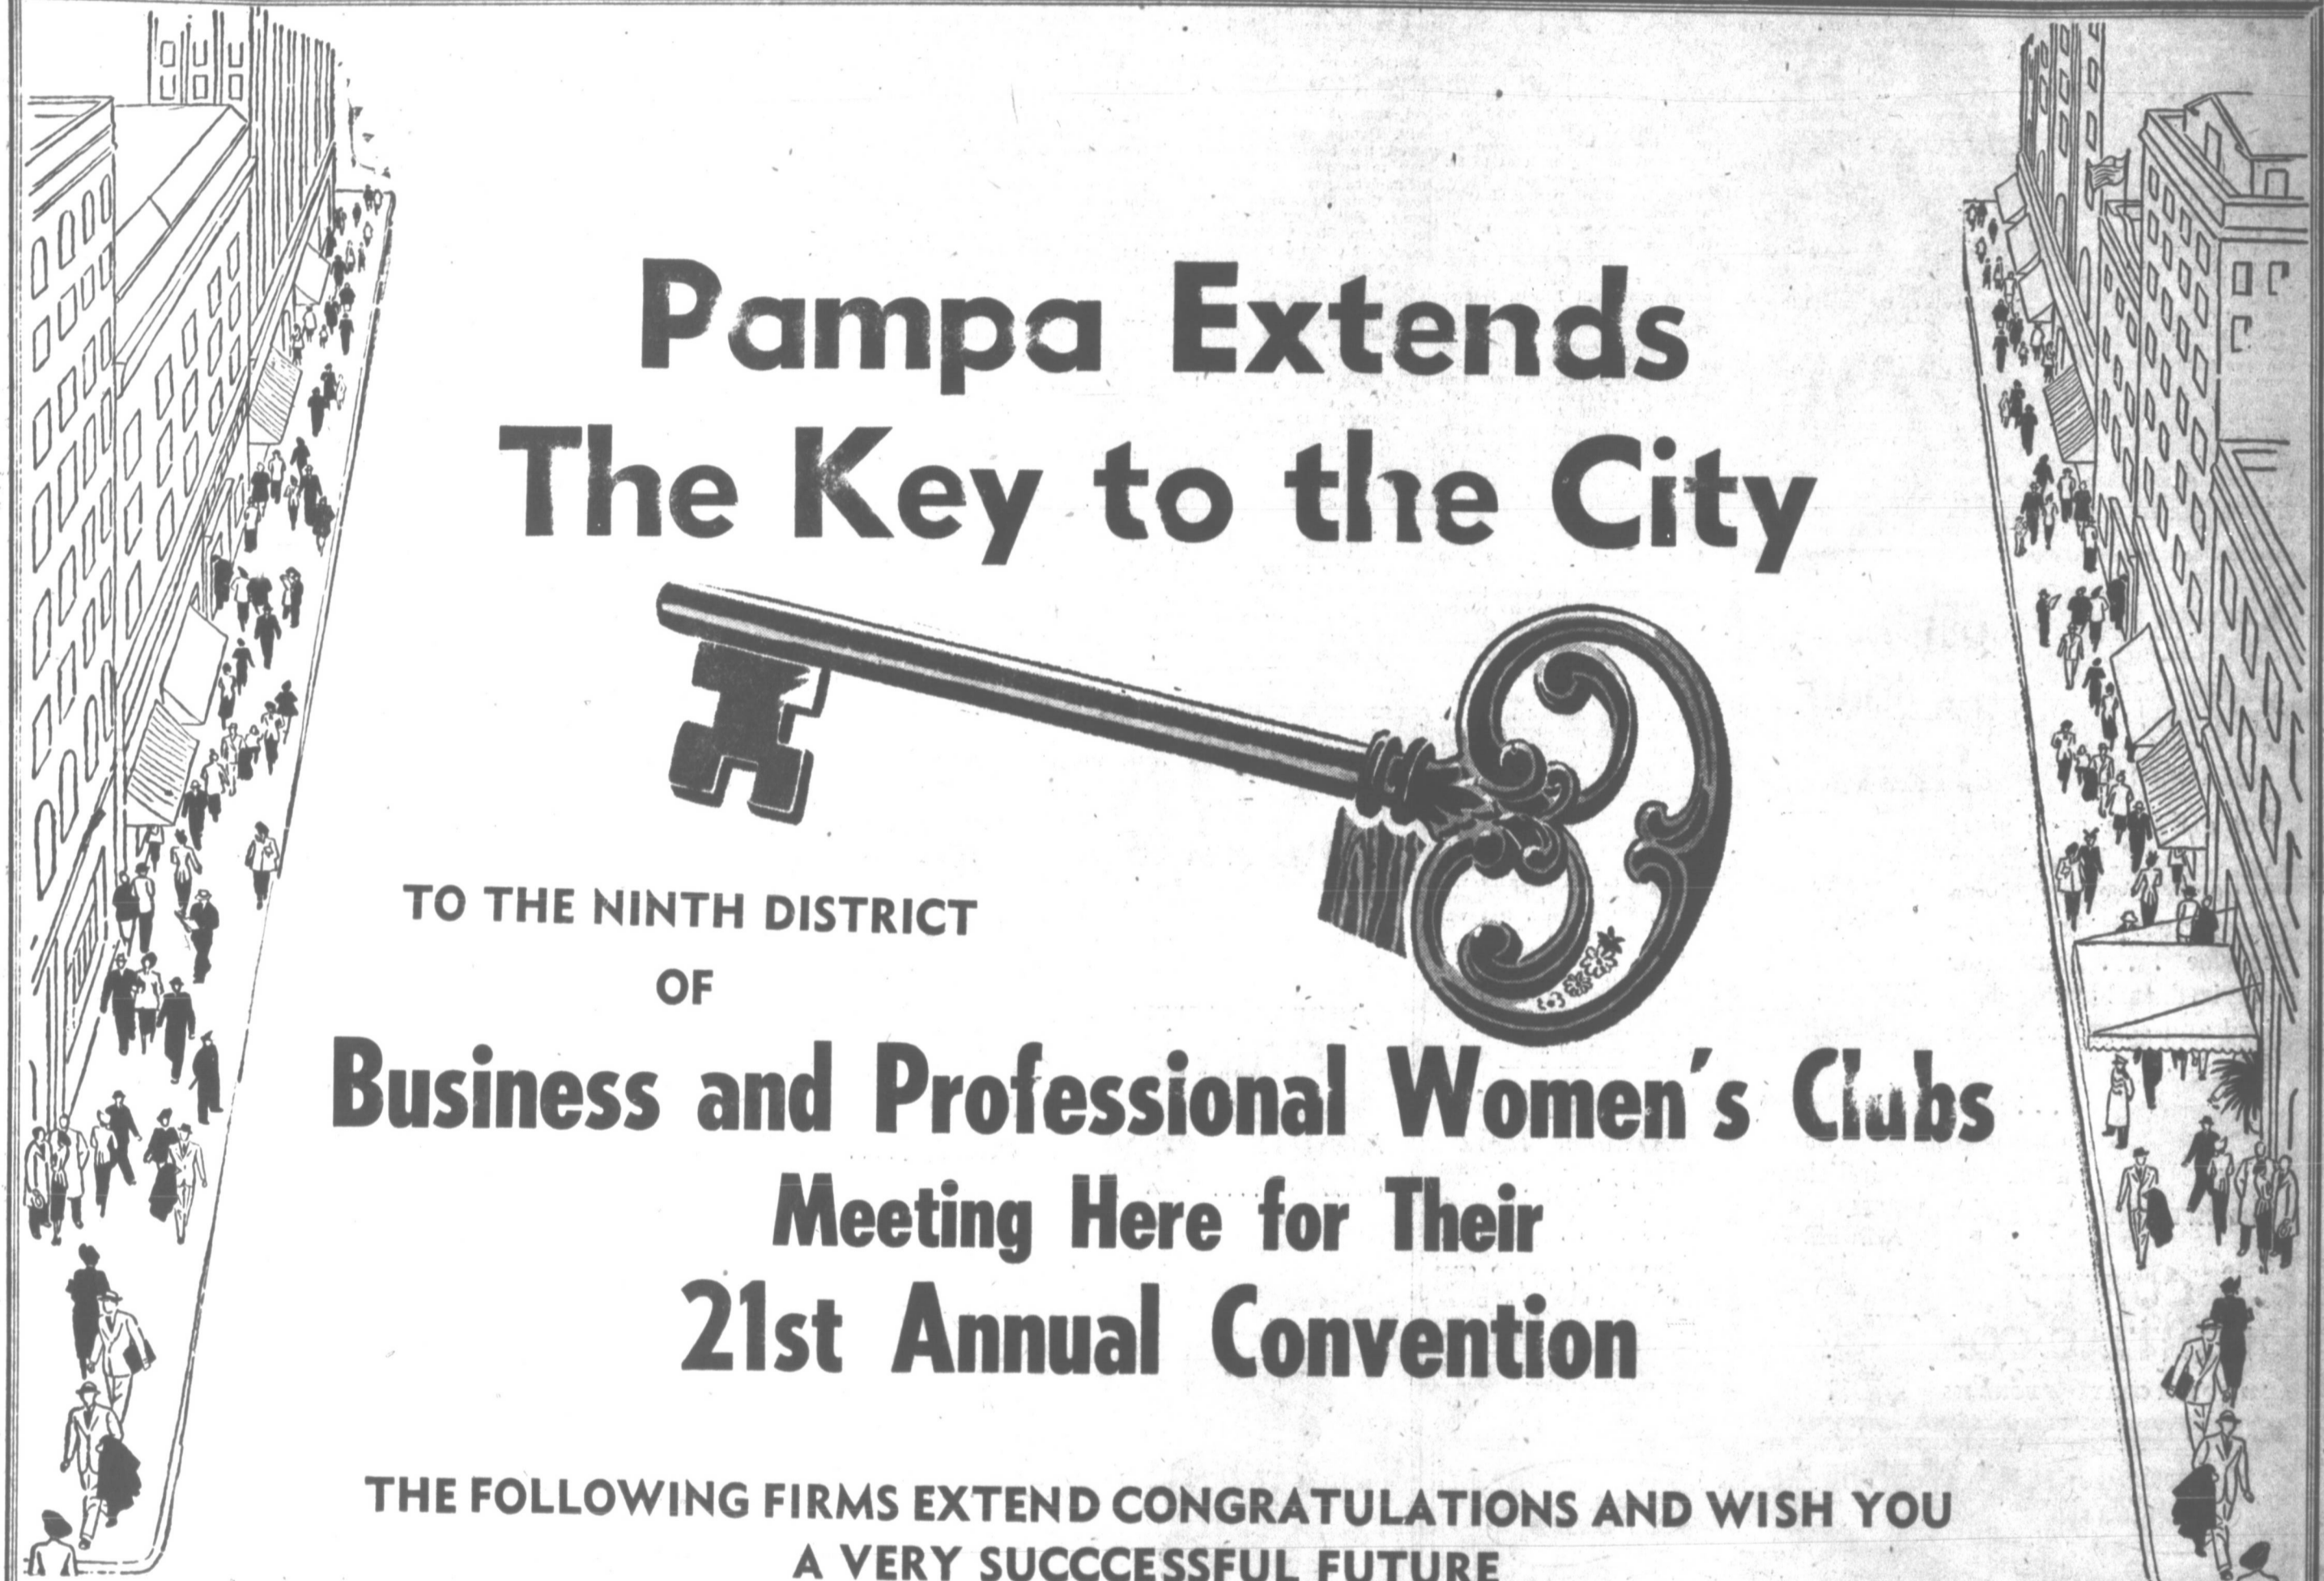

Welton with his magician act, Donna Gail Jones then presented a Hawaiian dance. Jimmy McCune emceed the program.
Sam Houston students will have their Halloween fun during their last period tomorrow afternoon. A dinner was served Friday night at the school, but the "Fun Night" will be turned into a "Fun Afternoon."

Panhandle Operators File Completions On Nine Oil Wells, Thirteen Gas Wells

Panhandle operators completed nine oil wells last week for a total increased potential of 903 barrels. Thirteen gas wells, some shut in for more than a year, were given commission tests last week and indicated deliverability of 42,296 MCF. This brings the total gas footage for the month to 337,627 MCF.

Nine wells were reported staked last week. Carson reported two wells completed, Gray reported three and Hutchinson reported four. Sherman County reported the 13 gas wells.

One well was staked in Carson County, three in Gray, four in Hutchinson County and one in Potter.

Commission Slates November Hearing For Kewanee Application for Injection

Panhandle Oilman Develops Leak Locater for Gas Wells

A new development for the oil industry has come out of the Panhandle in the form of a simply operated, economical locater for finding leaks in gas wells.
Even with its many advantages, natural gas does have one serious shortcoming. It drives oxygen out of the soil, killing all vegetation that might be growing in that area.
Since one of the Panhandle's major crops — wheat — is planted all around gas and oil wells, these wells must be controlled else millions of dollars could be lost over a period of years. If leaks are present, the waste of oil or gas could be greater than the loss of crops.

