NOT ALL IS DULL

... IN THE LIFE

... OF A TEACHER

SCORES of Gray and Roberts County teachers and "dignified" school administrators went "night clubbing" last night—but don't be shocked; it was all in fun at the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner honoring the hard-working tutors at the high school cafeteria. In the top photo, four delectable Pampa High students distribute smokes among the crowd. They are, left to right, Harriett Stewart, Jane Wilson, Beverly Brandt and Laura Nell Berry. Tearing himself away, we come to the middle photo. Two non-teachers, John McFall, far right, and Ham Luna, smooch drinks off of Rex Reeves, Lefors superintendent, A. H. Gordon, Miami school chief, and Floyd Smith, Hopkins headmaster. The serious group in the bottom photo is evidently discussing the social situation or taxes. They are, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Nuckols. Additional picture on Page 10. (News Photos and Engravings)

FORGERS HAVE HARD TIME MAKING LIVING

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—There's tough news today for the forger who thinks it would be fun to fake a letter by G. Washington or A. Lincoln.
The experts say it usually is easy to spot a fraud.
The experts belong to the National Association of Autograph Collectors which is holding its annual meeting here.
"Let's straighten out one thing right now: they're not interested in an autograph by Roy Rogers, or even of a hoofprint of his horse."
"They mostly go in for historical documents. Because they do, they have to know how to tell a fraud from the genuine article."
Several collectors were sitting around talking about this before the formal meeting started.
"The main difficulty," said Ernest H. Sweet of Battle Creek, Mich., "is that the forger can't put himself back to the time when the document was supposed to have been written."
"He may fake the paper and the ink all right, but then some phraser will trip him up, a phrase which wasn't used at that time. Or he may use the wrong stamp."
"After a few years in this business, you can sense a forgery usually. It simply doesn't have the appearance of honesty."
"Even so, forgers always have had themselves busy."
Some of their work has been astonishing. Such as one "historical" Sweet says this fellow peddled some papers for his work on Alexander Hamilton, so he calmly invented them.
"Or take another character who lived back in the early 1800's. Sweet says his method was almost foolproof. He'd pick out a prominent citizen who had a lot of money. Then he'd trace the prominent citizen's background to see if he had any ancestors in the Revolutionary War."
"If he did, the forger would dash off a military pass for the ancestor, sign it 'George Washington,' and hurry around for an almost sure sale."
Sweet and the other experts say it's buyers' greed—the desire to get something big for next to nothing—that keeps forgery alive.

Sometimes this greed is so great that even the most glaring errors are overlooked.
One famous Swiss forger came up with a letter Lazarus was supposed to have written to Mary Magdalene and a love note from Cleopatra to Caesar.
Sold them, too. Even though he had both Lazarus and Cleo writing impeccable French.

Draft is Vital to Security, Gen. Bradley Warns Panel

Lattimore Bitterly Denounces Accusers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Owen Lattimore denounced as "hogwash" today Louis Budenz's testimony connecting him with the Communist Party and called it "the product of a twisted and malignant personality."
He said no "honest man" could believe Budenz.
Undeclared before a Senate committee, Lattimore swore again that he is not a Communist, nor a Soviet spy, and said such accusations against him "are not supported by a shred of evidence perjured or otherwise."
Lattimore asked that the Senate group "render its verdict" in terms that would tell Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) he "has been caught out in his fraud and deceit" for making the charges against Lattimore.
He said McCarthy should be advised, too, that "he should henceforth confine himself to other — and less important — activities than those of a destructive critic of the State Department and a depolarizer of character of good American citizens."
The Senate foreign relations subcommittee is investigating McCarthy's charges that the State Department is infested by Communists.
Making these charges in a Senate speech, McCarthy named Lattimore, a Johns Hopkins University professor and occasional consultant to the State Department, as a Communist.
Lattimore denied that in testimony April 6.
Then McCarthy produced Budenz as a witness. Budenz is a man who was high in Communist circles for years and edited the party's newspaper, the Daily Worker. He renounced communism in 1945, returned to the Catholic Church and is now a professor at Fordham University.
Budenz swore that while he was a Communist high party official he had never met Lattimore. (See LATTIMORE, Page 10)

Florida Voting Receives Most U.S. Attention

(By The Associated Press)
National interest focused today on a Florida primary election in which Democratic Sen. Claude Pepper is seeking re-nomination over Rep. George Smathers.
The Florida Senate fight overshadowed primary contests being decided simultaneously in three other states — Alabama, Ohio and Indiana. In the four states, nominations are being made for three Senate and 49 House seats.
Two of the states — Alabama and Ohio — are nominating candidates for governor.
The veteran Pepper carried in the deciding day a record of supporting almost all the Truman "fair deal" program. Smathers, 36, has been accusing Pepper of dodging the Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) issue and being too friendly with red-tinted organizations.
Pepper has in turn blasted the Smathers camp for circulating "dirty, vile literature trying to discredit me."
The Democratic primary in Alabama today — a test of States Rights' 1950 strength — combined with Florida's election. South attention-pullers that overshadowed primaries in Ohio and Indiana. In both Florida and Alabama the primary winners were certain of election in November.
In Alabama, 158 persons are running for 72 places on the state Democratic committee which (See FLORIDA, Page 10)

Sooner Youth Back to Face Charges Here

Chief Deputy Sheriff Ruf Jordan and Deputy Norvell Redwine returned yesterday from Sayre, Okla., bringing Oren Brinkley, 18, Oklahoma race horse jockey, with them to face charges of burglary here.
Jordan said Brinkley refused to make any statement in Oklahoma or on his return here in connection with the Healy's Package store burglary of March 28.
Eddie Lee Williamson, son of an Elk City night police chief, also being held in the county jail on burglary charges in connection with the liquor store break-in.
Williamson, who is under a three-year suspended sentence in Oklahoma for a service station burglary, is also charged there with burglary at the Healy's Package store. Williamson Saturday made a signed statement to officers in Oklahoma involving himself and Brinkley in the liquor store break-in.

