

Inquest Verdict Is Murder and Suicide

SURVEY WORK HALTED BY LANDOWNER

FORT WORTH — (AP) — The gunshot deaths of the family of a much-decorated airline pilot today were ruled "murder and suicide."

Justice of Peace Whit Boyd issued the inquest verdict pinning the four fatal shootings on Mrs. Edith S. Walker, a grandmother about 60 years old.

Bodies of Mrs. Walker, her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Finch, Pennell P. Finch, 8, and Richard Finley Finch, 7, were found in their beds in the Finchs' modest suburban home yesterday.

The grief-stricken husband and father, American Airlines pilot Richard Gordon Finch, arrived today from New York, Mich., where he had been visiting his parents. He and his pretty wife were estranged.

Finch, 37, showed up at his lawyer's office in Dallas and arrived early today in Dallas.

City Detective A. C. Howerton already had advanced the theory the grandmother shot her daughter and two grandchildren, and then herself.

Howerton, a veteran homicide officer who was in charge of the on-the-scenes investigation, said Mrs. Walker's fingerprints were found on a pistol which lay near the bodies. Fingerprints of the grandmother, about 60, also were found on the cartridge clip, he said.

Meanwhile Finch, a 37-year-old American Airlines pilot, arrived in Texas from Ann Arbor, Mich., but disappeared. He stepped off an American Airlines plane in Dallas at 1:15 a. m. (CST).

He was expected to travel the intervening 35 miles to Fort Worth by car but by late morning had not shown up here.

Finch's estranged wife, two children and mother-in-law were found yesterday by a neighbor who usually took the children to school.

Friends met the airliner both here and in Dallas but did not know the pilot. However, the plane's pilot said he alighted at Dallas.

The Finch home was under armed guard today as hundreds of cops searched for it.

HST's Claim Refuted by Republicans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — White House claims that the Democratic 81st Congress has set a "rather remarkable record" drew prompt Republican disagreement today.

Senator Brewster of Maine, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, expressed his party's line. He told reporters about the only thing the Democrats have to brag about in the current session is the passage of foreign policy laws that "Republicans helped put over."

"The groundwork for a more foreign policy bill may be laid at a meeting of party leaders here tonight with National Chairman George Gabrielson.

Brewster's blast came in reply to the White House's issuance yesterday of a summary of what had been done by President Truman favors.

Charles Ross, a presidential secretary, said it showed "a rather remarkable record." Brewster disagreed.

"Foreign policy matters are about the only major ones they have put through and the Republicans helped put over," he said.

"The only foreign policy proposal enacted without Republican support was the extension of the reciprocal trade agreements program without the peril point amendment."

"The Democrats are welcome to all of the credit they can get out of that. By the time the people find out what has been done to them, the Democrats may not be so happy about the results."

With respect to the President's demand for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, the summary said that a bill was passed by the Senate June 30 "in form not in accord with the President's recommendations." That was the version Senator Taft (R-Ohio) forced through the Senate. The House shelved repeal attempts and did not act on the Taft bill.

Listed as accomplishments were such legislation as that strengthening military unification, continuing the European Recovery Program and other foreign aid measures, extending rent control and others covering domestic actions.

Ching Tries Settlement With Steel

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — The government's Conciliation Service has taken on the biggest job in its history — trying to settle the steel and coal strikes.

Before the week is out U. S. Conciliation Director Cyrus Ching will meet separately with leaders of the striking CIO United Steelworkers and industry leaders.

At the same time, the conciliation director will watch developments in the coal strike. It was Ching who got John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, and coal industry operators to agree to go back to the bargaining table tomorrow.

Neither the steel industry nor Phillip Murray, president of the steelworkers, had any comment after Ching announced yesterday the government was stepping into the steel workers' dispute for the fourth time. Before the strike started days ago the government made three futile peace efforts.

Murray went ahead with plans to deliver pep talks to his 45,000 strikers. The first talk is scheduled today (1 p. m. CST) at Youngstown, Ohio.

The government will be working again in its effort to settle the strikes.

Damage Suit Before Court

A six-man jury was sworn in this morning in County Court to try a suit for damages between Wm. T. Combs, 508 Farley, and the American Casualty and Life Insurance Company of Dallas.

The amount that Combs, the plaintiff, is seeking was not announced.

In dismissing the remaining nine men and one woman from the jury list that had been called, County Judge Bruce Parker told them they would be recalled in the next few days when another civil suit will be tried.

By late this morning, several articles of evidence had been introduced, consisting of an insurance policy, receipts of premium payments, and company record cards.

Miss Alene Book, assistant secretary and member of the company's Board of Directors, was on the witness stand testifying for the defense at press time.

The company is represented by Ben Holland, and Jerome Pope is representing the plaintiff. Both attorneys are from Amarillo.

Lions Club Fetes Queen

CANADIAN — (Special) — Miss Joyce Bernson, winner of Pampa's Top o' Texas queen contest, and Miss Frances Shaller, the Canadian Lions Club candidate in the princess contest, were honor guests at the Lions luncheon meeting in the WCTU Building Friday.

Miss Bernson was the Canadian Chamber of Commerce candidate, and the commerce group presented her with a matched set of luggage for her trip to Kansas City where she will represent the Top o' Texas area in the American Royal Exposition this week. Leon Carl Zybach, vice president of the chamber, made the presentation.

Miss Shaller was presented an engraved compact by the Lions Club in appreciation of her having been its candidate.

Other guests at the luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bernson, parents of the queen, C. E. Brown, J. L. Cleveland, Ralph Freeman, Walter Killbrew and Tom Abraham.

Featured at the close of the meeting were moving pictures taken by Frank Shaller while touring Europe with his wife and daughter last summer.

Vet Compensation and Disability Payments Increased by New Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A bill raising veterans compensation and disability payments by more than $12,000,000 a year was signed by President Truman yesterday.

The Veterans Administration estimated that 2,024,000 veterans of the first and second world wars and of the Spanish American War would be affected under the section liberalizing disability and death payments. Backers of the bill contended the increases are necessary to meet the increased cost of living.

World War I veterans with disabilities legally presumed to be service-connected will get full compensation instead of the present 75 percent.

Navy Says Reds Have Secrets

Johnson to Be Heard by House Group

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Navy weapons expert told Congress today that Russia likely has guided missiles able to find and knock down bombers about 40,000 feet.

Capt. J. H. Sides said German rocket secrets fell into Russian hands after the war, and that it would now be "folly" to gamble U. S. security on the atom bomb and big bombers alone.

Had the war lasted a year longer, Sides said U. S. bombers would no longer have been able to fly over Germany without prohibition losses from German anti-aircraft rockets.

House members today promised Secretary of Defense Johnson a chance to present his side in the explosive Navy-Air Force controversy which, he said, could do "grave damage to our national security."

Johnson asked for that opportunity last night in a letter to Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

What's more, Johnson said, the committee should, "at the earliest practicable moment," seek out the military unification views of former President Herbert Hoover, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the chiefs of staff of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Vinson told newsmen: "Mr. Johnson will be called."

As for the others, he wouldn't say, except to make clear that he wants to hear from top military officials and Secretary of Air Symington.

First on the list for today's hearing was Cmdr. Eugene Tatom, the air ordinance officer who started the controversy yesterday with the statement that an atomic explosion wouldn't seriously injure a man standing less than a mile away.

Vinson invited Tatom to return with an explanation of why, in that case, so many people were killed by the first atomic bomb explosion in Japan.

Today he said he isn't belittling the bomb — that it is "a powerful weapon which vastly increases the potential of aerial bombing."

But he declared it "is not as" (See JOHNSON, Page 4)

Micro-Waves' Demonstration Is Scheduled

Various ways in which telephone voices are carried in long distance conversations will be demonstrated at the Rotary Club meeting here tomorrow.

George Brown, of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Information Department, will demonstrate the "captivating" "micro-waves" which can shoot a voice through space in a straight line.

George Newberry, local telephone manager, said the telephone carried in this manner can be reflected in a mirror, and how the volume of sound can be raised or lowered by means of an ordinary magnifying glass.

Newberry, who is bringing the program here, said a section of "co-axial" cable capable of carrying 2,400 conversations at the same time will be shown. This cable, it was stated, can be used in televising a program.

Area School Men at Meet

Huelyn Laycock, Knox Kinard, Pampa, Rex Reeves, LeFor, A. H. Gordon, Miami, and Elmer Moore, Shamrock, were among the school superintendents attending the Texas Association of School Administrators at Austin Sunday and Monday.

H. L. Foster, president of TASA, Longview, presided over the dinner meeting Sunday in the Ballroom of the Austin Hotel. Charles M. Rogers, Amarillo, presented the invocation, and Supt. A. J. Stoddard, Los Angeles, delivered the principal address on "Our Schools."

Breakfast was held Monday in the Crystal Ballroom of the Driskill Hotel. W. T. White, vice president of TASA, Dallas, presided over the morning sessions. Included were discussions of "Glimmer-Aikin in Operation," "Challenges to Administration," "New Steps" and "New Challenges to Our Profession."

Special music was provided during the morning by Walter Jenkins, Houston.

First Russian Soldier Arrested

VIENNA — (AP) — An Austrian policeman arrested a Russian soldier yesterday after the Russian truck ran into four pedestrians, killing two and injuring the other two. It was the first time in the four years of occupation that an Austrian policeman arrested a member of the Russian military.

The soldier was arrested at the scene of the crash. The truck was carrying four pedestrians, two of whom were killed. The other two were injured.

The soldier was taken to a hospital and is recovering from his wounds. The truck was damaged and is being repaired.

Young Mobeelie Girl May See First Time Next Spring

There is a possibility that a young Mobeelie girl may be granted nearly perfect eyesight as a result of one of medical science's most delicate operations.

Nanette Postmaster, 19-year-old daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Rufus J. Tyson of Mobeelie, will return to New York City next March, and it is expected that she will be ready then to have a cornea transplanted from some one else's eye to one of hers that have been almost totally blind since infancy.

An infection settled in the girl's eyes when she was less than two days old, her father said, and scar tissue formed over the corneas, the transparent part of the eye that covers the lens. For the past 19 years, Nanette has only been able to distinguish between light and dark.

"Sometimes she could tell that there was an object between her and the light," her father said, "but she couldn't tell if it was a man, a woman, or a post."

While in Amarillo two years ago for a routine examination, her oculist told Mrs. Tyson that there was only one man in the United States who could help her daughter's sight "if he can do it," she quoted him as saying.

