MISS BARBARA MORRISON IS HONORED AT WEDDING SHOWER

Mobile Visitor Is Honored at Bride - Luncheon

HIGGINS — (Special) — Mrs. A. J. Crowell of Mobile, Ala., was honored with a bride-luncheon Friday afternoon, when her sister, Mrs. Roy Sansing and sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Trenfield, entertained at the Eagle Cafe. The luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and garden flowers.

After lunch the following guests went to the Trenfield home for bride: Mesdames: Jesse Bussard, Joe Williams, K. H. Yingling, C. G. Newcomer, J. B. Wels, Franklin Feugh, C. C. Fitzgerald, Wesley Collins, C. H. Hyde, R. B. Tyson, Jay Barton, Chas. Boyd, Chas. Goettsche, Raymond Wels, Carl Goettsche, Warren Jenkins, W. O. Barton, Robert Lockhart, Earl Wilbur, Perry Landers, C. R. Patton and Mrs. B. T. Kelley of Canadian and Mrs. Robert Lockhart, Jr. of Chicago, Ill.

High score went to Mrs. Feugh while second high was awarded to Mrs. Collins. The entertaining rooms of the Trenfield home were beautifully decorated with pink peonies and roses.

Mrs. Crowell, the former Nellie Trenfield, is spending some time in Higgins as guest of her sister and other relatives and friends.

Miss Barbara Morrison, bride elect of Tuck Focht, was honored at a bridal shower Friday at the home of Mrs. Gene Sidwell, 915 N. Gray.

Mrs. Sidwell and Mrs. Farris Oden served as hostesses. The room was decorated in blue and white, the bride's chosen color scheme. The centerpiece of the refreshment table was made up of blue and white daisies.

Mrs. Morrison and her mother, Mrs. Grundy Morrison, each were presented with a blue and white daisy corsage.

Miss Donna Ruth Sanner, Wellington, Kans., presided over the bride's book and Mrs. Leslie Hart had charge of the serving table.

Guests included: Mesdames. Ralph Sidwell, Curtis Douglass, John Wheatley, Dan Williams, Walter Daugherty, Walter Warner, George Cree, "Doc" Schwartz, Bruce Pratt, Hart, Jack Montgomery, Chester Thompson, Dan Gribbon, Mary Margaret Lank, Raymond Morrison.

Miss Faye Madeline Focht, sister of the bridegroom, also was present.

'Creative Hobbies' Discussed by Bell Home Dem Club

"Creative Hobbies" were discussed by the Bell Home Demonstration Club at its meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. David Collins.

Mrs. Emmett Osborne told the group that "you haven't really lived until you have created something."

She pointed out that an ideal hobby is one that the whole family can enjoy and work with. Mrs. Osborne gave painting and clay modeling as good examples. Collections and fads make poor hobbies as they are often expensive, take up space and are useless.

Mrs. Grace Morris gave a paper on home harmony. Peace and harmony begin in the home, she said. Family harmony is the foundation of world harmony and peace.

Mrs. David Collins showed a handmade figurine decorated with lace she had made from clay. Mrs. Tom Anderwald gave a demonstration in ceramics and made a hollyhock leaf ash tray.

Mrs. Emmett Osborne made a wall plaque using plaster of paris and a cutout picture. She also showed other plaques made previously and decorated with organdy ruffling.

Guests present were Mrs. Elmer Melton, Miss Joy Williams, Mrs. Jack Morris and Mrs. Vincent Urbanczyk.

Cologne Lifts 'Wilting Spirits'

Some people refuse to eat meat because of their belief in the transmigration of souls.

Two-thirds of the world's people make their living from agricultural enterprises.

The alcoholic content of toilet water or cologne is almost as welcome to a woman during sultry days as the fragrance which the heavenly stuff floats over her.

For that reason, she is apt when the thermometer climbs to reach oftener for her toilet water.

or cologne than for her more concentrated perfume.

