It is more than just the front end of the new Buick Special. It's a fresh new front end treatment - a "Buick first" - and it makes so much sense that it's safe to say it will start a new trend in styling.

Look it over and you'll see what we mean.

Sturdy vertical bars, attached to the bumper, form the grille - and at the same time serve as bumper-guards, which makes it impossible for you to "lock horns" with the car ahead of you. The bumper no longer projects beyond the grille - so inches are saved in the over-all length of the car.

Parking lights are deeply recessed. The grille is made up of bars heavy enough to absorb all normal impact -and they're individually replaceable to cut repair costs in the unlikely event of damage.

Bumper, grille, bumper-guards and parking lights all become part of a single, unified

But - stunning as this brilliant bit of designing is - it's just a hint of all the new things you'll see when the new SPECIAL goes on display.

Even the price is good news. So watch for the full announcement - coming very soon - and you'll agree that more than ever, Buick's the one for you.

A low gabled roof surmounting the 57-foot sweep of the front elevation makes the house appear to hug the ground closely. Architects Cull & Robinson added character by facing the exterior at the left of the entrance with whitepainted brick, the remainder with rough gray stone. Gable ends of polished redwood in nat-ural color lend more distinction. Front and rear entrances have flagstone terraces.

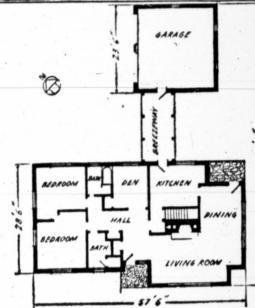

The house is connected to the garage at the rear with a breezeway, glass-enclosed for year-around use. A full basement contains heating plant and laundry facilities. Insulated with full-thick mineral wool in walls and ceiling, a saving of at least one-third in the annual fuel bill is possible in a house of this design, while rooms would be as much as 15 degrees cooler on hottest summer days.

A well-planned center hall affords easy access to all rooms. Two bathrooms are adjacent to the two bedrooms. The den, large enough to be used as a third bedroom, also is located in this half of the house.

The L-shaped living-dining-room is arranged with dining area convenient to the kitchen. The huge picture window at that end and another in front living-room wall afford a sense of greater spaceousness by bringing the outdoors inside.

Summer Is 'Bugaboo' For Dust

orward to warm summer months, don't you? But summer has al-ways meant one "bugaboo" for me—dust. It's a nuisance to have clouds of dust from the driveway spoiling the outside appearance of your house and causing extra cleaning inside. So I was especially happy when our hardware man told us how to get rid of

He told us to use calcium chloride on our driveway and in our basement to hold the moisture and bind the dust. It's a white flaky material that absorbs water and completely dissolves itself in the moisture it takes from the air. When these flakes are spread over a dusty surface, they absorb water from the air and provide clean, odorless and lasting moisture to bind dust particles together. It's a simple method of "dust-proofthat has long been used for tennis courts, play-grounds, roads and streets to get rid of the dust

You can apply this dust-proofing yourself-either with a special spreader or a shovel. If you use a shovel you'll want to rake over the surface after application, but either method is simple. Apply calcium chloride after rain - or hose the surface first This makes it stick better. One application will probably do for the entire summer, or you may use small amounts once or twice

I was simply amazed at the difference this simple dust-proof-ing made in the looks of our yard, and in the cleaning it cut down inside. I know that it will actually take hours away from my housekeeping, and that's certainly a help in warm weather,