That man was Dr. Ramon Castroviejo of New York, who has perfected the technique of cornea transplanting just within the past few years.

The Tysons made an appointment with the famed specialist to coincide with Nanette's trip to Morristown, N. J., to get a Seeing Eye dog.

He performed an operation on July 26 this year that was a preliminary to the cornea transplanting he intends to make in March, if the girl's eyes have progressed to the point where such an operation would have a chance of being successful.

Nanette has received all her elementary and high school education at the state school for the blind at Austin, where she graduated last May at the head of her class.

She was awarded a college scholarship and is now a Sophomore at Abilene Christian College, where she is majoring in music. She has had a total of 11 years piano training and five years on the pipe organ.

"Hope," her Seeing Eye Boxer, accompanies her everywhere on the campus.

HST, Seeking Agreement On Farm Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman called Democratic Congressional leaders to the White House today and urged them to reach a quick agreement on the farm bill.

The Congressional delegation members were silent as they strode out of the White House after an hour-long conference in Mr. Truman's office.

Differences among Mr. Truman's leadership in the Senate on farm price supports have imperiled passage of a new farm measure.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters afterwards that no agreement was reached at the White House parley.

"The President asked them to get together on a bill he can sign," Ross said. "He asked them to adjust their differences."

Ross would not say what sort of bill Mr. Truman would sign, however. When asked if the President would veto an unsatisfactory bill, Ross replied "you may make what implications you please."

Rep. Cecil F. White (D-Calif.) said yesterday, after a talk at the White House, that Mr. Truman strongly supported legislation providing parity supports of 90 percent of parity of basic crops.

Senate Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill.) and Senator Anderson (D-Mt.), former secretary of agriculture, have been leading the fight for a sliding scale support system ranging from 75 to 90 percent.

Parity is price calculated to give a farmer a fair return for the things he sells in relation to the things he buys.

Youngsters Learn to Be Firemen

"What's this for?" Look out, here I come down the pole!"

When 23 little boys between 8 and 11 years of age get together at the Fire Station — something's bound to happen.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Louis Epps took Cub Scouts of Pack 20 to the Fire Station so they could receive some first-hand information for Fire Prevention Week. Mrs. Huelyn Laycock took her pack through Saturday afternoon.

Before the Scouts had been at the station long they discovered the poles the firemen slide down. Four or five of the boys tried to climb the poles, Michael Conaway almost made it, Paul Beisenberg got almost to the top, but H. A. Hanks was the only one who succeeded. The rest of the Scouts dashed to the second floor in order to fly down the pole. Some did — others didn't. Some covered they had cold feet.

Fireman Albert Fuller and Fire Chief Ernest Winborne drilled the boys until they understood just how to turn in an alarm. Then they demonstrated regular fire fighting and fire fighting with fog.

After inspecting the upstairs of the station — the firemen's living quarters — the sirens and climbing all over the trucks — the Scouts left feeling very much as if they knew it all.

Rites Set for W. T. Horner, 89

Funeral services will be held Thursday for William Tom Horner, 89, of Skellytown, who died in a Pampa hospital at 5:30 p. m. yesterday after an illness of several years.

Horner was born March 19, 1860, in Jefferson County, Kansas. A retired rancher, he had lived in Skellytown the past 20 years.

In addition to his wife, May, he is survived by four sons, John and K.R. of Lamar, Ark., and Clyde and Forest of Skellytown; and by two daughters, Mrs. A. L. Johnson of Skellytown, and Mrs. Clifford Cannon of Richmond, Calif.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Thursday from the First Baptist Church of Skellytown with the Rev. M. O. Evans, pastor, officiating.

Burial, under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home, will be in Fairview Cemetery, Pampa.

But he declared it "is not as" (See JOHNSON, Page 4)

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Navy weapons expert told Congress today that Russia likely has guided missiles able to find and knock down bombers about 40,000 feet.

Capt. J. H. Sides said German rocket secrets fell into Russian hands after the war, and that it would now be "folly" to gamble U. S. security on the atom bomb and big bombers alone.

Had the war lasted a year longer, Sides said U. S. bombers would no longer have been able to fly over Germany without prohibition losses from German anti-aircraft rockets.

House members today promised Secretary of Defense Johnson a chance to present his side in the explosive Navy-Air Force controversy which, he said, could do "grave damage to our national security."

Johnson asked for that opportunity last night in a letter to Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

What's more, Johnson said, the committee should, "at the earliest practicable moment," seek out the military unification views of former President Herbert Hoover, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the chiefs of staff of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Vinson told newsmen: "Mr. Johnson will be called."

As for the others, he wouldn't say, except to make clear that he wants to hear from top military officials and Secretary of Air Symington.

First on the list for today's hearing was Cmdr. Eugene Tatom, the air ordinance officer who started the controversy yesterday with the statement that an atomic explosion wouldn't seriously injure a man standing less than a mile away.

Vinson invited Tatom to return with an explanation of why, in that case, so many people were killed by the first atomic bomb explosion in Japan.

Today he said he isn't belittling the bomb — that it is "a powerful weapon which vastly increases the potential of aerial bombing."

Food Handlers Urged to Keep All Food and Dishes Clean

A nation is eating out of your hands (and dishes) so be sure they are clean, R. M. Mundine, county sanitarian said when giving tips to food handlers.

"Four out of five of all common germs gain entrance to the body through the mouth," he continued. "So don't kill off your customers — kill the germs instead."

The health inspector said cleanliness promotes not only better health, but better business as well, and added at least 25 dangerous diseases can enter the human body through improper food handling.

Sewing Exchange Changes Location

Pampa Sewing Machine Exchange, Fabric Shop and Button Equipment Shop Sunday moved to 108 W. Foster. The companies formerly were located at 304 W. Foster.

Vernie Callahan has been the owner of the Pampa Sewing Machine Exchange since March 1. Mrs. T. C. Kitchens and Mrs. Paul Jenks are joint owners of the Fabric Shop. They purchased it from Mrs. B. E. Ferrell a week ago. Mrs. F. D. Guntault is the owner of the Button Equipment Shop.

Compact Commission Will Organize

SANTA FE, N.M. —(AP)— The Pecos River Compact Commission probably will meet and organize sometime this week.

The meeting originally was slated Sunday, but the absence of Berkeley Johnson, federal member, caused a postponement, New Mexico Engineer John Bliss said. Bliss is New Mexico representative. J. C. Wilson, Pecos, Texas, is Texas commissioner.

Books Added To Library

Seventy-five books, a gift of the recently disbanded Pampa Book Club, have been added to the City Library's collection, Mrs. Lillian Snow, librarian, announced today.

Ten of them were specially selected for the memorial shelf that was dedicated last winter by the American Legion Auxiliary to perpetuate the memory of Gray Countians who lost their lives in the late war.

Firemen Answer 2nd Call in Week

Firemen answered a call at 2 p.m. yesterday for their second alarm of the national Fire Prevention Week. They went to Hobart and Kentucky to put out a truck fire.

The battery lid of a Lee Way Motor Freight, Inc., truck had come in contact with the seat cushion and started it afire. No damage was done to any other part of the truck.

Book Royalties To Aid Charity

NEW YORK —(AP)— Eight students from the Erasmus Hall High School are publishing a book about Col. David Marcus, Col. Marcus was killed in the fighting in Palestine.

The book about him is for children from six to 10. The project started as a class exercise and grew into a major program. After consultation with Mrs. Emma Marcus, the colonel's widow, the eight students have decided to give royalties from the book to the Colonel Marcus Scholarship Fund for the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing. How quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcostrale. Pour this into a glass bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls three or four times a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the results desired, more grapefruit juice if results desired and bottles of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, back, abdomen, hips, waist and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Mmes. Pickett and Maxey Hostesses To First Christian Church Groups

Mrs. H. J. Pickett, who lives west of town, was hostess to Group One of the Christian Women's Council of the First Christian Church Wednesday afternoon.

After the meeting had been opened with prayer, a business session was held. The group voted to send three gift packages of "Pieces for Peace" overseas on Nov. 4.

The devotional was by Mrs. DeLea Vicars, who used the theme, "Within the Family of God."

Mrs. Homer Kees presented the lesson for the month on the subject, "The Church Finds Them Here." It dealt with those living in the mountain country, and a shower was given in connection with the lesson. The articles will be sent to the Jo'em Down Store at Hazel Green Academy in Hazel Green, Ky.

The meeting closed with the Christian Women's benediction. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those attending were Mrs. A. A. Tieman, Mrs. Homer Kees, Mrs. Mercer Densmore, Mrs. R. A. Mack, Mrs. DeLea Vicars, Mrs. Oscar Huff and visitors, the Misses Jimmie Kay and Mary Ann Mack.

Group Six of the First Christian Church was in session Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Glen Maxey.

The devotional was by Mrs. H. Tyler, and the lesson, on the subject "The French Speaking People and Our Mountain Folk" was given by Mrs. Leland Finney, Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. Lillian Zamora and Mrs. E. E. Jackson.

Each member took canned food to be sent to the Juliette Fowler Orphan Home in Dallas.

During a social period, refreshments were served. The November meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Elbert Shultz.

Those attending were Mrs. E. E. Jackson, Mrs. Burl Graham, Jr., Mrs. G. E. Nichols, Mrs. Walter Higginbotham, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Zamora, Mrs. L. L. Laramore, Mr. Finney, Mrs. T. V. Parks, Mrs. Wayne Hutchens, Mrs. Elbert E. Shultz, Mrs. Charles Madeira, Mrs. Jim Cunningham, Mrs. M. E. Warden, Mrs. Howard Causby, Mrs. Henry Tyler, Mrs. Gean Vanderalice and the hostesses.

B&PW Club Breakfast at Schneider Opens Business Women's Week

The initial move in a series of activities in connection with National Business Women's Week, Oct. 9-15, was a breakfast at the Schneider Hotel at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, attended by members of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's Club and their guests. Hostess was Gladys Howard.

The devotional was given by Katie Beverly, club mother, and Mrs. Clifford Bixler gave a vocal selection.

The breakfast menu consisted of grapefruit juice, scrambled eggs, bacon, blueberry muffins and coffee. The tables were decorated with arrangements of autumn flowers in various shades of red and blue, and were grown by a B & PW member, Gladys Howard, in her garden.

