Young Anglers Will Get Use Of City Lake

The combined efforts of The Pampa Sportsmen's Club, American Legion and Jaycees plus a cooperative City Commission cleared the way yesterday for Pampa kids to have their own fishing grounds and free expert casting instructions for a good many years to come.

The City Commission turned on the green light for the joint proposal by the three groups by authorizing the Sportsmen's Club to stock the city lake in the immediate future and restrict fishing there to boys and girls under 17 years of age.

Two new police cars will soon prowling the city streets at a total cost to the city of $917.83.

Game, Fish, Oyster Commission Due For Pampa Meeting

Friday noon, members of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will be honored with a luncheon in the Palm Room. All sportsmen of the area have been invited to attend the special event.

While here the state officials will hold several meetings as well as inspect the Canadian Wildlife Restoration program. The program is anticipated to run into about $60,000 in an attempt to replenish the area's rapidly depleting wildlife.

Duff Is Nominated By Pennsylvanians City Clean-Up Moves Ahead

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Big Jim Duff, Pennsylvania's re-elected governor, skyrocketed today to a position of vital importance in national Republican affairs today as the winner in the state's most bitter primary election in decades.

Duff was nominated for U. S. Senate by a nearly three-to-one majority. He carried to victory his personally-endorsed ticket for governor and four statewide offices.

In appraising the result, Duff said: "The Republican electorate has indicated definitely that the policy of the party should be aggressive and progressive and not ultra-conservative."

Duff defeated the statewide political organization headed by former U. S. Senator Joseph R. Grundy. For 30 years, Grundy now 87, had been the spokesman and top strategist of the GOP in Pennsylvania.

Duff started the campaign with a pledge to "destroy" what he called "Grundyism" government by a few, for the benefit of a few, at the expense of the public.

Flag Displays Urged Armed Forces Day

All Pampa business houses which own flags were asked today to display them Saturday in commemoration of Armed Forces Day. A combined celebration honoring the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The request to display the flag Saturday was made by President George S. Vineyard of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

"We must always remember that our armed forces stand ready to defend this nation in time of need," Vineyard said.

"I need not say that none of us will ever forget their sacrifice in the last war and all the wars in the past," he continued.

"In honoring the armed forces Saturday we must bear in mind that their strength is one of our big hopes in preventing future wars. A strong America is a safer America."

No special celebration is being planned in Pampa, but residents of the area may get the opportunity to see some of the Air Force's big B-36 bombers which will be touring the skies all over the nation that day.

HOUSTON—(AP)—Customs Agent Al Scharif said a big narcotics smuggling ring was smashed today with the arrest of 26 people at Galveston.

Doubts Cloud Plans for Cut In Excise Tax

WASHINGTON — (AP) — New doubts arose on Capitol Hill today that there will be excise tax reductions this year — unless President Truman changes his mind about vetoing any tax bill that reduces the overall revenues of the treasury.

The House Ways and Means Committee, by voice vote late yesterday, rejected the president's proposal for a $400,000,000 increase in federal levies on inheritances and big gifts.

This was one of the big increases — along with higher corporation taxes and the plugging of tax law loopholes — by which Mr. Truman proposed that Congress offset the loss from proposed excise reductions.

Tax law managers, after yesterday's action, predicted to newsmen that Congress never will be able to offset, with higher taxes elsewhere, the $1,080,000,000 in excise cuts the Ways and Means Committee estimates it has approved already.

The figure is almost twice as big as the $605,000,000 limit Mr. Truman recommended. It includes reductions on furs, jewelry, ladies' handbags, toilet preparations, movie admissions, travel tickets and scores of other items.

The committee has yet to act on the bill finally sent to the White House which will follow the president closely either on the corporation hike or the loophole plugging.

But, while the committee yesterday turned down the bigger estate and gift taxes, it did move to tap the source of additional revenue not specifically suggested by the president.

It voted 16 to 9 to impose a (See DOUBTS, Page 2)

WILLIAM BOYLE

Republican-Voting Town Will Honor Top U.S. Democrat

By AL DOPKING

LEAVENWORTH, Kans. — (AP) — Bill Boyle, the local boy who made good politically, Democrat that is, is coming back for a pat on the back by the old home town, Republican that is.

This county seat town, long a Republican stronghold, tomorrow is going to honor William M. Boyle, Jr., chairman of the Democratic National Committee, strictly as a "successful son."

Boyle was born here and went to school at the old Cathedral Grade School until he was 12 years old. Then his family gave up its confectionery store and moved to nearby Kansas City, across and down a piece on the Missouri River.

