

Charges of Forgery Filed Against Sooner Senator

Pampa Police Chief's Work Credited in Lipscomb Case

An Oklahoma state senator today stands charged with forgery, along with seven other persons, involving the will of a pioneer Panhandle woman.

On an open charge of forgery, but with no specific counts, State Senator Orville Grim, Cheyenne, Okla., was ordered to appear before the Lipscomb County Grand Jury this Thursday.

The charges center around the alleged forging of the late Mrs. Mattie A. Sebitz signature and the alleged forging of the body of a "new will" which officers said was found on the Sebitz ranch.

Chief of Police John Wilkins, Pampa, on whose suggestion the investigation was first opened, and Sheriff E. J. T. Brooks, Lipscomb, told The Pampa News this story:

Mrs. Sebitz and her husband, Martin L. Sebitz, owned an estate valued at between $200,000 and $300,000, an undetermined amount of cattle and $60,000 in cash. Each had made a will naming the other beneficiary in the event of death. Mrs. Sebitz died in September, 1949, and Mr. Sebitz died two months later, in November. Mr. Sebitz had never changed his will so that when he died the estate, according to law, was to be divided.

Some took to the air waves, others to sound trucks and stump speeches in addition to postcard, letter and circular campaigns. Display cards began appearing early and are steadily increasing in number over the district.

Atty. Walter E. Rogers yesterday made a curbstone speech from a sound truck at Memphis. His campaign was augmented early Saturday morning by Leon Huff, whose singing won statewide renown in other elections.

As Rogers spoke in Memphis, several of his friends in the "Rogers for Congress" Club started on their personalized campaign over the northern parts of the district. Neither Rogers nor his ambassador had returned to Pampa in time for questioning on the results of their trips.

Highly confident of victory, Ben Guill, Republican candidate, went on the air last week over these radio stations in Pampa: Amarillo, E. T. Burk, Amarillo, also took to the airwaves by transcription.

Rogers, Guill, J. Blake Timmons, T. L. Smith, and other candidates milled about Friday and Saturday with publishers, editors and reporters at the Panhandle Press Association convention at Amarillo.

T. L. Smith, Clarendon, recent-ly moved from the county, one that is deceased and one who has been in a mental hospital for more than five years. Two of the men were not served because the list did not specify whether they were junior or senior, several more could not be served because their names were incorrectly spelled or some could not be located, and one was 10 years over the age limit and does not have to serve. When subpoenaed the man exercised his prerogative and refused to serve.

The 12 men to be finally drawn will hear the case of Harold Ray Norton, charged and indicted with the shotgun slaying of James Woodward of the Flats. Another man, Eddie Gibson, was seriously wounded and a girl, Lorene Johnson, was also critically injured by shotgun blasts at the time Woodward was slain.

Indictment counts charging assault with intent to murder have also been returned by the Grand Jury against Norton in connection with the wounding of Gibson and the Johnson woman.

Juries summoned, and served, by the Sheriff's Department at their names appear on the list for the trial are:

Justification Of Dam Main Factor in Case

(By The Associated Press)

"economic justification" may be a big factor in whether Texas gets its $85,000,000 Canadian River dam.

The future of the dam may be decided Tuesday at a hearing before a Senate interior and insular affairs subcommittee. Twelve Panhandle and plains cities will have people there to fight for the project.

"Economic justification" is the yardstick by which the Army engineers appraise water projects.

The Corps of Engineers was quoted as questioning whether the 12 Texas cities can get their water cheaper from a lake backed up by the big dam than they could from underground sources.

The engineers also question population increases predicted for the area — increases on which need for the big reservoir is partially based.

However, the Bureau of Reclamation—Uncle Sam's other dam-building agency—is believed firmly behind plans for the dam.

The $85,000,000 dam would be built on the Canadian River northeast of Amarillo. It would back up a huge reservoir from which pipelines would carry water to Amarillo, Lubbock, Slaton, Tahoka, Brownfield, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Littlefield, Levelland, Plainview, Borger and Pampa.

Plagued by intermittent water shortages, capricious river levels and a falling underground water level, the cities look on the dam as a sure source of municipal water supply.

The Bureau of Reclamation is believed to concur in an economist's report that both Amarillo and Lubbock will grow to 200,000 people within 40 years.

H. E. Robbins, regional director in Amarillo for the bureau of reclamation, said he had not seen a copy of the Army engineer report. He added:

"I believe the opinion of the Corps of Engineers, from what I have read of it in the newspapers, does not constitute an obstacle which cannot be overcome."

Heavy fog which blanketed the Pampa area yesterday, brought minimum visibility down to less than one block at 6 p. m. The fog lifted before 9 p. m.

Precipitation was measured at .04 of an inch at the KPDM transmitter last night at 8:30. This brings the total rainfall for 1950 to .80 of an inch. Up to this time last year, the total precipitation was 4.21 inches.

The last big rain fell in the Panhandle on Oct. 31, 1949, amounting to 3.39 inches. Nothing fell until December when there was .30 of an inch. January was dry and February had .47 of an inch. In March 12 of an inch fell, and there has been 21 inches of rainfall during the first 15 days of this month.

The high temperature yesterday was 52 degrees at 1 p. m. and the low reading was 48 degrees at 9 p. m.

Legion Will Launch Main Meet Today

A general session of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will be held today at 9:30 a. m. in the American Legion Hall, according to Roy Lewis, commander, Pampa Post 334.

The principal speaker for the session will be the Rev. Leon Hill, Amarillo, who will conduct memorial services.

The afternoon sessions will begin at 2 o'clock, with Charlie Gibson, 18th District commander, and William Sohl, 5th division commander, as the main speakers. At that time the committee reports will be given. Contrary to the program distributed among Legion members, the election of district officers will not be held until next fall.

Mrs. H. N. Lyle, vice president of the 5th division of the American Legion Auxiliary, will address the women's group at the business session today, beginning at 2 p. m.

Yesterday, an estimated 300 persons attended the 40 and 8 convention, according to Shirley Draper, Grand Chef de Train, of Shamrock, Borger, Pampa, Shamrock, and Childress were represented at the convention.

Highlight of the day was the 40 and 8 "wreck" at which time 12 new PG's (Poor Goof's) were initiated into the 40 and 8. The Poor Goof's engaged in a little street work as a part of their initiation, and were also kept busy inside the Legion building. Judge Lewis Goodrich, in the guise of Judge Roy Bean, held "court" on the street in front of the Legion building. The fines paid by the convicted "criminals" will be used to aid in the care for underprivileged and crippled children.

Attending yesterday's meeting were Neslage, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mickey Ledrick, Joe Fischer, Dr. Douglas Nelson, Jack Edmondson, Albert Doucette, Mrs. James Clauder and Sparkman.

Nuckols Will Head Top o' Texas Derby

B. R. Nuckols, well-known local citizen, yesterday was announced as general chairman of the All-American Soap Box Derby for the Top of Texas area.

O. E. McDowell, president of the Pampa Lions Club, made the announcement. The club is a co-sponsor of the local running, along with The Pampa Daily News, Culbertson Chevrolet, and Chevrolet Division of General Motors.

An official at Culbertson's said that 11 boys have signed for the race which will be run on a date yet to be set, but to be in July. One or two boys have their cars almost finished.

Boys who have entered are: (all of Pampa unless otherwise indicated) Kermit Harmon, Bill Baumgardner, Marvin Bear, Jarvis Johnson, Ned Moyer, Norman Frost, Wayne Rogers, John Rogers and Perry Kennedy, of Lefors.

Nuckols said initial plans for the Derby would begin this week. Plans will be announced in The News as they are made. General plan committees, yet to be named, will meet this week.

Construction rules for the 1950 Derby are simpler this year, and there are some important changes which boys who have built cars before must watch for. Laminated car-bodies, for instance, will NOT be permitted. This means, explains All-American Soap Box Derby, Inc., "that youthful car-builders no longer will be able to use layers upon layers of wood that is glued, nailed, tied or screwed together to build up any part of the racing car body or shell."

Neither vertical nor horizontal lamination is permitted under the 1950 rules, as adopted by the National Derby Rules Committee. The new rule aims to make car-building easier for a larger number of boys.

Several Pampa winners who have gone to Akron, Ohio, for national finals have won their local races with laminated cars.

The building program also calls for the repair and remodeling of the present Baker school building, and the construction of a new bus barn on the high school campus.

The new class-room building is to be of ultra-modern construction. The plans call for "sit-up" concrete construction, in which the outside walls are of concrete, poured horizontally and then erected into place. Much of the outside wall area is to be of glass brick, making the wall "light" to within 30 inches of the floor.

Narrow steel sash windows will be installed for ventilation, and there will also be a layer of glass near the ceiling to provide light for the central corridor.

Two Canadian men, A. V. McQuiddy and Harry Wilbur, Jr., have contracted to purchase the bonds which will mature serially over a period of 16 years, and bear an average rate on 2.27 percent.

Members of the school board stated that no increase on tax rate is expected to be necessary for the retirement of the bonds.

E. O. "Red" Wedgworth, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, was elected president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Association at the group's convention Saturday in Big Spring, according to Associated Press.

Cost-Cutting Plan Mapped By Red Cross

Board of Directors of the Pampa Chapter of the American Red Cross at a meeting yesterday decided the chapter will continue to give as many of its varied services as possible this year despite its restricted budget.

The chapter's $10,337 goal in the recent fund drive was not met. Only about $7,500 was raised. J. R. Sparkman, Lefors, drive chairman, reported his drive's goal of $300 was more than reached.

One expense the directors decided will be cut from the budget: extra help during the campaign. At the same time it was decided the chapter will try to do more this year to acquaint the public with the activities of the chapter.

Fred Neslage, chapter chairman, appointed a nominating committee, headed by Huey Laycock, to name forthcoming directors. Sherman White has resigned from the board and Mrs. Rufe Jordan has asked to be relieved of her duties when the current term expires in June. Three directors' three-year terms will expire this year.

Attending yesterday's meeting were Neslage, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mickey Ledrick, Joe Fischer, Dr. Douglas Nelson, Jack Edmondson, Albert Doucette, Mrs. James Clauder and Sparkman.

WOMAN WOOS WACKY WILBUR WOBIN AWAY

PONCA CITY, Okla., (P) — Wilbur the Wacky Robin gave up his three-day fight Saturday with his own reflection. He found a lady robin more interesting.

The bird-brained battler started attacking his own image Thursday in a shiny hubcap on Earl Wright's car. From morning to dusk, he attacked the strange thing he thought was invading his worm hunting territory.

Wilbur turned out at 7:30 a. m. Saturday to continue his fight. His feathers were dragged, his wingtips hung to the ground and his beak blunted and blood-stained.

That didn't stop him. He flew up at the image, and pecked at it.

Then the lady robin came along. She chirped.

Wilbur looked up. He liked what he saw better than his own beat-up image.

Immediately he started the courtship.

With his admiring girl friend looking on, Wilbur turned to more prosaic and robinly tasks such as gathering twigs and grass for housekeeping.

As his hunt took him near Wright's car, Wilbur buried an insult or two at his enemy and occasionally took a swipe.

Wilbur still didn't like the look of the "other" male robin. The bird also took time out for bug hunting. However, he had a hard time trying to get worms because his blunted beak couldn't search into the ground.

Wright said that in view of Wilbur's new interest, he would park his car in the garage.

"I don't want that hubcap to come between them," Wright said.

