WASHINGTON (AP)—A hot battle shaped up between two Northern senators today over which civil rights bill Congress should consider first at its new session in January. A Dixie lawmaker offered this solution: Republican Floor Leader Wherry of Nebraska sharply disputed the decision of Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois to bring a Fair Employment Practices Bill before the Senate first for a civil rights showdown.

Wherry told a news conference yesterday that an anti-lynching bill should be called up immediately after Congress reconvenes Tuesday.

Lucas has administration backing for his belief that the showdown should come on a bill to ban job discrimination because of race, creed or color.

Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) told a reporter that no matter what civil rights bill is brought before the Senate, there will be "ruffled tempers" which will "endanger useful legislation."

Either the FEPC or anti-lynching measure is sure to produce a Southern filibuster—and probably a test of the debate-gagging rule which Wherry sponsored and the Senate approved last spring.

Under the rule, debate can be cut off only if two-thirds of the Senate membership of 64 so order it.

Top Domestic Issue Is Red Ink Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—Returning lawmakers chalked up red ink spending at the top domestic issue in the new session of Congress opening next week.

Democrats joined Republicans in deploring a state of financial affairs in which the government will have to go on borrowing from the people because its outgo is bigger than its income from taxes.

At that point, members of the two major parties parted violently in their comments.

Over many Democratic protests, Republicans put the finger on the Truman administration's "austerity deal" program as the cause of the treasury's present financial woes.

Senator Taft of Ohio, who heads the Senate GOP Policy Committee, said even worse troubles are ahead if the Democrats can push the Brannan farm subsidy payment through Congress.

He estimated that subsidies under such a plan would run to $6,000,000,000 yearly.

Senators, including Senate Majority Leader Lucas of Illinois, defended red ink spending as a necessary measure to insure world peace.

Lucas, announcing he is running for reelection, told an audience in Havana, Ill., "I hate deficit financing. I hate it."

Lucas Urges Change in Cotton Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Lucas (D-Texas) has urged prompt action by Congress on changes in the cotton acreage quota law.

Lucas yesterday described the situation as "so serious with many farmers that they face financial ruin" unless Congress moves to change the program before planting time.

"Something must be done at once to remove injustices of the present program," he told a reporter.

"I was aghast to learn of the kind of allotments received by scores of farmers throughout every county in my district."

"They were given no credit for lands they had planted to peanuts in line with the government's program to produce more edible oils. Yet they had been promised they would get credit for war crops when quotas were fixed for a cotton crop control program."

Texas' share of the national cotton acreage was based on 96 percent of the land actually planted in cotton in 1948. The law provides that allocation to counties must be based on the same method used in assigning an individual state's share of the total.

Lucas said there are hundreds of farmers throughout central and western Texas counties who planted heavily in peanuts and grain sorghums during the past four or five years.

He said their plight is identical with that of growers in Texas Gulf coastal bend counties where much land formerly devoted to cotton had been planted in grain sorghums and flax in recent years.

Ten growers from the coastal bend section have filed a suit against Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan, seeking credit for the war crops in computing cotton acreage quotas. The trial date has been set for Jan. 23.

'Man of Half-Century' Honor Given Churchill

NEW YORK (AP)—Winston Churchill—Time Magazine editor—was named "man of the half-century."

The portrait of the wartime British prime minister by American artist Ernest Hamlin is on the cover of the Jan. 2 Time which contains a 16-page supplement "The Half-Century."

"The man's history," Time says, "can sum up the dreadful wonderful years 1900-50. Churchill's story comes closest."

Relief Official Is Released by Reds

VIENNA (AP)—Israel G. Jacobson, American Jewish relief official expelled from Hungary on spy charges, was released by Soviet troops today and returned to the American sector of Vienna.

Jacobson has arrived at the Bristol Hotel, which is used by the American Army here. He had been held by the Russians at the Austro-Hungarian border after his expulsion by Hungary.

Brig. Gen. James Fry, deputy U. S. high commissioner, was assigned to make arrangements for Jacobson's release, probably dealing with his Russian counterpart, Col. Gen. Alexei Zhelkov. They were to select a site somewhere in the Russian Occupation Zone where the release would take place.

Jacobson was taken into custody by Soviet border guards last night shortly after he was freed from a Hungarian jail and expelled from the country yesterday. He had been held for 12 days.

When he reached the border, a Soviet patrol told him his papers were not in order. U. S. officials in Vienna promptly asked the Russians to release Jacobson to American custody.

Russian troops held Jacobson as he crossed from Hungary into their occupation zone at the Austrian frontier town of Nickelsdorf. Informants in Hungary said Jacobson lacked the necessary travel permit for going through the Russian zone.

The 37-year-old Jacobson, director in Hungary of the American Joint Distribution Committee, had been held incommunicado in a Hungarian jail since Dec. 15 on what Hungarian officials then called "suspicion of espionage against the Hungarian state."

He was released without previous announcement late yesterday and escorted to the border. A communique from the Hungarian minister of interior said Jacobson had been expelled because he "committed deeds violating the interests of the state and abusing the rights of foreigners here."

Officials in Vienna first learned that Russian troops were holding Jacobson when Austrian border police said he was being held incommunicado there and his car was parked inside the Austrian border just 40 miles from Vienna.

The release of Jacobson by the Hungarians offered little hope that they would set free another American and a Briton they are holding on charges of espionage.

The other American, Robert A. Vogeler, a vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, has been held in jail since Nov. 18.

Vogeler was arrested Nov. 18 with his British co-worker Edgar Sanders. The government has said the two have confessed to "espionage and sabotage."

Prisoner of war, Betty Lou Marbury's right hand—the one she hoped prayer would save—was amputated today.

A Baptist hospital nurse announced the hand was amputated between the wrist and elbow. Just before entering the hospital room, Betty's spirits were still high.

"The Lord wants my hand, that's all right with me," she said. Doctors decided only an amputation could save the life of the 10-year-old farm girl, whose plea for prayer stirred hearts across the nation.

She was suffering from a malignant bone tumor on the third finger of her right hand. The amputation was designed to keep the malignant from spreading through the bloodstream.

Her father, Clay Marbury, broke the news to her gently yesterday soon after she was admitted to Baptist Hospital. He told her she might die if the hand was not removed.

"She wasn't a child when she heard that," he said. "She was a grown-up woman."

Betty's doctor announced the decision last night to the Memphis Commercial Appeal, which copyrighted the story.

It was in the newspaper that the pretty fifth grader wrote for prayer.

Preacher Is Shot to Death

CALVERT (AP)—The Rev. J. E. Deekard, a Negro preacher from Martin, was killed last night when another Negro attempted to rob him as he sat in his car in a roadside park near here.

J. L. Crocker, city constable and nightwatchman, said the Negro took Deekard's car after the shooting and escaped. Road blocks were put up last night in this area.

Crocker said Dottie Johnson, a Negro woman from Hearne, was with Deekard. She told him the robber came up to them and demanded money. When she offered him her money, she said, he replied: "That little bit won't do any good."

Deekard attempted to grab the robber's gun. When he did, the robber shot. Crocker said Deekard was shot four times. The woman ran from the scene and caught a ride into Calvert to get to the constable.