Mayor Ted L. Sexton, a prominent Leavenworth Republican, is ramrodding the Bill Boyle program along with Bill Hull, who runs a laundry.

Sexton and everyone connected with arranging the program is anxious to make it clear the "Bill Boyle day" is absolutely non-political. Several chairmen of the arrangement committees shot a neat stick in G. O. P. Local circles. And Sexton emphasizes:

"We're honoring Bill as a local man who has made good."

Boyle, himself, is slated to talk little. He's down for a brief speech on the program. It'll be mostly shaking hands with old boyhood friends and probably trying to remember names and faces that look mighty familiar.

He'll be feted at two banquets. And there'll be a parade, a public reception and tours of the city and nearby points, including trips to the Army Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth and the federal prison here.

Boyle and his wife will arrive here this afternoon. His mother, Mrs. Clara Russell Boyle of Evansville, Ind., came here last week and is staying with a sister, Mrs. Fred Boeppler. She will share the spotlight with her son.

A 20-member subcommittee of the Lions Club plans to plaster some 1,000 welcome stickers on store windows and lamp posts around town tonight. They've also recruited some boys to paste 500 more welcome tags on the windshields of cars just to reassure Boyle they really mean it.

Burglars Get Nearly $600 In Lefors School Break-In

LEFORS — (Special) — Burglars who broke into the Lefors High School business and principal's offices last night made away with approximately $600 in cash, school authorities said this morning.

Cash estimated at more than $500 was taken from a safe from which the knob had been knocked and it was also reported that bonds belonging to some teachers were taken.

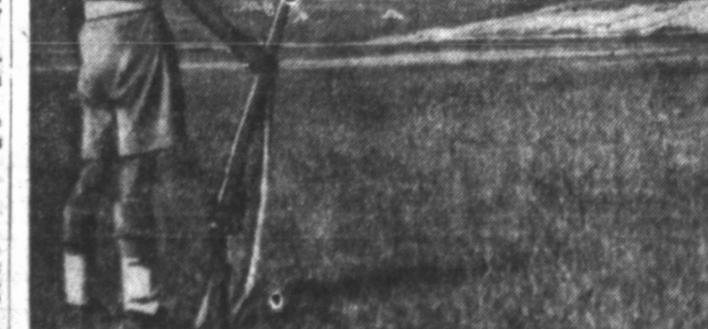

In addition to breaking into the safe, the thieves also entered a principal's office and took small amounts of cash, probably no more than $15, from drawers and a filing cabinet.

Principal Lawson Shaw, who discovered the loss when he opened the office this morning, said entry was probably gained through a classroom window.

He said the burglars apparently went to his office first, took the smaller amount of cash, then took a chair from his office in order to look over the transect into the business office. Shaw said the burglars spied the safe and then used a "jimmy" to pry open the door.

One aspect of the case which will probably aid officers, Shaw said, is that, in breaking open the safe, the burglars' shoes and hands came in contact with a type of white dust used in insulating safes against fire. He said the dust on their shoes and hands left clearly visible tracks and prints.

Shaw summoned Sheriff G. H. Kyle immediately after discovering the loss.

International Army Reported Sought by U.S.

LONDON — (AP) — The United States is pressing its 11 North Atlantic allies to rush formation of an international army against the threat of Russian aggression.

The decision whether to do so probably will be made today by the foreign ministers of the Atlantic Pact countries, meeting in secret deliberations here for the third and perhaps final day.

Diplomatic informants emphasized, however, that military might is not the only aspect of the defense question.

Bigger and more efficient industrial production particularly is needed to underpin the costly defense effort in the view of American diplomats. The United States is reported to be urging Europe to show more speed, determination and confidence in its economic efforts.

The international army idea has developed from a view, held on an increasingly wide scale, that a group of national armies added to each other do not make a unified or efficient defense force.

When a comparatively weak nation attempts to provide itself with all the components of modern war — fighters, bombers, armor, infantry and sea power — its defenses are spread so thin that no branch is effective.

By contrast the American idea is to set up a super-command under the flag of the United States together the armed forces of the 12 members while at the same time looking out for their economic strength and possibly for closer political ties.

The continental countries, for instance, would be expected to go in more heavily for armor and forces. Defense experts are reported to have recommended a minimum of 30 divisions, about 450,000 men — as a standard force pegged strongly on French troops.

The total, however, probably would include British and American troops stationed in Germany.

Britain, some informants say, might be asked to concentrate on jet fighters, bombers and a strong anti-submarine navy. For two reasons: To give quick air support to continental troops in case of attack and to combat the strong Russian submarine fleet.

