HST Submits Reorganization Plans; Seeks New Cabinet Rank

Big Slash in Defense Funds Said Possible

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to create a tenth cabinet-rank department—a department of welfare—and to put the Commerce Department in charge of public roads.

The plans—seven all told—were sent to Capitol Hill within a half hour after Mr. Truman signed the long debated reorganization bill giving him broad powers to merge and streamline government agencies, subject to Congressional veto.

The Public Roads Administration now is in the Federal Works Agency. Welfare and Social Security matters are handled by the Federal Security Agency.

All the plans, if permitted to take effect, will carry out reform and economy proposals of the commission on government organization headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

The other five would (a) give the Bureau of Employment Security (jobless pay and job placement) to the Labor Department, (b) reorganize the Post Office Department, (c) enlarge the scope of the executive office of the President, (d) streamline the Civil Service Commission, and (e) strengthen the authority of the chairman of the Maritime Commission.

All seven plans were described by the White House as conforming "quite closely" to the Hoover Commission recommendations.

Under the new law, the plans will take effect in 60 days unless either house of Congress vetoes them within that time by a majority vote of the full membership—49 no votes in the Senate or 218 in the House. Each plan is to be considered separately.

Whispering in the corridors, after talking with the President today, indicated Congress still will be in session when the 60 days are up on August 19. They also predicted two more reorganization plans will be sent up by the President shortly.

The proposal to create a welfare department provides that it take over the duties now administered by Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing. Ewing, if he then holds the post, (See TRUMAN, Page 10)

GI Dividend Payment Is Authorized

WASHINGTON (AP)—Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, Jr., today authorized payment next year of a special $2,000,000 dividend on national service life insurance policies.

Gray said he hopes veterans will begin receiving checks "some time in January, 1950," with payment substantially completed in the first half of that year.

The dividend payment has been hopefully anticipated by some economists as a stimulant to purchasing power which might help offset declining business activity.

A premature announcement of the action was put out by VA yesterday, but recalled because Gray had not yet signed the order. He signed it this morning.

About 16,000,000 veterans of World War II will receive the dividends.

This would average about $175, but individual calculations have not been completed.

In general, every veteran who took out national service insurance and kept it in force at least three months will be eligible. Where policy-holders have died, the beneficiaries will receive the funds.

Application blanks for the dividends are being prepared and may be available in August in post (See DIVIDEND, Page 10)

Check-Up on Health Made By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress this week starts what may be the most thorough check-up on national health it has ever attempted.

General health problems and specific diseases will be examined by a House Commerce Subcommittee.

The hearing will run from Tuesday through Friday, on proposals to help combat ailments like arthritis and rheumatism, multiple sclerosis (a brain and spinal cord affliction in which nerves deteriorate), cerebral palsy, epilepsy, leprosy, cancer, heart disease, infantile paralysis, blindness and eye disease.

Before the subcommittee are dozens of bills, most of them proposing setting up a special agency in the Public Health Service to conduct research and experiments on the cause, prevention, diagnosis and treatment of the specific diseases.

Subcommittee members also are going to consider a proposal for a "survey of sickness in the United States," Rep. Fogarty (D-R.I.) is pushing this.

His bill calls for a study to determine the number, age, sex, ability to work and occupations of people suffering from disease, injury or handicap. He wants to find out the type of disease or injury and how long the sufferer has been prevented from working.

Speegle Trial Opens Today

YELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Kenneth D. Speegle, 24, AWOL soldier, went on trial for his life today in the slaying of an Arkansas state trooper.

Prosecutor Eugene W. Moore said today he would ask the jury to find Speegle guilty and charged with first degree murder.

State Patrolman S. Van Pavatt was wounded fatally Sept. 25 by a rifle bullet fired from a lonely cabin. He was investigating farm burglaries.

While hunting the killer, authorities found the body of Zue E. Crook, retired railroad worker, who owned the cabin, buried in a shallow grave nearby.

Papers linking Speegle to the crime were found in a nearby cabin on a nearby farm. Speegle is charged with the Southwest was started for Speegle, AWOL from his Army post at Fort Lewis, Wash.

He was arrested about two weeks later near Oklahoma City after a former sheriff recognized him from the days he lived in Borer Tex.

Speegle was charged with the deaths of Pavatt and Crook. He was taken to the Arkansas hospital for nervous diseases.

Dr. George W. Jackson, hospital director, declares Speegle is sane after an examination, but Jackson said the lad apparently suffered amnesia.

L. H. R. Peterson announced the recovery at Alamosa, Colo., of a rifle believed to have been the one Speegle fired from the cabin at the trooper.

Peterson said a ballistic test proved it the fatal weapon.

Speegle told officers he escaped from officers soon after the shooting by boarding a freight train. He left the rifle in a refrigerator car when he jumped off the train the next day.

He Wants Streetcar Conductor Wife At Home Cooking

BLACKPOOL, ENG. (AP)—William Brindle wants his wife to quit conducting her streetcar and come on home to do the cooking.

Saturday he was put on probation because he stopped traffic along the waterfront by telling his troubles to a crowd he assembled on his wife's tramline.

Sunday he burned up the skirt to her conductor's uniform and hid the jacket. The wife, Violet, went to work in a green smock. Brindle cooked his own dinner—and burned the peas.

"I'll get Violet back home if it's the last thing I do," Brindle growled.

"The trams are my career," snapped Violet. "I shall go on, whatever happens."

Two National Surveys Agree Nation May Soon Have Five Million Jobless

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two national surveys agree the nation soon may have 5,000,000 or more jobless, but they disagree on what happens next.

In reports published over the weekend, the Public Affairs Institute warned "nothing in sight indicates a halt in unemployment trends."

The American Federation of Labor declared, "A serious business recession is almost inevitable."

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), also in a weekend statement, said the situation is confused and Congress will study it.

The Public Affairs Institute, which describes itself as a non-profit, non-partisan research organization, predicted that 8,000,000 workers will be out of jobs a year from now unless the federal government steps in to give business a boost.

Unemployment may hit 6,000,000 by the end of this year, the institute added.

Concord Also Reported on Berlin Policy

PARIS (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers adjourned their conference today after reaching agreement in principle on an Austrian independence treaty and on a way of working together in Germany.

After four weeks of negotiations here the ministers virtually agreed not to disagree until they meet in New York next September. Adjournment came at 6:30 p.m., Paris time (11:30 a.m. CST).

A communique for publication at 8 p.m. was released to newsmen, explaining the details of what was done, outlined draft articles for an independence treaty for Austria and contained a working agreement between the East and West in Berlin.

The four ministers—Britain's Ernest Bevin, America's Dean Acheson, Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky and France's Robert Schuman—went into the bar of the pink marble palace for a sandwich and a glass of champagne as their discussions came to an end. Reporters and photographers were allowed into the palace, scene of the conference; on the last day.

Authoritative sources said agreement was reached yesterday on a "live and let live" pact on the former German capital and also on instructions to the ministers' deputies to write an independence treaty for Austria.

The agreement on Berlin and on resumption of East-West trade in Germany is expected to ease international tension. It is understood that in return for the West's reopening of trade with the East, (See BIG FOUR, Page 10)

Hecklers Break Up Prelate's Sermon; Commies Set Guard

Polio Still On Rise in Texas Cities

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—The Communist government's security police apparently tightened their guard on Archbishop Josef Beran's palace today while Catholics weighed the meaning of organized Communist heckling of the prelate at Sunday's cathedral services.

The heckling drove him from his cathedral and prevented him from completing his sermon.

Attempts to talk to the archbishop today were foiled by security police in charge of the palace reception desk and telephone switchboard.

An attempt to reach his private secretary by telephone met a reply from the switchboard that "they are accepting no phone calls or visitors." It could not be learned whether the police had refused them the right to see or talk to anyone.

