Perlman Attacks Oil Industry at Senate Hearings on Tideland Case

By TEX EASLEY
 WASHINGTON — (AP) — The old feud between states and the federal government over oil-rich tidelands flared anew this week as a Senate Interior subcommittee opened a hearing on bills dealing with the controversy.
 A criticism of state governments came from the first witness, Solicitor General Philip B. Perlman. He said:
 "Until today all the hearings, by both Senate and House committees, have been primarily concerned with the bills proposed by or at the instance of those who are seeking to deprive the federal government of its rights in vast mineral resources lying in the bed of the ocean — rights which, it should be said, are vital to the defense of our country and our people.
 "The false propaganda, through which many persons have been induced to believe that the controversy is merely one relating to the question as to whether certain administrative powers should be exercised by federal or state authorities, has been effective."
 He said "pressures from local governments, actually operating in most instances against even their immediate best interests" had caused Congress in 1946 to pass legislation giving the states clear title to the disputed submerged lands. President Truman vetoed the bill.

 The present Congress "has witnessed the introduction of more and more bills designed to strip the federal government of its rights and its properties," Perlman said adding:
 "These bills have had the blind support of governors and of state attorneys general, most of whom find it must easier to go along with the few states that would be unduly enriched by a wholesale donation of federal assets than to study the matter objectively in order to find out where the best interests of their states really lie.
 "And behind them, of course are the great oil interests, holders of some of the most valuable coastal lands."
 The principal tideland states which have led the fight for passage of legislation giving the states clear title to the submerged coastal areas are Texas, Louisiana and California.
 In 1947 the U.S. Supreme Court handed down a decision to the effect that the federal government has "paramount" rights over all submerged lands off the shores of California. The high court recently ruled that the government may prosecute a similar suit against Texas and Louisiana.

 Pending before the Senate committee are four bills, two of which declare the tidelands to be federal property and set up regulations for development of mineral resources under federal control. The other bills provide for state ownership of the dispute areas.
 Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug is scheduled to appear before the committee on behalf of legislation giving the federal government control of the submerged tidelands. Various state officials are to testify today. Friday has been set aside for witnesses representing the petroleum industry.

FPC Checking United's Rates

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A complaint filed by the Willmut Gas and Oil Co. of Hattiesburg, Miss., against the United Gas Pipe Line Co., has been consolidated with the Federal Power Commission's investigation into United's rates.
 The Willmut complaint, made last December, said the contract rates at which it buys natural gas from United are unjust and unreasonable. Willmut asked that non-discriminatory and non-preferential rates be fixed by the commission.
 Last October the commission started a general investigation of rates demanded by United in connection with interstate transportation of natural gas. The Willmut proceedings was consolidated with the commission investigation Friday.

 In about a year and a half when he sees his wife, says Henk, "we'll have a real honeymoon." Henk and Riet decided on the proxy wedding because married officers get leave every two years while single officers have to wait four.

Algord Seeks Permission To Drain Charged Sands

KILGORE — (AP) — A geologist field, was asked if his company would buy the gas if the wells were drilled.
 He answered he was not in a position to commit his firm to purchase the gas.
 Flesh proposed that the relief wells be cased off to the base of the Cane River of Reklaw shales before penetration of the Wilcox formation was made. He also suggested that large size casing—possibly 18 inch — be used as the production pipe to drain the gas more effectively.

Import Rise Predicted, New Heads Named at IPAA Meet

FORT WORTH — (AP) — A 7.6 percent increase in domestic and export petroleum liquids demand during the next six months was forecast this week by the Independent Petroleum Association of America.
 IPAA's supply and demand committee said daily demand for the October-March winter season will average 6,710,000 barrels. This RISING YOUNG AUTHOR—Thirteen-year-old Egon von Asow, a school pupil in Berlin's British Zone, seems like any average schoolboy as he plays with his toy railway. But don't let it fool you. Despite his youth, Egon is a well-known author. He's already written one book, on the philosophy of Goethe, and is hard at work on a second volume.

Red College Has Stiff Schedule

SEOUL, Korea — (AP) — The "political college" of North Korea puts its students through a rigorous curriculum, but graduates face a risky future. A copy of the training schedule used at the college in Pyongyang was found recently on one of the graduates who had infiltrated into the American-sponsored Republic of Korea south of the 38th parallel.

The schedule shows that students spend four and one-half months learning military discipline, marksmanship, guerrilla fighting and sabotage methods to use in the south. They put in a full day, 8:35 a.m. to 10:50 p.m. Communist politics and Russian history also were listed courses.

About half the class of 800 that was graduated May 17 is believed to have entered southern Korea. One hundred and twenty were women. Alert southern border patrols captured or killed 60 before they had gone very far. Others got into the mountainous and sparsely populated Kangwon Province, 90 miles northeast of Seoul. Mopping them up will take weeks.

A few may have reached the guerrilla bands that have been operating in the hills of the extreme south. Others may have settled down and become farmers, since many of them once lived in the south.

'Capsule' to Keep Record Of Freedom

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. — The front pages of 100 American newspapers will be among the documents sealed into the "Freedom Capsule" to be embedded under a 100-foot flagpole in front of the Freedom Foundation's new national headquarters here on Oct. 22. The news was announced by Kenneth Dale Wells, executive vice president of the foundation.

All daily newspapers in the nation have been asked to send the foundation copies of the front page or the editorial page of their final editions for the date of Oct. 5. From these the 100 front or editorial pages to be encased in the "Freedom Capsule" will be selected on a geographical basis.

On Oct. 21-23, the 1949 Freedom Awards jury will convene at the Foundation's Valley Forge headquarters to make final selection of 144 recipients of the $84,000 in cash awards plus 100 medals and 500 certificates of merit granted this year to citizens in all walks of life who have "spoken up for freedom" in America.

While at Valley Forge, on Saturday, Oct. 22, the awards jury will seal the "Freedom Capsule" and embed it in a huge concrete monolith under a 100-foot flagpole.

Red Papers Use Amateur Scribes

BERLIN — (AP) — The "people's democracy" in the Soviet Zone of Germany is creating a new type of journalist — the "people's correspondent." He is usually a worker who reports from his work or his factory to Communist-controlled dailies.

Their stories are featured in large Communist papers in East Berlin. Several columns are reserved for them.

