Diplomatic Boycott on Madrid Off

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The story of Spain, which is under a totalitarian dictatorship of the Fascist brand, headed by Generalissimo Franco runs like this:

Just over two years ago the United Nations denounced the Spanish government and called on members to withdraw their diplomatic heads from Madrid. Some nations, including the United States, Britain and France recalled their ambassadors. Others stood pat.

The other day the Political Committee of the U. N. General Assembly adopted a resolution to change the status of the black-list. Members would be given full freedom as regards their diplomatic relations with Madrid. This is despite the fact that there has been no change in the form of Franco's regime.

May 3 the U. S. State Department gave Spain permission to negotiate directly with the Export-Import Bank for an American loan. The next day Secretary of State Acheson said this country had no political objections to a loan, but the U. S. doesn't see how Spain can qualify for such credits until it makes fundamental economic reforms.

Two days ago Senator Tom Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate he saw no reason why the United States shouldn't send an ambassador to Spain.

Yesterday Senator Vandenberg, former chairman of the committee, echoes Senator Connally.

This was followed by a statement from Secretary Acheson in a news conference that Franco Spain must go a long way toward restoring basic civil rights before it can hope to be admitted into the family of free European nations. He said the Franco regime is still Fascist.

He said these are the same rights which make the difference between free Europe and the iron curtain countries. He was asked why the United States and the Western European nations have ambassadors in Soviet satellite capitals and in Moscow while boycotting Madrid. He said the explanation was that the U. N. in 1946 tried to use the partition to bring Spanish re- formations, but failed.

Many Americans condemn the Spanish dictatorship. They just

Armed Services Study Bids for All Type Houses

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — (AP) — The Army and Navy are considering bids for several unconventional-type houses at the White Sands proving grounds.

Four of the 13 bidders on a $1,000,800 project of 95 to 105 family units submitted out-of-the-ordinary plans.

Included were designs for an all-steel house with overhead radiant heating and cooling system, an all-aluminum, three bed-room house, a pre-fabricated wood home and a pre-fabricated concrete house.

Lt. Col. Joseph O. Killian, district engineer, said the low bid was submitted by C. H. Leavell of El Paso, Tex. Leavell estimated a conventional unit cost of $9,915 for a total of $396,000 for 40 homes.

as heatedly condemn all other totalitarian regimes. Still we differentiate among these dictatorships.

Are we to conclude that this is a matter of expediency rather than principle? If expediency enters into it there are a lot of folk who recognize that Spain not only needs to resume foreign trade relations but would be a vital military base in event of another world war.

R. P. Rossman Gets Bigger Cabot Post

ROSSMAN

Ray P. Rossman, who was sent to Pampa in July, 1946, as Southwestern rubber testing laboratories manager by Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc., has now received a bigger assignment.

Rossman, who joined the concern a year after he graduated from MIT in 1936, has been assigned to Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc.'s technical service staff, and will be in active contact with rubber manufacturers and their laboratories and technical people throughout the United States and Canada.

Although Rossman will report to P. H. Amos, technical director, Boston, he will continue to maintain his residence in Pampa, according to information received from Boston.

The statement said that as technical liaison representative between customers and the Cabot carbon black manufacturers in Texas, he will bring customer problems directly to the principal source of carbon black development work and manufacturing control.

Officials said: "The increasing tempo of the rubber industry itself places a demand on raw material suppliers such as the Cabot Company for faster, more positive handling of technical customer service work. Mr. Rossman brings to Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc.'s technical service group wide laboratory and field experience which will be of equal value to his company and to those in industry whom he will serve."

Graduated from the South Dakota State School of Mines and Technology in 1934, he was granted a B. S. Degree in chemical engineering. His academic training was completed at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he received his Masters Degree in physical chemistry in 1936.

With Cabot, Rossman has been actively engaged in carbon black problems, including fundamental research work on carbon black as a reinforcing pigment and in rubber compounding development. In 1944, he was placed in charge of the rubber compounding and testing group of the Boston laboratory, and two years later was assigned to Pampa.

Tourists Learn President Has No Capitol Office

By TEX EASLEY
AP Washington Service

WASHINGTON — Tourists often are surprised to learn that the President has no office at the Capitol and, in fact, seldom visits there.

His close contact with the lawmakers is through their personal visits to the White House, nearly two miles distant from the Capitol.

Congressmen sometimes go to the White House singly, particularly if it's about a matter of interest only to their district, but often they go in groups. Some talks are arranged at the legislator's request, some by the President.

Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls, in a news letter to constituents, tells the how and why of one such meeting.

"At the request of Congressman Emanuel Celler of New York, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, the President called to the White House all of us Democratic members of such committee," wrote Gossett.

"His object was to sell us on his proposal to bring 400,000 so-called DPs from the DP camps of Europe. He was partially successful since the Judiciary Committee this morning (May 5) reported out a bill to bring in 339,000 of such individuals.

"There were nine of us in the committee who voted against the bill. This whole plan has been promoted and sponsored primarily by the Zionist organizations of America. They have succeeded in getting a great many prominent churchmen and organizations to join in the demands to bring these people to our shores."

"I shall oppose this bill as effectively as possible." However, proponents of this dangerous and unfair legislation have tremendous organization, money, and propaganda behind them."

Type of Defense Under Atlantic Pact Is Foggy

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Discussion in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee designed to clarify the type of European defense envisioned under the Atlantic Pact serves, instead, to further befog it.

It is obvious, as Senator Vandenberg said, that there will be no "Maginot" type defense, no vast Allied army dug in along the iron curtain, no American mobilization in Europe.

Likewise, James P. Warburg, former New York banker and an expert in international affairs, is right in saying that Europe expects the U. S. to meet any attack at its source and seek to prevent the occupation of Western Europe.

Warburg says a policy committing the United States to "avenge and liberate" is one thing, and that an attempt to prevent invasion is another thing which he does not favor.

Yet he also says it is "folly" to believe the French, Belgians and Dutch would fight a delaying action for the benefit of the U. S. and Britain if they knew in advance that their countries would be occupied. And that seems as much as saying that, without American help in stopping an attack at the source, the pact is no good.

The Atlantic Pact commits the United States and the other signatories to aid each other by war or measures short of war, and in such theater, as shall be determined by the exigencies of the time. No more no less. The type of defense to be planned is not a part of the pact, but of the corollary rearmament program.

It should be remembered that the pact is designed less to prepare for war than to prevent war — by presenting a united front of the Western nations, which it would be folly for anyone to attack.

This makes the type of defense of minor importance as compared with the idea that defense certainly will be made.

In the first persecutions of Christians in Rome, under Nero, the Apostles Peter and Paul were said to have been martyred.

Banquet Held for Higgins Classes

HIGGINS — (Special) — The First Baptist Church of Higgins entertained the high school Juniors and Seniors with a banquet in the church basement, Friday evening.

The Senior colors of blue and white were carried out in the table and room decorations. Crepe paper in those colors covered the ceiling and doorway, and small blue paper boats, filled with nuts and mints, were moored by each plate. The place cards were miniature diplomas tied in blue and white ribbon.

The Rev. Taft Holloway, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canadian, brought the "bon voyage" message. Lewis Hancock, pastor of the church in Higgins, was master of ceremonies. During the program, officers of the Senior class were appointed officers of the "Bon Voyage Ship." Members of the faculty attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jankins, Mr. J. R. ## Aggie Easily Cops Title in Track Meet PAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — (AP) — Blond J. D. Hampton shattered two distance records in leading Texas A&M to its third consecutive Southwest Conference Track and Field Championship here Saturday.

Three other records were set — all by Aggie performers — and another tied in the two-day meet.
A&M compiled 55 1-4 points. Texas with 49 1-4, was second and Rice, with 36, third, followed by Arkansas with 12 3-4, Southern Methodist 12, Baylor 9 3-4, and Texas Christian one.
Hampton, a skinny Junior from Brady, Tex., first established a new mark of four minutes 17.2 seconds in the mile run. After resting 70 minutes, he ran the two-mile grind in nine minutes 30.7 seconds. He finished far ahead in both races and his ten points gave him individual honors.
The smooth-striding Hampton ran his unbeaten string to 17 races. His two-mile mark erased the 9:24 standard set up in 1925 by Sandi Esquivel of Texas and his mile jaunt cracked by three seconds the record made last year by little Jerry Thompson of Texas.
Other record-breaking performances:
Roy Holbrook's 47.3 seconds for the 440 yard dash, eclipsing the 47.8 mark of Harold Hall, Rice, set in 1941.
The Aggie mile relay team's one minute 14.1 seconds, bettering the old mark of 3:16.7 by Texas in 1938.
Bob Hall's 22.5 seconds for the 20-yard low hurdles, established in Friday's preliminaries.
Texas' Perry Samuels tied the 100-yard dash of 9.5 seconds held by several men.
A crowd of about 2,750 watched the second conference meet to be held here and the first since 1922 and saw the well-balanced Aggies win seven events and score in all but three.

Texas Captures Baseball Title

COLLEGE STATION — (AP) — The University of Texas Longhorns had their backs to the wall Saturday and Murray Wall came through with a two-hit, 6-1, victory over Texas A&M that won the Southwest Conference baseball title.
The title victory kept intact the virtual monopoly of conference baseball started by Billy Diach in the beginning of competition and continued by his coach successor, Bib Falk.
A victory for Texas A&M yesterday would have given the Aggies the title.
Texas clinched matters in the seventh with a four-run outburst. Frank Kana's home run started it. Bobby Fritz's error on Ed Kneuper's single with the bases loaded accounted for the other three rallies.
Wallace Moon homered for A&M's only score.
In comparison, Galveston and San Antonio played nine innings in just 49 minutes at Galveston, on Sept. 7, 1913.
The string of victories compiled at Dallas must be accepted as a record for the number of games won at the beginning of the season. William B. Ruggles, statistician connected with the circuit for 30 years, can't remember any better.
But Corsicana's 27 straight victories in 1902 is a world's record, tied by the New York National League Club in 1916. Corsicana did it with a league player limit of eleven men.
The next best record for consecutive games won was by Wichita Falls, 25 in 1922. Twenty-four of these games were at home, a mark itself.
The little blue book issued by the Texas League isn't all cold statistics.
Under the heading "scoring in every inning, 9-inning game, is the comment: "Not unusual, at least once a season."
This reasoning might date back to 1902, when Corsicana blasted Texarkana 51-3.
Or it could go back to 1924, when Clarence (big boy) Kraft hit 56 home runs for Fort Worth.

