SMITH ENDS FIJI TO HAWAII FLIGHT

CHARLES A GUY in Lubbock Journal—Mr. Mussolini says that every girl must marry and that every young man must learn to fight. Must it be in that order, Duce?

L. D. and MOLLIE SHAW in Higgins News—To be well financed one must have some finance. Otherwise, the prospect is slim.

MAX WADE in Groom News—Read the News, don't skip a word. Now read another—then the third. Digest it—"will do you good"—Then laugh, where laughing? Understood.

Should you by laughing thus "grow fat"?

I will make no extra charge for that.

R. B. HAYNES in Miami Chief—We have heard many voters state that they would scratch every one of the eight proposed constitutional amendments which are to be voted on in the general election, Nov. 6. The reason for this is all the amendments contain a "joker" and are so worded that they do not convey their real meaning. There is one proposed amendment especially one should be voted against which is to the detriment of our public school system. It reads thusly: "The amendment of section 3 of Article VIII of the state constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium." Vote AGAINST this amendment!

SAM M. BRASWELL in Clarendon News—In this changing age if there is one thing we miss more than any other on our streets in the fall of the year, it is the dozens of cotton wagons standing on our streets with freshly ginned bales, with happy farmers showing their samples to visiting street buyers.

A. C. JOHNSON in Dalhart Texan—For the moment, tremendous public interest seems to be centered on efforts to bring about the production of more wholesome pictures. Only historians of the future with perspectives running back over many years will be able to measure the influence of the movies on the present generation and particularly during the tragic decade following the World War when all bars were let down permitting libel, obscenity, and able stage talents to run rampant. However, this commendation extends far beyond the movies into the fields of literature and music.

J. C. ESTLACK in Donley County Leader—Most public officials regard publishers of country weeklies as being useful animals, but dangerous off the leash.

PORTALES VALLEY NEWS—The News is sincere in the belief that President Hoover has dispatched the greatest program for the common people since the war. He has a human understanding there is no doubt. Had he not started the program of relief the entire nation would have been thrown into a red revolution. Many of those who have benefited by this program are still in the program, and respect the national government to continue feeding and clothing them without their making any offer, whatever for self-support.

DESKINS WELLS in Wellington Leader—"D" talk remains what have money usually remain distant.

C. E. CLARK in Childress Index—Today I saw a watermelon, raised in Childress county, weighing 44 pounds. The grower buying it said it was the heaviest he ever raised. Childress or any other county this year.

Stolen Linen Is Found By Police

City police are in possession of a number of table cloths and dish towels found late Saturday night. They had apparently been stolen from a clothes line because they had not been found when found.

So far, the police had had no report of anything having been stolen over the week-end. The articles will be given to the owner through identification.

The police had a quiet week-end, arresting only three persons, two on charges of intoxication and one for simple assault.

Howard Lane and Earl McConnell returned yesterday from El Paso where they attended the football game and stayed in Juarez. They stopped at Carl's bar tavern on their way home.

We Heard--

J. R. Green and Leon Noblet went to the El Paso game. They had to break through the El Paso line every time. The two Harvester tackles blocked two punts, threw the passer for losses twice, and generally played in the Bowie backfield to keep the Bears from scrambling more than 38 yards from scrimmage.

KIDNAPER'S FATHER CAN NOT BE REMOVED FROM NASHVILLE TO LOUISVILLE JUDGE RULES

ORDERS ROBINSON, SR., BE DISCHARGED IMMEDIATELY

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29 (AP)—U. S. Commissioner Julian Campbell ruled today that Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., may not be removed to Louisville for trial on charges linking him with the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stell.

"From all the facts before me," Commissioner Campbell said in a prepared opinion, "I find not only that there is no probable cause to believe Thomas Henry Robinson, Sr., guilty, but no fact to reasonably believe a suspicion of his guilt." The opinion added: "The government admits that this defendant is only sought for trial at Louisville, Ky., on which he did or might have done before the actual kidnaping as a conspirator. It results that it is my duty to refuse to order defendant Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., held for removal. Let the defendant be discharged."

Humble Wishes To Cut Takings From Panhandle

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—Representatives of operators in the Cotton field presented testimony at a state-wide hearing here today in an effort to show that field had been over-managed and that the amount of oil it is allowed to produce is excessive. The railroad commission administrator of the oil and gas industry in Texas announced today that he would issue orders for a 1934-35 production of 1,000,000 barrels. The commission also announced that it would issue orders for a 1935-36 production of 1,000,000 barrels. 'WAR' SCREAMS MUSSOLINI IN CAESAR SPEECH

Italy To Be Turned Into Military Machine

ROME, Oct. 29 (AP)—The last echo of disarmament talk died out here today when Premier Mussolini, in a speech in the Italian parliament, made Italy a "military machine." Every male Italian between the ages of 16 and 30 will be trained in the use of arms under the supervision of an inspectorate of pre and post-military service which he inaugurated this afternoon.

SINCLAIR APPEALS TO TEXAN TO PROBE 'MOVIE WAR ON ME'

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29 (AP)—A demand for a congressional investigation of alleged anti-Sinclair activities of movie interests and a warning against republican overconfidence came today from the rival camps in California's bitter election campaign.

The investigation was demanded by Upton Sinclair, former socialist, making a bid for the governorship as the democratic nominee. He charged the motion picture interests with distributing "false propaganda" against him.

In telegrams to United States Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts and Congressman Wright Patman of Texas, Sinclair said a Hollywood paper, which he described as the official publication of the motion picture interests, had openly boasted that Louis P. Mayer,

FAMED PAPERS FORGED FROM ESSAY, CLAIM

JEW SAYS THEY DON'T WANT TO RULE WORLD

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 29 (AP)—S. regius Swatlow, who served as the vice-governor of St. Petersburg (not Leningrad), under the Kerensky regime, declared in court today the so-called "protocols of the Elders of Zion" were fabricated by secret Russian agents at the French national library.

This testimony was given before the criminal libel action of a lawsuit in which Jewry is attempting to show it did not lay plans to rule the world. Jewish leaders are attempting to prove these documents known as the "protocols" are forged and false.

I was on these "protocols" that the nazi regime in Germany, according to the testimony of G. H. Heller, one of the nazi witnesses for the defense, was largely based. Swatlow said when he began to disband the czar's secret police, Henri Bind, a Frenchman and one of Russia's secret police agents, told him the protocols were prepared by General Raichowsky, supposed to be the head of the czar's secret police in Paris, with the aid of a man named Golowsky, an agent provocateur and expert liar.

"I am convinced from my talk with Bind," said Swatlow, "that Golowsky wrote the protocols at the national library from the essay on dialogue in Hades between Machiavelli and Montesquieu" by Maurice Joly (1864) and their object was to hold the Jews responsible for the revolution in Russia. Count Chayla testified that the revolution which ended with Soviet domination was largely due to these "protocols."

Theodore Fischer, leader of the Swiss nazi and attorney for the defense, interrupted the proceedings repeatedly as efforts were made to prove that the protocol, whether authentic or spurious, had been borne out by history since many great events, including revolutions and wars, have occurred as predicted in the protocols.

Blamed for Revolution Count Chayla said he believed the publication of the "protocols" in Russian influenced Czar Nicholas to pursue a reactionary policy especially directed against the Jews.

"The publication," he said, "prevented the adoption of a Russian constitution and contributed to the great catastrophe in the war which culminated in the Bolshevik revolution."

Count Chayla testified that he had been handed the protocols written in poor French by the Russian writer Nihilus who apparently had received the document from General Raichowsky Nihilus, he said seemed to entertain doubts as to the authenticity but assent of Chayla, "What of it? Christ said wisdom came from an ass, why cannot truth emerge from forgery?"

Chayla, a husky Frenchman who has spent much time in Russia, said Nihilus appeared imbued with the spirit of the anti-Christ. Chain Weizmann, the former president of the Jewish agency for Palestine, was serene under a bombardment of queries from both Fischer and the lawyer for the plaintiffs. He solemnly denied that the famous Zionist congress at Basel in 1897 took any direct action calculated to create a Jewish world economy as outlined in the protocols. He said the sole aim was

Street Car And Bus Service At Beaumont Halted

BEAUMONT, Oct. 29 (AP)—Street car and bus service here, as well as bus service between Beaumont and Port Arthur, was at a standstill today as 98 employees of the Eastern Texas Electric company and the Beaumont and Port Arthur bus lines continued a strike.

The strike action followed a two hour meeting. Reports said the strike was occasioned by the failure of the Electric company to sign contracts with the employees in which division 1001 of the Amalgamated association of street and electric railway employees of America would be recognized as the official collective bargaining agency between the workmen and the company executives.

Engineer Faints After Fast Run

The strain of 56 hours and 56 minutes of hair-raising travel ended with the arrival in Grand Central Station, New York, of the Union Pacific's new streamlined train, Harry Robinson, engineer, fainted after being congratulated by railroad executives. He is shown as he lay on the station platform after his collapse while being interviewed and photographed. He was quickly revived.

'ZILCH BROTHERS' FAIL TO GET ANY DUCKS—NONE TO KILL HERE

Fowl Scarce Due to Lack of Water and Feed

The duck season opened in this section Friday but there were no ducks to shoot except a few mallards who looked for the birds. They have come to the conclusion that "no water and no feed means no ducks."

Oscar Zilch well known duck hunter of Pampa, set out early Sunday morning before sunrise to a place that he and he alone, knew about. All through the tillers set a pressure was strong when Oscar arrived at his hiding place, selected works ago.

Oscar was cold but there was satisfaction as he nestled in his blankets and waited for the zero hour that would see him launch a bold bombardment that would fill his game bag to overflowing.