B & PW Club members attending the breakfast were Lillian Jordan, president, Zora Lee East, Viola Chendening, Laura Belle Cornelius, Allie Morgan, Mary F. Eller, Mary C. Winston, Inez Bixler, Frances Appleby, Clara Lee Shoemaker, Madge Rusk and Lillian McNutt.

Jessie Stroup, Mabel McKaughan, Sigourney Waters, Mabel Winsler, Lonnie Killen, Alma Ash, Elsie Gee, Mildred Lafferty, Evora Crawford, Noel Thompson, Nell Tinnin, Lucille Turner, Gladys Jaynes, Dovie Breeze, Ann Chapman, Katie Beverly, Mrs. Lard, Ruby Williams, Minnie Barne, Gladys Howard, Leah Bernman and Ella LaCasse.

Guests were Jimmie Jordan, Muriel Landers, Bessie Kelly, Allene Weathered, Eloise Lane, Faye Smart and Mary Forrester.

From 9 until 11 o'clock Monday morning, Mrs. Doris Lively presided at a table at the Court House Cafe where B&PW members and their guests were served coffee and doughnuts.

At 7:30 this evening Grainger McIlhenny, representative from Wheeler, will speak on "Jury Service for Women" at a B & PW meeting in the City Club Rooms.

Members who have band instruments which they no longer need or have games or puzzles will take them to the meeting this evening, to be given to the Salvation Army for the recreation room.

Wednesday is the final day of the letter contest, with letters being written on ways to improve Pampa. The winning letter will be announced and published Friday.

Mildred Hill is chairman of the Public Affairs Committee. Letters are to be addressed to B&PW Box 574, Pampa.

The opening lead of the jack of hearts was won in dummy with the queen. Declarer could see that he was going to lose two spade tricks and it was going to be difficult to keep from losing two club tricks.

Declarer led a small spade from dummy, West played the jack, the queen was finessed, and East won with the king. Back came another heart which was won in dummy with the king. A small spade was played and declarer went up with the ace. The seven of diamonds was led and the queen finessed.

On the ace of diamonds the three of clubs was discarded. The seven of hearts was played, won with the ace, and the last heart was ruffed with dummy's last trump.

The four of diamonds was played and trumped by the declarer with a small spade. Now at this point declarer led a trump, throwing East in the lead. All East could do was to cash his ace of clubs and give declarer a club trick.

Seven Rules for Preventing Fire In the Home

AP Newsfeatures
The National Fire Protection Associates reports that fire is attacking our homes at the rate of 700 a day.

Most fires, they claim, are attributed to the violation of 7 easy-to-remember safety rules. Here are steps they suggest to eliminate the hazard:

- 1- Never smoke in bed. Keep ash trays handy. Don't discard lighted cigarettes and matches. Keep matches in metal containers out of reach of small children.
- 2- Don't use or store flammable cleaning fluids or other explosive liquids in the home. Use carbon tetrachloride or some other fire-safe cleaning fluids.
- 3- Old magazines and newspapers stored in closets, basements, and attics are good tinder for a spark. Throw them out, along with broken and discarded furniture. Keep oily rags in covered metal containers.
- 4- Have an electrician check the wiring to make sure it is adequate to operate all electrical appliances safely. Protect the cir-

New Sooner Highway Will Aid This Area

The Pampa Chamber of Commerce said today that word had been received from Oklahoma that a new short route, that will benefit Gray Counties, is assured from Wheeler to Oklahoma City.

Ralph Duray, manager of the Elk City Chamber of Commerce, informed the local chamber that progress is being made on Highway 73 from Elk City to the Texas line, by way of Sweetwater, Okla.

This new road would permit a straight route east from Wheeler through Sweetwater and into Elk City. Travelers now must drop south to Shamrock from Wheeler, thence east to Sayre, and then back up north to Oklahoma City. The new route would run from Highway 66 at Elk City, through Sweetwater and to the Texas line where it would connect with Texas Highway 122.

The Public Roads Administration has recognized the road, and the Elk City Chamber of Commerce has purchased the right-of-way necessary for completion of it. The Oklahoma Highway Department has built a bridge and two miles of grade and drainage on the approaches to bring it up to federal standards.

On Jan. 1 the State Highway Department will begin work on 7.12 miles of the road. The new route will be a travel saving of several miles, it was said.

Here's Why Your Beer Gushes Over

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Ever wonder why your beer gushes over when you open the can or bottle?

Dr. Philip Gray, here for the Master Brewers' Association of America convention, gave this explanation:

"Laboratory studies indicate that wildness is primarily physical in character. Colloidal particles, acting as nuclei, are responsible for the liberation of carbon dioxide gas from the unstable, super-saturated solution of carbon dioxide existing when the container is opened."

Now you know why your beer gushes over when you open the can or bottle.

Now you know why a vein in pain for the whistle to appear, the parents brought Hamilton to the hospital here.

A surgeon operated yesterday and removed a nickel.

The Connells are still looking for the whistle.

Fireworks Fiesta At Fair Tonight

DALLAS — (AP) — Tonight's bright night at the State Fair of Texas. At least, there'll be plenty popping — a giant fireworks fiesta is scheduled at the Cotton Bowl.

Judging in the National Aberdeen Angus Show, the Southdown and Shropshire Sheep Show and for hogs will also get underway.

The fourth day of the fair, shooting for a two-million attendance mark this year, has been designated as a special "day" for the Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association; State Fair exhibitors; crippled veterans; Eastland County peanut growers; Women's Relief Corps G.A.R., Stillwater, Okla., and Texas Purebred Sheep Breeders.

Thousands of Dallas County Negroes poured through the gates yesterday for their "Youth Achievement Day."

 powerful as to justify completely the terror it apparently inspires in many minds.

Tatum quoted from a report by the Medical Division of the U. S. Strategic Bombing Survey of March, 1947, on effects of the atom bombs dropped on two Japanese cities.

While deaths totaled something like 70,000 to 80,000, the reports said, beyond 6,500 feet radiation effects appeared to drop off very sharply.

The reports said that flash burns were protected by clothing and buildings within less than 3,500 feet from the blast.

Rep. Kilday (D-Texas) wanted to know whether a man standing in the open would be safer than one in a building, for instance.

"The man's best possible position," Tatum replied, "would be a hole in the ground."

He suggested Admiral W. H. P. Blandy could answer questions better than he.

Now commander of the Atlantic fleet Blandy headed the expedition which made the postwar atom bomb tests at Bikini.

In his letter to the committee chairman, Johnson said he had been following "with much interest" the hearings into Navy charges that the Air Force is gambling with national security by placing its trust in the B-36 atomic bomber.

"I am sure that you share with me the conviction that this controversy could, under some circumstances, do grave damage to our national security," Johnson wrote, adding that he would "greatly appreciate an opportunity to appear before your committee."

There have been indications that the hearings might be recessed at the end of this week when the Navy's case is all in. The Navy has some 15 witnesses, including its top admirals, yet to be heard.

 "artificial" creation devoid of any legal basis.

"This so-called government," their statement said, "has no title to represent Eastern Germany."

Chukov in his statement rapped back at the Bonn government in the West. Western Germany, he declared, "is governed by the inspirators of the Hitler regime who do not even conceal their hatred against neighboring countries and their lust for revenge. Their aspirations are supported by foreign powers who have degraded Western Germany to willing tools of their aggressive plans."

Chukov's statement assured the East German regime of the "whole-hearted support of the Soviet Union," and termed the creation of the republic a "legal step." His statement was considered recognition of the government, but a ceremonious transfer of sovereignty was made today.

It took place at 4 p. m. (9 a. m. CST), in the old Prussian Legislature.

The People's Chamber, lower house of the new government's Legislature, met there to hear the Russian recognition formally announced by Vladimir Semionov, the top Russian political advisor in Germany.

Meanwhile a mass meeting was held concurrent with the recognition ceremony. The Communists said 100,000 persons jammed Unter den Linden.

 get the steel strike settled. Contracts of a half-million steelworkers in fabricating plants—where steel is the basic product for hundreds of articles—began expiring Saturday. They'll continue to run out through mid-December.

And Murray says the union will call a strike in each case where the fabricators won't provide fee pensions and insurance.

A total of 10 small firms has agreed to pay workers a 10-cent pension and insurance package without employe contributions.

That is the exact recommendation of the Presidential fact-finding board which tried unsuccessfully to head off the walkout.

Many companies not only are worrying about the lack of steel, but are beginning to look at their coal reserves. In a few instances, reduced working schedules are in effect.

Double-barrelled negotiating sessions are scheduled in West Virginia tomorrow in an effort to halt the UMW walkout.

 to the prices he pays for goods that he needs.

Chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee also has been talking about tossing the Brannan subsidy plan into the Senate scrap on farm legislation.

The Brannan plan—named for Secretary of Agriculture Brannan—would let prices of perishable crops drop to whatever the market will bring. If prices fell below a "fair" level, the government would make up the difference by direct payments to farmers.

After a zig-zag course, the Senate finally rejected last week, 45 to 28, an amendment to put price props under wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts at 90 percent of parity.

Parity is a price calculated to give farmers a fair return on what they grow in terms of what they have to buy.

Under the bill now before the Senate, price supports for basic crops would range from 75 to 90 percent of parity.

Jules Moch Is Asked to Form New Government
 PARIS — (AP) — Jules Moch, a Socialist Party leader, was asked by President Vincent Auriol today to form a new French government.

If he succeeds, Moch will become premier to succeed Henri Queuille, who resigned six days ago in an economic dispute that split his 13-month-old coalition cabinet.

President Auriol offered Moch the premiership despite the fact that the Socialist minister is far from certain of winning enough support from other party groups to obtain a majority in the French National Assembly.

Moch said he would tell the President tonight whether he would accept the nomination.

Wheeler Farmer Collects Rock for His New Home

By MRS. D. O. BEENE
Pampa News Correspondent
WHEELER — (Special) — Lee Black, a prominent orchardist north of Wheeler, has been collecting thin slabs of rock from all over Texas to use in veneering the new home he is building.

Now that he has about enough rock the Blacks have begun work on their new six-room modern home.

The most prized rock of all, however, is one he brought from his father's home place in Eastland County.

Black is regarded as an authority on fruit culture in this part of the country. He has been in the business since 1928, when he purchased his tract north of Wheeler and planted 20 acres to peaches, apples, and cherries. He now has 25 acres in orchard.

Black said he had the prospect last spring of harvesting the finest fruit crop he ever had until the orchard was visited by three devastating hail storms. The total damage amounted to over 90 percent.

