PRESIDENT SEARCHES FOR 'IRON MEN'

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An increasing turnover in President Truman's official family set him off on a search today for iron men willing to work for the government at comparatively low pay.

That's the kind of a fellow a government official has to be these days — an iron man with an elephant hide who can get by on a small salary. Mr. Truman told his news conference yesterday.

The resignations of Secretary of the Army Royal and Robert F. Bacher, atomic energy commissioner, led the President to expect again his theory that it's tough to get good men to take government jobs — and sometimes tougher to keep them.

The President announced the appointment of David K. E. Bruce to be ambassador to France, replacing Jefferson Caffery, who is coming home to an undesigned job.

It was the second diplomatic shift in as many days. Previously Adm. Alan G. Kirk was chosen to succeed Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as ambassador to Moscow.

Mr. Truman offered no comment when asked who would take Bruce's spot as the European recovery mission chief in France. Shortly after news of Bruce's new job was released, however, the Economic Cooperation Administration announced that he would be succeeded by Barry Bingham, Louisville publisher-editor.

The President had no announcement to make on a successor for Royal in the Army Department post. In an exchange of letters, Royal said he was coming back to civilian life convinced that Army is in "excellent condition" and that (See PRESIDENT, Page 10)

Solons Rest After Long Filibuster

AUSTIN — (AP) — A bill establishing a standard measurement for natural gas was finally passed and sent to the Senate by the House of Representatives today.

The action was taken as the House went to work to clear its calendar of much long-delayed legislation in its first Friday session in weeks.

AUSTIN — (AP) — Weary Senators today slept off the effects of what was believed the longest filibuster in the annals of Texas legislation.

Adjournment came at 9:55 p. m. last night after 31 hours 25 minutes of continuous session. Old timers could remember none longer.

All but a few hours had been filibuster against the basic science bill sponsored by the medical profession.

A compromise agreement between friends and foes of the bill ended the record tug-of-war. It called for immediate final passage of both the basic science bill — after a revision — and a bill to create a chiropractic licensing and regulating board.

Chiropractors had fought the first bill but sought the latter. Both were finally passed before the Senate quit.

"The compromise also brought to possible conclusion one of the bitter legislative fights between professions in the state history. Session after session, the battle over basic science measure has embroiled the Legislature. Medical doctors and chiropractors have sniped viciously back and forth. This year the battle line extended to the courts in libel suits.

The revised basic science bill now goes back to the House for approval of the amendment. The unchanged chiropractic bill goes to the Governor for signature.

The House hoped to clear its calendar of much long-delayed legislation today as it met in the first Friday session in weeks.

It was one of the few Friday meetings held since the 51st Legislature convened. It was ordered by special resolution to permit members to bring up long-dangling measures for action at the session near the point at which the Constitution suggests final adjournment.

The House recessed yesterday after six hours of stubborn debate on the second bill in the series implementing the Gilmer Aikin Committee's school reform proposals. It reached no final showdown on the minimum funding bill by Senator Otis Luck of Lufkin.

No amendments considered damaging by backers of the bill were adopted. Proponents of their own in beating down changes that they thought would seriously hurt it. The Lock bill (See SOLONS, Page 10)

Work Begins On Road to Lips Well

CANADIAN — (Special) — Work on the "river road" which runs from U. S. Highway 83 north of Canadian directly to the site of the Sinclair-Prarie Lips well was under way this week in both Hemphill and Roberts counties.

The commissioners courts of the two counties are working together to push the improvement of this road.

Roberts County commissioners have already contracted for repair and strengthening of two bridges in that county, at an estimated cost of $13,000, and will hard-dirt the creek beds near the bridges to provide an alternate crossing for extra heavy loads.

The Sinclair-Prarie Oil Company, it is reported, is furnishing oil for the road surface, and will also assume a part of the other expense of quickly improving the road.

Following an early morning meeting of the directors of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce a few days ago, that group asked the County Commissioners Court to put four miles of the road that lie in Hemphill County in good condition. The commissioners agreed, and have started the work, and are also furnishing equipment for some work in the Roberts County part of the road to obviate the necessity of that county bringing in equipment the long distance across the county.

AMETHYST IS TRAPPED UNDER GUNS

SHANGHAI — (AP) — The British sloop Amethyst late today still was trapped by Communist guns which have halted four British warships in the last three days.

A British Naval spokesman said the sloop, which was heavily damaged Wednesday by artillery on Yangtze River, had moved under Red small arms fire downstream some 10 miles.

All of the sloop's wounded and half of her crew of 148 reached Shanghai.

At her new anchorage the vessel was reported out of Communist gun range but unable to proceed down the river because of threatening shore batteries on the 150 mile course to Shanghai. Earlier there had been some indication the sloop might try for a night escape.

British Navy headquarters at Singapore reported a RAF flying boat made no landing near the Amethyst and was driven away by Red fire. This apparently was a second attempt. A flying boat earlier had landed near the Amethyst and put a doctor aboard.

British Naval authorities tonight counted 44 dead as a result (See AMETHYST, Page 10)

Watson, national affairs advisor of the United States Chamber of Commerce, to write personal letters to their Washington representatives and other representatives as well as setting out their reasons for supporting or opposing a bill.

The conference among other things discussed the decrease of unnecessary government spending by private enterprise, bills on the active list in Congress, and over 20 disinterested federal agencies dealing with public health, and the government's increasing trend in duplicating efforts by private enterprise, bills on the active list in Congress, and others in committee, and some to be introduced, and the importance of active participation in legislative sessions as well as national elections.

Rex Baxter, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce manager, pinching hitting for J. E. Cunningham, told the 51 representatives of the local C. of C., president of the local Chamber of Commerce, presided at the meeting.

South China Falls To Red Onslaught

NANKING — (AP) — South Yangtze valley ports, cities and towns feel like clay pigeons today before a mounting Red onslaught.

So weak was government opposition that wholesale desertions to the Communists were feared. Foreign military observers said a general troop withdrawal may have been ordered.

Nanking was fast emptying of officialdom. High level Chinese, wearing white helmets for the tropics and many swinging tennis rackets, bolted for departing planes.

Government troops had started a counterattack against another bridgehead planted by 3,000 Reds on the south bank 60 miles east of Nanking. In this area Red troops were so close to the highway and railway that travel between Nanking and Shanghai already was unsafe. Both routes may be cut at any time.