Sooner Drilling Unimpressive; Shell Stakes Beckham Offset

TULSA — (AP) — It was announced unimpressive week of Oklahoma oil drilling reports. Operators were apparently rounding out the year, keeping costs within budget bounds.
Total completions were up slightly to 86, but included 41 months of wells. There were 44 producers and one gas well for a daily oil output of 7,025 barrels accompanied by 1,400,000 cubic feet of gas. Drills bit down 280,894 feet.
In the Beckham, Okla., field, Shell Oil Co. staked location on a new deep test last week. It was their Walter McDonald No. 1 in C SW NE 14-10n-21w which offsets the company's R. Walter A-1. It was also reported Tide-water Oil Co. is planning an offset to United's Mary Nutley No. 1 in NW NW 19-10n-20w.
Shell's Mary Beck No. 1, C SE NW 8-10n-21w was drilling below 7,000 in shale and granite wash. The company's C. Cantrell No. 1 in SW NE 15-10n-21w was flowing on test with total depth at 9,890 feet plugged back.

Well Average Up 20 Barrels For October

Operators in the Panhandle drilled in impressive gains in number of barrels of oil during October, but fell off slightly in the number of feet of gas. These are compared to the preceding months of June, July, August and September.
Total increased oil potential for October was 3,779 barrels while increased gas deliverability was reported at 337,627 MCF.
For both September and October 53 oil wells were completed. However, the per-well October average for September was only 44.6 barrels — almost a 20-barrel increase per well for October.
During September 76 gas wells were tested for a total of 403,835 MCF compared to the 79 completions reported for October for 337,627 MCF.
Not too much emphasis can be placed on gas completions since most have been shut in for more than a year.
Number of new locations reported to the Railroad Commission fell off almost 30 wells during October compared to September. Operators staked 74 new locations during the month compared to 101 for September. This is a drop of 27.
New locations by the county are as follows: Carson, 8; Gray, 16; Hutchinson, 37; Moore, 2; Sherman, 9; Wheeler, 3; Potter, 1.
New oil completions: Carson, 8; Gray, 15; Hutchinson, 33.

Geologist Says Texas Must Dig Other Minerals

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — W. B. Mather, research geologist for the Southwest Research Institute of San Antonio, said Friday Texas will have to dig for something other than oil if it is to maintain its economy.
Mather, addressing 150 delegates attending the opening session of the South Texas Geological Society Convention, said ceramic possibilities of the state are unlimited and many native minerals are dormant.

Gossett Says Oil Imports Are Certain to Increase

AUSTIN — "It is obvious that the amount of foreign oil being imported is going to increase. The domestic industry is to be subjected to a still further loss and embarrassment. To permit excessive imports of any commodity of which this country produces a surplus is wrong in principle. When domestic industries are weakened or destroyed, American standards of living must suffer accordingly."
That was the opinion expressed by Congressman Ed Gossett, of Wichita Falls, who will address approximately 200 directors of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association in Abilene Tuesday.
"Not only are we permitting the importation of vast quantities of foreign oil," continued Rep. Gossett, who is author of a bill to limit imports to 5 percent of demand, "but we are financing the build-up of tremendous refining facilities in a number of foreign nations, facilities which will eventually furnish a serious competition to American business."

Wildcatters Rush Field In California

NEWHALL, Calif. — (AP) — A rush of "wildcatters" to start rigs drilling in oil-rich Facerita Canyon has resulted in near clashes between oil crews and guards.
It was disclosed yesterday that armed guards are on duty around the clock to prevent the wildcatters from breaking in and setting up rigs.
The rush for land in the section, leased by Independent Exploration Co. of Bakerfield and the Rothchild Oil Co. of Los Angeles, began a month ago. At that time a Superior Court judge held invalid a California law limiting only one oil well to an acre.
Drillers moved into the area, some 30 miles northeast of Los Angeles, and set up rigs on small lots. No attempt was made to determine ownership of the lots, operators said, because by the time drawn out litigation is settled, thousands of barrels of oil can be taken from the area.
The first oil well in the U. S. was built in Titusville, Pa., in 1859.

Millions of Years of Geology Said Kind to West Texas, Southeastern New Mexican Fields

MIDLAND — (AP) — Millions of years of geology have been kind to West Texas and Southeastern New Mexico.
The cattle country the past quarter century has become one of the nation's largest oil reservoirs.
More than 3,000,000,000 barrels of crude oil already have been produced. Conservative estimates of current underground reserves approach the 6,000,000,000 mark—some where between one-fifth and one-sixth of estimated United States reserves.
Geologists say that about 185,000,000 to 220,000,000 years ago the area was blanketed by what they call the Permian Sea. West Texas' first commercial oil production was found in geologic formations left by this sea.
Oilmen now refer to the West Texas-New Mexico oil producing area as the Permian Basin.
Strikes in Permian formations first made it possible for the cattle country to become an oil producer.
But when Permian oil first was discovered drilling equipment could not go too deep and many oilmen believed there was no oil at greater depths.
Modern drilling equipment has changed those theories and has brought the basin an era of optimism that has tremendous exploration possibilities.
Permian wells still are being drilled and completed successfully County where Pennsylvanian oil was found late last year.
The Scurry County boom, many oilmen say, may see the development of one of the world's greatest oil fields.
Last August 1, the West Texas-New Mexico Permian Basin had over 300 producing oil fields and over 30,000 oil wells.
Some oilmen are confident the future is even greater.
Independent producer James S. Noland recently wrote:
"Men of vision found the Permian Basin and those with vision will be the men who will find more oil in the future than has been found in the past."
Areas which once saw Permian depth wildcats abandoned as dry holes are being explored again with good producers being found in Pre-Permian formations.
West Texas' economy has boomed along with the steady increase in oil discoveries and explorations.
Towns have become cities, cattlemen have gotten out of debt.
M. C. Ulmer, Midland, a former head of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, says oil has caused a great transformation in the ranch business.
"We don't have any satellite loans any more," he said.
"The coming of oil to West Texas has made the cattleman a depositor rather than a borrower."
Ulmer cited the cases of ranchers who once were faced with bankruptcy only to recover and become philanthropists.
He agreed with the estimate of an oilman-rancher that between 75 to 80 percent of West Texas ranch land is under valid oil or gas lease.
Ulmer's First National Bank in Midland currently is undergoing a huge remodeling program necessitated by the city's growth since it became the capital of the Permian Basin.
When the Big Lake field was opened in 1923 oil companies located their headquarters at San Angelo, Tom Green County. As the big Permian strikes kept moving northward below Midland and Odessa the companies turned to more centrally located Midland.
A Midland resident — T. S. Hogan — has visualized that Midland some day would be the nerve center of the basin's oil activities.
Hogan wanted Midland to be ready. He started constructing a 12-story office building. In the early 1930's parts of the building stood empty for months and Midland residents began to refer to the structure as "Hogan's Folly."
But the boom began around 1934 and Midland suddenly found itself pressed for office space.
Hogan's vision that the town would be headquarters of oil companies operating in the basin had come true.
Something like 250 oil companies, operators and affiliates now have headquarters there. New buildings have boosted office floor space to 353,000 square feet with another 107,000 planned or under construction.
City Manager H. A. Thomason estimated the city's population last December at 26,200, compared to 9352 in 1940. Bank deposits are six times greater than they were in 1940.
Midland also has continued as the cattle center of its area.
Most ranchers have reacted calmly to their income from oil leases and royalties. They still are cattlemen at heart.
It was a happy day when Chris Millican recently became part owner of a discovery well in Coke County.
"I'm going to see every rodeo I want to," he said.

