Lie Offers Hope for Break In U.N. Deadlock on China

Leader Says Russia Still Behind U.N.

LAKE SUCCESS — (AP) — Secretary General Trygve Lie said today he hopes for a definite break by June or July in the United Nations deadlock over China. Lie made his statement at his first news conference since returning from talks with Prime Minister Stalin, Prime Minister Attlee and President Truman. Lie also declared Russia still has full confidence in the United Nations and wants it restored to its normal functioning. This has been disrupted by the Soviet walkout-strikes which started Jan. 10 over the China representation question. Russia insists that the Chinese Communist regime is the rightful government and will not participate in U.N. discussions attended by a Nationalist China U.N. delegate, Great Britain, among other nations, favors admission of Red China. The secretary general said he has not taken any proposals from President Truman to Stalin or brought any message back to Mr. Truman. He expects to see the president and Secretary of State Acheson next week. Lie gave no details of his talks but said he had left with them some memoranda. He would not disclose the contents. Lie expressed hope a high-level Security Council meeting would be held this summer with foreign ministers or heads of governments representing the council's 11 member nations. "This is the year of decision for the United Nations and the world," he said. Lie reported he found a profound desire for peace everywhere. He refused to say whether Russia had offered any proposals or made concessions. "Does the Soviet Union still have confidence in the United Nations and does it want to see the United Nations work?" a reporter asked. "My answer to both questions is 'Yes,'" he replied. "Did you propose a meeting of the Big Four (without China)?" "I didn't propose anything," he said. "We did discuss many things, including a periodic (high-level meeting) of the Security Council."

Two Die in Wreck; Pampan Is Injured

Eastern Zone Reds Convene

By DANIEL DE LUCE
BERLIN — (AP) — The western allies intensified their precautions today against Communist violence as 200,000 young East Germans jammed the city's Russian sector for the mammoth Red youth rally.

Communist officials appeared as anxious to keep their "Free German Youth" out of the allied sectors. Warning the demonstrators away from West Berlin, the Reds brought in 6,000 "People's Police" from the surrounding Russian zone to augment a force of 15,000 already on duty in East Berlin. With 300,000 more young Germans reportedly enroute to Berlin, special allied precautions went into effect at dawn today. Five British armored cars and 500 soldiers occupied a strategic post behind barbed wire. 500 yards from Potsdamer Platz. The square is the traditionally riotous juncture of the Russian, British and American sectors. Through binoculars the troops constantly kept watch on the big square, surrounded by war-rumored buildings. East and West German police guarded the opposite sides of the square. Other potential trouble spots in mid-city also were staffed with an allied military reserve. The total allied force of 8,000 officers and men was on the alert. Three deserters from the Communist "people's police" including a girl escaped into the western sector early today and appealed for political refuge. Two others had deserted Wednesday night and surrendered in the U.S. sector. One of last night's deserters brought his service pistol and ammunition. The girl said she fled because she had been ordered to a "Stalin school" in the Soviet Union for special indoctrination. The youth demonstrators are scheduled to reach a climax Sunday in a six-hour "peace and unity" parade. But with East zone newspapers and officials warning the youths away from West Berlin as a "false show" competent allied sources said they had almost entirely discarded earlier fears that the Whitson demonstration was a disguise for a violent putsch against the West. They added, however, that Communist demonstrators who wandered into the allied sectors might be endangered by anti-Communist crowds, for West Berlin tempers have grown hot against the East zoners and the Russians. Communist newspapers charged that 11 more youth delegates had been arrested in the past 24 hours in West Berlin but allied officials did not confirm this. Fifteen were seized earlier in the week, however. The official Soviet organ "Tasliche Hunschau" angrily complained that the British and Americans were preventing thousands of West Germans from leaving for the Berlin rally. The newspaper asserted the youths were being turned back in buses and evicted from east — bound

Brazilian Envoy Gets Snub From Russians

VIENNA, Austria — (AP) — Formal presentation to the allied council of Brazil's new minister has been blocked by Russia — an unprecedented sharp criticism from the council chairman, U.S. Lt. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes. In accordance with established procedure, Dr. Roberto Mendes Gonçalves, the Brazilian minister, was to have been introduced to the high commissioners before yesterday's bi-monthly meeting. The deputy Russian high commissioner, Col. Gen. Alexei Zheltov, said he could not agree to the presentation because his country no longer maintains diplomatic relations with Brazil. The Russians had agreed to the presentation last week. Brazil severed relations with Russia Oct. 21, 1947, after the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia attacked Brazilian President Eurico Gaspar Dutra and his regime. Keyes, American high commissioner to Austria, said the Soviet action "besides being impolite, brings reflection on the entire allied council."

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Browning Construction Company said today it had bought 161 acres near Arlington's eastern city limits for 450 new homes to cost $4,500,000.

Foreign Aid Bill Approved; Appropriation Must Follow

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress has approved the $3,129,550,000 foreign aid bill. Senate acceptance yesterday sent the measure to the White House. The bill provides $2,849,100,000 in new spending for the third year of the European Recovery Program; $94,000,000 for the Chinese area; $100,000,000 for Korea; $27,450,000 for Palestine refugees; Children's Emergency Fund, and $35,000,000 for the "Point Four" program. Point Four, so called because of its position in the president's inaugural address, calls for economic aid to the world's backward areas. The State Department reported some 60 countries and dependent areas have asked to share in it. Congress must still act on an appropriation bill supplying the actual cash to cover the entire foreign aid program. Other Capital Hill developments: Taxes — Rep. Mason (R-Ill.) and House tax-writers have killed a change in the new tax bill. The House Ways and Means committee rejected proposals for new taxes on co-operatives. Mason, a committee member, called this "political favoritism," and said it was just one more sign that "there will be no tax bill this year." The committee has approved excise tax cuts totaling $1,099,000,000. To offset this in part, it proposed on a 10 percent withholding tax on corporations dividend payments which is expected to produce $150,000,000 in new revenue. Mr. Truman has said he will support the bill. (See FOREIGN, Page 2)