Government defenders, stretched thin over 600 miles of river front, seemed powerless to check the Communist tide.

The U. S. Embassy took note indirectly of the peril on the Yangtze, where Communist artillerymen fired on four British warships, damaging all four and killing 42 or more crewmen.

The company was given permission yesterday to move the rig from Lips No. 1 location.

Although there was no announcement from the company, it is presumed the rig will be moved to the Lips No. 3 site, which has not been identified.

The location of the No. 3 has not been filed in the Railroad Commission office here, but will likely be filed soon.

Local Lions Club Is Entertained By High School A Cappella Choir

Lions Club members, at their noon luncheon meeting yesterday, were entertained by the Pampa High School A Cappella Choir, directed by Kenneth Baumgardner.

After singing the three numbers that merited the first division rating the choir received two weeks ago at the Inter-scholastic Music Contest at Canyon, the 43-member choir presented "Meadow Larks," with John Nolan singing the solo part, "Rain and the River" and "Madame Jeanette."

The contest numbers were "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Deep River" and "Religion is a Fortune."

Long Range Housing Bill Goes to House

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The long range housing bill landed in the House today after Senate approval at a stormy session.

The bill authorizing a vast slum clearance program and construction of 810,000 public housing units during the next six years was passed by the Senate a few minutes before last midnight, 87 to 13.

The measure also provides for a $75,000,000 farm housing program and for a research program designed to spur home construction by cutting building costs.

The fate of the bill in the House — which is in recess until Monday — is uncertain. Some similar bills passed by the Senate last year and in 1944 died in the other branch of Congress.

House opposition in the past was directed against the public housing feature. Some influential House members still are contending that it would lead to socialization of the building industry.

On final passage, 33 Democrats joined 24 Republicans in voting for the bill. Against it were two Democrats and 11 Republicans.

Among the amendments battled down was one by Senators Birch (Ill.) and Cannon (Iowa) which would have prohibited segregation on the basis (See LONG RANGE, Page 10)

Police Probe Death of Opera Singer

ATLANTA — (AP) — Police were trying to learn today "what happened, where, when, and why" in the strange slaying of Opera Singer John Garris.

"We're doing everything possible," said Chief of Detectives E. L. Hilderbrand, "but we have learned very little."

What looked like promising clues were fading out, 24 hours after the body of the 35-year-old Metropolitan Opera tenor was found in a dreary alley. A bullet wound was through the heart.

Hilderbrand listed those angles on which detectives were working.

"Some" members of the Metropolitan Opera group were questioned in Memphis last night, where the performance went on as scheduled. Homicide Lt. M. M. Coppenger still was in Memphis, and names were not available.

Taxi drivers at the Terminal Railroad Station were questioned, without results.

A telephone call which Garris made from his hotel to the YMCA failed to produce any leads. Eight members of the opera company were staying at the YMCA.

The detective chief said officers would like to question "a close male friend" of Garris. Hilderbrand declined to go into details.

A telegram from a Dallas (Tex.) hotel advised police that Garris had reserved a room with twin beds there for tonight. The opera has scheduled a performance in Dallas today.

This much police knew: Garris took his luggage to the Atlanta station about midnight to entrain with the others. The special train did not leave until after 4 a. m. and police believe that fall, blond and balding singer was dead by then.

Detective J. M. Pack said he believed the singer was shot to death in an automobile in the gloomy, stone-walled warehouse district and the body later laid out in the alley. The time was put at about 2 a. m., leaving the tenor's last hour and a half unaccounted for.

The dead singer's real name was Hans J. K. Garies. He was an accompanist, concert pianist and conductor before he fled Hitler's Germany to Greece and thence came to America in 1941.

WARFARE ALONG THE YANGTZE

The 1430-ton British sloop "Amethyst" reportedly suffered heavy casualties and was forced aground in the Yangtze River at a spot (X) about 80 miles east of Nanking (1), by the fire of shore artillery presumed to be Communist. The destroyer "Consort" is believed steaming to the aid of the "Amethyst" from Nanking, and the frigate "Black Swan" was said to have left Shanghai (2). (NEA Telephoto)

Compulsory Insurance Is Part of Plan

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman asked Congress again today to vote compulsory medical insurance as part of a national health program.

In a special message to the legislators, Mr. Truman said the "traditional method" of paying for medical care "cannot meet the health needs of today."

He recommended that Congress provide for a system of government payments of medical bills from a fund to be collected by special taxes.

Mr. Truman also asked: 1. Government financial aid for the expansion of medical schools. 2. Federal aid for "construction of hospitals and other medical facilities in communities where they are needed." 3. Increased federal grants to help state and local governments in "controlling certain diseases" and promoting "maternal and child health services, services for crippled children and general public health activities."

Mr. Truman sent a 3,000-word message to Capitol Hill. His proposals, because of past advocacy, had been anticipated and lines already were forming for a battle over the recommendations.

Some administration backers say they see practically no chance that the program will be enacted in this session of Congress.

The American Medical Association has already begun a campaign against it. Labor organizations have accused the AMA of setting up a $3,500,000 fund to fight the program.

The AMA fight is centered on the proposal for compulsory health insurance. Some of its leaders say (See COMPULSORY, Page 10)

ROGER THE LODGER

By Elizabeth R. Roberts

THE STORY: Roger the Lodger is a young man who has been in the habit of staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in great Falls, Mont. Not only does he use the Roberts property as his own, but he invites unsuspecting guests to dinner. He now has decided to win an other exciting appointment by taking Major and Mrs. Drummond to Yellowstone National Park. He breaks the speedometer, runs a motor, has a car, muffler and one window, lets the car start and loses the ignition key. A garage mechanic wires the ignition so a key will not be needed, but Major Drummond has already shown to return his bus. Roger now is leaving for O. C. S.

I STOOD on the front porch waving goodbye to Roger, and as his jeep rounded the corner and disappeared, I turned to go into the house. Before the door closed, I heard a car stop and saw a squat young man get out of it. He smiled at me timidly, I thought—but then I'm no judge of character.

"Chapple is my name, John Chapple. I'm here with Crisscross Engineering Company to lay out the East Air Base. My boss, Fred Banks, says he knows you. That you have a larger house than you're using. Might rent me a room?"

Realizing that there was a pleasant fellow, albeit one engaged in a sandy occupation, I felt awkward about offering him the basement, and so suggested he go down alone and look around uninhibited by any fear of hurting my feelings if he didn't like what he saw.

