Quizzed U.S. Officials Face Ouster

Busy Guill Returns Home for Holidays

Ben Guill, a self-styled "curiosity" in the nation's capital, but just a Pampa man in the Panhandle, returned home Friday afternoon to spend the Memorial Day recess with his family...

Michigan GOP Congressman Visiting Here

Traditionally Democratic Pampa at the top of traditionally Democratic Texas, played host over the weekend to two Republican congressmen, one of them a former Texan.

The meeting was not planned, but was purely coincidental.

Guill will return to Washington on Thursday, although the House does not reconvene until June 5.

On Friday night, June 2, Guill will appear on the Mutual Broadcasting System's "Meet the Press" program...

"I've never been busier in my life," Guill said during an informal interview...

The first Republican in twenty years to come out of Texas said that "there is no question but what I have been a curiosity something like the two-headed boy with the circus."

Things were in a big way for the congressman from the time he first set foot in Washington.

The first affair he went to was the Gordon Dinner thrown annually by the National Press Club...

"I guess I looked right pretty for a country boy," said Guill laughingly...

Guill met such famous dignitaries as Admiral Sherman and Senator Taft...

On the county and precinct levels the situation was maintained—no new candidates and no withdrawals.

However, county attorney candidate Bill W. Waters surprised a lot of high school students when he sent each of the graduates a congratulatory note...

Outside of that, candidates were holding fast to the time honored card and match passing.

June 17 is the deadline for filing with the County Democratic Committee for a place on the primary ballot.

Sawyer Urges Aides to Quit Or Be Fired

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Two Commerce Department officials whose loyalty has been questioned in Congress must quit or face ouster action, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer decreed yesterday.

But he quickly added the action is no reflection on their loyalty, noting their cases are pending before the department loyalty, noting their cases are pending before the department...

The two men are William W. Remington and Michael E. Lee, both $10,000 a year men in the Office of International Trade.

The Senate Commerce Committee is reported to have put pressure on Sawyer to fire Lee. Some senators have said the committee would launch an investigation of the department if Sawyer did not act.

Meantime the controversy over Senator McCarthy's charges of disloyalty in the State Department flared anew, with Attorney General McGrath comparing McCarthy's methods to Hitler's.

McCarthy's charges of disloyalty in the State Department flared anew, with Attorney General McGrath comparing McCarthy's methods to Hitler's.

Remington announced he would not quit under fire, that he would see the fight through. He recently was questioned by the House Un-American Activities Committee in a renewal of charges that he once was a Communist. He flatly denied it.

Lee, denying that he has ever been a member of the Communist Party or of any front organization, also said he will not resign.

"It would be cowardly for me to resign under fire," Lee said in a statement. "I refuse to set a precedent that in the future no government employee will be safe from this kind of persecution."

Lee, chief of the department's Far Eastern branch, has been under attack by Senator Malone (R-Nev.) who called for his removal as a poor security risk.

Memorial Services Scheduled Tuesday

Rev. H. H. Tyler, pastor of the First Christian Church, will be guest speaker at the annual Memorial Day services to be held Tuesday afternoon at Fairview Cemetery.

Services will start at 3 o'clock. In addition to the color guard, honor guard and bugler, Dr. Virgil Mott will sing several selections.

So far requested that all citizens remember to place their flags out in memory of the Americans who died for their country.

Members of the VFW and American Legion Auxiliary will provide 162 graves with poppy wreaths.

Texas Demos Hand Barkley $100,000

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas Democrats last night handed Vice President Barkley a hundred thousand dollar campaign check and heard him say the party is more united than the GOP because "we look forward instead of backwards."

The $100,000 came in blocks of $25 up from hundreds of Democrats and represented the largest contribution Texans have ever made to the war chest, party leaders said.

Each $25 brought the donor a free ticket to eat all the barbecued chicken and beef he could hold at last night's Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at the Austin Coliseum.

Exclusion of Negroes from the fund-raising feed had brought protests to high party officials from two Houston Negroes who said their checks had been returned by Tom Miller, general finance chairman for the party in Texas.

Barkley at a press conference here said he had not received any protests, nor had he heard of them until he reached Texas.

"I have never assumed the liberty of making up the guest list of any function to which I was invited," he said. In response to questions, he said Democratic party dinners in Kentucky include both Negroes and whites.

At Houston, Carter Wesley, publisher of the Houston Informer, a Negro newspaper, said checks sent by him and Hobart Taylor of Houston had been returned by Mr. Miller.

In the speech at the dinner Barkley said the party is united despite its differences, and proud of its record.

Price Daniel Won't Seek Governorship; O'Daniel Watched

AUSTIN—(AP)—Attorney General Price Daniel yesterday yanked himself out of feverish speculation on the governor's race by announcing for reelection to his present post.

A Saturday political flurry brought hats sailing into state rings faster than flying saucers reports.

Other developments in a day-long guessing on what W. Lee O'Daniel's Sunday radio broadcast will say about his future political plans included:

The filing of Pierce Brooks of Dallas and Ben Ramsey of San Augustine in the crowded lieutenant governor's race; Robert W. Gilver of Hillsboro announcing for the State Supreme Court, Place 2; and formal announcement of Will Wilson of Dallas for the Supreme Court, Place 1.

Talk that O'Daniel's office had requested application blanks to file for governor were spiked by State Democratic Chairman John C. Calhoun. He said he hadn't talked to O'Daniel or O'Daniel's office and knew nothing of the plans of the former governor and former U.S. senator.

O'Daniel, meanwhile, was at his home at Abilene preparing to answer the riddle in a statewide broadcast today.

The broadcast will originate at 3 p.m. over WCAP, Fort Worth. The Lone Star network will carry the program from 3 to 3:30 p.m.

U. S. Orders Czechs To Quit New York

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The United States yesterday gave Communist Czechoslovakia two weeks to close down its New York consulate. It was the latest of a series of tit-for-tat crackdowns on Russian satellite countries.

It was the third time in recent weeks that a Czech consulate in this country has been ordered closed.

At the same time the State Department made public a note which Ambassador Ellis Briggs delivered in Prague yesterday to Czech Foreign Minister Vilam Siroky. In this note, the United States:

1. Rejected Czech charges that American diplomats have engaged in spying, but yielded to a Prague order to slash the official U. S. embassy staff to 12 Americans by June 6. This means withdrawal of 14 employees.

2. Declared its intention of closing the American consulate in Bratislava within two weeks in a move to forestall the obvious Czech reaction to the closing of their consulate in New York.

The effect of all these actions is that the United States and Czechoslovakia will have 12-man diplomatic staffs in each other's capitals.

School-Age Census Shows Slight Drop

A total of 5,488 school-age children were in Gray County as of April 1 of this year, official school census figures revealed yesterday. The amount represents a slight slump under last year, when the nose count came out at 5,534. Children between the ages of 6 through 18 in the city of Pampa numbered 4,181, the report showed. Adjoining communities came out with the following tallies: Lefors, 437; Hopkins 174; Grand View, 53; Back, 16; Alamed, 102; and McLean 965. Negro school population is 118 for the county. County School Superintendent Huey Laycock Saturday was reading the report for shipment to the Census Division of the State Department of Education in Austin.

U. S. Appeals Ruling In Texas City Case

HOURTON — (AP) — A court decision holding the federal government liable for damages suffered in the 1947 Texas City waterfront disaster was appealed yesterday. U. S. Attorney Joseph Cash filed appeal on the 213 damage suits involved in a six-month mass trial to determine the liability question. Federal Judge T. M. Kennedy handed down his ruling here last month. The suits involve claims totaling $100 million. They were filed in behalf of 4000 plaintiffs. Kennedy ruled the government was negligent in carrying out safety precautions in the Texas City dock area on April 16-17 when the freighter Grandcamp, of French registry, and High Flyer exploded with cargoes of ammonium nitrate.

MICHIGAN

(Continued from Page 1) to turn the world upside down with it. He added to this by recounting his observation in Florida before Sen. Pepper was soundly defeated by Rep. Smathers. He said: "You could see the shift then and could tell what would happen to Pepper. However, an election such as this (the special May 6 election) is not a full indication of what can happen in the fall election." The congressional turnover in Washington every election year is nothing less than fantastic in the light of our representative form of government, he said. He qualified this by saying a congressman becomes "provincial or non-provincial" through his appointment on committees. Meaning, he added, that he specializes in some thing that interests his home district or he goes on committees where his work may take him onto the international scene. The home folks begin to disapprove and the next thing happens is he is defeated. A congressman, he explained, can't do anything for his district or the Congress as an institution, if he is defeated and taken out of Congress after one or two terms. He followed this up by saying the Panhandle could best serve itself by sending mail back in November and for several more terms. He also expressed a favorable opinion of Guill as a freshman congressman.

Jury Deadlocks in Adler-Draper Suit

HARTFORD, Conn. — The federal court trial of a $200,000 libel suit by enterprisers Paul Draper and Larry Adler against Mrs. Hester B. McCullough ended yesterday in a jury disagreement. The jury of eight women and four men was unable to decide whether Mrs. McCullough, wife of a Time magazine staff member, libeled Draper and Adler when she accused them of pro-Communist activities. Lawyers for both sides said the case automatically will go back on the court calendar for re-trial at a later date.