Texas Boasts First Whooping Crane Hatched in Captivity

AUSTWELL, Texas — (AP) — The world's population of whooping cranes has risen to 28. "Rusty" is the new member of the near-extinct bird family and the first whooping crane hatched in captivity. "Rusty" is the chick of Jo and Crip, captive whooping crane couple in a 15-acre enclosure of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near here. Robert P. Allen of the National Audubon Society, one of several wary watchers who have been peering at Jo and Crip's nest for days, spotted the new bird at 6:30 a. m. today. The sex is not known nor is anyone sure just when the bird was born. But it was two days after that routine on the nest uncovered a radical change. In look over the setting, before that she and her crippled mate had alternated. Julian A. Howard, manager of the refuge, said the chick was probably hatched during the night Wednesday or early yesterday morning. A "no visitors" rule was immediately issued by Howard. He said only official observers will be allowed near the enclosure "until Rusty is well on its way to becoming an adult, and until the behavior of the parents returns to normal." Bird scientists had maintained a tense "maternity" watch since the tall cranes — two of only 37 — (See TEXAS, Page 2)

Atom Plant Strike Crumbling Expected

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. — (AP) — Officials watched for possible crumbling of a wildcat work stoppage by 3,000 AFL construction workers on a mammoth atomic plant job today, in a form of sources said. A spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission reported a trickle of union men showed up for work on the night shift after the $227,000,000 project last night after union leaders publicly denounced the strike as unauthorized. About 75 union craftsmen of the 525 men normally working on the shift crossed picket lines of the AFL laborers and hodcarriers, the government spokesman said. The Laborers and Hodcarriers Union Local 818 launched the walkout Wednesday. Yesterday the stoppage halted construction on the K-29 and K-31 plants, being built to increase production of uranium-235, the fissionable element of the atomic bomb. The local has about 700 members. Additional hundreds from the other unions on the project failed to report for work. The craft unions on the job all are affiliated with the Knoxville Building Trades Council, whose president, George A. Hines, asked the men to return to work. Fred M. Stratton, business agent for the laborers' local, said he did not know why the strike began and asked his members to return. No official explanation for the strike was known by the unions, the AEC nor by J. M. Maxon Construction Co., principal contractor of the project.

Truman Selects Alabama for Reserve Board

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman nominated Edward Lee Norton of Birmingham, Ala., today to be a member of the Federal Reserve Board. Norton is an investment banker and radio station owner. The nomination is for a 14-year term. Federal Reserve Board rules said Norton, when approved by the Senate, will take the board post now held by Ernest G. Draper, who wants to retire. Draper's term expired January 31. Norton's appointment had been anticipated. The decision to ask him was reported to have been influenced by the work done in behalf of the Truman administration by Democratic Senators Hill and Sparkman of Alabama. The senators led a successful fight this spring to wrest control of the Democratic Party in Alabama from the States Rights Democrats. "Regular" Democrats won a majority of places on the State Democratic Executive Committee. Norton has been a director and chairman of the Birmingham branch of the Atlanta Federal Reserve Bank. Members of the Federal Reserve Board receive $16,000 a year. Garden tools and rubber hose for your spring work. Lewis Hdw.,

Plans Mapped For Big Show

Topics ranging from the physical stamina of Panhandle steers to the merits of the old-time square dance served as a warm-up for Top o' Texas Rodeo Association committee members Thursday night as they laid the groundwork for the coming summer show. Following a steak luncheon in the basement of the Schneider, the group discussed all phases and problems associated with the Rodeo and Horse Show scheduled for August 8 through 12. Early in the meeting, E. O. "Red" Wedgworth introduced a discussion on the booster trips always preceding the shows. Members agreed unanimously that the booster trips should continue to herald the approaching rodeo activities. In fact, they gave the green light to conduct the tours on an even larger scale, if necessary. As Pampa goes into its campaign in behalf of the sixth annual rodeo affair, Wedgworth said, it becomes each year a bigger thing. As a result, the work in behalf of the show has had a tendency to curtail the normal duties of the chamber of commerce. Wedgworth told directors that additional personnel (See PLANS, Page 2)

Planned Revolution Is Reported Halted

NEW YORK — (AP) — Seven men and an attractive blonde have been seized in a crackling U.S. bills into Cuba's national treasury, exchange them for good Cuban money and then finance a revolt in the Dominican Republic. The fantastic scheme, according to an authoritative source, was to sneak $3,000,000 in bogus U.S. bills into Cuba's national treasury, exchange them for good Cuban money and then finance a revolt in the Dominican Republic. The blonde and four men were arrested here and one was apprehended in Miami yesterday. Two Cubans were held in that country. An indictment returned by a federal grand jury here alleged a conspiracy to buy money from a big American counterfeit ring. They did not mention the reported Dominican revolution connection. The indictment named the two Cubans as plotters. The alleged plan to milk the Cuban treasury was revealed before U.S. Commissioner Edward W. McDonald here as five prisoners were arraigned. "What was to be done with the $3,000,000 in Cuban money?" the commissioner asked. "That's enough to start a revolution."