Green 'Lived in World of Own'

DALLAS (AP)—They buried Lois Green yesterday and reformed convict turned minister said of the slain Dallas underdog figure:

"He lived in a world of his own and was loved and respected in it."

Green, 31, was killed early Saturday morning. He was killed as he feared—from ambush. He died a few steps from the pool club he had just left—in a pool of blood, surrounded by the curious that included Christmas celebrants and showgirls.

Sheriff Bill Decker would make no announcement today of progress in finding the man or men who riddled Green with a shotgun.

Green—real name Hollis DeLois Green—was under three indictments at the time he was slain. One was for the $30,000 jewel robbery of oilman Freeman Burford's servant Dallas home.

The Rev. Alfred Palmer, a reformed ex-convict, read the simple funeral service.

'Queen Jean' Crowned 'Queen of Pampa'

"Queen Jean" was crowned "Queen of Pampa" at 9 p. m. yesterday at the LaVista Theater after she was chosen as one of the 500 finalists in the Queen of America contest, which is being sponsored by the Queen for a Day program on the Mutual Broadcasting Company.

Mrs. K. E. Thornton, the Queen, was presented a complete winter wardrobe from Pampa merchants and in the near future will receive gifts from Mutual.

She appeared over radio station KPND yesterday following the Queen for a Day broadcast and was told of her local winnings.

Clayton Floral Company presented Mrs. Thornton with red roses courage yesterday which she wore during the coronation last night. Parker's Blouse Shop constructed the Queen's crown, and Clarence Qualls Studio made pictures of the coronation.

An evening's entertainment will be provided Friday when Mr. and Mrs. Cap Jolly fly the Queen and her husband to Old Tascosa in the Herring Hotel in Amarillo.

Five Queens will be selected from the 500 finalists in the Queen of America contest. They will receive an expense-paid trip to Hollywood where they will participate on the Queen for a Day program.

Startling Discovery of Fungi in All Types of Cancer Reported

NEW YORK (AP)—Discovery of fungi, tiny invisible plants, growing in cancers was announced to the American Association for the Advancement of Science today.

The discovery is one of the most startling of the century. The cancer fungi are the same that grow all around us, in soil, food, plants and trees.

They have been found in every cancer tested. The tests embraced 20 human cancers, including four different kinds, and 100 mice cancers.

The fungi never have been found in any healthy tissue, with one exception. They show in breasts of those species of female mice which are susceptible to breast cancer.

The discovery was reported by Dr. Irene Corey Diller of the Institute for Cancer Research, Philadelphia. She is one of the major research contributors to the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Diller showed enlarged pictures of the fungi. One is a black fungus, common in soil and milk products, named ateniaria. Another is grey, common in the tropics, known as syncephalastrum racemosum. Dr. Diller said that how this tropical form got into Philadelphia cancers is a mystery.

There are also some common yeast fungi not yet identified. Dr. Diller cautioned against accepting results so far as proof that fungi cause cancer.

"A great deal more work must be done," she said. "A single research group could spend years exhausting the implications of these findings. To millions of Americans, cancer research is a matter of tragic urgency."

One queer fact has developed. The tropical fungus, when taken from cancers and injected into cancer-susceptible strains of mice, kills the animals in a few days. It doesn't cause cancer when so injected, but poisons the mice.

After the same fungus has been cultivated outside the bodies of animals for some generations it gradually loses its power to cause death.

In mouse leukemia, which is like the blood cancer of humans, all the body organs except the heart contained a yeast-like fungus.

Dr. Diller reported that just as the heart contained a yeast-like fungus, it also contained a yeast-like fungus.

NEW BABY PRINCESS IS BORN TO ALY KHANS

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—A baby princess was born today to Rita Hayworth, the glamorous red-headed movie star who married Moslem Prince Aly Khan last spring.

The baby, weighing about five and a half pounds, was born about eight hours after Rita made a pre-dawn dash to exclusive Montchoisi Clinic.

The new princess' name will be Yasmin, the Arabic spelling for the fragrant jasmine flower used in Southern France for making perfume.

Prince Aly, unshaven, haggard but smiling made the announcement to newsmen outside the clinic doors.

"Rita had a very tough time," he said but added with a smile: "It has gone off all right. She is very tired."

The princess said the birth was a natural one, delivered under gas.

Rita's first daughter by a previous marriage was delivered in 1944 by Caesarian section.

Princess Yasmin, with the mixture of four bloods in her veins—Spanish-American from her mother and Iranian-Italian from her father—is the granddaughter of Aga Khan, spiritual leader of millions of Moslems of the Islamic sect and recently one of the world's richest men.

The prince said his 31-year-old wife had seen the child a few minutes after regaining consciousness.

"She seemed awfully pleased," Aly said. "I myself think she is a very good looking girl, but being her father I can't really say so myself."

Aly joked a little with the newsmen. He referred to his complicated appearance and said: "I suppose I look as though I have gone through it all myself. With this beard they are going to take me for the wild man of Borneo."

Final arrangements for the arrival of the little princess were executed in such a deep Hollywood secrecy by Aly that he even crossed up police who planned to escort Rita to the hospital.

The 31-year-old film star's labor pains began after midnight and she and Aly quietly left their suite at the Palace Hotel at 3:10 a.m. (8:10 p.m. CST Tuesday). He had made elaborate arrangements to have two police cars to escort Rita on a speedy one-mile run to the hospital.

But when the time came Aly, son of the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan who is the spiritual leader of millions of Moslems, drove Rita himself unescorted. Hotel doors were locked to keep anyone from following.

After reaching the hospital, Aly called the police station and gave a pre-arranged code signal, his spokesman said later. The code was the name of a French nursery rhyme—"Mariborough Goes to War."

The call was made on a private telephone Aly rigged up for the occasion and police were sped to the hotel according to plan. (See NEW BABY, Page 10)

5 Governors Will Discuss Strike Threat

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith said today there is a good possibility a conference of governors tomorrow can settle a threatened Southwestern Bell Telephone Company strike.

"It depends on how far apart they are," he told his news conference.

"Both sides have assured me they are very anxious to get the thing settled and would lean over backward to do it."

"I think there is a good possibility we might be able to arbitrate the dispute tomorrow." If no immediate settlement can be reached, Smith said the governors of the six affected states would try to set up a method of arbitration. A similar government conference did that successfully in the Missouri Pacific strike a few weeks ago.

Smith reported four of the governors promised to attend the conference and the fifth would send a representative. The four scheduled to join him in St. Louis tomorrow are:

Govs. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, Sid McMath of Arkansas, Roy J. Turner of Oklahoma, and Frank Carlson of Kansas. The fifth, Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, has promised to send a state official to represent him.

He said he started to pass a car near a bridge about six miles from Henrietta. In some way the car went out of control on the bridge, and "that was the last" he knew.

The car plunged engine first into a ravine several feet deep, and it is not known how long the injured occupants lay there before they were rescued and taken to a Henrietta hospital.

It believed the accident occurred about 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Cecil Blevins, the father, is reported to have serious head injuries and is not expected to live.