State's Title To Offshore Land Upheld

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Most of the 50,000 acres of valuable oil and gas property lying between the Kennedy Ranch and Padre Island are submerged and therefore belong to the state of Texas, Federal Judge James V. Allred has ruled.
The decision was made in findings of fact and conclusion of law filed in the case of Sun Oil Co. and the state as intervenors against Humble Oil and Refining Co., Mrs. Elena S. Kennedy and Mrs. Sarita Kennedy East.
Attorneys were ordered today to draw up a decree in which Sun will win clear title to 24 leases in the disputed area if obtained from the state in 1947.
Humble's contention that the area, though formerly submerged, had accreted to the Kennedy Ranch property was overruled.
The case was tried for three weeks in January, and Judge Allred received last briefs on March 15.

New York Court Bars Alger Hiss From Practice

NEW YORK (AP)—Alger Hiss, former high State Department official convicted of perjury, was barred today from practicing law in New York State.
The appellate division of the Supreme Court formally struck Hiss' name from the roll of attorneys.
It ruled that his two-count perjury conviction in federal court here constituted commission of felonies and that Hiss therefore ceased to be a qualified attorney.
Hiss was convicted by a federal court July 21, 1950, and four days later was sentenced to a term of five years in prison. The case is being appealed.
The former State Department official was found guilty of lying under oath in denying that he ever gave secret government papers to Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for a pre-war Soviet spy ring.

News Firm Denies Link in Gambling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials of the nation's biggest racing news service today denied a federal grand jury report that they supply racing news for distribution in Kansas City, Mo.
General Manager Thomas F. Kelly and Accountant Joseph M. Lebit testified under oath that the Continental Press Service of Cleveland has no clients in Kansas City. Both appeared before a Senate commerce subcommittee considering a bill to ban transmission of gambling information across state lines.
A federal grand jury reported Saturday that racing news is brought into Kansas City by Continental and distributed by the Standard News Service to bookies doing an $8,500,000 a year business.

Labor Party Wins Test By One Vote

LONDON (AP)—The Labor government last night won a House of Commons ballot on a union issue by a single vote, beating back a surprise Conservative attack designed mainly to shake Laborite prestige.
Parliamentary observers said an adverse vote on such an issue — a conservative proposal for 1,000 pounds sterling ($2,800) appropriation cut — probably would not have forced the government to resign.
The House, sitting as a committee of the whole, cast a tie vote of 278-278 over the Conservative proposal to reduce the salaries of Transport Minister Alfred Barnes and his assistants. The Laborite committee chairman, James Milner, broke the tie with a vote in the government's favor.
Prime Minister Attlee's cabinet already has lost one such vote on a minor motion since the February general elections gave it a majority of fewer than 10 votes over the combined Conservative and Liberal opposition. The Laborites have won nine test votes, most of them on major "issues of confidence," since the new Parliament met March 6.
Though defeat on the motion last night would not have forced the Laborites out of office, it would have damaged the government's prestige seriously, observers said.
As a result, Labor party leaders were expected to require even more regular attendance from Laborite members at future House sessions.

'South Pacific,' Smash Broadway Hit, Given Pulitzer Prize; 'The Way West' Is Top Book

NEW YORK (AP)—"South Pacific," the smash hit Broadway musical, won the 1950 Pulitzer Prize yesterday as the best original American play of the past year.
The drama award was one of 15 similar honors handed down by the prize committee for achievement in newspaper work, letters and music.
The prizes were announced by President Dwight D. Eisenhower of Columbia University.
The prize committee for drama consisted of the latest success of Composer Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II. An adaptation of James A. Michener's book "Tales of the South Pacific," which won a Pulitzer Prize of its own for fiction in 1945.
The Rodgers and Hammerstein team received a special Pulitzer award, but no prize for their earlier musical hit, "Oklahoma," in 1944.
The prizes, which carry grants of $500 each to the individual winners, have been given for the last 33 years under the will of the late newspaper publisher Joseph Pulitzer.
The 1950 prize for fiction went to A. B. Guthrie for his best-selling historical novel, "The Way West."
The prize for meritorious public service by a newspaper was split this year between the Chicago Daily News and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for their joint stories revealing the presence of 51 Illinois newspapermen on the state payroll.
The other 10 prizes were: Distinguished reporting of national affairs — Edwin O. Guthrie of the Seattle Times for his stories that cleared P. O. F. Melvin Rader of the University of Washington of charges of communism after a state investigation. His series, part detective work and part news writing, dug up evidence that led to the young professor's public clearance and reinstatement.
Local affairs — Meyer Berger of the New York Times for his reporting of the neighborhood pistol slayings of Howard Unruh, berserk war veteran, at Camden, N. J., last September.
International affairs — Edmund Stevens of the Christian Science Monitor for the series, "This Is Russia — Uncensored." The series

Communism's Advances Are Cited in Plea

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley today asked Congress to keep the draft law alive because, as far as he can see, "there has been no letup in the aggressive extension of communism toward its goal of world domination."
The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff was the first witness at the House Armed Services Committee reopened hearings on proposals to extend the draft. It is due to expire June 24.
Speaking of recent events such as the Baltic plane incident, Bradley said the situation "frankly gives us little cause for comfort and little excuse for delay."
"Certainly it does not support discontinuing the selective service Act."
At the outset, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) recommended the committee approve a two-year extension of the draft but leave to Congress the power to say when anybody would be inducted or any industry seized under the law.
At present, the Defense Department can call men up for service at any time. However, there have been no draft inductions since January, 1949.
Vinson said the proposed draft act is not perfect but would serve until such time as a better overall mobilization plan can be written.
Vinson said that he is recommending that Chairman Stuart Symington of the National Security Resources Board draw up such a plan for consideration by Congress at its next session.
Bradley, Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of State Acheson and other leaders appeared before the committee last January urging retention of the draft.
But Vinson came up then with a bill that would have repealed all provisions of the draft except registration and classification.
He reversed his position last week because of "present work conditions."