Guill Is Scheduled To Visit Family, Attend Dam Talks

Rep. Ben H. Guill of Pampa was scheduled to arrive home shortly after noon today to visit his family and confer with Canadian River Dam officials. It was learned through his father-in-law, C. P. Buckler, late this morning. He was to arrive by air at Amarillo Municipal Airport at 12:12 p. m. where his family was to meet him. The Pampa Republican is taking advantage of the Memorial Day recess of the House to make the trip home. Nature of the conference with the general and legislative committees will be the proposed amendments to the Canadian Dam bill advanced by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) who dropped his opposition to the bill on an "if" basis. The "if" being if the amendments he has demanded are tacked on to the bill. Little is known about the wording of the amendments, but they are, roughly, supposed to center around eventual ownership of the dam and aqueduct and method of repayment. The time and place of the amendment discussions will be set after Guill arrives home. Mayor C. A. "Lefty" Huff, vice chairman of the General Committee, said yesterday.

Man Responsible for Singing Commercials Well-Satisfied

By HAL BOTTLE
NEW YORK — (P) — Myron Mahler worked his way through college acting as a county fair Barker for a trained music act. He also sold hosiery, corn cures and hair curlers. But all the while he dreamed of writing the great American novel.

Today, at 36, Myron Mahler is a success. He writes singing commercials for the radio. This talent for turning out musical jingles has helped make him vice-president of an advertising agency.

And who is worrying about the great American novel? Not Mahler. He is content to have been a pioneer in a bold new art form that has swept the United States like Virus "X."

"Jingles have permeated the life of America in the last 15 years," said Mahler, a slender, intense man with a scholarly air. "Today there are literally thousands of them on the radio and television.

The singing commercial is being written by a range of people coming from $50 to several thousand dollars," said Mahler. "Two men who wrote a jingle about a soft drink are supposed to have made $25,000, plus royalties, from it."

He himself got into the business by accident. One of his ad firm's clients wanted a singing commercial. None of the jingles submitted by professional writers suited him.

"I thought I could do better myself," he said. "So that night I went home and composed one. It was accepted, and it's been on the radio ever since — for six years."

Navy Officer Accused of Financing Spree Lasting Six Months With Government Fund

By JAMES R. BACON
LOS ANGELES — (AP) — What would make a Navy officer, with 19 years of honorable service, rifle a ship's safe of $19,000 and then blow it all in a wild six months binge with a blonde? Lt. Bascom E. Boaz is in the county jail today accused of just that. Broke, he is there in lieu of $10,000 bail awaiting preliminary hearing on federal charges of embezzlement of government funds and desertion from the U. S. Navy.

What made the 42-year-old officer do it? "Domestic trouble started me drinking," he said, "and drinking magnifies all troubles. That kept on until I felt like I was cracking up."

Tall, sturdy and looking very much like a Navy officer with his iron gray hair, Boaz said he drank very little before the war but took it up strong after he separated from his wife in 1941. He said there would have been a divorce then but the war came. He didn't want to go into combat legally separated from his two children.

He served most of the war on the battleship Idaho in the Aleutians, Gilberts, Marshalls, Saipan and Guam campaigns. "Combat action had no effect on my mental condition but my drinking did. I did crazy things when I drank."

"I knew I was slipping. I wasn't doing the service a very good. Only the help of my fellow officers got me by."

In March of 1949, he said he offered to resign his commission but was retained because of his record. A native of Marion, Tenn., he first enlisted in the Navy as an apprentice seaman. "I guess they'd take my resignation now."

His current trouble started last Thanksgiving when he got drunk in a Long Beach hotel and felt the urge to continue the binge. "I went over to the ship (the Navy tanker Navavota) and went aboard. I had a right to. I was the paymaster. I left the ship 20 minutes later, drunk and with $19,201.50, mostly in small bills."

"I hailed a cab and told the driver to head north. I handed him $300, gave him $500 more on the way. I also tipped him $180 so he could buy a television set for his boy."

"In Oakland, I gave him another $1,600 to go out and buy me an automobile. That's the last I ever saw of that guy," Boaz estimated that he spent $6,000 of the cash on taxi fares. His reason was simple: "I don't drive."

At Fresno, Calif., on the way up to the San Francisco-Oakland area, he picked up blonde Pearl Rosemary Carter.

"She befriended me but she never knew that I stole the money," he said.

Miss Carter was with Boaz when the FBI and naval intelligence officers arrested him early yesterday. She was not held but told agents of the trip: "It was great while it lasted. We had a great time."

Boaz said they hired more cabs and took in the gambling casinos at Reno and Las Vegas. "My luck was bad and the money went fast. Especially when I was buying champagne for the house at four bucks a bottle."

A month later, he and Miss Carter came back to the Los Angeles area. "I figured it was the safest place. The FBI almost nabbed me at Reno but I took a cab to Carson City and then to Salt Lake City, where I lost them. He hit Los Angeles just in time for Santa Anita's winter meeting."

"You never heard of such bad luck on the horses. A couple of rags I bet on broke their legs. I even had dough on War Coin, who dropped dead."

He said he made no effort to hide. Several times former friends saw him but evidently couldn't place him. Just recently, he got up and sang with the orchestra in a suburban South Gate night club.

One night he called up a friend. That was about two weeks ago.

He thinks that call may have led to his arrest. The FBI won't say how they tracked him down.

He got a job a few days ago with a nursery in Pomona, digging ditches.

"It was hard work and only paid 85 cents an hour. But it made me quit drinking and for the first time in years, I felt fine."

"For years, I had felt like a little boy rolling down a hill trying to grab at a bush that would stop me but none of them were strong enough."

"I got one now that will stop me."

He said he expects to wind up in federal prison but the idea doesn't seem too bad.

"After ten years of the mental strain I have been under, it almost seems enjoyable."

Snead, Alexander Leading Colonial

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Two southern gentlemen with smoking putters — Sam Snead and Stewart Crampton — led the Colonial National Invitational Golf Tournament into its second round today.