Lefors Seniors Graduate in Unusual Ceremonial Program

LEFORS — (Special) — "The Light of Truth," a commencement ritual with a Grecian theme designed to present the students to the audience, was presented Thursday night in the high school auditorium. The eight school girls chorus sang "The Commencement Song" as a processional and recessional. Those taking part in the ritual were Rebecca Breining, Spirit of the Light; Joel Ray Combs, master of ceremonies; Barbara Ross, Guardian of the Light; Forest Duane Hankins, most worthy student; Marlene Swafford, highest ranking student; James Trusty, Successor to the Guardian; Lou Dean Cotten and Mary Nell Gutherie, vestals; Gary Smith and David Lewis, pages. At the close of the ceremony, the seniors lighted candles from the Light of Truth. During this candle-lighting service the chorus hummed softly. Those receiving scholarship awards were Marlene Swafford, valedictorian, with a grade average of 94.94; salutatorian Duane Hankins, with an average of 90.75, and second-ranking girl, Ruby Crandall. Medals were given to Wanda Vaughn and Joe Rice, sportsmanship; Lou Dean Cotten and Bill Latton, popularity; Helen Chamberlin and Jimmy Boggs, personality; and Joy Browning and Richard Archer, Best All-Round. (Continued from Page 1) Democratic state where some of the administration's ideas have been strong opposites. Barkley paraded this "great record of progressive legislation and administration" but observed that had interrupted the rally at a party rally in this Southern party "domestic program of rehabilitation." And he noted the heavy burdens of the cold war. Nevertheless, he said, "We have enjoyed a prosperity which is unequalled in any period of our history." Republican mouthpieces claim we are on the road to bankruptcy and we are on the last mile toward the police state," he said, adding: "No nation is on its road to bankruptcy whose people enjoy a national income of $229,000,000,000 a year, which in one year produced $250,000,000,000 worth of goods and services for which it finds a ready market... which has more than $100,000,000,000 of savings... which finds 60,000,000 people employed at higher wages than ever before."

In a prepared statement, Attorney General Daniel said nothing about the ownership of three million acres of submerged school lands and the Sweatt case contesting separate education for the Negro and white races in Texas, both in the U. S. Supreme Court. As attorney general, Daniel has also piled up a record of the largest number of anti-trust convictions in the history of the state. Another suit shut off horse race gambling news to bookie shops. Others helped the Railroad Commission enforce its crackdown against wasteful flaring of gas in the production of oil. Daniel is the only announcement so far in the attorney general's race.

LaMaster said yesterday he was getting his organization back on working order and would soon set out on the major portion of his campaign.

Jack Allen McPeak, 20-year-old Wayland College student, a 1949 graduate of Pampa High School, received a light brain concussion. He is a nephew of J. Wallace McPeak of Pampa. At the last report last night, he was said to be out of danger. Highway patrolmen said the accident occurred early Friday morning when the 1941 Ford in which the Ferguson and McPeak were riding, driven by the younger Ferguson, pulled out into the highway from Pullman Switch, a farm road, where it hit broadside the auto driven by Martin, who was riding alone. Impact of the collision threw the engine out of the Ferguson car, and piled both autos through a fence and into a field south of the highway and east of Pullman Switch. Patrolmen reported young Ferguson and his father were seated in the front of the Ford with Mrs. Ferguson and McPeak in the rear seat of the five-passenger coupe. McPeak and the elder Ferguson were on the side of the car which was demolished by the impact. Martin was enroute to Clarendon at the time of the tragedy, according to his employers, who said he was working on a bridge job north of that city. He drove a 1948 Chevrolet.

Court Grants $1,000 In Combined Cases Filed for Minors

An agreed judgement of $1,000 on two combined civil suits was handed down by Judge Lewis M. Goodrich Friday in 31st District Court in favor of Richard Glen Garrison and Frida June Garrison, minors, against the Associated Indemnity Corp.

The judgement was the settlement of two cases, one filed in 1946 by R. W. Garrison for 401 weeks of compensation against the Hugh B. Hodges Drilling Co. He alleged permanent disability due to injuries he received on Nov. 1, 1945 while working on a gasoline driven motor at a drilling rig. Garrison was over-compensated by the firm.

Garrison died on July 14, 1947, before the case came to trial. Several weeks later a suit for damages was filed against the insurance company by relatives of his two minor children.

Both suits were combined and the agreed judgement in favor of the two children was handed down this morning by the Court.

Appeals Court Reverses Verdict In Attack Case

The Court of Criminal Appeals has reversed the conviction of Eugene D. Baker, Canadian, tried in Wheeler County, on charges of rape, his attorney, Curtis Douglas, has been notified by wire.

It was the second reversal on Judge Lewis M. Goodrich in 16 appeals to the courts of criminal and civil appeals.

Baker was charged along with L. C. McMinn, Canadian, in the rape of a Canadian waitress last year. McMinn was tried by a Roberts County jury and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. His case was not appealed. Baker's trial was transferred to Wheeler County on a change of venue. He was convicted by a Wheeler County jury and given a five year prison sentence. Baker appealed his case and the conviction was reversed.

Before they were selected, each girl was required to perform before Bill Miller, band director; Miss Shadd, former drum major; Benny Cooper, band student, and Mrs. Tommy Hulsey, a member of the faculty of McLean Public Schools.

SURVIVED FALL—Twenty-one-month-old Monty Hagle of Cincinnati, O., suffered only relatively minor injuries when he fell from his crib, out a third story window, bounced off a porch roof and onto the ground steps. He suffered body bruises and a possible collar bone fracture. Monty is seen shortly after the accident, his face showing only scratches and bruises.

After completing his work at Texas Tech, Bertrand did research at the University of Missouri in 1941-42. Since 1947 he has served as an assistant to the dean of agriculture there, directing a program of guidance for students in that school.

Aircraft Carrier Will House Cafe

LONDON — (AP) — The British aircraft carrier Campania, veteran of savage convoy battles on the wartime northern routes to Russia, will become a floating exhibition for the Festival of Britain in 1951. Painted white and sporting an open-air cafe on her flight deck, the 16,000-tonner will start a tour of Britain's coast ports in April, 1951.

served in the U.S. Navy, which he entered as an apprentice seaman. He was discharged as a lieutenant after 21 months of service in the Pacific on the submarine "Bowfin." Canine Becomes Tobacco 'Addict'

WALTERIA, Calif. — (AP) — Sandy's not particular. He'll smoke any brand. And he doesn't care whether he gets his smoke via pipe, cigar or cigarette. Sandy, a chubby, blond cocker spaniel, though only two years old, inhales, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter's pet doesn't actually puff a pipe, of course. He's a sniffer. The Winters first noticed it several months ago when Sandy began lapping away at the smoke from Charles' cigar. Since then, they say, the animal has become practically a tobacco addict and likes nothing better than to sniff quietly in a corner of a smoke-filled room.

Truck Driver Gets Heroism Award

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Wayne Simpson, who drives a tractor-trailer for a brewing company, has been given a hero award for stopping a runaway truck and trailer.

He was driving a 15-ton load down a five mile grade on the Ridge Route last July when he spotted the driver of another truck-trailer, its brakes burned out, scraping a roadside embankment in an effort to slow down. Simpson maneuvered his rig in front of the runaway and gradually halted both vehicles with his brakes. He was presented with the Highway Hero Award silver medal and a scroll.

Athletics Undergo Manager Change

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Jimmy Dykes was named assistant manager and Mickey Cochrane general manager of the Philadelphia Athletics under the most drastic high command shakeup in 50 years.

The sweeping changes were announced by 87-year-old owner-manager Connie Mack after a hasty meeting of the club's directors. In disclosing that Dykes would replace his son Earle as assistant manager and Cochrane would take charge of the farm system and all playing personnel, Mack said:

Cochrane has been named general manager and will give up his duties as coach. "Cochrane will have complete charge of the farm system, all playing personnel, the signing of players, future trades, etc."

Directors, in whose name the changes were announced, are Roy, Earle and Connie Mack, Jr., Benjamin Shibe MacFarland and Bertram Pierre Hambo. Earle was ill, and not present at the meeting but when informed of the changes, said, "If everyone feels I can be of more service seeking out talent, I am more than happy to do what I can."

"In an effort to bolster the playing personnel of the Athletics, Earle Mack will assume duties as chief player scout. Earle will leave immediately to tour the A's farm clubs.

"Jimmy Dykes will become the new assistant manager. Mickey

I happened to be at the Phillips Country Club Friday and saw some of the local boys shooting their qualifying rounds for the annual Phillips Invitation Golf Tourney. C. F. McGinnis won medalist honors with a fine one under par round of 71. Grover Austin, Jr., was next in line with 72, while Glenn Smoot, Harry Wilbur, and R. M. Samples fired 73's.

Several of the junior golfers are playing in this meet. Ronnie Samples, Richard Miller, both Cox boys — Jackie and Tommie, Dib Stowell, Bernard McNamara are a few of the boys that will play and they are shooting some nice golf and may bear watching all through the tournament.