The two aids should be used as a team, however, if she wants to get the most out of both. To make a team of the two, their scents must match. That way the toilet-water can be given the routine chores of preserving after-bath freshness and reviving a woman when she wilts.

The glamor role of changing her mood and lifting her spirit can be given over to the matching perfume. From such a team more lasting benefits are to be had.

An argument against a mismatch of the two accessories—an argument which comes from chemists who concoct both—is that a perfume of one odor and a toilet water of another can nullify or cancel each other out.

FILLING FOR SANDWICHES
Rye bread or pumpernickle sandwiches are delicious with a filling that features ripe olives, ham, and cottage cheese. To make it, measure about three-quarters cup of the olives, then cut the olives from the pits in rather large pieces. Mix the olives with three-quarters cup of ground cooked ham, three-quarters cup of creamed cottage cheese, and mayonnaise or creamy salad dressing to taste. These amounts will make about one and three-quarters cups of sandwich filling.

Chip Is Purely a Wrist Shot, Made on Principle of Putting, With Very Little Body Action

Gene Sarazen . . . turn only enough to keep the blade facing the hole in the follow through.

(Fourteenth of a series written for NEA Service)

By GENE SARAZEN
Strokes lost from the tee and on the fairway can be saved by accurate chipping and putting. For this reason, putting and chipping should be practiced more than other parts of your game. Chip shots are played on the same principle as putting. The chip is purely a wrist shot requiring very little body action. There is a slight movement of the left side in the backswing, and the right side in coming through, but this is merely to keep you relaxed.

The body is turned only as much as is necessary to keep the blade facing the hole in the follow through. The stance is open, the feet close together. As in putting, keep the blade low coming through, and square to the hole. Any iron from the No. 5 to the 9, can be used in chipping. The more lofted the club, the less the roll. Select the club with enough loft to land the ball on the green and roll it up close to the pin. Practice will teach you which is the proper club.

Frankie Frisch Returns to Worrying Role With Bruins

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK — (AP) — "Ohh, those bases on balls." That mournful wail practically became the vocal trademark of Frankie Frisch as he peered down dejectedly from his broadcasting perch at the Polo Grounds and watched the Giant pitchers pass everything but the time of day. Frankie lived and died with the fortunes of the Giants in those days, and died more often than he lived. This year, as coach, he probably has had the same experiences, although until recently he was enjoying life pretty regularly. Anyway, he'll take his moaning to Chicago now, and the Cubs' record-to-date indicates he will moan quite frequently. We don't think that Charley Grimm had anything to do with the Chicago team's low estate, and we don't think owner Phil Wrigley blamed him. After all, no manager can pitch and hit for his players. It would be our guess that the change in managers was made with the idea that sometimes a new man may not know more baseball or be any more efficient, but the very fact he is new provides something of a lift for the team. Naturally it would be denied that Grimm was kicked upstairs, as they say, but we don't imagine the move would have been made had the Cubs been in first place right now. "Anyway, we think Grimm, a swell gent, will be much happier in his new job and with his baseball savvy will be a valuable addition to the front office. Rollicking Cholly will be missed around the National League circuit, though. The uninhibited guy always greeted everyone with a big hello, and things never were so black that he couldn't crack a joke. We still can see him sitting on the bench before a World Series game. Many a manager in such circumstances would have worry wrinkles from his chin to the top of his head, and pretend a conversation that discouraged conversation. Not Grimm. He sat there, a humorous expression on his amiable mug, his cap awry as he improvised comments which kept his players and other kibitzers in stitches. Stan Hack sat beside him, his slim frame quaking with chuckles. In fact, it was said that the personable Hack hung around with the club longer than he really wanted to stay just because he wanted to be near Grimm. Grimm's clowning and amiability had a keen baseball mind, and a fighting heart. He would stick up for the rights of his team just as emphatically and staunchly as any man.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hassa—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What is the record for bases on balls by both clubs in one game?