They shot four-under-par 66's yesterday to tie for the top in the opening 18 holes. Snead, the year's leading money-winner and currently No. 1 in all phases of pro golf, had an eagle on the first hole, birdies on 11 and 17 and pars on all other holes — one of the few sun rounds ever shot in this tournament.

Alexander had to scramble but his putting was in championship form. The big Knoxville blaster was over par on No. 4 where he hit into a trap and on No. 13 where he struck a tree with his tee shot.

Skipp revealed that he had borrowed the putter from Ray Smith, Dallas, transport man and amateur putter, while practicing on the course in Dallas where Harry Todd, an entry in the tournament here, is club professional. Alexander had split his own putter attempting to repair it. "I'm going to possess Mr. Smith's putter permanently," Alexander grinned.

Five players shot sub-par rounds over the 7,035-yard Colo-

Wakefield Sold, But Wants Talk With Hap Chandler

DETROIT — (AP) — Outfielder Dick Wakefield stood firm today in his determination not to report to the minor league team, Oakland, which bought him from the New York Yankees yesterday.

"I'm going to telephone baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler and try to find out how this thing stands," said Dick, linked over the Yankees' decision to sell him.

Wakefield got the news of his sale at Briggs Stadium yesterday as he sat in the stands watching his erstwhile Yankee teammates in batting practice for a game with the Detroit Tigers.

"I was very surprised, extremely surprised by it all," the former Tiger told newsmen.

The Yankees, in announcing the sale, said none of the teams in either the American or National League had been willing to buy the usual $10,000 waiver price for the big outfielder.

In fact, said General Manager George Weiss of the Yankees, the Yankees in addition to putting Wakefield on the waiver list tried unsuccessfully to interest several major league teams in taking him.

Wakefield, however, bitterly criticized Weiss, saying, "I think that George Weiss has treated me unfairly and I'm certain the commissioner (Chandler) will give me a fair hearing on my appeal."

Babe Favored in Women's Eastern Golf Tournament

NEWTON, Mass. — (AP) — She claims she's "just not hitting that ball the way I like to" but Babe Didrikson Zaharias is favorite in the $3,000 Women's Eastern Open Golf Championship Tournament which begins today.

The Babe and Louise Suggs, deft Georgia golfer, generally are considered the girls who must be beaten by any of 31 other contestants who will play through Sunday at Woodland Golf Club.

The Babe and Louise finished one-two in last week's Weather-weather Tournament at White Plains, N.Y.

Sentimental favorites appear to be the beautiful Texas Bauer sisters, recent recruits to the pay circuit. They are Marlene, 16 and Alice, 22, whose father started them in the ancient pastime when they were tots.

The younger of the pretty pair upset the Babe two years ago in a 21 hole semifinal match of the Hardacres Tournament.

Marlene Bauer has traveled the course in 76. But she split her trip over two days, giving a dozen holes yesterday after six Wednesday.

(By The Associated Press) Any day now you'll hear the wail: "Break up the Yankees!"

Thundering through the West with eight straight victories, the world champs head east with a 3-1-2 game lead in the American League.

Casey Stengel's surprising New Yorkers are doing better than the 1949 "miracle team." A year ago today they had a 22-10 record. Now it's 22-8.

And they're doing it without "old reliable" Tommy Henrich—sloinled by a knee injury. Henrich played only six innings during the all-winning tour.

High spots of the trip were the three-game sweep in Cleveland and yesterday's 6-4 triumph over Detroit. Oddly enough, it was just a year ago that Tommy Byrne silenced the Tigers for decision No. 22. He went it alone that afternoon. Yesterday he needed help from Joe Page in the late innings.

Yogi Berra — the other half of the winning battery — was the big wheel at Detroit. A much improved catcher and .314 slugger, Berra delivered a bases-loaded homer for the winning margin.

Berra's belt came off Art Houtteman in the fifth inning. It gave Bryne a 6-0 edge that melted under homers by George Kell and Hoot Evers in the eighth. Then Page came in to stop the Tigers.

Nobody has stopped the Yanks since their 9-8 loss to Philadelphia May 14. They've swept 13 of 14 and rolled up an amazing road record of 12 victories and only two defeats.

On the contrary, the Boston Red Sox, fence-busters at Fenway Park, barely hobbled out of the West with a 5-5 mark. They almost didn't make it.

It took a grand slam homer by Walt Drope, topping a six-run rally in the eighth inning for the Red Sox to subdue St. Louis, 15-12. Johnny Pesky helped the cause with five of the 19 hits.

Bob Lemon of Cleveland caught the Washington Senators by the shirt tails and hauled them back into a fourth-place tie with the Tribe. Lemon shut out the Senators with three hits, 3-0. The box score tells the story of Dick Weir's failure. He walked 19 Indians in seven innings.

Homers by Paul Lehner, Sam Chapman and Pete Suder jerked the Philadelphia A's out of their losing ways with a 6-1 victory over Chicago.

Eddie Sawyer's Phillies continued to get fine rookie pitching as Bob Miller, up from Terre Haute, blanked Pittsburgh, 3-0, with eight hits. It was the third start and third victory for the 23-year-old right-hander.

Preacher Roe wobbled through the early innings before settling down to make Chicago his fourth victim, 5-4. Gil Hodges drove home the tie-breaking run in the fifth with a single scoring Duke Snider from second base. Manager Leo Durocher and his second baseman, Eddie Stanky, were chased long before Leo's New York Giants dropped a 13-inning game to the St. Louis Cards, 7-5. Leo and Eddie got the thumb for arguing with umpire Lou Jorda over a called strike in the fifth.