Mrs. Blevins is also seriously hurt and is getting blood transfusions, but she is expected to recover.

Charles, who was driving the car, has a broken arm; Eugene, 9, has a broken jaw and internal injuries; Roy, 3, has a broken hip; Wanda Sue, 18, is reported not seriously hurt; a one-year old infant escaped injury; and no report has been received on the condition of another daughter, Douglas, 5.

Douglas, 13, stayed with relatives in Wheeler over the holidays.

Mrs. Janey Cain of Wheeler, a sister of Mrs. Blevins, has gone to Henrietta to be with the injured family. She said the body of Zula Mae would be brought to Kellon for burial, but funeral arrangements are pending.

Minimum overnight temperatures ranged from 20 at Wink and Dalhart to 61 at Brownsville. Other low readings included 22 at Lubbock and Midland, 25 at Amarillo, Big Spring and Clarendon, 26 at San Angelo and 28 at Pampa.

Miss America Weds Boy Of High School Romance

LITCHFIELD PARK, Ariz. (AP)—A high school romance has blossomed into marriage for Miss America of 1949.

Jacques Mercer, the national beauty queen, exchanged vows with Douglas Cook at the non-denominational Community Church here yesterday afternoon.

They have gone steady for five years.

The marriage was a surprise affair. Only last Friday the couple had announced their engagement and set the date at the altar for next July 4.

The new Mrs. Cook is a resident of Litchfield Park. She will be 19 next month. Cook, 20, lives in Phoenix, but has been studying art at the University of Chicago.

They left on a two or three day honeymoon last night, traveling in the 1949 car given Jacques as part of her gifts for winning the Miss America title. Their destination was not disclosed.

Forestry Bill Hearing Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Dworkin (R-Ia.) today said he will try to get a hearing for the wool producers on the so-called "omnibus" forestry bill.

Wool producers are interested because many sheep are grazed on national forest lands.

The measure is designed to bring forestry legislation up to date and to provide basic legislation for some practices which have heretofore been permitted only through authority implied in appropriation bills.

Dworkin told a reporter the National Wool Growers' Association and several state producer groups including the Idaho Wool Growers Association, object to several features of the bill.

It has passed the House and has been approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee without change.

Senator Dworkin said the wool growers claim the bill makes "radical changes" in administration of the forests and that it has "many bad provisions."

This week I am giving you a series of six hands that I picked up recently at the Mayfair Bridge Club, in New York, which is operated by Mrs. Phyllis Schellenberg and Harry J. Fishbein.

You can move from table to table and it does not take long before you run across an interesting hand, because here you will find players from all walks of life. They range from beginner to the best.

In commenting on today's hand I asked Fishbein why it was that so many rubber bridge players have what is called "no trump-fish." He went on to explain that a player must not get it into his head that he has to play all the hands. If he does not want to accept his partner as a real partner he should not cut into the game.

Today's hand is cold for four spades, but the defense put up by East and West won a round of applause. The opening lead of the king of hearts was won by declarer with the ace. The queen of spades was led which West won with the ace. East played the deuce. West cashed the queen and jack of hearts.

Now everyone thought he would cash the good nine of hearts, but he did not. He stopped to think. The declarer had made an opening bid of one no trump. He had to have the queen of diamonds and certainly the ace and king of clubs. He also must have the blank king of spades, otherwise declarer would have played the hand at spades.

West now saw a chance to beat the contract, so he laid down his king of diamonds in order to kill that entry in dummy and it worked.

You can see that if West had cashed the nine of hearts, declarer would have discarded his king of spades. The ace of diamonds would now be an entry card to cash the long spade suit.

WANTS WIFE TO REMEMBER
Dear Grace Friend:
My wife worries about her parents so much that she has hardly any time for me or our home.

If they even sign she is over to see what she can do to help. If we plan a trip of any length she insists that they go with us. Even if I want to take her to a nice place for dinner to celebrate a special anniversary she insists on bringing along her parents.

We have them up for dinner or we are over there two or three times a week.

It isn't that I don't like them. I do. I enjoy her mother and it is a pleasure to spend an occasional evening discussing world affairs with her father who is well informed. It's just that I don't like it all the time. Sometimes I want to be with my wife and no one else. Other times I would like to spend an evening with couples of our own age.

Is this asking too much?
Am I selfish? Is there something wrong with my attitude?
I feel that hers is wrong. What do you think?

Neglected
Dear Neglected:
Of course you are right in wanting some time with your wife and she is lucky that you want to be with her.

It is extremely hard for some young women to cut the ties of their first home for their second one with their husband. It is especially difficult if a bride has never been away from her home or if she has spent a great deal of time with her parents as is the case with an only child.

A girl, when she marries, should realize that "she is forsaking all others" and that her duty is to her new home and husband.

Have you tried to talk the situation over with her?
Perhaps she doesn't realize that she is not giving you the time and attention which is your right.

Tell her how you feel and suggest having dinner with her family once a week. She should be flattered that you would choose to plan trips just for the two of you.

If you wish talk it over with her parents. They probably are worried around, especially if you were around, especially if you follow the examples of these two, who don't believe in too much domestic fun. Their amusing antics are fun to embroider in simple stitches and colorful floss.

BEST DRESSED

MRS. PALEY

NEW YORK — (AP) — The 1949 list of the world's 10 best-dressed women was out today, and it reads a lot like last year's list.

Only two newcomers are on the roster of fine fashion. They are Broadway stage star Mary Martin and Mrs. Kingman Douglas, the former Adele Astaire, of Middleburg, Va.

Heading the list for the second consecutive year is Mrs. William Paley slender, brunette wife of the head of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Rumors, as announced by the New York Dress Institute, are: today, are:

1. Mrs. William Paley, New York.
2. The Duchess of Windsor, of New York and Paris.
3. Mrs. Harrison Williams, New York.
4. The Duchess of Kent, London.
5. Mrs. Leland Hayward, the former Mrs. Howard Hawks, of Hollywood.

Mrs. L. Z. Rhodes Hosts Party for Skellytown Club

Mrs. L. Z. Rhodes hosted a Christmas party for members of the Skellytown Home Demonstration Club.

The table was covered with a hand crocheted tablecloth and centered with a large red candle surrounded by greenery. A tree and other holiday trimmings decorated the room. Among decorations were Christmas cards received by members of the family.

During the business session the new president, Mrs. Pinky Boyd, was introduced by the outgoing president, Mrs. L. Z. Rhodes, and plans for new projects were discussed.

Secret pals were revealed and gifts presented. Gifts were also exchanged by members. The club members presented Mrs. Rhodes with linen napkins which they had made.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. E. E. Crawford, Ted Hoff, W. W. Jones, C. Clark, J. T. Crawford, W. H. Harris, Bill Adams, C. C. Coleman, Willis Aulbert, L. Z. Rhodes, and Pinky Boyd.

Big Reception Planned for Tar Heels' Arrival in Dallas

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS — (AP) — North Carolina's Tar Heels come to town today to give Dallas Cotton Bowl fever.

Coach Carl Snavely and 53 footballers fly in this afternoon in time for a workout. They'll be told immediately that they're going to be underdogs in next Monday's Cotton Bowl battle with Rice, but that's nothing new. The Tar Heels are accustomed to taking beatings in bowl games — they've tried two in the last four years and lost both.