Just as Oscar was having a nap he saw the duck, a soft, satisfied look on his face, dozens of alarm clocks were ringing in Pampa arousing other hunters who had decided to hunt ducks instead of playing polo. Lights penetrated the darkness out of Pampa as cars wended their way toward the water.

Oscar's well hidden blind hundreds of yards in the air. Oscar then leaped from his blind, an oath on his lips, his gun blazing. The duck came to with a start as a beam of Old Sol struck him in the face. As he rose from his blankets he heard a faint "quack, quack" from up stream.

"It will be coming this way any minute," Oscar mused aloud. And sure enough "they" did. From upstream came the sound of a single shot. Oscar jumped. Against the sky he saw a lone duck winging its way toward him. Several hundred yards above Oscar another shot rang out as the duck pulled back its sadder and took more attitude. Then more shots were heard and the duck continued its upward flight until it passed over Oscar's well hidden blind hundreds of yards in the air.

BOY SCOUTING IN COUNCIL IS WELL AHEAD OF 12-YEAR GOAL

Boy Scouting in the Adobe Walls council is well ahead of schedule in the 12-year program; in fact, the goals set up for 1938 are being approached in some particulars. The total registration and the number of troops are considered very pleasing. The current goals are enrollment of more 12-year-olds and keeping them in Scouting for four years. To reach this year's goal for tenderfoot Scouts, 65 boys just 12 years of age must be enrolled before December 31. The goal for older boys has been passed.

Tonight at 8 o'clock will be held the monthly court of honor, which is held on the last Monday of each month. No great amount of business will come before this court but next month is expected to produce a "grand slam" in Scouting. Tomorrow night will bring a court of honor at Berger. On Thursday, Rotary troop No. 20 of Pampa will have a parents' night affair. On Saturday night, a new troop will be installed at Skellytown at the community church building.

ENGLISH SHIP LANDS SAFELY AT HONOLULU

FLIES FROM SUVA TO ISLAND IN 25 HOURS

HONOLULU, Oct. 29 (AP)—Wing Commander Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith landed at night, today (1:10 p. m. CST) at the army air base at Wheeler field, completing his second successful flight between Hawaii and Fiji.

Already the first to span the ocean by air from California to Australia—his 1928 feat which brought him international recognition and knighthood—Kingsford-Smith added new laurels today by flying from Nasesai Beach, 20 miles from Suva to this field in 25 hours, five minutes.

The plane, Lady Southern Cross, swooped cleanly to the field. After the alighting and all-night flight, in which Kingsford-Smith and his navigator, Captain P. G. Taylor, cut across both the equator and the international date line, they came in "under wraps," throttling the motor to approximately 100 miles an hour for the last 300 miles of the flight.

A crowd of about a thousand which had driven the 30 miles to the field from Honolulu hung leis of fragrant flowers about the necks of the aviators, as cramped and weary, they tumbled from the cockpits of the single-engine, low-winged monoplane.

They said they did not fight land until very close to the archipelago. Heavy clouds blanketed the islands, but with regular shots at the sun they held strictly to their course until the oblong-shaped island of Mookia loomed through the clouds.

The big plane arrived over Honolulu 24 hours and 50 minutes after leaving Fiji and landed 15 minutes later, making the total time 25 hours and five minutes.

On the 1928 flight, the then Capt. Kingsford-Smith and three others, including Co-Pilot C. T. P. Um, Navigator Harry W. Lyon and Radio Operator James Warner, flew a tri-motored rebuilt monoplane originally designed for an arctic expedition, to Australia in three principal laps—from Oakland to Wheeler field, from the barking sands on Kauai island to Suva, Fiji, and from Nasesai Beach to Brisbane.

It was agreed at that time that the Hawaii-Fiji section of the flight was the most hazardous, due to utter lack of weather reports and judgments, with which equatorial storms form. As a matter of fact the big monoplane was near disaster at one stage of that flight in a tropical storm before Kingsford-Smith.

AMARILLO, Oct. 29 (AP)—Dr. Geo. J. Nunn, 80, noted religious leader and educator, died at his home here today following an illness of several weeks.

He served as head of the now defunct Dallas Female college, Polytechnic college at Fort Worth, and on the faculties of John Tarleton college at Stephenville, Alexander institute, Kilgore, and Crockett and Amarillo high school.

A Methodist minister, Dr. Nunn was a religious leader, and for the past 25 years had been head of a Sunday school class here and had filled the pulpit in many communities in this section.

Dr. Nunn was born in Adair county, Ky. He later lived in Missouri and Kansas before coming to Texas. He was educated at Vanderbilt, Texas, and Chicago universities, and had traveled widely in foreign lands.

WORLD REQUIRES SAFETY OF DEMOCRACY

This troubled world may yet be forced to understand that it will have to make itself safe for democracy before it can carry on with the ordinary business of living.

Democracy has gone out of style since the war. That magnificent slogan that Woodrow Wilson handed out in war days has become something to laugh at—partly because the war no longer looks like the holy crusade we once thought it, and partly because democracy itself has shown more defects than we used to think it had.

But when all the shams and hypocrisies of the war are admitted and all the faults of democratic government are reviewed, it is still true that democracy does provide a safety valve which eases tensions and prevents the kind of explosions that have been tormenting Europe lately.

Historians are still arguing about what caused the World War, and the argument won't be settled for a long time to come. One thing, however, is very clear, a large part of the trouble was the ceaseless struggle of oppressed minorities to win their freedom.

This struggle centered in the old Austro-Hungarian empire, and it touched off the war. The finest thing Wilson ever did was to tell the whole world that freedom and self-determination must be the heritage of all peoples if a repetition of the holocaust was to be avoided.

The result? Violence and bloodshed. In country after country the secret police must go about smelling out plots and conspiracies. Prisons must be enlarged, executions must be kept busy.

The dictators fear their own people and they fear one another. Riots and assassinations come in an ever-increasing crop; and each one disturbs an unstable equilibrium so dangerously that people catch their breath and wonder, "Will this start a new war?"

Maybe it's time to revive that old war slogan. A world that was safe for democracy would certainly have fewer spots than the one in which we are now living.—Memphis Democrat.

LET'S PRESERVE OUR WATERFOWL

The goose and duck season is open. New regulations will be found by hunters. One is the requirement of a duck stamp by Uncle Sam. Another is the reduced bag limit and complete protection given some species of ducks.

Hunters should understand these regulations and observe them since they are framed for the good of the sport. The Federal government is requiring the dollar tax to provide funds for building breeding grounds for the fowl, which are fast approaching extinction because they have been robbed of the opportunity to propagate. The money will finance the building and restoring of refuges where the fowl may live in the spring and summer while raising their young. The draining of vast marshes and lakes in the north has ruined the breeding grounds.

Shortening of the season to three days a week is a temporary measure which will not only give the ducks added protection, but will afford them four days a week in which to search out a bit of food without being molested. And feed is exceedingly scarce this year.

True sportsmen who want to continue hunting ducks will observe the new regulations to the letter. Those who do not are those who are indifferent about hunting next year and the years after that. Let's give our ducks a chance.—Hereford Brand.

TERRELL MAN SLUGGED AND ROBBED BY PAIR

TERRELL, Oct. 29.—Two men knocked Harry Brin, merchant here, unconscious today and escaped with $10 in bills and change from his cash drawer.

The men followed Brin into his store on the pretense of wanting to do some early shopping. Once inside, one of the men drew a pistol and held Brin at bay while the other rifled the drawer.

Brin tried to press a button which would have given the alarm but was hit over the head with a sash weight.

TEXAS HISTORY

Brushing Up on Facts You Ought to Recall

The entire village of Compostela was out to see the members of Coronado's exploration party pass in review before the Viceroy, Antonio de Mendoza, of New Spain. The Viceroy was well pleased with the group of Spaniards and Indians who were going with Francisco de Coronado in his search for the Seven Cities called the Cibola, which had gold and silver beyond measure, as well as gates with turquoise doors.

It was in February, 1540, that Coronado's expedition began. It was a glorious adventure to the two hundred and fifty Spanish cavaliers and the three hundred Indians to heroes to their fellowmen. They were positive of success and, more important, of wealth. They would come back from the Cibola with more gold and silver and precious stones than the people had ever seen. Then they would have the rest of their lives to enjoy it.

So it was that they polished their armor and mail, let their swords and lances flash in the sunlight, and jauntily passed in review before the Viceroy. The Viceroy gave them a command eloquent and inspiring. The men in turn swore obedience to the King and to the Viceroy, and solemnly promised to do their best for their fatherland and for the inhabitants of New Spain.

With a flourish of his plumed hat, a gleaming flash of his lance, a gleaming flash of his lance, nado bowed low before the Viceroy, mounted his horse that was decorated with golden spangles, and with a command to his followers, headed his horse for the open road to the north. At last, the expedition was really on its way to the Cibola. With the cheers and God-speeds of the townspeople in their hearts, the cavaliers spurred their horses, the foot-soldiers quickened their steps, and the paint-daubed Indians gave their yells of joy, all equally glad that they were starting on a trip which would make dreams realities.

The visit of the expedition to Arizona and the Great Plains of Texas was one of almost unbearable days and nights; of starvation and sickness; of disappointment and sorrow. The story of their travail is another chapter of Texas history which will never be forgotten.

Santa Anna's hosts and joined their comrades, only to fall with them a few days later, fighting to the last, the list is incomplete. Available here, however, are the names of Capt. A. Dickerson, George C. Kimbell, James George, Rolphin W. Floyd, Thomas Jackson, Jacob Darst, George W. Gottle, Andrew Kent, Thomas R. Miller, Isaac Baker, John G. News of that memorable tragedy of March 6, 1836, which took place a few months after the Texans' victory in the Battle of Gonzales, reached here within an incredibly short time, plunging nearly every home into mourning. To add to the terror of the citizens, a rumor reached the town that Santa Anna was moving on Gonzales with his victorious troops. Here at the time, Sam Houston had mobilized his Texas army. Thinking it prudent to retreat until joined by reinforcements, he gave the order to abandon Gonzales, and the citizens, amid confusion, gathered what of their effects they could and fell in with the army, retiring toward the

Thirty Per Cent Production Boost Sought By Labor

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor pursued new tactics today in its fight on an unemployment problem which it says is growing in severity.