That would leave costly heavy naval vessels and high-speed bombers to be provided by the United States.

An overall command is envisioned. It would consist of deputies appointed by the foreign ministers to meet frequently, even continuously if necessary.

To head the deputies, the United States urges the appointment of a super-diplomat.

There is considerable insistence that he should be a civilian. This stand reportedly is taken in high places and means that British informants are speculating concerning such an appointment for Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, or for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, wartime supreme Allied commander in Europe, probably is incorrect.

Evald Johnson, Free Of Murder Charges, Faces U.S. Action

AMARILLO — (AP) — Evald Johnson, found innocent in the bludgeoning slaying of W. A. (Tex) Thornton, still faces federal charges of transporting a stolen auto across state lines.

The 30-year-old, 30-year-old Munising, Mich., man was found innocent yesterday by a jury which deliberated three hours and 13 minutes.

"All I can say right now is that I'm very happy. I'm going back to Michigan as soon as I can," Johnson said after the verdict.

Johnson testified that he attacked Thornton, famed oilfield fire fighter, after he found him and Johnson's wife, Diana, 19, made together in a room at Amarillo tourist court cabin June 22, 1949. The Johnsons had hitchhiked a ride with Thornton from Tucuman, N.M.

The auto theft charge grew out of the Johnsons taking Thornton's title and leaving from Amarillo. The car was found abandoned a few days later at Dodge City, Kan.

Diana, who is being held in jail here, was not in the court room when the verdict was given. She also faces the stolen auto charge.

Sobs and cheers from the spectators in the jammed courtroom greeted the verdict. Judge Henry Bishop, who had warned against a demonstration, admonished the spectators for their conduct.

Judge Bishop, in his charge to the jury, outlined three possible defenses to be considered; just (See JOHNSON, Page 2)

South Korea Reds Buying Votes

SEOUL — (AP) — President Syngman Rhee has accused Communist North Korea of pumping money into his South Korea republic to influence the May 30 elections.

"Voters should be cautious of those who are spending too much money in their election campaigns," Rhee warned. He urged some candidates to withdraw so their strength will not be divided against Communist-backed office seekers.

able homicide — under the Texas law that protects a husband who kills a man found in adultery with his wife; self defense — Johnson testified that Thornton yelled "I'll kill you" and grabbed for a pistol when caught in bed with Diana; insanity — defense witnesses testified they believed Johnson, a war veteran, of unsound mind.

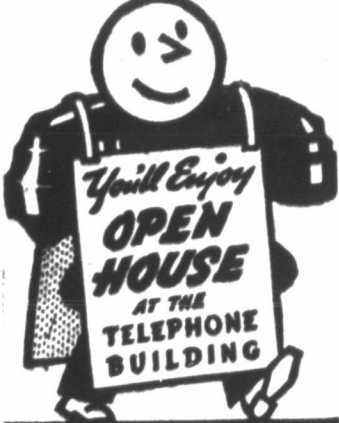

Johnson was arrested in February in his home town of Muncising after his wife had told Washington, D. C. police her husband killed Thornton.

Both were returned here and indicted on murder charges. The indictment against Diana Johnson was dismissed during her husband's trial which began May 8.

Johnson will be arraigned before a U.S. deputy commissioner here tonight on federal charges of transporting a stolen auto across state lines, and of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

His wife pleaded innocent at charges last week.

U.S. District Attorney Frank Potter of Fort Worth said, however, that further action on the federal charges must await impaneling of a new federal grand jury this fall. Potter added that Johnson's acquittal on murder charges will not affect handling of the federal charges.

10 per cent withholding tax on corporation dividends, designed to collect $100,000,000 annually from persons now dodging taxes on dividend income.

This puts no new tax obligation on any persons, but cracks down on those who now fail to report their dividends when they make out income tax returns. It is patterned after the pay-as-you-go tax withholdings from wages and salaries.

The committee was told that $1,400,000,000 of the approximate $8,000,000,000 paid annually in corporation dividends never is reported in individual income tax statements.

The dividend withholding scheme would give the tax collector a sure check on how much dividend income each taxpayer got — and tax dodging in this field might become a thing of the past.

Counting the pick-up from dividend tax dodgers, the committee thus far has found only $320,000,000 of the $1,080,000,000 it needs in new revenue sources to counter the excise reductions.

Junkman Given Mailing Rights

EASTON, Pa. — (AP) — Postman Frank Busch took the mail through in true postal tradition but it sure required a bit of doing.