Bergman Battle Settlement Seen

LOS ANGELES — There are murmurs again of a possible out of court settlement of the marital difficulties of Ingrid Bergman and Dr. Peter Lindstrom. "We have hopes of reaching some agreement that will obviate a trial," said Dr. Lindstrom's attorney, Isaac Faurst, when court proceedings scheduled last week were continued.

Wednesday was the date set for the surgeon to file a deposition answering Miss Bergman's suit for custody of their 12-year-old daughter, Pia, and for division of their property. But superior court postponed the matter as the attorney voiced his hopes for settlement.

Children of Six Countries Join in Unique Affiliation

PHILADELPHIA — (NEA) —

Boys and girls in six countries are becoming partners in friendship through a unique international plan of school affiliations.

More than 400 schools in America, Japan, Italy, France, Germany and Holland are participating in the School Affiliation Service of the American Friends Service Committee. The scheme is designed to make children get to know more about children in other nations.

A school in the United States is affiliated with one abroad only. Horstler, Huey M. Cook, Jerry Barton, Mathew Cantrell and "Doc" Earles, Jimmy Cook is mascot.

after careful preparation. The Service Committee selects the schools for matching and its representatives regularly visit the partners in America and abroad. Schools similar in size and in other ways are paired.

Affiliation is a long-term, continuing activity of the school. Children both here and abroad take affiliation seriously and carry it out with much enthusiasm and a good deal of imagination. Letters fly back and forth. Classroom reports and experiences are shared. Sometimes gifts are exchanged. Several schools have invited teachers and pupils from the partner schools for visits.

standings of customs and practices in other lands is developed and many lasting friendships formed. Boys in the Wilhelm Gymnasium, Braunschweig, Germany, affiliated with the St. Louis, Mo., Country Day School, were delighted with large photographs of the American school system.

CIRCUS LOSES ITS GLAMOR DURING SCENES; APPEARANCES BELY DEEDS

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The circus' big spectacle trudges around the sawdust track as the big show rehearses, with the band banging out a brassy beat. Here and there walk middle-aged men in business suits, waving up at the empty stands.

You ask who those men are, what they are doing.

"They're the clowns!"

They're not funny. They look like people you'd meet on the street. It's kind of disillusioning. You think that, even without their beaming noses and gaudy checks, a clown would still look different, somehow.

There's nothing as shocking as an acrobat in mutli. A balding man in a yellow-and-brown T-shirt sits down nearby. He looks like a carpenter or maybe a shoe salesman.

Then he walks out into one of the rings and begins a series of tremendous flip-flops. You would not think, from looking at him, that he could do anything more strenuous than deep breathing exercises. You expect your acrobats to have muscles like grapefruit in their arms. They haven't.

During the spectacle, you spotted a bronzed giant riding around on a horse. He was portraying Abraham Lincoln in the pageant, "Dream of Democracy."

Later, he comes and begins talking to some others in the row in front of you. Abraham Lincoln is a German. The bronzed giant can't speak a word of English. Another shock.

A man and a woman juggler are practicing on the edge of the track. The girl is a beautiful brunette, wonderfully coordinated, with the tall, lean, lithe figure you expect a juggler to have.

After they finish, she wipes her face with a towel and walks past you. She isn't tall. She's short and solid. Her hands, that were so sure as they twirled silvery batons and painted balls, tumble nervously as she lights a cigarette.

You spot two kids walking along the edge of the rail. They're about four or five. Brought up in the circus, you figure, imagining that they're the offspring of some daredevil tight-rope walker, already learning the trade that has been in the family for centuries.

You ask who those kids are.

"Never saw 'em before in my life," says an old circus hand.

The giant walks past, with immense strides. Here is the circus at its peak. You study him, thinking of that colossal giant in the sideshow when you were young. But this one just looks tired. He wears a neat, pin-stripe suit. Giants shouldn't wear pin-stripe suits, they shouldn't look tired.

You focus your eyes aloft, on the rigging in the topmost part of Madison Square Garden. Two men are at work, lashing ropes and fixing equipment. They fit around easily, with no net underneath, sometimes hanging from their legs as they go about their work.

Those must be the men on the flying trapeze, making sure the ropes they use in their death-defying feats are safely rigged.

"Nah," says the old circus hand, "just a couple of riggers." The circus in rehearsal is a sobering thing.

But then it is night. The lights come on. The clowns romp out in their costumes. The crowd eats cotton candy and peanuts— you forget the cold facts of the afternoon. Dressed up, the circus is still dreamland.

Brother of Pampan Given Lefors Post

LEFORS — (Special) — R. C. Wilson, superintendent of the Ringgold Public Schools, Montague County, has accepted a position as superintendent of Lefors Public Schools, according to Roy Jeffreys, president of the Lefors Board of Trustees.

Wilson, a brother of Frank Wilson, principal of Pampan Senior High School, was selected by the board and accepted the position Friday night.

He received his Bachelor's Degree in Public School Administration at North Texas State Teachers' College, and plans to receive his Master's Degree in the same field this summer at North Texas.

He has been superintendent at Ringgold for the past five years and prior to that time was superintendent at Forestburg, about 40 miles from Ringgold, for four years. He has spent 18 years in the teaching profession.

Wilson, who is 46, is the father of two sons, Bill, 21, who is in the Marine Corps and Bob, 18, a junior in high school. The new superintendent is a member of the Methodist Church, and of Phi Delta Kappa, national fraternity for men in education. He is also a member of the E. D. Criddle Honorary Historical Society of NTSU.

Young Lovers Baffle Posse in Wilderness

QUESNEL, B. C. — (AP) — A defiant pair of lovers — a 19-year-old youth and his 16-year-old girl friend — stood off a police posse more than 12 hours before capture Friday on a high plateau in the northern British Columbia wilderness.

Police smoked the couple out of a lonely trapper's cabin with tear gas bombs but the two fled to the bush. The posse finally tracked them to a stony ridge, where a police bullet felled the girl as she prepared to open up a fusillade on police. The girl was only nicked in the leg.

The couple — Bert LaGace was the only one identified by police — holed up in the cabin 18 miles west of here after fleeing their Quonset homes Tuesday night and breaking into isolated wilderness cabins in the village of about 400 miles north of Vancouver.

Police had a warrant charging LaGace with abduction. They added, however, the high school girl had fled with LaGace of her own will, defying her parents' orders to stay away from the youth.

The posse waited till dawn before attempting to rush the cabin. Then they moved in with tear gas bombs.

Officers said the girl shouted from the cabin to her father as he pleaded with her to come called Evans a notorious "stick man" — one who puts chewing gum or sticky paper on the end of a stick to help grab money in "tellers' cages."

Norris said Evans has a criminal record dating back to 1907, including involvement in a $500,000 bond theft from the Bank of Manhattan in 1936.

Georgia Area Peach Crop Is Total Loss

ATLANTA — (AP) — The North Georgia peach crop has been written off as a total loss — a $6,000,000 disaster.

L. G. Moultrie, director of the state experiment station in Cornelia, reported only one orchard in eight North Georgia counties has any peaches left after a severe freeze Thursday night.

"The crop is a total loss as far as this area is concerned," he told State Entomologist C. H. Alden. Alden said the area usually produces 400 to 500 carloads of peaches. He said there was no way of knowing what the price would have been, but he thought the $6,000,000 a reasonable estimate.

Frost damage also has been reported to the crop in the central and southern sections of the state, but no definite surveys were available.

Alden said he believed the crop south of Macon, main Georgia peach area, would be "fair" but that many trees are far behind normal development.

CANDIDATES

ly returned from a long stay in Washington, D. C., where he has been employed in government work since 1919. Smith's platform differed from the other candidates in one phase — it was brief. But it, too, took the same road of conservatism as the others took. His platform declares he will work for:

"Elimination of deficit spending in government operation; curtailment of the government debt; private enterprise, which creates work and capital as opposed to government in business; with no coles, grants and heavier taxes, a sound agricultural program, which is necessary not only for the farmer, but basic to our whole economy; our American system of government; the preservation of its ideals and aims, as opposed to any other 'ism.'"

Mrs. Altavere Clark was stumping in and around the northwest section of the Panhandle, reportedly still confident of victory in both elections.

Little has been heard from Ronald Davis and W. P. Tickle, two late entrants into the race. LeRoy "Pete" LaMaster has been working on a postcard and first serialized campaign since he first entered the race a few hours after the first three candidates, Rogers, Clark and Timmons announced.

To date 12 have announced and one has dropped out. He is Collins Howard, Childers, who gave up the race in favor of a fellow townsman, Ronald Davis.

The National Geographic Society says Diamond Shoals, off the North Carolina coast, is one of the deadliest ship traps on the Atlantic seaboard.

of rocks and trees, the two youthful desperados ran from the rear of the cabin and into the bush.

Police fanned out in the area — trudging through deep snow. There was no snow on some places and police were unable to follow them by footprints.

The bark of the girl's pet collie, which had stood by her through the night, gave the couple away.

Police spotted the two on a high ridge. The girl was holding the gun.

As the posse approached, LaGace shouted to his moll: "shoot them! shoot them!"

The posse fired first, nicking the girl below the left knee. She fell, dropping the .22 calibre rifle. The posse rushed in.

"LaGace put up a desperate struggle before we pinned him on the ground," Staff Sgt. Andy Fairbairn said later.

resentment that it brought her companion's startled eyes to her face. Syria was staring before her with an expression of stark misery and hatred. It was as though she had been caught without a mask — that mask of careless indifference which she usually wore.

"Then, as she met Clemency's startled glance, the mask was on again. She laughed lightly. 'I'm missing London. I came to say that we should like you to have dinner with us tonight. Piers never will dine before 8 o'clock, so you've plenty of time to rest.' There was no question as to whether Clemency would not have greatly preferred to remain in the surgery and go to bed early after the journey. This was not an invitation. It was an order — and all she could do was to murmur thanks.

"I hope it won't bore you. You won't be called upon to do it often," she said.

CLEMENCY saw at once what her employer was getting at and wanted to laugh. The very last thing she was likely to do was to attempt to push herself into the family circle — the glimpse she had caught of it up to now did not encourage a desire for closer acquaintanceship. She was nice to do her job, which was to look after Baba; and all she asked was to be left alone to do it.

"Very well, I'll send Justice to bring you along," Syria told her. "You'll never find your way around this caravanserai without help — until you get used to it." She turned towards the door again, and was just behind it when it opened hurriedly and a man came in.

"Forgive me," he said pleasantly, "but I had to come in search of my family." He crossed over and picked Baba bodily out of her chair. "Hello, Baba — glad to see Daddy!" and to Clemency again: "It's Joe Amberley. You see —"

"You might leave me to do the introducing, Joe," observed Syria, emerging from behind the door. "Darling! How marvelous to have you back!" Baba in one arm, he put the other around his wife and, bending his head, kissed her lips.

Pampa Group Will Attend Hwy. 60 Meet

About six Pampa men, headed by J. C. McWilliams, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Highway 60 Committee, will attend the 1950 convention of U. S. Highway 60 Association, May 8, at Ponca City, Okla.

"U. S. Highway 60 will be completed across the continent from coast to coast in 1950, Harry Glasser, president of the association, said.

He said "Highway 60 is now the best, safest and most scenic route from the Atlantic Coast to the Pacific, and by the last of this year it will be even better."

Representatives along the whole route of the highway are expected to attend the convention. Because of the millions of dollars of work being done this year on the highway to close the few remaining gaps, the convention is expected to be the most enthusiastic held, Glasser said.

The special committee of the Ponca City Chamber of Commerce, headed by L. S. Barnes, is planning to entertain guests from each of the eight states on the route.