A walk to Red Schoendienst, Stan Musial's single, Johnny Lindell's double and a single by Enos Slaughter broke up the game in the 13th.

Boston and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

THREE'S A CROWD — Tom Saffell seems to have never heard of the old saying, "Two is company but three's a crowd," as the bold Pirate comes between this handsome couple on an Ebbs Field billboard. The Pittsburgh outfielder is after Billy Cox long clout, but the ball duels Saffell's desperate grasp, and bounces off the partly teeth of the undismayed young billboard girl, arrow Ralph Kiner rushes over to help, but the Brooklyn third baseman's poke is good for a double. The Dodgers rallied in the eighth to win this one, 3-2.

Stranahan in Semifinals of British Amateur Golf Tourney

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland — (AP) — Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, stroked his way into the semifinals of the British Amateur Golf championship today with an easy 5 and 4 victory over A. B. Taylor, a local architect. Stranahan won the title two years ago.

The Toledo muscle man, who started the meet as co-favorite with Willie Turnesa, shot a sharp

Clovis Pioneers Take One From Albuquerque, 5 to 3

ALBUQUERQUE — (AP) — Clovis captured the first of a scheduled West Texas-New Mexico League doubleheader with Albuquerque last night 5-3 in a high wind and dust storm.

Clovis batsmen collected 10 hits off two Albuquerque pitchers, jumping to a lead with two runs in the third inning and were never behind.

The second game of the scheduled doubleheader was not played as a high wind and dust storm was blowing in the city.

Clovis moved out in front in the third when George singled to center followed by Pete Trabucco's single to right field. Bob Moniz tripled to right to bring in the two runs.

Clovis added two more in the fifth when Jess Jacinto gave up a shallow tap down the third base line that was good for a single. Don Geray tripled to left to bring Jacinto across the plate. George then singled to right to bring in Geray.

In the top of the seventh, Geray opened with a double that started in center field and wound up on the tripled foul line when the wind got through with it. George tripled to dead center on a fluke hit to score Geray. The hit started out to be a single but took a hop over Dick Dawson's head and went to the fence and was credited as a triple.

Albuquerque's first score came in the sixth when Martin got a windblown double to right and Bartolomei doubled to left center.

In the seventh, Folkman tapped a shallow single but was out trying to stretch it into a double. Dawson singled to center. Cutti was hit by a pitched ball. Martin walked to load the bases and Carr doubled to left field to score Dawson and Cutti. Stanford popped out to end the game.

Gassers Sign Ted Clawitter

BORGER — (AP) — The Borger Gassers have announced that they recently released Amarillo catcher, Ted Clawitter, will go on a five-day look to aid the injury-plagued club.

Manager Mickey Burnett of the Gassers indicated however that Clawitter would probably not be signed to a season contract as the club is seeking younger blood.

A catching aid has been promised immediately by the Cleveland Indian organization.

Missions Bump Sports Twice

(By The Associated Press) San Antonio, which has sagged sadly in the way of attendance, is on a happy spree in the Texas League.

The Missions last night dusted off Shreveport twice, 8-6, 11-4, to accomplish a number of things.

For instance, it ran their winning streak to five games; made it ten wins in the last 12 starts; and moved them to within a half-game of third place.

Both Tulsa and Oklahoma City, practically tied for second, took it on the chin last night.

Tulsa dropped a 10 run decision to Fort Worth and Dallas blanked Oklahoma City, 10-0.

Beaumont came from behind to whip Houston, 13-9.

San Antonio collected a total of 27 hits in the two games, which fattened batting averages considerably.

Walt Lanfranconi set Oklahoma City down with four hits as his Dallas mates pounded out 16 for a one-sided decision.

Jackie Robinson, 1949 National League batting king and most valuable player, has a .312 three-year major league hitting record.

Nels Davis Returns To Lubbock Team

LUBBOCK — (AP) — Nels Davis, former third baseman for the Lubbock Hubbers, has been returned by Hartford, Conn., of the Class A Eastern League and is expected to report here within the next two or three days.

John V. McCallister, Hubber president, made the announcement here last night.

Harry Frazier, club general manager, talked to Harry Jenkins, farm director for the Boston Braves, by telephone and Jenkins admitted that they couldn't afford to keep Davis. If the Braves had retained him, the Boston organization would have had to pay Lubbock $4,500 plus two players.

Jenkins countered with a proposal to send other players to Lubbock instead of cash, but after McCallister, Faulkner and Manager Jackie Sullivan had talked it over, they decided against the trade.

The Braves wanted an extension of 15 days on the trade or return, but the Hubbers said that it was imperative they have Davis' services immediately.

The slender hot corner guard has had 194 hits of which 37 were doubles, five were triples and 31 were home runs. He also had 12 stolen bases and nine sacrifice hits.

The return of Davis means one other class man will have to be pared from the roster. Speculation, without foundation, is that the player will be leftfielder Ben Hale, purchased as a free agent during the winter. Hale was hitting only .295 through Wednesday night.

Fifteen Cubans and Irishman Provide Color at Big Spring

BIG SPRING — (AP) — Fifteen Cubans and an Irishman are providing a base-hit is good in any language.

The Irishman is Frank (Pat) Stasey, playing-manager of the Big Spring Bronco in the Class D Longhorn League.

The Cubans are his charges and for a couple of years now they've been dynamite to the opposition.

Last year Big Spring was an easy winner in the sagebrush circuit on the plains of West Texas and New Mexico. This season they've been in and out of the lead from the start and right now hold down third place.

"Pat's got his Cubans back," one resident of Big Spring said happily. "You ought to see them play."