Meanwhile, Rice will be at it hot and heavy in practice at Houston. The Owls don't come to Dallas until Sunday, making a leisurely train trip.

There'll be quite a reception at the airport this afternoon when North Carolina's squad arrives at 2:30 o'clock (CST). Three Bell, president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, will be master of ceremonies. Jim Hudson, representing the Dallas chapter of North Carolina Alumni, will give the welcome speech for North Carolina with Mayor Wallace Savage responding for Dallas and Dan D. Rogers, chairman of the Cotton Bowl Board, speaking for the Cotton Bowl.

Neely Expects All Forms of Offense From Tar Heels

HOUSTON — (AP) — Rice Coach Jess Neely is not paying much attention to talk that North Carolina's Tar Heels stick with the single wing formation.

Preparation for Rice's Cotton Bowl Game against North Carolina has found Neely experimenting with a variety of defensive patterns.

He figures he'll probably need a variety.

Close studies of North Carolina game pictures and various other information on the Tar Heels have convinced Neely of one thing:

"North Carolina uses a lot of spread variations with flankers all over the field and that's not the single wing."

Neely has reason to fear spread formations.

Texas Christian scattered men all over and gave Rice one of the two big scares of its undefeated Southwest Conference season. Two TCU touchdowns were erased by penalties as Rice won, 20-14.

The first scare had been erased

Doaker Was Stooze for Bobby Lane

DALLAS — (AP) — Doak Walker, the most fabulous name in Southwestern football, was known to his high school grid mates seven years ago as "Silent Pete."

Walker, who became the only three-time All-American in Southwest Conference history while at Southern Methodist, acquired the nickname because he never was much of a talker, according to Walker's own story of his life, a copyrighted feature appearing in the Dallas Times Herald.

The Doaker, known today as "Golden Boy," "The Dazzler" and other monickers that illustrate his great football ability, could still go under the name of "Silent Pete."

While Walker acquired great football finesse with the years he never did develop into a strong conversationalist.

Walker entered high school in 1911 at Highland Park in Dallas. He was on the B team that year and got his first football injury — a split finger. He says in his story that he improved his backfield points such as how to use blockers in running and how to set himself in motion with the least wasted time or effort.

He got to the A squad about four weeks before the season was over and reveals a little ruefully how the regulars took him over the jumps.

At football camp in 1912 he was what he termed a "stooze" for Bobby Layne, then the big name of Highland Park football. "He would make me raid the ice box at night for fruit and milk and stuff like that," Walker writes.

West Texas State holds a lopsided margin in basketball games won over Hardin-Simmons University. The two rivals have met 64 times with the Buffs emerging victorious 46 times.

Tigers Lose Defensive End

BATON ROUGE, La. — (AP) — Defensive left end Jesse Yates is lost to Louisiana State University in its Sugar Bowl football game with Oklahoma in New Orleans Jan. 2.

The North Little Rock, Ark., end suffered a complete fracture of the left collarbone yesterday during scrimmage — the last one Tinsley and planned before the big game.

"It's a blow," Tinsley said. "Losing Yates will hurt us a lot but the scrimmage was necessary."

Clay Named Sub Captain

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — (AP) — A ponderous Notre Dame tackle and a hard-running Tulane back will lead rival teams in the Blue-Gray Football Game here Saturday.

Jimmy Howard and Derral Davis were named to the all-tournament team last year. Howard will be returning to seek further honors, but Davis has gone on. Filling Davis' shoes will be another boy who will have to reckon with, and one who might be more gallemer than Derral. He is James Gallimore, the 6 foot, 3 inch senior who is looking better and better each game he plays at the center spot after moving there from forward where he performed all last year.

Yesterday the Harvesters held a lengthy three-hour workout at the Junior High School, the time devoted mainly to ball handling. Poor passing and dribbling has cost the Harvesters a considerable number of points already this season, and Coach McNeely hopes to have the boys in good shape for this tournament championship defense.

The Harvesters will return to action at home on Jan. 3, when the Phillips Blackhawks invade the Junior High gym. Then on that weekend the Green and Gold will journey to Childress to attempt to defend their tourney crown there. It is a three-day tournament, but the Harvesters aren't scheduled for action until the second day, Friday. The complete list of teams to be in that tournament is unknown as yet, but it is certain that Childress, Hollis and Wichita Falls will be represented.

Drake's Unique Out-of-Bounds Play Saves Oklahoma Precious Seconds

By BRUCE DRAKE
Oklahoma Coach

NORMAN, Okla. — (NEA) — Oklahoma uses the play shown in the accompanying diagram from out-of-bounds, with but seconds left, and when trailing or tied.

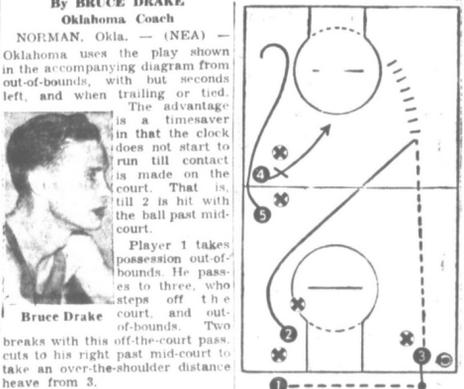

The advantage is a timesaver in that the clock does not start to run till contact is made on the court. That is, till 2 is hit with the ball past mid-court.

Player 1 takes possession out-of-bounds. He passes to three, who steps off the court, and out-of-bounds. Two breaks with this off-the-court pass, take an over-the-shoulder distance heave from 3.

Depending on the time, 2 will either shoot immediately, or dribble in for an easy lay-up.

Player 4 breaks toward the middle, delays to the screen for 5, who breaks into the opposite corner from 2.

A floor-length pass to 5 can be used as one option, or, with time permitting, 2, 5 and 4 can work

Oklahoma out-of-bounds.

Harvesters Head for Brownwood and Defense of Tournament Championship

Stop Planned At Cisco for Workout

The Pampa Harvesters left early this morning for Brownwood and the Howard Payne Invitational Basketball Tournament where they are scheduled to defend their tournament championship won last season. The first game for the Green and Gold will be tomorrow night at 9:10 when they meet Kerrville of District 14-AA.

The team will stop at Cisco today and hold a workout there to shake the stiffness out of long arms and legs. They will proceed on into Brownwood early Thursday morning to watch some of the other games before their tilt starts.

If the Harvesters win their opening game on Thursday night they will play again Friday afternoon at 4:20 meeting the winner of the Burkett-Olney game. Should they lose they will return to action 10:10 Friday morning, meeting the loser of the Burkett-Olney game.

Other teams in the upper bracket with the Harvesters include Odessa, Mineral Wells, Polytechnic of Fort Worth and Temple. In the lower bracket are Early of Brownwood, Big Spring, Port Arthur, Memphis, Throckmorton, Sweetwater, San Angelo and Brownwood.

Aggies Capture Close Game From Vandy in All-College

DALLAS — (AP) — Borger and six greater Dallas High Schools today opened third round action in the Cotton Bowl High School Invitation Basketball Tournament.