Odessa Wins Trophy

First game crowds at other league cities were San Angelo, 2,627; Roswell 1,809; Balmora,

Same Teams Meet Today in Series Finale at Borger

BORGER — A ninth-inning home run by shortstop Ernie Velasquez broke a 9-9 tie and gave the Pampa Oilers a 10-9 victory over the Borger Gassers last night. Pampa fought from behind all the way, tying the game in the eighth with four hits. Merlin Hubbard, who relieved Howard Bass in the fifth, was the winning pitcher.
This afternoon it will be Charley Bodine against Marion Grant, or Ernie Frazier, A&M's lead attraction, owner R. L. Edmondson will be honored by the Gasser management. He will be presented with a microphone at a special ceremony at home plate.
Ken Sears, Borger catcher, led the Gasser attack with four extra base blows, two doubles and two home runs. Leading hitter for the Oilers was Homer Matney, who had three for five. Fielding plays by Willie Wims, Jimmy Littlejohn and Tooter Harper featured the night's play.

Some of the qualifiers went above the 100 mark for 18 holes, but that doesn't disturb them too much. They have a swell time out there when playing a round golf — to relax and have fun.
Mrs. Jean Duenkel and Mrs. Miriam Luedgers came in from the state meet at Fort Worth Friday afternoon with broad smiles and saying they will do better next year at Houston, where the ladies' state golf meet will be held. Thank you for going to the tournament, ladies, and helping to remind other people that we definitely do play golf up here in the Panhandle.
Don't forget, girls, that you have your first Panhandle Women's Golf Association meet at the Amarillo Country Club on Tuesday, May 17. Every member of the association should try and attend this first meet. A good time will be had.
Saw two of those precision golf shots Thursday afternoon. Joe McMurtry and Faye Ashby rolled their tee shots across the dam on no. 7. That's a good shot, girls, if you can do it every time.
And take it from someone who has been there, the roughs are rough. The work has piled up at the course due to the rain and the failure of the watering system, prospects are that the roughs will get rougher, according to club professional Johnny Austin. The lake is still dangerous, with lots of water in it, too.
Good luck to all in the city tournament starting today.
'Til next Sunday,
HOGAN

Dukes Win 1-0 Tilt

ALBUQUERQUE — (AP) — Cliff McClain's ninth inning single broke a scoreless deadlock between Albuquerque and Amarillo Friday night and gave Albuquerque a 1-0 win over West Texas-New Mexico victory.
For nine and two-thirds innings not a runner crossed home. Hits were few and far between. In the last of the ninth, with two men out, Dick Dawson, Albuquerque pitcher, got a double on a short centerfield loop and McClain's single brought him home.
Earlier in the inning, Butler was thrown out at first and Attyd was caught short trying to steal second.
McClain's hit was a pinch play, with only one more out needed to send the game into extra innings.

Lobos Top Hubbers

LUBBOCK — (AP) — Manager Jay Hane came on in relief here Friday night and pitched the Lamesa Lobos to a 5-3 victory over the Lubbock Hubbers, after Glenn Selbo had been thumbed from the game by Umpire William Frank.
Hane entered the game with one run in, the bases loaded and only one down. He fanned Chris Haskins and Buddy McCallum to get out of danger that inning and gave up only three hits over the remaining distance.

Gassers Split Two

CLOVIS — (AP) — The Clovis Pioneers ended a nine game losing streak here Friday night whipping the Borger Gassers 8-3 in the first game of a twin bill, but started another, losing to the visitors 4-3 in the nightcap.
Jim Cain and Valle Eaves combined to stop the Pioneers in the second limiting Clovis to five hits, one a mammoth homer by outfielder Pat Lorenzo with I. E. Palmer, who had singled, on in the seventh. The roundtripper came off Eaves who had come in to relieve Cain, the starter, in the fifth.

Capot Streaks To Victory in Record Time

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Capot sizzled through a light shower to a new track record Saturday as he won the Preakness Stakes by the margin of a damp head in one of the most thrilling finishes in the long history of the classic.
The Greentree's three-year-old star, second in last week's Kentucky Derby, showed them who was the boss this time, as he outlasted Isidor Beiber's Palestinian in the drive for the wire in the mile and three-sixteenth event.
Crispin Ogden's Noble Impulse was third. Calumet Farm's Derby winner — Ponder — never got in the act and wound up fifth in the field of nine starters. Mrs. E. H. Ellison, Jr.'s Sun Bahram was fourth.
Capot, given a brilliant ride by Toronto Teddy Atkinson, blazed under the wire in 1:56 flat, wiping two-fifths of a second off the track record set by Riverland in the 1943 Dixie Handicap.
The time also was a full second faster than the old Preakness record of 1:57 made by Alsab in 1942.
A steaming crowd of 30,184 persons, who first barked in a hot sun and then 27 minutes before post time suffered before a shower, roared approval of Capot. This despite the fact the crowd had made Ponder the favorite at a little better than 2 to 1.
Capot was second choice at 5 to 2 as he gave his famous racing stable his first Preakness victory. He paid off at the rate of $7.00, $3.90 and $2.80 and $2 in the mutuels.
It was also the initial Preakness victory for Atkinson.
Palestinian, who was ridden by Eddie Arcaro, might have grabbed it all in a few more jumps, but there wasn't enough real estate left at the finish.
The Beiber colt, third in the derby, returned $4.60 and $3.20, while Noble Impulse paid $3.40 for show.
George Howard of Arizona and Don Hildreth of Temple. The records were set in the 440 yard dash, the shotgun and the discus.

Fair Enough - Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
(Copyright, 1949)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The School of Journalism of the University of Missouri invited Elmer Davis, a "radio news analyst," to lecture the students during Journalism Week. Such an invitation implies that the person so honored is a man of woman of distinction in some department of journalism. To say that Davis, as a reporter, ever rose to the peak of mediocrity except in rare flashes of inspiration would be to subject his work to a cruel and unnecessary inspection. In ancient days he did the "humorous side" of the World Series for the New York Times and the fact that he did it superbly for the Times, will convey to knowing journalists a suggestion of the stilled roguishness of an English comedian talking American slang. It was a condescension on the part of the Times to think that these on-stage antics which made even the Wall Street Journal sound like the raucous issues of Captain Billy's Whiz Bang, was right up Mr. Davis's alley.

Thereafter, he wrote a head-and-shoulders romance for liberty called "White Pants Willie" and a book called "Friends of Mr. Sweeney," a wood-cut whimsy of the prohibition era. He next appeared as a brusque and in an inimitable style which was due almost entirely to the crackle of his vocal cords, and not the virtue of his text. Davis spoke in a crackling voice which sounded like a brushfire and in an inimitable style which was due almost entirely to the crackle of his vocal cords, and not the virtue of his text. Removal of Nip Plants Is Halted

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States has ordered a halt in further removals of Japanese plants as war reparations.

Maj. Gen. Frank R. McCoy, the American representative, told the 11-nation Far Eastern group in the case of "primary war facilities" are needed by Japan to hasten its economic recovery.

The deliveries ordered halted were advance deliveries of plants and equipments which the commission already had earmarked for removal.

The reparations have gone in limited quantities to China, the Philippines, The Netherlands and The Netherlands Indies, and Britain for Burma, Malaya and Far Eastern colonial possessions.

McCoy informed the commission that the United States is convinced that there should be no ceiling on Japanese production for peaceful purposes.

McCoy's statement was made public by the State Department.

Wet Paint Signs Don't Mean a Thing

AMARILLO — (AP) — It isn't only in comic strips that people sit on newly painted benches.

M. B. Sheridan, general manager of a firm which maintains benches for bus riders here at Wichita Falls and Albuquerque, N. M., has this to say:

"I put warning signs on the benches, the strings around them and do everything else I can think of. Still, someone sits on the wet paint occasionally."

So Sheridan's company has taken out insurance — to take care of damage to clothing of bench sitters.

THE REAL "COLD WAR"

What is this "cold war" all about? Do the people of the so-called Western World really know? For one, an unending struggle between Capitalism and Communism. But that is not the whole story. There are very serious doubts that they do, and if that tragic fact is so, then all our costly expenditures and hasty alliances—will have been in vain.

First thing comes to mind is this: Before we throw up the barbed wire, and throw down the gauntlet, we should all know—without the aid of the "understanding" cause it is that we are all defending.

Many prominent voices abroad have intimated that this "cold war" is a purely materialistic struggle between Capitalism and Communism. But that is ridiculous on the face of it, because most of our allies are already in the anti-capitalist camp. For all our outwardly "understanding" for our Socialist friends are certainly no devotees of "free-enterprise" capitalism. Indeed, they are bitter and outspoken enemies of it, so our friendship is obviously not based on honest fact, if the "cold war" were merely an economic "cold war," the United States would be standing practically alone—against the whole wide world.

If the "cold war" is not economic or materialistic, then what is it? It strikes me that we had better find out, and soon, for there appears to be much confusion on this point. Too many reports have come back to us from lands across the Atlantic, citing a widely-held opinion of various assorted peoples that this "cold war" is just a contest between America and Russia, and that other nations are just innocent victims caught in the crossfire. We certainly have not defined our "cause" very well, if millions of people still believe that this is just a selfish battle between two major powers, the outcome of which is of little importance to them—either way!

I believe, with all my heart, that this battle of our century is a moral and spiritual one, and that the only way to win it is to make this clear to others, but they are not yet very clear about it themselves. In a very real sense, it is a battle between those who believe that there is a higher law than man's—and those who don't. It is a battle between those who believe that life has some divine purpose, and those who believe that life is just a meaningless struggle for a few more years of existence.

As I read the literature and statements of our Socialist allies, I am struck with the overwhelming fact that there is a whole religious sentiment in them. Their whole philosophy sounds as starkly materialistic as that of the Communists. Instead, they seem to accept the whole of the Christian religion and only to deplore the intolerant methods used to enforce it. True—they oppose such instruments as secret police, slave labor, and concentration camps, but all these things seem to them as a man, like the Stalinists, as nothing more than a human animal, whose needs consist of nothing more than food, clothing and shelter, which somehow must be rationed out equitably by the political powers that be.