Without mentioning the 30-hour week, President William Green issued a statement seeking federal action to have all industry join in a huge and simultaneous effort to increase production by 30 per cent.

Declaring there were 843,000 more jobless last month than in September 1933, Green said:

"If the nation-wide level of all production were lifted 30 per cent in a balanced program, adjusting production to consumption needs each industry would then be assured that all other industries would increase their production, and the real hardship produced by putting labor to work would create income to buy the products of all."

The recent A. P. of L. convention urged a 30-hour week. The administration frowned on that. Observers wondered whether Green had temporarily put the idea in the background pending the convening of congress in January.

The "boost production" slogan falls more in line with recent thinking of high officials. There have been signs that NRA may favor scrapping some limitations on production. Also, the AAA is modifying its curb on the output of farm goods.

Though noting that "small" seasonal gains in employment appeared in September and October, Green said:

"For the first time since the president's reemployment program started in July, 1933, unemployment has exceeded last year's level. The total number at work in the United States was 39,748,000 in September, 1933; by September, 1934, it had declined to 39,387,000."

"During these 12 months the normal increase in population has added close to 450,000 to the army of job seekers for whom industry provides no work. Thus the number without work in industry has risen from 10,108,000 in September, 1933, to 10,951,000 in September, 1934."

Stock Exchange Operated In Red Last Year, Claim

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—The New York stock exchange, where millions are made and lost, operated "in the red" last year.

The biggest securities mart, in an unprecedented and voluntary publication of its year-end balance sheet, disclosed last night it lost $287,986.74 in 1933. The exchange's figures, published at its own request yesterday by the securities exchange commission, showed it spent $4,242,874.31 last year and took in only $3,954,887.57.

The statement was in line with a policy giving investors fuller information. The exchange reserved the right to request that future statements be held confidential.

Items contributing to their expenses included $4,336,103 in salaries and wages $336,943 for employee benefits, 645,217 for taxes and $690,441 for depreciation. Income included $1,375,000 in membership dues, $4,140,444 for ticker and similar services to members and $1,909,350 in miscellaneous receipts.

300 GROCERY STORES CLOSE IN CLEVELAND

JOBLESS ARE 843,000 GREATER THAN A YEAR AGO

(By The Associated Press.)

Three hundred grocery stores—all that the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company operates in Cleveland—were under orders to remain closed today. They will be abandoned because of labor troubles, the company says.

The chain's unionized butchers were called out in Milwaukee, where meat departments have been closed in 25 of 38 stores. The company says they were unprofitable; the union blames labor trouble. Butchers of two smaller chains also were ordered to strike by the union. Commission merchants planned to move produce despite a truck drivers' strike.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said he would begin an inquiry into labor's differences with the A. and P.

Green, in a statement last night, fixed the number of unemployed in September at 843,000 greater than a year ago and stressed "the urgency of an immediate federal program to put men back to work in industry."

Delegates at the convention of the Federation of Flat Glass Workers of America, in Pittsburgh, talked of a "nation-wide strike" after rejecting the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company's answer to labor demands.

Deadlocked, employers and representatives of 20,000 striking silk and rayon dyers in the east planned to renew their conferences today. The union ordered picket lines established to prevent any resumption of work at the plants.

A two-month strike at Millville, N. J., ended with textile workers accepting the Millville Manufacturing company's agreement to arbitrate.

In Beaumont, Texas, 98 street car and bus operators went on strike, halting service.

English Pair Tries For New Air Record

LONDON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Cathcart Jones and Ken W. Waller were sighted over Calcutta today on their "boomerang" dash home in an attempt to establish a record for a flight from Melbourne to England.

The fliers reached Singapore en route from Port Darwin, Australia, yesterday, covering the 2,084 miles in less than 11 hours, averaging 201.7 miles an hour.

A delay at Port Darwin, badly hurt their chance at beating the time of 70 hours, 59 minutes and 50 seconds made last week from England to Melbourne by C. W. A. Scott and T. Campbell Black.

Eight of the original 19 starters from Mildenhall airbase in the Melbourne derby still have to reach that city.

FLOYD FUNERAL IS ATTENDED BY 20,000 PEOPLE

Largest Crowd Came From 20 States To Rites

SALLISAW, Okla., Oct. 29 (AP)—While approximately 20,000 curious persons tramped graves, crushed flowers, kicked over footstones, the body of Charles Arthur (Pretty Boy) Floyd, outlaw, was laid to rest in the little country cemetery of Akins, near here yesterday. So great was the press of the crowd of curious that once the Rev. W. E. Rockett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Sallisaw, stopped during the funeral service to reprove the crowd.

Mr. Rockett, who conducted the service assisted by the Rev. Owen White of the Akins Baptist church, took as his text, John 19:30: "When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, it is finished; and he bowed his head and gave up the ghost."

Protected by a small shingled arbor were Mrs. Walter Floyd, the widow; Mrs. Ruby Floyd, the outlaw's widow; Jack Dempsey Floyd, his 12-year-old son; four sisters and two brothers.

"If heredity alone," Mr. Rockett said, "could direct the lives of our restless youth we in all probably should not be here on this sad occasion; but a stronger force, environment, steps in to defeat heredity."

"Thus oft times the example of consecrated mothers, fathers and grandparents are nullified by the evil forces of environment."

Floyd, who was carried on the federal department of justice agent lists, as public enemy No. 1, was lowered into a grave, the site of which he allegedly selected himself more than a year ago, with a remark to his mother: "Right here is where you can put me. I expect to go down with lead in me—perhaps the sooner the better."

The crowd, declared the largest ever seen in Sallisaw, came from 20 states. Scattered among the curious outlanders were the natives of the district, men and women who came afoot, on horseback and in wagons. Even the Cookson Hills, reputed hiding place of many of the southwest's outlaws, sent its delegation.

A private funeral was held at the home of Floyd's mother in Sallisaw preceding the public services at the cemetery. Only relatives attended this first service.

OLNEY, Oct. 29 (AP)—Funeral services were planned today for W. R. Farmer, 72, veteran rancher and oil man, who died after a long illness. He was a native of Tarrant county. He purchased a 9,000 acre ranch in southwestern Archer county in 1917. The Olney oil field was later opened on his ranch.

Ray N. Johnson Is Assigned To Welburn Church

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 29 (AP)—P. N. Freeman has been named presiding elder of the San Antonio district of the Methodist Episcopal church, replacing the Rev. K. P. Barton, who was assigned to the First Methodist church at San Angelo.

