

15 DIE AS AIRLINER HITS HOUSE

Snow Storm Is Blamed In Disaster

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) —

Roaring through a blinding March blizzard, a Northwest Airlines plane crashed and exploded last night to convert a Minneapolis home into a blazing funeral pyre for 15 persons.

The ship carried ten passengers and a crew of three.

Two children, who had just been put to bed in the house the plane struck, were also trapped in the flaming inferno which spouted from the ship's gasoline tanks. The rest of the family were watching television.

Originating at Washington, D. C., the ship was scheduled to set down at Rochester, Minn., but that landing was prevented by the heavy weather and the craft was ordered into Minneapolis.

The plane, a Martin 2-2 Mars, was trying for an instrument landing here in gusty winds and swirling snow.

Mal Freeburg, NWA operations executive, said he was investigating a report the plane struck a flagpole at the Fort Snelling National Cemetery, just south of Wold-Chamberlain Airport, on its first instrument run, which was unsuccessful. He said this report was borne out by the fact one wing was found eight blocks from the scene of the main crash.

Less than two airline miles from the safety of the airport, the plane plummeted into the home of Frank Doughty in the quiet residential section along Minnehaha Parkway.

Shafts of flame spewed immediately from the shattered airliner to also fire the neighboring homes of Mrs. Robert Cahn and Irwin Langer. Occupants of these two houses fled to safety.

Janet Doughty, 10, and her eight-year-old brother, Tommy, were engulfed by the first rapid sheets of searing fire.

Mrs. and Mrs. Doughty and another daughter, Diana, 15, were hospitalized, suffering from burns, shock, cuts and bruises.

Wheat: Deaf Smith, Castro, Swisher, Hale, Floyd, Childress, Knox, Stonewall, Jones, Taylor, Runnels, Denton, Collin and Grayson.

Taylor, Runnels, Collin and Grayson will have both cotton and wheat insurance.

Sec. Johnson Critic Facing Loss of Job

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Disclosure that a Navy critic of Secretary of Defense Johnson is being transferred out of his high medical post raised some blood pressure in Congress today.

The officer involved is Rear Adm. Joel T. Boone, who has called Johnson's economy cutback of military hospitals a "short-sighted" policy.

He has been the senior medical officer in Johnson's office, and during his career has served as White House physician to Presidents Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, besides winning the Congressional Medal of Honor in World War I.

Congressional ire was centered in a House armed services subcommittee which has been hearing repeated testimony that without consulting Army, Navy and Air Force medical authorities, Johnson ordered several military hospitals closed in an attempt to save from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000. Boone was a witness yesterday.

Military headquarters at the Pentagon confirmed that eight days ago, Boone was told he was being removed from his post as chief of the joint plans and action division of the Defense Department's office of medical services. The department supplied no reasons.

Boone had been in disagreement during the last month with the proposed cutbacks planned by Johnson and Dr. Richard Mellinger, director of the Defense Department's military medical services.

What happens now to the outspoken naval officer, a Defense Department representative said, "is up to the Navy."

December 1, Admiral Forrest Sherman, chief of naval operations, made Boone available to Wold-Chamberlain Airport, on its first instrument run, which was unsuccessful. He said this report was borne out by the fact one wing was found eight blocks from the scene of the main crash.

It was Sherman who succeeded Adm. Louis Denfeld as the top naval officer, following what has been reported as a "quiet" resignation. (See JOHNSON, Page 13)

Chinese Reds Repulsed in Island Scrap

TAIPEI, Formosa — (AP) — Nationalist China was heartened today by two tiny victories — repulsed Communist landings on an attempt against Hainan Island and recapture of Kangting, capital of the far western province of Sikang.

Nationalist troops on Hainan, big island off the South China coast, repulsed Communist landings today by 800 midland Communists to invade the northwestern sector of the island. Two hundred Reds were reported killed. Most of the remainder were routed and captured. The island is 100 miles south of Luzon, a peninsula 10 miles across the strait from Hainan.

There has been no indication the Hainan landing was the forerunner of a large scale Red attempt to take the island. It might have been a nuisance raid, a reconnaissance in force or an attempt to supply Communist guerrillas holed up in Hainan's mountains. The possibility of other Communist raids on Hainan by the Communists was not discounted.

Hainan is defended by 100,000 Nationalist regulars and 80,000 militiamen.

Delayed dispatches from Sikang said Kangting was recaptured by Nationalist guerrillas Sunday from turncoat Nationalists. Victory in the mountainous province could mean a blow to Chiang's hard pressed forces.

This mainland headquarters in Sikang some 100 miles south of Kangting. Their only mainland airfield is there. Two Nationalist Chinese troops, which made the long trek to Sikang when organized resistance collapsed in southern China, are based there.

The delayed dispatches did give details of the fighting around Hangting.

Medical Expert Believes Veins In Mrs. Borroto's Arm Collapsed

MANCHESTER, N.H. — (AP) — A defense medical expert testified today he believes the vein of Mrs. Borroto's left arm had collapsed several hours before Dr. Hermann N. Sander gave her air injections.

Dr. Richard F. Ford, head of the department of legal medicine at Harvard, made this statement under a stiff cross-examination by Attorney General William L. Phinney.

Earlier, Ford testified that air could not have caused the death of Mrs. Borroto, as it was impossible for Dr. Sander to inject a "needle" into the collapsed vein. Dr. Sander is on trial for first degree murder on charges of killing the hopeless cancer patient to end her suffering.

Judge Harold E. Wescott called counsel for both sides to an unexplained conference — delay-

Present Force No Guarantee, Bradley Says

By JOSEPH C. GOODWIN

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Gen. Omar N. Bradley, America's No. 1 military man, said today that present forces cannot give the United States "an absolute guarantee against a disastrous blow."

"But I feel that we are going to have the necessary forces to prevent a disastrous attack from crippling this country," the chairman of the joint chiefs of staff said in a speech before the Women's National Press Club.

"I also believe that our forces in being, and our mobilization base, will be sufficient, together with the forces and potential of friendly nations to win a war if it comes," he added.

Bradley made a sober analysis of this nation's military position as compared with that of Russia. He praised the Navy's anti-submarine program and the Army's economy-minded emphasis on combat strength at the expense of supporting personnel.

Of atomic power, he said: "Our stockpile of atomic bombs, and our ability to deliver them, affords us an immediate but inconclusive blow of retaliation. Our research and development program, not only in bombs and missiles, but in other weapons and techniques, if properly maintained and supported should continue to improve the position of the United States and its friends."

Bradley urged that the Navy's submarine and anti-submarine program, go along "as fast as our research and development facilities will permit," and added: "I am glad to be able to tell you, from my personal observation, that we are progressing rapidly in this field."

Over a long period of peacetime, he said, the United States "should not expect to match the Soviet Union plane for plane, ship for ship, division for division without lowering its standard of living."

"If it is the desire of the American people to assemble forces that will statistically give the United States a preponderance of military power next year then we shall have to become an armed camp," he declared. Such a source eventually "will be a drain, not only on the economy, but on democracy and its many freedoms," he added.