Oiler Rally Downs Lubbock Hubs, 8-7

Two Home Runs By Richardson Provide Spark

Two tremendous home-run smashes by first baseman Virgil Richardson sparked a late inning Pampa Oiler rally last night in Lubbock as the visiting Oilers smacked their hospitable hosts with their second consecutive loss, 8 to 7. The two clubs are scheduled to close out their current series this afternoon in a double-header beginning at 2 o'clock.

The Oilers started hitting late last night, and then relied on Richardson's big bat to bring them from a 6-0 deficit and keep them in the ball game. His first circuit swing occurred in the seventh frame with two teammates on base and the Oilers trailing, 6-2. Then, in the final inning with one man down, Bill Hassey on first base by virtue of a single and the Oilers still trailing 7-5, "Big Rich" drove a Chris Haskins fast one over the rightfield boards to tie the count.

Bob Clodfelter was then called in to relieve Haskins, who had pitched superbly up to that point. After getting Joe Fortin on a blooper to Jack Sullivan at second, the big righthander then very charitably coasted four batters and in newcomer Bo Dempsey, and the Oiler righthander took a charity ticket to first. Johnny Jeandron lined a single to left, but Dempsey was held at second. Don Rickerton then took advantage of the Hubber bewilderment, and bounced a slow one to Clodfelter on the mound. In an overzealous attempt to stop the Oiler rally, Bob overcharged the ball; then three hurriedly to Walt Stenberg covering first. Stenberg misjudged it and let it go into left field and Dempsey came all the way home with the winning run.

Earl Doud started on the mound for the Oilers, but was driven to shelter in the initial frame on three singles and the same amount of walks. Jackie Wilcox opened festivities with a single to left, Wilcy Moore was issued a walk, Sullivan also drew a free trip and Don Moore drove a high fly to center, scoring Wilcox. Mike Dooley singled to score Moore, Hale walked and Stenberg singled. Exit Earl Doud. Walt Peluso came in and got Eddie McCallum to bound to short and on a perfectly executed double play, Jeandron fired to Deck Woldt, who, in turn, pegged to Richardson to retire the side. The damage was done, however, and the Oilers found themselves trailing, 4-0.

Peluso remained on the mound for four more innings, relinquishing two runs on five scattered hits. He was lifted for pinch-hitter Roy Parker in the fifth, Mack Hyde came on in the sixth, and after allowing one run in the eighth on singles by McCallum and Moore and a sacrifice by Haskins, was also lifted in favor of a pinch-sluggier, Both Parker and Jerry Squires, who were called in for the two pinch appearances, missed three fast strikes and returned to the bench without success.

In the seventh, Haskins momentarily lost control and walked Hassey and Deck Woldt in rapid succession. He then made a drastic mistake — his first of two similar ones during the evening. He fired a fast one to "Virgil" Richardson and then watched it sail over the center field fence. His lead was narrowed to 6-5, since the visitors had gotten their first two runs on a double by Fortin after an error and a walk had placed Woldt and Richardson on base in the fifth.

Richardson's ninth inning homer and Stenberg's error broke up the ball game in the ninth and George Payte stubbornly denied the Hubbers in their final turn at the plate. Payte received credit for the victory, his fourth of the year, as compared with five losses. Clodfelter was charged with the loss, making his season's record 6-2.

Pampa Golfers Prominent in Annual Phillips Tournament

The second annual Phillips Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament is slated to get into its final rounds this afternoon with a field studded by well regarded linksters from the Pampa club.

Approximately 60 of the top talent in this area fired through preliminary and quarter-final rounds yesterday as ten Pampans survived the competition, earning the right to play in today's final rounds. The final pairings are scheduled to begin at one o'clock this afternoon with contestants lining off every five minutes. Playing in the semi-finals will begin at eight this morning, but the championship swatters won't start until this afternoon.

Tragedy struck the meet yesterday when Guy Lee Harris, Borger golfer, fell dead of a heart attack while playing on Green Number 9. He was matched with Gene Donovan.

Highlighting yesterday's action was Tommy Hale's terrific battle against veteran Gordon H. H. Hale, 16-year-old son of the Pampa club's greenkeeper, fought Hamm a terrific battle before losing to the seasoned linker, one up on 18 holes.

Ed Abbot established himself as the tournament favorite with a smashing six under par yesterday. Abbot was runner-up in this year's initial tournament, but Dick Clark, Electric's golfing expert who won the title last year, is not entered in the current meet.

Today's pairings are as follows:
CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT
Gordon Ham vs. Bill Barton.
Cliff Abbott vs. Glenn Smoot.
CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATION
Hubert Allen vs. Grover Austin, Jr.
H. L. Bradley vs. Hap Rogers.

Stranahan Beats Chapman In British Golf Tourney

By BEN PHEGAR
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland — (AP) — Frank Stranahan's "mechanical man" stroking pounded fast-tiring Dick Chapman into submission to win the all-American final of the British Amateur golf championship Saturday, 8 and 6.

Stranahan led at lunch time by three holes and opened up in the afternoon to win five out of 12 and end the match on the 36th green — most lopsided margin in 16 years.

This was the second British amateur title for the young Toledo millionaire, who won in a downpour at Sandwich, England, in 1948.

The crestfallen Chapman, making his fifth futile bid for the British cup, became the first man to be runnerup twice without winning the title.

But this wasn't Dick's day. From the time he pulled his drive into a bunker and pitched out short on the second hole in the morning, Chapman was on the defensive.

None of his shots was working. Stranahan outdrove him consistently by up to 40 yards. Dick's few approaches that weren't short refused to bite the pavement-hard greens and rolled on through for difficult putts. His putter was rarely his friend. He lost five holes by missing putts of five feet or less.

Chapman's only chance was for Stranahan to fold, but Frankie never wavered. He lost the first and last holes of the morning round with momentary putting lapses, but in both cases he evened matters on the very next green. The final produced neither good golf nor good weather. Stranahan took 40 strokes to cover the first nine holes to 41 for Chapman. On the next nine Frank used 37 and Dick 39 for medal rounds of 80 and 77, respectively.

The lunch break didn't improve their scores. Chapman needed a 42 to get through the first nine in the afternoon and Stranahan took a 38. For the 30 holes, Stranahan was six over par, Chapman 14 over.

Onslow Fired As Sox Pilot
CHICAGO — (AP) — The ax has fallen on Manager Jack Onslow, striking a blow for the men vs. women of the Comiskey club, sole owners of the Chicago White Sox.

Overcoming opposition from his mother and president of baseball's pioneer club, Mrs. Grace Comiskey, and General Manager Frank Lane announced the firing of Onslow. It followed the 2-1 Sox defeat by the Cleveland Indians — their 22nd loss in 30 starts.

John "Red" Corridan, 62-year old minor and major league veteran serving his first hitch as a White Sox coach, was appointed field pilot for the remainder of the season.

Vice-president Comiskey, grandson and namesake of the club's founder and heir apparent, had a showdown with his mother and other members of the family, including his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Rigney. He foresaw the firing of 60-year-old Onslow as a solution to the club's failure to win and the threat of a disastrous season at the box office.

Sports Round-Up
By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — Give a thought to the plight of Rip Engle, who says he detests spring football practice. Rip was holding spring drills at Brown when he received and accepted a coaching offer from Penn State.

since he didn't know a thing about the Penn State squad, which already had completed one session, he persuaded the lads to come out for two weeks more practice. Now he has some 40 athletes who served their freshman year at various state teachers colleges around Pennsylvania coming in for a week's look-see so he'll have an idea what to expect of them as sophomores next fall. "It's essential in present-day football," Rip means, "to give a thought to Johns Hopkins, which re-emphasized football a few years ago by eliminating gate receipts. Hopkins came up with an extra-good lacrosse team this spring and students and their gal friends have taken to firing a cannon after each canal and waving Confederate flags like mad... but at least there's not much bidding for lacrosse players."

EMBARRASSING RICHES
Right after Davidson made a clean sweep of Southern Conference tennis tournament, winning the singles and doubles titles and team honors, publicity man Jo Jo Thigpen up and resigned... after trying to beat the drums for teams which, in two seasons, showed only eight victories in 52 football and baseball games. Jo Jo decided he just couldn't stand publicity and resigned to enter the stocks and bonds business... when a thing like that happens to a press agent, you can be sure securities in North Carolina will show a bull-ish trend.

Mike Dooley Named Loop Star of Week

Nosing out some stubborn competition simply by running first in balloting for three days of the seven-day period ending with the games of May 20, infielder-catcher Mike Dooley led the Lubbock Hubbers when nominated "Star of the Week" and joined a team-mate, Wilcy Moore who received the same honor last week.

Dooley started his campaign at third base Sunday, May 14, when he single-handedly kept the Hubbers in the game by hammering out his 3rd and 4th home runs of the season to account for three of the four runs scored by his nine during the afternoon. Mike, laying aside his catching gear for the day, turned in a jam-up day at third base and turned in one of the game's outstanding plays when he speared a hot grounder close to the bag to rob the hitter of a sure-fire double. Three days later at Clovis Dooley laced out two homers to drive in five runs—climaxing two big rallies. And to close out his week Mike hit a three-run homer against the Amarillo Gold Sox May 20, contributing an important single in his ninth during their winning rally, belted out one other single, stole a base, scored twice and made an important throw that helped break up a Gold Sox rally.

