Malone Files Motion To Set Aside Plea

A motion was filed in Lubbock County Court-At-Law No. 2 late Friday afternoon by Lubbock Attorney Don Hunt acting for Pampa School Supt. Dr. James F. Malone.

The motion seeks to set aside a nolo contendere plea entered by Dr. Malone Wednesday afternoon to a charge of vagrancy with lewdness. It is the intent of the motion to set the nolo plea aside and enter a plea of innocence to the charge.

A hearing on the motion is expected to be heard sometime next week between the defense attorney and the county attorney.

County Judge Deniz Bevers said he planned to spend the weekend looking up law books to see if there is a precedent for the case.

It was the judge's opinion there is nothing on record where a misdemeanor charge of $100 or less has ever been appealed.

If there is no precedent, the judge indicated it would be up to him to do what he wants with the change of plea.

He said usually when an appeal is made, it is made after sentencing and before punishment has been paid.

Dr. Malone was arrested mid-afternoon Wednesday on the third floor of the Texas Tech Administration Building, by an undercover security officer, while waiting outside a classroom door to visit with a long time friend and colleague.

Hippies Build Up Defense In Their Mansion

LONDON (UPI)—Hundreds of hippies built up defenses in their occupied central London mansion Saturday after drawing first blood in the battle of Piccadilly with police and bystanders early in the morning.

A leader of the group, John Moffat, said 800 squatters were now in the 60-room Georgian mansion. He urged more to come on their way out of a pop festival in Hyde Park, across fashionable Park Lane, from the mansion. Moffat told newsmen there may be 1,500 squatters by Sunday.

The principal weapons in the hippies' arsenal were thousands of plastic balls, about the size of a baseball stored in the basement. On Friday night and early today, squatters pelted police and bystanders with the eight ounce balls used in the bowling game of boules.

The squatters said they have also constructed booby traps through the once elegant mansion in anticipation of a police move against them. The group lost an appeal against a court-ordered eviction Friday. But police have not moved in force yet and declined to say when they would. Moffat predicted the move would come Sunday or Monday.

Downtown Parade 'Blasts Off' Good Neighbor Drive

The Pampa High School Band and Pep Squad and participating agencies of the United Fund paraded through Pampa Saturday morning helping to blast off the 17th annual United Good Neighbor Campaign.

The parade which included floats, pretty girls, antique and new automobiles started at about 10 a.m. from the Coronado Shopping Center and proceeded through downtown Pampa with the band playing and sirens wailing.

United Good Neighbor officials hope the parade and all the activities scheduled for the coming weeks will call Pampans attention to the fact of the $90,200 goal set for the campaign. This is an increase which was decided upon because of the need for funds in the hurricane Camille disaster area.

The Salvation Army and Red Cross were granted $1,500 by the United Fund so a separate drive would not be conducted for funds.

Other agencies involved in the United Good Neighbor Campaign are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, USO, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, and the Texas Medical Research Foundation, the Milk Fund and Pampa Welfare Index.

Upcoming activities for the luncheon Tuesday noon at the Coronado Inn, which will blast off the General Solicitation campaign include a kick-off Division under the command of pilot Kirk Duncan and co-pilot Ray Duncan. This division is responsible for a large percentage of the total goal.

A report meeting or check-ins for the various "space ship" divisions is scheduled to begin Thursday morning at the Emerald Room in the Coronado Inn.

Moscow Asked To Remove Ambassador

By United Press International

President Gamel Abdel Nasser of Egypt, irked by what he considers Kremlin interference in his military campaign against Israel, has demanded Moscow recall Soviet Ambassador Sergei A. Vmogradov from Cairo, informed diplomatic sources said today.

The report was the latest in a series of policy differences between Moscow and Cairo. It also came amid speculation about Nasser's health — he was reported ill with acute influenza — and shakeups in the military and administration.

Earlier this week, Egypt denied reports that pro-Soviet ex-Premier Aly Sabry had been fired from his position on the executive committee of the Arab Socialist Union (ASU) in a civilian "purge" by Nasser. Official sources said Sabry would head a meeting of the ASU, Egypt's only political party today but the Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram said the meeting had been postponed without giving any explanation.

As for last week's sacking of the Egyptian chief of staff and navy commander, the semi-official newspaper said it was carried out to provide for "young, fighting and scientifically minded elements" in the highest positions in the military command.

Al-Ahram, quoted by the Egyptian Middle East News Agency (MENA) in a dispatch received in Beirut, was referring to the appointments of Maj. Gen. Mohammed Ahmed Sadek as chief of staff in place of Lt. Gen. Ahmed Ismail, and of Brig. Hamoud Abdel Rahman Fahim as commander of the navy in place of Rear Adm. Fuad Mohammed Zaki.

Sources in Beirut said Nasser had demanded the recall of Vmogradov, one of the Kremlin's leading envoys and troubleshooters, to emphasize his annoyance with the Soviets. Moscow is believed to have been alarmed by what it considers Egyptian increasing belligerence in the Middle East.

One such example was Egypt's recent 100-plane raid against Israeli positions in the Sinai Desert.

Foot-Traveler Undismayed By Long Distance

Mrs. Hazel Brady, 73, of Woodward, Okla. passed through Pampa Saturday afternoon. Not in an accustomed manner.

She was pushing a baby-stroller loaded with clothing, a little food, and a 12-year-old family pet and companion, Clara Lou.