NEW YORK — (AP) — The auto industry broke another record, and added a little more to one of the nation's problems — traffic. Wednesday the 5,338,421st vehicle of the year rolled off the production line. This tops, two months ahead of time, the output record for any one full year, standing since 1929. About 4 1/2 million of these vehicles have been passenger cars.

The new one joined the 32,787,100 which R. L. Polk and Company, auto statisticians, report were registered in the country as of two weeks ago.

If you don't think there are that many on the streets and highways, just try taking your family out for an auto ride in or near any big city on the next sunny Sunday. Or try to park in almost any city business district.

Traffic jams are now so much a part of our lives that one of the services radio stations offer their metropolitan listeners is a periodic report on just what traffic conditions are worse during holiday rushes.

This is unlikely to endanger in any way the sales chances of the new record car. But it is a headache to a lot of people besides traffic officers: to city merchants, to the oil industry, to the railroads, to city planners, and to city dwellers and suburbanites alike.

Highway engineers offer varied and intricate schemes for solving the traffic problem — most of them expensive. City planners see the growing number of cars almost as a Frankenstein's monster. Some are tearing up and widening chief arteries. Others plan huge and expensive city parking garages.

That 32,787,101st car on the highways had better watch its fenders.

Tiny Midland Baby Begins Third Month of Her Life in Incubator

MIDLAND, Texas — (AP) — Tiny Maria Porros of Midland, four pounds, nine ounces heavy, began her third month of life Wednesday in an incubator in a Dallas hospital.

Doctors there said she turned blue every time they took her from the incubator.

Born four months prematurely on Aug. 25, the baby was too weak to be weighed for three days. She then weighed one pound, 12 ounces.

After living two months in a homemade incubator and surviving a case of double pneumonia, she was flown to the Children's Medical Center in Dallas Monday night.

The baby is the twelfth child of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Porros, tenant farmers who live near Midland. Maria was born two days after her mother fell while running after a truck. She was brought to a woman doctor in Midland after being baptized.

Oxygen used in keeping the infant alive was furnished by the Midland Fire Department. Her first week she was fed a special formula — an eye dropper full every hour. She later was tube-fed and now is being fed from a nursing bottle.

The doctor, who would not be quoted by name, returned here Tuesday, hoping her tiny patient will develop to normalcy under the care and treatment of Dallas specialists.

American Airlines officials said that the doctor paid for the plane trip from Midland to Dallas.

Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

XXXXII
Liz looked frightened after she slapped Tod. "I'm sorry, Tod!" He rubbed his cheek and got up from his train seat. "I'm glad you did it." He went out of the compartment and looked up the porter to see about his bags.
He knew now that he had had enough of Liz. He had taken a long, long time and the path behind him was strewn with wreckage. He left the train at Chicago and took a bus back to Capitol City.
That was the end of the Conover Agency job, naturally. He got another job. It wasn't a highly paid one, but it wasn't a "bought" job. Ma, sick and tired of the nursing home, found some rooms in her old neighborhood and moved in with him.
They were the usual sort of rooms Ma picked out. A tavern on the ground floor. A narrow stairway with chipped green plaster walls. A small kitchen with sagging cupboards and an ancient gas stove.
In February Harriet showed up unexpectedly. She had an awful time finding them, she said. She'd called Tod's phone number in the book and Jenny had told her they were divorced. She hadn't heard, for she had been living in Chicago.
"Good grief, what a place to live," she said, plumping her suitcase down on the studio couch. Tod was appalled at the change in Harriet. She looked old and weary. She was out of work and they had to let her stay. Ma wouldn't have turned her away for the world. Tod reasoned that at least there would be someone to look after Ma properly while he was at work. But Harriet wasn't home much, it turned out. She used the apartment for sleeping and that was about all.
"Ma says you're payin' for that fine house out on Riverdale Road for Jenny while we live in a dump like this," Harriet said vindictively.

"Sure, I keep up payments on the house, that was the agreement. I pay no alimony or support for the kids."
"She don't need you to buy that house for her. She's makin' money hand over fist in her dress shop. You ought to see the way they've got the place fixed up. Some joint."
"It's nice she's doing well," Tod muttered. He had walked by the shop once on the opposite side of the street, just out of curiosity. He could see that it was a prospering business. If it hadn't been, he might have had the courage to at least try to see Jenny. As it was there wasn't much point in it. He did see Nina, though.
It was one of those windy March days, with papers whirling in the gutters and stray hats cartwheeling across intersections. He was in a hurry, but when he saw Nina he stopped and called out to her.
He thought for an instant he saw a gleam of malice in her eyes as she recognized him. He knew that Nina didn't like him, but he felt an overwhelming desire to talk to her, because she would surely speak of Jenny.
"How's—how's business, Nina?" The wind whipped past them, and the sidewalk was crowded at the intersection, so he took her arm and drew her over to the shelter of a building.
"Fine. The shop is doing even better than we expected. You should see the income tax we just got through paying."
"Uncle Sam takes quite a bite, eh?" He didn't want to know about the tax. All he wanted was to hear about Jenny.
"How are you doing, Tod?" Nina's sharp eyes caught his momentary hesitation. "Still with the Conover Agency, I presume," she said.