Not all Russian-licensed newspapers like the new type of journalist. Said "Neue Zeit," a Christian-Democratic organ: "The people's correspondents will hardly be in a position to satisfy the qualitative demands of the press."

But "Neue Zeit" was slapped back by "Neues Deutschland," the official Socialist Unity (Communist) Party daily which criticized "the professional correspondents of those newspapers which do not know this direct contact with the essence of our social being."

Texans Bring New Life to Oldest of Success Stories

By HARVEY SCANDRETT
AP Staff Writer

"And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt..." and Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that, sold to all the people of the land."

The world's oldest success story springs to new life under the editorial pencil of Texas newspaperman Houston Hart and the bold brush of Portrait Artist Guy Rowe.

New life comes, too, to 25 other Old Testament favorites of narrative, biography and religious philosophy in their book, "In Our Image" which was introduced in Texas last week and goes to the general public October 5.

Techniques as modern as radar and older than the pyramids are blended in the beautifully printed, strikingly illustrated volume to achieve Hart's purpose of encouraging the reading of the Bible.

Artist Rowe, a 65-year-old ex-acrobat, harked back to the painting processes of the cave men and ancient Egyptians to evolve a new method of painting in wax

Bolivia Aids Victims of Mine Disease

LA PAZ, Bolivia — (AP) — Bolivia's social workers and the Federal Health Ministry are working to rehabilitate thousands of tin miners suffering from "mal de minas." The disease is a form of silicosis.

Bolivia's labor laws provide cash indemnity for the afflicted miners. But the money soon burns through the pockets of Indian homespuns. Few miners put anything aside for the rainy day and many look forward to the day they can quit work and have "spoken up for freedom" in America.

Most of the mines have dust respirators for the miners. However, mining tin two miles or more above sea level calls for all the oxygen they can get. Many respirators are tossed aside.

Indian Jose with his indemnity in his pocket is among the "new rich" in the mine fields. But within two or three months his pockets are empty.

The ex-miners return to the farms where they scratch out an existence with crude farm implements or migrate to the cities where, if their lungs are not too badly damaged, they become transportation or factory workers. Others become public charges or burdens for their families.

Man Who Came to Dinner Didn't Stay
MOSCOW — (AP) — Excavations in Armenia have unearthed an unfinished meal, 2,600 years old. The digging has been taking place at what is known as the Kamir Blure, the site of an ancient Urart fort.

The unfinished meal—preserved along with grain 2,600 years old, some balls of woolen thread and wooden utensils—were found in the palace section of the fort.

Secrets of Fine Violins Said Given to School
CREMONA, Italy — (AP) — "Give me a man with the wonderful hands, ears and feeling for violins that Antonio Stradivari had, and I will show him how to make violins as good as the master's superb instruments." Thus says Prof. Renzo Bacchetta, Cremona lawyer who thinks he has penetrated the secrets of the man who 200 years ago brought the violin to a state of perfection not since equalled.

But the genius' secret technique, Bacchetta said, can only be turned into superlative violins by another genius. Bacchetta has already given the secrets to the Italian government "Antonio Stradivari School of Violin Making" here, and violins are being made according to what Bacchetta thinks were the master's methods.

The Stradivari school is open to students of all nationalities. It presently has eight students. One of these is 18-year-old Adolph Primavera, whose father is a violin maker at Philadelphia.

There are really three secrets according to Bacchetta's information:

One is the kind of varnish. The second is the "preparation" of the instrument to allow an absolutely even application of the varnish. The third is in just what order and manner the 58 pieces that make up a violin were put together.

All-Night Vigil By Baseball Fans

NEW YORK — (AP) — Hundreds of baseball fans huddled outside Yankee Stadium early today awaiting the opening sale of 12,000 bleacher seats at 8 a. m. (CST) for the first game of the World Series.
The fans began to gather early yesterday afternoon. Shortly before 2 a. m. police put up wooden horse barricades to keep them in regular formation and prevent line slashing.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — Perhaps it seems strange that two clubs which go in for farm operations in a big way, the Yankees and Dodgers, will be opening the World Series with pitchers developed by other teams. . . . Allie Reynolds, Manager Casey Stengel's choice, was brought up to be a Cleveland Indian and came to New York in the Joe Gotzon deal two years ago. . . . Preacher Roe, who is expected to get the call from Barney Shotton, belonged to the Cardinals and pitched four seasons for Pittsburgh before he was shipped to Brooklyn with Billy Cox in a package deal. . . . Of course, that's just another indication that it's due to be a wacky series. . . . Two other Yankee mound reliables, Eddie Lopat and Fred Sanford, came from the notably weak White Sox and Browns. And, of course, Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Don Newcombe were trained in the Negro baseball leagues. . . . Then there's Mike McCormick, who played for the Braves last fall and the Reds in 1940 and who now unexpectedly finds himself collecting another Series share. . . . And Hugh Casey, who pitched in nine games as a Dodger in the 1941 and 1947 Series, is on the Yankee bench handing out advice about his former teammates.

Schoolboy Football Spotlight Features Pampa Harvester-Wichita Falls Tilt Friday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Texas Schoolboy football campaign enters its crucial period this weekend. It is the time when champions are being born.

Three districts of the City Conference and Class AA have conference games and unbeaten, untied teams march against each other in interdistrict affairs.

Top battle of the week will be the clash of Pampa and Wichita Falls in Class AA. Both have perfect records and Wichita Falls is one of the ranking teams of the state.

Another major test pits Lamar of Houston — the last undefeated, untied team in the City Conference — against the unbeaten, untied Baytown powerhouse of Class AA.

The list of teams with perfect records is due to be trimmed sharply. It already rests at 16.

Highland Park of Dallas and Galveston; the only teams that have not yet been scored upon, are likely to distinguish this week. Highland Park plays Waco and Galveston rolls against South Park of Beaumont.

There are 54 games in the two divisions, seven of them conference games. Houston's district of the City Conference sends Reagan against Stephen C. Austin and Sam Houston against Milby.

District 9 of Class AA lists Longview at Texarkana, Kilgore at Marshall and Gladewater at Tyler in conference tilts. District 13 pits Temple against Hillsboro and Corsicana against Waxahachie.

The schedule by districts: CITY CONFERENCE District 1 (Dallas) San Thursday: Sulphur Springs at North Dallas; Friday: North Side (Fort Worth) at Crozier Tech; Saturday: McKinney at Forest.