She is walking to Yuma Ariz. to see a doctor, she said. It came to mind, she must be a healthy person indeed to even contemplate walking from Oklahoma to Arizona.

Mrs. Brady said she left Woodward mid-afternoon Thursday and made it to Pampa by noon Saturday. She thinks it will take her about four more days to get to Yuma.

Mrs. Brady was colorfully dressed for her trip, wearing a blue chiffon hat, a red-dotted yellow, high-yoked dress complemented with red beads and yellow stockings.

180 Cast Votes In Sales Tax Election

By TEX DEWESE News Staff Writer

A total of 180 votes had been cast in Pampa's one-cent sales tax election when the absentee balloting period ended at 5 p.m. Friday.

City Secretary Stanley Chittenden said this was just 30 votes less than the 219 vote total in last April's city-wide election.

It also was just 79 votes less than the 299 absentee ballots cast in Amarillo's sales tax election scheduled for tomorrow.

The absentee balloting in Pampa indicates a heavy vote in the local election on Wednesday.

Election officials say they are prepared for a heavier-than-usual rush of voters. The number of voting booths in the City Hall commission room has been doubled and extra election clerks have been hired to handle the crowds.

Usual voting places in city precincts will not be open for Wednesday's voting. The City Hall will be the only voting place. It will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

All registered voters residing within the Pampa city limits will be eligible to cast ballots. Property ownership will not be a requirement.

Factional campaigning to drum up support on both sides of the issue has been growing during the last few days before the election.

Both proponents and opponents of the sales tax have been carrying their appeals to

Nixon's Draft Proposal Draws Strong Questions

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon's proposal to institute a draft of 18-year-olds Jan. 1 raised questions among Defense Department manpower experts Saturday whether it will discourage voluntary enlistments.

The armed services get nearly 800,000 volunteers a year, which forms a base on which to determine the size of needed draft calls. About 60 per cent of these are "draft-oriented," the experts say, leaving about 300,000 true volunteers.

If the threat of being drafted is restricted to only 12 months, as Nixon plans, Pentagon officials say they might lose some "draft-oriented" enlistees who figure their induction is inevitable and enter the service at a time of their own choosing.

Nixon announced Friday that whether Congress acts on his draft lottery plan or not this year, he intends to create a pool of 19-year-olds as prime candidates for induction, selecting

SIO Finds Willing Ears To Help Establish FD Plant Nearby

By DORIS E. WILSON News Staff Writer

So near, and yet so far away, is the Southwest Indian's Organization's hopes of bringing a new industry to Pampa.

And, at the same time, providing employment and incomes for Indians and others.

The dream is about $25,000 from fulfillment.

It will take that amount as a down payment on a $50,000 franchise to get Farmer's Daughter of Texas started in Pampa.

It's been a long five-year search to find a business or industry that would make Pampa's Indians financially independent and on their own, while benefitting the community in which they live.

The Indians have taken their story to local investors, who have turned disinterested ears. However, they have found a couple of willing ears in two nearby area towns.

SIO became acquainted with the Farmer's Daughter product, which is described as a high protein drink which looks like milk, tastes like milk, cooks like milk and sells for 20 cents per gallon less than milk.

The formula was invented by James F. Fritz of North Hollywood, Calif., whose home office is in Studio City Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz met with the local Indian organization here in Pampa in mid-August. Since that time, SIO has been thoroughly studying the background of the company and are as firmly convinced as they were at the outset that it is a "good thing for us," according to former SIO Chief Marland Hays.

Backing the Pampa Indian group is a $350,000 grant from the Washington D. C. office of Indian Affairs, which has allocated some $750,000 to five separate Indian organizations for establishment of business enterprises. Arizona has used one and Pampa can use the second one.

In order for the Indians to secure the Farmer's Daughter plant, they must first come up with $25,000. Hays said the franchise would cost $50,000 with a down payment of $25,000 and the other $25,000 subjugated to the AEL-CIO statement said.

The question of the Brunswick stock purchase which was raised Wednesday by Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., who said he would question Haynsworth about it when he returned to testify. Haynsworth has not been before the committee since then.

However, Haynsworth told the committee in his opening statement when the hearings began that "I have disqualified myself in all cases in which I have had a stock interest."

Hassle Continues Over Haynsworth's Nomination

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department said Saturday that Judge Clement Haynsworth Jr. bought $16,000 worth of bowling company stock two months before his court made public a ruling in the company's favor.

However, the department said the ruling could not have increased the value of Haynsworth's stock, and there was no conflict of interest in the purchase.

Asst. Atty. Gen. William H. Rehnquist said in a letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, considering Haynsworth's nomination to the Supreme Court, the South Carolina judge bought 1,000 shares of Brunswick Corp. stock at $16 a share Dec. 20, 1967.

Rehnquist said that was one month after the judges of the U.S. Court of Appeals in South Carolina met to decide a case involving Brunswick. He said Haynsworth did not sign the ruling until Jan. 3, 1968, and it was not made public until Feb. 2, 1968.

While Judge Haynsworth acquired the stock before the decision in the case was announced, none of the facts

Top U.S. Narcotics Officer Found Dead

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—The body of George Emrich, top-ranking U.S. narcotics officer for Latin America, was to be shipped to Washington Saturday night for burial in Arlington National Cemetery, the U.S. Embassy said Saturday.

Emrich's body was washed up on a beach in Acapulco Friday.