In less time than it took me to settle down in the garden room, he was back, his eyes glowing and on his face the Birth of a Great Idea. "You have a bonanza!" he informed me excitedly. "I could set 15 cots down there and bring you 15 men before night, and they'd all be glad to pay you anything you asked. You can't imagine what we're up against. It's either the hotels—no monthly rates, mind you, but so much per night—or the darnedest dumps you

Postal Notes Called Many Queer Names

CANADIAN (Special) — Ever hear of a postal note? Postmaster Paul Bryant wonders how long it will take the public to learn what they are and how to call for them.

Just in case you are one of those who haven't used postal notes — they are a short form of money order, printed in card form, that may be used for remittances of $10 or less. They may be had at first and second class post offices. No application is required — you just ask the money order clerk for a "postal note" and name the amount of your remittance. He fills in the amount, postmarks it and hands it to you. You are required to fill in the name and address of the payee and of the sender. Postmaster Bryant says he can't remember all the queer names patrons have used in calling for postal notes in the two years they have been in use here, but did recall these: "money card," "cheap form," "card order," "postal what-you-call-it," "short order," "cardboard money-thing," "poster something," "funny order," "postal script," "postal check," and "postal draft."

But the prize name of all came when a lady rushed in just two minutes before closing time and said, "I don't have time to write an application for a money order — just give me one of those new hootenannies for 69 cents."

Postmaster Bryant says he can't remember all the queer names patrons have used in calling for postal notes in the two years they have been in use here, but did recall these: "money card," "cheap form," "card order," "postal what-you-call-it," "short order," "cardboard money-thing," "poster something," "funny order," "postal script," "postal check," and "postal draft."

But the prize name of all came when a lady rushed in just two minutes before closing time and said, "I don't have time to write an application for a money order — just give me one of those new hootenannies for 69 cents."

A recruiting officer for the Women's Army Corps and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force will be at the Pampa Army Recruiting office Monday, M-Sgt. Davis A. Brown, local recruiter, announced today.

Enlistment in the women's services is open to single women between the ages of 18 and 35, with or without military service, Brown said.

Women without prior service must be high school graduates; those who have served in either branch need not have a high school education.

Enlistees between 18 and 21 must have their parents consent. A woman over 30 with prior service may also enlist provided her age after the length of her service has been deducted does not exceed 35.

Capt. Jessie Williams, senior Reserve training instructor of Amarillo, will be at the local recruiting office next Thursday, April 28, Brown said.

Williams will be in Pampa to answer queries regarding enlistment in the Organized Reserve Corps or the Enlisted Reserve Corps. For those who cannot come to Pampa today, the telephone number of the Army recruiting office in the basement of the Pampa Postoffice is 1143.

Brown also announced that enlistment quotas for all branches of the Regular Army have been raised to a certain extent. There are no quota requirements for aviation cadets or for candidates for Officer Candidate School, but the Air Force is still held to a rigid quota.

Oilers Lose to Berger 11-2; Clavis Here Tonight

Pampa Oilers Reap Rewards From 'Firsts' of New Baseball Season

One prize-winning hit remains to be made by the Pampa Oilers baseball team. That is a triple, and two rewards will go with it. The Hughes Insurance Agency and the Old Mill will give $5 apiece to the Pampa player getting it.

The rest of the winners were as follows:

The Addington Western Store gave one Rockmount Western shirt to Virgil Richardson for the first single of the 1949 season.

Cretney Drug gave a portable insulated ice box to the first Pampa player to bunt successfully, Dave Teyema.

Bob Clements' Men's Wear also gave Teyema a sport shirt for the same reason.

Rene's Cafe gave $5 in cash to Charley Ridgeway for being the first player to steal second base.

Homer Matney won a Courtney Men's set from Berry's Pharmacy for being the first Pampa player to hit a double.

Ideal Food Stores gave $7.50 in groceries to Ernie Velasquez for being the first player to bat in the fifth inning.

The Sportsmen's Store gave a dozen pairs of sanitary hose to Mike Feduniak for the first home run of the season.

The Brown Derby Cafe gave $5 in cash to Homer Matney for hitting the first double.

The Courthouse Cafe a $5 meal ticket to Charley Ridgeway for getting the first base on balls.

Melody Manor gave Mike Feduniak a selection of a popular record album for scoring the first run of the season.

Jesse Mayes also gave $10 for the same feat.

Doyle's Hickory Pit Bar-B-Que gave $2.50 in sandwiches to Mike

Lefty Clayton Fries Hurls Four-Hit Ball for Gassers

The heavy Pampa Oilers bats were silenced last night by lefty Clayton Fries, who hurled one of the finest games of his career as he set the Oilers down with only four hits. The Oilers bunched two hits with a walk and an error in the first inning to jump off to an early two-run lead, but they got no further. Meanwhile, the Gassers scored eleven times against three Pampa hurlers.

Tonight the Oilers tackle the Clovis Pioneers, managed by the fabulous Paul Dean. The two teams broke even in two exhibition contests earlier. Slated for mound duty tonight is Merlin Hubbard, while the choice of Manager Dean will be either Harris Niemo or Drake, both right handers.

Highlight of last night's events, was the bouncing from the ball game, for the first time this season, of Manager Grover Seitz. Along with Seitz went two of his players, Roy Parker and Dave Teyema. The three were argued too feverishly with umpire Kermit Crann about a close play at first base that cut off an Oiler rally in the seventh inning.

Pampa got its two runs in the first on a walk to Ridgeway, who went to third while Ken Peacock was being thrown out at second trying to stretch a sharp single into a double. Richardson was safe on an error, Ridgeway scoring. Rich went to second on a wild pitch and scored on a sharp single to left by Matney. And there ended the Pampa scoring. The Oilers only garnered two more hits after that, a single by Peacock in the third and a double by Ridgeway in the seventh.

Borger, meanwhile, took full advantage of unstable pitching and a moth-eaten defense to pick up two clusters of five runs in both the fifth and eighth innings.

Wynns started the fifth with a pass, as Dick Lockwood, making his first start for the Oilers, lost his control. After Fries lined to center, Crowe and Gilchrist walked to load the sacks. Lockwood proceeded to walk Charley and Neil, forcing the tying runs across. Here Bodine came in to pitch. Sears, the first man to face him, hit a sharp double-play ball to Ridgeway, who let the ball go through him. Fries two runs to score. Littlejohn lined one to Peacock in left, who dropped the ball, permitting Neil to score the fifth run. After Ferguson walked, Bodine fanned both Wynns and Fries to retire the side.