Shrill Communist interruptions of the archbishop's Corpus Christi Day sermon in St. Vitus Cathedral yesterday brought the long battle between church and state to its highest tension. The archbishop, defiantly resisting Communist efforts to control the church and break the spiritual rule of the Vatican over Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Catholics, had to leave the pulpit and return to his palace, already under the watchful eyes of the security police.

The whistling and jeering broke out from demonstrators bunched near the altar as the archbishop began a denunciation of the government's moves against the church. The rest of the congregation, many in tears, burst into a hymn in an attempt to quell the disorder.

Some Prague priests told their congregations the ancient cathedral might have to be reconsecrated. (See HECKLERS, Page 10)

Wallets of Five Robbed

The pants pockets of four Oiler players and Bobby Ray Seitz, son of Oiler Manager Grover Seitz, were picked of approximately $100 as they lay in the dressing room at the park Saturday night during the ball game.

Heaviest loser was Tooter Harper, whose wallet was robbed of $80. The wallets of Charley Bodine, Homer Matney, Ken Peacock and Young Seitz, each had between $2 and $5 taken from them.

The robbery was discovered during the intermission between the two games of the Pampa-Abiene doubleheader by Oiler players who they went to get money to buy pop.

City Police and the Sheriff's Department questioned several persons in connection with the theft, but made no arrests.

All of the wallets were left in the dressing room after they were robbed.

25 Combines Are Needed In County

Wheat farmers in Gray County are asking for 25 combines right now and expect to need many more next week, the farm labor hopes according to L. P. Fort, local manager of TEC. It has been difficult to stop machines in this area since practically all claim to have contracts in other counties, Fort said.

The harvest in Gray and Roberts counties is an estimated two percent complete, the bulletin stated.

It is 15 percent complete in Wheeler and 10 percent complete in Hemphill counties, with the final completion date estimated at July 5. There are no shortages of men or equipment and satisfactory progress is being made, the announcement continued.

It is a different story, however, in Ochiltree and Lipscomb counties where there is an urgent and immediate need for 100 combines, 40 hohail trucks, and 50 experienced operators and tractor drivers.

Light showers in that area Friday night gave the harvest only a slight setback, and all equipment was in operation Saturday morning.

E. L. McElhannon, TEC representative, has had that headquarters set up on the Perryton road grounds, just west of town. All requests for men and machines are routed through his office.

Car Joins Owner In Lake Water

Clyde O. Stone, 515 N. Frost, went fishing at Lake McClellan yesterday afternoon. As a direct result of his fishing trip, the Culberson Chevrolet Company went fishing too.

While Stone was fishing his 1949 Chevrolet coupe slid into the lake. Bystanders heard the splash and notified Stone. After the car struck bottom only two inches of the body remained above water.

The Chevrolet wrecker spent about an hour and one-half getting the car back on its own four wheels. The motor will have to be completely re-assembled and cleaned, it was said.

Car Joins Owner In Lake Water

Clyde O. Stone, 515 N. Frost, went fishing at Lake McClellan yesterday afternoon. As a direct result of his fishing trip, the Culberson Chevrolet Company went fishing too.

While Stone was fishing his 1949 Chevrolet coupe slid into the lake. Bystanders heard the splash and notified Stone. After the car struck bottom only two inches of the body remained above water.

The Chevrolet wrecker spent about an hour and one-half getting the car back on its own four wheels. The motor will have to be completely re-assembled and cleaned, it was said.

Patchy Manicure Depresses Morale

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

There are many telltale signs that a woman's good grooming suffers from neglect, but the most gossipy indication is apt to be a rundown manicure.

Besides stamping a woman as looking unkempt, a set of frayed and patchily-polished nails always seem to have a depressing effect upon her morale. The minute she can cast an appreciative glance over impeccably gleaming nails, her morale begins to go up like the graph of a sales chart during a peak season.

Keeping nails looking impeccable is very little trouble if a woman gives her manicure a daily inspection and a bit of renewing care. In that routine of care, cuticles should be given a push every time hands are towelled dry. This will keep polished ovals free of the overgrowth that is constantly trying to close in on nails.

The sprouting of a hangnail is an occasion for hauling out a nipper which should be used while these callouses are still soft from a scrubbing of hands. When polish begins to break down, new coats should be applied. Patchwork with polish is all right to use in an emergency. But patchwork is never a substitute for brand-new luster coats because there is always a discrepancy between the old application and the new.

Sunbeam Band Groups Meets With Counselor

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Jo Von Sunbeam Band met Tuesday at the home of Miss Minnie Watson, counselor of the group.

The lesson was on Missionary Magazine and the W.M.U. Family. The children were taught the various phases of work through the W.M.S. by the sunbeams and other organizations sponsored by the group.

The devotional was given by Alice Patrick and Glenda Beach. Miss Watson led in prayer. The group sang Sunbeam songs.

All the children took part in the discussion of the lesson. Bible story on "Naaman and The Slave Girl," was given by Jeanette Perrin.

The aims of the Sunbeam Band were studied and afterward given in pantomime.

Those on the program were Glenda Beach, Aileen Patrick and Jeanette Perrin. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison at the close of the meeting.

Refreshments were served to Carmen Newman, Aileen Patrick, Martha Sue Dwyer, Jeanette Perrin, Betty Lou Sutton, Glenda Beach, Paul Hardin, Patsy Harding, and Mrs. Martin Dwyer, co-counselor of the group.

Class Hears Report On Work for Year

A report of the year's work was heard at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Loyal Women's Class of the First Christian Church.

Six members were present. The group voted to send $10 to the Cox Canyon Fund. (The fund is for the financing of the annual conference there.)

The class also voted to contribute $10 to Boy's Ranch, Amarillo.

Present were Meses. Homer Kees, Tom Eckerd, A. A. Tiedman, Oscar J. Huff, C. H. Darling, and J. F. Meers.

Epsie Kinard Sees Brilliant Future For Washable Colored Shoes and Bags

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Undimmed brilliance is promised colorful beach shoes and bags by fabrics that wash.

Shoes with uppers of hubberized fabrics, soles of sponge, cork and rubber can be tossed into the washing machine. Bags of rubberized canvas can be washed clean with a wet rag or dunked into a soap and water bath.

Bags have extra added attractions. They're bigger. When they're barrel-shaped, as is the two-handled, two-toned beach bag of red and white rubberized canvas shown upper right, they can pack a change of clothing to the beach. When whipping carryalls, such as the huge two-toned blue and white bag, shown lower right, have wet and dry compartments and slide fasteners, they keep dry duds safe, separating them from drabby towels and swimming suits.

The beach shoes shown with this oversized beach bag are shining white examples of the rubberized fabric that can be kept white by washing. Uppers are made of rubberized fabric, soles of cork and rubber for insulation against hot sand and pavements.

The multicolor sandals shown left with crisscross straps of rubberized fabric, soles of cork also go into a washing machine for a quick cleanup, have a thick sponge midsole for cooler comfort, a rubber outersole for a nonskid grip on slippery surfaces.

Minister's Family Honored by Church

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Dunnam, daughter, Eleanor, and son, Harold, were honored at a reception in the parlor of the First Methodist Church, at 6:30 p. m. Sunday.

Decorations featured a mantel arrangement of Shasta daisies, white tapers entwined with fern, and an antique pitcher (all with pink hollyhocks), was placed near the register.

In the receiving line were Mrs. C. S. Reavis, president of the W.S.C.S., Rev. and Mrs. Dunnam, Eleanor and Harold; Mrs. L. Roberts, president of the Wesleyan Guild; Mrs. L. S. Griffin and Mrs. J. R. Benson.

The tea table was laid with a cloth of lace centered with an arrangement of red roses flanked with white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Ed R. Wallace and Mrs. D. F. Spruill served. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. W. R. Wooten and Mrs. W. B. Smith.

The program was presented in the main auditorium of the church. Mrs. Earl Hamill and Mrs. Keith Mismeyer sang, "My God and I," with Mrs. Cabot Brannon playing the organ.

The Dumnams were presented with a silver service as a gift from the members of the church.