Pampa Chamber of Commerce Highway 60 Committee includes McWilliams, chairman, George Newberry, J. C. Daniels, Jay Mitchell, A. L. Mills and Tom Kitchens.

Tornado Cited In Lubbock Area

LUBBOCK — (AP) — Texas Highway Patrol units at 8:30 p. m. last night were rushing to an area about 40 miles southwest of Lubbock to investigate unconfirmed reports that at least two persons had been injured in a "tornado" which struck an oil camp about 7:45 p. m.

The George Price Funeral Home of Lubbock sent an ambulance to a place known as Barking Oil Camp five miles southwest of Whiteface in Hockley County where the tornado reportedly struck.

At 8:45 p. m. Chief of Police Ed Hofacker, the Lubbock and Police Department said he had no definite confirmation of the tornado, but that he had received a call from Whiteface to send ambulance to the oil camp where the storm reportedly injured two men.

CHARGES

among his 19 heirs. The will was probated amid controversy between Mrs. Sebitt's heirs and Mr. Sebitt's heirs. The heirs at law, under state civil statutes, agreed to settle the issue by dividing a sum of $10,000 among Mrs. Sebitt's heirs.

There the estate was believed to be settled, but other things began happening in the meantime. On March 13, Clyde Grim, uncle of the Oklahoma state senator, reported he had found a new will signed by Mrs. Sebitt in a church book. He claimed the book was tossed in a trash can at a banquet held on the 3,000-acre Sebitt ranch where he (Grim) had been living.

The "new" will changed the picture of the estate and bequeathed the bulk of the estate to Vivian Guthrie, a nephew of Mrs. Sebitt. The genuine will had allowed Mrs. Sebitt two brothers, Ross and Frank Guthrie, $5 each. Grim, along with Ross Guthrie, went to Atty. Roy Sansing at Higgins and showed him the will. The signature was "so real" Sansing believed it genuine, and the will was to be probated.

The "new" will was dated eight years later than Mrs. Sebitt's actual will.

Suspicion was first aroused when Chief of Police Wilkinson was shown a photostatic copy of the "new" will by heirs by Mr. Sebitt. Wilkinson advised an investigation on the strength of a letter not quite corresponding to the signature on the genuine will, which he also saw. Wilkinson conferred with Sheriff Tarbox and Texas Rangers were called in. Together, the officers worked with handwriting experts in Austin before drawing up the charges.

Friday District Attorney Tom Braly and Rangers Kelly Rogers and Frank Probst grilled all principals in the case for more than 24 hours. Finally Clyde Grim confessed the whole thing was a fraud and a hoax. Sen. Grim is charged with making the "new" will.

Clyde Grim's statement implicated the others who have been either jailed, released on bond or ordered to appear Thursday before the Lipscomb County Grand Jury.

Charged are: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Guthrie, Cherryville, Kans., both in jail in lieu of $10,000 bond. Clyde Grim, released on $500 bond.

E. B. Thomas, L. L. Padgett who witnessed the will, all of Ellis County, Okla., ordered to appear before the Grand Jury. Rusty Coram, also ordered to appear.

Filed to Guthrie, recipient in the "new" will, of Edgewood, Ill., ordered to appear before the Grand Jury.

Tarbox filed the complaint yesterday in Lipscomb County Court House and charges were taken through County Attorney Gene Mixson and District Attorney Tom Braly.

The Sebitt family had resided in Lipscomb since the early part of the century. She was a past worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star.

Declines were noted in 1949 in murders, negligent manslaughter and auto thefts in both urban and rural areas in the United States.

Distant Star BY HERMINA BLACK

HER STORY: Clemency, Syrian, eager to travel, sees with Syria Amberley to an isolated but expensive home in the North Atlantic desert as nursery governess. Syria's small daughter Baba, who has been home in Piers, a baby, brother of Syria's husband, who has been home in Piers, that she did not meet his wife and daughter at the airport and that Syria, who met them, was reserved and withdrawn in his attitude toward Syria.

CLEMENCY and Baba were taken straight to the nursery apartments situated at the back of the house and reached by crossing a courtyard filled with flowers. The rooms were charming, light and airy, and, save for the windows and the outlook, might have been the nurseries and a bedroom of any up-to-date country house. There was also a small sitting room which was for Clemency in her off-duty moments.

The suitcases were brought by a white-clad Arab servant who flashed his teeth at Baba's new nurse in a wide, friendly smile. As the days went on she was to get to know Ahmed well—he and his sister Loulie waited on the nurseries.

Baba was tired out, and, like most tired children, inclined to be fretful. Clemency gave directions for the little girl's supper to be brought in 20 minutes, and got her ready for bed meanwhile, though she protested vigorously that she wanted to see her Daddy first. While she was making herself obstreperous on this point, Justice came in.

"Is Madame's case among yours?" she asked. "The large one? It seems to have been mislaid."

"Do you mind looking in my room?" said Clemency. "I haven't seen it."

A search produced no result, but Justice lingered. "It was certainly in the car. They have it something," she said, shrugging her shoulders. "Why does Madame's Baba cry?"

"She's distressed not to see her Daddy."

"Oh, it's beautiful enough!" Syria followed her glance frowningly. "One can't live on that sort of beauty. How I hate some things back!" The last sentence, added in an undertone, held so much force

Four American Students Trade Textbooks For Bullfighters' Capes—Come Out Alive

By JOHN COBB, JR.
NEA Special Correspondent

MEXICO CITY, Mex. — (NEA) — Four American college boys studying here traded their textbooks for the cape and sword of the bullfighter. When the bullfight was over, the inexperienced Americans were still alive, to the surprise of the crowd.

For three weeks before the bullfight the four Mexico City College students, all veterans of World War II, practiced the traditional passes and learned other tricks of the bullfighting trade from Josefito Gonzales, a novillero or bullfighter who has not attained professional status.

All their practicing was done with only a set of horns, since arrangements to practice their passes with a genuine bull fell through. The Americans therefore faced an untamed bull for the first time when they entered the bullring before 1000 somewhat cynical spectators. The only concession made to the beginners was to round off about a half-inch of the sharp horns of the 500-pound bull.

John "Wally" Minard, a 26-year-old infantry veteran from Chicago had drawn the lot for the first bull. A kicking, snorting, jet-black young bull came charging out of its dark cell into the light of the ring, tossing its head and looking for trouble.

The crowd gasped a little. The Chicago veteran coolly made a few passes with his cape as the bull's horns whisked by. There were approving yells of "Ole!" from the grandstand.

During the first part of the bullfight, assistants always go in with capes to help wear the bull down before the kill. The bull knocked down one of Minard's Mexican assistants. When Minard tried to get the bull off, he was thrown to the ground, and the bull began to maul him. It was probably only the blunted horns that saved him from serious injury.

The bull was drawn off and Minard got up with a little blood on his cheek and continued the traditional passes. Finally, he lunged and thrust the curved blade of the sword into the small area between the shoulder blades where it must go to enter the heart. In a moment the bull dropped dead—a perfect kill. The crowd began to cheer.

As Minard's bull dropped, the spectators began to wave their handkerchiefs and chant "torrero" — "master of the bull." They would not stop until the American boy was awarded two ears and a tail, the highest reward a matador can get.

Bob Blanchard, a 23-year-old Marine veteran from Cleveland, faced the second bull. Veteran bullfight fans agreed that Blanchard had the best form of the four. He was the only one who was not thrown by his bull. The horns came close, but never touched him.

The third bull was for Lester Findlay, 34, of La Verne, Calif. He faced his bull smiling and made several traditional passes and many unorthodox passes which amused the crowd, but he was thrown and mauled before it was over. Asked about bullfighting afterward, he rubbed a hip and said, "I've retired."

Last in the ring was Wayne "Duffy" Rogers, Air Force veteran from Mundelein, Ill., near Chicago. The biggest of the four Mexico City College students got the smallest bull. He made some of the best muletas (small capes) when the bull hit him instead of the cape. Rogers clamped his arm over the bull's head and kept from falling.

Each of the last two boys "cut an ear" as the Mexican sportswriters say of the awarding of one ear to the matador. Blanchard cut two ears for his performance, despite the fact that his bull was not quite as spirited as the first one.

Minard didn't seem so excited about bullfighting afterward. Wiping some blood off his cheek he

Haiti Plans Campaign to Eliminate VD

NEW YORK — (AP) — The first campaign in world history to free

a whole nation from venereal disease by treating each citizen with penicillin is reported ready to start this month in Haiti.

It will take two years; at least $750,000. It also will force medical teams to travel by jeep and horseback into Haiti's mountains to reach each one of the island republic's 3,500,000 persons.

The project was announced by Dr. Jaime Veldardo-Thoms of the United Nation's World Health Organization (WHO).

Doctors estimate that one out of every four Haitians has either syphilis or gonorrhea, and that 85 percent of them suffer from yaws, a skin disease with some resemblances to syphilis.

Penicillin is effective against all three in most cases.

The project is being sponsored by the Haitian government and two United Nations agencies, the WHO and the International Children's Emergency Fund.

campaigns will be launched in Indonesia and, on a smaller scale, in the Dominican Republic, which shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti.

Lotowhite Is Upset Winner

NEW YORK — (AP) — A new name rocketed into the Kentucky Derby picture yesterday when Hal Price Headley's Lotowhite zoomed to a four and one-half length victory in the $275,000 Experimental Free Handicap No. 2 at Jamaica.

Hill Prince, the 1 to 2 favorite of a stunned crowd of 41,068 never got into the act and wound up an inglorious ninth in the field of 11 three-year-olds.

J. M. Selders' Royal Castle took second money a length and a half ahead of F. N. Phelps' California invader, Sturdy One.

Lotowhite, an 18 to one shot, never won a race in 13 starts as a two-year-old. Royal Castle, a non-derby eligible, was 47 to 1, and Sturdy One 33 to 1.

Lotowhite, a chestnut son of Devil Diver - Lotopose by Equinox, swung into the lead as they turned into the top of the stretch, and there was never any question about the winner.

The runner was checked in 1:44 3/5 for the mile and one-sixteenth.

Oiler-erger Tilt Scheduled Today

Rain Halts Other Games; Play Gold Sox Tomorrow

Somebody said yesterday that the surest way to end a drought is to open the baseball season. And apparently that method is working very well.

So far this week the Oilers have gotten to play two of six scheduled exhibition games. The much needed rain, coming after six months of dry weather, has snuffed out almost prove something to Manager Grover Seitz in the way of all of the Oilers' spring contests that were supposed to who is going to stay in an Oiler uniform this summer and who isn't. So far Seitz hasn't had much of an opportunity to learn anything about the new faces.

The only good day for a game that the Oilers have had was the first exhibition game of the season, when they defeated the Gold Sox 8-0. The other games were either played in blowing gales or freezing nights.

The rest of the Oiler lineup this afternoon will probably see Jim Martin catching, Virgil Richardson at first base, Bob Rose at second base, Don Ricketson at third base, Ernie Velasquez at shortstop, Homer Matney in centerfield, Joe Fortin in right field, and Parker in leftfield. If Josephsey, outfielder purchased from Albuquerque, should report tomorrow, he will start in leftfield.

Manager Mickey Burnett of the Gasers is just as vague about his starting hurler today as Seitz. The weather has raised a havoc with his contemplated pitching schedule. But the rest of his lineup appears set with Patty Williams at first, Burnett at second, Jim Littlejohn at shortstop, Bob Leonard at third, Butler, Free and Lasley in the outfield, and Blumenthal catching.