When Busch couldn't find his pouch of mail at the usual pick-up point yesterday, he started a door-to-door canvass of the neighborhood. One woman, whose name he didn't learn, said she had found the bag lying on her porch.

"Why," she said in a horrified tone, "I thought it was junk and gave it to a junk dealer."

The junk dealer was located. After a lengthy search, postal authorities found the bundle of 700 pieces of mail in a baler with some old paper.

Real Communists' in Film Capital Numbered at 100

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — The total number of "actual, hard-bitten revolutionary, subversive Communists in Hollywood is not much above 100," says the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals. The alliance, headed by actor John Wayne, said: "We know that within the next year motion pictures again will come under congressional fire because of our Communists. Louis Budenz, who knows, has offered to give the Senate the names of the Communists in our community. We know pretty well ourselves who they are, and our estimate is that the total numbers... is not much above 100. One hundred out of 30,000 workers."

The alliance said it has fought openly against communism for seven years, but has received little support from top executives. It asserted that some executives had opposed the alliance and even tried to destroy it.

Reporter Casts Covetous Eye On Fat Name-the-Car Check

By ELLIOTT CHAZE
DENVER — (AP) — The $10,000 check was pale pink and fresh-looking and the corners of it very stiff and sharp.

A well-dressed Kaiser-Frazer spokesman held it, tapping it against the heel of his hand as Frances Atkinson, mother of three children, had won the check by naming the company's new lower priced car.

The spokesman said he was proud to present the check. He said Kaiser-Frazer was delighted. He even said Kaiser-Frazer was pleased; and that Mrs. Charles Atkinson was smart as a whip and that "this mile-high Denver climate must really create some fine brains."

at a slice of tomato on her plate. After a time the man cracked the check at her and she stood up and took it and smiled at him, but it was the same faraway smile she'd given the tomato. Everybody attending the special presentation dinner clapped—including Governor Walter Johnson—and she sat down. Holding the check between thumb and forefinger and wall away from her. As if it were sticky and might get on her dress. "I didn't believe it 'til I felt it," she said. "Look at the zeroes on it. Like the wheels on a train."

As a matter of fact the zeroes looked very little like the wheels on a train.

Governor Johnson laid his napkin aside and got up and said: "I am indeed happy... this is such a happy occasion and we are happy to have so many Colorado winners in the name-the-car contest. This really makes me extremely happy..." Dana Sherill, who like Mrs. Atkinson, lives in Denver, was awarded second prize of $5,000 and a number of other minor winners received checks. The Kaiser-Frazer spokesman said one of the nine Coloradans who took prizes was locked up in a jury room somewhere and couldn't appear personally to collect the fruits of his mile-high brain.

The top 25 winners all proposed the name "Henry J." for the new car. Henry J., as in Henry J. Kaiser, that is. But Mrs. Atkinson won first because her little letter of explanation of why she liked "Henry J." was considered best. She'd written that to America's millions the name symbolizes "vision, courage, democracy at work."

After she'd gotten her check and sat down, she asked her: "Don't you think it's going to sound funny for a person to say: 'I've got to take my Henry J. down town for a grease job today?'"

"Sh-h-h, let's don't talk about that now," she said. "Doesn't it seem that a name like Corvette—or maybe Javelin—would've been something more eye-catching?"

"Sh-h-h-h, the governor's talking, and I really don't know. We've all been so mixed up at my house since they told us we won. My mother folded a dish towel in with the stack of diapers this morning. And now the towel's ruined. My husband put it on the baby."

"How you got the money, do you plan to buy a Henry J.?" This asked chucklingly, a little sarcastically. "I don't know, I just don't know. Mother won a Hudson at a theater drawing just before Christmas."

"A Hudson J.?" "No. Just a Hudson. A blue Hudson," Mrs. Atkinson eyed her interviewer suspiciously. "You know you look kind of mad," she said. "Did you by any chance enter the name-the-car contest?" Silence. "Come on with it," she said. "What'd you want to name the car?" Silence. "Corvette?" she said, snickering slightly. "Javelin?" "Mrs. Atkinson, maybe we'd better be quiet. The governor's talking."

Rival Dealers Given Chance To Be Friends

PATERSON, N. J. — (AP) — David Simon's household merchandise store and Al Daniels' household merchandise store stand side by side on Graham Avenue.

For 10 years, Simon and Daniels argued about sidewalk displays and tried to swipe each other's customers. The cold war became hot. Simon told police that Daniels rushed from his store with a pitchfork and shouted to Simon to come out and fight.

Daniels in turn complained that Simon answered the challenge, flourishing a mop. District Court Judge Milton Schamach sentenced Simon and Daniels to 24 hours in the same cell, to learn how to be friends.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hesse—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: Who was the top money winner among the golfing pros last year?