District 2 (Fort Worth) Thursday: Mineral Wells at Fort Worth Tech; Friday: San Angelo at Arlington Heights (Fort Worth); Saturday: Borger at Paschal (Fort Worth).

District 3 (Houston) — Thursday: San Antonio Tech at Jeff Davis; Friday: Reagan vs. Austin; Saturday: Sam Houston vs. Milby.

District 4 (San Antonio) — Thursday: Lanier vs. Texas Military Institute (San Antonio); Friday: Corpus Christi at Brackettridge, Alamo Heights vs. Edison.

CLASS AA District 1 — Friday: Midland at Plainview.

District 2 — Friday: Denton at Electra, Childress at Phillips, Cisco at Graham, Pampa at Wichita Falls.

District 3 — Friday: Brownfield at Littlefield, Quanah at Lamesa, Amarillo at Odessa, Vernon at Lubbock.

District 4 — Friday: Abilene at Austin (El Paso), Yaleta at Roswell, N.M.

District 5 — Friday: El Paso High at Sweetwater, Harlandale (San Antonio) at Brownwood.

District 6 — Friday: Cleburne at Stephenville, Greenville at Breckenridge.

District 7 — Friday: Port Neches at Denison, Adamson (Dallas) at Sherman, Jesuit (Dallas) at Bonham, Poly (Fort Worth) at Gainesville.

District 8 — Friday: Waco at Highland Park (Dallas), Texarkana, Kilgore at Marshall.

Harvesters' District Cage Schedule for 1949-50 Set

The complete District 1-AA basketball schedule was arranged Monday evening in a meeting of school officials and coaches. Members of District 1-AA this year are the same as in football, Amarillo, Borger, Plainview and Pampa.

The schedule is as follows: Jan. 11—Amarillo at Plainview. Jan. 13—Borger at Pampa. Jan. 17—Plainview at Borger. Jan. 20—Borger at Amarillo. Pampa at Plainview.

Jan. 27—Plainview at Amarillo. Jan. 31—Pampa at Borger. Feb. 3—Amarillo at Pampa. Borger at Plainview.

Feb. 10—Plainview at Pampa. Amarillo at Borger. Feb. 17—Pampa at Amarillo.

By this schedule Pampa will be put to the test the first thing in the season. The Borger Bulldogs expect to be the biggest and toughest team in the district this year. All of the big six-foot boys that were on the "B" squad last season having been working out on the first string since last basketball season ended and Texasians are expecting a good year.

Coch McNeely of the Harvesters is looking for some good games anytime after Dec. 1 to get his club ready for a championship battle.

Cherry Might Miss OU-TU Tilt

AUSTIN — (AP) — Coach Blair Cherry of Texas will go to Dallas Thursday with two worries—his brother and his football team. Cherry may not even be at the Cotton Bowl Saturday when the Longhorns meet Oklahoma in the Southwest's top game.

His brother, Alton Cherry, will undergo a serious operation in Dallas tomorrow. Cherry will fly there to be with him.

"I hope everything comes out all right and I can be with the team," Cherry said. "But I won't be if Alton isn't doing all right."

However, Cherry intimated that he didn't think it would do much good for him to be with the team anyway. Oklahoma third in the nation is about right," the Longhorn grid troller said. "But twelfth is too high for Texas."

He was commenting on the Associated Press poll. "It can't seem much chance for my team against that Oklahoma Powerhouse," Cherry declared. "They'd have to be flat and our team high for Texas to win that one."

He summarized his injury list and accented it with the fact they added up to another victory for Oklahoma.

Hubbers Buy Stenberg

LUBBOCK — (AP) — The Lubbock Hubbers have purchased pitchers Walt Stenberg and Bob Clodfelter from Austin in the Class B "Big State League."

Harry Faulkner, general manager of the Class C West Texas-New Mexico League, made the announcement yesterday.

Jack Halliday, senior guard of the SMU Mustangs, is the only Pony griddler whose brother also lettered at SMU in football. Sid Halliday was captain of the conference champions of 1947.

YANKS-DODGERS CELEBRATE PENNANT WINS—Yankee Shortstop Phil Rizzuto, right, joyously hugged Pitcher Vic Raschi whose five-hit pitching, combined with Rizzuto's defensive play, and hitting, gave the New York American League team the 1949 pennant. At right, Jack Banta, left, and Don Newcombe, right, both pitchers, gave Brooklyn Dodger Manager Burt Shotton a ride in the clubhouse after picking off the National League pennant and the right to meet the Yanks in the World Series. Hot Sun Takes Pep and Fire Out of Harvester Workouts

Extremely hot weather the past two afternoons has slowed Pampa Harvester football practice sessions as the Green and Gold prepares to tackle the number two team in the state, the Wichita Falls Coyotes, Friday night at Wichita Falls.

That is the first game on a schedule that sees them play the second and third rated clubs within the next four weeks. They play Lubbock there the next weekend and three weeks later tackle the Sandstorm of Amarillo. In the meantime they must play the Lamesa Lobos, who are no pushover this year.

The hot weather, while leaving the boys without much pep, will get them into shape if they haven't already done so.

Friday night's clash will be a meeting of two undefeated teams, and the Harvesters second consecutive encounter with District 2-AA opposition. The Coyotes' latest conquest was a 33-7 conquest of Abilene, a team that was nudged out by the sluggers from Amarillo, 21-7.

The Coyotes are dependent upon speed and experience, two things the Harvesters don't appear to possess this season. The Harvester backfield will outweigh the Coyotes by a few pounds and the lines will average about the same. But the boys from District 2 will have the big edge in experience.

Leading the attack for the Coyotes are four backs, Bookout, Fields, Waggoner and Grissom. Bookout weighs in about 145; Grissom at about 160; Fields and Waggoner both about 165. None are extremely heavy, but all are fast and tricky.

The Coyotes haven't had to resort to a passing attack thus far this season, so little is known about whether they have a potent one or not. On the other hand the Harvesters haven't been bothered with a running attack. They completely bottled up Dean Smith, the scabback from Graham who is probably the fastest schoolboy in the state.

But they haven't as yet run up against a good line, either. If the Pampa team can show as much fight and spirit the first period against Wichita Falls as they had the last against Vernon, they could very well eke out an upset victory.