WELCOME HOME: Tonight the Oilers return home from another bad road trip. And weather permitting, tonight they will play the league-leading Albuquerque Dukes. Thus far this season the Oilers have been unable to beat the Dukes in six tries, one of the losses being a humiliating 17-0 beating in their first meeting of the year, at Albuquerque.

From all indications, the Oilers aren't going to take the league championship this year. The best they can hope for right now is to climb up into the playoff berth. But unless they can find some latent hitting power soon, they won't even be able to get up there.

The latest averages released by the league statisticians show that the Oilers, as a team, are hitting only an anemic .231, 56 points behind the next closest club, Lamesa. The team has gotten only the same number of hits as the opponents have allowed runs against them, .368. That is the smallest number of hits of any team in the league. And the hits have been short ones, too. They trail the league in doubles, are tied for last in triples, and rank sixth in home run production, with 28. The runs-batted-in production is 50 below the next closest team. All in all, the hitting department is in very sad shape.

The pitching has shown some improvement of late, with the addition of lefty John Martin. He has thrown three games, all of them very fine performances, but has not gotten the proper support, both at the plate and in the field, to back him up. All of the pitchers have hurled good games this year at one time or another but lost them because of hitting. Pease leads the league in strikeouts, but still has one of the worst records in the league. Some of his losses have been his own fault; others the team behind him has failed.

The Oilers are going to need a lot of support if they are going to climb up from their present lowly position in the race. So let's see a good crowd of fans out there tonight to try and give them a boost, and beat a team they have yet to conquer this season.

ASKED KEN PALMER, manager and sportscaster of Station KPDN, what his selection for the All-Star baseball teams of the major leagues would be and got the answer that for all nine positions in the National he would pick one man, Stan "The Man" Musial.

ANSWER: Detroit pitchers walked 18 and Philadelphia hurlers 12 on May 9, 1916, for a record of 30 in one game.

Rio Grande League to Expand Next Season

CORPUS CHRISTI — (AP) — The Rio Grande Valley League, which already has shifted one franchise this year, is looking forward optimistically to next season nevertheless. Two new clubs already have been voted in for 1950. They are Harlingen, owned by Earle Halstead, and Alice, to be operated by Guy Airey and Chick Autry. Airey owns the Beaumont franchise in the Texas League and Autry is manager.

Club owners meeting here yesterday prevailed on William R. Byrd of San Antonio to remain as president of the league and Kelly Nimick to continue as secretary. They had announced they would resign because of lack of co-operation from the clubs but the clubs pledged the desired co-operation if they would continue.

McAllen will remain in the league and will have a lighted field. Halstead had announced plans to move the franchise because of lack of lights but a committee headed by Mayor C. W. Davis raised sufficient funds to install lights.

LET'S GO, CLEVELAND! — Charles Lupica was threatened with arrest if he didn't come down off the four-by-four platform atop his drugstore. Then the city sanitary police decided to permit the 37-year-old Cleveland fan to remain on top of the 16-foot post until the Indians reach first place. Lou Boudreau has taken over at third in place of the benched Keltner, Ray Boone has replaced the manager at shortstop. Lupica hopes the changes are for the best.

Williams Leading Vote-Getter As Baseball Poll Gets Going

CHICAGO — (AP) — Rookie Eddie Kazak of the St. Louis Cardinals today grabbed the lead among the National League's third basemen in the nation-wide poll to name the starting lineups for the All-Star Game at Brooklyn, July 12.

Kazak collected 4,304 votes from the first 14,951 ballots tabulated by the Chicago Tribune, sponsor of the poll. That gave the Cardinal player a 388-vote margin over New York third sacker Sid Gordon.

Tom Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder, stayed in front as the top vote-getter with 6,817. Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn's second baseman, was next with 6,004 and Pittsburgh outfielder Ralph Kiner third with 5,723.