IT'S VERY APPARENT what the current trouble with the Oilers is—no defense. . . . But do you know just how bad it really is? Here is a look at the Oilers defensive record of all games including last night's against the Albuquerque Dukes.

At this time the Oilers have played a total of 23 games. And in those 23 games they had committed 78 errors, or an average of over three per game. At the present rate they will eclipse last year's total of 284 before they reach the two-third point in the season.

These errors have made the pitching look bad, while actually it hasn't been so terrible. Take the case of George Payte. In seven pitching appearances by the unfortunate righthander, the Oilers have committed 29 errors. These of course have led to many unearned runs and have caused Payte to have a record of one win and four defeats despite the fact he is hurting better ball this year than ever before. Payte has been guilty of some of these errors himself, but he can't be blamed for wanting to get into the act, too.

These best display of juggling was the two-game series with the Gold Sox that wound up the last home stay. In those two games the Oilers committed 12 errors to give the Sox 15 unearned runs. As a result of the shaky defense the morale of the club has fallen to sub-zero and consequently the rest of the game has gone to pot, including the hitting.

The players appear jittery and worried. The players, knowing that Manager Seitz has promised the greatest Oiler club ever (by last Monday) are probably worrying about their jobs because of the poor showing they are making.

If they can once find themselves they have a club that has all the potentialities of a championship aggregation. They have power and pitching. And I'm sure the fielding is there if the players can get settled down.

Howard Bass, former Oiler righthander, is playing with the Elk City Elks, semi-pro champions of the state of Oklahoma and winners of third place in the National Baseball Congress Tournament at Wichita, Kans., last season. Bass will team up with another former Oiler, Jack Riley, and Bob Bauman, former WT-NM League first sacker. Deck Woldt, current Oiler centerfielder, and Eddie Strabec, who was with the Oilers a short while this spring, were members of last season's Elk City team.

Bass is in the local school system at Elk City and he coaches junior high boys' athletics. So

BORGER — (AP) — Former Abilene outfielder Earl Perry welcomed his late season 1949 mates to Borger last night with three rousing extra base hits as he paced the Borgans to a squeaky 8-7 win over the Blue Sox.

He scored the winning run in the Borger ninth, with one out, breaking a 7-7 tie. He opened the ninth with a double, went to third on Manager Mickey Burnett's long fly to right center, and scored on Pappy Williams' feeble grounder to first base that substitute first baseman René Vega fumbled.

Regular first sacker Walt Sessi had gone out for a pinch runner in the Abilene ninth after a walk by Borger pitcher Jim Batchelor.

Buff's Scrimmage Tomorrow Night Is Free to All

CANYON — (WTNS) — Football fans by the hundreds are expected to move into Canyon Wednesday night to view the 1950 West Texas State Buffs in their final spring game under the lights of Buffalo Stadium.

The 8 o'clock free gridiron warfare will feature the 55 candidates of Coach Frank Kimbrough and is expected to be one of the best football shows put on here in many years. A great backfield is developing and the forward wall is impressive both in number and size of the squadmen.

An added highlight to the festivities will be the colorful show planned by the famed Buffalo Band. As guest will be the top twirling stars of the Panhandle who will put on a giant rehearsed show at halftime. More than 100 have been invited to participate.

Top spot to watch in the final struggle will be the fight on at the guard posts where 12 top boys are battling it out. Leading the contenders are J. D. Covington, Borger, 1949 regular; Sam Raburn, Wellington; Phil Payne, Pampa; Oscar Ashley, Amarillo and Darold Roberson, Spur. Closely following are John Spann, Munday; Don Tucker, Throckmorton, Tommy Jinks, Lefors; Bill Boatwright, Tulsa; Howard Picher, Borger; Jerry Bollen, Wellington; and Grady Allen, Rule.

Another heated battle is developing at center since big Bob Kelley has been sidelined with a leg operation. Currently battling it out are Don Patterson, Olton; Deane Wright, Spur; Bill Peachouse, Newcastle; Austin Bowers, Kress and Douglas Mahan, Quanah.

Railbirds at the spring sessions are crowing that the 1950 Buff edition will be the greatest ever to represent the school. Also, many are picking the Buff to have a great deal to say in who carries home the Border Conference pennant next fall.

Television May Put Muzzle on Tempers of Fiery Baseball Players

NEW YORK — (AP) — Are the boys going to have to watch their language now that television is projecting the ball games right up to the family firesides? "Television? Doesn't bother me," says the Giants' Leo Durocher, always quick with the lip. "I don't pay any attention to it."