Pampa has two on the casualty list, Jimmy Parker, who twisted a knee a Vernon Friday night will be out of uniform indefinitely. Charley Smith, who injured an ankle in practice last week, is still hobbling around and will not be ready for work this week. Elmer Wilson has nearly worked

World Is Crying for Hyperopians, So Hoople Sees Big Nine Fall Hard

Hak-kaff! I am referring to my fan mail, of course, which reveals man's penchant for criticizing a flaw.

One of my zillion readers writes: "You are the funniest man on earth. I am still laughing about you picking Connecticut to beat Yale!" Some people's ideas of humor are very strange.

But let us not be myopic. The world is crying for hyperopians. Thus we will proceed to this week's forecast, which you will find sensational.

The Big Nine is falling upon evil days this weekend, with Southern California walloping Ohio State, California defeating Wisconsin and Texas Christian trimming Indiana.

My three-star upset of the week, of course, is Texas to beat Oklahoma. The vaunted Sooners are supposed to be insuperable this year. Him! We shall see!

Now run along and read the rest of the forecast: Pampa 14, Wichita Falls 13 Michigan 20, Army 7 Columbia 20, Yale 12 Cornell 14, Harvard 6

The Guerrillas worked out hard yesterday afternoon after finding out that their scheduled game with the Childress Bobcats here Thursday night had been shoved back to Saturday night for the benefit of the Childress team who have to be in Phillips to meet the Blackhaws Friday night.

Seeing is believing . . . and tasting is testing. When you're in St. Louis, see the new $64,000,000 expansion of the huge Home of Budweiser. You'll see why there is much more Budweiser available now. You'll see how the lagering process that produces Budweiser really ages this fine brew much, much longer than the 15 to 30 days allotted to ordinary beer. You'll see the patented method that traps by-products of fermentation and absolutely prevents them from letting bitterness get into the finished product. WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hassel—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What major league team has never lost a World Series?

SPORTS SIDELIGHTS: Derral Davis, Pampa Harvester athlete attending Baylor, has dropped Freshman Football to concentrate on the basketball season. . . Derral, 6 foot, 3 1/2 inches tall, is outheighted by four other members of the Fresh team. . . Malcolm Douglas, cage captain of the Green and Gold, is also a college Freshman basketball candidate. He is attending Texas A&M. . . And he is also a prospect for the Cadets' golf team.

EDDIE ROBINSON, Washington Senator first baseman, chews tobacco on the field and is fond of cigars during moments of relaxation, but his handsome features adorn a popular cigarette manufacturer's ad. . . Dr. Eddie Anderson's Iowa Hawkeyes will be out to even their series with Notre Dame when the two clubs clash in South Bend Nov. 19. . . To date Notre Dame has won four games and Iowa three. . . Iowa won the first battle, at Iowa City, in 1921, 10 to 7, and the captain of the Notre Dame team that day was a pre-medical student named Eddie Anderson. . . The name Camilli may soon be back in major league box scores. . . Dolph, the former Brooklyn first baseman, has a 17-year-old son that is considered a red-hot prospect.

BOBBY BRAGAN, who managed the Fort Worth Cats this season, was given a day by fans this season and even the umpires joined in, the arbiters presenting Bobby with a fancy shirt and two neckties. . . If Southern California and Ohio State should go to the Rose Bowl to play an encore of their meeting in Los Angeles this weekend, you may look for the Pacific Coast Conference to ask the Big Ten to abandon its once-in-three-years policy, particularly if Ohio State plays in Pasadena after some other eleven tops the Western Conference. . . Jack Graham, big, valuable first baseman of the St. Louis Browns, is an aviation addict and recently took the "bat boy" of the Yankees for a ride. . . He had to land hurriedly though, when the batboy became air sick.

STANLEY HACK, former Chicago Cubs third baseman and now manager of the Des Moines farm club of the Cubs, recently found there were many hazards to plotting a minor league team. . . Near the tail-end of the season, Hack and the team breezed into a hotel on the road only to find that not enough rooms had been reserved for the club. . . The management solved the situation by setting up a cot for Hack to sleep on in the ladies' powder room. . . Hack resignedly accepted the accommodation, bolted the latch and hit the sack. . . He didn't get much slumber, though, being

Sea Lion Next To Try Channel

PARIS — (AP) — A sea lion, prodded by press agents, is going to try swimming the English Channel. But it isn't true that the sea lion will be challenged to a race by a crocodile from the Cairo Zoo. . . The National Broadcasting Co., New York, is sponsoring the sea lion's effort. For a time today it appeared that the crocodile, described as 80 years old, also would be in the swim — but Cairo officials said that was an obvious hoax. . . The crocodile challenge was believed to have been sent as a joke by Cairo newspaper men. The Cairo Zoo said no crocodile is being sent to France and that Trimsah, the name given for the "challenge" in Paris reports, is just a translation of the Arabic word for crocodile. . . The Cairo Sport Association, named as the author of the crocodile's challenge, is not known in the Egyptian city. . . The sea lion, which goes by the name of Pierre Seelon, is at the Vincennes Zoo after an air trip from California and originally was scheduled to dip into the Channel Sunday. A 20-mile swim for a sea lion ordinarily would be a lead pipe cinch, and the experts say this is good sea lion weather in the Channel.

SWC Football Fans Flocking in Faster

DALLAS — (AP) — Southern Methodist, in its 20th year in the Cotton Bowl for two games to shoot Southwest Conference football attendance 78,779 ahead of last year at the same period. . . A survey of the seven conference members shows that eleven home games have drawn 292,018 compared to 213,239 for nine games at a comparable time last year. . . The average for 1948 is 26,547. . . Southern Methodist, playing all of its games in the Big Cotton Bowl this year, is 86,000 ahead of last year. But at this period in 1948 only one home game had been played — that in the bandbox SMU Stadium that seats only 13,000. . . Rice, Baylor and Texas A&M show gains over last year. A&M has drawn 48,280 for two games this season compared to 21,000 for one last year. Baylor is 200 ahead of last year with 12,256. One game had been played in Waco at this time each year. . . Rice is 4,000 ahead with 24,000 for one game.