Prison Term Is Faced By Maragon

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Maragon, once on friendly terms at the White House, gets a jail sentence today for lying criminal to Senate investigators.
Maragon was convicted last Wednesday on two charges of perjury during his own testimony and on charges of lying to the Senate.
Federal Judge Jennings Bailey could give him as little as eight months to two years or as much as 40 months to 10 years on each count. The maximum penalty seldom is imposed.
Maragon's lawyer, Irvin Goldstein, said he would ask that his client be put on probation. He told a reporter he would appeal the case within a few days.
Now 57, Maragon came to this country as a Greek immigrant, became a Kansas City shoeing boy, and later built up Washington friendships that include Presidential Military Aide Harry Vaughan.

THURSDAY P.T.A. school of instruction will be held at the Junior High School Auditorium at 2 p.m. Thursday. The program will also include a panel discussion on "Family Life in the Community."

"Ironrite helped smooth out the kinks in my back"

After a recent spinal operation, I found hand ironing was back-breaking drudgery. My doctor advised against such hard work. So we bought an Ironrite Ironer. Now, it's easy to relax when I sit down and iron at my Ironrite. See one today!

"Thanks to Ironrite's tub completely usable open ends, I can iron everything, with nothing to finish by hand. Even puffs and ruffles are easy, on handy Do-all ironing points."

Grace Friend

Readers of The Tampa News are invited to send their problems to Grace Friend. Letters not published in the columns will be answered personally provided a self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed with the question. Writers must sign their names although they will not be printed without the writer's permission.

OWES HERSELF SOME CONSIDERATION

Dear Grace: I am 43 years old and am very unhappy, and I would like a little advice from you.

Here is my problem. I have been married for 25 years and have reared three children. I am married to a man who only cares for himself. I had all of my babies without a doctor's care and since have had two operations which were brought on by not having the right care. When my last child was four years old I was paralyzed for two years.

That was when I stopped loving my husband but for my children's sake I have continued to live with him and have made as good a home as I could for my children for they were all I had.

Here is my question to you: My youngest child, now 20, is married and has her own home although my sons, 22 and 24, are still living at home. Do you think it is still my responsibility to stay here and cook and wash for them and live a life so unhappy that at times I feel I can't go on? I know that it is affecting me both mentally and physically.

Now Mrs. Friend, you may think I am just a griper but honestly I have given the best part of my life to him.

I recently visited my sister and I felt so good to be away that I didn't want to return. I love my boys very much but I can't stay with them always. Do you think I should stay with them until they have their own homes?

I want to get out on my own now as I can't stand this much longer. Please give me some advice and thank you.

Dear Mrs. V. In considering your children before your own happiness you have been a most devoted mother and I think that now you should consider your own happiness. They are all old enough to make their own lives and should be able to manage without you.

Are you sure that you can support yourself if you should leave your husband and are you sure that your children will understand your motives as you would not want to estrange them?

If you have considered the financial angle and know how you can take care of yourself and if you are convinced that remaining with your husband can only add to your unhappiness, then leave him and try to make a better life for yourself.

If you don't want to leave your sons, perhaps you can have them come with you and you can make a home for them elsewhere.

PARTY DEBTS

Dear Grace: I feel that I am in an embarrassing position and perhaps you can help me out.

A year or so ago I met some very nice people and a few weeks later the wives of two of the group gave a large luncheon to which I was invited. I accepted and enjoyed the party very much.

Six months ago the two women invited me to a smaller affair at their home. Now they have sent me an invitation for another large party.

I have not been in a position to entertain on such a scale and so have not returned their invitations. Under the circumstances should I accept this third invitation?

Mrs. D.

Dear Mrs. D. Since the women have invited you, they must like you and want you at the party. Certainly accept the invitation.

If they didn't want you, they wouldn't invite you and to stay away simply because you have not entertained them would be very silly on your part.

As a matter of fact, if you want to repay them for their invitations it isn't necessary on your part to have them at a large party. Some time invite them to your home for a luncheon for four, six or eight.

Fancy up baked apples or rice pudding for unexpected guests with whipped cream (sweetened and flavored with vanilla) or with vanilla ice cream.

From A to Z they all agree—

Hopkins HD Club Eyes Hatmaking And Renovation

Hatmaking and trimming were studied at the last regular meeting of the Hopkins Home Demonstration Club, in the home of Mrs. Joe Stone.

Mrs. C. H. Brickey, club leader, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Brickey, modeling a summer felt hat which she had recently renovated, said "a felt hat may be dampened and placed over a plate, then fitted into any desired shape."

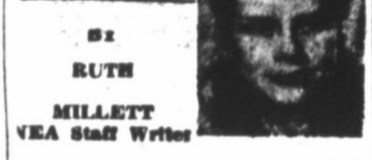

Plans were made for a tea in the home of Mrs. W. E. Melton on May 12. The tea will entertain a visiting club, in celebration of National Home Demonstration Week.