High Plains Wheat Crop Outlook Dim

AUSTIN — (AP) — The wheat picture grew worse in the High Plains today as the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

Some August and September seedings were reported dying. (Today's report did not take into account this week's dust storms over the state.)

Green bug infestations were reported at several points over a wide area from Central Texas northward to the Red River and westward to the eastern fringe counties of the High Plains, the USDA said.

However, fair to excellent development of wheat and oats was observed in most of that area.

Fair progress was made in preparing for spring planting throughout most of Texas. More rain in south central and southeastern counties stopped field work late in the week.

The flax crop prospect was good. Corn planting started in north central counties and in full swing in coastal counties until rain intervened.

Weekend rains improved growing conditions for most commercial vegetables in the lower Valley.

New green feed remained abundant over the eastern two-thirds of the state. Dry ranges in extreme southern counties were temporarily relieved by light rains. Both the High Plains and Trans-Pecos continues dry.

Military Aid Flow Begins

NORFOLK, Va. — (AP) — A heavy crane hoisted an American bombing plane aboard a French aircraft carrier today — and this nation's billion dollar flow of military aid to Western Europe began.

The bomber, its United States insignia replaced by the French tricolor, was followed aboard by other war planes, the first of three shipments to be carried to France by the escort carrier Dixmude.

Moments before, the acting French ambassador, Jean Daridan, said the military aid program "will facilitate the determined effort which France is making to ensure her own security, a condition and consequence of the security of all."

Daridan said the brief ceremony on the pier beside the carrier "constitutes a new and positive evidence of the common will of our countries to work together in an active partnership to preserve their free institutions and their free traditions."

Traffic Light Plan Delayed

Awarding of a contract for supplying and installing the city's $20,000 traffic light program was tabled yesterday afternoon for further study into Eagle Signs equipment.

The city had specified Crouse-Hinds equipment in its plans and specifications when the bids were called last month.

When the bids were opened yesterday, six dealers, including a representative from Eagle Signs, came before the City Commission with their offers. Eagle was low bidder in supplying the equipment, but entered no bid on installation. Eagle's bid was $7,052.27 while all other bids on Crouse-Hinds were $9,286.10 except Cox and Sons, Borger, which undercut competitors by knocking off 2 percent, bringing their bid down to $9,101.26.

However, on the installation side, the Brooks Electric Co., Pampa, was low bidder at $7,863.39, while Cox and Sons, Borger, was high at $16,004.76.

Other bidders were: Nunn Electrical Supply Co. and Gray Electric Co. of Amarillo, and the Electric Supply Co. of Pampa. The Electric Supply Co. put in the other bid for installation, $10,129.30.

When the total Brooks bid on equipping and installing was tabulated against the Cox total, the local firm was $7,956 lower.

Insistence of the Eagle representative, that members of the City Commission view a portion of the Oklahoma City traffic signal system put in by his company, led to tabling awarding of a contract. Eagle installed part of that city's traffic system.

Unanimous approval was voted by the commission to change the City Zoning Board to the City Zoning Commission and all present members of the body were reappointed — Paul Chambers, Jimmie McCrene, R. F. McCallip. (See TRAFFIC, Page 12)

Two-Century Saar Dispute Revived by France's Action

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Once more, France and Germany (this time the Bonn government of Western Germany) are at loggerheads over the Saar Valley—a bone of bitter contention for two centuries.

The Saar, which the Bonn regime claims is German territory, lies up against the French frontier.

It is one of the world's richest coal areas, and has great strategic value militarily.

This strategic aspect is of special significance in view of the deep-seated hostility between the two nations.

At the end of the late war France detached the Saar from Germany and gave it a status of limited self-government under French direction. Paris now has taken a further step.

The French have made a treaty with the Saar under which the valley government becomes a "republic" with broader autonomy but with Paris remaining in charge of foreign relations and military security. France continues in control of the coal mines for fifty years. The Saar is promised complete independence at the end of that time if the allies approve.

Actually France has no authority to make final disposition of the Saar, since the Western Allies have agreed that the matter shall be settled in the peace conference with Germany. However, on the basis that possession is nine points of the law, the French may have strengthened their position in seizing opportunity by the forelock.

The Saar district, of some 794 square miles, originally came into possession of France in 1765 as part of Lorraine. After the peace of Paris in 1815 it was turned over to Germany. At the end of World War I the Saar basin was awarded to France by the Treaty of Versailles. For exploration of the coal fields.

On Jan. 15, 1935, a plebiscite was held by the League of Nations and 90.8 percent of the vote was for union with Germany. This was during the Hitlerian regime, and it was widely charged that the fuhrer had plastered the basin with Nazi ringers. However, the vote went back to Germany. Now it is again under French control. France's action has caused hot anger in Bonn. The German government has made it clear that it will demand the return of the Saar, and it is expected that a special session of the legislature will be called to deal with the situation.

MINISTER'S DAUGHTERS ALL FORMER MODELS

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

All three beautiful daughters of a big, rugged, Texas preacher became Powers models . . . and church workers.

The preacher is Dr. Wallace C. Bassett, a six-foot, 210-pound power in Texas Baptist circles. Just last year he retired as a three-year president of the state's Baptist General Convention. His booming, eloquent voice is known throughout the South.

"My children have done all right for themselves, I guess," he told us, chuckling.

Here's the lineup:

1. Elaine; became a Powers model, married H. Bertram Smith, Wall St. broker, retired as a model and now lives in Florida.

2. Verona; became a Powers model. She is now married to a banker in Evanston, Ill.

3. Margaret; became a Powers model. She is an accomplished singer and pianist and has her own television show. Is married to Travis Johnson, also a singer, of Troup, Texas, and they have a 14-room home in the Forest Hills section of Long Island, N. Y.

4. Wallace; became a physician in Dallas.

Preacher Bassett has been pastor of the Cliff Temple Baptist Church in Dallas for 23 years.

His four children had college educations.

Margaret, for instance, has two degrees from Baylor. She and her husband were graduated from Baylor the same year. They went to New York in 1939. While she helped earn a living as a model, she and her husband formed a quartet, the Song Spinners, which became a radio success.

A year ago, Margaret started her own television program. She plays a guitar and the auto-harp, a zither-like instrument, besides singing and playing the piano. She also dishes out occasional "Southwestern philosophy" to the television audience.

"She's superintendent of the intermediate department at her church on Long Island," said Dr. Bassett. "All my children give as much time to the church as possible."

Bassett uses his vacations to visit all three of his daughters every summer.

U.S. Defended By Mexico in Alien Action

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — The Mexican government yesterday defended U.S. measures to control the illegal movement of Mexicans across the border.

Newspapers had criticized what they called the "U.S. manhunt" along the frontier and said measures taken were "hardly justifiable against wild animals." The foreign office, in a formal statement, said the U.S. had the duty, under existing international agreements, to do all it could to halt the workers' movements. It added that it did not know of a single instance in which gunfire had been used against aliens. The foreign office recalled that it had asked a special clause be inserted in the present agreement covering the recruiting of Mexican workers for U.S. harvests. This clause bound the U.S. to patrol the frontier to halt immigrants and to return illegal aliens to Mexico at once. The government said the clause was inserted because the movement of harvest workers ("braceros") without work contracts hurt Mexico's economy.