Black has planted his apple orchard to alfalfa and turns his pigs loose in the orchard to graze. The pigs thrive on the windfall apples, he found, which helped increase his pork crop at less expense. And thus the orchard serves a double purpose.

Mrs. Black also has an extensive poultry yard in which she keeps a flock of about 100 turkeys and 200 chickens.

Black was born and reared in Eastland County, where his father, R. M. Black, was county judge when the county was organized.

There is a legend around Eastland of a horned frog that was supposed to have been sealed in the cornerstone of the first court house.

Ed T. Cox, who still lives in Eastland, wrote: "I do not know how the frog got into the cornerstone, but I am fully acquainted with how he got out."

"The Courthouse was wrecked in preparation for a new one," Cox's letter continued, "and someone said that a horned frog had been put in the cornerstone along with some other articles when the building was first built."

"In wrecking the building, brick had been left about three feet high over the stone," he said.

"After a crowd had gathered, workmen removed the remaining brick and found a metal sheet covering a pit in the stone. They removed this and began taking out the contents. They came to the frog which they held up by the tail before the crowd," Cox explained.

"The frog seemed to be a little exhausted for a few seconds, but then he began to show plenty of life."

The frog was taken over the county and exhibited for a long while afterward, Cox's letter concluded.

West Texas Given As Textile Site

LUBBOCK — The advantages of West Texas as a site for wool textile manufacturing are stressed in a new bulletin released by the Texas Technological College Research Committee.

The bulletin was prepared for the West Texas-Santa Fe Industrial Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Abilene. Its main purpose is to point out desirable plant locations in West Texas near the source of raw materials.

"It is not intended as a definite instruction for locating a specific mill in a given locality," the committee points out. Rather, it is aimed at presenting the broad picture to the woolens industry.

The committee cites the 1947 wool production figures, which show that 25 percent of the total clip came from West Texas.

The bulletin also points out the location of the only textile engineering school west of the Mississippi River at Texas Technological College.

Besides location, the bulletin also mentions the favorable labor supply, transportation facilities and taxation program which make the West Texas area attractive to manufacturing concerns.

New Lilies and New Ways To Plant Them This Fall

Japanese lily bulbs will be back in full supply this fall, and with them new American varieties, so that lily fanciers may choose from a list larger than ever before available, to plant for next summer's flowers.

Fall planting is best, because most lily bulbs available in the spring were dug the previous fall, and spent the winter in cold storage. It is much better for them to be in the soil of your garden, where they can start spring growth as soon as the frost has left.

Plant breeders in this country have been working on lilies, and offer several hybrid types, which are claimed to be more adaptable to garden environment than older varieties, which are species, or wild forms, gathered in their native homes, and transferred to gardens without change. Those which have survived and been grown with reasonable care in average garden soil include:

L. candidum, the Madonna lily, formerly grown by florists as the Easter lily; L. regale, the royal lily, white with pink markings; L. speciosum, a Japanese variety of which two varieties are common, rubrum, white marked with rose, and album, all white; L. henryi, known as the yellow speciosum; L. tigrinum, var. splendens, the tiger lily; L. tenuifolium, the coral lily of Siberia; L. auratum, the Japanese gold-banded lily; L. elegantissimum, Japanese lily, including red and yellow; L. testaceum, fragrant buff-colored flowers growing 3 feet high; L. martagon, purple flowers spotted with black.

American growers question the wisdom of planting lily bulbs deep. L. candidum and its hybrids should barely be covered with soil, they say. Others are best planted so that the soil above the bulb is no deeper than the bulb itself. Thus a bulb measuring four inches from top to bottom should have four inches of soil above it. If this is not deep enough, the roots will pull the bulb deeper; while a bulb planted too deep can never rise to the right level.

More important than depth is the location, however. Lilies need a porous, well drained soil, a sunshiny and lots of moisture. A southern slope is ideal. Plant the bulbs upright, otherwise the stem may be weak.

American growers also are in agreement that the old idea that lilies should not be fed with commercial plant food is obsolete. They respond well to modern commercial preparations, and show no injury, provided it is used with the usual precautions. In preparing a bed or border for lilies, spade under a complete balanced plant food, using 4 pounds for 100 square feet. In planting bulbs singly, mix a teaspoonful of plant food with soil at the bottom of the hole, and cover it with an inch of fresh soil before setting the bulb.

Texas Ranks Fourth In Poultry Sales

By tailoring their products to consumer preferences, Texas poultrymen produced more than 130 million dollars in poultry products last year to rank fourth among the 48 states, it was pointed out by Howard C. Pierce, national poultry research director.

"Whenever a commodity shows a jump in sales, it is always the result of consumer choice, and poultry is no exception," said Pierce.

(Citing Department of Agriculture figures, Pierce showed that the fastest-growing branch of poultry is commercial broiler production which has leaped upward 41 percent since the drive began in 1946 to produce better broilers.

The Indian tailor bird builds its nest by sewing leaves together with fibers.

Control Dam Begun on Locke Farm

Ellis Locke is constructing an erosion control dam on his place about three miles northwest of Miami, the Roberts County Wind Erosion District announced.

The dam is in a large draw but since there are two other dams above it, there is little danger that water will run enough to cut the spillway.

In a large draw, it is often necessary to start at the upper end and work down to get enough storage to effectively control runoff water, and to slow it down so it will not cut into the banks.

Most ranchers are in a position now to decide on the stocking rate for next year, officials of the district said.

The number of cattle on a pasture has great effect on the loss of soil.

If the grass is eaten off too close, water runoff is higher, which in turn means less water for the plants.

Also, the cattle, when overstocked, kill the kinds of grass they like, which permits undesirable growths to get started.

Grass in a manufacturing plant, and if kept too short it can manufacture little food, and becomes stunted and shallow rooted. Then in dry spells the grass withers rapidly.

These factors add up to the fact that grass which is grazed properly will make more growth and produce more pounds of beef, the district's weekly report concluded.

Half-Way Mark Is Reached in Stadium Drive

WACO — (Special) — Houston friends of Baylor University have neared the half-way mark in their drive to raise $300,000 for the new Baylor Stadium while Baylorites in other Texas cities set their Stadium Campaigns in motion.

Amarillo and Lubbock will have reports soon on their first actual campaigning.

San Antonio's D. K. Martin launched advance solicitations there.

Dallas' Baylor Stadium Campaign was in its second week with a dual goal—to get as much money as possible for the stadium, and to try to run the total past Houston's.

Sales of Baylor Stadium seat options and stadium bonds in Austin are to begin in a few days.

Schoolhouse Remains a Busy Place

Before any rural schoolhouses in Gray County are removed, it might well be seen if they can become as useful as Hillcrest School. This rural school building from its tree-clad knoll overlooks Madison, Wis. Capper's Farmer tells in a current article how it is used by a community three years after the district school was closed.

"Here was a well-built, modern rural school threatened with the fate of thousands of others in the Midwest when a wave of consolidation robbed them of initial function," says a story in the farm magazine. "But one patron, Mrs. Eugene Dietz, a former extension agent, saw useful possibilities in Hillcrest."

"She noted that it had a children's library of about 500 volumes. Why couldn't it be turned into a library center not only for children, but for all ages? Miss Jennie Schrage, traveling librarian for Wisconsin State Library, explained that $50 to 500 additional volumes could be borrowed at a time from the state library. Miss Schrage catalogued the entire library. Mrs. Lola MacLean, farmer's wife and former teacher in the district, volunteered as librarian.

"Children from two years up now eagerly climb the steps of Hillcrest for an afternoon of story-telling by Mrs. MacLean. Not a child in the neighborhood misses this treat if he can avoid it."

"Hillcrest has become a lively community center since the library was established," the story continues. "The Homemakers Club meets once a month. Some meetings include family groups. One is the Fall Festival, a money-raising event to finance club expenses. There is a flower show in late summer. All families meet at the school for a New Year party and oyster supper. The old schoolhouse is still a busy place."

Hornless Cows Are Reported Developed

WEBSTER CITY, Iowa — (AP) — E. C. Clover, vocational agriculture instructor in the Webster City schools, has gained nationwide attention for his work with hornless cattle.

Clover spent more than four years developing a herd of Guernsey cattle which are hornless. He was named a director of the recently-formed National Polled Cattle Promotion Club. He now has a herd of 16 polled cattle, all descendants of his original stock.

The three most popular breeds of chickens in this country are New Hampshire, Leghorns and Plymouth Rocks, according to Capper's Farmer. Nearly the same number of birds were reported for each of these breeds in a U. S. Department of Agriculture study. Together they make up about three-fourths of all the birds in the flocks studied.

Controls Cut Chick Losses

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — Not even babies in the most fastidious hospital get better temperature and humidity attention than Richard Cole's chickens—and one result is that he boasts a chicken mortality rate less than a third as high as the commercial average.

Cole, a young veteran, has a 7,000-bird brooder house with special automatically controlled heat and humidity features. In 10-week tests he has shown a chick mortality rate of less than 3 percent compared to the customary 10 percent. Engineers of the Minneapolis Honeywell company who installed them say the control arrangements are more elaborate than most home or business-building air conditioning.

The brooder house has a radiant-panel heating system under the floor, warmed by a conventional oil-fired furnace. It is a three-section house, with heating plant and storage bins in the center section, while each of the side sections has capacity of 3,500 chickens. The building is so designed that one man can handle 7,000 birds a day, Cole said.

There are exhaust fans operating from humidistats, and controls which "sense" coming temperature changes and automatically make adjustments in inside temperature to compensate for change in wind direction, sun effect or other climatic variations outdoors.

Aggie Rodeo Set For Oct. 28-29

COLLEGE STATION — The annual Aggie Rodeo, sponsored by the Saddle and Siroin Club, Texas A&M College, has been scheduled for Oct. 28 and 29.

According to Carl Kemplin, president of the club, the rodeo will be held in conjunction with the quarter horse-type conference scheduled on the campus at the same time. One evening rodeo performance is scheduled Oct. 28, and matinee and evening performances are scheduled for Oct. 29.

Proceeds will finance trips of the livestock and meat judging teams. Only A&M students are eligible to compete.

New uses for mechanical gadgets are always being found, according to Capper's Farmer. The farm magazine says that parking meters are being used in renting tennis courts. Players insert a quarter in the meter and the flag stays up for 30 minutes, when they must either stop playing or put in another quarter. A system for heating attics in drive-in theatres combines a heating coil with the speaking unit. Your car stays comfortable warm on cool nights.