Folks in this little city have gotten used to seeing wide-eyed Cuban players arrive with a lost look, a big smile, and the grinning explanation "No speak English."

"Potato got here by following his suitcase," Stasey explained of Carlos Pascual, his shortstop. "He couldn't speak English last year, and he came by bus from New Orleans. He'd keep an eye on his suitcase and every time they'd take it off the bus to put it on another, he'd follow it."

Stasey and Al Aton own the Big Spring franchise and have a working agreement with Havana of the Florida International League.

Joe Cambria and Clark Griffith, owner of Washington in the American League, owns the Havana Club and Cambria supplies Big Spring with its players.

And Big Spring has its share of fine players. Bert Garcia last year had an earned run average of 1.77. He's one of seven players from 1949 that Stasey has again this season.

Bobby Gonzales, a rookie, is holding down left field this season and his brother, Angel, is looking sharp in his first year as a Bronco pitcher.

Stasey has found his limited knowledge of Spanish is no handicap. The players are quick to pick up English, some know a little when they arrive, and others speak it easily. He holds signals to a minimum — using just three signs.

But one of Stasey's players last year — Pat Lorenz — had a hard time understanding cafes. Shortly after he arrived here he went into one, pointed to three items on the menu and settled back happily to await what ever he had ordered.

Lorenz managed to eat two bowls of soup, but had to pass the third.

Racing Car Driver Either Has It or He Doesn't

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff

What makes a racing car driver? You got it or you ain't got it," says Bill Schindler of Freeport, Long Island.

"I've been driving for nearly twenty years. It's something you can do or you can't do. You got it or you ain't got it."

Schindler is one of the small group of drivers who criss-cross the country, driving on dirt tracks, at county fairs, week in and week out.

"There's a big boom on in automobile racing," the balding veteran said at Arlington, Texas, recently — just before the start of a program at the old race horse track.

"It's a lot bigger than it was before the war."

Schindler is better known as a red-hot midget car racer than he is as a big car driver. But he's spending more and more time driving the big jobs, even though he's just finished building a brand new, souped up little midget of his own.

"Most drivers today come out of the midget cars," he says. "And most of the midget drivers come from kids who're crazy about cars — some of them graduate from the 'hot rods' to the midgets."

Schindler's dad has a garage and that's where he got interested in cars. Pretty soon he was hanging around a track and the next thing he was driving.

It's not as easy as all that, for there are pretty stiff requirements for a big car driver.

Like most of the drivers, Schindler has never won the Indianapolis classic. But he finished in the money enough at the dirt track races and the midget events to make the life very worth while.

Schindler is like many drivers in that he doesn't own the big cars he races. It costs thousands to maintain a team of racing cars.

Like others of his kind, accidents and death are talked of in casual acceptance of the risks of their trade.

"Isn't that the kind of car Rex Mays was killed in?" we asked, noting the name on the red job Schindler was to drive in the Arlington race.

"It's the same car," said Schindler. "It didn't get banged up much. It's a good automobile, too. I fired it up the other day."

"Haven't you driven it before this race?"

"Nope, I'll be driving it for the first time when I go in the time trials."

"Aren't you superstitious?"

"Nah. No time."

Three players from the Cleveland Barons were chosen on the American Hockey League all-star team for 1949-50.

Young Philadelphia Hurlers Talk, Eat and Live Baseball

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies are beginning to believe if you live around a person long enough, you get to be like him.

Take young Bob Miller, who has three victories this season with his latest 3-0 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

He lives at the Germantown Cricket Club with Curt Simmons and Emory (Bubba) Church.

Simmons, looking for the first time like he is worth every cent of the $55,000 he received for signing, has won five and lost two. And Church is another reason the Phils are battling for first place in the National League.

They do little but talk and eat baseball, said veteran pitching Coach Benny Bengough today.

"They're all great students of the game, and I'm speaking not only of Miller, Simmons and Church but Robin Roberts and the other youngsters. They actually keep records on opposing players."

"You take Miller, he hasn't any trick deliveries but he can hit a dime with that curve of his. Anr his fast ball fools you."

"Notice yesterday how he kept Ralph Kiner off balance. His control is so good that he can nip the corners and keep a batter from getting set."

Bengough, who has done much to develop the club's young pitchers for Manager Eddie Sawyer, said Miller is "cool as a cucumber" and "very good when he is in a tight spot."

NEW YORK — (AP) — You can't say those Dodgers aren't right up to date. Take that goofy play Wednesday night, for instance, when Gil Hodges and Jackie Robinson thundered down on the plate together.

The rule under which Jackie was declared out had only been in the book for two days. When the Rules Interpretation Committee met May 4, they found a long-standing interference rule had been overlooked in rewriting the code for 1950.

So they came up with "7.09 (d) the penalty provided by this rule shall be inflicted also on any batter or base runner who has just been retired and who obstructs or interferes with any following play being made on a base runner. The base runner shall be declared out for the interference of his teammate or teammates."

This was sent out in a bulletin from the commissioner's office with a note that the interpretations were to go into effect not later than May 22. And, it seems, not a minute too soon.

BROWN STUDY
This happened a few years ago, so Paul Brown can get a chuckle out of it now. The Cleveland Browns coach is father of three lively and football-minded sons, Robin, Mike and Pete.

When Mike was five years old, he tried to emulate a comic strip character by trying to climb to the foot of his bed and climbing out a second-story window.

He lost his grip and broke a leg when he hit the ground. When the distraught parent was summoned to the hospital, Mike greeted him: "Dad, I'll bet you're glad it was me instead of Horace Gillom."

Gillom, you know, was Brown's star fullback.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Jim Fuchs, Yale's record-smashing shotputter, hopes to double up on records at the ICAA meet this weekend. He's slated to finish an examination at noon each day and is due to start throwing the discus at Randall's Island at 3 o'clock on Friday and 2 on Saturday.