The embassy and Acapulco authorities said at first that the body was found fully clothed, and an embassy spokesman replied "no comment" to questions on the possibility of foul play.

An embassy spokesman said later that "this was an error" that Emrich was wearing a bathing suit when found, and the drowning "is officially considered an accident for the present."

The body of Emrich, 44, regional director for Latin America of the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics, was found by swimmers near the Elcano Hotel.

A 20-year veteran with the Department of Justice, Emrich was stationed at the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City. He was in charge of all narcotics-smuggling investigations in Latin America, especially those in Mexico—target of a special drive by the Nixon administration against marijuana smugglers begun this week.

Acapulco authorities at first declared it an accidental death by drowning, but said later they had opened an investigation at the request of Edward Heath, Emrich's assistant.

Heath was not available for comment.

Emrich was last seen alive when he told his wife and companions staying with him in an Acapulco hotel that he was going out for a walk on the beach Thursday night. Emrich apparently was carried out to sea by high waves as he walked along the shore, the embassy said.

Emrich was born in Denver but listed Pittsburgh as his home town. He is survived by his wife, Frances, and a son and a daughter.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a series of articles concerning the work of the United Fund's participating agencies.)

The face of the young woman seated opposite the Red Cross secretary in Pampa's City Hall had a radiant look. There was a calmness about her that belied the anxiety that rippled just beneath the surface of her mind.

She was expecting a new baby, her first, in just a matter of a few weeks. Her husband was overseas serving with the armed forces.

She knew her husband shared her anxiety about the approaching event and wished desperately to be with her.

It could not be. The next best thing would be to learn at the earliest possible moment whether he was the father of a son...or a daughter.

There would be so much excitement at that time...the mails would be too slow; and even a civilian-sent telegram would not have the speed of flight that a Red Cross telegram would.

That is what the young

Everyman's Bible Class Continues To Grow

Beginning in the old Lanora Theatre, Every Man's Bible Class has progressed through the years from a membership of approximately four to the present 168.

The class, for men only, is designed to encourage church attendance. President J. C. Roberts said, "we felt there is a need for people to attend church. Even though the class is sponsored by the First Baptist Church, it maintains the distinctiveness of being non-denominational. We are not looking for members for our church, but members for God." The class was organized in 1929 under the direction of Rev. Clifford Solomon and Rev. C. E. Lancaster. There are presently three charter members attending the class. Fred Thompson, Park Brown and Jeff Bearden, all charter members recall the first meeting as "one to remember." Meetings are held every Sunday morning in the city club room from 9:30 to 10:45. Teachers from all denominations are invited to teach Bible lessons and special music is provided by different churches.

He said the board would make no further comments upon the matter.

Before leaving for Lubbock Friday morning, to confer with attorneys there, Dr. Malone called a special meeting of all school principals to tell them of the incident and what his plans were relative to it. He asked that school principals call meetings within their own respective schools with their teachers.

Dr. Malone repeated to the school principals that he is innocent of any wrong doing and that he did not understand the implications of the nolo contendere plea at the time it was made.

General Abrams May Be Cited For Contempt In Berets' Trial

By NAT GIBSON SAIGON (UPI)—

Defense sources in the Green Beret murder case said Saturday Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, U.S. commander in Vietnam, may be cited for the military equivalent of contempt of court for allegedly using his influence to bring the six officers involved before a court martial.

One source close to the defense said Abrams insisted that the men be tried during his recent trip to Washington when he met with President Nixon. The charge added another note of mystery to the already shadowy case involving the death of a South Vietnamese man named Thai Khac Chuyen who has been identified in some reports as a double espionage agent.

Six Green Beret officers, including the elite outfit's former commander in Vietnam, Col. Robert B. Rheault, 43, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., have been charged with murder and conspiracy to murder in the case.

Stereotypers' Strike Continues In Amarillo

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—Pressmen and printers refused to cross picket lines at the Amarillo Globe-News for the first time Friday, but the newspaper continued to publish.

Local 174 of the Stereotypers and Electro-Typers Union was asking for more men on the job and better working conditions. The paper, printing largely with non-union personnel, has not missed an edition.

"You can work here for 40 years and when you walk out you have nothing," said Eldon Hood. Hood said he had worked as a strikebreaker in other parts of the country, but would not cross the Amarillo lines.

Union president Pat Griffin said the strike, which began Tuesday, would continue indefinitely if necessary.

U.S. military sources disclosed Saturday that two enlisted men similarly charged have been granted immunity so they can testify in the trials of the six officers. They are CWO Edward M. Boyle 26, of New York City, and SFC Alvin L. Smith Jr., 41, of Naples, Fla.

This means the two men cannot refuse to answer any questions on the grounds that it may incriminate them," a spokesman said.

Capt. John S. Berry of Sausalito, Calif., one of the defense attorneys, said Saturday the six men would receive an automatic life sentence if found guilty.

The army wants to lock these men up for the rest of their lives," Berry said. "Let there be no doubt about that." Sources close to both the defense and the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) have indicated that Abrams played a primary role in the original charges being brought against the men.

Under military law, every decision in a case must be decided independently without any suggestions from a commanding officer. This is considered one of the basic precepts of military justice and has seldom been violated at a senior level.

In the last known case of major command influence, a commanding general of Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., was accused of asking trial officers to levy heavier sentences against men convicted of being absent without official leave. The general was never formally charged in this matter, but soon retired.