Other figures of the game agreed today that the baseball field is the players' private domain and television should keep its sensitive ears away. "If these mechanical flaps get stung with a stray epithet occasionally, well, they asked for it."

Casey Stengel, peppery little manager of the New York Yankees, said the men are becoming creepier closer and closer to the playing area. "They're hanging the things over dugouts even," declared the leathery Yankee pilot. "We try to watch what we say but sometimes stuff can't help slipping out. The mikes should be out of range."

The touchy situation was pointed up by an incident in a recent Giant-Dodger game at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher stormed out of the dugout to protest when he thought a Brooklyn pitcher balked and umpire Babe Pinell didn't call it. He gave the ump a good verbal going-over.

Later many television fans said they heard Durocher use a term that wouldn't go well in a ladies sewing circle. Other television viewers said they didn't hear a thing.

Pinell insisted Lippy Leo use no profanity and Leo let the case rest there. If Durocher happened to spill in an off-color word on the way back to the dugout, the umpire added, "I do not know nor do I care."

Race News Ban Won't Stop Human Betting Weakness

LOUISVILLE — (NEA) — U. S. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath has recommended the passage of some kind of law making it a federal offense to transmit betting information from one state to another.

It may be that the proposed legislation will seek only to prohibit the dissemination of racing information through the special services operating by telegraph and telephone for such purposes.

In that case, you can wager next month's rent money that the sharpies will find a way to circumvent the ban.

Regardless of the kind of law McGrath has in mind, the odds are six to two and even that the legislation won't work any better than a certain noble experiment that was undertaken in the Twenties. Like the 18th Amendment, McGrath's proposal, no matter how noble in intent, would attempt by legislation to eliminate certain basic human weaknesses, and as we found out during prohibition, there are few things stronger than a good, solid human weakness.

People have been betting on horses since Queen Anne of England started all the trouble in 1702. Nobody has been able to do much about it, and never will.

Even in the unlikely event that the special wire services are completely closed down, the citizen who desired to risk a bob or two on the fourth at Belmont Park could still do business with information freely available through newspapers, and sometimes more quickly on radio or television.

McGrath hopes to eliminate racing information in those media, he is due for a rude awakening indeed. There is involved not only a violation of the freedom of the press and all that sort of stuff, but think of the results if the idea were carried to its logical and fair conclusion, i.e., the banning of spreading information on any event subject to betting.

In baseball, you wouldn't know who was going to pitch. In football you wouldn't know the condition of that good passer. In basketball you'd have to run the risk of the goon forward being out for the evening.

Wagers are made on the outcome of elections, especially presidential ones, although the price on Harry S. Truman was prohibitive last trip. So McGrath's plan, to be fair, would have to prohibit the printing or broadcasting of election results.

It would have to prohibit the interstate transmission of polls and public opinion surveys. After all, the pollsters are to elections what the handicappers are to horse races.

Some states solved their betting problems by outlawing games of chance, but making it legal to operate games of skill.

In some states, fairs and carnivals are forbidden to operate "wheels" or other games of pure chance, although those concessions, where the suckers attempt to toss rings over objects they would fit only if thoroughly greased and then hammered on, are permissible.

On that basis, horse betting in all its forms would continue to operate.

What with the big bite the tracks and taxes take out of the player's dollar, if you don't think it takes real skill to beat the races, you just ain't tried.

Fertilizer applied to the farm fish pond will increase the growth of plants on which fish feed, hence will increase the fish yield.

Job Warning Given College Graduates
 DALLAS — (AP) — Many college graduates this year will find job-hunting a real task, M. R. Kelly, Dallas District director of the Texas Employment Commission, said yesterday.
 "Good jobs are scarce; graduates are not," said Kelly. "Many graduates will have to take positions in fields outside those for which they were trained."

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

You Can Play Bridge If You Know How to Count

By OSWALD JACOBY
 Written for NEA Service
 People sometimes say to me, "It's easy for you to play bridge."

After all, you're a mathematician. Actually, there is nothing in this. They might just as well say that I can play bridge because I live in Texas. Mind you, I have nothing to say against mathematicians or against my home state of Texas. I simply wish to point out that the mathematics in bridge is usually just a simple matter of counting up to 12. For example, here is a hand that called for a little mathematics. As you will see, it was easy to play correctly.