400-Foot Blasts Should End Williams' 'Choke Up' Talk

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — A glance at the amazing batting figures of Theodore Samuel Williams emphasizes the value of the Red Sox slugger, who not only serves as a base-cleaner, but could be baseball's best lead-off man. . . How often do you see a hitter showing the way in both hits and bases on balls? . . . With 184 walks going into the final week, it was difficult to see where Ted Williams had the opportunity to manufacture 391 hits, only several less than the remarkable Jackie Robinson of the Dodgers, who practically steals first base. You have to go all the way back to Babe Ruth and 1923 to find a hitter who led in both hits and free transportation. . . Aiming at his fifth batting championship in six years, Williams traveled at a 349 gait, but virtually was a .500 hitter, getting on base every other time at bat. Crediting him with a hit for every walk, the Kid's average would be .491. . . Despite his tremendous batting feats, there were those who said Williams choked up in the more important series. This was largely due to his falling down repeatedly at Yankee Stadium, and Harry Brecheen of the Cardinals making something of a monkey out of him in the 1946 World Series, where he failed to get an extra base hit and batted in many a run hitting no more than .200. . . The Cardinals kidded Williams right out of the danger zone, did all they could to keep the big fellow's mind off his work. They'd find that a little harder to do now, with the San Diego specialist three years older and under Joe McCarthy. . . "The truth about Williams and the 1946 Series is that he went into the set in a terrific slump," says Coach Larry Woodall. "It's not easy to imagine in connection with such a great hitter; but he wasn't swinging properly."

I Was So Busy Getting Ready for Winter—I Forgot About the Car!

Ferdie (in the fur coat) would have saved himself a small bank account if he'd REMEMBERED to bring his car in for winterizing. Don't tread in Ferdie's footsteps. Drive in for winterizing today.

All of the violence stems from efforts of a few hundred non-union coal operators to keep their mines running.

Just what the committee might propose was in doubt, but Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said that whatever it was the Senate would go to work on it immediately.

Suits Against Valley Financier Are Dismissed

EDINBURG — Judge S. N. McWhorter Monday dismissed two suits on notes and a garnishment suit against Sam L. Miller, Rio Grande Valley financier.

The dismissal in motion said all matters of controversy had been settled.

One suit had been filed by the Citizens National Bank at Brownwood asking a $28,000 judgment. In another, Lee M. Green of San Juan asked $35,000 judgment on a $37,500 note.

The garnishment writ had been asked by the Brownwood bank on funds deposited in the First State Bank and Trust Company of Mission by Mission Foods, Inc., of which Miller is president.

The suits were among a number filed against Miller when he was out of the country. Soon after he returned from an unannounced trip to Guatemala, Miller met with creditors and worked out arrangements to pay them.

Please Pass The Glutamate, New Seasoning

By EDWARD S. KITCH
AP Newsfeature
CHICAGO — When you hear mention of "mono sodium glutamate," don't be startled. It's a substance used to intensify the subtle flavor of foods.

American housewives are learning more and more about it. More of the product is being made available to consumers. Odorless and tasteless by itself, it is a seasoning agent somewhat like salt; not a condiment like pepper. Its popularity may well put the third shaker on the table.

It's easy to use. Its seasoning action lies in its unique faculty of increasing the natural flavor of foods. The taste of meats, poultry, seafood, vegetables, soups, sauces, salad dressing and gravies are individually strengthened. Its makers say MSG is ideal for reviving lost flavors in second servings of food.

How mono sodium glutamate does its seasoning job is unknown. Some researchers believe it helps the taste buds the same way that glasses aid eyesight. The complicated technology used in manufacturing this product originated in the Orient. Actual earliest use of glutamate — a vegetable protein — goes back a century or more. Natives of the Far East seasoned their foods by cooking with them a certain part of a seaweed, laminaria japonica, which grew in Asiatic waters.

What they were using in part now is known as one of the amino acids. Sodium salt of glutamic acid first was isolated and identified by the German chemist Ritthausen in 1866. But he, like many of his followers in the field of protein chemistry, overlooked the rare ability of his find to build up flavors of foods.

There are about 23 known amino acids, of which eight or nine are considered essential to human nutrition. At present glutamic acid is not in the "essential" group. It is classified as a "luxury." Studies on its value to humans are being conducted in the laboratory.

A Japanese scientist, Kikunae Ikeda, of Tokyo, Japan, found a way in 1908 to produce MSG commercially. The company manufacturing his produce used soybean meal as the raw material. In the United States, glutamic acid crystals are refined from wheat

PORK LOIN ROAST — Brown and juicy, a pork loin roast is always a family favorite. When buying a pork loin roast, have the backbone loosened from the ribs so that carving will be easier. To cook, season with salt and pepper and place fat side up on rack in an open roasting pan. If you have a meat thermometer, insert this through the outside fat into the center of the roast. Place in a 325 degree F. oven and roast 35 to 40 minutes per pound. The meat thermometer should register an internal temperature of 185 degrees F. Make gravy from drippings and season with a pinch of sage. Leftover pork roast is wonderful sliced cold for sandwiches or diced and mixed with barbecue sauce to serve on split toasted buns.

gluten, corn gluten, and the sugar beet by-product called Stearins waste.

Samples of the glutamate flavoring agent were first brought to America shortly before World War I. MSG was produced commercially in this country by 1924.

Formerly only available to food processors, restaurants, and hotel chefs, mono sodium glutamate now is on the shelves of food markets. It is packaged in small amounts averaging 25 cents an ounce.

Production in the U. S. is being stepped up by four major companies. The Huron Milling Company at Harbor Beach, Michigan, uses wheat gluten as raw material to waste product of sugar beets. International Minerals and Chemical Corporation has plants at Rossford, Ohio, and San Jose, California. Its Rossford factory processes wheat gluten. Its larger plant at San Jose makes it from the waste product of sugar beets.

The Staley Manufacturing Company, at Decatur, Illinois, opened a new plant this spring. It is set up to refine MSG from corn gluten.

According to J. R. T. Bishop, vice president of International Minerals and Chemical Corporation, mono sodium glutamate now is considered a natural food seasoning. The Food and Drug Administration of the Federal Security Agency termed it one of the amino acids making up all protein. It therefore classified MSG as food.

Now beyond the kitchens of professional cooks, MSG is marketed under various trade names: "Zest," "Accent," "Enhance," and "Vit-Zing" are a few which relate the product to its seasoning qualities.

No group of fan mail letters would be complete if I did not get some complaints. People, generally, do not write to a columnist unless they have some complaint — but today I want to complain about my fans. I like to have them write me, complaints or no complaints, but I also would like to have them send me a hand from their own group of players. I write bridge columns played all over the United States and Canada. If a certain bid or play happens to produce a good result for you, then my other readers would like to see that hand. It may help their game.