A hit, a stolen base and a wild pitch accounted for the sixth Borger run in the sixth.

In the eighth inning the Gassers started off again. With one out, Jack Crowe got his third pass of the night. He went to third on Gilchrist's single. After Manager Eddie Carnett popped to Richardson for the second out, Ridgeway let Neil's grounder get away from him for his second error of the night. Sears followed with a double. Littlejohn singled and Ferguson snipped a long double to left to end the Borger scoring.

Amarillo, slightly delayed in starting, leads the West Texas-New Mexico League.

The Gold Sox opened the 1949 season last night with an impressive 12-3 victory over the Abilene Blue Sox.

In other games last night, Clovis walloped Lubbock, 18-3, and Albuquerque edged Lamesa, 8-7.

Manager Jess Landrum's home run in the second inning started Amarillo to a 15-hit, easy scoring spree.

Cincinnati Takes National Lead

Yankees, Without DiMag, Lead AL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Attention, Happy Chandler! Somebody is tampering with the big league standings.

Cincinnati, boomed by the experts to finish in the cellar, is the only unbeaten team in the National League.

The poor, old beat-up New York Yankees, supposedly hobbled by the loss of Joe DiMaggio and others, are out front in the American League.

Eddie Dyer's St. Louis Cardinals still haven't won a game, and the powerhouse Boston Red Sox had to resort to bases on balls to break into the victory column.

Maybe things will straighten out when the weather gets hot but right now, Happy, they're in a terrible mess.

Bucky Walters, starting his first full year as Cincinnati manager, followed the old custom of pitching lefthanders against the Cardinals. As usual, it worked.

Following up Kenny Raffensberger's opening day performance, Walters called on another lefty, John Vander Meer, yesterday. The 35-year-old veteran responded with a five-hit shutout, 5-0.

Now the Reds go to Pittsburgh to help the Pirates open their home season today. Other "second day" openers are:

National League
Boston at New York
Brooklyn at Philadelphia
Chicago at St. Louis
Cleveland at Cleveland
Detroit at Cleveland
New York at Boston
St. Louis at Chicago

The first night game of the season is also on schedule — Philadelphia at Washington.

The Yankees' "commitments" came through to manager Casey Stengel a 10-1 straight victory over Washington, 2-1 Johnny Lindell, playing in DiMaggio's old spot in centerfield, started the winning rally against Forrest Thompson with a single in the last of the ninth. After an error, Hank Bauer, Charley Keller's sub in left field, came through with a game-ending double.

Cleveland warmed up for its home opener by thumping St. Louis, 8-2, with the help of homer by Larry Doby and Joe Gordon. The Boston Red Sox untracked themselves to salvage the finale of their series with the Philadelphia A's, 4-0.

Chicago finally stopped Johnny Groth's home run spurge, trimming Detroit, 5-2.

Leo Durocher's New York Giants sluggers finally hit their home run stride to ruin the Brooklyn Dodgers' Preacher Roe, 4-1.

Bob Scheffing hit a two-run homer in the eighth for Chicago's 4-3 edge over Pittsburgh. The Boston Braves and Phillies were not scheduled.

Poloists Still In Bad Rhubarb

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — All is peace and good will off-stage of the Argentina-United States International polo scene today.

Peace and harmony came in the form of a statement by Russell E. Havenstrite, sponsor of the series and ranking member of the U. S. Polo Association, and ratified by Robert Strawbridge, president of the U.S.P.A.

It referred to the debate regarding the match April 3 — the one the U. S. team won, 10-9, but which the Argentines said didn't count in the International Series because permission to represent Argentina hadn't been forthcoming and because a member of the official team, Roberto Cavanagh, did not play.

The upshot of the argument, held April 10, was agreement to start the series as of that date.

Official lineups for next Sunday list the same teams which met last Sunday, when the American four of Cecil Smith, George Oliver, Dutch Evinger and Aidan Roark defeated the Argentines, 14-12.

Harvesters Open District Baseball Season Today

The Pampa Harvester baseball team hopes to open up its 1949 district 1-AA baseball season this afternoon at Borger. The Harvesters were originally scheduled to play the Bulldogs last Tuesday, but the weatherman threw a curve at them and they postponed the game.

The probable starter on the mound for the Harvesters this afternoon will be Howard Wells, with Jimmy Howard another possible pitcher.

Pampa is in the northern half of the district, along with Borger and Amarillo. The Sandies and Borger have met twice already, the Sandies winning the first contest by a 6-5 score and making the trip to Lubbock by a 11-10 score yesterday.

Harvester Trackmen To Regional Tomorrow

Pampa Harvester thin-clads will be gunning for top spots in the Class AA regional track meet at Lubbock Saturday afternoon. Four Pampa boys are scheduled to make the trip to Lubbock. They are Derral Davis, Danny Roche, Max Robbins and Wesley Kieth. Districts 1, 2 and 3 comprise region 1 in Class AA.

Davis and Robbins both established new district marks in the hurdle events at Canyon two weeks ago. And both can be counted upon to make a good showing for the Pampa team in the regional. Davis will be in the 120-high hurdles, while Robbins will run in the 220-low hurdle event. Danny Roche will be running the mile, while Kieth will be entered in the dash events.

Also running at Lubbock Saturday will be districts 1 through 5 of Class A and districts 1 through 10 in Class B.

The Harvester trackmen have been working out daily at the High School despite the bad weather. They are definitely aiming at the top spots in the regional meet.

Oklahoma City Continues Losing Ways; Dallas Idle

By WILBUR MARTIN Associated Press Staff

Two long streaks in the Texas League are still intact today. Dallas didn't play last night and still has seven straight victories.

Oklahoma City did play last night and now has nine straight losses.

Tulsa's Oilers beat the Oklahoma City club again, 10-7.

Wet grounds postponed the Dallas-Fort Worth tilt. The two teams meet here tonight in a double header.

San Antonio used home runs by Charley Grant and Jack McCarthy to beat Shreveport, 10-9, and take a firmer grip on second place.

Beaumont helped its average by downing Houston, 4-1.

Oklahoma City trailed at the start, but closed pretty fast and had one big inning, the sixth. The Indians made three runs in this frame.