"No. I left there about the first of the year."
Her brows went up. "Oh? I hadn't heard."
"I've got a job with a furniture store. Pretty good future in it."
There was a painful pause.
"I've been expecting to see a layout in the rotogravures about you and Liz," Nina said. "I suppose you'll be getting married soon."
"You haven't heard about that either? Liz and I are quits." He could feel his face reddening.
"Well, that's news. Did you know that Jenny's made up her mind to marry Rick?"
"No." Something heavy came into his chest. "But I had an idea they probably would sometime," he added.
"I'm happy about it. All Jenny's friends are," Nina rattled on. She tugged pensively at her gloves. "Jenny's such a good kid. She mooned around so long over you, I began to be afraid she was a 'one-man gal.' But we all get over these things, don't we?"
"I suppose we do." His voice cracked a little but he couldn't help it.
Nina went on. "Jenny's thinking of selling out her half of the shop after Easter, because Rick's got that lovely place in Centerville, and his mother says she'll take the cottage and let them have the big house."
"That's fine." He only wanted to escape from Nina now. He pulled up the collar of his overcoat. The wind blew furiously, and he couldn't hear what Nina was saying.
"Well, I guess I'd better be showing along; it's my lunch hour, you know." He scarcely knew what he was saying.
Nina leaned closer. "I said, is there any message you'd like me to take to Jenny?"
"No. I'm just glad to know she's well and happy."
They parted. The wind seemed colder to him now. He felt cold all the way through, chilled to the bone, as though he would never be warm again.

Baskin Dam Site Waters Said Unfit

ABILENE — (P) — An engineer from the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation said that waters around the proposed Bob Baskin Dam site in West Texas are unfit for domestic and municipal uses.
The engineer, Harry P. Burleigh from the Austin office of the bureau, said further that the bureau was not recommending use of the water for such purposes.
Burleigh spoke to directors of the Bob Baskin Dam Association and other civic leaders in the Haskell High School Auditorium Tuesday night.
The association had proposed to erect a dam on the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River to serve more than 30 towns in seven West Texas counties with water.
Burleigh said his findings were based on a six-year survey of waters of the stream. He said the waters have a high hardness content and a high content of sulphate and chloride.
However, the bureau representative offered another plan. He said that within the area comprised by the dam association there are water sources which could supply the towns with water.
The bureau is conducting a survey in the area to determine water needs. On March 1, 1950, when the survey is completed, the bureau will report its findings to the Bob Baskin Dam Association. A water supply site and cost estimate would be presented at that time, he said.
Also in the bureau's proposal, he said, would be an offer to build pipelines from the reservoir to those cities buying water. Money would be allocated by Congress, but would be repaid by the various cities using the water over a period of 40 to 50 years. When the money is repaid, the project would become property of those cities.

Palaver de Pampa

Drag in the lawn chairs and the garden hose. Lock all the doors and get on your toes—'Cause the goblins are prowling, looking for treats. So fill up your larder with plenty of sweets!

The knock will be loud, the visitors small; And they will accept anything at all. But don't try to fool 'em—they're hard to beat. (Be kind to that goblin in my brand new sheet.)

FRIDAY night was a busy one all round... the Country Club had the informal "spook night"... and reports are that the crowd attending had a wonderful time... the Jim Triplehorn... the Larry McMurrys were among those who ventured out... the ESSA held its Halloween frolic at the Recreation Hall... comments were that the Italian spaghetti was delicious... the BGK returned to the hall last night to have the club's festivities—where the goblins would have less chance of finding them... a note to Nelda Cooper: Just couldn't miss attending your food and fun night at Sam Houston after your thoughtful invitation last week... went to your room (Mrs. Stovall's) and thought it looked awfully nice... took time to notice your crayon drawing of a smoke house that caught my eye... you can tell that lots of work went into your preparation for mamas and papas... tried to peek into each room and stopped in my tracks when I passed Bernice Larsh's... thought the whole class was assembled... but "twam!" was life-size cut-out of each student... would have got to the other grade schools, but their fun nights were probably over by the time I got out of this one.

FRIENDS of the Homer Dockerys and Murray Bodys will be missing their familiar faces about town... correct me if I'm wrong, but I believe the Dockerys are off for Amarillo and the Bodys are making their home in Abilene.

I couldn't help passing on a couple of facts I picked up from Family Economics Bureau, through devious means: if the government gets the 42 billions to spend next year that it has asked for, that amount of mamas would make a stack of 10 bills 240 miles high... it would equal the combined wages of a million manufacturing workers at present average wage rates—for 15 years!

FROM THE MAIL BAG: Mr. and Mrs. Jim White are home after a month's tour of the Northern and Western states... they also spent several days at Vancouver, B. C.

PANORAMA: I spied a merry group at the Country Club the other evening... popular Russ Allen was in town, and was entertaining some of his many friends here... those I saw were the Bill Lovings, Mick Prigmore, Don Conleys, Gene Greens, R. A. Bakers, Mrs. Buck Burdette (whose husband, I hear, will undergo an operation tomorrow at Baylor Hospital at Dallas), the C. P. Bucklers, and M. K. Brown... Mr. Brown appeared in his usual role—the life of the party... there were several whom I didn't recognize... I was told that one of the couples was from England... and that they were perfectly delightful people.

TAKE CARE that you don't get a pain over the weekend: half of the doctors took up seats at the stadium in Dallas... the Dr. Williams, Dr. Keys and Dr. Hampton... other Pampans among those known to be down at Big D are the Harve Longrens, J. C. Daniels, and Joe Mitchells.

WAS THAT Frenchie Huval driving down Kingsmill with a bear on one fender and a deer on the other? I never have tasted bear and I am very fond of venison... overheard Doug Nelson laureating the parents of his Sunday school children... they turned out in full body the other evening to show their appreciation... Mrs. Floyd Watson is back from a week's visit in Salina, Kans... Mrs. M. T. Sims of Moundville, Ala., is here for a two-week stay with her son, Pinky, and his wife... Mrs. Weldon Adair is back after two weeks in East Texas... Louise Dunn is a Sherman visitor last weekend in the home of Lottie Ochiltree... the Blisses now reside in Breckenridge... Mrs. D. E. Harrison is just as sweet as she is pretty... the Frank Fatas are proud of their new two-toned Nash, I'm sure... it's a light green and brown combination, and need I say pretty!... the Aaron Meek's new black Plymouth is quite an eye-ful... Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Duenkel, Jr., are blessed-venting... congratulations to the Harold Wieders—a new boy born this week.

Remember: Monday night! Doubtfully, PEG O' PAMPA.

Benjamin S. Vias, Married Fifty Years, Receive Guests in Living Room Ablaze With Golden Blooms

By MARY FORRESTER

The old axiom, "A rolling stone gather's no moss," is refuted by Judge Benjamin S. Vias, who, as a soldier of fortune during the latter part of the last century, always happened to be where "things were popping," and who knew such colorful personalities as Teddy Roosevelt and Buffalo Bill, collected enough "moss" to celebrate his golden wedding anniversary last Sunday in luxury and splendor.