Incentive, character, mystery, the soul—all those intangibles which make the human mind a Christian and American philosophy, seem as totally lacking in Socialist doctrine as they are in the Communist. One can find absolutely no sense of awe, or respect, for an individual as an individual, in the Communist philosophy. It is a philosophy with a unique mind, heart and personality of his own. In fact, all one can find are gigantic mass-plans, for stable and orderly human anti-heaps, in which no one is distinguishable from any other. As between Mr. Molotov of Russia, and Mrs. Bevin or Bevan of Great Britain, I can only say that "for former is quite willing to be a whip or a gun,—while the latter would merely to blow a whistle—and have all the ants fall docilely and contentedly in line!"

Frankly, I don't know human anti-heaps of this kind, nor do I feel that a choice between them is worth vast expenditures of either money or blood, regardless of whether the human Commandments of the Communist doctrine are a form of a whip or a gun,—while the latter would merely to blow a whistle—and have all the ants fall docilely and contentedly in line!

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — The American labor movement is involved in more violent controversies today than ever before, and earlier hopes of a merger of the three top organizations — the American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations and the United Mine Workers — have vanished.

John L. Lewis is furious because he is convinced that Democratic leaders in the House tried to make a scapegoat of him during the recent battle over repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. He is also sore at his rival—A. F. of L. President William Green and CIO President Philip Murray because they conspired with the administration forces against him.

ANATHEMA

In offering the bill as a more palatable measure than the Leisnerki proposal which President Truman favored, the Rayburn-McCormack leadership retained two provisions which are anathema to the head of the United Mine Workers.

The CIO is raiding the A. F. of L. which has not turned the other cheek or given a soft answer. Both seek to disrupt L. L.'s catch-all union known as District 30, which aims to organize all industries even remotely connected with coal, chemicals and their by-products.

VICTIM

In urging support of the Sims substitute among members dependent for election on A. F. of L. and CIO voters, the leadership pointed out that the bill was so phrased that the only man who would be hurt by the proposed legislation was a man who had been injured by a labor dispute and was now dependent for support on the Sims program among their legislative friends on Capitol Hill. So long as Mr. Sims would be the only sufferer, they were willing to approve any bill that wiped the hated Taft-Hartley Act off the books, even though retaining many of its features.

OUT OF THE FIRE INTO THE FRYING PAN

THE Russian government has indicated a willingness to lift the Berlin blockade in return for similar lifting of the allied blockade of the east coast of Germany before the council of foreign ministers. On the surface this may look like a hopeful development. Ordinary prudence, however, will suggest that all that the abandonment of the blockade for the present accomplishes is that American occupation problems revert to the status quo before the blockade was imposed March 2, 1948. Meanwhile, the months have been lost while we spent at least 130 million dollars on the operation of the unproductive Berlin air lift.

Numerous factors have some bearing on the Russian move. For one, the conquest of China by the Chinese Communists is entering the mopping up stage, and, with the far east secured, Stalin fears that the attention of Europe will be turned to the Berlin blockade. There has been a widely held theory that the Berlin blockade was a diversionary movement to distract attention from what was happening in China. While our attention was centered on the task of securing 2 1/2 million Berliners, 400 million Chinese were being captured for Communism.

Another development is that American, British, and West German on a reconstituted German federal state. The formation of this state, excluding the soviet zone, is a long process. The Potsdam agreement of 1945 that Germany as a whole should be subject to unified four power control. As such control cannot be exercised without unanimous agreement, Russia reserves a veto power, which it may now seek to exercise at any forthcoming meeting of the foreign ministers against the reconstituted German state. Gen. Clay, the American occupation commander, says that the soviet union will not be able to interfere, but he can be overruled by Washington, and the soviet government make a propaganda showing that the new West German state is illegal.

Another of Clay's statements shows that Russia really fears the general said that West Germany should be included in the association of western European countries "to create lasting stability in Europe and to prevent the threat of Communist expansion" and "is the only sure way to peace."

This statement means something only if interpreted as an expression of the Soviet Union's fear. It is a prospect that would give Russia the fitter. It took the soviet union four years, with the support of the United States, Britain, and all of western Europe, to beat off Germany in World War II. A rearmament Germany, even if smaller than the Germany of 1941, supported by the United States and all of western Europe, would be in a position to make good a military cause upon which it failed when the west was among its enemies. By its resumption of a voice in four power control, the soviet union would be small any such development.

Handicapped as West Germany has been by repressive allied policy, which has decreed the disintegration of a substantial part of its industrial potential and the shelving of most of its ablest managerial talent as bearing the Nazi taint, Germany made considerable progress toward attaining the goal of regaining the 1936 level of production. If restrictions were set aside and the country permitted to add its full industrial potential to the west, Russia would have a great deal more to worry about than the empty gestures of the Marshall plan and the North Atlantic military pact.

It would seem apparent that Russia is worried less about who has been done under Washington's leadership to deter soviet expansion than what could be done if Mr. Truman and his crowd would be struck by the elementary notion that most of their troubles could be solved by unfettering Germany. That decision could have been taken long ago. There was no necessity of clinging to the Rooseveltian doctrine of "unconditional surrender" during the war when, by encouraging strong forces of opposition within Germany, Hitler could have been got rid of, and the New Deal Germany brought within a western combination. There was nothing that decreed that Potsdam was the only solution after Germany's surrender.

The United States has paid all of these years and is still paying for the lunacy of its leaders at every conference from Tehran through Potsdam. The New Deal propaganda will probably have it that our foreign policy has rung up a great triumph if Russia does abandon the Berlin blockade. All that will be get us out of the fire and back into the frying pan so that we will continue to simmer over the question of what to do about Germany, as we have since 1945. The only real progress will come when our leaders confess their mistakes, break with past folly, and decide that the strength of a reconstituted Germany shall be brought into the western alignment as a counter-weight to Russia.

ROGER THE LODGER

By Elizabeth R. Roberts

THE steam was at our back, but the night would be cold and we'd have a long walk if the car stopped. We hadn't seen another car on the road for an hour, and after dark there would be even fewer cars abroad. Likely no one would have gas to spare if we did flag him down. The countryside was almost tenantless; what few houses there were were scattered miles apart on the sheep ranches. We pulled into Dupuyer cramped and lame from muscles tense from pressing.

Davis' garage was locked. I squinted around hopelessly for some kind of hotel. Major got out of the car and stopped a boy riding up the street on horseback. "This garage locked for the day?" he asked.

"Probably so. Try you can find Ted. Gas shortage," he explained. With help from the boy, Major sighted the pool hall and, hitching up his trousers, made for Ted—we hoped.

A few minutes later Major reappeared, followed shortly by a man pulling on a leather jacket. He unlocked the pump and let us have a tankful, refusing to accept coupons for it. "I wish I could afford to give you the gas, too," he said. "My boy's flying with the Navy."

"Got to make up time," Major observed, as he pressed the throttle to the floor. We hit 110. "Lots of gas now and no worries." Coming off the highway into a town, we had the illusion that we could walk faster than the 30-mile speed posted. Major compromised on 50.

The patrolman who made the arrest rode a motorcycle with sidecar. He ordered Major into the little side seat and told Molly she could follow along to the station house if she wanted to, but he warned her it wouldn't do any good. "This judge is tough," he said. "No fines. Just jail."

"Call the Judge Advocate, Molly," Major said, before embarking on his unwelcome ride. "No good," the policeman said. "This man don't deal with no Army."

"That's ridiculous!" Major exclaimed. "It's understood the Army is under its own discipline."

"Supreme Court don't understand it," the policeman knew more than Major, and his knowledge was right. Major got three days and he served them.

WE left Major at the jail, disconsolately thrown into a tank which contained only half enough beds to go around. The denizens already housed there explained that they took turns standing and sleeping and that since he was new, he'd have to stand that night. Drunks, speeders, and other petty law-breakers made up the cell congregation.

Molly told Major not to worry, that she'd return immediately with his overnight kit. The boos and catcalls which greeted this remark caused Major to tell her harshly not to bother.

A drunk picked a body loose off his chest and crushed it between his fingernails. Molly shrieked and I led her out of the cell block, drove her home, and put her to bed.

Rob heard me coming downstairs just as he was tuning in on Fred Allen. "Where you been?" he asked.

"Glacier Park," I answered hurriedly to get to more important matters. "Major's in jail."

"I asked you where you've been," Rob said testily, apparently convinced I was stringing him and not more concerned by the arrest of Major who was in jail than by my saying we'd been to Glacier Park.

man with such resistance to the truth. "And Major's in jail," I repeated. "Are you going to tell me where you've been or aren't you?" If I'd said we'd been to the moon and it really was made of green cheese, he couldn't have been madder. It was all so silly, I laughed. That laugh only served to increase his anger.

"God, how I hate liars," Rob muttered to himself, too angry to include me. He must have hated liars more than he loved Fred Allen, for he picked up his book and went to his room without hearing the program.

He had to admit next day that Major was in jail all right, for we gave him a thermos of coffee and a bagful of sandwiches to deliver; but he'll likely die believing we lied to him about going twice in the same day to Glacier Park. Montanans simply didn't carry on that way.

MAJOR had been "out" for 10 days and the incident was practically forgotten. We were having a game of bridge when there was a knock at the back door. Being dummy, I answered it. Two begrimed individuals stood there expectantly. They were young and dirty. Their faces were black as with coal dust; shocks of filthy, matted hair showed around the edges of their caps; Navy peacocks were gray with dust and dirt, and their rough work shoes were the same.

One asked for Major Capner. I asked who they were. "I'd rather not say," the bigger boy replied. "Just please let me speak to Father."

"Father? . . . Major?" I called. "Come quick. It's for you." It required a good hard look before he recognized his son. "George!" he exclaimed. "What on earth?"

The boy's chin trembled. He bit his lip before he answered. When he spoke, it was with childish bravado. "I came out to see you. Aren't you going to let me in? Spying Molly peering over Major's shoulder, George said, "Lo, Mom," and sent her into hysterics. (To Be Continued)

Doctor Seeks Better Deal for U. S. Latin-American Citizens

Dr. Garcia said "citizens of Mexican extraction often are refused an opportunity to do skilled labor solely because they are Latin-American."