The league's National League: First base — Waitkus, Philadelphia, 4,271; Mize, New York, 3,856; Kluszewski, Cincinnati, 2,703. Second base — J. FLYING OUT — Dutch Leonard walks from the Ebbets Field pitcher's box with a butterfly that fluttered about the mound while the Cubs' veteran was getting the Dodgers out. The right-hander missed the pretty insect's help in the sixth, when the Brooklyn club belted him out of there, going on to win, 7-1.

DALLAS — (AP) — When J. Walter Morris, the pugdy, fire-eating president of the Big State League, slipped a fine on a chief of police it created quite a sensation. But it wasn't the first time for fiery J. Walter to break into the news with some unorthodox use of the powers of a professional baseball loop proxy. There was the time J. Walter fined himself. And he paid off.

It was 1946 and Morris then was president of the Evangeline League. Over at New Iberia, the owner and manager, Aaron Ward, figured in a prolonged argument that held a game up for about 15 minutes. Morris fined Ward and three other fellows $25.00 apiece. After he had given the story to the press he got to thinking about it. "I didn't fine those guys enough," he said. "I should have stuck them $100 and suspended them. For being negligent I hereby fine myself $25.00." And he gave the league a check for the money.

Thus, the chief of police at Temple, who was fined $10.00 by Morris after a report from his umpire that the officer had entered the umpire's room and shoved the pitcher, shouldn't feel too badly about it. He got off $15 cheaper than Morris allowed himself.

The chief said he was trying to protect the umpire from threatening fans and that he gave him a little push into the Morris contends that a based on press can fine anybody anywhere for violating the rules of the game. He once stuck the president of a club for pushing an umpire in a hotel lobby.

There is only one side in baseball for me, he says. "That's the umpire's side."

What he means is that he's going to defend his umpires when it comes to the conduct of the game.

Morris holds the record for being president of more leagues than any man in the game. He has headed seven. And he has organized more leagues than any man in baseball—a total of 14. He has held every position in the game except president of the National Association of Minor Leagues and commissioner.

He has built ball parks at Dallas, Fort Worth, Akron, O., Shreveport, Tyler, Greenville, Miss., and Cleveland, Miss. He has played the game from D to the majors. "Now, after 48 years," he says, "I'm back in Class C." (He's president of the Class C East Texas League.)

It's a funny story on how he got to signing his name J. Walter. His name is John Walker and he started out in baseball with J. W. on checks and contracts. But from 1910 to 1914, when he was owner of the Fort Worth club, there arose this disturbing situation.

In Fort Worth were Walter Morris, a district judge; Walter Morris, a cafe man; Walter Morris, a hotel man, and J. W. Morris, who headed a heating company. The result was that all those fellows got their mail mixed up. They were not only receiving each other's mail but opening it and reading it. "Our mail got so mixed we would have a luncheon every Tuesday to straighten it out," Morris recalls.

Results of the National Open Golf Tournament last week illustrates the fact that the Texas struggle-hold on golf has been broken. For more than a decade a Texan dominated the game—in fact, a floc of Texans dominated it. Last year Ben Hogan, Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmie Demaret ranked one-two-three. This year, it's changed a lot. Hogan is out for an indefinite period because of automobile accident injuries. Mangrum ranks close to the top but isn't on top. Demaret is in the top six but isn't winning tournaments anymore. He picked up in the National Open. Byron Nelson came out of semi-retirement for a crack at the big crown but didn't qualify for the last 36 holes. He says he's definitely out of tournament golf now. The best a Texan could do was a tie for fourteenth place in the National Open. We might as well face it—the Texas hold in golf is slipping fast away.

Select Gloves for Title Fight

Middleweight Champion Marcel Cerdan (left), of France, and Challenger Jake LaMotta of the Bronx, examine four sets of boxing gloves in the office of Michigan's boxing commissioner at Detroit. Each selected a pair of gloves to be used in their June 15 title bout and the gloves were then locked up in the commissioner's safe until the night of the fight. (AP Wirephoto)

Cy Fausett Under Doctor's Knife

ALBUQUERQUE — (AP) — Doctors last night were still undecided on ordering surgery for H. G. (Cy) Fausett, owner of the Albuquerque Dukes, who was hospitalized here last Friday. Fausett, who also owns the Sweetwater club in the Longhorn League is suffering from a recurrence of a kidney infection which started him under the knife two years ago. At St. Joseph's Hospital here, Fausett's doctor said that if he had not responded to medical treatment by this morning, another operation would be necessary.