About seventy-five guests called during the receiving hours.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

When I received an invitation recently from Dong Kingman to see the exhibition of his paintings in the Midtown Galleries in New York City, I did not at first connect the name with the Chinese boy I knew as a bridge player.

I went over to the exhibition and found Dong enthusiastic because one of his watercolors had won the 1948 American Watercolor Society prize.

Dong was born in Oakland, Calif., but at the age of 8, he went to China and stayed there until he was 18. Then he returned to the U. S., married, and his 18-

Year-old son is now in the Marine Reserve. Dong teaches art at Columbia University and at Hunter College in New York.

A great many doctors and professional men paint for relaxation, but Dong's relaxation is bridging. He thought he was lucky on today's hand. But if you are not optimistic in your bidding once in a while, you are apt to find yourself crowded out.

Of course, his partner's weak opening bid of one heart did mislead him. Dong started off rather conservatively with a bid of two diamonds. When his partner bid three diamonds, confirming a sound opening bid, Dong bid a new suit, forcing his partner to bid again. His four-spade bid, also a new suit, required another bid by South. The jump to six no trump was truly a plunge.

It is human to err, and you can count on the opponent to make a mistake once in a while. East made the mistake of leading a heart instead of a spade. This play the clubs through twice, thus allowed declarer to go over and winning four heart tricks, five diamonds, two clubs and the ace of spades.

Miss Hupp Installed New Rainbow Advisor

MCLEAN — (Special) — Miss Wernetta Hupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hupp, was installed as worthy advisor in the Order of McLean Rainbow Assembly recently.

Miss Hupp was attired in a white taffeta gown and was presented a corsage of pink and white. She presented each officer a wrist corsage of orchid and pink rosebuds.

Abilene Scene of Wedding of Miss Walker and Mr. Longino

HIGGINS — (Special) — In an impressive formal ceremony recently, Geneva Routh Walker, daughter of Mrs. John Dean Walker, 834 Ross Avenue, Abilene, became the bride of Hugh Alvin Longino, Jr., 1122 Elm, Abilene, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Longino of Higgins.

Scene for the nuptials was the First Methodist Church, Abilene, with Rev. Longino, father of the groom, reading the double ring service. Miss Louise Spiegelmeier, Munday, Texas, played the organ while Miss Lenore Longino, Amarillo, sister of the groom, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." "Claire De Lune" was played softly during the service.

Basket arrangements of white gladioli and fern decorated the altar where the couple stood. Tall white candles alighted the background.

Miss Birdie Walker, Abilene, sister of the bride, attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a chartruse taffeta dress fastened like the bride's dress, and carried a bouquet of chartruse daisies. The bridesmaid was Miss Jo Alyce Goss of Snyder, whose dress was of yellow taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Ted Longino, Sapulpa, Okla., brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were W. B. McSpadden, Sweetwater, and Ray Longino, Abilene, another brother of the groom. The candles were lighted by Dan Loving, Amarillo, cousin of the bride and Don Noland, Abilene.

Entering on the arm of her brother, Jerry Dean Walker, who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in a gown of white tulle taffeta, with deep bertha trimmed in Venetian lace, with a short chapel train. Her veil of full length was worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and satin streamers. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a brown and white silk dress, with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations. The groom's mother chose a black crepe dress with black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jefferies. After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Ruidoso, Red River, and Eagle Nest, N.M., and Amarillo. For traveling the bride wore a brown linen dress with jacket to match and green accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

After June 19, the couple will be at home at 3186 Buffalo Gap Road in Abilene.

Mrs. Longino is a graduate of Abilene High School and attended McMurry College at Abilene. The groom graduated from Munday High School, and received his degree from McMurry College.

Royal Service Day Program Is Held

SHAMROCK — (Special) — WMS of the First Baptist Church met Monday for the Royal Service Day Program.

The theme for study was "Christ: The Answer for Questioning Youth."

The meeting opened with group singing led by Mrs. R. W. Shields. Mrs. B. F. Kersh led in prayer. The Blanche groves Circle was in charge of the program. Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Charles Daughtry gave a talk on an offering for Ministerial Relief.

Those present were: Meses. L. T. Davis, Lee Newman, W. W. Ferrin, Raymond York, Neal Lanham, Ben A. Skidmore, Duward Price, Charles Daughtry, Martin Dwyer, Murray Davis, B. F. Kersh, R. W. Shields, Lucy Darling, P. T. Boston and Miss Minnie Watson.

The mother of several small children was on the subject of dinner guests: "By the time I give the children their supper early, and get them settled down for the night and rush around putting the finishing touches on a company meal, I'm so tired when the guests arrive I can't enjoy the evening. And after they leave I know I'll be washing dishes far into the night."

"It seems to me," she went on, "that young couples with small children would be smart if they got together and agreed to cut out dinner invitations and just have evening get-togethers."

GOOD IDEA

She has a good idea there. And it could be done with mutual agreement. But one mother can't start such a system alone.

If the other young mothers in the crowd are willing to work themselves silly in order to entertain at dinner, she has to do the same.

But why should young couples have to keep up a system of entertaining that is fine for older couples but is plain drudgery, and hard on the budget to boot, for couples with small children?

If the wives would get together both hostess and guests—cutting their way of entertaining a dime and make it simpler for everyone.

After-dinner parties instead of company dinners among parents of young children would be easier on both hostess and guests—cutting out all that rush of getting children fed and to bed early. And it would certainly be better for the children.

100 Men Attend Brotherhood Meet

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Approximately 100 men attended a joint meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church and the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church recently.

The affair was held at the First Baptist Church with members of the Baptist Brotherhood as hosts to the Methodists. The Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Church had entertained the Baptists in similar manner a few months ago.

Rev. Leon Hill, pastor of the Baptist Church, was the speaker of the evening, using the subject, "Success." Rev. Hill stressed five important factors necessary to attaining success, emphasizing them as follows: organization, preparation, participation, cooperation and agitators.

"The first step is organization—a channel through which to work," the speaker said. "Next is preparation—preparing to the 'M' degree to use the organization already set up."

"Then comes participation—jump in and do what you can. You don't know what you can do until you try. Cooperation is a necessary factor that is made stronger through agitators. Cranks make the world go around by causing other people to accomplish things."

Business Women's Circle Holds Meeting

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Business Women's Circle of the First Baptist WMS met in the home of Mrs. Joe Tate Monday. Mrs. D. W. Hawthorne was co-hostess and Mrs. O. G. Goss presided over the business session.

The lesson on "Christ: The Answer to Youth," was given in two parts by Mrs. J. E. Shortt and Mrs. Goff.

Mrs. Shortt discussed, "Are the Young People Our Most Valued Possessions?" and Mrs. Goff's topic was "Do We Realize Our Responsibility to Our Youth?"

Refreshments were served to Meses. Austin Byrd, J. J. Baird, J. F. Shortt, Murray Davis, and hostesses.

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

THE STORY: Bea Cosgrove, un-... He decided to help him out be-... "You're speaking of Miss Stark?"

BEA COSGROVE mumbled something about wanting some air until she saw he was not listening.

"On yes, of course," he said absently. "Come with me. And we must be careful not to disturb Miss Stark."

Texas-Bound Princess Is Lucky, Villagers Believe

By RICHARD O'REGAN HECHINGEN, Germany —(P)—Villagers here think Princess Cecile, granddaughter of the late German Kaiser...

Cecile's father, Crown Prince Wilhelm, who would be seated on the German throne if it still existed, is reported by his major domo to be "satisfied and happy."

As for Cecile — she has expressed herself delighted with the thought of living in Texas. She intends to leave royal pomp behind her, to be plain "Mrs. Harris" and make a home for her Army-veteran husband, now an interior designer, in Amarillo.

BEA COSGROVE turned toward the white blur of his face, met the demands of the moment with a theatrically outburst hand. Her voice was low. "You must look into your own heart for the answer."