West opened the jack of diamonds, and that suit was continued for three rounds. South pounced on the third diamond

BIG CHEESES CANCEL CAPITAL COMPETITION

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Two competing slabs of cheese from Ohio and Wisconsin have called "politics" on the referees and declined to go through with their scheduled finish-right in Congress. They will meet May 19 in an exhibition, non-title match instead, their handlers said. "To be truthful," said Rep. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis.), "The Swiss cheese people in both states are apprehensive about that two of East's four black cards were spades. It was clear that he could not have more than two clubs in his hand. This meant that West had four clubs. This information made the rest quite simple. South led the ten of clubs to dummy's ace and returned the deuce of clubs to his king. East played his two small clubs on these tricks. South could then safely finesse through West for the jack of clubs. The finesse of the nine of club naturally held, and South was able to discard the losing spade on dummy's queen of clubs. The play of this hand shows a little counting, but needed no mathematics beyond simple arithmetic. You have to be willing to think to play fine bridge, but your name doesn't have to be Albert Einstein!"

Fund Drive Started For Texas Swimmer

DENISON — (AP) — The Denison Herald has started a campaign to collect enough funds to give Roy Sutter his chance at the English Channel. Sutter, who made a 15-mile distance swim in Lake Texoma Sunday in 7 hours and 39 minutes, would be the first Texan ever to try the channel swim. The Herald started the fund with a contribution of $100 and said it would take a minimum of $2,500 to send Sutter and his boatman, Don Leach, to England.

Sutter is 36 and a former member of the 36th Division. He was wounded by shell fire in Italy and Army doctors told him he would never be able to swim again.

South's next step was to draw three rounds of trumps, ending in the dummy. East followed to all three rounds of trumps, while West discarded on the third round of trumps. At this point, therefore, declarer knew that East had begun the hand with nine red cards, and only four black ones. The next step was to lead a spade from dummy, since the contract could be easy if East happened to hold the ace of spades. When South played the king of spades, West won with the ace and returned the jack of spades. Since East followed suit on two rounds of spades, West won with the ace and returned the jack of spades. Since East followed suit on two rounds of spades, South knew

CHRISTENING WONT HURT HIM

Dear Mrs. Friend
My closest friend is a Catholic and she is married to a man who belongs to no church at all. They have a little boy not quite a year old.
My friend's problem is that she wants the child christened. I don't understand too much about Catholicism but she seems to feel that it is vital to have the baby christened.
Before they were married her husband promised her that their children could be Catholics but now he has changed his mind and has forbidden her to have the baby christened. She is worried sick about it and I suppose that because she can't have it done it looms even more important to her. She has asked my advice and I do not know how to help her.
Mrs. R.

Dear Mrs. R.
I don't know why your friend just doesn't take the baby to the church and have him christened. It is very important to her that it be done if she is a Catholic and she probably won't have a happy moment until he is baptized. And after all she has her husband's original promise that the child is to be reared a Catholic.
It can't possibly hurt the baby and under the circumstances I think the mother is justified in going ahead without her husband's knowledge. Especially as she believed the matter settled when they married.
BOOK ON SCHWEITZER
Dear Mrs. Friend,
Do you know of any good books on the life of Dr. Albert Schweitzer?
L. L.

Dear L. L.
Any library can give you a list of a number of books on Dr. Schweitzer. A brand new one is "Albert Schweitzer: Genius in the Jungle," by Joseph Gollomb. I haven't read it but I understand that it is a very good account of the great man's life.

Q—What causes the ocean to be salty?
A—Most authorities are of the opinion that the water of the oceans has always been salty. Some, however, attribute the salinity of the ocean to the washing out of salts contained in the earth by means of streams emptying into the ocean.

Final Pictures Of Hitler Are Being Distributed ever made of Adolf Hitler are being distributed by the Associated Press.

They are described as showing Hitler coming out of his air raid shelter and examining war damage to his chancellery in Berlin, about April 20, 1945. Two days later Hitler declared the war lost, and 10 days later, on April 30, Hitler died in the air raid bunker, according to British intelligence investigators.

The pictures are attributed to a representative of Hitler's personal photographer, Heinrich Hoffman. Hoffman's darkrooms had been destroyed and the films were given to another studio to be developed. The Berlin magazine Illustrated Telegram says it found the pictures by chance, and describes them as the last ever taken of Hitler.

Substituted 'Best Friend' Suits Child

NEW YORK — (AP) — Eleven-year-old Eugene Gliner had a dog back in Germany. It was a mongrel named Putzie, German for Pal.

But when red-haired Eugene's turn came to leave as a displaced person, he had to choose between the dog and the United States.

He left Putzie behind. The Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society here guessed what it must mean to a boy to give up his dog — especially a boy who spent most of his childhood in a wartime German concentration camp.