Mrs. Stone was in charge of the business meeting, and roll call was answered by hints on good grooming. Mrs. W. E. Melton was in charge of recreation, and Mrs. R. H. Rice gave a Council report. She said that plans were made for the club to attend a frozen foods demonstration at Recreation Park at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served. Present were Mrs. W. E. Melton, Mrs. Vern Savage, Mrs. F. H. Rice, Mrs. C. H. Brickey and the hostess.

The group will meet in the home of Mrs. Brickey on May 23 for a covered dish luncheon. On Tuesday, May 9, the Hopkins HD Club will sponsor a bake sale at George's Red and White Grocery.

WE, THE WOMEN

Is "peace at any price" a sound rule for a wife to follow?

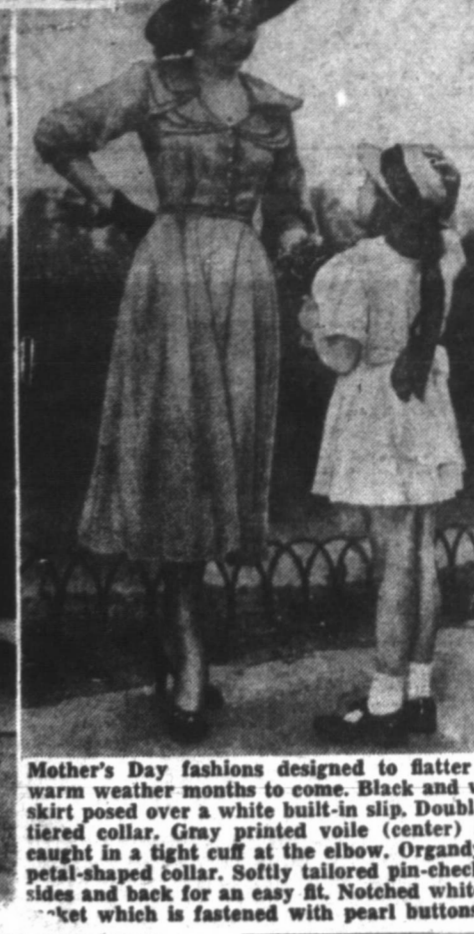

Not unless she has no objections to becoming a door mat. There are times in most marriages when a woman has to take a stand for her own rights as an individual or as a fulfilled partner in the marriage relationship.

Here are a few such times, taken from letters recently received: One wife says her husband leaves her and their two small children every summer weekend to go fishing with several of his friends. In the fall it's hunting that gets him "away from it all."

A man ought to have some recreation with other men, but running out on his family every weekend, especially when his wife is completely lied down by small children, is not a fair deal and no woman ought to accept it meekly. Another wife says her husband is always smacking her down in public, ridiculing her ideas, or challenging her most harmless remarks. The wife who puts up with that kind of treatment not only makes herself look like a frightened mouse, but she lets her husband look like a bully. Telling him off just once, in front of a select audience, would probably put a quick end to it. There is also the wife who writes that her husband expects her to hold down a job, but thinks it is beneath his dignity to help with the housework. Well, she can wear herself out holding down a fulltime job and doing all the housework before and after office hours, just to keep peace, and her husband keep his dignity. Or she can say calmly: "Either I'll have to quit my job, or we'll have to divide up the housework." In most happy households a wife gives in on a lot of small matters just to keep peace. But it doesn't add to the happiness of a marriage for a wife to

FASHION COMES OF AGE

Mother's Day fashions designed to flatter mature figures offer cool comfort for the warm weather months to come. Black and white printed chiffon dress (left) has a full skirt posed over a white built-in slip. Double layers of white organdy form the triple-tiered collar. Gray printed voile (center) swings a circular skirt and has full sleeves caught in a tight cuff at the elbow. Organdy facing is used to give crispness to the double-petal-shaped collar. Softly tailored pin-checked gingham (right) has a skirt, darted at hip sides and back for an easy fit. Notched white pique collar sharpens the neckline of the skirt which is fastened with pearl buttons.

Lefors WSCS Has Luncheon Meeting

LEFORS — (Special) — The Methodist WSCS met in the church recreation hall recently for a program and luncheon.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Madge Page, Mrs. Arile Carpenter, the vice president, presided. Mrs. Gordon Stafford had charge of the program, which was on literature and publications of the church. Mrs. R. H. Campbell also gave a talk. Mrs. N. C. Cotten gave the devotional.

Others present were Mrs. M. E. Walter Pfug, Neal Joran, L. R. Spence, M. F. Tibbets, Dan Johnson, Ray Jordan, Bernard Johnson, W. C. Breining, B. D. Vaughn, W. T. Cole, Wayne Koschek, W. R. Combs, Lawson Shaw, Cleve Johnson, Cliff Vincent, and Fred Houston.

The hostesses were Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Bernard Johnson, and Mrs. Breining. "Buddy" gifts were exchanged and new names were drawn.

To salvage a worn-out sports jacket, sew patches of leather or suede on elbows and around pocket and sleeve edges. Your shoe repair man can do it.

Matching mother-daughter aprons encourage cooking lessons, and add a gay note to the kitchen. These may be made from remnants of bright cotton fabric such as plaid gingham or prints.

A little unpleasantness now and then won't hurt a marriage. But a real injustice allowed to continue unchallenged will.