M. Hutchinson Jr. to the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. They were driving a camper, and before Mrs. Brady settled down in the back for a nap on the way to Amarillo, she answered the question "why do you travel this way?"

"You have to," she said, "when you don't have any money."

Classes in Speed Reading Set This Fall in Pampa

The famous Cutler Accelerated method of speed reading, created by Dr. Wade E. Cutler who holds a doctorate in psychology, will be taught here this fall in both day and evening classes.

The average person today reads some 200 words per minute with about 60 percent comprehension — a rate inadequate to cope with today's reading demands in school, college or business.

This widely acclaimed course guarantees its graduates will read at least 1,000 words per minute with a definite increase in comprehension.

Many graduates of the nine week program far exceed the guarantee and complete with rates of 2,500 and more words per minute with far better comprehension.

Concentration, recall, study and test-taking skills show a remarkable degree of improvement.

Such achievement means:

Sunday, Sept. 21 at 2:30 p.m., 4 p.m., 8 p.m.
Tuesday, Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m.
Wednesday, Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m.

These meetings will be conducted in the Emerald Room of Coronado Inn, 1101 N. Hobart, Pampa, Texas.

Pampa Boy Throws Self In Front Of Car

A 17-year-old Pampa boy, Robert Eugene Jeffers, 316 Texas, was listed in critical condition Saturday at Amarillo's Northwest Texas Hospital.

Jeffers was taken to the Amarillo hospital from Pampa late Friday night after he was struck by a car on U.S. 70 approximately one mile north of Pampa.

According to the hospital spokesman Jeffers suffered a possible head injury, dislocated hip and ankle and cuts and bruises after he was hit by a vehicle driven by Kenneth Dale Thompson, 16, 1136 Terrace.

Texas Highway Patrolman Paul Geiser said Thompson, Jeffers, John Garren and Mike Mullins, all of Pampa, had gone to the spot north of town where they were to meet some other teenagers for a fight.

Geiser said the boys told him while they were waiting for the other group, Thompson got in Garren's car and was going to move it.

At that point, according to Geiser, Jeffers, who had been standing beside the Mullin vehicle said he was going to scare Thompson and jumped in front of the vehicle. Thompson wasn't able to stop in time.

The boys rushed Jeffers to Highland General Hospital, and he was then taken to Amarillo by Carmichael-Whitley ambulance.

Midway in the museum are authentic replicas of an old-fashioned parlor with a beautiful organ; a bedroom complete with a featherbed and other necessary accessories; and a genuine old-fashioned kitchen with a wood-burning castiron stove.

The museum is open weekdays from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. It is closed on Sundays.

"However," Mrs. Back said, "if someone wants to go through it on Sundays and would call me, maybe we could make arrangements to be here."

There's lots of pride and lots of memories housed in the Alanreed-McLean Area Museum located at 117 Main Street in McLean.

And well worth a trip down to see, anytime.

IRONING NOWADAYS is not quite the chore it was back in great-grandmother's day. Mrs. Jim (Vera Feathers) Back, museum hostess, tests the heat of an iron she has just picked up from an old antique wood-burning stove that cooked up many a meal on the Price Rogers Ranch, located just northeast of McLean, back in the early 1900's.

YESTERYEAR'S TREASURES Area Museum Filled With Many Memories

By DORIS E. WILSON
News' Staff Writer

McLEAN — The McLean-Alanreed Area Museum has been open a little over a week, but already it is making a name for itself as a "keeper of treasures from a bygone era" which are also known as "those good old days."

The museum is steeped in the memorabilia that were a part of the everyday lives of the pioneers that grubbed their livelihood from the soil.

For some, the "grubbing" was parlayed into fortunes. For others, while the material gain might not have been as great, still their contributions to this area are inestimable.

The area museum is located on Main Street in McLean between west traffic on U.S. Highway 66 and east-bound traffic on Interstate Highway 40.

And it is sponsored by the Alanreed-McLean Historical Society. It began as a dream on Sept. 24, 1967 and became a reality in August, 1969.

Mrs. Vera Back, museum hostess, said, "Everyone has been so generous with their contributions. Some of them are really priceless and irreplaceable."

John C. Haynes is AMHS president; F. Jake Hess, chairman of the board; Mrs. Jewel Cousins, secretary.

"We are especially indebted to Alice Short Smith without whose help, both physical and financial, the museum might not have been possible."

At the present time, the museum is featuring the art work of local and area artists, whose works reflect some of the early days in the Panhandle. Of special interest is a painting of McLean's Main Street as it was in 1905 executed by Effie Lou Everett. It must recall some nostalgic moments in the minds of those who were around then to see the windmill located where a traffic light now stands.

The museum is well worth a drive from any distance. A pleasant few hours may be spent just browsing through the displays that at the turn of the century were part of everyone's life.

The museum boasts of three separate sections.

In the first section, among other things, there is an old-fashioned permanent wave machine, looking much like an instrument of torture, which indeed it was. According to legend, it gave the first permanent wave in McLean and was owned by Mrs. Etta Mann Carmichael. There are curling irons that must be heated over an open flame for effectiveness; an Oliver typewriter manufactured in 1912; highbutton shoes; jewelry worn by fine ladies back at the turn of the century—a doctor's corner; a picture of George H. Saunders, the first county judge of Gray County.

IT'S YOUR CHOICE!