At San Antonio, Catholic Archbishop Robert E. Lucey said in an address: "If I were asked to mention one outstanding problem that weighs most heavily upon our Latin-American people, I would say it is the burden of undeserved poverty."

Throughout Texas the Independent Veterans Organizations, called "American GI Forums," are waging back-to-school campaigns for both Latin-American children and adults.

The forums, with a membership of about 9,000, are quick to pounce on and publicize evidences of discrimination. Most businesses in the Southwest readily serve Latin-Americans but Garcia produced scores of documents to show that some don't. A Congressional Medal of Honor winner, in uniform, was refused service at one cafe.

When a skating rink in a Texas state park barred Latin-Americans, the forum protested and the bars were removed. When a privately leased swimming pool at a military base in Texas declined to admit Latin-American Boy Scouts, Garcia drove to the scene and saw to it that the Scouts were admitted.

It was Garcia and his GI forums who made the protest, which echoed nationally, when a Three Rivers, Texas, funeral home discouraged the use of its chapel for burial of a Latin-American soldier.

Born in Mexico, Garcia was rearrested at Mercedes, Texas. He went to Edinburg, Texas, and was rearrested there. He was rearrested in the state of Texas, where he fought in the Army during World War I.

CHAMPION—Dr. Hector Perez Garcia (above), 35-year-old physician and surgeon of Corpus Christi, is an outstandingly vocal foe of discriminatory practices against U. S. citizens of Latin-American descent.

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Latin-American citizens of the United States are hitting harder at discrimination.

The fight is getting tougher and louder. About two and one-half million citizens of Mexican extraction live in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and California. More than a million reside in Texas alone.

They harvest crops, carry bricks, serve in homes and patch tires at the corner service station. But a great many rise above the ranks of common labor.

One of these is Dr. Hector Perez Garcia, 35-year-old physician and surgeon of Corpus Christi, an outstandingly vocal foe of discriminatory practices.

He is the founder and moving spirit of independent veterans groups in 25 Texas cities, organized to seek a better deal for citizens of Mexican descent. He is a national trustee of the League of United Latin-American Citizens, an organization devoted to eliminating discrimination.

Garcia, a husky, dynamic man, outlined the main goals of Latin-American citizens as: an end of segregating in schools; fair employment practices; free access to hotels, theaters and other public places.

Following a United States District Court ruling last June 15, L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction in Texas, issued an order banning segregation of Latin-Americans except in the first grade.

"School districts are moving very slowly to comply with this order," said Garcia.

He produced scores of pictures of modern brick schools in Texas towns, schools attended by Anglo-Americans. Then he offered, in contrast, photos of shabby wooden structures, the Latin-American schools in the same towns.

As for employment practices, Garcia, a husky, dynamic man, outlined the main goals of Latin-American citizens as: an end of segregating in schools; fair employment practices; free access to hotels, theaters and other public places.

Some of the Very Best Music Is Played Around the Corner From Texas Oil Wells

By ROBERT E. FORD Associated Press Staff

DALLAS (AP)—Right around the corner from Texas oil wells and cattle pens you can hear some of the best music in the United States.

Texas can point — and frequently do — to three symphony orchestras, all first rate by any standard. Only New York state has as many.

That's only part of the story. Seven other Texas cities support symphonies. And you like opera. For Worth has its Civic Opera Association, San Antonio holds an annual opera festival and Corpus Christi presents an annual opera.

Do Texans like good music? Just look at the standing room only signs which decorate concert halls with such frequency.

The three big orchestras are based in Houston, San Antonio and Dallas. Budgets for them are not as imposing, but within their financial limitations, these seven provide excellent music.

These other orchestras are at El Paso, Waco, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Austin, Corpus Christi and Lubbock.

about concert music. They have been persuaded that a symphony orchestra is necessary to complete the picture of a burgeoning metropolis, that it is good for children and that the wives of factory executives will not move from Connecticut to Texas if "Texas is a cultural wilderness," he writes.

Rosenfield says a symphony official in Dallas has spectacular success with prospective donors by telling them, "Now, Jim, I'll make a deal with you. Give me a check for $5,000 for this blasted orchestra and you have my word for it that nobody, not even your wife, will try to make you go to a concert."

How effective civic arguments are is demonstrated in Dallas. Commercial interests donated $100,000 this season, compared to $40,000 from other donors. The remainder of the $375,000-plus budget came from the box office.

The Houston and San Antonio orchestras spend yearly sums comparable to that of Dallas. Season costs for smaller orchestras vary widely.

For instance, the enterprising Wichita Falls orchestra presents an 80-piece symphony with 30 professional players in five concerts on a budget of $13,500.

In all there were 546,200 admissions to symphony and opera concerts in Texas this season at 236 performances. Many of the concerts were sellouts. The Corpus Christi orchestra, for instance, must give two performances of each program because interest there is so great.

Appearance of a celebrated musician as guest is almost certain to fill any house in Texas.

Civic consciousness sometimes leads to bitter rivalry between orchestra supporters in Houston and Dallas. Sometimes it flares into wars in the press.

But, says Rosenfield, Effe and Kurtz, Houston conductor, has a been heard to say of Antal Dorati, Dallas conductor who is going to Minneapolis next year: "Ah, Dorati. A talented boy. He was once my assistant."

To which Dorati has replied: "Tocantini was once an assistant conductor. Now, let's see. Whom was he assistant to?"

Observers admit that this rivalry may keep both orchestras out of a rut financially and artistically.

The San Antonio Symphony is particularly active in playing at military installations, six of its 41 concerts being at Lackland and Randolph Air Force Bases.

And its special pride is the grand opera festival. This season was the fifth and brought opera enthusiasts from a 300-mile area for the four performances. They are first-rate productions, a n.d. except for the local affairs.

Most of the stars are from the Metropolitan. Scenery is designed and executed by Emilie and Marcel Robin of San Antonio who also did the sets for the Casa Marina and the Cavalcade.

The chorus of 200 is trained for several months by the symphony choral director, Charles Stone. Stage direction is by Anthony L. Rivanello, one of the best in the country, who is brought from New York each season.

This year the society presented Il Trovatore, Der Rosenkavalier, La Boheme and Lohengrin.

WHEN you get right down to it, there's just one way to satisfy yourself that this bold beauty is the car you've been yearning for.

So here's open invitation to come take its wheel—and see how neatly, invitingly, it seems to fit your hand.

Come put it up against the rough spots— and sample for yourself the ride that's recognized as smoother, even, than on highest-priced cars.

jarless stops—come swing this one around twisting curves and see its freedom from the top-heavy "feel" so common elsewhere.

Come slam the solid doors, drum on its sturdy top, roll up the windows and notice the curtain of silence this one draws over outside noises.

And please come fresh from tests of other cars—their power, their ride, their steadiness, the room—because never does one show up so well as under direct comparison.

Above all, come prepared to check the value in this bonny Buick. Come armed with delivered price—all the details of other "deals."

Lines to Call

Aluminum wire enough to complete all REA lines in the entire section—began arriving in Perryton last week. The crew for stringing the wire arrived Tuesday. The job is expected to be completed by June 1. At present there are approximately 140 miles of poles standing without conductors.

The REA office also announced that field engineers will stake out "P" section lines. This section consists of 331 miles serving 300 members in Hansford, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb and Ochiltree Counties.

Citrus Controls Are Lifted

LAKELAND, Fla. — (AP) — The three-month-old Florida voluntary orange shipping quota system ended yesterday.

Marvin Walker, general manager of the Florida Citrus Commission, said dwindling supplies of oranges in the state made the plan no longer necessary.

It was adopted to prevent heavy shipments and a glutted market after the Texas and California freezer. It was a big factor in current high prices.

Time to Call Congress Roll

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — This is a good time to call the roll on Congress.

The mid-year, with this year's regular session of Congress more than half over.

Except for renewing rent control, this Democratic Congress hasn't finished any major item in President Truman's promised program.

And Thursday Senator Taft of Ohio, one of the jockeys of the Republicans in Congress, predicted defeat for a large part of the program.

At this point there seems a better chance for his prediction to come true than for a large part of the Truman program.

Take a look at the score:

Housing — The Senate has passed a bill to provide government housing for low-income groups. The House is expected to do the same. So this probably will become law.

Labor — The House trampled the new labor bill which Mr. Truman and organized labor wanted to revive the Taft-Hartley Act. Neither house has passed a new bill yet. Maybe neither will.

Medical Insurance — In spite of all the hullabaloo about compulsory medical insurance, and Mr. Truman's confidence, it still seems to have no chance of passing.

Minimum Wage — Mr. Truman wanted Congress to raise the minimum wage from 40 cents an hour to 75 cents, meeting some other changes in the minimum wage law. If Congress acts on this, it probably will raise the wage to less than 75 cents.

Social Security — Mr. Truman wanted social security pay raised and more people get a share of the benefit of social security. This is still buried in the works in Congress.

Civil Rights — This seems like a gone goose. The Senate wrangled over it for weeks early this session and never got further than preliminaries.

Farming — Secretary of Agriculture Brannan came up with a new farm program. This has received praise and criticism. Its chances look chilly.

Taxes — Mr. Truman wanted about a $4,000,000,000 tax raise, mostly on business, to help meet government costs. He still wants this and said so again Thursday. Republicans and some of Mr. Truman's most dependable allies in Congress are against it. They say "cut expenses, this is no time to raise taxes."

After reading this you're probably saying, "The President's program is hopeless. He looks ragged." It sure is.

DEFICIT

as well as those who demand tight-pocket economy.

Policy-makers of the Committee for Economic Development, a privately financed research and planning organization, got out a statement, meanwhile, saying the tax hike could and should be sidestepped by slashing federal spending $2,000,000,000. Its figures are based on present rate of government revenues.

The staff of the Senate-House committee calculated that government receipts from taxes, customs duties and other sources next year will come to only $38,900,000,000. It used the presidential budget figure of $41,900,000,000 for expenditures and put the difference, or deficit at around three billion dollars.

The budget estimated receipts at $41 billion dollars — $2,100,000,000 more than the tax experts.

President Truman has said over and over that Congress ought to boost taxes four billion dollars. Congress has shown no signs of doing it.

peoples of Western Europe are still worried about invasion dangers. The United States "must assist" the countries to develop power needed to resist invasion.