Eskimo Architects Attract Big-Wigs to Benefit Dinner

NEW YORK — (AP) — Today we take you for a behind-the-scenes peek at a great American industry. It is the business of getting people to attend a public dinner, and right now it is one of the most active industries in the United States.

Roping folks into going to a dinner for "a worthy cause" is quite a task. Approached with a proposition of this sort, the average man will run for the nearest exit.

This reluctance has created a new specialist — the professional public dinner arranger. Let us take a typical case. Suppose you are president of the society for Relieving Impoverishment among Eskimo Architects. You want the society's annual dinner to be a success, so you go to a professional arranger.

"To begin with my fee will be $750," murmurs this dear old lady. "What?" you bark. "Why there are only 100 members in our society, and we were going to throw our clambake in Joe's oint. We only charge $2.00, and so let us have his blue plate special for $1.50, so we only expect to clear four bits a head."

So the wise old lady says don't be foolish, nobody goes to a two-bit affair anymore. She schedules the dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and ups the entrance fee to $18 a duet.

"Who's going to make the main speech?" she asks. "Why, I was you say lamely, and she remarks, 'don't be pitiful. We gotta get some big name talkers.'"

"But who cares about helping the poor, down-trodden Eskimo architects?" you inquire. "And she says leave that to her. Well, it turns out that a senator from Washington would be more than glad to discuss 'The Eskimos are Our First Line of Defense,' and a bigwig from the United Nations is just aching to give a half-hour report on 'Peace in the Far Snow—It's Wonderful.'"

But how are you going to sell all those $18 tickets? "That's my job!" says the professional arranger. "I'll just send out invitations to my selected list of tested dinner-goers, and we'll pack the ballroom."

What is a "tested dinner-goer?" well, believe it or not, in Manhattan there are thousands of people who make a career out of going to public dinners. Some want to run for office, others want to "run my face before the public," and the rest just don't know what else to do after dark.

So the dinner is a huge success. You clear $5,000. Then you discover there are only five really poverty-stricken Eskimo architects in the world.

You forward the money to them, they put stoves in their igloos, and the central heating gives them pneumonia — and in three weeks there are no more Eskimo architects.

Love Finds Way To Wrong Place

ROBT WORTH — (AP) — Love usually finds a way, runs the old adage, but 19-year-old Raymond Mendoza said Tuesday it could have picked an easier route.

Mendoza had an exciting Monday. He was shot at and missed three times, chased two blocks by the pistol wielder and finally wound up in the county pokey charged with burglary.

The sheriff's office reported the happenstance like this: Mendoza aroused the ire of E. Manuel Rengel, 49, due to alleged amorous overtures towards Rengel's 17-year-old daughter. Rengel found Mendoza late Monday at 8th and Commerce and fired three .38 caliber pistol shots during a chase to 7th and Jones. The shots went wild.

Rengel went to the sheriff's office and surrendered, naming his would-be target as Mendoza. The name rang a bell in the deputies' memory. Rengel was charged in Criminal District Court No. 2 with aggravated assault, while Mendoza was arrested at his home on an eight-months-old burglary indictment.

"If he hadn't been in love with the wrong father's daughter, we may never have located him," said a deputy. The indictment alleges breaking and entering of the Donley B. Holland residence, here last July.

Chaplin Reported Bidding For American Favor Again

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Telling a half-million dollars to give his relations with the town has been buzzing with the lid. Now there appears a report that Charlie Chaplin is...

At first, the Chaplin reports seemed like merely an attempt to get back into the good graces of the American press and public. But observers feel that the real reason is an attempt to cash in on the new medium. There have been indications that the famed comic would like to follow the success of Hopalong Cassidy and release his old films to video, thus creating a new and widespread audience. Ronald Reagan celebrated his 39th birthday on the "Louisiana" set. Says he: I'm going to pull a Jack Benny; this is the last birthday I'm going to celebrate.

Marjorie Main, now working in "Ma and Pa Kettle Back Home," says she won't make more than two pictures a year. This is despite reports she and James Whitmore might be teamed in a series akin to the Marie Dressler-Wally Berry films. Marjorie wants to spend most of her time at Palm Springs. The climate is good for her sinus. MGM has been steadily sniping down its vast contract player list, following the trend of other studios.

Lefors Boxers Defeat Pampa Mittmen, 6-5, in Team Bouts

The Lefors Pirates boxing team defeated the Pampa Boys Club ringmen last night at Lefors in a team match that was undecided until the judges' decision in the final fight was announced. The final score was 6-5 in favor of the Pirates.

Going into that last bout a 155-pound scrap between Dick Murray of Pampa and Melvin Bigham of Lefors, the score was knotted at 5-5 after the Pirates rallied after trailing 5-3. The deciding fight was so close that fans couldn't tell who had won until referee John Rankin of Pampa had picked up the cards from the other two judges, Rex Lee Jones of Lefors and Carl Brown of Pampa.

The Pampa team fought what appeared to be its best fight of the year. The boys looked sharper and in better shape than in any previous match, and it made all of the bouts close and fast. Two matches failed to go the limit. Bobby Wilhelm of Pampa stopped Joe David Martin in the third round and Bill Clemmons of the Pirates sent Delmar Cox to the canvas in the first round of their 138-pound bout.

The first fight of the night was an exhibition between two little Pampa leather-pushers, Dickie James and Carson Watt. It was a no-decision match, with both boys slugging all the way.

Lefors took the lead in the first bout of the evening when Norman Herring, showing a terrific right and being on the aggressive all the way, decided Gary Watt in a 60-pound bout. In the second team bout, other Herring boy, Leon, added another point to the Pirates' total with a decision over Gary Wilhelm in a 70-pound fight. It was a fast fight with Herring leading the attack most of the way.

Lefors made it 3-0 when J. D. Redus, veteran little ringman of the Pirates, decided Frank Smith in a 71-pound fight. Redus was the aggressor all the way and had Smith in trouble much of the time.

Pampa's first point, the first of five straight, was picked up by southpaw Ronnie James, who outlasted and outboxed Jerry Herring in a 78-pound bout. Each boy had won one time in previous meetings. This was one of the fastest and best bouts of the night.

Claude Porterfield trimmed the Pirates' lead to 3-2 in a 90-pound bout with a narrow win over Carroll Welch, Lefors southpaw. Porterfield put on a terrific finish to earn the decision.

In what was probably the best fight of the night, Tommy White of Pampa defeated Billy Sam Coberly of Lefors in a 119-pound fight. The bout was fast all the way, with White improving as the fight progressed, looking his best in the third round. That bout tied up the team score at 3-3.

Bobby Wilhelm then put Pampa ahead in a 120-pound fight by scoring a TKO over Joe David Martin of the Pirates, who was fighting his first fight. The first round was slow as both boys subdued the other. The second was fast and in the third round was stopped for a nine count before Tommy Bennett was stopped.