Pedro Santiago, left fielder for the Lamesa Lobos; Bill Rosin, pitcher for the Clovis Pioneer; and Pappy Williams, first basing for the Borger, were tied in the voting and scored as runners-up to Dooley for the week.

Opossums Urged as Laboratory Animals

BERKELEY, Calif. — (AP) — A University of California scientist who has succeeded in raising opossums in captivity believes they may become useful as laboratory animals.
Because the embryonic opossum goes through a period of development in his mother's pouch, where he can be observed easily, he may be a good subject for studying mammalian life in one of its earliest forms, says Harold C. Reynolds, museum technician.

Special Privileges Denied 10 Convicts in Mutilation Case

ANGLETON, Texas — (AP) — All special privileges have been denied 10 Darrington Prison Farm convicts who mutilated themselves Wednesday.
O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Prison System, ordered that the men not be permitted to write or receive letters, receive visitors or attend motion picture shows until they are able to return to work.
Ellis also warned all other convicts the same order would apply against other self-mutilators.
Ellis came from Huntsville and personally notified the 10 bandaged men of his order.
The convicts seemed surprised when he said they will not be transferred to Huntsville for treatment.
"The doctor has been here and treated each of you," he said. "You can recuperate here as well as anywhere else."
Nine of the men slashed their heel tendons with razor blades. Another slashed an arm.
Four have been placed in solitary confinement, the remainder in a bare room separated from other convicts.
Ellis talked with the 10 men more than 45 minutes.
Before Ellis ordered that mutilation cases would not be brought to Huntsville the annual total approximated 300.

Melchior and 'Little One' Observe Silver Anniversary

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Jolly, white-haired Lauritz Melchior and his vivacious blonde "kleinchen" (little one) celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Friday night with champagne, caviar and a cake. They offered this advice for marital success:
"Understand one another's problems."
Kleinchen follows the formula to the extent of handling all her husband's business. He consults her about everything.
"That's our recipe for happiness," smiled Melchior at their massive hilltop house. "When it is something she knows more about, she decides. When I know more about a situation, then I decide. Neither of us is boss all of the time. It's a 50-50 thing."
Mrs. Melchior, a foot shorter than her hulking husband, gave up her acting career after they married in Copenhagen in 1925. Her reason: "We would be separated by our different careers and what kind of a marriage is that?"
Since then she has accompanied him everywhere, except on his big game hunts.
The opera singer enjoys telling about meeting his wife, and no wonder:
"I was studying Wagner in Munich. Kleinchen was studying as an actress in a studio nearby. She did her own stunt work and one day she had to bail out of an airplane in a parachute. I heard a big commotion in my garden and ran out to find her caught in a tree. I didn't even know it was a girl until I had untangled her.
"I guess it was love at first sight. We had a date that evening."
The courtship lasted two years. "I think it's very important that a couple wait until they really know each other," Mrs. Melchior remarked.
She debunked the common belief that opera stars are temperamental and denied that her husband is hard to live with. "They aren't all like that," she said, adding with a sigh, "thank goodness."
She had only one complaint: Lauritz sings in the shower. But loud.
"However, I don't mind," she confessed.

Motherly Mongrel Taking Care of Homeless Kittens

GROOM — Lu Lu, a mongrel dog with a mother instinct, could probably teach us humans something about taking care of homeless children.

Gifted with a true mother instinct, Lu Lu recently adopted a family of tiny kittens who had been abandoned by a motorist near the H. C. Taylor home, where Lu Lu lives.

As a true mother should, Lu Lu attends to the every need of her adopted family. She feeds them, bathes them, and gives them all the affection a mother should.

Winnipeg Flood Emergency Over

WINNIPEG — (AP) — Premier Douglas Campbell of Manitoba said yesterday the Canadian Army's flood control headquarters here will be closed soon. This means the great 1950 Red River flood, which inundated a sixth of this city of 350,000, can be considered officially over.

It will take weeks to clean up the muck and sludge, but officials feel that the necessity for emergency measures is gone. By Monday, civilians will have replaced servicemen along the 30 miles of river diking to watch for possible trouble.

To take the Taylor children to their grandparents for the summer, Lu Lu and her kittens were loaded in the car and taken along. The Taylors couldn't do without Lu Lu.

L. N. Atchison and Leslie Hart gave a brief report on their recent trip to Miami, Fla., to attend the Kiwanis International convention.

Speakers at the convention included Walter Judd, U. S. congressman from Minnesota; Jimmy Fiddler, well-known radio commentator; Eddie V. Rickbacker and Louis A. Johnson, retray of defense.

Don Murdock of Canada was elected international president by the 10,000 delegates who registered at the convention. Official delegates totaled about 2,750.

SHALER RISLONE
The Oil Alloy

IN A FLEET ON THE FARM AFLOAT AND IN YOUR FAMILY CAR

Enjoy smooth, new power in 10 miles — Rislone in your oil guarantees it!

When we say "guarantee" we mean it! You get your money back if you can't actually feel the improvement in your car in 10 miles after you put Rislone in your oil.

Rislone is an oil-alloy for all modern motor oils. It works a miracle of "motor magic" in cars of any age! Actually it is a super-lubricant with no harmful ingredients. You can and should keep it in your car all the time.

How Rislone Works
Rislone absorbs gum and sludge, prevents new deposits. That's how it prevents sticking valves, provides full compression, and gives you smooth power at all speeds, quick starting in any weather.

Gum-fighting Rislone does this "constant tune-up" job in all internal combustion engines — on the farm, in the truck fleet, in marine engines, and in the family car. It gives old engines "factory-new" performance. And in new and reconditioned engines it permits driving at normal speeds immediately — eliminates the slow-speed break-in entirely.

Money-back guarantee!

Make this test today:

1. Have your regular service station put a quart of Rislone in your crankcase today! (Two quarts for larger engines.)
2. Drive 10 miles. Watch for these feeble improvements: smoother, quieter power; new "get-up-and-go"; power-surge pick up.
3. If you don't actually feel this difference in just 10 miles — return to your station for a full refund.

Make this test today!

FOR THE HOME

THE GROOM WORE SPLINTS—Salvatore R. Chilone, Jr., of Hartford, Conn., fell and broke his leg four days before he was to be wed, but he didn't let that interfere with his plans. He is seen in the hospital with his bride, Anna Bellone, 19, as the Rev. Joseph A. Otto reads the marriage service.

Greater Attention To Spiritual Need's Urged by Solon

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Fellows (R-Me) told House colleagues they might well ponder these thoughts during the Memorial Day holidays:

"More alarming than the knowledge that others possess the secret of the atom bomb is the record of failure to stockpile spiritual resources.

"We have more houses than in 1900 but fewer homes.

"We have better school buildings, but no greater wisdom.

"We have labor and time-saving devices unknown 50 years ago, but find no more opportunity to be with our children.

"We have gained in pecuniary wealth, and lost in sense of values."

Fellows suggested that attention to these things would be a good way to honor America's war dead.

Citizenship Denied Former Hitlerite

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — The United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld a lower Texas court ruling denying citizenship to Heinrich F. G. H. Molsen of Dallas, a one-time member of the Nazi Party.

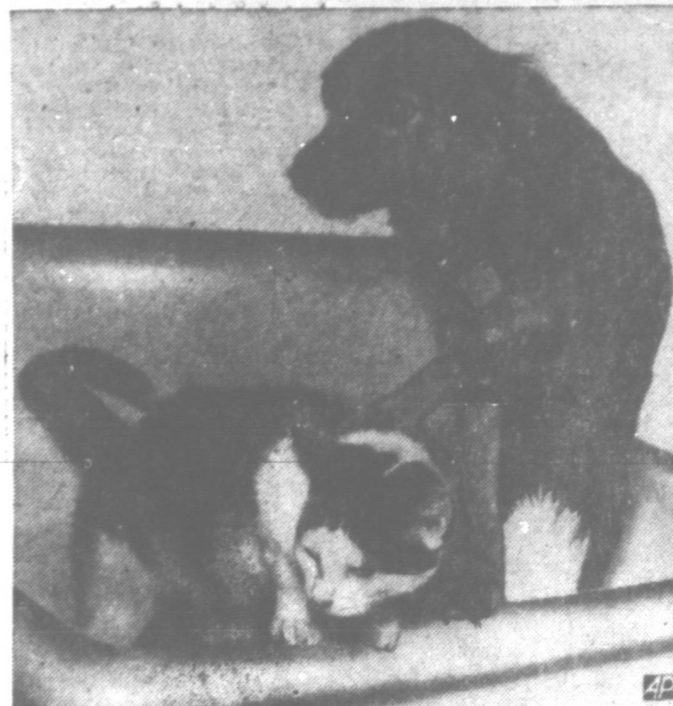

Molsen's certificate was denied June 25, 1949, by U.S. District Judge William H. Atwell, in Dallas.

Records in the case show that Molsen, a German, entered this country in 1925 and had been engaged in the cotton business since then.

He was taken into custody three times and interned twice as an enemy alien, the records showed.