Lord Fairfax To Take Over U.S. Estate

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Thomas Lord Fairfax, youngest member of the British House of Lords, will arrive in the United States Friday to claim the spacious Southern Maryland estate Northampton, his aunt, Mrs. Tunstall Smith said.
 The 1,000-acre tract, complete with gardens and terraces laid out by L'Enfant, architect of Washington, D. C., was willed him by his aunt, Mrs. Frances Fairfax Roberts, who died April 21.
 Northampton was purchased during the Civil War by an earlier Lord Fairfax. The family

Kenney Warns Of Blunders

WICHITA, Kans. — (AP) — Gen. George C. Kenney says a diplomatic blunder could touch off a war with Russia "at any moment."
 He added, however, that he did not think the Russians were in a position to go to war now. Aggressor nations "usually go to war when they have war power sufficient that they're pretty sure they can win," the four-star general said here.
 "I don't think they (the Russians) are in that position now. I think that they're trying to reach that point as fast as they can."
 He said, Soviet leaders probably

Waves to Wear Gold on Sleeves

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Navy's women officers now may wear expensive gold stripes on their sleeves just like the menfolk.
 A new order optional at present and compulsory by July, 1952, changes the Waves' present light blue stripes to gold, and puts them in dark blue uniforms on the same color as Navy nurses.
 Nurses will exchange their double-breasted uniforms for single-breasted ones like the Waves wear.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hanson—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What is the date of this year's Kentucky Derby?

THE OILER BATTERS beat out a tattoo on the fences of Oiler Park last night that may be an indication that the Oilers are going to be all that their manager, Grover Seitz, predicted last Saturday night. The club looked better last night than in any previous game this season in more ways than just at the plate.

The Oilers showed more fire and spirit last night than in any previous game that they had played. The infield was full of hustle and chatter the entire game. What-ever formula Seitz put in their pabum at noon certainly did the trick.

That kind of team spirit can definitely make up for the lack of several base hits in games where hits are scarce.

Beat wishes to Tom Tipps, who is really comfortably in a local hospital after having an emergency appendectomy yesterday morning. Tipps is the Harvesters' football coach who, with the aid of his assistants, led the Harvesters to the District 1-AA championship last year which included a victory over the Amarillo Sander.

Tipps just recently returned from South Bend, Ind., where he watched the famed Fighting Irish of Notre Dame run through their paces during their spring drills.

Chances appear pretty good that Merdun Gilchrist will be playing a bit with the Berger Gassers this season. During their last home visit he was put on five-day look and played several games to help the injured and battered Gassers out. He can be put on look every thirty days, so could help them some while he is studying for his masters degree and keeping his schooling intact so he can teach in the Berger school system during the off season.

The following is quoted from Lorin McMullen's April 27 column in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Eddie Sawyer, manager of the Phils, claims he has the best centerfielder in all baseball in Eddie Spacki, who has been optioned to Toronto. But he'll get an argument from Charles Archie, a 19-year-old Cat fan. Archie contends the honor belongs to Dick Williams, who only recently won him over. Dick had to turn his back on the plate and did it to get a fly ball in front of the scoreboard the other night. After he made the catch, Archie said thoughtfully: "Now Dick's as good as homer Matney."

If Archie only knew it, he could

Sport Shots

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor DALLAS — (AP) The Texas Interscholastic League's annual breakfast at Austin Saturday is due to produce some important legislation governing schoolboy athletics.

At that time the results of a referendum with four propositions will be announced. The most important rule change being voted upon would raise the age limit from 18 to 19 and the semester limit from eight to ten.

Indications are that this change will be endorsed by a handsome majority.

This will mean stronger high school football. It also will mean less retardation of boys for the purpose of athletics. The idea of the semester rule is to prevent holding boys back in the eighth grade so they will be older and better developed upon reaching high school. The semester rule will start in the eighth grade and a boy has to be in the ninth before he can compete in high school athletics.

As far as the league knows there are no more 11-grade high schools but even if there are the 10-semester rule wouldn't help. A boy can't compete in high school athletics until he's in the ninth grade anyway.

Purpose of the 19-year rule is to make allowance for a boy who may miss a year of school because of illness or having to stay out to work. Most other states have 19 and 20-year age limits anyway.

Other rules being voted upon are these: Prohibit a boy from competing in the interscholastic league if he has competed in an out-of-state athletic contest not approved by the league Executive Committee.

Prohibit a boy from competing in the league if he has ever participated in a college athletic practice session or test for the purpose of demonstrating his ability in any sport. This is to cut out the college "outsiders."

Prohibit any basketball team competing in more than 24 games in a season. This will be exclusive of games allowed in three invitation basketball tournaments that count on league standings.

The latter rule will be effective immediately. The others won't be effective until next year.

Reclassification of the schools to eliminate the unpopular city conference, now opposed by even two of its members — Dallas and Fort Worth — also is due for discussion and it is likely that city A schools will ask for the return of spring football training. At this time this division is the only one that doesn't have spring training.

The reclassification problem is a big one. The best idea is to put all schools with 750 enrollment or more in the top bracket. That would put the City Conference schools — Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and Fort Worth — back with such powers as Corpus Christi, Amarillo, Waco and Odessa. The City Conference is generally weaker than the Class AA division and its state champion is looked upon with considerable scorn by the Class AA schools.

There probably are 75 to 100 schools that could be put in the class of 750 and over. In districting, however, there might be the problem of too much travel by some of the schools. However, anything under 750 enrollment would not work. It wouldn't be even competition.

If the Class A schools get a referendum on spring football it will have to be given to all classes. The league has announced it will hold no further referendum by divisions. For that reason the Class A schools will have a tough time getting a vote on the question.

J. Henry Martindale of Lockhart, Texas, interested in the Texas sports poll of the Associated Press to name the top athletes and events of the past 50 years, says Tom Gambrell, Lockhart attorney, should be mentioned.

Gambrell played on the 1914 and 1915 University of Texas baseball teams. He was known as "Sunrise" Gambrell because he was always "first man up."