Tommy Bennett gained another point, the last, for the Pampa team with a decision over Jim Boggs, fighting his second bout in the 131-pound class. The classy Bennett was never in trouble in gaining the win.

Friday Todd, Pirate football star and chunky ringman, decided Thomas Grantham in one of the top fights of the night in a 140-pound match. Todd had a stiff left hand that kept landing on Grantham's jaw through the entire bout. Grantham fought his best fight of the season, but he couldn't get away from that left of Todd's.

Bill Clemmons tied the score at 5-5 with a first round KO of lefty Delmar Cox in the 138-pound class. A sharp right to the jaw dropped Cox in his own corner for the count.

Ken, in the windup, Melvin Bigham gave the Pirates the team victory with a decision over Dick Murray. It was the second time this season that the Pirates ringmen have defeated the Pampa club, but both have been some of the cleanest and closest fights ever held in the Lefors High School Gymnasium.

Coaches for the two clubs were Mac Winter of the Pirates and T. J. Watt of the Pampa Boys Club. The next fight for the Pampa team is March 17, St. Patrick's Day, when they go to Sharmrock for a return fight with the Irish. An earlier meeting ended in a draw. The Pirates travel to Panhandle on March 16.

Veteran Ump Says Baseball Not Going to Turn 'Sissy'

TUCSON — (AP) — Bill Summers, veteran of the American League umpiring staff, wants it understood that there is no danger of big league baseball going sissy through the act of its Rules Committee.

Don't worry too much, he advises, about this year's new regulation which many students think will prevent a base runner from "taking out" the pivot man on a double play at second.

The play, one of the most spectacular of the game, will still be used within reason, Bill says. A runner will have to be guilty of "obvious unsportsmanship" before he incurs the prescribed penalty.

"All the new rule does is give us umpires the power to stop some fellows from chasing the second baseman or shortstop clear out on the grass in trying to break up a double play," Summers explains.

"As long as the runner stays within reach of the bag either with a foot or a hand, we'll let him go into second as hard as he wants to. That's part of the game."

"But when he clearly isn't trying to do anything but knock a man down, we'll call it on him, and the batter going to first will be called out, no matter whether he might have beaten the relay."

Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians asked Bill if he didn't think enforcement of the rule might mean many a ruckus during the season.

"Not at all, Lou," he replied. "And I can tell you why. For about the first or second time we call it on your team, you're going to holler, plenty. And then you're going to get thinking why it's cost you, and the next time you'll tell that runner of yours to be careful how he goes into second."

Next: Freddie Hutchinson of the Tigers pitches too carefully with two out in the eighth and two strikes on two hitters.

KO'd Fighters Must Get 30-Day Layoff
AUSTIN — (AP) — Fighters knocked out in Texas will now have to take a 30-day layoff before they can box in the state again. And eight-ounce gloves will be the minimum instead of six-ounce gloves.

These two changes in Texas boxing rules were announced yesterday by commissioner of boxing M. B. Morgan. They're designed to prevent deaths from injuries in the prize ring and were spurred by the recent death of Texas' Layern Roach after a fight in New York City.

Elaine Riddle Turns In Tripartite Series
Elaine Riddle, member of the Parker Blossom Shop Bowling team, turned in a tripartite series of 147 games last night in league bowling.

The tripartite is a rarity among the bowling gentry. Despite her rare feat, her team was defeated.

Penn. State, site of the NCAA's first boxing tournament in 1932, will serve as host to this tournament for the third time, March 30-April 1.

Merkle Ran For Showers After Mates

By FRED MERKLE
Giants' first baseman in three-straight World Series

Failing to touch second base as the winning run scored was common practice when I pulled the hose. I never lived down in September, 1908.

The Giants were fighting the Cubs for the pennant. It was Christy Mathewson for us and Jack Piester for the Chicago club. The score was 1-1 going into the last of the ninth.

Harry McCormick singled for New York, and went to third base on my single to right.

There were two out when Al Bridwell hit the ball safely across second base, and Fred Merkle, McCormick scored what would have been the winning run.

In those days, just as now, the players on both sides sprinted to the clubhouse in center field at the Polo Grounds at the end of a game, just to see who could get there first, and when I played, to avoid spectators flooding the field.

I should have touched second base, of course, but I was a 19-year-old kid in my first full season with the Giants. I hadn't done anything more than pinch-hit once or twice since early July. Fred Tenney was the regular first baseman. I had been a month getting over an infected foot.

Anyway, I dashed to the clubhouse like all the other Giants when I saw McCormick scoring. But the Cubs had pulled the play in Pittsburgh a few days previous.

They retrieved the ball, or a ball, and the force-out stood. Making my offense more helter-skelter to more people than you could imagine was the Giants' losing the resultant play-off that sent the Cubs into the World Series.

Yet had the Giants won one game of the five they lost in the last 17, the entire incident might have been forgotten.

It might have been overlooked had there not been two out in the ninth, and if the game in which it happened could have continued, which couldn't be because of the crowd on the field.

As things turned out, I did not dare take chances throughout the remainder of my career, for fear of making another mistake.

If those who shout at athletes making a costly mistake at an important moment in the heat of competition knew how my one big slip affected my life and my family, I'm sure they would give the young man much more consideration.

Failing to forgive a player for a slip in a game is even worse. That's why I'm writing this in the hope that it will help others.

I played baseball for 22 years, was in six World Series, loved the game.

I'd like to do it all over again, but not if I had to live through 42 years of endless jibes that cut to the quick.

Next: Freddie Hutchinson of the Tigers pitches too carefully with two out in the eighth and two strikes on two hitters.

Bradley 7-2 Favorite in NIT

NEW YORK — (AP) — Bradley University's Braves are a 7-2 favorite to win the National Invitation Basketball Tournament opening at Madison Square Garden Saturday.

The odds makers today conceded a couple of blue grass entries—Western Kentucky and Kentucky—the best chance to derail the pride of Peoria's march to new honors.

Western has rated a 4-1 choice and sophomore-laden Kentucky was figured at 5-1. Odds of the other nine teams spread from 6-1 for St. John's and Duquesne to 20-1 and up for Arizona.

The far Westerners shouldn't feel too upset about those figures, however. San Francisco was equally as long a shot last year when it waded through a wave of upsets to the title. The defending champs are 12-1 this time.

Here are the other odds: Long Island University and CCNY 7-1, LaSalle 9-1, Syracuse 10-1 and Niagara 15-1.

Meanwhile, the NCAA Tournament still had some berths open. Brigham Young, the Skyline Six champion, was chosen to represent District 7 and Baylor, co-champ of the Southwest Conference with Arkansas, was picked to represent District 6.

They will play in the Western Regional Playoffs at Kansas City March 24-25. The Eastern Playoffs are scheduled here March 23, 25, with the finals at the Garden March 28.

Three berths in the Eastern field are filled — Holy Cross, No. 1; North Carolina State, No. 3, and Ohio State, No. 4. The district two spot is still wide open with Duquesne, St. John's, LaSalle, CCNY, Niagara and Princeton in the picture.