The appeals court said that it had been shown that in certain reports by the War Department to the committee on military affairs of the U. S. Senate he was listed as a member of the Nazi Party although living in the United States.

The court said the record showed that he entered the Nazi Party March 1, 1935.

Movie Attendance in 20,000,000 Drop

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Motion picture theatres suffered a 20,000,000 a week attendance drop last year, Film Daily estimates.

The trade paper estimates the average weekly movie attendance in 1949 at 70,000,000, the lowest since 1934 when, it figured, 70,000,000 Americans were attending the flickers weekly.

Film Daily says its figures are a guess, because no actual check has ever been made.

The answer, thinks the paper, is that people now have a diversity of entertainment, and, more important, less money to spend.

Sweet goldenrod, growing wild in most states east of the Mississippi, has been found to yield a colorless oil with a licorice odor.

'Atomic Minds' Still Kant Spel Newkleuss

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — (AP) — A Lehigh University professor has proof that minds capable of penetrating the heart of atom science can tumble to grade school rank in spelling it out.

Dr. Harold V. Anderson, professor of chemistry, has a list of 88 ways the word "nucleus" can be misspelled. It runs from such reasonable variations as "neuculus" and "nuclius" to exotic sports like "neucleous" and "neucleus's."

The professor has compiled his list over the last 25 years. Most of it was contributed in student papers. But the rest comes from correspondence with the master minds of science in research and industry.

Boyle Takes Ape's Side in Fight Over Cross-Breeding

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK — (AP) — Shall we have "mapes" in the world? A "mapes," presumably, is what you would get if you cross-bred a man and an ape.

Creation of this hybrid by artificial mating between humans and apes recently was proposed by Dr. Sydney William Britton, University of Virginia physiologist.

He said it was scientifically possible and might help our hairy forest cousins speed up their evolution — bring them out of the woods and onto civilized sidewalks.

This proposal drew howls from some. They said it was immoral, impossible, unthinkable, and the mere suggestion made them nervous.

I'm against the idea, too. I don't think it would be fair to the apes.

I just can't believe that a mapes — half-man, half-ape — would be happy in our culture, physically, mentally or morally.

As it is now, apes in the jungle live a more naturally moral life than human beings, they are less confused of mind and they are bodily stronger. They are more polite to each other than people; they require no police force to keep them in order. Divorce is rare among them. Without benefit of child psychologists they rear their babies into fine healthy apes instead of juvenile delinquents.

While men scabble dutifully with each other for power and more powers, the apes enjoy peace in their time. They don't start wars. And who can say they don't enjoy a lovely sunset just as much as we?

Would it be justice to marry this fine clean race to the troubles of mankind? If by doing so, human beings might gain the elemental common sense virtues of the apes it would be a worthwhile project — for our own sakes. But the chances are we wouldn't raise the apes higher — we'd merely educate them to our vices, rather than ourselves acquire their merits.

LIBERTY BELL REPLICA TO VISIT HERE

Pictured above is the full-size exact duplicate of the Liberty Bell which will be displayed locally and will tour the state as the symbol of the Independence Savings Bonds Drive from May 15 to July 4, which urges the people to "Save for your Independence."

Fifty-two of these bells, touring the nation during the drive, were completely donated by America's copper producers. Companies donating the Liberty Bells are the Anaconda Copper Corp., Phelps-Dodge Corp., American Smelting and Refining Co., The American Metal Co. Ltd., Miami Copper Co. The U. S. Steel Corp.'s American Bridge Company supplied the stays and hardware used in mounting the bells. The Ford Motor Company is providing the transportation of these bells across the nation.

Liberty Bell Replica Due For Exhibition Here June 5

The Liberty Bell, world renowned spokesman of American freedom, will speak again, by proxy, when an exact replica of the original peals out over the city of Pampa the afternoon of June 5. The bell will be here in connection with the latest United States Savings Bonds drive.

It's one of 52 replicas of the original, now silently reposing in Philadelphia.

Sherman White, chairman of the bond drive in the county, urges all Pampans to make it a point to see this symbol of our American heritage.

The exact location of the bell exhibition will be announced later, White said. He added that appropriate ceremonies will also be staged at the time of the bell's visit.

The chiming gear will differ in only one respect from the Independence bell; the well-known crack crossing the bell's side in so many pictures and posters will be absent from the replica. Instead, the broken spot will be merely simulated, in order to permit ringing of the bell. The original has not rung on a full scale since 1835 when the venerated symbol received its fracture.

Great pains were taken to give the substitute bells real authenticity for the bond drive. They were made in a little French village, long famous for its bell making.

A motor truck will bear the weight of the bell when it makes its appearance in Pampa.

Prior to June 5, the bell exhibition will be held in Amarillo on June 3, Leaving Pampa, the bell will be displayed at Shamrock on Tuesday, June 6.

Other scheduled stops include Memphis and Berger on June 7, and Spearman and Perryton the following day.

As a climax to its "Top of Texas" visit, the chiming device will appear on Friday, June 9, in Dumas and Dalhart.

Dallas VA Hospital Head Transferred

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Veterans Administration said yesterday Dr. J. Ralston Wells, manager of the Veterans Hospital at Dallas, has been appointed manager of the new Veterans Hospital at Grand Island, Neb.

No decision has been made on Wells' successor, the agency said.

The new 200-bed general medical and surgical hospital is to be dedicated July 30. It cost $5,337,000.

Wells, 60, is a native of Philadelphia. He served in both world wars — with the ambulance service in France in 1917, and at Fort McClellan, Ala., from 1942 to 1944. He has been manager of the Dallas hospital since December, 1947.

Editor Says Russia Has Developed New, Mightier A-Bomb

NEW YORK — (AP) — The London editor who claimed knowledge of Russia's first atomic explosion says he has reports the Soviet has tested a new type atomic bomb stronger than anything tried out thus far by the United States.

Kennedy de Courcy, editor of a private news letter, said: "The reports reaching us persist that Russia has exploded some kind of bomb many times more powerful than the type of atomic bomb used by the western powers."

De Courcy also said he has received reports that Russia is engaged in large-scale troop movements in areas bordering the middle eastern oil lands of Arabia and Iraq.

By 1952, he said, Russia "will be in a position to strike with great power if necessary." Russia's object, he added, "will be to outflank defensive positions in Turkey and Iraq."

The first Russian atom blast was reported by De Courcy in 1949 — three weeks before President Truman announced that Russia had such atomic resources.

Rita Expecting, Newspaper Says

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — From a "source close to the family" the Los Angeles Times says it has learned that Princess Aily Khan, the former Rita Hayworth, is expecting another baby.

Rita's father, dancing instructor Eduardo Cansino, says he has not been advised. "It's all news to me," he said. "Rita writes now and then but I haven't heard from her in three months. A new grandchild will be all right by me."

The prince and Miss Hayworth were married May 27, 1949, in France. Their first daughter was born Dec. 27.

The Times says its informant points that Aily Khan "is very jealous of Rita, so jealous she won't permit her to leave Europe to make a picture in Hollywood as she had hoped to do this summer."

Former Czech Officer Seeks To Win Favor

LONDON — (AP) — Communist sources for the second successive day reported yesterday an attempt by Czechoslovakia's former foreign minister, Vladimir Clementis, to regain party favor.

Both reports originated at the ninth Slovak Communist Party congress in Bratislava, capital of Slovakia. Clementis resigned without explanation on March 14 after persistent reports that he was not in Communist good graces because he had been a member of the wartime Czech government-in-exile in London.

Clementis' successor as foreign minister, Vilem Siroky, on Wednesday accused his predecessor of anti-Russian activities and said his "self-criticism" had been unacceptable to the party's high command.

It was the first public charge made by a high Czech official against Clementis.

Yesterday the Soviet news agency Tass reported Clementis appeared before the Bratislava congress and "fully admitted the mistakes he has made."

Tass said Clementis promised to "be with the party and adopt a correct Leninist-Stalinist attitude towards it in order genuinely to participate in socialist construction."

The Soviet agency report did not say what action the party congress took toward Clementis.

Friendly Neighbors Live Peacefully-- In Wrong Houses

HUTCHINSON, Kans. — (AP) — Chester Guetteche and W. V. Swan, next door neighbors for six years, discovered they have been living in the wrong houses. Swan owned the house Guetteche lived in and Guetteche owned the house Swan called home.

For some time they have been wondering if something was a little amiss. First there were the property taxes. Swan lived in the smallest house, 724 East Sixth, but paid the biggest tax.

Then there was the paving tax. Swan, who lived the greatest distance from newly-paved Cleveland Street, got a tax assessment. Guetteche, at 722 East Sixth, didn't.

Three years ago Guetteche took out a mortgage on Swan's house, thinking, of course, it was his.

Last Wednesday Swan (high tax, small house) asked the county commissioners to check up. They discovered the abstracts had been fouled up in the Van Emans estate, which sold the two houses.

Swan wanted 724 East Sixth but was sold Lots 11 and 12 which contained the house numbered 722. He moved into 724.

The following year Guetteche bought Lots 13 and 14, which contained the house numbered 724 East Sixth, thinking he was getting 722. He moved into 722.