Ed McKeever, the trying Irishman from Louisiana State, is in town to "see a ball game and move on."

Move on, no doubt, to places where they grow bigger and better football players. Since Billy Hoelt, 18-year-old Oakbrook, Wis. High School pitcher struck out 27 Hartford High batsmen and issued no walks in a nine-inning game, a dozen major league scouts have boosted the bonus bidding to $40,000. But Milwaukee's Jake Flowers keeps telling the kid not to become a bonus player.

On May 27, Navy and Army squads will compete in baseball, golf, lacrosse, tennis and track and field.

Former Philadelphia Athletic star Max Bishop is in his 13th season as baseball coach at the Naval Academy.

Editor "Common Ground": (Editor's Note: See answer in today's Common Ground.)

For some time now I have been reading your editorials and attempting to follow your reasoning on public schools.

(1) This has been very difficult to do in that our social and financial positions are undoubtedly the exact reverse. In short, I have children, and not too much money, so you no doubt feel that I'm stealing from you, compelling you to educate my children. This assumption because your tax bill is considerably higher than mine...

(2) Myself, I certainly wish I had an income that obligated me to pay, say $25,000 in taxes every year. Such, however, does not seem to be my privilege, so instead I go on paying my paltry few dollars in taxes and using the rest of my income to raise my family.

(3) You attempt to justify your attitude on public schools by bringing up the teachings of Jesus. Frankly, I feel you have no grounds at all along this line, because you seem to have missed the basic philosophy of Christ's teachings.

(4) You do not impress me as a man who does, or could, love children, but rather instead, money. You seem to have a fear that it is being stolen from you to waste in a futile attempt to educate a vast horde of undeserving brats.

(5) You have money, I haven't, your money is being used to educate my children. In your mind this is unfair. All right, let's carry this line a little further.

(6) At the present the vast amount of money being levied on the people of this nation in the form of taxes, has and is going in a majority toward payment of past wars and possible future ones.

(7) These wars have been fought and will be fought to defend our freedom and form of life. The future ones (God forbid), will be fought with your money and my children — and if you lose your money and I my children, who then has lost the most?

(8) Now some of the money that was stolen from you in the past went toward my education. My education was of considerable use to me, especially when I was in the service. Think your money was stolen from you?

(9) Could I offer you my Medical discharge from the last war that saved all we both have, in payment?

Instead of worrying that you are being forced to contribute unjustly toward the education of the present generation, be thankful, because past precedents has shown that not all that money is wasted.

(10) The present generation are not growing up to be socialist either, the party is not even on the horizon.

(11) Some remarkably smart men had their educational start in public schools, and somehow, I feel we are going to need smart men and soldiers in the not-too-distant future.

Sincerely, William E. Leon.

Cigar smoking, claims Richard Turkey, cigar industry publicity man is "the last pleasure reserved exclusively for men."

He has a lot of pamphlets, "Hoaks and Humdocks: Or How to Buy Cigars for Your Man," a fashion "code" for cigar smokers and enough cash in his kick to host 11 Hollywood night club cigar-ootie-girls at a steak dinner at the Brown Derby.

After dinner Turkey lit a cigar and told the "cigar" girls that cigars should be selected to "fit the face and please the personality." Then he passed out cigar cutters for the girls to wear on ribbons around their necks.

Gracie Says

By GRACIE ALLEN "Marvin Byrum recently set a new record by walking on his hands down steps from the top of the Washington monument to the ground in 41 1/2 minutes."

Anybody can walk on his own hands, but my Cousin Arthur has other people walk on his hands every time he picks up a cigar!

And once my Uncle Sid nearly hopped two miles through deep snow on his bare head. He was being trailed by Canadian mounties and he knew they'd follow his footprints — and if he walked on his hands he'd leave fingerprints. So he confused them by hopping along on his head and leaving a trail like a pogo stick. If he'd been able to see where he was going through the snow he'd have escaped, too!

Articles for this column are preferred by the editor if they are not longer than 1,000 words. However, longer articles may be printed.

Editor "Common Ground": (Editor's Note: See answer in today's Common Ground.)

For some time now I have been reading your editorials and attempting to follow your reasoning on public schools.

(1) This has been very difficult to do in that our social and financial positions are undoubtedly the exact reverse. In short, I have children, and not too much money, so you no doubt feel that I'm stealing from you, compelling you to educate my children. This assumption because your tax bill is considerably higher than mine...

(2) Myself, I certainly wish I had an income that obligated me to pay, say $25,000 in taxes every year. Such, however, does not seem to be my privilege, so instead I go on paying my paltry few dollars in taxes and using the rest of my income to raise my family.

(3) You attempt to justify your attitude on public schools by bringing up the teachings of Jesus. Frankly, I feel you have no grounds at all along this line, because you seem to have missed the basic philosophy of Christ's teachings.

(4) You do not impress me as a man who does, or could, love children, but rather instead, money. You seem to have a fear that it is being stolen from you to waste in a futile attempt to educate a vast horde of undeserving brats.

(5) You have money, I haven't, your money is being used to educate my children. In your mind this is unfair. All right, let's carry this line a little further.

(6) At the present the vast amount of money being levied on the people of this nation in the form of taxes, has and is going in a majority toward payment of past wars and possible future ones.

WMU Birthday Is Observed by Calvary Women
The 52nd anniversary of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union was celebrated recently by the women of the Calvary WMS, with Mrs. Bert Mitchell presiding.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Melvin Fennis, and Mrs. Bill Clonts presented a violin solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wes Langham.