SHE had to remind herself she was talking to Henry Gough Harding, master of Speare Island, and not a present day teen-ager, but the adolescent of a generation ago when knighthood was in flower.

"I understand," she murmured. "I know you would. Even though you yourself cannot be worldly, I had to leave school in the middle of my second year of high school and from then until I was 35 I had to work hard. Mother was a semi-invalid you see. She was so gentle and sweet, and would try to do things for herself so I would have a chance to go out. She insisted once I enter a boxing tournament. I did. The first night I went she fell and hurt herself. I blame myself, but she forgave me. And after—after she passed away it was difficult for me. I realized fully what I had lost. His voice took on a deeper timbre. "But I had to go on. I had to make something of my life. I owed it to her."

One, a civil service, will take place in a secret room hidden in the castle's watch tower. It will be restricted to a few close relatives and friends.

The second, in a tiny Protestant chapel which holds only 30 or 40 people, will be a religious service. The crown prince will give his daughter away.

Harris first met Cecile when he was a U. S. military government captain in 1945. After going home he kept up correspondence with her and came back to Germany last month.

WARREN'S OILERS HAVE ABILENE PITCHERS' DEFEAT, 7-4, Renew Lefty Martin's Duel With White Sox

By Warren Hassel—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What two teams are tied for the dubious honor of losing the most consecutive games in the majors?

THE OILERS HAVE certainly looked like a championship club in their last three games. In fact, they look like the first eight innings of the first Abilene game, but for a couple of bad breaks to start off the inning that night, might have swept the series.

The biggest improvement has been that the hitting has been timely now during their losses. Now the hits are coming at the bases and anyone is out. Before, the game was out before the first inning and the Oilers were undoubtedly given heart.

The pitching staff that has been through finely pitched games, come out on the short end of the score.

The Oilers' biggest jump in batting percentage was made by Tootie, newly turned-over second baseman. Since moving to the back his batting has been to all hands.

Peacock has started to get on the ball again and the lefty of Virgil Richardson has been loudly pitched in time, being that he might be ready to the form of other years.

The Pampa Oilers jumped on the league's leading hurlers yesterday afternoon to win the final game of the series from the Abilene Blue Sox, 7-4. Lefty John Martin finally got some hitting behind his fine pitching to gain his second win since joining the team. The victory gave the Oilers three wins in the four-game series. A home rally in the ninth was snuffed out by Martin after two runs had scored.

Tonight the Oilers open a three-game series with the Lamesa Lobos. Charley Bodine will be on the mound for the locals, in search of his fifth victory in the season.

Goldthwaite Is Women's Winner

LUBBOCK—Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth is the new Women's West Texas Golf Association queen.

She ended the three-year reign of Odessa's Mrs. Sam O'Neal, 74, in the 36-hole finals yesterday. Mrs. Herschel Ezell, Midland, 43, to win the championship consolation crown.

The first flight title went to Mrs. W. F. Martin, Amarillo, who defeated Mrs. E. L. Chilton, Odessa, 4-2, in the finals.

In the second flight, Mrs. Doug Jones, Abilene, defeated Mrs. R. C. Lewis, Abilene, 1-up in 19 holes in the finals.

Mrs. John Lockaby, San Angelo, defeated Mrs. Wright Cowden, Midland, 2-1, in the third flight final.

And Mrs. L. E. Brister, Monahans, defeated Mrs. Glen Watson, Lubbock, 1-up in 19 holes, in the fourth flight final.

El Paso submitted the only bid for the 1950 tournament. The new president of Women's West Texas Golf Association, Mrs. T. F. Patterson of Lubbock, said the bid would be acted on later.

Bruins Defeat Bums To Snap Loss Streak

Only Two Jumpers Rejoin Old Clubs in Two Weeks

NEW YORK—(AP)—Two weeks after Commissioner A. B. Chandler's edict forgiving all Mexican League jumpers, only two of the score of reinstated players have reclaimed their old baseball jobs in the majors.

They are Lou Klein, St. Louis Cardinal infielder who is filling in for the aching-back Marty Marion at shortstop, and George Haumann, who has taken over second base for the New York Giants.

A half-dozen other athletes granted amnesty expect to return to organized baseball in the next few days.

The rest appear temporarily stymied—either they don't want to come back for there's no "welcome" mat out for them.

Mickey Owen, the one-time Brooklyn catcher who spearheaded the movement to have the five-year ban lifted, said he planned to join the Dodgers tomorrow in Cincinnati.

The 33-year-old receiver added that he's just been waiting for a replacement on the Winner, S. D. club where he has been playing semipro ball.

STAN THE MAN
ST. LOUIS—(AP)—In his first 10 games this season Stan Musial hit three homers. A lot of runs batted in, you say? Well, those three homers each came with bases empty. In his 11th game he got three singles for a perfect day and drove in two runs.

Chris Haskins barely had enough to stagger through to his ninth victory of the year. He was given a six-run lead in the first inning, primarily on the strength of Dooley's third grand-slam home run of the year. But the Lobos kept pecking away at the Hubber lead until Lubes had whittled down to 7-4 going into the bottom of the eighth.

Youngster Has Hard Time In Father's Footsteps

By DEWITT WACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

All America is watching the advent of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Jr., into national politics. A few are wondering just what it means to a young man to follow in the footsteps of a famous father. Is it an advantage to the son or a handicap?

Years ago in England I put that question to the late Sir Austen Chamberlain. He then was British foreign secretary. Sir Austen was son of the noted statesman Joseph Chamberlain. He also was brother of Neville who, as prime minister, later tried the unhappy experiment of appeasing Hitler.

I broached the question of how the fame of a father affected a son at the beginning of the latter's career. The foreign secretary smiled reminiscently, and then he replied in effect:

At the outset, of course, the father's position is of great help to the son. It provides the young man an entree which he might not otherwise have. It gives him useful friendships at a most trying period.

However, all that soon changes. His political associates unconsciously begin to measure him against the stature of his father. They look for far more from the young man than he should be expected to deliver with his lack of experience. Thus faults which might be overlooked in another apprentice are logged down against the son of the famous man.

On the whole, Sir Austen thought, it was a severe handicap in the political world for a young man to have a notable father.

There are plenty of American examples of sons following in their fathers, both in politics and in business. In the political field there are innumerable father-son combinations. Besides the D. Roosevelt — the Tafts, LaFollettes, the U. S. Grants, Teddy Roosevelt, and so on in the history. And in the realm of big business the Rockefellers, Morgans and the Fords are three in a long line of dynasty. In some cases success has craved generations of heirs.

BUILDING NEWS

Young in spirit and definitely liveable, this charming room illustrates why "Early American" is a "natural" for young couples. The modestly priced but well-designed furniture is of maple with the upholstered pieces covered in smart cotton fabric—the rug is an oval braided cotton—and the crisp, effective curtains are of ordinary checked gingham. Copper lamps, pottery accessories, and colorful prints, all priced for budget-conscious homemakers, complete this attractive Colonial setting.

Early American Is Ideal for First Home

Furnishing their first home usually represents a major problem to the majority of newlyweds as they all want an attractive, liveable home without extending their budget too much. And, it is with all of these young people in mind that we suggest Early American furnishings as one solution to a smart, comfortable home on a limited budget.

Always in good taste because of its simple, unaffected styling—youthful and gay in spirit because of its cheerful mellow tones—sturdy because it's made of solid maple or cherry—and budget priced because these are native woods—Early American is a smart choice for young American couples who must consider price when shopping for furniture.

Casual and informal in character and lightly scaled "Early American" is ideal for the small home or apartment and by virtue of its simplicity, inexpensive fabrics and accessories may be used with it rather than the luxurious types.

OVERTHROW PLOT
SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP)—The ruling military Junta said it has unearthed a plot to overthrow the government and has taken steps to deal with it.

Maintenance Costs Rise In Cheap Home

Economy construction does not mean cheap construction; the two must not be confused by builders or the public, and cheap construction should be avoided in the economy housing program now underway throughout the country, Harold Sleeper, architectural instructor at Columbia University claims.