Truman Said in Favor of 90 Percent Support

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Cecil F. White (D-Calif.) quoted President Truman as saying he strongly favors 90 percent parity price supports for the basic farm crops.

White said he called on Mr. Truman to urge him to support 90 percent price props as against the flexible 75 to 90 percent supports in the farm bill now before the Senate.

"The President informed me he has been supporting 90 percent all along and will continue to do so in accordance with his promises to the people in the last campaign," White told reporters.

In view of the Senate's rejection of the 90 percent supports last week, White said the battle will probably have to be carried over into the next session of Congress beginning in January.

Local Men Return From Purina Farm

A group of local livestock feed businessmen and ranchers have returned from Gray Summit, Mo., near St. Louis, where they saw feeding and management operations demonstrated at Purina Research Farm.

They are H. L. Ledrick, Burton F. Reynolds, Doug Mills, Harold Osborne, and Leonard Doss.

The Pampanos were among a large number of guests at a Reunion banquet held at St. Louis.

Hut Built for Sorghum Drying

COLLEGE STATION — A quarantine hut will be erected at the Beville Station of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A&M College, R. D. Lewis, director, announced today.

"This building is essential to the progress of the cooperative sorghum grain drying and storage investigations being conducted at the Beville Station in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Corn Products Refining Company," Lewis points out.

Panhandle Class A Ball Clubs Are Rated Toughest in State

By The Associated Press

One of two finalists in Class A football's championship game last year stands a good chance to get another crack at the crown.

New Braunfels last week buried Youkum under a 62-7 score to roll on undefeated and untied with 182 points to four opponents' 33.

The Unicorns lost to Monahans in the title tilt last year, but there's not too great a chance they'll get revenge against the Lobos.

Wink blanked Monahans, 14-0, last week to dump the defending champs from the unbeaten ranks and from the favorite's spot in district five.

Kerrill, which downed Crane 19-13 for its fifth conference win, moved to the top of the heap in this district.

The Panhandle's crop of powerful Class A elevens continue to move along.

Phillips, Dalhart and Hereford kept an unbeaten pace, but Floyd dropped out of this class on an 18-19 defeat to Abernathy. It was once-beaten Abernathy's third District 3 win.

Dist. 4 continued to set the pace in District 4.

When Phillips dumped Childress 26-20, last week it was the 101st victory for the Blackhaws since Coach H. C. "Chesty" Walker took over in 1939.

A 63-yard pass play in the final minute of play gave them their latest win.

J. S. Pikes' strong Littlefield Wildcats dumped Class AA Brownfield, 47-7, to continue to look like the class of District 4's North Zone.

Little Leffors, with a squad of only 22 and a total enrollment of 118, had to be voted into District 2A. But it doesn't need permission to score touchdowns and has rolled up 122 points to seven for four opponents this season.

Phillips, which has 190 points in five games, should be close to the state's top scoring team. Jasper, which has 160 for four games, didn't play last week.

Lavega bounced into the favorite's role in District 19 by beating Baseca, 46-6.

Franklin looks good in District 20, while Rosebud replaced Killen as the top team in 21-A.

Killeen lost to Belton as Rosebud was having an easy time beating Georgetown, 34-0.

Lampasas and Burnet continue to dominate District 22 and it is all Brenham in District 23.

Falfurrias, which had been eliminated as one of South Texas' top Class A clubs, suffered a hard blow when its star back, Jack Wilkins, was declared ineligible.

Records showed Wilkins was already 18 years old.

Falfurrias can finish the season, but without Wilkins may have a hard time edging out Sinton in 29-A.

Sinton last week polished off Beeville 27-12.

White Oak, expected to be an East Texas power, thumped Atlanta, 18-0, last week to live up for at least one more week to advance notices.

Majors Begin Rebuilding For '50 Year

NEW YORK (AP) — With the World Series now a part of baseball history, the major league teams continue building for 1950.

The reconstruction began in the final month of the season but the tight pennant races in both leagues and the series took the spotlight.

The newly crowned champion New York Yankees are looking for pitchers (who isn't?), a first baseman and long ball hitting outfielder.

The uncertainty of the physical well-being of Tommy Henrich, Joe DiMaggio and Johnny Mize necessitates the Yanks' search for a first baseman and an outfielder who can sock with authority.

Brooklyn's National League Champion Dodgers also are on the prowl for pitchers but they hope to obtain that rare commodity from their vast minor league empire.

The Dodgers also want to chop off at least six members of their championship club in order to add some of their budding minor leaguers to their reserved list.

At present the Dodger reserve list totals 39, one less than the legal 40. Unless the Dodgers can jettison part of their present crew they stand to lose some green but valued timber in baseball's annual player draft next month.

The Dodgers, along with the other clubs must submit their reserve list to Commissioner A. B. Chandler by Oct. 16.

Dodger president Branch Rickey held an informal press conference yesterday discussing future Dodger plans.

Rickey told the gathering he would like to get rid of at least a half dozen players. He refused to name the sextet but reports have outsiders Marv Ruckley, Dick Whitman, Mike McCormick, a third baseman and pitcher Ralph Branca as the most likely heads to roll.

The Philadelphia Athletics also have been active.

Connie Mack is stocking his team with infielders. He has purchased three third basemen—Frankie Gustine, Kermit Walsh and Gene Markland. Gustine, former National Leaguer, was obtained from Los Angeles, Wash from Montreal and Markland from Buffalo.

In addition, the A's swapped catcher Buddy Rosar to the Boston Red Sox for utility infielder Billy Hitchcock.

Trade rumors are ripe in every other major league city. Observers believe this off season will result in the biggest bartering sessions since the end of the war.

Notre Dame Moves to First; Oklahoma Third, SMU 10th

NEW YORK (AP) — No one section of the country dominates the college football picture today.

The second Associated Press nationwide poll of the season shows the Midwest, led by Notre Dame, and the South, each with three places among the top 10 teams. The Far West had two, while the East and Southwest each had one.

Notre Dame, second in the first poll last week, moved to the top of the list in its 21.7 contest of Michigan on Saturday, made the most spectacular jump—from seventh to second.

Michigan was spilled from first to seventh. The sports writers and sportscasters who gave the Wolverines 34 first place votes last week awarded them none this time. However, Michigan got enough other ballots to remain in the upper 10.

A total of 172 writers and broadcasters voted this week, compared to 80 during the baseball crunch.

Notre Dame, victoriously over Purdue Saturday, 35-12, this week received 67 first place votes for 1,489 points. Army, with 58 firsts and 1,459, got within 30 points of the lead. The Cadets represent the only Eastern threat for top honors.

The Southwest is represented in third position by Oklahoma. There were no changes in the latest voting for third, fourth, fifth and sixth places, with Oklahoma being followed by Tulane, Minnesota and North Carolina.

California, 10th behind Southern Methodist last week, moved past that idle team, the two swapping positions.

Southern California was the only team to fall from the first 10, slipping from eighth to 12th.

The top 10 teams and their opponents this week follow:

Notre Dame (1) vs. Tulane (4); Army (2) vs. Harvard; Oklahoma (3) vs. Kansas; Minnesota (5) vs. Ohio State (11); North Carolina (6) vs. Wake Forest; Michigan (7) vs. Northwestern; Kentucky (8) vs. Citadel; California (9) vs. Southern California (12); and Southern Methodist (10) vs. Rice.

Baylor Star Best Passer Since Sam

WACO (AP) — They're calling Adrian Burk "the perfect quarterback" at Baylor these days. That's an account of his usually a couple jumps ahead of the opposition but in thinking and acting.

He's the fellow Coach John Barnhill of Arkansas said was "the greatest passer I have ever seen." This comment came after Burk had piloted Baylor to a 35-13 victory over the Razorbacks.

Jack Russell, the old Baylor athlete who is a star of professional ranks and is known around here as the greatest end of all-time, looked Adrian over and commented: "He's the greatest passer since Sammy Baugh."

That's quite a compliment. Baugh, you know, is the guy who holds about all the records for passing in professional football.

But Burk isn't just a passer. He's a clever ball handler under the T formation and the smartness of his quarterback was well-illustrated in the way he did everything Arkansas didn't think he'd do. Or he handled what he did so well the Razorbacks couldn't stop it.

His value to the undefeated, untied Baylor team is attested in the fact that he has thrown 45 passes, completed 29 for 308 yards and five touchdowns. He has made two touchdowns himself. Thus he has accounted for all except three of Baylor's scores this season.

Frank Broyles, the old Georgia

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK (AP) — Earl Black says he and his aides put nine months work into Army's victory over Michigan last Saturday.

But you wouldn't be far wrong in saying that game was won when Army beat Harvard a year ago. This writer had the privilege last winter of looking at the Harvard game using Owl plays. "If we don't do anything better than we'll take a real drubbing."

Another Southwest Conference coach, John Barnhill of Arkansas, had some comment to make on an impending game.

Barnhill said he expected Arkansas to be better against Texas than Baylor, because: "We couldn't be flatter or worse."

The rest of the news that came out of conference training camps was more of a routine nature. The usual reports of injuries or no injuries were heard.

Southern Methodist has two regulars, Walter Roberts, guard, and James Marion, linebacker, who are due to ride the bench against Rice Saturday night in Dallas. Roberts has a knee injury and Marion an injured ankle.

Bell said he saw Rice beat New Mexico, 55-0, and while the opposition wasn't very strong, "they showed me they had everything it takes."

Rice Coach Jess Neely may juggle his lineup a bit for this week's big game. He was considering shifting Red Proctor to the safety spot on defense and Van Ballard to right halfback on offense.

John Kelly, who held both positions in the Owls' first two games, missed the New Mexico game because of a leg injury.

Arkansas' crack fullback, Leon Campbell is due to return to action this week. He saw no service as his mates lost to Baylor last week, 13-35.

The Razorbacks came out of that licking in good physical shape.

Texas, which lost to Oklahoma, 14-20, will be in top shape for its opening conference game at Fullback Ray Borneman, guard Danny Wolf, left halfback Billy Pyle, and tackle Ken Jackson are ready to go.

Texas Christian University Coach L. R. (Dutch) Meyer sent his Frogs through a pass defense practice yesterday. He expects Texas A&M to start passing in a hurry. No new injuries were reported from the Frogs' 13-6 win over Indiana.

A&M is looking for a new safety man. John Christensen suffered a shoulder separation in the Louisiana State University game last week and will be out for a couple of weeks.

