POSSE SEEKS STRANGER AT CROW FIELD

KATHRYN CLINE, 7, IS BEATEN TO DEATH AT BARN

DRUMRIGHT, Okla., April 8. (AP)—Gay Williams, 29 years old and mentally deficient, has been arrested and has confessed he beat Kathryn Cline, 7-year-old daughter of a Crow oil field worker to death with a large rock "because she wanted to go to her dead mother." Chief of Police Jack Ary said today.

Williams was arrested at his home, a short distance from a barn in which the girl's body was found. He confessed killing the girl, Chief Ary said, immediately after his arrest.

A large rock was found near the body. It was covered with blood, the chief added.

"The girl came to me and asked me to kill her so she could visit her dead mother," Williams was quoted by Chief Ary as saying. "I hit her with the rock."

Williams was taken to the Drumright city jail. He will be moved to the county jail this afternoon, Ary said.

A large crowd gathered around the city jail a short time after his arrest but the chief said he did not participate "any trouble."

DRUMRIGHT, Okla., April 8. (AP)—Kathryn Cline, 7-year-old daughter of a Crow oil field worker, was kidnaped and beaten to death with a blunt instrument early today, officers said.

Her body, the head crushed was found in a barn a half mile from her home by neighbors and officers who started a search for her when she was reported missing from her home for more than an hour.

A posse of citizens and county officers started a hunt for a stranger after the girl's body was found. Doctors, meanwhile, were making a complete examination.

Deputy Sheriff Vergil de Shan said the girl had gone early to the home of a neighbor about a quarter of a mile from her own dwelling, leaving the neighbor's house at 8:15 a. m. Her mother, Mrs. A. C. Cline, became worried when the girl failed to appear in time to go to school.

The body was found just as her father, an employee of the Prairie Oil company, arrived home to join in the search.

De Shan said the girl apparently died immediately after she was hit. No weapon was found in the barn, a deserted building on an oil lease.

Crow is a small oil community five miles north of Drumright. Police Chief Jack Ary, Drumright and De Shan were leading the search for the slayer.

Luster Cook, assistant county attorney, took a doctor to the barn to make a more complete examination of the girl.

Whisky Stores Much Increased

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—America started 1935 with less than 2,150,000 gallons of unsold four-year-old whisky, though millions of gallons were stored for aging during 1934.

Sworn statements on the alcohol control administration on 1934 production showed stocks in the hands of distillers increased 65,000,000 gallons to 99,116,437 gallons during the year.

Whisky production amounted to 108,031,325 gallons with more than 60,000,000 of this in the distillers' custody at the end of the year for aging.

Soviet Children Can Be Executed

MOSCOW, April 8 (AP)—Three more executions of Moscow war orphans announced today, making a total of 54 carried out in Russia since the present anti-crime drive was started as the government decreed full penalties of law against any criminal down to 12 years of age.

The decree provides that even children above 12, who are charged with crime, shall be tried in regular courts and that penalties including death shall be found against them if they are guilty.

The three persons executed today were part of a gang of robbers and one was the son of a policeman.

Federal Funds to Keep Schools Open

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—It is expected that 45,000 public schools, which faced closing because of insufficient funds to pay their teachers, will be kept open this spring with money provided under the $4,880,000,000 public works measure.

While the amendment providing $40,000,000 specifically for that purpose was thrown out in conference between senate and house, Representative Buchanan of Texas, chairman of the house appropriations committee, saw assurance that the schools will be taken care of under the $300,000,000 fund roughly earmarked for "professional and white collar" relief.

REGENT IS APPOINTED

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred today named J. H. Powell of Navasota to succeed the late Ward Templeman on the board of regents on state teachers colleges. Powell's term would expire in January, 1939.

Nazi Union Drive Falls Short by 17,594 Votes

FINAL COUNT AT DANZIG IS MADE KNOWN

HITLERITES POLL 59.1 PER CENT—NEEDED TWO-THIRDS

BY MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER Associated Press Foreign Staff (Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, April 8.—The Nazis failed by 17,594 votes yesterday to create a dictatorship in this free city in their drive to unite it with Germany.

Final official figures in the election of the volkstag, or parliament, showed that they polled only 59.1 per cent of the votes instead of the 66.7 per cent needed to gain control of the legislature.

This percentage figure is an official revision of the original announcement that the nazis had scored 59.9 of the votes and it increases the percentages polled by Catholics, Poles, and socialists.

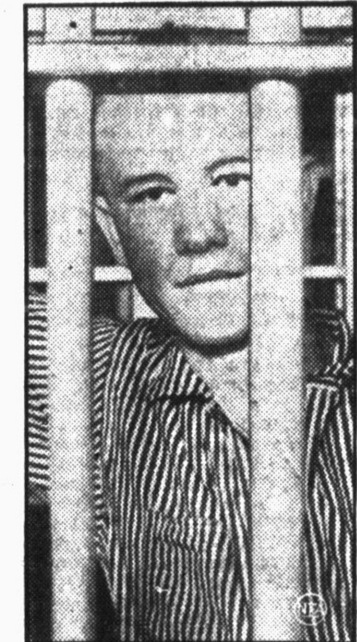

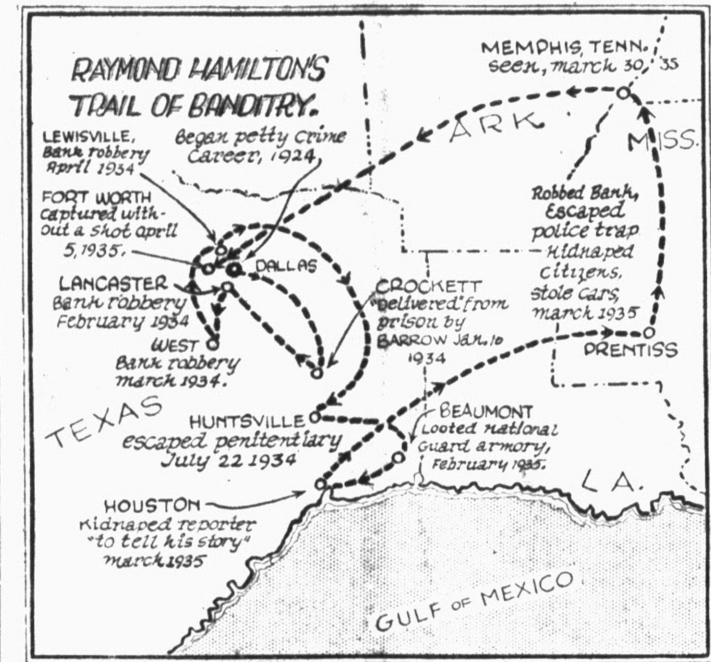

The final count:

Table with 2 columns: Party and Votes. Includes Nazis (139,943), Socialists (38,015), Communists (7,990), Center (Catholic) (31,525), German Nationalists (9,691), Front Fighters (382), Poles (8,310).

Total 234,956 The delay in publishing the official figures was explained by officials as due to errors in a number of districts, necessitating a re-check.

Socialists complained today that they were manhandled before the elections and that 60 beatings were administered by the socialist party members at Zoppot.

Hamilton Again Is Awaiting Death, His Long Flight Away From Law Being Ended

His spectacular flight across the four-state area shown on the map ended, Raymond Hamilton, 22, right, again is back of prison bars and once more will await the march to the electric chair behind the scarred brick walls of Huntsville, state prison, shown below. Over this wall Hamilton and two other convicts escaped in July, 1934, the engineer of the break being slain by a guard shooting from the tower shown at the far left. Hamilton, recaptured in Fort Worth, already was facing 362 years in prison when he was sentenced to death for murder of a prison farm guard in another escape January, 1934.

Insanity Expert Says Hamlin Knew Right and Wrong

AMARILLO, April 8. (AP)—An attack upon the insanity plea of George S. Hamlin, who is on trial for the hammer slaying of his wife here January 4, was continued by state prosecutors today as the trial entered its fifth week.

Dr. A. T. Hanratty, director of clinical psychiatry at the state hospital for insane, Wichita Falls, answered in two words a question which required E. A. Simpson, special prosecutor, 51 minutes to state.

The question outlined the purported history of the Hamlin and asked: Did Hamlin, assuming that certain stated conditions existed, have mind enough to know the difference between right and wrong when he struck and killed his wife? "He did," answered Dr. Hanratty.

The lengthy question was one asked by state's counsel. Another question was asked by E. T. Miller, Hamlin's attorney, sought to attack the witness' qualifications as a psychiatrist.

Too Many Deaths From Accidents, So Parade Is Held

DALLAS, April 8. (AP)—Forty four traffic deaths in Dallas county since the first of the year caused a parade to be held here today.

In it were ambulances, a hearse, wreckers and motorcycle policemen. Fifteen floats participated. One showed death turning its back upon a tuberculosis sanatorium and gleefully contemplating a countryside dotted with automobile accidents.

Another carried a cocktail glass nine feet tall and brimming with liquor. Still another carried a miniature graveyard.

Jail Sentence Of Producer Valid

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—A 90-day jail sentence imposed on N. S. Leche, a Gregg county, Texas, oil producer, after he had been ruled in contempt of the federal district court for Eastern Texas was in effect upheld today by the supreme court.

If refused to review a decision by the fifth circuit court of appeals approving the conviction.

The sentence was imposed on a finding that he had refused to obey a court order restricting his production of oil pending a final decision of a complaint by the United States charging him with production in excess of his quota.

LATE NEWS

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8. (AP)—Gene Sarazen's flawless golf turned the Augusta national invitation tournament's 36-hole playoff into a rout today.

Dr. A. T. Hanratty, director of clinical psychiatry at the state hospital for insane, Wichita Falls, answered in two words a question which required E. A. Simpson, special prosecutor, 51 minutes to state.

Another question was asked by E. T. Miller, Hamlin's attorney, sought to attack the witness' qualifications as a psychiatrist.

CREATION OF GAS PIPELINE AGENCY IS DECLARED LEGAL

HEARING ON PROPOSAL TO PIPE FUEL TO DETROIT TO BE HELD THIS EVENING.

AUSTIN, April 8. (AP)—The attorney general's department informed State Tax Commissioner R. B. Anderson today that a bill authorizing creation of a state agency to operate a gas pipeline line would be constitutional.

A hearing on the bill, advocated by Governor James V. Allred to make possible the building of a pipeline from the Texas Panhandle to St. Louis and Detroit, had been for tonight.

Scott Gaines, first assistant attorney general, said the legislature had power to pass all laws necessary to the conservation and development of the state's natural resources and to create public corporations not specifically prohibited by the constitution.

HOUSTON, April 8. (AP)—Approximately 1,100 persons had passed through the gates of Sam Houston hall at noon to see the elaborate display of oil tools and other equipment exhibited in booths at the International Petroleum show, which opened today to continue through Saturday.