"As of now," the State Department said, "the inadequate defenses of Western Europe invite military aggression, and increasing prosperity makes it a prize."

"Not until we show our strength on a common defensive front can we hope to replace this temptation with a real deterrent to war."

Airlift Cost U. S. About 190 Millions

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The National Military Establishment estimated the cost to the United States of the Berlin airlift at about $190,077,000.

This figure, announced Friday, includes $181,307,000 for the air phase carried on by the Air Force and Navy, and $8,770,000 for the Army, which did the ground job.

New Contract for Leo Radios Will Pay

VATICAN CITY — (AP) — The ceremony of the canonization of the new Roman Catholic saint, Blessed Jeanne de Lestonnac, will take place today. She was the French founder of the Order of the Daughters of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She died in 1640.

APPOINTMENT

HOUSTON — (AP) — Appointment of E. A. Benton, Houston, as Texas-Louisiana Gas superintendent for Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, was announced Saturday by R. E. Nelson, Jr., division manager.

"Don't you ever get tired and take a vacation?"

CALM

Friday night, heavy downpours at sporadic intervals hit Pampa. Two short-lived hail storms came with them.

The second bombardment of hailstones was so rapid and thick it left pavements in the mid-city area looking as if a thin film of snow had fallen.

Reports from Miami said a tornado was seen bobbing around overhead, but it never reached the ground. It later disappeared. Miami also reported heavy winds, rain and electrical disturbances.

Farther on, at Canadian, the report was virtually the same except no tornado was spotted there. At Higgins, where the April 9, 1947, tornado struck destroying half the town and killing over thirty persons, winds, rain and some hail were reported.

Perryton had clear skies continuously after 4 p.m. Skellytown reported heavy winds, rain and some hail. County Agent Ralph Thomas said yesterday he had only one report of crop damage south of Pampa, but that hail was reported generally light over Gray County.

As the second hailstorm was lambasting Pampa, Chief of Police Louie Allen reported a large funnel about 12 miles south of town moving towards Miami. It disappeared from view but apparently never struck the town. Rain measurement in Pampa was recorded at .60.

English, History, Math Are Offered

Not reading, writing and arithmetic, but English, history and mathematics will be taught at this year's summer school, Frank Wilson, High School principal, said yesterday.

Registration for the eight-week summer school will begin at 8:30 a. m., May 30, in the High School Auditorium.

The courses will be instructed during the mornings and will be completed July 22. The first course will begin at 7:30 a. m. and will run for an hour and one-half. About 25 Seniors are expected to graduate at the end of summer school and will be awarded their diplomas.

Cricket Saves Family From Fire

PERRYTON — (AP) — Cricket was a hero today.

Al Tremble's wife and children had retired and Tremble was about to follow when Cricket, his Pomeranian dog, began barking furiously.

It was warning enough for Tremble to discover his house was on fire. He successfully evacuated his family and called the fire department in time to limit damage to the roof and rear of his recently remodeled home.

Youth Declared To Be Delinquent

WHEELER — (Special) — A 15-year-old boy Thursday was judged delinquent by County Judge G. W. Hefley in County Court here.

The young boy was found to be delinquent upon conviction of burglarizing the Decker Bros. Service Station at Shamrock. The youth's sentence was withheld by the Court pending further study of the case. The boy, it was reported, has been involved in other criminal escapades around Wheeler County.

by way of Poland to take a job as professor of social science in the University of Leipzig, in the Soviet zone.

American authorities asked Scotland Yard to arrest him and hold him for extradition.

The arrest was not made until after several hours of negotiation, to iron out what one American official described as "international complications."

The Batory dropped anchor off Cowes, Isle of Wight, about 12 miles from Southampton's docks, at 11:30 a. m. British summer time (4:30 a. m. CST). A tender carrying Brady, another Scotland Yard inspector and immigration and port officials set out for the ship's side. Aboard were two Americans, William Beck, Southampton consul general, and Felix Varsity, assistant attache of the U. S. Embassy.

County Road Contract to Be Awarded

Road widening jobs in Gray County will be one of eight projects to be under the bidding hammer by the State Highway Department in Austin on May 24.

Roads to be affected here by this bid letting are: widening of 1.53 miles of Highway 60 from Farley to the Santa Fe "Y"; from Pinley to a point 492 feet east of the city limits on Highway 60; and from Rider to Dwight on State Highway 182.

The department estimated last week $9,186,100 would be the total of low bids entered for all of the May 24-25 bid letting.

Hansford and Hutchinson County projects will also be let on the 24th.

On the 25th, bids for 22 other projects, scattered over the state, will be let. Among them will be seal coating bids for highways in Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hemphill, Potter and Sherman Counties. To be seal coated are:

U. S. 8/83, 17.84 miles from Wolf Creek to Lipscomb County line; 3.24 miles from Ochiltree County line to Hemphill County line; 5.78 miles from Lipscomb County line to Horse Creek; and 5.3 miles from Wheeler County line northward.

U. S. 54, 7.21 miles from Dallam County line to east city limits of Stratford and 10.62 miles from Stratford northward.

State 117, 7.82 miles from 3.4 miles east of Darrouzett to 0.5 mile east of Pollett.

State 170, 10.76 miles from 12.2 miles east of junction with U. S. 60 to Oklahoma state line.

Chest X-Ray Being Planned

Dates will be set for the annual X-ray chest survey in Gray County at a public meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the County Court Room in the Courthouse.

Philip W. Gauss, Jr., tuberculosis field worker, will arrive from Austin to preside at the meeting. Representatives from civic and social clubs, ministerial, medical, dental and tuberculosis associations will attend and anyone else interested.

More than 4,800 Gray County residents were X-rayed last summer when the County Medical and Tuberculosis Associations jointly sponsored the X-ray service.

Grandview Picnic Set for Thursday

The annual Grandview School picnic and calf auction will be held at noon Thursday, May 19, on the school grounds.

A barbecue dinner — prepared by L. P. Eakin — with all the trimmings will be served at noon. Members of the P-TA will act as hostesses and also prepare the side dishes and the desserts.

After the dinner is served the calf will be auctioned off, and various games played for adults and children.

The general public, as usual, has been invited to attend the affair that has always attracted large crowds.

The corner of the human eye consists of five layers.

Jobless Numbers Show Increase

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The number of workers drawing jobless insurance pay fell off 57,000 last week, the first drop in a month.

This decline brought the total down to 1,880,000 during the week ending May 7 as compared with 2,037,000 for the preceding period.

But the Federal Security Agency said the number of newly laidoff workers filing claims for unemployment compensation rose from 522,100 to 554,000 in the same period.

Sweden prides itself on being the oldest regularly constituted state in Europe.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK — (AP) — The poor man's philosopher asks:

"Is mankind getting more cruel? This is a question in many minds today. And many have decided in their own hearts that the answer is: 'Yes.'"

Such a conclusion is bad indeed for the world. For if a majority of people really believed mankind were getting more cruel, then mankind would soon actually be more cruel. For what men believe they are, they tend in time to become.

But most people just wonder about whether cruelty is dying or growing. Here is what a few have said to me:

A Negro steward — "People are more cruel, because they aren't as polite as they were even 20 years ago. And how about these stories in the papers of children killing other children? Isn't that a terrible sign of what's wrong?"

A combat veteran — "I don't know. But I do know we had more fellow feeling between men fighting overseas than we do now at home in peace."

A businessman — "People aren't getting more cruel. They're just being crowded harder — that's all."

An experienced editor — "The cussedness man was born with just has more chance to show itself now."

A salesgirl — "When I get up in the morning, I don't think people are getting any more cruel. But by 5 o'clock in the

8 Students Hurt in Riot

LAWRENCE, Kans. — (AP) — Eight University of Kansas students were injured in a riotous "stag week" demonstration.

The dean of men was doused with water and sorority houses were damaged as students battled back and forth.

None of the students was injured seriously, although four were taken to the university hospital.

The ruckus started over a difference of opinion about college dating rules. Proponents of a "stag week" started the protest Wednesday by decreeing men students would not date coeds until Friday night. Men outnumber women by nearly three to one at KU.

Last night cars of the "stag week" leaders cruised through the sorority house district and found men defying their decree. Fights started. Some sorority houses were invaded and water doused on furniture. The coeds "shot" with water pistols.

Lawrence police said about 1,000 persons were involved. But Dean of Men L. C. Woodruff said only "40 or 50" took part in the melee. Another 250 were onlookers, he said.

The coeds didn't like the "stag week" ban from the beginning. Several cars of sorority girls, some clad in bathing suits, drove past fraternity houses, playfully teasing the men about the no date edict. Their plea was a sort of "are you men or mice?" question. Some of the girls invited themselves into fraternity houses for dinner last night. Others surrounded men students and held them "captive" for a time.

Yet in what other similar period have more people won or sustained political independence? In what other period has mankind made more social progress, achieved greater economic freedom, or made such startling conquests over disease?

It is hard to decide whether many of mankind's steps are forward or backward. Life grinds people differently than it did a century ago. The wears and tears are different.

Snyder Praises Carrier Boys

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Newspaper carrier boys, scheduled for a major role in the May 16-June 30 savings bonds "opportunity drive," drew praise from Secretary of the Treasury Snyder.

"Newspaper carrier boys almost untiringly make good citizens," Snyder told a rally near the Washington Monument.

"Actually, I should say they are good citizens, for it is typical of such groups as this that they frequently have undertaken important public services while they're still very young men."

Snyder addressed some 7,000 Washington newspaper carriers, representatives of 250,000 carriers for 200 daily newspapers, who are to deliver savings bonds literature to 13 million families over the nation.

Plant Makes Edible Oil From Bran

HOUSTON — (AP) — Reporters were shown a new plant which processes an edible vegetable oil from rice bran. The process is expected to add millions annually to the value of Texas and Gulf Coast rice crops.

Homer Brinkley, general manager of the American Rice Growers Cooperative Association, said the oil now is in commercial production following four years of research.

The process, Brinkley said, actually was developed as the result of attempts to eliminate excessive quantities of oil from rice bran which lowered its value as livestock feed.

"We soon saw that under proper extraction methods it might be possible to produce vegetable oil on an economically sound basis as well as improve the quality of the bran," he stated.

Houston reporters were shown through the plant which has just completed "shakedown" runs and now is in commercial production.