Grant socked a three-run homer in the ninth inning to give San Antonio a tie. McCarthy followed with a two-run circuit clout that won.

Everybody gets another whack at each other tonight in the windup of current series.

Break Eight-Way Tie in Big State

By The Associated Press

The Austin Pioneers defeated the Temple Eagles 4-1 in a two-outpost season opener in Austin last night to give the winners a tie with the Greenville Majors for leadership in the Big State League race.

Greenville's game with the Pikes in Waco was postponed because of wet grounds. Austin and Greenville are deadlocked for top honors in the loop, with one win and no losses.

The Wichita Falls Spudgers beat the Gainesville Owls 4-1 and the Texarkana Bears defeated the defending champion Sherman-Denison Twins 6-5.

The Spudgers and the Bears are now tied for second place in the standings with two wins and one loss, while the Owls and the Twins are tied for third place with one win and two losses.

Waco and Temple rest in the cellar with no wins and one loss.

In Texarkana, Bear Manager George Archibald poled a home run in the ninth.

Seven national stars complete the quarterfinal bracket of the men's singles division.

Irvin Dorfman, national champion (Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, Ted Schroeder, Bill Talbert, Bob Falkenburg, Sam Match and Earl Cochell won matches yesterday.

Gonzales, from Los Angeles, dropped one set in eliminating Bobby Curtis, Denver, Colo. The score was 4-6, 6-0, 6-3.

Gonzales meets Match in the quarterfinal round today. Grant plays Talbert, Falkenburg meets Cochell and Dorfman takes on Schroeder, second-seeded in the tournament here.

Jack Turpin, Rice Institute, and Hamilton Richardson, national boys' champion from Baton Rouge, La., advanced to the quarterfinals of the junior singles division.

Turpin beat Dick Sutton, Beaumont, Tex., 6-1, 6-0, and Richardson ousted Larry Goldbeck, San Antonio, 6-0, 6-1.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hasson—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What is the distance from the pitching rubber to home plate on a regulation baseball diamond?

SOS: Things look dark for the Roundup Boys Club of Pampa. The club, with over 170 boys registered from Pampa, Skellytown and Lefors, is about to close up for financial reasons. The rent on the Sportatorium has eaten up all of the profit made on the boxing matches, and it would appear that the club cannot survive for very much longer.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

"Waste, ignorance, greed, ineffective or nonexistent state laws, and an enormous national land area are killing off our salt water food fishes at an alarming rate. . . the problem directly affects the pocketbooks and stomachs of all Mr. and Mrs. America," claims Bill Wolf, one of this country's foremost outdoor writers.

Sport anglers know that many species are becoming increasingly scarce, a few actually extinct. They have watched commercial boats fishing too close inshore and destroying acre after acre of bottom fish food. They know from bitter experience that the ocean, like the land, is not inexhaustible, and they believe that overfishing is very much responsible for dwindling catches.

Commercial fishermen certainly are not responsible for all the ills that afflict our marine fisheries — dams and pollution are also to blame — but they are definitely guilty of two major offenses: overfishing and mismanagement.

The coastal states generally have shown that they are utterly incapable of managing fishing resources within their boundary waters. There are only two possible solutions to the ocean fish famine that threatens us. The states must promptly get together and impose effective conservation laws that apply to all, or else control of commercial fishing must be taken out of their hands and placed under federal jurisdiction.

Of the two methods of regulating American salt water fisheries, state and federal — state control probably is more desirable if it works. But there is no evidence that the coast states ever will be able to govern migratory fish satisfactorily. The regional compacts of cooperating states, while a big step in the right direction, to date have not been able to get to grips with the fundamental problem.

Federal control, however, is opposed by nearly every state immediately concerned; but it is inevitable if commercial fishermen are allowed to continue to deplete the resources as at present.

Sportmen alone among the pressure groups feel that a far more rigid control of fisheries than now exists should be in existence. There is a concerted move to place all marine fishes under national control. Such centralized federal control would have several immediate results, in addition to extreme unpopularity among commercial outfits.

Overfishing could be eliminated almost at once, giving our fish factories a chance to recover. Cutoff competition would be ended, under-exploited fishery resources would be better utilized, fishery research and experimentation could be undertaken.

How many sportmen will continue to advocate federal control after they learn they probably will have to help foot the bill under some licensing plan is unknown. A fish stamp act similar to the duck stamp law might change their attitude; but sport and commercial fishermen both would have to be taxed to support any enforcement program.

Barney McCosky batted .326 for the Philadelphia A's in 1948 but he failed to hit a single home run for the first season since he entered the majors in 1939.

Top slugging percentage in the American League in 1948 was the .615 compiled by Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox.

ANSWER: The distance from the pitching rubber to home plate is 60 feet, 6 inches.

DOTS AND DASHES: Mike Feduniak picked up $48 through the fence for his two home runs on opening night. . . In addition he won six of the prizes given by the businessmen—This was the second year that Feduniak clouted the first home run for the Oilers. . . Last year's coup landed him $67-A! Perillard, rookie pitcher, who was cut loose, is going to play at Woodward, Oklahoma. . . The Amrillo Sandie head coaches, Bill Lynch and T. G. Hull, are attending a coaches school at the University of Michigan. . . Lynch will be displaying some of that devastating power that has made the Michigan Wolverines the best in the nation for the past two years—Harry Stuhldreher, Jr., son of the ex-Wisconsin football coach of "Four Horsemen" and "Good-bye Harry" fame, will attend the University of Michigan rather than his father's school —Oklahoma A&M has a half-miler on the track team from the town of Jet in that state. . . His name is Harold Tarrant. . . Can he live up to his town's name?—Jimmie Dyke, presently a coach with the Philadelphia A's, but formerly manager of the Chicago White Sox tells this one: "I was a former big, lumbering first baseman named Zeke Bonura. . . It was a hot afternoon and I was fanning myself on the dugout steps with a scorecard. A lefthander was pitching for the other team and Zeke was on third base. Suddenly he broke for home and with an enormous slide came in safely. He brushed himself off and walked proudly over to me and asked: "How was that pappy? I got your signal all right." I asked "Why you waved your scorecard." "You hummock, I yelled, "we don't have a signal for stealing home and if you ever try that again I'll crown you."

It would of course be much better to have a new building for the boys club. But as that is impossible at the present time, until a drive for building funds can be started, the next best thing would appear to be the renting of a Sportatorium, as no other building large enough to handle all of the boys is available. But there are no funds to pay the rent with, so the club will have to close, leaving the 170 boys who have become interested in it, and who need it, without its facilities for youth development.