Foreign oil men from many remote spots of the world where petroleum is a factor had registered, in addition to hundreds of executives and engineers from 17 states of the union.

Merchants Invited To Make Trip To Skellytown Lunch

Pampa merchants are invited and urged to accompany the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce members on their trip to the Skelly Schaeffer gasoline plant tomorrow noon.

The trippers will leave from the corner of Kingsmill and Frost streets promptly at 11:50 o'clock.

A Dutch lunch will be served in the camp dining room, after which an interesting discussion on the manufacture of castorhead gasoline will be conducted. A trip will be made through the plant if time permits.

The trip will be made through efforts of the inter-community relations committee, of which Charlie Maize is chairman.

He believes that local merchants will be glad to go with the Jaycees on several such trips.

INDEPENDENTS IRED

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—A group of independent moving picture theater owners protested to senate investigators today they had been treated as "outcasts" during drafting of NRA's motion picture code and contended its administration was dominated by the big picture producers.

The STORY of EASTER

In the thirty-third year of His life on earth, knowing that His days of public ministry were numbered, Jesus turned toward Jerusalem for His final, triumphant entry into the Holy City. He went first to Bethany, where, with Mary, Martha, and their brother Lazarus, He was to stay during the last week of His mortal life. Jesus trained His disciples to carry forward His work after His departure from them. Meanwhile, among the multitudes streaming toward Jerusalem for the annual Paschal celebration, the outstanding question was, would He, who had recently climaxed many miracles by raising Lazarus from the dead, come to the Feast? And in the Holy City itself, the rulers, fearing that Jesus' power over the people would bring about a revolt against the Roman power, and consequent ruin to Jerusalem and its Temple, plotted His death.

NEXT: Multitude pays homage to Jesus in Jerusalem.

Fines Result as Licenses Missing

A few Panhandle residents have tried to drive their cars with 1934 license tags attached, but the practice has been costly in a number of instances. R. H. Routh, state highway patrolman, in accordance with the law, has arrested all violators he saw.

A fine of $14 and 20 per cent penalty on the 1935 tags resulted in each case where motorists were caught driving cars or trucks bearing 1935 license plates.

No penalty will be assessed where an affidavit is made to prove that a car or truck has not been driven after April 1, bearing 1934 tags.

KILLS A SUSPECT

CHICAGO, April 8. (AP)—Her tavern robbed, Mrs. Mary Boska, 40, stalked the man she suspected to a car or truck had not been driven today. A second shot from the angry woman's revolver wounded John Jarecki, 20, one of the men who went along with her in her bandit-hunting expedition. But her first shot killed the suspected burglar, George Pisoda, 44.

JOHN GARNER AT 65

When a man passes 60, look for him to start reminiscing. It becomes a habit at that age to look backward. If he has been prominent, especially a public man, the autobiography shows up about that time. Ordinarily that is poor reading because it is more subjective than objective; that is to say, too much "I".

No so John Garner. At three score and five he lives as freshly in the present as on that day thirty years ago when he made his Washington debut. John was interviewed yesterday by Edward J. Neil, Washington newspaperman, and among the characteristic Garnerisms in the yarn were these:

When he goes to the major league baseball games "I always take two republicans and one democrat along, so that if any votes come up while we are away we democrats have got a little the best of it." The vice-president, you see, does not vote except in event of a tie.

A friend wanted a job for a mutual friend, but wanted John to fix it up so the government stipend might be increased to a point where the job-hunter would not have to make a "personal sacrifice". John replied: "You go back and you find a fellow with a little patriotism, that's what we need today as much as brains or anything else. Find some one who thinks his country is more important than the difference between his salary in private life and what the government can pay him. And if you can't find him, then this country really is in a hell of a fix."

As long as John continues to avow a passion for baseball, fishing and draw poker, look for no autobiography from the vice-president of these United States. Besides, he is not—as interviewer Neil informs us—"past 70 now," unless he is fibbing about his age. In his Who's Who biography, very short, he has been saying for years that he was born in Red River county, Texas, November 22, 1869.—Abilene News.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—You won't find anything about it in the administration's new NRA bill, but there'll be no return to one-man rule in the NRA of the future.

Unless the Senate makes an amendment, the form of administration will be left to Roosevelt.

The president and Donald Richberg have discussed the question frequently. They agreed that a gent like General Johnson could get things done a lot faster than a board like the present NIRA.

But they also agreed that no sane, high-grade man would ever take such a job again and that, even if he did, the thousands of inevitable pressures on him would soon knock him off balance.

The chairman of a board can always pass the buck to the full board when a few billion dollars' worth of industry lands on his neck. That's why the revised NRA will be governed by the board—though the supreme NRA power will continue to rest with Roosevelt.

Chairman Burt Wheeler of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee was started the day he received more than 3,000 letters, nearly all protesting against the Wheeler-Rayburn holding company bill. Then his clerks began to find among them letters such as the following from Harrisburg, Pa.:

"Dear Sir: Please find enclosed printed matter which is given to all employees of the Pennsylvania Power & Light Co.; also a card which they are ask to have signed by four voters.

"They are also asking all employees to write a letter to each senator and representative on the committees on interstate commerce. This is a total of 50 letters each man must write.

"Then he must bring them all to the Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. office to be checked. These men resent this very much, but they know they had better do as asked or their jobs will be in danger. I mention this to you so that when you get a flood of letters you will know how and why you received them."

Female wrath wrecked the lobbyist-inspired rider to the agriculture appropriation bill which threatened to prevent the Bureau of Home Economics from tipping off the citizenry to healthy diets.

The House passed the rider at behest of a lobbyist for flour millers who had persuaded wheat state congressmen that reduced consumption of wheat had been urged.

Evidence indicated the effect of the diets attacked would really be to increase wheat consumption, but had been used to build up the lobby.

Women's organizations protested so furiously that the big millers themselves—remembering that women are their customers—rushed word here that the rider must be killed.

The American Association of University Women, American Home Economics Association, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, National League of Women Voters, and National Woman's Trade Union League led the fight.

About this time, the average office boy is wondering if the boss remembers whose funeral he attended a year ago.

"Every day we discover a new word," says a famous compiler of dictionaries. When Hugh Johnson broadcasts, 10 or 15.

Americans enter hospitals at the rate of one every 4.42 seconds. During the sunburn season, the average is raised by back slappers.

At the time of 1932's solar eclipse, it has been revealed, chickens went to roost, crickets chirped, and dogs howled. Also, nightwatchmen yawned.

Hex have been sighted in Arizona mountains. If you are puzzled, it's a four-letter word meaning Asian goat.

It'll be President Roosevelt's luck that just when a couple of fat specimens start nudging the bait, some Kingfish will start a filibuster.

Hoover's prediction that grass will grow on the streets may come true yet, if these dust storms continue.

Samuel Insull's trials didn't seem to have been much of a trial to him, after all.

CAPITOL CHATTER

— BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, April 8. (AP) — Stirring of political undercurrents, even in this off-year, is noticed as the trees on capitol hill begin to bud and the grass takes on a green hue.

It may be that most political campaigns are conceived and set in motion in the spring or that spring-like weather turns a statesman's thoughts to his political fences and a survey of the possibilities.

Many rumors and speculations enter the politicians' discussions during leisure moments.

Such wondering as the following are floating about:

Will Governor Alford seek a second term or election to the United States senate to succeed Morris Sheppard, Texas' senior senator?

If Alford decided to try to step up a rung of the political ladder would Coke R. Stevenson, speaker of the house, seek the governorship or try first for the attorney general's office?

Would Bill McCraw throw his hat into the gubernatorial campaign if Alford stepped out and what would be Walter Wood's attitude toward moving from the office of lieutenant governor to that of governor?

There are three persistent reports that Tom F. Hunter, runner-up in the last democratic primary, has not cast aside all thought of things political and is awaiting another opportunity. Hunter's attitude, his friends state, will depend largely on events during the next 12 months. Whether he would campaign against Alford for second term his friends were unable to say.

Some of Stevenson's intimates do not believe he would seek the governorship and several doubt if the attractions of the attorney general's office would be sufficient to interest him in a state-wide campaign. It was pointed out that Stevenson's residence, Junction, placed him under a geographical handicap. It is in the sparsely populated ranch country and sufficiently removed from centers of population to be a political drawback in a state-wide race.

It is extremely doubtful whether Stevenson would undertake to establish another record by seeking election to a third successive term as speaker of the house. In fact, he would not have sought re-election as speaker of the 44th legislature had it not been for the urgings of his colleagues.

The story is that Stevenson was greatly surprised when a petition signed by more than 100 members of the 43rd legislature, requesting him to run again, was presented. He is unwilling, friends say, to go through another bitter fight for the office.

There also is some speculation over the political ambitions of Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas railroad commission. Thompson comes up for re-election next year. It would not surprise some observers to see him enter the gubernatorial race should Alford seek another office.

POLITICS at Random

By BYRON PRICE (Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

What are the republicans thinking about the country thinking today? That is a prime political question, for several reasons.

The republican leaders very much want to know, for the natural reason that they want guidance for 1936. The democratic leaders are interested for the unusual reason that Mr. Roosevelt had important republican support in 1932, and apparently counts on having it again next year.

There is no intention to answer the question in these columns. What is presented below may or may not be representative of republican thought generally. It consists of excerpts from letters received recently from various republicans, and it is interesting for its variety and for its many expressions of uncertainty.

'New Deal Not Popular'

From a westerner who held high office under a former administration: "There is an undercurrent among republicans that the next republican candidate for President should be a safe and sane compromise between the old-fashioned standpat and the extreme liberal of the Borah or Norris type. The new deal does not seem to be very popular in this state. . . However, it is too soon to assume that president Roosevelt has lost the major part of his following here."

From a mid-western defeated nominee for governor: "It is my opinion that in the last two or three months especially the thinking people have become far more conservative, while those at the other extreme have drifted far away from Roosevelt and have become more radical as followers of men like Long and Coughlin. To some extent the same situation can be found in the republican party. Most republicans in the state believe the republican party must not attempt any cheap imitation of the new deal; that it must be the conservative party."

'Awful Mess Brewing'

From a far western former congressman: "It is clear that an awful mess is brewing. Roosevelt is losing ground rapidly."

From a northwestern editor: "The 1936 republican presidential candidate must be of the Nye-Norris type of mind to carry this state. He need not be a Roosevelt, for the state as a whole undoubtedly thinks less of Roosevelt today than it did even a year ago. On the other hand, many feel the very food they are eating comes from Roosevelt."

From another northwestern editor: "Since last year's congressional election, when the republicans made such a pitiful showing, nothing has been done by the organization leaders (in this state), so far as I know, to arouse the lethargy or quicken the spirit of their followers. One particularly discouraging feature is the fact that many former republicans have registered as democrats in the hope of being permitted to benefit in some manner from the relief funds."