"It is not necessary to sacrifice quality to effect cost savings," he said. "At best, such savings are only minor but they are costly to the builder in lost prestige and to the home-buyer in maintenance and operation of his home."

Quality materials and equipment, in quantity and sizes adequate to perform their proper functions, particularly in heating, plumbing and electrical installations, nailing, insulation, framing, roof and floor construction.

Heating is at the top of Sleeper's list and he stressed the need for "auxiliary helps which will save their price by lowering the fuel bill." Complete insulation with full-thick batts or blankets of mineral wool is one of his principal suggestions in this connection.

"How insulation is installed, the amount used and whether it will become water-logged is of primary importance," he said. "Insulation is a much-abused, misunderstood term. There is a lot of difference between the high efficiency of 35-8 inches of mineral wool and some other substance."

No matter what type heating plant is used, it must be adequate to heat each room to 70 degrees when outdoor temperature is zero, and should be so guaranteed in writing by the contractor, according to the architect. To attain that result at lowest cost, he insisted that tight-fitting storm windows and doors be provided, that all outside walls and the roof area be insulated full-thick with mineral wool, and that metal weather-strip be used on all windows and doors.

Skimpy plumbing and inadequate electric wiring are false economies, Sleeper maintained. Waste and supply pipes larger than a bare minimum, soil and waste pipes covered with one inch of hair felt to reduce noise, and elimination of water hammer with an air cushion or spring valve are marks of quality construction. No electric circuit should serve more than 500 square feet of house area and have no more than 10 outlets per circuit. A separate kitchen circuit, a single circuit for an electric range with no other outlet on it, and still another individual circuit for an electric water heater are advocated. Circuit breakers instead of conventional fuses are used. No. 12 wire are other recommendations.

Sleeper specially insisted that nailing be adequate. "This is so important that the government has seen fit to make an exhaustive study of the subject and issue a comprehensive booklet," the Columbia architect pointed out. "The extra nails required to insure sound construction cannot add more than $3 or $4 to cost of the house and mean the difference between a good house and a poor one."

Use of sheathing which will hold nails firmly for roofing and siding is another must, he said, and no matter how low a price the builder is striving for, the house should have double floors and copper flashing.

The added cost of quality construction can be absorbed and added economies effected by careful architectural design and more efficient building techniques, he asserted.

"Open planning of rooms and thus eliminating partitions is an important cost-saver," he said. "Roof trusses instead of conventional rafters save money in houses where a high attic is

Oak Floors Are On Preferred Lists for Homes

Trade reports indicate that an increasing percentage of new dwellings are featuring quality construction, as builders prepare for more competitive selling and renting markets.

With the volume of new home building gradually alleviating the housing shortage, builders realize that in the not-so-distant future buyers and renters will be able to be more selective in their choice of quarters. Consequently many owners, in constructing homes and apartments, are emphasizing quality materials which will add appeal to the buildings.

Items such as hardwood flooring, insulation, high grade plumbing fixtures and other features which enhance the liveability and attractiveness of a home are being included on an increasing scale in construction specifications.

In prewar years when housing was relatively plentiful, veteran observers recall, it was not uncommon to see houses and apartments remain vacant for comparatively long periods simply because they lacked certain features which discriminating buyers and renters demanded. Many residential units drew low rentals for the same reason.

To attract desirable tenants, owners often were called upon to install various improvements in the property. In old houses, for example, where inferior flooring had become worn and unsightly, it frequently was covered by attractive new flooring of durable oak. Good floors which improved the appearance of a home and were easy to maintain stood high on the list of features desired by prospective tenants.

This is easily understood when one takes into account the important functions of flooring. An indispensable structural part of a house, flooring receives the most wear and tear. It also plays a leading role in decorative plans.

Reflecting the current heavy demand for high quality flooring are reports from builders that more homes than ever before are being equipped with floors of oak and other hardwoods.

Six 1/2 Cent Bread Selling in Quanh

QUANH, Tex. (AP)—A price war knocked the price of one-pound loaves of bread down to 6 1/2 cents Saturday.

One grocer recently opened a branch store in Oklahoma City and obtained a bakery to supply both stores. He undersold other stores here until three of the larger local groceries banded together to lease idle bakery equipment. Now all four stores sell bread at 6 1/2 cents.

Free Book on Insulation of Farm Offered

Creating healthful and productive living conditions for animals is one way of protecting farm profits in these days of narrow margins, according to agricultural specialists. This subject is treated fully in a 25-page booklet recently published by the Insulation Board Institute.

"A farm building," the booklet states, "fulfills only part of its duty if it fails to protect animals from extreme heat and cold, from sudden temperature changes and from drafts. It cannot give profitable service if it is damp and laden with disagreeable odors, or if its interiors 'sweat' or 'frost.'"

Methods of correcting these unprofitable conditions as well as practical instructions for the use of insulating board in farm buildings are given in the booklet. This type of insulation is widely used on the farm because it serves both as a structural building material and as insulation. Insulating board comes in the form of building boards, sheathing and interior finish. The large, rigid sheets can be applied easily by anyone handy with a hammer and saw.

How and where to apply insulating board to best advantage is also explained in the booklet. Free copies may be obtained by writing the Insulation Board Institute, 111 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and asking for the "Farm Building Insulation" booklet.

Lost Tot Remembers Advice; Follows Stream to Rescue

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—If you ever get lost, Sandra Davis' parents told her, follow a creek downstream until you come to a road.

Eight-year-old Sandra remembered Friday when she wandered away from the vacation cabin of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Davis of Laramie, in the mountainous Boulder Ridge country south of here.

Within an hour, 80 persons were searching the area.

Meanwhile, Sandra and her dog had followed a stream, until they reached a road.

She was seven miles from home when Axel Moon, a rancher, found her by following her tracks along the road.

Cars Serviced to Perfection At Local Shamrock Service

Veratile Charlie Ford's friendly manner attracts many customers to the Shamrock Service Station, 400 W. Foster.

Charlie has been in the gas and oil business for years and knows how to please car owners. He has managed the local Shamrock Service station for the past seven years.

Born at Paris, Texas, Charlie is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and is sold on Pampa. He believes there is no other place he would rather live.

Besides Charlie, Ivan Marin, Orvil Keeton and Jerry Davis are employed at the station that uses the slogan "Made in the Southwest for the Southwest."

Items that may be purchased at the station include: Shamrock gasoline, all leading brands of motor oils, Dunlop tires and tubes, Exide batteries and lots of other auto accessories.

Auto lubricating and washing are specialties of Marin, Keeton, Davis and Ford. Another reason you may expect to see so many cars being serviced at 400 W. Foster is that many people in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma and Kansas will use no other kind of gas than Shamrock.

Some car owners wait until they completely ruin a tire before they get around to get another. However, once a car owner has purchased a Dunlop tire, he realizes there is a big difference in tires. So rather than waiting for a blow-out to necessitate the purchase of another tire — it is better to make a trip to 400 W. Foster now and have a Dunlop on hand for an emergency.

Dunlop Gold Cup heavy duty tubes also are items that motorists should not be caught without. It takes only one use of Dunlop tubes to convince most motorists.

Exide batteries that may be purchased at the station are popular with many motorists. However, if you haven't used Exides and have been having battery trouble — a trip to Shamrock or a phone call — 1919 is in order for you.

Many people like to have extra gadgets on their car — not always gadgets that aid driving, but also items that make the car more enjoyable to ride in. Many of these may be purchased at Shamrock.

Then too — motorists all at one time or another — find their cars needing replacement parts. Stop in at Shamrock at such times for if it isn't found there, it isn't to be found anywhere.

Prescriptions Filled Right And Promptly at Richard's

Prescription filling is one of the major services offered by Richard Drug, 107 W. Kingsmill.

Every doctor's prescription may be filled there—quickly and correctly.