Cleveland Wins

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Rookie Roberto Avila scored the winning run in the eighth inning on a double by Ken Keltner as the Cleveland Indians edged the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-2 in an exhibition game last night. Both teams were sprinkled with second stringers in the "Amateur Day" game played for the benefit of Cleveland's amateur baseball.

McCarts Hand Loss To Stanolind, 15-2

McCarts defeated Stanolind last night 15-2, in the only Industrial League Softball game played. The game was called after five innings because of rain. Cooper and Layne was the winning battery; Robinson and Gilbert the losing.

General Atlas won a forfeit from the K. P. Lodge in the only other game scheduled. Watch your thumbs ladies — they may start using them to serve a five-cent glass of beer.

3.5 Grams of Radium Gives France An $80,000 ECA Medical Lift

EUROPEAN RECOVERY in more ways than one, this French child's operation was made possible by Marshall Plan radium.

PARIS, France—(NEA)—Since August, 1948, 3.5 grams of Marshall Plan radium have been sent to France.

That sounds like a very meager quantity, but its value is $80,000 and it has been enough to bring new life to those branches of industry and medicine which depend on that precious, rare metal.

French doctors have been allotted 65 percent of the 3.5 grams. Dr. Roger Peyt of Roubaix, for example, received 10 milligrams as his share of the metal under the Economic Cooperation Administration arrangement. With this minute quantity he has been able to establish a modern and flourishing radiatherapeutic clinic. In his clinic he can give radium treatments to thousands of victims of cancerous infections, who otherwise would have suffered long, painful illnesses before certain death.

Dr. Peyt and the other doctors who have received this radium are outstanding experts with its use and are employing the most advanced techniques of treatment. They are advancing the whole field of radium as a medicine.

In French industry the use of radium has become practically indispensable to the modernization of many factories. One of its uses is for the detection of flaws and weaknesses in water, gas and chemical piping. This use has aided the construction of a new electric power plant in the Paris suburb of Glenevillers, the largest such plant in Europe.

Another wide use for radium is in the production of luminous watch dials and instruments. This was a small but flourishing industry in France before the war, but was unable to start up again until ECA aid came along.

Only 2.2 grams of the total of 3.5 grams came from America. The rest came from the Belgian Congo, but was purchased with dollar credits built up under the terms of ECA. The greatly increased need for radium in France as the result of new uses for it has created a demand for imports of about 5 grams each year.

Suit Settled Out of Court

The compensation suit of Bonnie Blocker against the McNeil Construction Co. was settled yesterday in 31st District Court before Judge Lewis M. Goodrich for $1,825.

According to testimony Blocker was burned on both hands and forearms in September, 1948, while working for the company. Blocker, on the stand, told the court he had lit a cigarette that resulted in an explosion causing the burns to his hands and arms. He was disabled for four months and was paid $25 a week for seven weeks by the company.

The case was settled after the June term of District Court opened and the docket sounded.

The compensation case of M. Roberts vs. the Texas Employers Insurance Company was set for July 25.

A jury was asked in the damage case of William L. Cooley vs. Ervin Pursley and was set also for July 25.

Cooley is seeking total damages of over $50,000 against Pursley for injuries sustained last year when Pursley was alleged to have punched him on the jaw causing several fractures and hospitalizing him for several days. Cooley is represented by Atty. John Studer and Pursley by Curtis Douglas.

Several other civil suits were pending settlement.

STORMS

The freight wreck at Farmers Branch, about 12 were demolished.

In southeast Dallas, White Rock Creek was on a high rampage.

At Carrollton, in the northwest section of the county, debris was washed high up on railroad embankments.