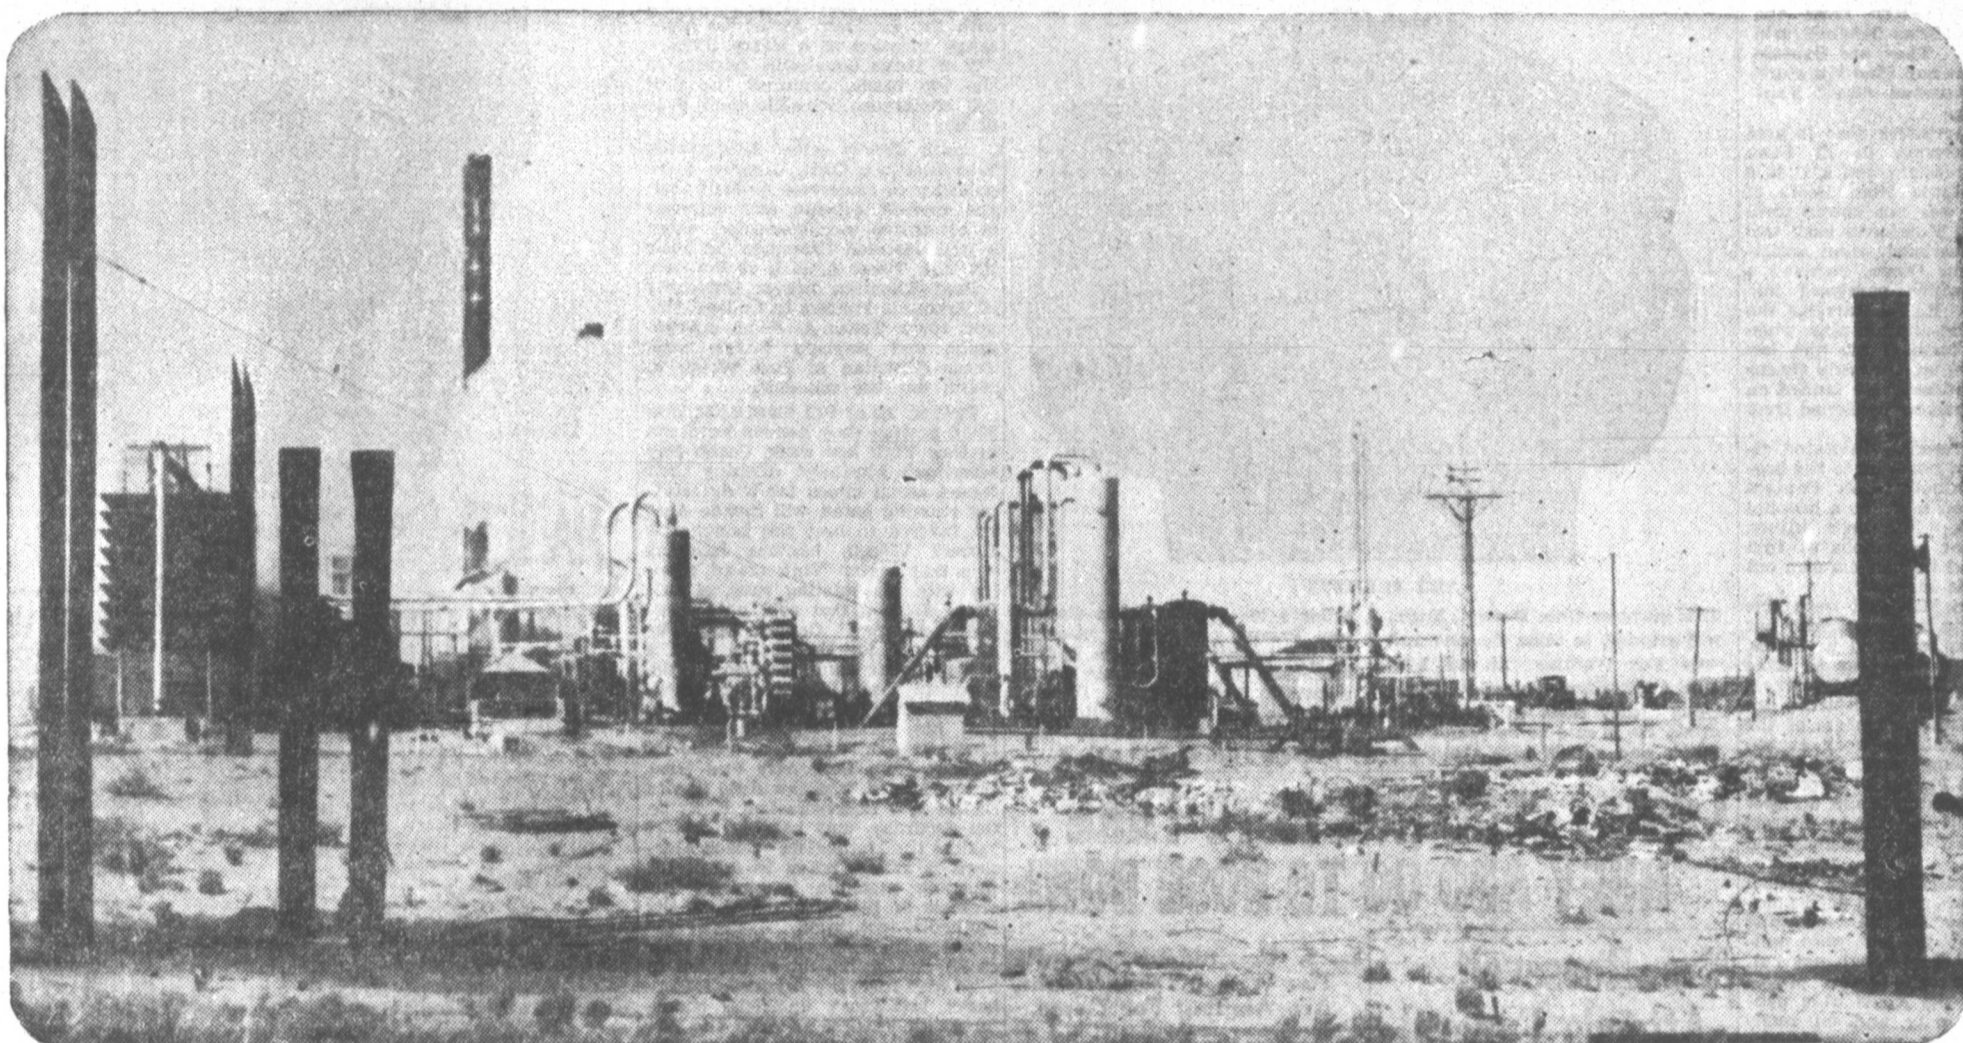

Bishop H. A. Boaz made only one change in the San Antonio Methodist pastorate, it was announced at the West Texas conference, concluded yesterday. The Rev. M. K. Fred of the Prospect Hill church went to Cuero and the Rev. P. E. Lancaster was assigned to the church here. Rev. Ray N. Johnson was assigned to the Government Hill church, formerly presided over by Rev. W. D. Welburn, Jr.

This Single "STRIPPING PLANT" Each Day Wastes More Gas Than All of the People of Texas Use!

Squandering... the LIFEBLOOD of the Panhandle!

The above photograph cannot show the colossal quantities of gas continuously being blown into the air—for gas is colorless. But it is a fact that the few pipes in the foreground alone account for the loss of more than 120,000,000 cubic feet a day—more gas than is used for domestic purposes in all of Texas. Panhandle "stripping plants" now waste into the air so much gas each day that the United States Department of Commerce has warned aviators not to fly over the field, because of the dangerous fire hazard!

These "stripping plants" require few employees and are cheap to build and operate as compared with legitimate gasoline plants. Under their best contracts they pay less than 3-100ths of 1c per 1,000 cubic feet of gas, and that only to the land or royalty owners of the few leases to which they are connected. These "stripping plants" have already used many times the gas in place under certain leases, draining the rest from adjacent leases and paying nothing to the actual owners.

If all the gas remaining in the Panhandle Field were used for stripping purposes, at current prices lease and royalty owners would receive a total of only $3,600,000. However, based on present prices, if this same gas were used for homes and industries, the total would be $56,700,000.

This rapid, ruthless destruction of the world's largest natural gas reserve and second largest crude oil reserve was legalized by the Legislature last year. Few could have realized at the time what a gigantic crime was being authorized. But the facts are only too apparent now! However, our great Panhandle oil and gas field can yet be saved! As a patriotic citizen of the Panhandle, won't you aid—and aid quickly, before it is too late?

You can help stop this tremendous wastage! Your representatives in the State Legislature would like to know your views. So communicate immediately with your State Senator, Hon C. C. Small, Amarillo, Tex., and with your State Representative. (The names and addresses of the State Representatives in the Panhandle are: Hon. H. K. Stanfield, Amarillo, Tex.; Hon. B. L. Rogers, Farnsworth, Tex.; Hon. A. B. Tarwater, Plainview, Tex.; Hon. Eugene Worley, Shamrock, Tex.) Ask that immediate legislative steps be taken to stop this colossal destruction! And also write us today for additional facts!

THREE FIRST STRING HARVESTERS MAY BE ON BENCH IN PLAINVIEW GAME

SUBS APPEAR BRILLIANT IN EL PASO TILT

OWENS, FANNING AND MUMFORD INJURED SATURDAY

Three first string Harvesters may watch the first conference game of the season from the bench. Coach Oden Minkley said this morning. They are Captain Monroe Owens and Fred Mumford, ends, and Darwood "Red" Fanning, fullback.

The star Harvesters were injured Saturday afternoon in El Paso, where the Harvesters won a 21 to 6 game from Bowie High Bears of that city. It was not known until yesterday that Mumford's back was injured more seriously than anticipated. Captain Owens received a back injury which paralyzed him for some time. He was carrying the ball on an end-around play when two Mexican tacklers hit him low and then stood up, throwing Owens over their shoulders. He landed on his back and had to be carried from the field.

Fanning suffered a dislocated elbow, which also sent him to the hospital a few minutes after Captain Owens had been taken to a hospital for treatment. Fanning's injury, however, is not as serious as first anticipated and he had his arm out of a sling this morning.

Fanning and Mumford were able to make the trip home yesterday but Captain Owens remained in Clovis, N. M., overnight and was to come on to Pampa today. No chances were being taken of injuring his back again. Other members of the team will be able to work at top speed for the conference game with Plainview here Friday. The cripples will probably be able to suit up later in the week but will not be allowed to do any hard work, coaches said this morning.

The team played brilliant football in spots but were stopped dead numerous times by the hard-charging Bears. Several "boners" were pulled and penalties, although not half of them were called, also proved costly. Twice the locals were penalized for clipping and on many occasions holding was overlooked. The boys will have to watch their step in critical games or it will cost them.

Plainview cannot be taken lightly and the Harvesters will do some long and arduous work before they meet the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs are coming to the front rapidly. The Plainview team looked good in holding Quannah to a 6 to 0 score Friday. The Bulldogs started the season with an almost entirely new lineup. The youngsters have been coming ahead step by step until they are making things uncomfortable for opponents. Last year Plainview held the Harvesters to a 6 to 0 count.

Pampa substitutes will probably get a lot of experience in the Plainview game, mostly where the injured players will be missing. It is time to get the reserve strength in readiness to take the field in crucial games and it is only through experience that they will be able to hold their own.

Pampa substitutes looked brilliant in El Paso Saturday. Oden Minkley, Nick Scott, Walker and Stephenson, at end positions, bordered on the sensational at times. They piled up the El Paso attack at times and Nick kept his record of receiving passes intact when he took two out of the air for nice gains. Charlie Johnston played an excellent game in the line when he went in soon after the half.

Drake, Nash, Webb, and Brown did some nice ball carrying and facking, although there were a few mistakes made in signals. The lone Bowie touchdown came when some one missed the signal and went through the line instead of waiting to receive a spot lateral pass which found its way into Caro's arms.

Only a light workout was in order this afternoon, but the rest of the week will be strenuous.

Statewide Oil Hearing Begins

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—A statewide hearing as a preliminary to setting new oil production schedules under proration regulations was called here today.

Daily allowable production by districts, as of October 25, was: East Texas 406,483 barrels; Panhandle 56,800; North Texas 56,600; West Central 31,000; West Texas 121,126; Southwest 62,850 (including 24,646 for north and south government wells); Gulf Coast 159,072; East Central 43,446.