Joe Tooley, since March 1, has been half-owner of the drug store. Prior to that it was jointly owned by Floyd P. Shaw, Jr., and Floyd F. Shaw, III, and Tooley.

Five Pampans are now employed there to provide the best in drug store service.

Mrs. Dorothy Klotz has charge of the cosmetics department. Mrs. Tony Beard heads the camera department. Linden Sheppard delivers merchandise and Mrs. Tooley assists in all departments.

Joe was graduated from Baylor University in 1927 and is experienced in filling prescriptions. Only graduate pharmacists fill prescriptions at Richard's — so one can be definitely assured of getting the right prescription there.

Eastman Revere, Arugs and Grafex are the four major lines handled in the camera department, but other lines are also found there. In the main lines, however, a representative stock of every item made by the respective companies is to be found. Mrs. Beard has had lots of experience in dealing with cameras and therefore knows them inside out.

Every dark room need is stocked there as are General Electric and Western tube exposure meters. Night picture equipment includes artificial light, flood lights, reflectors and flash bulbs.

Leather cases to fit all sizes and makes of cameras are still other cameraman necessities there. Both the professional and amateur photographer is certain to find just what he needs at 107 W. Kingsmill.

A wide variety of cosmetic lines are stocked. Featured lines are Dorothy Gray, Tussy, Lucien DeLong and Elmo, which is handled exclusively in Pampa at Richard's.

Other lines carried are Harriet Hubbard Ayer, Marcolle, Revlon, Chen Yu, Coty, Dana, Max Factor, Evening in Paris and Endoreme.

Within the patient medicine department, Pampans are able to find just what they want, even if it is not generally stocked in drug store. A general line of medicines and a good stock of sickroom and hospital supplies are stocked.

The truss department is the last major department at Richard's. It has just as complete line as do the other departments.

Akron trusses are featured. Included are baby sacroiliac and sacro-lumbar trusses, postis, abdominal and obesity supports, anklets, garter hose, knee caps, shoulder braces, crutches and canes. Bracer and Chesterfield supporter belts are also to be found in Richard's truss department.

Frank Rapstine Is Owner of Bakery; Roy Boyd Is the Baker of Golden Loaf

GOLDEN LOAF BREAD as it is seen daily immediately after it is baked by Roy Boyd, shop foreman. Roy (left) has been employed at the company since it was opened by Rapstine. The bread stacker (right) is Justin Gorzelik.

Many Pampa housewives will accept no other kind of bread from their grocers than Golden Loaf. Why? Because they have learned from experience that Golden Loaf cannot be beat.

Golden Loaf white bread is not the only kind made at the bakery. Golden Loaf wholewheat—Golden Loaf rye, Golden Loaf pimento cheese — Golden Loaf French and Golden Loaf raisin breads are all available at the Pampa Bakery, 848 W. Foster.

Also, by phoning 9541, ladies may obtain Golden Loaf bread that always is a hit at parties. That is the colored bread put out by the bakery.

Closely related to bread are the tasty Golden Loaf doughnuts, baked by Roy. He puts out about 75 dozen of these tasty mouthfuls daily. Approximately two-thirds of the doughnuts are sold at the local groceries while the remaining one-third is sold at the bakery.

Many residents already have

THE FINISHING TWISTS are put on the bread by Lois Boyd, Roy's wife. White Roy bakes the bread and the majority of other products, Lois puts on the finishing touches by twisting the bread and icing the cakes.

Call 94 When in a Hurry Peg's Cabs Strive to Please

Many Pampans best known number in the phone book is 94. Why? Because they have learned from experience that by calling 94 they are assured of speedier and more dependable taxi service.

How many times have you said, "I'd rather walk, and I'd get there sooner too, than waiting for that old taxi?"

If you've been one of these, you haven't been telephoning for one of Peg's cabs — for by calling 94 one of his cabs will be at your door almost before you have had time to get outside.

C. M. Whittle, owner of the company, is beginning his 17th year of providing "Peg's" dependable and courteous service. Whittle was formerly associated with the Safety First Bus Company, which operated in Pampa during the boom days.

After that many years of providing taxi service he knows the business inside out.

He resides with his wife, Oak Allee and his two children, Jan Allee, four and Jan Katherine, seven. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias, Knights of Kohrassan and Chamber of Commerce.

Fourteen men are employed to take residents to their destinations. Further, three dispatch clerks are employed to aid you in getting your cab almost immediately upon call.

Eight of Peg's 12 cabs are two-way radio controlled — thus improving the already speedy service.

The headquarters for Peg's cabs is 207 N. Frost.

Extra services provided there are giving residents a ring at a specified time — thus accounting for the nickname "Town's Alarm Clock" giving out information from the city and the rural districts; and providing messenger service for the phone company for long distance calls.

Now that summer is here many residents wouldn't be caught dead walking over the town as has been their practice during the cooler spring. For these people, the number 94 should be used and one of Peg's cabs will get them where they want to go — but fast.

Yes, sleet, snow, rain, mud, 100 degree weather — regardless of weather conditions, Peg's Cabs are always on the go and are ready to serve.

Pampa Glass and Paint Has All One Needs to Fix His Home

Since Feb. 2, the Pampa Glass and Paint Company has been open for business at 117 N. Frost under the joint ownership of E. E. and D. E. Harrison and M. E. Warden.

The company has received its shipment of 1949 wallpaper patterns to suit every taste and pocketbook. Also a large selection of Wall-Tex is available at the company.

Featuring "MultiTint," a new paint discovery, the company has just what it takes to get the summer home redecorating out of the way. Seiditz MultiTint comes only in white, but at the company 36 additional colors are stocked to mix with the white. It represents every type of paint from flat wall finish to floor enamel.

The MultiTint flat wall finish is washable and dries to a soft velvety finish. Semigloss finish is also washable and has that satiny sheen that is ideal for ceilings, walls or woodwork. Interior gloss finish is durable, washable and is especially suitable for kitchen and bathroom walls and woodwork.

MultiTint quick-drying enamel is ideal for furniture, bric-a-brac, woodwork and accessories. The enamel undercoat makes a firm, smooth foundation for enamel. It can be made available in shades that match the finishing coat. Wall primer-sealer is used under MultiTint flat wall paint for greater economy in painting new plaster, new wood and wallboard.

MultiTint porch and floor enamel is wear-resisting and gives a glossy finish to exterior and interior floors, stairways, concrete and linoleum that can't be beat.

A floor sander is kept at the company. It may be rented to Pampans by the hour or by the day—as the customer prefers. Any other special service of the company is carrying custom-made venetian blinds, both for the home and commercial use.

All USG products are stocked by the paint company. "Perf-a-tape" cement, "Perf-a-tape" joint system and "Textone," the plastic paint are included. Also "Cementic" white and "Textolite" washable wall paints are stocked.

Transparent wall protectors which come in very handy in kitchens may be purchased at the Pampa Glass and Paint Company.

Some of the best paper hangers and painters in town are available through Pampa Glass and Paint. Wall-Tex, wallpaper and Textolite home decorating books are kept on hand for the customers' use.

Some of the accessories found there are Bruce floor and Johnson's finishes. Paste wood fillers, floor cleaner, paste floor finish, "Tur-Lustre" wax, liquid cream waxes are included.

A complete glass department is found at Pampa Glass and Paint. The company carries and installs every type glass. Whether it be window glass, desk top, auto glass or store front glass that is needed, it may be found at 117 N. Frost.

When you want glass, remember Pampa Glass and phone 3909.

"United" wallpaper is also featured at the new paint shop.

The company held open house Feb. 11 and presented each woman attending a corsage.

Warden has lived in Pampa for the past three years. He and his wife, Bernice, his daughter, Linda Kay, and son, Gregory, reside at 48 N. Ballard. He was in the lumber business 13 years and was employed at a local glass and paint store one year prior to his going into business for himself.

Warden has been commander of the Disabled Veterans for the past two years and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He urges his friends to come into the Pampa Glass and Paint Company and see the many wares available.

