NEW THREE-JET BOMBER IS UNVEILED—One of the most closely-guarded aircraft projects underway for the U.S. Air Force has been the new jet bomber above, so far identified only as the Martin XB-51. The XB-51 is the Air Force's first three-jet airplane, and the first postwar plane specifically designed to give high-speed support to ground troops in combat. Type-boxes above point out unusual characteristics of the bomber, outstanding of which is the third turbo-jet engine mounted in the rear of the fuselage. Ultimate speed of the XB-51 is still a secret. The plane is undergoing final checks and ground tests at Baltimore, Md., and will make its first flight soon.

One reason why so many people oppose larger profits is that they rroneously believe that there is ome way of hoarding wealth so hat the owner gets some benefit from it. No one has ever thought of any way of hoarding wealth in a manner that would benefit the owner. Profits have to be used to satisfy the wants of the recipient of profits or they have to be invested in the hope of making more profits in order to benefit the man who makes profits. The press and building in which this article is printed are of no value to their owners unless they have the paper than their ioney. In other words, unless peobelieve they are benefiting by uying this paper and unless the newspaper publisher publishes a good enough paper so that people will voluntarily buy it, the press and equipment are of no value their owners. Wealth has to be shared and distributed in order to benefit the owners of wealth. So everyone profits from profits whether they know it or not. is that he has discussed this question with prominent Catholic churchmen in Cincinnati and York, including Cardinal Spellman.

SURPRISE - Whenever religious themes become entwined in politics, there are always curious and unexpected results, and this instance is no exception. While Senator Taft favors federal aid to education, with no distinction against parochial schools, Senator Dulles has announced himself against all federal aid to schools. Former Governor Lehman, the surprise of some, came out the Barden Bill. While

Pardon Your Hair-Do

By GORDON MARTIN When you climb into a barber's chair in need of being clipped, you must tell your waiting servant how much rair is to be anipped. So you think the matter over and decide you want it short, even though you know it's gonna make the little lady snort. Then you settle back in comfort while the barber does his job, and it isn't long until you've got a ventilated knob.

But you're mighty proud of how you look and fancy you've regained all those youthful years you treasured 'fore your hair with gray was stained. And you homeward go with jaunty step but when you doff your hat, your objecting wife throws up her hands and says: "Just look at that!" Then your life's not worth a nickel and your haircut she deplores, and she says you're much too old to cut your locks like sopho

Now it's then a man must ponder why it is that ladies fair think it's any of their business how a man should wear his hair. For you never beef about the dizzy hair-do on a dame, and you see no reason why she puts a crew-cut gent to shame. You may go to see your barand about your long hair moan, but don't cut it too short, brother, for your hair just ain't your own.

ed) from non-industrial countries manufacturing the raw materials That seems to be a business-like and practical job the American-British-Canadian conference at Washington has done by way of giving emergency aid in John Bull's economic remedy. It gives a real lift to the morale of a very hard-pressed England and to the numerous other countries whose welfares are interlocked with hers.

The agreements were worked out with due regard to the dig-out with due regard to the dig-nity of Britain, and to the bonds of friendship. The conferees tack-led the problem in the same spirit of unity and cooperation shown during the dark days of the world war.

The task of the conferees in this initial meeting related to Britain's shortage of dollars. She is earining far less dollars than she has to spend for essential imports. This shortage had to be nade up, and the conference devised a ten point program to meet equirements. The agreements inlude these:

The United States and Canada are expected to buy more tin and rubber from Britain for stock piling. Britain will be permitted to spend Marshall Plan dollars in countries other than the United States, such as the purchase of wheat in Canada although America has an exportable surplus. Britain will be free to discriminate against U. S. and Canadian goods to build up her non-dollar imports, and so conserve dollars. On the face of it, of course, England will be benefiting in some cases at the expense of America. The answer to this is that Uncle Sam's contribution is an investment for insurance against a greater calamity. Sir Stafford Cripps, British chancellor of the exchequer, says ne is convinced the agreement will block any further dangerous drains on Britain's gold reserve. This optimism appeared to be reflected in the fact that Secretary of State Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Bevin immediset to work to devise new moves by the Western powers in the cold war with the Russian

However, I don't believe we ould take this as indicating that Britain's economic problem has been solved. It is first aid. Her trouble is far more deep-seated. England's economic strength has rested in large degree in her in-dustrial greatness and world trade. She achieved this by the imple expedient of importing raw

Increase Noted in Amount Money Paid On Disease Deaths

NEW YORK-About 138 million dollars was paid out last year in death claims for the chronic diseases of the heart, arteries, and kidneys, by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the company's statisticians report. This is approximately 52 percent of the 65 million dollar total of all death claim disbursements by the company in 1948.