The bad weather hasn't given Seitz much of a chance to see what some of his pitchers can do or what shape they are in. He can't be certain that any of them can go the full nine innings yet, with the possible exception of Roy Parker, who got a jump on the rest of the team while with Sireporet. Seitz also hasn't had a very good opportunity to see his infield work as a unit.

There are no new changes in the Oiler roster, though Seitz is reportedly still working on a deal with the Albuquerque Dukes for a player or two. The Dukes currently have about 14 pitchers on the staff, and it could be one or two of these, who aren't class men, that Seitz is angling for.

Greens Gossip

By HOGAN O'NEAD

Jimmy Nichols, the great one-armed golfer, is better than advertised. He has a left arm and he really knows how to use it in order to swing a golf club properly. He and Johnny Austin lost the exhibition match played last Thursday over the long Ross Rogers course at Amarillo by a score of 2 and 1, with Nichols shooting a fine 71, one under par. Johnny says, "Well, I always thought I could hit a pretty good tee shot but Jimmy Nichols was out in front of me all afternoon and closer to the pin on his second than I was and came in one stroke better than I did on the 18; so I'm taking off my hat to a fellow who can play wonderful golf, despite his handicap."

Those people who braved the 30-degree weather to see the one-armed man were not disappointed; as a matter of fact they saw more than they thought they would. Am I right Alice Austin? Floyd Heath and Marjorie Howard? Dallas Bonner had a 40 on the front side last week with a six and a seven on the first two holes. He's sharpening up for Sam Sloan.

And speaking of Sloan, that famous feud between him and Shorty Heiskell is really shaping up. Sam was out of town for a couple of weeks so all the boys figured that he had given up the game for the simple reason that he couldn't beat Shorty or anyone else. Well, Shorty ran a tracer on Sam and received the astounding news that the man with the cigar between his teeth had been taking lessons for the past two weeks down in the lower part of our state.

Both boys have their dueling clothes on and have decided to pace off ten steps and fire at will with their niblicks at 5:30 a.m. today. Records were to be set for the defending champion Big Spring nine, as he shut out Midland 6-0.

At Big Spring, Bert Garcia turned in a stellar mound performance for the defending champion Big Spring nine, as he shut out Midland 6-0.

Jorge Lopez helped the Big Spring cause in the seventh with a two-run swat over the wall.

In a game that went 11 innings, Sweetwater pushed across the winning run after one was out on Ray Bauer's single to defeat Vernon 6-5.

Vernon had made a determined fight of it by coming from behind with a two-run surge in the ninth on pinchhitter Darin Christy's two-run homer, to send the game into extra innings.

Two More Lose In Longhorn

(By The Associated Press)

Play in the Longhorn League Friday night saw two teams, Roswell and Midland, knocked from the unbeaten ranks, leaving only San Angelo, whose game with Ballinger was postponed due to rain, undefeated.

Odesa completely routed Roswell, 14-2.

Led by Bill Carley with a home run, Odesa unlimbered 19 hits off three Roswell pitchers, 10 of which came in the nine-run fifth inning.

Two-Platoon Yanks

NEW YORK — (AP) — Yankee Manager Casey Stengel believes he has so many good men that he'll have to play them on a share-the-work plan.

Stengel expects to use the two-platoon system at third base, left field, right field and first base. He claims there isn't a regular player now at any of those spots.

Pampa Golfers 5th at Lubbock

The Pampa Harvester golfers finished fifth in a field of seven Schooby golf teams yesterday afternoon in the Western High School Invitational Golf Tournament at the Lubbock Country Club. The tournament was played on a rain-soaked course that was getting wetter each hour.

The Midland High School team captured first place in the tournament with an aggregate score of 650. Abilene took second with 650 and Amarillo's Sandies were third. Other teams entered in the meet included Pampa, Plainview, Lubbock and Odesa.

Don Hill, brilliant Amarillo High School golfer, was medalist for the day with a blazing 36-hole total of 148. Par for the course is 71. Tied for second place in medalist honors were Lee Pinkston and Dan Winters of Abilene, who both fired 149s.

Medalist for the Pampa team was Jimmy Howard, who shot a 84-81 — 165. Other Harvester scores were Richard Miller, 86-84 — 170; Tommie Cox, 92-94 — 186; Jackie Cox, 90-97 — 187.

The team stayed over in Lubbock because of the bad weather, which included almost solid fog in that area.

Next weekend the Harvesters are scheduled to return to the Lubbock Country Club for the regional golf tournament and a chance to move on to the state tournament, being held for the first time this year. Other clubs entered in the regional will include Amarillo, Midland and Lubbock. Midland is the heavy favorite to win the regional as well as the state meet.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Messer—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: Who is head coach of the only basketball team ever to win both the NIT and NCAA tournaments the same season?

ATTENTION GROVER SEITZ: President Milton Price of the West Texas-New Mexico League, has released a roster of the umpires who will be working your games this season. It was feared that after last season it wouldn't be possible to hire enough men to work the league this season, but just before the opening of the campaign they managed to find nine men.

You have accomplished something in your arguments with the men in blue, Grover. This season, for the first time in its history, the league is not using any umpires without previous professional experience. I guess that they don't want to throw any more lambs to the wolves out here.

Heretofore, the league has started out with from three to six beginners working with the nucleus of veterans. That is the pattern of the player rosters of the member clubs, and the C and D leagues have always had the responsibility of training the players and the umpires. The player rule of the league has been liberalized considerably in the past few seasons. Each club is allowed eight veteran performers, so the league, in assembling and signing an umpire staff, is following suit.

Returning members of last season's umpiring staff are Ross Helbeck, who has had three full seasons of umpiring experience in pro baseball; Charles Crain, likewise a three-year umpire; Bob Fisher, with two years; Bill Frank, two years; Steve Sadowski, two years; Cy Simon, three years; James Welch, two years; Kermit Crain, one year.

Coming into the league is Leonard W. Roberts, whose contract was drafted from Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League at the Eastmore meeting last December. In order to provide added protection and insurance alternate umpires will be available in emergencies. Arrangements have been made with Joe Evans of Portales, N. M., to serve in this capacity. Others will be added.

Tuesday afternoon a pre-season meeting of all the umpires will be held in Amarillo. Milton Price, league president, will preside over the day-long meeting. A further study of playing rules changes will be made and uncertainties about the proper interpretation or application of any part of the new playing code will be cleared up at the Amarillo gathering.

A rules interpretation conference was held in Dallas early this month under the supervision of Bill Stewart, National League umpire. Several members of this season's staff have been handling exhibition games throughout the league this season.

The WT-NM League, through official connection with the National Association Umpire Committee has long been holding out for some nation-wide program in professional baseball that would help promote the interests of its umpires. An interesting program has now been established and it should produce positive results. Draft rules have been set up and the National Association can draft any umpire in B, C or D ball at any time, even during the season, up to July 15. This added incentive from the promotion angle should result in a gradual improvement in the umpiring in the lower classifications.

The addition of these all-veteran umpires should greatly improve the brand of baseball in the league and the added umpire supervisors, such as Lefty Craig, should strengthen the entire setup.

Big 'em, Grover!!!!

ANSWER: Nat Holman is coach of City College of New York, which this year became the first team to win both the NCAA and the NIT.

Roughnecks Find Going Is Rough As Season Starts

(By The Associated Press) Beaumont's exhibition Roughnecks, who compiled a gaudy record in the exhibition schedule — so good they were picked to make the first division of the Texas League for the first time in years — are finding the regular grind a trifle rough.

The experts rated the Roughnecks high but wondered if they had the pitching. Friday night Beaumont added to those doubts. Five Roughneck hurlers gave up 14 bases on balls and that was too much handicap although Beaumont pounded 11 hits. San Antonio, on the right spacing of nine blows, knocked down Beaumont 10-5 in the Roughnecks' second loss in four starts.

Meanwhile Tulsa's Oilers were taking a thriller from Fort Worth 2-2 to surge into first place as Houston lost, 5-4, to Shreveport. It was the Buffs' first set-back. Tulsa won in the twelfth inning on Harry Donabedian's slashing single that brought in Roy McMillan from second.

Procopio Herrera won his first pitching victory of the young season for San Antonio but had to have help from Hal Hudson in the ninth.

Dallas licked Oklahoma City 3-0. Al Aber gave Dallas only four blows but the Eagles made them count and also cashed in on Aber's wildness. Al walked six. Walt Lanfranconi spaced seven Oklahoma City hits just right. Shreveport throttled the Buffs in the ninth after they had rallied for four runs.

A crowd of 5,116 turned out for the last of the league opener. This gave a total of 87,977 for the combined eight opening games.

ABC Keglers Open Fire

COLUMBUS, Ohio — (AP) — America's best bowlers were off and rolling Saturday in quest of a share of the $377,000 prize fund, second largest ever offered in the ABC.

The 80-day congress, staged over 26 new alleys in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum, features 5109 five-man teams, 11,177 doubles combinations, and 22,489 in the race for individual honors.

The entrants represent 968 cities or towns, 41 states, Alaska, Canada and the District of Columbia. Five-man events are scheduled each night, with the singles and doubles the following day for each team.

Contestants will bowl against new pins each set being removed after nine games to assure uniform conditions. The entrants poured $616,900 into the affair in entry fees and the ABC had spent some $375,000 of its before the first ball was rolled yesterday morning.

Coming into the league is Leonard W. Roberts, whose contract was drafted from Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League at the Eastmore meeting last December. In order to provide added protection and insurance alternate umpires will be available in emergencies. Arrangements have been made with Joe Evans of Portales, N. M., to serve in this capacity. Others will be added.

Tuesday afternoon a pre-season meeting of all the umpires will be held in Amarillo. Milton Price, league president, will preside over the day-long meeting. A further study of playing rules changes will be made and uncertainties about the proper interpretation or application of any part of the new playing code will be cleared up at the Amarillo gathering.

A rules interpretation conference was held in Dallas early this month under the supervision of Bill Stewart, National League umpire. Several members of this season's staff have been handling exhibition games throughout the league this season.

The WT-NM League, through official connection with the National Association Umpire Committee has long been holding out for some nation-wide program in professional baseball that would help promote the interests of its umpires. An interesting program has now been established and it should produce positive results. Draft rules have been set up and the National Association can draft any umpire in B, C or D ball at any time, even during the season, up to July 15. This added incentive from the promotion angle should result in a gradual improvement in the umpiring in the lower classifications.

The addition of these all-veteran umpires should greatly improve the brand of baseball in the league and the added umpire supervisors, such as Lefty Craig, should strengthen the entire setup.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK — (AP) — John Marshall, the Australian swimmer who set four world records in the recent AAU championships, rooms with two Texans at Yale. "It is with some bewilderment that John says: 'My first few weeks at Yale I thought that Texas constituted three-fourths of America.' Lot of guys who have lived here all their lives have had the same experience, but they don't tell Texans that it's as little as three-fourths, especially during the football season. Tommy Quinn, who started running for Michigan Normal, is the new assistant track coach at the New York Athletic Club. Harvie Ward, the National intercollegiate golf champion, had to pass up the North and South Amateur because of the strict USGA rules about expenses, but he'll be swinging in the Southern Intercollegiate, April 27-29.

NOTHING TO SPEAR

Tommy Reeves, Duke's talented track star who scored 111 points last season in the sprints, broad jump and hurdles, is six feet one inch tall and weighs 135 pounds. But he just laughs off all gags about his beanpole dimensions and tops them with: "Coach says he will use me in the javelin event soon — when we run out of javelins."