A general revision was not anticipated since current daily production is about 948,427 barrels and Secretary Ickes already has recommended 957,300 barrels for November.

Nominations of purchasers were in order, as were reports on results of engineering tests on the relationship of potential tests through tubing and casing.

Most Potent Appear To Be Minnesota, Princeton, Alabama and Michigan.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—An Associated Press compilation today showed 32 college football teams neither beaten nor tied at the season's halfway mark.

There were heavy casualties over the week-end, no fewer than 16 schools dropping off the list either because of defeat or tie. Among these were such major teams as Holy Cross, Duke, Utah, Vanderbilt, Iowa State, Georgetown University and Penn State.

MUSTANGS TO PLAY STEERS ON WEEK-END

METHODIST MACHINE IS ONE OF GREATEST IN HISTORY

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Three Southwest conference games, with the Southern Methodist Mustangs' invasion of a weary University of Texas Longhorns' pasture as the top tussle, comprise the first full conference schedule next Saturday.

Coach Jimmy Kitts' hair-raising Rice Institute Owls, bringing more publicity to southwest football than the keenest scheme any chamber of commerce ever concocted, catch a well deserved "breather" in their tilt with Texas A. & I. at Houston.

Fred Thomsen brings University of Arkansas Porkers to College Station for a Texas A. & M. engagement and Baylor's Bruins meet Texas Christian at Fort Worth to round out the schedule.

Opened up at full blast after that 26-14 pasting they handed Fordham in New York last week, Coach Ray Morrison's Mustangs, ditching their famed aerial circus for a devastating running game, will invade Austin favored to beat the Longhorns. Robert Wilson, bantam halfback who had a New York crowd gasping with his twisting runs, is suffering from a bad cold but is expected to play. Captain Ray Puyk is out for the season with a broken collar bone received in the Fordham game. Coach Jack Chevigny started frantically trying to pull his forces together for the Mustang game after a couple of lickings from Centenary and Rice.

Bohn Hilliard, who saw little service in the 20-4 game of ten days ago, Saturday, may be able to start against the Methodists. Coach Morrison is almost ready to admit his Mustang machine is one of the greatest of his long regime at the Methodist institution.

Two consecutive victories to their credit and sitting at the top in a tie with Rice, the Arkansas Razorbacks, last year's unofficial champions are favored to drub the Aggies. However, Coach Homer Norton's Razorbacks caused a little eye-blinking last week with a 10-7 victory over Baylor.

Texas Christian's erratic machine, slightly weak defensively, is favored over Baylor's Golden Bears. The Bears get what all other conference teams are accustomed to—a licking from Centenary last week. It was a 20-0 party of ten days ago Saturday at Nashville, Tenn., 20 to 0.

The cadet band of 150 pieces, the 1,500 strong uniformed cadet corps and hundreds of other students saw the spectacular game they saw L. S. U.'s team play in defeating Vanderbilt Saturday at Nashville, Tenn., 20 to 0.

Washington Is Likely Choice To Defend West

BANKHEAD HAS WARM BATTLE ON HIS HANDS

FLORIDA ANGLING FOR HOLLYWOOD MOVIE BUSINESS

ATLANTA, Oct. 29. (AP)—Sundry contests are stirring interest in the general election in the south, which ordinarily is a mere ratification of the democratic nominees.

In Alabama there is a special effort to roll up an overwhelming democratic vote in approval of the new deal. Bibb Graves, democratic choice for governor, has gone on the stump along with Senator Hugo Black, who is not a candidate for office.

"Give Roosevelt a vote of confidence on November 6 that will hush every doubting Thomas." That is their answer to what at first was viewed only as a gesture by the republicans.

William B. Bankhead, who sponsored the cotton control act with his brother Senator John H. Bankhead, has a fight with an independent on his hands in the seventh congressional district. Bankhead is one of the leading contenders for the speakership of the next house.

In Tennessee, Joe Byrns, majority leader of the house at the past session and a candidate for speaker, is opposed for re-election.

Florida is angling for some of California's movie business by voting on a proposal to exempt motion picture studios from taxation for 15 years. Joseph Schenck, producer, told Florida recently that he would move to the state should Up-ton Sinclair be elected governor of California.

A fusion fight rages in Tennessee. Ben W. Hooper, who was elected republican governor 20 years ago in a democratic split, is opposing Senator Kenneth D. McKellar, Democrat, in his bid for re-election. Hooper has joined forces with Lewis S. Pope, who is opposing Governor Hill McAllister for re-election.

Pope, who calls himself a "straight democrat," was defeated by McAllister in the Democratic primary.

Tennessee also will elect another senator to fill out the unexpired term of Cordell Hull, who resigned to serve as secretary of state. Senator Nathan L. Bachman, who is filling this place, is opposed by Dr. John R. Neal, Knoxville lawyer running as an independent democrat, and Joseph I. Reece, former state insurance and banking commissioner. Neal lost every county in the democratic primary.

Governor George Peery has gone into the "fighting ninth" congressional district of Virginia, always a battle ground, to aid Representative John Flannagan. The democratic congressman is having a warm battle with Fred C. Parks, Abingdon republican, and Bruce Crawford, militant editor of Crawford's weekly at Norton.

South Carolina, a banner democratic state, sees a young and progressive republican party pitting itself against hopeless odds. In the general election two years ago the democratic polled 122,347 votes to 1,978 for the republicans.

Amarilloans Win Low Ball Match

John Munn and Paul Gore, two of Amarillo's best golfers, defeated Grover Austin and Dale Lott, Pampa ace, two to one, in a low ball match yesterday afternoon over the Country club course. The Amarillo pair shot a low ball total of 64 strokes, or two less than the Pampa pair.

Sensational long shots featured the match, with approaches being nearly on an equal. The golfers had considerable trouble on the greens, where many strokes were lost.

Munn shot the low score for the 18 holes when he turned in a card of 27. Lott followed with a sensational 68. Austin and Gore each turned in scores of 70 strokes, thus blasting old man par.

A large gallery of Pampa golfers followed the players over the full 18 holes.

Willie Campbell of LeFors was a Pampa visitor Saturday night.

C. H. Chandler of Mobeetie was a visitor here Sunday afternoon.

DARTMOUTH TO PLAY HARVARD ON SATURDAY

INDIANS HAVE NEVER BEATEN CRIMSON—PRIZE JINX

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Fingers crossed, college football's championship contenders took stock of the situation today before plunging into the second half of the 1934 campaign.

Although titles in most sections will be subject to debate right up to the close of the season, well-defined favorites have risen all along the line.

Prospects for this week are about as follows:

East: Army, Navy, Dartmouth, Princeton and Syracuse alone remain undefeated and untied among major teams and all face possible trouble this week. Army travels west for an encounter with Illinois another outfit with a perfect record, and Navy tackles dangerous Washington & Lee. Princeton collides with Harvard for the first time since their break in 1926, while Dartmouth comes up against its prize jinx, Yale team the Indians never have beaten. Syracuse plays Penn State which rapidly is returning to its former high place in Eastern football. Other outstanding contests find Fordham, beaten by St. Mary's, and Southern Methodist, facing Tennessee. Panthers meeting Notre Dame, and George Washington playing host to Vanderbilt. Holy Cross and Temple, Columbia and Cornell, New York University and Carnegie and Penn and Lafayette, are among the purely "domestic" pairings.

Mid-West: Minnesota, Illinois, Chicago and Purdue are the only teams undefeated in Big Ten competition, with Minnesota the stand-out. The powerful Gophers play Michigan this week while Chicago and Purdue square off in the duel that will make or break the Indiana-Iowa and Northwestern-Wisconsin games complete the conference schedule. Nebraska, which just about clinched the Big Six title by nosing out Iowa State, is idle this week but Oklahoma meets Missouri and Iowa State tackles Kansas. Michigan State, an undefeated and untied independent, finds Marquette next on the list. Detroit entertains Oklahoma A. and M.

Florida is angling for some of California's movie business by voting on a proposal to exempt motion picture studios from taxation for 15 years. Joseph Schenck, producer, told Florida recently that he would move to the state should Up-ton Sinclair be elected governor of California.

A fusion fight rages in Tennessee. Ben W. Hooper, who was elected republican governor 20 years ago in a democratic split, is opposing Senator Kenneth D. McKellar, Democrat, in his bid for re-election. Hooper has joined forces with Lewis S. Pope, who is opposing Governor Hill McAllister for re-election.

Pope, who calls himself a "straight democrat," was defeated by McAllister in the Democratic primary.

SCHOOL LEADERS URGE COUNTY P-TA TO CONTINUE COUNCIL PROJECTS ARE DISCUSSED TO ADD INTEREST

PROJECTS ARE DISCUSSED TO ADD INTEREST

NEXT MEETING TO BE IN PAMPA DURING JANUARY

McLEAN, Oct. 29.—The Gray County Council of Parent-Teacher associations met with the McLean association for an interesting time Saturday. Under the supervision of Mrs. T. A. Massey, a luncheon was served at 12 o'clock in the home economics department.

At one o'clock a program was rendered in the auditorium, as follows: "America," led by Supt. R. B. Fisher of Pampa, Miss Lola Ruth Stanfield of McLean at the piano.

Cornet solos, Jesse Dean Cobb with Willie Louelle Cobb at the piano.

Reading, Joan Campbell.

Vocal solo, Mrs. Bob Thomas, with Mrs. Cecil G. Goff at the piano.

Reading, Bernedine Breining, assisted by John Floyd Campbell.

Reading, Viola Appling.

Speakers Favor Council.

A round table discussion on "Why Have the County Council?" was led by Mrs. Claude Lard of Pampa. Mrs. Lard favored the organization as a means of cooperation between various organizations of the county and urged that the council be organized and select a major project for the year's work.