The Dallas schools advancing yesterday were Highland Park, Jesuit, Sunset, Adamson, North Dallas and Forest.

Borger defeated Corsicana, 49-23; Adamson beat Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), 45-33; North Dallas downed Waxahachie, 58-38; Highland Park whipped Naples, 62-41; Jesuit downed North Side (Fort Worth), 61-45; Sunset rolled over Hillcrest, 46-18, and Forest beat Blossom, 52-37.

In consolation play, Sherman defeated Grand Prairie, 51-27; Waco beat Frisco, 64-24; Plano edged Henrietta, 41-39; Pleasant Grove knocked off Canton, 38-18; Garland squeezed past Gower, 40-39, and Krum defeated Martins Mill, 36-32.

Borger Keeps On Winning

They would up last night's session of the all-college basketball tournament with the Aggies winning at torrid 62-41 game.

Wyoming, seeded second behind the Aggies, overpowered Texas 44-35, OCU defeated Baylor 43-32 and Arkansas stopped Alabama 41-33 in first round games yesterday.

In consolation games scheduled for this afternoon, Baylor was to meet Vanderbilt and Alabama was to play Texas.

The nation's basketball coaches, had been complaining that the two minute rule, which gives the team fouled possession of the ball after a free throw is made in the final two minutes, would put an end to thrilling finishes.

Before the tournament started, the eight coaches had a meeting. Sentiment was for changing tournament rules to eliminate the two-minute rule.

However, Vanderbilt's Coach Bob Polk pointed out it was up to the National Rule's Committee and not coaches to make the changes.

The rule prevailed, and it was Polk's team which proved you can still have an exciting finish.

Last night, the Aggies began to relax with a 60-53 lead and only two minutes left. Then Vandy's Bob Kelley made two field goals and a free shot and Gene Southwood hit a charity to pull within one point 60-59.

Vanderbilt's Sophomore ace Bob Smith took the ball and with 15 seconds left made a jump shot count to put his team ahead 61-60.

The Aggies Bob Seymour then made good a desperation jump shot in front of the basket.

East and West Squads Tapering

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — Both East and West squads have finished the rough stuff and started tapering off for the All-Star Shrine Game at Kezar Stadium here next Monday afternoon.

The West started the polishing up and tapering off process. So many passes were called that Tom Novak, center from Nebraska, finally protested to West Coach Matty Bell of Southern Methodist.

"Don't you coaches from the Southwest know any running plays?" he wanted to know. So Bell and confederates, Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian and Jeff Cravath of Southern California, ran some running plays.

It was estimated quarterback Eddie Le Baron of College of Pacific and Lindy Berry of Texas Christian have thrown more than 1,000 passes since training began.

James Dowies, sophomore from Houston, scored on his initial field goal attempt in his first three basketball appearances with the University of Texas as a winner.

Texas Western Has Big Injury Lineup

EL PASO — (AP) — Texas Western College's hopes for a Sun Bowl victory over Georgetown Jan. 2 weren't brightened by the growing casualty list.

Coach Jack Curtice yesterday said fullback Gerald Campbell and guard Morgan Broadbuss may not play in the game. Campbell was hospitalized by influenza and Broadbuss was ill at home.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Mass.—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What is the most points ever scored by one team in the Cotton Bowl?

SPORTS SIDELIGHTS: Coach Clifton McNeely showed some of his college form the other night dumping in 31 points for the J. C. Daniels independent five . . . In doing it he made many fine shots . . . One of them came late in the game with three men hanging onto him and obscuring his view of the basket . . . After the leather went through the net the usual "unconscious" "open your eyes" and other complimentary phrases emanated from the lips of the opposing team . . . "Just turn me loose and I'll shoot orthodox," Mac cooled them off with . . .

JACK GRAY, Texas cage mentor, praises Gus Miller's West Texas State Buffaloes as one of the best cage outfits he's seen this season . . . "The Buffs have everything—good men, expert ball handling, and men who can hit the ring from the outside," said Gray . . . Tom Hamilton of Texas came in 11 of 22 free throws in a game with Arizona . . . Texas Aggie cagers who saw the game unanimously voiced their sentiments with "Tom Hamilton not only is all-conference, he's all-American," after he dumped in 25 points against Arizona . . . Thus far this year Texas A&M has come closer to beating St. Louis U. than any other team the Billikens have faced. The Bills beat the Cadets 51-15, and later trimmed TCU, 80-53 . . . Jewell McDowell of the Aggies has yet to draw more than three personal fouls in a game this season . . .

AFTER OKLAHOMA A&M had given Texas A&M its worst licking (55-34) and best basketball lesson of the current season, Texas Aggie Coach Marty Karow told Cowpoke mentor Hank Iba: "You're really got to fine the club and most of our players figure you'll beat Long Island in the Garden next week. But Hank, you won't beat 'em playing as you did against us tonight, for they'll foul all of your good men out." A week later in the Florida State League and boasts 68 victories against 15 defeats . . . He has also led the circuit in batting two years . . . Charley Bodine performed against him in that league two years ago . . . Mac Speedie, the Cleveland Browns' great end, not only is near-sighted (says he can't see the ball until it is almost on top of him) but suffered an almost crippling bone disease as a youngster . . .

GAYNELL TINSLEY of Louisiana State and Bob Wilkinson of Oklahoma, rival coaches in the sugar bowl, were teammates on the 1937 All-Star football team that played the pros in Chicago . . . Other members of that great team were Bill Glassford, now head coach at Nebraska; Sammy Baugh of the Redskins; Art Guese, University of Virginia coach, and Tippy Dye, Ohio State basketball mentor . . . The success of Notre Dame's 1949 football team must have been consoling to football's little blacked men . . . The Irish backfield was the lightest since the Four Horsemen . . . A cherished old Rose Bowl custom, the singing of Auld Lang Syne by the assembled thousands, will be revived at Pasadena Jan. 2 . . . From 1937 through 1946 the tradition was as much an accoutrement to the spectacle as the pregame parade, but with the signing of the pact with the Big Ten the halftime feature was dropped to permit the bands from the two schools to perform . . . This time the bands will combine to lead the singing . . .

DICK WAKEFIELD, recently traded by the Tigers to the Yankees, completed his winter studies at the University of Michigan last weekend and immediately went to Florida to await the opening of spring training . . . First base . . .

Wilkinson Tolls Mourning Bells

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—"All year my boys have thought they were better than they are," Coach Bud Wilkinson unbundled today as his Oklahoma football team reopened practice for the Sugar Bowl. "I wish they would either stop that or get better," Wilkinson said. The words tolled the familiar tones of the mourning bell reserved for coaches' pre-game dirges, but Wilkinson was deadpan sincerity personified. Oklahoma, the nation's No. 2 team, meets Louisiana State University Monday in New Orleans.

Grover Alexander Enters Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, 62, one of the greatest pitchers in the history of baseball, is in a hospital to learn if he is suffering from cancer. Two years ago in St. Louis his right ear was cut off in an attempt to halt a cancer. Physicians believe an injury the great righthander suffered in 1908 in Indianapolis when he was struck by a pitched ball is partly responsible for his condition. Physicians say incomplete laboratory tests indicate cancer of the ear duct.