Through the years, each has a paid taxes on the house he owned but not the one he lived in. Confronted with the facts, the neighbors had a council.

"Let's swap houses," suggested Swan. Guetteche agreed.

It will be an even trade, except that Guetteche will transfer the mortgage to his house.

And they'll still be able to compare radish diameters, or tax assessments, over the back fence.

Youths Arrested in Slayings of Two California Officers

TRUCKEE, Calif. — (AP) — Two teen age boys — James McKay, 18, and Robert Sturm, 19, are being held in jail here accused of slaying two deputy sheriffs who were returning them from the Pacific Northwest to a California reformatory from which they escaped on April 29.

Highway Patrolman William Gausche said the boys admitted overpowering the officers, shooting them Thursday night with their own guns, hiding their bodies in the brush and fleeing in the deputies' car.

The Shasta County, Calif., deputies were Earl Sholes, 54, and Dan Heryford, 54, who were escorting the boys from Seattle.

Patrolman Gausche spotted the boys — McKay of Sacramento, Calif., and Sturm, of Orland, Calif. — hitchhiking Friday about an hour after the bodies were found near Redding, some 200 miles away. The pair had abandoned the officers' car after the gas gave out.

Anthrax Outbreak Hits Near Houston

HOUSTON — (AP) — Anthrax, deadly cattle disease, has struck at ranches in south Harris County.

One veterinarian said there is indication the disease has spread "in alarming proportions."

Twelve head of cattle were reported to have died on a 1200-acre ranch near Genoa.

Several veterinarians from Houston, including Dr. J. W. Williamson, former head of the city's meat inspection division, confirmed the cattle died of anthrax.

"Deaths from the disease occur every year in Harris County but 12 at one whack indicates a disease in alarming proportions," one veterinarian said.

Both lads had been given minor reformatory terms.

Ordinary Lard Fights Eczema

CHICAGO — (AP) — Some cases of eczema can be cleared up by the addition of ordinary fresh lard to the diet, Dr. Arlid E. Hansen of the University of Texas reports.

Lard was given to 90 adults and 73 infants with the skin disorder. Dr. Hansen said, and improvement was noted in 57 percent of the adults, 84 percent of the infants and 62 percent of the 2-to-15-year-old group.

An editorial in the National Livestock Producer, a trade publication, reported the study.

Freeport Channel Being Straightened

FREEPORT, Texas — (AP) — Two sharp turns in the Freeport Harbor Channel are being transformed into more gentle bends to ease movement of water traffic.

One of the bends is at Quintana Point near the intersection of the harbor channel with the Intracoastal Canal. The other is near the Freeport turning basin west of the sulphur docks.

The work is being done by government engineers with maintenance money allocated to the Freeport harbor.

Texas Grain, Feed Is Shipped to West

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — A heavy movement of Texas grain and feed to western states has resulted in the shipment of more than 800 carloads to California, Arizona, Oregon and Washington.

The report came last night from Walter T. McKay, chief of the division of entomology and plant quarantine, State Department of Agriculture.

Natural home ranges in color from very dark to almost white.

McKay said a mill and elevator firm in Fort Worth and Amarillo has received an order for 1,000 more cars.

He said shipments are being made from most parts of the state, including several cars from the Rio Grande Valley.

McKay said the shipments resulted from an embargo placed by the western states on grain from states where purchases have been made for many years due to reported infestations of the European corn borer.

What's Cookin' In Gray County HD Club Work

By MARY ANNE DUKE
CONSUMER EDUCATION
 "Homemakers are interested in getting what they pay for, whether they're buying clothing, household equipment or food," said Miss Myrtle Murray, extension service home marketing specialist, to Gray County Home Demonstration Club marketing chairman Wednesday.

According to Miss Murray, it isn't always easy to judge quality, especially of canned foods. There is no way to judge the product in a tin container except from the information on the label. To buy wisely, the consumer must know four things: her own needs, how much money she has to spend, the price of the article, and its quality. On the first three points, it is easy for her to find the answers. But how is she to get information about the fourth—the quality of the product? One of the simplest, surest, and quickest ways it can be given is by means of an information label attached to the product.

In giving a demonstration on "Reading Labels on Canned Goods," Miss Murray told of the following three types of information that may be on labels: mandatory, informative, and grades.

The mandatory information is that which is required by federal laws or the Pure Food and Drug Act: brand, name of the product or other ingredients, name of canning or distributing company and net contents.

An informative label should be such that both the merchant and the consumer would know the quality of food inside the container. Grade labeling is a practical and uniform way of telling the housewife about the quality she cannot see of canned fruits and vegetables.

The bulletin, "Be Wise When You Buy," prepared by Miss Murray, was used during the meeting. Free copies of this bulletin may be secured in the Home Demonstration agent's office.

Club leaders attending this training meeting, which was held in the HD agent's office, included Misses Paul Rice, B. M. Vaughn, B. E. Engle, A. C. Crawford, B. Taylor, Jr., J. M. (See SHOWERS, Page 12)

Palaver de Pampa

SUMMER VACATION is the answer to why Mothers turn grey. I guess, however, that the teachers do deserve a little rest after nine hectic months. And then, too, it's nice to have the little Indians around the house all day long again.

WONDER WHAT MOTHER here had the largest number of report cards returned home last Friday? Mrs. Walter Rogers would be at the top of the list, I suspect. Aren't there four Rogers children of school age? Then Mrs. L. O. Thornton has three in school—I've had the opportunity of knowing her oldest son.

LOOKS LIKE Fred Thompson is just about settled in his new business location. They were working with their shirt sleeves right up to the other day. And what type of business is that out by Kelly's Drug on Alcock? They have bright striped awnings on artificial windows inside the store. "Bout the "cutest" interior I've seen in a long time. . . . And speaking of interiors, I'd like to correct myself on the color scheme of Mrs. A. Barber. . . she hates red. . . . Her color scheme is deep violet, pale lilac and magenta. . . . As startling as it is, Mrs. Barber, I'll come and see it sometime.

WE ALWAYS HAVE signs of World War III at our house when I burn the waffles. Recently, I found the most delightful old Southern recipe for chocolate waffles—now the family can't tell the charcoal from the chocolate!

THERE WAS A GOOD attendance at the dance recital last night presented by Jeanne Williamson's pupils. Karen Capps was especially outstanding, and wasn't little Mary Bullard cute? NSA sponsored the revue.

THERE ARE SOME entrance halls in homes that just seem to cry out a welcome. This first glimpse into a home many times gives you a hint as to what to expect through the rest of the home—modern decor, traditional, etc. Then on the other hand some entrances are just places to shake the snow from your boots. I've always thought Mrs. W. D. Kelley kept her entrance conservative and impressive. Then I have a rosy look on life after seeing past the front door at 1341 Russell. You know that's where the Russ Allens usta live, but I've forgotten now who bought that place when the Allens moved last summer. Anyway, the walls in the entrance are full of roses—big ones—and I luff them! Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Pieratt have an eye-catcher in their green entrance hall.

I'LL BE SO GLAD when that ladies softball team gets going and we have a game here—I'm simply dying to see what the well-dressed softball player is wearing this year!

ANYBODY PLAY THE ZITHER? With all the musical recitals it would be nice to add this instrument to the list. We thoroughly enjoy these talent exhibitions and you know, to a parent the simplest composition sounds like Iturbi in concert. Lilly Hartfield is a popular teacher here.

PAMPA PANORAMA: The book shelf sponsored by the Varietas Club for patients at the hospital looks ever so inviting—especially with that spy-looking guy on the top shelf. . . . projects of this sort should not go unnoticed. . . . After commencement the other night the high school set headed for the Schneider Hotel for a beeg celebration. . . . The V. L. Boyles were entertaining Thursday night. . . . The son and daughter-in-law of the C. E. Fullers visited here the other day. . . . the C. M. Carlock had two tables of cards going Wednesday evening and I heard it was up to Carlock tradition the other night the enjoyable. . . . Mrs. Irene Cox is up in Nevada visiting her daughter, son-in-law and spanking new grandbaby. . . haven't heard whether it's a boy or girl. . . . All the talk is of Brownies and the Scout work that's being planned for them this summer. . . . There's a nice home going up on the corner of Charles and Louisiana. . . . Saw Henry Berry back in town the other day. . . . he was chatting on the streets with friends. . . . Mrs. Miles Spector was over from Amarillo visiting with her parents last week. . . . Mrs. Dick Sullins is a pleasant person. . . she was one of the hostesses at the bridal shower for Betty Dillman. . . haven't heard much about the spring festival that's being sponsored by the home demonstration clubs. . . that's coming up May 21st. . . . I know several ladies who go in Penney's just to chat a minute with Mrs. Lela Scruggs. . . she is one of the most pleasant sales-ladies I know. . . . Saw Mrs. D. Glaxner downtown the other morning. . . her little girl is out of school now. . . Pampa looked like a flower garden yesterday with all of those fine people purchasing poppies on "Poppy Day". . . . And I understand that the girls worked long hours Friday night making all the pretty poppy wreaths for Memorial Day.