Supt. Fisher of Pampa made an inspiring talk in favor of the council and said lack of interest was due to lack of a definite project. He urged delegates to report in detail their major projects, giving special attention to the educational phase of the work. He commended the leaders in the Horace Mann school of Pampa for making personal visits to the homes of all patrons and showed the material gain in the number of parents enrolled in that association in comparison to those enrolled in an organization whose leaders failed to make the visits. Mr. Fisher said the duty of each superintendent, principal, and teacher was to back the organization. His advice in carrying on the meetings with the county council similar to that of a luncheon club and asking a capable speaker who give a talk on some subject of interest to all Parent-Teacher associations of the county was well received.

Supt. Crier of McLean spoke in favor of the council. He passed out material on the amendments to be voted on at the coming general election and urged patrons to vote against those amendments that threaten the welfare of the schools of Texas.

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of Horace Mann school of Pampa, and A. R. McHaney, principal of McLean ward school, were introduced and expressed themselves in favor of the council.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy of McLean, president, hit the keynote when she said what the county council needed was more pep. She urged delegates to give detailed reports of those projects which they have found successful in their own schools.

Charles Carpenter of Back, a member of the county board of trustees, made a short report on the rural schools and said each one was in a good financial condition and would hold a full nine months term this year. Mr. Carpenter said he felt the county council was needed because the organization needed him, but because he needed the organization.

Mrs. Lewis Goodrich of Shamrock, parliamentarian of the eighth district, made an interesting talk in which she urged all presidents of local parent-teacher associations to conduct their meetings in a common sense, businesslike way. She, too, favors a well-organized county council.

All Offices Filled.

Due to the resignation of some officers, new ones were elected to fill the vacancies. The officers now are: President, Miss Elizabeth Kennedy of McLean; vice president, Mrs. L. L. McCool of Sam Houston school Pampa; secretary, Mrs. Jim Back, McLean; treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Carpenter, Back.

Interesting reports were given by Mrs. Lard, representing the city council of Pampa; Mrs. Roy Holt, representing B. M. Baker school, Pampa; Mrs. L. L. McCool, representing Sam Houston school, Pampa; Mrs. A. L. Burge, delegate from Horace Mann, Pampa; Mrs. Holt for Mrs. J. B. Townsend, president of Pampa High School Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. Percy Barker of Back; Miss Cressie Turner of Hopkins, and Mrs. W. L. Campbell of McLean.

The next meeting of the county council will be held in January, with Pampa as hostess. The spring meeting will be held in March with Back Parent-Teacher association acting as hostess.

Those attending Saturday's meeting were: from Pampa, Misses B. G. Blonvist, McCool, A. G. Green, J. M. Turner, Burge, Lard, Holt, Cecil Lunsford, Miss Thomas, and Supt. and Mrs. R. B. Fisher; from Hopkins, Miss Turner; from Back, Mr. and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. F. D. Lancaster; from McLean, Mrs. C. Charlie Carpenter, Mrs. W. A. Breining, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Mrs. W. L. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Butler, Mrs. T. J. Coffey, Mrs. Evan Sitter, Mrs. Sammie Cubine, Mrs. R. L. Appling, Mrs. Bob Thomas, Mrs. Cecil G. Goff, Mrs. T. A. Massey, Mrs. Jim Back, Supt. and Mrs. Fryer, Henry Loter, Bill Brain, A. R. McHaney, Misses Elizabeth Kennedy, Pearl Simmons, Vera Hamilton, Frances Noel, Lola Ruth Stanfield, Aline McCarty, Vera Cummings, Clara Dishman.

CHURCH AS AN ESSENTIAL IS SERMON TOPIC

Evangelist to Speak On Repentance Today

Filling the auditorium to capacity, an audience that included many out-of-town visitors heard the evening sermon of Evangelist Roy J. Cogdill at Francis Avenue Church of Christ last evening.

The Dallas evangelist preached three times to large crowds Sunday. He will continue services through Friday at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily. His subject this evening will be, "What Repentance Demands."

Last night he spoke on the subject, "Can a Man Be Saved and Not Be a Member of the Church?"

He stated that "no man can be saved without the benefits of the blood of Christ for without the shedding of Christ's blood there is no remission of sin. Not only is the blood of Christ necessary to salvation but man must obey the commandments of God in coming to the blood of the Savior. It is impossible to be saved in the absence of obedience to the will of Christ."

"The church does not save man, but Christ is the savior of the hurler. If we are to be saved from past sins eternally, we must become a part of that institution of which Christ is the savior."

"Man must have the same attitude toward the church that the church has toward the savior. The relationship that exists between the earthly husband and wife is identical to the relationship that exists between Christ and his church. Christ and his church are one even as the husband and wife are one in the Bible as the family of God. Every Christian on earth is a member in his family, and none are on the outside. If a man can be saved outside the church, who is his father and who is his savior since Christ himself is the savior of the body which is the church."

"One cannot be in Christ and out of the church. Christianity without church membership is as impossible as to live in the world without life. The church has every blessing in it

She mentioned the following points as necessary: familiarity with good literature, sincere interest in and knowledge of her subject, ability to make word pictures vivid and distinct, power to choose subject of interest to her audience, organization of material to be used, and power of brevity and clarity.

Chapter 20 NEW PLAN

Lon buttered a few biscuits and set them aside in true southern fashion as he berries, drank some coffee then looked up.

"Y'know Ian, sometimes I sort of pinch myself wondering if . . . if all this is true or if I'm going to wake up and find I've been dreaming. And then again it seems like we've always been married."

"I know," she nodded seriously, "and it's been only eight days." She bent her head over the newspaper folded to an account of their wedding, then chuckled.

"Listen Lon, isn't this rich? There's nothing like a country newspaper: 'Like a windswept garden of flowers the bridal party moved down the aisle. The bride, a virgin lily with a golden crown, was attended by the matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Steele, and a bevy of bridesmaids, including the sister of the bride, each depicting some spring flower in frocks of pastel hue.'"

"I felt 'windswept,'" she confessed. "More coffee, Lon? We'll send south for the kind you like as soon as we're settled."

"What do you mean 'windswept'?" he asked, holding his cup toward her.

"Between my mother and the 'bevy of bridesmaids' it's a wonder I ever got dressed. I really believe if Anne with her dimples and efficiency hadn't been there, you'd still be waiting at the church."

"No, I wouldn't. Your Dad had me helping him pack the gifts and the supplies . . . they must have thought we were starting a hotel. Hams, bacon, fruit . . . We're going to have to build a storage house for it all. 'Darned nice of them though, wasn't it?'"

"Umhuh, and I won't have to buy a stitch of linen or bedding or dishes or silver. We even have some rare pieces of furniture."

"Sense a few moments, then Lon spoke—'Hey, Ian, listen to this. Doesn't this sound like the place we're looking for? Twenty acre fruit ranch, more acreage available, ten minute drive from city, running water, electricity, priced reasonable. See Mr. Blair at Lafayette.' Where's Lafayette?"

"In the San Ramon valley; it's beautiful there."

"Ian, let's," he hesitated.

"Let's," she said. "We've the rest of our life for a honeymoon. Let's start right away."

Quickly they washed the breakfast dishes, packed their bags, whistled to Hero and started for the valley of the San Ramon. Down through Santa Cruz and up over the mountains, along the valley road to Mission San Jose and over other hills.

Noon found them swinging their heels from the high stools of a sandwich counter at Walnut Creek, and early afternoon in the office of Morblad, at Lafayette.

The owner of the land mentioned in the advertisement, Morblad explained, was an eccentric orchardist, who resented the city's encroachment on his land. He had thought he was safe in buying on the far side of the mountain which lay between the city and the land, only to find that the tunnel being bored through the base of the mountain brought him closer to the city's main street than many of the suburban districts.

"I tried to get him to wait until the tunnel was finished, so he'd get a better price for his land, but he wouldn't. Seemed to think he'd be contaminated by city folk if he held out much longer."

He gave them directions, then stood outside his little office and watched them leave with the complacent air of a man who has performed his duty.

Lon drove while Marian repeated the directions, "first road to the left," she said, then, "wooden gate with a 'beware dangerous dog' sign . . . there it is. Lon, No. Hero's all right. Morblad said there wasn't any dog."

Her eyes were wide with wonder as Lon left the car to open the gate. The orchard lay in a valley hemmed in on all sides by hills, low hills to the east and north, jagged mountains to the south, and to the west the high barrier upon which the orchardist had placed his hope of seclusion.

The road wound through the orchard up a hill, then stopped on the top where a weatherbeaten shack served as a farm house. Marian looked at the house, then looked away. "Oh, Lon," she said, and pointed east.

Below them lay the great basin of Contra Costa County and towering over it, the plum-colored bulk of Mount Diablo. There was something awe inspiring in the vastness of the scene, and yet there was something intimate about the mountain, like an often seen acquaintance who suddenly becomes a friend.

Marian sat on the weatherbeaten stoop while Lon went to look for the owner. She felt she could sit there forever watching the play of cloud shadows across the green sweep of the valley, the changing lights on the mountain. So engrossed was she in the scene she didn't hear the approach of the man until her ears, sensitive to Lon's voice, heard him say:

"If my wife likes it, I'm ready to buy."

"Oh, Lon, I do." She turned to him, smiled at the old man beside him, "only I don't see how you can bear to give it up."

"It was fine till folks started mevin' in, spoilin' things."

"But the view, nothing could spoil that."

"Houses down there," he said with distaste, pointing to colorful dots, each surrounded by its square of trees, "that low spot over there. Wait until I get my glasses on, you'll see the red roofs . . . that's where the swells live."

He brought forth the binoculars, adjusted them and Marian saw reddened roofs and white stucco walls gleaming through the matted tops of old oak trees. She felt very superior to the "swells." Why live there when there was a view like this?