Mr. H. A. Jackson of New York sent me today's hand, which was played in his group, and it is a beautiful squeeze.

West opened the seven of hearts, declarer won with the ace in dummy. He immediately ruffed a heart, dropping East's king. He cashed the ace of diamonds and led a small diamond to the ten spot. The six of spades was led and East jumped in with the ace. He returned a club, hoping his partner could ruff, but his trumps were all gone. South won with the queen. He played all the diamonds and on the last diamond West, who was down to the queen-ten of spades and the queen-ten of hearts, was squeezed. West discarded the ten of spades, declarer discarded the ten of clubs from dummy.

The king of clubs was played and again West was squeezed. If he discarded the queen of hearts, dummy's jack would be good, while if he discarded the ten of spades declarer would lead the four of spades and win the last two tricks with the king and jack of spades.

West opened the seven of hearts, declarer won with the ace in dummy. He immediately ruffed a heart, dropping East's king. He cashed the ace of diamonds and led a small diamond to the ten spot. The six of spades was led and East jumped in with the ace. He returned a club, hoping his partner could ruff, but his trumps were all gone. South won with the queen. He played all the diamonds and on the last diamond West, who was down to the queen-ten of spades and the queen-ten of hearts, was squeezed. West discarded the ten of spades, declarer discarded the ten of clubs from dummy.

Girdle Doubles As Petticoat

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer
More freedom from wash-basin laundry chores is a gift a school girl can bestow upon herself.

Fewer precious hours have to be taken out from study or play if undergarments and even outer-garments which a girl needs to launder can be washed out quickly, need no ironing. That's why nylon-pullovers and blouses are popular in school girls' wardrobes.

To the list of laundry-savers may be added girdles which double as petticoats; reduce by one the number of garments which must be washed out nightly, in the dormitory basin.

Attached to these girdles with two-way stretch and a set of garters are petticoats of lace-trimmed nylon. Despite the flouncy appeal of the ruffle which can take the place of a slip and eliminates another garment which has to be washed, the "petticoat" launders as easily as a hankerchief and doesn't have to be ironed.

Child's Eyes Require Care

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
AP Newsfeature
Your child's eyes are one of his most vital possessions, says Dr. John B. O'Shea, president of the American Optometric Association, although 29 states have no laws requiring any school vision tests. Most of the tests given in the states are too old-fashioned to have any real value.

Says he: "Most of a child's seeing for school is done within arm's length. Yet most of the visual screening tests consist of reading letters on a chart at a distance of twenty feet. This may reveal little or nothing of the child's ability to read or perform other near-point tasks. Furthermore, vision is made up of several skills which cannot be tested by reading letters on a chart."

Dr. O'Shea asks: "What is the child's speed of perception? Can he grasp a whole word or several words at a glance, or does he have to pore for several seconds over a syllable to identify it? Do his eyes work well together, like a good team of horses? Does he have proper depth perception so that he can judge space and distance relationships? Can he change his focus quickly and easily from near to far and from far to near? These are among the most important points revealed by a screening test that really evaluates a child's seeing ability."

Such a test would take but a few minutes, says Dr. O'Shea, and such a routine would point out nearly all the pupils who are in need of professional care of their vision.

"Unless school children receive better visual care than they are now getting, six out of ten who enter school this fall will develop visual handicaps before they finish the eighth grade," he says.

Now is the time, says Dr. O'Shea, when junior is back at school, for parents and teachers to improve the visual welfare of American youth.

Laboratories Approved for Blood Tests Required by New Law Listed

AUSTIN — (AP) — The State Health Department has released a list of 103 Texas laboratories approved for the performance of premarital and prenatal serological examinations that will be required under new laws which become effective today.

One new law requires that both the intended bride and bridegroom must have taken a blood test before a marriage license can be issued. Another new law requires a prenatal blood test of women.

State Health Officer George W. Cox said that persons residing in towns where there are no approved laboratories may send blood for analysis to a nearby laboratory or to the State Health Department at Austin.

Dr. Cox said he did not believe that requirement would be considered "hardship" on anyone. He described it as possibly "inconvenient but not a hardship."

The law requiring premarital tests requires that the marriage must be performed within 15 days following the medical examinations for the exams to be recognized.

The list of approved laboratories includes:

Abilene: Abilene-Taylor County Health Unit Laboratory; Medical Building Laboratory; Terrell Laboratories.

USO Drive Is Underway At Shamrock

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Wheeler County has been asked to raise $840 this month for the reactivation of the war-time United Service Organizations.

E. K. Caperton, who conducted similar fund-raising campaigns during the war, has been named chairman of the 1949 USO drive. Co-chairmen for Wheeler and Mobeetie will be named later.

The USO has been reactivated at the request of the President and the secretary of defense, Caperton said, who pointed out that Wheeler County's quota is only about 20 percent of the funds required during the war.

"Of the 700,000 men who entered the service in 1948," he continued, "more than 70 percent were under 21 years old. In the armed services as a whole, more than 50 percent of the men are under 25. These youths need homes wherever they are, and the USO helps fill that need."

Rice and Vegetable Growers Suffer Loss From Hurricane

HOUSTON — (AP) — A howling small tornado — ruined three houses at Riceville, La. Two persons were slightly injured.

Drenching rains hit all over the hurricane area. They flooded fields and streets. Some telephone service was disrupted. Some power lines fell.

The Orange Leader estimated the rice damage in Orange County at $250,000. The newspaper said it could easily mount a half million if more rains follow on the heels of the hurricane.

The Leader estimated about half of the 7,000 acres in Orange County was flat on the ground. Growers said they can recover up to 50 percent of the "fallen" grain provided fair weather prevails.

The rainfall in Orange County was 37 inches.

Harris County farmers placed their losses close to $2,000,000. County Agent Dan Clinton said the county's 80,000-acre rice crop suffered $800,000 to $1,000,000. Three thousand acres of vegetables also were damaged.

Rice in Brazoria County also took a beating. Addison Farrer, one of the county's largest growers, said "we'll be lucky if we can harvest half the crop."

Brazoria County's crop was estimated at better than $7,000,000. The county had expected to harvest one of its best yields.

Cotton also suffered. Seventy-five percent of the unpicked cotton in Harris County was believed damaged. About 60 percent of the crop had been harvested.