UCLA and Washington State clash in a playoff this weekend for the District 8 assignment. Bradley, the Missouri Valley champion, will meet the Big Seven titlist in a playoff at Kansas City March 20 for the District 5 berth. They play in the Western eliminations.

Kansas moved into a tie with Nebraska for the Big Seven lead by humbling Kansas State last night, 79-68. Each has eight victories, three defeats and a tie. Kansas State is still in the running with a 7-4 record and conference games coming up this week.

In other games last night, CCNY barely edged past New York University, 64-61, and Wyoming tripped Colorado, 80-41.

Seagoville Is Favored Again

WACO — (AP) — Seagoville was favored to defend its title as the 12th annual State Basketball Tournament of the Girls High School League of Texas opens today.

The defending champs square off against Lockney at 7 p. m. tonight.

Aledo plays Cotton Center at noon today in the first game of the tournament. Other opening found games match Bullard vs. Denton Valley; Bynum vs. Dimmitt; Avery vs. Lawn; Rogers vs. Meridian; East Chambers vs. Meadow; Sweeny vs. Dalhart.

Lefors Piratettes to Play Pampa Thursday

LEFORS — (Special) — The Lefors High School Piratettes, girls volleyball team, faces the Pampa girls team here Thursday night in the High School Gymnasium. The first game will start at 7:30.

Admission is free.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have not visited the cellar since 1905. Every other major league team has finished last since then.

Dyer Expects Hot Battle For NL Flag

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — Eddie Dyer looks for another hot race in the National League involving Brooklyn, Boston and his own St. Louis Cards.

"We're not conceding a thing," said the personable Card skipper, "but we've all got a job trying to stop Brooklyn. They're the team to beat."

"Boston looks much improved. They probably have more power than anybody else with Sid Gordon and Willard Marshall in the lineup."

"Don't overlook us. We got some problems but our pitching should be better with Max Lanier and Fred Martin with us all the way."

"Maybe you think Dyer spent the winter mooping about his troubles of last fall when the Cards crumbled just when they seemed ready to win the pennant."

"No, that wasn't my greatest disappointment, pard," he said, "I think we just had our slump at the wrong time. We hadn't had one since May 23. Then the boys who carried us all summer just couldn't seem to help us any."

"We got our problems," Eddie continued, "nobody knows how Nippy Jones is going to go after his serious back operation. If he can't make it, then we'll have to see if the big boy (Stev Bilko) is ready."

Bilko, a hulking young giant who hit .310 for Rochester, impressed at first base last season during a late trial.

Eddie Kazak, regular third baseman, is another question mark. Kazak was well on his way to rookie-of-the-year honors when he injured his ankle July 23. He never got back to full time duty.

All Forgiven

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — An interesting aftermath of the San Francisco 49ers player "strike" last December, when they asked for an extra game's pay for meeting the New York Yankees in the first round of the All-America

Conference playoffs, was the presentation of a fine wrist watch to owner A. J. Morabito by the squad after the season. Morabito had refused their request on the grounds that their contracts called for them to participate in the playoffs.

Baylor Bears Get Bid Over Rest of Southwest to NCAA

WACO — (AP) — Baylor's Bears, who make a habit of winning Southwest Conference basketball championships, will go to Kansas City March 24-25 to represent District 6 in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Western Regional Tournament.

The Bears, who tied Arkansas for the title this year with a 14-5 season rush, were chosen yesterday by the district Selection Committee over Arkansas; Arizona, champion of the Border Conference, and University of Houston, champion of the Gulf Coast Conference.

The committee, composed of Jack Gray of the University of Texas, chairman Emil Larson of Arizona and Matty Bell of Southern Methodist, picked Baylor unanimously.

They explained that they chose Baylor over Arkansas because the Bears beat Arkansas in both their games in the conference race; that Arizona already had accepted a bid to play in the National Invitation in New York, and because University of Houston did not play as representative a schedule as the others.

LONGHORNS ROAMING TEXAS RANGE AGAIN

TEMPLE — (AP) — Longhorn cattle are roaming the Central Texas range again. But they're not the scrawny critters made famous by legend and ballad. These cattle are a giant African breed. And the man who is breeding them says a great future lies ahead for their use as beef animals.

U.S. strains. Called Africandas (or Africander) the big red animals are being bred and cross-bred with other strains by W. S. Parks on the 777 ranch eleven miles south of Killeen. He has a herd of about 20 animals, which he purchased from the Kennedy ranch in 1945. The Kennedy ranch had purchased the cattle from the King ranch, which had imported them.

A drawback is the fact that the cattle are slow developers, needing nearly six years to achieve full growth. But, says Parks, "if you fed the Africandas heavily, they would get so fat they couldn't walk." Most people at first would classify Africandas as Brahman cross-breeds because of a hump. But a close check will show that the hump lies on the neck instead of the shoulder.

The horns tend to acquire shapes like those of the fabled longhorns. They differ slightly, however, by tending to turn concave. They are comparatively slender and long with a downward and backward twist and upturned tips. Horns of the Longhorn turned up and out. When cross-bred with Herefords or Jerseys, the Africanda color and size predominate, although the horns become shorter. A strain very similar to the Africanda is the Santa Gertrudis, fairly well recognized in the United States. The latter is considered a true breed of American cattle.

The Africanda is a good forager and is not bothered by red or cancer eye and hardly knows that flies and mosquitoes exist.

Sin Is Deep Subject for Mere Writer

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK — (AP) — Some time ago, having attacked poison snakes, I promised to go on and deal with the problem of sin.

But after exploring the subject a bit further, I found myself in great difficulty. Poison snakes and sin are quite different. Poison snakes have a beginning, a middle and an end. Sin has a beginning and a middle, too — but it doesn't seem to have an end. It goes on and on and on — like the rim of a cup.

Sin is generally highly unpopular. But many people who denounce it in public must practice it in private, or it wouldn't go on getting the attention it does. Anyway, the more I investigated the field of sin the more I realized it was too complex for a simple poor man's philosopher to understand.

Like Calvin Coolidge's preacher, I'm "agin" it. But here are what some of the great minds of the past have thought about sin: "That which we call sin in others is experiment for us." — Emerson. "Naught that delights is sin." — Ben Johnson. (Boyle's note: this definition has to be taken with a box of table salt.) "There is often a sin of omission as well as commission." — Marcus Aurelius. "Sin is a state of mind, not an outward act." — William Sewall. "It makes a great difference whether a person is unwilling to sin, or doesn't know how." — Seneca. "He does not sin who sins without intent." — Seneca. "Sin brought death, and death will disappear with the disappearance of sin." — Mary Baker Eddy.

"Little sins make room for great, and one brings in all." — Thomas Edwards. "Sin is not hurtful because it is forbidden, but it is forbidden because it is hurtful." — Benjamin Franklin. "He that is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone." — New Testament. "The sin is not in the sinning, but in the being found out." — W. G. Benham. "To abstain from sin when a man cannot sin is to be forsaken by sin, not to forsake it." — St. Augustine. "One leak will sink a ship, and one sin will destroy a sinner." — John Bunyan. "The gods visit the sins of the fathers upon the children." — Euripides. "Be sure your sin will find you out." — Old Testament.