Brinkley said the plant can process a minimum of 50 tons of rice bran a day and will utilize all of the bran from the association's Houston plant as well as one each at Hayes, La., and Lake Charles, La.

Daily production of vegetable oil is expected to total 15 tons. H. G. Murch, manager of the association's milling department, said the bran, a by-product resulting from milling rough rice, increases its protein content from 12 to 20 percent with the extraction of the oil.

WHAT WITH all the rainy weather and the ground being wet, the kids have to stay inside... for that reason this place has got me a good case of the willies... one of mine always wants to play with something that is made for other purposes... for instance, I will drop all toys made by man for little kids, to hang onto the potato masher or the colander... then when I want to use one of them, it's just not to be found... but that's only one of the perils to which I am oft and ruthlessly subjected... but, first and last, I think "Mother Goose" pretty well summed it up when she said in the rhyme that little boys are made up of "frogs and snails, and puppy-dog tails" and that little girls are made up of "sugar and spice, and all that's nice." When the damage is summed up, "he" has done more damage than "she"... If farmers can get hail and other types of weather insurance for their wheat, I can't understand why mothers can't get house damage insurance incurred when the elements are bad enough to keep Indians inside.

ANOTHER THING that's kept me pretty well tied down is all the school activities... but I've noticed that other proud mamas and papas are marking dates on their calendars for commencement... Frank Wilson, ably assisted by Mrs. Lou Roberts, is coordinated to carry out a well-organized agenda... two teachers of Senior students who are also assisting in this fast-moving program are Misses Virginia Vaughan and Margaret Jones... It's surprising what Seniors can do... already a majority of them have completed plans for the summer... noticed Nance Campbell taking over "Woman's Page" duties for The News... Aene Proctor, a studious gal (and those eyes!) fills in her spare time working in the Public Library... vivacious Mary Mathieu is making plans to attend Highland University at Las Vegas, N. M... Junice Ann Fahle will attend Texas Tech... Junice Ann, who, I note, is valedictorian this year, was also valedictorian of her Junior High graduating class... the Mello-Alrs booked for the BOK dance on June 17 will guarantee a good evening's entertainment... nice promotion for Paul Nelson was the management of Furr Food... one of Pampa's busiest and friendliest is Frank Stallings... more new cars... a white Ford for the Dick Pepins, a green Olds for the Edwin Givens... activities of the week included the Jaycee dance on Friday night, and it was a huge success... and the ever-popular calcutta pool at the Country Club... understand golfers were out bright and early riding in marillo... two couples who enjoyed that sentimental gentleman of swing were the H. D. Fosters and Lillian Kelley and Hank Nipert.

★ WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT NEA Staff Writer

During their annual Dutch Week, co-eds on a Texas college campus make all dates, pay all bills, and in general take over the responsibilities usually left up to the men.

That experience ought to teach the girls a few things. For instance, girls usually think that men get all the breaks in dating, figuring that when they feel in mood for going out all they have to do is call up a girl.

Well, when the girls start having to do the date arranging, they'll discover it isn't always quite so simple.

They may find out how it feels to call a long list of names, hoping for a presentable date for a dance, and have popular male after popular male says contritely, "I'm so sorry but I'm busy," etc.

LATE MODEL DATES

Also, when they discover that girls with cars have the least trouble getting dates, they may begin to feel they shouldn't be quite so calous in rating men students by whether or not they have cars, or by whether or not they have sleek roadsters or old jalopies.

Not having to think up things to do, persuade a man to go out with them, and take the blame if the evening is a dud will give them good experience for marriage.

For after marriage it's usually the woman who has to engineer evenings out. She soon learns that if she doesn't invite her husband to take her out to dinner or to a movie she'll spend the evening sitting home.

Society Meets For First Time In May Month

The Business Women's Mission Society met May 9 for its first regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Homer Doggett in charge.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

I had luncheon at Reuben's the other day with Morey Amsterdam. I was quite interested in that kiddie toy drive he put on last year for underprivileged children.

Believe it or not, Morey secured 30,000 toys, 1280 dolls and 4500 pounds of candy.

In discussing bridge Morey complained that we have too many rules and regulations. He said, "Why don't you push all the chips in once in awhile." I explained to him that sometimes these little gadgets, or so called bidding conventions, were necessary to keep you from losing all of your chips at one time.

Out came a lead pencil, and another table cloth was ruined, as we laid out today's hand. Morey argued that he would open with a two heart bid, but I thought one heart was enough. I did not argue with him when he said North should jump to two spades and that South's next correct bid was three diamonds.

I now explained that North would like to know how many aces and kings his partner has. Therefore, he fouo no trump bid and the response would let him know his partner had two aces. The five no trump bid found out his partner had one king. There was no holding Morey back now. He said he would simply bid seven no trump, which is ice cold.

Stamp Honors City's 200th Anniversary

After two centuries, a city is entitled to a little recognition. Thus, the Post Office Department has issued an Alexandria, Va., commemorative stamp.

A six-cent air-mail stamp was first issued Wednesday through the Alexandria, Va., Post Office. Five thousand of the stamps have arrived at the Pampa Post Office and are now on sale.

The central design of the stamp is a reproduction of the Alexandria seal, commemorating the 200th anniversary of the founding of the city. A pair of outstretched wings is attached. To the left of the stamp is portrayed the Carlyle house, the home of John Carlyle, one of the founders of the city. Gadsby's Tavern, which was frequently used as a meeting place of such people as George Washington and John Paul Jones, is pictured at the right.

New Policy on Negroes Okayed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Negro personnel will be distributed throughout the Air Force instead of serving in special units under a new policy approved by Secretary of Defense Johnson.

The Air Force plan intended to carry out Johnson's April 6 directive to end racial discrimination in the armed forces — was okayed Wednesday.

Johnson said in an announcement that he has received Army and Navy proposals along the same line but has asked for "clarifying information" before making any decision on them.

Officials said that under the new Air Force policy Negroes will be assigned on the basis of individual capacity. Some separate Negro units will continue in existence.

The Air Force now has 21,028 Negro servicemen, 318 of them on his stop.

But Thursday he met one which left a deep impression—physically. Frong says he can prove it by the police that a baboon is a local taven bit his leg so bad'y it needed medical treatment.

Tommy Tucker, 34, a mental telepathist of Haverhill, Mass., gives Bostonians a thrilling demonstration by driving his station wagon completely blindfolded through the city's crowded streets for 12 minutes. He even stopped for red lights and avoided jaywalking pedestrians. Mrs. Tucker, in back seat, doesn't even look nervous.

Ask Your Congressman How Much He Really Knows About an Issue

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A good question to ask a congressman just before he votes on something is: "How much do you really know about it?"

Almost every member of Congress is on at least one committee.

Each committee specializes in a certain kind of bill.

It holds hearings, bring in witnesses, studies the subject, and then issues, for all the other congressmen to read, a bill to be voted on by all.

Members must trust pretty much to the judgment of committees that the bills they finally turn out are all right.

And the committees are pretty jealous of their rights. Not just any other member of the House or Senate can walk in and start questioning witnesses or take any part in the doings.

When a non-member wants a hand in what's going on, he has to ask permission. The most recent example of that happened with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

This committee is probably the most distinguished in Congress. Senator Tom Connally, Texas Democrat, is chairman. And at his right hand sits Senator Arthur Vandenberg, Michigan Republican.

This committee has been holding hearings on the Atlantic Pact. Two Republican senators—Donnell of Missouri and Watkins of Utah—not members of the committee, asked permission to question witnesses.

Both senators are critical of the pact. Before they had a chance to ask a question, Connally accused them of wishing to oppose and filibuster against the pact.

When it came time to ask witnesses questions Connally informed the witnesses that the two senators were not committee members and were being allowed to ask questions only by courtesy of the committee.

Watkins walked out Monday feeling that he had been "lectured and humiliated long enough" by Connally. Connally said Watkins and Donnell had been using up two-thirds of the committee's time.

The Washington Post suggests that the professional staffs which work with the various committees hold seminars, or study periods, for congressmen who are not on a certain committee but would like a fill-in before voting time.

New Car Sale Boom Continues

By DAVID J. WILKIE, AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT — (AP) — New car sales are continuing to boom.

Production also was moving upward until an accumulation of labor troubles cut into output.

However, there is no likelihood the sales boom will end within the next couple of months as has been predicted in some quarters.

In many respects what's happening in the automobile industry right now is almost normal for the first time since 1941. But for the exaggerated viewpoint created by more than three years of shortages, the industry could be described as back on a pre-war basis.

This far this year more than 1,000,000 passenger cars have been built. Accurate figures on sales are not available but estimates put them at more than 1,300,000. Both production and sales are well ahead of last year.

The difference between output and retail sales suggests a sizable field stock. There is a substantial field stock — cars in transit, in storage or unsold in dealers' possession. But this, too, is a normal situation.

There have been some pessimistic expressions regarding the auto industry's outlook for the latter months of 1949. For the most part, however, they come from sources only indirectly connected with the industry.

The sales chiefs of all the car companies are confident this year's total new car sales will top those of last year.

Most of them are equally confident the present boom will carry through August. And, they add, the tapering off expected in the latter months of the year will not be of more than normal proportions.

Rites to Be At Comanche

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie May Atchison, who died at a local hospital Thursday, will be held at 4 p.m. today in Comanche, Tex.

A Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance carried the body overland to Comanche yesterday.

Mrs. Atchison had been a Pampa resident for the past three years. She was making her home with a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Spoonmore, 453 Hughes.

Besides Mrs. Spoonmore, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. J. E. Conklin, Okland, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Sue Vines, Klugore, Tex.; Mrs. Maggie Atchison, Crosbyton, Tex.; Mrs. Eva Summers, Comanche; four

Fire Department Has New Ruling

MERCED, Calif. — There was a new order in the Merced Fire Department today.

The new chief, George Coltures, is tired of seeing firemen fight fires one-handed.

"When a man rolls into a big fire," he said, "he needs all the air he can get. He takes off his belt. Then he has to fight the fire with one hand and try to hold up his pants with the other."

The new order: suspenders as standard equipment.

brothers, Will, Cecil and Virgil Hanes, Comanche, D. F. Hanes, Roby, Tex.; three granddaughters, Doris and Mary Joyce Spoonmore, Mrs. Myrtle Knight, Dacula, Ga.; and one great-granddaughter, Sandra Jane Knight.