The 1914 team won 33 of 40 games, during which it set a collegiate record of 25 straight Martindale points out. "Tom set some sort of record in a game against Texas A&M," Martindale writes. "He set some sort of record by hitting two home runs in one game in consecutive times at bat. This fact within itself may not constitute a 'believe it or not' but the method in which he accomplished the feat is really one for the record books. The

Cardinals Top Youngster, Oldster Brooklyn, 3-2

(By The Associated Press) The St. Louis Cardinals are up to their old tricks again. Next to beating the Dodgers, the Redbirds got the greatest delight out of making the experts look foolish.

Remember those pre-season reports on the Cards? Too old. No reserves. A one-man ball club. Tak, tak. Is our face red?

With a lineup shot as full of holes as a slab of Swiss cheese, the scrappy St. Louis gang has managed to win five of its last six games. They capped it off last night with a thrilling victory over their hated rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The score was 3-2. Until the last half of the ninth, Brooklyn was in front, 2-0. Starter Joe Flatt had held the Redbirds to three hits up to that point.

Hatten began the last inning by walking Chuck Diering. Enos Slaughter singled Diering to second. Marty Marion, making his first appearance of the season, batted for Steve Bilko and fanned.

Eddie Kazak, another pinch hitter, lined out. One more out to go and the Dodger lefthander would own two straight shutouts. But it never came.

Red Schoendienst singled, scoring Diering. That was all for Flatten. Another pinch hitter, Bill Howerton, faced Willard Ramsdell. Howerton singled to right, scoring Slaughter with the tying run, as Schoendienst raced to third.

A wild pitch by Ramsdell allowed Schoendienst to cross the plate with the winning run. Hatten was charged with the loss.

Cloyd Boyer, who has taken over the ailing Ted Wilks' relief chores, was the winning pitcher. He relieved starter Max Lanier in the ninth and kept the Dodgers away from the plate in the one inning he worked.

The victory moved the Cards into a virtual tie for second place, a game and a half behind the front-running Dodgers.

It was the only game played in the National League. All other teams were idle, resting up for their inter-sectional classes. There was no action in the American League, Philadelphia and Boston, only clubs scheduled, were foiled by the weather. A steady Boston drizzle decided matters for them.

Youngster, Oldster Lead Western Meet

(By The Associated Press) Dallas — (AP) Old and new stars of the Western Amateur golf tournament were in a tussle at the Dallas Country Club's 5,470-yard course as the field, trimmed to 123 players by withdrawals, moved out in the second and final 18-hole qualifying round.

Heavy rains last night made the Dallas Country Club's 5,470-yard course a treacherous place indeed as the field, trimmed to 123 players by withdrawals, moved out in the second and final 18-hole qualifying round.

Tomorrow the low 64 shooters will start match play and battle until a champion is determined Sunday.

Defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo qualified automatically for the championship flight.

In a tie at 72 as the second round began today were Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia, a Walker Cup star; Charles Coe of Oklahoma City, the National Amateur champion who four-putted the No. 12 green; Herbert Durham of Dallas, Dick Patton of Fort Worth two more Texans—John Oliver of Dallas and Morris Williams, Jr., of Austin—and a Shreveport, La., star, Jimmy McGonagill. They posted 71's.

Derby Trial Is Running Today Tulsa Retains Texas' Lead

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP) Texas-bred Middleground will show his stuff to the blue grass boys today in the $10,000-added Derby Trial Stakes at Churchill Downs. If he wins, don't be surprised if King Ranch pops up as the post-time betting choice in the $100,000 Kentucky Derby Saturday.

Eleven three-year-old colts were entered for the one-mile test. Middleground, who was rated the top sophomore runner in the Experimental Handicap estimation of handicapper John Campbell, is expected to be favored for the 13th Derby Trial. The thing that thickens the plot for King Ranch is another one — on the Mark.

It will mark the first meeting between the sturdy Middleground and several other prime Derby candidates, including Columbus Farm's Theory and the Brookmeade Stable entry of Sunflow and Greek Ship.

Such big Derby names as Your Host, Hill Prince, Oil Capitol and Mr. Trouble are passing up the Derby Trial. They are fit and ready to roll Saturday, their trainers declare.

(By The Associated Press) There are opposite extremes in the Texas League picture these days.

Tulsa and Fort Worth are in a race to see which can win the most; Dallas and Houston are battling it out to see which can lose the most.

Houston got a head start on Dallas and thus far is leading in the struggle for the cellar.

Fort Worth last night drew into a virtual tie with Tulsa for the top as Tulsa beat Houston 5-1 while Tulsa was idle at Shreveport because of rain.

Dallas kept pace with Houston's losing by taking a 4-1 licking from San Antonio.

In the other game played Beaumont downed Oklahoma City 5-3. Chris Van Cuyk's stinging win has brought Fort Worth its win. He allowed the Buffs just five and gave the Cats their third straight victory over Houston.

Bob Ferris of Beaumont also did some fancy elbowing as he limited Oklahoma City to four solid blows and had it not been for his wild pitch in the second inning would have scored a shut-out.

Pitching predominated in the Dallas-San Antonio game, too. Johnny Pavleck allowed only 21 hits and Dallas' lone run was earned. San Antonio got 10 hits as Dallas used four hurlers.

The clubs change stands tonight. Dallas moves to Beaumont, Fort Worth to Shreveport, Oklahoma City to San Antonio and Tulsa to Houston.

and Raleigh of Kilgore, Texas. Dale Morey of Dallas, one of the favored players, took an alarming eight on the fourth hole yesterday and wound up the first nine at 41. But he made a brilliant comeback for 33—three under par—on the second nine and still is in the running for the medal. Walker Cuppers Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles and Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., had 76 and 77 respectively.

RUSSIANS BED DOWN TO DISMAY OF TOWN

GLEN COVE, N. Y. — (AP) — How many beds does a Russian family need to stay happy? That's the question keeping the little town of Glen Cove, N. Y., wide awake in this pretty little island residential center.