Wednesday, September 24, 1969

You as a Pampa Tax Payer, will probably cast a vote on Wednesday, when a city sales tax will be either adopted or voted down. We urge you to cast that ballot --- and to make it a resounding NO. In other words:

Vote "NO" on the Sales Tax Wednesday

Here Are Some Common Cents Answers:

Q-- Are City Sales Tax Payments Deductible From Our Federal Income Tax?

A-- The Sales Tax cannot be deducted from your income tax unless you itemize your return. The average working man does not itemize. He uses the standard short form. Therefore the money he spends for the 1c Sales Tax is of no benefit to him as a deduction. On the other hand the rich landlord, whose property taxes are paid by his tenants, usually does itemize his return - thereby gaining the double benefit of claiming the property tax deduction, and the deduction on the 1c sales tax. IS THAT FAIR?

Q-- Does A Business Outside The City Limits Collect The City Sales Tax?

A-- No - BUT - if the City Sales Tax is voted in, there are Lumber Yards, Supply Companies, Service Companies, Restaurants, Motels, Service Stations and others, that would have an automatic 1% advantage over similar businesses inside city limits.

Q-- There Is A 2% State Tax On Automobiles. Would The City Tax Also Apply To Automobile Sales?

A-- No - BUT - The Tax does apply to all replacement parts and accessories on your automobile:

Q-- Is The City Sales Tax Regressive—That Is Will It Cause A Particular Hardship On Lower-Income Families?

A-- Yes - the lowest income family will spend a greater portion of the income for taxable necessities, such as clothing, shoes, furniture, bedding, personal items, etc.

Q-- Why Is There A Need For So Much Money?

A-- Necessities, such as paying Marvin Springer $33,000 for advice and recommendations on City Planning, which we have been told by city hall spokesmen, cannot be used for at least 10 years; the total absence of efficiency in City Administration.

Here Are Some Facts We Ask You To Consider:

1. The Sales Tax Is Cancerous - Like in its growth. For Instance the Texas State Sales Tax started as 1c Temporary Tax. In 5 years It has grown to 3 1/4c. Once the tax is voted in, the citizens have no further control. The Sales Tax is continually increasing in rate, is being extended to cover more and more items. The cancer spreads and grows -- and is as permanent as death.
2. Citizens of Pampa should be reminded that the City Sales Tax has to be voted in. It is not necessary to hold an election to increase the property tax - City Hall can boost the property tax any time it likes.

has only 100 pennies in it. Do NOT further reduce its buying power by voting for a 1c City Sales Tax. One vote may make the difference. Vote NO Wednesday, September 24 1969

FIFTH GRADERS RECALL

Those Lovely Days Of Summer Vacation

By DORIS E. WILSON
News Staff Writer

This past week, Mrs. Rex Little's fifth grade creative writing class were assigned the topic, "How I Spent My Summer Vacation." We have prevailed upon Mrs. Little to let us share some of these themes with our readers in the hope that they will help recapture some nostalgic memories that belong only to childhood and carefree vacation days from school.

Space prevents using all of the creative writings, but some of the most interesting ones that caught our fancy was one written by Randy Cunningham, who had two vacations both illustrated with creative drawings.

Randy titled his theme "Two of My Vacations."

Vacation No. 1 was spent in Cimarron, N.M. "We went fishing, hiking, and climbing trees on the mountains. My grandmother caught a bass about 14 inches long. We went to Taos and saw some pueblos.

In Arkansas for the Vacation No. 2, Randy wrote: "We went to our ranch in Arkansas. We saw Betty, Matilda, Caroline, the pet cows and Soncho, the horse. We plowed and graded. We also fixed a gate. I have to go now so goodbye."

Linda Thompson wrote about a "Busy Summer for Busy People." "We went to Possum Kingdom for the weekend on our boat. That was fun, especially when Dad got lost on the lake.

"Then Doug started Babe Ruth baseball. We went to all of those games. He made All-Stars. He played Canyon, we won. Went to Muleshoe, we won. Went to Graham, we won. Went to Fort Smith, we lost! Well, you can't win 'em all!"

During Jill Ferrel's vacation in Dallas, she got her sister Debbie enrolled at North Texas State University. "We went to North Park, a shopping center. I wanted a beach towel and we went all over the place looking for one. Then we went down town and found one there. I also bought a ring with my name on it. My brother and his wife live there and his wife is going to have a baby around November 1, 1968. When we got back to the hotel, we went swimming and I learned how to turn a flip off the low board!"

Bradley Carr mixed business and pleasure with his vacation: "For my summer vacation, we went to Six Flags. I enjoyed all the rides. I thought the Spindle Top was best. Then we went to Oklahoma City to get my allergy tests. I'm allergic to milk, chocolate, tomatoes and shrimp, my second favorite food."

Shane Ogden wrote thusly of his vacation: "For my vacation, I went to Jamaica Beach. Jamaica is about 60 miles from Houston on the gulf coast. I went with my brother and my aunt and three cousins. We stayed in a beach house. We stayed one week."

Bill Dingus "went to Colorado and The Gulf of Mexico. At the Gulf of Mexico, I caught an eight-pound Gar and about 17 other fish and seven large crabs. We also went swimming in a lake, well, you couldn't exactly call it swimming... the water was too dirty. We were going to walk across, but my grandmother wouldn't let me."