Strong winds hit Dallas at 9:35 a. m. as the fresh thunderstorms developed.

Overnight rains in the city of Dallas was measured by the Weather Bureau at 2.45 inches at Love Field, but was estimated much more in other sections of the city.

Meanwhile, 3.74 inches of rain fell in the Paris area of East Texas and in the same area high winds struck the San Moore farm in the Brookston Community, blowing over sheds and outbuildings.

Marshall had 1.53 inches of rain during a 45-minute thunderstorm.

Fort Worth had heavy rains today.

Lighter rains fell at Clarendon, Childress, Mineral Wells, Lufkin and Wichita Falls.

At 9:45 a. m. the U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas issued a flood warning for the upper Trinity River.

The Bureau predicted the Trinity would rise to 38 feet, 10 feet above flood stage at Dallas. Dallas is protected by a levee system.

"Unusually heavy thunderstorms over the Denton Creek, Elm Fork, White Rock and East Fork of the Trinity will cause a rapid rise in the rivers in the Dallas section today and tonight," the Weather Bureau said. "Farmers are advised to remove livestock from lowlands immediately."

A. M. Hamrick, chief of the Dallas Weather Bureau, said the warning did not take into account rains from a fresh thunderstorm which lashed into the Dallas area shortly after 9 a. m. today.

McLean Woman Buried Today

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. today at McLean Methodist Church for Mrs. Rachel Cartwright, 83, resident of McLean. Mrs. Cartwright died Sunday in the home of her son, Raymond Cartwright, Lakeview.

Services were conducted by the Rev. H. A. Longino of Higgins, assisted by the Rev. H. B. Hicks, pastor of the McLean Methodist Church. Burial was in Shamrock Cemetery.

Mrs. Cartwright had lived in McLean since 1939. She lived in Wellington before that time. She was born Aug. 12, 1865, in Tennessee, was married to Ledgerwood Cartwright, in 1883 and had been a member of the Methodist Church since 1883.

Survivors other than the son, include three daughters, Mrs. Leon Sobers, Pampa; Lucille Martin, Amarillo; Mrs. Pearl Matthews, McLean; a brother, Clint Phillips, Huntsville, A. I., 18 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Palbearers were John Cooper, H. W. Brooks, Obe Kunkle, Ernest Erwin, R. L. Appling and C. B. Lee, Sr.

Burial was under direction of Claborn-Womack Funeral Home of McLean.

Just a Phrase Added Will Save Witness From Contempt

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee has asked people, "Are you or have you been a Communist?"

1. Those who said flatly "I refuse to answer" were cited for contempt of Congress, tried, found guilty, and sentenced. "I refuse to answer" and added "because it might incriminate me" had no trouble at all.

Those extra few words, ". . . because it might incriminate me," make a big difference in deciding whether a man is contemptuous.

Two years ago the committee, investigating communism, called in 10 Hollywood writers and asked them the 64 question.

When all of them flatly refused to answer they were cited for contempt of Congress.

And two of the 10—John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo—were tried, found guilty, and sentenced to a year in jail and a fine of $1,000.

(Trial of the other eight cases has been held up pending the outcome of the appeals.)

Yesterday the appellate court said the lower court decision was right.

The men argued: the Constitution protects a man from being compelled to disclose his private beliefs; and, so, he can't be punished for being silent about them.

The appellate court ruled:

The right of free speech is not absolute. The country's welfare comes first. And if the country's welfare is involved, a man can be compelled to speak under penalty of being jailed if he doesn't.

The court reasoned that this country's welfare was involved in this case in the question of communism because:

1. The fate of the world, including this country's, is at stake in the present struggle between communism and democracy.

2. Since the Un-American Activities Committee was investigating communism, it had a right to ask the question.

But suppose the men had added "because it might incriminate me."

No action has ever been taken against anyone who appeared before the Un-American Activities Committee and refused to answer about communism because it "might incriminate" him.