Diamond Game Opens 75th Jubilee Season Next Tuesday

NEW YORK — (AP) — The diamond jubilee season for the diamond game opens Tuesday and countless millions will see or hear baseball compared to the few thousands who followed the first big league teams in 1876. This year the spread of television and the use for the first time of two radio networks as the major leagues of its greatest audience — incalculably more even than 1949.

Total direct attendance may fall off slightly, but even that depends both on economic conditions and the closeness of the pennant races.

The Mutual System for the American League and the Liberty Network in the West for the National League have been engaged to broadcast a "game of the day" in addition to the broadcasting in each league city. It is the National League that claims the honor of presenting big league baseball for three quarters of a century. It was organized Feb. 2, 1876. The American League came into being in 1900.

President Truman will preside at the usual ceremonies in Washington. The full list of opening games:

AMERICAN LEAGUE:
Philadelphia at Washington
St. Louis at Chicago
Detroit at Cleveland
New York at Boston

Boston at New York
Brooklyn at Philadelphia
Chicago at Cincinnati
Pittsburgh at St. Louis (night)
This will be the first time any major league team has ever played a night game to open the season. In all, 409 night games have been scheduled in both leagues, a new high. Last year there were 286, and in 1949 only 81.

The New York Yankees are defending their American League and world championship, and the Brooklyn Dodgers are defending their National League pennant.

North Carolina researchers have found that, unfortunately, cattle grazing in timberlands, will eat the most valuable species first.

Jim Jeffries Celebrates Birthday

BURBANK, Calif. — (AP) — It was diamond jubilee time Saturday in the life of the last of the world's old line heavyweight champions, James J. Jeffries.

It was big Jim's 75th birthday, and No. 75 found him still a strapping bear of a man, alert and friendly, but a little on the ailing side.

There have been many large birthday parties for the outgoing king of the ring, but this one took on the aspects of an official holiday — city and state.

Burbank's official city family proclaimed it "Jim Jeffries Day," and Gov. Earl Warren extended official greetings to boilermaker Jim.

And the sports crowd, with the boxing delegation in the fore, was invited to an affair at Jeffries' sprawling cottage for a birthday party yesterday afternoon.

Jeffries was born April 15, 1875, in the little town of Carroll, Ohio. The family moved to Los Angeles when Jim was a youngster, and it was there that he grew and developed into what many an old timer insists was the greatest heavyweight of all time.

Deeply etched in the annals of boxing, of course, are the highlights of the Jeffries fighting career — his 11th round knockout over Bob Fitzsimmons for the championship in 1899, his two knockouts over "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, his roaring battles with Sailor Tom Sharkey, and yes, his ill-advised, unwise comeback attempt against Jack Johnson in 1910, five years after he had retired, undefeated in 28 major bouts.

Old Jim doesn't mind talking about these events, or, in his gruff, amiable way, exploring some of today's night-club-training athletes. But he isn't one to volunteer a discourse on such subjects.

Instead, he likes to sit back and exchange pleasantries and apiece the talk with anecdotes quite apart from his own ring battles. One of his favorite stories concerns the time many years ago when he disclosed plans to make a hunting trip to Alaska. A sports writer inquired: "Will you travel incognito?"

Jim, deadpan and solemn, replied: "No, I'll take a train to Seattle and go by boat from there."

Jenkins Loses TKO to Jack
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Former lightweight champion Lewis Jenkins of Sweetwater, Texas, lost a technical knockout decision Friday night to Beau Jack, also an ex-champ.
Handlers refused to let Jenkins continue in the fifth round at Uline Arena after Jack pounded a hard right below the belt following the 139 1/2-pound veteran.
Under District of Columbia rules, the former Texan now fighting out of Philadelphia was allowed a five-minute rest.
But his handlers refused to let him continue, so referee Ray Bowen awarded the TKO to the 139-pound New York Negro.

Fair Enough - Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1950) The Bridgeport Post has come out for Vivien Kellems for United States senator on the Republican ticket. George Waldo, the owner and publisher, is a devoted personal friend of Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce, who recently announced that she did not choose to run.

In politics and at least favorable to the tentative, coy and brief candidacy of her husband, Henry Luce, of the Time-Life-Fortune combination. He agreed, however, that Luce, a disagreeable, ill-favored fellow with a bad political reputation, would have to remodel his character to get anywhere. Mr. Waldo did not go out on a limb for Luce and Luce presently took a look in the mirror and withdrew.

Not only is he inappropriate personally, but Priscilla Hill, the wife of Alger, was in his service for years, later as his assistant — not merely "an" assistant but the assistant to Henry Luce as editor and publisher — and the political complexion of Time is more harmonious with the Henry Luce wing of the Democratic Party than with Republican principles.

Our livestock population is now rising, and substantial increases are forecast for future years. That is a healthy trend. Another virtue of livestock from the producer's point of view is that the market is always ready, day in and day out, year in and year out. The farmer and rancher can sell whenever they choose.

First it was "Key to the City" and now it's "Key to the Handcuffs." When Shirley Temple and John Agar were married, Harry Sugarman, host at the Beverly Hills Tropics, presented them with a pair of silver-plated handcuffs mounted on a teakwood plaque.

Navy's New Turboprop Employs Jet Thrust To Drive Propeller; Power Up 10 Percent

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Hottest item in U. S. aviation today is the Navy's new turboprop, a very powerful, light, hybrid engine. It uses jet "thrust" to turn a propeller, with an extra 10 percent power bonus from the thrust of exhaust gases.

After many years of poo-pooing the idea, the Air Force is now making secret plans to install turboprops on its giant, controversial B-36 atom bomb taxi. Several experts predict that the Navy's engine may give the B-36 so much added speed that orders for the plane which is now slated to take the place of the B-36, the all-jet B-52, can be cancelled.

The Navy is now putting the new engines on its huge flying boat, the KSP-Y and on a new fighter, the XA2-D Skyhawk. In the civil aviation field, four of the biggest aircraft manufacturers, Boeing, Douglas, Convair and Martin, are planning to put turboprops on some models of their passenger planes.

The announcement that the Navy's turboprop is sufficiently proven to be tried on commercial airlines is a great source of relief to many U. S. observers. Up until recently, the British were believed to be way out in front in the use of turboprops on airliners.

But this announcement draws America very close to even: It is also claimed that the Navy engines are better than those of the British.

The Navy's 10-year battle to perfect the controversial engine now looks like it may pay off even better than its backers hoped. At best, critics of the idea said, it would only be an interim development, until jets would completely out-date the propeller. However, it is now being admitted that the turboprop might make both the piston type engine and the jet obsolete. Since the propeller uses the power of a jet engine more efficiently, the turboprop gives a plane greater range, licking the biggest bug of pure jet planes. And it has much more power than any piston type engine ever developed.

The turboprop gives a military plane more range through fuel economy, and can put a fighter, for instance, close to the 600-miles-per-hour speed of the pure jets. Its extreme light weight permits carrying more fuel.

Allison Aircraft Engine Company has done most of the development work for the Navy and now has two turboprop engines—the T-38 and the more powerful T-40 which is rated at over 5000 horsepower. Pratt & Whitney has developed an even heavier one than the T-40. It is this engine which will be put on the B-36. The Allison T-40, which will be used on the big Navy flying boat, has two unique features. One engine is actually composed of two separate jet turbines. This permits turning off one turbine during cruising to save fuel. Both are used during the take-off and when extra speed is needed.

The other innovation is the use of two three-bladed, counter-rotating props. The counter-rotation

Highway Wage Case Arguments Slated

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Third Court of Civil Appeals has set oral arguments for May 10 in the appeal of the El Paso labor union suit complaining of wage rates paid by the State Highway Commission in El Paso County.

The 53rd District Court ruling favored the commission's rates as "the prevailing wage rate" on road work in the county.

The El Paso Building and Construction Trades Council, which brought the suit and appealed from the district court judgment, argued that the commission's rates of 76 cents to $1.67 1/2 cents an hour were "substandard" and should have been 95 cents to $2.00 an hour.

Matches once cost so much that only the rich could carry them.

eliminates torque, the opposite twisting force created by a spinning propeller. This is extremely important on the turboprop because of the supersonic speed at which the prop whir.

In discussing what the T-40 can do for the Boeing Stratocruiser, Boeing's vice president, Frederick B. Collins, says, "The light weight of turboprops would permit the carrying of more than 1000 extra gallons of fuel. Certain ranges would be increased 113 percent. It would take off in 67 percent of the distance, required by the conventional version."

BIOLOGICAL WARFARE IS WAGED ON INSECTS

By RENNIE TAYLOR
BERKELEY, Calif. — (AP) Biological warfare against insects, waged conveniently from an airplane, is here.

Recently a plane carrying two scientists and a tank of water flew over two 40-acre alfalfa fields near Dos Palos, 100 miles southeast of here.

The water contained no poison chemical, nothing injurious to either plants, livestock or humans. But it did contain the ground-up bodies of a few dozen alfalfa caterpillars. These insects had died of a virus disease which affects only alfalfa caterpillars. Their bodies were loaded with the virus.

It took the plane only a few minutes to release the water in the form of a fine spray, 5 gallons to the acre, over the fields.

About a week later Dr. Clarence G. Thompson and Dr. Edward A. Steinhilber checked the results. The two fields were nearly free of alfalfa caterpillars, a pest which can reduce materially the yield of this important forage crop.

Dr. Thompson and Dr. Steinhilber told about it yesterday. It was the first time a plane had been used for such an operation, they said, and it points the way toward more biological war against other insect pests via the air.

Three to six caterpillars which have died from the virus disease contain enough of the organisms to make spray material for one acre. The cost of the material is insignificant compared with the cost of poison chemicals.

To get the virus you have a small isolated plot of alfalfa in which you turn loose a few insects and let them multiply. After a few days you give the plot a tiny shot of virus material. Later you harvest the dead caterpillars for your spray mix.

There are many poison chemicals which can kill the alfalfa caterpillars but they are potentially dangerous to the animal that feeds on the forage or to the human who eats the meat of the animal later. The virus solves this problem in one stroke. It can grow only in an alfalfa caterpillar or some closely related insects.

About 48 purchasing agents from the Panhandle were present. The principal speaker was Walter Bell, national vice president of the agents' association. He is purchasing agent for Tarrant County (Fort Worth) government.

G. F. Branson, of Cabot, conducted the program, which was prepared by John Koontz, Monarch Lumber Co.; Ken Reeves, Cabot; and Al Frigmore, Portland Gasoline Plant.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at Amarillo May 10, it was said.

Camp Hood Is Made Permanent Facility

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Four Army camps are being renamed forts, which means that the Army no longer considers them temporary installations.

Construction at Army forts is usually of a more permanent type than at camps.

The Army announced that these camps include Camp Hood, the home stations of the Second Armored Division, near Waco and Temple.

Civil War Hero's Widow Candidate For Governorship

MARIETTA, Ga. — (AP) — The 89-year-old widow of Confederate Gen. James Longstreet says she is a candidate for governor and she wants Gov. Herman Talmadge to be "gallant enough to step out of the race."

Said the pert, spry Mrs. Helen Dorch Longstreet:

"It is conceded that Governor Talmadge cannot be defeated by anyone in sight. I feel the obligation now falls on Georgia's women to furnish the type of governor the state deserves."

Libel Suit Is Lost By Ex-Prison Chief

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Col. James A. Kilian, of Fredericksburg, Va., former commander of a prison camp at Litchfield, N. G., has lost his $500,000 damage suit against the Doubleday Publishing Company.

A common pleas court jury returned a verdict of "no libel" against the Army officer who sued the publishing company as distributor of the book, "The Purple Testament."