Lon and the owner discussed price, discussed soil, discussed the price of prunes and walnuts in which his acres were planted, while Marian swung the glasses to and fro, picking out spots she knew. She found Walnut Creek, the largest town in the valley. The smoke haze on the northern horizon was Pittsburg on the shores of the Sacramento river, and south were the serrated tops of the range beyond Piasson, which had served as a wild western background for the first motion pictures.

"If you're through with the view you might look around the premises of your new home," suggested Lon.

They did that together, stepping off possible terraces, finding a gnarled old oak tree with leaves spread out like a Japanese umbrella.

"We'll build around that," said Lon, "leave it in the patio for our roof tree. Ian, can't you see it? The house, I mean, true Spanish, soft white stucco, reddish brown tiled roof, griled windows, and some of that Indian pottery the folks brought out from New Mexico, on the garden walls."

"And the rugs over the balcony," added Marian, "and Lon, you'll have to learn to play a guitar; and sing old Spanish love songs."

NEW PROBLEM FACES FEDERAL TENDER BOARD

'Forecast' Tender Is Requested By Fischer

KILGORE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Optimism pervaded the atmosphere in the East Texas oil field today as oil men lauded progress of the new federal tender board in its efforts to stabilize production in the vast field.

The enthusiasm came after a special meeting of the board during which an expected challenge to the board's authority to issue permits for inter-state shipment of oil, failed to appear.

F. W. Fischer, representing the Southport Petroleum company, requested a "forecast" tender to ship 75,000 barrels of oil products made from fuel oil produced prior to April 6, 1933, date of the Texas railroad commission's first valid proration order in the field. The products would be manufactured over a period of 30 days, Fischer said.

Oil thus described could be moved ratably at 2,500 barrels daily under an agreement reached between the Southport company, the Texas commission and Randolph Bryant, federal judge.

J. Howard Marshall, board member, protested against the issuance of "forecast" tenders on the grounds that illegally produced oil might possibly be commingled with legal oil before the total legal amount permitted could be manufactured. He said this action "would put the board in the position of giving a tender on illegal oil."

Fischer argued that it would be impracticable to secure a tender for each tank car of oil shipped because of the length of time required in obtaining tenders. He said the Texas commission could require individual tenders because refined products tenders obtained from the commission for intra-state shipment are approved by E. N. Stanley, head of the Texas railroad commission's East Texas division, and not a state committee. They must be supported by proper crude tenders.

An agreement was reached allowing the Southport company to apply for tenders on the basis of present products in storage, with the products named specifically.

Cattle Shipping From Texas Now Over Last Year
AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Shipments of livestock from Texas to Fort Worth stockyards and to interstate points during September were not so large as in August when government buying reached its peak, but were considerably more than twice those of September last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

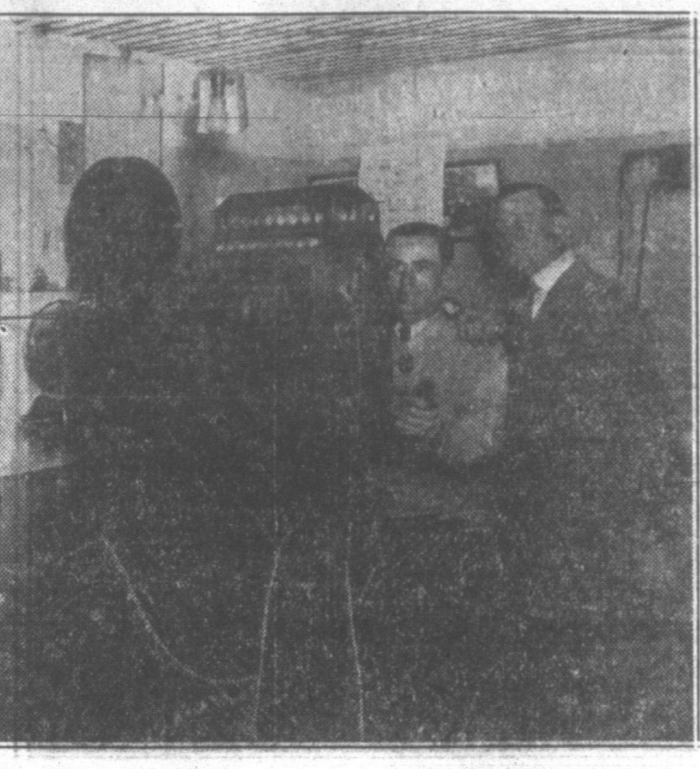

Total shipments for the month to out-of-state points and Fort Worth were 9,333 cars, compared with 3,841 cars during September last year, a gain of 143 per cent. Comparative figures for each class of livestock for September, 1934, and September 1933, respectively, were as follows: Cattle, 6,288 as compared with 1,453 cars, an increase of 331 per cent; calves, 1,530 as compared with 694 cars, an increase of 134 per cent; hogs, 312 cars as compared with 1,113 cars, a decrease of 72 per cent; sheep, 1,223 cars as compared with 621 cars, an increase of 97 per cent.

"The largest increase in cattle and calf shipments occurred in the northwest high plains, the northwest low plains, East Texas, the Trans-Pecos country and the Edwards Plateau," the Bureau's report said. "Shipments of sheep far exceeded those of last September in the northwest low plains, the Trans-Pecos country, and the Edwards Plateau. More sheep were brought into the high plains country of the Panhandle than were shipped out."

"Markets receiving sharp increases of Texas cattle and calves in comparison with September last year were Fort Worth, East St. Louis, Wichita, and Oklahoma City. States receiving large increases were Illinois, Indiana, and New Mexico.

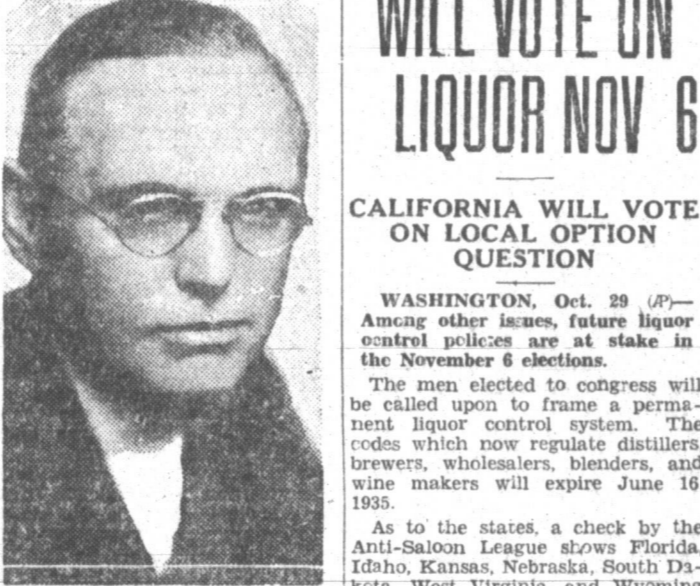

"Present reports indicate that the government cattle buying program was practically completed in September. Sheep purchases by the government, however, were just getting under way on a large scale during October."

Together 24 Years in Shows

The above photo of Tom Blair, manager of Pampa theaters, and John Hargrove, was made in Poteau, Oklahoma, in 1910 when the picture shows featured Bill Harg and Mary Pickford. Mr. Blair managed the first show in Poteau, and Hargrove was the operator. Friday, Nov. 2, will be the 30th year Mr. Blair has been associated with the motion picture business. He will celebrate this occasion by presenting at the La Nora theater Zane Gray's classic "Wagon Wheels" with Bone Blue and Randolph Scott. Mr. Blair will be host to a number of early day Gray county citizens. Mr. Hargrove is the chief operator for the Rex theater, and has been employed by Mr. Blair for over 24 years.

Oakie Denies He Took One On Chin From Film Actor
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29. (AP)—Jack Oakie, screen comedian with a penchant for wise-cracks, was alleged to have spoken out of turn with the result that today he was listed in Hollywood's notorious pugilistic "Who's Who."

The comedian, as it appears from the best ringside information available, early yesterday in a night club engaged in a one-punch encounter with Rex Lease, also of the films.

The encounter, witnesses said, came shortly after Oakie entered the night club alone and sat down to a table occupied by Lease, another man and two young women. The comedian was said to have made some sort of wisecrack.

"There was nothing to it," said Oakie. "I don't know what I said to hurt Rex's feelings—if I said anything—but, anyway, he suddenly told me to 'cut it.' Then he gave me a kind of push. So I just left. I made a practice, you know, to protect my 'kisser' you know. Besides, I'd already had my glass of beer, it was time for me to scam, anyway."

THAT BROUGHT AGAIN
EMPORIA, Kan.—It's not the farmers hereabouts who are hoping for a long rainy spell, it's the car owners. Since early summer, when the drought set in, it has been against city water regulations to use water to wash motor vehicles. Professional car washers say the city has more dirty cars than any community in Kansas.

Ford and World's Fair Are to Be Shown in City

Movie-goers who saw the 1934 World's Fair—and those who did not see the Fair—now may take a trip on the Sky Ride, visit the Black Forest, watch the presentation of "Wings of a Century" and see the mammoth Ford Exposition Building in their own home town.

A new talking motion picture, "Ford and A Century of Progress," which presents a complete panorama of the 1934 World's Fair, will be shown here Wednesday, at La Nora theater under the auspices of Tom Rose, local Ford dealer. The film, especially prepared by Pathe News cameramen, records, in sight and sound, the tumultuous, thrilling sights of the 1934 World's Fair—both at night and during the day.