Under the Constitution a man can't be compelled to say anything about himself if it might incriminate him.

HIGHWAY

the controversial Laketon-Miami road and other smaller roads projects in the county, where actual damage is involved in widening the roads or paving them. Parker said it would cost the county $87,000 to meet demands of the hold-out property owners along Highway 70.

Calling on the Court yesterday were Mayor C. A. Huff, City Manager Dick Pepin, City Atty. Bob Gordon, E. O. "Red" Wedgeworth, CC manager and spokesman for the group, J. W. A. Duncan, Floyd Imel, and A. A. Schuneman.

Immediately prior to the goggling disclosures made by the Court the last $135,000 hospital bonds to be authorized were sold to the Dallas Union Trust Co. at a rate of 2.25 percent interest. Only other bidder was the Columbia Securities Company of San Antonio. Both bids were close, but the Dallas Company was a fraction lower than Columbia Securities.

The Court also called for bids on kitchen equipment for the hospital and approved advertising for same within the next few days.

Among other business matters yesterday, the Court called for bids on 5,000 fence posts, 200 corner posts, and 450 spools of heavy wire for rights-of-way fences in various parts of the county; authorized one pauper grant; approved the plat of the Lewis Addition in the suburbs of Pampa; approved a $1 right-of-way grant to Mrs. C. H. Love along the Laketon-Miami road; called a special election for the Keplinger Common School District for July 9 to be held in the John Harnley home. Purpose of the election is to authorize a maximum of $1.00 in school taxes; accepted the Alan Reed-Lefors Road from B. L. Braden, Barker and Gilven, Amarillo contractors; sold the last remaining Gray County school lands, situated in Gaines County, to Holcomb and Raps of Pecos for $9 an acre, the county retaining the mineral rights; and recessed the Board of Equalization until July 11.

Which would YOU choose for comfort?

For most people, an easy chair doesn't give half as much comfort as an easy mind . . . the happy sense that your future is reasonably safe from financial worries.

And, generally, one of the simplest ways to give yourself this mental comfort is to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

It takes so little effort. You can buy Bonds easily at your bank.

It gives you so much! In 10 years you get back four dollars for every three you put in.

But, even more important, you have a comfortable feeling all the time, knowing you've done something to protect your future.

Defense Opens Case in Coplon Trial

By The Associated Press

The defense opened its case today in the Judith Coplon espionage trial, now 51 stormy days old.

Defense Counsel Archibald Palmer said his first move will be a motion to throw out charges against the tiny 28-year-old former Justice Department employee on charges of taking government secrets with intent to injure this country and aid Russia.

If that fails, Palmer said he hoped to bring into the Washington court a long list of witnesses including Hollywood stars, Dr. and Mrs. Edward U. Condon, former Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes and many others.

U.S. Joins in Wheat Agreement

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Senate has voted for United States membership in an international wheat agreement that includes all big wheat exporters except Russia and Argentina.

The new agreement will become effective July 1 if enough other countries ratify it at that time. It was worked out by the United States and four other net exporters of wheat along with 36 wheat importers.

Probe Turned to Justice Department

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, today turned over to the Justice Department for investigation the non-Communist affidavits made by three officers of the CIO-United Future Workers.

Denham said he took the action "because of the publicity" surrounding the affidavits made by Max Perlow, secretary-treasurer of the union.

Small Bore Champion

KILGORE.—(AP)—Walter H. Womack of Shreveport won top honors in the 8th annual East Texas small bore rifle tournament held over the weekend. He compiled an aggregate score of 3,171.

Womack won four of the eight firing matches. Second was Edward M. Kell, Atoka, Okla., with 2,977. Dr. L. R. Rhine of Tyler was third with 3,145.

Tech Star to Rams

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Charles Reynolds, speedy Texas Tech back, Monday signed a contract with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Reynolds, dash champion of the Border Conference, averaged eight yards carrying the ball last year, turned in 48 yards per try on kick-off returns and ran punts back an average of 37 yards.