There were no other serious injuries in the Aggie camp. Baylor had two tackles and two defensive centers miss practice yesterday. But Coach Bob Woodruff said it is too early to tell whether they will miss the Texas Tech game in Lubbock this week.

Steve Bowden and Wesley Roberts, tackles, and Buddy Ataway and Glenn Taylor are ailing.

Tech passing star is responsible for Burk's development. Adrian was only a fair prospect when he came to Baylor from Kilgore, Texas, Junior College. He wasn't considered even the best back on the Kilgore team that played in the Little Rose Bowl in California in December, 1947.

But Broyles, the Baylor backfield coach, liked his looks and worked with him hour after hour to develop his passing and ball-handling ability.

Bell Fears Rice Owl Tilt

By WILBUR MARTIN

Associated Press Staff

Meaning Mitty Bell was on record today.

"We're likely to get beat" by Rice Saturday, the Southern Methodist coach observed yesterday. Then, after looking at his regulars fail to stop reserves using Owl plays, "if we don't do anything better than we'll take a real drubbing."

Another Southwest Conference coach, John Barnhill of Arkansas, had some comment to make on an impending game.

Port Arthur Remains on Top

DALLAS (AP) — Port Arthur still heads the list of Texas' top Schoolboy football teams.

Sportsmen participating in the Dallas News weekly poll gave the undefeated, untied Yellow-jackets 135 points to 127 for second place Wichita Falls.

Others in the top ten are Lubbock, Marshall, Odessa, Corsicana, Highland Park (Dallas), Amarillo, Galveston, and Grand Prairie in that order.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
The Orange Bowl, which wants an Eastern team this year, already is showing interest in Villanova. Jack Cloud, the William and Mary fullback, won't listen to promoter Bill Lewis' suggestions that he'd make a fine pro wrestler because he's more interested in pro football. Virginians say Cloud can out-put-punge a Paris neckline, but he's used too much on defense to do much running.

15-Year-Old Is Open Medalist
FORT WORTH (AP) — Match play starts today in the Women's Texas Open Golf Tournament and a 15-year-old blonde from California was right among the favorites.

Marlene Bauer, Long Beach, Calif., yesterday fashioned a four-under-par 71 to win medal honors.

Patty Berg, veteran professional from Savage, Minn., trailed the California youngster by a stroke.

Miss Bauer was three under on the par 34 front nine and chipped one stroke off regulation figures coming home.

Marilyn Smith, Kansas State champion, posted a 74 for the only other sub-par score.

Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., had a 75, but the rest of field's scores skidded upward.

Defending Champion Polly Riley of Fort Worth carded a 78, but trailed Marjorie Lindsay, Decatur, Ill., with a 76 and Betty Mims, White, Dallas, and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Fort Worth, who had 77s.

Mrs. George (Babe) Zaharias, Alice Bauer, Marlen's 20-year-old sister, Beverly Hanson, Indio, Calif., and Mrs. Leon B. Hosenack, Dallas, were tied at 80. Betty Jameson, San Antonio, had an 81.

Successful Old Coach Dies in Philadelphia
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Farrell Macklin, who in five years of coaching built up one of the best records in the football record books, died at his home in the Philadelphia suburbs yesterday. He was 85.

Macklin coached Michigan State — then Michigan Agricultural College — from 1911 through 1915 and lost only three games.

Bussey and Luther Rawlings of Chicago fought in the feature attraction at the Arcadia Roller Rink. It was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Spanish Peanuts in-a Jar Help Hoopie Choose Tulane Over N.D.

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Ex-Timekeeper—Union Pacific

Egad! This week, gentle reader, I have a double atomic bomb to explode, namely: I have adopted a new system of calculations (by request of the editor), and reached the conclusion that Tulane will defeat Notre Dame!

The new system is a secret, of course, but I can give you an inkling of it so you may know it is sure-fire.

The first step in selecting a score is to select a champion of a designated sport in the year 1929. Suppose we start with R. M. Ross of Regina, winner of the Saskatchewan curling championship that year. There are four letters in his name.

The second step is to multiply four by the time in which Columbia won the Poughkeepsie Regatta the same year. That time was 22:38. Multiplying four by that we get 9032.

That is only the beginning. The following factors enter into our calculations: logarithms, inclination of the sun's orbit to the ecliptic, the length in meters of the Marseilles barge tunnel, plus the number of Spanish peanuts in a quart jar.

You can see it's a bit complicated. Now, when you read our weekly forecast, you will appreciate what pains the prognosticator takes to give you the correct scores.

Here is the giant economy-sized package for this week:

Lubbock 28, Pampa 13
Army 20, Harvard 13
Cornell 20, Yale 6
Brown 20, Princeton 7
Colgate 20, Dartmouth 13
Columbia 21, Penn 13
Wisconsin 20, Navy 7
Nebraska 19, Penn State 13
Rutgers 20, Syracuse 14
Illinois 19, Missouri 14
Iowa 20, Indiana 14

What's the NCAA trying to do—out of the flow to the gate? If it's a de-emphasis program, the boys may make considerable headway.

The discussion of why Texas A&M hasn't been getting top athletes the past few years continues. Now Al Echols, sports editor of the Greenville Banner, is heard from with some timely observations. In a sense he indicates the ex-student as putting the Aggies on the bottom in football.

Al says that Homer Norton, when he was coach of A&M, incurred the disfavor of the Aggie alumni, many of who were after his scalp for years before he was replaced as coach two years ago by Frank Stittler. It seems, Echols says, Norton was not a politician.

Anyway, Al continues, the alumni refused to try to interest football players in their home towns in going to A&M, reasoning that the boys would turn out to be no better than the ones who were replaced.

"We have been told," Echols says, "by one who should know that strong Aggie alumni have been heard to say that they would send a boy to Texas before influencing him to play under Norton."

Echols also advanced other reasons. He says before and during the war A&M had good teams and a lot of boys who had been offered scholarships. The war took them right and left and there were no service units at the college that could be called upon to furnish athletes as was the case at many other schools.

"It came to the end of the war and these boys came back home, wanting an education and looking to A&M to continue their scholarship offer," Echols says. "Not a single one was turned down and as a result A&M found all of their scholarships taken up by returning vets who were good football players but who for the most part had lost their spark. No room was available for new, young talent. Certainly A&M officials are to be commended and criticized for fulfilling their obligations to their returning veterans, and certainly this thought should receive some consideration in connection with the school failing to land new name players."

Intentionally, one of the points advanced by this writer for A&M not getting its share of athletes, was the furore over the coaching situation. Boys just naturally don't want to go to a school to play football if most everybody is fighting the coach. In the second place, the coach hasn't the time or desire to go after athletes if he's mixed up in a controversy that keeps him in a conference room most of the time.

Not long ago we were talking with a Boston writer who keeps track of such things, and he said at least seven Red Sox victories could be traced directly to Williams' home runs.

Anyway, if we had to pick a team from American League players Ted Williams would be our No. 1 choice.

Here's a man who has played in every game for the Red Sox, and as far as we know hasn't missed an inning. As of Tuesday he led the league in batting (.349); home runs (43); two-base hits (39); runs (147); runs batted in (158); bases on balls (approximately 165); was second in hits, and he is a first-class outfielder.

What does a guy have to do to be rated most valuable, anyway? Williams won that designation only once, in 1946, and this year his record shows he is better in all departments than he was three years ago. The fact the Red Sox won the pennant that year probably influenced the voting, as the tendency always is to select a player from a championship club.

That's a wrong slant, of course, as a player on a second division club could be more valuable to his team than any one man on the pennant winner. If the Red Sox were in fifth place today we'd still say that, on his record, Williams is the best, period.

Williams won that designation only once, in 1946, and this year his record shows he is better in all departments than he was three years ago. The fact the Red Sox won the pennant that year probably influenced the voting, as the tendency always is to select a player from a championship club.

That's a wrong slant, of course, as a player on a second division club could be more valuable to his team than any one man on the pennant winner. If the Red Sox were in fifth place today we'd still say that, on his record, Williams is the best, period.

Not long ago we were talking with a Boston writer who keeps track of such things, and he said at least seven Red Sox victories could be traced directly to Williams' home runs.

Anyway, if we had to pick a team from American League players Ted Williams would be our No. 1 choice.

Here's a man who has played in every game for the Red Sox, and as far as we know hasn't missed an inning. As of Tuesday he led the league in batting (.349); home runs (43); two-base hits (39); runs (147); runs batted in (158); bases on balls (approximately 165); was second in hits, and he is a first-class outfielder.

What does a guy have to do to be rated most valuable, anyway? Williams won that designation only once, in 1946, and this year his record shows he is better in all departments than he was three years ago. WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hanes—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: Who are the following: The Scooter, The Thumper, The Jolter and The Man?

DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE HARVESTERS WERE held to their smallest offensive attack of the season Friday night, Jimmy Hayes, a marked man in the Pampa backfield raised his yard-per-try average. He now has a 7.3 average in five games, and has personally accounted for over 500 yards gained by the Green and Gold this season. Crowding him in the rushing department is little Elmer Wilson, who has an average of 6.5 in five games. But he hasn't been called on as often.

Hayes also leads the team in scoring with 30 points. He nearly broke loss for another touchdown Friday night against Wichita Falls but was shoved out of bounds after a 43-yard scamper.

The Lubbock Westerners will be pointing for the game with the Farmers Friday night. It was Pampa who handed the Lubbock club its last defeat. That was the thrilling 26-19 game of last season that ended with two brilliant kickoff runbacks by the Hub City eleven.

Choc Hutcheson, Lubbock sportswriter, says that Coach Pat Pattison was disappointed by the game with Vernon last weekend. Not by the showing of his Westerners, though, but by the opposition.

"I honestly expected more of Vernon," Pattison is quoted. "After all, Vernon had played Pampa to the limit only the week before. I wasn't trying to fool anyone when I said during the week that I thought we had a tough ball game on our hands. I really expected Vernon to give us trouble."

Pattison said that he was preparing for an all-out battle with the Harvesters this weekend. Asked if he was going to hold back anything from the Amarillo scouts who will be at the game Friday night Pattison said "No."

CONVERSATION STEMMED around to whether or not the Cardinals could have made a better showing against the Yankees in the Series than did the Brooks. That question usually arises after a team is soundly thumped in the big show.

It is my personal opinion that the Redbirds could have given the New York club a rougher go of it. Why? Because the St. Louis mound staff was powerful with lefthanded throwers. Who won the only game of the Bombers in the Series? Preacher Roe, a southpaw.