Ten years ago these causes of death were responsible for only percent of the total amount

Next high in amount paid by the company last year were on cancer death claims, which came to $43,400,000 or about 16 percent of the total, as compared with somewhat more than 13 percent in 1938.

Counterbalancing a sharp ris in the proportion of death claims paid on account of the diseases common to middle and later life was a marked decrease in the proportion for deaths from the cute diseases. More and more people, the statisticians note, are arviving to the higher ages at which the chronic diseases are most prevalent. 'In spite of the fact that our total of death claim payments has increased by nearly 60 percent in the past 10 years, due to more insurance in force and more persons insured, the amount paid on account of the acute and infectious diseases has declined steadily," the statisticians point out. "Claim payments for tuberculosis were 17 percent lower than in 1938, and payments for typhoid fever, communicable diseases of childhood and appendicitis fell off by Despite the high incidence of polio in 1948, claim payments on account of the disease accounted for only about one-tenth of one percent of the total amount disbursed. Somewhat more than one dollar out of every ten paid last year was on deaths from external causes — accidents, suicides, and homicides. Motor vehicle fatalities were responsible for more than two-fifths of the sum paid out

At 74, Kirby and His Beard Funds Voted for Still Step Off the Miles

By DANIEL R. ANTHONY IV LEAVENWORTH, Kans. — Kirby McRill, who calls himself 'World's Champion Walker," came back home after seven months in a Kansas City hospital. But he took a bus. Kirby says he isn't quite Kirby says he isn't quite up to snuff yet, which is why he didn't walk it. Not because he's 74, but because, he claims, someone laid him low with a dose of strychnine.

The fellow said he was goin somewhere, and didn't have time eat his lunch. Well, I'm a big eater. Poison musta been in hunk of cheese. A few days later, I just keeled over, right there on a main street in Kan-sas City."

He's out now "walkin', gettin' the blood back to goin', gettin in practice. He's practicing up for a long walk this fall. He plans to hike up to Chicago to take in the railroad fair.

Kirby McRill first attracted attention by walking into Leavenworth from his farm every time he had business in the city. It was a trip of about 30 miles. Later, he walked all over the country, because he liked to and because he thought it was good exercise.

About 27 years ago, he went to Kansas City, dyed his long hair and beard a flaming red, and carried sandwich signs on the streets. He'd wear bright red socks to match his beard, and baseball pants and jacket.

HERE'S A ROAD WITH EXTRA BOUNCE-Cars should really bounce along this strip of roadway in Columbus, O. It's one of two streets where the Ohio Highway Department is laying a 300-foot experimental patch of rubberized pavement. The sample strips, 12 feet wide, will each include more than 400 pounds of rubber. The rubber roads will be studied as to durability and non-skid qualities. The project is expensive, and it will take years of testing to determine whether rubber roads are practicable.

Singer One Of Few Who Go Back

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK - (P) - Everyone daydreams of going back to his old school as a famous success.

But Eleanor Steber is going back to a happy homecoming this week to the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

She went there first in the 1930's as a promising vocal student from Wheeling, W. Va. Her parents had been able to scrape together only $600 to finance her education.

A scholarship enabled her to remain after the $600 was gone, and Eleanor worked as a waitress to pay her other expenses. Today at 33 the lyric soprano is a prima donna at the Metropolitan Opera and a concert and radio star. She has a six-figure annual income.

The reason Eleanor is going back o the conservatory is to award two scholarships she founded. "I want to help some young artists coming along," she said, "just as I was helped." Miss Steber is an outstanding example of the younger generation home-trained American singers.

She believes it is no longer necessary for would-be opera stars to study abroad. "We have everything here the younger singer needs, including fine teachers," she said, adding:

"Of course, we could use a few nore opera houses.

"But the American public has Nets Convictions begun to see that its own artists GALVESTON - (P) - A sur- are as able and well-trained as prise one-man crusade against those of any other country. The

North Yields Uranium Harvest

OTTOWA → (AP) — Canada's frozen North is yielding a rich harvest of uranium, mostly destined for the United States. The crown-owned Eldorado Mining Company disclosed in its annual report that it got more than one million dollars worth of atomic-energy raw material out of the Northwest Territories last

This was stirring the company to new drilling activity in North-ern Saskatchewan and it expected new starts will be completed by mid-1950. Most of the uranium, the re-ort said, was shipped to the Inited States market.

Texas Commander Sent to Illinois

WASHINGTON - (AP) - Brig. Gen. Byron E. Gates, deputy commanding general of the flying dithe Air Training Command at Randolph Field, Texas, is being transferred.

The Air Force announced he is going to Rantoul, Ill., as commanding general of the 3,345th Technical Training Command and of Chanute Air Force Base.