Sara Riehart's vacation started off with a cold, but she went to Cabot's Ranch in Colorado anyway. "Sunday, mother decided I was well enough to go out. I ran to the stable just in time to see my 15-year-old sister, Laura; John Miller, 16 or 17, and his 12-year-old brother 'Bill,' mount their steeds and ride away toward Stone Wall. Well, I went inside and got a strawberry pop, and went back to the stable."

"By the time, I had drunk half of my soda back came Laura's horse; her windbreaker tucked under the saddle. His bride was gone and so was Laura!"

"I tore toward the lodge. By the time I had broadcast the news and run back to the stable, we saw three figures in the clearing by the road. As they got closer, we saw it was Bill, Laura and John. Laura was seated behind John, a broken bridle dangling from her hand. She reached for my glass, took a drink, and gave it to John who, guzzled the rest of the contents."

"What happened?" he asked.

"Badger got excited so I got off to try to calm him," Laura informed us. "Then he reared, the bridle snapped and he ran off."

"So ends another normal vacation with the Rieharts."

Nancy Gates vacation turned out to be a series of mis-events, according to her theme: "We were going to Denver the day after the rodeo with our friends, the Lyles. But the Lyles' daughter Debbie got bucked off a horse the last night of the rodeo. She broke her leg, too. But we went ahead and went on our vacation, but while we were in Denver, we had a call. My father's mother was in a wreck. She broke her leg, too. Then we went to Colorado Springs and then came home."

"We decided our vacation wasn't meant to be."

Reading all of the themes, it seemed that all of the fifth grade creative writers in Mrs. Little's class had a wonderful summer fishing, camping, and going to Six Flags.

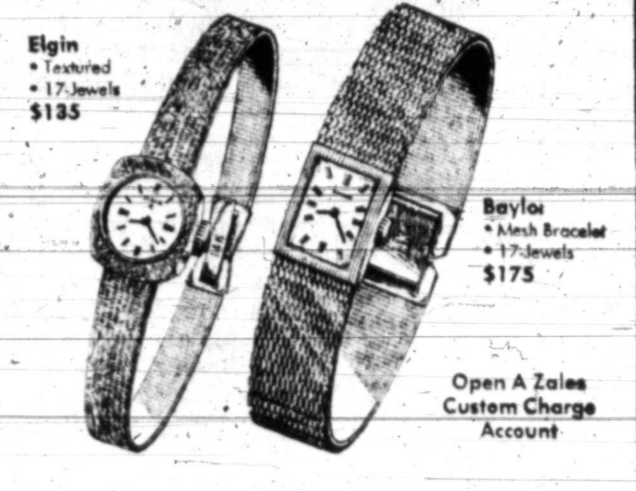

Their assignment this week is

"The Summer Vacation I Would Really Like To Take."

Hostesses Honor Area Resident At Bridal Shower

SKELLYTOWN (Sp1) — Lana Sue Brown, bride-elect of Mark Miller and daughter of Mrs. Clara Brown has been honored with a bridal shower in the Fellowship Hall of the Skellytown First Baptist church.

Mrs. Gary Gortmaker sang two selections "Always" and "I'll Be Loving You," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Edith Beightle.

The honoree and her mother were presented with corsages. Miss Brown was assisted by Joyce Pipes in recording her gifts in the bride's book.

Janet Pipes registered guests from a table appointed with a pale green coverlet with a cream rose bud in an amber cut glass bud vase. The serving table was covered with a white floor-length cloth with an oval of white lace. The centerpiece was a large white mother of pearl horn of plenty with an arrangement of Fall flowers and flanked by white lighted tapers in matching candle holders. The centerpiece and candle holders were made by Mrs. Orma Harlan.

The large white sheet cake was decorated with a border of orange sugar frosting with two wedding rings in each corner of the cake with the names Sue and Mark inscribed in each circle. Carla Sangster served the punch with Miss Pipes serving cake. Hostesses were Meses. Orma Harlan, J.C. Jarvis, A.R. Baker, Gertrude Huckins, Eddie Pannell, K.S. McCabe, Walt Shair, R.S. Mariar, Bill Houghton, Bill Price, Bill Eubanks, Clay Dykes, J.M. Grange, Ola Pierce, Orville Wimsell, Virgie McGee, Clifford Coleman, and Jack Cornwell.

The Pampa Chapter of American Business Women's Association will participate in the official enrollment event, a Membership Tea planned for 2 p.m. today in the Citizens Bank and Trust Co. Hospitality Room.

The 48,000 members of the 800 ABWA chapters in America will be hostesses today for business women interested in participating in ABWA activities. Enrollment events are sponsored nationally twice each year with chapter members presenting programs which emphasize improving employer-employee relations and advancement for business women through service to business and education.

The association's national headquarters is located in Kansas City, Mo., where the first chapter was chartered in 1949. Members emphasize education as an essential need of American society for advancement in business.

Last year, individual chapters awarded scholarships totaling more than $200,000. The Pampa Chapter awarded a scholarship for the past two years to Pam Thomas, who is attending West Texas State University.

Loans and grants-in-aid are also awarded from this National Fund. Members of the association's National Board of Directors are fund trustees. Chapters, including the Pampa chapter, sponsor business and professional speakers at monthly chapter meetings.

Each of the six districts through the United States attend district meetings each Spring. Recognition of outstanding achievement by specific chapters and individual members is given each year in October at the national convention.

Mrs. Eugene Franklin is the Pampa chapter nominee this year. Mrs. Franklin will attend the 1969 national convention in Detroit, Mich., Oct. 17-19.