During the business meeting several social functions were planned. Lunch was served in the dining room of the church at 12:30. Spring flowers centered the tables and crepe paper in WMU colors, blue and white, formed the decorations which carried out the birthday theme.

The cake was four-tiered and was also blue and white. It was baked by Mrs. R. O. Clemmons. Mrs. Collins Webb gave the history of the WMU.

On the program was a play "Invisible Bridges" given by Mrs. Jack Robertson, Mrs. Graham Reeves, Mrs. R. O. Clemmons and Mrs. Thomas Fisher.

Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void. —Mary Baker Eddy

The LONESOME BRIDE

By Grace Nies Fletcher

THE third person who's spoken to me today! Gloria gloated, floating along down the crowded street in a golden haze of friendliness. "We're beginning to belong! We're Brooklynnites, or is it one?" she exulted to Mitlades that evening after he'd eaten half the pie and pronounced it beyond words delicious. "The Greeks had a name for it—" and she gave the words, translating: "The last come shall be first."

"Aw, come off it, Baby," Mitlades urged. He hated a display of erudition almost as much as his own silly name. "Kiss me, Kid. But hot."

She gave eminent satisfaction, when she finished the pie and the pie and they went to bed, thus ending, Gloria thought sleepily, the happiest day of their married life yet. She reached her hand across to the other twin bed and Mitlades took it into his big one, and hand in hand, like to belong in Prospect Park, they fell asleep.

SHE was smuggled into the big armchair, still in her green chiffon negligee, the next morning, wishing she didn't have to begin to wash the dishes, when someone knocked peremptorily on her door and when she opened it, two blue-uniformed policemen were standing there.

"Good morning!" Gloria beamed at them impartially, wondering what on earth! Oh, of course: "I'll take two tickets," she offered, looking absently over at the small gray man in overalls behind them who was industriously sweeping down the red carpet of the corridor.

"We wanna know where your friends have skipped to?"

"Friends?" Gloria stared at him blankly.

"Don't give us any of that guff, the cop told her, pushing his cap onto the back of his head. "You were seen coming out of Apartment 7A yesterday, and people who's close enough to swap pies, are friends, ain't they?"

Weekly Earnings For April Rise
 WASHINGTON — (AP) — Longer work weeks boosted the average weekly earnings of 11,600,000 workers in manufacturing plants to a record high of $56.89 during April.
 The Bureau of Labor Statistics, reporting this, said that average was $3 more than the weekly earnings just a year ago.

Demos to Eat Chicken With Their Fingers

AUSTIN — (AP) — Chicken eating will be finger style at the Texas Democrats' big blowout here Saturday night.
 More than 1,200 fryers are all iced down ready for the barbecue pits.

That's in addition to the beef, Mexican-style corn, potato salad, rolls, coffee, ice cream and rum cake being rounded up for the expected 2,000 to 2,500 paying guests.

And cigars, of course. "I know Alben W. Barkley eats chicken with his fingers," Creekmore Fath, member of the Jefferson - Jackson Day Committee said.

Vice President Barkley is the honored guest and the principal speaker so his chicken eating rule will be the rule for everybody.

The chickens will be cooked on open pits in Zilker Park nearby to the city coliseum where they will be rushed piping hot.
 There'll be 100 waiters at the coliseum to make the final deliveries.

For those who want more than chicken and trimmings, there'll be the customary gala bunting, red, white and blue flags, Barkley portraits, gladioli and forests of potted palms.

What do guest wear? Summer suits for men, cool informal clothing for women, says former Austin Mayor Tom Miller, chief ramrod of the fund-raising rally.

Those are the clothes the weather dictates, he said. What do you bring? Only one essential — the per plate special rate for loyal Democrats — $25.

Chamber Adopts Hands-Off Plan

TEXARKANA — (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce said yesterday it had adopted a "hands off" policy on the Texas and Pacific Railroad's application to discontinue passenger train service on a branch line between Texarkana and Fort Worth.

Oral arguments on the application will be held before the Texas Railroad Commission in Austin Monday.

The branch line runs from Fort Worth to Texarkana through Denton, Sherman, Bonham and Paris. The T&P also has a main line from Fort Worth to Texarkana via Dallas, Terrell, Gladewater, Longview, Marshall and Jefferson. The main line is not involved in the hearing.

Both the cities of Texarkana, Ark., and Texarkana, Texas, have filed protests against the proposed discontinuation of passenger service on the branch line.

Three Officials Of Negro School To Leave Posts

HOUSTON — (AP) — Two directors and the dean of the law school of the Texas State University for Negroes have resigned. Dean Orie Johnson said he quit to become legal advisor to the Pioneer Institute, a government sponsored training school in Philadelphia.
 The two directors are Mayor T. Bell, Beaumont attorney, and

Charles K. Devall, Kilgore publisher. Officials of the school refused to comment on the action. Gov. Allan Shivers said in Austin he accepted the resignations of Bell and Devall "regretfully."

IF you are one of those men who believes electric shavers take too long, and won't shave a beard like yours CLOSE enough—please do this:

Skip a shave and visit your Sunbeam dealer with a good 24-hour beard. He will be glad to let you shave any time with the sensational new Model "W" Sunbeam Shavemaster.

It takes the average man about 7 minutes to lather and shave with soap-and-blade. That same man will get a better shave with the new Shavemaster in 3 minutes.

Even if you've got the toughest, heaviest beard, plus a tender skin, you'll shave with Shavemaster in LESS TIME than it takes with soap-and-blade. You'll get a comfortable shave—no nicks or cuts, muss or fuss, this new, easy way.

Try it at your Sunbeam dealer's. Most dealers are prepared to have you try the new Shavemaster in their stores.