'Leadership Lacking'

From a west coast business man: "The republicans, so far as I can find out, are doing nothing in this state. There is a general feeling that the party should have a more liberal, progressive and aggressive leadership, but I cannot see that anybody is developing this."

From another northwestern editor: "My guess is that unless the progressively inclined voters are alienated by the Roosevelt leadership, the alignment will continue about as it is. The government has gone along in some ways very definitely with the president and, while in other ways he is conservative, his identification with the Roosevelt administration was enough to put him over again."

Finally, from a once highly prominent old guard senator: "I am entirely out of politics and have not even attended a meeting for a year."

Crime Shrinks in Reich

BERLIN (AP) — New figures showing 439,269 criminal offenses in 1932 and 361,211 in Germany in 1933 are called "a clear indication of the decline of criminality since national socialism came to power."

Craig Wood and Sarazen In Final Match for First Money in Augusta Golf

Old Matters Deadlocked With 282's; Bobbie Jones Has Little Former Skill.

BY KENNETH GREGORY, Associated Press Sports Writer. AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8 (AP)—The 32-year-old veterans of the golfing wars—blondie Craig Wood of Deal, N. J., and stocky Gene Sarazen of Brookfield Center, Conn.—squared off today in a 36-hole match for first place money in the $5,000 Augusta national invitation tournament.

As a climax to 72 holes of spectacular shot-making that gave par a terrific pelting yesterday, Wood and Sarazen put on a sterling exhibition to reach the finish line deadlocked with totals of 282, six strokes under perfect figures.

With $1,500 awaiting the winner and $800 for the loser, the lanky "blonde beller" and little Gene were expected to put on a real show as a witness to a great week-end of superb blasting.

In cold bleak weather and over a soggy course, Sarazen reached the 15th tee yesterday apparently out of the picture with below par golf needed to overtake Wood, who had finished ahead of him with a two stroke advantage.

Gene lashed out a beautiful drive, the ball stopping on the edge of a divot. He reached for his favorite club, a No. 4 wood. There was a sharp crack and the ball landed just short of the green, bounded twice and as though the cup were a magnet, tricked in for a "double eagle."

Little Gene smiled broadly and said: "That was the greatest shot I have ever made. Sure, I was surprised to see it roll so straight to the cup."

The amazing two on the par five hole was the most spectacular shot of the tournament.

It put the diminutive sharpshooter on even terms with Wood and gave him a chance to win if he could get a birdie on one of the three remaining holes, but he had to be content with par and came in even with the Deal deman.

Sarazen took off on his final round three strokes behind Wood, who had led at the three-quarter mark but picked up all of them by firing a 70, two under par, while Craig wound up with a 73.

Meanwhile the score board told a story of faltering favorites and near-favorites. Far down the list was Robert Tyre Jones Jr., the renowned champion of the world who retired in 1930.

Jones showed no signs of his old-time skill. He was extremely erratic in putting and lacked confidence, finishing the final round with a poor 76, leaving him in a couple places behind the rest, compared to his finish in 13th position last year at 294.

After a disappointing 9-hole score of 42, six over par, Olin Dutra of Los Angeles, national champion, who was only a stroke behind Sarazen at the start of the last round, recovered his form on the incoming 9 to card a 32, to complete his play with a total of 284 and third place money.

Cracking under the strain after setting a dizzy place for two rounds, Henry Plant of Haverhill, Pa., faltered with a 76 for a 288 and fourth money, coming in just in front of Denny Shute of Philadelphia, who wound up with 287.

W. Lawson Little Jr. of San Francisco, American and British amateur champion, collected 6 birdies for a par 72, giving him a 72-hole total of 288 and honors among the simon-pure contestants, as well as sixth place among the all-stars.

Rubber Factories Facing Troubles

AKRON, O., April 8. (AP)—The unions and the rubber companies squared away today for a bitter struggle, which appeared certain to begin before the week is over.

While the huge plants operated at high speed, union leaders mapped picket lines, planned flying squadrons, food supplies and the enlistment of volunteers in the impending struggle. The companies, too, have been preparing.

"The fight is here, it's either us or them," said Coleman C. Claherty, president of the United Rubber Workers of America.

In Washington, William Green, president of the American Federation of labor, put the responsibility for the threatened strike, which he called "imminent," on the companies.

The union is asking agreements calling for a 30-hour week, recognition for collective bargaining and the withdrawal of company financial support from so-called "company unions."

Skeet Shooters Will Help Open Amarillo Course

J. O. Holland and D. L. McDonaid of the Amarillo Skeet club were in Pampa yesterday to invite 10 local skeet shooters to Amarillo on April 21, when the Amarillo club will officially open its course. John McCubbbin of the Peters Ammunition company of Dallas was also a visitor at the local range yesterday.

Shorty Hoffman led the local shooters when he broke 23 out of a possible 25 pigeons. Other high scores were Chastain 22; Perkins 21; Boyles 21; Rogers 21; Caldwell 20, and Billy Davis, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel B. Davis, 19.

There will be shooting over the range, half a mile east of Pampa on Highway 60, on Wednesday afternoon.

HARVESTERS IN ANOTHER GRID PRACTICE NOW

ONLY TWO ABSENT IN TRACK TRAINING WORK

Football uniforms were to be issued this afternoon to Harvester prospects who did not place in the district track and field meet here Friday afternoon. Coach Odus Mitchell posted the announcement on the school bulletin board this morning.

Only J. R. Green and Bob Drake will be absent from the football practices. They will go to the regional meet with the rest of the Harvester think-tanks. Coach Mitchell can take all the men that qualified in the district meet, or different entrants to replace them, and enter each man in five events.

The regional meet will be April 19 and 20 in Canyon. Coach Mitchell will spend the next two weeks training his think-tanks down to mid-season form. He will work particularly hard with the sprinters, hurdlers and jumpers who failed to show up to expectations in the district meet here Friday.

Although the Harvesters won first place, they failed to show winners in the 100-yard dash, high jump, broad jump, low hurdles, high hurdles and the mile, and had to be satisfied with a fourth place in the pole vault.

Flying Boat to Map Course to Hawaiian Isles

ALAMEDA, Calif., April 8. (AP)—An up and down, zig-zag flight, which to mariners below may look like the maneuvering of an airplane on a jag, was the description given today of the proposed exploratory cruise by the Pan-American clipper from California to Hawaii.

Despite the seeming erratic course which the huge plane will fly, a company official explained, it will not be a case of aerial jitters or contempt of the great 2,400-mile ocean span, which has claimed so many lives. Instead it will be "a careful and conservative preliminary to the inauguration of commercial flying between the United States and the Orient."

The determine the eventual route of the projected service—the world's longest all-water itinerary—a lane about 200 miles wide is to be studied. This means the 19-ton flying boat and its crew of six will swing back and forth across that width and change altitude as often as desired. It will fly from near the surface to as high as 20,000 feet. If a cloud interests the practiced eyes of the aerial explorers they will detour to observe it. Wind and air currents and other meteorological characteristics will be studied.

RAIN DURING TRAINING SEASON BOTHERS STABLES

BY ORLO ROBERTSON, Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—E. R. Bradley will go after his first victory in the Kentucky Derby May 4 with his best three-year-old in the barns.

At least on the basis of two-year-old form, Balladier, which the turf sage of Idle Hour did not name for the Derby, outranks both of Bradley's Derby favorites, Boxthorn and Big Gawn. None of his Black Helens, winner of seven straight races as a juvenile and victor in the Florida Derby, nominated, largely because Bradley has no great fancy for fillies in the event he last won in 1933.

Balladier was rated an outstanding juvenile last year but after hanging up a new track record in winning the Champagne stakes at Belmont Park he developed faulty underpinning.

As a result, the son of Black Toney will be given more time to get into condition this year. His first big race probably will be in the Belmont stakes.

It is never safe to count Bradley out of the Derby, however, and in Boxthorn he has a colt that ran some good races as a two-year-old. He was first in two of his eight starts and finished in the money in two others to earn a total of $7,950.

"We have a chance," said Dick Thompson, Bradley trainer. "Our two eligibles are training well, but I don't know any more about them than I did last fall. It has rained so much we haven't had a good chance yet to see what they can do."

At least a half dozen other colts rate considerable chances in the Derby this year, although they are classed strictly as outsiders. Heading this group is E. D. Shaffer's St. Bernard, winner of the Bashford Manor stakes and second in the Arlington future last year. The other three are Toulet, Shouse's Weston, knocked down from 200 to 1 to 20 to 1 in the future books. He won two of his three starts last year, but later was forced into retirement by knee trouble.

Magnus, from Dewit Page's farm, also has given more consideration in the Florida Derby books as a result of his second to Black Helen in the Florida Derby and his victory in the Derby consolation at Tropical Park.

On the list to train, William Woodard also has a likely prospect in Sir Beverly while H. C. McGhee's Purple Knight, winner of his last two races in Florida, and Elwood Sackensmaier's Roman Soldier, third in the Florida Derby, also are being pointed for the Derby.

Ludendorff and Hitler May End Lengthy Coolness

BERLIN, April 8 (AP)—Whether Reichsfuehrer Hitler will go to Tuzing in Bavaria tomorrow for the celebrations marking the 70th birthday of General Erich Ludendorff was a question many a German asked today.

Announcement of plans for the ceremonies honoring the veteran World war strategist, who only recently has been restored to official favor, gave impetus to the speculation. The reach press has been ordered to publish only favorable accounts of the day's events. The reichswehr has received instructions to hold parties and give out medals in honor of the old quartermaster general of Kaiser Wilhelm's armies.

Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm has been designated by General Werner von Blomberg, minister of defense, to convey the reichswehr's greetings to Ludendorff. In many quarters it is forecast he will be given the title of field marshal-general as a birthday present.

If der fuehrer does appear in person, the gesture will signify that someone has done yeoman service in patching up the decade-old differences between the two former political comrades.

Hitler and Ludendorff marched side by side during the ill-fated beer cellar putsch of 1923. They faced court together afterward, Hitler being convicted and sentenced to jail and Ludendorff winning acquittal.

The cooling of their friendship came some time later. Ludendorff, bitterly anti-Catholic, wanted a plank inserted in the Nazi platform declaring war on the Catholic church, but the Nazi leader refused.

MUST SERVE SENTENCE JACKSON, Miss., April 8. (AP)—The Mississippi supreme court today affirmed the life sentence of Dr. Sara Ruth Dean, Greenwood child specialist, for the alleged poison slaying of her one-time clinical associate, Dr. John P. Kennedy.

Dallas Woman Killed at Party
PORT WORTH, April 8. (AP)—James Elmer Parsons, 23, who told officers that he killed his "girl friend," Mrs. Mildred Eva McAdams, 21, after a drinking party early Sunday, was held in city jail today awaiting the filing of charges.

