Winner of one of the most coveted roles in motion picture history, exquisite Hedy Lamarr had unwittingly auditioned for the part a full six-years before producer-director Cecil B. DeMille actually signed her for his Technicolor epic, "Samson and Delilah," which opens next Wednesday at the LaNora Theatre.

One of Miss Lamarr's early Hollywood efforts was the role of the bewitching Tondeleyo in a picture called "White Cargo." The censors did the best they could to tone down the Viennese star's high-powered sexiness, but they were only partially successful. There's no way of concealing Miss Lamarr's exciting, provocas-

Royce Hills, bantamweight righthander, o was then waved in to relieve the floundering starter, and the diminutive tosser walked Virgil Richardson before retiring the next three men in order. Jeandron, however, managed to score when Os Engel grounded short, forcing Richardson on an attempted double play.

The Hubbers picked up their second run in the second inning when Mike Dooley led off with a double and scored on Buddy Morrow's single down the third base line. But again the Oilers matched the visitors' attempts threefold with another uprising that netted them three more runs. Parker started things with a Dawson and Woldt fanned before Jeandron was given life on Jack Sullivan's blunder of his grounder ch Fortin walked and Virgil Richardson pounded a line-drive single over second that centerfielder Wiley Moore misjudged, letting

Parker kept the visitors well under control in every instance, except the fifth and sixth in nings, and after surviving an opening splurge of wildness in both of these frames he settled down to collar the Hubbers without serious damage. In the fifth, Wilcox singled before Wilcy Moore and Sullivan walked and Don Moore doubled to right. The pressure was on and Parker came through by getting Dooley on a popper to centerfield and whiffing Davis and McCallum.

Buddy Morrow walked to open the sixth, Epperson singled, and Monday Matines.

"Percy was a great competitor and he'd bet on anything.

During my first season as assistant he asked me one night: 'Have you kept up your hammer throwing'. I told him I hand't louched a hammer since I won the championship in the spring and he suggested: 'give me a 25-foot handicap and I'll be at you. I'll bet you $5 on it.'. I was young and strong and Percy never had thrown a hammer in his life. I thought I could take just one turn in the circle and still beat him — but you know, he won that bet."

New Hairbrush Trick

By ALICIA HART NEA Staff Writer Worn - out stockings, which most of us have regarded as pretty useless since women stop-ped using them for rag curlers, have come into the beauty spotlight again.

This time they're emerging as hair-brushing aids. Wrapped around the bristles of your brush, the stocking picks up dirt and excess oil from your hair. Hose are used rather than other fabrics because the weave is sheer enough to avoid interfering with the action of the bristles

For best results, stockings should be changed several times during each brushing. If they become too soiled, they only redistribute dirt.

Used as a mid-week measure, this stocking-brush trick can cut down the number of summer shampoos you need. Besides contributing to cleanlines by remov ing soot and dandruff flakes, also regulates natural oils for added' gloss.

Brushing is especially impor tant during the summer. As you lift your hair with your brush strokes, it is aired. Perspiration, cigaret and cooking odors are al-

Meeting Place
With Rodeo Week just over the hill a day or two, it isn't too early for you to be deciding on a meeting place for you and your friends. Don't wait, till the last minute and then waste precious celebration time trying to think of a meeting place for you and your friends.

The Martin Turner establishment at 107 N. Frost, Pampa, has become a landmark to the citizenry of Pampa. Mr. J. Ray Martin and Mrs. J. M. Turner have held forth at this address for more years than we care to mention. Insurance in Pampa has become synon-

When the saga of insurance in Gray County is documented for historical purposes, the names of J. Ray Martin and Mrs. J. M. Turner will stand forth highlighting the picture. This combination of aggressive insurance operators has contributed in large measure to the success of the insurance business in Pampa and Gray County. Holding forth at 107 N. Frost, in offices as unpretentious as themselves, this duo has spread the gospel of insurance protection for many years. Any story of insurance written without mention of Martin-Turner would indeed be an empty saga.