He was convicted by court martial in August, 1946, and fined $500 on charges involving brutal treatment of American prisoners at Litchfield.

The colonel contended conditions set forth in the book existed at Litchfield following his tour of duty there and that none of the circumstances described occurred while he was in charge of the camp.

SQUARE DANCE KIDS—A part of the group of children square dancers under the direction of Stuart Tisdal and Owen B. Harvey, Jr., does its stuff at a regular meeting held Friday in the ball room of the U-Drop Inn on Highway 86 in Shamrock. The group, which was originally started for the entertainment of the children of the two caller-sponsors, grew among friends so quickly that it soon became a community affair. Tisdal says they can execute most of the square dance calls common over the Panhandle. Obedience is the main by-law of the sponsors, and the children are under constant supervision. The club is open to all children of the community. It was this group that performed on the stage at the recent St. Patrick's Day Festival in Shamrock. (News Photo and Engraving)

Mule's Death Angers SPCA

ATLANTA — (AP) — The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is far from satisfied about a runaway mule's "regrettable, unfortunate" death.
Mrs. Myra Scott Eastman, president, said so after the city council's police committee deplored the animal's death 11 days ago but couldn't find anybody to blame.
Mrs. Eastman charged that the committee had held only a "mock hearing." She said the SPCA would press its efforts to bring somebody to book for the mule's fatal plunge into a truck after a wild, five-mile chase through main business streets.

Police were among "horn-blowing, hollering motorists" who frightened the animal into its fatal stampede, Mrs. Eastman added.

Department Store Sales Gain Steadily

DALLAS — (AP) — Department store sales in Texas' four largest cities showed sizeable gains in the week ended April 8 over the corresponding 1949 week.
For the four week period ending April 8, compared with the similar 1949 period, San Antonio sales advanced 15 percent, Fort Worth's 11 percent, Dallas' 7 percent and Houston's 1 percent.

FORD'S THEATRE, WHERE LINCOLN WAS SLAIN, HAS TRAGIC HISTORY

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some buildings, like some people, seem destined for tragedy.
Certainly Ford's Theatre, in downtown Washington, has had its share of troubles.
Here, 85 years ago Friday night, a fanatic drew his derringer and fired the ball that laid low Abraham Lincoln.
The next morning, April 15, 1865, Lincoln died.
The Lincoln story, of course, is well known. Not so well known is the story of the theatre where he was shot.
An old theatre had been destroyed by fire, and the new Ford's—one of the finest theatres in the country—opened on Aug. 27, 1863. Seating 1,700, it attracted the best actors, including the young and highly successful ($25,000 a year) John Wilkes Booth.
There was rejoicing 85 years ago in Washington. The long, dreadful war was over. The time had come, as Lincoln said, to bind the nation's wounds.

It was in the relaxed mood of the day that the Lincolns and their guests, Miss Clara Harris and Maj. Henry Reed Rathbone, went to the theatre. The play: "Our American Cousin," starring Laura Keane.
During the third act, Booth, who was not a member of the cast that night, crept along the hallway. He entered the presidential box, shot Lincoln in the head, wounded Maj. Rathbone with a bowie knife, jumped to the stage and escaped.
Never again was a play put on at Ford's. The shot that killed Lincoln killed the theatre, too.
Laura Keane and the other members of the cast were tossed into jail pending an inquiry. Performances were suspended.
When Ford attempted to reopen his theatre, in July, such a howl went up the idea was abandoned. The government took it over, and changed it into an office building.
Then tragedy struck again.

On June 9, 1893, three floors collapsed, killing 22 clerks and injuring 68 others.
In 1932, Ford's was renovated. Now it — and the house across the street where Lincoln died — are a museum.
The theatre has some choice Lincoln items for the 100,000 tourists who go through it each year.
Here are the gun and the knife

Booth used to kill and to wound. Here is the flag he tripped over as he hurried to the stage. Here are the boots Lincoln wore, and a boot Booth wore — the one that had to be cut off him because he broke a leg in the fall.
It's fitting that the old place should have this silent testimony of a national tragedy. For it, too, is a part of that testimony.
Doctors urge removing rubbers and galoshes indoors because leather soles on shoes cannot ventilate feet properly if hampered by impermeable foot coverings.

West Texas County Chiefs Name Officers
EL PASO — (AP) — County Judge Otha F. Dent of Littlefield is the new president of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association.
The group's convention ended here Friday.
Commissioner John B. Carpenter of El Paso was elected vice-president and County Judge Arthur Tipps of Wichita Falls secretary-treasurer. Wichita Falls was selected as convention city for 1951.

THE "DUSTER" is back—though I'm speaking of that long, loose-fitting coat they wore in the horseless carriage days. This coat has superb styling and it's just the thing for our "dust"—and take heed, if we happen to have a few more drops of rain, snow or sleet, this doubles as an "all weather" wrap!

WE'VE ALL BEEN very conscious of the Community Concert drive. This is a funny thing, but the people who complain most frequently, "Nothing ever comes to Pampa," are the individuals who fail to support projects like this. I'm praising the officers and directors of the local concert association—and all the work-horses, too!

THE AMERICAN LEGION took over Pampa this weekend. There was said to be about 500 legionnaires and wives here for the meeting, the main event of which was the Saturday business session, but then last night's festivities ended with a dance. More meetings were scheduled for today. Roy Lewis is the local commander.

WE MISS the Henry Berry family. I'm told that Mrs. Berry is still here, but Mr. B. is in Ft. Stockton. Understand they're keeping their house plan in mind for future use, and I don't blame them. Their home is a lovely thing. But that's what they hated to leave about Pampa. I guess if we moved from here I'd miss most: Mrs. Hal Suttle's friendly manner... Frank Smith's enthusiasm... Travis Lively's conversations... Rusty Ward's sense of humor... Mrs. Roy M. Hall's beneficence for people.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED and we're going there soon as the "Zesto" place opens. Question in mind: Is "Zesto" a cold drink, ice cream or what? The new drive-in is on W. Francis.

BOOMER SOONER!—I hear the Kiwanis Club is bringing the Men's Glee Club here from Oklahoma U. Dr. Paul Christian will be there, I betcha, "cus he's an O. U. alumnaus (I'med). O. K. Gilbreath is another who's proud of his alma mater and will attend the performance... Then Dick Hughes brought a young engineer from the Sooner State to work here. Offhand, I don't recall his name, but I've heard that he and his wife are a charming young couple. Then there's A. L. Steele who'd walk a mile to see a Sooner! (?)

YO-YO SEASON HAS YOE'D OUT, and it's much safer to shop downtown nowadays. I suppose Johnny McCoy is a good "yo-yo-er" or whatever you call one who twirls a yo-yo. He's the Oscar McCoy's only son and a real sure "nuff boy—that's why I'm assuming he practiced on a yo-yo everyday like all the other young fellers we know. But now they've gone on to higher things—kites, no less!

MARK APRIL 22 on your social calendar. That's the date for the square dance jamboree and I think it's to be in the Junior High Gymnasium. Classes are being held now and I understand there's much interest in them. Wonder if Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norman are attending—not that they need lessons—they used to be very, very good.

PAMPA PANORAMA: Among the many college students "going home" were Earl O'Brien and his wife... Saw them leaving with their car all loaded and headed toward the state capital... they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Brien... Phyllis Scheig decided not to return for the rest of the school term... this decision was the result of her engagement announcement and I think the wedding was Saturday... She's the Earle Scheig's daughter... Mrs. Charles Warminski is a person about whom I've heard many nice things... for one, she's a tireless worker for a good cause... I like the way Mrs. John High wears her hair, and incidentally, I envy that marvelous dishwasher she owns... Mary Ann Duke was at a gathering Peg attended and I noticed that she was caught in several conversations... she seems popular among her associates... I bet Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hawkins are a handsome couple... they have the "most beautiful" children... (I'm speaking of the daughters especially)... Mary Ellen is their youngest, I believe, and she's the Sub Deb Sorority president... pretty and well-liked... Mrs. Grundy Morrison has a short fur of which I'm particularly fond... suspect that she had opportunity to wear it "just one more time" when we had those crisp days last week... Luncheon was nice Friday noon at the Country Club... be glad when swimming weather is here... the pool is nice out there... Saw F. E. Barnes the other day... he's always cordial... Bunny Behrman was driving along slowly when I spied him and the last time I saw Mrs. B. she was enjoying a laugh with Myrtle Gilmore... they were along about the Modern Pharmacy... Mrs. E. L. Henderson has one particular pair of earrings I'd like to have to go with my favorite party dress... she's an attractive person... the Bonnie Roses are fishing down at Rockport, Texas.

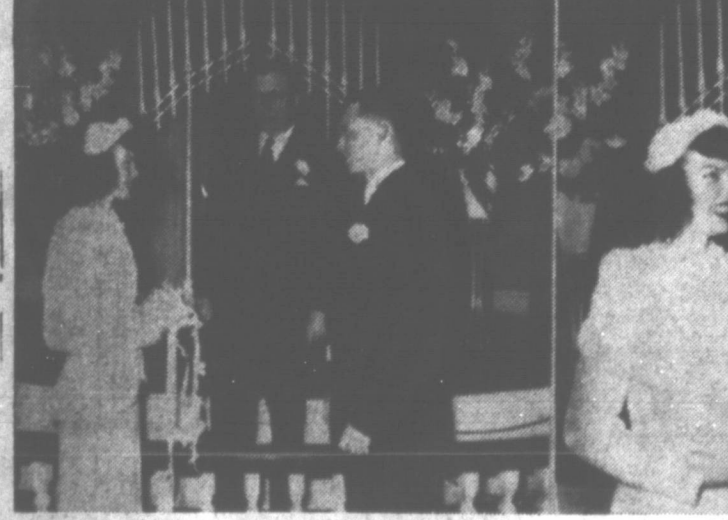

FRIDAY NIGHT was a red letter "day" for ESA... Members entertained with their spring formal and I heard that everyone looked lovely—frost bite and all. B never fails. Flair a picnic—it rains (don't quote me). And if a spring formal is coming up, the winter wind comes up, too, stinging cold and raging at us because we were trying to put it aside for a new season. Anyway, the significant thing about the formal was that proceeds were to be applied to the audiometer fund. Mrs. John Nutting is the president of this well-thought-of organization.

THERE'S THE MOST impressive flower garden on the 1300 block of E. Francis. Never saw so many tulips in bloom all at once. Whoever lives there deserves a medal for "best dressed yard" in town. That is an incentive for us to get a head start on the clean-up campaign.

FAMILY TIES are stronger when I see families like the Greeley Warners... They have a son and two adorable little twin girls who actually don't look like twins at all. They're the type of little girls who deserve "a full cookie jar everytime."

NOT LONG AGO I read that further proof has been found that we "humans" descended from the ape family. That's such an old controversy, and I don't know your sentiment, but I repeat: Nobody is going to make a monkey out of

PEG O' PAMPA.

THEY'RE MR. AND MRS. NOW (in photograph at right) and mighty happy about the whole thing if their smiles are an indication. In the picture at the left Dr. Orion Carter, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Pampa, is seen performing the ceremony at the St. Paul Methodist Church in Abilene that united in marriage his son, Orion Weldon, and Miss Elizabeth Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perry of Ryan, Okla. Recordings were made of the wedding ceremony and music and were played for friends who gathered in Ryan last week to honor the bride with a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Carter was also present at her son's wedding.

AAUW Speaker Pleads for Closer Relations Between Mexico, U. S.