Missouri Easy Gator Choice; East Is Liked

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Sports Editor PASADENA — Who do you like in the Bowl Games, as college football fires its last shot? Only two unbeaten sides—California and Oklahoma—appear in the four major saucers, but you can testify that all are well matched, and say it again. This handicapper's off-side prediction is that: Ohio State will be a touchdown tougher than California in the Pasadena Rose Bowl, Jan. 2. Oklahoma will hit too rapidly from its split T, and in too many places, for Louisiana State in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl. The difference figures to be at least a pair of touchdowns. The Rice seniors will outstay and outlast North Carolina—Cloop

South Bend, Ind. — (AP) — The lightest lineman on the entire Notre Dame starting eleven played the third highest amount of game time during the 1949 football season. Only co-captains Leon Hart and Jim Martin played more than Bob Lilly, right guard from Cleveland. Lilly, a mere 185 pounds, played 279 minutes out of a possible 600, while Martin (204 pounds) and Hart (254 pounds) finished first and second with 405 and 392 minutes respectively. Playing a scrappy defensive game, Lilly alternated with Fred Walker at the starting offensive guard position too. His crashing block in the North Carolina game broke Mike Swistowicz loose on his 85 yard pass interception run for a touchdown. And he should have been given an assist on Gerry Groom's pass interception which broke up Southern Methodist's last minute attempt to tie up that ball game.

Where are those post-war Hank Luisettis the golden slope was going to produce in wholesale lots?

The Pacific Coast Conference, once the best and most respected in the business, first hit Skid Row in football, and in that department isn't back on its pins solidly yet.

The circuit lost further athletic prestige when New York fans walked out on California and Southern California. The Golden Bears gave NYU, which had dropped four straight, nothing in the way of a contest after the first quarter. The Trojans, supposedly the conference power, fared no better against LIU.

California had nothing in the way of a defense. It was pointed out, and its attack consisted entirely of a fast, rangy youngster named Bill Hagler, but he got very little in the way of help from his mates. NYU, stressing long-range shooting too much in the early going, discovered that it could walk into the basket almost at will. It has long been suspected that there is nothing wrong with coast football that superior coaching wouldn't cure. Pappy Waldorf so quickly putting the breath of life back in California demonstrated that. Red Sanders seconded the motion at UCLA.

New York Fans Walk Out On California Basketball

NEW YORK —(NEA)—Is Pacific Coast Conference basketball really as bad as it has appeared at Madison Square Garden in recent nights? Take a look at these lopsided pastings:

Long Island 70, Southern California 45. New York University 69, California 50. St. John's 67, Washington State 44.

Only the defending league champion, Oregon State managed to trip the eastern opposition, and that was a shabby 49-45 triumph over an admittedly so-so NYU varsity, in which the Beavers had to come from behind.

What's happened to the kids all the way from the towering redwoods to the tall fir?

The visiting firemen plead that it's too early in the season. "We're still experimenting, smoothing the offense," explains Friel. "It's too bad the east has to judge us from what they see of four early-season sloppy performances."

Well, I wonder what these coaches suspect eastern teams are doing at this stage? You'd think they'd been at it since July 4. LIU, which made a trip to Puerto Rico, as a matter of fact, was the only one to jump the gun.

Maybe Pacific Coast Conference teams had better take their cue from the Big 10, and stay at home during the holidays. At least the home folks know what to expect.

Deer shed their horns every year.

Southwest Conference teams—the ones not playing in the all-conference tournament at Oklahoma City—broke even against intersectional basketball foes last night. Texas Christian University tumbled previously undefeated Wichita University, 54-42, as Gene Schmidt scored 12 points. Arizona won its 35th straight game on its home court by beating Texas A&M, 59-46. Bill Turnbow led Aggie scorers with 12 points. Wichita meets Rice tonight.

Device Reflects Errors in Bowling

CHICAGO —(NEA)—Buddy Clemenson reports great success teaching bowling by a novel method he has devised. Instead of doing his instructing on an alley, Clemenson, a league bowler, uses a contraption of his own invention. It has a regulation runway, but the "alley" is nothing more than a padded frame 10 feet long with a large mirror on the pin end.

The bowler gets a full-length picture of himself as he bowls. When he doesn't place the ball on the padded "alley," but drops it on the wood runway, the sound calls attention to his mistake. Because of the shortness of the "alley," the bowler gets many more tosses during an instruction period than he would if he were using a regulation alley. There are no pins to distract from the lesson, which may be timing, proper swinging, follow through, footwork or finish.

Bowlers have improved their average as many as 20 pins after going through the course.

Bagdon and Don Mason, Dartmouth's Herb Carey, Pittsburgh's Bernie Barkouskie and some more on front. Army and Notre Dame ever get together here, and Arnold Galiffa and the 265-pound Hart should be quite a passing combination, too. Other vicious ground-gainers with Andy Kerr's forces include Notre Dame's Frank Spaniel and Michigan State's Lynn Chandross.

Then there are, in alphabetical order, the Gold Dust, Oleander, Orange Blossom, Paper, Prairie View, Raisin, Refrigerator, Salad, Shrine, Potato, Spindletop, Sun, Sunshine and Tangerine Bowl, but why string the thing out?

The ever-expanding Bowl business bows you over.

Do you tilt your glass and gently let the beer run out of the can or bottle down the side of the glass? No need to do that with Budweiser! There's no pumped-in CO<sub>2</sub> gas in Budweiser. Budweiser, being one of America's very few true lager beers, contains natural carbonation. Tip your bottle of cold Budweiser up smartly to an angle of about 45 degrees. Let the golden liquid tumble into the glass until one-third full. Let the snowy foam rise to the brim. Now you've done two things. You've let the natural carbonation release the superb taste esters in Budweiser—and you've poured yourself the greatest treat that a thirst for fine beer can ask. Fair Enough - Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1949) NEW YORK — Whether fully or through honest ignorance of the facts, Vice Admiral Roscoe T. McIntire, who was Franklin D. Roosevelt's doctor, in his "real story of the man and the people about him" fails to mention the presence of Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford in the room...

As to Admiral McIntire's description of his patient, Mrs. Shoumatoff, not a doctor but nevertheless a woman of sensitive observation, offers her opinion that when she first saw him in Warm Springs "he looked absolutely ghastly." She was comparing him with the man she had last seen in 1943.

"That morning the day he was stricken" he had exceptionally good color," Mrs. Shoumatoff said. "He had rather flushed skin. It was later explained to me that the cerebral hemorrhage was approaching. I don't know why but I had no desire to paint. I asked him to postpone the sitting: He said 'No, no, no.' I had a feeling that he was pathetic. I saw that he was so sick. Couldn't we postpone it?"

Mrs. Shoumatoff said Roosevelt really was in "high spirits," as indicated by his decision to go on with the sitting but that he was obviously very sick. Mrs. Shoumatoff has asked me to say that it was not she but her daughter, Mrs. Edward Win Ward, who exclaimed in our recent interview, "I was actually a Roosevelt-hater."