Parsons' friend, Raymond Fieldhouse, 21, remained in City-County hospital suffering from cuts and bruises and possible concussion of the brain. He was beaten by Parsons.

In a statement to officers, Parsons related that he struck the woman by accident while swinging the handle of an automobile jack with the intention of hitting Fieldhouse.

He said he became jealous when Fieldhouse and Mrs. McAdams got into the back seat of Parsons' automobile.

BRIEFS FROM TRAINING CAMPS

By The Associated Press. MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 8.—With the National league season only 8 days away, the New York Giants' crimples are showing signs of recovery. Mel Ott's sore foot no longer troubles him; Joe Moore's charley horse has departed; Hal Schumacher no longer is troubled by a sore arm; Allyn Stout has recovered from measles; and Leon Chagnon's wrenched shoulder is on the mend.

ORLANDO, Fla., April 8.—The most improved player in the Brooklyn Dodgers' training camp is Tony Cuccinello. The veteran second baseman not only has been fielding spectacularly but leads the club in hitting with the amazing average of .545. He has garnered 30 hits in 55 times at bat.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 8.—If Charley Ruffing were in shape, Manager Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees wouldn't have a thing to worry about. As it is, Ruffing's poor showing has "Marse Joe" worried.

The big right-hander is 10 days late reporting because of contract trouble and then ran into a stomach disorder. He may not be of much use during the early weeks of the campaign.

TULSA, Okla., April 8.—With the exception of left field, Manager Jimmy Dykes is set on the Chicago White Sox lineup.

Ray (Rip) Radcliff, recruit from Louisville, has been given preference for the left field job all spring, but his fieldings has left so much to be desired that Dykes may make a shift. Radcliff's hitting, however, has been good enough to make the pilot take his time about deciding to use someone else.

Pin Carnival Is Nearing Finish

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 8. (AP)—New York state teams will tangle with Ohio, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania squads in an effort to dethrone the leading Jivolis of Detroit from the top spot in the American bowling congress tournament here tonight.

The curtain will be rung down on the big pin carnival Wednesday and it is likely the wolverine lineup will be awarded the championship, should they get by tonight's bombardment.

Budweisers of St. Louis created the only chaos in the main event last night. The Mound City group moved into third place in crashing the setups for games of 935-987-1064. The final assault is high team game of the tournament, beating the mark of 1060 registered by the VRB Motors of Chicago late Saturday night.

Keith Nisewanger, 11, Council Bluffs, Ia., confined to a hospital for months, kept up with his studies. The special teacher assigned to him called him a splendid student.

BRADLEY HAS BARE CHANCE THIS SEASON

GRANT BEATS ALLISON WITH STEADY PLAY

THEN TEAMS WITH HIS VICTIM TO TAKE DOUBLES

HOUSTON, April 8. (AP)—Bryan (Blay) Grant won the River Oaks club singles title here yesterday by defeating Wilmer Allison, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4.

Grant, in winning, showed the strokes, head work and courage of a champion. He outstayed Allison from the backcourt and passed him repeatedly with deceptive shots when Allison came to the net.

Grant teamed with Allison to capture the doubles championship, defeating Berkeley Hall of New York City and Gilbert Hall of East Orange, N. J., 5-7, 11-9, 6-3, 6-3.

Miss Jane Sharp of Pasadena, Calif., defeated Miss Eunice Denna of San Antonio for the women's singles title, and Edgar Weller of Austin trounced a fellow townsmen, Bobby Kamrath, for the junior singles championship.

SHAMROCK IS HELD TO TRIO OF BASE HITS

Coltoso Hurlers Effective as Team Beats All Stars on Sunday, 9 to 0.

Coltoso's two first string hurlers, Pete Stegman, former Pampa Road Runner, and Hutton, formerly of Hollis, held the Shamrock All Stars to three hits in winning the opening game of the season 9 to 0 in LeFors yesterday afternoon. Polvog was behind the bat.

The Shamrock All Stars, composed of players from the Amarillo Shamrocks, Shamrock Refinery south of LeFors, Coltoso carbon back plant, and Memphis, played good ball but were unable to hit the ball away from the Coltoso defense. Thomas, Hess, and Clements saw mound duty for the All Stars, with Jack Leggett behind the bat.

The Coltoso sluggers were held to nine clean hits but these were made at opportune times. The All Stars got to Stegman and Hutton for only three safe bingles.

Coltoso showed great defensive strength. The pitching was near mid-season.

Dizzy Dean To Quit In 1936, Says His Wife

ST. LOUIS, April 8 (AP)—Talkative Dizzy Dean has voluntarily talked himself out of organized baseball—effective in 1936—but his friends smiled knowingly.

In what, for him, appeared to be a solemn pronouncement, the senior partner of the St. Louis Cardinals' brace of pitching Deans, announced it would be the quiet and simple life for him, "if I can get two more good seasons." The announcement, coming as it did from Dizzy, felled miserably to stifle the Cardinal organization.

However, the pitcher's wife, who also acts as his business manager, insisted the retirement was a serious business. "Dizzy's going to hang up his uniform in two more years," she said. "We've discussed it at breakfast, lunch and dinner and we've decided that Dizzy'll quite the game after 1936."

In fact, she had it all figured out. "At the end of the 1935 season we expect to have $150,000 of our own. Figuring 6 per cent interest on that sum, we will have a yearly income of $9,000."

"We will be able to live in luxury on $9,000. You know we don't go in for big ideas."

PINNELL HOLDS HOOVER AS HOPKINS WINS, 5 TO 1

Cromer Hits Long Homer to Send Two Men Home Ahead of Him Sunday.

Beyond the stellar pitching of Roscoe Pinnell, former Harvesters football star, the Hopkins baseball team showed a complete reversal of form Friday afternoon, when they were swamped by the Pampa Consumers, to defeat Hoover 5 to 1 yesterday afternoon at Hopkins.

Pinnell walked off the mound at the close of the ninth inning with 19 strikeouts to his credit. His control was almost perfect and his curve ball was working to perfection. Cromer, Hopkins centerfielder, provided the stickwork of the game when he hit a home run over the school building and across the road, a distance of nearly 500 feet, to score two runs ahead of him and win the game.

Jack Benton started on the mound for Hoover but was pounded for four runs in four innings. He was replaced by H. Green, who was on the mound for Consumers Friday. He held Hopkins to two hits and one run during the last five innings of the game.

Hoover will entertain Kingsmill next Sunday afternoon. Lineups of yesterday's games:

Hoover—Cole, 3b; White, lf; Masingale, ss; B. Benton, 2b; Pete Bond, rf; Foreman, cf; Put Bond, 1b; Barnes, c; J. Benton and H. Green, p.

Hopkins—Husted, 3b; Cromer, cf; Ginn, 1b; Gibbs, lf; Ridgeway, ss; Lane Guthrie, rf; Ridgeway, lf; Lane Guthrie, c; Pinnell, p.

Brazil's Sugar Industry Revives
RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The Brazilian sugar and alcohol institute announces that in 1933-34 the country produced 540,852 metric tons of cane sugar with mills grinding in 18 of the nation's 20 states. The bureau says this indicates a revival of an industry in which Brazil used to top the world.

CIVIC CLUBMEN HOPE FOR FINE DAY THURSDAY

NEED WARMTH WHEN ROADRUNNERS ARE TACKLED

Pampa civic clubmen are carefully counting the weather chart in the hope of finding that the weather will be nice Thursday afternoon. On that date the clubmen will place themselves at the mercy of the Pampa Road Runner baseball players in a charity game.

The tussle will be called at 4 o'clock at Road Runner park, with admission 40 cents. Tickets are now on sale by members of the three civic clubs. Proceeds from the game will go to the crippled and underprivileged children funds of the clubs.

Manager W. A. Bratton of the Clubmen has not selected his starting lineup, chiefly because his players have not been showing up for practice. He has called practice sessions for 5 o'clock every afternoon this week.

There are a number of well known ball players scattered through the civic clubs. Rail birds predict that the Road Runners will be extended to the limit to hold the club boys, who will have a Road Runner battery to assist them.

The game will be a warm-up for the Road Runners who will open the season against stiff competition Sunday afternoon when the Topeka team in the Western league will be here for a game at 2:30 o'clock.

PAY FOR COLD CREAM ADS IS ON A DECLINE

Society Names Are Worth $1,000 And Down

By MARY ELIZABETH PLUMMER, Associated Press Staff Writer.

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—Telling the world how much they like a certain cold cream, cake flour, cigaret or monkey wrench is putting from nothing to $1,000 into the pockets of celebrities.

Ten thousand dollar pay checks, say the testimonial advertising agencies, have been few in recent years. A society name seldom gets more than $1,000 and sometimes they pay nothing flat or, if it be a woman, she may receive the gown in which she is photographed.

Queen Marie endorsed a brand of cosmetics for $2,000. Alice Roosevelt Longworth's testimonial for a bed came higher. She is said to have received $5,000.

Not many years ago, the Vanderbilts shunned this type of advertising, fearing the displeasure of the Dewager Mrs. Vanderbilt, and commercial firms sought in vain the endorsement of a Boston Cabot.

But in the last few months, a Vanderbilt name—that of Muriel Vanderbilt Phelps, granddaughter of the late W. K. Vanderbilt—appeared in a cold cream advertisement, and Mrs. Powell Cabot of Boston endorsed a cigaret.

The cold cream endorser is one of the most exclusive sets in the world and some women desire "bids" just as they yearn for court presentations.

Mrs. O. P. H. Belmont, who is said to have received $1,000, was one of the charter members. Then Mrs. Marshall Field Sr. of Chicago, the Duchess de Richelieu and Lady Mountbatten joined the group.

Later recruits were Anne Morgan, Mrs. William Borah, the Duchess of Albemarle, the Marquise de Polignac, Lady Diana Manners, and Princess Matchabelli.

The feminine advertising aristocracy is much larger than the male. Most of the broad-shouldered Apollos who, in the ads, lol at the seashore, shoot grouse and stalk tigers are anonymous.

But when have given testimonials as far back as the early 1900's, when David Warfield and George Arliss blazed the trail.

SERVICES ARE TO CONTINUE TWICE DAILY

ANOTHER CHURCH WILL START MEETINGS NEXT WEEK

Pre-Easter revivals began in two churches here yesterday, with services well attended. The Rev. H. R. Whitley of Haskell is the evangelist at First Baptist church, and Jesse Wiseman of Berger at Central Church of Christ.

Daily meetings will continue at that hour in the evening, and at 10 a. m. Song services are directed by A. C. Cox, regular song leader for the congregation. Mr. Cox and a group of singers went to Claude yesterday afternoon for a song drill. Larger attendance at Bible classes and the evening Bible drill was reported with the opening of the revival yesterday. One addition to church membership was reported.

First Baptist church was filled for both preaching services, and reported attendance of 804 in Sunday school and 257 in training unions. There were eight additions to the church.