Mrs. Shirley Nickols is the Pampa chapter's membership chairman, with Mrs. Allen Buske as tea chairman.

Symonds, Felton Webb, Clyde Organ, Lowell Stevens, Barbara Cockrell, Bob Roberts, Lonnie Kenney and Harry Cook. Members will meet again at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 24 at Mrs. Wayne Couch's home.

Dana Shepherd, Charles Stafford Say Vows In Highland Baptist Service

MRS. CHARLES STAFFORD nee Dana Shepherd

Dana Shepherd became the bride of Charles Stafford in a double-ring marriage ceremony in Highland Baptist Church Aug. 30. The Rev. M. B. Smith, Baptist minister, officiated for the evening wedding service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Shepherd, 130 W. Georgia. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Stafford, 627 Sloan.

Given in marriage by her father, with the "her mother and I" avowal, the bride was dressed in a full-length, satin hoop designed gown which was accented with scalloped lace tiers, scalloped neckline and lace sleeves. Her fingertip tulle veil was attached to a white net-covered headband. She carried orchids atop a white Bible for her wedding flowers.

Janet Braden, maid of honor, was dressed in a pink brocade princess dress accented with a bow in front and worn with a pink satin bow headpiece. Her flowers were a double pink and white carnation bouquet. Bridesmaids, Brenda Shaw, Pampa, and Ann Geerdes, Amarillo, were dressed similarly to the maid of honor.

Victor Still, Pampa, was best man. Groomsman were Pat Mitchell and Larry Price, both of Pampa. Ringbearer was Steven Shepherd, the bride's brother. Flower girl was Tina Hardin, Pampa, with Jamie Ledbetter and Melissa Helm, both of Pampa, as candlelighters. Gary Blacett, and Rob Williams, both of Pampa, seated wedding guests.

Mrs. Carroll Goad, organist, played the "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet," "Liebestraum," "Twelfth of Never," and "For Once in My Life." Vocalist was Alvin Adams.

For the candlelight ceremony, white bows marked pews of honor as pink and white gladiolus and carnations decorated the church.

For the reception in the Hospitality Room, a three-tier cake decorated with pink roses was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Kay Foster and Vicky Dunlap assisted at the punch bowl and coffee service. Jane Reynolds served cake as Margaret Braden registered guests.

For the honeymoon trip to New Mexico, the bride traveled in a pink A-line dress with the orchid corsage lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The bride and bridegroom are both 1969 graduates of Pampa High School.

The couple are at home in Canyon where both are attending West Texas State University.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Janet Braden, Brenda Shaw, and Mrs. Archie Hardin.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Opha Webster and Mrs. Allie Caviness, both of Memphis, Tex.

Here is the shirt that made the new wide tie famous. Cassanova collar, tapered torso and French cuffs all spell fashion. It's great for school or partying. For either occasion our young man looks smartly tailored.

Sneeze Season Reign For 17 Million Americans

Kerchoo! In case you haven't noticed it, the sounds of wheezes and sneezes are beginning to be heard all over the country.

The reason; the hay fever season.

It's starting now and will last until the first sustained frost.

The symptoms of hay fever (and other allergies, too) frequently resemble those of the common cold, according to the health insurance institute.

In other words, the hay fever sufferers — find themselves with red, teary eyes, running noses and itchy throats and sometimes, coughs and wheezes.

The cause of all this discomfort is seemingly harmless ragweed pollen in the air. It can travel long distances, from countryside to the heart of a city. In autumn it's at its densest.

Can anything be done about it?

The answer is "yes."

The first thing, of course, is to realize that you've got hay fever and not just a nagging late summer cold. (The hay fever season usually starts in August and stays around until late Fall.)

If there's a question see a doctor. He can tell whether you have a cold, hay fever or, perhaps, some other specific allergy. He can determine this with tests. (There are some 17 million Americans with known allergies.)

Once you've been found to be a victim of hay fever, steps can be taken to minimize its effects or completely avoid them.

Most doctors recommend year-round immunization shots, which have been found effective in about 75 per cent of the cases.

Hay fever sufferers can help themselves, too. Here are several ways to avoid coming in contact with pollen.

Hay fever and Asthma victims now rank fourth among those in the country with chronic diseases, right behind heart disease, arthritis and rheumatism. Among children, allergies are now the number one chronic disease.

The ramifications of these ailments are great, in terms of health. Hay fever can lead to asthmatic conditions, and in some cases asthma has been a complication causing death.

No wonder Americans spend more than $50 million on hay fever shots, antihistamines and other drugs for relief.

POLLY'S POINTERS
Brush Or Spray Gun
Used To Paint Wicker.
By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — It was a problem keeping my kitchen counters neat and clear. There always seemed to be something on them — dirty dishes, a pan soaking or meat that was defrosting. I solved this by setting that soaking pan in the oven and taping a note on the detergent bottle to remind me to wash it. Defrosting meat is also put in the oven with a paper plate under it to catch drips. Between meals, dirty dishes are rinsed and put under the counter in a plastic dish pan until time to wash dishes. The result is there is never anything on the counter but the cooky jar and canisters.

—M.M.

DEAR POLLY — F.M. may find that removing the paint from two wicker chairs is a trying task and not worth the time and effort. I have painted wicker chairs with a spray gun and with a brush and find both ways are satisfactory. When painting, use one with short bristles so that the paint can be "dabbed" in the depressions in the wicker. An inexpensive brush will do.