Martin, Brechen, Lanier and Pollett, fortified with that mound staff and Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter doing the hitting I feel certain that the Cards could have dealt the boys from the Bronx a lot more woe.

The Dodgers went along good until their pitchers got wild. The first two games they allowed no walks, and managed to break even in two beautifully pitched and played 1-0 ball games. From there on the pitching got wild and it reached a point where a Shotton was forced to use a record number of moundmen and still couldn't stem the tide.

I'm not a Cardinal fan; never have been. Woe is me, but I am a die in the wool Chicago Cub mourner. But it is my personal opinion that the Cards

SPORTS AFIELD

For most fly-fishing I regard "palming" as the best and most convenient way of retrieving line, and of working a wet fly. Palming is a very old method, but surprisingly few seem acquainted with it, and some who try do a very bunglesome job.

According to Jason Lucas, angling expert and writer, it consists merely of gathering the line into short, flat coils in the left hand where they are out of the way. In shooting, palmed line you open your fingers and the small coils fly out neatly through the guides and won't tangle in each other as may long, dangling ones.

The method is very simple if you go about it right. Merely take the line between your thumb and the second joint of your left forefinger. Then reach forward with the other fingers and bring some line back into the palm, clipping the part coming from the first guide between thumb and forefinger with the other there. Keep on repeating this operation, pressing short, flat coils into the palm.

Most beginners make the mistake of swinging the hand wildly. This isn't necessary. All that is needed is a slight twisting motion of the hand to let the fingers reach out and pull in a little more line.

Many fishermen palm the line as it comes directly from the first guide. The fault with this is that while you twist your hand you find yourself in poor control if a big fish should suddenly hang on. So try this method.

The line comes from the first guide, loosely, over the second finger of your right hand which holds the rod. When a fish is hooked, drop the palmed line. This leaves the left hand free and the line is already clipped under the right finger as it should be when playing a fish by stripping in. The friction of the line between the second and ring fingers makes sufficient tension while swinging the rod to the vertical to fight the fish.

All this gives complete and instant control, with no hurry and no quick, jerky motions, regardless of what stage of palming you are in when the fish strikes. That often means the difference between a landed fish and a broken leader, or a slack line to let the fish escape.

Houston Starts Mass Exchange Of Personnel

HOUSTON — (P) — Fourteen more player deals were announced today by the Houston Buffs, bringing to 32 the number of transactions within 24 hours.

The deals leave the Texas League club with only three pitchers — Clarence Beers, Jack Creel, and Pete Mazar — who were with Houston in the 1949 season.

Today's changes included: Catcher Harold Smith was sold to Lynchburg of the Piedmont League.

Pitcher Jack Cohan was purchased outright from Lynchburg. Pitchers Augie Zande and Octavio Rubert were traded to Omaha of the Western League in exchange for pitchers Robert Mahoney and Elroy Norwood Joyce.

Pitchers Nick Adzick and Joseph Presko and second baseman Francis Haus also were purchased from Omaha.

Infielder Bob Louis was sold to St. Joseph of the Western Association in exchange for pitcher James Beavers.

Also purchased from St. Joseph were catcher Kenneth Irvin Morgan and outfielder James Henry Neufeldt.

Pitcher Hiel Patrick and outfielder Eldon Repulski were purchased from Winston-Salem of the Carolina League.

Yesterday the Buffs acquired: Pitchers Dennis Reeder, Donald Stephens, and Herbert Motord, outfielders Gene Fasholz and Raymond Jablowki, and first baseman Harvey Zernia from Columbus of the Sally League.

Pitcher Bob Hoch and outfielder Dick Czaplowski from Allentown, Ontario, of the Pony League. Players sold included: Pitcher Mike Clark and infielder Bernie Creger to Columbus of the American Association.

Pitcher Eddie Green to the Fresno club of the California League.

Infielder Floyd George to Duluth of the Northern League.

Robinson, All Around Athlete, Most Feared Player in Series

Flying Ebony's Lead, Break on Bases Is Best

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Tom Henrich and Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees were highly respected by the Dodger's coach, but Jackie Robinson of the Brooks showed you why in the second game, when he pulled an inside pitch to the left field corner for a double, and sprinted to third after Jerry Coleman caught Gene Hermanski's foul down the right field line. Robinson would have scored the winning run from second on Gil Hodges' single to left, but his moving to third illustrated why he can beat the other side from any place on the diamond better than any other player of the game.

Not since the days of Tyrus Raymond Cobb has a ballplayer so upset opponents with his baserunning.

At 30 Robinson is perhaps a half-step slower than he was when he broke in, but he still showed the way in both leagues with 36 stolen bases.

His lead and break on the batting champion with .342, was contributed more to advancing bases, made possible by extraordinary reflexes, is matchless. Robinson, the National League conference — Sam Houston State and Southwest Texas State — found outside competition a little too rough.

East Texas State started its victory over Stephen F. Austin with a 100-yard opening kickoff return by David Hurst. The Lions wrapped it up with a 26-yard pay-off pass from Bill Engle to end Joe Murphy.

Sam Houston State found the Texas A&I Javelinas too much for their aerial attack, losing 13-16.

A wet field at San Marcos held Southwest Texas State and Howard Payne to minimum movement. Payne struck for one touchdown and held on to win 6-3. George Mabe's field goal accounted for Southwest Texas State's score.

Charlie Williams, pass-throwing Sam Houston State end, edged into the scoring lead by taking one touchdown pass. This ran his season total to 30 points.

Conference play will be dropped this week while some formidable outside teams provide opposition Saturday.

East Texas State meets University of Corpus Christi at Commerce, Stephen F. Austin takes on North Texas State at Denton, Southwest Texas State plays Hardin at Wichita Falls and Sam Houston State tackles Brooke Army Medical Center at Huntsville.

He topped the southern division of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball scoring as a guard, averaging 12 points a game. He won the NCAA broad jump in 1940 with 24 feet, 10 1-4 inches. He did 25 feet, 6 inches. He was the champion of the southern division of the Coast Conference, shot golf in the low 70's.

athletics on runs-batted-in alone.

He gives the hands credit for putting men on second and third, and in position to score.

So Robinson hit fourth, and upped his runs-batted-in from 85 to 124. In this position, he bunted less, and transformed himself from a dead left field hitter to one who swats the ball to all fields.

His attempts to place hits could account for the fact that he hit into the cheap record of 21 double plays. He constantly tries to hit the ball behind the runner.

Because of this, pitchers try to keep the ball close to his hands. For this reason, the circumference of the handle of his bat is larger than the average, and he gets a lot of handle hits.

The fellow has an answer for everything.

Robinson, six feet and 190 pounds, has been — and is — an amazing all-around athlete.

Brooklyn's Flying Ebony was a five-letterman at UCLA, where in 1938 as a halfback he led the nation's ground gainers with an average of 12 yards a carry.

Roosevelt Era to Have Its Portrait Done by Historian

By BRUCE BOSSAT

NEW YORK (NEA) — The American of Franklin D. Roosevelt's time in having his first big portrait painted.

SCHLESINGER: "Analyzing the papers of Andrew Jackson was a lot easier."

Since 1946, Schlesinger has been at work on "The Age of Roosevelt." He intends this comprehensive attempt to catch the mood and temper of the late President's 12 years in office, to single out the chief strands of a story generally viewed as one of the most spectacular chapters in American history.

The bespectacled young historian says the book will not be a biography of Roosevelt, except incidentally. And obviously it will not be what historians call the "definitive" — and completely history of the period. It has happened too recently. Many precious clues to the times may not become known to scholars for many years more.

How does a historian go about a job like this? "Well," says Schlesinger, "since 1946 I've read all the existing books on Roosevelt and his times. I've waded through the files of weekly news magazines and other periodicals covering the years from 1932 to 1945. I've dipped into the writings of major columnists."

But all these represent only the first broad brush strokes of background for America's portrait in the Roosevelt era.

Starting in the middle of this year, Schlesinger began to pack into his mind the rich, exciting detail he will need to give color and substance to this picture. He took up summer residence at the Roosevelt library in Hyde Park, N. Y., for this part of the job.

There he undertook a painstaking study of the vast array of Roosevelt's papers, which only now are becoming available to scholars. Schlesinger is the first historian of major stature to look at them.

"Roosevelt kept everything," he says. "He had a personal file for more or less confidential material, a general White House file, a special speech file which he loaded up with ideas for talks, and a big collection of miscellaneous material, including thousands of letters from ordinary citizens."

In these various mountains of papers are memoranda of all kinds, notes, letters, telegrams, government documents and reports — a high percentage of the written material that passed through the President's hands.

Unable as yet to know which twin is which, the bewildered teacher refers to the sisters by their last names only.

Italian Children Vacation in Denmark

ROME (AP) — Five hundred Italian children will spend their holidays in Denmark under the International Union for the Protection of Children.

The 500 children will be the third batch of young Italians to spend their vacations in Denmark. In 1947 one thousand were sent there and last year another 900.

They'll Do It Every Time HOTEL ROQUEFORT By Jimmy Hatlo

THE girls at the shop gave a shower for Jenny. Everyone seemed anxious to do anything they could to please her. She had a happy faculty of making friends easily. Already she knew every single family in the trailer camp. And Tod knew scarcely any of them except the Hansens.

It might be all right to chum around with people like that, Tod thought, if you had never known the other kind. But once you'd cultivated a taste for champagne, it was a bit hard to stick to nothing but beer. Of course there was always Rick, one of the champagne crowd, you might say. He did things in a broad, handsome way. Once, for instance, he brought Jenny a dozen long-stemmed roses in a white box tied with ribbon, because she had invited him to dinner.

Rick invited the two of them to drive home with him to Centerville, a fancy town, to spend Christmas kind. And once you'd cultivated a taste for champagne, it was a bit hard to stick to nothing but beer. Of course there was always Rick, one of the champagne crowd, you might say. He did things in a broad, handsome way. Once, for instance, he brought Jenny a dozen long-stemmed roses in a white box tied with ribbon, because she had invited him to dinner.

General Clay Heads New Save-the-Children Group

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, former U. S. military governor in Germany, has accepted chairmanship of a Save the Children Federation Committee to sponsor child service work among needy children in Germany, the federation announced.

The Save the Children Federation, which has national headquarters at 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, is now enlisting U. S. sponsors for individual children and groups of school children, and is furnishing layettes and clothing packages in Germany through a program similar to those it now conducts in Austria, Finland, France, Holland, Greece, and Italy.