Dr. Maria Chavez of the University of Mexico expressed the hope that women of our respective countries would be closer and work together toward the welfare of whole humanity when she spoke to members of the American Association of University Women and their guests in the City Club Room.

In explaining the difference between life of women in Mexico and women in the U. S., Dr. Chavez traced the position of women have occupied in the social life of each country.

In the past 50 years, life for Mexican women has begun to change. More of them are receiving an education and are experiencing more freedom, she said.

During the business session Mrs. Dudley Steele reported on the AAUW convention she recently attended. Mrs. Raymond Dalmon, president, introduced the new officers.

Miss Bernalson McKinn presented two piano selections, "Chaire de Lune" and "Maytime." In the tea hour following Dr. Chavez's speech, Mrs. M. Roy Sullivan played background music.

INSECTICIDES: With April showers, garden products will be seen shortly. Along with the tender vegetables come the bugs and the beetles.

Now is the time to prepare for the critters! Everyone who gardens should have on hand a usable sprayer and several appropriate insecticides. If at all possible, the equipment and insecticides should be stored in the same basket or box for convenient use and be placed out of reach of children.

Chemical compounds toxic to insects usually are toxic to warm-blooded animals. The only insecticides that may be employed with safety to higher animals are rotenone, pyrethrum, and sulphur. The use of sabadilla is quite safe. Nicotine volatilizes after several days, leaving no residue. Residue problems are involved in the application of arsenicals, cryolite, and DDT. These compounds are recommended for use so long as appreciable residues on the edible portions of the plants are not created.

It is not absolutely necessary that one know the names of the insects creating the problem but one should recognize the damage that is being done. Insects are divided into three categories according to the damage they do: cutting, sucking, or chewing.

Cutting insects: Cut worm - color: brownish, dark colored - feed in soil in daytime and cut off plants at base during night. Poison bait: 5 lbs. bran, 1 pint cheap molasses, 1-2 gallon water. Put out late in afternoon. Spread lightly near base of plants.

Chewing insects: cabbage worm, cucumber beetle, blister beetle, potato beetle, flea beetles, tomato worm. Control agent: (a) Cryolite, 1 part to 3 parts talc, or sulphur. (b) Cryolite, 6 lbs. to 100 gals. water or 1 oz. to 1 gal. (c) Mixture of derris or cube dust with talc, clay or dusting sulphur containing .75 percent rotenone. (d) Cube or derris powder of 4 percent rotenone content, 5 lbs. in 100 gals. water.

Sucking insects: squash bug, stink bug, cabbage bug, plant lice. Control agent: (a) Nicotine sulphate, 1 oz. to 3 gals. water. (b) Nicotine sulphate, 1 oz. to 1 lb. hydrated lime. (c) Derris cube dust, mixture of .75 percent to 1 percent rotenone content.

THINGS TO REMEMBER: An alkaline substance, such as lime, should never be mixed with cryolite. Nicotine dusts should be applied during the hot part of the day and when little or no wind is blowing.

Pyrethrum is expensive. However, a mixture of 1 percent rotenone and pyrethrum (6.1 percent pyrethrum) makes a dust for vegetable crops which will control (See WHAT'S COOKIN', Page 14)

'Fisticuffs' Steal the Show at Wheeler's Own 'Parade of Fashion'

By MARY FORRESTER

WHEELER—"We read a book on how to put on a fashion show," Mrs. R. William Brown, president of the Wheeler Wednesday Study Club, announced with twinkling eyes, as she gave the welcome preceding the club's fashion review in Wheeler Wednesday. Mrs. Brown continued, "We came across the statement that one sure way to make the show successful was to get some personable and well-known young man in the community to act as master of ceremonies. Of course, we immediately thought of Grainger McIlhany and decided to try to get him."

They got him, and the book was right—the show was indeed a success. Although Mr. McIlhany met Pampa News representatives before the show began and told them worriedly that he didn't know what he was going to say, he managed the show with ease and cleverness. His job was simplified by the fact that the dresses modeled were from the McIlhany Dry Goods Store in Wheeler, and he could describe them with authority. He opened the review by announcing that first would be a review by the "Tiny Tots," adding solemnly, "Now if you will excuse me while I go round up the tiny tots."

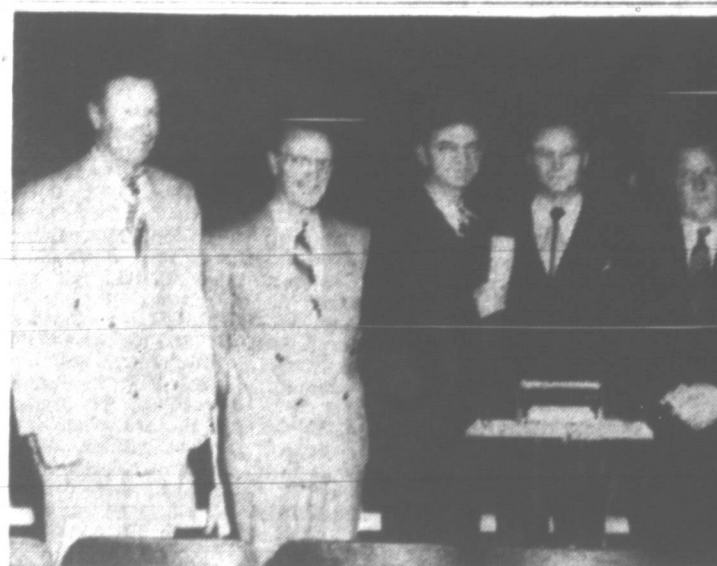

PLENTY OF INTEREST. Carl Dale Wofford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deward Wofford, Wayne might not have offered as much in style as some of the later numbers, it more than made up for it in interest. One very small boy, either a budding actor, or completely mesmerized by so many faces untraced to the very front of the stage, planted his feet firmly, and refused to budge. A slightly larger girl decided to remove the hat by force and a spirited "good" was in many faces untraced to the very front of the stage, planted his feet firmly, and refused to budge. Adult models were Rena Wofford, Mrs. Lee Guthrie, Mrs. Theo Nichols, Mrs. Luther Parks, Mrs. W. L. Williams, Mrs. C. B. Kirk, and Olga Hyatt. Decorations for the grade school auditorium, where the show was held, were furnished by Mrs. Eulie Laganback, Shamrock florist, who also furnished corsages to honor guests. Lighting was by the Loftin Radio Shop of Wheeler. Mrs. Cora Hyatt directed the fashion review. FHA girls assisting were Dixie Sanders, Mary Bob Denson, Margaret Moore, Bonita Ragan, Claudell Cox, Maurine Cole, Doris Magruder, and Ruby Williams. Mrs. C. J. Meek presided at the guest register, with 67 registering. A tea in the Home Economics Cottage followed the style show. Mrs. Fred Farmer and Mrs. Floyd Pennington poured. Out of town guests were as follows: From Mobeetie—Mrs. Jack Miller, Mrs. H. L. Flanagan, Mrs. E. E. Johnston and Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt. From Shamrock were Mrs. O. T. Panel Discussion Discloses Schools Are Trying to Meet Needs of Students

Pampa schools are doing their best to meet the needs of all students, it was brought out at a panel discussion "Our School Program," presented at the combined city council P-T-A meeting in the Junior High School Auditorium. After the eighth grade chorus presented several numbers, Homer Craig, fifth grade Horace Mann School teacher, started the school discussion by reading a paper prepared by B. R. Nuckols, principal of B. M. Baker School. Craig said there are 1,782 elementary school students in Pampa, and 62 teachers. The number of students in each grade is as follows: 390, first; 379, second; 353, third; 321, fourth and 339 fifth. Jack Edmondson, Junior High School principal, said there are 89 Pampa students in the sixth through eighth grades. Forty teachers have charge of the 321 sixth graders, 335 seventh graders and 333 eighth graders. He explained how the eighth grade is departmentalized and the objectives sought after in the Junior High program. Mrs. Tom Capps, counselor at High School, explained the courses offered and types of extra curricular activities that are open to students. She gave a detailed explanation of the pre-college and vocational diplomas that are offered at Pampa High. Tying in the overall objectives of Pampa schools, Knox Kinard, superintendent of schools, said "the purpose of the school program is the children." "We know we have many shortcomings," Kinard said, "but we are trying our best to get over moral values, social balance, emotional balance and stability." Speaking from the business man's point of view, Hollis Keys said he has probably hired more than 100 Pampa High graduates. "Some shortcomings of many of the students are they can't spell, they can't do simple arithmetic and they speak poor English," Keys said. In conclusion Keys said "We've got to instill into the students the fact that the world doesn't owe them a living — just an opportunity to make a living." Sherman White, who served as Gray County judge for 12 years, added to Hollis' comments about Pampa High graduates. Being an attorney, White said he naturally is interested in the high school's shorthand and typing departments. "We probably expect too much of high school graduates when we engage them as stenographers," he said, "but we at least expect them to be able to spell when we employ them." Mrs. R. W. Orr, president of the City Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, announced the combined meeting will take the place of the individual April P-T-A meetings. Portsmouth, on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, has more buildings than people. Once a thriving town of 1,000, and North Carolina's first port of entry, Portsmouth's population is now 18. Fishing and hunting are its industries.

Mrs. Irvin Cole to Be Delegate At District Convention in Memphis

Mrs. Irvin Cole, newly elected president of the Civic Culture Club, will be the club's delegate to attend the seventh district convention at Memphis April 27-28-29. She was chosen at a meeting held in her home Tuesday afternoon, at which Mrs. M. M. Moyer was hostess. Alternate delegate is Mrs. J. B. Townsend. Several club members plan to attend the convention.

She gave a short history of American music, then played "Narcissus" by Ethelbert Nevin, "Flowers" by E. M. McDowell, and a medley of Irving Berlin's songs.

Discussing American folk music, Mrs. Cole stated that cowboy songs are true American folk songs. As an example she played "Home on the Range," then played "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" as an example of Southern folk songs. She said that this nation is hungry for good music, and suggested that better talent should be brought to the community. She closed her program with "The Whippoorwill Song," which was composed by her mother, the late Mrs. J. G. Noel.

Over 200 Pampans Enrolled In Square Dancing Classes

More than 200 Pampans have half completed their five-session square dance school, which is being instructed by Frank F. Ponce, nationally-known square dance teacher.

Beginning at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow, the classes will be held at the American Legion - VFW Hall. Last week's sessions were held at the Holy Souls Catholic Church Parish Hall.

Both classes already are "doing a nice job of square dancing," Ponce said. Many of the finished dancers in this area have been amazed when they dropped in the school and found the beginners so advanced.

One of the old-time dancers was heard to remark at Friday's session, "Those students are dancing some tough dance formations that I've not mastered as yet."

Ponce continually warns his classes they must not get the idea they are good as yet for they still have a lot to learn.

Students who will attend tomorrow's session and the remaining sessions at the Legion Hall have been warned to be on time because the lessons start at the time they are scheduled.

Both classes will be completed the end of this week in time for the Saturday night square dance jamboree. Held at the Junior High School Gymnasium, the jamboree will be sponsored by Pampa Girl Scouts. Tickets are on sale at Kennedy's Jewelry, 199 W. Kingmill, and at the Girl Scout Office.

Industry Turns Attention From Gas Bill to Oil Imports

By TEX EARLEY

WASHINGTON — (AP) — With the natural gas bill through Congress, the petroleum industry is turning its attention to renewed efforts to curb oil imports.

The legislation exempts from Federal Power Commission authority the independent "arm's length" natural gas producers and handlers — those who have no financial interest in the pipeline concern to which they sell gas.