Backing the club thus far has been Mr. A. B. Lockhart, who has taken the entire load upon his shoulders, including the original financing, and it has cost him time and money. He has been a grand job alone, but there has been no group or no organization that has backed the much-needed project.

The boys have shown a very active interest in the club. A good number of them are at the Sportatorium each night, and now with the summer season coming on it will be possible to participate in sports and other projects that will involve a greater number of the boys than was possible in the confines of the Sportatorium.

The boys showed their gratefulness to Mr. Lockhart and to T. J. Watt and Oran James by presenting each of these men with a gold cigarette lighter. The boys have fallen strongly behind any project that has been suggested to better the club. This past week they have been working steadily and constantly on selling tickets for a benefit show which was held Wednesday and Thursday.

The fact that the boys are willing to put so much energy into the club should be ample evidence that they want the club and appreciate what it is doing for them.

It is hoped that somebody or some organization will come to their aid.

Derby Favorite, Olympia, Floats Home Easily

WITHOUT URGING: This is how far Olympia, Eddie Arcaro up, won the Experimental Free Handicap No. 2 at Jamaica—by seven lengths. Behind the Kentucky Derby favorite are Model Cadet, on the rail, Johnny Adams aboard; Stone Age, with Eric Guerin, and Palestinian, piloted by Ted Atkinson.

Rod Fenton Returns to Mat Program at Sportatorium

Returning to the local wrestling arena tonight will be Rod Fenton, the rugged Canadian grappler, who has been absent for a long time. His opponent will be Jack Pappenheim, the slippery and crafty wrestler who last week defeated Hy Sharnan.

Pappenheim is built along the lines of Eddie Gideon, and his wrestling technique reminds one of the Scotsman. He applies the knee lock and toe twist that Gideon always used to win his falls.

Fenton hasn't been here since the middle of last October when he defeated Dick Trout.

In the preliminary bout, Glen Detton will meet Hy Sharnan. This will be third time in about a month that these two have met. Their first meeting went to Detton when Sharnan was disqualified for tying Glen in the ropes and refusing to break when ordered. The second meeting came in a six-man tag affair, with Detton jumping on Sharnan and working him over each time all six men got into the ring.

The main event tonight will start at 8:15. It will be a two-out-of-three fall, one-hour time limit match. The preliminary will also be two-out-of-three, but only a 45-minute affair. The referee tonight will be Homer Anderson.

Self-Control, Essence of Temperance

This is a temperance lesson. Temperance lessons were formerly built around the principle of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors. That principle has been basic in such organizations as the WCTU and various temperance societies, and in the main it has been the emphasis of temperance activities in most of the Protestant churches. But it requires very little observation to note that in respect to this there has been a great let-down among church people in recent years.

This, I am frank to say, as a life-long total abstainer, I deeply regret. I am personally astounded and healthful practice. From the standpoint of health I have never forgotten what a prominent labor leader said to me years ago. He had joined the church of which I was then pastor, after never having been inside a church door in 12 years. He was an habitual, but very moderate, drinker, and I used to poke some fun at him about the habit. He surprised me one day by informing me that he had been on the water-wagon for three months. But he had also surprised himself. "My word," he said, "I feel better. I thought I couldn't be healthy without a couple of glasses of beer a day, but I have never felt so well." I think his experience would be that of many others who would follow his example.

A newspaper writer once described me as "a dry, but not a fanatical dry." I took it as a compliment. There has been too much dry fanaticism, but also a great deal too much wet fanaticism. Liquor has of late become more strongly entrenched in social custom, and social custom takes on in this respect a somewhat exacting and domineering aspect. The normally social abstainer, who would not hesitate at a party to decline a cocktail, a cup of tea, or a cup of coffee, hesitates to decline a cocktail, lest he be regarded as socially unco-operative or peculiar.

For my own part, when I have been offered liquor, as has happened even on pastoral visits, I have often won to say that I am as dry as the Sahara, but that I am neither Pharisaic, nor apologetic about it. I am not Pharisaic, for I know that far better men than I drink habitually. But I am not apologetic, for I resent the social imputation that I should eat or drink what I neither want nor like, and particularly something with which a great deal of personal and social unhappiness is associated. It is my feeling that it is the drinker, rather than the abstainer, who ought to be on the defensive.

But all this leads up to the plain truth that it is self-control that is the essence of temperance. And the highest form of self-control, which implies a self capable of controlling, is the control of the spirit of God in the inward life. With that well established one cannot far go astray, whatever his reactions to the problems of conduct.

Church of Nazarene
To Have Services By College Student

George Andrews, student at Bethany-Peniel College, Bethany, Okla., will be at the Church of the Nazarene for special services over the weekend. Services will be held at 7:45 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 10:30 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. Sunday.

Andrews is a native of Pennsylvania. He has an outstanding tenor voice and is an interesting speaker, according to the Rev. Elbert Labensack, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

The public is invited to attend.

Merten HD Club Holds Meeting
The Merten Home Demonstration Club met at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. V. Smith Tuesday.

Mrs. C. L. Cudney, presided over the business meeting. Special committees were appointed to help the membership fill the club goals.

Mrs. A. M. Nash reported on her yard demonstration work. Mrs. H. G. Sharp gave a ten-minute health quiz on superstitious ideas.

Christian Science Sunday Services
"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 24.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever." (Psalms 138:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour" (Proverbs 21:21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The true sense of being and its eternal perfection should appear now, even as it will hereafter" (page 550).

7,025 Were In Church Last Sunday

Total attendance of churches in Pampa last Sunday was 7,025, according to reports handed in to the Rev. Russell Greene West, who has been working with the Kiwanis Club in a go-to-church campaign during the past two months.

Easter morning resulted in the best attendance during the campaign. A goal of 10,000 persons had been aimed at.

One more Sunday remains in the 2-month campaign. The Kiwanis Club Committee on Support of Churches, headed by Rev. West, sponsored the drive.

British Dominions Seek
New Way of Association

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
When Eire last Monday declared herself the independent republic of Ireland, she dissociated herself from the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Membership in the commonwealth involves a dominion status which pays allegiance to the British throne. The Constitution of the member nations all recognize the King of England as their king, although they are acknowledged to be autonomous.