SPRING APPETITES ARE TEMPTED BY LIGHTER, SATISFYING MEALS

A few cautious changes from the usual cold weather menus.

Simplicity in the food combination is always desirable from the standpoint of digestibility and from the standpoint of the labor involved in the preparation. Rich combinations of dishes can be replaced by simpler dishes or frequently by fresh or uncooked foods.

It may be well to use less of the food naturally rich in fats and to reduce the quantity of fat too habitually used in the preparation of other foods. Vegetables can be artfully seasoned by using a very limited amount of fat, or none at all.

Use milk and eggs freely and reduce the quantity of meat. Restrict the use of fat largely to milk, cream, butter, and salad oils. Plan to use some coarse grain product frequently.

Rural Work Center Opened in Starr

AUSTIN, April 8.—Completion and formal opening of the first rural work center in connection with the Texas Relief commission's program of rural rehabilitation at San Isidro, Starr county, has been announced by C. T. Watson, assistant director of the rural program.

The San Isidro center, located in the northern end of the county near the community school campus, offers facilities whereby the community's citizens and rehabilitation families may come together and work cooperatively in providing commodities to supply their needs.

Two buildings have been constructed at San Isidro. One houses the canning plant, sewing room and recreational center in its main portion while an addition at the rear contains a light and power plant, leather working and rope making room and storage space for canning plant equipment and supplies.

A second building provides facilities for farm shop blacksmithing, tin and woodwork and hide tanning. Workers also will have access to a home economics building to be re-modeled by the community and used for a cooking laboratory. The community house will build a four-room-house for the handicapped and will erect a small store and trading post.

Activity in the center includes a schedule to process 6,000 cans of meat and a variety of fruits and vegetables. Relief officials said some grapefruit juice is being canned at this time. The canning plant will have a capacity of 1,000 cans per eight-hour day.

Mexican workers at the sewing room are making mattresses under the direction of emergency education teachers. At the tannery, workers are making halters, leathers for farm shoes, blacksmacking, ironing leather belts, and plans are under way to make light traveling bags or brief cases soon. These workers have taken over all hides from a coyote extermination project in the county and will convert them into useful articles.

The wood working department supplied all equipment for the sewing room and expects to make small articles of furniture with hand tools for the entire community. The farm shop repairs farm machinery and will be able to turn out small implements for garden and farm use.

San Isidro's work center will enhance the chances of success of 74 rural rehabilitation clients in that community and provide benefits that will help 135 other independent families of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee and children of Lindsay, Okla., are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, and family.

Only Minor Clauses Have Remained of Peace Pact ---Germany Pounds Away

Many Provisions Are Never Enforced By Allies

BY ALEXANDER H. UHL

PARIS, April 8. (AP)—The treaty of Versailles, which Hitler has been pounding steadily for 15 years, virtually is all gone except for its territorial and colonial clauses.

And the average Frenchman is wondering how long these survivors will last.

Charges that Germany had violated the treaty in a dozen different ways had frequently been made in France and Great Britain, but it was not until Germany announced creation of a military air force, that the treaty was openly defied, for article 198 says:

"The armed forces of Germany must not include any military or naval air force."

Then came the bombshell of Hitler's announcement that henceforth Germany would refuse to consider herself bound by the military clauses of the treaty.

That announcement, with restoration of conscription as the basis of the German law, added a startling chapter to the barely 15-year history of a treaty that look a year and a half to produce.

Some Sections Died Early There are some clauses that never were enforced, there are others that have been slowly being sidetracked and there are still others that Germany wants abolished.

Article 227 called for trial of the former Emperor William by five judges to be named by the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. Holland, however, refused to extradite him and the clause lapsed.

Article 228 demanded the trial of a number of high German officials, including the former crown prince and Marshal Von Hindenburg, for atrocities and other alleged crimes, but Germany never surrendered them.

The section of the treaty dealing with Germany's frontiers and colonies still holds its original force. The Saar, last of the plebiscite areas, has gone back to Germany as a result of the vote of January 13, Hitler has virtually given up claims for Alsace-Lorraine, while

TREATY OF VERSAILLES

PARIS. (AP)—Here's the status of the principal provisions of the treaty of Versailles:

- (1) The League of Nations — Still functioning.
- (2) Punishment of the Kaiser — Never enforced.
- (3) Territory and Colonies—Saar returned to Germany whose frontiers remain otherwise as shortened by treaty stipulations. Germany still seeks restoration of former colonies and union with Austria.
- (4) Disarmament—Germany refuses further obedience to army and air clause treaty. Navy still within treaty limits; Rhineland still demilitarized.
- (5) Reparations — No payments since 1931.
- (6) Economic provisions—Mostly carried out.
- (7) Guarantees enforcing treaty — all lapsed or abandoned.

the thorny Polish corridor problem seems moribund because of the German-Polish friendship developed since by signature of a 10-year accord in 1934.

'Anschluss' Hope Survives

Insistence on the independence of Austria is a vital part of the treaty. But Germany has not abandoned hope despite the joint Franco-British-Italian stand against "Anschluss."

Germany's old colonies are in the hands of the victor nations, none of whom has shown any inclination to give them up.

Militarization of the Rhineland is the next German step that the French fear. They claim that already there are strategic railways and airdromes in this zone in addition to 45,000 militarized police.

The section on disarmament now appears dead. As early as 1927 Germany was accused of hiding arms and war material, of reorganizing her general staff and of short time recruiting in the reichswehr whose full strength was set at 100,000 in the treaty. French authorities claim Germany now has a force of 600,000 men.

The naval clause restricting Germany to 108,000 tons with the biggest ships held to 10,000 tons is still in operation but Hitler told Sir John Simon that Germany wants to build up to 400,000 tons.

Final Clashes Lapses Reparations which filled a considerable part of the treaty are not being paid. Scaled down twice, the reparations payments never were resumed after the Hoover moratorium of 1931.

The economic clauses of the peace treaty in general have been fulfilled. The final section of the treaty dealings with guarantees of enforcement of its provisions has lapsed. The allies evacuated the Rhineland in advance of the treaty stipulations and surrendered their rights of re-occupation.

In general the territorial and colonial clauses as well as the demilitarization of the German frontiers still stand.

The League of Nations, created by the treaty, is still functioning, but Germany is no longer a member.

No effort will be spared to provide the maximum comfort and convenience for the entire attendance which is expected to reach 5,000.

DEMOCRATS HAVE WIDE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—A threat of a major strike and a wide difference of opinion among prominent democrats as to how the Roosevelt security bill would be brought to the floor of the house added today to the complexity of problems facing administration leaders.

Meanwhile capitol hill heard a report that President Roosevelt plans to get busy on his legislative program, of which the $4,880,000,000 work-relief bill is the only major one so far passed.

A vote on the question of a strike was held recently in the Goodyear plant and similar balloting was begun yesterday in the other two. The labor board had ordered employee elections in the Goodyear and Firestone Tires and Rubber companies would permit their employees to hold an election and determine for themselves the union to which they wish to belong, as ordered and directed by the National Labor Relations board.

The labor board had ordered employee elections in the Goodyear and Firestone Tires and Rubber companies would permit their employees to hold an election and determine for themselves the union to which they wish to belong, as ordered and directed by the National Labor Relations board.

Representatives tackled today the task of deciding the method by which the social security bill will be considered in the house. The majority members of the ways and means committee, which studied the bill for weeks, were called to a meeting in which they were expected to draft a request for a "sag" rule which would prohibit all except committee amendments when the bill goes to the floor of the house, perhaps Wednesday.

But some prominent democrats were apposed to pushing the bill through under such a procedure.

RENTS IN WICHITA FALLS IN DECLINE OF HALF IN PERIOD FROM 1929 TO 1933, SAYS U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—Rents in Wichita Falls, Tex., declined nearly one-half, income more than one-third and values of homes nearly one-third from 1929 to 1933, a C. W. A. survey made public by the department of commerce revealed today.

Wichita Falls' average rent bill in 1934 was $154, compared with $257 in Austin, Tex. The 1929 figure was $280. The salary of the rent-payer dropped from $1,512 in 1929 to $1,048 four years later and the value of one-family dwellings from $2,881 to $1,970.

The survey obtained reports on 1,280 residential properties and 1,951 dwelling units, or about 20 per cent of the total number of occupied dwelling units.

Nearly two-thirds of all tenants reporting had rent bills for 1933 of less than $180, while about two-fifths had bills of less than $120.

Free City of Danzig Turns Hitler Down by Refusing to Follow Saar in Dictatorship

Wide Effect Will Be Noted—Defiance Is New

BY MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.) FREE CITY OF DANZIG, April 8 (AP)—A handful of Danzig residents with the fighting spirit of Teutonic knights had succeeded today in thwarting Nazi ambitions to create a dictatorship in this free city as a step toward its reunion with the fatherland.

Nazi, while polling approximately 60 per cent of the vote in yesterday's volkstag, or parliament, election, fell considerably short of the two-thirds majority required to wipe out opposition parties and make themselves supreme in the city's political life.

Approximately 93,000 Danzig voters, the majority of them German Catholics and socialists, combined to drown the hopes of the Hitlerites. The defeat was the first real defiance nazidom has encountered since it attained ascendancy in the reich.

The outcome was regarded as having far greater significance for the Nazi program than its mere effect on the division of parties in the volkstag.

Nazi leaders, on the other hand, believe the result would have been far different if the issue had been that of a clear cut plebiscite for or against reunion with Germany.

The final election figures were withheld for several hours after their tabulation, reportedly while the Nazis in charge of the election campaign communicated with Berlin.

Finally, Albert Forster, the gauleiter or district leader, stepped to a microphone to announce the results which brought scant expressions of enthusiasm from Nazi throats.

The figures showed that the Nazi party received 139,200 of the 232,279 votes cast for the seven parties listed on the ballot.

The totals for the other parties were: Social democrats, 37,530; communists, 6,880; centrists, 30,059; German nationalists, 9,760; front fighters, 750; Polish, 8,100.

The Nazis actually gained 32,681 votes over their 1933 total and retained their control of parliament. But they had staked their party prestige on their hopes for a two-thirds majority.

To this end they brought into the campaign Reichstuehrer, Hitler's foremost lieutenant, including Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, aviation minister; Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda; Joseph Buerckel, commissioner for the Saar, and Rudolf Hess, Hitler's personal adjutant.

REAR ADMIRAL DIES WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Rear Admiral Arthur L. Willard died yesterday at his home here after a brief illness. He was 65 years old. Born in Kirkville, Mo., and appointed to the naval academy in 1887, Admiral Willard had a long and distinguished career.

SELLING BABIES FOR PROFIT OUTLAWED UNDER TEXAS LAWS

BY MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER

AUSTIN, April 6. (AP)—Trafficking in babies was outlawed in Texas with the signature by Governor James V. Allred of a bill passed recently by the legislature.