GRADUATION NIGHT brought rain, but when the ladies peeled off wet weather paraphernalia, we knew it was still spring. Saw lotta pretty bonnets. Mingling among the throng of well-wishers were the C. B. Homers, D. Coffmans, J. E. Beards, H. A. Yoders, Mrs. Faye Gallman and I could go on and on. The thing I noticed most about the exercises was the way the poised young ladies strode across the stage in their "two inchers"—not a high heel totter-er in the class!

Connally's Sarcasm Settles 'Exacerbating' Senate Fight

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senators seem to charm themselves and one another with what they have to say. They sit there, talking or listening to one another for hours.

And when one of them slips in a high-level word, the others usually nod and never bat an eye. This week it was different. All in one day they had dictionary trouble and trouble with one another.

Senator Aiken, the mild and kindly Republican from Vermont, was reading from a memorandum by the government's Budget Bureau. What the man who wrote the memo was trying to say was this:

"If the Senate wiped out a certain minor government agency, the people there would be unhappy and pretty shaky about finding another government job. That would have been the simple way to say it."

But the Budget Bureau man wasn't simple, so what he actually said was this: if the agency was wiped out, the workers would suffer an "exacerbation of that sense of isolation and insecurity."

At that point Senator Cain, the Washington Republican who used to be a paratrooper, landed on his feet. He told Aiken he wanted to know how to spell "exacerbation" so he could look it up in a dictionary.

Aiken had to spell it twice for him. In a wink and a nod Cain was back on his feet with information. He said the dictionary said:

"Exacerbation: the act of exacerbating or the state of being exacerbated; increased severity, as in the symptoms of a disease."

(He might have added, but didn't, that the dictionary also says exacerbate means to irritate or make bitter. So, apparently, the Budget Bureau man meant the workers would be irritated if they lost their jobs.)

The Senate had hardly passed through this semantic crisis when Senator Tom Connally, the Texas Democrat who has some white hair and a lot of sarcasm, got up.

He asked the Senate to approve President Truman's Point Four program — giving skilled American help to backward countries. Right there Senator Taft got on his feet to protest.

Taft, the Ohio Republican, is a fast talker but hardly a match for Connally. Taft said he thought Connally was asking the Senate to approve the program as a "matter of course."

This must have exacerbated Connally because the Texan replied: "The senator from Texas (meaning himself) did no such thing, notwithstanding the supererogation of the distinguished senator from Ohio who seems to know more about less than anyone else I know."

"Supererogation" in turn must have exacerbated Taft because he was back on his feet, demanding: "What does the senator mean by 'supererogation'? I want an explanation of the term."

There are various dictionary definitions for supererogation — such as "to perform in excess to pay out, over and above..." But Connally brushed them all aside, without mentioning them. He said:

"The senator (meaning Taft) can look in the dictionary for it. I do not have time to educate the senator from Ohio."

Having disposed of Taft, Connally went on to explain that, of course, some of the language in the bill to set up the Point Four program was a little purple.

"These," Connally said, "are high-flown expressions designed to create the right kind of climate." That brought Senator Donnell, Missouri Republican, to his feet.

Donnell has a double habit of quizzing other senators when they make long speeches, and of making long speeches himself. He asked Connally what he meant by the "right kind of climate." "Warm in winter, cold in summer," Connally said, not helping Donnell's dilemma at all. But, prodded a little bit more, he said the purple language to create the "right kind of climate" was meant to encourage American businessmen to invest abroad.

This apparently not only exacerbated Donnell but exacerbated him, too. He said he'd like to answer Connally. Said Connally: "Not with a speech. I want an answer."

This must have caused an acute exacerbation (growing, hot) in Donnell, for he replied: "I cannot speak without speaking. I cannot discuss a matter without alluding to it."

Said Connally: "I have observed that the senator from Missouri cannot speak without a great deal of speech."

Group to Investigate Graft in Philippines

BAGUIO, Philippines — (AP) — President Quirino has announced he will appoint an integrity board to investigate charges of graft and corruption among Philippine government officials.

He said the board will be headed by Vice President Fernando Lopez, who has said he is prepared to name cabinet members in his charges of collusion in high government places.

Michigan was separated from Indiana Territory in 1805.

"THREE IF BY AIR"—Paul Revere and his assistant only had to use two lanterns, "one if by land and two if by sea," to warn the countryside of the approach of British Redcoats, but James devere of Boston, Mass., needed a third. Seated astride a 200-horsepower engine of a TWA Constellation, devere signals "three if by air" to help celebrate Boston's airport jubilee.

Texas Rail Leader Opposes Legislation

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A spokesman for Texas railroads has urged the House Interstate Commerce Committee not to override state laws by authorizing a union shop for railroad workers in all states.

Walter F. Woodful of Houston told the committee a bill it is considering is a "decided departure" from the Taft-Hartley Act. The Taft-Hartley Act, which does not apply to railroad and airline workers, does not set aside state laws which prohibit a union shop.

"Congress should respect states rights unless the reason for overriding them are most compelling," Woodful told the committee. The committee has before it a bill by its chairman, Rep. Crosser (R-Ohio) to permit union shop agreements between railroads and unions and to allow the check-off of union dues. Both now are prohibited by the Railway Labor Act. Under a union shop, a worker is required to join a union after he is hired.

Louisiana Territory was given its own government in 1805.

Federal Trade Commission Oil Investigation Slowed

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON (AP) — Committee opposition appears to have stopped the proposal of Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) for an investigation of the oil industry by the Federal Trade Commission.

Strong opposition has developed in the House Commerce Committee, before which Cannon's resolution is pending. Some members see no chance for its approval.

Three farm organizations have endorsed the proposal, which calls for a "complete" investigation of all phases of the industry's operations.

Cannon's idea is to establish a national oil policy which would assure fair prices to consumers. He says he would not object to having the inquiry made by some government agency other than the Commerce Commission, or by the Harris (D-Ark) subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee. He opposes this for three reasons:

1. The Harris subcommittee already has conducted hearings on

2. Several other committees have gone into the effects of oil imports.
3. The Justice Department has jurisdiction to investigate monopolies. Cannon's proposal calls for such an inquiry in connection with the oil industry.
4. The House Ways and Means Committee has gone into the 27-1/2 percent depletion allowance for tax purposes, and has tentatively approved its retention. Cannon has mentioned the allowance for his proposed investigation.
5. The question has been raised whether government departments would be willing to give investigators full information in matters involving national security.
6. If the administration wants to establish a national oil policy, it should be able to formulate it from the results of the investigations now under way.

A group of congressmen from oil states is quietly discussing a proposal to ask President Truman to call importers and domestic producers into conference to determine the quantity of imports the domestic industry can "live with."

Backers believe that if quota or import tax bills are passed, the president might veto them as adversely affecting the Good Neighbor Policy.

There is talk that the Senate Banking subcommittee's report on the Texmass case may have the effect of slowing down the RFC on any future applications for oil production loans.

The report, approved by the full committee, said that the RFC never before has engaged in financing oil producing ventures in a peacetime, prosperous period, "except in a minor way."

It said the RFC directors "do not claim to be and do not appear to be particularly well informed in the oil business or in the business of making loans to oil producing companies."

Panhandle Totals Make Slight Gain

Totals in the Panhandle field strengthened slightly last week as operators staked 23 new locations and completed 13 wells. Total increased potential in oil was 639 barrels and for gas, 880 MCF.

Of the 13 completions nine were for oil, one for gas and three wells were plugged.

Previous week's totals show 25 locations, four oil completions, nine gas completions and two plugged.

Current oil production for the year is 18,233 barrels.

Coal Operators Add Strength To Washington's Import Bloc

Farmers Jump To Defense of Oil Importers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Farm Bureau Federation has taken issue with coal industry spokesmen and others who have urged a sharp increase in tariff rates to curb imports of fuel oils.

Its views were set out in a letter to Sen. Neely (D-W.Va.), chairman of the Senate Labor subcommittee which is investigating the causes of "increasing unemployment" in the coal, oil, railroad, and certain other industries.

The letter said the farm bureau's directors unanimously agreed "any action that would reduce petroleum imports at this time would not be in the best interest of the United States."

Jack C. Lynn, the bureau's assistant legislative director, signed the letter. He noted that Venezuela is the principal exporter of petroleum to the United States, "one of our best cash customers."

Lynn said this country's sales to Venezuela exceeded its purchases by about $240,000,000 in 1949. He added that Venezuela is a large consumer of U.S. agricultural and industrial products.

"American agriculture is greatly dependent upon the maintenance of United States exports at a high level," his letter continued. "Farmers have long realized that if we are to continue our exports at these high levels, we must import."

Slim Prospects for Action In Present Session Seen

HOUSTON (AP) — Coal operators have added strength to the independent oil operator's fight against foreign oil imports. Remarks by administration spokesmen still leave very slim prospects for congressional curbs this year but the anti-import bloc is growing.

But a few months in time could make a big difference. Should congressmen from coal and oil producing states combine their strategy they could attack as soon as Congress returns to Washington next year.

With the general election in November, time already is running short.

Indications are only a sudden drop in the volume of oil imports or a sharp climb in demand for domestic oil and coal could avert such a combing.

Major oil importers admitted last week expected receipts for the last half of 1950 will change little from current levels. They were more optimistic, however, as to expected increases in demand for domestic oil.