Back to the subject of imports, Bureau of Mines figures show that they jumped from an average of 220,000 barrels a day in 1940 to 642,000 barrels in 1948. So far this year they have averaged 760,000 barrels and the bureau says prospects are for an average of 800,000 barrels by the end of the year.

Bills to slow down the imports have been introduced and debated in both House and Senate, and industry representatives have held numerous conferences with federal officials.

So far, the industry's efforts have accomplished little. The administration has sent word to congressional committees that it is reluctant to take any steps counter to its policy of encouraging international trade.

Last week brought talks here between oil and coal industry leaders on the import question.

Although these two groups normally are at odds, they are uniting in opposition to the present flow of foreign crude into the United States. The oil industry, from whatever source it comes, the more likelihood of further displacement of coal as a fuel.

The Senate Banking Committee turned the spotlight last week on the question of government aid for private oil explorations.

Under questioning by Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark) of the subcommittee looking into the matter, Reconstruction Finance Corporation officials told of their approval of a $11,100,000 loan to the Texas Petroleum Co. of Dallas.

RFC Chairman Harley Hise said that so far as he knew it was the first time the agency had approved such a loan to the oil and gas industry. He expressed belief the RFC had authority to make the loan notwithstanding the previous testimony of Comptroller General Lindsay Warren.

The latter told the committee he believed the loan illegal, because data submitted to him indicated the company had no prospects of re-paying the loan within 10 years, as required by terms of the RFC act.

Hise told the committee that the first disbursement of funds to Texas was not expected before April 27, and then only if the company's collateral is found satisfactory. The question involves title to 150 oil leases in several Texas counties. Conflicting evidence was put into the record regarding the value of reserves on the leased lands.

Warren complained to the committee that 85 percent of the loan, if finally secured, is to be applied to payment of existing indebtedness. Among investors in Texas are 350 persons in the Boston, Mass., area.

Hise told the committee he would have a more complete statement of the RFC position by Tuesday.

In response to a question by Fulbright, Hise said the present case would have no bearing on a reported $70,000,000 loan application of Glenn McCarthy, Houston oil man.

Hise said he had heard such an application is pending before the Houston RFC office but that it has not been forwarded here. He added:

"I wouldn't say that the application of Glenn McCarthy would be eliminated due either to its size, or that it concerns the oil industry."

Fulbright later told newsmen that he personally questions the wisdom of the RFC's lending money to the oil and gas industry for development work.

Eight Towns Back Texas Water Plans

STAMFORD — (AP) — Eight West Texas towns have voted to retain municipal water project in Haskell County.

The towns acted at a meeting here in which seven other towns withdrew from the program. One of the seven, Stamford, was kept on the Reclamation Bureau's list as "indefinite."

Towns remaining in the program are Benjamin, Knox City, O'Brien, Haskell, Lueders, Aspermont, Old Glory and Throckmorton.

Withdrawing were Weimert, Rule, Roby, Hamlin, Anson, Breckenridge, and Stamford.

The withdrawals will necessitate compiling new cost figures for the project. Bureau Representative Harry Buehling called another meeting of interested towns for May 2 at Haskell to receive the revised figures.

In the case of Stamford, Mayor Clay Markham said the city council had authorized him to ask that his town be dropped. This made the city's withdrawal official. But Dr. W. T. Bunkley and former Mayor C. E. Coombs protested, saying that the decision should be left to a vote of citizens.

Oklahoma Oil Finds Fall Off During Week

TULSA — (AP) — Oklahoma oil completions went off the deep end last week, dropping from 140 last week to 109 with 60 finale, no gas wells and 49 dusters, the Tulsa World reported.

Other data: Average daily oil production, 3,266 barrels; daily gas output, none; total footage, $49,067.

There were 176 starts in 33 counties, up 58 tests from the previous week.

3rd District Teachers Elect New Officers

BROWNVILLE — (AP) — John F. Barron, Brownville school superintendent, is the new president of the third district of the State Teachers Association.

Other officers named by the district convention were Jack Cates, Beeville school superintendent, vice-president; Leon Graham, Mercedes school superintendent, treasurer, and J. A. Richards, of Texas A & I faculty, Kingsville, secretary.

Senator Fulbright Shocked At RFC Loan to Oil Company

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) says he is "more than shocked" at the procedure followed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in granting a $11,100,000 loan to the Texas Petroleum Co. of Dallas.

Fulbright is chairman of a Senate Banking subcommittee which is studying RFC lending practices. He told reporters the hearings "are to determine whether legislation is needed to make more efficient and effective the RFC's operations."

The Texas loan was given a public airing Thursday at the first open hearing the subcommittee has held.

Fulbright and Comptroller General Lindsay Warren took the position the loan was illegal because of evidence that it could not be repaid within the 10 years required by law.

But RFC Chairman Harley Hise and other agency officials strongly defended the transaction both as legal and as a "good loan."

The proposed loan totals $15,100,000, but insurance companies are to finance $4,000,000 of it.

Hise said that he had not voted on the loan because a family relationship was involved. But he told the committee he knew of nothing to indicate the loan was "bad" and thought it would be repaid.

Walter Dunham, who with Harvey J. Gunderson voted to approve it, said oil was a "fundamental business" and no longer speculative.

William E. Willett voted against the loan, Henry A. Mulligan did not vote.

The loan was the first to be approved by the RFC for an oil company. Hise said he had no first-hand knowledge that Glen McCarthy, Houston oilman, has applied for a $70,000,000 loan, "but I have no reason to doubt that such an application is pending."

The loan was approved last Sept. 29. To date the company has not received any part of it pending the completion of collateral and other arrangements. The deadline for this now is April 27.

It was sought for the purpose of permitting Texas to integrate its properties with other oil and gas properties.

German New Head Of Citizens Group

AUSTIN — (AP) — W. P. Z. German of Midland is the new executive director of the State-wide Citizens Economic Committee.

The organization's executive committee unanimously named German to the post Thursday and voted to establish headquarters in Austin.

Organized at the suggestion of Railroad Commission Chairman William J. Murray, Jr., the committee is composed of more than 100 members representing multiple Texas economic and geographical areas.

The Executive Committee decided on the headquarters setup as necessary to carry to the public the problem of foreign oil imports cutting into the state's oil production and resultant tax revenue.

Gov. Allan Shivers told the group "the picture shows that Texas production has decreased in direct proportion to the increase in imports."

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert said unless the curtailment of oil production in Texas due to imports improves greatly, the 52nd Legislature will be forced to increase taxes.

Charges Are Filed In Japanese Blaze

TOHYO — (AP) — An 18-year-old Japanese truck driver has been charged with responsibility for an $8,000,000 fire in the seaside resort of Atami, 65 miles southwest of here.

Police said he carelessly dropped a cigarette near a gasoline tank at a waterfront warehouse. They estimated the fire, brought under control seven hours later, destroyed 1,600 houses. Five thousand persons were homeless and 500 injured. Most of the business district and 40 large inns were destroyed.

U.S. Preparing Indochina Arms

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is putting together a $18,000,000 arms package for Communist-threatened Indochina.
 The aid is expected to be made up largely of cargo planes, trucks and medical supplies. Diplomatic authorities reported that these items top the lists of supplies urgently needed by the French-led forces fighting the Communist guerrillas of Ho Chi Minh.

 Preliminary shipments of a few special items may start within a month. And if the State Department has its way, deliveries will be labeled in effect "For Indochina" rather than "To France for Indochina." With the French being pressed to give the three new states of Indochina some voice in the disposition of U.S. military and economic assistance, officials hope for at least a gesture underscoring the American policy of helping Asiatic peoples toward independence.

I'm Just Tickled to Death

I sold a house... Yessir, the first man that walked into our place up and bought the first thing I showed him... Aint that a lick? It sure boosted my morale... and my finances... Kinda think I got his vote too, but I didn't press him too hard... I didn't wait anything to mess that deal up... even Ben... And we got a bunch of nice listings right off the bat, too... One of them is just about the best-built house in this town... a big brick home on Mary Ellen that's the best buy you'll find for a long time... large rooms throughout, full basement, double-paned casement windows, and the whole thing in excellent condition... and I do mean the price is RIGHT...

And we've got two nice smaller homes too that are just achin' to get a family... one's on Frost and one on Terrace, both are empty right now and both are good houses... (Don't these real estate guys ever handle anything but Good Houses Priced Right?)... And back to the upper brackets, we've got a new big home in Fraser Addition that's a honey and another on Mary Ellen that's just plain beautiful... they're both large and they'll cost you money, but they're worth it... and we've got lots of lots all over town and a nice little liquor store and a new machine shop down in the new oil field and the best corner building on Cuyler Street and a bunch of new apartment buildings on da candidate running for Congress who'll be broke if I don't shut this ad off right now... Come in and see us.

WADE'S SLIPPING!

What with all his physical, financial and family troubles, to say nothing of the change in weather he's "clean forgot" a head on this ad - So here's the Classified gals to his rescue again. It's

Farms, homes, Cattle and Congress

I've got myself all twisted around somehow to where I don't no whether im coming or goin'... Last Sunday was Easter, and I got up and took a good bath, and changed over to my light underwear... I turned all the pilot lights out of my floor furnaces and went to Church... Thursday morning I got up, but didnt take a bath... I put my heavy underwear back on and lit all the floor furnaces... this has been going on with me ever since last Feb 3rd... today I told my wife that I was going to follow my old schedule again, even if the temperature went past the 100 mark... when June the 21st rolls around I'll take a bath and change my underwear and turn the furnaces off... I can't afford to take these kind of chances with my health at my age...

... Would you be in the market for a good five room house at 1120 Terrace... its just been redecorated on the inside and its nice and neat... the owner has already moved from Pampa, so you would get immediate possession... it has a good lot, so you wouldn't be out to much for the down payment... if you interested call me up and I would be glad to show it to you... I want a nice place to live over there... I might also add that we would consider some kind of a trade for the boys equity, say a smaller house or auto...
... I've also got a good 8 room Duplex in the west part of town close in... both sides have a bath, and the utilities are separate... large double garage with two drives... this is a good buy for $7500, and its located on West Francis... this is considerable less than the owner has in this piece of property, but circumstances beyond our control forces us to sell...
... Here's another sacrifice in a business... its a grocery store and filling station combined out on the Berger Highway... I can sell you this worth the money, as the old boy that owns it has to get out of town by the time schools out... its a money maker, and the overhead is low... make an ideal setup for some couple...

I dont get little farms like this very often, but heres one that everybody will want... its a 160 acres on the creek... its well improved... 80 acres broke out... lots of sub-irrigated land... running water the year round... talk about your truck farming, this is a paradise... will sell this place for $50.00 per acre and hold 1/2 the mineral... its located about 30 miles from Pampa...

Are you looking for a good house to be moved... I've got one that is 28x28... its 5 rooms with shingle roof... can sell you this worth the money if sold in the next few days...

Theres a thing or two I would like to no on this congress race... I dont know if the living and dining room are full carpeted... drapes on the windows, and the back yard is fenced...

Who's got any WF yearlings for sale... I need 300 and theyve got to be good quality with delivery around the 1st of May... would take steers, or steers and heifers...

I've had a good business this week folks... in fact, to good... personally I wish my business would slow up a little as I think Im over taxing my brain... when I go to bed at night I cant sleep and three or four times a week I have to go to a big deal on a truck... I also sold the boys adding machine but didnt get nothing out of that sale... Id like to take it and go fishing but hate to see Im afraid I'll lose a dollar... I guess I'll just keep on selling...

When you read this go to Church... you'll feel better the rest of the day.