The measure had the support of the state division of child welfare which said the number of complaints received indicated it was increasingly difficult for persons to obtain a child for adoption without payment of money.

It was sponsored in the senate by Senator Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls and in the house of representatives by Representative W. O. Reed of Dallas.

"It has gotten to be a racket," said Reed. "Companion legislation to place further restrictions on maternity homes will be urged at this session."

It was explained that under the guise of allowing foster parents to pay placement agencies for the expense of caring for a child, and sometimes for the maternity care of the mother, placement of babies was being commercialized.

"The child welfare division has had numerous complaints," said Mrs. Violet Greenhill, chief of the division of child welfare, "that individuals and agencies are commercializing the placement of babies and young children and that it is almost impossible for people who cannot pay to get a child for adoption."

"This practice is submerged under various pretexs, but in some instances it involves outright placement of a child in foster homes for money."

She said the parents were not presented with actual bills, but with loose approximations of cost, making it very difficult to ascertain actual expenses.

SCHOOL GROUP FORMED ATLANTA, April 28 (AP)—Aimed at raising the standards for graduate and collegiate work, the Southern University conference has been organized here with 93 southern universities and colleges participating. Dr. W. P. Few, president of Duke University, is temporary president.

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

A Pocket 'Kerchief Garden' Lack of available space causes many families to forego the pleasures and benefits of a home vegetable garden. The city apartment dweller, who lives on one floor of a large building, hasn't much opportunity to garden unless he secures a plot of ground away from his home. But the family which has even a small amount of backyard space, can and should utilize it, no matter how small it is. Any space from a 5 foot square up may be profitably tilled into some kind of a vegetable patch. Thought and planning must, of course, go into such a tiny undertaking, but with careful consideration of the crops most suitable to succession, a surprisingly large amount of fresh, succulent produce may be grown for the table.

This problem of succession, which means to follow one crop by another

A small kitchen garden takes up only a corner of your back lot in order to get two or even three products from the same piece of ground, is a fascinating one. For instance, one row may be planted with radishes early in the season, and when they have been harvested, beans may be planted. Also, a companion planting, early peas in the same row with carrots, the former coming up and used before the carrots are ready for the table. Mix a packet of early radishes with a late variety, and have two crops in the same row.

As an alternative an early crop of spring vegetables may be grown and used, leaving the ground available for annual flowers. Radishes, leaf

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon Shirley Taylor, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Gray County, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the first Monday in June, A. D. 1935, the same being the third day of June, A. D. 1935, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 22d day of March, A. D. 1935, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 3997, where-in Dyke Cullum is plaintiff, and

Legal Notice
Shirley Taylor, E. G. Lyon and F. A. Smith are defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:
That plaintiff, Dyke Cullum, is a resident and citizen of Tarrant county, Texas; that defendant, E. G. Lyon, resides in Kay county, Oklahoma; that defendant, F. A. Smith, resides in Tulsa county, Oklahoma; that the residence of defendant, Shirley Taylor, is unknown.

Plaintiff alleges that on or about the 24th day of October, 1927, he was still the owner in fee simple of an undivided one-hundredth twenty-eighth (1-128) of all the oil and gas minerals and oil and gas mineral rights in and under the following described land, situated in Gray County, Texas, to-wit:

The northwest quarter (1/4) of section fifty (50), block A-9, H&GN R. R. survey, Gray County, Texas, containing one-hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less;

That on or about the 24th day of October, 1927, plaintiff being in possession of said land, the defendants unlawfully entered upon the same and ejected plaintiff therefrom and withheld from him the possession, occupancy and use thereof, to his damage in the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars.

Plaintiff prays that citation issue to said defendants and that upon a trial he have judgment for title and possession of an undivided one-hundredth twenty-eighth (1-128) of all the oil and gas minerals in and under said land, and under and for his damages and costs of suit; that writ of restitution and of possession issue and that plaintiff have such other and further relief, general and special, to which he may show himself entitled.

In the alternative and only in the event plaintiff is denied recovery as prayed for in the foregoing, plaintiff alleges:

That on or about the 17th day of November, 1926, the defendant, E. G. Lyon, then the owner of an undivided 1-128th interest in and to all of the oil and gas and oil rights in and under the northwest one-quarter of section 50, block A-9, H&GN R. R. Co. survey, in Gray County, Texas, by his assignment in writing of that date, duly acknowledged, did grant, sell and assign and convey unto the defendant, Shirley Taylor, a full undivided 1-128th interest in and to the oil and gas and oil and gas rights in and under the lands hereinabove described, whereby said Taylor became the owner of such interest.

That on or about the 20th day of September, 1927, the defendant, Shirley Taylor, by his conveyance of writing of said date did grant, sell, assign and convey to the plaintiff a full undivided 1-128th interest in and to the oil and gas and oil and gas rights in and under said lands hereinabove described, and which instrument further provided that the same was all so conveyed to him by the defendant, E. G. Lyon by virtue of the instrument above set forth.

That by virtue of the foregoing assignments, conveyances and deeds hereinabove mentioned, the plaintiff became the owner of an undivided 1-128th interest in and to the oil and gas and oil and gas rights in and under the lands specifically described above, and that plaintiff is still the owner thereof, free and clear of all right, title or interest in and to said defendants.

That said defendants and each of them are claiming and asserting an interest in and to said oil and gas and oil and gas rights above mentioned and so conveyed to the plaintiff as above set forth, and that such claim of right, title and interest constitutes a cloud upon the title of plaintiff in and to said oil and gas and oil and gas rights.

And if this connection plaintiff prays that defendants and each of them be decreed to appear and answer to the petition and that on final hearing that the rights and interests and titles claimed by said defendants and each of them be cancelled and held for naught, and that plaintiff be decreed, as against said defendants and each of them, to be the owner of a full undivided 1-128th interest in and to all of the oil and gas and oil and gas rights in and under the lands hereinbefore described, for costs of suit and such general and special relief, as to which he may show himself entitled.

Herein Fall Not to have before said court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 23d day of March, A. D. 1935.

(Seal) FRANK HILL,
Clerk, District Court, Gray County, Texas.

Stories in STAMPS

The LIBERATORS of the WESTERN WORLD

THE Pan-American Congress of 1909 brought out new stamps from several American countries but perhaps the most glowing tribute to the founders of independence in the western hemisphere is the 1909 issue of Brazil. The stamp portrays the five great liberators of the Americas surrounded by a symbolic figure of Brazil. These national heroes are George Washington, "Father" of the United States; Simon Bolivar, "Liberator" of Colombia, Venezuela, Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia; Jose Bonifacio, Brazil's "Patriarch of Independence"; Bernardo O'Higgins, head of the first permanent national government of Chile; and Miguel Hidalgo, patriot priest of Mexico.

The stamp commemorative of these men is a beautiful blue, of only one value, the 200 reis.

TORNADO IN DEEP SOUTH HAS LEFT 26 DEAD, MUCH DAMAGE

GLOSTER, Miss., April 8. (AP)—A tornado which blew out of the west over parts of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama during the week-end left 26 known dead, more than 200 injured and property damage estimated at $500,000.

The storm did a hop, skip and jump over the area, striking first at Lake Providence, La., Saturday night. When it crossed the Mississippi river moving southeast it struck three times with added fury at Dolores, Gloster and Gillesburg, Miss., and spent its force by dipping down around Mobile, Ala., yesterday.

The main fury of the wind was felt in this town of 1,500 population, between McComb and Natchez. Not a house escaped some damage and 700 inhabitants were affected directly by the storm.

Mayor Louis Kahn said 87 dwellings were blown to splinters, 41 so badly damaged that they will have to be razed, 38 other dwellings and 20 business houses partly damaged.

Four white persons and four negroes were killed here and 150 injured. The property damage was estimated at $250,000 by the mayor.

From Gloster the storm struck next outside of the village of Gillesburg, 25 miles southeast of here, where six persons were killed, a score injured and 14 homes blown down.

The tornado then rode into the skies and was thought spent in the ozone but it swooped down yesterday in the Mobile, Ala., area where it wrecked several homes, unroofed others and did several thousand dollars property damage but no human loss of life or injury were reported.

At Lake Providence, La., four white persons and five negroes were drowned when the wind blew over a large bathhouse anchored in the Mississippi river, six miles below the town.

Then the wind crossed into the state of Mississippi and hit Dolores, a plantation settlement where three negro children were killed.

The wind caught most of the people asleep. They were so panic stricken they could not describe the storm.

PASTOR SAYS GERMAN KNEW HOME PLANS

HAUPTMANN RODE IN SOURLAND AREA OFTEN

MILWAUKEE, April 8 (AP)—Federal authorities today considered a new chapter in the life of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, a chapter purporting to show much of the Bronx carpenter's defense allibi to the kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

The Rev. Michael J. Kallok, 46-year-old Catholic priest, told government agents that Hauptmann studied plans of Lindbergh's Hopewell, N. J., estate even before it was constructed, and that he had seen him often riding horseback in the woods of the Sourland mountains.

While he was pastor of St. Michael's, the Archangel church on the outskirts of Trenton, N. J., he said he became acquainted with Hauptmann as a frequent rider of a riding stable owned by Leroy C. Thompson, who described Bruno as a "slick guy."

On Thompson's place, said the priest, Robert A. Schumann, a Trenton architect, had a small office where he poured over plans of the Lindbergh estate, hoping for contracts on the work. The clergyman described a visit to the architect's office.

"Bruno was looking at some blueprints. I looked over his shoulder and saw what they were."

"Oh, that's the Lindbergh home," I said.

"He folded them over so I couldn't see them. Schumann looked up and said to Bruno, 'Oh, never mind, he's all right.'"

Schumann died September 17, 1932, after being stricken with heart disease on a bus. The priest said he had been informed the architect was mysteriously robbed and slugged shortly before his death.

"Moral duty" spurred him, he said, to reveal his acquaintance with the man under death sentence for kidnaping the Lindbergh baby, despite the priest's fear of notoriety and harm. He was pastor of the Trenton church from 1929 to 1931, and since has been pastor of St. Joseph's church in Cudahy, Milwaukee suburb.

PERJURY PLOT FRAMED BY 'DA' PALMER SHOUTS

Convict Is Sentenced To 'Burn' May 10 For Murder

ANDERSON, April 8 (AP)—Joe Palmer made an impassioned plea for mercy for Raymond Hamilton, his partner in crime, and loosed a tirade against District Attorney Max Rogers just before he was sentenced here to be electrocuted May 10 for the murder of Major Crowson, prison guard.

Palmer said he and not Hamilton, who faces death in the electric chair for the same crime, was guilty of the slaying of the guard.

He charged that Rogers obtained conviction of Hamilton on perjured testimony.

A short time before Palmer was brought here for sentencing, Hamilton was placed in the death cell next to his at the Huntsville prison after being at liberty for nearly nine months. He was captured in Fort Worth last night.