County Has 115 Men Now Taking Training Courses

Jesse Coleman, Gray County coordinator of veterans' vocational training, told the Kiwanis Club Friday there are 115 veterans taking courses here and at McLean.

He said another 70 are expected to be enrolled in a number of courses by June 3.

Now in operation are two classes in agriculture, one in tractor mechanics, and one in distributive education, all at McLean; and one class in distributive education at Pampa. Two courses in welding will begin at Pampa June 3, he said.

It takes two years to complete a course in distributive education; two years to complete courses in trades and industries; and 36 months, for agricultural courses.

Many other courses are offered, he told the audience, but there has to be a minimum number of men signed before the Veterans Administration will initiate a class.

Veterans are paid while they are taking courses. They cannot draw pay at the same time from on-the-job training and from schooling classes. They can transfer, however, from one job to another.

The program, he said, "helps a man to help himself. It raises his standard of living."

Coleman, during a question-and-answer session, told the group that a building is being sought in Pampa to set up an expanded program here.

When the program is expanded in this county, he will become a full-time coordinator. He is now also engaged in teaching some of the McLean classes.

Clinton Evans introduced the speaker.

Several Kiwanis members' wives were guests of the club. It is a custom to have as guests one Friday of the month those wives whose wedding anniversary falls in the month. Present were Mrs. Jack Nimmo, Joe Fischer, Clinton Evans, Carlton Nance, and Harvey Waters.

Exercise Set At Perryton

PERRYTON — Dr. F. L. Mize, head of the business management department at Texas Tech, will deliver the commencement address to 50 graduating Seniors Friday night at the First Methodist Church.

The baccalaureate sermon will be presented tonight by the Rev. John C. Huley, minister of the Nazarene Church. Baccalaureate will be held in the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Mize, in the teaching field since 1921, received his B. A. Degree from Sul Ross State Teachers College and his M. A. and Ph. D. from the University of Oklahoma. He has been a member of Texas Tech faculty for the past three years.

Junior High graduating exercises will be held Thursday.

Cold Rubber Tires May Last Eight Years

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — (AP) — Improved "cold rubber" may allow motorists to drive 75,000 miles on one set of automobile tires, the Northeastern section of the American Chemical Society was told.

Synthetic rubber authority Charles P. Fryling of the Phillips Petroleum Company of Texas said development of the new tire in the "near future" would allow the average motorists to drive eight years on the same tires.

In the first attempt at colonization of Arcadia, 1598, the French landed 60 convicts on Sable Island.

Red Cross Has New Chairman

HIGGINS — County Judge G. A. Jenkins, Darroutzet, has been elected chairman of the Lipscomb County Red Cross Chapter.

Representatives from nearly every town in the county attended the election at the annual Red Cross meeting in the Lipscomb County Courthouse.

Other officers include: Dr. Roland Crane, first aid chairman; Mrs. H. W. Sherrieb, county treasurer; Gene Nixon, county roll call chairman; A. J. Bissanta, disaster and relief chairman; Homer Price, farm and home chairman; Mrs. Clyde Eugh, home demonstration agent; Charles Hill, home service chairman; Mrs. R. H. Cowan, production chairman; and Mrs. Beatrice Dixon, county secretary.

Clean-up Needed to Halt Polio Spread

AUSTIN — (AP) — A clean-up to halt spreading polio was termed "an absolute necessity" Friday.

State Health Officer George W. Cox reported that 18 new cases of polio have been reported in the past week, boosting the state 43 cases ahead of where it stood a year ago — the state's worst polio year in history.

England's famed Fabian Society has never had more than 4,000 members at one time.

Rain Causes Friday Wreck

One woman was slightly injured and her 1945 Cadillac extensively damaged in a two-car collision on Highway 60 about six miles west of Pampa at 7:15 Friday during a heavy down-pour.

The woman, Mrs. C. L. Farmer, 312 N. Wells, was traveling toward Pampa from Amarillo with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Hartzog and the two Hartzog children, Gregg, 3, and Harriet, 18 months, when her car was in collision with a Buick, driven by a Mr. Robie of Amarillo.

Robie was traveling toward Amarillo, according to Mrs. Farmer's husband.

Damage was reported heavy, to the Buick and at least $2,000 to the Cadillac.

Mrs. Farmer was treated at a local hospital for a bruised leg and released. She was described as all right yesterday afternoon by her husband, Mrs. Hartzog and her two children were uninjured.

The accident was investigated by Borger Highway Patrolmen. Pampa Highway Patrolmen were in Panhandle on tornado duty at the time of the wreck.

England's famed Fabian Society has never had more than 4,000 members at one time.

Grand Jury to Air Complaint

A complaint charging a morals offense was filed last week in Justice Court against an elderly Pampa man by city officers, it was disclosed yesterday.

While no charge was formally lodged by District Attorney Tom Braly, the man was released immediately on $3,000 bond pending investigation by the Grand Jury.

Complicating circumstances surrounding the case led to withholding identification, presently, of any of the principals involved until the Grand Jury completes its investigation and returns an indictment, or "no bills" him.

Officers declined to give any details of the offense other than that it has been continuous for the past several months. They also indicated that most of the details surrounding the case are unfit for print — even if the case culminates in a court trial.

The Roman emperor Claudius took with him to Britain many elephants, camels and African black men with which his generals defeated the Britons, in 43 B.C.

Trial Will Be Re-Set

WHEELER — (Special) — A misunderstanding between judge and attorneys over the time of trial resulted in postponement of the breach of contract suit brought by Tay Turnbow against J. C. Moore in 31st District Court here.

The trial was slated for 9 a. m. Monday, May 9, but the attorneys, with their clients, failed to show up until 9:45. Meanwhile, Judge Lewis M. Goodrich and the 12-man jury were seated in the courtroom waiting for the case to start. At 9:25, Judge Goodrich dismissed the jury and instructed them to call for their pay in the District Clerk's office.

About 20 minutes later attorneys and clients appeared. Informed of the error and its results, attorneys for both sides returned to their offices. No definite date was re-set for the trial. A new jury will have to be drawn.

Communists Profit in Indonesia War

DUTCH TROOPS—Many observers fear that Dutch policy of force rather than negotiation in attempting to quell the insurrection of the Indonesian Republic has provided Indonesian Communists with potent ammunition for their propaganda campaign.

By WALTER BRIGGS
BATAVIA, Java.—(NEA)—Holland unwittingly played into Communist hands by renewing military action in these rich islands, many neutral observers believe.

Prior to the second Dutch "police action," the Indonesian Republic held about 50,000 Communists—most of the known Reds in the Indies—in work camps. When the Dutch struck on Dec. 19 the Republicans, although they bitterly hate communism, released these Communists to fight alongside the Republican Army against the Dutch.

"We took them for allies," a Republican official told this correspondent, "just as Britain and the United States lined up with Russia against the Germans."

Today these Communists are fighting guerrilla warfare, shoulder-to-shoulder with the Republicans against the Dutch.

Meanwhile, Communist agitators are busy among the people. They are finding fertile soil for the seeds of communism in the human suffering accompanying this war. Food is short, and Dutch troops, seeking to root out guerrillas, often burn villages and kill innocent persons who get in their way.

Several high Dutch officials told this correspondent that communism had gained from the "police action"—but only temporarily. In the long run, these officials claim, their military adventures strike at communism. Once Holland has restored law and order to Indonesia, they contend, the Communists can be dealt with easily.

But Republican officials are worried about the Communists. "They are gaining strength all the time," one prominent Republican said. "Soon they may be too powerful for us to control."

The Communist revolt against the Republic in September last year. They claimed that the Republicans should fight the Dutch for independence rather than negotiate a settlement.

The Republic, surprising the Dutch with their strength, put down the Reds within a few weeks.

The speed with which the Republic met the threat was noteworthy in the light of the long, hard struggle which the Burma government and the British in Malaya are forced to wage to suppress fewer Communists than in Indonesia.

Few observers believe that the Dutch can eliminate the Reds. "Only the Republicans can do that," one observer said. "They know who the Reds are and where to go after them."

Some Americans are afraid that, as a result of the Dutch use of force, the islands may slip into chaos, with the Communists eventually gaining control.

If this occurs, the Western democracies will lose an important base, as well as the strategic tin, rubber, oil and other raw materials which come from here.

Dutch militarism in Indonesia has helped communism in still another way, observers believe. By preferring force to peaceful negotiation, the Dutch have furnished Russia with potent ammunition for its propaganda campaign in Southeast Asia against the "Western imperialists."

Two men Thursday afternoon narrowly escaped death or serious injury when the car they were riding in turned over on U.S. Highway 60 about three and a half miles east of Pampa.

State Highway Patrolmen, investigating the accident, said that a 1949 Ford convertible coupe, owned and driven by W. R. Cottrell, 21, of Plains, Kan., was traveling west toward Pampa when his right front tire blew out. The blowout sent the car careening off the right shoulder of the road where it slipped sideways and then turned over.

Cottrell and his companion, Jimmy Walls of Amory, Miss., were brought to a Pampa doctor where they were examined and released without needing treatment.

Damage to the car was estimated at $695.

We often read of jails falling to pieces but the chairs seem to stay strong enough to hold the deputies.

Man Held for New Mexico

WHEELER—(Special)—Leonard Earl Bonner, who is reported to have escaped from the New Mexico State Prison last Nov. 12, was arrested this week in Childress.

The arrest was made by Jess Swink, Wheeler County sheriff, assisted by Childress and Hall County officers.

Bonner, who has served several penal sentences from Wheeler, is being held in the Wheeler County Jail for New Mexico officers.

Neil P. Madson, 25, was returned to Wichita, Kans., this week to face charges of passing worthless checks.

Madson was arrested near Shamrock and charged with driving without a license. When arrested, he gave an allegedly fictitious address in Wichita as his home.

The city marshal of Wichita, however, told Wheeler County authorities that Madson is alleged to have passed about $5,000 in worthless checks and has been the object of a state-wide search by Kansas officers.

Even the car Madson was driving had been paid for with a hot check, it was said.

In 1883, on a hunting trip to the Badlands of North Dakota, Theodore Roosevelt helped trail, capture and transport to jail three thieves.