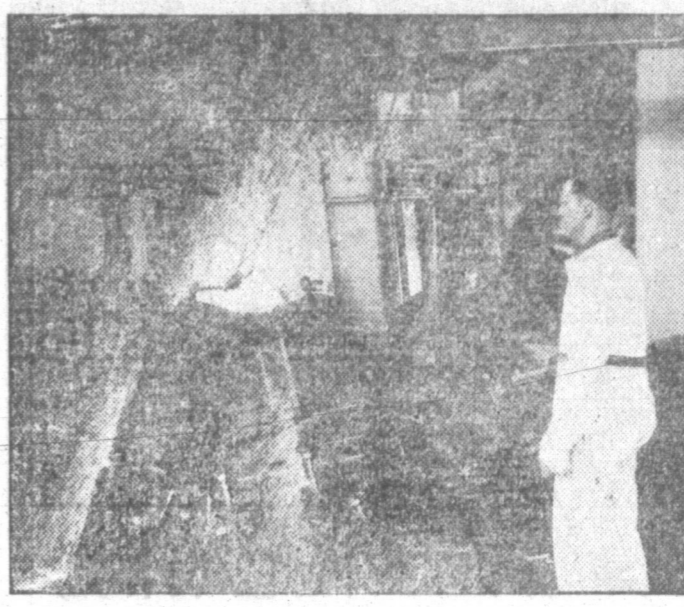

The atmosphere of the World's Fair—the cries of the "barkers," the laughter of the crowds, the whirring of dirigibles overhead and the singing of free entertainers on the Midway—all are brought to the movie screen in the picture. Specially-composed music played by a symphony orchestra, accompanies the film.

Not only did cameramen obtain historic photos of sights and sounds on the Fair grounds, but they went backstage in many of the exhibits to obtain "views" of objects which many persons who visited the Fair failed to see. They photographed the Fair from the top of the Sky-Ride, got aboard a Skyride car and photographed a trip over the grounds, climbed into a dirigible and obtained unusual views of the Erickson drive and the thousands of Fair visitors. Then they returned to earth and made some special shots of humorous incidents observed by the Candid Camera in its movements around the grounds.

Starting at one end of the Fair grounds, the film carries the observer through most of the exhibits, culminating the trip by a complete journey through the famous Ford Exposition Building, showing the hundreds of exhibits which made the Ford Exposition the outstanding attraction of the 1934 World's Fair.

In connection with "Ford and A Century of Progress," the new industrial motion picture, "Rhapsody in Steel," also is being shown.

Scene from Coming World's Fair Film

This official photograph is one of the many views to be seen in the new talking motion picture, "Ford and A Century of Progress," which is coming here soon. The scene above, a workman in the Ford Exposition Building is demonstrating for thousands of visitors the steps in welding all-steel bodies for the modern Ford V-8 car. The new film, taken on the grounds of the 1934 World's Fair, presents a complete panorama of the 1934 Century of Progress.

"Rhapsody in Steel," which depicts a workman's dream of how a modern motor car is assembled, is accompanied by a special symphonic score.

Both pictures are being shown without charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Voss left yesterday for Monroe, La., where they will visit friends and relatives for two weeks.

Pie Eating Champs Will Be Named In Theater Event

Gray county's champion pumpkin pie eater will be selected on the La Nora theater stage Wednesday night at 11:30 o'clock. A number of contestants have already turned their names in to David Dallas, "pie promoter" for the theaters.

Those who will vie for the honor of eating more and better pies are R. B. Wilson, 1749; Jack Vanderhuy, 17; Ira Foster, 17; and Belven Bude, 15.

Experience in public pie eating is not necessary according to Dallas. Anyone who can lap up a pie in a few seconds is welcome to the contest. Contestants from LaFors and White Deer are expected to enter. Members of the Junior chamber of commerce and clubs are eligible.

The contest is part of the Hallowe'en party which will start at the La Nora at 11:30. Miss Kathryn and White Deer are expected to enter. Members of the Junior chamber of commerce and clubs are eligible.

SPARE THAT SQUIRREL
ELKINS, W. Va.—The hunting season opens soon, and trappers on the Huttonville branch of the Western Maryland railroad are asking hunters to spare a certain gray squirrel which lives in a tree beside the tracks. For nearly a year, the trapper says, the squirrel has come out of its nest daily as each train passes to wave a friendly greeting with its bushy tail.

SEVEN STATES WILL VOTE ON LIQUOR NOV 6

CALIFORNIA WILL VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION QUESTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Among other issues, future liquor control policies are at stake in the November 6 elections.

The men elected to congress will be called upon to frame a permanent liquor control system. The codes which now regulate distillers, brewers, wholesalers, blenders, and wine makers will expire June 16, 1935.

As to the states, a check by the Anti-Saloon League shows Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, West Virginia, and Wyoming will vote November 6, on state prohibition repeal. California will ballot on a proposal for local option. Communities in Ohio and a number of other states will decide local liquor questions.

In many instances, candidates elected to the legislatures of "wet" states will reshape their control systems along permanent lines. State liquor control officials will thresh out their problems at a national conference before most of the legislatures convene in January. Merits of state liquor store systems are to be debated.

Little opposition to continuation of the national liquor codes, which are administered by the federal alcohol control administration has developed. The codes are aimed at trade practices considered harmful to the industry and the public. Under them federal government is concerned primarily with the economic soundness of the business. Control of social problems is left largely to the states.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—In one of the quietest full sessions in about a month, stocks moved somewhat erratically today. While a steady tone was evident during the morning proceedings, and a few issues recorded gains of a point or so, the net displayed a downward drift in the final hour. The close was easy. Transfers approximated 410,000 shares.

Diagrams of Danger—No. 4

No one is more active in the campaign to persuade the automobile driver to exercise the care, courtesy and common sense which will reduce the appalling number of accidents than Motor Vehicle Administrators. They know the facts. Ten of them, officers of National and Regional Associations, have described the most common driving and pedestrian faults.

By J. P. BICKELL
 Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Ontario, Canada, President, Region No. 1 of American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

The impulse to pass the other fellow on the road at all costs is responsible for thousands of motor accidents every year. Such an impulse causes a driver to cut in and out of line, to pass on the wrong side or at the wrong time, to pass on hills or curves, to drive in the wrong lane, and at best to jam traffic and slow down progress. All that is called weaving and you see it every day not only on the open highway but on our bridges and on our narrow thoroughfares. The man who is going so close in particular with plenty of time to get there finds himself at the end of the line. He is not content with that so he proceeds to weave in and out of traffic to get to the head of the procession. He is the bane of every safe driver, a menace not only to himself and his own family but to every other person.

Stores Involved In Strikes, Close

(By The Associated Press.)
 The doors of 300 A. & P. stores in the Cleveland area stayed closed today.

Cleveland's jobless increased by approximately 2,200 at the closing order, given, the company said, because of "labor trouble."

Former employees of the stores called on President Roosevelt to intervene in the dispute over their operation. The president referred their telegram to the national labor relations board.

A Milwaukee meat cutters' strike began in 47 chair stores, after the A. & P. in Milwaukee closed 26 of its meat departments.

The strike order, given by American Federation of Labor unions, affected 38 A. & P. Stores and nine stores of the Kroger Grocery & Baking company. It had no effect in Racine.

JEWRY TRIAL

 The creation of a Jewish home in Palestine.

Jews Not United
 Explaining world Jewry and the Zionist movement, Weizmann said that Jewry was far from being homogenous and united. He said many Jews oppose Zionism, deeming it might interfere with the rights of Jews as citizens of various countries and that the Jews were divided just like other peoples.

Weizmann said he had only read extracts of the "protocols," when he received them in 1918 in Palestine from English officers who explained that they had been distributed in small sheets throughout the armies of the czar.

Weizmann pictured Jewry as hostile to revolutions and wars and as a peaceful element of the social

Claim Flow Of Illegal Oil In Texas Has Ended

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Charles Fahy, vice-chairman of the petroleum administrative board, reported today to the oil administration that the flow of illegal oil from the huge East Texas field had been stopped entirely.

"Hot," or illegally produced oil in East Texas, has been one of the major problems of the administration, the area having turned out an estimated 125,000 barrels of the product daily.

Fahy, who has been leading the government's enforcement campaign in East Texas, returned to the capital saying that removal of crude produced in violation of Texas laws and of refined products manufactured from bootleg crude "have been completely and effectually stopped."

Forty refineries in East Texas were said to have discontinued operations until they can present applications for federal permits to move legally produced crude or products in interstate commerce. The federal tender board, which has been functioning since Thursday, has in session at Kilgore, Texas, to turn out the permits for the interstate traffic.

FLIGHT

 Smith, straining each of her three motors to the maximum, pulled her above it into the light of a full moon.

Again this morning, in the smaller plane, a storm was encountered in the vicinity of the equator, and even at 15,000 feet altitude it gave trouble before it and the plane parted company.

From there into Honolulu it was clear sailing.
 "I'm okay, but tired," Sir Charles said as he alighted from the plane, adding that the flight was "smooth sailing" most of the way.

Kingsford-Smith said he probably would take off Tuesday under present plans for Los Angeles.

The ship had enough gasoline for approximately two and one-half hours flying when the motor was cut here.

Tenders Checked By Federal Board

KILGORE, Oct. 29. (AP)—The federal tender board today passed 24 crude oil tenders, already checked by investigators, en masse today when no challenges were made.

Two other forecast crude tenders, subject to filing of an affidavit showing the amount of crude already in this month, also were approved. Only one producer's tender was sought and it was held when no company representative was present.

Norman L. Meyers, chairman of the board announced that meetings would be held daily at 11 a. m. and said he expected to have a ruling prepared shortly making it unnecessary for an individual producer to make reports to the federal board, but instead would be covered by affidavits made in tender reports of interstate pipe lines taking crude.

He also requested that applications for tenders be filed by 3 p. m. the day preceding the hearing the next morning "so the board won't have to work every night."