Judge Vias and the bride he married fifty years ago in Chicago were host to a large percentage of Pampa's residents, as well as a guest from many other states, at their spacious home at 903 North Somerville, from 2 to 8 o'clock, Sunday afternoon and evening. Gifts, which filled one large room, were still arriving through most of the week. They came from many states, and messages of congratulation arrived from at least half of the Golden Wedding reception Sunday, callers were received in the living room against a bank of golden blossoms. Hundreds of roses and chrysanthemums in gold, bronze and yellow filled the room. In addition to the large yellow roses grown in Texas many were brought from Hollywood to add to the scene.

The reception table was covered in lace over a gold cloth. In the center a golden container, one of the wedding gifts, held a large arrangement of the California Armstrong Golden roses. Crystal candelabra held yellow tapers. Guests were served hors d'oeuvres, golden punch, cake, salted nuts and golden mint. The twelve-tier wedding cake, baked by Costine Bakery, was decorated in white and gold and topped with yellow flowers and green leaves with a tiny golden bell bearing the inscription Fifty Years.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. R. H. Kitchings, Mrs. Joe Lutz and Mrs. Hadda Moore. Serving cake were Mrs. Nan Fender, Mrs. Felix Stalls and Mrs. Earl O'Brien. Mrs. C. V. Wagner, Mrs. Jim White, Mrs. C. M. Carlock and Mrs. H. T. Hampton registered the guests. June Guill, Joan Lunsford, Kay Wilson and Charlotte Call entertained at the piano with "Gay Nineties" tunes during the reception.

MOCK WEDDING: A feature of the celebration was a mock wedding ceremony, presided over by Harry Kelley, and broadcast over Radio station KPDM. It was performed on the front porch. A young couple, Miss Jacqueline Merchant and Tommie White, drove up to the porch in sedanette manner in a horse-drawn surrey with fringe on top, and "alighted" for the ceremony. The "bride" was attired in an old-fashioned gown of yellow print, a picture hat and carried an armful of red gladioli. The bridegroom was resplendent in patent leather shoes with spats, a high silk hat and swallow-tail coat. Arriving shortly afterward were Judge and Mrs. Vias, who drove up dashing in a modern Lincoln. She wore a chic gown of dusty rose crepe and had a large gold orchid pinned on her shoulder. She also wore a three-strand pearl necklace which her husband had presented to her. The Judge was jaunty in a dark blue suit with a gold carnation in his button hole. All men in the houseparty wore gold carnations and the women wore either orchid or camellia corsages. The honored couple and members of the houseparty went to a local cafe for a steak dinner after the reception. BELLS OF SARNA: The Golden Wedding gifts ranged from modest gifts to complete sets of expensive china and crystal. Most gifts were in gold or had a touch of gold trimming on them. One of the most unusual among them was a set of bells, The Bells of Sarna, sent by the Attorney General of Maine. Attached to each small bell was a booklet telling the meaning. The Vias came to Pampa 27 years ago. They were married in Chicago's City Hall October 23, 1899, by Justice John X. Prindleville, the famous "marrying justice." Judge Vias said he proposed to his wife by mail, and the two did a little friendly arguing about how long she took to answer the letter — she insisted it was at least two months, but he maintained that it couldn't have been more than a few days. Of the wedding he said, "I pawned my pistol for fifty cents to buy the license, but I didn't redeem it because I felt I'd got a good trade." He was 26 and his bride was 18 years of age. The Vias have two children. Mrs. Virginia Dewey and H. B. Vias. MEMORY GOES BACK: The Judge's eyes are inclined to grow misty with memory as he recalls the past, for his thoughts

'Texans, Give Women Citizenship' Woman Judge Tells B&PW Guests

"The service of women on juries will improve the administration of justice," Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas stated last night at a banquet at the Senior High School cafeteria. More than 250 persons—members of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and guests, including members of the Gray County Bar Association, their wives, presidents of clubs represented in the council of clubs, their husbands, and other invited guests—heard Judge Hughes deliver an address on "Jury Service for Women." The banquet was the first major event in a series of activities in connection with the Ninth District B & PW conference.

"A jury is intended to be a cross section of the community, and the service of women is needed to make a jury truly representative," she said. "Particularly in cases of divorce, child custody, and criminal cases in which a woman is a defendant or complainant, is the point of view of women valuable."

Judge Hughes brought out the fact that the people of Texas will soon have the opportunity of making it possible for women to sit on juries — of making women full citizens under the law. She said, "The Legislature this year submitted an amendment to permit women to serve on juries, thereby giving them the opportunity of assuming their full responsibilities of citizenship. Women receive all the benefits of government, schools, roads, police and fire protection, and in return they should be permitted to assume the obligations of citizenship. Women are not shirkers."

ANSWERS PREJUDICES: Judge Hughes listed the reasons usually given against women serving on juries, and answered them in this way: "They are emotional." They are, admitted the judge, "But so are most men." "They are prejudiced." Again, she answered, "But so are most men." "Inexperienced," to which she answered, "Not any more."

"They would hear too many sordid things," Judge Hughes believes that a woman's viewpoint would be helpful, since most sordid cases involve women.

To the well worn argument that a woman "should be at home taking care of the children," the speaker pointed out that care of young children is a valid reason for asking to be excused from jury the evidence, and painstaking in their deliberations. The gist of the speaker's address was this: "Barring women from jury duty is one of the few things that Texas cannot boast about, so let us go to the polls, Texans, and add Texas to the states making women full citizens under the law."

POWERFUL SPEAKER: The judge's vivid personality and strong speaking voice, coupled with her sincerity and purpose, made her a powerful speaker, contrasting sharply with her petite appearance.

Mrs. Marguerite Benson, of Borger, ninth district B&PW director, formally opened the conference and introduced Judge

Hughes. Mrs. Lillian Jordan, local B&PW president, served as toastmistress, and gave the welcoming speech at the banquet. Dinner music was furnished by Jack O. Andrews on the solo, and the group sang "God Bless America," led by O. E. Wedgeworth.

Autumn leaves and flowers in pumpkin holders decorated the tables, and candles were in apple holders. The program and menu were in the form of a legal document, bound in green and tied in gold, with a small handmade gavel attached.

Mrs. Gladys Howard, vice president of the Pampa B&PW Club, was hostess for the banquet. Mrs. Vera Lard is general conference chairman.