By E. C. HOLES Are Labor Unions Good or Bad? E. Stanley Jones and the Ministerial Alliance of Colorado Springs, Colorado try to side-track our charge that E. Stanley Jones and the Ministerial Alliance are advocating a form of statism by trying to show that I am so badly confused that I cannot oppose labor unions.

I have very definitely gone on record as to what kind of labor unions I was asked in a recent survey by the Gallup poll. "Are you in favor of labor unions?" I had in a recent survey by the Gallup poll.

Unless the politically astute secretary of labor, who would like the vice presidential nomination in 1952, backs down before Jan. 1, California employers will be out of pocket to the extent of $130 million a year.

Moreover, a all unemployment benefits of any kind to the jobless in that state would be halted by the state's constitution. The estimated loss to the state of Washington would be about $25 million annually.

LOSS — Hearings on the two states' "Bitterness" with the federal government have been concluded, and Mr. Tobin's lawyer, Gordon Wagenette, showed a distinct bias against the local authorities.

OPPOSITION — They regard it as a forerunner of the manner in which the Department of Labor would administer unemployment benefit provisions if it gets legislative control through a new legislation already demanded by Truman.

BACKGROUND — Mr. Wagenette's interesting, and especially so, as it matches that of a former disgruntled state official now helping to administer federal laws and authority.

STRIKE — The current controversies arose as a result of Harry Bridges' damaging longshoremen's strike of 1948. When Bridges' men on the docks refused to unload the vessels, maritime workers such as engineers, cooks and stewards were called in.

SUCCESS SECRETS — W. Paul Jones, President of Servel, Inc., of Evansville, Indiana, has a double-barreled success secret. First, work for the satisfaction to be found in "a sense of accomplishment."

news behind the news By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — Secretary Maurice J. Tobin's demand for a wholly federal controlled system of unemployment insurance stands in a bitter conflict between the Department of Labor and the states of California and Washington over interpretation of state laws governing this problem.

At the Washington hearings, which were concluded on Dec. 20, Mr. Wagenette challenged these interpretations. He insisted that the striking maritime workers and those who refused to violate the picket lines were entitled to unemployment compensation. He held that the California and Washington laws and precedents did not apply.

APPEAL — If the examiner agrees with Mr. Wagenette, and if Mr. Tobin follows suit, California and Washington will be held as not complying with the federal statutes. Therefore, they will lose all federal benefits as of Jan. 1.

She Does The Pickin

By GORDON MARTIN When society reports write accounts of social news, they will manufacture quite a lot of special terms to use. They refer in glowing phrases to the lovely bride-to-be, who, when being entertained, they often call the honoree. But another term in common use is strictly incorrect, and the social writers shouldn't call the girl a bride-elect.

Now you'll gather from the wording that there's been a big campaign, and that lots of girls were running for the right to wed a swain. And you get the implication that the ladies stood in line, while the bridegroom looked 'em over 'fore he said "Will you be mine?" Then presumably he cast his vote for Joan or Jill or Ruth, but the fact remains that nothing could be farther from the truth.

The Nation's Press

While the imprisonment of Congressman Andrew J. May deprives him of his pension, when the congress of which May was a voting member enacted the law that pensioned retired congressmen it enacted a law that is foolproof. No matter how a congressman is retired—not even if he is retired by a jury verdict—his pension runs on without let or hindrance.

Of course May will not draw a pension just because he is a convict. Not at all. Generous as our lawmakers have been in the matter of voting pensions for divers classes they have never enacted any law to pension convicts as such. May is pensioned because he is a former congressman and he draws his pension in spite of what he did while he was a congressman. And millions of law-abiding citizens who never saw the inside of a prison will pay $250 a month to a former public servant who violated the laws of his country while that country was fighting for its life.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Up until lately not much could be done to prevent pain, but a salider was injured on the battlefield, he had to understand the pain until nature took its way. If a limb had to come off, the surgeons removed it as fast as possible of the patient fainted. The victim of toothache had to grin and bear it until the tooth was removed.

Nowadays we take for granted the quick and almost complete relief from almost any kind of pain—as soon as a doctor can be brought to the scene. Usually this expectation of relief can be granted promptly, thanks to the discovery of a whole group of drugs which reduce pain or cause unconsciousness. The drugs which lessen pain are called analgesics.

One of the oldest analgesics is morphine. Aspirin is a kind of mild analgesic drug, and there are many others. Anesthetics are supposed to eliminate pain altogether. The general anesthetics cause unconsciousness—the pain just is not felt at all. In this group are included several gases—ether, ethylene, chloroform and laughing gas, or nitrous oxide. Some drugs which have this anesthetic effect can be injected into the veins rather than inhaled.

Local anesthetics are substances which cause absence of pain in a local area for a long enough period of time to allow painful procedures to be carried out at the same time that the patient is fully conscious. Most of these are given by injection through a needle. For certain kinds of operations local anesthetics are better than the general ones. ## Texan Reports Death of One Of Five Oldest Brothers

(By The Associated Press)

During this holiday season, Texas lost its claim to being the residence of one of the five oldest brothers in the nation.

J. C. Cabell, 79, of Borger, reported today that his brother, R. M. Cabell of Columbia, Ky., died the other day at the age of 82. Three other brothers still are living: L. C. Cabell, 92, of Ella, Ky.; H. F., 87, at Bosworth, Mo.; and E. E., 65, of Lathrop, Mo.

Recently the Associated Press ran a story that the five brothers claimed to be the oldest, from a standpoint of total years, in the country. Their ages totaled 425 years, nine months and 14 days as of Dec. 1, 1949.

"We got lots of letters," J. C. Cabell said. "A fellow in Pennsylvania had three brothers, and he wanted to throw in a sister to beat our total. That brothers, wouldn't be right, though, to use a sister. Then there was a man at Chanute, Kans., that said he and his four brothers were older than I. But when we toted up the ages he gave, we had it on him and his brothers by nine months and 14 days.

"But now that R. M. died, I think maybe the championship goes to Powell and his brothers."

Here's an interesting thing about the Cabell brothers: they've been separated for more than a half a century, but they have maintained a close correspondence.

"All of us wrote to each other a lot," said the Borger man, "and at Christmas we'd send presents. Back in 1942 I figured I wanted to see my brothers again and I paid a visit to every one of them. I was mighty glad I did that. All of us have to go sometime and we are getting old."

The Borger Cabell is a widower, has two grown children, lives at a hotel. "I have sort of retired," said he, "but when there's any real estate selling, I sell it."

A native of Columbia, Ky., he left Kentucky and went to Missouri in 1892 and moved to Borger in 1934.

"Did your parents live to a ripe old age, Mr. Cabell?"

"No, they died in their sixties. But I had a grandmother back in Kentucky that lived to be old. On her 80th birthday she went to a church dedication. She rode a horse to get there — rode side-saddle."

Ex-Con Denies Rape Charges

HOUSTON — (AP) — An ex-convict denies he raped a young Orange girl and shot her escort. Paul F. Lafleur, Houston, yesterday joked with reporters and police as he denied the crime. He complained the newspapers had been carrying his age as 34 and that he was only 30.