The question hinges on Glen Cove's strict residential zoning laws. The town began to open its eyes the other day when Soviet U.N. Diplomat Leonid A. Morozov rented the old 47-room J. P. Morgan mansion for the summer — at $3,650 per season.

And Glen Cove's slumbering suspicions were definitely aroused when it watched an after van of Morozov furniture arrive.

One Glen Cove scout, Lawyer John Finn, Jr., managed to mingle with the movers and do a little mental arithmetic.

He counted 71 folding beds, 67 canvas chairs and eight big cafeteria tables.

That's 1.63 beds for each of the 47 rooms. Even J. P. Morgan himself, capitalist that he was, never bedded people down on that scale.

To Glen Cove it all added up to one horrid thought — a budding Russian summer resort in their suburban paradise. Yet all the house deeds are very clear on this point: one house, one family.

It is true that Glen Cove hasn't found out exactly how big the Morozov family is. But still it's a lot of beds.

Prodded by Finn, Mayor Luke Mercadante prodded the State Department to find out if diplomatic immunity extends to beds and zoning laws.

The State Department thought it over. Then it said that while the Russians would have to obey the health and safety laws, they can be sued only by their own consent. And the veto being what it is . . . well, the State Department suggested that Glen Cove write a letter to Warren Austin, American ambassador to the U.N., and tell him their troubles.

While Finn and the mayor sat down to draft the letter, another piece of news reached them. They heard that Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Joseph Malik has rented the $100,000 Reynolds estate about a mile from the Morgan home.

The Reynolds house has 24 rooms. Now Glen Cove is wondering how many beds Malik is going to need to keep fresh and fit.

Motorist Gets in Costly Game of Cops 'n Robbers

DETROIT — (AP) — The innocent bystander — this time he was driving a car — takes the rap again.

Maurice J. D'Haene, 28, cruised along happily in his shiny new car. The sun shone brightly and in a few days more he would be married.

Suddenly, z-z-zing, a bullet whipped into his front seat. D'Haene was caught in a cops and robbers chase.

He braked his car to the roadside and stepped out with his hands held high. The pursuing officers, who had been chasing a stolen car, rammed their patrol car into the side of the new car.

It took D'Haene five minutes to explain that the car was his. Then the officers apologized and helped unhook the two vehicles.

But D'Haene said that Macomb County Prosecutor Fred Nicholson told him any damage claims would be denied because "the officers were performing their duty."

So now the prospective bridegroom will have to have the car repaired himself. And he wonders if it will be ready in time for the wedding trip.

Suicide Less Trouble, Frustrated Jap Finds

TOKYO — (AP) — Police arrested a man named Ito for stabbing a street walker.

He was tired of living, police quoted Ito, and thought killing someone would "save him the trouble" of committing suicide. He then could be sentenced to die.

But the girl lived. So Ito faces the prospect of living, too — his next few years in jail.

Texas Hero's Portrait Hung In Capitol

AUSTIN — (AP) — A fighting Marine's portrait joined those of Texas' most illustrious heroes in the State Capitol yesterday. The governor, Marine Corps officers and friends voiced highest praise of the man whose memory they honored.

The oil painting of the late Col. John W. Thompson, Jr., USMC, fighter, writer and artist, was accepted by Gov. Shivers on behalf of the State of Texas as the climax of ceremonies arranged by the John W. Thompson Memorial Committee.

Paul L. Wakefield, chairman of the memorial committee by appointment of the late Gov. Beauford H. Jester, spoke as a close, lifelong friend of the man who served in two world wars, made soldiering his career, and gained added fame as author and illustrator.

The governor received the portrait from Mrs. Charles H. Atkinson, III, of Jennings, La., who painted the picture. Mrs. Atkinson is the former Suzanne Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Thompson of Fort Worth and niece of the Marine colonel.

The McFarland subcommittee is conducting a Justice Department bill designed to ban the movement of gambling information across state lines.

Spokesmen for the Western Union and American Telephone and Telegraph Co., yesterday argued the proposed measure would force them to "police" the nation's communications and censor millions of phone calls and messages.

They said while they were ready to cooperate at all times the responsibility for shutting off service to bookies should rest solely with local law enforcement agencies.

But Senator Tobey (R-NH) declared the companies "morally responsible" to shut off service to known gamblers such as Frank Erickson of New Jersey and "betting commissioner" James J. Carroll of St. Louis.

Of these, 92 say they favor returning to the national Democratic party organization, 59 want to stick with the States Rights group where Alabama's presidential vote went in 1948, one entry is claimed by both sides and six by neither.

Senator Lister Hill, seeking Democratic renomination, has been in the forefront of the fight to return the Alabama organization to the national party.

In the North, interest centers on Ohio, where Democrats are picking a November opponent for Senator Robert A. Taft from a seven-man field. Taft has no opposition in the Republican primary.

In Indiana, a primary battle involving a woman first-term member of Congress, Rep. Cecil Hardin of Covington, is stealing the show in an otherwise dull election to pick nominees for 11 House seats.

Indiana picks its senatorial candidates in June conventions with the Democratic race apparently wide open to oppose Republican Senator Homer Capehart.

Biography — Samuel Flagg Bemis of Yale University for "John Quincy Adams and the Foundations of American Foreign Policy." Bemis was the only two-time winner on the 1950 list, having taken an earlier prize in 1927.

A Negro poetess, Miss Gwendolyn Brooks of Chicago, won the award for verse with her "Annie Allen," a story of Negro life in a combination of ballad form and modern idiom.

The prize for music went to Gian-Carlo Menotti, Italian-born composer of modern opera, whose prize-winning production, "The Consul," is a new Broadway sell-out. It is a story of frustration in attempts to escape from an unnamed European police state. It also is the winner of the New York Drama Circle critics award.