The cotton damage extended as far north as Dallas where harvesting of the crop was stopped by an overnight downpour of 2.3 inches. In some parts of Dallas County, only half of the crop had been picked.

County Agent Joe M. Glover of Victoria County said corn and cotton in that section were only slightly damaged.

Travis County reported slight damage to cotton from rain.

The peanut crop suffered in Anderson County. County Agent W. T. Larue of Palestine said the loss will run into "thousands of dollars."

Some fear also was felt for the county's cotton crop if the rain continued. A fourth of the crop was unpicked. More than three inches of rain fell overnight.

Peanuts and cotton also suffered in adjoining Henderson County.

For safety's sake, never disengage the clutch or throw the car out of gear when descending a hill.

It pushed feebly through Marshall, Texas, Shreveport, La., and into Southwest Arkansas last night, carrying heavy rains.

The hurricane's punch at this big metropolis was surprisingly light, and even the smaller cities and towns in its path rode the vegetable wave. Rice, cotton and wheat crops were hardest hit.

Thousands found refuge in public shelters as the storm struck first Monday night between Matagorda and Freeport. About 1:30 a.m. (CST) yesterday it hit here and moved inland.

Winds of 80, 90 and up to 100 miles an hour were recorded as the hurricane came in from the Gulf of Mexico.

There was just one known casualty. One person was missing.

Mrs. Alpha Hebert, elderly Port Neches woman, slipped in the mud yesterday and grabbed an electric wire blown down by the storm. She was electrocuted.

Jimmy Simpson, 21, of Palacios was missing after volunteering to swim to shore from a stalled cabin cruiser in Matagorda Bay.

Damage to Jefferson (Beaumont) County's $5,000,000 rice crop ranged from 20 to 70 percent. Only 15 percent of the big crop had been harvested.

A. H. Boyd, president of the American Rice Growers Association, said damage was "heavy." Vegetable crops as well as rice and cotton were hard hit in Harris County (Houston). The total loss was set at about $2,000,000.

Port Aransas' South Pier, known to thousands, was badly damaged by pounding seas and the island dining city's streets were flooded.

Heavy rains and gusty winds preceded the dying hurricane in the Palestine-Lufkin area.

Residents in the storm's path had ample warning. Those that flocked to public shelters — including 8,000 at Houston — were calm and even cheerful.

Some hurricane wise Texans scoffed at the blow, claimed it was a slasy storm.

Grady Norton, storm forecaster in the New Orleans Weather Bureau, said the hurricane was unusual. He said that although Galveston was only 25 miles from the hurricane's center and on the "strong side," winds there reached only 67 miles an hour, the storm lost what wallop it packed. But an off-shoot of the hurricane — a

Ceramics to Be Taught Scouters

Girl Scout leaders and committee women will have the opportunity to receive free ceramic instruction at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Scout House.

Mrs. B. J. Swier, leader of Troop 19, will give charge of the beginning classes. Mrs. Edwin Pursley will demonstrate the art of glazing and Mrs. R. H. Nensiel will assist with the instruction.

Meanwhile, Troop 7 started something new Saturday in its activities. Mrs. Noel Dalton, leader, and Scouts went on a gypsy trip on bicycles. After riding about five miles west of town they stopped for breakfast. In their gypsy fashion, they cooked just what they wanted for their morning meals.

Scouts making the trip were Adelaide Skelly, Sunny Rae Pierce, Gay Marlow, Sammie Cason, Dot Dalton, and Jiggs Qualls.

Lives of These Men All Remind Him—

That Most of America's Success Stories Begin with a Boy on a Newspaper Route!

YOUR carrier-boy is more than just a lad with a bag of newspapers slung over his shoulder—he's probably another success story in the making. An enterprising young fellow following the example of leaders in every walk of life, who know from their own boyhood experiences that a newspaper route offers sound basic training for success.

Among Presidents, governors, judges, educators, bankers, lawyers, doctors, business-men, stars of stage, screen, sports and radio, are many eminent Americans who once served newspaper routes in their spare time—and are proud of it! What's more, they believe that a newspaper route is still an ideal starting point for the teen-ager who really wants to get ahead.

It teaches him modern methods of delivery, selling and collecting! Rewards him well for a few hours of easy work each week! Provides the money for clothes, books, sports, savings and good times! Trains him to meet people, make friends and develop manual habits! And offers him many special incentives to succeed with his route and go on to college!

Why not see about a route for YOUR son? Or urge him to apply for the next opening in your district. Contact our Circulation Department for details.

back and forth restlessly. "Do you think we can stand living in this hencoop for a whole winter?" he said bitterly.

"When we once get used to the smallness it won't be so bad," she answered calmly.

"You're an incurable optimist, Jenny," he said, without smiling. He paused by the sink and stared out of the dimmutive windows at the trailer next door.

"All I can say," he added with grim emphasis, "is thank heavens we don't have a squalling infant caged up in here with us."

Russia Reported Building Rocket Sites Near Alaska

Launching bases for trans-ocean rockets completed in Kolyma area and on Kamchatka.

Million prisoners work on highway to run from Madagan to Bering Straights (near Lilein).

By LEON DENNEN

NEW YORK—(NEA)— Launching fields for trans-ocean rockets capable of crippling the defense of Alaska and paralyzing U. S. communications with Japan have recently been completed by the Soviet MVD on the Kamchatka Peninsula and the adjacent territory of Kolyma, according to reliable information.

This confirms and extends what I first learned of Soviet activity on Kamchatka two years ago from a satellite diplomat, following a reception given in the Russian embassy in Paris. To assure a group of satellite diplomats of Russia's night, the Soviet ambassador to France, Bogomolov, was reported to have remarked:

"I know for a fact that we are now engaged in the mass production of rockets formerly produced by the German Wehrmacht at the Peenemuende armaments center. This plant, which was taken over by Soviet experts, has been reassembled on a gigantic scale in Siberia."

Bogomolov, according to my informant, who is still in the employ of the satellite country, added with a smile:

"In case of need, we could subject both Alaska and the Canadian Pacific coast to mass bombardment."

Meanwhile feverish construction on Kamchatka continues unabated. In addition to the construction of rocket launching fields, more than a million prisoners are being employed by the MVD secret police to build a vast system of highways which begin at the port city of Madagan and eventually reach the Bering Straits.