D. E. Harrison, also a veteran, formerly was a paint formentor at Oklahoma City. He lives at 401 Hill with his wife, Blanche, and his four-year-old son, Joe Bill.

E. E. Harrison was formerly with the Merchant Marines.

Wedding Cakes Are Also Specialties at Pampa Bake

June is the month of brides and Pampa Baking Company is the place to get the beautifully decorated wedding cakes for the brides.

Many bride and groom figurines are stocked at the bakery to give the finishing touches to the perfect weddings.

Pampans may either order their wedding cakes through their grocers or by telephoning 9541, and placing their order directly through the bakery.

Many other tasty products are made at the Pampa Baking Company.

Strawberry shortcake is no better than the cake it's made from. That's why housewives should be careful in choosing the right shortcake to put under the delicious strawberries and whipped cream.

"MaryAnns," that may be purchased at the Pampa Baking Company are tops for shortcake basic ingredients.

Pampa Baking butterflake rolls are very popular among Pampans. The light texture and appetizing taste of the rolls are enough to turn an otherwise unsuccessful meal into the best one ever.

Housewives who make it a practice to serve Golden Loaf butterflake rolls certainly have learned the way to please their families. The main reason butterflake rolls are so gratifying is that the rolls really are what their names imply—rolled in butter.

Another product that is tops in taste is Golden Loaf raisin bread. It makes luscious toast for breakfast—adds the punch needed for lunch—and pleases the whole family for dinner. Most people eat raisin bread because they like raisins. One reason for the Golden Loaf raisin bread's popularity is that 30 percent raisins are mixed into the well-flavored, rich yellow dough.

White cakes, baked by Roy, are Pampa favorites and the pies are everywhere in great demand. Between 50 and 60 fruit pies and about 30 cream pies are baked daily. Kinds of fruit pies made at the bakery are apricot, cherry, pineapple, mince and raisin. Cream pies include coconut, lemon, chocolate, cherry, apple and cream.

Both poppy and sesame seed French bread is available at the bakery.

The bakery services practically every local grocery and several

RED RYDER HAS DISCOVERED THE CATTLE RUSTLERS' HIDEOUT ON DEVIL'S HEAD.

NOW, MADDEN? THE PARTY IS JUST BEGINNIN'!

WONDER IF THIS WILL STOP YOU OR THAT...

OR THIS?

Boots

I'M NOT SAYING THAT BOOTS IS JEALOUS OF YOUR FRIEND KITTY—

BUT HECK, JUNIOR— YOU GOTTA TAKE HUMAN NATURE INTO CONSIDERATION!

HEY, BOOTS! I'M GOING DOWN TO MEET KITTY'S TRINN! WANT TO GO ALONG?

I SURELY DO!

WHAT'S SPECIAL, MRS. R? YOU'VE BEEN PRIMING FOR OVER AN HOUR!

Tex Austin

THAT RIDER DOWN THERE, TEX?—I'LL BE TENTH COUSIN TO A COYOTE IF THAT AIN'T THE GHOST O' DEVIL'S SPUD!!

ECTOPLASM OR PROTOPLASM, COYOTE OR HUMAN... I'M GONNA FIND OUT WHAT THAT FELLOW'S GOIN' ON MY RANCH! LET'S GO, BALDY!

Bo

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO SPEND THE DAY AT THE BEACH, JUNIOR?

CAN I TAKE BO ALONG AND GO IN SWIMMING?

THAT DEPENDS ON MR. MORGAN, HE'S TAKING YOU AND CURLY, SO YOU'LL HAVE TO SEE WHAT THEY WANT

I THOUGHT CURLY DIDN'T LIKE MR. MORGAN.

HE DOESN'T, THAT'S WHY HIS MOTHER IS TAKING YOU ALONG... HE WON'T GO WITHOUT YOU.

HERE THEY COME... WOW! LOOK AT THE SWANKY CAR MR. MORGAN OWNS.

Mickey Finn

A WOMAN SPEEDING AWAY FROM THE VICINITY OF THE TITE ESTATE, HAS BEEN PICKED UP AS A POSSIBLE ACCOMPLICE OF THE BURGLAR.

YOU SAW HER THRON SOMETHING INTO THE BUSHES ALONGSIDE THE ROAD—AS SOON AS SHE STOPPED THE CAR?

THAT'S RIGHT, CHIEF! WE DIDN'T LET ON THAT WE'D NOTICED IT—BUT AFTER BENNETT STARTED BACK HERE WITH HER—IN HER CAR—I FOUND WHAT IT WAS! A MAN'S HAT!

A MAN'S HAT! WHERE IS IT? OUT IN YOUR CAR?

YES! NATURALLY I DIDN'T WANT HER TO SEE IT! I'LL BRING IT IN!

HMM! AND THE INITIALS—E—V—H!

LET'S SEE IF IT FITS HIM, CHIEF! I FIGURE I JUST SWITCHED TO THE CAP HE WAS WEARING WHILE PILLING A JOY!

Penny

WAIT, PENNY, I WANT TO SPEAK TO YOU—

WANN THE I HAVE TO GET HOME SO HURRY? THAT MOTHER CAN BAWL ME OUT FOR SOMETHING.

YOU'RE RUSHING JUST SO THAT YOUR MOTHER CAN SCOLD YOU?

YES, IF SHE DOESN'T GET IT OVER BEFORE FATHER COMES HOME.

—BROTHER, HE'LL GET INTO THE ACT TOO!

job, would become a cabinet member as secretary of welfare.

In greater detail, the other reorganization plans would:

1. Transfer the Bureau of Employment Security, now in FSA, to the Department of Labor. The bureau deals with unemployment insurance and job placement.

This plan also transfers to labor the functions of the Veterans Placement Service Board and abolishes that board.

2. Empower the postmaster general to reorganize the Post Office. He would take over authority now lodged in subordinate officers and agencies of the department.

The plan provides for four assistant postmaster generals but drops the designations "first," "second" and so on. It abolishes the offices of postal controller, purchasing agent and Bureau of accounts.

3. Transfer the National Security Council and the National Security Resources Board to the President. These agencies now report to the President but are more like independent agencies.

4. Make the chairman of the U. S. Civil Service Commission the boss of all its executive and administrative affairs, while leaving policy questions to the bipartisan three-member commission.

5. Make the chairman the chief executive and administrative officer of the U. S. Maritime Commission. He would take responsibility for appointment of its personnel and the direction of its activities.

Man Fined on Charge of DWI

A fine of $100 and costs were imposed this morning on James Boyle Lee for driving while intoxicated.

First McLean Wheat Cutting Rumored

McLEAN — (Special) — It was rumored that the first 1949 wheat had been cut Wednesday, but none had been marketed by the end of the week.

Recent heavy rains had damaged wheat in the McLean area and have fostered heavy growth of weeds.

The annual party, a fashion highlight of the theatrical year, was held for the benefit of British stage and film charities.

HECKLERS

(Continued From Page 1) Secreted because the disorders had profaned holy ground. However, a cathedral official said this would not be necessary. The heckling, he said, would be looked upon as a political incident. Normally, reconsecration comes only after commission of a crime or a desecration on church property. Actually, services were held again in the cathedral this morning.

The archbishop was back in the seclusion of his palace, facing the prospect of even more surveillance because he had been able to send a pastoral letter out of the palace to be read in churches throughout the country yesterday. The letter declared that the cathedral would be open to all who wished to pray there. It also stated that the archbishop would be permitted to leave the palace Saturday night, when he again defied the government and said he would never sign an agreement which "violates the laws of the church and human rights."

When he began Sunday morning to take up this theme again, the hecklers stopped him. The archbishop, pointing from his throne to the hundreds of white-robed, flower-decked children gathered for the celebrations of Corpus Christi Sunday, said: "There are children present. Under the present circumstances it is impossible to conduct mass."

He made no further attempt to speak but left the cathedral, followed by thousands of the faithful.