In accepting leadership of the committee to aid German children, General Clay wrote: "I know of no more worthy contribution to future world peace than the type of movement with which you are associated."

Assisting General Clay on the committee are Edward Arnold, Hollywood star and member of the Board of Directors of the Screen Actors Guild; Milton Eisenhower, president of Kansas State University; Hon. William Langer, U. S. senator from North Dakota; and Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania. The committee is in process of formation and additional members will be announced soon.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER DEATH?

In a few score years, all who read these lines will have vanished from the face of the earth.

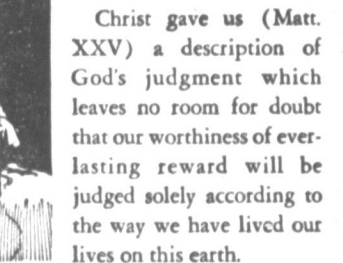

Every day, almost a hundred thousand human beings finish their earthly span and pass off into the vast beyond. That our turn will come we all know, but when and where and how we cannot be sure.

No merely human being ever has been able to look into eternity and tell us what it is like. No scientific knowledge or scientific instruments can pierce the curtain that divides this world from that into which all of us must eventually journey.

All we know about God's eternal plans for us... all we know about what lies beyond the grave... comes from the God Who made us and to the extent He has seen fit to reveal it to us.

But we can face eternity without fear. For we do have a definite answer to the mystery of death. With the facts God has put at our disposal through the inspired books of the Old and the New Testaments, the Catholic Church always has given, and gives today, a definite answer to the tremendously important questions raised by the fact of death.

Man's life in this world, the Church tells us, is a preparation for the world to come... a testing-time which ends with our death. What happens after that depends on whether death finds us loyal to God, or opposed to Him and the way He expects us to live. "... it is appointed unto men once to die and after this the judgment" (Heb. 9:27).

Christ gave us (Matt. XXV) a description of God's judgment which leaves no room for doubt that our worthiness of everlasting reward will be judged solely according to the way we have lived our lives on this earth.

Death does not bring merely a long, unconscious slumber, but rather a quick awakening to the irrevocable judgment of our Creator. Nor does it bring us a second chance to prove ourselves or to amend our erring ways. In our own hands rests the opportunity... and upon our own heads the responsibility... to determine if death shall be the threshold to everlasting life among the blessed, or among the lost.

Men blessed by youth and good health often feel that death for them is far away—something to be worried about only in the twilight years. Some scoff at the suggestion that an everlasting hell could be permitted by a merciful God. Others seem to think that God will treat them kindly if they live reasonably moral lives, even though they pay Him no special honor which is His due.

But whatever they think... however they avoid the question... all men must eventually face the fact of death. To think about it wisely... and in time... is the most important thing in our lives. If you would like more information on this subject... on Heaven, Hell, Purgatory, the end of the world and the resurrection and judgment of all men... we shall be happy to send you an interesting pamphlet free of charge. Chairmen to Be Announced In Annual Girl Scout Drive

Activities of the Pampa Girl Scout Association seem to be multiplying as the time for the annual Girl Scout drive approaches. Mrs. K. E. Thornton, executive, said yesterday.

Joe Wells, general chairman of this year's drive, said "plans are shaping up well" for the drive. He is appointing committee chairmen this week and will announce detailed plans for the drive at the kick-off breakfast, Thursday, Oct. 28.

The advanced gift drive is scheduled to get underway Oct. 17, with the general drive beginning Oct. 26. National Girl Scout Week will be observed the last week of October.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Thornton said eight additional Brownie troops were started during the past week at Woodrow Wilson, Sam Houston, Horace Mann and B. M. Baker Schools. Another Brownie troop was organized at White Deer.

"Total membership of Brownie Scouts in these nine troops is about 160," she added.

Plans have been perfected for the fall meeting of the association. Members and parents of Scouts will be invited to attend the meeting Oct. 22, which will be held at Camp Sullivan. People attending are asked to bring lunches. The meeting will start at 3 p. m.

Scouts of Troop 28 will be camping at Sullivan that weekend so they may escort the meeting attendees through the camp as well as show them what Scouts do at Camp. Troop 28 leaders are Mmes. W. E. Hinton, Robert Coley and J. C. Steward.

German Finds Strange Army In Greece

FRANKFURT — (AP) — What is it like to fight for the Greek guerrilla army? If you run out of ammunition, it may take weeks to get more. A lot of the time you can't understand the man who is fighting alongside you.

"That's the way it is, according to a German who said he 'succeeded in getting away' from the Communist brigades. His story was quoted in Allied-licensed Western-German papers. The man said he was recruited for the rebel army from a German prisoner-of-war camp in Soviet Russia.

There are more than 5,000 Germans fighting in the rebel Communist force, he said. The German said he first was taken to a transit camp in Bulgaria. Other German prisoners and "volunteers" from 18 other nations were there, too. They were trained in guerrilla tactics by veteran ex-Wehrmacht NCO's and officers.

"Firearms came from the Skoda plant in Czechoslovakia and the Potemkin plant near Odessa a Soviet Union. We had Italian Beretta guns and German machine pistols of the 1942 type. They even supplied us with Hungarian, Russian and Rumanian shot-guns, manufactured around 1900.

"There were about 15 different types of ammunition, and the one you were looking for was just 'sold.'"

"We got good food in the Bulgarian transit camp — canned, with American, Russian, German, Hungarian and Rumanian labels. Russian political officers promised us almost everything if we would fight bravely and hold the front.

"Despite the orders, merits, leading positions and money rewards the German legionaries were promised, they always intended to flee and did flee. But not all succeeded, and more than 450 of the Germans clad in Greek uniforms were killed in action during the last two years.

"Morale among the Greek rebel army was extremely low when its attack against Greek governmental troops came to a standstill in winter. Russian officers then picked out hundreds of the legionaries and executed them as a warning example."

War Flood Still Marks Valley

HAMBURG, Germany — (AP) — The Mohn valley in Westphalia looks today as if it had been the playground of a mad giant. Ten-ton boulders heaped as if left after an Olympian game of marbles.

In 1943 the valley had what is believed to be the biggest man-made flood in history. May 16 British bombers breached the Mohn dam.

Most of the houses swept away have been rebuilt. Their brightness contrasts with the rusting metal of destroyed factories.

Even today it is not known exactly how many people died in the flood. But those who worked there after the attack recall that the victims totaled between 1,700 and 1,800 dead. The dam itself was repaired by men working day and night for three months. This was a vital water source for the war industries of the Ruhr.

Garden More Fun Than Dolls

LONDON — (AP) — Susan Fegg is an experienced gardener at only five years of age. In a big horticultural show here, she won $20 prize for the best bunch of radishes grown by a boy or girl under 16.

Susan, who comes from Hugglescote in Leicestershire, started helping her father in his garden when she was two. She began her own gardening at three. "It's fun," she says, "and better than playing with dollies."

Far beyond the Memory of Man

MANY LINES OF WORK which were unknown a generation ago are now commonplace. The automobile mechanic, the radio announcer, the airplane pilot—all are products of the present generation. Other occupations had their origin far beyond the memory of man. Take pharmacy, for example, with its four thousand years of recorded history.

We take considerable pride in being associated with a profession with such fine traditions. Pharmacy must be of fundamental importance to have so long endured.

King's English Said Rapidly Disappearing

SYDNEY — (AP) — The King's English, says Sidney J. Baker, is all washed up. The language, he says, will one day be replaced by American-English. Baker is an Australian lecturer and journalist who has made a study of Australian speech.

This is an example he gave. "Show this spin down south, and note down to the rubbity for a fiddle's worth of bombo. My sort's rat-bag cobbler is turning on a shivoo sarvo. Dice your jacker and get your chop of the plonk, why don't you? With all the galahs and dills that'll drag on this yike, it'd be ridge to have someone who's a wake-up yabber with."

This, Baker said, is a free translation: "Take this five pounds and hurry down to the hotel for one pound worth of wine. My girl friend's eccentric acquaintances are having a party this afternoon. Leave your work and take a share of the liquor, why don't you? Anyway, with all the unimportant people who will be there, I would like to have someone intelligent to talk to."

Socialized Medicine Termed 'Communism'

FORT WORTH — (AP) — The Most Rev. Augustine Dangimayr, auxiliary bishop of the Dallas diocese, termed socialized medicine "communism in an embryonic stage."

He blessed the new half-million dollar five-story annex to St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday, congratulating the people of Fort Worth for its construction, and said:

"... if socialized medicine should come to this country, you would be told by some government clerk who will be your doctor and what pills you are to take. You will no longer be living in a free democracy.

"You will be living under communism in an embryonic stage."

Two Die in Peak Climb

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Famous Popocatepetl, the snow-capped dead volcano which towers on Mexico City's skyline, claimed the lives of two mountaineers Sunday as 5,000 people climbed to its summit to hear mass.

The mass was arranged by the National Federation of Outing Clubs, which invited mountaineers to attend. The mountain, a menace to aviation and a challenge to mountain climbers, is the second highest in Mexico, 15,772 feet.

One of the climbers, 16-year-old Alfonso Hurtado Rodriguez, was climbing with a group near the El Ventorrillo Peak, when he lost his footing. He and fellow members of his "Desperados Club," a mountaineering group, were not roped.

The youth tumbled more than 1,500 feet down the steep slopes of the spur. He died of a fractured skull as members of the Red Cross Alpine Group gave him first aid. His body landed on comparatively level ground near a path. The other man, unidentified at dawn today, was climbing alone.

Father-Son Signal Links Railroad, Plane

DENVER, Colo. — (AP) — Passengers on the United Airlines' flight from Denver to Cheyenne have noticed a train far below them winking its big headlight in the night. Passengers on the 8:15 p.m. Colorado and Southern between the same two towns have on more than one occasion spotted the huge airliner flying parallel to the track, systematically blinking the lights on its wings. This has been going on for three years now.

The engineer of the train and the pilot of the plane are father and son. The blink-blink of the lights is 64-year-old Clarence Chapman's way of saying "How're you, boy?" to his air-borne son, 31-year-old Capt. Leroy Chapman.

Occasionally the senior Chapman fancies-up his nocturnal hello by lighting a red railroad flare and holding it out the window of his cab. "I'm right proud of my boy," Clarence says. "And I just like him to know the old man's still up and around and on the job."