Former Teacher Due Hearing on Embezzlement WASHINGTON — (AP) — A hearing for Harry M. Crain, former teacher at the Colorado School of Mines accused of embezzlement, has been continued until April 7. The 30-day continuance was granted by Municipal Court Judge Walter J. Casey at the request of Crain's attorney, D. A. Hartman. Crain, 51, was arrested here last week at the request of Colorado authorities. He will remain free on $1,000 bond. He is accused of misappropriating $2,400 from a Colorado School of Mines students publication fund which he administered. The former teacher came here on Feb. 18 to take a position as a foreign service staff officer with the State Department. After the Colorado charges became known, he was discharged from that position. Shortly after his arrest, he was found in a critical condition in a hotel room, apparently from an overdose of sleeping tablets. After treatment at Gallinger Hospital, he was declared to be of "sound mind" by a mental health commission and ordered to appear in municipal court. Hartman told reporters that a daughter of Crain's, Mrs. Jeanette Danielson of Milwaukee, will go to Colorado to discuss the charges with authorities there. He did not say what authorities.

West Texas Streams Low During February AUSTIN — (AP) — Stream flow in East Texas was above normal while it was below normal in West Texas in February, the Board of Water Engineers reported. Fairly large floods occurred on the Sabine, Sulphur, Neches and Trinity watersheds. There was no flood runoff in the Pecos or Upper Colorado watersheds during the month.

Coyote Captured In Wolf Domain LOS ANGELES — (AP) — It's getting so a respectable coyote can't walk down the street any more. Not in Los Angeles. This particular coyote was strolling leisurely through the Wilshire district yesterday when folks suddenly started hollering at him. So Melvin Ward shoos the beast into a garage and slams the door. Today, the critter, a six months old pup, is in solitary at the city pound. He'll be given to the zoo if nobody claims him.

Broken Leg No Job For Medical Experts GLENDALE, Calif. — (AP) — "I've broken my leg," explained Wendell Holmes Teat, 63, when police found him lying in the street. He was rushed to Physicians and Surgeons Hospital but when the doctors examined him, they withdrew from the case and called a carpenter. Police said Teat forgot to mention that the leg was wooden.

The local unit voted to endorse Mrs. Katherine Pitts of Amarillo for the 18th district president. At the meeting, all members were urged to contact Senator Tom Connally and Representative Eugene Worley and urge their opposition to that part of the Hoover Commission Report which would dismember the Veterans Administration.

A donation was made to the Red Cross and Mrs. Al Lawson, child welfare chairman, reported on several disabled veterans' families who had been assisted. Five new members were accepted and will be initiated with other new members accepted recently, on March 16, the next meeting.

A poppy poster contest will be conducted in Pampa schools. This is an annual contest and the posters are entered in both state and national contests, and all local winners are used in Pampa store windows before Poppy Day.

A rummage sale will be held on March 18 at the Legion Hall on West Foster. All articles for the sale are to be taken to the East Tying, the E & B Sheet Metal Shop, or donors may call Mrs. Ray Browning, 3303 M or 115 for pickup. Members were urged to press articles and take them to the place of the sale, if possible.

Contributions to the Heart Fund were to be gathered and turned in to the Legion members who will send it to the National Heart Association.

Shape Pancakes Into Turtles

SPECIAL FOR MARCH—Watch pancakes disappear when they come to the table piping hot in the shape of a turtle.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Pancakes for March breakfast, of course. But not just the same old shape. Try making them in the shape of turtles. Watch them disappear!

Here's a tested recipe for the breakfast surprise:

Turtle Pancakes
(Makes about 20 medium-sized cakes)

Two cups all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 3 table-spoons sugar, 3-4 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1-4 cup vinegar, 1-3-4 cups sweet milk, 1-4 cup shortening.

Sift some flour onto a piece of waxed paper, measure 2 cups. Sift with soda, sugar, and salt into large mixing bowl. Mix together eggs, vinegar, milk and shortening. Add to dry ingredients and stir only until smooth. Pour batter from tip of large spoon or from pitcher onto hot frying pan or griddle. Drop bits of batter from tip of spoon to make head, feet and tail of turtle. When underside is browned and before bubbles burst on top, turn and brown second side.

Cheese waffles, according to Successful Farming, put that zest into breakfast that sends the family off to work or school well fortified.

Cheese Waffles
(Makes three 9-inch square waffles)

Beat 2 egg yolks until light and foamy. Blend in 1-4 cups of milk and 2 table-spoons of melted butter. Sift together 2 cups of sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder and 1-4 teaspoon of salt. Add the dry ingredients to the egg mixture. Beat until smooth and creamy.

Beat 2 egg whites until stiff and fold into the batter along with 1 cup of grated cheese. Bake in a hot waffle baker until the steam ceases. Top with butter and syrup. Serve with bacon and fried sausage.

On Monday evening four local Business and Professional Women's Club members drove to Guymon, Okla., where a new B&PW Club was being organized.

Mrs. Ivan Howard, vice president of the Pampa Club, and Mrs. Mildred Lafferty, publications chairman, explained the purpose and possibilities of B&PW chapters. Mrs. Lafferty, who has assisted at several club "christenings," told the new club the part it will play in the community and praised the 76 charter members. It is, she said, a record-size for a new club, stating that the Pampa chapter is now 21 years old and has fewer than 90 members. Since Guymon is a city of approximately 6,000 population, Mrs. Lafferty said she thought they deserved special recognition.

Others who made the trip were Mr. Howard and club members, Mrs. Hazel Jay and Mrs. Mary Forrester.

Registration for the delegates

★ WE, THE WOMEN BY RUTH MILLETT NEA Staff Writer

Yesterday four teen-agers sat behind me in a drugstore both. Their young voices carried clearly. They were discussing their mothers with both pride and affection.

Each one was trying to prove to the others what a good sport her mother was. "My mother's my best liar" — the first girl remarked with evident pride.

"I can always count on her to fix up a story that will get me out of a jam — even with Dad."

Not to be outdone, each teenager took a turn, proving by some recent anecdote just what a good mother she was.

will begin at 8:30 in the entrance hall of the new High School building. The Dumas P-T-A will be hostess at a coffee for the delegates during the registration.

scout, or in more blunt terms, what a willing liar her mother was.

It was one of the most shocking things I've ever heard. Mothers lying to boy friends to help a daughter keep them guessing. A mother lying to a father, so that he wouldn't know his teenage daughter had come in drunk after a high school dance. And so on.

I dare say each of the mothers discussed loves her daughter with devotion. But what a price they are paying to shine as "good sports" in their daughters' eyes.

I was hoping just one girl would be up and say: "My mother certainly wouldn't tell a lie for me! But not one did."

How can these mothers ever hope that their daughter will tell the truth when a lie is a little easier, a little more expedient?

And I wonder, too, how the mother who is trying so hard to be accepted by her daughter as a good sport would feel if she could hear her daughter sum up the relationship in these words: "My mother is my best liar."