—LOU

DEAR POLLY — I suggest that F.M. forget about restoring wicker chairs to their natural state. It would be an endless task and if the wicker is old it will break. They must be handled with care. I know for I have just refinished one in a pretty high gloss enamel.

AFTER TWO YEARS

Beulah Makes Cities More Modern, Never

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Two years ago Saturday, the lower Rio Grande Valley had an uninvited, unwanted, unwelcome visitor. She stayed only a few hours but she left an unbelievable mess that cost $1 billion to clean up. Her name was Beulah. South Texas residents knew she was coming. They sat in their homes waiting, tuned in for any news of the big blow. By midnight, gale winds were screaming under the eaves blowing out windows. It was on ya, whisper of what was to follow. At 2:19 a.m., the U.S. Weather Bureau wind gauge at Brownsville registered 109 miles an hour. Then the gauge tilted and no one knew for sure what the power of the wind was.

V.C. Said Ready To Fight 'Protected War'

By BERT W. OKULEY SAIGON (UPI)—Official U.S. military sources said Saturday North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces appear ready to fight a "protracted war" relying on shelling and small unit attacks to conserve manpower. Hanoi was reported planning a winter-spring campaign to maintain the pressure. In the war, 64 persons were killed in the in-flight collision of a U.S. Air Force F4 Phantom jet fighter-bomber and an Air Vietnam passenger plane over Da Nang air base. There were no Americans among the crash victims. The U.S. Command reported the loss of two light observation helicopters to ground fire in the Saigon area. One American was reported killed and seven wounded in a round of 21 Communist shelling attacks during the 24-hour period ended at 8 a.m. Saturday. Elsewhere, North Vietnamese troops using hand grenades Friday attacked a U.S. Marine position four miles south of the Demilitarized Zone, killing one American and wounding eight. Sources outlining Hanoi's military plans said there is no indication of a general Communist withdrawal from South Vietnamese battlegrounds and reported that infiltration this year should remain at 1967-68 levels. Communist infiltration into the South so far this year was estimated at 100,000 men. Intelligence information shows the Communists have the capability to mount an attack with three divisions along the DMZ where they have positioned about 30,000 men. It appeared likely that a 4,500-man brigade from the U.S. 101st Airborne Division could be moved north from the Da Nang-Hue area to join the 1st South Vietnamese Infantry Division in the DMZ area.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—NBC-TV will try today to woo back Debbie Reynolds, who quit her new series Wednesday because cigarettes were advertised on the premier of her show. A network statement said NBC-TV "hopes to work this out." In Hollywood, a spokesman for the network said, "It will be worked out. It's only a matter of time." Miss Reynolds, however, was reported seething after the cigarette advertising on her debut Tuesday night. She claims she negotiated a no-cigarette commercial contract. But NBC-TV says otherwise, adding it is surprised and "mystified." The conflict centers simply around the fact that American Brands, one of the show's sponsors, sells various products including tobacco. And the split seems to stem from different interpretations over whether cigarettes were to be what American Brands advertised specifically on the series. Miss Reynolds feels cigarette commercials are "directly opposed to health and well-being." In any case, NBC-TV clearly doesn't want to lose her. She is an important and integral part of the network's new season—and a hot property. Her debut got a whopping overnight rating. Several months worth of shows are already done. But the network also feels strongly about its dignity, pride and method of operation. If and when she returns, Miss Reynolds figures to gain in popularity for her anti-cigarette stand. Besides the publicity, there is the enhancement of her image as the all-American girl next door.

Inter-Union Picket Line Results In Death

LORDSTOWN, Ohio (UPI)—A worker was shot to death Saturday in an inter-union picket line fight involving 200 men at a General Motors Corp. plant under construction in this small community in northern Ohio. The Trumbull County sheriff's office said the shooting erupted a series of disturbances which began Monday with a fist fight between a laborer and a carpenter. Labor contract and jurisdictional issues were not involved in the disturbances, the sheriff's office said. The dead man was identified as John Sawaska, 36, Hubbard, Ohio, a member of the ironworkers union. Three men were taken in custody by sheriff's deputies for questioning. The fighting began when about 100 members of craft unions attempted to cross a picket line set up by about 100 members of Local 935, Laborers Union. Several shots were fired, and several automobiles in a parking lot were upset and set afire. Rocks and bottles were thrown.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Here's your horoscope for the last half of September:

Capricorn (Dec. 21-Jan. 19) — A good time to start planning next summer's vacation to avoid the botch you made of last summer's vacation. Inflation will continue to eat up the extra money you make selling salt water taffy. Avoid crooked chimneys.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Don't believe anything your bank president tells you during this period. If you are invited to swim the English Channel, decline. This should be a good time to replace the ink barrel in your ballpoint pen. Chance to another color.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) — An ideal time for writing pornographic poems of three or more stanzas. Beware of getting your thumb caught in a belt loop. You will be offered a good bargain in salt water taffy. You will be offered loss of confidence in your ability to sink the four-ball in the corner pocket.

Aries (March 21-April 20) — You will feel frustrated because you are unable to see the aurora borealis from your front porch. Your bowling shoes will come untied in the fifth frame. This is a good period in which to mail postcards. Don't try any new recipes for banana pudding.

Taurus (April 21-May 20) — Your life will be influenced by a small brown bear with long toenails. If you try to climb anything, you will need a longer ladder. Avoid putting your head in a knapsack for the duration of September.