So yesterday when Eugene arrived with 1,332 other DP's aboard the Gen. R. L. Howe, the society had something waiting for him.

It was a three-month-old black, wire-haired terrier. The boy looked at the dog and the memories of war and prison camps washed out of his eyes.

The pup looked back and then snuggled in as Eugene dropped to his knees.

They might as well have been alone on the ship for all the attention they paid to any one else — this boy and his dog.

North Texas Wheat Crop Movement Expected Soon

WICHITA FALLS — (AP) — The 1950 wheat crop is expected to begin rolling to grain elevators throughout this area in the next 10 days or two weeks.

Reports received by the Record News here indicated the harvest may begin in either Tillman County, Oklahoma.

The first wheat in the nation normally is produced in North Young County, Texas, or in Texas or Southern Oklahoma.

"With good weather, the harvest should get under way in Young County around May 26," County Agent R. O. Dunkle of Graham, Texas, said.

Vernon Damasco of Frederick, Okla., Tillman County agent, said harvesting in that section of Oklahoma should start "in another 10 days or two weeks if the weather is right."

Agent Max Carpenter of Wichita County, Texas, predicted combining will get underway there between May 26 and June 1.

Brighter prospects for "fair to good" wheat crops were forecast in many sections. A month ago, in the midst of a prolonged drought and considerable insect infestation, farmers were predicting much smaller yields.

In Young County, which produced the nation's first wheat last year, Dunkle predicted an average of 10 bushels per acre. The county averaged 11 bushels last year.

Recent rains have brightened prospects in Haskell County, Texas, Agent F. W. Martin said. The average yield has been set at 10 bushels an acre — the same as last year.

Haskell expects to harvest about 80,000 acres, compared with 105,000 last year.

In Cotton County, Oklahoma, the yield will range from zero to 25 bushels on 120,000 acres, N. H. Carter, Production Marketing Administration official at Walters, Okla., said.

He said greenbug damage was the heaviest in many years, and set the overall average at five bushels. Cotton County is usually among the earliest producers of new crop wheat.

March of Progress Goes Farther Than Pioneer Looked For

ATLANTA — (AP) — When John Silvey built his big brown granite mansion at the corner of Marietta and Spring Streets in 1885, he foresaw that one day it would stand in the way of progress.

The far-sighted drygoods merchant provided for that eventuality. He purchased a tract of land on Peachtree Road, a wooded rural area at that time, and stipulated in his will that the house be moved there when necessary.

In 1900, in the wake of Atlanta's growth, Silvey's 20-room house was taken down block by block, and re-assembled at its new site.

This week Silvey's 95-year-old daughter, Mrs. W. A. Speer, is moving out of the 65-year-old transplanted mansion.

Again, progress caused the move.

Demolition crews will clear the site to make way for a new express highway.

Kind-Hearted Maid Finds Job Too Big

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — (AP) — Marie Gagne, a kitchen maid at Charles V. Chapin hospital, spends part of her $17 weekly salary on child patients — but a television set is too big an order for her to handle alone.

So Marie is resorting to prayers and a personal appeal to the kind-hearted to obtain a set for a 14-year-old polio victim, identified only as "Edgar." He has been confined to the hospital since last summer.

Her initial tour of likely collection spots will carry her to all fire and police stations, she said, because "those fellows are pretty big hearted." And she'll go to church every night to pray.

"I know when I pray for something I usually get it," she said. "I know I can't do it alone."

Wayland Students Must Not Smoke

PLAINVIEW — (AP) — Students who smoke "anywhere, anytime" will not be allowed to enroll at Wayland College, a Baptist institution.

The college trustees voted this at the request of W. J. (Bill) Marshall, the president. The trustees also stipulated that no instructor at the college will be permitted to drink, dance or gamble.

Last year the trustees voted to ban smoking on the campus.

"We are not infringing on students' freedom or asking them not to smoke," said Dr. Marshall. "We are simply saying that they are free to go to some other college if they want to smoke."

Bob Hope Seeks To Cancel Pact

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Bob Hope wants to be released from a $15,000 weekly radio contract that has four more years to run. The comedian disclosed that he has asked Lever Brothers, his longtime radio sponsor, to let him go after he completes this season on June 13.

The beef: the sponsor won't let Hope tape record the show, which would enable him to do the program whenever he wished. Compensation was never an issue, Hope admits. Out of the $15,000 he has to meet all expenses for the cast, but there's plenty left.

Television also was said to be a slight factor in the disagreement. Hope recently received $40,000 for his first TV show for another sponsor.