The prime ministers of the seven British dominions are now meeting in London, and the foremost question before them is this: How can a nation belonging to the commonwealth become a republic and still retain its membership?

That's one of the most important questions the dominions ever have had to answer. It is not that they expect to bring Ireland back into a fold which she found distasteful, but the mighty dominion of India has served notice that she also intends to become an independent sovereign republic. The idea of giving allegiance to the King is repugnant to many of India's leaders.

The loss of India to the commonwealth would be a major disaster. While the problem of finding a formula under which republics can remain in the commonwealth certainly isn't an easy one, many observers feel that it can be solved. A solution which is being considered as a possibility is summed up by the Manchester Guardian, one of Britain's leading newspapers.

"The easiest solution might be for each of the governments to proclaim their resolution that they were members of the commonwealth. . . It would be folly to let the commonwealth fall to pieces because of an insistence that the crown should be recognized by all partners."

Who wrote Shakespeare's plays?
Most persons are quite content in the assumption that William Shakespeare wrote them.

How can a nation belonging to the commonwealth become a republic and still retain its membership? That's one of the most important questions the dominions ever have had to answer.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — If you are interested in what's the matter with the railroads of this country, one answer may be found by studying the make-up of the 11-man Interstate Commerce Commission.

Common Ground
By R. C. HOLLES

I have been quoting in the last two issues from a new book called "Politics and Poverty" by Lewis C. Ord, industrialist of wide experience in Canada and the United States since 1914.

"Between 1880 and 1914, Germany made a strong challenge for world industrial leadership. Germany believed that higher education was necessary if any nation wished to secure industrial leadership. They improved their technical education immensely for this reason, German industry, and particularly the larger companies, believed that great deal better results could be achieved by collective effort and that efficiency could be raised faster by forming business into federations and cartels."

The American people seem to be obsessed with this same idea that we can advance much more rapidly by organized "education" or organized training. If we looked at the countries that have had that belief and see the results, we would not be much interested in having the youth of the land "educated" by a lot of professional educators instead of practical men.

The American Government forbade industry to organize itself on the lines adopted by Germany. There was no collective planning by organized groups of businesses or by the Government. (Remember he is talking about the period before the lines adopted by Germany.)

The original trial was held in the Nazi concentration camp at Dachau, hardly a scene renowned for justice. Of the 73 defendants 43 were given death sentences. But since then there have been two official investigations of the trial. One was military, one was by a civilian commission. And in a final review of the matter Gen. Lucius D. Clay reduced the death sentences to six of the 47 originally convicted, 20 are under life sentence, 34 serving shorter prison terms and 13 have been freed.

And now a Senate subcommittee is hearing testimony that these confessions were obtained by physical cruelty and psychological fear induced by "mock trials."

National Whirligig
news behind the news

WASHINGTON — Congress is heading for approval of a record, peacetime, federal budget on the basis of the five, relatively minor appropriations measures already passed by the House and before the Senate Appropriations Committee.

SLASH — Mr. Cannon also ordered a flat, arbitrary slash of 15 percent in funds for irrigation, power and conservation work. He justified this cut with the statement that costs of building material should drop by that amount during 1950.

SHOW — National Defense Secretary Louis A. Johnson intends to run his establishment as a one-man show, with the full sanction of President Truman.

HANDICAPPED — Secretary Johnson does not suffer from such compunction. He went through the same sort of battle in 1939-1940, when the professional soldiers did not appreciate the importance of his drive for all-out industrial mobilization.

Explaining why the Russians cannot produce efficiently, he has the following to say: "The Russian experiment is of great importance. They started out with the intention of curtailing variety, of enforcing discipline, of doing everything else that could be done to achieve the maximum efficiency in production. They intended to do these things in greater degree than any other nation has done. They planned to produce a larger proportion of their total national production of consumer goods by mass production methods than any other country."

That their effort failed, is not the fault of the Russians. The bureaucracy that is Government in Russia absorbs vast numbers. The industry absorbs more. Their security police requires immense numbers. Their fighting forces require many more. With all these calls on man and woman power, the percentage of the total population in Russia left to do productive work is relatively small. It is the shortage of people left to do productive work that keeps the workers in Russia poor today. The same situation has developed to a less degree in other countries of Europe. . . .

It is largely because it has not worked out as they expected and because the masses remain so poor that Russians do not allow people of other nations to move about freely within Russia and discover its weaknesses. They are even more carefully to prevent Russians from leaving their own country and telling the truth to other nations. The Russians cannot afford to have the truth about their industrial system come out, inside their country or outside it.

As this chapter shows, industry has evolved along different lines in each country. That is why the masses are relatively well off in some countries and poor in others. The prosperity of each country is determined almost entirely by the form of industrial Government they adopt and use. Industry is not responsible for these differences. The Government determines, by its industrial policies, the level of rewards that the masses in each country will receive." (To be continued)

Television May Become Big in 1950

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — When will television become big-time? Next fall perhaps. Fall of 1950 for sure.

That's the way it looks after a survey of TV plans of most of the big air shows. It's apparent that most of the top television talent will come from the industry's older brother, radio. Here is the latest news: Eddie Cantor — Will definitely jump into TV next fall with simultaneous radio and telecast for present sponsor.

Truth or consequences? Did one show here on TV; waiting until time-slicing is better or coast-to-coast telecasting is possible. Red Skelton — MGM contract keeps him off TV until December, 1952. Radio Theater — Not adaptable because film studios won't permit telecasting of movie stories or stars.

Lions District to Meet at White Deer
WHITE DEER — (Special) — W. R. "Bill" Rutherford of Dumas, district governor of Lions International, will be the speaker at a zone meeting of District 27-1 to be held in the White Deer High School Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The word money is believed to be derived from "moneta," an attribute of the Roman goddess Juno, because the ancient Roman mint was established in the temple of Juno Moneta.

It is understood that this idea was inspired by General McNarney, whose experience as deputy chief of staff early in the war convinced him that most of these three and five-man bodies were inclined to dodge responsibility for action and to resolve themselves into debating societies.

When clothed with sufficient authority, and backed by their higherups, McNarney and Early can be "tough tough Joes."

Secretary Johnson's plan to abolish sixty-two boards fits into his program for centralizing authority from himself down to every key officer in the three services.

President Truman's background is Army, as is Secretary Johnson's. General McNarney started out as an Airman. Mr. Early's experience was infantry, and his closest friends now and in the past have been drawn from that service.