Coal industry spokesmen were among the first witnesses last week to testify before a Senate Labor subcommittee investigating unemployment in the coal, oil, railroad, silver, zinc and lead industries.

Foreign oil drew the blame for sharp drops in soft coal production and sharp increases in coal and railroad unemployment.

Most witnesses indicated boosting the current tariff of 10.5-cents a barrel on foreign oil to 31.05.

Oil operators fighting imports drew encouragement from the coal industry testimony but were rather uneasy about one point.

Some coal spokesmen called for adoption of a national fuels policy designed to protect each type of domestic fuel.

Independent oilmen, terming such a policy as a major objective of the coal industry, expressed fear the policy might be controlled by people inclined to "assure a healthy coal industry at the expense of the oil and gas industries."

Senator Kilgore (D-W.Va.) introduced the 31.05 per barrel foreign oil tariff and was among those saying the nation needs a fuels policy.

Such a policy, he said, would bring balance among the various industries and prevent crippling any single fuel.

Eugene Holman, president of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), a major importer said in New York City the coal spokesmen are mistaken in their forecast of oil for their troubles.

Oil imports, he said, have played only a minor role in coal's losses.

Most losses, Holman explained, come from diesel fuel and home heating oil, most of which comes from domestic crude.

Thomas Kennedy, vice president of the United Mine Workers, appeared before the subcommittee well-armed with statistics.

Kennedy said last year's daily average of 204,000 barrels of residual oil imports placed about 110,000 barrels in direct competition with the coal industry.

Each 1,000,000 barrels, he said, displaces 250,000 tons of coal, which in turn displaces or reduces the work of 250 miners. Employment within transportation systems would be affected at about the same rate, he said.

D. T. Buckley of the National Coal Association estimated last year's oil imports cost 25,000 miners and 25,000 transportation workers their jobs.

Meanwhile, domestic crude output dropped 900 barrels last week to a daily average of 8,117,250.

This should be wiped out rapidly during the next two weeks. Daily allowable increases of 140,000 barrels in Texas and 81,000 in Louisiana become effective June 1.

Motorists Exuberant as Gas Controls Lifted in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Britain ended gasoline rationing yesterday after almost 11 years in a flareup of national exuberance that resembled an explosion.

A King's Order in Council lifting the controls took effect 10 years, eight months and four days after the restrictions had been imposed as a wartime measure.

But already thousands of gallons of gas had been sold overnight by filling stations that jumped the gun after Minister of Fuel Philip Noel-Baker announced the "big event" in the House of Commons yesterday.

Noel-Baker said rationing was ending because two American oil companies — Standard Oil of New Jersey and the California Texas Oil Co. — had agreed to take sterling instead of dollars for gasoline.

The announcement immediately brought a flood of telephone calls. The Fuel Ministry told gatekeepers they could sell at once without restriction.

Sales were phenomenal. One London garage sold 3,000 gallons — four days' supply previously — in six hours.

Motorists danced joyfully around their cars lined up in the longest gas queues in history. They tore up ration coupons or made bonfires of them.

The coupons had entitled them to only 90 miles of pleasure driving each month. Many persons filled cans as well as auto tanks for fear the sudden rush would dry up the supply.

In Bristol garage mechanics toasted the news in champagne.

The prices of used cars in London jumped one-fifth over last week's listing — for example to 350 pounds sterling ($580) for a 1949 British-made Ford.

"V-P"—or "Victory of Petrol"—day, as the London Daily christened it, had been delayed five years after V-E day because of the dollar shortage.

The end of rationing coincided with the start of a holiday week-end lasting through tomorrow.

Motorists' organizations predicted 1,500,000 of Britain's almost 2,000,000 private automobiles would be on the road.

New Record For Production Of Foreign Oil

TULSA (AP) — A new record in foreign production of crude oil was established in March, The Oil and Gas Journal reported last week.

Production outside the United States was reported at 4,688,000 bbl. daily. This represents an increase of 2.7 percent over February, and nearly 18 percent over March 1949.

Total world production, however, showed only an insignificant gain. The increase in output in foreign fields was offset in large part by another drop in production in the United States.

This trend has been apparent over much of the past year, and as a result, the Journal commented, United States share of total world production is now slightly under 51 percent. A year ago, the percentage was about 56, and in 1948, nearly 60 percent.

Crude oil production in Venezuela, world's largest petroleum exporting country, increased about 5 percent above the low level reported in February. Other noteworthy increases were shown in production in Canada, Mexico, and Colombia.

The Persian Gulf area was the major factor in the record-breaking foreign production total in March. Though Saudi Arabia was down, Iran and Kuwait both showed sharp gains to reach new all-time records in those countries. This British "sterling oil" production holds a marketing advantage in many of the dollar-short countries of the Eastern Hemisphere.

Hearing Set for PEPL Application

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission scheduled these public hearings last week for July 7 on oil applications:

The Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. for approval of two utilization agreements for proration purposes in Potter County in the West Panhandle gas field.

The Hamman Oil & Refining Co. for discovery oil allowable rights and new field designation for its Richbora No. 2, Hamman field, Matagorda.

L. T. Burns for discovery oil allowable rights and a new field designation for his J. E. Luis No. 4, Clay.

Howard White Back In LPG Organization

Howard D. White, former executive vice president of the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Association, will return to the organization June 1 in the same capacity, it was announced Friday at its headquarters in Chicago.

Since Oct. 31 of last year, he has been with the Ferlite Development Corp., Albuquerque, N.M.

Arthur C. Kreutzer, managing director of the association during Mr. White's absence, has been named vice president and general counsel.

Governor Proclaims Texas Dairy Month

AUSTIN (AP) — June will be "Dairy Month in Texas" by official designation of Gov. Allan Shivers.

The governor urged that Texas pay sincere tribute to "Old Bossie," sweetheart of the dairy industry whose "tireless service has brought health, strength and economic well-being to the people of Texas."

Shivers said an estimated 800,000 Texans are employed in the production, processing, distribution and sale of milk and milk products.

CHARLES J. DEEGAN

Associate Editor Resigns Journal

Charles J. Deegan, widely known among oil men, has resigned as associate editor of The Oil and Gas Journal, effective June 1, and will be associated with the firm of Cummins, Berger & Pishny, consulting geologists and engineers, of Fort Worth.

For the past six years, Deegan has been in charge of exploration and economics for the Journal, and is noted for his articles in these fields. During the war he spent 2 1/2 years in Washington with the Petroleum Administration for War, serving successively on the personal staff of Ralph K. Davies, deputy administrator, and in the Public Relations and Program Planning divisions. Prior to the war, he worked as geologist, engineer, and economist for many years for Continental Oil Co., and Cities Service Oil Co.

Discarded Cigaret Blamed in 10 Deaths

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A discarded cigarette was reported to have set off an explosion of stored powder which killed at least 10 persons Friday in Bogota, 100 miles southwest of Neiva.

Fifteen other persons were injured and six buildings in the city's commercial area were destroyed. The powder had been stored in a drygoods store.

Would-Be Chemist Has Little Luck

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Harry Zelinka, 14, a home-grown chemist, brewed a new formula in his basement laboratory.

He corked and the next morning slipped the bottle in his trousers pocket and headed for school on his bicycle.

"Whoosh!" went the mixture, and Harry was panting.

While doctors treated him for painful burns, he recalled that the mixture contained charcoal, sulphur and potassium chlorate.

Sighed his mother, Sara: "Last time it was chlorine gas. He swallowed it."

PIPRO GUESTS—All was not serious at last Wednesday's meeting of the Panhandle Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association. Railroad Commission Chairman William J. Murry, Jr., Sec. Grady Hazlewood and Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson find something amusing. The three are shown here shortly before the evening session of the 17th annual convention of the PIPRO in Amarillo.

Rig Activity Is Boosted

DALLAS (AP) — Increased drilling activity in most of the principal oil development areas boosted the number of rotary rigs operating in the United States and Canada to a new peak for the year, during the week of May 22.

The total of 2,164 active units, reported to American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors by Hughes Tool Company, exceeded for the first time in several months the rig activity for the comparable week of 1949.

The total, which reflected a net gain of 83 units over the 2,111 rigs operating in the previous week, compares with 2,121 operating a month ago and with 2,108 units in the comparable week of 1949.

A comparison by area for the past two weeks, follows:

Tough Times Cause Arm Sale Attempt

RATON, N.M. (AP) — Things are tougher than you know.

A Raton second-hand dealer reports that a transient came into his place the other day to try to sell an artificial arm.

The man was wearing the arm, since there was little demand for artificial arms in his business, he tried a pawn shop.

POPE

It seems to me
There ought to be
A law against politicians
Who use their pals
And their pals best gals
To further their own ambitions
Then when it's done
And the campaign's won
They go into hibernation.

In Washington
While this poor one
Lacks proper refrigeration
My Jello is runny
My fish smell funny
My steaks are getting older
I'll heard my pleas
But in lieu of deep freeze
All I got was the cold shoulder
General Vaughn
Or Maragon
Or Harry would treat me better
I think I'll see
If Senator McCarthy
Won't investigate this matter.

And won't you kind people investigate these bargains to-day?