Scores of security police in the square which separates the cathedral from the archbishop's residence made numerous arrests during and after the interrupted services. No reason for the arrests could be learned.

Thousands of the faithful pressed around Archbishop Beran when he left — singing, cheering wildly and throwing flowers. It appeared that the arrested totaled several scores but there was no way of making an accurate count.

The archbishop was interrupted in his sermon just as he told the congregation the new government-sponsored Catholic action organization was not "real Catholic action" and the government-sponsored Catholic newspaper was not "a Catholic newspaper."

Apparently the hecklers, who went into action at this point, feared the prelate was starting a bristling attack such as the pastoral letter smuggled out of his guarded palace Saturday and read yesterday in scores of churches throughout the country at morning masses.

This letter told the faithful the time for decision had come and denounced Communist opponents of the church as "wolves in sheep's clothing who are attempting to crush religious freedom."

It said the archbishop would not tolerate "setting up committees in church institutions and establishment of action committees in Catholic congregations."

Youths Held For Burglary

Five youths, wanted for burglary of several Venita, Okla., stores, were picked up at 9 a. m. Sunday by Patrolmen Shirley Nickols and D. L. Day from descriptions furnished them by Oklahoma authorities.

Two of the youths were picked up as they sat, parked, in front of the First National Bank and the other three were picked up in their room at the Alamo Hotel.

They told officers they were here for the wheat harvest. Kenneth Daniels, originally from Georgia, and Lee Swartzell were picked up in front of the bank in Daniels' blue Georgia-licensed Ford sedan and brought to the City Jail.

Curtis A. Oleach, Clifton Justins and Billy C. Tally were in bed asleep when police woke them and took them to the County Jail.

Officers from the Craig County Sheriff's Department were on their way from Venita today to take the youths back. All five indicated they would waive extradition.

DIVIDEND

The special dividend will not be paid on policies issued after Jan. 1, 1948. But such policies may participate in some later dividend, Gray said.

The cut-off date — that is, the limit of time on which dividend accumulations will be allowed — is the anniversary date of the policy in 1948.

Government officials expect the dividends to be spent promptly and to provide a noticeable "shot in the arm" for business.

The $2,000,000,000 distribution of terminal leave pay bonds in 1947 had such an effect, observable in sales charts.

Nearly 20,000,000 policies were issued, of which 7,215,000 are still in force with a face value of $41,882,000,000. The policies need not now be in force to make the holder eligible for a dividend payment.

"FLASHBULBS" OVER MANHATTAN—The Air Force created this "string of pearls" over New York City in an aerial photography experiment. This time exposure shows the series of photo-flash cartridges dropped by a B-17 bomber. The bright bursts of light, each representing 50,000,000 candlepower, were set off at intervals of about four seconds. They were accompanied by sharp reports, but forewarned New Yorkers calmly watched the show. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Andy Lopez.)

Kaiser-Frazer Agency Is Sold

R. C. Brownlee, formerly associated with the Garvey Motor Company, has bought out Kaiser-Frazer agency and has changed the name from Garvey Motor Company to Pampa Motor Company.

During the past year Brownlee has managed the Kaiser-Frazer agency at Borger.

He and his family are temporarily residing at the Adams Hotel. The Brownlees have two children, Bobby and Cheryl.

The company will carry a complete line of parts and will do general repair. Skelly products will be featured at the company, at the corner of Francis and Somerville.

Bicycle Parade May Be Annual Affair

Saturday's bicycle parade proved so successful it will probably become an annual affair, Bill Parks, manager of Montgomery Ward, sponsor of the affair, said.

"We hope to make next year's parade even larger," he said. Parks started bicycle parades in Chanute, Kans., Cushing, Okla., and Trinidad, Colo., while working at Montgomery Ward there. The parade has become an annual affair in each of these cities.

"We wish to extend our thanks to the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, for furnishing drinks for the parade participants, Paul West, manager of the Griffith Theaters, for staging a free movie for the children and the Police Department for its cooperation in handling the participants during and after the parade," Parks added.

Grandma Gets Kiss From Bandit

KANSAS CITY — (AP) — The bandit had a kiss from grandmother.

But grandmother — 59-year-old Mrs. Sadie Croser — would rather have her automobile back.

Her story, as told to police, was that a young man stepped into the car as she stopped for a traffic light while driving home late Saturday night.

He flourished a gun, forced her to drive to another intersection where another young man got into the car. She was then ordered to drive out into the country where the two holdup men rifled her purse of between $10 and $18, forced her to get out of the car and then drove away with the automobile.

Canadians Return From Convention

CANADIAN — (Special) — The close of the 73rd annual convention of the State Firemen and Fire Marshal's Association in Galveston Thursday noon saw 223 delegates and their families scattering in all directions. The total registration for the meeting was more than 1200.

Many were hurrying home, others were staying for a day or two of fishing, and still others were making side trips to include a bit of visiting or vacationing.

The Canadian delegation was typical: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zybacz and daughters, Frieda and Louise, spent Thursday night and part of Friday in Gainesville; Friday night and part of Saturday in Oklahoma City, and arrived home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Collins, O. J. Gross and son, Buddy, were to do some fishing Thursday afternoon and Friday in the bay area off Texas City while Mrs. Gross attended a county clerk's convention which opened in Galveston almost immediately after the close of the firemen's meeting.

The Porters and Collins's were to visit in Oklahoma on their return trip. All expected to be back in Canadian Sunday night.

The firemen's convention broke all records for attendance. The 39 pumper teams were also the largest number ever entered, but the winning teams lacked several seconds of matching the all-time state record. The LaGrange team won first with 22 seconds, and the Elgin and Hearne teams tied for second place with 23 seconds each.

As is their custom, the firemen advanced their first, second, third, and fourth vice presidents one place and elected a new fourth vice president. He is C. P. Churchwell of Mahank.

Olin Culbertson was reelected secretary, as were Louis Scholl, assistant secretary, and Rev. J. C. Felger, chaplain.

A coincidence in the career of Rev. Felger was that he was first elected chaplain by the firemen at the annual convention held in Galveston 20 years ago, and was made a life member this year.

Dallas and Laredo extended invitations, but Laredo was tentatively selected for the 1950 convention.

Click Services Slated Tomorrow

Funeral services for James Arvin Click, 48, a long-time resident of White Deer, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow from the First Baptist Church in White Deer.

Click, who had been living at 1610 Williston since moving to Pampa in April, died at 12:12 a. m. yesterday in a local hospital. Before coming to Pampa, he had lived in White Deer since 1921, where he moved from Tahoka, Tex. He was a farmer.

In addition to his wife, Theresa, and a son, James, both of Pampa, he is survived by two brothers, Leonard and O. L., by one sister, Mrs. A. G. Kemp, and by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Click, all of Hereford.

The body will lie in state in the home from 4 p. m. today until a short while before service time tomorrow.

The Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Pampa, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. M. G. Upham, pastor of the White Deer church.

Burial, under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home, will be in the White Deer cemetery.

Contracts Let On Surplus Gym

McLEAN — (Special) — Two contracts for dismantling and hauling a war surplus gymnasium from the Pampa Army Air Field to McLean were let by the McLean City Council last week.

The material will be used as far as possible in the construction of a new municipal building-gymnasium which McLean voters approved in April.

The first of the two contracts was let to Lee Strickland of Pampa, who entered a bid of $2,300 for tearing down the building and stacking the lumber and materials.

The second contract was let to L. N. Cunningham and Vaughn Smith of McLean, who asked $800 for hauling the materials from the air field to McLean.

The dismantling work is expected to begin in two weeks, Mayor Harris King said, but it has not yet been announced when construction of the new building in McLean will start.

BIG FOUR

The foreign ministers' deputies met this morning and drafted the four-power communique detailing the agreements. The ministers will meet this afternoon and then issue the communique.

Informed sources said the agreement was a statement of principles which would not solve the basic problems between Russia and the Western powers, but which might ease the international tension and relieve fears of a clash which might lead to war.