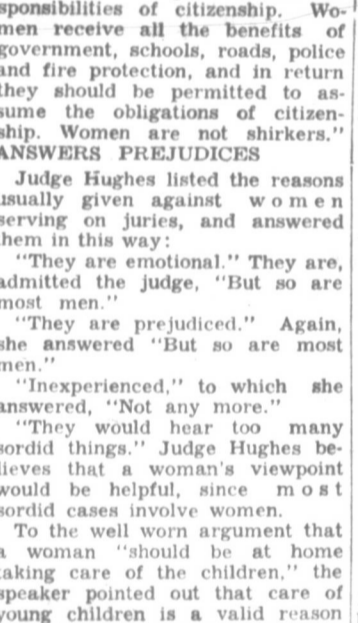

The Fun Frolic, held in the High School Auditorium after the banquet, was hilarious and amusing. The stage setting was that of a Union Station, with all the characters one might see in such a setting, complete with a mean little girl (Gladys Howard), a rowdy little boy (Jimmy Barnes), a newsboy (Buena Cox), and weary scrub woman (Noel Thompson). B&PW members were buying tickets for San Francisco for the national B&PW convention. The ticket agent (Bea York) announced that the train would be more than two hours late. The hostess (Mrs. Lillian McNutt) suggested that the passengers entertain the themselves while waiting and they agreed to make everyone coming in late present the entertainment. A "country girl" (Jeanne Willingham) insisted on doing a strip tease which ended in a ballet dance.

The next highlight was the couple just married (Jann Ethridge and Ronald Beard), who sang "Cowboy Honeymoon" and "They are conscientious, attentive to service, and added that there are many women who do not have young children. MAKE GOOD JURORS: The "too expensive" argument she dismissed with the statement that there would be very little expense involved. She said that jury service for women in Texas is something new, and therefore is deeply resented, because it is unknown. She brought out, however, that women are serving on juries in most of the states of the Union, and that in no state in which they have been given that right has the right been repealed.

Judge Hughes maintains that women make good jurors, that they are conscientious, attentive to

Excitement in the "station" broke out when two ticket buyers, Helene Madeira and Jeff Landers, broke the line with an argument which ended in an Apache dance. After much commotion, the train finally arrived and the scene ended with the crowd rushing for the train, enroute to San Francisco to elect Judge Sarah T. Hughes as national president of B&PW.

Large Woman Can Wear Bold Fashions

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The large woman's ticket to chic is good grooming that's bold, not banal.

The more pounds her scales register, the bolder her clothes effects should be. If handled tastefully, her lively dress colors, important pieces of jewelry, unusual styles in handbags, hats and other accessories will help her to make capital of her Junoesque size.

And why shouldn't she make capital of this attribute? It may be turned into an attraction which can make pint-sized women envious.

If a large woman dresses quietly, hoping that no one will take much notice, she's making a mistake by making an apology for her size.

Size aided by important good grooming can give a large woman majestic attractions. The one thing more which she needs, however, to put these across is assertive posture: the regally erect kind that can be used by a large beautifully dressed woman to stop conversation when she makes her entrance.

Lists Needs
For Happiness

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
AP Newsfeatures

One of the most important areas of child guidance has to do with the emotional needs of children.

Dr. Louis Rath, specialist in research on human relations, professor of education and director of the Bureau for Intercultural Education at New York University has listed for us the major emotional needs of children. And under each of these the Personality Laboratory at that institution itemizes its guiding suggestions. They can be of great value to parents and educators alike. Here they are:

1. The Need for Belonging. I will develop in my child a feeling of security by avoiding extreme methods of discipline. I will make every effort to face problems of home, school and community and decide them in the best interests of our family.

2. The Need for Achievement. I will encourage my child to confide in me and wherever possible I shall take him into my confidence.
3. The Need for Love and Affection. I will encourage my child to engage in some satisfying group work and play by setting the example for him.
4. The Need for Personal Integrity in Sharing. I will show courtesy and consideration to other people regardless of their age, sex, color, creed or nationality. I will be a good listener and teach my child to be one.
5. The Need for Understanding and Knowledge. I will teach my child to abide by the laws and regulations of our country. I will teach my child to respect the religious beliefs of others as we respect our own. I will think of and treat my child as an individual. I will be firm after making a decision which is in the best interest of my child.

Kellerville Business Grew From Hobby

McLEAN —(Special)— Hidden away in a room at the rear of the Post Office building of Kellerville is Bruton's Hobby Shop, owned and operated by J. M. Bruton.

Found in this shop are all kinds of archery supplies and tooled and embossed leather goods from billfolds and belts to handbags and portfolios.

Joe Bruton, as a boy in Oklahoma, became interested in Indian lore, especially archery, and fashioning bows and arrows became a hobby with him. As the years passed, his interest grew still stronger until 1939 he began entering his wares for sale. Thus began Bruton's Hobby Shop.

Soon after the beginning of World War II, all three of the Bruton children, two sons and a daughter, entered the service, and the parents suddenly found themselves alone and with time on their hands.

Bruton could occupy his hands with bows and arrows, but Mrs. Bruton wanted something to keep her busy, so the bows and arrows moved over to make room for a new hobby — that of making hand-tooled leather goods.

That was the beginning, just hobbles. But today Bruton's leather goods may be found all over the United States and in many foreign countries. At times as many as five helpers have been employed to help supply the demand. Likewise, Bruton's archery supplies have been used in practically every state in the Union.

Mrs. Tracy Stoker of Flint, Mich., United States champion archer, carries her arrows in a Bruton quiver.

Not only does Bruton know how to make bows and arrows — he can use them as well. In 1948 he participated in the National Field Archery Tournament in the national forest near Two Rivers, Wis., one of 400 contestants, and placed 90th. He is equally good with a hunting arrow and does quite a bit of this type of shooting.

Bruton has been employed by the Texas Company for 22 years and Mrs. Bruton has been postmaster at Kellerville for seven years.

Youngsters Find Auctioneer Friend

DETROIT — (AP) — About 100 Detroit youngsters were riding new bicycles today because a police auctioneer had an understanding heart.

Alex Anderson was auctioning off unclaimed property at the Police Department's annual sale. Anderson wheeled up a bicycle. A man at the back shouted a bid of $10.

"Now hold everything," said Anderson. "This is for kids. Only kids will bid and the bidding starts at a quarter."

After two young brothers had bid a dollar, Anderson stopped the bidding and the grinning boys took the bike.

Anderson wouldn't hear a bid over a dollar until each child had a bicycle. One little girl explained she had saved only 52 cents.

"Pay the man your money, honey," smiled Anderson. "You've got a bicycle."

New York Plays Reviewed for Forum Members

Mrs. C. V. Wilkinson gave a discussion of the ten hit plays now showing in New York at a meeting of the Twentieth Century Forum Tuesday afternoon at the Country Club. Mrs. Eben D. Warner, Jr., was hostess.