Lafleur, arrested last week in Palmer, Tenn., was charged with rape, robbery by firearms and assault to murder after two Orange couples reported being attacked as they were parked in an automobile near Orange.

He was sentenced to nine years for felony theft in Harris County in 1938, but escaped for brief periods in 1942 and 1943. He was given a reprieve in 1945.

DALLAS — (AP) — Officially the Dallas Police Department said "no comment" about the woman who got a free ride to Parkland Hospital.

Saturday night police were removing the injured from a wreck and noticed a bare-footed woman clad only in pajamas and a coat. "Get in that ambulance," a policeman told her. She protested.

But he made her get in and they sped to the hospital. When attendants started checking, she patiently explained she had not been in any car, was not hurt, and merely had rushed out to watch.

At last report she was sitting barefooted on the concrete wall outside the emergency entrance of the hospital demanding to know who was going to take her home.

OIL REPORTS

PAMPA NEWS, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 1949 PAGE 7

Conservation Adds Millions to Fields

DALLAS — Texas conservation laws and petroleum industry production practices and research are adding billions of barrels to the nation's supply of oil, the January issue of Reader's Digest reports.

"In our five most recent and biggest years of production, totaling nearly nine and two-thirds billion barrels, oil men have added 15.3 billions to reserves — for a net gain of five and two-thirds billions," said North Bigbee, Dallas writer, in his article "Why We Aren't Running Short of Oil."

In his four-page article, the Texas industrial writer cited many examples from his home state's oil history to show where conservation is paying off for the petroleum-using public.

Gone are the wild, wasteful gushers such as Spindletop in 1901. Wildcat wells are drilled today with the best scientific knowledge based on geophysical exploration, instead of a prospector's hunch. Spindletop was again cited as a pay-off on deeper drilling, another modern trend, when Frank Yount hit a lower producing sand 25 years after the original Lucas gusher. Bigbee cited the results of proration laws in the giant East Texas field where "Engineers now expect a total of five and a half billion barrels before its last pumping jack is quiet." At one time "experts" expected only one and one-half billion barrels.

The pool at Van, Texas, discovered in 1929, was shown by Bigbee to be an example of utilization (where all operators cooperate to produce a field as one unit). "This vast pocket-size pool has already produced 200 million barrels and continues to average about ten million a year," Bigbee wrote.

Additional yields of oil come from repressuring programs using water or gas to restore the reservoir energy in the oil sands, the article pointed out.

"All told, the new production methods have more than doubled our usable oil reserves without counting the discovery of a single new barrel," Bigbee wrote.

The article called attention to the way refiners are stretching oil reserves.

"Today's 20-gallon tankful of automobile gasoline comes from a single barrel of crude; 30 years ago 20 gallons required nearly two barrels of oil; ten years earlier than that the same size tankful took four and a half barrels of crude," Bigbee wrote.

Prominent Oilman Dies in Houston

HOUSTON — (AP) — Bibb D. Halton, 52, Houston oilman, died at his home Monday night after a year's illness.

Shortly after World War I, Halton became assistant to the president of Humble Oil & Refining Co. In 1933, when W. S. Farish, then president of Humble, went to New York to head Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey Halton went along with him as an assistant.

Ten years later Halton returned to Houston to become manager of the W. S. Farish Co. He continued in this capacity until his death.

FIRST MINTED COINS
A mine was erected near Joachimsthal, Bohemia, in 1518, and Count Schlick issued the first minted coins, known as Joachimsthalers. This name was shortened to "thalers" and corruption of this word brought our word "dollar."

WHALE OF A PICTURE—This unusual action shot of a full-grown humpback whale leaping out of the water and doing a flip in mid-air was taken from a launch off Cape Brett, New Zealand. The whale weighs 50 tons, measures 50 feet in length, and is normally very sluggish in its movements, making this display of energy a rare sight indeed.

It therefore is ready to consider an early loan to finance a revival of Indonesian trade. Toward that end, a long-standing $100,000,000 application has recently been dusted off by the Export-Import Bank.
Cochran, a top authority on Indonesia, already was enroute to Jakarta — formerly Batavia — capital of the republic. He was due to reach there yesterday in time to represent this government at ceremonies transferring sovereignty from The Netherlands but his plane was held up by unfavorable weather.
Cochran represented the U. S. in the United Nations Good Offices Commission for Indonesia beginning in mid-1948. A native of Crawfordsville, Ind., he is 57 and has been in the diplomatic or consular service almost continuously since 1914.

He predicted, however, that military outlays will be cut $2,000,000,000 in the next year and that a $1,000,000,000 cut can be made in Marshall Plan economic aid to Western Europe.
Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, called for a $1,500,000,000 slash in Marshall Plan spending.

Wherry thinks the rule will work, but wants the test on the anti-lynch bill which, while opposed by Dixie lawmakers, is hot quite as hot an issue as FEPC.
Sparkman said he thinks the civil rights program is losing its "vote getting powers" because Negroes are getting tired of both parties using it as a "political football."

Weather, Driving Habits Play Part in Traffic Death Figures

(By The Associated Press)

Ever wonder who figures in advance how many Texans will die violently on a holiday weekend and how he does it?

The man is N. K. Woerner of Austin, a medium-sized fellow, white-haired at 41. "Maybe my job turned my hair white," he laughed. He has an uncanny record of predictions. He is chief of the statistical division of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

How good is Woerner? Well, at the start of 1948 he predicted 2,056 Texans would die in traffic accidents during the year. He missed it by three . . . 2,059 died!

For the Christmas and New Year holiday — from 12:01 a.m. Dec. 23, to 11:59 p.m., Jan. 1 — Woerner said 80 would die on the highways and violent deaths of all types would come to 194. As this is written, deaths are mounting steadily toward his totals.

"I tell you how you do it?" Woerner was asked.
"I have several things to go on," said he, "mainly what has happened in the past."

"This year Christmas and New Year's Day fall on Sunday . . . a holiday on Sunday is a doubly bad day. Then I consider whether the general trend of accidents is increasing or decreasing. My biggest gamble is the weather . . . for this holiday I gambled on generally good weather. So far, it has been pretty good. There are more deaths in good weather — more people on the highway and faster driving. When roads are icy, people don't go fast enough to kill themselves. Christmas is a long-trip holiday. People go home for Christmas. July 4 is a short-trip holiday . . . a picnic holiday. San Jacinto Day is a holiday but not many people travel.

"On a long-trip holiday I take into consideration that lots of city office workers who are used to driving 30 miles per hour get out on the highway and travel 60 and 70. When something goes wrong at that speed, they just can't handle the situation.

When it comes to other kinds of deaths, there are big differences in holidays. Christmas and the Fourth of July are alike in that they are big holidays for suicides . . . depressed persons become more depressed, I think, when other people are really gay.

"But when it comes to murder, the Fourth of July is bad for shootings and Christmas is a time of varied murder . . . lots of cuttings and knifings as well as poisonings and shootings. You get more variety for Christmas."

At the beginning of 1949, expert Woerner predicted 1,948 Texans would die on the highways. "How'll you come out, Mr. Woerner?"
"I think I'll hit it within 10