"Fate will overtake you some time for the injustice you have done in these cases," Palmer told the prosecutor.

The desperado began his harangue after District Judge S. W. Dean asked if he had "any thing to say before you are sentenced."

Palmer asked that in the event Hamilton's sentence is not commuted, they be electrocuted on the same night.

Hamilton will be sentenced Monday or Tuesday at Huntsville, and indications tonight were that his death date would be fixed about May 10 or shortly thereafter.

After Palmer had finished, Judge Dean lectured him.

"Joe," the court said, "you've had a fair trial here. The jury didn't know you. You were properly represented by your lawyers."

"It's not up to you to say whether Hamilton is guilty or not guilty. It doesn't matter which one of you killed Major Crowson. You were both shooting at him and therefore were equally guilty."

Rogers made no remarks on the prisoner's statement in court, but said later he had "no apology" for any of his actions with regard to prosecution of Hamilton or Palmer.

"I had never seen nor heard of Joe Palmer until this shooting occurred," the district attorney said.

"Three credible witnesses at Hamilton's trial testified that at the time young Crowson was fatally wounded both Hamilton and Palmer were shooting. Under that state of facts, I think the verdicts were justified."

When Palmer was assessed the death penalty last summer for his part in the bloody prison break he jumped to his feet and made a long attack on the Texas prison system.

"I can take your hot seat," he said then. "I would rather have the chair than serve four more years in the most damnable prison system on earth."

The Labors of Hercules Had Nothing on This

GREAT RICHES

by Mabel Howe Farnham

SYNOPSIS: James Stimson, III, last of the male line of the New Concord, Kas., Stimsons, returns from preparatory school in the East to find that his guardian, Aunt Sarah Stimson, has lost most of the family fortune. He cannot go to medical school; when he thinks it over, he decides he had rather be a lawyer, anyway. So he visits Judge Holcomb, his best friend, and tells him his decision.

Chapter 11
NAPPY

"I'm glad you've come to your senses," the Judge growled.

"I'm glad, too," James grinned engagingly. He knew very well that he was the apple of the old man's eye.

"Of course I can't afford to go to law school," he went on, "but I thought perhaps you'd allow me to study here with you. I'd like it better than anything."

The Judge grinned back at James delightedly. "I'll think about it," he boomed. "If Nappy's willing I shouldn't be surprised if we could manage it." (Nappy was the colored office boy.)

It was the happiest day in the old Judge's life when James came into the office which had been his grandfather's and began his study of law.

For forty years black letters on the frosted glass of the front door and gold letters on the windows had proclaimed to a small but interested world that the firm of Stimson and Holcomb, Attorneys-at-Law, practiced their profession therein.

Perhaps some of Dr. Jim's old admirers, the women, were disappointed that his son failed to follow in his medical footsteps, but to the rest of New Concord it seemed eminently fitting that the third Miss Julia should be sitting at the first James' desk in the first James' creaking swivel chair and studying from the selfsame call-bound volumes.

To the Judge it was not alone fitting that it was rapturously satisfactory.

"Well, Miss Julia, you see that Providence is still on the job, looking after my boy," he said a day or two later as he paused before Miss Pratt's front porch.

"I hadn't noticed that Providence was unduly assisting itself," Miss Julia good-naturedly, "but I had seen that James' special Jinx had seen to it that he was reduced from affluence to poverty just when he needed his money most. What Sarah Stimson was thinking of investing."

"Bah! What's a little money? Losing his money will be the making of the boy. Miss Sarah's coddled him like a pet tabby cat. It's time James cut loose from her apron strings and learned that chicken livers and cream don't grow on saucers. High time."

"You may be right," Miss Julia conceded generously. "And if James is the born orator you say he is it'll be better for him to have to give up medicine and let you teach him law. I must say that Providence couldn't have provided a better teacher."

That night the Judge admitted to Caesar, his hound dog, that he did believe that in Miss Julia the Lord Almighty for once had made women with faint glimmerings of common sense.

James took to the law as an Irishman takes to whiskey, due partly no doubt to the skillful coaching of the Judge, but more to the aid and encouragement furnished by the Judge's super-efficient assistant, Mr. Napoleon Bonaparte Hanley, commonly known as Nappy.

Nappy was a young man of color of about the same age as James who, like so many emigrant Americans, had started his business career at the very bottom rung of the ladder as a mere office boy and runner of errands.

(Note: This is one of a series of articles taken from the 360 special collections of family archives in the University of Texas library. The collections cover all periods of Texas history from the earliest days of the Spanish in the province of Texas, through the colonial era, to the present. This series of articles presents interesting excerpts from a number of these family collections, some chosen for their intrinsic significance in the development of the empire of Texas, others for their purely human interest in portraying personalities, economic conditions and social intercourse.)

AUSTIN, April 6.—Of all the plantations in Texas, surely none is of more sentimental interest to patriotic Texans than that of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Perry at Peach Point, for Mrs. Perry was the sister of Stephen F. Austin and it was this plantation that he considered "home" in Texas. Several documents concerning this plantation are in the family archives collection of the University of Texas library, and are revealing in their sidelights on plantation management.

In his reminiscences of "The Old Plantations and Their Owners of Brazoria County, Texas," Abner J. Strobel, published in 1926, describes Peach Point Plantation as follows:

"It was the home of Mrs. James F. Perry, the sister of Stephen F. Austin, and her home if he properly ever had a home in Texas. It can truly be said his home was wherever he hung his hat, for his duties were always of a public nature. The son of Mrs. Perry, S. S. Perry, inherited the plantation in the year 1860, and well improved—had his residence, office in the yard, also residence for the overseer. I have made many visits to the plantation in my boyhood days, days that in life's afternoons I recall with pleasure. And as life's twilight shadows lengthen across my pathway, it is a pleasure to recall the many pleasant days I spent beneath its hospitable roof. Well do I remember when the day was spent and we were about to retire for the night. All would enter the parlor or sitting room, there to render thanks to Almighty God for his blessings through the day. A chapter would be read in the Bible, and then a prayer would be rendered. Morning and night grace would be said. Such was the daily routine at Peach Point. I mention this to show the Christian character of the people who resided in the colony, for the same can be said for the majority of the older states to reside and build up a civilization in the wilderness of Texas. A few of the descendants of this family reside at Freeport and Angleton. Others are scattered elsewhere. The plantation is practically a ruin."

In the university library is the following letter written by James F. Perry from Peach Point, near Quantana, Texas, January 7, 1839, to his friend, Great McGready Jr. in Potosi, Missouri:

"I owe you an apology for my writing to you long since but my business has called me much from home for the last 12 months and I have neglected writing to many of my friends which I ought to have done, your kind letter by M. Jones recd. I was quite unwell at the time having been at Houston took a very bad cold but I am now nearly restored to my normal health. Our family have all enjoyed uninterrupted good health the last year. Mrs. Perry's health is quite restored. We have made a fair crop this season and are generally in good spirits. With regard to the claim on Big River we have concluded to let it lie a while longer as it don't amount to much anyway.

"Now Sir for my advice respecting your removing to Texas. I have no doubt my dear Sir but that you would be pleased with Texas if you could only see it once. There is no doubt that it is a fine country and that a young man might advance his interest in it with no moderate portion of industry, good management and economy there is no finer cotton country I presume anywhere. The lands near the coast is well calculated for sugar or cotton rather

GERMANY ASKS LEAGUE SETUP BE MODIFIED

OTHERWISE SHE WILL NOT RETURN TO FOLD

GENEVA, April 8 (AP)—Germany, League of Nations circles heard today, will defer return to Geneva until the league structure is modified to her satisfaction.

Germany gave notice of withdrawal from the international organization in October, 1933 because, she asserted, she was denied equality with other nations. The resignation becomes effective in October of this year.

The Reich's attitude toward the league, described here as "vague and negative," was believed to be one of the "divergences" between the two governments mentioned in foreign Secretary Simon's recent statement before the British house of commons.

An impression exists in this league seat that Reichschancellor Hitler did not fancy the league because of his belief that it is largely dominated by France and Russia and functions chiefly to perpetuate the Versailles treaty.

German circles here say Hitler, while opposing pasted facts involving financial assistance such as the "eastern loan" is ready to participate in some general treaty providing for isolation of an aggressor.

College Girl Is Threatened Again

TALIEQUAH, Okla., April 8 (AP)—Receipt of a new death threat by Lois Thompson, 18-year-old North-eastern State Teachers college co-ed, has spurred federal, state and county officers in a renewed search for the author of a series of notes that led the girl to shoot Daniel Shaw, a Okla. student.

The handwriting in the new note, found in an outbuilding on the farm of the girl's widowed mother, was identified as the same as that in 13 other notes received since Feb. 17.

Shaw, who the girl says she shot because she believed him a member of a "G. P." responsible for the notes, is slowly recovering from two bullet wounds, inflicted on the steps of the college administration building more than a week ago.

He denied any connection with the notes. Miss Thompson is free under $2,500 bond on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

She declined to comment on the new note. Its text was not revealed.

Revival

ices at 8, and morning services at 10 are planned daily.

Both congregations invite the public to hear the evangelistic sermons through these revivals.

Another revival to start next Sunday was planned at First Christian church yesterday. J. B. Holmes of Record attendance for the past two years was set yesterday at Francis Avenue Church of Christ, where 195 were in Bible school and five additions were made to church membership.

First Methodist church had Chas. E. Watkins of the American city bureau of Chicago as speaker last evening. A large crowd heard his message on "The Lordship of Jesus."

"The only way we will ever have a permanent recovery is to create new values," he said. "The lordship of Jesus breaks down castes. Jesus is the man who moved into the heart of humanity and gave the world to great things. Men who have known Jesus and crowned Him in their lives have been the men who moved the world upward."

Mr. Watkins spoke here through courtesy of the Amarillo chamber of commerce. He was accompanied here by Mr. and Mrs. Garford Wilkinson of Amarillo.

The Rev. Lance Webb, pastor of McCullough-Harrah M. E. churches, spoke at First church in the morning, while Supt. R. B. Fisher filled his pulpit at Harrah Chapel. First Methodist Sunday school had 488 present.

Presbyterian Sunday school had 144 present. A congregational covered dish supper was announced for 7:30 Wednesday.

California Has Torrential Rains

LOS ANGELES, April 8 (AP)—Forty-five men were ordered to patrol duty in the Montrose-La Crescenta and Long Beach areas today after the city was deluged by torrential rains.

The torrential downpour struck the Los Angeles area after midnight, flooding streets in the lower sections of the city and its suburbs.

Reports from the Montrose-La Crescenta area, scene of the disastrous floods of New Year's day, 1934, said canyons had been transformed into raging rivers.