Under the latest development of strategy and weapons, regardless of the prejudices or personalities of the top men in the defense setup, there will always be need for a fleet, but it will have a rather restricted role in future warfare.

When the policeman gets shot, will the insurance company be in memory of his selfless service? That's about the best he can expect as he starts off on his rounds.

Judgment Set Aside By Court

District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich this morning in 31st District Court conditionally set aside a judgment of $100 fine and a three-day jail sentence imposed on Grady Phillips earlier today for contempt of court in failing to obey a $50 a month support order handed down several weeks ago when the defendant was divorced from Daisy Phillips.

The condition was that Phillips pay $50 immediately into the district clerk's registry for the support of his two children. Judge Goodrich approved verbally of the $30 payments until the defendant was able to make up the difference. The reduction was not paid and Phillips was brought in court on a court order to answer his failure to comply with the judgment.

Upon a motion by Atty. Bruce Parker and recommendations by county welfare officers, a divorce was granted to Gladys Sirmans from Olen Sirmans on grounds of cruelty. The couple was married in February, 1934 and separated in June, 1948.

Custody of the five Sirmans children was awarded to the mother and the defendant ordered to pay $75 a month to their support.

This climaxed a hearing held three weeks ago when Judge Goodrich denied a divorce to both parties in a cross action by the defendant, Olen Sirmans.

of the Communist artillery attack. Two of the wounded, including the captain of the Amethyst, were said to have died of their wounds. An estimated 82 were injured but that toll may be higher. It was not known how many Communist casualties resulted from British Naval fire.

The U. S. Naval hospital ship Repose arrived at Shanghai from the Western Fleet base at Tsingtao and its facilities were turned over to the British.

It was during attempts to reach the Amethyst that the 10,000-ton cruiser London, the destroyer Consort and the sloop Black Swan were hit by Communist artillery on the Yangtze's north bank.

Here is the best estimate now of the casualties: London, 15 dead, 23 wounded; Amethyst 19 dead, 28 wounded; Consort 10 dead, 16 wounded; Black Swan, 15 wounded.

The Consort was the first to try to go to the Amethyst's aid when the sloop was hit and driven ashore on a voyage from Shanghai to Nanking.

State Rests Case In McGee Trial

LUBBOCK (Special) — The defense of Richard W. McGee, of trial here for the murder of P. L. Allston on July 7, 1948, went in to its second day after the state rested yesterday afternoon.

Four witnesses—two in person and two by deposition—were called to the stand by Defense Counsel Burton S. Burks in an attempt to establish McGee's insanity.

First was Elmer East, Lubbock, an attorney and vice president of the Lubbock National Bank, who was appointed financial guardian over the defendant by a Gray County probate court in 1948.

East's testimony disclosed that McGee had approached him at 11 a. m. on the day of the shooting and asked for some of his money. McGee gets $125 a month total disability from the government. East said he told McGee that the bank had not yet received any money from the Veterans' Administration.

K. H. Dally, former county attorney for Hutchinson county and an attorney at Borger, guardian of the lunacy trial held in Stinnett while he was county attorney. He said the case was brought on a complaint by McGee's mother, then Mrs. Frances Avery.

Two witnesses by deposition were called before court adjourned at noon.

The first deposition was taken from Dr. J. Lloyd Morrow, Pampa, N. J., who was in charge of the more serious mental cases at the Army's Darnell Hospital at Danville, Ky. The deposition stated McGee was insane on July 9, 1944. It was impossible then to state the exact type of insanity. He had delusions, was confused, had hallucinations, and a persecution complex. I am sure McGee was a true case of dementia praecox.

Along with the deposition defense counsel introduced McGee's Army record and his honorable discharge showing he was released to his mother in September, 1944, at Borger. The discharge stated McGee suffered from the mental disorder described by the doctor and added it was incurred during service.

The second deposition was taken from Dr. George W. Jackson, superintendent of the state hospital at Little Rock, Ark., where McGee's father, Gerdis McGee, had been a patient. All of it concerning the elder McGee was objected to by the state on the grounds that it was not clear.

About seven-eighths of the deposition by Dr. Jackson was objected to by the state and sustained by the court.

Court was recessed at noon until 1:30 p. m. today.

The defense of McGee opened yesterday afternoon when the state rested its case after calling its 14th witness.

Dr. Hall L. White, psychiatrist at the University of Texas, first defense witness, told the court McGee has been insane since July 24, 1947. Dr. White said he was called to the gymnasium of the university on that day and found the defendant lying nude in a shower with the water running. He quoted McGee as telling him then that he was "Jesus Christ. I am here for a special purpose."

The witness testified he spent 30 minutes with McGee and found him alternately belligerent and pleasant for the balance of time after he first found him in the shower.

The following day Dr. White signed a commitment on McGee for treatment at the Waco Veterans' Hospital for the mentally unsound. Dr. White reiterated his opinion of insanity to Defense Counsel Burton S. Burks on March 6 of this year when he next saw McGee and made a special examination of him in Lubbock County jail.

The psychiatrist further testified that McGee is suffering from a particular type of insanity he described as a "split personality." Concluding his testimony Dr. White declared McGee as "incurably ill in his mind" and in his opinion would "grow steadily worse."

"There is no cure for him," he said.

Dr. M. M. Stephens, Borger physician, second defense witness, was on the stand only a few minutes. He too declared McGee is insane and added he has been abnormal since childhood. He testified that McGee as a boy often ran away from home ramping in canyons around Borger and Pampa and that he also had fits of anger.

Dr. Stephens had pronounced McGee insane in 1942 at an insanity trial at Stinnett and advised then that he be committed to an institution. McGee was acquitted and adjudged sane at that trial.

Before the state rested its case other arresting police officers and a deputy sheriff were called to the stand.

Detective Captain Pat Davidson and Chief Deputy Sheriff George Eubank testified they brought McGee back to Lubbock after Austin police picked him up. They described him as rational at all times during the ride back and in a "friendly mood."

Attorneys for both sides clashed several times over methods of questioning. At one time the arguments of counsel became so heated Judge Dan Blair ordered prosecution and defense to proceed along legal lines and refrain from clashing.

Col. E. A. Simpson objected to District Attorney Lloyd Croslin's questioning on the defendant's use of liquor. Croslin countered that the questions were used to bring out McGee's condition.

Court adjourned at 5:48 p. m. until it reopened this morning at 9 a. m.