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, whose controversial amendments to the Natural Gas Act of 1938 are scheduled for early Senate vote, says that two statements about his personal business affairs, as recently reported in this column, are incorrect.

Fair Enough - Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1950)

President Truman, Dean Acheson, the six prime saps of the group recantation entitled "The God That Failed" (a book recently published and widely reviewed) and now Henry Wallace at his trial have reached an understanding that communism is anti-American.

This is a sample of the wisdom and intuition which, under Roosevelt and Truman, and through the agency of such fatheads as Bullitt and Davies in the Moscow embassy, debased the United States and elevated Russia to the dominant position in world affairs with the veto power on the fate of this nation.

It is hopelessly agreed by all who have the moral courage to face the truth that the United States now stands feeble in Russia's way, that Moscow is implacably committed to the obliteration of this nation's government and that Stalin can run our republic as well as starting a war with the new weapons which would plunge us into military dictatorship.

He can get the same results by gradual encroachment at his leisure, causing us to exhaust ourselves in futile efforts to stave him off in Greece, Italy, China or wherever else his initiative tempers him to move, including, of course, the State Department.

Acheson is a typical Harvard double-dome of the Frankfurter type. His friend Alger Hiss, a protégé of Old Wen, is another bow. The arch and talkative A. A. Berle, still another of the same, testified like a roomful of buddies at a martini klatch that Acheson and Hiss were members of the Communist Party in the State Department. Later, Hiss, in effect, was convicted of passing out secret stuff to a Soviet courier when he was found guilty of lying when he said he hadn't.

They believe that the profit system should be abolished and that no citizen receive more than is needed for housing, food and clothing.

This calculation was based on a valuation of $100,000,000 for the 900,000,000 cubic feet estimated reserves in the Kerr-McGee Industries, Inc., fields. Senator Kerr is president of this company.

Contrary to the expectations of many, actual sales of basic steel for 1949 were below those of 1948. Sales in U. S. Steel were off 7.2 percent. Inland Steel down 11.9 percent, and Bethlehem dipped 3.5 percent.

Profits are ragged: The profits picture is something else. From present indications, over-all profits for 1949 may be down as much as 50 percent compared with 1948.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

ON A SUNDAY AFTERNOON at the beginning of the Twentieth Century, scenes like this on Riverside Drive in New York were commonplace. This century rolled in on the very crest of a bicycle craze that started in the late 'Eighties. The sport declined slightly in the early 1900s, but has had periodic "revivals" every few years up to the present day. The 1900 "boneshaker," or "scorcher," evolved from the funny old "ordinary," with its high front wheel. It came in an infinite variety of designs. Tandems were popular as well as three-seaters, and some multiple-seat models running to outrageous lengths. Fifty years ago there were 6,000,000 bicycles in America; today there are some 15,000,000—a tribute to the fascination bicycling has for all ages.

New U.S., Mexico Irrigation Projects Hinted by Envoy

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Mexico's minister of irrigation says most of the difficulties arising from the joint Mexico-U. S. construction of the International Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande have been settled.

The Washington visit of Adolfo Orive Alba had raised speculation a new international irrigation project might be in the wind.

De Alba did not deny the possibility at a news conference, but he said the object of his two-day round of conferences was to finish detail work on the $45,000,000 Falcon Dam which will irrigate 750,000 acres of land.

"The technicalities surrounding such a joint international undertaking — unique in the world — are terrific," De Alba told newsmen.

"But everything has gone smoothly, and work should begin by the middle of this year. The dam should be in operation in 1953."

De Alba emphasized the spirit of cooperation shown by the two countries.

"To me that is the greatest point of all. That, in this unsettled day and age, two countries can get together amicably on an equitable basis for the distribution of waters impounded in a reservoir jointly built and jointly financed. No other people in the world, no two other countries, could do this."

Mexico will pay $20,000,000 and the U. S. $25,000,000 toward Falcon Dam construction. The waters will be distributed in a similar basis.

"However, the reservoir will serve as a sort of bank," De Alba said. "One country can 'borrow' water from the other in times of emergency."

Details of the Morales Dam between Arizona and Lower California were also discussed, De Alba said.

But most of his work was on the Falcon Dam. He explained that Mexican engineers and workers will construct half the dam. United States technicians and workers the other half. A sort of "free zone" will be erected around the project to eliminate complications in crossing borders.

U.S. Claiming Texan's Assets

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — A lien against all property owned by Joseph Barshop, wealthy fruit importer convicted of income tax evasion, is on file here.

The lien, filed by the U. S. government, is to protect $1,084,641.55 the government claims is the amount of unpaid income tax Mr. and Mrs. Barshop owe for 1941-44.

The lien was filed in Austin by F. B. Parsons, assistant collector of internal revenue for the first district of Texas. It was received late yesterday by Bexar County.

The government claims Mrs. Barshop owes $402,820.15 in unpaid taxes and Barshop owes $681,821.40.

Barshop was convicted on five counts of evasion.

He was assessed a total of $25,000 fine, sentenced to serve three years in a federal prison and granted a two year suspended term on condition he pay the fine and settle his debt to the government.

Barshop is free under a $40,000 appeal bond.

Hippos May Be Cute But They Can't Cook

AUSTIN — (AP) — A beautiful woman is no more beautiful than a beautiful hippo or horse, says art professor Henry N. Rasmussen.

"There is no artistic grounds for assuming that a woman is any more beautiful than a horse or an old gnarled tree," the University of Texas teacher says.

Rasmussen made the statement in his new book, "Art Structure," published by McGraw-Hill.

He disagrees with the centuries-old assumption that the female form is the highest form of natural beauty.

"With rare exceptions," Rasmussen says, "nature lavishes each single organism, from an ant to a hippopotamus, from an onion to a mountain, from a snake to a sunset, with structural harmony, balance and color."

Czechs Expelled By Netherlands

THE HAGUE — (AP) — The Netherlands moved in reprisal against Czechoslovakia today by ordering the expulsion of two members of the Czech legation here.

Last night three Dutch diplomats were ordered by Czechoslovakia to leave Prague within eight days on charges of anti-state activities.

$3,000 TAKEN — (AP) — A pair of bandits netted about $3,000 yesterday in a holdup of the Lead Products Company, Inc.

STUDENT OF THE SUN DIAL — James T. Walker, of Long Beach, Cal., World War II bomber pilot, shows some of the sun dials he has designed and built as a hobby at his home.

Fishing Contest Lottery Ruling Change Sought

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Mack (R-Wash.) plans to introduce a bill to prevent the post office from classifying certain fishing contests as lotteries.

Mack sniffs at a P.O. ruling that fishing contests which offer prizes for the catcher of the biggest fish are lotteries — or games of chance — and may not be advertised through the mails.

Mack's legislation would exempt from such a ruling any "biggest fish" contest approved by a state's governor.

Champion Baby Beef Selected in Amarillo

AMARILLO — (AP) — The grand champion baby beef at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show was exhibited by Keith Green, 18, 4-H Club boy from Dalhart.

Green's Hereford calf yesterday edged out one shown by Perry Walker, 18, of Big Spring.