Mrs. Wilkinson commented on the plays, "Born Yesterday," "Mister Roberts," "Where's Charley," "Goodbye, Mr. Fancy," "Send an Ear," "Kiss me, Kate," and "The Mad Woman of Chailot." She also gave a review of the melodramas, "A Streetcar Named Desire." This play is the only one in theatrical history that has won the Pulitzer prize, the New York critic award and the Donaldson prize.

The speaker then gave conversations that revealed the characters of Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn in the historical drama, "Anne of the Thousand Days." Mrs. Wilkinson also showed the difference between the manner in which the English and American audiences received the serious play, "Death of a Salesman."

The play that appealed to the reviewer more than any other she said, was the musical play "Allegro" by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein. It is the story of the life of Joe Taylor, Jr., the son of a small town doctor.

Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Roy Bourland, E. J. Dunigan, Jr., Gene Fatheree, William T. Fraser, J. R. Holloway, Dick Hughes, Frank Kelley, John Ketter, Thomas E. Manning, M. C. Overton, Bruce Pratt, Walter Rogers, Aubrey L. Steele, Arthur Teed, Eben D. Warner, Jr., C. V. Wilkinson, and a guest, Mrs. Katherine Robertson of Shelbyville, Ky., who is a guest in the M. G. 'Gold Strike' Excitement Is Subsiding

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — (AP) — As the first "gold strike" excitement was subsiding, some old Alaska hands threw cold water on gold prospects of the new mining claim area at Fishwheel. At the same time, air lines here said reports of plane loads of gold rushers flying in from the states were not substantiated. Pan American Airways, Alaska Airlines and Golden North Airways said there was no increase in passenger traffic from outside. The report of several plane loads arriving came from Washington, D.C., Wednesday.

One of the bluntest "cold water" reports came from Tom Wilson, a steamfitter who returned from the Yukon River gold rush scene.

"There is no gold in Fishwheel," he said. He said he had talked to 20 men who staked claims but found no gold. Residents of this city, closest to the Yukon River rush area, are amused at tales of an influx of prostitutes and gamblers. Persons returning from the scene said there was none of either and the existing conditions weren't conducive to them.

Conservation Association Will Choose Committeemen

A list of nominees for 1950 Gray County Agricultural Conservation Association committee members and delegates about to be mailed to all county farmers, Miss Evelyn J. Mayson, county ACA secretary, said yesterday.

The election will be held sometime in November. Farmers will receive ballots so they can vote by mail and not have to go to the polls.

Pampa nominees to the county convention are Stanley W. Kretzmeier, William F. Taylor; alternate delegates are William A. Green, Irvin Cole.

The chairmen of the Community Committee for Pampa to be voted upon are Amos Harris, William C. Mosley; vice chairmen, W. B. Jackson, John O. Gray.

Community Committee members and alternates are Lewis K. Davis, William A. Wagoner, Emil R. Urbanczyk, Marvin C. Webster, John H. Harnly and John O. Evans.

McLean nominees for the county convention are John L. Andrews, Homer L. Abbott; alternate delegates are John A. Moore, Leroy Williams.

Community Committee chairmen for McLean are Boyd C. Reeves, R. Homer Wilson; vice chairmen are James Massay, A. B. McPherson.

Members and alternates for the Community Committee include Edgar Bailey, J. W. Dwyer, Eugene A. Herron, Clyde Brown, Byrd Gull and Ernest Brooks.

Board Asks Texas Fire Escape Law Be Rewritten

AUSTIN — (AP) — Rewriting of the Texas fire escape law was urged Wednesday by the president of Austin's Board of Education.

R. W. Byram said the 20-year-old law is impractical and obsolete.

State Fire Insurance Commissioner Paul Brown earlier threatened court action against school boards which fail to provide fire escapes as required by the law for all school buildings higher than one story.

Byram said it would cost Austin more than $97,000 to comply with the law as now written.

Fireproof interior stairways now being built are much safer than fire escapes, Byram contended, but the old law requires the outdoor escapes regardless.

"I would like to see the January session of the Legislature modernize the law and then see that it's enforced," Byram said.

Lufkin Fire Chief Resigns Position

LUFKIN — (AP) — Harry Kerr, the only fire chief Lufkin has ever had, has resigned to enter private business.

City Manager J. B. Early said a successor would be named within two weeks.

Kerr became a volunteer fireman in 1913. In 1926 he was made volunteer fire chief. When Lufkin organized a full time fire department in 1933, Kerr was named its chief.

The United Nations is the primary center of international cooperation. It is the supreme organization which struggles for peace and justice on a world basis.

Alaska Curious About Gold Rush

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — (AP) — Eldorado or dud? Bonanza or bust? All Alaska was wondering what actually is going on at Fishwheel on the Yukon River, where the 20th Century 49ers are heating up in subzero temperatures over whether they've got something or not.

Fishwheel is 165 miles northwest of here, where Clifton Carroll reported a couple of weeks ago he found pea-sized gold nuggets.

Wednesday prospectors in the frigid tent town demanded that first specimens of nuggets be sent to the University of Alaska here for assay.

Friday Geology Professor Richard Ragle examined them and declared:

"Three of the nuggets are gold and one is brass."

Yet a miner generally agreed his entire report took a negative view.

IT'S ME AGAIN!

Hello! I'm here once more to see what I can do for my Daddy. I guess this is getting to be pretty much of a habit with me writin' this ad. But then ya' know—Daddy's on the "Nervous Break" list again. I think that he should go to St. Augustine, Florida and find "The Fountain of Youth"—that's all he'll need, cause my Daddy does hate these birthdays.

The opening day of that new office really helped him—all those nice people coming in—and those beautiful flowers—even John Pitt's sent a nice flower. Yes, my Daddy really appreciated all the nice courtesies given to him and the boys—Fern and Jim. Speaking of "Old Men," Mr. R. E. Anderson is one of the nicest men that I have ever known. He smokes that cigar in that holder all the time—ya' know . . .

Those Harvesters have just got to beat Amartillo this year, and I have a feeling that they will try their hardest. I have a $5.00 bet with John Dunn that they will. I didn't give any points. I don't know much about points. John said that he hoped I would win—me too.

Well, I really must hush—however, I have one more thing to say. The B. and P. W. Club are having their annual convention on the week and I wish to congratulate them on their fine civic work. Jesse Stroup is our representative here at News (Classified Section) and if everybody does as much work here in Classified as Jesse does—they'd be busy all the time—and she sees to it that we do. A. D.

When you read this go to Church—You'll feel better the rest of the day.