THE DRILLER'S LOG
By Ken Bennett

This week your editor had the opportunity to lunch with an oil company executive. I was much impressed with some of the information which he gave. Some of his discussions didn't paint too bright a picture for the oil industry as a whole and especially in the Panhandle area. According to this person, who should know, production has now caught up with demand and for this reason development of new fields is going to be slow. He is of the opinion that companies are going to only drill in those places where their leases must be protected and that actual development of any new fields of any size will result only from exceptional discoveries. ## Cities Announces Interim Dividend

The board of directors of Cities Service Co. has declared a quarterly dividend of 50 cents per share payable on June 20, 1949, to stockholders of record as of the close of business on May 21, 1949.

Consolidated net income of Cities Service Co. and subsidiaries for the quarter ended March 31, 1949, was $18,500,303 after all charges and taxes or the equivalent of $5.00 per share of common stock outstanding. It was announced by W. Alton Jones, president. This compares with consolidated net income of $19,976,578, or $5.39 per share, during the same period last year.

Corporate net income for the quarter was $6,849,991, or $1.85 per share, as compared with $6,228,819, or $1.68 per share in the first quarter of 1948.

Net sales of goods and services by subsidiaries aggregated $181,700,168 in the first quarter of 1949 as compared with $157,329,857 in the same period last year.

Roach Promoted

FORT WORTH - J. W. Roach has been named division gas superintendent for Standard Oil and Gas Company at Fort Worth, John R. Evans, manager of the company's North Texas-New Mexico division, said today.

In the newly created post, Roach will be responsible for the technical phase of the operation of Standard's natural gasoline, cycling and pressure maintenance plants in the division. These plants include the Slaughter gasoline plant near Sundown, Texas, the North Cowden and South Fullerton plants now being built. Roach also will be responsible for the sale of products from these plants.

Prior to coming to Fort Worth, Roach was chief project engineer for the manufacturing department in Tulsa.

He has a degree from the University of Texas and also attended New Mexico A&M College.

In the original draft of Henry IV, Falstaff was called Oldcastle but Shakespeare changed it because of protests from the family bearing that name.

The state flower of Massachusetts is the mayflower.

High Rating To Local Band

The Harvester Band, under the direction of Orland Butler, was the only Texas high school band in Class A at the Tri-State Band Festival to receive a superior marching rating in the Million Dollar Parade, held Friday and Saturday at Enid, Okla.

Oklahoma Class A bands receiving superior ratings included Enid, Durant and El Reno, the Associated Press reported.

The Harvester Band left by bus Thursday to attend the three-day band festival and returned yesterday afternoon.

Plainview High School's Class C band also received superior rating.

Class B bands given superior ratings in the marching contest were Magnolia, Ark., Fawcett, Edmond and Elk City, Okla.

Besides the band director, other sponsors who accompanied Harvester Band members were Mrs. Peggy McNeely, Miss Johnnie Douglas, J. L. Spencer and Kenneth Walters.

Harvester Band received a second division rating in concert playing. Individual band members received ratings as follows: Virginia McNaughton and Marjorie McPhillips, twirling a first; Mona Cox, flute, second.

Man Charged With Felony

Tom W. Hector, implicated in the theft of four tires Thursday night from trucks of the Wilson Trucking Co., parked on the old Danciger Lease south of town, was nabbed by Dumas officers shortly after 4 p.m. Friday.

He was returned to the Gray County jail Saturday morning by Chief Deputy Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

Jordan, who cracked the case less than an hour after it was reported to him, sent telephone and wire messages to Wichita Falls, Dumas and other Texas points where Hector was believed to have gone after leaving Pampa. Officers first thought he would be in Wichita Falls, but he turned up at Dumas instead.

Hector is charged with theft over $50—a felony—and being idle pending bond setting and action by the Grand Jury.

Alfred Jackson, also charged with theft, was freed Friday on $3,000 bond.

Skelton Reviews Texas Oil News

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON — (AP) Oilmen are learning more and more about the interior of the earth.

A Superior Oil Company wildcat well in Wyoming has passed a depth of 19,600 feet, a world's record, and the bit still is digging. Oil well equipment manufacturers predict it will not be long before the bits are probing 25,000 feet.

The American Petroleum Institute estimates the American oil industry, since the first well was brought in at Titusville, Fla., in 1859, has drilled 1,250,000 wells with total drilling footage surpassing 2,500,000,000 feet.

Tidelands.

Oil companies hoping for early settlement of the tideland ownership controversy are receiving the encouragement from Washington.

Louisiana and Texas attorneys general last week asked the Supreme Court not to authorize the federal government to file suit seeking recognition of paramount rights to the tidelands of the two states.

Louisiana contended the federal government cannot sue a state without the state's consent.

Texas pointed to its 10-year status as a republic and to an annexation treaty in which the federal government recognized the state's ownership of its public lands.

Crude Production.

Texas oilmen next Thursday will know whether the five months old downward trend in the state's crude oil production is to continue or begin an upward climb.

The state's Railroad Commission will set the June daily production allowances at a hearing in Corpus Christi.

Production in Texas averaged 1,884,600 barrels daily for the week ending May 7 compared to 2,509,209 on Jan. 1.

Last month the commission indicated reduced foreign crude imports and implied domestic stocks might justify an increase in production in June.

Domestic production for the week ending May 7 averaged 4,596,750 barrels daily, a decline of 25,200 from the previous week. A year ago production averaged 5,412,750 barrels daily.

Parking meters were first installed in American cities in 1935, when six municipalities put them in.

WHEN YOU SHOULD STOP ADVERTISING

Just a few suggestions to the man who feels his business and his name are so well-known he needs no sales help!

WHEN --- man becomes a creature of habit so thoroly he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year . . .

WHEN --- younger fresher and spunkier concerns in your line cease starting up and taking "your customers" away thru advertising . . .

WHEN --- population ceases to increase and no new folks want to live and work in your town . . .

WHEN --- you have thoroly convinced everyone who ever has or ever will be in your store that they will now and forever get better buys from you . . .

WHEN --- business principles reverse themselves and the non-advertiser does more business than the successful advertising merchant . . .

WHEN --- men stop making tremendous strides in business thru well-planned newspaper advertising . . .

WHEN --- you can forget the words of wise merchants the world over who attribute their success to wise use of newspaper advertising . . .

WHEN --- you would rather have your own way, even if you fail, than follow advice of making money . . .

WHEN --- you want to be rid of the troubles of waiting on customers and are tired of making money . . .

Learning to Stand on His Own Feet

ONE of the most commendable traits of a typical American youth is his keen desire to "stand on his own two feet" while still in his teens.

Your newspaperboy is an excellent example of this youthful ambition to earn his own money, pay his own way, and save for his own college education or specialized training. He is doing all this—and much more—by devoting a part of his spare time each day to serving a newspaper route.

Here, he is not merely building a profitable little business of his own, he is gaining first-hand experience with business methods, filling his eager mind with practical knowledge, developing worthwhile talents, becoming more aggressive and self-reliant—more likely to achieve above-average success in the years ahead.

A Good Start for YOUR Son

Machines Will Count Noses In 17th Census Next Year

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON (NEA) — They've cooked up a real push-button nose count for the big decennial census next year.

When Congress ordered the first one in 1790 and then decreed that it should be made every 10 years thereafter, nobody dreamed it would come to this. In 1950, it'll all be done with electrical brains, airplanes, card machines, automatic counters, calculators with memories and magnetic error catchers. And the farmers are going to count them.

Airplanes are already in on the show. They're being used to photograph every city in the U. S., plus a big share of the grmland. As many as possible of the census takers will be handed serial photographs of their territory. This is to prevent mooching in a fellow taker's airplane and to insure that none of the small post-war homes or farm houses off the road, are missed in the count.

They will also be given a brand new detailed map of their district. This has the bureau up to 25 years in map-making. New roads, new local boundaries, changed courses of rivers and new cities have to be shown so there will be a minimum chance of overlapping counts or of skipping anybody.

Preparing the maps and photographs is the biggest and costliest pre-census job. Next to that is the task of hiring and training 150,000 enumerators. The number of districts into which the country will be divided. Even part of the training will be push-outon. Special films are being prepared by Census Bureau to speed that job.

The census of cities of over 2500 population will start April 1, 1950 and is supposed to take only two weeks. The farm head-count will start the same day but a month is being allotted for it. It will be bureau policy to hire as many school teachers as possible.

There will be no fixed rate of pay for the enumerators. Different scales will be used in various parts of the country. The average census taker will make about $10 a day, and it is hoped the unit cost can be kept down to about 10 cents per person counted. The whole job is expected to cost about $70,000,000.

A half-dozen test censuses trying out new wrinkles have been run in various counties around the U. S. recently. One of the best of these trials have produced is the self-enumeration by farmers. Instead of the census taker catching the farmer in the field some afternoon and getting his information on the spot, a form is first mailed to the farmer. He is given a few days to fill it out and then the enumerator calls for the form.

If it's all filled out when he calls it saves a lot of time. If it isn't, no time has been lost. It has been found that this method gives the farmer's wives a chance to help answer the questions and they probably know more about the egg and butter sales and such things than the farmer himself does.

Census Bureau officials will divide the nation into 14 regions with between 80 and 900 field offices for administration purposes. A capacity of 90 mail cars will be needed to move the paper and supplies to these offices. The completed forms will be returned to Washington by registered mail in an estimated 60,000 boxes.

Then the button is pushed and electricity begins its work. Approximately 1500 electric key punch machines will go into action with each operator turning out 1000 cards a day. The cards next go to sorters, which put them in proper piles at the rate of 450 a minute.

After that there's a counter for tabulating, which can handle 60 different classifications of information at one time. This machine has a running speed of 400 cards per minute and at the same time reads the cards for any inconsistencies, rejecting those incorrectly punched. Still another machine combines card sorting and tabulation at the same time so that as soon as one tabulation is finished the cards are already sorted for the next operation.

In spite of all the machines, the job of getting final results takes two years. The machines will make approximately 14 billion card passes. A card pass means running a card through a machine once.

The final step is to put all the statistical tables in the hands of editors, who arrange them in proper relation for publication. The 1940 census took up 40 volumes with a total of 37,000 pages. There's no telling how many pages it will take to print the results of the 1950 census.