HOPKINS WILL BE OPPOSED IN WORK RELIEF

GOP IS CRITICAL OF HIM—ROOSEVELT TO RETURN

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—The capital, looking for President Roosevelt to return from his fisherman's vacation Tuesday to start the $4,880,000 work-relief drive, heard republican attacks today against the man generally expected to be a chief assistant to the president in the huge enterprise.

Harry L. Hopkins, the relief administrator, a frequent House visitor while the job-making program was in the making, drew criticism from two leaders of the G. O. P.

"It is extremely fortunate for Mr. Hopkins that, if he is going to be the high distributor of the money, the bill is so drawn that he won't have to be confirmed by the senate," said Senator Vandenberg (D., Mich.). Vandenberg has been mentioned as a possible presidential nominee in 1936.

Rep. Snell of New York, the republican leader in the house, declared it was "a sad commentary that a man like Hopkins, who had termed critics of work relief methods "damn dumb," should appear to be in line to be clothed with extraordinary grants of power over the greatest sum of money ever appropriated."

Heading back toward Washington after a 10-day fishing trip off the Florida coast, Mr. Roosevelt expected to land at Jacksonville late Monday and there receive the work relief bill which congress completed Friday after more than two months of controversy and delay.

It was made plain that he would study the measure carefully and possibly consult with advisors before moving to sign it into law. Some officials have expressed concern over a tentative ruling by Comptroller General McCarl's office that the bill would not permit purchase of unproductive land which the government wants to retire from farming and use for parks, forests, game sanctuaries and the like.

Miami Student Dies in Pampa

Gilbert Smith, 18, a sophomore in the Miami high school, died in a local hospital early yesterday morning. He had been ill nearly three weeks.

The youth was born in Edinburg, Canada, but moved to Miami several years ago with his family. He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Walls, one sister, Ethel Smith, and a half-brother, Leslie Walls.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist church at Miami with the Rev. Joe Wilson, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Miami cemetery under direction of the Pampa Mortuary.

Pampans See Rain And Snow on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Malone and daughter Charlotte Rhea, and son LeRoy, returned last night from Kansas City, where Mr. Malone transacted business. While in Kansas City, Charlotte Rhea visited with Flora Lee Denebalm, a former Pampa resident.

The Malones encountered rain and snow between Wichita, Kan. and Kansas City. Crops in most of that section in excellent condition, Mr. Malone stated.

POSSIE SEKS NEGROES
CAMDEN, S. C., April 8 (AP)—National guardsmen and a posse of several hundred persons combed the Wateree river swamp district today for six armed negro convicts who wounded one guard and overpowered two others in escaping from the state prison farm near here. Gilbert Mahaffey, 28-year-old guard, was wounded seriously in a gun battle during which he shot three fleeing convicts, one of them fatally, as they broke from Dossature camp yesterday.

J. C. McWilliams was confined to his bed with flu yesterday.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—Profit taking presented a barrier to the forward march of stocks today and prices turned uneven after early firmness. Some selling of the rails followed failure of the supreme court to hand down a decision on the carrier pension law. The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 725,000 shares.

CORN GOES HIGHER

CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)—A stampede to buy corn resulted in a maximum rise of 3 1/2 cents today. Meagerness of corn receipts and rapid winding of electric made speculators nervous. The corn market was in an oversold condition, and stop loss orders to buy accelerated the advance, which afterward was modified owing to profit taking.

Corn closed unsettled, 1 1/2-2 1/2 over Saturday's finish, May 86 1/2-1 1/2, wheat 9 1/4-1 1/2, up, May 85 1/4-1 1/2, 1/2-1/2 advanced, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 5 cents.

STRESA PACT IN DOUBT AS IDEAS CLASH

ENGLAND'S IDEALISM IS RAPPEL BY ITALY'S LEADERS

By The Associated Press.
Benito Mussolini's "realist" policies will be stacked against Great Britain's diplomatic "idealism" when representatives of three world war allies sit down at Stresa, Italy, Thursday to decide what to do about Germany's rearmament in violation of the Versailles treaty.

The discussions come as a climax to weeks of martial ruminations following Adolf Hitler's bold decision for military conscription. They will be held in a hall where Napoleon planned his crushing victory over the Austrians at Marengo.

Conflicting attitudes by Rome and London are indicated. Italian circles have shown impatience with Great Britain's caution and apparent unwillingness to take too strong action against Germany.

This was partly expressed by the authoritative Italian journal, Popolo Di Roma, which said England "explored the attitudes of Berlin, Moscow, Warsaw, and Praha" and now needed "to explore England's attitude."

Dispatches indicate the present unofficial desires of the three governments briefly are as follows:
Italy—action to safeguard peace, an action "strong and concrete, with or without Germany."
Great Britain—A compromise general security plan, not aimed at any country and leaving the way open for Germany to enter it.

France—A system of pacts guaranteeing mutual assistance in case of an attack on any country and a resolution condemning German rearmament.
London is represented as feeling a resolution rapping Germany too strongly would only increase tension, so the consultations may find Pierre Laval, French foreign minister, and H. Duce united in a stand against Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary.

Russia, although not in the conference, is anxious for vigorous action, fearing Germany is ambitious to expand eastward.

Vote Test On Conservation Laws Imminent--Lawmakers Must Consider 957 Bills

Renting Unsanitary Houses May Be Prohibited

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred said today that Ranger Captain Fred McDaniel had reported he had been unable to find anyone on the re-trieve state prison farm who had been whipped by guards. The governor sent McDaniel to investigate claims of brutal treatment to convicts.

"Captain McDaniel reported he consulted two men who had mistimed one another by compact," the governor said. "Their only explanation was that they couldn't take it."

Lee Simmons, prison manager, previously had said that convicts frequently chopped off fingers or toes to get out of work.

"The governor said he understood the prison board was making 'thorough' inquiry into the brutality allegation."
"After all, it's the duty of the prison board and the legislature if it cares to, to look into the matter," he said.

The lawmakers so far had taken the position that the charges did not justify an investigation.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES

SAN ANGELO, April 8 (AP)—Mrs. Augusta B. Crenshaw, 76, who came here as a bride 56 years ago, died Sunday and will be buried here Tuesday. Two of the rooms originally built for her as a bride remained in the home which she had resided in continuously since. Her husband placed her and the children behind a mattress and a stone fireplace at the time of the negro soldiers' riots here when the old Nimitz hotel was shot up, to protect them from stray bullets.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skelly have returned from San Angelo, where they represented the Philharmonic chorus at a music festival and sang in a massed choir.

Gene Fatheree and Kewpie Doucette visited in McLean and Shamrock yesterday.

BRUTALITY EVIDENCE ABSENT SAYS RANGER WHO REPORTS ON CHARGES OF TEXAS PRISONERS

ONLY OLD SCAR FOUND ON HEAD OF ONE ACCUSER

AUSTIN, April 8 (AP)—A bill to re-enact the law authorizing the railroad commission to consider market demand in operating oil production was pushed toward final passage in the senate today.

A new thrust at the bill, which also would rewrite all oil conservation laws, was directed by Senator Tom DeBerry of Bogata. His amendment to eliminate the market demand provision shaped a direct test. Successively amendments were introduced only on a four-fifths vote of the membership.

The house resumed consideration of the departmental appropriation bill after defeating a resolution proposing inquiry into the natural resource tax situation. Representative Hollis Frazer of Franklin, sponsor of the resolution, said the investigation was necessary to determine if natural resources were being fairly taxed.

Included in the bills that came under the wire was one by Representative R. Emmet Morse of Houston. It would prohibit rental of unsanitary houses. The bill would require that each bedroom have 12 square feet of window space, that doors and windows be equipped with screens, that floors be substantial and the house weatherproof and that running water be furnished where available.

The house adopted a resolution to direct that liquor seized by Rangers be turned over to the state board of control for use in eleemosynary institutions.

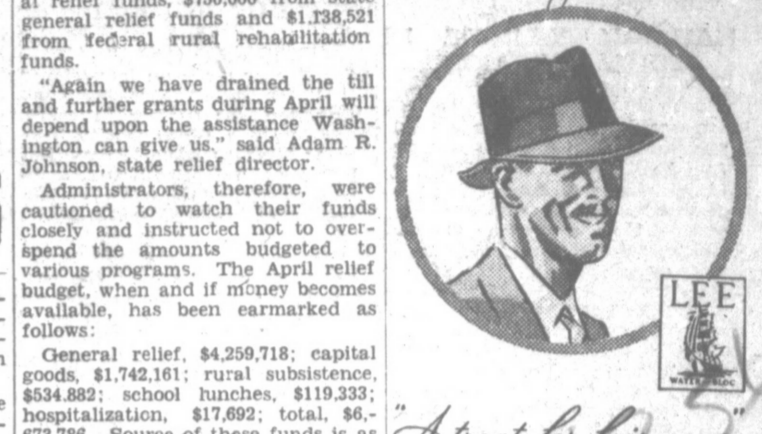

A resolution to authorize appointment of a committee to select a state poet laureate was approved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Turner were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rose yesterday.

STATE AND FEDERAL FUNDS IN HANDS OF COUNTY RELIEF HEADS
AUSTIN, April 8.—Checks totaling approximately $2,888,521, representing a portion of relief grants for April, were sent from the offices of the Texas Relief Commission and the state comptroller to counties last week. This amount will include $1,000,000 from federal general relief funds, $750,000 from state general relief funds and $1,388,521 from federal rural rehabilitation funds.

"Again we have drained the till and further grants during April will depend upon the assistance Washington can give us," said Adam R. Johnson, state relief director.
Administrators, therefore, were cautioned to watch their funds closely and instructed not to overspend the amounts budgeted to various programs. The April relief budget, when and if money becomes available, has been earmarked as follows:
General relief, $4,259,718; capital goods, $1,742,161; rural subsistence, $534,892; school lunches, $119,333; hospitalization, $17,692; total, $6,753,786. Source of these funds is as follows:
State general relief, $750,000; federal general relief, $3,464,743; rural rehabilitation, $2,779,043.
About April 15, checks will be sent to cover needs of the counties for the last half of the month, provided money is available from Washington. According to the April budget, this amount will be $5,785,265; however, unexpended cash balances in the counties as of April 1 will be subtracted from amount they are scheduled to receive for the last half of the month.

What do you mean, three years from seed bed to cigarettes... I mean simply this—it actually takes about three years to make a Chesterfield cigarette. It all starts with these little plants, called tobacco seedlings. They are grown under cover and transplanted to the open fields in the early spring. Then the warm Southern sunshine begins to get in its good work and as the plants grow and ripen the mild ripe leaves are cut and sent to the curing barns. The farmer then takes his tobacco to the auction warehouse where it is sold to the highest bidder. All of this takes about a year. The tobaccos for Chesterfield cigarettes are then stored away for two years or more to make them milder and taste better. It all takes time—just about three years—but there is no substitute for mild ripe tobacco in making a good cigarette.