All of Kamchatka is also dotted with air fields and repair plants. The population of the area is living constantly increased. Women prisoners of the northeastern harbor camps who give birth to children are forced to remain on the peninsula even upon the completion of their prison term. They are the new Soviet colonizers of Kamchatka.

(These projects could explain the sensitivity to visiting American aircraft which has caused Russian fighter planes to "buzz" or escort American air liners traveling between Japan and Alaska. A Northwest Airlines plane is the latest to report such an incident as it flew over a large air base somewhere in the Kamchatka area.)

The same is true of the adjacent Kolyma, where thousands of prisoners of the MVD, disguised as gold prospectors, work on military installations.

The abundance of fish in the Kamchatka and Kolyma lakes makes it possible for the MVD to feed the prisoners locally without drawing upon the remote central depots from which the regions are cut off six months in the year.

Both the sea horse and the chameleon can move one eye without moving the other, and they can move both eyes in opposite directions.

Cathedral to Have African Art

BRAZZAVILLE, French Equatorial Africa—(AP)— One of the boldest experiments in amalgamating African art into Christian churches and liturgy is at present being carried out in Brazzaville.

Fr. R. Leconte said the new Brazzaville cathedral now under construction would contain new features directly drawn from African art.

The tom-tom which for thousand of years has served the Bantus as a means of communication and a dance instrument will enter the cathedral as a sacred instrument and rhythm in the chants and prayers. Railings of the tribune and choir will be made in wrought iron by an old blacksmith of the M'Bele tribe.

The interior decoration will also be carried out in special form unknown in modern times and

Drama Gets Complicated

BANGKOK—(AP)— It's advisable to memorize the plot before exposing yourself to the new drama "Amorn Phimarn" which opened at the Charlerm Theatre the other evening.

Beautiful Usa, the heroine, is sunbathing as the play opens. Langkhay, a robber, sees her beauty and falls in love. She accepts his love. Usa and her father are arrested on suspicion of being accomplices of Langkhay, but King Subbhayan releases them because he falls in love with Usa himself. He even marries Usa.

Langkhay can't be captured and a contest is held to determine who is the best man to go out and get him. Mathis, a handsome officer, wins. Usa now falls in love with Mathis.

Mathis, however, loves Tulya. Tulya is the only daughter of King Subbhayan. She in turn, is engaged to Hemabark, a prince living in another city. Langkhay steals Usa from the King and hides her in a secret den. Hiding in the same den are Mathis and the lovely Tulya.

Langkhay cuts off Mathis' head and carries it to the King. Meanwhile, Tulya married Hemabark, the man she was supposed to anyway. Langkhay is arrested and beheaded. Usa now becomes insane and as the sun sets on the tragic drama, Usa is nervously fondling Mathis' head.

Soap Still Luxury in Europe

VIENNA—(AP)— Soap is still a rich man's luxury in many European countries. Even in those countries where it is not rationed, the price is generally higher than low income groups can pay. Hospitals and other public institutions still depend on charity shipments from abroad for the bulk of their needs.

CARE officials throughout Europe report the use of inferior quality soaps in institutions is a serious menace to child health.

An Associated Press survey showed France, Italy and the Scandinavian countries as the brightest spots on the European soap map. Britain, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia are at the other end of the scale. Between those two extremes are countries like Poland, Austria and Germany where you can buy all the soap you need if you have the money.

In Czechoslovakia the soap ration is one bar of toilet soap every three months. There is also a small ration of laundry soap and soap powder. The government has promised to put soap on free sale but the price will range from 50 to 60 cents a bar. The average British ration is seven small bars of toilet soap every two months. In Yugoslavia it is half a pound per month per person, and the supply is irregular. In Poland a bar of toilet soap costs 25 cents.

Austrian soap is of poor quality. A bar of American soap on the black market costs 50 cents. An inferior type of soap is still rationed in Germany. To supplement their one small rationed bar, Germans pay 30 cents a bar for American soaps which are on sale almost everywhere.

CARE officials in Vienna say the real need in Europe is for better distribution of good soap to low income families with children and to public institutions.

Seven-Foot 'Gator Is Family Pet

BUDAPEST, Hungary—(AP)— Dogs and other common domestic animals in Hungary take a tax, but not the alligator owned by Laslo Lipthay of Pecs.

The alligator was just a few inches long when he arrived from South America a little over 19 years ago. Now he measures around seven feet. He eats three whittings a week, but slept nine months last winter. All the alligator likes a comfortable armchair in the Lipthay home, and his master says: "Deep and sincere friendship binds us together."

ONE MORNING ON TAYLOR 3991—

A ring-by-ring description of one morning in the busy life of Mrs. R. F. Sivley, 2115 Rutland St., Houston, Texas, (Taylor 3991).

7:00 Saced my husband's pocket knife with an early call to Cleo. She found it in his navy pants before she started our family washing.

8:15 Dorothy, my sister-in-law, phoned to offer me a lift to the bridge luncheon today. She'll be by at 11:30. That will be a big help!

8:20 Called Mrs. Charlot to see whether she can stay with Beaver (our son, age 3½) while I go to the luncheon. My lucky day! She can.

9:45 Mother phoned from Austin, wanted to hear Beaver's voice, said she was lonesome for her grandson. He was cute, carried on quite a conversation.

10:30 Called a real estate agent about a house I saw advertised in the newspaper. Only five rooms and too high priced. So-o we're still looking!

10:45 My good friend, Jen, called to exchange the latest news. We made a date to spend the day together a week from tomorrow.

11:30 Dorothy had to hunt for her car keys, called to tell me she would be a few minutes late. That gives me a few more minutes to get ready.

"Thanks so much for the lift"

...and thanks for a wonderful bargain!"

This is just one morning's record in the diary Mrs. Sivley kept for five days of all the telephone calls she and her husband made and received. Score for the five days was 25 separate conversations, two of them long distance calls from Austin, the rest local calls. Cost per local call—about two cents.

Like most people, Mrs. Sivley had never realized how much she depended on her telephone to run her household—or how many good times started with a telephone call. When she figured the actual cost, she added a footnote to her diary—"Thanks for a wonderful bargain."

Every year brings further progress in telephone service. New telephones added so you can call more people, more people can call you. Improvements made so you can hear better, get your calls through quicker, enjoy more trouble-free service. The result—a real bargain today that keeps growing in value every year!