A special Pulitzer award, the annual $1,500 traveling scholarship to an art student found "the most promising and deserving" went to Leonard Everett Fisher of Brooklyn.

NEW YORK STUDENTS FINALLY END RIOTING

NEW YORK — (AP) — Peace has descended on New York's high school student front after four days of riotous demonstrations for higher teacher pay and restoration of dances and other after-school activities.

"All quiet" was the word from the City Hall sector where yelling mobs of teen-agers clashed repeatedly with police cordons earlier in the week.

It was Saturday — a no-school day. There was no reason to play hooky. It looked as if the unprecedented disorders had died down — for the weekend, at least.

But more than 100 policemen, afoot and mounted, patrolled the City Hall area just in case.

Some 6,000 shouting, charging students gave them a strenuous workout Friday.

They were demonstrating in support of their high school teachers, who have dropped all after-hours projects in a demand for higher pay.

Rough as Friday's set-to was, it was a sharp come-down from Thursday's wild affray when 22,000 students tried to storm the City Hall and other public buildings.

The city threw 500 foot and mounted patrolmen and 300 truant officers into the battle Friday — but with orders to use kid gloves instead of night sticks.

For most of the students it was a laughing lark — a sort of cops-and-robbers game with yelling boys and screeching bobby-soxers.

There was little real violence, although there were a few ugly incidents and police arrested several non-student toughs and hoodlums. Police picked up 21 rioters altogether, but the students were paroled to their parents in most cases.

21,000 Aliens Are Deported In California

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Twenty-one thousand Mexicans, enough to populate a good-size town, mercurial across the California border last month, fell into the hands of Immigration Service agents and were returned to their native land.

How many more stole across the line unobserved is anybody's guess.

Last month's deportations set a new record for the El Centro and Chula Vista offices of the Immigration Service, already swamped with their 24-hour efforts to patrol the border by plane, jeep and horseback.

The month before, 16,000 Mexicans were caught and returned. These totals represent only the aliens who cross the 275-mile mountain-and-desert border lying between Arizona and the Pacific Ocean. Other thousands have been swarming across the boundaries of Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

These unprecedented waves of "alambristas" — line jumpers — have made the customary processing of illegal immigrants impossible. Border patrolmen Mondays simply load them into trucks, rush them back to Mexico and dump them on their native soil.

"They only want work," said Herman R. Landon, district immigration director. "Farmers in the Imperial Valley and farther north are making full use of them. But we must enforce the law and raid farms using this illegal alien labor."

Said Julian Terrones Segura, 36, arrested near Holtville, Calif., and deported: "I have not been lucky. Next time I will cross over in the desert country. Then, with companions I will take a road through the desert sand where there are no people. Up behind your Salton Sea. It is hard, and many die on such a road."

"But maybe my water bottle will last and I will come to some place like San Bernardino, or to Los Angeles, and become lost there from the migra — the immigration."

Farm Cash Income Under 1949 Figure

AUSTIN — (AP) — Farm cash income in Texas totaled $81,427,000 in March, a 24 percent increase over February, but 6 percent less than March 1949, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Farmers in the northern high plains district turned in the largest dollar income — $11,522,000. Black and grand prairies, with $5,914,000, and Southern Texas prairies with $5,430,000 ranked second and third.

Strike Postponed By Bakery Workers

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some 2,500 AFL bakery workers put off for a week their nationwide strike against the Continental Baking Company.

The walkout, scheduled to start at midnight last night, was postponed six hours before the deadline at the request of the federal mediation service.

The core of the dispute is the union's demand for company-wide bargaining.

LATTIMORE

leaders told him to regard Lattimore as a Communist.

Earl Browder and Frederick Vanderbilt Field — two men who Buzenz said gave him that word about Lattimore — came before the committee and denied it.

Today was Lattimore's own chance to have his say in reply.

Lattimore took the witness chair with a 15,000 word statement that was both his analysis of all the testimony about him and a slashing attack on the character of both Buzenz and McCarthy.

He called McCarthy "clearly a bad policy risk" and tore into the Wisconsin Republican's background with allusions to official criticism of McCarthy's conduct as a state judge and asserted difficulties over wartime income tax returns.

In terms of McCarthy a bad policy risk, Lattimore turned back on the senator a phrase which McCarthy had applied to Lattimore. Then he added:

"I do not of course enjoy being vilified by anybody; even by a motley crew of crackpots, professional informers, hysterics and ex-Communists who McCarthy would have you believe represent sound Americanism."

"My life and works speak for themselves," he said. "Unlike McCarthy I have never been charged with a violation of the laws of the United States or the ethics of my profession."

"I have never been accused, as McCarthy has been, of income tax evasion, of the destruction of records that were in my official custody, or of improperly using an official position for the purpose of advancing my own fortunes, political or otherwise."

After a call at the White House last week, Publisher William T. Ewy of the Madison, Wis., Capital Times, told newsmen he had given President Truman a report on McCarthy's "background," including:

1. A recommendation by the Wisconsin State Board of Bar Commissioners that McCarthy be disbarred because he did not resign his state circuit judgeship while running for the Senate in 1948. The state Supreme Court took note of the recommendation but nothing came of it.
2. An order by state authorities that McCarthy pay $3,500 in state income taxes on $48,000 of 1943 income which Ewy said McCarthy did not report.
3. A sharp criticism of McCarthy by the Wisconsin Supreme Court because part of the record of the case heard before McCarthy was missing when an appeal was taken to the higher court.

Ewy said McCarthy had launched his charges of communism in government "to rehabilitate his shattered political fortunes."