Order Halting Mexico Limes Is Withheld

LAREDO — (AP) — An order prohibiting enforcement of the state quarantine against importation from Mexico of sour limes has been issued by district judge R. D. Wright.

The restraining order named J. E. McDonald, Texas agriculture commissioner, and G. E. Shiner, Laredo deputy commissioner. Judge Wright set March 10 for a hearing on a temporary injunction against the lime section of the citrus quarantine order.

The order and injunction were asked by W. K. Austin of the T. A. Austin Company, Laredo lime importers for 50 years.

The petition claimed McDonald's emergency quarantine against the citrus black fly on Jan. 12 did not prohibit entry of limes, and that when notice of a hearing on a permanent quarantine was given, it did not mention limes though it did mention oranges, grapefruit, and Manila mangoes. However, when the quarantine was imposed Feb. 1 it prohibited shipments into Texas of limes.

Austin said that if he had been given notice that limes would be included he could have successfully resisted the quarantine.

Well-Known Insurance, Ad Man Dies

DALLAS — (AP) — Alfonso Johnson, nationally-known insurance and advertising man, died of a heart attack here yesterday.

Johnson, whose broad career in journalism had carried him half-way around the world, suffered the attack while at work in his office yesterday and died later in a hospital.

A native of Iowa, Johnson attended public schools in Chillicothe, Mo., and received a degree in journalism from the University of Missouri. He was one-time business manager of the Japan Advertiser; a trade commissioner in the American embassy in Tokyo and was a former business editor of The Dallas News.

Johnson was the writer of a unique daily newspaper feature called "Bible Says." The brief feature consisted of a Bible verse, applied to modern-day life. Johnson's close study of the Bible, over the years, led to its origination.

Johnson was a leader in many civic enterprises and was former president of the Dallas Public Library Board. "No public investment benefits so many people at so small a per capita cost as a public library," he once said.

He is survived by his wife; two sisters, Miss Mildred Johnson, a teacher in the University of Missouri; Mrs. T. E. Maxwell, of Crawfordville, Iowa, and a brother, Axel Johnson of Chillicothe, Mo.

LaFleur Begins Serving Sentence

ORANGE — (AP) — Paul LaFleur has started serving prison sentences for attacking an Orange school girl and shooting and robbing her teen age escort. He was given a 99-year sentence in each case.

Officers yesterday took him to the Huntsville State Prison.

Judge A. Lindsey ruled the 99-year term would start after the 30-year-old convict finished serving four other sentences.

District Attorney Robert Hillin said this means LaFleur must serve about 50 years before becoming eligible for a parole or a pardon.

Jaycees Back School Bonds

The Pampa Jaycees voted unanimously to support the present school bond issue at their regular weekly luncheon meeting yesterday.

The movement came after a two-week study of the proposed bond issue and after discussion concerning the various parts of the proposed program.

The vote followed a talk by C. P. Buckler, in which he explained each part of the proposed bond issue, asserted a need for the improvements and explained how the committee reached its decisions on what improvements were needed.

Buckler, who spent 16 years on the school board and six on the Gray County Draft Board, stated that the most opposition to the bond was being encountered in the proposed vocational-physical education-boys gym. He said he felt that that was the most important part of the program.

Buckler went on to explain how the proposed building could be a multi-purpose unit, housing several vocational trades class rooms in addition to the coaches' offices, dressing rooms and other facilities.

Buckler stated he has found in his long experience in the real estate business that a school building is the most important asset to any owner.

The opposition points to the program were also discussed. W. B. Weathered answered questions that the Jaycees had concerning the election to be held March 18.

A letter of congratulation, sent to John Ben Shepperd, was signed by all the members of the Jaycees.

A letter of resignation from office was read to the club from Lee Cisneros, former second vice president of the organization.

Boone said that when he first heard of Johnson's order on Feb. 1 directing the closing of the hospitals, "my color was just as bad as that of General Bliss and Admiral Swanson."

He was referring to earlier testimony of Maj. Gen. Raymond Bliss, Army surgeon general, and Rear Adm. Clifford A. Swanson, Navy surgeon general, that neither had been consulted in advance.

Later Maj. Gen. Harry G. Armstrong, the Air Force top medical man, said this was true also in his case.

Boone said Veterans Administrator Carl Gray, Jr. also was "shocked" when he learned of the order and considered it "a terrible blow" to the VA hospital program.

Hutchinson was an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate in 1946, running against Senator Harry F. Byrd.

Byrd has been a frequent critic of Truman administration policies.

Suicide Tried By David Ash

AMARILLO — Two attempts at suicide by David "Smoky" Ash, convicted in Federal Court here on a narcotics charge and sentenced to five years in the federal penitentiary, were thwarted by sheriff's deputies yesterday afternoon and last night.

Ash, a brother to Carl and Alvin Ash, held in Pampa on burglary charges, first slashed his left arm about midway between the wrist and the elbow.

The slashing occurred in Ash's county jail cell about 6 p.m. Four hours later Deputy Sheriff Henry Haggard and the jailer found Ash dangling from his cell door, a towel around his neck.

The convicted man used a towel as a rope and when found his feet were two feet from the cell floor.

Officers at first believed him to be dead, but revived him in ten minutes.

JOHNSON

Just last week, the full House Armed Services Committee labeled the removal of Denfeld as a reprisal for "his frank and honest testimony" on Navy dissatisfaction.

Boone, in his testimony, said he considered Johnson's proposed closing of five general hospitals shortsighted and that, plus proposed reductions in the size of other hospitals, would affect the training of medical personnel for the armed services.

Boone said that when he first heard of Johnson's order on Feb. 1 directing the closing of the hospitals, "my color was just as bad as that of General Bliss and Admiral Swanson."

He was referring to earlier testimony of Maj. Gen. Raymond Bliss, Army surgeon general, and Rear Adm. Clifford A. Swanson, Navy surgeon general, that neither had been consulted in advance.

TRAFFIC

In other awards to contractors the commission awarded Fred Berryhill of Lubbock the contract for supplying a new side broom for sweeping city streets.

The broom, attached to the side of a tractor, shoves the dirt from the street to the gutter where the sweeper picks it up.

The broom will cost the city $895, less a $125 trade-in allowance for the old one, a 15-year-old broom.

Consideration on a new housing project, moving completely built homes into Pampa, was continued, to give the Engineer Department a chance to check with the Amarillo firm, manufacturing the houses, on plumbing and wiring.

City Engineer Ray Evans said the houses were built with excellent materials and the work done by obviously good craftsmen, but added he did not know if the plumbing and wiring came up to the Pampa plumbing and electrical ordinances.

Approval for moving the houses to Pampa was tabled on that account.

According to reports, the houses are completely constructed down to plastering, wiring and plumbing, and are move into position ready for occupancy.

The commission, late in the session, approved appointment of Bruce Pratt, mechanical engineer with the Cabot Co. and Deane Redus, district engineer for Southwestern Public Service Co. to the Electrical Board.

They succeed R. A. Hankhouse, deceased, and Henry Mathieu, who moved from town.
